HAVANA, Jan. 22 (AP)—Between 900 and 1,000 relatives of Cuban revolutionaries are expected to be freed from the United States this week.

The 900 are to be freed from the United States this week, the State Department announced today.

The relatives of the former American fighter Emilio Garcia, probably within a week.

An embassy spokesman said up to 200 American citizens living in Cuba are expected to leave Cuba on plane flights, one each on Wednesday and Friday. They are to be accompanied by relatives who have no connection with the revolutionaries.

The Cuban and American governments have not yet reached an agreement on the necessary preparations, a spokesman for the State Department said.

The Cuban authorities have been asked to provide information on the status of the selection of permits for between 900 and 1,000 Cuban citizens directly related to the former Playa Giron (Bay of Pigs) invasion prisoners.

A list of the relatives is being given to the Cuban government by the now defunct prisoners' representative committee.

Appeals to leave were given to prisoners in the States related to the prisoners' committee.

On December 28, 1959, about 12,000 American prisoners of war from the American freighter Libertad took out a load of prisoners from the ship and delivered a major ransom.

Is the small car going out of the picture? They're growing the new cars much bigger this season. And it took that only a year or two ago, it was just the other way around. You could actually buy a car that you could actually park on the first try. And that didn't need power to this end power that to get around the block. We're going to miss them. And we think a lot of other people will, too. Because we think there are people who still want to put a sensible amount of money into a sensible amount of car. So prepare yourself: the 1963 Volkswagen is still exactly the same size. And it looks exactly the same. Volkswagen dealers still have parts to fit any VW ever made. And the people who bought 1962 Volkswagens don't feel as though they're driving last year's model. Most small cars are going out of the picture. But there's one small exception.

Shipping to Communists Under Attack

NEW YORK, Jan. 22—A bill to prohibit U. S.-financed cargoes from being shipped to Cuba and other communist nations today had the support of the powerful American Maritime Association.

The AMA announced its endorsement yesterday when the bill was introduced by Rep. Thomas W. Pelly, R. Wash.

The bill would have the effect of preventing foreign vessels that trade with Cuba, Red China, North Viet-Nam and North Korea from carrying cargo under various U. S.-aid programs. Such ships also would be prohibited from carrying petroleum and petroleum products which are subject to U. S. import quotas.

"The AMA, which represents about 40 per cent of the U. S. merchant marine fleet, said its fleet shows 145 free-world tankers delivered oil to communist countries between July 1, 1960, and March 31, 1962.

"This supplies communist dictatorialships with a substantial part of the oil and petroleum products needed for their war against the free people of Latin America and Southeast Asia," the AMA said.

Teen-Agers Brighten Boston's Prospects

NEW YORK, Jan. 22 (AP) — On May 10, 1962 San Diego fans came out for a first-hand view of their native son who was to pitch against the Padres just as he had done against high school ballers a year before. "I don't know how Vern Law will react," Murtaugh said. "But he's a good pitcher and I think he'll be a part-time starter and I'll probably use him in relief."

Trustees of Clemson Will View Negro

COLUMBIA, S.C., Jan. 22—A Clemson college trustees meeting here today will consider the admission of the school's first Negro student.

Gov. Donald S. Russell had no comment after Chief Judge Simon Dozier of the U. S. 4th circuit court of appeals and Chief Justice Earl Warren of the U. S. Supreme Court, released Monday an order that Harvey Gantt, 26, of Charleston be enrolled at Clemson.

Russell said he might make a statement after conferring with state officials. The trustees met their meeting for Wednesday or Thursday. Other state officials refused comment.

Gantt, who will probably be enrolled next Monday as a transfer from Iowa State university, will be the first Negro to attend a previously all-white school in South Carolina on any level.

"I hope now that all the legal drawbacks are behind me," Gantt said at his home Monday night. "I feel he 'genuinely felt real good' about the latest court action."

Atty. Gen. Robert P. Kennedy said he has no plans to send marshals into the state, as was done at the University of Mississippi in the case of James Meredith.

Leaders in South Carolina, Kennedy said in an address to Washington area Episcopal church leaders, "have decided there will be no trouble in South Carolina."

Clemson can appeal the order to admit Gantt. Meantime, the college must admit the Negro architecture student.

