Senators Reject Goldwater Bid For Pact Change

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (AP)—The senate rejected today a proposal by Sen. Barry Goldwater, R., Ariz., to require Soviet removal of nuclear weapons and military personnel from Cuba as the price for U. S. ratification of the limited nuclear test ban treaty. The vote was 17 for the reservation and 75 against. The reservation offered by Goldwater, a possible 1964 Republican presidential nominee, was regarded as the biggest hurdle for the treaty banning nuclear testing except underground.

The pact itself, now signed by 100 nations, is scheduled for a senate vote at 9:30 a. m. Tuesday. Overwhelming approval appears to be assured.

Goldwater told his colleagues that if they must vote for the treaty, then, "in your nation's name and in the name of the trust your nation has placed upon you, demand at least this single, honorable, appropriate and meaningful price."

Goldwater's reservation to the resolution of ratification was the first called up for action as the senate neared the end of two weeks of debate on the treaty to ban all but underground nuclear testing.

The senate came to the question of reservations quickly when Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D., Conn., dropped his own fight for five "understandings."

Dodd urged ratification of the pact, saying he believes "the good in it outweighs the bad."

He said he would offer later a separate resolution calling upon the senate preparedness subcommittee to make periodic reports to the senate on the status of the U. S. underground nuclear testing program, the status of nuclear laboratories, "the observance of the treaty," and its impact on national security.

Thousands Mourn Death Of Negroes

By The Associated Press

Thousands marched, rallied and prayed across the land Sunday in memorial services for six Negro children slain in Birmingham, Ala., racial disorders.

There were calls for a "nonviolent uprising" and a "massive nationwide campaign of civil disobedience" to protest what one speaker called "the last crime against the spirit of brotherhood—the senseless slaughter of the children."

The largest demonstrations were held in New York City and Washington.

In Shreveport, La., police riot squads and mounted sheriff's deputies broke up an attempt by 1,500 Negroes to hold a memorial parade. That was followed by a brief clash between Negroes and police outside a church.

A group of prominent Americans, headed by Gov. Edmund G. Brown, California and Charles P. Taft, Cincinnati, announced formation of "America's Conscience Fund" to rebuild the bombed 16th Street Baptist church in Birmingham.

7 Indicted for School Interference

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Sept. 23 (AP)—A federal grand jury today indicted seven persons, including segregationist leader Edward R. Fields, on charges of conspiracy to interfere with school desegregation court orders.

Indicted with Fields, 30, information director of the National States Rights party, were Jesse B. Stoner, party attorney; James K. Warner, David A. Stanley, Barney M. Carmack, jr., Jack Cash, Ralph Lewandowski and Gerald Q. Dutton, 25. The men were to be taken before a U. S. commissioner for arraignment later today.

U.S. Dist. Judge Clarence W. Allgood told the jury of 19 men and a woman that he had received information that "attempts have been made to influence and to intimidate some members of the grand jury, if not all of you."

"We bitterly resent any person or persons thinking that they could successfully intimidate or influence either this grand jury or the court," he said.

Allgood, who last week strongly condemned racial violence, told the jurors the attempts at influencing or intimidating the panel were a violation of the law.

"I sincerely trust that you will at a time to be determined by you, make a thorough and complete investigation," he said.

The jurors asked to be recessed until evidence is presented in connection with the bombing of a Negro church in which four children were killed Sept. 15.

They were called into special session a week ago by Allgood to investigate "possible unlawful obstruction of court orders. Desegregation of three Birmingham white schools touched off demonstrations and some disorders by white segregationists.

Allgood said he had requested the FBI investigate reports of attempted intimidation of the jury.

Race Problem Discussed In Capital

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (UPI)—While civic leaders of Birmingham, told President Kennedy today that the city's racial problems could be solved if both sides would agree on "a little peace and quiet" while conciliation efforts proceed.

The group, which met with the President for an hour and a half, said the two-man committee he assigned to try to bring whites and Negroes together to end the city's racial strife may be the key to success.

They told reporters they urged Kennedy to use his influence to keep "outsiders" away from Birmingham and halt racial demonstrations while conciliation efforts are underway. They said the President replied that he was in no position to ask anyone to stay away from the city.

"I feel that the people of Birmingham can settle things if let alone," said William Hamilton, executive secretary to Mayor Albert Boutwell.

Hamilton was one of the five-member group. The others were [illegible] Hawkins, chairman of the council's community relations committee; Frank Newton, chairman of the Interracial Community Affairs committee, Cardwell [illegible], chairman of the Committee of 100 Dedicated to Expanding Birmingham's Industries, and the Rev. Dr. Landon Miller, a Baptist pastor who is president of the city's Interdenominational Council of Ministers.

Hawkins told reporters that the five of them "agreed as a group to go back to Birmingham and do all we could within the next few weeks to solve these problems."

The President's meeting with the civic leaders was the first of several conferences he scheduled during the day on the Birmingham race problem.

France Proposes Nuclear Project

[illegible], France, Sept. 23 (AP)—France, in another apparent move to undercut U. S. influence in Europe, today proposed creation of a European nuclear force to include the striking French national units being built by President Charles de Gaulle.

The offer was made in a speech to the consultative assembly of the 16-nation council of Europe by French Foreign Secretary Michel Habib-Deloncle.

Haitian Guns Rake Border Of Neighbor

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic, Sept. 23 (AP)—Haitian artillery and machinegun fire across the border into Dominican territory today forced Dominican evacuation of 6,000 inhabitants of Dajabon and led to threats of armed reprisals.

Foreign Minister Hector Garcia Godoy asked for immediate convocation of the consultative council of the Organization of American States and also notified the United Nations general assembly of the Haitian "aggression."

The Dominican troop detachment at Dajabon was reinforced and the three armed services chiefs rushed to the scene.

Dominican radio said military leaders had threatened to bomb the presidential palace in Port Au Prince in reprisal unless the shelling halted but the report could not be confirmed in official circles.

Mum

NEW YORK, Sept. 23 (AP)—Gov. and Mrs. Nelson A. Rockefeller took off from New York today, with the governor saying he would not be critical of President Kennedy's administration during a 12-day tour of European capitals.

At Idlewild airport, Rockefeller told newsmen: "The role of a citizen abroad is to support the administration. Therefore, I will not hold any press conferences nor make any speeches."

Negro Escort Dropped Off Program

BERKELEY, Calif., Sept. 23 (AP)—A Negro escort was asked to withdraw from the University of California football festival Saturday because at least two of eight white visiting football queens objected.

Lynn Mark Sims, vice president of the junior class and president of the Megaphone society, said he was dismayed at the request by the Berkeley Junior Chamber of Commerce. The Jaycees have sponsored the festival at the opening home football games for 18 years.

Paul Rulldige, chairman of the Jaycee football queen contest, said: "It was done to protect the mental and physical well-being of the girls."

He declined to say how many or which of the queens objected to Sims being in the escort party.

Six of the queens were from Southern universities, but Sims was to have escorted Catherine Flanigan from Clarion State college in Pennsylvania.

He withdrew when the objection was made known to him some three hours before the California-Iowa State game Saturday.

Sims, who was automatically designated an escort because of his presidency of the Megaphone society, said he was told that university officials had nothing to do with the incident.

Probe Into Fire Nearly Completed

RIGGINS, Sept. 23 (UPI)—Adams County Prosecutor Carl Swanstrom said today that an investigation is pretty well completed in the fire that took the lives of seven elderly rest home patients last Tuesday.

He said a date for an inquest has not been set, but it will be conducted as soon as arrangements can be made.

"We want to call one just to clear the air," he said. "That is about all we will accomplish."

Swanstrom said there are numerous rumors floating around and many unanswered questions in the public mind.

He said he expects those called to testify will include the working personnel of the rest home, people familiar with construction and modes of operation, a heating man, possibly one of the patients, and a hospital engineer for the state health department.

Rusk, Envoy Discuss Spain Bases of U. S.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23 (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Spain's foreign minister talked over the issue of U.S. bases in Spain today but apparently came to no agreement.

Spain's Fernando Castiella was the first of a string of 11 foreign ministers coming by to see Rusk during the day as Rusk began wide consultations with leaders attending the U.N. General Assembly's fall session.

Castiella said after an hour's discussion with Rusk that the two had gone over subjects coming up in the U.N. debate and items outstanding between Spain and the United States.

This included the question of U.S. bases in Spain but nothing concrete was decided, he told newsmen.

The United States wants a long term renewal of the deal under which it has operated several large air and naval bases in Spain. The Spanish, seeking more economic and political benefits than Washington wants to provide, have been extending the base rights only on a temporary basis.

Hunt for Plane

DOVER, Del., Sept. 23 (AP)—Air force, navy and coast guard planes searched the Atlantic ocean today for an Azores bound air force cargo plane presumed down with 10 crewmen aboard.

The four-engine plane was last heard from at 2:53 a.m. Sunday, 31 minutes after it left Dover air force base.

MANY PUSH GOLDWATER

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (AP)—Sen. Norris Cotton, R., N.H., today scheduled a news conference for tomorrow at which he is expected to announce support for Sen. Barry Goldwater, R., Ariz., in New Hampshire GOP presidential primary next March.

Two Youths, 16, Confess to Spree of Magic Valley Burglaries in 2 Months

Alton C. Enoch, 16, Burley, and Ronald Davis, 16, Eden, were picked up at 1:30 a.m. Sunday in Murtaugh and have confessed to more than 20 breakins in Magic Valley during the past two months.

The two juveniles were driving around Murtaugh without any lights when State Patrolman Marvin J. Snyder stopped the car. Snyder said the juveniles had been wearing guns but had taken them off just before they were stopped. They also had wine in the car.

The juveniles were taken to Twin Falls and one is now being held in the county jail and the other in the city jail until the stories of both juveniles have been checked.

Twin Falls Sheriff James H. Benham said he has not "tried to count all the break ins" but that there were a lot of them.

They broke into a church in Burley, a church, grain mill and a pop machine at a service station in Paul, two churches in Eden, two churches in Jerome and also took some tires from cars in Jerome; three churches and two pop machines at service stations in Hazelton, church in Richfield, church in Emerson, two or three pop machines at service stations in Twin Falls and gas from all over Magic Valley.

They climaxed their two-month rampage by breaking into Valley high school between Eden and Hazelton twice and Hansen high school.

Authorities have recovered about $80 that was taken from one of the schools and will recover a typewriter taken from a Jerome church.

Smylie Digs Demos, Raps Chief's Visit

BOISE, Sept. 23 (AP)—Gov. Robert E. Smylie today described the Western States Democratic conference in Salt Lake City as "a trifle absurd" and predicted that the West will remain in the Republican column in the 1964 presidential election. Smylie at the same time chided Sen. Frank Church, D., Ida., for his address to the week-end conference, describing it as "extremely political, ineffective and unappealing." He also took a sharp jab at President John F. Kennedy's upcoming western tour.

