THALIDOMIDE PILLS are displayed by Dr. George James, acting New York City health commissioner. The pill contains a drug blamed for birth deformities. New York has reported what may be the nation's first infant death involving the drug. Used as a tranquilizing agent, the drug comes in pills which look like blue aspirin tablets, as white pills and in liquid form. (AP Wirephoto)

Britain Forms Committee to Check Drugs

LONDON, July 31—Britain's main government medical research organization, the medical research council, announced today it is setting up a special committee to test such drugs as thalidomide, which is causing births of deformed babies.

Council Secretary Sir Harold Himsworth said thalidomide, which is a continuing problem, "the recent tragedy of thalidomide has put it in our minds."

He added, "It is the first time we have come up against an experience with such a dramatic effect."

The birth of babies without arms and other deformations to mothers who had taken the German-discovered drug has been a major story in Britain's press.

Several thousand pregnant women are believed to have taken thalidomide in Britain.

The rejection of Arizona mother Sherric Finkbine's appeal to be permitted an abortion because she had taken the drug was front page news here today.

Her dramatic statement—invited to Britain last night by Teletar—drew widespread comment in this nation where the drug was sold and prescribed widely.

"The council decision followed a Manchester conference last week which charged thalidomide birth deformities resulted, because of its use by pregnant women, not consider it necessary to test the drug's effect on human children."

American authorities, however, had slighted the possibilities that thalidomide could prove dangerous and it never was placed in open sale in the United States.

Research Program on Suspected Drug Is Launched, Congress Sets Hearings

By The Associated Press
The American Medical Association has launched a comprehensive research program to determine the effects of thalidomide on new-born infants, and a congressional hearing was set for Wednesday to investigate what.

Sen. Hubert Humphrey, D-Minn., called "serious communication weaknesses" involving information on the drug's suspected crippling power.

These developments came after New York city reported what may be the nation's first death due to the suspected drug, and after an Arizona court refused to grant an abortion to a Phoenix woman.

The announcement came on the heels of a report by the food and drug administration that thalidomide pills had been distributed to doctors in 39 states and the District of Columbia.

They were not sold commercially. In one of the states, the New York city health department said—27-year-old—Quinn—woman.

BOISE, July 31—A tragic drowning which claimed the lives of five persons was cited today as an object lesson for all boaters. "Everyone should realize," said George Denney, state motor vehicle inspection director, "that every boat operator must be responsible to the people on their own. The boat won't keep them up." He noted that in the drowning of five persons on the Salmon river, the boat operator, the boat was swamped when they failed to heed the law requiring that every motor powered boat must have aboard one life preserver, life belt, buoyant cushion or ring buoy for each person aboard. But the law does not actually require the wearing of such equipment.

BOISE, July 31—The public utilities commission ordered an increase in the effective date of the proposed 13.6 per cent rate increase asked by Idaho Power company and indicated a final decision will be made some time away. "We've not made a final decision on this case," said Roy Wickberg, commission president, "but we surely are going to take a look at these briefs which go to the heart of the case." He referred to briefs filed in both cases last week and in general to Idaho Power. Briefs are due next week and in September. Police Warn Finns About More Rioting HELSINKI, July 31—Finnish police warned today they would take even sterner measures to keep rioting in Helsinki at an anti-communist demonstrations—continuing during the Soviet-sponsored world youth festival.

Police, including mounted officers, staged a three-hour battle with about 5,000 rioters in the downtown area again last night. It took three tear gas attacks and club-swinging forays to break up the third demonstration in as many nights.

Unlike two previous disturbances, this one did not directly involve the estimated 10,000 delegates to the communist-backed week-long festival.

The demonstrators gathered along a thoroughfare, shouting anti-communist slogans and issuing police orders and attacking meetings elsewhere in the city at the time.

Police fought the angry mobs with tear gas bombs on three separate occasions. They made a mounted assault swinging hard rubber truncheons. Authorities denied a report that one of the rioters had been killed.

Police refused to divulge the number of injuries or arrests made. In any case, rioting and sterner precautions would be taken to prevent further disturbances.

