Golf Course Can Be Fashion Show For Area Women

JEROME, May 12—Golfing is no longer just a man's game. It is also a fashion parade, and ladies' golf is as colorful as a summer garden. In the past, when golfing was predominantly a man's game, hats were confined to sun visors with adjustable brims, intended to merely keep the sun off the face.

Golf hats now come in all shapes and sizes. A particularly good one for the early spring or late fall woman golfer is Magic Valley resembles that of a Russian Cossack.

It is knit and entirely covered with tiny yarn loops. The proper way to wear this is over the ears, and though the wind blows hard, the lady golfer is as snug as can be. An extra bonus in this hat is an annoying chin strap. It comes in as many colors as there are in wool yarn.

For our variable weather, there is also a striped hat that can be used for a sun shade. If the wind comes up, bring out the scarf tucked under the hat and it converts to a scarf tied under the chin, with the visor-type hat on top.

For the mid-to-late season, there are hats with brims that fit like a Sunday bonnet and flutter in the breeze. Other hats feature caps of wool and though these don't cover the ears the hair can be easily tucked under away from the wind.

Novelty hats are also popular, especially with the younger set. These, made of bamboo, often feature a miniature golf course with club, balls and even tea.

For the glamorous summer golfer, hats can wear one of the popular new sheer net scarves that lie lightly over the chin. Though no protection for a sudden shower or the hot summer sun, it does keep the hair well-groomed and the collar can keep later appointments with an immaculate collar.

Being Wife of Cowboy Is Adventure in Travel

BY CAROL OKRIN
Times-News Women's Editor

Being the wife of a Magic Valley cowboy (baseball-type) can be a real adventure for the woman who loves to travel and meet people. Just ask anyone, or several of the husbands are on road trips. Mrs. Ted Dillard, Mrs. Fred Laningham and Mrs. Dee Weber are just a few of the young, pretty and enthusiastic about their husband's work in the cowboy ball club.

"I've been across the country since February," said Mrs. Laningham, whose husband is a rookie catcher for the Cowboys.

"I have friends in practically every state and often hear from them."

Mrs. Laningham, 22, is a registered nurse. She and Fred travel together in Ebersburg, Pa.

Mrs. and Mr. Ted Dillard are in the Okla. and Idaho. They are an instructor at a beauty school in Tulsa, Okla., prior to his going to the Cowboys pitcher.

A homecoming game at Capital City High school was the center of the meeting of Mrs. Dee Weber (Kaye) and the rookie Cowboys outspann a hurler last Nov. 21, attended by 1,000 fans at Yag university for a year and was a secretary before she married.

Baseball is a great sport, said Mrs. Laningham. "Especially for me because it helps them to get along with others as a team and develops self-confidence."

Each feels that travel is the best and worst thing about being the wife of a cowboy. "It's the best and worst thing about being the wife of a cowboy," said Mrs. Laningham. "It's the best and worst thing about being the wife of a cowboy."

"I'm used to living in large cities," quoted Mrs. Weber, "and it's a little hard to readjust to a smaller one. Baseball is THE sport here, it seems. A city with a big ball club, such as San Francisco with its Giants, comes to take the club for granted. Fans in a smaller town are likely to be more enthusiastic."

"In one California city (Hawesville), I think their attendance record was one-half that of Twin Falls, and that city is three times as large," said Mrs. Weber. "California has the preference of all three when asked which area of the country they liked best."

"The whole atmosphere of the state is different and exciting. The smaller towns are not over populated and you have quite modern stores and facilities. But I was warned in the state, so I guess I'm prejudiced," Mrs. Weber remarked.

Mrs. Laningham noted they had had some difficulty coming over the Rockies but otherwise have had no serious transportation problems.

"One would assume that a wife

Mrs. Earl Hurd and Mrs. Kay Fosberg were in charge of making of pictures. Mrs. Nellie Kidd and Mrs. Teresa Banner were in charge of hat-making.

Mrs. Kidd and Mrs. Banner attended the demonstrations given in Mesa, Ariz.

Mrs. Fred Preston will give next week's lesson "Edgar Allen Poe, artist of word and sentence." This will be the last literature lesson until fall.

ROSE MARIE REID RMR Juniors

The sayings include those concerning an umpire: "wound" decision; "shake yourself up" and "bounce around." Another favorite is "Brutal!" applied to anything and everything.

Mrs. Laningham expressed her thoughts about baseball as a sport for youngsters.

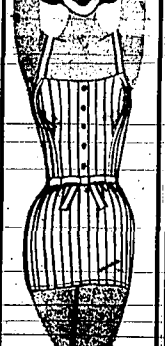

"It's a good game for kids and stays that way until the winning becomes more important than the game itself. Ideas and traits acquired while playing with a baseball team are carried over into daily life. It would be easy for a child to come to believe that winning is the most important thing."

And speaking of children, what boy at one time or another wouldn't give his eye teeth for a real, honest-to-goodness

FROM ALL ANGLES

BY LARRY HOVEY

What now might be a question of coach Jerry Klein-kopf, Twin Falls track coach, following the regional track and field meet at the State is only a week away and the Bruins, getting in their best relay effort in the history of the school, are in a bit of a fix. All four relay teams placed, using up a lot of man power. While it pleases him greatly to see his team doing well, it also leaves him without a move.

If one or two of the relay teams had failed to qualify in the new faces here and there might have bolstered their chances. Coach Klein-kopf, the fastest of the ruins, also came through big and qualified in all events but the discus. Since he can run in only three and so is unavailable for relay service. Coach Klein-kopf, the fastest of the ruins, also came through big and qualified in all events but the discus. Since he can run in only three and so is unavailable for relay service.

