YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

TUESDAY, OCT. 16— Born today have a genuine need for peace and harmony. Tremendously talented, you are at the same time easily diverted, and your greatest difficulty will probably arise in the area of concentration. Learn to concentrate over a long period of time. Learn to postpone your pleasures to a later date at the slightest provocation. Learn to "stick it out" to the end, and there should be no doubt of your achievements.

Because you may lack some necessary push when it comes to fighting it out with the competition, you should make an effort to find a trustworthy partner who is interested enough in your success to place his own energy and know-how at your disposal. This, however, is an ideal situation, and the ideal is seldom found in life. It would be better, therefore, to develop the habit of aggression yourself, and thus equip yourself for fighting your own battles.

Individualistic in your approach, you may often find yourself self up against considerable opposition, and you must learn not to be discouraged by this. Also, because you are kind and generous, you must avoid giving away to others too much that could be of innumerable use to you. You must avoid being impulsively carried to extremes in, indeed, a fault!

Among those born on this date are Eugene O'Neill, American playwright; Oscar Wilde, poet, dramatist, novelist; Liane Harrell, actress.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday anniversary and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Betancourt Asks Outlaw Of Leftists

CARACAS, Venezuela, Oct. 16—President Romulo Betancourt announced last night that he has asked the supreme court to outlaw the communist party and the following revolutionary party.

In a 20-minute speech broadcast before the nation by radio and television, Betancourt said his government is determined to put an end once and for all to terrorism directed from the benches of parliament.

The president said the government will follow up the petition sent to the court yesterday with "overwhelming and forceful proof that leaders of the two leftist parties are guilty of fomenting civil rebellions."

Betancourt, grave-faced and speaking a rapid, forceful tone, denounced Venezuela's extremists as allies of Premier Fidel Castro's revolutionary regime in Cuba and of the Kremlin.

"These policemen and the military men behind them are waging a terrorist guerrilla war on the government, stirring up police military revolts and committing other crimes..." The president said.

"Extreme-leftist" party leaders in congress, protected by parliamentary immunity against arrest, have been repeatedly waging open rebellion against the national constitution.

Seamen Rescued After Three Months of Terror on Reef

SUVA, Fiji Islands, Oct. 16—Seven here and Samoa. Fiji—The two men were almost dead when they were found in a heavy rain. They were survivors of the 50 when they were washed ashore last July 4 in a small boat off the coast of Tonga. They were rescued by a 17-man native crew yesterday.

They huddled a confined space, without water or food for 11 months and without a drop of water on a tiny island. The men were native seamen from the Polynesian archipelago of Tonga, which lies halfway between Hawaii and New Zealand.

But there were no longer survivors. The plane's crew found only seven men, huddled under the wreckage of a Japanese fishing trawler that went aground on the reef last year.

According to the two men who reached Suva yesterday, three persons went down when the ship went around and sank a few days after leaving Tonga on what would have been a 3,500-mile trip to Auckland, New Zealand.

The 11 remaining Tongans scrambled onto the reef and took shelter under the shattered bulk. They began the long struggle for survival, eating shellfish from pools among the coral and catching fish with hooks made from shells.

It was not known how the men lived without fresh water.

Finally, they decided to build two rafts with timber from the wrecked trawler, driftwood and rope. Ten days ago, three men set out to find help.

One of them started out alone on a raft and apparently disappeared.

The other two made it to Fiji after drifting without food or water and suffering intensely from the burning sun. They told Fiji authorities they had given up hope of rescue, but could not remember anything about the long struggle.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16—American maritime unions have offered to accept a Communist boycott breach caused by the refusal of many Allied and neutral governments to deny the use of their ships in trade between Russia and Cuba. There are diplomatic obstacles to negotiating such a comprehensive barrier against Communist influence.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16—A House committee will be set up to study the Communist Party's key role in this situation has been revealed by testimony before the select subcommittee on Foreign and Commonwealth Affairs of the House. It indicates that the Party has been in a position of control of the house.

