Rescuers Drill Through Earth In Attempt to Save Lost Miner

SHEPPTON, Pa., Aug. 28 (UPI)—Rescuers drilled through 305 feet of earth, rock and coal today to the chamber where they believe Louis Bova has been trapped since Aug. 13. They shouted to him, but there was no response. "Hello, Lou," shouted a rescue worker through an amplifier directed into the hole. "If you can hear me, rap on something." There was no answer. The call was repeated, but again there was no response.

Rescuers also lowered a microphone and still camera to detect possible signs of life. They also planned to lower a small television camera.

The super-sensitive microphone, capable of picking up the slightest breath or heartbeat, was lowered by rope down a 124-inch shaft, which was completed shortly after 8 a.m. EDT. A camera also was lowered.

Richard Anderson, a U.S. Navy survival expert, listened at the surface through specially designed earphones for any trace of Bova.

All drilling stopped and the crowd of onlookers was pushed back to cut down the noise. Rescuers said the mine would be "drift down there" until it was definitely established whether there was a trace of life. They said this could "take hours."

Van Engelen Reports Trip To Kiwanians

DROLO, Aug. 28—Dean Van Engelen, a member of the Buriy club, was guest speaker at the Declo Kiwanis club Monday noon luncheon at Min's cafe.

Michael Novak introduced Van Engelen who recently has returned from a trip to Europe and Russia. He spoke mainly of his experiences in Russia. He was accompanied by his brother, Wayne Van Engelen, police officer at Buhl.

They were told in New York of exploded problems and were told that the Russians were not as good as they were in many instances. One was the secrecy with which they were routed from Moscow to Tbilisi, capital of Georgia, in southern Russia.

He said Tbilisi is one of the oldest cities in the Soviet Union. It is estimated its 1,000th anniversary in 1938. The older part of the city is unattractive and drab but the outskirts have modern buildings and parks.

They visited a collective farm of 5,000 acres which is owned by the government, but run by 100 farmers with 550 living off the farm. Each farmer is paid a percentage of the production. Each one has about seven acres. The farm had 27 tractors, 34 trucks, four combines and five sprayers. The sprayers were for insects only with no apparent weed control program.

One thousand acres was devoted to orchards where they raise very good fruit. Van Engelen said that the climate is very favorable for fruit raising. The orchards are planted with 5,000 acres of apples, 1,500 acres of wheat and 1,000 acres of corn compose the rest of the land. Van Engelen said that clothing is very expensive and of poor workmanship.

In discussing communist theory with citizens they found them satisfied with the present way of life because it is better than they ever had. Plans for children to be taken from the family when they reach school age is under consideration.

When asked about mother love and family togetherness they were told "there is no love in the world anyway," Van Engelen stated.

The Russians profess atheism and believe that religion will die and order restoration is expected, he added.

Russians are trained from the eighth grade for special skills. Van Engelen said there are 33 stories in the building with only six elevators but they claim to have an enrollment of 30,000 students.

Van Engelen said it is good to be an American and live in this favored land.

The next meeting of the Declo Kiwanis will be held next Tuesday because of Labor day.

The Kiwanis district convention will be held in Sun Valley Sept. 5-7-8. Guests were Jesse Whittington, Shirley and Dr. Mayo Smith, Whittington, Calif.

The youths will show these animals as their projects at the Lincoln or Blaine county fairs next fall.

Each fall the sale yard through ownership of O. J. Harris gives animals to 4-H or FFA youths in the two counties.

Detectives Get Tip on Missing Lout

LONDON, Aug. 28 (AP)—Detectives working on Britain's 1.3 million dollar train robbery today sought two men who offered a reward of 12,000 to take a suitcase full of cash to a London railroad station.

Barnard West, 25, said the men spent Monday night drinking brandy and beer at the Brampton Hotel near Huntingdon, 65 miles north of London.

She said she met them in a car after closing time and one showed her a suitcase.

"It was crammed full of notes," she said. "He told me, 'there is 10,000 pounds ($20,000) in there.'"

Then he grabbed a handful of notes and said "Here's 400 pounds for you if you'll take the case to Liverpool Street station (in London). But you'll have to keep quiet."

Miss Weston said the men panicked and fled when her employer, Howard Baskin, came out. Baskin gave chase in another car but the men escaped, she said.

Police were said to believe the money may be part of the record 1964 train robbery. The case was organized by a man named the Glasgow, after visiting here. He had just returned from six months in Cheddington, about 35 miles southwest of Huntingdon.

Red Border Guards Fire at Escapees, One May Be Dead

BERLIN, Aug. 28 (AP)—Communist border guards shot two refugees, during the night and may have killed one of them, West Berlin police reported today.

