

Mystery Blast Rocks Berlin on Wall Anniversary

BERLIN, Aug. 13 (UPI)—A heavy mystery blast rocked the Berlin border today, shooting flame 45 feet into the air, as both East and West mounted heavy guard to prevent violence on the second anniversary of the communist Berlin wall. West Berlin police erected a water cannon and doubled patrols on their side of the wall. But no clashes broke out during the day. The mysterious explosion reverberated across the Teltow canal on the American sector border shortly before dawn. Fifteen minutes later West Berlin police heard a small explosion in the Teltow canal area. Cause of the blast was not known. It could not be determined whether the explosion was a border incident or whether it was a terrorist act. The explosion site was about one mile southwest of the main U.S. Army base in Berlin, McNamara barracks.

East and West Berlin police officers gathered peacefully along the wall during the day and laid wreaths at the Teltow canal. In an attempt to have been killed in escaping to the West since Aug. 13, 1961.

They headed appeals of West Berlin leaders to mark the day quietly and refrain from attempts to stone eastern border guards or storm the wall.

Even the second anniversary of the wall, the communists took new precautions to prevent flight of refugees. They removed two families from a house inside the 800-yard forbidden zone on the border of the East. The border of the East. The border of the East.

Luck Runs Out

Now and then a nation sufficed with news of automobile fatalities hears of a traffic mishap with real shock value. The question is whether the driving public learns from it.

Such an event was the multiple crash of 17 vehicles—14 of them trucks—on the New Jersey turnpike, a major artery with a generally good safety record.

In that frightening disaster six truck drivers were killed and a number of other persons hospitalized with injuries.

What is the lesson in this for all motorists?

Basically it is simple. Most drivers do not allow a proper margin of safety as they move about on streets and highways.

The New Jersey accident occurred in thick morning fog. Only 45 minutes after the fog had turned on, electric signs reducing the speed limit to a normal 60 miles an hour to 35.

The crash was a typical chain reaction, one truck or car pileup after another into the tangled mess. Some vehicles were buried two or three deep, suggesting speeds above the prescribed maximum may have been observed. It takes a lot of impact to put one car through another.

Fog obviously could dictate extreme caution on today's modern express routes. On most of these, the whole heavy fog of traffic moves at swift pace.

Drivers can see very little of the road ahead. Few maintain adequate distance between their car and those ahead and behind. Everybody trusts to luck that nothing will happen.

This isn't good enough, and the proof is in the chain of traffic mishaps, worst of which was the California affair involving 200 cars.

But there is more to it than keeping a sensible distance and trying to judge the traffic situation far ahead.

Just-again-and-again, and quite certainly is chronic inattention on the part of drivers. Recently, on a high-speed road, a woman going 60 in heavy traffic turned her head for several seconds to kiss her baby who was in the back seat.

Worse still is failure to control the vehicle effectively. The business of driving with one arm on the wheel, or of keeping fingers on the wheel, should stop for good and all. If observed by police, it should carry automatic penalty as reckless driving.

The people who don't attend to the road, who don't control their cars, or who drive when they are either drunk or in an overwrought emotional state, are the villains in the accident picture.

They make themselves vulnerable at any time every day. Luck gets them by much of the time, so they get a false sense of security. But when luck runs out, they have no margin.

SCAPEGOAT HUNTERS

When the Democrats had the White House before, the Republicans used to call for the resignation of Dean Acheson, then secretary of state.

When the Republicans got in, Democrats called for the ouster of the late John Foster Dulles, Acheson's successor.

For good measure, they asked that Ezra Taft Benson, President Eisenhower's secretary of agriculture, be tossed to the wolves.

The Republicans are redressing the balance by asking that Benson's Democratic counterpart, Secretary Orville Freeman, be given the ax.

In politics a healthy quota of foolishness is expected. But this constant call for a game of musical chairs at the cabinet level is silly.

Most of the time the complainants would not be any happier with the replacements than with those whom they seek. It's the policies and the party they don't like. Why don't they put their vocal energies into winning the next election?

PUSHBUTON PUSHOVERS

Listening to the blandishments that pour in on the American people, you'd think we were all physical cripples given over to nothing but comfort and pleasure.

All day long we hear that that or that thing can be had with ease, can be managed with "fingert control," can be found in a drive (never a walk), "just minutes" from our doors.

There are nothing but people here to offer us to challenge our brains, our muscles, our stamina and will? Are we to get the world on a self-propelled platter while we dawdle on soft cushions?

The late comedian William F. Feltus offered a laughing audience "French in 10 easy lessons—or five hard ones."