A Friend Departs
Many Mugle Valley residents reading of the death of Mrs. Pearl Barber will be saddened at the death of a friend. The spry little woman known by many names of the travelers who crossed Galena summit down through the years. She had a friendly way of making you feel as something of a reporter in the mountain country to the north of Mugle Valley.

A FIRST FOR LABOR—The AFL-CIO proposal has now been reinforced by the officers of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters. A membership of 60,000 workers on the Atlantic and Gulf coasts. There have been instances where longshoremen have refused to handle Communist cargoes on their own initiative, even before Russia had begun to ship to Cuba. But since the maritime unions on the West coast, which have taken no action, this is the first time that the labor movement has taken such an initiative behind the proposed boycott.

Some travelers wouldn't think of crossing in Galena country without stopping at Mrs. Barber's combination service station, general store and refreshment stand. A few who customarily filled the gas tanks of their autos never became completely accustomed to the service attendant's insistence on washing the windshield, a service she continued at the age of 70.

Interestingly, the I.L.A. acted after Secretary Rusk had discussed the matter with NATO allies and the foreign ministers of the Latin American states. So far, the only Latin American state to bar their vessels from the Russo-Cuban route is Argentina.

It was not uncommon for night travelers to stop at Galena for needed gasoline, only to be queried on their identity from an upstairs window, then told to help themselves from an unlocked gas pump and pay later.

TOGETHER THAN RISK—The I.L.A.'s proposed prohibition, which must be ratified by the executive committee and a membership vote, is far from a simple matter. The White House says that its statement said was not sufficiently strong. It would blacklist the whole fleet of any carrier who failed to comply with the two Communist countries. It would bar United States foreign aid cargoes to vessels so employed.

Through her practice of staying all winter at Galena over a period of several years. Mrs. Barber gained nationwide attention. When the highway past her front door was opened at the end of those long winters, Mrs. Barber was particularly glad to see visitors and chatted with many from the moment they started stopping their cars until they started again.

They may not be able to prevent the unions however, after Secretary Rusk's initiative. After relating how Houston longshoremen refused to handle Communist cargoes from Havana and planned to pick up a U.S. government shipment for the United Arab Republic, McGavin told the committee.

After Mrs. Barber sold her Galena store and retired, she was missed by many of her friends. Although she had traveled widely during some winter months spent "outside," she still managed to live close to the country she loved following retirement. She spent summer months at nearby Easley and colder weather at Ketchum.

MANY NATIONS INVOLVED—The maritime union support for the proposed boycott, and the maritime unions department, AFL-CIO, will continue to lend its wheelbarrow assistance to the cause. According to McGavin, whose organization maintains close contact with foreign unions, American shipowners are being urged to contact Nikita Khrushchev, merchant marine. Their cooperation, he added, enables the Soviet to concentrate on the production of arms.

JUST DORMANT
The 87th congress of the United States is in session, but many of the issues that plagued its sessions will return to haunt future congresses. For example, anyone who assumes the Burns Creek project is dead could be accused of wishful thinking. The proposals of the Burns Creek project will make sure the Burns Creek project crops up again, and, if necessary, again, again and again.

IT WORKS
That poor wretch who was nabbed the other day for stealing a couple of Gensco, took a long drive home. His car must have been suffering from a tired pocketbook as well as a tired head!

But even those who favor the dam most vigorously will deny that some 90 percent of the cost would be charged to power. Wide support was drummed up for the project from Idaho, with the aid of some 100,000 acre feet of irrigation water storage. It's a question whether the support would have crystallized if the plum of added water had been dangled over the time of drought on the Snake river watershed.

PUPS FOR KIDS DEPT.
We have six male puppies to give away. They are pure Australian shepherds. Only live three weeks of a mile west of Jasper, in Fliler.

Anyway, the maneuver resulted in widespread and bipartisan endorsement of the Burns Creek project. Whether the support will be as decisive during a period of plentiful water remains to be seen. Regardless, the project had still bipartisan support from Idaho and still it was rejected by congress. The development of the project is not dead, again that Idaho is weak politically, a fact that all Idahoans should keep in mind at all times.