With the close races throughout the day, it became quite apparent that many teams simply were being eliminated out of spots in the state meet. The times were too good, distances too far to logically assume that some teams would be in the same finishing spots.

After Curtis Eaton, Twin Falls, nailed down second in the shot put a local track buff remarked that's three points for Twin Falls next week. Eaton can win second by throwing 162 feet. From the distances of the other regions, this seems an accurate statement. It surely shouldn't be when there are two others who could challenge hard for that honor.

Palmer Takes 65 for Lead Of Colonial

PORT WORTH, Tex., May 12 (AP)—Pennsylvania strongman Arnold Palmer fired a pressure-packed 65 Saturday and regained the lead after 54 holes in the $40,000 Colonial National Invitational golf tournament.

Already a five-time tournament winner this year, the 34-year-old bettered four shots off the rugged 7,122-yard par 72 course to register a three-round total of 206, five under par. Three strokes back at 209 were Gary Player, a 20-year-old Saturday, and hard-luck Australian Bruce Crampton, who shot a double bogey on the 18th hole to wind up with a 67 for the day.

Player, from South Africa, bridled the first two holes and at that point held a three-shot lead over Palmer. He also bridled the 11th but bogied at Nos. 7, 14 and 17 and up to him. Palmer, who shot 18 holes straight pars and then caught fire. He bridled No. 9 for a double bogey on the 10th, 11th, 12 and 13 for a 32. Crampton made the turn in 139 and proceeded to notch birdies at 139 and Crampton was tied for sixth at one-over-par 141.

Ejects Dump Chiefs 14-10 In 10 Innings

Frank Cernosek led off the top for Great Falls with a triple and came home on a wild pitch. Bill Bevels and Charles Lawton walked and Darrell Griffith got an error that allowed Bevels to come home. Then John Brandtford walked and Jay Aronson was safe on an error which allowed Lawton to score. Griffith came in on a walk with the bases loaded.

Pocatello tied it up in the ninth when Joe Vanden and Johnny Johnson hit singles and Don Vining walked. That stranded the sacks. One run came in on Bill Burkley's fly ball.

2,502 Entries Are Accepted For Open Bid

NEW YORK, May 12 (AP)—About 2,502 entries for the 1962 United States Open golf championship were accepted, the U.S. Golf association said today, and 115 additional ones, including Thursday 1952 champion Julius Boros, were rejected.

Both Boros and Paul Runyan, the present PGA senior champion, mailed their entries too late to reach the U.S.G.A. headquarters by 5 p.m. last Wednesday when the books were closed for the 72-hole tournament to be held June 14-16 on the Oakland course near Pittsburgh.

The 2,502 accepted entries in the record. The previous high was 2,432 two years ago. The June field will be cut to 128 players, and 140 rivals in a series of local and regional qualifying rounds that begin this week. However, 10 players are exempt from the qualifying test, leaving 240 players trying for the remaining 113 berths.

The first of the local qualifying rounds will be held next Friday at Oakland, Calif. The three in the New York City area will be held May 22 with all others scheduled for May 21.

Twin Falls Collects District Golf Title

The Twin Falls Bruins won the first official district golf tournament Saturday in a warm-up for the state meet at the Plantation course in Boise next week. Senior Dick Truitt won the medalist pin for the Bruins with a sharp 35-35-70, two over par on the Twin Falls municipal course. His teammate, Dave Driscoll, fired 35-36 to become runner-up with 71.

The Bruins toured the course in 301 strokes to defeat second place Burley, which checked in with 317. Jerome was third with 321 while Buhl had 345, Mintco 350, Pine 372 and Gooding 379.

The winning team was composed of Truitt, Driscoll, Clarence Cawright and Dick Cook, who has 77 and 82, respectively. Burley was led by Voyce with 83 while Steve Budge had a 78. Any team may enter the state tournament in Boise next week. The Bruins will be seeking to improve on last year's showing when they lost the title by one stroke.

Whitworth's Danny Driskill was the nine-school meet's outstanding performer, a 28 score 20 points behind a new record of 48 in the 40 and placed first in the low hurdles. He also tied for second in the 100-yard high hurdles. Idaho's Curt Filler set a new record of 1:52 in the 800-yard run. Dick Douglas was the two-mile, Rex Carlson the shot put and Steve Davis the discus for the Vandals.

Champ Is Victor In 15 Rounds by Display of Jabs

PHILADELPHIA, May 12 (AP)—Harold Johnson spared Don Jones with an accurate jab and a powerful counter thrust every night to hold his ever-growing, quick-counting light heavyweight title on a unanimous decision 157-147-157 in at least three rounds.

Johnson played his usual cautious-mouse game, stabbing with a left jab and jab opening to throw three quick combinations. Jones, a 2-1 underdog, kept wading in under constant counter fire, but he didn't have enough experience to cope with his 32-year-old opponent.

All three officials had Johnson as the winner. Referee Dave Heffelfinger said Johnson won 114-111, Judge Nick Spivey saw it 117-111 and Judge Zack Clayton had it 121-111, all in favor of the Philadelphia veteran. The AP card gave Johnson a 70-57-70.

They fought after the bell in the fifth and again in the seventh. Then a hook left Jones to the ropes and started to throw heavy punishment for several seconds before Johnson stepped back to the bell ring. This was Johnson's third defense of the title he won by stopping Jesse Bowdry in Miami Beach Feb. 7, 1961. He stopped Ed Johnson in Philadelphia last April and won a split decision over Eddie Cotton in Seattle last Aug. 29.

The National Boxing association recognized Johnson as champion when he took Bowdry as they had stopped Archie Moore of his title a few months earlier. New York finally took the title from Moore this past winter and agreed to recognize the Johnson-Jones winner as his successor.