Norland Has Seed Grower Association

RUPERT, July 31—Snake River Seed Growers association was formed Sunday at a meeting in Norland, with Keith Thomas named president, Ed Zenoniani, vice president, and Bill Paul, secretary.

A tour is planned next Tuesday to start at the Vitus Albrecht ranch at 10 a.m. Seed fields will be checked.

Problems and possibilities of seed production in this area were discussed. One of the most urgent problems is informing farmers of the importance of good seed care in use of sprays, crops such as peas and potatoes. Chemicals are available which control pests and still are not harmful to bees.

A good bee population is the key to success in this area, it was reported. Two types of bees are least outbred and alkaline.

MAGEL TIRE COMPANY

Advice Given On Alarms by T. F. Chamber

WILLIAM Orange, secretary-treasurer of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce, said he is advising a company that sells intercom radio systems connected with fire alarms to be careful in the area of the next few days.

Orange said they are selling intercom systems with firm alarms on "remote" basis, commonly known as chain sales.

This plan, Orange believes, the promise of commissions from future sales to induce an inducement to buy. A $1000 offer is offered $100 for sale-made-to-a-friend-10 days and your equipment is free, he said.

Orange said they are selling the equipment for $788 with finance charges in the amount of $23 making the total cost of the 36 month contract $1,061.

Orange said the inter-com system included with this sale can be purchased locally for $227 with an additional five-inch speaker. Installation can be done by one man in one day for $50.

In considering fire alarm equipment in the home, Orange said it is wise to consider the safety of smoke and gas as well as the heat reaches 130 degrees which is the point that triggers the alarm.

Orange added that residents might contact the chamber office or local fire before attempting to purchase anything from out-of-town salesman.

Ageless Dietrich Records Feelings In New Book

NEW YORK, July 31 (AP)—Youth is optimism and trust, says Marlene Dietrich.

If she is correct, the fabulous Dietrich is ageless in mental outlook. And certainly she's got nature on her side physically.

The optimism of the German-born actress, who has become a heavy representative of beauty and glamour, shines through her conversation—on every thing and about every thing.

"I suppose," she said, "if I were a young girl, I would not like, I would think of retirement. I was lucky. . . . I like what I am doing and have no intention of retiring."

Her hectic schedule for the summer includes singing dates at a carnival and the narration in French for "The Black Fox," a film about Hitler's Gestapo which will open the Venice film festival. She already has done the English narration.

After being her side physically, Dietrich promises to remain a luminous beauty at 70 years of age.

But her face remains unlined like old soldiers, just fade away. She is now in her late 60's.

Which means she wears lavender stretch trousers and a man's style shirt, lavender also. The shirt has thin stripes in blue.

She has thin stripes in blue, clear, pale skin, huge blue eyes set in deep sockets, broad cheekbones, high cheekbones.

Dietrich declares she never did any special secrets for skin care. She's a soap and water girl who "can't stay clean."

"I like everything that has immediate results," said Miss Dietrich. "Cleaning is one thing, but I like something which has to do with the hands."

She's a do-it-yourselfer at the typewriter too, she said. She used to read a book called "Martine Dietrich's ABC's—A Guide to the Art of Typing."

People-Giving Project Needed, Says College Girl

NEW YORK, July 31 (AP)—What this country needs to help win a popularity contest abroad is more "people-giving," says one unadvised young coquette.

Brunette Nancy Drew, 23, spent eight months in Japan teaching English in junior high school and then went around the world as a Girl Scout representative.

There is so much young people can do," said Miss Drew. "I wish more graduate students would worry less about getting down immediately to a good job."

Telstar Showing Of Dior Lines 'Not Cricket'

NEW YORK, July 31 (AP)—Seeing fashion on television evokes in you an almost universal urge to see the family here and indulge in an orgy of shopping.

The question of television's effectiveness in presenting fashion came up after the Telstar broadcast from Paris earlier this week showing five minutes of clothes from the houses of Balmain and Dior.