PUPS FOR KIDS DEPT.
We have five litters to give away. They are lively and lots of fun. They come from good mousser stock. Two are natural grey-blue, two are natural grey-blue and grey-blue striped. I want to keep one but we already have two grown cats and one of them is a black and white. I have kitten money says the baby kittens have to go now. They are house broken and eat real good. They are about 2 months old. Phone 888-7788 after 6 p.m. week days or all day Saturday and Sunday.

Defeat of Burns Creek also demonstrated that voters should not accept campaign promises at face value. Idahoans will remember that Rep. James Hansen was elected two years ago on the promise that he could obtain congressional approval for the Burns Creek project. Actually, the project is farther away from approval than when he first did approve an initial appropriation two years ago. Without project authorization, the funds were worthless.

IT WORKS

"Dead" Case Of Escapee Is Reopened
BLACKFOOT, Oct. 16 (AP)—Eleven years ago a murder was committed in Bligham county. Six months later a man accused of the crime escaped from the State Hospital South. Two years later the hospital's files were closed on the subject when his name was believed to be dead.

Now the case has come to life again with a positive identification by an associate and through fingerprints. Extrajudicial papers were filed by the Bligham county prosecuting attorney's office to return Clyde Glah, now 62, to Idaho from San Jose, Calif., where he is being held without bond.

Glah, using the name Roy King, has told authorities that he will not waive extradition to Idaho to face the charges of first degree murder brought against him in 1951.

According to Sheriff A. E. Hess, Glah was accused of the murder Dec. 20, 1951, of Edward McEvoy, then 68, in a two-day shooting at Atomic City. McEvoy, a plumber employed at the AEC project, "was shot down as he stepped outside a tavern in an attempt to squelch an argument which had started between Glah and some other people in the vicinity."

Glah was ordered to the state hospital, where he was confined until his escape June 5, 1952. A shepherd, said Hess, told officers that he had fed a man matching Glah's description and had given him some other food, shortly after the escape. The herder was camped in the hills east of the hospital. An individual, now unidentified, while trekking in the hills two years later, came upon the abandoned body of a man, whose being, investigations which follow have failed to identify the body.

Clues Scarce in Judd's Escape
PHOENIX, Ariz., Oct. 16 (AP)—Escaped trunk murderer Winnie Ruth Judd remained at large today and police said they had no solid leads to the whereabouts of the 35-year-old mental patient who fled the Arizona state hospital eight days ago. Hospital Superintendent Robert W. Wick was requesting a report of an investigation into Mrs. Judd's seventh escape from the institution since her commitment in 1932, and was to present the report Thursday to the Arizona state hospital board. Mrs. Judd, who was convicted of shooting her two roommates, Heddy Eshelbourn and Ann LaFol and shipping their bodies to Los Angeles in a trunk, apparently slipped out of the ward through an unlocked door.

Kennedy Gets Panel Report On Retarded

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16 — President Kennedy received a panel report today for launching a broad attack on mental retardation, which has struck three out of 100 Americans.

The report was drafted by a presidential panel of experts who called on the President at the White House this morning.

The panel, in its report made public Monday night, drafted 20 recommendations for a program which would emphasize community action and call for voluntary help to help the retarded through a domestic peace corps.

Kennedy established the blue-ribbon panel a year ago calling mental retardation a national problem that needed a national solution.

The President's 43-year-old daughter Rosemary is mentally retarded and has spent the last 20 years in a Catholic institution that specializes in the care of such cases.

The panel, headed by Dr. Leonard B. Brown of the Johns Hopkins University, said in its 281-page report Monday that the causes of mental retardation are complex and varied—and a broad attack is necessary to prevent and treat them.

Double Time

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16 —Rep. James O. O'Hara, D., Mich., said yesterday he is working on a bill for the next congress which would raise overtime work from time-and-a-half to double time pay.

O'Hara said the purpose of the bill was to encourage employers to hire unemployed persons rather than keep those already working on overtime.

"The wage hour law is obviously not doing the job," O'Hara said in a statement.

Reds Shoot Down Planes In Viet Nam

SAIGON, South Viet Nam, Oct. 16 (AP)—Communist guerrillas shot down a U. S. spotter plane and a U. S. air force fighter in South Viet Nam's central highlands Monday and today.