This country will be a better place for people here at least a few times a day that there are some hard, tough, taxing alternatives around somewhere that can't be managed with the flick of a wrist.

WHORELIGION

RAISES CONSTITUTIONAL POINT—Ervin must cause any citizen to pause when he says that Congress is empowered to regulate the freedom of the private property owner. On purely legal grounds, he regulates property or to encompass the power to regulate property or to regulate citizens in their choice of customers.

NON-EXISTENT RIGHT—Ervin is a Southerner pleading the ancient southern case, but he happens to be right. There is no right to a white in a public establishment operated by a private citizen.

For this reason, the public accommodations section will not pass in the Senate. It does not make sense socially because it attempts to legislate a citizen's private life. It is not a right to a white in a public establishment operated by a private citizen.

Water Show Is Planned for Thousand Springs by Club

HAGERMAN, Aug. 13 (AP)—Zare, one of top-luck suppers and parties held during the summer. The club promotes several shows each year and the profits are applied toward a future clubhouse. The pyramid is another performance planned for the show. Myrl Schroeder, Lloyd Reed, Ken Kenzie, Junior Vander, Larry Dean and Jean Vander will all be in the show. The show will be a few of the highlights of the Thousand Springs Water Sports Club, Inc. water show planned for 2 p.m. Sunday at the Thousand Springs marina.

This is the first time the club has presented a water show at Thousand Springs. However, there have been annual shows presented at Alturas lake and Williams lake. "If the public turns out to see the show, we'll be happy to make it an annual affair," said Myrl Schroeder, club commander. The first act in the show will be the presentation of the United States flag followed by five women in the club being towed past the stands. They will be behind the same boat but on different length tow ropes and will each carry a flag. The lettered flags will announce the club name.

The precision boat drill is much like a horseback drill according to Schroeder, the boat series—cross, pattern figure 8's and other stunts. Lloyd Reed, chairman of the club's tournaments, will attempt a 360-degree turn in the air after flying over the ski jump. Larry and Bill Dean will "fly the kite" and Junior Vander and Willie Medford will ski barefoot.

The Thousand Springs Water Sports club was organized in 1962 for the purpose of promoting interest and safety in boating and water skiing. Since its beginning, it has grown to represent a membership of more than 50 families. The club has held tournaments since 1964 and this year it held its first tournament sanctioned by the American Water Skiing Association.

One of the highlights each year is the annual boat cruise. There

Pesticide Threat Hangs Over Valley

TOPPERS, Wash., Aug. 13 (AP)—The threat of a new pesticide problem hung over the Yakima Valley Tuesday as the chemical dust from a week-end scare settled to the ground.

Clark Brown, chief of the pesticide branch of the state agriculture department, said there have been reports of sick horses and cattle west of here. The area is one where hop fields have been dusted with pesticide.

Brown said an investigation will be necessary to pinpoint the cause of the new problem. Meanwhile, state officials alone one," he said. Performing stunts throughout the show will be Butch Dodson, Clyde McCain, the Dean and Jim Banning. "We hope the people will come out and enjoy themselves," Schroeder said.

Van Engelen Reports on Russian Trip

BURLEY, Aug. 12—Chamber of Commerce members heard Van Engelen, Burley, reports on his trip to Moscow, Russia, on the "People to People" tour, at the noon luncheon in the National hotel, Monday.

Van Engelen visited a 5,000-acre collective farm, which was being cared for by 700 farmers where 25 tractors and 4 combines were in use.

Clothing prices were very high, and the fabric and workmanship very poor. "I never saw a necktie in the stores or being worn in Moscow," Walter Van Engelen, who is in the clothing business in Burley, "For style, there is just in Russia—that is, could not be worn here."

"Moscow is the show city with miles and miles of square, apartment houses. There were no flowers, grass or trees near the apartment houses."

"In Warsaw, Poland, people were well dressed but they were dissatisfied with conditions, yet there was nothing they could do for they are in the middle with Germany on one side and Russia on the other," Van Engelen said.

"One thing for sure, a trip to Russia will make a 'real' good American out of you," said Van Engelen.

Mrs. Fred Anderson, Chamber of Commerce secretary, reported a meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. Saturday at the Rogers hotel, Twin Falls, to discuss a national park or wilderness area in Idaho. Chamber members were urged to attend and express their views.

Utah Man Cited In Declo Mishap

BURLEY, Aug. 13—James L. Carlson, Salt Lake City, was cited for following too closely by Charles Fough, Idaho state patrolman, after an accident on Highway 200, at 3:56 p.m. Sunday on highway 200.

