YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

by STELLA

TUESDAY, March 5 — Born today, you have the executive ability for organization in combination with the artist's "talent" for temperament. On the face of it, such a combination would seem all but impossible to get along with successfully. But you manage to do just that, for you have learned the secret of separating your two natures in such a way that you can use them at different times and for different purposes.

Basically, you are an idea man. You must remember, however, that ideas are only beginnings. It takes a great deal of planning, time and effort to translate those ideas into practicalities. If you are only a dreamer, you will find that your ideas are not only unpractical, but also unworkable. You must be able to carry through from inception to reality.

Because your emotions are generally at surface level, you must beware the hazards of too quick or too intense a response to people. In such situations, circumstances of your daily living, learn to wait ten before you speak or act, and your impulsiveness, thus curbed, will be less likely to lead you astray!

Among those born on this date are: Rex Harrison, actor; Heiter Villa-Lobos, Brazilian composer; Frank Morris, author; Howard Pyle, artist.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

WEDNESDAY, March 6 — PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) — Emotional control of utmost importance both at home and on the job. Subordinate personal preferences.

ARIES (Mar. 21-Apr. 20) — Sick to the budget. Temptation to spend should dissipate itself by early afternoon. Then on, have fun.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21) — Make decisions from the standpoint of health today and you'll be better off in the long run.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21) — Avoid bringing argument-provoking matters to the point of domestic battle. Give in — not you!

CANCER (June 22-July 23) — Prospects for profit may seem to abound today. Be careful, however, as some may be mere "soft-soap."

LEO (July 24-Aug. 23) — Conduct yourself with utmost dignity today to avoid a serious clash with your superior.

VIRGO (Aug. 24-Sept. 23) — Accept nothing at face value today. You need to know the why and wherefore of each occurrence.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23) — Everything should go well today. If you try only those things you know, avoid new directions, new ways.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 23) — Today's harmony is up to you. Others will follow your lead. Read attitudes and moods, so take care.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22) — Avoid shutting children out of your conversation today.

The answers you seek may be on the lips of their tongue!

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23-Jan. 20) — Tensions may crop up today, especially in afternoon. Guard against any display of temper.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19) — The decision is yours as to whether a friendship will be shattered or saved. Consider the consequences before acting!

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

WASHINGTON, March 5—It is easy to bleed a little these days, and the bleeding is not only on the liberal side, but also on the conservative side.

But—unfortunately—the cure must be of their own doing because the bleeding is not only on the liberal side, but also on the conservative side.

The company he keeps and some of the people he keeps are not "specializing" in anything but "unity" companions.

For a long time now, the liberal side has been "bleeding" by the "right" side. The "right" side has been "bleeding" by the "left" side. The "left" side has been "bleeding" by the "right" side.

And, finally, the labor union groups whose policies they deplore but whose support frequently new the "right" side is being bedeviled by the John Birch society and is reacting pretty much the same as the liberal with his hair shirt.

NO LOVE LEFT—The Republicans slugged it out twice in different organizations in California within recent weeks and the results could be called a draw. First, a band of ultraconservatives won control of the Republican Party in the state backing of the Birchers. Then, the Birchers supported rightists and elected a so-called "moderate-liberal" as president.

But the Birchers were under control of the Birchers. The election of Robert A. Gaston as head of the Republican Party was denounced as "a home grab" for the Republican Party.

After William Neilligan's election as president of the Republican Party, the Birchers were under control of the Birchers. The election of Robert A. Gaston as head of the Republican Party was denounced as "a home grab" for the Republican Party.

VOTERS SELECTIVE—There is nothing dirty about the word conservative. It is a word that has been used for centuries and it is a word that is used by people who are proud of their beliefs.

But the voter has made it plain over the years that he is selective. He is selective in the way he votes. He is selective in the way he thinks. He is selective in the way he acts.

And, finally, the labor union groups whose policies they deplore but whose support frequently new the "right" side is being bedeviled by the John Birch society and is reacting pretty much the same as the liberal with his hair shirt.

EXTREMISTS IN DIBEAOR—In recent years the liberal has failed at controlling the extremists. The liberal has failed at controlling the extremists. The liberal has failed at controlling the extremists.

There has been too many indications, as in California, that the liberal has failed at controlling the extremists. There has been too many indications, as in California, that the liberal has failed at controlling the extremists.