"After the activity in Salt Lake City I think it is a little easier to understand the President's 'non-political' trip to the West," said Smylie.

"It is interesting to note that he is touching nowhere except where incumbent Democratic senators are up for reelection, which underscores the nonpolitical nature of his trip.

"I am glad to have him rediscover the West, but it is a little late, I think," said Smylie.

Motion to Drop Charge Is Rejected

BOISE, Sept. 23 (AP)—U.S. District Judge Fred M. Taylor today denied a motion to dismiss indictments against 17 Fort Hall Indians charged in connection with a May 28 beating of employes of the Gay mine.

The motion to dismiss was filed on grounds that a charge of conspiracy is not included in the ten major crimes act of the United States code. But Judge Taylor ruled that it was a proper charge.

Three men were beaten during a labor dispute at the mine, operated by the J. R. Simplot company near pocatello.

The Fort Hall business council of the Shoshone-Bannock tribes has called for a civil rights investigation of the treatment of Indians in southeastern Idaho, citing what it described as injustices revealed in a justice department report on the incident.

Negro Is Arrested for Carrying Gun

OXFORD, Miss., Sept. 23 (UPI)—Lafayette County Sheriff Joe Ford today arrested Cleve McDowell, the University of Mississippi's only Negro student, on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon.

McDowell was arrested by the sheriff at the end of his 10 a.m. class, an official at the university news service bureau said.

The sheriff took the Negro law student into custody after taking a small pistol from him, the official said.

McDowell became the second Negro to enroll at the university last June when he entered the summer session. He was enrolled for the fall semester two weeks ago without incident.

The only other Negro to attend Ol' Miss, James H. Meredith, was graduated recently at the end of the summer session.

U. S. Support On Buddhist Debate Hit

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., July 23 (AP)—A spokesman for President Ngo Dinh Diem's regime said today the United States cut off its nose to spite its face when it supported U.N. general assembly debate on his government's treatment of Buddhists.

Prof. Buu Hoi, head of a special Vietnamese mission to the 111-nation assembly, said the discussion would enable communist delegations to demand that the United States withdraw troops from South Viet Nam. North Viet Nam already has renewed that demand.

"We were sure right from the start," Buu Hoi said in an interview, "that during the debate several countries from the Soviet bloc would raise the problem which has nothing to do with the Buddhist affair which is the influence of the United States in that part of the world.

"That's why we deplored that the U.S. government voted in favor of the inclusion of that item in the agenda."

First Heavy Fog Rolls Into London

LONDON, Sept. 23 (UPI)—London's first heavy fog of the season rolled in today, recalling last year's killer smog and fog that blanketed the area for a week and snuffed out hundreds of lives.

London and nearby Gatwick airport were closed this morning because of low visibility and flights from the continent were refused landing rights. The airport lounges were filled with tired passengers waiting for the fog to lift.

At least three lines of the Southern Region British railways recorded 30-minute delays in heavy commuter traffic.

The automobile association said traffic in the home counties slowed to double-laned crawls as truckers reduced speed to meet 15 yard visibility on the twisting highways.

River traffic from the Humber south to the Thames also was slowed, harbor authorities said.

Quintuplets' Private Lives To Be Lived on Open Stage

ABERDEEN, S.D., Sept. 23 (AP)—What sort of a future can the Fischer quintuplets anticipate?

They probably will experience the same hustles and frustrations all growing children experience, only more so.

Their financial security is assured, but they will live on a stage all their lives.

Mrs. Andrew Fischer leaves the quiet of her hospital room and returns home today. Along with her husband and her other five children, she also will be an object of the curious, here and elsewhere.

The life of the Fischer family already has become an open book.

The quints became five little Indians Sunday.

In ceremonies at an Aberdeen hotel, members of the Standing Rock Sioux tribe of North and South Dakota made the infants honorary tribal members.

About a dozen tribesmen clad in full Indian regalia staged dances and other sacred rites.

A late evening report from the hospital said that the babies were doing fine and looked "real good."

The nursery staff said that the boy, James Andrew, had his first bottle Sunday. After a short pull on the bottle, however, he was ready and willing to go back to his regular feeding routine through tubes inserted through his nose.

The 9-day-old quints are expected to be released from the hospital in a couple months or so.

Top Aides Leave for Asia Mission

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (AP)—Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, flew to South Viet Nam today on a special fact finding mission for President Kennedy. Their air force transport plane was airborne from Andrews air force base at 10 a.m., shortly after they received final instructions from the President at the White House. [illegible] President [illegible] 32 minutes. Undersecretary of State George Ball and presidential assistant McGeorge Bundy also attended.

Speaking with reporters briefly before takeoff, McNamara said that until recently the progress of the anti-communist military effort by the South Vietnamese forces with U. S. support had been "proceeding very satisfactorily."

He said he and Taylor were going to the vital Southeast Asian country to determine "whether that military effort has been adversely affected by the unrest of the past several weeks."

By unrest, McNamara obviously meant the political turmoil within South Viet Nam resulting from a recent crackdown by the Vietnamese government on Buddhists, students and other opponents.

These actions by President Ngo Dinh Diem have brought his government into policy conflicts with the United States.

When reporters asked whether his hurry up mission indicated a deteriorating military situation in South Viet Nam, McNamara replied "definitely not."

He added that he did not want to draw any conclusions in advance of his week-long inspection and survey which would take him and Taylor the length and breadth of the tortured country and into contact with senior U. S. military diplomatic officials and Vietnamese authorities.

The 20-hour flight is due to end in Saigon Tuesday night, Viet Nam time.

The McNamara-Taylor plane will make one refueling stop on the way to Elmendorf air force base in Alaska.

The presence of Ball at the White House meeting indicated that McNamara and Taylor will examine the political as well as military situation in Viet Nam.

Indonesian, British Tiff Flares

JAKARTA, Indonesia, Sept. 23 (AP)—The British-Indonesian dispute flared again today over the guarding of Britain's ruined embassy, burned by mobs in a wave of violence that almost caused a diplomatic break.

A diplomatic crisis was averted when Gov. Sumarno Sosroatmodjo of Jakarta agreed through a police representative to a joint British-Indonesian guard to protect documents in the embassy's vault.

British Ambassador A. G. Gilchrist had just told a news conference that a senior police official had refused to let him into the embassy Sunday night. He suddenly broke off th conference and hurried to the embassy.

Embassy informants said Gilchrist had just been informed that Indonesians were trying to break into the vault. This time Gilchrist brushed past protesting Indonesian police and remained in the embassy for an hour and a half until the guard agreement was reached.

The British considered the issue serious enough to ask support from other embassies. U.S. Ambassador Howard P. Jones and the Australian, Canadian and French ambassadors rushed to the embassy.

The mobs that burned the embassy Wednesday were protesting the creation of the British-protected Federation of Malaysia, embracing Malaya, Singapore, Sarawak and Sabah North Borneo, all former British territories.

Indonesia promised that British lives and properties would be protected.

Underground Water Potential Studied

BOISE, Sept. 23 (UPI)—State Reclamation Engineer Carl Tappan said today that his department is conducting an "inventory" of the underground water potential of the Raft river project. Tappan said the purpose of the inventory is to determine whether any subterranean water is being mined—in other words, being taken from the ground and not being replaced. Irrigation, he said, falls into that category. "It's an effort to protect the investments already made which get up into the millions of dollars and to prevent wasting money through further drilling."

Tappan said the department began the inventory last July when it appeared that applications for well drilling permits had been "accumulating too fast." He said the department presently was holding up a number of applications pending the results of the study.

He said he believed this was the first comprehensive survey of the underground water potential of the southcentral Idaho project and one of the few conducted in the state by his department. He said he hoped one of the byproducts of the inventory would be to determine what underground water legislation might be needed in the state to protect this resource.

The inventory, he said, is being conducted by one person from his department in cooperation with the U.S. geological survey. He said he understood a

Key Measures Face Vote At Capitol

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (AP)—Two key measures in President Kennedy's foreign and domestic legislative programs come to votes this week in the senate and the house.

After two weeks of debate, the senate will vote Tuesday on the limited nuclear test-ban treaty.

The big battle of the week will be fought in the house, which plans to vote Wednesday on the Kennedy-backed bill to cut taxes about 11 billion dollars over the next two years. This measure is the cornerstone of the administration's economic program.

Republicans are supporting almost solidly a proposal to tie the proposed tax cut to reduced federal spending. Their plan would make tax relief contingent on an official statement by the president that spending this year will not exceed 97 billion dollars and 98 billion dollars next year. This would require a cut in planned expenditures for both years.

President Lauds Federal Record Of Employment

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (UPI)—President Kennedy said today that federal departments and agencies had done an excellent job of holding down on hiring new employes but that he has ordered even tighter targets drafted for the year ahead.

The statement was seen as a new bid to convince congress, on the eve of house action on his 11 billion dollar tax reduction program, that the administration is economy minded. Kennedy made his statement at a cabinet meeting and then ordered it made public.

FIVE DAY FORECAST

The forecast pressure pattern through next Saturday indicates the upper level low pressure trough will migrate farther westward and be positioned over the eastern Pacific ocean. Southwesterly flow will continue to predominate over the Intermountain region with Pacific borne disturbances moving across southern Idaho.

Temperatures under the influence of this pattern will average two to four degrees above normal during this five-day period. Maximum temperatures will tend to range near to slightly below normal but will be offset by minimums averaging above normal. Little warmer Tuesday, cooler again by Thursday followed by minor warming Friday and Saturday. Temperature normals for this period are Gooding 74 and 40; Twin Falls, 76 and 40, and Burley, 74 and 40.

Additional shower activity can be expected over agricultural valleys again toward the end of the week. Rainfall amounts will average .10 to .25 of an inch with extreme eastern valleys tending to be on the heavier side of this precipitation range.

Sunshine will total about 60 per cent of possible with variable daytime cloudiness averaging three- to five-tenths coverage. Winds will average near normal with some increase in speeds noted during the latter portion of the week.

AGRICULTURAL SUMMARY

The immediate outlook calls for improving weather conditions during the next 24 hours as rising pressures coupled with drier more stable air will dominate the area into Wednesday. A weak Pacific disturbance will cross the region late Wednesday bringing some cloudiness and minor cooling but only a few widely scattered showers. Toward the end of the week and probably into the week-end a more vigorous Pacific disturbance will bring additional cloudiness and scattered showers to agricultural valleys. Afternoon temperatures will range in the 60's and 70's today and tomorrow and nighttime readings will hold in the 40's over most sections but will dip into the 30's with a chance for scattered light frost over Camas prairie.