Robert Allen Pullin, Ogden, Utah, owner of a 1953 Buick, had parked off the shoulder of the highway. W. L. Andrews, Logan, driving a 1950 Oldsmobile traveling east, stopped to let oncoming traffic pass when Carlson, driving a 1957 Ford failed to stop, and his 1957 Ford hit the rear of the Oldsmobile.

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

TUESDAY, Aug. 13 — Born today, you have unusual powers of concentration, that are apt to center upon a single objective to such a degree that all goes by the board until that objective is achieved; so long as you remember that most objectives are accomplished through cooperative efforts, and as long as you remember to make that "cooperation" part of your concentration, all should be well. Forget those things, forget that other people exist, and you may be in for trouble.

Veratility and adaptability are part of your nature—but because individually is the greater part, you may make the mistake of not exercising your veratility and adaptability. This, of course, is liable to lead to all manner of difficulties, particularly in your personal relationships where the ability to give and take, to roll with punches as it were, is essential.

Affectionate and demonstrative with a great need for the approval of others, you nevertheless may have difficulty gaining that approval. Indeed, unless you learn to forget yourself completely on occasion, and to think of others openly and honestly to such a degree that you may never gain it.

Among those born on this date are: Fidel Castro, director of Cuba; Bert Lahr, comedian; Alford Hitchcock, director, producer.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

LEO (July 24-Aug. 23) — A day with psychic overtones. Keep attuned to the inner voice of your own conscience and nature's laws.

VIRGO (Aug. 24-Sept. 23) — Intuition should pay dividends today if you are willing to follow where they lead.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23) — Assert yourself now and you could push yourself overboard. Bide your time, mend your ways.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 23) — Old projects, long abandoned, may suddenly appear in new clothes. Look them over carefully.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) — Seek advice from those who have your interests at heart. Not a day for the cold, impersonal approach!

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 20) — You may wake up to what seems a maze of conflicting objectives. Sort them out calmly.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 18) — Listen to what your emotions have to say today. There is more to a fine personal relationship than academic facts and figures!

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20) — Where your intent is not to listen, do not seek for advice or information. To waste valuable time now could be a big mistake.

ARIES (March 21-April 20) — This headway you might make by rowing against today's tide would hardly be worth the effort.

Taurus (April 21-May 21) — Best to keep strictly to three affairs which you know, signs indicate a good day for fresh starts.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21) — Your day to make headway! Rearrange your schedule to allow ample time for both starting and finishing a pet project.

CANCER (June 22-July 21) — A day for "feeling" your way. When you see that the unvarnished truth may be harmful to you or another, employ the utmost of tact.

Cow Killed on Highway in Lincoln Area

SHOSHONE, Aug. 13—A cow and two vehicles were involved in an accident at 10 p.m. Sunday five miles northeast of Richfield on state highway 50-2.

The Hereford cow was killed. Owner has not yet been determined, reports investigating officer, Martin Whitesell.

Eugene Lynn Sweet, Carey, driving a GMC one-half-ton pickup truck, hit the cow, knocking it into the path of a 1953 Buick driven by Robert W. Greer, Boise. The latter car belonged to Judy Ann Dodge, Boise.

Whitesell also reports an accident at noon Sunday, at the main street and U.S. highway 93 intersection here.

Clay Swainston, 19, driving a 1948 Mercury, two door, had stopped at the intersection, turning from the auto and handed a friend his bathing suit, then jumped back into the car and started out without looking, the officer said.

The Mercury collided with a 1952 Buick, four door, driven by Harold James Lawell, Salem.

Deputy Whitesell cited Swainston for failure to yield the right of way.

Trans-Atlantic Chicken War May Start Big Battle

FRANKFURT, Germany, Aug. 13.—The trans-Atlantic chicken war may be just the opening salvo in a trade battle between the free world's economic giants. The issue in the current dispute is whose chickens West Germany will not in the future.

Not an earth-shattering prospect, perhaps, but feathers are already flying when the European Common market commission in Brussels—virtually banned the cheaper American frozen chickens by clamping a prohibitive tariff on them.

Last year, West Germany bought $1.3 million dollars worth of poultry from the United States. Since the tariff boost, American chicken imports have fallen to a trickle.

"Only million dollars is just a pittance in a trade battle between the free world's economic giants," said Edmund H. Driggs, European director of the Institute of American-Poultry Industries said.

"But what happened to the chickens could happen to other commodities."

The chickens have become a commodity.

But then the United States threatened to strike back at the spot where it hurts most—the pocketbook. By putting the tariff on the "vulnerable" Common Market exports against the chickens, it hoped to reach a compromise.

