

Far North Crash Victims Feeling Strength Return; Say Faith in God Helped

WHITEHORSE, Yukon Territory, March 26 (AP)—A California pilot and an abandoned Brooklyn coed felt their strength flowing back today in Whitehorse after a seven-week ordeal of hunger and cold in the sub-zero Canadian wilderness. They said faith in God brought them through after their plane crashed Feb. 4. Helen Klaben, 21, and Ralph Flores, 42, a father of six from San Bruno, Calif., said they survived on melted snow for the last six weeks.

"I had water for breakfast, water for lunch and water for dinner," said Miss Klaben, managers to smile for the readers although she had a broken, gangrenous right foot and a broken left arm and was gaunt from hunger.

"She lost 30 pounds—the heavily bearded Flores lost 40—but Klaben said she had had a very good thing about the experience. I used to be 'pleasingly plump.' ... Flores, a pilot and electrician, also is a Mormon lay preacher. His faith set the example for me to follow. 'I have to do it,' said Miss Klaben. 'It was a miracle my childhood faith in God kept me going until I understood, until I realized my sins and decided to make reconciliation. ... It was my Bible. I read both—the Old and New Testaments. ... I had to do it, what my work is, what faith is, faith in God.' ... Klaben said she never lost hope, but was puzzled 'why the Lord was keeping us so long.' ... During the terrifying weeks in the wilderness, Miss Klaben said she longed for her mother, Teds Klaben of Brooklyn, more than anything or anyone else. ... 'I was so happy and emotional we couldn't talk. ... 'He had tears in his eyes, I am sure, and I was the same way too.' ... Cheryl Flores, 14, talked to her father. Tears streaming down her face, she kept repeating, 'I'm so proud of you.' ... Flores told reporters he expects to be released from the hospital in about five days.

GANGRENOUS FEET banded up, Helen Klaben, 21, Brooklyn, N.Y., is carried from a rescue plane at Watson Lake, Yukon Territory, Canada, by Charles Brock, last day of rescue mission. ... Flores, who suffered a broken hip and frozen toes, also told reporters he expects to be released from the hospital in about five days.

Range Fire West of Hailey Starts Year

HAILEY, March 26—The first range fire of the year, believed by oldtimers to be one of the earliest on record, was brought under control Monday evening in Lambs gulch, a Democrat creek tributary about 14 miles west of Hailey. The blaze, which charred 144 acres, mostly on private land, could be seen from Dollarhide summit, 28 miles away. A high wind storm fanned flames 10 feet into the air during the afternoon, according to Wandell Elliott, Shoshone, fire control officer for the bureau of land management. He said there were four different fires, all believed to have been set in the area.

Burley Meet Addressed by Cassia Solon

BURLEY, March 26— "Sixty days is too short a session for the state legislature," Rep. Vard Solon said today as he addressed a Chamber of Commerce luncheon meeting in the National hotel.

He said 225 bills were introduced to the senate and 416 in the house. "The house action will have the better effect," he declared.

In 1961 the house had 428 bills and 320 in the senate. In 1962 there were 325 bills in the house and 382 in the senate.

In past sessions, Chabourn had been under great pressure from the education lobbyists but this year they were there when needed and out of the way when not needed.

Chabourn added he had never seen a group of legislators as friendly to education.

Sen. Don Loveland said chamber members are thought "there was less pressure and more common sense support from Cassia county than from any county in the state."

He said reorganization of the number of committees from 22 to 14 will make for more efficiency in legislation.

He pointed out the legislative council is a move in the right direction, as are the new child and juvenile laws. Senator Loveland said that after a visit to the state penitentiary he was pleased to learn a new one is to be constructed.

Hansen, Minidoka county and chairman of the finance committee, said, "I'd say you are not satisfied with what you did. You should ask the legislators who voted against you to explain their votes. I can explain mine."

He said more interested citizens are needed in government, not only in the state legislature, but also in the school board meetings, city council meetings and in city government which affects them.

Asked if he thought a sales tax would be passed this year, Hansen said, "Whether you like it or not, I'm for it and went up there thinking it would pass early. I had to come back with a bill that added taxes to you same ones who are now paying them, when there are ways to tax those who don't pay their share."

He explained there was much lobbying against the sales tax and none in its favor.

People of the state need to work and think seriously on the lobbying between now and the next session and help the legislators to come up with something constructive.

Mrs. Moore, school superintendent, questioned the senator on the school approval. Hansen said, "If the money is administered efficiently, it will help the schools."

He added, "We can't continually go to the legislature for more money. Local people have to be brought into the picture."

Guests were Gordon Nielson, Herman E. Bedke, city attorney; Dewane Jensen, city clerk; Mrs. Mary Clark, Mrs. Geneva Trummett, Mrs. Ella Jones and Mrs. Jane Burdette, teachers from Boothley school, and Ray Reid and Dean Ward from the county school office.

Community Concert Group Sets Last Event of Season

Final concert of the Magic Valley Community Concert association 1962-63 season will be presented at 8:15 p.m. Wednesday in the Filer high school auditorium, where the Pacific Ballet will appear in a repertoire of classical and contemporary ballets.

The ballet group was formed as a non-profit organization in January, 1961. The company launched the first of three Pacific Ballet seasons in May, 1961, and was hailed as an exciting young group with a pioneering spirit.

Its repertoire, much of it choreographed by Marc Wildie, is rich and imaginative. It includes the dramatic, the humorous, the sophisticated force, the abstract and the classical.

