FIVE-DAY FORECAST—The average position of the major pressure trough aloft is expected to be located over the western third of the nation during the next five days keeping shower activity and below normal temperatures entrenched over the Idaho region. Temperatures through Saturday for southern Idaho are expected to average from five to seven degrees below normal with cooling during the first half of the week giving way to gradual warming the latter half of the week. Normals for this period are: Gooding, 61 and 51, Twin Falls, 48 and 50, and Burley 50 and 48. Precipitation will occur as scattered showers and thunderstorms with rainfall totals averaging from .20 to .40 inches. Showers will be more frequent through mid-week before diminishing after Thursday.

Sunshine will total 70 to 75 per cent of possible with variable winds from the west and the end of the week. Winds will be strong and gusty in association with the shower activity during the first half of the week.

Soil temperatures at 2 to 8 inch depths will rise sharply during this period ranging from the 60's at the first to the 70's by the end of the week.

The weather outlook for agriculture this week offers some hope for improving conditions toward the end of the week. However, through Wednesday showery cool weather will hinder field work and promote less than optimum plant growth. Weed and insect controls will continue to be of major importance this five-day period.

4 Counties Working on Assessments

BOISE, June 24.—Four more counties are participating this year in a program aimed at bringing more uniformity to assessing real property in Idaho, and the remaining four are expected to join the list in 1964.

Harold Johnson, executive secretary for the state tax commission, said Teton, Blaine, Cassia and Blaine counties are adjusting their assessment ratios for competition of a cooperative appraisal program.

He said Bonville, Cassia, Blaine and Twin Falls counties are expected to complete it within the year.

The program is conducted in conformity with a 1961 law specifying that real property will be assessed at an equitable rate throughout the state.

Johnson said abstracts of real property sales from all parts of the state are used as a guide. The program is aimed at bringing more uniformity to assessing real property in Idaho, and the remaining four are expected to join the list in 1964.

Doctors Lash U. S. Fallout Shelter Plan

WASHINGTON, June 24 (AP)—A panel of doctors told congressional investigators today that a national fallout shelter program is like "wearing a piece of kryptonite around the neck to prevent dithering."

"The doctors, members of an organization called 'Physicians for Social Responsibility,' said a study of the effects of a large-scale nuclear attack on this country has convinced them that the devastation would present a medical problem 'that has no solution.'"

"If fallout shelters fully appear to promise protection for large segments of the population, they may move to believe that no shelter is at all," they said.

The doctors are Victor Sidel, Brookline, Mass.; David Nathan, Cambridge, Mass.; Robert Coleman, Rockville, Md.; and Steven Shihet of Bethesda, Md.

They testified before a house armed services subcommittee studying administration proposals for an expanded fallout shelter program.

U. S. Rejects Anti-Nuclear Plan of Reds

MOSCOW, June 24 (AP)—The United States today told the Soviet Union that American Polaris submarines were in the Mediterranean to shield the Acropolis and the orange groves of Italy "from Soviet threats."

The statement was contained in a note to the Soviet Union replying to the Soviet proposal to make the Mediterranean area a nuclear free zone.

The 700-word note said the Soviet Union in announcing repeatedly that it had batteries of rockets aimed at Mediterranean allies of the United States, was employing "nuclear blackmail" under which the Soviet Union could have attempted to force the Mediterranean countries to succumb to Soviet dictation or Soviet domination.

The American note, delivered to the foreign ministry by messenger, said the Soviet proposal of May 20 was devoted primarily to a "propagandistic attack against the presence of United States missile-launching submarines in the Mediterranean and contains a large number of gross misrepresentations."

Flea Trainer Scratches for Circus Stars

LONDON, June 24 (AP)—Pauline Testa is scratching around today looking for performers.

"Fleas," she said, "are hard to get these days."

Testa blamed Britain's health authorities for her predicament.

"Health authorities have been carrying on an increasingly active campaign against fleas. There's a risk of them being wiped out," she said.

"I'm down to four stars," she explained, "and that's not enough to put on a good show."