SEVERAL HOT SPOTS—Although the world keeps attention on the "cold war" between Russia and the U. S., there are several spots where fighting could erupt nearly anytime.

The Cuban crisis is still a hot spot. The Cuban crisis is still a hot spot. The Cuban crisis is still a hot spot.

CHOOSING SIDES AGAIN—National forces are choosing up sides again in what is shaping up as an attempt to pass the controversial "wilderness" bill during the present session of congress.

The bill is no more palatable to its opponents now than when it was proposed originally.

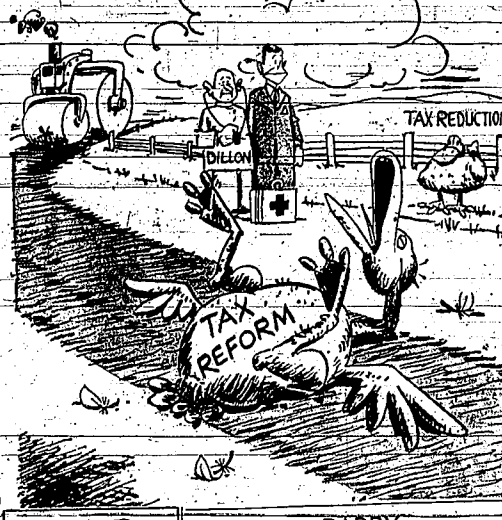

CITIZEN'S TROUBLE SHOOTER—Norway has followed the example of Sweden and Denmark and now has an official "ombudsman" to help citizens settle disputes with government officials.

The Norwegian parliament chose a supreme court justice to become the nation's ombudsman. The Norwegian parliament chose a supreme court justice to become the nation's ombudsman.

POT SHOTS—Dear Pot Shots: I'm getting fed up with hearing people brag about Twin Falls as a "nice quiet town—a line place." I don't want a nice, quiet town. I want a roaring, hell-for-leather, booming, wild-wild-city that ain't got to take nuthin' off nobody.

Snake River Water Users Are Informed

In meeting the needs of 1963. Conservation in the future will be paying off again," bureau of reclamation leaders stressed.

Report by bureau representatives and District Watermaster Henry Eagle showed that river water storage was decidedly below the normal flow prospects for the year to date, due to hoarder storage last fall.

Eagle said that, "We have about 100,000 acre-feet of water in storage now that we experienced for the same time of the year in 1960, and you will recall that was a record year."

E. H. Neal, Boise, superintendent of irrigation for region 4 of the bureau of reclamation and manager of the big Aberdeen-Springfield irrigation district, noted that a bill providing for the construction of a dam on the lower Teton river had been introduced in the house of representatives. He said that studies have been finished to the point to warrant authorization action although studies remain to be done.

The Burns creek dam project is a most worthwhile dam project for full development of the Snake river valley. It had the support of both political parties, of municipalities, of recreation interests, as well as other interests. Not to develop this project would be a waste of our water resources in a manner we can ill afford," Neal declared.

Giving the status of other proposed projects on the Snake river, Neal stated that the plan to raise the American Falls reservoir should be completed by the summer of 1964. He noted that there are development projects on the tributaries of the Snake river in Wyoming and at the Alpine site, and that the plan to raise the American Falls reservoir should be completed by the summer of 1964.

Steve R. Gray, Snake river superintendent, noted that release from Palisades dam has been cut down to 1,000 second-feet per second. He said that the American Falls will fill and it will be close on filling Jackson lake and Palisades dam, it appears.

"It depends on the kind of spring we have, he added. William S. Howell, chairman for the water district, informed the meeting that modification of the Palisades dam water use contracts have been completed and signed, and now are being prepared for final approval and confirmation.

The modifications were necessitated by original failure of the Minidoka water area to approve permanent lease approval for water storage in Jackson lake, since approved by this group on an operative basis.

Speaker Tells of Long, Hard, Territory Battles

POCATELLO, March 5 (AP)—As the floor battles of the Civil War raged at Antietam and Shiloh, an obscure delegate from the territory of Wyoming is telling of long, hard, territory battles which the Idaho territory was to experience.

William Hanson Wallace, delegate to the U. S. house of representatives, was busy preparing a bill for submission for final consideration.

Wallace's epic struggle, a high point in the history of the west, was outlined Monday night by Holman J. Swinney, director of the Idaho Historical society.