While the complete company is comprised of 25 dancers, local association members will see the 12-member touring company which has had several successful appearances outside of Sun Valley.

It was announced Saturday that since the Community Concert association is closing the time of year for its membership campaign from fall to spring, members will be given an opportunity to renew memberships at the concert.

This plan of renewal will save time for workers by not having to contact the culture promoter by telephone during the summer.

A dinner for officers and workers will be held Monday night.

Firemen Called For Buhl Blaze

BUHL, March 26—The Buhl fire department answered a summons to the Gerald Lutz ranch, two and one-half miles southwest of Buhl, when dry bedding straw caught fire in the corral and endangered a herd and outbuildings at 10:30 a.m. Monday. There was no damage.

Firemen were slightly hampered by high winds and lack of water in canals. The Buhl fire truck had to make a return trip to town to refill its water tank.

In addition, the Buhl highway district dispatched its tank truck to the scene to assist in putting out the blaze.

The fire is believed to have started from a spark from the exhaust pipe of the truck which was being used in hauling straw.

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

TUESDAY, March 26—Born today, it is your nature to take the life seriously—sometimes too much so for your own good. A thinker in depth, you are often apt to go down so deep that you forget to come up for air. The result? Frustration and moodiness. On the other hand, you can be the life-of-the-party when you choose—and you should try to do those most often.

Basically intelligent, you have a natural curiosity about man which makes him tick. Such curiosity will probably lead you into both familiar and strange places and sources of knowledge. You will accept it all—and the good and bad it may bring you—as merely part of your education for living. Gentle and kindly and artistic, it will be surprising only if you do not choose one of the arts as your life's work.

Because of your intelligence and interesting personality, you will draw people to you and will never lack for acquaintances. You do not, however, make friends easily, for you do not give of your true self easily. It may be that you will hold yourself back so far and for so long that even marriage will not be "the answer" for you.

Among those born on this date are: Sterling Hayden, actor; Tennessee Williams, playwright; Robert Frost, poet; Conde Nast, publisher.

To find out what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday sign, and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Wednesday, March 27—

ARIES (March 21-April 20)—An unexpected opportunity for financial gain may well arise in the morning. Be on the lookout.

Taurus (April 21-May 21)—The basis of authority should be daily bolstered in your hands today. Press important matters diplomatically.

Gemini (May 22-June 21)—Wisdom and new employment possibilities go together today. Judge well and from all angles before accepting offers.

Cancer (June 22-July 23)—Risks at a low level, but avoid investing without full knowledge of the changing situation. Gains likely but not guaranteed.

Leo (July 24-Aug. 23)—Though in a "fortunate" phase tonight, guard your own interests against what may be another's "fortunate" day.

Virgo (Aug. 24-Sept. 23)—On-the-job "advancement" possibilities look better than they actually are. Think twice carefully.

Libra (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)—A good day for buying and selling.

Scorpio (Oct. 24-Nov. 23)—No heads can bring far better results than one's own forces with one who "knows the score" and watch the sparks fly!

Sagittarius (Nov. 23-Dec. 22)—Much to be gained today if you schedule hours wisely for efficiency. Make up your mind to stick to plans.

Capricorn (Dec. 23-Jan. 20)—You can make a clean sweep today if you make the right decision early. The case this morning is to waste this day!

Aquarius (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)—Best to let authorities know your view on the subject of on-the-job advancement. A high mood of response today.

Pisces (Feb. 20-March 20)—Out of the house early for a day of high activity. The quieter you are, the better the results.

IRS Office
Slack Will Be Reviewed

WASHINGTON, March 26 (AP)—Mortimer B. Caplin, commissioner of internal revenue, said today that he will review the office's slack in the coming year. Caplin said there will be a thorough review of plans to reduce the office's backlog.

Caplin announced plans to reduce the number of employees in the office by 100. He said he will be asked to transfer about 500 of the staff to Salt Lake City.

Caplin questioned the proposal to change in a telegram to Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon. He said the reorganization plan was carefully worked out to avoid any adverse effect on employees or the quality of service to taxpayers.

In view of the widespread misunderstanding of the proposal, Secretary Dillon has decided to make a thorough review of the plan.

Caplin assured the governor no impending action would be taken prior to completion of the review.

53-46-59

LONG BEACH, Calif., March 26 (AP)—Today because her measurements were only 49-42-55 1/4.

"The last 14 pounds and four inches in the direction of my waist were only 49-42-55 1/4."

She weighed 244 pounds and measured 53-46-59 on March 17. Mrs. Ferguson had hoped to lose 50 pounds so she can fit into her old dress, but her doctor had told her it was "practically impossible."

"The last two pounds a day is all I can expect," she said. "When I get home I'm going to work real hard and get down to 49-42-55 1/4."

Mrs. Ferguson checked into the hotel for the first time because she had lost 14 pounds. Her husband had hearty meals and told her she was "practically impossible."

"Let's face it," she said. "I do feel like I'm starting to lose weight. I think I'll lose my mind. But I'm going home bright and early every day."

"My doctor is going to put me on a 1,000-calorie diet then, and I'll try to live it up."

SMASHED AFTER SNAPPING power pole at Minidoka avenue and Eighth street south is 1953 Chevrolet. The driver, Lloyd Stalling, was slightly injured in the mishap, which occurred at 6:37 p.m. Monday while, police say, he was racing another car down Second avenue south and onto Minidoka avenue. Horse Killed

A small bucking horse owned by Jake Pope, Twin Falls, was killed Sunday afternoon at Quail Park ranch during a rodeo when it ran into a board fence.

