Some States Quit Sabin Vaccine; Others Waiting

By The Associated Press
Some states have decided to discontinue use of Sabin type III polio vaccine, but state and local officials in a number of places have adopted a wait-and-see policy. The vaccine is of type I and II will continue to be used in general, checks across the country indicate. The decision was made after the U. S. public health service announced in Washington Saturday that it continued use of type III vaccine.
The service provided sufficient vaccine "to indicate that some of these cases are caused by type I vaccines."
The special advisory committee of the health service said all confirmed cases occurred in the service recommended use of type III vaccine. The service also noted in its report that the use of type III vaccine for polio was not recommended by the health service.
Secretary Anthony J. Celebrezze, whose health, education and welfare department embraces the health service, said Sunday on the NBC television program "Meet the Press" that the use of type III vaccine was not recommended by the health service.
Celebrezze said that with these data he was willing to take no action himself.
He said that decisions on the matter were made by Surgeon General Luther Terry and other experts and by some local health officials.
Final decision on whether type III should be given to adults in mass immunization programs would be made by local authorities, he said.
He said that the question about safety, he said.

Freeman Hits GOP Policies For Farmers

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 17—The nation's young, earnest secretary of agriculture was in the woodland yesterday to praise California agriculture but criticize the Republicans.

Secretary Orville Freeman drew nearly 1000 people from the rich farm areas of the southern California valley when he appeared at a rally for Democratic candidates from the area.

Freeman was liberal in his praise for California agriculture, particularly its extensive use of supply-management methods under state and federal marketing orders. He hinted this has been a major factor in making California the top farm state in the nation.

And he said it was Republicans who would advocate doing away with such programs, along with other control programs.

"I take it from the statements of Republicans that they would repeal the sugar act and other control programs," Freeman said, adding, "and I take it from the statements of Mr. Richard Nixon, the Republican gubernatorial candidate that he would repeal marketing orders."

Freeman's attack on the Republican approach to farm problems as a "no farm policy," and said the program proposed by the committee for economic development followed the same line. He said the aim of this plan was to "depress farm prices so low that farmers would be driven out of agriculture."

The Republican - CED program, he said, advocates free marketing of farm goods, which he said would drop prices about 25 per cent.

Thant High Choice for U.N. Victory

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Sept. 17—Diplomats from 115 nations of the world predicted today that the 17th general assembly opening Tuesday will name U Thant of Burma as a full five-year term as secretary-general of the United Nations.

Thant is acting secretary-general, serving out the unexpired term of the late Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold, who died April 18. He was elected last Nov. 3 after Hammarskjold's death in a plane crash in Africa a year ago today.

U. S. Delegate Charles W. Yost, previewing the assembly session Sunday, indicated that the U. S. delegation expects Thant to be reelected.

Yost told New York area members of the American association for the United Nations: "The performance of the acting secretary-general has been so outstanding and has met with such universal support among the members that we doubt if this will be the subject of serious controversy."

In negotiations on Hammarskjold's successor, the Soviet Union first insisted that the management of the United Nations be taken over by three of its undersecretaries—an American, an Indian and a Russian.

Oregon Loses Services of Quarterback

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 17.—The Oregon Ducks faced the rugged task today of meeting Colton, last champion. Team next week-end without their regular quarterback from last year.

Oregon officials revealed last night that Doug Pate, who was the Ducks' first string attack quarterback in 1962, probably won't play this season. It's going to hurt the Ducks, coach Len Casanova said when informed Pate will undergo a knee operation tomorrow. He can't lose a guy with a year's experience as the top quarterback and not expect it to.

Pate injured a knee in a spring game last year when he was diving for a fumble and apparently damaged a cartilage. Casanova said, "I hope to see sophomore Bud Berry in our starting quarterback slot against Texas. He's a good one but he doesn't have the experience of Pate."

The Ducks are rated one of the nation's most powerful teams in their season's opening Saturday night at Austin, Tex. Ohio State also is in their schedule this year.

Carry Back Starting New Career Phase

By The Associated Press
Carry Back, who has captured the people's fancy as few horses have in racing history, embarks today on another phase of his life—Major League career.

The undefeated-bred son of Sassy and Joppy, whose breeding was carried out by his owner, the late Harry F. Matthews, has won more than one million dollars in less than three years, takes off for Paris and the Oct. 7 running of the tradition-prize Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp.

Under the weight-for-age conditions of the race, Carry Back will carry 122 pounds, a weight the 4-year-old never has packed. He also will be running on the same track as the 1962 champion, who won the race in 1962.