If Johnson was upset by his defeat against Jones and pending the title he didn't look that way in the ring. He was the master boxer with the silencing, sometimes flaking, Jones kept moving in, trying to get his right hand, but Johnson landed these quick counter barrels. There were no knockdowns in the 15 rounds. The closest thing to it came after the bell rang at the 11th. They kept on banging away with Johnson on the attack and Jones pinning the ropes near a neutral corner. Nick Blackman, Jones' co-manager and former arm holder for the University of Idaho who the Bill Martin invitational track meet at Whitworth college.

McCORMACK TAKES REGIONAL; BRUINS SECOND

McCormack Church Break Records; Schow Scores 13 Points in 4 Events

Sprinter Dave Arnold zoomed home with three firsts and six many records Saturday as he led the Borah Lions to another, southern regional track meet.

The event, the final one before the state meet in Boise next week, saw 12 records smashed. The Lions, led by regional most successful runner, closed in a point-a-half victory while Boise won 27-17.

Tight races and exciting action featured the day's events. The first Twin-Falls race was the 100-yard dash, which proved the most exciting for most of the spectators, the drama of which came in the final yards when the race was a close, three-strut sprint.

McCormack proved the big one of the day. Doug Schow-Twin Falls junior—legged and unscathed a career best 159-foot dash in a time that may have set a new record.

McCormack, Caldwell's all-around star, unleashed his third century throw. After a 100-yard dash, he tossed a 300-foot, 3-inch javelin, farcically landing the plover 168 feet.

Ben's Pratt, bouncing the 100 to 158-foot mark, relentlessly dodging the shot as the boys' record for second spot and a berth in state.

Then Bob's Glenn Young, the most consistent in the state, ran his string to six fives without getting into second.

On his seventh and last try he finally decided to wait for a shot that would "A.W." to him. "Give me the thing," Attorney of a hand held he muttered, "Well, here goes."

He uncoiled with a smart snap and the end was watched by all the end of the shot. Both he and McDonald bettered the old mark of 161 feet set by Stacey, Nampa.

Mets Stun Braves, Sweep Doubleheader

By The Associated Press

Ninth inning homerun by Hobie Landriam and Gil Hodges gave the New York Mets a dramatic 7-2 and 8-7 doubleheader sweep over the Milwaukee Braves Saturday.

Craig Anderson, pitching in relief, received credit for both triumphs. He struck the first time the Mets had ever won two games in one day.

Landriam's homer came off Warren Spahn with two out and led to the first score. Spahn, seeking his fourth victory of the season and 31st of his major league career, went on to pitch the next two innings but Landriam brought joy to the crowd of 10,478 Polo Grounds fans by driving the ball into the upper right field bleachers.

Vada Pinson and Wally Pate powered homers as the stars in Cincinnati Reds' doubleheader sweep of the Pittsburgh Pirates, 9-2, and moved into fourth place in the National league.

Pinson's 10th homer came in the second inning of his game against the New York Yankees, seeking his fourth victory of the season and 31st of his major league career. He went on to pitch the next two innings but Landriam brought joy to the crowd of 10,478 Polo Grounds fans by driving the ball into the upper right field bleachers.

New York survived a seventh inning scare as the Indians exploded for three runs and made it 6-6. Cleveland once trailed 5-6.

Starting pitcher Gene Conley and reliever Dick Radatz were a real one-two punch for the Boston Red Sox as they pitched and batted their way to a 5-1 victory over the Detroit Tigers.

Tom Trach hit a two-run homer and drove in three runs in the league-leading New York Yankees defeated the Cleveland Indians 9-6.

Starting pitcher Gene Conley and reliever Dick Radatz were a real one-two punch for the Boston Red Sox as they pitched and batted their way to a 5-1 victory over the Detroit Tigers.

Conley, who was picked off here to blast an Oriole into the sixth inning, hit a homer in the eighth for the winner in a 3-2 Baltimore victory over the Washington Senators Saturday night.

Richest Harness Race Set Friday

WESTPORT, N. Y., May 12 (AP)—Harness racing's richest race—the $100,000 Meenener-Stakes—will be held next Friday night.

The race, one of the most exciting in the country, will be run over a 1.3-mile course at the Meenener track in Westport, N.Y.

The race also is the first in the country to be run on a synthetic track.

Weather permitting, officials anticipated a crowd of 40,000 for the 1.3-mile race. No filly was entered this year although Council Adios won in 1950 and Elocation took the first Messenger filly in 1952.

Adora's Dream, unscathed in 13 straight races, is the early favorite with "Deight" Hanover and Leader Pick close second choice.

Adora's Dream and Leader Pick were made eligible for the race by payment of $15,000 supplementary nominations in addition to the customary $1,000 starting fee.

Cincinnati battened down the hatches, getting six runs and five hits, including homers by Pop and Johnny Edwards.

The Chicago Cubs scored an unscathed run in the doubleheader sweep of the Philadelphia Phillies 9-1.

The Cubs, breaking a three-game losing streak, started the doubleheader with Ken Hubbs, attempting to sacrifice, followed by first baseman Rivera, whose three-run homer proved crucial.

Hubbs, who had pitched three times, threw his first pitch to third baseman Williams' sacrifice fly scored Brock.

The National league-leading San Francisco Giants' victory Friday, combined with some uncertainty over a possible strike by the Major League players' union, added up to a whopping 10-0 triumph over the New York Yankees.

Ridan Works Out For Next Contest

CINCINNATI—Joe Ridan, who has been working out in a fine morning workout, returned here by Saturday for his next contest in the Kentucky Derby two-run homerun against the Los Angeles Angels ahead 5-4.

Ridan's line shot into the top four pitchers of the first three places with a time of 1:50.1.