The agricultural weather outlook this week is not very favorable as from all present indications the improvement in drying conditions will be of short duration and will not allow sufficient drying time for threshing by week-end. Prospects are dim for any change to prolonged fair dry weather. Weather will continue favorable for fall seed emergence and growth, also good for beets and potatoes.

TEMPERATURE AND PRECIPITATION

Weather at 8 a.m. CST; Highest temperature Sunday, lowest temperature last 12 hours, precipitation for 24 hours ending at 8 a.m. CST.

Smylie Digs

Church, in his speech, let loose a sharp attack against Sen. Barry Goldwater, R., Ariz., and his conservative views.

"Senator Church's speech was in the great tradition of his keynote address at the last Democratic convention," said Smylie.

Smylie said he noted with interest that the conference "failed to excoriate the Young Democratic conference in San Francisco. The Democrats do this well individually but not in concert."

Smylie described the emphasis of conference speakers on what they termed the influence of the right-wing in the Republican party as "in large part contrived witch hunting, designed to take the emphasis off the resolutions adopted by the Young Democrats in San Francisco."

Some of the resolutions have been repudiated by Democrats including President Kennedy. Among them were proposals to revive diplomatic relations with Cuba and admit China to United Nations membership.

"I think it could be said with very considerable force and effect," said Smylie, "that the President will find nothing of importance in the field of reclamation and conservation that was not started by the Eisenhower administration, that the Kennedy record in conservation and reclamation is noteworthy for nothing but its lack of effectiveness."

Indian Issue Tackled by Gov. Smylie

BOISE, Sept. 23 (AP)—A call for cooperation between Indian and non-Indian leaders in a concerted effort to fully develop the resources of the American Indian was voiced today by Gov. Robert E. Smylie.

In his keynote address at the opening of the Governors' Interstate Indian council's 16th annual convention here Smylie declared that a time of "fateful decision" in the effort to remedy "old wrongs inflicted upon Indians is at hand."

More than 40 delegates representing 20 states with Indian inhabitants are attending the three-day meeting. They will seek solutions to problems of Indian welfare, education, health, employment and relations with state and federal government.

Resolutions adopted by the conference at final sessions Wednesday will be passed on to the National Governor's conference for action.

Hearing Urged

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (AP)—Sen. Kenneth B. Keating says an on-the-spot hearing in Birmingham, Ala., scene of 21 racial bombings in recent years—would help convert "the doubting Thomases" in the senate of the urgency for civil rights legislation.

The New York Republican said Sunday that such a hearing should be made with "proper precautions" and "in good faith" by the senate judiciary committee or its constitutional rights subcommittee.

Youth Saved From Perch On High Cliff

AUGUSTA, Mont., Sept. 23 (AP)—A 10-year-old boy stranded on a narrow ledge of a 1,000-foot cliff in the Sun river canyon was carried to safety early today on a 150-foot wooden ladder built during the night.

The boy, Bruce Krummel, Great Falls, was reported in good shape.

Mrs. Glenn Roberts of the Sun Canyon lodge, about a half mile from the base of the cliff on which Bruce was stranded Sunday morning, said the boy was carried down by A. R. Bender, an Augusta carpenter who directed building of the ladder.

Searching persons at the base of the cliff reported Bruce was "chattering like a magpie." He apparently did not suffer from the cold nor rain which fell earlier during the night.

REFRESHING HIS memory is Karl Patrick, who will serve as guide on the final outing for the Twin Falls Historical society. Patrick is reading a book on the 71 association which deals with much of the background of the Three Creek area. Patrick is a charter member of the association. (Times-News photo)

Final Outing for History Group Set at Three Creek

Karl D. Patrick will serve as guide and leader for the final outing of the Twin Falls Historical society for the 1963 season.

Members making the trip are asked to meet at 8 a.m. Sept. 29 at the city park, said Helen Porterfield, society secretary. From Twin Falls the group will journey to Rogerson where they will pick up society members from the west end of the county.

Warm clothing is advised and each person making the trip is responsible for his own picnic lunch and transportation.

Patrick will show the members of the society the Three Creek area and talk about early day settlers in that area. He moved to Three Creek in 1892 from Kentucky, as a 6-year-old youth.

Patrick has spent nearly all his life working on or operating a ranch in that area. He is one of the few surviving charter members of the 71 association. He received his schooling at the old Three Creek school where his mother served as teacher for two terms.

Transportation in those early days was quite a problem, claims Patrick. Most of the people at Three Creek purchased their necessities in Mountain Home. The settlers would travel westward to the east side of Bruneau canyon and follow it northward to Loveridge ferry on the Snake river. As Oakley and Rock Creek prospered, they journeyed to these towns to trade.

A trip to town usually took a week. Patrick recalls that he and his brother once traveled to Rock Creek and used three wagons to haul back supplies. At that time there was a wooden bridge across Salmon Falls creek, a few hundred yards upstream from the present dam. The bridge was condemned and crossing it always presented a difficult problem.

While the dam was under construction a cable bridge was strung across the canyon and Patrick noted he once moved a herd of horses over the bridge. The bridge jumped and swayed considerably, and for a time he thought he might lose the entire herd.

The area around Three Creek hasn't changed much claims Patrick. The land used for ranching is about the same. In the past, most of the ranches were 160 acres. As people would leave, another rancher in the area would buy the land and today the controlling interests in the area are run by a few who stayed with the land.

Patrick since has retired and resides at 1052 Granada drive. His son now operates the ranch at Three Creek.

Accident Causes $1,200 Damages To Milk Truck

BUHL, Sept. 23—Some $1,200 in damages resulted to a 1957 International Metro milk truck and its dairy cargo when the driver, Denell E. Gold, 20, Buhl, lost control of the truck and it slid off the highway, landing on its top, at 3:50 p.m. Friday two and one-half miles east of Castleford on a county road.

State Patrolman Richard Burns, noted the left front tire went flat, causing the truck to slide on the wet highway. The truck is owned by Watsons Dairy, Buhl.

Revolutionary Rockets Readied For New Tests

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla., Sept. 23 (AP)—Two revolutionary upper stage rockets which burn high-energy liquid hydrogen are being groomed for test flights vital to manned and unmanned space programs.

They are the S-4, second stage of the Saturn super-booster, and the Centaur, second stage of an Atlas-Centaur vehicle.

Difficulties in harnessing frigid liquid hydrogen have delayed development of both rockets, causing slippage in several key projects, principally unmanned moon probes. Officials of the national aeronautics and space administration are confident that laboratory and ground firing tests have solved the problems.

Auspicious Start

Idaho's hunting season has gotten off to a fine start. Already, hunters have been shot because someone thought they were animals and the big game season has barely started. What will happen when hunting is in full swing all over the state is anyone's guess.

In one of the first hunting fatalities, both hunter and victim violated basic rules. It's apparent the hunter did not make certain of his intended target. And for his part, the victim made the serious mistake of not wearing bright red or yellow clothing. He paid dearly for his choice of a faded olive-colored shirt.

Idaho county Sheriff Gene Fuzzell gets in on the ground floor with his statement: "The shooting was an accident and no action will be taken as far as I'm concerned." He added he still didn't know the name of the hunter who fired the fatal shot.

Whatever happened to that Idaho law which specified manslaughter charges were mandatory in any hunting death?

Until Idahoans come to the point of admitting to themselves there is little resemblance between a man and a game animal, hunters will continue to shoot each other. Until Idaho reaches the point of holding hunters responsible for their actions, the state will have a hunting fatality list every autumn. How many more must die before Idahoans insist on laws with teeth so sharp that all hunters will know precisely what they are shooting at?

No hunter should be permitted in the field if he's going to shoot in the direction of sounds or if he insists on taking snap shots at some object that moves but can't be identified. And no hunter should be allowed to endanger himself by wearing drab-colored clothing. After all, nearly all animals are color blind.

In the absence of compulsion, each hunter should take what steps he deems necessary to protect his own life and avoid any tragedy.

COOL COLD WAR

The world can relax and forget about the tensions that resulted in coining the term "cold war." Regardless of the reasons, the cold war has cooled off to the point where it can be forgotten, for the present, at any rate. The change in relations between the United States and Russia was spelled out carefully on successive days in friendly talks before the United Nations general assembly by Andrei A. Gromyko and President John F. Kennedy.

Yet no one in the free world should imagine the cold war is over and all humans on Earth can face an indefinite period of peace and good will. There has been no change in communist philosophies or goals. The communists still intend to control the globe eventually. Also, there has been no change in the communists themselves, which is most important.

In the first place, everyone knows about what has been called a split between communists in China and Russia. It's going to be a strong factor in the outlook and action of the Russians for the present, at least. Until the Russians either mend the break or figure out how to eliminate the Chinese Reds, they don't want to divide their attention. Then there's the matter of U.S. senate ratification of the nuclear test ban treaty. The senate has been moving toward approval and the Russians weren't about to do anything to rock the boat.

Anyone who places a good deal of faith in the treaty should examine once more the Russian record of breaking treaties at their convenience. It's crystal clear Americans will feel bound by the treaty, but Russians will honor the pact only so long as it suits their purposes.

Here are the principal reasons behind the sudden cooling in the cold war. It's inescapable that the change results because it suits current strategy of the Russians.

It's frustrating to realize the initiative remains again with Russia, U. S. moves being restricted to reaction after the communists kick American shins. Such has been the situation constantly in international events involving the two countries, except for a brief span in the Cuban crisis when the U.S. moved toward mobilization.

The hopes voiced by President Kennedy for peaceful competition and joint exploration of space must be shared by many Americans. Yet until Russia demonstrates her intentions by more than words, American hopes can be nothing more. Always, this nation and her allies must be alert to deceit which has been the very cornerstone of Russian attitude to others.

Let's hope, but try not to be too naive.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

By ANDREW TULLY

Andrew Tully

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 — Ivory towers cost money, too, and the house has just done the taxpayer a favor by voting an investigation of the federal government's research program, for which the Kennedy administration has budgeted 14.9 billion dollars this year.

It is common these days to speak casually of a billion dollars, but even so 14.9 billion is a lot of money. For one thing, it is just over 15 per cent of the total federal budget of 98 billion-plus. It is equal to the cash value of a year's farm crops, and it is more than Uncle Sam spends on the state department, central intelligence agency and foreign aid combined. It is also badly needed.

WHAT'S WASTED — But merely because the national interest requires such a monumental program does not mean that we should just toss the thinkers 14.9 billion and forget about it. Any time any group of men spends more than $100 they are bound to misplace a dollar or two, and it is not carping to suggest that perhaps our researchers are wasting or spending needlessly several million dollars a year.