Pope said the horse apparently was spotted just after Dale Brown, Gooding, who had finished riding him, had gotten off, and ran toward the catchpen. The horse struck the catchpen, broke its neck and broke its neck.

"The horse, worth about $100," was recently brought from Montana and was still a little wild, Pope said. He added this was the second time the horse had been in an arena. The horse was in the same arena March 17.

Police Blame Auto Crash
On Impromptu Drag Racing

An impromptu drag race down Second avenue south and onto Minidoka avenue ended with a car demolished and an Idaho Power company pole broken at 6:37 p.m. Monday, police report, but no one was seriously injured.

Twin Falls police cited Lloyd Stalling, 18, 1340 Elizabeth boulevard, driver of the demolished 1953 Chevrolet, for reckless driving. Stalling was slightly injured. Also cited for reckless driving were Gary Rogers, 18, Kimberly, who police say was driving a 1955 Pontiac in the race with Stalling. Stalling's car went out of control and jumped the right-hand curb, struck a traffic sign, then veered the pole at its base. The pole hung suspended from its wires, the base 10 feet from the stump. It is jointly owned by the Idaho Power company, Mountain States Telephone company and Union Pacific railroad.

"No telephone service" interrupted by the pole, Rogers was reported, but wires dangled across Minidoka avenue, eight feet above the ground, until company crews made temporary adjustments.

Twin Falls police officers were assisted in the investigation by Idaho state policemen.

Stalling was given first aid at 6:37 p.m. Monday, police report, but no one was seriously injured. Stalling and Rogers were fined $100 and costs, each sentenced to 10 days in jail and their drivers' licenses were suspended for 30 days by Twin Falls Police Judge Dale Adamson, which they accepted before him Tuesday morning.

NEW YORK, March 26 (AP)—The pulse of the nation's economy today you need the hand-fingers. The averages culled from the statistics just don't tell the whole story.

Community exactly how to give to clear picture of any one region. It's been a trying winter in some places, coming after a national wide depression in the stock market and a year ago.

And June. But for all its spyness the economy this spring looks better in most places.

Of course, where the growth has been arrested, as in the West and Southwest, communities still can see nothing but blue skies, while in other places the tone may be more one of quiet confidence than of exuberant predictions.

Yet varied as are the regional economies, one thing they share in common: The belief that times aren't really so bad as people elsewhere may be saying, nor the future as precarious either for the nation or themselves.

Crisis, present or predicted, have lost much of their power to paralyze.

Problems? Sure, of them. New ventures and plans? Many communities are happily deep in them. And the one which does not even have some planned or dreamed of is sick indeed.

To judge how people are doing—and how they feel today—look at one of the measuring sticks, department store sales. How people spend their money, and how much they spend, tells a lot.

From Jan. 1 to March 16 the volume in the 12 federal reserve districts compares this way with a year ago: Boston up five per cent, New York up two per cent, Richmond up five, Atlanta up eight, Chicago up six, St. Louis up three, Minneapolis up three, Kansas City up four, Dallas up two, San Francisco up six.

Pocatellan
Honored at State Parley

HEYBURN, March 25—Veloxy O. Adams, Pocatello, vice president of the Idaho chapter of graphoanalysts, was honored at the parley of graphoanalysts of 1962-Saturday evening during the association's convention at the Pocatello Inn.

Presenting the plaque was the international president of graphoanalysts, V. Peter Ferrara, Chicago.

The convention began with an Idaho chapter officers meeting Saturday morning, followed by a business meeting conducted by the Idaho chapter president, Mrs. Art Smith, Heyburn.

Burley mayor Leonard Salmon gave the opening address, listing historical data on the Burley area.

Mrs. Lodyan Peterson told the parley. "The best thing you can offer a person is to help him know himself better." She added, "There is no better way to get to know someone better than through graphoanalysis."

David J. Gaudin, Utah chapter vice president, spoke on the professional aspect of graphoanalysis. Mrs. Eva Helton, Boise, was concluding speaker for the morning session.

Mildred Minnstrom, elementary school teacher, Pocatello, City, demonstrated to the group the "different traits" or habits in handwriting the child forms, which differ from the standard method he is taught, pointing out that each stroke the child makes differently than the way the teacher instructs has a definite meaning.

A banquet was held in the evening with Dr. George Cox, Pocatello, guest speaker. He said graphoanalysis with other psychological or medical procedures can be of tremendous value in understanding patients and help in working out emotional problems, as well as being a valuable tool in the understanding of a child in school.

Reapportionment Action Hits All but 12 States Since Supreme Court Rule

BY BRUCE BLOSBAT

WASHINGTON, March 26 (AP)—A torrent of activity without parallel has flowed through courts and legislatures since the U.S. supreme court ruled the reapportionment damnable in the highest case. A reapportionment expert, Prof. Paul David of the University of Virginia, says of this book:

"A tremendous blocking force is being removed."

Police legislatures may reflect more equitably the great 20th century population shift from rural into the cities and suburbs.

Plen of the 50 states have reapportioned since the high court decision in 1961. Another 10 have not.

THE expected to do so in 1963. Court action to press reapportionment has been taken in 21 states where so far no decision on the matter has occurred. Courts also are expected to try in 15 states which have not yet reapportioned.