Mike Gaechter of Oregon ran the 120-yard hurdles in 23.2 to break a record which had stood since 1932, and the Oregon mile-race team turned in a time of 3:12.2 to knock one second off the record the Ducks set last year.

Oregon Swamps Huskies 98-46

SEATTLE, May 12 (AP)—The University of Oregon Ducks set a new record as they swamped the Washington Huskies 98-46 in their final game of the season.

Oregon's Jerry Close belted his own grand jump record, 196, with a leap of 24 feet, 2 1/2 inches.

Close's own record in the 880-yard race as he led the ducks to a sweep of the first three places with a time of 1:50.1.

McCormack Takes Regional; Bruins Second

Sprinter Dave Arnold zoomed home with three firsts and six many records Saturday as he led the Borah Lions to another, southern regional track meet.

The event, the final one before the state meet in Boise next week, saw 12 records smashed. The Lions, led by regional most successful runner, closed in a point-a-half victory while Boise won 27-17.

Tight races and exciting action featured the day's events. The first Twin-Falls race was the 100-yard dash, which proved the most exciting for most of the spectators, the drama of which came in the final yards when the race was a close, three-strut sprint.

McCormack proved the big one of the day. Doug Schow-Twin Falls junior—legged and unscathed a career best 159-foot dash in a time that may have set a new record.

McCormack, Caldwell's all-around star, unleashed his third century throw. After a 100-yard dash, he tossed a 300-foot, 3-inch javelin, farcically landing the plover 168 feet.

Ben's Pratt, bouncing the 100 to 158-foot mark, relentlessly dodging the shot as the boys' record for second spot and a berth in state.

Then Bob's Glenn Young, the most consistent in the state, ran his string to six fives without getting into second.

On his seventh and last try he finally decided to wait for a shot that would "A.W." to him. "Give me the thing," Attorney of a hand held he muttered, "Well, here goes."

He uncoiled with a smart snap and the end was watched by all the end of the shot. Both he and McDonald bettered the old mark of 161 feet set by Stacey, Nampa.

Hole-in-One Athletics Seek Strength

ST. PAUL - MINNEAPOLIS, May 12 (AP)—Moving to add some depth to their depleted lineups, the Kansas City Athletics traded outfielder Crawford Young to the Los Angeles Angels Saturday in exchange for utility infielder Jim Coughey. It was a straight player transaction.

Windburn has appeared in 13 A's games this season and is hitting .198.

Coughey, 27, has played in 11 games and owns a .163 batting average. He is a rookie, having been drafted by the Angels from Seattle of the Pacific Coast league where he hit .285 with 11 homers and 62 runs batted in last season.

Outdoor Life in Alaska Proving Real Adventure for T.F. Girl

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, May 12 — Life in the "Far North" is providing a full range of work, fun and outdoor life for a young Twin Falls girl, Sharon Caron Jessup, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Caron, 115 Maple avenue, Sharon is the wife of Capt. Alan M. Jessup, who is stationed at Fort Richardson, near the city of Anchorage.

The Jessups are looking forward to the summer when they can again explore Alaska on camping trips, as they did last year. They plan to buy a tent, stove and other camping equipment, they're ready for week-end and longer, outings.

Fifteen-day "outdoorers" are the Jessup's "favorites." Debbie, 4, and Mike, 2, are Jessup's little ones. All accompanying them this summer will be a little puppy named "Biscuits," and the Alaskan gold lode. Another family pet, a cat, is also accompanying them. After the Jessup's return from their trip, Sharon will be building a cabin near the town of Hope, a two-hour drive from Anchorage.

Sharon's parents don't plan to visit them here this summer, but Sharon expects them during the summer of 1963, near the end of Sharon's three-year assignment in Alaska.

Mike's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sharp of Penikese, Ore., got a taste of Alaska winter weather when they spent two weeks in Anchorage last winter. It was the coldest two weeks of the winter, with the thermometer hovering at 20 degrees below zero most of the time.

The cold spell was just "condemning" for Captain Jessup, however, who left in January to take part in the winter training exercises "Great Bear" in northern Alaska. There the temperature dropped as low as 70 degrees below zero.

A helicopter pilot, Mike is a platoon commander with the 50th Transportation Company at Fort Richardson. He and his family arrived here in January of 1961.

Before and after the "cold spell" the Jessups took to the ski slopes, traveling to Arctic Valley ski bowl, only a five-mile drive from the army post.

Mike and Sharon also tried their luck at "curling," an edgewise curling league next winter.

SNOW-CAPPED MOUNTAINS of the Chugach range form a startling backdrop for the modern housing and playground facilities at Ft. Richardson, near Anchorage, Alaska. Capt. and Mrs. Morris M. (Mike) Jessup are enjoying their tour of duty at Ft. Richardson, and so are their two daughters, Jeannie and Debbie. The nearby mountains are covered with snow until early June, and are blanketed again in early fall.

Note to Mothers: Footwear Need At School Dances Overemphasized

By G. A. (Gus) HELKER Times-News Feature Editor

Designer needs a new pair of shoes!

How many parents — with daughters — have heard words to that effect when dance night came? Practically every one of them with a daughter, that is.

How comes the Times-News with a bit of detective work (and editors to prove it) and the conclusion that if daughter does wear a new pair of shoes all she does is wear them from home to the dance, not on the dance floor.

A case in point was the recent dance from one of the dances of the season, at the local high school.

The orchestra was playing, the hall was gayly decorated, the boys and girls and guests were wearing to and fro, and the girls did not have their shoes on.

At a glance even a casual observer could tell something was amiss as a search was started to find out where the shoes were.

There were big shoes, little shoes, red shoes, black shoes, men shoes, transparent shoes, shoes with low heels, shoes with high heels and just shoes.

The dancing was almost noiseless and no wonder, being performed without shoes.