Swinney talked the history of the Idaho territory at the Pocatello territorial centennial dinner in the ballroom of the Strandum hotel on the Idaho State university campus.

Date of the dinner, which drew more than 300 persons, coincided with the anniversary of President Lincoln's signing of the bill creating the Idaho territory.

"I told of the efforts of Wallace and his colleagues to convince the senate that the state of the Idaho territory should be doubled to 225,000 square miles, a vast block of land stretching from Nevada, Utah and Colorado in the south to the international border on the north."

"The lawmakers wanted to change the name of the territory because of the efforts of people

Home-baked rolls make any dinner seem particularly special.

Home-baked rolls make any dinner seem particularly special. Making them does take a little extra time. But the aroma, tenderness and pleasure they give, repay the homemaker several fold.

These rolls are made much like ordinary yeast rolls, except that sour cream is used in place of the butter or shortening and milk. No milk is added. The slight crunchiness of corn meal and its corn flavor add welcome texture and taste variations.

SOUR CREAM YEAST ROLLS

(Makes 3 dozen rolls)
1 cake compressed or 1 package dry yeast, 1/2 cup lukewarm water
1 pint dairy sour cream
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
3 1/2 to 4 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 cup enriched corn meal
Sift yeast in lukewarm water. (Use warm water, for dry yeast.) Combine sour cream, sugar and salt in large-size bowl. Beat in 1 cup flour, softened yeast and corn meal. Stir in enough additional flour to make a firm dough.

Turn out on lightly floured board or canvas; knead until satiny, about 10 minutes. Round dough into ball; place in greased bowl; brush lightly with melted shortening. Cover; let rise in warm place until double in size, about 2 hours.

Punch dough down; turn out on lightly floured board or canvas. Cover; let rest 10 minutes. Shape dough to form "bowtins," twists, rosebuds, or fan leaves. Place on ungreased cookie sheets or in greased muffin cups. Brush with melted shortening; cover and let rise in warm place until double in size, about 45 minutes. Bake in preheated moderate oven (375 degrees) about 20 minutes or until golden brown. Brush lightly with melted butter.

House Approves Increase In Hunt, Fish Licenses; Salmon Tag Bill Beaten

BOISE, March 5 (AP)—A bill providing for increased hunting and fishing license fees for both Idahoans and out-of-staters touched off lengthy debate in the Idaho house of representatives Monday before passing 40-23. The increases were proposed by the fish and game department to finance a program aimed at providing more fish and game animals and better access to hunters. The bill provides

Sports FROM ALL ANGLES

BY LARRY HOVEX
Life is going to be a little different for Cliff Whittle, golf professional at the Twin Falls city club since 1954 and newly appointed head pro at the Scottsdale, Ariz., country club.

With four assistants to handle the chores of running a course and pro shop, Whittle will be in a semi-brain-farmer's position in a working public relations man for the course. And that means more golf, hitting with the wheelhead during the height of the winter season will be something new for Whittle and he admits facing the prospect of selling himself and the club puts a few butterflies in him.

But as for playing more golf, he's all for it. "That'll really be something new," he smiles. "I used to feel I was cheating some way when I went out to play nine-holes during a week limit. Now I'm just told to play more."

The Scottsdale country club is located about 10 miles from Phoenix. Its biggest months are the winter months and the club's off-time will be during July and August, when it is too hot to play there.

The club is owned by eight millionaires and is worth just about the same eight millionaires could. "It is a resort area based on motor recreation, tennis courts, riding stables and, of course, the 5,500-yard golf course. It is set up for mid-winter vacations and the patrons are people who spend considerable time there. In fact, the brochure states, 'We prefer our residents members to stay for extended visits as it takes a few days to become adjusted to the casual western style of living on the desert.'"

One member upon registering, "Everything is sports shirts and open necks down there," Whittle said. "You can't tell a millionaire from a 'hey-you' and you have to be careful because there is more money in the area around than you can comprehend."

Overall the outlook is very bright for Whittle in Arizona. The club vacancy never was officially opened, Larry Carl, resigning pro being the pro for the owners. His resignation and Whittle's hiring were announced at the same time.

"It is a tremendous break for me but it's awfully big, too," Whittle says in summing up his feelings. "I have more money here than any pro has in this area. Not even the seasoners are the same. I can't say that I can adapt quickly enough to stick."