This is what the house is interested in finding out. Uncle Sam is now spending 200 times what he spent on research in 1940, and the research budget has jumped from 2 billion to the present figure in only 10 years. It is obvious that there is room for waste when 12 departments and 24 agencies of the government have their fingers in the research program, if only because such involvement entails the creation of new jobs.

11 IN ONE FIELD — Although our thinkers should be permitted to think without worrying too much about costs and time studies, the taxpayer has a right to be suspicious of possible duplication. For example, 11 agencies are now engaged in research programs in health and medicine. There just has to be some boondoggling in that kind of a setup.

Rep. Carl Elliott, D., Ala., who sponsored the investigation, put it in simple terms. "I would think that in any 14 billion dollar enterprise, wasteful overlapping and just plain needless duplication is bound to occur," he said. "I would mistrust any claim to the contrary because this is the nature of all human endeavors." He might have added that when a man is spending the taxpayers' money he is likely to be ever more free wheeling about it.

ACCOUNTING—ORDERED — But aside from its penny-pinching aspects, the house investigation gets to the point of representative government. This is that congress must manage somehow to maintain control over the operations and expenditures of the mushrooming scientific complex in government. Even at the risk of hampering research, the nation can't let its scientists go their way without at least financial scrutiny. The researcher can always justify spending another billion dollars, from his own scientific viewpoint, but his plans don't always coincide with the national interest.

There would have been no atomic bomb without government-sponsored research, and no polio vaccine. Cancer research has saved the lives of thousands of victims. Only a myopic idiot would take Uncle Sam out of the business of trying to find out why things happen and what can be done about it. But by a unanimous 336-to-0 vote, the house has decided to demand a financial accounting from the thinkers. With 14.9 billion dollars in the kitty, nobody should kick about that.

Views of Others

POTATO LABEL VITAL

The "point of origin" legislation now before congress can become the most vital pieces of federal law ever enacted for Idaho's fresh potato industry.

How it will fare with congressional delegations from other potato producing states, however, is the key question.

The law would require all potato containers in interstate commerce to carry a point of origin label.

The law is invaluable to Idaho which must maintain its quality image to compete in a national market so covetous of that image that it consistently sells potatoes from other states under the guise of Idaho Russets. The fact that more and more potato areas are producing Russet varieties make it all the more important for Idaho to maintain her quality identity. If the re-packers do not actually label cheaper potatoes of other states as from Idaho when they label the containers, they at least sell Russets from other areas as "Idaho's" by inference. The housewife has not yet caught up to the fact that the Russet is not an exclusive trademark for Idaho.

Some of the other potato producing states have a certain pride n their own product as well and are reported interested in the origin labeling legislation. But whether there are enough of these is the question. States who have been capitalizing on Idaho's traditional quality advertising campaign may like the status quo.

The legislation is entirely sensible. It merely seeks to avoid misrepresentation of a product moving in the channels of free trade by identifying it. It is not strictly one state legislation . . . although its opponents may contrive to demonstrate that it is.

One problem which has already been raised is the interpretation of the bill's language which would permit a re-packer to avoid point of origin labeling if "it is sold on the premises." Inasmuch as much of the re-packer trade is sold in this manner, this would render the law useless. It is hoped that this loophole will be plugged as the bill is considered.

The fact that Idaho may be moving to individual stamping of potatoes by stamping machines at potato packing houses does not detract from need of the new federal law. Idaho stamped potatoes will not prevent a repacker from selling unidentified Russet varieties from other states as Idaho potatoes by inference.

Sen. Frank Church has been forwarding the law in the Senate and Reps. Compton White and Ralph Harding have been pushing the bill in the house. All of Idaho should hope that enough in the congress join with them in the passage of this bill.—Idaho Falls Post-Register.

DON'T JUST SIT THERE

Seat belts will be standard equipment on most new cars produced in the United States next year . . . Seat belt laws will be in effect in a number of the largest states by next January . . .

We're not wild about the compulsive angle, but we are strong for seat belts. They have already proved they can save lives . . .

The problem now becomes one of education. Any business that has installed seat belts in its company cars can testify that they are more sat-upon than used. This makes about as much sense as Russian roulette.

So the message for the new era of motoring is simple. When you find a seat belt in the car, don't just sit there. Fasten it.—Tulsa Tribune.

PEACE PEACE

Cuba's Fidel Castro relieved himself of the following remarks at a French embassy reception recently:

"I want peace as everyone does. I am for peaceful coexistence and I do not think there is a person in this world who wants to die in a nuclear holocaust. The American people want peace, the Russian people want peace, and we want peace. Who does not want peace?"

Obviously, some people don't want peace, including the person who raised the question.—Burlington, Vt., Free Press.

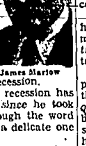
GENTLEMAN IN THE FOURTH ROW

Interpreting the News

By JAMES MARLOW
(Associated Press News Analyst)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (AP)— President Kennedy has had to feel his way toward the 11-billion-dollar tax cut he asked the people to support the other night.

His argument can be put this way:



James Marlow

Taxes are too high and have been for years. If they're cut, people and corporations will have more money to spend. This, by pepping up the economy, will be insurance against another recession.

Concern about a recession has been on his mind since he took office in 1961 although the word "recession" can be a delicate one with presidents.

President Eisenhower on Jan. 18, 1961 — two days before he turned over the White House to Kennedy — told congress in his economic report that there had been a "decline" in the economy.

Kennedy went a lot stronger than that 11 days later. In his state of the union message to congress on Jan. 29, 1961, Kennedy said: "We take office in the wake of seven months of recession, three and a half years of slack."

He pointed back to the recession of 1958—which Eisenhower at the time had also called a recession—and said this country's recovery from that one was incomplete.

By the end of June, 1961, after he had been in office six months, he reported the United States "had emerged from the recession." But fear of another one was high in his mind, as he showed later.

He referred the other night, as he had before, to four recessions since the war: 1948-49; 1953-54; 1958-59, and 1960-61. He said high tax rates had helped cause the last two recessions.

In his first year Kennedy proposed various measures to bolster the economy but by 1962 he had definitely settled on a tax-cut as a program to pursue, although in the beginning he only inched up to the problem.

In his budget message in January, 1962, Kennedy didn't ask for a direct tax cut but suggested congress give him stand-by authority to cut taxes if the economy began to show sickness.

Later in the year he went further and talked of wanting congress to cut taxes across the board for individuals and corporations in 1963, a cut applying to 1963 income. This didn't get anywhere.

But, starting out this year, he made the across-the-board tax cut his major program for 1963. It eventually became apparent, as this tardy congress dawdled along, that even if it approved a cut it wouldn't apply to 1963 income.

Then he got over his first big hurdle when the house ways and means committee, which handles tax matters, approved 17 to 8 a tax cut of 11 billion dollars.

Fifteen Democrats and two Republicans teamed up to approve the measure over the opposition of eight Republicans. Approval by this committee was a necessary preliminary before the full house could get a chance to vote on it.

The full house tackles it this week. And Kennedy used some of his television time to take a swipe at foes of the bill, mostly Republicans. Republicans quickly announced they will demand equal television time to answer.

But even if the house gives Kennedy the tax cut he wants, there can't be any tax reduction unless the senate also approves and it may be weeks before a senate committee even begins hearings, and more weeks before there can be a full vote on the bill in the senate, if it ever gets there.

In his economic report last January, Kennedy said in the 1948-49 and 1953-54 recessions a tax cut had helped check the decline and spur recovery.

Congress cut taxes 4.7 billion dollars in 1948, just before the full impact of the recession was felt. The upturn began in October, 1949.

In the 1953-54 recession individual, corporate and excise tax reductions cost the government, Kennedy figured, about 7.4 billion in revenue. That recession ended in August, 1954.

But Kennedy said it might have ended sooner if the cuts had been made sooner. There's no recession in sight now. Kennedy takes the position a tax cut before there is a recession will help avoid it.

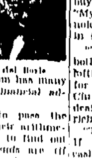
The main protest of his opponents is that it's poor economy to reduce government revenue, through a tax cut, when government spending is outdistancing government income.

Poor Man's Plato

BY HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK, Sept. 23 (AP)—The average business office today is a pawnshop without the usual gilt three-ball sign.

"Neither a borrower nor a lender be," wrote Shakespeare, a bit of advice from the bard that is honored more in neglect than in observance.



Hal Boyle

Employes of most firms spend at least part of the working day borrowing from each other, and the custom has many social as well as financial advantages.

It helps them to pass the time, it improves their arithmetic, it enables them to find out who their real friends are (if any), and it keeps alive some wastrels who might otherwise starve between paydays.

While office borrowing isn't universal, it is practically so. A crisp new $5 bill, loaned to one person in the morning, may travel briefly through half a dozen pockets before nightfall — as it is borrowed and reborrowed. Sometimes it even winds up in the same pocket from which its journey started.

If you look around your own office, you may find the following types of white collar borrowers familiar:

"The competitor" If he sees you lend $3 to someone, he immediately asks you for $5 because he can't stand to see anybody else get ahead of him at anything.

"The tragedian" Before he makes his touch, he breaks your heart with a tale of woe. "All I want is carfare and enough to buy one red rose," he weeps. "My daughter is having her adenoids out, and I want to visit her in the hospital."

"The grand evader" "Don't bother me with trifles," he says loftily when you ask him humbly for the $25 he has owed you since Christmas. "I'm working on a deal now that'll make us both rich."

"The compulsive wheedler" If you don't have any ready cash, he'll borrow anything else you have. It's a matter of pride with this guy never to go away empty handed.

"The hypochondriac" You can keep your money. It's your medicine this fellow wants.

"The pyramid artist" On payday he pays you the $5 he borrowed, and the next day he borrows $10. He keeps building up his debt this way until, when he is fired at the end of the year, he leaves with you holding the sack for $10.

COVERING THE CAPITAL WITH PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (NEA) — Any idea that "right wing" movements in the United States are not increasing is challenged by a new directory which contains 1,154 previously unlisted conservative organizations.

Peter Edson

They are found in a yellow-backed, 20-page supplement to the "First National Directory of Rightist's Groups, Publications and Some Individuals in the United States."

The fourth edition of the directory in 1962 contained 2,066 listings. But assuming that each group or leader has 1,000 followers, there still would be only a few more than three million adherents of the new total of 3,220 conservative causes listed in the new book.

Compiler of these directories is the Alert Americans Association. It is a somewhat shadowy organization operating from P.O. Box 1222, Los Angeles 53, Calif.

Letters of inquiry to this address are not answered. But orders for the original directory and the new supplement at $2 each are filled by the Noontide Press, P.O. Box 713, Sausalito, Calif. Stephen Worcester Goodyear, one-time associate of Gerald L. K. Smith, has been identified with both enterprises.