Except the girls had plenty of them. Shoes hurt? Several admitted that. Teller than the boy friend's friend admitted to, too.

But the clincher came from a mother who said: "The floor is so slippery with shoes on it, no matter, next time your daughter needs shoes for a high school dance, tell her to forget it. If they can dance without shoes, they should be able to do without them."

INJURED FEET may be the end result of the newest craze, the girls "pump" their shoes around the hall and dance in stocking during high school dances. The girls "pump" their shoes around the hall and dance in stocking during high school dances. The girls "pump" their shoes around the hall and dance in stocking during high school dances. The girls "pump" their shoes around the hall and dance in stocking during high school dances.

Former Resident Speaks Before World Scientists

Twin Falls has a habit of "local boys making good" but it is doubtful if any before have proven to be successful in mastering a language which will someday lead to a computer school of conversation.

"Perhaps that was" clear enough for the layman but for the scientist, if the knowledge of the subject was close enough that he was sent to Rome, Italy, to speak before scientists from Europe as well as from the United States.

Bastian, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Bastian, Jr., Twin Falls, graduated from the local high school in 1955 as valedictorian of his class.

During his school days he was active in music circles and edited under Mrs. Edith Pease. He was in the school choir for six years, and in 1954 he was a member of the school choir.

He is married to the former Mrs. Dean Bastian, Jr., Twin Falls, a school bus mechanic, and they have two daughters, Laura, 13, and Barbara, 9.

At the present time he is continuing his studies pending for a Ph.D. at MIT. He is also a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society and is a member of the American Physical Society. He is also a member of the American Association of University Professors.

KNOWLEDGE OF COMPUTER language resulted in Dean Bastian, Jr., being sent to Rome, Italy, to talk to a group of scientists from Europe and the United States. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Bastian, Jr., Twin Falls, and resides with his wife and family in Billerica, Mass., near Cambridge.

Falk Appears Destined to Lose Awards

HOLLYWOOD, May 12 (AP) — Peter Falk has been in Hollywood only two years and already is a veteran campaigner for Oscar and Emmy awards.

Most actors wait years before being named contenders, and thousands of others never get nominated.

But in his two years, Falk's work has earned him two Oscar nominations and a pair of Emmy nominations.

Pete was in the Oscar race this year as best supporting actor for his role in "Pocketful of Miracles." Last year he competed in the same category, having been nominated for "Murder in the Streets."

Pete's approach to his chances of winning stem from a personal and professional background based on statistics. He was educated as a civil administrator and worked in government before deciding upon an acting career.

"I think I stand a better chance with this Emmy than I did with the Oscars," he said. "If you get a good script, there's always the chance. If you have the part, it can happen to any actor."

Pete denied reports that he was greatly upset over losing his most recent Oscar race.

New Sun Valley Hospital Boasts Of Modern Equipment for Guests

SUN VALLEY, May 12 — A hospital that leaves nothing to chance, this is the standard institutional image that the Sun Valley Village hospital set for itself when it opened two and a half years ago and which it maintains at the present time.

The 120-bed hospital is owned and operated by the incorporated village of Sun Valley, which has excellently equipped the time to re-equip and continues to add new equipment up to the minute items designed for the patient's welfare and safety.

To eliminate the hazards that accompany heart attacks it has recently installed a Bardick defibrillator designed to save the life of a patient suffering from a cardiac arrest. Although not yet called into use in the Sun Valley hospital the defibrillator is available in an emergency to supply the electrical stimulation necessary to keep a human heart beating.

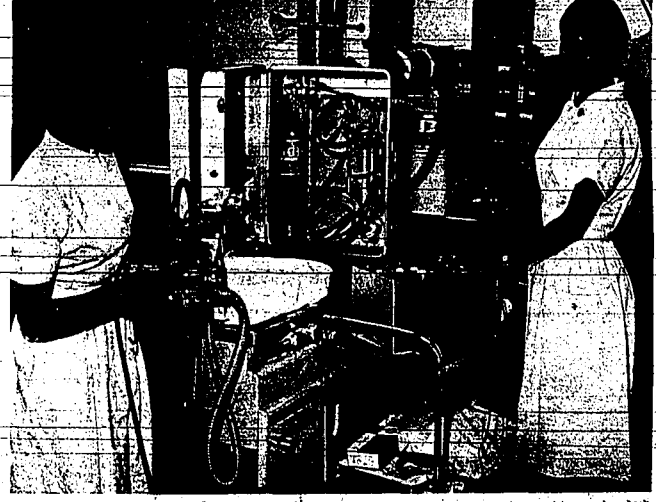

The nursery has received a resuscitator, which the management explains is ready to save the life of a newborn infant.

new equipment is an electronic timer and Vindex cone for increased accuracy and to minimize radiation danger to the patient.

Much of the equipment of the hospital which is usually found only in large city institutions has been made possible by numerous liberal donations received from former patients and Sun Valley guests from all parts of the country.

able in every room in the hospital. Also designed to add to the comfort of a hospital stay is a completely modern food cart with hot and cold compartments to facilitate the transportation of food from the Challenger Inn kitchens. The new hospital is located just across the driveway from the Challenger Inn and patients select their food from the same menu served in Sun Valley vacationists.

The medical staff of four physicians is also available.

BOASTING SOME OF THE FINEST equipment that can be obtained is the hospital at Sun Valley. The 120-bed facility could easily be the envy of villages much larger than Sun Valley. Leaving the hospital is Mrs. Guy Butterfield, wife of the assistant head of the Sun Valley ski school and her two children, who are among the many youngsters receiving regular check ups and care at the new and modern institution. The hospital serves both the village and guests of the world famed resort. Much of the equipment was donated by guests and former patients. (Sun Valley photo)

EARLY SALOON is apparently going to spend the rest of the days as a private residence. The building is one of Ruppert's oldest and as the Cottage cafe was moved to Sugar Factory...