She said there are plenty of dog fleas, but they don't live long enough.

"I need the sort of fleas that get on human beings," she went on. "They live for months and can be trained for the various acts."

Miss Testa said she is willing to pay well for potential stars.

"The going rate is $150 a dozen," she said.

Czech Asked To Leave on Spy Charge

LONDON, July 24 (AP)—The British government ordered the expulsion of a Czechoslovak diplomat today accused of attempting to obtain British state secrets.

The foreign office said Premysl Holan, a third secretary at the Czech embassy, had been detected trying to persuade a member of the public to obtain secret information.

No further details were given by the spokesman. He said Peter Thomas, British parliamentary undersecretary for foreign affairs, summoned Ambassador Zdenek Thlik to his office this morning and in a 15-minute meeting requested Holan's recall from London.

The reason Thomas gave for the expulsion order was that Holan had been seen trying to persuade a member of the public—whom the spokesman did not identify—to obtain secret information.

At the same time, the spokesman said, Thomas protested against "the abuse of Holan's diplomatic position."

The spokesman said he could not elaborate on the information so far given out and would not even indicate if the incident took place in London or elsewhere in Britain.

House Considering Water Research Bills

WASHINGTON, June 24 (AP)—Legislation calling for investment of millions of dollars in water research already passed by the Senate, is expected to advance through the House Interior committee this week.

A subcommittee held a hearing today and Tuesday on bills similar to a Senate measure which would authorize the spending of up to 20 million dollars annually for a research program.

The aim is to make the best possible use of water, which may become the nation's most precious resource.

The legislation would set up water resources research centers at land grant colleges and state universities and stimulate research at other colleges and universities through federal grants and contracts.

As was the case in the Senate, the legislation has strong support from members of Congress from the West, where water is more precious.

Debate in the Senate won votes also from members from other parts of the country.

A Senate Interior committee report, written by Sen. Clinton P. Anderson, D. N. M., said a series of studies by specialists "have startled Americans with the fact that we are well into a period in which acute water crises and supply shortages are spreading across the nation."

By the year 1980, the report said, "the South Pacific, the Colorado river basin, the Great basin, the Upper Grande-Pecos and the Upper Missouri river basins will be at or beyond the limit of their water supplies."

"By the year 2000, under present methods of management and utilization, water requirements will exceed usable supply in all or parts of the following regions: South Pacific, Great basin, Delaware-Hudson, Upper Arkansas-Rio rivers, Great Lakes basins, Western Gulf, Upper Missouri, Rio Grande-Pecos and Colorado river."

The report emphasized "there are water problems in every state, county, city, industry, farm and home in the nation."

Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall said in letters to the Senate and House Interior committees "the availability of adequate supplies of good quality water affects all of man's pursuits."

"Yet our current use of water is more than 300 billion gallons per day and projections indicate that within two decades the demand may double and will continue to rise in the years that follow."

These competing demands for water for its many purposes will render even more critical the need for wise decisions as to its allocation and use.

"The correctness of these choices in turn will depend, in large measure, on the availability of adequate supplies of good quality water for its many purposes will render even more critical the need for wise decisions as to its allocation and use."

Flames were already shooting out the top of the building when fire trucks answered the call at 5:11 a.m. They controlled the blaze within an hour and managed to save parts of the building at either end. Emerson B. Steele, company president, said from $800 to $90,000 of equipment was destroyed. The firm tests concrete, steel and other materials used in construction, and does some chemical testing. Albertson's Plans Expansion

BOISE, June 24 (U-P)—Albertson's announced today plans for a six million dollar expansion program, including new stores in Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana, Utah and Wyoming.

J. L. Berlin, executive vice president, said some of the stores are under construction already and work will start on others in the near future.

Albertson's had announced earlier its intention to add 100 grocery stores. It got out of the drugstore and department store business with sales during the past week.

Berlin said in the Seattle area, locations have been selected for stores in the Mountlake Terrace, Lake Forest Park and Mercer Island districts, and a new store will open in a new shopping center in Lacey, Wash., a suburb of Olympia.