"I've always heard a guy was never an until he been fired from at least one job," Whittle smiled. "I told them they'd probably make a man of me."

for increase in the fishing license from $3 to $4 and combined licenses from $5 to $6. The big game license for residents would remain at $3 but for non-residents it would go from $15 to $100.

At the same time, the senate killed a bill providing for an additional $1 fee for salmon and steelhead. It had passed the house.

"When we get a fishing license it should mean all fish without anything extra," said Sen. James MacDonell, R. Kootenai.

Sen. Howard Sims, D. Lemhi, said that the salmon and steelhead fees were necessary. "If we are going to have law enforcement on the Salmon River, Clearwater and proposed adding a dollar for an extra permit."

The general license increases being carried in the house, by Rep. J. Vard-Chalupin, R. Cassia, chairman of the Resources and Conservation committee, said the added money would permit the purchase of access routes to hunting and fishing areas, permit purchase of new hunting areas, expand fish production, improve habitat and protect better law enforcement and educational programs.

Rep. John V. Ponicik, D. Shoshone, said he opposed, apparently had one back on its word not to press for increases in fees. Rep. Jack Palmer, R. Oneida, urged a vote against the bill as a means of curbing the fish and game department. He said fish and game funds are dedicated so little can be done to cut the department's appropriations.

"Personally I feel that the department has gone overboard in this matter," he said. "The licenses but not this much."

Rep. Don Piper, D. Bonneville, said the increase to $100 for out-of-state hunters. "I, for one, do not want to discourage the hunters," he said. "It's a 100 million dollar industry in Idaho."

Rep. Herman McDevitt, D. Blaine, defended the fish and game department and lectured the lawmakers in a lengthy speech. He said that every time that game bill comes up there is confusion.

"I submit," he said, "that the reason for the confusion is that certain of our members want it confused."

He said that the people some leaving Twin Falls March 23 so Cliff can begin his new duties on bill has carried in the house. He said he hopes to bring his family back to this area for the off-season (July and August).

"I can work that out, then, I'll be able to play more golf around here in those two months than I have for the past five years," he says.

Howard and Shook Take Bowling Wins

Jim Howard, Twin Falls, and Omer Shook, Shoshone, walked away with the 112th week of qualifying for the Great Western handicap singles bowling tournament at the Magic Bowl.

Howard paced the class A division with a 655 series to win the 40 weekly first place money. Jack Clark, Twin Falls, and Keith Piller, Kimberly, split second place with 650 totals.

In the B division, Shook had a 274 series while Dave Chan, Twin Falls, had a 273 series. The C division was won by Gila Colleen Trewal, Twin Falls, with a 268 series.

Only three more weeks remain for Magic Bowl bowlers to qualify for the tournament. Following qualifications, a house finale will be rolled off with the winners advancing to the finale in Las Vegas. Only the Magic Bowl offers the competition.

years ago through initiative created the department and the fish and game commission because the legislature had not assumed its responsibility in that area. He said members of the commission serve without pay and are presently more dedicated than the legislators.

"This is big business every week-end in our country," said Rep. Fred Walker, D. Camas. "The sportsmen just pour in the money and get more and more into the game. They are acquiring property around them. We are going to need more access roads."

Chalupin said the $100 non-resident fee was a committee compromise and not an attempt at retaliation. He apparently preferred to report to some lawmakers that it was designed to tap back at Utah's because of Utah property taxes and registration fees for Idaho auto owners studying or working in Utah.

Clay Will Try To Settle Paper Strike

NEW YORK, March 5 (AP)—The New York Post resumed publication Monday but the public-conscious city is afraid that his bout with Doug Jones, New York's Madison Square garden-March 13 won't get the proper coverage in the local press.

Speaking by telephone from Miami Beach, the outspoken Clay declared, "When I get to New York Wednesday-I'm going to city hall and ask for permission to try to settle the strike."

Bargaining negotiations between the printers and publishers of the eight night metropolitan daily papers continued Monday in afternoon and evening sessions.

The unbeaten Louisville boxer, in blasting the strike, said, "I consider that a personal affront to me. All those people want to read about me and see my picture. There must be thousands of pictures of me they'd like to see."

The poetic Cassius also got in a barb at his favorite target, heavyweight champion Sonny Liston.

"If Sonny Liston wants to prove he's a real big shot, I'm going to offer to fight him a benefit fight for the unemployed newspapermen in New York. The problem can go to the newspapermen and their families."