Three Americans aboard the spotter plane were killed.

The pilot of the F-4 fighter rode his plane down and was thrown out when it hit and exploded. He was injured but not seriously.

The identities of the Americans were not announced.

This was the first indication that U. S. combat planes were in action against the communist Viet Cong.

In the past, U. S. air force pilots have flown combat missions in Vietnamese air force planes in air strikes against the guerrillas.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16 (AP)—President Kennedy catches his campaign breath for another day, then dashes to the White House to take in another fire-building mission for 1962.

Kennedy landed in Washington Monday from New York, where he had summoned U. N. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson to his hour's huddle on international objectives, after bargaining five states on political objectives in November congressional and state elections.

Spinning through New York, northern New Jersey, western Pennsylvania, Indiana, Louisville and Buffalo in the last three days, Kennedy departed at 11:45 p.m. Wednesday.

He is primarily interested in turning out a big vote on Nov. 6. He is working for new frontiers. He reckons on a 25 per cent deflection of Democratic or crucial domestic votes, in Pittsburgh, he loped conservative members of his party with Republicans as obstacles on key issues.

Kennedy said his campaign camp was ebullient after leaving Buffalo at 11:45 p.m. Sunday. Estimates of the turnout for his appearance at the Pinkski city celebration of Buffalo's population Polish-American community ran up to 100,000.

ICC Blames Speed for Idaho Mishap

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16 (AP)—A Northern Pacific passenger train which jumped the track on a curve in Idaho last March was moving at more than twice the authorized speed, government investigators said today.

Probes for the interstate commerce commission said the west-bound train was traveling at about 60 miles an hour as it entered a curve on which the authorized speed is 30 miles an hour.

Two persons were killed and 139 were injured in the derailment, which occurred near Granite, Idaho, on the Northern Pacific's Idaho division between Paradise, Mont., and Spokane, Wash.

The engineer and fireman were killed and 119 passengers and 22 employees of the railroad and railway post office were injured.

The death of the engineer and fireman prevented investigators from determining "why the speed of the train was not being properly controlled as it approached the curve," the investigators said.

TV Habits of Pupils Eyed At Gooding

GOODING, Oct. 14—(Television, movies and school) was the discussion subject of the PTA meeting held Monday evening at the new high school lunch room. Eugene Gibbons, principal of the elementary school, presented the program, which was compiled from questionnaires filled out by students in grades one through five, discussion held at teachers' meetings, and an article in the county PTA magazine.

Gibbons summarized the movie habits of children and the teaching of the moral code of movie-makers. He then summarized results of the questionnaires of the school children, which covered subjects from the favorite television program, to how many parents covered the amount of television watched, to how many sets were owned by the family.

He also read some of the comments which were written in on the questionnaires by the children.

Some conclusions reached by the teachers in their meeting included criticism of the poor English used on children's shows, of a revenge theme in cartoons, and the fact that children are not physically fit because of the time spent watching television instead of exercising. It was also pointed out that much of the programs are educational, and can be helpful if television watching is supervised and limited.

In conclusion Gibbons pointed out that many children watch television out of boredom or frustration, and urged parents to provide other activities for children's energy in the form of books, activities and other forms of "creativity."

The Rev. Don Stram of the First Christian church is the speaker to open the business meeting conducted by Mrs. Charles Clark. She introduced committee chairmen, Mrs. George Hurlitz, ways and means chairman, Mrs. Bert Johnson, and safety chairman, Mrs. Don Sims, membership chairman, reported that 30 members had joined the organization.

Churches Try To Lessen Board Power

MONTREAL, N. C., Oct. 16 (AP)—Overseas churches are seeking to lessen the authority of mission boards of the U. S. church bodies which founded them, three passage leaders agreed Monday.

The three participants in a consultation on world missions here agreed that one of the pressing problems is whether to accede to their request for greater independence.

Complicating the issue is the feeling on the part of many missionaries that ties with mission boards must be maintained.

The consultation, attended by church leaders from all continents will prepare recommendations for the sponsoring Board of World Missions of the Presbyterian church in the U. S. Five sessions, including closed sessions through Wednesday will report Thursday and Friday.