An unsigned, penned note on the supplement copy sent this reporter, answering his query, says that the directory is "published for and by right wingers."

It is widely used by organizations soliciting from or propagandizing conservative causes since it is the only mailing list of its kind available today.

Many of the listings unquestionably come from organizations that have ordered the directory or have asked to be included.

"The single thing in common with these listings," says a foreword to the new supplement, "is that they all represent a protest of some sort to prevailing 'leftist' political and/or social trends.

"For this reason and this reason alone, they are objectively grouped in this volume as 'rightists.' But it must be constantly borne in mind that points of disagreement are virtually as common as points of agreement."

As in the original directory, the range of interests revealed by names listed in the new supplement is extremely wide.

The organization with the largest number of listings is the 72 branches of the National Committee for Economic Freedom. This is Willis Stone's income tax repeal organization.

Although no John Birch society chapters are listed, nine of their affiliated American Opinion Libraries are given.

Thirty newspapers and five colleges are listed.

More than 60 churches are listed. At least 10 are identified as "Bible Presbyterian," which would connect them with the Rev. Carl McIntire's American Council of Christian Churches.

There are five Baptist, two Catholic, three Methodist, three Church of God and other individual denominational listings.

"Christian" is the first word of 24 listings. Nineteen begin with "Freedom" and 15 with "Conservative."

There are 15 "Committees to —" Oppose Communist Merchandise, Investigate the State Department, Free Cuba, Organize Opposition to Negro Statutes, and Save America, etc.

Four Goldwater clubs are listed, but none for Rockefeller. There are 12 "Republican" organizations listed, but no group is identified as "Democratic." The "Republican Congressional Committee Newsletter" of Washington is listed.

The only other congressional listing is Rep. James B. Utt, R., Calif., for his "Washington Report." The original directory listed 100 Republican and 71 Democratic congressmen. A number of them were defeated in the 1962 elections. The first-term congressmen elected then have not been classified.

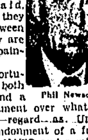
Among the many intriguing listings are "The John Q. Society" of Memphis; "Gentiles, Inc. for Technocracy" of Oakland, Calif.; "United Better Dead Than Red" of Astoria, N.Y.; "Non-Communist Headquarters" of Odessa, Tex., and "Why, Why, Why?" of Port Angeles, Wash.

Among the 20 newly listed prominent individuals are Maj. Alex de Seversky, Charles Edison, Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker, Edith Kermit Roosevelt and Gen. Edwin A. Walker.

World Corners

BY PHIL NEWSOM
(UPI Foreign News Analyst)

LISBON, Portugal, Sept. 23— In Portugal's marbled parliament building — which began as an 18th century convent—a high government official sighed with regret.



Phil Newsom

"Differences between governments are always unfortunate," he said, "but when they come between friends they are especially painful."

For in Portugal there is both a regret and a deep resentment over what the Portuguese regard as United States' abandonment of a friend and ally in NATO and a misunderstanding of Portugal's determination to retain its overseas territories in Africa.

Portugal, traditionally aloof from European commitments, joined NATO in 1949 and announced it did so only because of U.S. participation.

In 1951, Portugal signed a common defense pact with the United States and gave the U.S. free use of an airfield on Santa Maria island in the Azores.

Also in 1951, because of her own economic recovery, Portugal refused further U.S. Marshall plan aid and has gone on her own ever since.

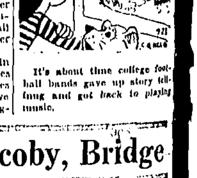
It came as a shock then in 1962 when the United States joined the Afro-Asian countries in demanding that Portugal give up her grip on Angola, her largest and most prosperous province in Africa, and permit self-determination.

Portuguese officials freely admit that Portugal's current refusal to sign a new agreement on the Azores base springs from U.S. and Portuguese differences over Africa.

And Portuguese-U.S. relations plunged to a new low in August when Premier Antonio de Oliveira Salazar accused both the United States and Russia of pressing African liberation for their own individual advantage in control of African markets.

In the United Nations, Salazar charged, self-determination had become synonymous with independence regardless of a people's ability to rule themselves.

And in Lisbon there is a conviction that if independence were to come now to Angola, it would fly into tribal pieces, with the whole rich area up for grabs.



It's about time college football bands gave up story telling and got back to playing music.

JTB NOT USED AFTER OVERCALL

The Jacoby Transfer Bid (JTB) is used only after opening bids in no-trump. There is no reason to use it after a no-trump overcall. In fact, there are several good reasons why it should not be used after an overcall.

Furthermore, if your partner opens one no-trump and second hand doubles or makes any bid you should either abandon the JTB entirely or move it to the four level. If you do move it to the four level be sure that your partner will recognize it. It is disastrous to bid four hearts with a nice seven card spade suit when your partner forgets and passes.

Opening lead—♣ 10

Today's hand shows why you don't want to use the transfer bid when the opening no-trump bid is doubled. South is looking at one jack and wants to find the nearest exit when East doubles his partner's no-trump.

South bids two diamonds and while East and West would like to do something, they can't muster the courage so South buys the hand.

He also manages to make it. He has to lose two trump tricks and one trick each in hearts and clubs. There are two potential spade losers also, but South takes care of that by finessing successfully against West's jack, losing but one.

Incidentally, had East mustered enough gumption to bid three clubs he would be set. South should elect to open a heart.

You, South, hold:
♠A K 5 4 ♥J 2 ♦Q J 8 4 ♣A Q

What do you do?

A—Bid three no-trump. You have a maximum no-trump but only two hearts.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Your partner continues with four diamonds. What do you do now?

Canada Chief Defends Red Wheat Deal

NEW YORK, Sept. 23 (UPI)—Canadian Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson, defending his country's 500 million dollar wheat sale to the Soviet Union, said yesterday the deal did not violate any Western agreements.

Pearson also said the shipment of 33 million dollars worth of wheat to Cuba was not inconsistent with the policy of the Western allies. The list of goods prohibited for shipment to Cuban Premier Fidel Castro's regime, he noted, does not include flour and medicines.

"I can assure you that we are not shipping anything to Cuba which is on the Allied prohibited list," Pearson said in an interview.

"The Canadian - Soviet deal probably was a 'one shot' arrangement sought by the Russians to make up for a poor crop in Russia this year, the prime minister said.

"I see no reason why we should not export food to communist countries," he declared. "But I think we are deceiving ourselves if we think we're building permanent trade."

Multi-Nation Crew Eyed For Vessel

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (UPI)—The United States and several European allies are thinking of operating jointly a warship with a crew of mixed nationalities, the state department said today.

The purpose would be to gain experience and begin training crews for a "multi-lateral nuclear force" (MLF) which the United States hopes to set up someday.

The United States, Germany, Italy, Turkey and Greece have been holding talks here to work out a plan for the allied nuclear force.

It eventually would consist of about 25 surface ships, carrying Polaris missiles. They would be manned by international crews and jointly controlled by the participating countries.

But France has rejected the plan. And it has become a major political issue in Britain with the result that London still has not given it an okay.

A state department spokesman said the five countries involved—as a starter—are now considering a plan to begin crew training aboard a naval vessel, probably a destroyer.

Mrs. Kennedy Moves Back to White House Looking Good

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (UPI)—Looking well and rested, Mrs. John F. Kennedy was back at the White House today for the first time since late June.

The first lady returned with the President and her two children from Newport, R. I., where she has been vacationing for the last couple of weeks.

Mrs. Kennedy planned to catch up on some of her White House affairs this week before leaving Oct. 2 for a visit to Greece with her brother-in-law and sister, Prince and Princess Stanislaus Radziwill.

Mrs. Kennedy planned a two-week trip abroad and perhaps longer to continue her convalescence from the premature birth last August of a son, Patrick Bouvier Kennedy, who lived only 39 hours.

The first lady's press secretary, Pamela Turnure, said the President's 34-year-old wife planned a quiet week. The President leaves tomorrow on a week-long western trip.

Mrs. Kennedy has canceled all of her official engagements until the first of the year. However, she plans to make an exception for Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia and will take part in the train station welcoming ceremonies Oct. 1, the day before she leaves for Greece.

Mrs. Kennedy has been golfing, swimming and boating at Newport. Returning to the White House with her were John, Jr., 2½, and Caroline, 5.

Caroline will enter first grade at the White House school on Wednesday. Mrs. Kennedy organized a school for her daughter and about 11 other playmates who also will become first graders.

Russ Slash at China Power Urge

MOSCOW, Sept. 23 (UPI)—The Soviet Union implied today that communist China seeks nuclear weapons for purposes of power politics and intimidation.

Pravda, the Soviet communist party newspaper, said Chinese leadership ... its country ... into a nuclear ...

The editorial ... charges made Saturday ... Soviet attack on Peking. They included accusations that Chinese party chief Mao Tse-tung was willing to write off one-third or one-half of the world's population in a nuclear war ... "the other half ... main but imperialism ... destroyed entirely."

Such aims, Pravda said, ... not be supported by ... power of the socialist camp."

This was seen as another reminder to the Chinese that Moscow no longer feels obligated by the terms of its 1950 military alliance with Peking.

The Communist New China news agency, heard in Tokyo, said today that the U.S. and Soviet delegates showered praise on each other during last week's United Nations session.

It said Peking's bitter enemy, Nationalist China, "made extensive use of the slanders against China and Albania supplied by the central committee of the Soviet communist party."

Gregg said he had no doubts about the presidential candidacy of Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz.

Truck-Auto Crash Kills 3 Persons

NORTH SALT LAKE, Sept. 23 (UP)—An impulse to help a motorist in distress brought death to three people early Sunday morning.

Three others were injured, one critically.

The Utah highway patrol said the chain of deadly circumstances started when R. C. Merrill, Salt Lake City, ran out of gasoline. He was headed toward Salt Lake City on the Davis county freeway, and his car stalled in the righthand lane of the southbound highway.

An auto carrying six other Salt Lake City persons stopped—also in the righthand lane to help him.

Moments later a semi-trailer truck loaded with 20 tons of meat smashed into the stopped cars.

The crash killed Mrs. Katherine Aylsworth, 43, Salt Lake City; a daughter, Marsha, 14, and a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Michael (Lorraine) Aylsworth, 24, also Salt Lake City.

Mrs. Katherine Aylsworth's husband, Lowell P. Aylsworth, 48, was injured critically.

Also injured, but not so seriously, were the couple's two sons, Michael, 21, husband of Mrs. Lorraine Aylsworth, and a son, Dennis, 11.