Life in MAGIC VALLEY

One of RUPPERT'S oldest buildings made another, and probably the last, move last week when the Cottage cafe was moved out of the Sugar Factory road where it will be converted into a dwelling by Gene Phillips. The building began its career as a saloon located on the south side of the square where the U. S. Penney store now stands, and was owned and operated by a Lynn Hugins, Minidoka, when Hugins decided around 1914 to construct the building now occupied by the Penney store. He sold the old frame building to A. F. Berner, who moved it to the corner of Seventh and 19 streets where it stood until Wednesday.

The Ruppert's library occupied the building for a number of years before it was moved into the Ray apartments building on Seventh and 19 streets. After that time, the building served as a photographic studio for several years, operated by Mr. Rramer, and was then used as a youth center for about two years. Here which it was converted into a restaurant by Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Jackson.

The Jacksons added living quarters on the back of the building for their family, and operated the cafe for a number of years.

For the past several years, Mr. and Mrs. John Hering have operated the business. They now plan to convert the building to a two story brick building, to be joined with the "Cottage" building which they built in 1959 on what was then the back of the lot.

The new building will contain living quarters upstairs, in addition to the cafe proper, a large dining room downstairs.

The other building is now occupied by government offices, including the USDA, the employment office and the PMA office.

Berner also recalls the old structure once housed the WPA camp kitchen during the Roosevelt administration and a plumbing business was also operated in it at one time.

Buhl Adopts Ordinance on Dump Area

BUHL, May 12—The Buhl city council passed an ordinance and resolution regarding the establishment and control of a city sanitation disposal area at the result of Tuesday night.

The Buhl city dump ground area will now serve as the sanitation disposal area and certain limitations and fees have been established. All residents and commercial haulers inside city limits will be allowed to dump garbage free of charge by presenting their current receipt showing the city water and sanitation fees have been paid.

All non-residents and independent contractors or commercial haulers shall pay a fee per each load at the garbage disposal entrance. Fees on garbage or rubbish brought in passenger cars or stationwagons will be 25 cents; pickup trucks and two wheel trailer vehicles will be charged 50 cents, all larger type trucks with more than three wheel trailers shall be charged $1.

The city sanitation disposal area will be open to the public from noon until 7 p.m. on Saturday from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. and on Sunday from noon until 7 p.m.

In other business, Richard Smith, city patrolman, was granted a 10-day leave without pay effective May 1. Upon the resignation of Gene Avery, assistant street and water superintendent, the council appointed Lawrence Pawcett to the position granting him a $13 raise in salary. Avery retired because of ill health after serving the city some 30 years.

Permits were granted to Robert Hurley to construct a garage for $500; C. A. Oberly to construct a pool shed for $12,000 and K. The ultimate outcome of the current world struggle will be determined by whether the United States can remain internationally strong, provide leadership and offer a new backward people of the world the true meaning of freedom."

Policemen Play Important Roles in Various Activities of Community

BY ROBERT WIERRY
 Policemen—the word has as many different connotations as there are people.

To some the uniform means authority, to others a policeman is "some jerk that gives me a ticket if I go just a little over the speed limit" and to still others he is the one to call when help is needed to seek a lost child or check out a strange note in the middle of the night.

Few citizens think of a policeman as an individual but rather as a faceless entity that is there to harass you if you step out of line and to help in the case of trouble.

Yes, these policemen are human. They worry about how fast Johnny or Susie wear-out shoes, the high cost of steak and wonder why the danglers are so thick in the front lawn.

The Twin Falls Police force is composed of men and women who are civic-minded persons full of pride for the city where they live.

In their off-duty hours they serve in civic clubs, work for community betterment projects, attend PTA meetings and give their hobbies ranging from rock collecting to raising registered quarter horses.

Out of 26 members on the force all but two are married. Of those married, only one has no children and many have grandchildren. If they were all added to the force they would line up behind a vacuum in the social structure of the town that would be hard to displace.

Capt. Frank Barnett, ranking officer, has been a member of the Twin Falls Police force for 15 years. A quietly efficient individual, he has worked his way up from patrolman.

Barnett is a Boy Scout safety officer, a member of the Idaho Peace Officers association, Magic Valley Peace Officers association and the Twin Falls police association.

An outdoorsman, he enjoys hunting, fishing and water skiing.

Sgt. Lee D. McCracken is the old time outdoorsman on the force. He has been with the department for 23 years. A family man, he boasts of three children and nine grandchildren.

"Mac," as he is known to the crew, was a master mechanic at the time he joined the police force. After a taste of "patrolling the beat" he decided this was the life for him.

Det. Roy Lindell, with 18 years on the force, is perhaps best described as the policeman's policeman. Lindell, with his deceptively gruff manner and o-rivally honest face, has the depth of a huge barrel chest, has made many a rowdy prisoner decide the cooperative way is the best way.

Lindell, who enjoys hunting, fishing and water skiing, has been a member of the Twin Falls Elks club for the past 14 years and is director of the Twin Falls Police Benevolent fund, a member of the Idaho Peace Officers association and the Twin Falls Police association.

Det. Ernest R. Marlow, Jr., a 19-year veteran, is in command of the juvenile department. Marlow is active in several civic organizations.

A past member of the Twin Falls city recreation board he has served three years on the Twin Falls high school PTA board, presently is a board member of the YMCA and is past president of that group. He is group advisor to the high school YMCA Hi-Y club, coached and managed a semi-professional baseball team of high school boys and is presently coaching a girls softball team.