The guards shot down a man trying to escape to freedom in an East German army ambulance on the East-West German border and fired on another refugee fleeing to West Berlin on foot, police said.

The refugee in the ambulance tried to break through border barriers at the West German end of the 110-mile Berlin-Helmstedt highway. Communist gunfire brought the ambulance to a halt after it crashed the first of three steel barriers.

The refugee jumped from the vehicle and tried to run 400 yards to the West German border. Western motorists who witnessed the incident said communist guards fired again and that the refugee dropped to the ground.

Communist police fired two shots at another refugee trying to penetrate the Berlin wall into the "American sector." Western police saw him dragged along the ground into a ditch.

A third refugee escaped safely through barbed wire to another point in the U.S. sector of the divided city.

Blood Quota Is Missed At Shoshone

SHOSHONE, Aug. 28—The 100-pint quota was missed by 33 pints when 67 pints of blood were donated at the Red Cross blood-mobility visit here Monday. There were 10 rejects.

Two-pint plus were awarded Donald Riley, Richfield, and Mrs. E. I. Shaw, Shoshone. Captain plus went to Kenneth Harrison, Mrs. Hal Ross and Reid Newby, all of Shoshone.

The North Shoshone Home Improvement club with Mrs. Perry Houghtaling chairman, handled the fruit juice and collection and women from the Episcopal Guild sponsored the cañon.

Mrs. Mary-Victoria and Mrs. Hal Ross were typists and Mrs. Madelyn Gehrig was registrar. Nurses were selected under supervision of Mrs. Zannie Alexander, Lincoln county public health nurse.

Mrs. Ernest Boesiger, county Red Cross blood chairman, made arrangements for the visit.

Force Isn't Answer for Integration

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 27 (AP)—Eugene McCarthy said today that "forced integration will never work" and that the problem will not be settled in the streets but it could be settled in the hearts of men.

"The supreme court—or the congress—can make all the decisions they feel are necessary," McCarthy said in addressing the 11th session of his current crusade at Memorial Coliseum. "But unless these decisions are implemented by good will, love and understanding, then the tension increases until it explodes."

"I am convinced," he said, "that some elements of both extremes are going too far too fast. I am also alarmed by certain elements in the press who fan the fires of racial prejudice. A Negro leader told me: 'I hate a white man. Racial prejudice is a two-way street. It must be ended, and Christian love must prevail.'"

He said he was also concerned "about some elements of both races who have made the race-hate their gospel. This is not the gospel. The gospel is the good news that Jesus Christ died for our sins."

He said "patience and communication" were needed to end prejudice—ending the need for time.

To attack the racial problem, McCarthy said, "we can go out of our way to extend courtesies and friendship on a personal level to those of another race with whom we come in contact day by day. We can show Christian love and understanding... we can try to put ourselves in the other person's place."

McCarthy said prayer was practiced extensively in the days of Christ and the "slaves were freed by the apostles. The apostles never made slavery their gospel although their teachings eventually meant the end of slavery."

"If we in the church are faithful to the message of the cross of Christ, an atmosphere can be created wherein all racial differences can be settled and love can prevail."

"The racial problem in America is getting worse, and dangerous," McCarthy said. "And it will not be solved in the streets—but it could be settled in the hearts of men in a new spiritual dimension."

Russ, Tito Extend Stay On Brioni

PULA, Yugoslavia, Aug. 28 (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev and Yugoslav President Tito lingered on Brioni island past schedule today after two days of conferences on world affairs and closer relations between Belgrade and Moscow.

They were expected to talk with Cesare Martignetti, president of the Italian senate, who sailed from Venice to Brioni, Tito's island retreat, Tuesday.

The fact that the prominent Italian politician was "received" by Tito halfway through Khrushchev's 15-day visit was seen as a demonstration that Tito was not weakening his ties with the West.

There was wide speculation that Khrushchev might indicate through Martignetti a desire to visit Italy.

Flower Show Set Saturday For Rupert

RUPERT, Aug. 28—Mrs. Ada Jensen, co-chairman of the annual Woman's club flower show scheduled for Saturday at the Rupert national guard armory, encourages flower growers throughout the area to enter their exhibits. The show this year is being held in connection with the Minidoka county fair.

Mrs. Jensen explained that entries will be received from 8 to 11 a.m. Saturday at the armory at the fairgrounds. She said late entries will be placed in a non-competitive display.

The schedule calls for the show to be closed at 11 a.m. Saturday for the judging of the exhibits. Only judges, clerks and other personnel designated by the show chairman will be present during the judging.

The doors will be opened for public viewing at 2 p.m. and remain open until 7 p.m. Mrs. Jensen said that entries must remain in place until 7 p.m. Saturday.