Pierce Hurts Giants to 5-2 Win; Series Play Is Evened at Three Each

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16 (AP) — Billy Pierce returned to his happy hunting ground at Candlestick park Monday and squared the world series for the San Francisco Giants with a 5-2 victory over the New York Yankees in the sixth game. Pierce, unbeaten at home with a 120 regular season record in this park, had lusty aid from Giant bats which knocked out Whitey Ford in the fifth inning. Orlando Cepeda snapped out of a

Cepeda Snaps Slump To Help Giants Win

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16 (AP) — "Those were the hardest shots Orlando Cepeda has hit in a month and a half," San Francisco Giants manager Alvin Dark said of his batting hero in Monday's sixth world series game. There was also plenty of praise for Billy Pierce, the 34-year-old left-hander who limited the Yankees to three hits. Yet Dark didn't think Billy was throwing as hard as he did in losing the Los Angeles Dodgers 8-0 in their first playoff game.

"He pitched great and was putting the pitches where he wanted them," Dark added. Pierce declared, "The home-run pitched to me by Moe Drabek in the fifth inning was a curve. I threw him a fast ball to strike him out in the ninth. You can't relax a minute with the Yankees." Both Pierce and Cepeda benefited from the rain-encrusted dirt which caused a three-day delay in this sixth game that tied the world series at 3-3.

"We won, so I have to say the long rest helped," said Cepeda. "I was sore on long hits to center field by Mickey Mantle in the opening inning and Bill Skowron in the third."

"I turned around and looked at Willis and when I saw he wasn't too perturbed, I didn't worry so much about the veteran. Mickey Mantle didn't get a hit off Pierce, driving the ball toward center in each of four times in the sixth. He hit a fly ball and two more fast balls, Pierce said.

"I didn't worry any different than I have been," said Cepeda, who has been one of the series goats until now. "But with the old good good, I felt strong. I used a 35-ounce bat instead of a 33."

"The best made me feel good. I didn't feel tired anymore," Cepeda belted a single, double and a single in his first three runs in the 5-2 triumph.

X-Rays Show No Breaks For Hornung

GREEN BAY, Wis., Oct. 16 (AP) — James "Lefty" Hornung showed no bone damage in the injured right knee of Green Bay Packers fullback after the national football league scoring leader the last three seasons.

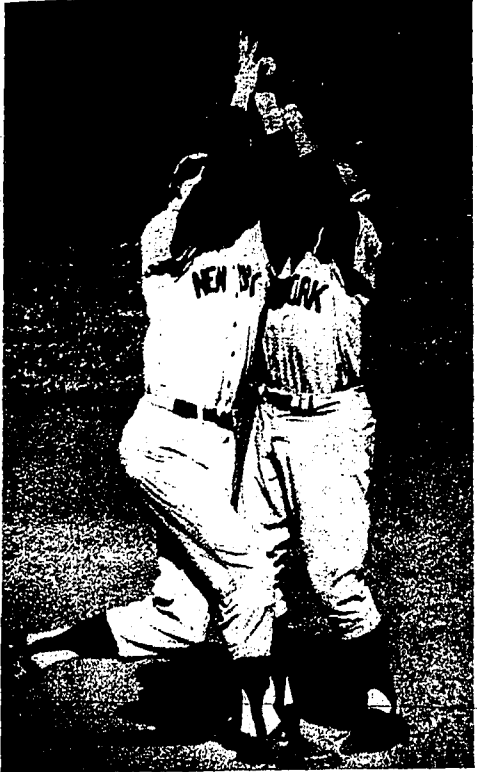

"It's still a real stiff," said Packers coach Vince Lombardi. "We'll just have to wait and see whether he can play next Sunday."

Injuries in the Viking game also sidelined other Packers. Defensive halfback Jesse Whitenton has pulled leg muscles, offensive tackle Bob Brown has a twisted knee, and defensive tackle Ron Kosteletzki a dislocated shoulder.

"I'm not saying they won't be able to play Sunday," Lombardi said, "but we'll know a lot more tomorrow when the team works out."