Neither the truck driver, Kenneth Woodward, 45, Storm Lake, Ia., nor his relief driver, Richard Holtman, 29, Cherokee, Ia., was injured. Merrill also was unhurt.

All three vehicles were knocked about 100 feet. The truck overturned and the Aylsworth car was flipped off the highway.

The accident occurred shortly after 12:15 a.m., near Cudahy lane in the southern part of Davis county.

MARKETS AND FINANCE

Stocks

NEW YORK, Sept. 23 (UPI) — Profit-takers took advantage of the recent runup in prices today and the market closed slightly lower on moderate active trading.

Some issues moved up from their early lows but groups such as electronics, drugs, and metals were particularly hard hit. Brokers attributed at least part of the decline to a cloudy business news background which included another dip in housing starts, uncertainty in the foreign situation and the threat of rising steel imports.

Electronics were the worst hit. Litton, Motorola, Texas Instruments, General Precision, Beckman, Cenco, Electronic Associates, Loral, IBM, and Minneapolis-Honeywell moved lower the last on news its precision meter division has reduced prices on quantity purchases of panel meters.

Steels were easier despite a 3.3 per cent jump in last week's production. Motors were easier. Du Pont improved in the chemicals but Union Carbide and Virginia-Carolina weakened. Pure Oil, Standard Oil (N. J.) and Wilcox drifted lower in the oils.

Xerox showed a sizable gain after unveiling its new desk-top copier aimed at the small office market. Youngstown Sheet declined despite news it expects earnings this year to be the best since 1957.

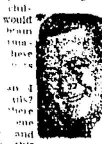
The Daily Investor

By WILLIAM A. DOYLE

Q. [illegible] have mentioned that laws [illegible] been passed in all 50 states [illegible] the District of Columbia [illegible] making it relatively simple [illegible] people to make gifts of stock [illegible] children. I would [illegible] [illegible] to [illegible] have [illegible].

When [illegible] an [illegible] this? [illegible] there [illegible] one [illegible] pamphlet [illegible] and [illegible] this subject which should be of vital interest to [illegible] people?



Doyle

A. You're right on two counts. Many [illegible] always ex[illegible] this [illegible]. At this [illegible] it might be said that people want the information in preparation for the Christmas gift season. But it would probably be more realistic to say that people are becoming more aware of tax situations and want information that may help them.

And there have been a number of things written on this subject. The best I have seen is a booklet called "Gifts of Securities and Money to Minors." It's a guide that gives a good rundown on the rules on this in all states.

You should be able to get a copy of it or some similar pamphlet from [illegible] most any brokerage [illegible].

If you can't [illegible] write to [illegible] the [illegible] Stock Exchange [illegible] Broadway [illegible]. Enclose 25 cents and ask for the booklet [illegible].

[illegible]

Q. For the past four years I have been investing each month in shares of Investors Variable Payment Fund, a mutual fund [illegible] by Investors Diversified Services [illegible] supposed to be a [illegible]. My objective is [illegible].

To date, the dividends have been small, as I expected. But the growth has been nil. What is your opinion of this?

A. I would like to have your definition of nil. My dictionary defines it as nothing. You certainly can't say the Investors Variable Payment Fund has done nothing. It has been wide changes in value [illegible] up and [illegible].

The mutual fund was organized in 1957. At the end of that year its asset value per share (the actual dollars and cents value behind each share) was $3.96. It went up to [illegible] as high as $7.91 late in 1961, when the stock market was flying sky high. It dropped as low as $5.03 after the stock market cracked wide open in May, 1962. Lately, it has climbed back, still over the $7 mark. $7.20 as this goes through the typewriter.

It's not as high as it was late in 1961 and early in 1962. But, except for that period, it is higher than it ever was at any time in its history.

Let's not overlook the fact that lots of mutual funds (and many, many more individual stocks) are still below their 1961 bull market peaks.

Investors Variable Payment Fund's record is a good one. Your letter indicates that you went into this as a long-term investment. Unless you were expecting too much, too soon, it's [illegible] hard to find [illegible] to be unhappy.

(Mr. Doyle will answer only representative letters of general interest in his column. He cannot answer all queries.)

Food for Americans

By GAYNOR MADDOX

Do your children rush off to school without an adequate breakfast? If so, you had better do something about it. A child should get at least one-fourth of his daily nutrition needs at breakfast in order to keep up stamina, avoid midmorning fatigue, and maintain attention.

What is a good breakfast? Many answers. One of fruit or fruit juice (particularly a citrus fruit); cereal, hot or cold, with milk; toast or roll; butter or margarine and a glass of milk is called "the cereal breakfast." It is adequate, easy to get, very inexpensive and gets the O.K. from nutritionists, dietitians, and most young people.

The Iowa Breakfast Blood Sugar Studies proved that a basic cereal-and-milk breakfast, providing about 20 grams of mixed plant and animal protein (cereal and milk) gave quick and lasting energy throughout the early and late morning hours.

The cereal-and-milk serving not only provides quick and lasting energy, but also is a good source of many nutrients.

Karen Evans of Belleville, Ill., a 4-H club high school student, wrote us on the importance of breakfast. "I used to go without breakfast. Around 11 a.m. I felt all gone, especially on test days. Now I know better. So I have juice, cereal and skim milk, toast, butter and jelly. I feel better and my marks have gone up." Her favorite recipe:

OATMEAL CRISP BARS
(8 servings)

4 cups pared, sliced apples
¼ cups granulated sugar
1 tablespoon lemon juice
½ cup sifted all-purpose flour
1 cup rolled oats, uncooked
½ cup brown sugar
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ cup melted butter or margarine

Arrange sliced apples in 10x6x2-inch baking dish. Sprinkle with sugar and lemon juice.

Combine dry ingredients; add melted butter, mixing until crumbly. Sprinkle crumb mixture over fruit. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) 30 minutes, or until fruit is tender. Serve warm or cold, cut in bars, with top milk or cream.

Packers Display Old Power, Drub Detroit by 31-10

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 23 (AP)—The Green Bay Packers, flexing their muscles in a mighty show of power, overwhelmed the Detroit Lions 31-10 with a hard-nosed defense and a swift-striking attack Sunday in a National Football league thriller before a packed crowd of 45,912. Rebounding from a 10-3 upset by the Chicago Bears last week in opening their quest for a third straight league title, the Packers shocked the Lions with a fierce performance that buried the Western division runners-up of the past three years.

The Green Bay defense, aroused by comparisons that its Detroit counterpart is superior, shackled the Lions, surrendering only a third period field goal and a fourth quarter touchdown.

The Packers piled up a 10-0 halftime advantage and widened the margin to 17-3 after three quarters. Then, after Tom Hall made a spectacular catch of a Milt Plum pass for a 23-yard scoring maneuver in the finale, Green Bay struck back quickly.

On the first play after the ensuing kickoff, Tom Moore, the halfback replacement for suspended Paul Hornung, broke through the line, pulled away from two tacklers with a spinning, twisting movement at his 42 and raced 77 yards for a touchdown.

That was enough to insure the triumph, but a few minutes later Bart Starr capped the day with a 39-yard touchdown pass to Max McGee.

Herb Adderley set the Green Bay pattern of the game by taking the opening kickoff and racing 51 yards to the Detroit 42. Six plays later, Jerry Kramer booted a 24-yard field goal.

The Packers marched 49 yards for the second period touchdown. Fullback Jimmy Taylor capped the drive by diving over guard for the score from one yard out.

The Packers' defense held the Lions to a mere 71 yards rushing and a net of 78 in the air. The Packers powered their way to 204 yards on the ground and added 112 overhead.

Moore piled up 122 yards in 17 carries, while Taylor, the bull-like runner who led the league in scoring and ground gaining last year, netted 82 yards in 22 attempts.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 23 (AP)—Bob Veale and Elroy Face combined for a three-hit pitching performance as Pittsburgh defeated Los Angeles 4-0 Sunday and kept the Dodgers from clinching the National league pennant.

The Dodgers were assured of at least a first-place tie when the second-place St. Louis Cardinals were beaten 5-2 at Cincinnati. Now it will take only one Los Angeles victory or one St. Louis defeat to bring the Dodgers their second championship since they moved west in 1958.

Sooners to Meet USC in Big Game

By the Associated Press

Oklahoma's powerful Sooners invade Los Angeles for what could wind up as the football game of the year as they battle the defending national champion Southern California Trojans.

Coach Bud Wilkinson rates his Sooners as Oklahoma's best squad in several seasons and they showed it in crushing Clemson 31-14 last Saturday while John McKay's Trojans beat Colorado 14-0 as quarterback Pete Beathard ran in both touchdowns.

The Big Six conference broke even in the openers, winning three and losing three—one of the latter a 10-7 upset of Washington by the scrappy Air Force Falcons.

Jets Surprise Oilers With 24-17 Upset

NEW YORK, Sept. 23 (AP)—The New York Jets upset the Houston Oilers in their home debut at the Polo grounds Sunday 24-17 with Mark Smolinski, a former Baltimore Colt, scoring the winning touchdown on a four-yard burst after a pass interference call against the Oilers.

An interference call against Tony Banfield on a pass by Dick Wood intended for Don Maynard gave the Jets the ball on Houston's four midway in the final period. Smolinski drove up the middle on the next play.

When Houston threatened in the final minutes, linebacker Jim Price intercepted a George Blanda pass to give the Jets possession.

A crowd of 9,336 turned out to see the Jets, who retained only 13 members of the old New York Titans. It was the first time the New York entry had beaten Houston in 10 attempts, including exhibitions, since the league was organized.

Unitas Is Cited For Great Game

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 23 (AP)—"This was Johnny Unitas' strongest game for us," rookie Coach Don Shula declared Sunday after the Baltimore Colts beat the San Francisco 49ers 20-14.

"Johnny really looked good out there."

Unitas, a longtime Colt star, completed 23 of 44 pass attempts for 288 yards as he directed the winning attack that put Baltimore's National Football League record at 1-1. It was the first league win for Shula who was hired to replace Weeb Ewbank after last season.

Chief Spree In Last Half Ties Buffalo

BUFFALO, N.Y., Sept. 23 (AP)—Len Dawson; unleashed a devastating second-half aerial attack Sunday and enabled the Kansas City Chiefs to earn a 27-27 tie with the Buffalo Bills in an American Football league game.

Dawson completed 25 of 38 passes, but it was his last two that stunned the hometown crowd of 33,487 in War Memorial stadium.

With 40 seconds left in the game Dawson flipped a 19-yard touchdown pass to Chris Burford. They combined later on the same play seconds later for the two points that saved Kansas City from losing.

Buffalo had lost its first two games to San Diego and to Oakland.