Old-Age Dog Cult Home Is Success

WESTHAMPTON, N. Y., Jan. 22—Ten years ago Mike McGarvey dedicated his life to bringing a little more sunshine into the lives of old people.

Today he has 50 guests at his retirement residence here known as Bide-A-Wee home.

Should a guest complain, McGarvey is by his side in a matter of minutes, patting his head with one hand and offering a biscuit in the other.

More often than not, the problem will be solved and the guest will bark with satisfaction.

"That's right, bark. All the guests are dogs. McGarvey is in charge of the kennel which began the "old-age pet center" a decade ago.

Three years ago, there were but 10 aged animals in the residence, with about 100 other dogs taken there to be placed for adoption.

"The dogs we take in under the old-age pension plan are of an equivalent to aged human being," McGarvey said.

"Many of them have heart trouble and require constant care and supervision.

As in the case of humans, McGarvey said, dogs are living long. Their diets have been improved and their ailments are being cured.

Noted Chemist Of Diabetes Is Dead of Disease

PABADENA, Calif., Jan. 22—Dr. Gordon A. Abel, noted chemist who pioneered the development of insulin for treatment of diabetes, died Monday.

Friends said Dr. Abel, 61, either did not know he had the disease or he kept the knowledge to himself.

He collapsed in a diabetic coma Sunday at his home in neighboring San Marino and died a few hours later at the Huntington Memorial hospital here.

Dr. Abel did considerable research on insulin, helping make it available for humans to use.

He also discovered the physiological properties of insulin and contributed to its development as a drug.

More Stevenson "Giveaway" Told

NEW YORK, Jan. 22 (AP)—The Saturday Evening Post said today that the Adlai Stevenson propped that the national security council consider giving up the U.S. nuclear bomb. Clinton Anderson said he had "no comment" on the present "on Albo's article."

In the new article in the Post, Albo said both he and Charles Bartlett had lengthy talks with President Eisenhower, an old and trusted friend, in order to get Stevenson's exact position, which was in accord with the majority position of the security council's executive committee.

Woman Tells Purpose for LDS Society

BUTLEY, Jan. 22—Mrs. Fannie K. Bentley, Relief Society general board member, Salt Lake City, spoke to the Butley LDS stakes conference Sunday on the history and purpose of the Relief society.

The Relief society's purpose is to teach mothers to be homemakers in the fullest sense of the word, in order that the children may have happy memories of their childhood and be taught to appreciate the necessity for love and service, she said.

Spiritual memories are just as important in our lives as physical and the Sabbath day is the word in order that the lives of a family," she stressed.

Cultural activities in the home and good music should be available for children of all ages, she added.

Mrs. Bentley said the Relief society gives untold hours of service in the community and neighborhood. Last year its members reported 401,000 hours in compassionate service, helped at 2,000 funerals, made 2,000,000 visits to homes of members and 154,000 members worked on welfare projects.

This is only a small part of the service rendered by the members of this society, she added.

President P. M. Carter of the stakes presidency wanted the young people studying their cars and doing miscellaneous things that, at the time, seems to be a waste of time.

He stated an opportunity to grow to found in service in the church and it is necessary that parents give more time to their children.

High that they to set their goals in righteousness," she asserted.

Mrs. Beth S. Davy of the Primary general board, Salt Lake City, encouraged greater cooperation between parents and teachers in teaching the children in Primary classes.

The Relief society primary program is now activated in order that parents may know what is being taught their children.

"Children are most impressionable between the ages of 3 and 7 and this is our greatest opportunity to teach our children by precept said by example," she declared.

She advised parents to teach their children to grow in the desire to keep the Sabbath day and teach them to pray.

"Prayer is the steel reinforcement in concrete of life," she said.

President Leone William Lee presided over the regular district conference. The singing director was Robert T. Tolson, and a special male chorus under the direction of Norma Marchant, which sang the special music, "The Old-Fashioned Song by the chorus was a special contribution by the women.

"Oh My Father," featuring violin obbligato by Mrs. Marjorie Lee and Mrs. Wee as soloist.

The organist, Robert Hampton, played the Prelude, psalm and accompanied the congregation.

Prayers were offered by Bishop William E. Tolson, Norman Hill, Robert Ramsey and Gene Sorenson.