Spikes Lost Dallas

DALLAS, Texas, Oct. 16 (AP) — Jackie Byrd was named MVP of the American football league for the remainder of the season when an injured third baseman hit a home run Monday. The same thing happened last year.

Hoople Sees Upsets Coming on Week-End, Backing Underdog

By Major Abner B. Hoople
Equal it is a great year for underdogs. Even mother nature is emphasizing the importance of the sports on America's autumn calendar by weathering out the world series. The storms which struck the West Coast over the week-end will be the week of head rolling among America's top rated teams. On that assumption, I have gone largely with the underdog on games which could be close and I hasten to advise all of you to follow suit.

I enjoyed one of my greatest weeks in advising last week, missing but two. But again the perceptive predictors of Magic Kallay, again in the same mold, for fame and glory. Five missed only the shattering tie between San Jose and Idaho. Many others joined me in missing only two.

The championship for the week is shared by Mrs. Don Albin, Larry Jasper, were named back and liner of the week Monday at the Western Athletic conference.

Their play sparked in the Lobos' 14-13 victory over Utah State in a nonconference game Saturday.

Santiago, leader in New Mexico's off the last season, carried the big Utah State line.

Santiago, whose home is Albuquerque, weighs only 166, but he seldom gets thrown for a loss. In 202 rushing plays last season he lost only 8 yards. This year he has been tossed for the loss of only 5 yards in 68 trips.

The Lobo back is passing this season the first time completing three passes all for touchdowns in five tries.

Texas Moves in As Number One Team in AP Poll

The Texas Longhorns nudged Alabama's Crimson Tide out of the No. 1 spot in the Associated Press weekly poll of college football teams Tuesday. Texas became the third team to hold a shaky lead in the weekly ratings, since Alabama had replaced Ohio State the week before.

Code Relaxed For Caddies and Club Employes

NEW YORK, Oct. 16 (AP) — U. S. Golf association has relaxed its amateur code which forbids caddies and club employes from being employed.

Effective Jan. 1, 1963, the U. S. Golf association announced Monday, Oct. 15, that its amateur code will be eligible to play in amateur tournaments regardless of whether they are employed by a club or are a caddy.

The present rules prohibit any player in this field after last Monday, Oct. 15, from being employed by a club or being a caddy. Those continuing to be employed by a club or as a caddy are not eligible to play in amateur competitions.

Now the rules have been revised to read that it will be a violation of code if a player's status rules to receive all the compensation for being a: 1. A caddy. 2. A caddy master or amateur caddy master. 3. An employe engaged in making, repairing or cleaning clubs or selling golf equipment in a golf shop at a place where golf is played, practiced or taught.

Mississippi, which also had the week off, led to fifth place. Ohio State, knocked from first place to 10th in last week's poll after being upset by UCLA, came back to 10th place. Michigan State took over third place.

Arkansas remained unbeaten after grabbing a high-scoring decision over Baylor 29-21 and moved up from eighth to seventh place. Washington, No. 1 a week ago, had a close call, beating Oregon State 16-13. The Huskies went from seventh place to the 10th.

Trojan Coach Hails Defense Team as Tops

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 16 (AP) — Coach John McKay of Southern California said Monday he thinks Trojan defense is too good to lose.

"Our offense has got to pick up and beat the football writers down," McKay said. "I don't think our offense can keep it up."

The Trojan offense is going to be what McKay said. The Trojans have had opponents that have scored and beaten scores by scores only slightly higher than California.

Bill Barnes, coach of the UCLA Bruins, said the football writers would try to keep the team on a grid.

"I didn't always suggest playing the football writers," Barnes said. "Whether we show six or 20 yards on a drop, we're going to get it up to us. But we never going to get up to us, we'll be known as a California, Berkeley."

Los Angeles Saturday night will play Pittsburgh in Pennsylvania Saturday. The Trojans are in a 11-point favorite. "The game is fasted by us."

Texas Coach Unimpressed With Rating

AUSTIN, Tex., Oct. 15 (AP) — The coach of the University of Texas Longhorns, named Monday as the nation's college football team of the year, said ratings mean very little to him.