Ex-Contenders Meet in Ring

By The Associated Press

Mike DeJohn, Miami, and George Chuvalo, Toronto, a couple of former heavyweight contenders, return to the fistic spotlight this week when they meet in the television fight of the week Friday night at Louisville, Ky.

Chuvalo, former Canadian heavyweight champion, received a pass to the TV payday when lanky Ernie Terrell of Chicago was forced to withdraw from the fight with DeJohn because of an injury.

Neither DeJohn, formerly of Syracuse, N.Y., nor Chuvalo is ranked among the heavyweights' top ten. They have dropped back to the role of "opponent" for youngsters on the rise or contenders looking for a chance to tune up for more important fights.

Steelers Surprise New Yorkers 31-0

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 23 (AP)—Dick Hoak and John Henry Johnson, running like wild deer, and an alert Pittsburgh Steelers' defense combined to throttle the New York Giants 31-0 Sunday in a National Football league game. Two pass interceptions, a fumble ... and a brilliant 82-yard punt return by Brady Keys led to the Steelers' outburst over the defending Eastern division champions.

So air tight was their defense that the Giants made only one bold offensive move and that in the final period to the Steelers' 13 on a 64-yard pass from rookie Glynn Griffing to Frank Gifford.

Without balding Y. A. Tittle, who sustained a bruised chest and bruised ribs in last Sunday's 37-28 victory over the Baltimore Colts, the Giants never got started.

A stout Steelers defense throttled virtually every move by quarterback Ralph Guglielmi, holding the Giants to only two first downs in the first half.

A record crowd of 46,068 at Pitt stadium watched the Steel*ers, who had to settle for* a 21-21 tie with Philadelphia in the opener, take a 10-0 lead at halftime and wrap it up with three touchdowns in the final period. The old Steeler home record was 39,075 in 1954 at Forbes field against Philadelphia.

Hoak scored two touchdowns on a one-yard run in the second period and a two-yard pass from Brown in the final quarter. Lou Michaels' 11-yard field goal after a fumble recovery gave the Steelers a 10-0 bulge.

The other two Steeler fourth quarter touchdowns came on Johnson's one-yard plunge and Brown's 46-yard pass to Buddy Dial.

Johnson, who is improving with age, gained 122 yards in 24 carries. He also caught four passes for 23 yards.

Jimmie Hall and George Banks also homered for the Twins, giving the club 224 for the season — second highest total in major league history. The record is the 240 by the New York Yankees in 1961.

Young Pro Sinks 45-Foot Chip Shot on First Playoff Hole to Win Portland Open

PORTLAND, Sept. 23 (AP)—Slender George Knudson, Toronto, won out in a battle of two young professionals for the $30,000 Portland Open golf tournament championship Sunday in an extra-hole playoff. The 26-year old Knudson, winning his first tournament since 1961, sank a 45-foot chip shot on the first playoff hole for an eagle. At that his shot barely won the prize. The 29 year old Mason Rudolph, chipping from almost the same spot as Knudsen hit the back of the cup with his shot. It bounced a few feet beyond and he had to settle for second prize of $3,000 while Knudsen carried away $4,300.

It was another in a series of disappointments for the steady Rudolph. Seldom out of the money, he has failed to win a tournament since he did it in his freshman professional year of 1959.

Rudolph, who represents Lehigh Acres, Fla., had his worst round of the four-day tournament. He started Sunday 16 strokes under par and four strokes ahead of Knudson. He picked up four birdies on his final round, but also got three bogeys and finished with 69-64-67-71—271, which was 17 under par on the Columbia-Edgewater course where par is 36-36—72.

Meanwhile the eager Knudson was picking up five birdies. He did not slip over par on any hole and finished with 69-67-68-67—271.

On the playoff hole he was trying to chip the ball in close enough for one putt and a birdie. Then it dropped.

"I couldn't believe it. I was absolutely stunned," said Knudson. It was only his mind that was stunned. His body reacted with a leaping lope onto the green to pick the ball out of the cup. A crowd of 4,000 exulted with him.

Later he said he had been chipping and putting about as well as he can this week. He was pleased but sorry that it came in a week when Rudolph also was playing well enough to win.

"He hasn't won in such a long time, but should have," said Knudson. Rudolph, who seldom is out of the money, smiled wryly and walked back to the clubhouse.

Third prize went to Dave Hill, Evergreen, Colo., with rounds of 70-66-69-68—273, which was worth $2,000.

Three deadlocked for fourth prize and shared $1,533 each. They are Dave Marr of New Rochelle, N. Y., Gardner Dickinson, jr., of Atlantis, Fla., and Mike Souchak, Grossinger, N. Y., at 274.

Browns' Brown Gains 232 Yards at Dallas

DALLAS, Sept. 23, (AP)—Jimmy Brown ran for 232 yards, including touchdown dashes of 71 and 62 yards, and Frank Ryan passed for two touchdowns while scoring one Sunday as the Cleveland Browns smashed the Dallas Cowboys 41-24. Brown was getting revenge for his worst showing yet—his 29 yards against Dallas last year when the Cowboys beat the Browns.

Dallas was in the game until the final minutes although the Cowboys never could go ahead even in the early part of the activity. At one time, the Cowboys were tied at 7-7.

A crowd of 28,710 watched Brown run over and around the Cowboys and Ryan pick the Dallas pass defense to pieces. He passed 17 yards and six yards to Gary Collins for scores and when he couldn't make it throwing he ran seven yards for another.

The great Lou Groza, pro football's mightiest scorer, kicked field goals of 32 and 15 yards and booted four extra points for a total of 10 points for the day.

Don Perkins was the big man in the Dallas offense. He scored touchdowns on runs of 19 and two yards and his running set up a touchdown. Perkins gained 95 yards on 22 carries.

Lee Roy Jordan intercepted a Ryan pass to set up a field goal made by Sam Baker with a 13-yard boot.

Ryan completed 11 of 18 passes for 183 yards. He had two intercepted, one by Jordan and one by Warren Livingston that halted what looked like a certain Cleveland scoring drive.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 23 (AP)—The Washington Senators, pushovers for Baltimore all season, scored three runs in the eighth inning of their final meeting and defeated the Orioles 4-2 in the second game of their Sunday doubleheader.

Baltimore won the opener 6-3 and clinched fourth place in the American league as rookie Sam Bowens knocked in three runs for the second game in a row.

McCovey connected in the first and second innings, each time with a man on, and again in the fourth with the bases empty. The big slugger was hit by a pitch on his next trip and grounded out in his final at bat.

Moore Reaches Stardom Status

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 23 (AP)—Green Bay halfback Tom Moore's apprentice days are ended. No longer an understudy, the former Vanderbilt flash is bedding for National Football league stardom as a replacement for suspended Paul Hornung.

Moore, the Packers' top draft choice in 1960, scored twice on jaunts of 15 and 77 yards Sunday as the defending NFL champions rebounded from an upset by the Chicago Bears and belted the Detroit Lions 31-10 before a sellout 45,912 at County Stadium.

Although forced to share the spotlight with Green Bay's mighty defense, Moore proved convincingly that he learned his lessons well in three years as a part-time performer behind Hornung, "The Golden Boy" suspended indefinitely for betting on league games.

Boston Snaps Oakland Win Skein at Two

OAKLAND, Calif., Sept. 23 (AP)—A rugged Boston Patriot defense pressured Oakland passers all afternoon Sunday and snapped the Raiders' two-game American Football league win streak, 20-14.

The Patriots built a 17-0 halftime lead, got a field goal in the third quarter and held on in the face of a 14-point Raider fourth-quarter rally. It was the second Patriot victory in three starts.

Resreve Raider quarterback Tom Flores threw both Oakland touchdowns, hitting Art Powell in the end zone from 33 yards out and Bo Robertson on a 52-yard score.

Boston's scores came on a 55-yard Babe Parilli to Billy Lott pass hookup in the first quarter and a three-yard plunge by fullback Larry Garron in the second period.

Gino Cappelletti, the leagues' top scorer in 1961, booted field goals of 43 and 47 yards for Boston.

Oakland had one last attempt with 1½ minutes remaining, but Boston middle linebacker Nick Buoniconti grabbed his second interception of the day to thwart the Oakland hopes.

Colts Rally To Defeat Winless 49ers

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 23 (AP)—Former 49er J. W. Lockett contributed a key play on the winning touchdown drive for Baltimore Sunday as the Colts beat winless San Francisco 20-14 in their National Football league game.

Trailing 14-10, the Colts went on the march late in the third period in an advance that appeared thwarted when quarterback Johnny Unitas was trapped behind his line at the Baltimore 40.

Reacting fast, he slipped the ball to Lockett for a gain to the San Francisco 20, keeping the march alive. Unitas finished off with a two-yard touchdown pass to Jimmy Orr.

With three and one-half minutes to go, Jim Martin booted a 30-yard field goal, his second three-pointer of the afternoon. His six points represented the margin of victory.

Childress and Cardinals Rip Eagles 28-24

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 23 (AP)—Jolting Joe Childress ripped for long yardage on the ground, opening up the defense for quarterback Charley Johnson's three touchdown passes as the St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Philadelphia Eagles 28-24, for their second victory of the young National Football league season.

St. Louis trailed most of the afternoon, scoring the winning touchdown on a 16-yard pass from Johnson to Sonny Randle with five minutes left to play.

The Cardinals' winning series resulted from a tremendous rush by linebacker Marion Rushing on punter King Hill of the Eagles. The pressured Hill sliced a kick six yards that gave St. Louis the ball on the Philadelphia 41. It took Johnson just five plays to engineer the payoff touchdown drive.

In additions to his winning pitch to Randle, Johnson tossed six pointers to Bobby Joe Conrad and another to Randle.

Two Runs in Ninth Gives Houston Win

HOUSTON, Sept. 23 (AP)—Houston scored twice in the ninth with Joe Morgan's single giving the winning run to beat Philadelphia 2-1.

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

by STELLA

MONDAY, Sept. 23—Born today, you have a bearing that inspires confidence, and at the same time you are possessed of such charm that you never appear aloof or unapproachable. When you direct an enterprise, those working with you know it will end successfully. If, by some remote chance, it fails, they know that it was not your fault. But they may be wrong. Fool others if you must, but do not fool yourself!

You have a capacity for deep emotional feeling, but it is apt to be well hidden during your youth. Indeed, you may well be known as something of a flirt in your early years. Eventually, however, you will settle down to marriage and the feelings you have kept stored away will be allowed to emerge. It is better, however, that your mate be warned that this may take time!

You women born on this date have a flair for dress and a dramatic sense for decoration. You men, too, have this flair—but enlarged and hardened to masculine proportions. It is something that could aid you in your work more than you know.