Only in 14 states has there been either court or legislative action since the Tennessee case last year. Carr of Oregon also reapportioned in 1961 or early in 1962. Just three—Oregon, Arkansas and Louisiana—have done nothing since the 1960 census which signaled time for change.

Lawyers and jurists agree that the pace of the response to Carr vs. Carr is a far cry from the glacial slowness that usually marks the progress of supreme-court decisions. Few would challenge the view of attorney Charles S. Rhyne, who battled on the winning side in the Tennessee case.

"The rush of events so far out of the past-up feeling of frustration which has been the lot of urban citizens for decades. There is also widespread agreement among lawyers and political leaders that it is much too soon to tell what the real impact of this torrent will be on badly apportioned legislatures, on the major political parties, on the balance among city, suburban and rural interests."

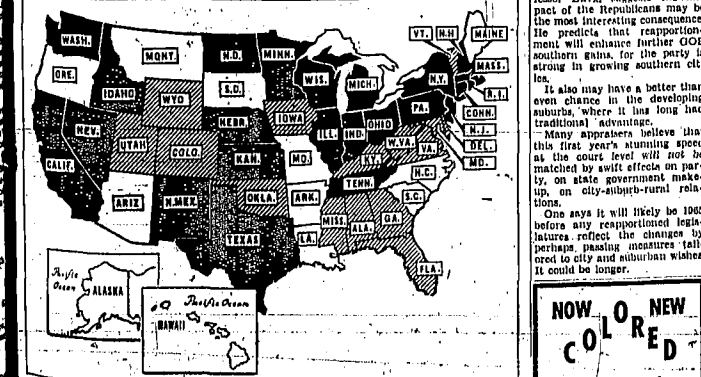

As Rhyne sees it, "this long overdue action is the beginning of strong currents which will result in reform at all levels of government—local, state and federal."

But Cornell university's government specialist, Andrew W. Coyle, Indiana university professor, says long study of the Illinois legislature convinces him:

"The city's bitterest opponents in the legislature are political enemies from within its own walls—those camped in the adjoining suburban areas."

He and other specialist argue that city-based state lawmakers are generally neither as liberal nor as imaginative as suggested by those who foresee an early end to the era of legislative "rural" domination weakness.

Whether the long range effects, reapportionment activity continues at long range pace.

NEWS MAP indicates state by state action on reapportionment since the March 20, 1963 decision by the supreme court. Crosshatching shows 15 states which have reapportioned one or two times. Black shading shows 21 states which have reapportioned since the March 20, 1963 decision. No shading has taken place in the remaining 14.

Car Skids

RUFERT, March 25—Ins Arnel, 33, Boise, escaped injury in a one-car accident at 7 p.m. Sunday three miles west and three miles south of Rupert.

Deputy Sheriff Howard Platt reported the driver came over a slight grade to a dead-end road near the interstate highway and was unable to stop. The auto skidded in loss of control over a slight embankment. Damage was minimal.

Car Skids

Federal court. It threw out an inadequate the legislature's 1962 effort, and ordered the lawmakers to come up with a better plan by this June.

Lawyers say some lower courts have enlarged greatly on the 1962 court's decision.

The ruling was a narrow one which simply said the federal courts have jurisdiction in an apportionment matter like the Tennessee case—under the U.S. constitution's clause guaranteeing states equal protection of the laws. Misapportionment is presumed to deprive voters in unrepresented areas of such protection.

Some courts are close to insisting that nothing less than full equality of representation, based on a strict population formula, will satisfy. Others permit such factors as geography and traditional political subdivisions (for example, one representative to a county) to be worked into the formula.

Further action by the supreme court may spell out more clearly what the equality must be. On appeal now are 10 cases from seven states. Court observers do not expect action on any before the 1963-64 term.

As to the political effect of reapportionment change, Professor David suggests the impact of the Republicans may be the most interesting consequence. He predicts that reapportionment will enhance further GOP southern gains, for the party is strong in growing southern districts.

It also may have a better than even chance in the developing future where it has long had traditional advantage.

"Many observers believe that the full equality of representation at the court level will not be matched by swift effects on party, on state government, and on the old-city-rural relations.

One says it will likely be 1963 before any reapportioned legislatures reflect the changes by perhaps passing measures felt to be just and suburban wishes. It could be longer.

Civic Club's Bonnets Herald Springtime

HAILEY, March 26—A sure sign that spring is here is evidenced by members of the Civic club, who are busy making Easter-bonnets-to-wear-at their annual "Easter Bonnet parade." The event will be held at the home of Mrs. Charlotte Copeland Thursday.

These "chapeaux" will be worn only once by their owners, but just as much time and effort is put into their creation as if they were "for keeps."

Mrs. Copeland made her hat from a flour sieve and covered it with green "Easter basket" grass. On top nestles her grandmother's white china bun with her brood of baby chicks. The chapeaux is held in place with a wide yellow satin ribbon. This chic creation is called "Chick Chick Bonnet."

Mrs. Poshon's hat is more practical. She calls it "The low bow gives the hat individuality."

Mrs. McCoy will have perhaps the most elaborate bonnet in the parade. An inverted colander makes the base. This is covered with fluted - pink facial tissue and pale green color paper. On top of the hat nestle a yellow and white mother hen sitting on Easter eggs twice her size. Baby chicks run in all directions on the hat.

Mrs. McCoy's final touch is curling black feathers which simulate a roustabout's tail. The cake may be topped with whipped cream if cake is not served as dessert for a meal in which meat or chicken is featured.