"I'm not a little bit impressed by the ratings," Coach Darrell Royal said. "You bet. I don't want to make one iota of difference to me."

The Longhorns were No. 2 in the national poll. The Texas coach said he had no idea where the team stood in the poll.

The Longhorns replaced Alabama, the defending national champion, which finished third in the poll. Texas finished second, followed by Notre Dame.

Alabama finished fourth, followed by Michigan State, Wisconsin, Oregon, Air Force, Oklahoma, Kansas, Montana, State, BYU at Montana, Montana, Michigan State, Michigan State, Notre Dame, Northwestern, Northwestern at Ohio State, Penn State, Penn State, UCLA at UCLA, Pitt, Michigan at Purdue, Washington at Washington at Stanford, Wisconsin, Wisconsin at Iowa at Iowa, Iowa at USC at USC, Weber at Georgia Tech, Georgia Tech at Auburn, Arkansas at Texas, Arizona, Wyoming at Wyoming, Pennell at Pennell, Gooding at Min. Shiner Close To Mark of 200 Yards

By The Associated Press

Maryland quarterback Dick Shiner passed his record All-Star mark, 190 yards, in a game closer to the 200-yard mark Saturday when he threw for 195 yards past North Carolina in a 31-17 Terr victory.

When ex-WVU star Shiner joined Normand Signal at the existing ACC all-time record in 1960, he accounted for an average of 81 yards a game.

Shiner, a 6-foot, 195-pound senior, is a member of the school's all-time team. He has accounted for 172 yards a game in 16 games.

Completing 16 of 18 passes for 175 yards and two touchdowns against The Heels, Shiner moved ahead of the late great challenging field in the individual offense race.

Through Shiner's performance, he has accumulated 2,350 yards in 25 games.

Latest ACC service bureau compilations show that Shiner is averaging a 6.2-yard gain for each offensive play, including incomplete passes.

Shiner has completed 55 of 84 passes for 687 yards and three touchdowns, with only three interceptions, since his arrival as a freshman in 1956.

Shiner has 723 yards, with quarterback Junior Edge of North Carolina in closest pursuit with 641 yards.

SPECIAL SPECTATORS watched in Washington Monday while President Kennedy was giving a red carpet welcome to Algerian Premier Ahmed Ben Bella on the White House south grounds. Washington Cannon Doesn't Drown Out Giggling Chorus

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16 (AP)—Secretary Pierre Salinger Monday said that the White House lawn cannon did not drown out anything but giggling and her friends.

He learned this as he stood light-tipped and at attention while cannons on the south lawn boomed a welcome for Premier Ahmed Ben Bella of Algeria.

After Ben Bella had conferred with the President and left, a reporter asked Kennedy what he thought of the childish noises that came from the second floor during the ceremonies on the lawn.

"We will talk about that this afternoon," he said.

The President then smiled—but only slightly—whined, and most of all, giggled into the White House.

"Was Caroline punished?" a newspaperman asked White House

Stevenson Under Fire On Comments

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Oct. 16 (AP)—U. S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson came under criticism today from African delegates who felt he painted too bright a picture of chances for solving the Congo crisis.

African critics expressed surprise at Stevenson's disclosure that he told President Kennedy Sunday recent developments "give us hope of a solution of the problem in the Congo."

Some delegates were privately critical when it was reported Stevenson has based this hope on word from Elisabethville that the Katanga gendarmes and the Congolese army are ready to sign a cease-fire.

Diplomats here agreed tension would be eased by a cease-fire and Katanga President Mobutu Sese Sese Konde Ngbendu Ngbendu Ndombi reported offer to send the head of his armed forces to Leopoldville to pledge allegiance to the central government. But they cautioned that such actions would by no means settle the over-all issue of Congo unity.

These African diplomats recall that Thombe has signed pledges before that he recognizes Katanga as just another Congo province. But they said he has given little indication of abiding by them.

"Not that I know of," he replied.

During the ceremonies, every boom drew a shrill-wailed "Bian" from the President's daughter and her friends in their kindergarten on the second floor of the White House. Every command to the military-color guard drew a rattling order from the White House.