Among those born on this date are: Euripides, Athenian dramatist-poet; Walter Pidgeon, actor; Walter Lippmann, columnist and author.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday star and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Tuesday, Sept. 24

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)—A good business day, especially if you are building or settling into a new home. You can break even! Yes, that is a good business day!

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)—A day when your integrity means more than material gain. If you suspect it may not, then better stay out of the running.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)—Discuss matters as you please—even argue if you wish—with members of your own sex. But steer clear of opposites!

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23-Jan. 20)—If your initial plans are sound, special efforts should be rewarded. Seek outside aid on difficult issues.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 20)—Avoid trading confidences with a stranger; you may be getting the worst of the bargain if you spill the beans!

PISCES (Feb. 21-March 20)—Your emotions vented to just the right degree, could stimulate you to beneficial activity.

ARIES (March 21-April 20)—Gains increase through each phase of professional interest. A good day for the elderly, particularly concerning health.

TAURUS (April 21-May 21)—Wisdom and thrift are partners in success today. If the need for an explanation of activities arises, be diplomatic.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)—Morning hours bring best business results. Use the afternoon for planning.

CANCER (July 22-July 23)—Not a day in which to find much pleasure in being alone. Share both good and bad news with one who understands your basic nature.

LEO (July 24-Aug. 23)—You could seriously hamper your progress by not thinking through your next move. As you prepare, so you succeed.

VIRGO (Aug. 24-Sept. 23)—Best not to push your own point of view too strenuously. You risk argument and the loss of a friend if you do.

Titan II Is Fired Over Pacific Area

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif., Sept. 23 (UPI) — A huge Titan II, America's most powerful intercontinental ballistic missile was fired from an underground silo today for a target area more than 6,700 miles away in the Pacific.

It was the fifth launching of a Titan II from the West Coast and was believed to have been a success. The 103-foot-long "bird" blasted from its concrete silo with a thrust of 530,000 pounds, carrying a dummy nuclear warhead.

The air force described the firing as a research and development test of the two-stage Titan II, which can be used either to carry a deadly warhead capable of destroying a city or hurtling astronauts into earth orbit.

The Titan II uses storable propellants which burn on contact with each other. These propellants remain in the missile tanks ready for instant launching.

Titan II is designed to act as the "muscles" for project Gemini, which will carry teams of two astronauts into orbits around the Earth for a week or more in a major step toward landing men on the moon.

PTA Honors Teachers At Dietrich

DIETRICH, Sept. 23 — The Dietrich PTA held a teachers' reception Friday night at the high school.

Mrs. Fred Olsen, president, introduced James Meservey, chairman of the school board, who then introduced Supt. Ray Briggs. Teachers introduced included Mrs. LaVina O'Donnell, first and second grades; Mrs. Martin Jauregui, third and fourth; Mrs. Don Cheneyworth, fifth and sixth, and Mr. C. V. Ross, seventh and eighth.

High school teachers are Donald Cheneyworth, principal and commercial; Robert Vaden, English; Willa McClain, Latin and mathematics; Chester McGuire, science, and Ronald Heberger, social studies and physical education.

The program consisted of two piano solos by Mrs. Kay Heberger, an accordian solo by Mrs. Ronald Lauer, a vocal solo by Patricia Paulsen and a reading by Mrs. Lindell Cooper. Highlight of the evening was a comic can-can dance number by five PTA mothers, Mrs. Sam Larsen, Mrs. Jay Lambert, Mrs. Lowell Anderson, Mrs. Ron Lalb and Mrs. James Messervy. They were accompanied by Mrs. Kelly Dormier.

A potluck dinner completed the evening's activities.

The PTA will meet the first Monday of each month throughout the school year.

Briton Dumps Request for Sex Debate

LONDON, Sept. 23 (UPI)—Prime Minister Harold Macmillan has formally rejected opposition labor party demands that parliament be summoned into special session to debate the nation's sex-and-security scandal, political sources said today.

Macmillan's blunt rejection in a week-end letter set the stage for a potentially explosive political row that could make or break his government, the sources said.

Labor Party Leader Harold Wilson, who already has demanded a special parliament debate on the Denning report on the resignation of War Minister John Profumo, is determined to fight Macmillan's stand, the sources said.

Labor Leader Predicts Hike In Spending

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (UPI)—A spokesman for the AFL-CIO has predicted a continued rise in federal spending, despite President Kennedy's pledge to trim the budget if his 11 billion dollar tax cut program wins approval.

Andrew J. Biemiller, the AFL-CIO's chief lobbyist, on Capitol Hill, said a tax cut tied to a curb in spending would not help the economy grow.

"Federal expenditures are going to have to be increased to increase consumption power at this time," Biemiller said in an interview.

The house GOP leadership is trying to keep a tax cut from going into effect unless Kennedy curbs his spending plans for the next two years.

Despite this, Biemiller said "I certainly expect the congress to continue to consider" intelligent federal spending programs after the tax bill is passed.

The tax measure is expected to reach the house Wednesday after vigorous debate over the GOP move to force Kennedy to cut back spending plans.

Earthquake Hits South California

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 23 (UPI)—A sharp earthquake shook a wide area of Southern California today, rattling windows and flooding newspaper and police switchboards with calls.

In downtown Los Angeles the quake was felt as a short jolt at 7:43 a. m. (PDT). At Fontana, 45 miles to the east, residents said it seemed to have a West-East motion.

Reports of the quake also were received from sections of Orange, Riverside and San Bernardino counties.

No damage was immediately reported.

DROP COAL SALES

WARSAW, Poland, Sept. 23 (AP)—Recalling bitter experiences of last winter, Poland has reduced profitable exports of coal. As a result, the country is "far better prepared for winter than last year," Stefan Jedrzchowski, chief of the state planning commission, said in a week-end report.

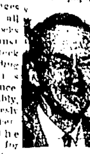
Business Mirror

BY SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst



Sam Dawson

NEW YORK, Sept. 23 (AP)—The stock market is celebrating summer's official end by giving the season record high marks. Some of the new peaks for the popular price averages (but not for all individual stocks by any means) represent stock traders grading of summer's performance. More probably, they doubtlessly reflect the betting on the prospects for fall and winter.

Bears can cite plenty of warning signals the bulls haven't been listening. They've heard only the ringing of industrial and retail cash registers and the growing talk around the board rooms of increasing business of still higher earnings and of reviving willingness of investors to put their money on favorite companies and industries.

Some of the problems for the next few months are just that so far—promises. They depend in part on what congress does about tax cutting and government spending programs, on what consumers do with the increased incomes they're supposed to enjoy and in particular, how much of this they channel once more into the stock market.

Beyond that is the question of how real is the thawing of the cold war which many see in the limited nuclear test ban treaty, and what effect this might have on defense industries and their suppliers.

But the bulls have been in command in the closing weeks of summer.

The Dow-Jones average of 30 industrial stocks set a new high (737.98) Sept. 5, breaking its previous record (734.91) which had stood since Dec. 13, 1961. It went still higher Sept. 11, and after some dalliance scored again Sept. 19 (743.22) and edged up Friday to a new one (743.60).

Standard and Poor's 500 stock index hit another new high Sept. 20 at 73.30. And the Associated Press index of 60 stocks was at a record too, 281.5.

Thus the September market was reversing its more often than not course declining after Labor day, as many observers had feared it might this year.

In the final days of summer the bulls were cheered by their belief that tax rates would be cut effective in January on personal and corporate incomes. This would give consumers more money they could spend if they wanted to, and businessmen more money they could invest. Either could mean more business for many corporations listed on the nation's exchanges.

While government economy talk was rife many felt the prospects were that 1964 would end with total federal, state and local government spending ahead of this year also benefitting some persons and some companies.

All of this is interpreted by the bulls as assuring that the present upward swing of the business cycle will continue for many more months.

The bullish also have been noting the reports of higher earnings by many corporations and predictions of still better days ahead as sales increase and effects of cost-cutting automation and other operational techniques are felt still more.

Bears stress that stock prices of late have been rising even faster than have earnings and dividends, so that the yield on many stocks bought today is less than it was a year ago.

But the bulls point out that today's yields are still much better than they were during the last major bull market of 1961. And expectations of capital gains on a rising stock market apparently are motivating many traders more than are current yields.

And, finally, the bulls are counting on the generally favorable business prospects and the enthusiasm that swells with a rising market to pull back many of the small investors and market-players who switched to bonds and savings accounts after being burned in the market crash of May and June, 1962.

So fall will start out with high hopes. How it will end? Not even your favorite broker can tell you that for sure—nor will he try to.

Church Is Rocked by Bomb Blast

MADRID, Sept. 23 (UPI)—A bomb explosion damaged a Roman Catholic church across the street from the U. S. embassy here last night, police said today.

The bomb blast, fourth terrorist explosion in the Spanish capitol in three days, went off about 9:20 p. m., damaging walls and shattering several windows of the church and adjoining residence of Jesuit priests.

The bombing, like three others Saturday, caused no injuries.

It was reported as the prosecution asked a military court here today to sentence two men accused in earlier terrorist bombings to prison terms ranging from 30 to 60 years.

Russian Poet Has Repented For His Sins

MOSCOW, Sept. 23 (UPI)—Controversial young Soviet poet Yevgeny Yevtushenko today repented for his literary "sins" in the first new poems he has published since last December.

The 31-year-old idol of avant-garde Russian youth promised he would redeem himself through work and contact with the laboring masses.

Yevtushenko, who came under fire from Premier Nikita Khrushchev during last winter's art crackdown, promised publicly last March to renew his contact with the people.

But his "repentance" at that time was not considered convincing by Soviet authorities.

In one of six poems published by the Yunost (Youth) magazine, Yevtushenko declared:

"I came back standing not high in the people's esteem but after severe criticism which in the final analysis has been useful to me."

Nevertheless, western observers said the fact that the stormy petrel of Russian letters was back in print was more evidence that the pressure on artists was easing.

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK, Sept. 23 (UPI)—Bache and company feels that the market's ability to translate good news into higher prices indicates that, psychologically, the bulls are still very much in control.

However, the firm continues to feel the market could use a longer digestive period. Following such a period, it says, the list will be in position to move forward more powerfully.

Thompson and McKinnon sees some evidence of public interest but does not see any mass speculation. The firm feels this is a reassuring sign since such an atmosphere usually accompanies the last stages of any long rising market.

Goodbody and company notes that the rails are still lagging and utilities seem to be waiting for an important uptrend in long-term money rates, a factor which could have an adverse effect on utility stocks. However, the firm believes that prices are in a temporary lull and, after balancing all considerations, should move ahead.

Purcell, Graham and company says recent market strength reflects improved tone of investor sentiment with the small investor gradually beginning to take a more active interest in the market. The firm believes increasing business activity will provide even more incentive in the coming weeks.