He also is active in the Boy Scouts, has served four years on the annual Christmas welfare drive and is a member of the Elmer Masonic lodge No. 94, Twin Falls chapter No. 15 of the Royal Arch Mason.

Marlow is a member of the International Institute Officers association, International, Inter-Agency for Stephens to do the good turn as other students crowded around. Known by hundreds of students of the school during the past years, Stephens finds them out at all formal as they affectionately call him "Johnny." (Times-News photo)

Qualls has been a member of the Twin Falls Junior Riding club for six years. Presently he is the drill master.

Decker, easy going, industrious and affable, rose from patrolman to the rank of detective in less than five years.

The three acting sergeants are Francis E. Ashcroft, nine years on the force; Chad Thompson, seven years; and Angus A. Spence, 17 years.

They all are avid outdoorsmen who enjoy hunting and fishing. Family men, Spence has one child and two grandchildren; Ashcroft has three children and Thompson has two.

John D. Stephens, with 15 years on the force, is the veteran patrolman. He is a family man with hundreds of Washington grade school children as the officer who sees them safely across the Five Points north intersection.

Dennis L. Haynes, with two years experience, and Cloyd O. Spence, 17 years.

Building for FLAMELESS Electric Living

"I build all kinds, but I live in a Gold Medallion home."

J. Reed Dowdle, Boise

"As a home builder, I know the electrical features of a Gold Medallion home provide the quality discriminating buyers are seeking. In our own home we particularly appreciate the individual room control of electric heat."

"Our total electric nursing home has been so satisfactory, we are building another just like it."

Don Oltman, Twin Falls

"Because the nursing home we built two years ago has worked out so well, we are building a second right behind it. This will be our fourth total electric nursing home. Electric living is especially fine for older people. It's fine for the rest of us, too, one reason my own home has a Gold Medallion."

"Farmers with Gold Medallion homes have more time for the work that earns their bread and butter."

Fay Collins, Nyssa

"I have built a number of Gold Medallion homes in recent years, several of them for farmers. The farmer deserves the same conveniences enjoyed by his city friends. With automatic electric living, he can get a little rest when he comes into the house, rather than be loaded with chores on both ends."

"The builder who wants a reputation for quality should build Gold Medallion homes."

Jay B. Busby, Pocatello

"While I have always tried to build for the quality market—nothing I've done in recent years has done me so much good with the public as building total electric Gold Medallion homes. People judge a builder by what they see. When they see the Live Better Electrically plaque at the entrance of his homes, they know he is building quality."

Every Gold Medallion home has—

- * Modern, automatic flameless cooking
- * Flameless water heating, new 3-homes-faster
- * Additional major appliances—such as dishwashers, freezers, air conditioners, freezers or disposers
- * Light for living—Working light, decorative light
- * Full housepower wiring—plenty of outlets, circuits for major appliances, capacity for new appliances.

Edwards, with one year, also has two experienced patrolmen.

Haynes enjoys archery hunting and horseback riding while Edwards designates himself a "rock hound." He also has helped guide best trips down the turbulent-Galmon river.

Officers joining the force during the past year are Darryl C. Cameron, Terry L. Pierce, Collins A. Helms, Harold V. Jensen, Gary W. Corcor, Wesley L. Anstis and Bill D. Wickers.

Helms, a Sunday school superintendent and holder of the Silver Beaver award for Scout leadership, summarized the reason most of them joined the force and are planning careers as policemen as follows:

"I have wanted to be a patrolman for several years. The first time I have been a member of the force only strengthened this desire. I enjoy the contact with people. The job is never routine. There is something different happening every day, almost every hour.

"Two persons who are "almost indispensable to the department" are Mrs. Helms L. Vance and Mrs. John (Eythne) Koonis.

Mrs. Vance secured the "war-wrecker" child outfit as night desk sergeant for 14 years. Just recently she has been transferred to the day shift where she assists the desk sergeant and files reports.

Mrs. Koonis, a veteran of nine years, is records supervisor. Both women are grandmothers. Mrs. Vance has four grandchildren and Mrs. Koonis has two.

Captain Barnett says the department's approach to police work is "one of prevention rather than punishment."

"I would much rather stop a crime before it occurs than have to send a violator to prison after the damage is done," he observed.

Twin Falls is relatively free of violent crimes or large burglaries. The reason, "Edging" that the majority of police work here concerns traffic control."

MAGIC VALLEY PORTRAIT Love of Youth Prompts Profession Of Earl Carlson, Burley Principal

BURLEY, May 12—From his first teaching job in a one-room school house in Rocky Bar, Idaho, Earl H. Carlson has climbed the ladder of success in the teaching profession to the position of principal of the Burley high school.

During the 20-year period he has watched over during his years at the winter high. During every graduation, as he remembers the "boob, sweat and tears" that have gone into the education of these boys, as well as the good times that they have had, he maintains the hope that these in some small way he has contributed to their various success and happiness.

He was born in Twin Falls and attended schools there and in Mountain, Carlson furthered his education at Idaho National, then received his bachelor of arts degree at the Colorado State college of education, Greeley. He got his master's degree at the University of Idaho, Moscow, and did graduate work at the Utah State university and Northwestern university, Chicago.

From the one-room school house in Rocky Bar he then taught in the Mountain schools for two years. It was during this time that he met his wife, who was also a teacher there.

"They moved to Burley in 1930, where he started teaching at the Junior high school and, then later was named principal of the junior high school. In 1947 Carlson took the position of principal at the Burley high school.

What prompts a man to decide to devote his life to the teaching profession? Is it dreams or experience he had as a child, the want to help his

WINTER KILLED ELK is examined by Idaho fish and game Conservation Officer Cecil Sanford, St. Maries. The elk was found on a recent trend count and range study in the St. Joe country. Most of the animals can withstand a long hard winter if there is sufficient forage to meet the needs of the creatures.

