

EAST-BEST 'CLASSIFY SEA' EXPERIMENT SOON

Premier Faces Dilemma of Many Facets Near Cuba

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23 (AP)—The Western world today was trying to read Nikita Khrushchev's mind.
The question of war or peace appeared likely to hinge on what the Soviet premier decides to do within the next day or so about the blockade of Cuban arms.
Western diplomats said Khrushchev appeared to have three principal choices as Russian ships moved toward a tactical meeting with U. S. military vessels under orders to stop and search for "offensive" weapons.
He could:
—Turn tail without testing the blockade, suffering the consequent loss of prestige but trying to recoup with an intensive propaganda campaign.
—Try to run the blockade, get a vessel shot up and then appeal to the United Nations to halt American "aggression" and force international arbitration of the issue of missile bases on foreign soil.
—Move against the Red-encircled Allied position in West Berlin, claim by direct attack or counter-attack. He also might seek to violate U. S. airmen's borders, such as Turkey and Iran.
The consensus of diplomatic authorities here was that if Khrushchev decides that conflict with the United States is inevitable, he certainly will make his first move in Europe, where it matters to him, instead of the Caribbean, where he has no chance.
But many diplomats cling to the belief the Soviet leader would stop short of action likely to provoke all-out war. They believed he would like to swing neutral and small nations to his side. In the United Nations, behind the Kremlin, demand for isolation of U. S. missile bases around the world.
If he does such a course, he might intentionally get one more of his vessels shot up by refusing to obey the U. S. blockade.

Khrushchev Asks Summit Meet on Cuban Blockade

MOSCOW, Oct. 23 (AP)—Premier Khrushchev tonight said a "meeting at the highest level would be useful to discuss all questions that have arisen and to eliminate the threat of nuclear war." The Khrushchev message said in part: "We would consider a meeting at the highest level would be useful to discuss all questions that have arisen to eliminate the threat of nuclear war. The Soviet government will not take any decisions which would be reckless, will not allow itself to be provoked by unwarranted actions of the United States of America."
WASHINGTON, Oct. 24 (AP)—The United States and the Soviet communists approached an armed showdown on the high seas as midmorning today, as Soviet cargo ships plowed toward Cuba and American naval power converged on them.
At 4:30 p.m. (EST) 7 1/2 hours after the quarantine started, the defense department said it had no reports of interceptions of any ships. Strung out along the approaches to Cuba were an estimated 25 Soviet ships. Some of them quite possibly were carrying offensive weapons to the Cuban communist ally, a movement which President Kennedy says must be stopped.

Buhl Man First Hunting Fatality

BUILT, Oct. 24 — A 25-year-old Buhl man became Maple Valley's first hunting fatality of the season when he was accidentally shot about 3:30 p.m. Tuesday about three miles southwest of the head of House creek, about 35 miles southwest of Twin Falls. The body of Lorius Kruhn (Buhl) Coley, 25, route 66, Buhl, was found at 7:30 a.m. Wednesday morning after daylight, by members of a search party directed by Twin Falls county Sheriff James H. Benham. It was first thought that Mr. Coley apparently fell and accidentally shot himself, but "it was later proven different," Sheriff Benham said shortly before noon today. He explained that the hunter was shot by someone else, but declined to elaborate on the suspect.

Castro Yells 'Piracy' In Reply to Blockade

HAVANA, Oct. 24 (AP)—Asserting he has the right to "require any aggression," Prime Minister Fidel Castro rejected any limit on Cuba's arms buildup Tuesday night and called the U. S. arms quarantine an act of piracy. "Our arms are defensive," Castro declared as he defied a U. S. proposal for the United Nations to send in an inspection team to investigate President Kennedy's charges that Soviet missile bases are planted in Cuba. Anyone trying to carry out an arms inspection in Cuba "had better come ready for combat," he warned.
Castro's speech at Kennedy's warning in his speech Monday that the flow of Soviet arms to Cuba was a menace to the Western Hemisphere.
"He ridiculed the Organization for American States for its support of the U. S. quarantine of Cuba. He called the organization's impotence the greatest disgrace of a scrap of paper only 'valid' for those following in the flock of imperialism."
Castro emphasized he would tolerate no outside interference on the question of arming Cuba. While implying the United States had forced him to arm.
"He will acquire the arms we feel like acquiring," Castro said "and we don't have to give an account to the imperialists. Cuba has the right to arm itself and defend itself and we have had to do so."
"International ballistic missiles U. S. 80, Russia 30 to 15, Poland missiles on patrol in Cuba; U. S. 80, Russia 0. Heavy bombers U. S. 600 plus, Russia 150. Medium bombers U. S. 2,500, Russia 1,000. Bombers only reach U. S. 80, medium range ballistic missiles in range of U. S. 80, Russia 80. Russia soviet times that for European targets but none able to hit U. S."