Entries said that other show rules will require that exhibitors furnish their own containers of clear glass. Flowers used in the artistic classes need not be grown by the exhibitors, but no green house flowers or foliage may be used. Artificial flowers are not permitted. The co-chairman reported that one blue, one red and one white ribbon may be awarded in each class or sub-class if merited.

The award of merit-ribbons will be awarded to the highest scoring rose specimen in the horticulture division.

Burley Signs Contract on BPA Power

BURLEY, Aug. 28—Burley signed a 20-year wholesale power contract with the Bonneville power administration Monday night in a special city council meeting at city hall.

The demand contract calls for about 40 million kilowatt hours for the municipal distribution system to meet the needs of over 1,500 customers.

Mayor J. Leonard Salmon said the council electric committee plans a review of the present rates in the near future to reflect the lower wholesale power cost.

"We hope to announce substantial reductions in our present rates by the first of the year," said Mayor Salmon.

"Lower cost power will raise the electrical standard of living for every family in the city and create business and industrial use."

The city of Burley will realize a savings of over $100,000 for the first year of operation under the new contract on the basis of purchases from the bureau of reclamation in 1952.

Total savings in wholesale power costs for 14 southern Idaho cities cooperative and municipal, including the city of Burley, will be in excess of $400,000 under BPA's "Postage Stamp" rate schedule. The new rate is effective Sept. 1.

As a part of the U. S. Columbia river power system, the city of Burley is assured of enough electric energy to meet its full growth requirements for the next two decades, the mayor said.

Police Probe 5 Breakins In Minidoka

RUPERT, Aug. 28—Investigation is continuing today into the fifth breakin within a week in Rupert. Ed Miller, owner of the owners of Goodland, reported approximately $20 and other items missing from the store sometime over the week-end.

According to Miller, the burglars gained entry to the building from the roof. He said tin snips were used to cut a hole in the air conditioner, and the burglars then kicked a hole in the ceiling of the building to enter the store area.

Miller reported approximately $20 in loose change and some cigarettes were all that had been determined missing. He said the burglars apparently left the building by the back door.

The Rupert Bowl, Farmland Irrigation, Valley Livestock and Chester B. Brown Fertilizer plant were all victims of breakins last week. Approximately $150 was taken in the breakins.

"Not of good things happened along the way, and a lot of bad things," he said. "But more good than bad."

U. S. Nazis Appear at Capital Rally

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28 (AP)—George Lincoln Rockwell, self-styled "leader" of the American Nazi party, showed up at today's civil rights demonstration but pledged not to try to stir up trouble.

Rockwell appeared at the Washington monument with a group of young anti-integration followers as the early arrivals were assembling for the massive march. Almost immediately about 100 policemen surrounded the Rockwell group and took stations in the area to watch for any trouble.

But Rockwell said his group would not try to hold a counter demonstration as he had threatened.

He said his token force appeared because he felt "economic conditions" would represent the white race.

Age Limit Is Extended in Grid League

BURLEY, Aug. 28—Age limit has been extended to 13 years with a 130 pound maximum for the Scout football league at a noon committee meeting Tuesday.

Registration will be extended until 5 p. m. Friday, Sept. 6. Because of the need of more boys in Little League football, the committee felt that adding the 13 year olds and extending registration for one more week would help more boys in the Burley area to play football, states Dave Lewis, general chairman. There is still room for 28 boys.

Patty L. Janak, Neel Exchange Nuptial Promise

BURLEY, Aug. 28.—Patty L. Janak and Henry H. Neel were married Aug. 28 at the First Methodist church, Burley. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Janak, Burley, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Scott D. Neel, Condon, Ore.

The altar was decorated with a garland of white and pink flowers, flanked by wedding baskets overflowing with pink roses and white lilies. The bride wore a white gown with a full skirt and a long train, and the groom wore a dark suit.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. E. Dixon. The bride and groom exchanged vows and rings. The bride wore a white veil and carried a bouquet of white and pink flowers. The groom wore a white shirt and a dark tie.

After the ceremony, the bride and groom were seated at a table with their parents. The bride's father, James J. Janak, gave her away to the groom. The bride and groom then danced the first dance. The reception continued until midnight.

"Girls' Town" Construction To Commence

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—She was the daughter of a carpenter from Detroit, Wis., and she grew up to be a beauty queen, a cover girl, and to marry into one of America's wealthiest families.

Along the way, there was what she now calls "notoriety"—escapes which put her on front pages of newspapers and earned her a playful title among the columnists. She said that same notoriety led to some question of her sanity in a project, far ahead from that of a dedicated debutant.