Wine Passover Cake (A 10x4-inch tube cake)

Food for Madox

- By GAYNOR MADDOX
- This special sponge cake, with sliced bananas between layers, is a popular Passover dessert. Serve as a festive sweet a little while after the Seder supper. The spiced wine cake is another favorite Passover treat.
- Passover Banana Sponge Cake (8 to 10 servings)
- 6 large eggs, separated
 - 1 large whole egg
 - 1 1/2 cups sugar
 - 1 1/2 tablespoons fresh lemon juice
 - 1 teaspoon ground lemon rind
 - 1 cup sifted potato starch
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 1 teaspoon ground mace or nutmeg
 - 3 large bananas
- Confectioner's sugar
- Beat 6 egg yolks and the whole egg together in a rotary or electric beater until frothy. Gradually beat in sugar, lemon juice and rind. Beat together potato starch, salt and nutmeg or mace. Gradually blend into the egg and sugar mixture. Beat egg whites until stiff, but not dry. Gently fold into the batter.
- Rinse 3 ungreased 9-inch round layer cake pans with cold water. Line bottoms with waxed paper cut to fit them. Divide the batter (equally) between the 3 pans. Bake in a preheated moderate oven (325 degrees) 30 minutes or until cake is firm in center. Cool in pans to prevent too much shrinkage.
- Turn out onto wire racks, having top sides up. Put layers together with sliced bananas. Dust with confectioner's sugar. Note: In a household where the strict Seder laws are followed, this cake may be topped with whipped cream if cake is not served as dessert for a meal in which meat or chicken is featured.
- Wine Passover Cake (A 10x4-inch tube cake)
- 1 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
 - 6 tablespoons finely ground almonds
 - 3 large eggs, separated
 - 1 1/2 cups sugar
 - 1/2 cup sweet red wine
 - 1/2 cup fresh orange juice
 - 1 1/2 tablespoons grated orange rind
 - 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
- Mix the first 4 ingredients together. Set aside. Beat egg yolks until they are thick and lemon colored. Gradually beat in sugar and continue beating until thick and light. Add wine, orange juice, orange and lemon rinds and beat with an electric mixer set at medium speed for four minutes. Fold in dry ingredients. Beat egg whites until they stand in soft, stiff peaks and fold into the batter. Turn into a 10x4-inch spring form pan or into a 10x4-inch round tube cake pan. Bake in a pre-heated slow oven (325 degrees) 1 1/2 hours or until done. Invert cake on a wire rack to cool. Remove from pan when cold.

NEW WAY TO BE SUDDENLY SLIM

Are you a woman whose figure is on the good side but might look perfect? You'll be thrilled by the new easy way science has discovered for you to become Suddenly Slim. If you're more than 15 pounds overweight, then this idea is not for you. If your weight problem falls within this range, then you can realize a new smoother figure today, without diet or exercise.

Suddenly Slim is an all-new kind of 4-oz. girde, constructed of science fibers. One startling innovation is the alter nylon front panel. This is permanently stiffened by a science process and cannot give or sag. It's surrounded by a stimulating action border. A feather-touched panel down each side of this girde will contour your hips. If they are a problem, The girde itself is of a "wonder" Lycra spandex blend. It's a new power net consisting of nylon, acetate and spandex. It feels like nothing on but has such stimulating strength, it gives you a figure everything that's possible with a foundation.

"Suddenly Slim" is the peak achievement of the design genius of Olga.

Today, let Mrs. Doris Fik, Carroll's experienced corsetiere, show you how you can be "Suddenly Slim" ... phone 733-5004, Twin Falls.

Idaho Falls Wins 'High Five' Part of Bowling Meet

BURLEY, March 26 (AP)—Idaho Falls won the "high five" championship but the rest of the field stayed off at it as supposed to be the power week-end of the annual Idaho Women's Bowling tournament. Only three leads were posted in the regular meet, two coming in the singles. While scores up to this point were considered somewhat below average, they more than made up for the slow start of the 120 average bowlers in the state. The high five, in which each association sends its best average bowler to compete on one team, saw Idaho Falls win with a 2,739. On that team were Adria George, Joann Dot Runz, Patty Chapple and Molly Mick. Twin Falls was second with 2,625 with Catherine third at 2,618. A total of 24 teams entered the special event.

Jean Burkinbine, Boise, took both the singles lead and the team scratch division had a new pace-setter.

Elsie Modin, Emmett, grabbed the singles handicap lead with a 640, followed by Mrs. Burkinbine with 627 and Rose Mary Goodman, Minidoka, 624. Molly Mick, Idaho Falls, who also rolled the best series for the week-end, had a 520 to claim the singles scratch lead.

Tough's Pro Shop, Pocatello, took over the team scratch event with a 2,416. In the handicap division the first two places remained the same with Coora, Mountain Home, at 2,739, and Idaho Falls, 2,739. Marshall Produce, Jerome, moved into third place with 2,743.

The double division went to Dorothy Jackson and Lois Hamilton, Mountain Home, 1,200; Jack Durnell and Colleen Long, Boise, 1,183; and Betty Jo Fisher and Francis House, Boise, 1,150. The same duo led in the consolation of the Middle Ford in the main final.

The men report checking out only a few fishermen from Montana and Idaho. The largest catch they say was 18 pounds dressed. They were in the area of the fishing done below Salmon City. As an afterthought they said the fish success has been excellent.