Russia May Face Gap In Missiles

NEW YORK, Oct. 24 (AP)—The Soviet Union does not have the advanced ballistic missiles to wage an offensive war against the United States, Look magazine said in its current issue.
The magazine said estimates of the number of weapons in the U. S. arsenal run as high as 60,000, while Russia's probably are half that.
Russia does not have the airplanes to launch an attack. Look said.
"Russia does not have the power to launch an attack and survive the counterblow," the magazine said. "After a Soviet attack on Russia a stronger blow than on Russia is stronger."
"If a U. S. force of 200 million men could launch an attack on Russia, the magazine said.

Message

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24 (AP)—Informed sources said they understood that President Kennedy had received a message from Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev in regard to an advising him of the blockade of Cuba.

Latins Have New View of Uncle Sam

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 24 (AP)—The United States appears to be losing the confidence of Latin American leaders in the Western Hemisphere with its bold challenge to the Soviet Union.
Latin American sources attending the hemisphere-financed ministers conference here say that the initial shock has worn off and that Latin leaders are beginning to view the U. S. with a more realistic eye.
If the United States wins its battle to halt the Soviet arms buildup in Cuba, these sources say, it will be in a far more favorable position to push ahead with the alliance for progress toward political, social and economic stability.
Latin Americans point out that the United States is not necessarily making people of the hemisphere love the United States. But they say that if the Kennedy decision is made to stop, it will create respect for the United States of America which was not there before.

Look Around Action Over Cuban Crisis

By The Associated Press
Here are the major developments in Washington during the Cuban crisis.
State department officials reported that Argentina, Honduras and Costa Rica have offered help to U. S. naval forces in the blockade of arms shipments to Cuba proclaimed by President Kennedy Monday effective today.
The Soviet foreign ministry sent back to the U. S. embassy in Moscow a copy of Kennedy's warning to Cuba.
U. S. officials searched a Cuban airplane plane at Goose Bay, Labrador, but cleared it to continue to Cuba with two East German missile experts and five Czech technicians. The plane was cleared several hours.
Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York called an emergency meeting in Washington Saturday of the civil defense committee of the governors conference.
Early today the navy radiocast a warning to merchant ships that passed near Cuba may become hazardous due to the blockade.

Gromyko Renews Troop Demands

BERLIN, Oct. 24 (AP)—Soviet foreign minister Andrei A. Gromyko was reported today to have renewed the communist demand that Western troops get out of Berlin and called for recognition of East German sovereignty.
Official East German news agency ADN said Gromyko made the statements in a speech to a meeting of the soviet parliament today.
Standing on a truck as it moved today the navy radiocast the statements in a speech to a meeting of the soviet parliament today.
Gromyko said that only the United States and the Soviet Union would never allow the slightest change in the sovereignty of East Germany, ADN said.

Campaign Ends

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24 (AP)—President Kennedy has barred all members of the cabinet from further participation in his country's political campaign, the White House announced.
Press secretary Pierre Salinger said Kennedy issued the instructions yesterday because he felt it would be inappropriate for the cabinet officers to campaign during the current Cuban crisis.

Invasion Talk Heard From Solons

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24 (AP)—Congressional leaders grimly accepted today the prospect that the United States will be forced to back President Kennedy's move aimed at wiping out the Cuban missile threat to the Western Hemisphere.
Strong sentiment for an immediate invasion of Cuba was expressed during a meeting of the congressional leaders with Kennedy on Tuesday.
Without exception, party leaders scheduled to confer with Kennedy today on the crisis made it clear they recognized the risk of nuclear war is great. They are willing to take it.

T. F. County Checking Defense Plans; Survey Reveals Variety

With the Cuban crisis nearing a show-down, a complete inspection and report on the civil defense posture of Twin Falls County was ordered Wednesday morning by H. L. (Kelly) Cedarholm, vice chairman of the Twin Falls civil defense commission, acting in the absence of Chairman Harry Crow.
Emergency alert plans were also outlined by Deputy Sheriff M. Kendrick, deputy civil defense director, who listed the county's number of public shelters and their locations in case of an emergency. He said that a survey had been made and "there isn't much within in the way of public shelters."
A spot check of several grocery stores in Twin Falls has not revealed any serious increase in the purchase of such items as canned goods and storage foods. Some of the grocery stores reported slight increases in the purchasing of certain types of goods while others reported a near normal day.
Conversations with some of the store managers, however, did reveal certain overtones. Some were concerned and looking at reserve stocks. Practically all of them noted that any slight rise in sales would certainly bring about measures to increase stocks. Much of it depends on the attitude of the customer which has thus far been nonchalant.
According to other spot checks, business was "as usual."
There has been no unusual demand for such items as flashlights, batteries, camping supplies or drug supplies.
A scattered few customers are openly admitting to retail dealers that they are stocking up on supplies in the event of hostilities.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

BY RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—The 1962 session of congress may have been the most important since the passage of the 1954 tax law, and the revision of the costly and unsuccessful federal farm program is expected to be the most important. A week's break for producers, consumers and taxpayers.