Now, Gregg Sherwood Dodge is taking the concrete step toward convincing any doubters of her sanity as a philanthropist. It was announced today that ground will be broken Sept. 3, at North Orlando, Fla., for the construction of the first unit in a residence-administration building of what eventually will be a $5 million "Girls' Town."

Mrs. Dodge's pet charity for the past three and one-half years has been the "Homeless Children's Fund," which has helped 17 who are homeless or without parental guidance in the home. Any faith or hope can turn to hope for help.

She said it had taken more than three years to get to the ground-breaking stage because of problems of locating a site, getting an architectural plan drawn, raising money for the initial financing.

A lot of people ask why my husband and I didn't just go ahead and finance it," she said.

The former showgirl is the wife of Horace Dodge II, heir to the Dodge family's great automotive fortune.

"But the problems of girls in need of help is not just mine or my husband's," she said. "It belongs to the whole country. The American public is financing 'Girls' Town.'"

Mrs. Dodge said the idea for the girls' town was conceived in Palm Beach, where she and her husband have one of their several residences.

She started the heart fund drive in the fashionable winter resort community "eight or nine years ago," she said, "and it's a couple of years, then turned it over to others.

Looking around for one project, she settled on this one because "there are so many projects to help boys, so few to help girls."

Mrs. Dodge said 32 sites were being sought after Gov. LeRoy Collins, Florida, serving as state chairman in 1960, called on Florida citizens to offer land for the "Town."

THE AFGHAN THAT WON the national needlework trophy for Jerome county is shown by Mrs. Verlin Oldham, Jerome. The adult sweater and baby set shown also won national blue ribbons. These three entries can be entered for national competition. Mrs. Oldham entered 34 items in the Jerome county fair and won 39 county ribbons and four national ribbons. Her winning afghan measures 72 by 80 and took $34 worth of yarn and three years to complete. Mrs. Oldham won the national needlework trophy in Jerome in 1959.

September Date Set by Couple

JEROME, Aug. 28.—Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Piper-Jerome announced the engagement of their daughter, Janet, to Jerry David Cottle, Salt Lake City, son of Mrs. Lucille K. Schumacker, Los Angeles, Calif.

Mrs. Piper is a 1962 graduate of Jerome high school and attended Jerome's Business School, Salt Lake City. She is employed at Olsen Falls Insurance company, Salt Lake City.

Cottle is a graduate of South high school, Salt Lake City, and is employed at "Hercules." He served three years with the armed forces stationed at Fairbanks, Alaska. He plans to attend the University of Utah this fall.

A Sept. 8 wedding is planned.

Hanging Art Is Its Own Art, Expert Says

By VIVIAN BROWN

All the emphasis on art in the home has made picture hanging an art in itself, points out an expert in the business, Ray Austin.

You don't slap pictures up on a wall to fill up space. They must be artistically arranged so that the collection of mass flatters the space, and in itself becomes an artistic pattern.

"Most people do not understand art, much less the arrangement of it, unless they've studied art," he explains. "They've seen it, but they're not looking for it in this art renaissance."

Austin hangs pictures that people own, but also he does the room to order, supplying all the wall art. He does building lobbies and offices, but has refused to hang pictures where they don't belong. He won't sell a picture unless it is right for the place it is to hang and won't let picture groupings unless he hangs them.

"When we select pictures for a home we take into consideration the personal background, place in the world the people have lived and wish to recapture, art tendencies that have been liked and seen and a particular love of an activity."

He has framed tattered Confederate flags, and a flag that was at Waterloo, pictures of famous New York buildings, autographs, pipes, precious jewelry, old letters. He has just placed a small washstone on black velvet for one romantic couple.

"They didn't want to break it when they made a wish on it 10 years ago, and now they'd like to frame it."

Austrian will hang mixed, needle-art paintings, cobwebs, engravings, dimensional things — "but we don't believe in reproductions of any kind, such as the so-called masterpiece reproduced on paper," he says.

It's a waste of time and money to pick up wall-willy-nilly to fill up wall space, says Austin, whose New York shop, The Picture Decorator, is jammed with some 25,000 prints, 100 oil paintings, 400 watercolors, and many other art treasures.

"It's not uncommon to spend a few dollars on a picture that's much more to frame it," he says.

Pictures should move and flow into a room, he advises, and that art need not cost a lot of money. He has put pictures in the living room of a young couple for $100 and has done elegant apartments for $5,000. He travels to many countries, for art and frame.

Pictures provide built-in charm for walls, he says, not by the size of pictures but by the shape and number of them. The big painting over a couch or in back of the piano is basic. Other pictures arranged in step designs.

The art on walls in any room should look as if it had been collected, and you can frame anything from old family portraits to Civil War paintings to achieve that look, he points out.