If the American threats are implemented, West Germany will be hit worse than other countries. And a spokesman for the German export-union, the "Bundesverband der Exportwirtschaft," said that the tariff would hurt the German economy.

thought they already had won the war.

MAGIC VALLEY HOSTS ELECTRICS TONIGHT

Cowboys Protect League Lead on Split With Yanks

IDAHO FALLS, Aug. 13.—The Magic Valley Cowboys scrambled to a doubleheader split with the Idaho Falls Yankees to set up the first "crucial" series in the Pioneer league's second half. Magic Valley bowed to Idaho Falls 7-4 in the first game when three walks and two wild pitches let the Yankees come from behind and then the Cowboys came up with a run in the ninth inning to win the nightcap 3-2 behind the routing of Lane Phillips. The Cowboys now return to Twin Falls where they will carry a one and one-half game edge into a three-game series with the runner-up Great Falls Electric. The Cowboys also will be looking for an average of 1,000 fans per night over the remainder of the season to break the 1961 record of 61,000. Game time is 8 p.m.

Red Sox End Losing Skain, Beat Twins

MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 13.—The Boston Red Sox ended a nine-game losing streak and broke Minnesota's winning streak at six Monday by defeating the Twins 6-4 in a pair of two-run homers by a pair of Clinton and Dick Radatz, strong relief pitching.

Clinton, restored to right field in a line-up shuffle, bled for a muffed flyball that led to two unearned runs by the Twins in the fifth inning.

In the sixth, with Minnesota leading 4-2, Felix Mantilla got his first home run of the season and Clinton belted his 16th with Frank Matzone aboard for the winning margin.

Radatz, making his 50th appearance, blanked the Twins over the final 2 1/2 innings. In the seventh, he slipped a third strike past Harmon Killebrew and retired Jimmie Hall on a pop fly with two runners on base. In the eighth he fanned Rich Rollins, also struck out the last two batters in the ninth.

TEARFUL RETIREMENT was announced Monday by Stan Musial at the St. Louis Cardinals annual picnic. The great outfielder who holds more baseball records than any other player alive, said his retirement would be effective at the end of this season. He will continue with the Cardinals organization. (AP wirephoto)

Musial Announces He'll Retire When Current Season Is Over

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 13.—A tearful Stan Musial said Monday he would retire after 22 years in the majors. The 42-year-old symbol of sportsmanship, slugging and St. Louis chose the annual Cardinal picnic to make his announcement to teammates, their families and a small group of sports writers. He said only last week that "when baseball quits being fun and becomes a job, I'll retire."

Nomellini May Miss First Game

MORAGA, Calif., Aug. 13.—San Francisco 49ers coach Alvin "Red" Hickey said he expects Leo Nomellini to miss the first game of the season Friday night when the 49ers meet the St. Louis Cardinals in the NFL exhibition game at San Francisco.

Nomellini sustained an ankle sprain in San Francisco's 49-28 loss to the Minnesota Vikings Friday at Portland.

Also expected to miss the Cardinal contest are offensive tackle Roland Lake and defensive tackle Roland Lake.

Head Coach Red Hickey said, however, he expects to get his first in-action look at veteran fullback D. Smith, who missed last week's game because he was recovering from the mumps.

He said that in addition to staying with the Cards as a non-player, he would continue to operate his St. Louis restaurant and baseball firm.

Musial has played more games with one ball club in history, having played for the Cardinals, Braves, Giants, and Dodgers.

"We want to get up in this National League race and win the pennant for St. Louis this year," he said.

Musial's familiar batting stance, his feet close together,

CEPEDA AND MAYS CARRY HOTTEST BATS IN NATIONAL LOOP HIT RACE

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—Willie Mays and Orlando Cepeda, a couple of sleeping Giants in a power-packed San Francisco line-up, have emerged from their slumber—with consistent batting performance—in their last 13 games. Mays is a 13-game hitting streak during which he's collected 23 hits in 58 times at bat, .397 pace, and lifted his average 17 points to .291. Cepeda has hit safely in 11 of his 13 games with 22 safeties in 58 tries, a .415 pace.

L.A. Hurlers Admit They Are Tiring

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 13.—The Dodgers have had the National League lead continuously since July 2 but the big three of the pitching staff agree that they're getting a bit tired.

Don Drysdale and Sandy Koufax have complained of stiff arms. Johnny Podres has quipped that he's wearing down the pitchers by keeping his pitching arm in condition.