The nation enacted some painful compromises by the administration point toward two things to be done: one is to reduce the amount of storage charges on a billion dollars of surplus grain, and the other is to reduce the burden of bureaucratic controls on the farmers, and which proved utterly ineffective in the past.

Continual reaction to the original Kennedy-Freeman proposals showed that neither the legislators nor the taxpayers will accept serious government regulation of agriculture, will paper over that requires the assistance of a certified public accountant in many instances. It also revealed a desire for direct grants to producers instead of the high support prices that date back to the days of Henry Agard Wallace and Franklin D. Roosevelt.

TAKE BLAP HAPPILY.—The outcome represents a rebuff for the administration, but the support of the original proposal by President Kennedy and Secretary Orville B. Freeman show no resentment. In fact, the new arrangements may result in the political warms at Washington and the men who grow the crops.

Originally, however, the White House in 1961 made a desperate plea for commodity export regulatory of almost every phase of farm production. Even early this year, the administration tried to force the passage of a bill for a strict-and-easy formula. On both counts, congress turned down these requests after bitter sessions in committee and on the floor.

In the final compromise at the recent session, congress forced a return to the system of direct payments as a means of increasing agricultural production, and to make by the use of a reference between the market price and the amount regarded as a fair return to the farmer. The new bill also provides for a reduction of price supports and it may forecast a progressive schedule for further cuts.

SIMPLER, SOUNDER.—Many agricultural economists see several benefits flowing from the direct payment scheme. They believe it will result in curtailment and eventual elimination of the staggering storage charges. It should move some of the lower price commodities up in price, and it will reduce the burden of bureaucratic supervision of the agricultural industry. The farm cost combined with the direct payment to the farmer by the department and its far-flung but carefully managed field operation.

Direct payments to farmers is not an ideal solution for the farmer, although the financial burden entailed in making up to the farmer the difference between the market price and the reference price is not as great.

But this revision does represent an attempt to place the government aid program on a simpler and sounder basis. Under the new spending bill, farmers are to receive direct payments based on the amount of production, including farm products, not on the amount of acreage. It is a step toward a policy of laissez-faire in this important field.

TO HELP EXPORT SALES.—Agricultural exports are the lifeblood of the farmer, and the congressional preference for foodstuffs has reduced the need to export. Under the new support prices, our goods were priced too high to compete in world markets.

To maintain export sales, for instance, we must reduce the price of our goods to the level of domestic manufacturers must pay for the raw material. As a result, foreign mills under the new program will be able to compete on a level with the domestic textile industry. We have engaged in the same two-price system with respect to Russia. It is a step in the right direction.

POLITICAL TEST.—Political farmers of Washington are anxious to see the effect of these changes will have on next month's elections. In recent contests, notably in 1960, many farm states returned to Republican control.

The producers thereby demonstrated their dislike of harsh and compulsory government regulation. It is not a coincidence that the voters in the more complicated system. From Oct. 20 to Oct. 22, voters will be asked to vote on whether they will support the administration's earlier proposals, or the Democrats.

CHICAGO Daily News: "The line is drawn and no one can foresee all the consequences. Least of all, it is not clear how the effect will be felt. It is in fact the square dancers of Idaho are the only group that has financed their own way and gone ahead with definite plans."

A centennial ball was held in Idaho Falls that was a huge success, both money-wise and the number of people that participated. In July, 1962, the centennial festival will be held in Boise complete with food, fun and a pageant, put on entirely by the dancers followed by a square dance. Among other things is a beard-growing contest to add to the hilarity.

Portland Oregonian: "We would be remiss, as President Kennedy has urged, to mention anything, the assured election of Mr. Smith."

If the Nov. 5 election follows the pattern of the Derr-Smylie duels of four years ago, transfer of only a few votes to Mr. Smylie would be enough to defeat him.

San Francisco Examiner (Hearts): "The words 'to encourage his countrymen to be active in the promotion of the freedom and justice of our people'... would be enough to win the election, it would be the biggest upset in Idaho's political history."

Mr. Weaver is 100 per cent against gambling, as he reported in his announcement, he should be quick to recognize his candidacy has a fine chance of helping elect Mr. Smylie. If Mr. Weaver is to win the election, it would be the biggest upset in Idaho's political history.

As he tells her tasks and hears his first snore, She smiles, "cause the hunter is back home once more."