Food for Americans

With two parents to feed, both healthy, Mrs. K. has developed a diet of a few simple, balanced main dishes that keep them well and happy. The diet is simple. The old folks can enjoy the "meatless" diet, but green beans, noodles and soft cheese in a delicious sauce are a must. The diet is simple, but not over-splashed sauce, but not over-splashed sauce, but not over-splashed sauce.

If the rest of us are going to dinner, I often make the same for mom and dad. They like the idea of a nice looking dish prepared especially for them. This soft rolls and a delicious canned fruit makes a splendid dinner that is easy to eat and not too expensive. Mr. K. explains that this is a well-balanced dinner for senior citizens. Old people need all the nutrients every day that younger people need, only not so much of each one. A diet of tea and toast is a health threat to older members of the family, all doctors agree.

PHILLIPS HURLS COWBOYS PAST YANKEES

Marshall's 3-Run Homer in Eighth Nets 5-2 Victory

A three-run homer by Mike Marshall capped a four-run eighth inning Tuesday night and sent the Magic Valley Cowboys past Idaho Falls Yankees 5-2. Marshall's homer marked an end to the Cowboys' long effort of trying to catch up with Idaho Falls and right-hander George Beech. The 11th victory was the first since the team's start taken out of bullpen, fired a seven-hit homer and worked his way out of the dugout. The club met again at 8 p.m. Wednesday night and will conclude the season with a game in the final four games of the season.

Allen, the first Negro ever to play on the Little Rock club, has been converted to an outfielder and currently is hitting around .385.

Horning Rejects Chance to Play Suspension Out

YNN, Mass. Aug. 28 (UP)—Horning, suspended Green Bay Packers halfback, Tuesday dogged a $25,000 per season offer to play out his suspension with a team in the Atlantic Coast league.

That was the end of Phillips trouble for the night and he finished up by allowing just two more base runners.

But Bechtold had the Cowboys in trouble until the eighth. He opened that by leaving a walk to Alex Johnson. Then as Bill Tammisall squared to sacrifice, catcher Frank Fernandez was pulled of a passed ball. It was the turning point and the end of Idaho Falls.

Tammisall quickly laced a single to centerfield to score Johnson. He scrambled up, retrieved the ball and threw wild into right field. Outfielder Fox followed that up with a bad throw to third and Campbell moved to second base. But the wildness did not give the Cowboys any advantage as Marshall followed with his homer.

Bouton Stars As Yanks Top Boston Twice

NEW YORK, Aug. 28 (UP)—Pete Bouton came within three outs of pitching a no-hitter and settled for a two-hitter as the New York Yankees defeated the Boston Red Sox 5-0 Tuesday. The Yanks also won the second game, shutting out the Red Sox again 3-0 on the five-hit pitching of Ralph Terry.

Bouton had allowed only two base runners and had retired 22 men in order before pinch hitter Russ Nixon bounced a single up the middle leading off the ninth, spoiling Bouton's bid to become the first Yankee to pitch a regular season no-hitter since Alvin Reynolds in 1951.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 28 (UP)—Frank Howard's two-run homer, the first homer for Los Angeles in nine games, started the National league leading Dodgers on the way to a 3-2 triumph over Cincinnati Tuesday night.

Pitcher Would Trade Teeth for Nixon's Single

NEW YORK, Aug. 28 (UP)—I would have taken that one in my mouth if I could have," young Jim Bouton said Tuesday of the single that robbed him of a no-hit game.

Boston Red Sox pinch-hitter Russ Nixon smacked a single up the middle leading off the ninth inning, the ball whistling past Bouton's ear and into center field. The New York Yankees right-hander made a belated try for the ball, but it was already past him.

Gary Geiger followed with a line single to right field that hit the Nixon hit that Bouton was talking about. "It was a stupid pitch that he hit," the 24-year-old referee from the Yankees bullpen said after his 6-0 victory boosted his season record to 18-4. "I threw it right down the pipe. The situation called for a breaking pitch and like a dope I threw him a fast ball."

Bouton said he knew all along that he had a "no-hitter" but was "very nervous at the end. I kept my head down. I didn't want to look at my teammates. I knew they were all pulling for me."

Lisbon Has Mass Rally For Premier

LISBON, Aug. 27 (AP)—Theanguard of an estimated 250,000 persons poured into the capital today for a mass rally to demonstrate support for the democratic policies of Premier Antonio Salazar.

Observers looked for the largest show of popular support ever claimed by Salazar, who has pledged to fight, if necessary, to retain Portugal's overseas provinces.

Portugal's overseas policies have come under sharp attack by African countries in the United Nations. The Salazar regime of the overseas provinces is regarded as an integral part of Portugal itself.