Red Scholes, regional conservation officer with the Idaho Department of Game and Fish, said the best success has been in the river from the dam to the mouth of the river. Everheart said campgrounds and parking areas were being used and the fishing was excellent and brought back two.

Officers reminded those going to the river to be sure to fill the obligations of the steelhead punch card. These cards, which are free at license vendors, must be in possession while fishing. On catching a steelhead it must be filled out immediately to comply with the regulations of the card have resulted in several arrests so far.

Since the Idaho Department of Game and Fish and the state to best the regulations. Since Montana has no occupational fish, therefore has no possession limit, either.

The other is increase of revenue for maintenance of the river and the anglers take them into this river in considerable money.

Opponents of the bill in the legislature said they felt it was essential to each year all fish caught in the river be put in a "hot" bucket, that kind of hot-knocked-out any reason they had for maintaining the practice of deer, elk, and other big game fur, which must be processed by purchase of a hunting license.

Red Sox Deny Florida Rumors

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz., March 26 (AP)—A Boston official, declared today that the Red Sox have no intention of moving their spring training camp to Florida.

Executive Vice President Richard H. O'Connell made his statement following reports from Florida that the Red Sox had been considering moving to that state.

O'Connell said "We haven't done anything about moving anywhere. We aren't even considering it."

O'Connell said at least a dozen in Florida are trying to lure the Sox from their Scottsdale quarters.

Cincy Coach Still Pleased With His Boys

CINCINNATI, March 26 (AP)—"It was a thing I'll never forget as long as I live," Coach Ed Jucker of the Cincinnati Bearcats said Monday, recalling the welcome his team received Sunday after barely falling in its bid for a third straight NCAA basketball championship.

"True, we were defeated in our last game, but these boys are still my champions. They showed real character and class," Jucker told a Bearcats club meeting.

The Bearcats, who won the national title in 1961 and 1962, were beaten in overtime, 69-68, by Loyola of Chicago Saturday night. Hundreds of students and fans turned out to welcome the team home after its trip to the city of Chicago.

Jucker congratulated Loyola on playing a great game and added: "The things that hurt us most were turnovers and fouls. These are the two things we are not used to committing."

The Bearcats coach said he did not feel Loyola had an edge because he had scouted Cincinnati four times. Cincinnati scouted Loyola once.

"Our own scouting job was sufficient. We knew what they were going to do and if we played them tonight, we'd do the same things. We outshot, outrebounded and in fact outdid Loyola in everything but we had the game," Jucker said.

Jucker repeated that he felt Loyola was guilty of goal tending by a shot by Tony Yates, who was fouled in the final seconds of regulation play.

Iowa State Gets Assistant Coach

JAMES, Ia., March 26 (AP)—Bob Ward, 35, assistant football coach at Ohio State for the past three years, was named today to fill the vacant post at Iowa State by Oskaloosa coach Clay Blalock.

Ward was an assistant at Iowa State in 1958 and 1959 before he went to Oklahoma. He was then assistant coach for the Iowa State team for six years before first joining the Iowa State staff.

Ward will replace coach Lou McCullough, who resigned Monday to become an assistant coach at Ohio State.

Sprinter Eyeing 100-Yard Record

TEMPE, Ariz., March 26 (AP)—Henry Carr of Arizona State University has twice broken the world record for the 220-yard dash around a full turn. Now he wants to better the 100-yard dash mark.

"I'm very proud," Carr said Monday, "I can hit 9.2 seconds" in the 100 and go 30.2 consistently." Carr said Sunday while revising his record shattering 220 performance. The 100 standard is 30.2. The last striding Detroit, Mich., sophomore, coach, Seno Baloy Capharin, agreed.

Duke Snider Headed for Job in N. Y.

VERO BEACH, Fla., March 26 (AP)—Duke Snider, apparently is heading back to the New York area where he starred for a dozen years as a slugging outfielder of the old Brooklyn Dodgers.

Now 36 and dubbed the "Gray Eagle," Snider was placed on the waiver list by the Los Angeles Dodgers today and immediately claimed by both the New York Yankees and New York Mets.

He can withdraw Snider's name within 48 hours and then try to negotiate a deal with the Mets for more than the $20,000 waiver price. He hopes to get $40,000 for the outfielder.

Snider, one of the most popular players ever to play in Brooklyn, has expressed a preference for New York but said:

"It's been reported I would play only in New York if I'm paid. Snider said. That is not true. I'll play anywhere. I'll try to connect with a team I can help."

Snider's salary is in the $25,000 range. That plus the $9,000 wanted by the Dodgers makes him an expensive piece of baseball trade.

However, he would be a gate attraction as well as a valuable left-handed power hitter for the Mets, who finished at the tail end of the National League last year.

Butts Files 10-Million-Dollar Libel Suit Against Magazine

ATLANTA, March 26 (AP)—Wallace Butts, former Georgia athletic director, filed a 10 million dollar libel suit Monday against the Saturday Evening Post which has charged him with rigging a college-football game. The damage suit was filed in federal court as state and federal investigators question Georgia Burnet, Atlanta insurance salesman who was quoted in the Post as having overheard a telephone conversation between Butts and Coach Paul (Bear) Bryant of Alabama. In the complaint, which seeks five million dollars in punitive damages, Butts says the Post charged him with rigging and fixing the Alabama-Georgia football game with Coach Bryant as a gambling device in order to restore his financial resources.