U.S. Secret Service Guards Evidenced in T.F. Visit

By RICHARD CHARNICK
BOISE, Oct. 24 (AP)—A regulation requiring round-the-clock secret service protection for the vice president was first set down by John B. Johnson but doesn't seem to show him down a page in an aide confined in Twin Falls, Pa. Friday when Johnson passed there in behalf of the Democratic campaign that the vice president was less than overjoyed when the protective shadows were imposed on him. A campaigner of the old school, Johnson loved to get out and mingle with the man on the street—whether he's in Idaho or Turkey.

When he was whisked into Twin Falls after landing at Joseph field, Johnson had to stop momentarily to climb from a station wagon into a convertible to head the parade through the city. It happened right as an intersection and Johnson spotted a few curious bystanders in the corner by a service station. Abruptly, he dropped from the front of the parade and into the back of a car, said Johnson, and others in the party to get over to the corner where they were outwaited.

After introducing himself, he pointed a pistol and stood by. Immediately, he walked over, shook hands with the officer in a three-parking up a motor phone in the car—said he took the boys back at the police station.

Along the parade route, Johnson was greeted cordially but courteously by the thousands who lined the streets—three and four deep in the heart of the downtown area. He sat up in the back of the convertible, waving and smiling all the while. Occasionally, someone would call out to Johnson and school children would applaud or cheer, but at times when the vice president,

Two Atomic Tests May End Series

HONOLULU, Oct. 24 (AP)—Tonight's scheduled high altitude nuclear test above Johnston island and another test planned for Saturday may bring to a close the trouble-plagued Pacific nuclear series.

Both tests originally were scheduled to be conducted but were pushed back because of technical difficulties. There was no further explanation.

Time schedules for the shots in a five-hour period beginning at 10:30 a. m. were announced.

Joint task force 8 officials declined comment on whether Saturday's explosion will be the last. However, a spokesman said they were authorized in the series that required 111 tests.

The United States exploded the first of the shots last Friday. The atomic bomb that leveled Hiroshima in 1945.

Tommy's test will be in the afternoon range equivalent in power to between 20,000 and one million tons of TNT.

FHA Workshop Starts in Burley

BURLEY, Oct. 24 (AP)—About 30 farmers' home administration workers end a two-day workshop here today.

Max Hansen, FHA director for Idaho, conducted the meeting. Hansen, Denver, regional attorney for the FHA, also is attending.

Johnson, supervisor of the Casaca county office, said the meeting is being held to discuss the new FHA procedures within the organization. He said the meetings generally are held bi-weekly.

The meeting Tuesday included a tape recording of Johnson's address to the group.

Church, Mrs. Pfost and Walker ambled over to Walker's office to freshen up.

Walking directly behind Johnson, state Democratic chairman, across from the park to freshen up.

When he returned to the bandshell about 25 minutes later to make his speech he was greeted by a mob of children and adults.

He waved, shook a hand here and there and spoke haltingly. He answered questions of newsmen shouting through the crowd alongside him.

Before beginning his address, Johnson asked that rope barriers be moved and that hundreds of children in front of the crowd be permitted to come up close.

After his speech, Johnson shoved a catered pass to the vice president's attendant and into the eager hands of the pressing youngsters.

After that it took a good eight to 10 minutes for Johnson even to get out of the park. The tall Texan was virtually buried in a mass of people shoving forward to shake his hand and grab one of the autographed passes.

All this, of course, presented quite a problem for the secret service men. Yet they never wavered from his side. They covered him on foot along the parade route.

Within a few steps of him in and out of the park. So casually and carefully were they dressed that the average person no doubt was unaware of their presence.

This reporter first became aware of Johnson's quiet protection when the vice president,

U.S. Shows
Cuban Arms

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24 (AP)—The defense department released early today its aerial photographs of what it said were Soviet missile sites, bomber fields and patrol boats in Cuba.

There are three pictures of merchant ships which the defense department said were Soviet ships bound for Cuba carrying light jet bombers in crates visible on the decks.

One high-altitude shot the Pentagon describes as of a major airfield and notes in an enlarged portion a jet bomber almost assembled and 18 crates containing more of the IL28 bombers.

In another, seven Soviet PT boats are pointed out moored near an airfield. The Pentagon said the boats are armed with guided missile launchers.

Among the others were air photos of what the Pentagon described as an intermediate and medium-range missile base, surface-to-air missile sites, a missile assembly depot and MIG-17 jet fighters at a Cuban airfield.

TIGER DECISIONS FULLMER FOR TITLE

Challenger Sets Savage Pace to Outpoint Champ

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24 (AP) — Dick Tiger, the fighting pride of Nigeria, ripped cuts over both of Gene Fullmer's eyes Tuesday night while pounding out a unanimous 15-round decision to capture the World Boxing association middleweight championship. In a bruising battle, the 163-pound Tiger used sharper punching to lift the 170-lb. Fullmer, who had won the title from West Jordan, Utah, had been since 1959. Blood oozed from a slash over Fullmer's left eye in the ninth round and Tiger ripped a cut over the right eye in the 10th.