Lisbon's huge waterfront square, the Praça do Comercio, was earmarked as the site of the mass rally. In the darkness before dawn, tens of thousands of Portuguese from all over the country and some from the overseas territories headed for the huge demonstration.

The last comparable rally here occurred in February, 1961, when close to 100,000 persons turned out to greet the loyal captain and hero of the hijacked liner Santa Maria as it returned to Lisbon.

Most of the thousands, commanded by former army Capt. Henrique Galvao, were granted political asylum in Brazil.

Taxes Discussed At Farm Meeting

Are You Inventive?

By WILLIAM BERNARD and JULES LEOPOLD

Creative ability, which has long stumped psychologists, involves drives, motivations, reaction patterns of a type not claimed to be mirrored in the score of this test. Yet inventiveness has a part in creative ability. And inventiveness can be regarded as a matter of combining existing forms into new ones, of taking elements of old patterns and synthesizing them into new patterns.

Since this spatial-reasoning test preserves the inventiveness factor, in the author's view, the score may in a limited way demonstrate your own creative potential.

will be held Saturday at 8 p.m. at the Farm Bureau office to discuss Lyman-Engle's report on taxes. The meeting also included discussion of truck hauling regulations.

It also was decided that the women will paint the Farm Bureau's fair concession stands at the fairgrounds, and the men will finish assembling the stand Saturday.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Heber Loughmiller and Mrs. Fred Thomas.

Water Projects Described as Pork Barrel

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28 (AP)—A magazine article's description of many water projects as "pork barrel and political boondoggle" has stirred up a tempest of protest among some western members of Congress, as might have been expected.

"This is 'pork' let us have more of it," Sen. Frank E. Moss, D., Utah, said of Life Magazine's description.

On the other hand, a few members of Congress agreed with the article, at least in part. A spokesman for Life said in New York that the magazine would have no comment on the article of criticism raised in Congress.

Moss, in his comment, said reclamation dams are built in the very existence of people in the West.

"We have been able to harness our precious water," he said, "because the federal government could put up the needed capital investment."

"When the federal government authorizes a multipurpose dam the construction funds are only loaned. With minor exceptions they are repaid to the federal treasury with interest. These projects create new farms and new towns and new wealth which benefit local people and the entire country."

"If this is 'pork' let us have more of it."

Rep. Wayne Aspinall, D., Colorado, said the article was "a foolish article." Aspinall said, "Pork barrel is a slang expression, is an appropriation of federal funds for political purposes rather than for needed improvements."

"The people of the West do not have to be told of the need for redevelopment of their water resources," Aspinall said.

Rep. Edgar Chenoweth, R., Colo., sometimes called the father of the Colorado Pinyon-Pine project, said in his office that other projects named in the article "received the closest scrutiny of Congress."

"We in the West realize and appreciate the importance of our reclamation program," Chenoweth said. "We know what it has meant to so many arid areas of the West which are now prosperous agricultural communities due to these reclamation projects. Water is the lifeblood of any area."

Sen. Gordon Allott, R., Colo., made public a copy of a letter he fired off to Life.

"You do a great injustice to the people of this country in permitting an article to be written by men who know absolutely nothing, as this article proves, over and over again, about the natural resources of this country," Allott wrote.

Allott said the article "is replete with intended misconceptions and actual deception" about the Pinyon-Pine-Arkansas project to tunnel water under the Rock mountains from the western slope to the eastern slope. Rep. James P. Battin, R., Mont., was one who took a different view, running his attack on the proposed Knowles dam in Montana which would flood smaller dam sites owned by Indians.

Rep. James A. Haley, D., Fla., said he wanted to ensure Congress that there is no lean in the construction of Knowles dam—it is all fat.

African Nations Attack Portugal

ROME, Aug. 28 (AP)—African nations yesterday pressed an attack against Portugal and South Africa in a United Nations world conference on tourism.

In the United Nations, 19 African nations, backing United Nations Secretary General U Thant, called for a conference to avoid political issues and concentrate on lowering travel barriers between nations.

Russia, Bulgaria and India supported the Africans in demanding that Portugal and South Africa be expelled from the conference for practicing "segregation, repression and colonial domination."

Blood-Alcohol Test Replaced by New Method to Determine Drunk Drivers

"Like the way this system operates," said Lt. J. Bays, Jr., district four, Idaho state police, when asked his opinion of the new Mobal (mobile alcohol) test unit, which all state police officers are now using.

The balloon-test tube set eliminates the old blood drawing routine for suspected drunk drivers—a process which took as long as two hours. The new system takes a maximum of 15 minutes for the arresting officer to determine the degree of drunkenness of the suspect.