In western Oregon, Berlin said stores will be built in Eugene, Corvallis, Milwaukie and Coos Bay. He said the Corvallis store will be open about July 1.

He said stores will be built soon in Butte, Mont., and in Kennewick, Wash.

Berlin said Albertson's has purchased land for a new food center in Pocatello, and construction is under way in Cheyenne, Wyo., for a new store to open in September.

He said construction will start soon on a store in Taylorville, Utah, a suburb of Salt Lake City.

Berlin said 11 additional stores are being planned for the company's current operating area, and six are being considered in new areas.

—Rally closed. Mainly underperformed the general market, gaining strength as the session progressed and closing at their highest level since 1929.

The stable gain in the Dow-Jones rally was reflected mainly a run of one or more in Illinois Central, Missouri Pacific and Southern Railway.
Steel tended to ease on news of another drop in last week's production. General Motors finished in the black, and auto section. Chemicals also tended to soften.

Twentieth Century-Fox moved higher among the entertainment. Foods were mixed. Jewel Tea down slightly and Petroleum up a bit.

Texaco and Tidewater improved in the oil. IBM and Inneapolis-Honeywell softened the electronics. But Beckman and Control Data moved higher.
Machinery were mixed. The Aircraft moved up on news
of another drop in last week's production. General Motors

tended to soften.

Whitpool was particularly hard hit on news the company's sales finance subsidiary plans to write down certain of its receivables which will result in a loss of between $10 million and 10 million dollars.

American Hardware improved on news that Savage Arms and Hill corporation stockholders consider merging into American Brust-Meyers softened in the Dow. Aircrafts fared well as a group. Douglas, Lockheed and McDonnell all up on Friday's close.

Clearwater Dam to Be Blasted Out

SPOKANE, June 24 (AP)—At a time when hydro-electric and flood control dams seem to be built as fast as tract houses, Washington Water Power company plans a reverse step. The firm will dynamite a dam out of the south fork of the Clearwater river in Idaho.

Company officials announced yesterday that Grangeville dam, one of the oldest of Northwest hydro-electric projects, will be blasted out of the stream during July.

The dam is being removed in cooperation with a floodplain restoration project of the Idaho fish and game department.

"Removal of the dam will make scores of miles of excellent spawning waters accessible to steelhead," John R. Woodworth, Idaho fish and game department director, said.

THE WIZARDS OF SPACE (2)

Humanity was poised on the verge of flight at the turn of the 20th century. Indeed, some men had already flown: Le Bris in France, Montgomery in California, Chanute's students in Indiana. Some had died in crashes: Lillenthal in Germany, Pilcher in England. But all these were but short hops in crude gliders. Sustained, controlled, powered flight was yet to come. Yet when it did come, on Dec. 17, 1903, at Kitty Hawk, N.C., men hardly took note, least of all in America.

Born in America, the air age began growing up in Europe. Before men realized it, Blériot had flown across the English Channel. Other adventurers were staying up for hours and reaching heights of many thousands of feet.

By Don Oakley and John Lane

Then, less than 11 years after its invention, the airplane began to undergo forced development in the deadly skies above France, achieving new speeds, maneuverability, endurance, strength. In 1915, it was not a "mistle gap" but an "airplane gap" that alarmed sleepy, isolationist America.

It was in that year that Congress established a National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics and President Wilson appointed the original 12-man nonsalaried committee. NACA was given a budget of $5,000 for the first year and had no paid employees for months.

But within a few years, NACA's "scientific laboratory research in aeronautics" began to pay off. Among its notable accomplishments:

- The NACA engine cowling, which increased speeds by 15 per cent. Over 100 different airfoils, many still used today.
- The laminar flow wing used on the famed P-51 Mustang.
- After World War II (where victory in the air was made possible because of NACA's great backlog of basic knowledge built over the years), NACA turned to work on jets and nose cones for missiles. An NACA engineer designed the pinched-waist fuselage that enabled jets to slip through the erstwhile barrier of sound.
- Still, the emphasis was on aeronautics, not astronautics. Space was far away—until Oct. 4, 1957.