Tiger Sure He'll Keep New Crown

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24 (AP) — "Now I'm the champion and I think I'll stay the champion," Dick Tiger said proudly Tuesday night after he had thrashed World Boxing association middleweight king Gene Fullmer.

It was a good fight — he's a tough guy, the 33-year-old Nigerian said after he pounded Fullmer for most of his 15-round bout at Candlestick Park. "I did not have any plan — I just fought. His style suited me when he was coming to me. But I never thought he would back off like he did in the 11th round, the ten championship rounds."

He talked seriously and modestly, cracking only an occasional laugh for the benefit of cameramen. "I think this was my best fight because I fought the champion and I successfully defended the title. I knew I was tussling with the champion."

Tiger refused to say he thought he was winning the way. "In some rounds I thought I was a bit slow," he said. "But the pace just happened that way. Tiger said Fullmer hurt him periodically. "He got me sometimes with both hands," he said, and pointed to both sides of his head as the area his most. "The winner, who speaks excellent English, said Fullmer's elbows didn't bother him particularly. "But I took some low blows — he hit low many times."

Ringsiders thought Tiger was on the verge of knocking out Fullmer several times, but the Nigerian said: "I never thought of knocking him out. He's tough, and I just kept punching. Tiger, amplifying his opinion that he would remain champion, said he would be ready for a rematch with Fullmer — as specified in the contract — in 2½ or three months. "My main ambition is to make good use of the title like other good champions," he said. "I'm a stranger here, but even in Fullmer's kitchen I was ready to fight him. I feel as though I'll know how I feel as champion."

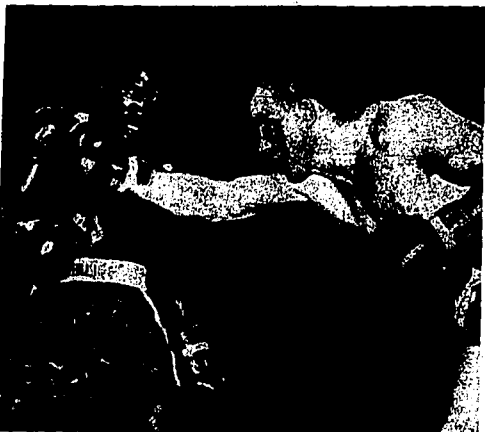

Fullmer drew a warning from referee, Cacter in the fourth to keep his punches up and in the eighth to "watch your head." There were no knockdowns, although Fullmer twice slipped to the canvas and in the 14th was wobbled down.

During the late rounds, Fullmer went more to a boxing style to protect his eyes and both finished with far more caution than they had at the start. Tiger, who holds the British Empire 160-pound title, now owns one-half of the world championship, Massachusetts, New York and Europe, including the British boxing board of control, recognize Paul Pender of Massachusetts. Pender has a title bout with his own coming up in Jose Torres of New York next month at Boston, to further complicate an already complex picture of New York state's not recognizing the Pender-Torres fight as the championship.

The triumph was the eighth straight for Tiger, who lives in Anikoro, Nigeria. He set his record at 40-12-2. It was only the fifth loss for Fullmer, who has posted 65 victories. Twice since winning the crown from Basilio, Fullmer had been held to draws in title bouts with Joey Giardello and Ray Robinson.

It was Sugar Ray who handed Fullmer his last previous defeat — with a fifth round knockout to regain the undeposited world 160-pound title on May 1, 1957. Tuesday night, the two battlers both stood 5-8 and both liked the battling toe to toe. Tiger's quickness and continual stalking proved his eye and his title.

Now he must meet Fullmer in a contracted rematch and he hopes to fight Tiger for the undeposited crown.

BLEEDING PROFUSELY, Gene Fullmer mixes with a hard right to challenger Dick Tiger's chin during the title bout in Candlestick park Tuesday night. Tiger's savage attack enabled him to pound out a unanimous decision and gain the WBA middleweight title. (AP wirephoto)

Fullmer Gives Tiger Full Credit for Win

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24 (AP) — Gene Fullmer's first words as he reached his dressing quarters in Candlestick park after losing the World Boxing association middleweight title to Dick Tiger Tuesday night came in response to an expression of regret from a close friend. "You can't be sorry when you get beat by a better man," said the ex-champion.

Manager Mary Jensen announced that Fullmer and Tiger will clash in a return match Jan. 19 in either Boston, Montreal, Las Vegas, Nev. The decision rests, Jensen said, with Norm Rothstein, who was a co-promoter here. "Did he think he could beat Tiger in a rematch?" "If I feel I can't take him, there won't be one. I don't feel that way now," said Fullmer.