This spring the police obtained several of the Mobal units for testing purposes and liked them so well they decided to use them.

Schooling was provided for officers in use of the units and the first of July they were officially put into use.

Each suspect is asked to blow up the balloon and then the air is passed through two test tubes. One tube is for the officer's information and indicates whether the person is too drunk to drive. The other is sent to the state health department for analysis and there it is determined the percentage of oxygen, nitrogen, carbon dioxide and alcohol in the person's breath. The tubes need no refrigeration and last indefinitely.

In district four, each patrolman, port of entry and "roving port" has three units. They are issued by serial number and as they are used, they are replaced from the stock on hand in the district headquarters.

"The time element is in our favor," said Bays, "along with the economy. This should be a great improvement in the law enforcement field."

To date the Idaho taxpayer $20 each time a doctor is called to take a blood sample and run tests, but this expense has been totally eliminated now. The Mobal units cost 75 to 80 cents each.

In 1952, state officers arrested 247 drunk drivers. They were all given blood sample tests at a total cost of around $4,500. "As the tendency for drunk driving increases, which it has, we can save the Idaho citizen at least that much money each year with this new unit," concluded Bays.

IT'S NO BIRTHDAY PARTY when somebody blows up a balloon like this one being inflated by State Patrolman R. D. Luckert. The balloon is part of the new "Mobal" (mobile alcohol test) unit the state highway patrol now uses in place of blood tests for alleged-drunk drivers. (Times-News photo)

March Called Carrying Coals to Newcastle

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27. (AP)—

Marching on Washington to call attention to racial problems in the city carrying coals to Newcastle. The nation's capital already has plenty of racial problems of its own.

It is the only U.S. city in which Negroes outnumber whites. 446,000 Negro and 344,000 white residents live year-round in acute awareness of the tensions that build up in a city when it degenerates at a rate generally considered too slow by one race, and too fast by the other.

Ten years ago, Washington was a city with segregated schools and public facilities.

Today, Negroes enjoy unrestricted access to hotels, restaurants, theaters and other public accommodations. To refuse service to any person because of his race is a crime punishable by law.

The public school system has been completely integrated since 1954.

Washington's principal industry, the federal government hires and promotes without regard to race.

About three-fourths of the residential areas within the District of Columbia boundaries are occupied predominantly or exclusively by Negroes.

To white residents, the change has been dizzy fast. They grumble about Negroes "taking over" the city. And they blame Negroes for the high rates of aggravated assault, robberies and other crimes which have made it unsafe to walk the streets of the capital at night.

To Negroes, the barriers which have fallen are less conspicuous than the formidable ones which still remain. They grumble about the informal but effective conspiracy between lending institutions and real estate interests which keeps them from obtaining homes in the all-white suburbs, and compels them to pay outrageous prices for overcrowded housing in the inner city.

They blame discrimination for the fact that Negro families average only 10 per cent of white incomes, and Negro youths are four times as likely to be unemployed as white youths.

Despite their frictions and mutual resentments, Washington's whites and Negroes have one great common bond. Both are frightened by the possibility that accumulated tensions might blow off in a major race riot.

This specter has haunted the city since last Thanksgiving day, when 300 persons were injured in a Negro-white melee which broke out in the D.C. stadium following a football game.

Year of a race riot has made responsible Negro leaders chary of resorting to such weapons as massive sit-ins or picketing demonstrations here. And it has made responsible white leaders aware that there is no time to lose in removing the remaining roadblocks to equality of opportunity.

It has also made both groups a little nervous about today's "March on Washington." That's why Negro leaders have been at such pains to insure an orderly, peaceful rally. And it's one reason why white religious bodies have gone to great ends to make peace about the state of its race relations.

Another safety factor in the Washington situation is the feeling, which exists even among the most impatient Negro leaders, that the city is making progress, that it is moving steadily in the direction of greater equality.

concentration at present. Negroes are demanding a chance to buy homes and rent apartments in the suburbs. And they don't like the suburbs which are now almost exclusively white enclaves.

The District of Columbia, 69 square miles of federal territory, today constitutes only the inner city of the Washington metropolitan area, which stretches far out into Maryland and Virginia, and which has a total population of 2,300,000 persons.

In the metropolitan area as a whole, whites outnumber Negroes by 3 to 1. It is only in the inner city—the District of Columbia—that Negroes are in a majority (at present, about 57 per cent).

Even in the District, Negroes are effectively barred from the area west of Rock Creek park, which contains most of the city's best residential sections. There is one swank residential section along 16th street northwest, which is now heavily occupied by Negroes. It is known locally as the "Negro gold coast."