Big game hunters find that large herds can be taken year after year from herds that have good winter range. Herds on good winter range increase faster. A major aim of the department is proper management of ranges to boost the needs for harvest. (Fish and game department photo.)

Stable Dates for Opening of Hunting, Fishing Seasons Scaled to Sportsmen

By JIM HUMPHREY
Idaho Fish and Game Department
BOISE, May 12—Idaho's 1962 big game hunting seasons and fishing seasons, released by the fish and game commission following a quarterly meeting in Boise, already have been announced in the news columns. As usual, they will be printed in detail by the department in its quarterly magazine, ready for free distribution through authorized license vendors about July 1.

Opening dates for most big game hunting seasons were set last January in accordance with commission policy adopted last year. The reason is to encourage hunters to plan vacations of a week or more in the back country where deer, wild turkey and grouse cropping for their own part. This way hunters can arrange with employers to take time for safety into the backcountry, and hunters are not hunting grounds. Such trips cannot be undertaken on a week-end basis.

Deer hunters are eyeing three dates in particular, weighing various personal considerations and pointing in red the one that seems to meet their needs best. These openings are Sept. 15 in the back country, and Sept. 20 and Oct. 5 for most intermediate areas. Deer hunters generally are interested mostly in Oct. 20, the opening date for the more easily accessible areas of extreme northern and southern Idaho.

Fishing dates, of course, reflect other considerations such as the general angling season in the five panhandle counties of north Idaho will be from June 4 to Oct. 31 for streams, the same as it is statewide, and May 1 to Nov. 30 for lakes unless otherwise specified. In all other regions of the state, the one general season applies to both streams and lakes unless specifically exempted.

This policy establishing more or less standard opening dates for trout fishing began in 1947, when June 4 was fixed as the general starting date. The low water season in north Idaho began on May 5 in 1951. It used to vary a few days one way or the other from the traditional May Day opener, but for the past several years it has returned to May 1 by popular public demand.

The general statewide fishing season likewise was irregular from year to year until the uniform dates instituted in 1947. They vacillated from April 15 in 1940, to May 21 as late as 1946. And prior to 1929, when the state legislature set up the Idaho Fish and Game commission in compliance with initiative petitions backed by overwhelming popular support, all seasons were fixed by the lawmakers, varying almost from county to county.

This year, the state's hunters are approaching the policy of fixed starting dates for trout anglers because June 4, the opening of the general Idaho fishing season, coincides with one of their "off" days. No doubt the special north Idaho lowland lake trout season about Tuesday, May 1, will benefit a host of other fishermen who don't work that day.

Two times in seven, opening day falls on a week-end. Under this policy, everybody hits it sooner or later.

With big game hunting, the opening dates are important for all other reasons. Weather, for example, has great influence. Either snow or steady rains or hot, dry weather—throughout the first two or three weeks can have crucial effects on game harvests. Even a dearth of snow and cold weather during the latter parts of hunting seasons can spell doom to the harvest in other areas.

Good management through proper harvesting seeks to maintain winter herds at a minimum level which will enable them to reach their maximum productivity in dropping and producing large crops of young. Actual checks of animals from various herds show that range which those the proper jobs in winter pays off handsomely by permitting the highest possible productivity during the months ahead.

Considering last year's harvest and present range conditions, the fish and game department believes that elk harvests for 1962 should be held at about the same level as last year in 23 management units, while increased harvests are desired in 27 management units, and harvests similar to those of last year are the goal on the remaining 50 deer units.

Hunting with pack stock is the ideal way to go after big game, particularly elk, in the back country, the north and south forks of the Clearwater, the Lochsa and Selway. This is rough mountainous terrain, characterized by steep river canyons and heavy timber and brush stands. Some of it is inaccessible by logging and timber access roads, allowing considerable close to the road hunting. But many Idahoans and even some out-of-state hunters haul in their own pack stock to get back away from the roads. Of course there also is a brisk business for outfitters and guides, packing hunting parties back where there is plenty of elbow room.

As these are why Carlson has contributed so much time to working with the youth, as well as striving to maintain high standards in our high schools, Carlson is a member of the Idaho Education Association, and has been very active in other functions of the organization.

He is a member of the LDS church, having held various offices during the time he has lived in Burley, and is presently in the bishopric of the fifth ward.

Berlin Offer Challenged by Tracy Coker

"We now have the amazing spectacle of Secretary of State Ruak, backed by the federal administration offering to the Soviet Union an opportunity to place its red army troops in West Berlin," Tracy Coker, Republican candidate for GOP nomination as second district congressman, said here Friday.

"And for what?" he asked. "This is in exchange for their promise to sign a 'cease of fire' guaranteeing to us rights of access routes to Berlin, rights which we already have, which cannot be denied."

Coker served as military governor of Trieste in northern Italy for two years. When 2100 communists, backed by the Russians, tried and failed to take the city from the army.

He commented, "Of what value is the Soviet promise on or off paper if it makes people wonder 'How stupid can you get?'"

"It must be obvious to anyone," he commented, "that allowing the Russian troops in West Berlin will be a fatal blow to the morale of the Germans there. There is no better way in which to surrender the city to the communists."

"I like Lant all over again when we first bragged, then were up, or like Cuba where we lunched and talked."

"Is there no end to these retreats and surrenders?" Coker, a teacher in the Twin Falls junior high school, asked.

SOMEbody GOOFED, MAN. Could it be that was what the cow was saying when she stood under the sign and studied the cameraman? The sign, one of scores put out by a widely-known gasolin firm and which have attracted nationwide attention, is on highway 91 near Rogerson. But the cow—at least the one in the picture—just says it isn't so. (Times-News photo)