Fullmer, his battle wounds well patched up, offered no allus for the defeat. He said a big cut opened over his left eye in the ninth round was an accidental but by Gene. "Under California rules on an accidental but had Gene been ahead at the time on points when the bout was momentarily halted Gene could have been declared the winner and still champion," Jensen said. "But," continued Jensen as Fullmer nodded agreement, "Gene didn't want to win the fight on a cut even if it meant the championship."

Gene insisted on the doctor coming into the ring between the ninth and 10th so he could see the cut was from a but. He didn't want an examination after the 10th when he might have been hit and the cut reopened. "Someone asked Gene if he got 17-20-0. His feet tangled at one point in the 10th round. "Yes, well, Tiger mixed 'em up for me," he quipped. Fullmer said Tiger was not as strong as he expected but added that inside than I thought he would be. "Would he change his style as the rematch?" "Well, that's up later," said Fullmer. "We'll have to change."

Roberts Named AL's Comeback Player for Year

NEW YORK, Oct. 24 (AP) — Robin Roberts, who showed flashes of the excellence the past season that made him one of the National League's outstanding pitchers, was named the American League comeback player-of-the-year Tuesday in the annual Associated Press poll. Roberts received 81 of the 106 votes in the balloting by members of the Baseball Writers' association. Dick Donovan of Cleveland was second with nine votes followed by Hank Aguirre, Detroit and Billy Moran of the Los Angeles Angels, three each.

Cast off by the Philadelphia Phillies and New York Yankees, Roberts won 10 Baltimore Orioles while compiling the second lowest earned run average in the circuit, 2.77. In 1961, the veteran left-hander won only one game and lost 10.

In 14 seasons with the Phillies, Roberts won 234 games. He had six 20-game winning seasons in succession, 1950-55. He was sold to the Yankees last fall and they released him May 8. Orioles signed him as a free agent two weeks later.

Roberts' most productive big league year was 1952 when he won 28 games and dropped seven. He led the senior loop in victories in three other seasons. His number 30 uniform has been retired by the Phillies.

Donovan won 20 games for the first time in 16 professional seasons, eight in the major leagues. Obtained a year ago from Washington where he was 10-16, the right-hander posted five shutouts for the Indians while walking only 41 and striking out 93 in 250 2/3 innings.

Stamp Drive Opens for New Stadium

Gold Strike stamps will be as important as touchdowns Friday night when the Twin Falls Bruins host the Borah Lions in a make-or-break Southern Idaho conference football game.

The Bruins are depending on the Lions to give them the pole position for their conference title in 1962 while the Lions are depending on fans to contribute Gold Strike, or other stamps, in an effort to secure seating facilities at the new football field near the high school.

Mrs. Henry Woodall, who is spearheading the trading stamp drive, notes a special ceremony will be held at halftime of the game. "We hope this will be the last time the variety has to play at Lincoln field," Mrs. Woodall reports. A helicopter will land on the field, and after a brief "hurler," will carry away the "spirit" of Lincoln field.

Fans may contribute their stamps at special places inside each gate. However, Mrs. Woodall emphasizes the stamps will not mean free admission.

Under the contract with the Gold Strike company, the Bruin Boosters are trying to gain 5,000 books. For these, the company will provide temporary bleachers for 4,000 fans plus an elaborate score board which will carry down yards to go, time, score and other luxuries not enjoyed at present.

Idaho Ballot Write-In for Man Is Asked

WAGLE, Oct. 23—Dwaine C. Weaver, Eagle, has offered himself as a write-in candidate for governor of Idaho in the Nov. 9 general election. He was critical of Governor Robert E. Smylie and presented his own campaign statement in an announcement statement.

After weeks of reading and hearing about Vernon K. Smylie and Robert S. Baker, I am sure that I am a better man in the state than either of them. I do not believe that I am a better man than either of them. I am not supported by any group or working as a write-in candidate. I am not working for what I believe is for the good of the state. I am not a write-in candidate. I am not a write-in candidate.

I am a member of the LDS church, but I will not say that I am solely a Democrat. There has never been a time that I did not vote both for Democrats and Republicans in a general election, and I would also do so in the primary if I were allowed to.

Smylie Says Smith Slipping; Smith Says There Are Other Issues Besides Gaming

(Editor's note: This is another in a series of stories written by the Associated Press for the candidates in the Idaho gubernatorial election. The candidates are: Vernon K. Smylie, Governor; Robert S. Baker, Republican; and Dwaine C. Weaver, Democrat.)

BY GUY ROBERT E. SMYLIE
Idaho voters are highly regarded in national political circles. We consistently lead the nation in voter turnout on a per capita percentage basis.

And we have the reputation of being considerably better informed on state and national issues than voters are in most of the other states.

This is readily apparent when you travel the state and meet and talk with Idaho citizens from all walks of life, as I have been doing for the past couple of months.