President Lee stressed that "if we are to fulfill our destiny as children of God we cannot ignore or excuse evil in any form."

His primary responsibility in this life is to save our souls and this can only be done by the conscious observance of the commandments "we have received from God which we often neglect the moral code of life."

"We must seek opportunity to be of service to our fellow men if we are to grow in righteousness. God gave us the plan by which we are duty bound to follow if we are to gain exaltation."

He stressed that the members who attend the Sabbath day, pay tithing and contribute to the program of self-improvement and "show" all have implicit faith in the gospel.

Illegal

CHICAGO, Jan. 22 (AP)—Ernest Hendricks, 49, a south side janitor, has been clearing snow-covered sidewalks for neighbors for several years with a plow attached to the front of a Jeep.

Hendricks was cited Monday for an elderly woman neighbor when he was halted by Policeman Joseph Fritch, who gave him a ticket for driving a motor vehicle on the sidewalk.

Alderman Nicholas J. Bohling, whose ward Hendricks also had cleaned, said he would defend Hendricks in traffic court.

Wojcik Going To Nebraska On Contracts

JEROME, Jan. 22—Charles Wojcik, Paul, will travel to Nebraska soon to compare contracts; it was announced at an annual meeting of the Music Valley cafe in Jerome to discuss a contract.

Representatives from Jerome, Lincoln, Gooding, Twin Falls and Madison counties are expected to be present. B. R. Posey, Jerome county board chairman, reported a contract for the storage of the 1963 bean crop was formulated and bean prices established for all of the counties at a coal of production level.

He asked anyone interested in the contract will be discussed to Nebraska. Posey said a master contract will then be made and presented to all of the bean processors for their approval. The 1963 bean prices and terms of the contract will be discussed later, Posey said.

He pointed out that Nebraska and Idaho make approximately 95 per cent of the white beans in the United States. This is in the county area, he said. Idaho is the leading state in seed bean production. Posey pointed out trials could develop into a major Idaho industry.

He asked anyone interested in growing certified beans in 1963 to contact the NFO bean commission before planting.

He said the mission system of the church is designed to give us the opportunity to learn the virtues of personal control, unselfishness, the value of sharing, both spiritually and materially."

He stated that "the greatest troubles in the world today is man's insatiable desire to grab more and more of that which he does not earn. To man the greatest wealth is not money, but the greatest wealth is the life he has made of his life, he pointed out."

Recently returned missionaries, including Bishop Shum, from the Eastern states mission; Verla Winward of the Scottish mission, and Sister Price from the French mission.

Councilman C. Preston Stocks and Joseph Gillett were short talks.

News Guild To Mortgage Headquarters

NEW YORK, Jan. 22 (AP)—The New York Newspaper guild, announcing it is mortgaging its headquarters building to help pay strike benefits to members, has urged that fresh personnel be brought into negotiations if necessary to end this city's 46-day newspaper shutdown.

At a membership meeting Monday night, the guild adopted a resolution calling on Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wrist and federal mediators to insist that striking printers and newspaper publishers resume negotiations and continue in session until an agreement has been reached.

Both sides, the resolution said, "seem to be unable to remain at the bargaining table long enough to effectively discuss a settlement."

The guild, which represents editorial and commercial employees, is one of 10 unions whose members have not been working because of the printers' strike in Cleveland. The AFL-CIO Newspaper guild and the Independent Teamsters union have been on strike for 34 days against the Ohio city's two dailies—the Plain Dealer and the Press and News.

Legislators Tour Gooding Hospital

GOODING, Jan. 22—State senators and representatives toured the state tuberculosis hospital last week and also visited the state school for the deaf and blind.

Members of the senate finance committee and the house appropriations committee were taken on a tour by the officials of the institutions. The inspection is a routine one made after every state institution submits its budget to the legislature.

Legislators try to see that congressional funds are being used to best advantage, hospital officials note.

PARALYSED YOUTH, Bill Weber, Jr., 18, was left alone in his Manhattan Beach, Calif., apartment when his father—his only relative—was seriously hurt in a car accident. The father has been unconscious since the accident, so nobody knew about the boy's foodless plight until a friend read about the father's accident in a newspaper the day after it happened and notified police of the boy's condition.