Never bred from Harry F. Matthews's own blood, Carry Back's sire, Harry F. Matthews, showed that he still is in the hunt for the 2-year-old colt title by taking the $152,150 Futurity at Aqueduct.

Parilli Leads Patriots Over Colts 34 to 21

By The Associated Press
There is a lot of life left in Old Patriots yet, and the more, the merrier so far as the Boston Patriots are concerned. Vito (Fat) Parilli, the old bones of the Patriots, outdid another old clogger—Johnny in leading the Boston Patriots to a resounding 34-21 victory over the American Football League champion Houston Oilers, who were led by quarterback George Blanda's three touchdown passes.

Parilli tossed a pair, then threw the last laugh at the Oilers with a 32-yard scoring gallop that rocked stadium Old Haven and sent the Oilers' defense reeling and threw the Eastern division into a three-way tie for the top spot.

San Diego's Chargers, struggling off the 38-21 upset by Denver after he bombed by Denver, the New York Titans 40-14. But San Diego still trails the Broncos, who old the Western division lead with a 2-0 record after defeating Oakland 23-20 Saturday night.

Dallas and Buffalo were not affected by the loss.

Parilli completed touchdown passes of 63 yards to Larry Garcon and 5 to Jim Connelough and then threw a 33-yard pass to another score as the Patriots led 24-14 first-half lead with one of 40 yards.

Blanda hit Charlie Hoffman for 78 and 49-yard touchdowns, while Keith McLeod with one of 40 yards.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 17.—The San Francisco Giants' first loss in the National League pennant race mathematically, but it may take an Einstein to win it for them. With 12 games left on the schedule, the Giants stand four games behind league leader Los Angeles. Even if the Dodgers only split their 12 games, the Giants would have to win 10 for a first-place tie. And the way Al Dark's team has been floundering, that type of streak is unlikely.

Los Angeles, who were led by pitcher Tom Seaver, won 4-1.

Nicklaus Keeps on Winning

SEATTLE, Sept. 17 (UPI)—"Husky" or "Baby Beef." It makes no difference what they call him as long as he wins the money.

That was the answer Jack Nicklaus gave yesterday after he had fired a two-under-par 68 to win the $200,000 Seattle open with a 72-hole total of 265.

As Nicklaus, the youthful scourge of professional golf's money circuit, entered the locker room carrying the championship trophy and a check for $43,200, somebody asked him if he would rather be called "Husky" or "Baby Beef." Two nicknames he has picked up on the tour.

"Husky" said the 25-year-old who plays out of Tucson, Ariz. "I don't care as long as I win."

And win he did. But not without fighting off a tremendous challenge by Tony Lemm, San Leandro, Calif.

Lemm, seven strokes down at the start of the third round, pulled to within one of Nicklaus when he carved six aces off par on the front nine of the final round, putting a 28. He birdied again on the 14th, but lost it when he pulled out of the green and he bogied the par four, 42nd hole.

"Actually," he said, "I figured he was a little bit of a shot put on the 16th."

While Lemm was capturing the gallery with his seven-under 63 effort after the final 18, Nicklaus was content to play even par over the first 11. Then he made his bid.

He birdied the 12th and added eagle three on the 53rd yard. He then made a 30-foot putt on the 16th.

Nicklaus literally ate up the par 2, 42nd-hole hole-in-one course here, chewing 15 strokes off par over the four-day grand.

Clayton, who trailed by only two strokes after 71 on the first day, finished fourth with a 269.

And Palmer, who, along with player, lost to Nicklaus in the world series of golf a year earlier, broke par three times during the tournament, but his 71 total did nothing but place him in a four-way tie for sixth.

Tommy Jacobs, tying with Palmer at 269, set a course record in the final round, tying a 31-31-32.

Parilli Leads Patriots Over Colts 34 to 21

By The Associated Press
There is a lot of life left in Old Patriots yet, and the more, the merrier so far as the Boston Patriots are concerned. Vito (Fat) Parilli, the old bones of the Patriots, outdid another old clogger—Johnny in leading the Boston Patriots to a resounding 34-21 victory over the American Football League champion Houston Oilers, who were led by quarterback George Blanda's three touchdown passes.

Gloomly

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 17.—The San Francisco Giants' first loss in the National League pennant race mathematically, but it may take an Einstein to win it for them. With 12 games left on the schedule, the Giants stand four games behind league leader Los Angeles. Even if the Dodgers only split their 12 games, the Giants would have to win 10 for a first-place tie. And the way Al Dark's team has been floundering, that type of streak is unlikely.