Assuming, however, that the legislature passes a bill which would put the local area of the state to decide the gaming issue by a vote in their local areas, which would have strict provisions for control and a fair tax, I would sign such a bill that would stimulate a vibrant tourist and convention industry for Idaho. And this would include a horse race bill to aid our horse-breeding industry.

Should any county then obtain the necessary signatures to petition a local election, then and only then, would the issue of gaming come up for a vote to be decided by the people.

But there are many other major decisions, the most significant one being the fate of agriculture. If my opponent is returned to office, The union organizers and bosses have renounced their support of agriculture and my opponent committed himself to vote any bill which would protect the farmer, the livestock feeder and grower and the small grower from the control of these union bosses and organizers.

I rejected their offer of support in exchange for such a commitment because I believe agriculture must remain free from control of the union bosses.

Economy in government is a vital issue. After 12 years in office as attorney general and governor my opponent has built up a large gambling machine.

The economically sound program of legalized gambling has produced a sterile campaign that I do not promise for growing Idaho. His record, which has spun the full cycle, He made his speech. The people would not buy it.

The important issues in this campaign deserve discussion. Now the gambling man has hammering slot machines into a tremendous political machine of business favorites and tax supported political job holders.

BY VERNON K. SMYLIE
Idaho stands at the crossroads of many major decisions. This centers about the governor's race, which has been called as one of the most significant in the nation.

Although the Smylie-dominated Allied Civic Forces are trying desperately to lead church committees into believing that gaming is an issue and that the day I am elected there will be legal gaming all over the state, the issue of gaming will not appear on the ballot.

Neither could I as governor permit the legislature to pass laws. Assuming, however, that the legislature passes a bill which would put the local area of the state to decide the gaming issue by a vote in their local areas, which would have strict provisions for control and a fair tax, I would sign such a bill that would stimulate a vibrant tourist and convention industry for Idaho. ### Husband-Wife Piano Team To Present Local Concert

Two of Canada's most outstanding musicians, a husband-and-wife piano team, Margaret Parsons and Clifford Poole, will present a concert at 8:15 p. m. Oct. 29 in the Filer high school auditorium as first of the five Magic Valley Community Concert association programs scheduled for this season.

The achievements of the talented couple as a two-piano team are described as "astounding, peeling and always exhibiting a remarkable degree of dual precision and are a natural consequence of the great success that each had enjoyed as a solo artist before their marriage."

Margaret Parsons received a performer's degree at the age of 15, when she went to the Royal Conservatory of Music, Toronto, Canada, where she won the gold medal and a scholarship. Boon Parsons and Clifford Poole, who she was much in demand as a soloist with prominent groups and was appointed to the faculty of the conservatory when she was 17.

Poole was born in England, but has lived in Canada since he was 1 year old. He also studied in Toronto and after three years in the royal Canadian air force, he returned to his music and became a faculty member at the Royal Conservatory. He is a composer of note and the team's recital programs include his compositions and arrangements.

The couple also devote the months of June each year to touring Canada as members of the board of examiners of the conservatory.

The next concert of the series will be Sunday afternoon, Nov. 18, when the Columbus Boychoir will appear.

Mission Plan Outlined for Buhl School

BUHL, Oct. 24—A mission project adopted by students of the Buhl Church of the Immaculate Conception school to raise money for a school in Africa was outlined during a Home and School organization meeting at the parochial school.

Sister Mary Paulette, principal, explained all stamps except the ordinary four cent ones are valuable, she urged all children, parents, relatives and friends to help in the collection of canceled stamps which will be sold and the money sent to the African school.

She pointed out anyone wishing to donate stamps may give them to a school child or mail them to the school. She noted that the stamp would be cut from an envelope or package with the paper extending a quarter of an inch outside the stamp.

Mrs. Ernest Roland, Mrs. Greg Wanko and Mrs. Frank Karel were named to the committee to have charge of a rummage sale to be held Nov. 9 and 10 in the former Leo's Hotspot store.

It was voted to have a candy booth in conjunction with the annual turkey dinner and bazaar to be held in the multi-purpose room of the school Nov. 3. Mrs. Bob McMannan and Mrs. Paul Wagner, service and activities committee chairmen, will have charge of the candy booth.

Several do-it-yourself science kits, supplies for a first aid cabinet and a book a month from the June-June Catholic Book club have been donated to the school.

Demo Didn't Do Job, Says GOP Official

Rep. Ralph Harding did not live up to a promise to be an independent congressman, after the campaign Mr. Harding forgot this promise made on Oct. 19, 1960, at Resbury.

In the past two years Mr. Harding has consistently voted for every big spending and big government scheme of the new frontier.

After Mr. Harding really asserting his independence by voting for the creation of a department of urban affairs on Feb. 21 of this year? "Fortunately this campaign promises of 1960 was that he could be of vital service to Idaho by going to Washington as an independent congressman," declares Larson. "After the campaign Mr. Harding forgot this promise made on Oct. 19, 1960, at Resbury."