Butts charges the Post has ruined his coaching career of 23 years by "definitely, maliciously and falsely" publishing a libelous article. He resigned as Georgia athletic director in February 1957. The Post, managing editor, Davis Thomas, said in a statement issued in New York that the magazine's editors "stand behind" the article.

"They feel the article speaks for itself and have no further comment at this time," said Thomas.

Burnet said in the Post article that Butts gave Georgia football secrets to Bryant eight weeks before Bryant's eight game win over Alabama last year, which Alabama won 35-0. Both coaches have denied the charges.

After appearing before investigators Monday, Burnet's attorney, Pierre Howard, said the insurance salesman got $5,000 minus legal fees for information used by the Post. Howard said he handled all negotiations with the Post, said a $2,000 initial payment was made.

Then last Thursday, Howard said, the Post paid an additional $3,000 for having gotten an "exclusive" on the story.

"Burnet has never charged that Coach Butts or Bryant have done anything wrong," Howard said. Burnet stood by his hands.

"But he still insists that no football rules changes were discussed," Howard said, apparently replying to statements by Butts and Bryant that they had several times talked about rules interpretations.

Howard said Burnet decided to tell the story to the Post because of the reaction of a Georgia board of regents member when Burnet first told his story. Howard said Burnet was fearful of a libel suit.

The attorney said he and his client felt the state investigation was thorough.

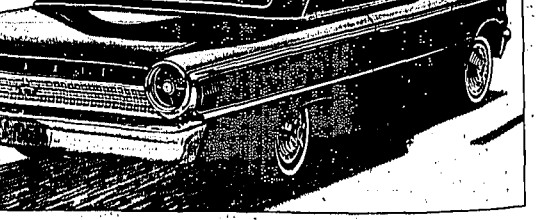

"I'm satisfied when they get through, we'll have the truth," he said.

Georgia Atty. Gen. Eugene Cook said he had decided Bryant would not be asked to take the stand. Bryant, however, said he was not satisfied with the type of tests which Butts and Bryant have taken.

All three have submitted to doctor tests and have said the results indicated they told the truth.

Cook said he would go to Atlanta Wednesday in an effort to get Bryant to submit to a polygraph test by Det. Barney Stagner, chief of the Georgia Bureau of Investigation and president of the American Academy of Polygraph Examiners.

Legislative Clamor to Outlaw Boxing Increases In Wake of Moore's Death

The death of Davey Moore from ring injuries brought sport and praise for the champion, jolted legislative leaders into steps aimed at further regulating or banning professional boxing and left his conqueror on the ropes. Although the main damage causing Moore's death

Ramos Is Uncertain About Boxing Future

LOS ANGELES, March 26 (AP) — Ultimate (Sugar) Ramos, newly crowned featherweight champion, is deciding whether he should continue boxing. Grief-stricken over the death of Davey Moore, whom he knocked out in the 10th round last Thursday night, Ramos flew to Mexico City Monday. Ramos' eyes were red from weeping, and they still were black and swollen from the blows he took from Moore in their savage, six-starred championship bout. Asked for his future, Ramos said he would like to fight again, but he doesn't know anything. "There's a guy with $10,000 in my pocket, praised by everyone as a fine champion, and he can't fight anymore," Ramos said. "I don't know anything."

Mitchell and Ray Kohnstopp Lead Bowlers

BRICK MITCHELL, Jerome, and Ray Kohnstopp, Piler, walked off with high scores in the final week of qualifying for the Great Western singles bowling tournament. Mitchell posted the A division with a 673 with Willis Larsen, who bowled a 673 with Bill Beasley. Kohnstopp had a 688 for the B division. In the B division, Kohnstopp had a 673 with Dave O'Hara. Twin Falls had a 654. Beat Moore was the 27th fired by Harold Otto. The top qualifiers in the six-week eliminations will meet in the house finals at Magpie Bowl April 20 and 21, announced Ken Peterson. He said all those eligible will be contacted within the next two weeks. Top local winners out of each division will advance to the final in Las Vegas later this spring.

Leaders Hold Pace in State Bowling Meet

IDARO FALLS, March 26 (AP) — Three new stars moved into the top-through-fifth places in the men's state bowling tournament here over the week-end, but all leaders remain the same with only one week-end to go. Ernie Food of Idaho Falls rolled a 3,085 to move into third place. Kendall of Pocatello took over fourth with a 3,078 and Reclamation No. 1 of Boise claimed fifth spot with a 3,076. The highest singles series rolled this week was by Bill Parke of Fremont county. His 100-handicap was good for eighth place in the standings. Three new standards have been set thus far in the scratch team series. Boise's team score, 1,814, handied the team score, 1,714, of Idaho Falls. Boise's high scratch team score, 1,814, handied the team score, 1,714, of Idaho Falls. Boise's high scratch team score, 1,814, handied the team score, 1,714, of Idaho Falls.