No Hint Given On Punishing Young Prince

ELGIN, Scotland, June 24 (AP)—The headmaster of Gordon's school remained silent today on what sort of punishment was meted out to 14-year-old Prince Charles for illegally buying a cherry brandy.

Crew told newsmen yesterday "the matter has been fully investigated and it is now closed."

He repeated an earlier refusal to describe what punishment—if any—would be given the heir to the British throne, who returned here yesterday from a holiday trip.

There are two traditional methods of punishment at the Scottish school: one is attended by Charles' father, Prince Philip.

Prince Charles could have been caned with a cane, thin bamboo stick which bends at the end or could have been sent out for a long walk.

Charles was reported to have bought a cherry brandy a week ago in the Crown hotel cocktail bar at Broomway on the Isle of Lewis, thus breaking school rules and a British law against drinking by minors.

Boros Wins Open Title Playoff, Takes Potshot At Golf's "Big Three"

BROOKLINE, Mass., June 24 (AP)—Julius (Moose) Boros, the oldest man ever to win the National Open golf tournament, is a hulking, plodding, pleasant fellow who rarely shows emotion but lifts a disdainful eyebrow when anyone mentions the big three. ST. LOUIS, June 24 (AP)—Jim Gilliam's three-run homer in the fifth inning carried the Los Angeles Dodgers over the St. Louis Cardinals Sunday 4-3.

Gilliam, who also scored the first Los Angeles run, socked what proved to be the clincher off Ernie Broglio in the fifth following a walk and Maury Wills single.

Smith Powers Orioles Past Twins 4-1

ST. PAUL, MINN.—Paul Smith powered the Baltimore Orioles to a 4-1 victory over the Minnesota Twins Sunday.

Smith drove in two runs, scored one and set up another with his 10th homer, a double and a single to bolster an otherwise spotty Baltimore hitting attack.

The Orioles stranded 12 batters in the game, twice failing to score after leading the bases with one out.

Miller rectified Steve Barber from a seventh inning jam and then finished out the contest to preserve Barber's 11th victory against five losses.

STANTON, Del., June 24 (AP)—Harry N. Ball's Big Pete maintained his perfect record here when he chalked up a second victory with a three-quarter length decision in the 123,456 Christmas stakes for 2-year-olds at Delaware park.

Big Pete's task was made easier by the absence of Chieftain, the pre-race favorite. Raymond Guest's colt was scratched late in the afternoon when he was sidelined with a cough.

The absence of Chieftain also left Bill Harack without a mount. Harack, whose father was shot fatally at Charles Town, W. Va., Saturday, flew in from Chicago to keep the engagement. He declined to comment on his father's death.

SPORTS

SEVEN FOR ELEVEN came up for Arnold Palmer, seeking to regain the U. S. open golf crown he won in 1956, during a playoff with Jacky Cupit and Julius Boros Sunday. The party was the reason. His drive went into the rough and a second shot hit a tree and landed behind a tree stump from which he could pick only a few feet. Boros went on to win the title with a 70 while Palmer ended up at 76 and third. (AP wirephoto)

Belinsky Says Nixon, Won't Marry Mamie

HOLLYWOOD, June 24 (AP)—Pitcher Bob Belinsky balked at marriage Sunday and shut out actress Mamie Van Doren.

"I told her last night I couldn't marry her for reasons, which I cannot disclose now," Belinsky confided to a buddy.

He said he had no more to say other than that Mamie was "somewhat upset by the whole thing."

Miss Van Doren was appearing in a show at Springfield, Mass., but reportedly had called her mother to report the bust-up of the engagement.

Only 10 days ago, Bob refused to do the twist in a Hollywood nightclub with Yvonne (The Back) Dugan, movie starlet.

"Mamie would kill me if she found out. And I love that girl."