The proposed department was described as unnecessary and a mere reworking of present agencies. However, it would open the door for the federal government to exert more control at the local level." Larson adds.

3 Bitter California Races To Test Political Leanings

BY BOB BARNES
LOS ANGELES, Oct. 23 (AP)—Three bitter races for congress in one of the nation's largest metropolitan centers promise an intriguing test of current political leanings.

Golden State voters' choice will be sharp as in California's newly revamped 25th, 27th, and 29th congressional districts.

Republican or Democrat? Outspoken conservatives or outspoken liberals? More government in Washington or less?

These issues, clearly defined by the six candidates, will provide tests of both the new frontier and of the John Birch society, ultra-conservative organization.

The contests match three liberal and conservative Republican members and defectors of the Birch society and sharply critical of the Kennedy administration—Republican candidates who support the new frontier, and attack what they call Birchism.

At stake are two Republican seats in the U. S. house of representatives. The third seat is in a new district.

Both sides predict victory. The overwhelmingly Democratic California legislature drew the districts with Democratic voter registration margins of 50 per cent and more.

25th district—Once represented in congress by Richard M. Nixon, the district was re-drawn recently with 152,000 registered voters—99,000 Democrats, 53,000 Republicans. It is in the San Gabriel valley near Los Angeles. Republican incumbent John H.

politics abandoned, those politics will be continued and the consequences are certain to be disastrous.

Burkhalter, 65, goes down the line with the Democratic position and is pledged to back medical care for the aged. He contends Hiestand "wags himself in the flag."

29th district—A new spread-out district, largely in the San Gabriel valley, with about 90,000 Democrats and 50,000 Republicans. Republican H. L. Richardson, a Temple City advertising consultant, opposes Democratic Assemblyman George E. Brown of Monterey Park.

Richardson, 34, campaigns as a conservative, calls for a firmer stand against the communists and elimination of what he calls "plebeian surrender."

Brown, 41, was a longtime conscientious objector who wound up as a second lieutenant in the army in World War II. He pledges to support the Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy (CAN), whose endorsement he has.

Ward at Alto Keeps Bishop Bert F. Tracy

ALMO, Oct. 24—Bert Franklin Tracy was sustained bishop of the Almo LDS ward Sunday afternoon at a ward conference. His assistants were appointed.

They included Louis A. Eames and Robert Ward, first and second counselors, and Wesley B. Ward, clerk. Robert Ward was replaced by Wesley Rice as Sunday school superintendent. Rose Ward is first assistant and Mrs. James Sheridan is secretary.

Heard as president of the ward conference was Mrs. Leo Durfee as well as Mrs. Gordon Edwards and Mrs. Otella Tracy, counselors, and Mrs. William Tracy, secretary.

Mrs. Curtis Durfee was named new ward society president with Mrs. William Tracy as first and Mrs. H. E. King, second counselor.

Appreciation was expressed to the retiring bishopric, Elbert

ATTENDS OPERA
MOSCOW, Oct. 24 (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev, looking relaxed amid the Cuban crisis, went Tuesday night to hear and lead the applause for American opera star Jerome Hines.

George Bluck, Castledale, state senator on "Federal aid to education." Bluck noted that the FEA, and the hotly debated bill, bring several thousand dollars of federal aid to the school district. He stated that of each $1000 spent in a district, 40 cents come from district funds and 60 cents from federal funds and 4 cents from federal funds.

A question and answer period followed Bluck's talk.

Watts introduced Police Chief Frank Barnett, Mrs. Frank Wells, and the Morningside school safety patrol. Members are chosen the previous spring on the basis of personality, leadership, and school activity. There are presently 34 members of the patrol.

Mr. Reiman told how the members were chosen and their duties in the halls. Mary Lou Watts explained the patrol duties at the crosswalks. Morgan Love explained the duties of the bicycle patrol. He asked parents to teach bicycle riders safety rules and asked that students not arrive at the school before 8:45 a. m. or after 3:15 p. m.

Cynthia Honk explained the duties of the ground patrol and Becky Sullivan explained the duties of the captain of the patrol.

Mrs. Wells presented the Morningside patrol to Barnett, who administered the oath of office. He noted the children know their duties, and responsibilities, but most parents do not.

He also noted that Twin Falls has had school patrols as long as any town in Idaho. These patrols are chosen because of their sense of responsibility and their willingness to accept that responsibility. Until last year they were not given any authority under the law. Now their authority is recognized.

Good lighting adds a feeling of warmth and friendliness, reveals the hidden beauty of furnishings and drapes, "pushes back" the walls for more living space, and makes every home activity more enjoyable. A few new lamps or fixtures, and the possible addition of accent lighting to highlight a picture or conversation piece, can do wonders in providing "face lifting" for a home.