But the vast majority of Negro families live in row house, apartments and tenements in the wide area of the city that lies east of 16th street. They pay up to twice as much as a white family has to pay for comparable space in the suburbs. And they don't like the suburbs which are now almost exclusively white enclaves.

Recently the President's committee on equality of opportunity, headed by former Gov. David L. Lawrence of Pennsylvania, has been meeting with leaders of the private housing industry in an effort to open up suburban areas to Negro occupancy.

Oil May Stymie Shifting Sands

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—The shifting sands of the world's deserts might be stopped by oil, according to a paper prepared by a team from Esso Research, Ltd.

Desert areas now cover about 15 per cent of the earth's land and shifting sand dunes, driven by strong winds, are slowly covering more area.

In a reforestation experiment in Libya, water-bearing sand dunes were planted with seedlings of acacia and eucalyptus trees and the dunes were sprayed with oil to prevent movement of the surface sand.

A year later, many of the seedlings had grown into aloft-tall trees, the researchers reported.

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

WEDNESDAY, Aug. 28—Born today, you have all the wit and savoir faire necessary to establish a place in the world at the same time that you have whatever other resources and strengths it takes to be a world leader. Able to take people or leave them alone, your remarkable outward—those directed toward others—will never have the results, either for good or for bad, on your life and leave that your relationship to yourself will have.

You have accepted yourself; married to live with yourself. That is the secret of your absolute comfort, whether alone or in the company of others. Failure cannot upset you unduly; success cannot go to your head. Peace is necessary for your well-being—but you are not dependent upon others to achieve it. In fact, you are independent and self-sufficient.

Though you rely on no one, you do not object when others rely on you. You accept responsibility squarely and with good grace, doing your best by it without worry. An extremely easy person to live with, the one who "seaches" you will be fortunate indeed. But only so long as he or she does not try to change you, for that is all but impossible.

Among those born on this date are: Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, giant of German literature; Leo Tolstoy, famed Russian author; Ben Gazzara, actor. To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Railroads Won't Accept Freight Before Deadline

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28 (AP)—The railroads, confronted with the possibility of a nationwide strike Thursday, said today that most lines will stop accepting freight before the strike deadline.

Also, railroad spokesmen said, most lines will not schedule passenger trains which would be unable to reach their final destination before the strike begins.

The railroads have announced that they will put the new job-cutting work rules into effect at midnight Wednesday and the five operating unions have said they will strike when the rules go into effect. It appears doubtful that congress can enact legislation before that hour to head off a strike.

Employ a modicum of caution for a good day. Up your popularity quotient through some generous aid.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20)—Business activity favored if you avoid unnecessary travel and extravagant expenditures.

ARIES (March 21-April 20)—Each of purpose can be your worst enemy. Call up some of the objectives of yesterday and begin again.

TAURUS (April 21-May 21)—A conflict of ideas may confuse the main issue unless you are exceptionally objective today.

A non-competitive exhibition "filler" until about 15 years ago, this event today may bring a champion rider over $10,000 a year—but he earns it the hard way. The rider is separated from his horse only by his legs and a heavy, leather-rigged cinch with a one-hand grip. ## Why Can This New House Paint

Be Washed Off Your Brush With Water

But Not Off Your House By Rain?

We Planned It That Way

Folks ask us this. For years they've accepted inside wall paints that permit cleaning up brush and roller with water. But when it comes to our new latex exterior house paint, a few people worry about the durability of the paint film in rain and snow. Well, Bennett's chemists have developed a remarkable new acrylic latex formula for this new exterior paint. During or immediately after painting, it can be washed out of your brush, easily. But a few days after painting, whether on wood or masonry, it cures to a tough, tight film that resists rain and snow, and is tougher in every way than the oil paints you've used to. We planned it that way, and guarantee it fully. So use it—we've already done the worrying!

WHAT ARE YOU FIGURING OUT, PEOPLE, SOME WIN TO HOOK THAT LAMIN-MOWER UP WITH REMOTE CONTROL, SO YOU CAN CUT THE GRASS, SITTING DOWN?

NOT EXACTLY, BAXTER. I WAS THINKING ABOUT A GRASS BEETLE THAT IS FOUND IN AUSTRALIA. IT COULD TRIM A THOUSAND OF THEM, THE ORCHEL OF MOVING THE LAWN WOULD BE SPARED. THE GRASS BEETLES WOULD ON GRASS AND THE GRASS ABOUT A HALF-INCH ABOVE THE GROUND, THEY TRAVEL IN A DIRECT FORWARD LINE, AND LOO OF THEM, SHOULDER TO SHOULDER, WOULD TRIM THE LAWN IN A JIFFY, ESAY!

WE CAN'T EVEN SPELL THE WORD WORK!