"Telstar is a wonderful new thing," commented Norman North, executive vice president of American designers. "But as far as fashion goes, I don't think it means a damn thing to the woman seeing it at home."

"Absolutely wild," he said, "is not cricket. It takes the edge off the showing."

Men Belts Two Homeruns as Boys Drop Pocatello 14-8

They boomed two homeruns good for six RBIs Monday night and the Magic Valley Cowboys moved to first place in the Pioneer league by belting Pocatello 14-8. A total of nine home runs and their opponents continued their torrid hitting. A helping hand came from the wind carrying to the left field fence helped. The homeruns were twin-third and fourth for Allen in two days and Adolfo Phillips continued his torrid hitting by belting his sixth homer in the current five-game stand. Phillips also added two other hits to raise his batting average to .345 high of .400. The clubs met again Tuesday night.

A crowd of 847 turned out to honor Ethyl Hunt, officially named "Mrs. Magic Valley Baseball" in a pre-game presentation.

Although the Cowboys led comfortably most of the night, Pocatello tried a garbage inning in the ninth inning and almost routed left-handed Joe Helmer.

Allen moved very close to the league lead in total bases and runs—batted in for his night's work. He singled home two in the first, leading after Bubba Weston led off with a double and Adolfo Phillips singled and a second, Allen scored on a bad-hop single by Dick Yench.

In the second, Adolfo Phillips doubled and Gene Walker struck on a fielder's choice that put Weston out at the plate. Weston had a runner on first and then he poked his first homer.

The third inning netted two more Cowboys runs with Jim Cochrane and Gene Walker, but they back to back homers. In the fourth, Adolfo Phillips led off with a homer and Gene Walker had popped up. Allen crashed his second circuit shot.

After adding a single run in the fifth, the Cowboys capped the evening with a three-run outburst. Mickey Phillips singled and Gene Walker singled. They moved up on a sacrifice by Weston and scored on Walters' double and Helmer's homer.

Solo homers in the first and second innings by John Kowalski and Gene Beard, plus an earned run in the third, got Pocatello going before Helmer came up with four scoreless innings of pitching.

In the eighth, Beard got a strike when he fell in uncontrolled and Gene Naundin hammered a homer. Beard hit his second homer of the night in the ninth, hitting Joe Verdant and Dick Matter on. Then Whitney Johnson, pinch hitting Joe Cammarota, hit a homer and Gene Walker batted with consecutive singles. Helmer then induced John Raymond to ground out to end the game.

MAGIC VALLEY BASEBALL was the title officially conferred on Mrs. Ethyl Hunt in a ceremony at Jaycee park Monday night. Dick Yench, Cowboy shortstop, presents the name from a fan to Mrs. Hunt. The Cowboys then went on to defeat Pocatello 14-8 for the best of six (Times-News photo)

Cleveland Club Is Denied Spot in NBA

NEW YORK, July 31 (AP)—The Cleveland Pipers were refused membership in the National Basketball Association Monday and the NBA announced it would not expand beyond its current nine-team makeup for the coming season. The action was taken at a special meeting of the NBA's board of governors. They met to consider the membership application of the Pipers, champion of the rival American Basketball league last season—the new group's first year of play.

Monroe Podoloff, president of the NBA, said after the meeting that "the Pipers had been declared in default on their agreement with the NBA made on July 10, and the NBA will continue to operate for the coming season with the same nine teams as last year."

Podoloff added that the Pipers had produced written reasons assuring the NBA that they were available for NBA membership, and an agreement was reached on Cleveland's franchise fee and other financial commitments.

However, Podoloff said, at a Monday meeting the board was told by the Pipers that these commitments could not be met.

The Pipers' troubles apparently were two-fold. First was the price of the team's admission to the NBA—reported to be $200,000 with $100,000 going to the Cincinnati Royals as an indemnity payment. The Royals were to receive their share mainly for letting three-time All-American Jerry Lucas play for the Pipers.

The Royals had cited the fact that they would lose the NBA franchise if they picked him in the ABL draft.