"We're going to have to give some runs or be in bad shape," says Drysdale. "I'm faster this year than last. Close games grind down the staff and we've had a lot of close ones. I'm tired and stiff right now, and I've been taking vitamin shots every other day."

Koufax didn't have his curve ball when he warmed up before Sunday's game. He pitched a straight ball and it seemed out of him. He said his arm felt dead.

Both Koufax and Drysdale indicated they were tired. Richie Calmus might be able to give the staff a lift if permitted to pitch.

The rookie has the fourth best earned run average at .280, but has worked only 28 innings in relief.

"I wish I had known at 19 what Calmus knows now about pitching," said Koufax. "I wish I had known at 19 what Calmus knows now about pitching."

Podres says Calmus hasn't been tested under pressure.

"The Dodgers gave him a lot of money to sign," Podres said. "So he's not as good as he is. So far, he has come in when we were behind and he's helped us out."

Podres agrees that Calmus had looked good in his relief.

Browns Call Man From Retirement

CLEVELAND, Aug. 13.—The Cleveland Browns are making an appeal to Mike McCormack, former captain and offensive tackle, and he is expected to help the team in its quest for the NFL championship.

McCormack was inducted into the Cleveland Hall of Fame in 1961. He played for the Browns from 1954 to 1961.

The difficulty came in Detroit Saturday when the Browns lost to the Lions 20-17.

McCormack said he might return to Cleveland and help the Browns.

ATLANTA, Aug. 13 (AP)—Vally Butts, who coached football at Georgia more than 21 years, broke into tears on the witness stand Monday after insisting again he did not rig last fall's Georgia-Alabama game. CHICAGO, Aug. 13 (AP)—Hugh Devore, Notre Dame's interim head-football coach, is enthusiastic but not optimistic as the 1963 college football season approaches. Devore's attitude is understandable. Winners in "Crazy Duds" Parade Noted

BUHL, Aug. 13—More than 150 West End youngsters participated in the annual back to school Crazy Duds parade Saturday, under the sponsorship of the Buhl Chamber of Commerce.

In the "Crazy Duds" divisions, Scott Feinbächer and Nick Feinbächer, with their noisid float, based on the theme "Dragging back to school" received the $10 cash prize as first place winners. Terry Pold and Nancy Pold, with their ricksha float, received second place prize of $5 and Alberta Fish and Patricia Fish took the third place prize of $2.50 for their water skiing back-to-school float.

In the television and story book division, eight youngsters dressed in colorful Indian attire, depicting the Navaho trail epic, received the $10 cash prize as first place winners. Youngsters included Julie Schindl, Laurene Bill, Kathy Taylor, Ethel Bickelmann, Dennis Fowlowick, Randy Cullimore, Sherre Alexander and Tammy Alexander.

Mike McCormick, Jackie McCormick, Susan McCormick, Shelby McCormick, and Renee Polder, as the "Beaver Hillbillies," received second place prize of $5. Teresa Kambrich, Scott Kambrich and "Miss" Vorel, as the "Clowns," took third place prize of $2.50.

About 115 cash prizes of $1 each were awarded to participating youngsters and free tickets to the local theater were given to all children in the parade compliments of the local chamber.

Gov. Barnett Battles With Negro Pupil

JACKSON, Miss., Aug. 13 (AP)—Gov. Ross Barnett was involved in a last-ditch battle today to keep James H. Meredith from becoming a fellow alumnus of Ole Miss.

The governor said Monday he recommended postponement of the graduation of Meredith scheduled Sunday—pending an investigation into whether he violated a school directive against inflammatory statements.

Barnett said he made the recommendation to the state college board because he felt Meredith did "clearly and unmistakably violate" the directive.

The governor said Meredith "publicly criticized the courts of Mississippi, the juries and the public officials and said all this behind the scene trickery is adding nothing but encouragement to the lawlessness of the white supremacists."

Meredith, 30, Kosciusko, was the first Negro admitted to Ole Miss under federal court order. His entrance last fall under state protest triggered rioting that claimed two lives and injured scores.

He was not available for comment on the governor's charges.

Officers Check On Auto Crash

CHAS. L. Hardin, 37, Kimberly, was released from Magic Valley Memorial hospital Monday morning, where he was kept for observation after the car he was driving went off U. S. highway 93 Saturday night.

The northbound 1963 Comet was discovered off the highway about 7:30 p.m. Saturday about four-fourths of a mile south of the 93-30 junction, by two motorists who notified the Twin Falls sheriff's office. Hardin's car went off the wrong side of the road and into a borrow pit.

No citation was issued pending completion of the investigation.