Two Areas of Brain Injury Disclosed

LOS ANGELES, March 26 (AP) — An autopsy Monday on ex-featherweight champion Davey Moore revealed damage in two areas of the brain. A pair of doctors originally had placed the major damage at the rear of the skull, apparently sustained when Moore fell in the 10th round of his title defense against Sugar Ramos last Thursday. Fight films showed he struck his head on one of the ring ropes. But Dr. Theodore Curby said following the two-hour operation Monday that there was also a hemorrhage in the brain on the right side that "might have been a contributing cause" to the fighter's death. Another pathologist assisting in the autopsy, Dr. Cyril Courville, added, however, that the major damage was at the back of the skull, where the rope impact took place. "It was something that could happen on your front porch, if you're falling down," Dr. Courville said in describing the rear-most injury. A statement released by the coroner's office at a news conference said: "Large contusions were found in the middle of the cerebral hemisphere, which probably were one of the major factors in bringing about this man's demise. There was also hemorrhage on the front side of the brain in the subdural space." He said this probably was due to the fall to the floor. Dr. Courville, who had examined Moore earlier, said that the major injury at the rear of the skull was three times larger than he had originally estimated. Before Moore's death he said it was probably an inch square. Dr. Curby said the actual injury causing the death will not be said for some time. His statement said in summary that "death was due to brain damage as a result of application of blunt force to the head."

Kentucky Sold on Negro Recruiting

LEXINGTON, Ky., March 26 (AP) — The University of Kentucky today announced it had agreed to the idea of recruiting Negro athletes, a highly-contested university source said Monday. "This suggestion that we pull out of the Southern conference is not a good idea in any way, shape or form," said the source, who declined to be quoted by name. The Kentucky Kernel, university daily newspaper, advertised last week the university withdrew from the SEC and begin to recruit Negroes immediately. Athletic director Bertel Shively has declined comment. University President Frank G. Dickey said any such action would have to come from the school's athletics board or board of trustees.

Player, Palmer Lead Prize List

DUNEDIN, Fla., March 26 (AP) — The Miami tournament drew a record 100,000 spectators. Player, who won $1,000 for his second place finish in the Dunedin tournament, led the list of winners. His official winnings are $2,500. But Palmer, who won $800 closer to the Miami tournament, led the list of winners. His official winnings are $2,500.

Mets Nip Milwaukee 4-3 in 11 Innings

By The Associated Press
Jim Hickman's homerun in the 11th inning gave the New York Mets a 4-3 victory over Milwaukee in Monday's exhibition baseball. The Mets, an almost unanimous choice to repeat their 1962 last-place finish in the National League, now have won 10 of 16 games in spring competition. Shut out by Warren Spahn, the Braves' veteran southpaw, for six innings, the Mets rallied to tie the score at 3-3 in the eighth off Jim Constance. Archie White, the Milwaukee pitcher, was on the mound when Hickman hit his game-winning homer with two out at St. Petersburg.

Nigeria Looks Like Site for Title Rematch

NEW YORK, March 26 (AP) — There is a very strong possibility that Dick Tiger's next middleweight title defense will be held in Nigeria, homeland in June. Gene Fullmer has first crack out if he rejects the offer the Chicago White Sox at Sarasota. Two boxes on "balls caught in the field" drive off the center field fence. Phil Lins batted out three singles to back up the five-hit pitching of Bud Daley. Hector Brown and Hal Reniff as the New York Yankees whipped the Los Angeles Dodgers 5-2 at Fern Beach. Don Drysdale, the Dodgers' 25-game winner, yielded nine hits and all the Yankee runs in the six innings he pitched. Right-hander Paul Brown pitched the full nine innings for Philadelphia as the Phillies blanked Minnesota 2-0 at Clearwater. Bubba Phillips hit five singles and Gus Triandos hit the six-run homer. The Yankees won four runs to spark Detroit to a 11-3 rout of Washington at Pompano Beach. Clever Altaba and Hector Matines each got four hits to lead Kansas City in the 11-4 walloping of Cincinnati at Tampa.

In other games the Chicago Cubs defeated the Los Angeles Angels 7-4 at Mesa. Boston defeated San Francisco 4-2 at Scottsdale and Cleveland drubbed Houston 11-3 at Tucson. Joe Adcock hit two three-run homers to spark Cleveland's victory. Frank Malzone's three-run double that came in the sixth with the bases loaded paced the Red Sox over the Olanets. Ernie Banks' homer in the seventh and Dick McAuliffe's each drove in the winning run for the Cubs.

Wins Decision

PARIS, March 26 (AP) — Vienta Perado of Argentina, Focke of Alaska, and France were among those who were in a unanimous decision Monday in a 10-round bout.

Hunter Grabs Two Leads in Bowling Meet

Clyde Hunter waxed hot in the singles over the week-end to grab both division leads during the Twin Falls Men's Bowling Association tournament. Hunter, highlighting his efforts with a 244 game, ended up with a 624 scratch series and 711 handicap. United Electronics held first place in the team division with 5,946 while Harney's Building Supply was second with 3,028. Kay's Secret Lounge, Ia. third with 3,017 and Purgine Lounge had 3,013. Scratch team leader was Bell Wholesale with 2,850. B. Perkins and B. Beglar had the doubles handicap lead with 1,254. Just three pins ahead of runner-up B. Anderson and J. McCoy. Jack Cubit and Ralph Gillette teamed to lead the scratch division with 1,113.

New Car Design Backed by Ford

INDIANAPOLIS, March 26 (AP) — Ford motor racer Jim Clark cut two hot laps at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway Monday. The rear-engine Lotus-Ford. Ford motor company officials immediately confirmed their direct interest in the car. Clark, who lost the 1962 world road racing championship to Graham Hill of England in the season's final grand prix in South Africa, was timed at 146.3 and 146.1 miles per hour on the successive laps. Clark said he "did not extend the car" and "veteran" speedway observers pointed out that winter cracks in the asphalt had not been repaired and there was sand