According to reports, George Steinbrenner, head of the Piper organization, was unable to make any installment on the club's admission fee.

Also the NBA has been threatened by legal action from the ABL, whose backers have stated that they would be back in business next season and still considered Cleveland ABL property.

When the NBA originally announced Cleveland's potential membership earlier this month, it was said that several ABL officials would have a part in operating the Pipers and the ABL would stand ready for the coming season at least. However, when the ABL President Albert Waskerline claimed his league was not folding and any attempt by the NBA to take in the Pipers would result in a lawsuit.

Maris Still Feuds With N.Y. Fans

NEW YORK, July 31 (AP)—Honorer king Roger Maris is having his troubles again—or will—with the spectators at Yankee stadium.

Maris' latest skirmish with people who pay to see the Yankees play came Sunday during a doubleheader with the Chicago White Sox.

Things were going along pretty smoothly until Maris struck out in the fifth inning of the second game. Two Yankees were on base at the time, and the White Sox were ahead.

When Roger returned to his right field position, fans in the stands and bleachers hurled objects onto the field. Maris said he picked up a golf ball which had fallen near him and hurried it back into the stands so far as he cleared an exit in the third inning.

American Loop Unleashes Homerun Power to Belt National Leaguers 9-4

CHICAGO, July 31 (AP)—The American league rolled out its trusty homerun and shelled the National league with blasts by Pete Runnels, Leon Wagner and Rocky Colavito Monday for a 9-4 victory that saved their slender lead in the long all-star baseball series. The Nationals finally had a chance to even the score in this often-embarrassing series. But the American sluggers dominated this 33rd

Shotton Dies

LAKE WALES, Fla., July 31 (AP)—Burt Shotton, who managed the Brooklyn Dodgers to two pennants, is dead of a heart attack.

The 77-year-old baseball veteran whose career began in 1908, was stricken Sunday night at a fishing camp where he lived.

A neighbor at Camp Lehigh, 15 miles east of this central Florida town, radioed for a physician. Shotton was dead when an ambulance arrived from Lake Wales.

Final Filtered Gasolines

—ONLY AT AMERICAN OIL DEALERS

Today's cars need gasolines free of microscopic particles that used to be no problem. These contaminants clog the filter car makers put in fuel lines to protect precision carburetors. Filter clogging cuts power and acceleration, can even stop your car.

American Oil Research found a solution—the American FINAL FILTER, the red filter you'll see on the pump nozzle only at American Oil Dealers. At no extra cost, AMERICAN Brand Gasolines are Final Filtered as they go into your tank. Look for the American FINAL FILTER—the gasoline improvement you can actually see!

San Francisco Mine Board Faces Charges

SAN FRANCISCO, July 31 (AP)—The San Francisco mining exchange, which deals in shares such as Rose Gold, Comstock tunnel and Sunburst Pete, is 99 years old.

It hopes to reach 100, but the securities and exchange commission is against it.

The SEC filed charges yesterday that could put the second oldest securities market in the United States out of business.

Although there no longer is free trading in gold in the United States, investors still can buy shares in mining properties. Prices yesterday ranged from two to 85 cents a share.

The SEC report accused the exchange, which operates in a neat, modern office in the San Francisco financial district, of distributing "substantially worthless securities to the investing public."

Hinting that it had become impatient with the exchange's operations in the highly speculative penny stocks, the SEC said it had made "repeated efforts . . . over a long period of time to persuade the exchange to meet its problems."

Yesterday about 60,000 shares were traded, at prices averaging less than 5 cents a share. Exchange officials posted a notice on the door advising the public that the organization "has a problem with the SEC" but "will continue to remain open for business."

UNLOADING EQUIPMENT that will be used by the 902nd air force reserve recovery squadron, Twin Falls, is Doyle Silgar, left, Twin Falls. The gasoline operated auxiliary generator, coiler, and a 33-ton tractor tug, right, were brought by trucks from Mountain Home air force base Monday afternoon to Jostis field. The tractor, which is obsolete, will be used to move airplanes. (Times-News photo)
