BUHL, Nov. 2—Three youths were treated at Magic Valley Memorial hospital today after the car in which they were riding landed in a canal at 4:10 a.m. Saturday, six miles south and five and one-half miles east of Buhl on a county road.

They are Frank Gerlach, 20, Castleford, who received a broken shoulder; James Stovall, 20, route 4, Buhl, nose injuries, and Dean Reynolds, 19, Castleford, possible throat injuries.

Duane E. Brewer, 18, Buhl, was driving too fast to negotiate an S curve, officers said. The 1958 Pontiac he was driving careened off the highway, tearing out the sign marking the curve.

It skidded 110 feet off the roadway, then went through the air, landing in a canal, first on its nose, finally coming to rest on its wheels.

The canal, still full of water, is 35 feet wide and four feet deep, with swift current. Brewer and Reynolds were able to get to the bank and contacted Lyle Lutzman, route 2, Filer, who called officers and returned to the scene with the two boys.

Meantime Gerlach and Stovall crawled through the window and laid on top of the car, partially submerged in the water.

Deputy Sheriff Curtis Pryor and State Patrolman Richard Burns, investigating officers, threw the boys a rope. They told them to tie one end to the car and the officers held the other end while the youths made their way to the bank.

The three injured youths were taken to the hospital by ambulance. The car was demolished, officers said. Charges are pending against the driver, Burns stated.

Death Takes Mrs. Low, 67

BUHL, Nov. 2—Mrs. Nellie Estella Low, 67, 700 Locust street, died Friday morning at her residence of a heart attack.

She was born Aug. 22, 1894, at Cairo, Neb., and attended business college in Grand Island, Neb., coming to Buhl with her parents in 1911.

On Oct. 23, 1912, she was married to Vantoy Low at Twin Falls. Mrs. Low was of the Quaker faith and attended the Christian church at Buhl.

Survivors include four daughters, Mrs. Evelyn Tucker, Twin Falls; Mrs. Vernona Crosser, Pike Top, Ariz.; Mrs. Geraldine O'Connell, Boise; and Mrs. Doreen Peterson, Buhl; one sister, Mrs. Ruth Claiborne, Portland; nine grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Tuesday in the Buhl First Christian church by the Rev. Donald L. Hoffman, Twin Falls Christian church, assisted by the Rev. Daimor M. Talley, Buhl. Concluding rites will be held at the Buhl cemetery. Friends may call at the Alberson funeral home all day Monday and until noon Tuesday.

Cave-in of French Fatal To T.F. Man

Leo H. Doll, 29, 330 Polk street was killed about 2:30 p.m. Friday when the sides of an eight-foot trench caved in on him near Weston.

Doll was employed by the Lloyd Merrill company, Arco, and was laying pipe at the time of the accident.

According to Franklin county Sheriff Ray Talbot, Doll was the only one in the trench at the time. He said the man was completely covered.

Mr. Doll was born June 22, 1934, at Glen Ullin, N.D. He married Elaine Brenna May 24, 1957, at Sidney, Mont.

Surviving, besides his widow, are two daughters, Tracy Doll and Taralee Doll, both Twin Falls; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Doll, Hamilton, Mont.; four brothers, Nick Doll, Billings, Mont.; Ralph Doll and Tony Doll, both Seattle; and Joe Doll, Yakima, Wash., and two sisters, Mrs. Fred Steinback and Mrs. Richard Sonju, both Seattle.

The body will be sent to Glendive, Mont., for funeral services. White mortuary is in charge of local arrangements.

THE CONTROVERSIAL CHEMIST

Award of the 1962 Nobel prize for peace to Dr. Linus Pauling is as thought-provoking as it is unexpected.

I suggest that our government today is following the most dangerous foreign policy in its history. We might well ask ourselves what it has achieved.

It has split the greatest alliance in free world history, NATO, into factions and inaction.

Today we face the very real possibility that the illusion of peace, the silence of the guns, might be mistaken for genuine peace.

We are beginning again to mistake the sounds of peace for the reality of peace. We are beginning to heed the lures of comfort rather than hear the voices of national need.

I suggest that our present attitudes and policies in the field of foreign affairs have yielded nothing but losses to the cause of freedom and general confusion throughout the world.

Today the weapons of war have different sounds. The scratch of a pen on a treaty table may be more significant than the roar of artillery.

Interest High In Elections For Tuesday

... Martin Ledbetter, Mike Craig and Robert Hoos. Newcomers to the ballot are Ronald Jones and Emmett Prentice. Holdover members are Walter Slaughter and Willard Rees.
... Kimberly residents will vote in the police courtroom.
... At Jerome an increase of $1 in sewer charges has been criticized by candidates opposing the incumbents. Mayor Paul Pratt is opposed by Earl Greenawalt, former councilman.
... Jerome Councilman W. B. Churchman faces W. I. Speth, whom he defeated four years ago, and S. N. Weeks, Jerome realtor. In the second ward, Speth, a retired businessman, was councilman for eight years.
... In the first ward, Darrell Darling, incumbent, is opposed by Gerald Dyson, owner of the Jerome Auto Supply.
... Burley has a record number of mayoralty candidates, including incumbent J. Leonard Salmon, Mack Crouch, former Mayor Joe Peters, Jerry H. Williams and Mrs. Sarah Sue Walker.
... Objections to the annexation of North Burley, across Snake River, have been voiced during the campaign in Burley.
... Ten Burley men are seeking the five council posts with the most interest in the first ward. Incumbent Dredge Roberts faces James Henson, Jay Nichols and Alvin (Pat) Kelly.
... However, in the second ward Lamar Craner and J. L. Driskell, both incumbents, are unopposed for reelection to four and two-year terms respectively.
... There are two contests in Burley's third ward. Incumbent Fred Williams is opposed by Norman Dagle for the four-year term and Russell Tyle is opposed for reelection by Charles W. Davis for the two-year term.
... Heburn also has a large number of candidates with 10 persons seeking three posts. Incumbent candidates are Harold Hurst and J. R. Brown. Others seeking election include Clifford A. Hamby, Loren Klemish, Jack Strass, Fred Welborn, A. V. Dayle, C. Bill Weyler, Max Balrd and Mrs. H. Q. Hall.
... Mrs. Hall, the former Marilyn Jolley, is employed in the accounting department of the J. R. Simplot plant.
... At Paul, three of the six candidates, Dan Black, Sid Platts and Willis Reed, have raised questions concerning justification for the increase from $5 to $7 in the monthly water and garbage charge, for the council deeding a strip of land containing an irrigation ditch to the state and the reason for three different marshals within the past four months.
... Mayor Tom Felton pointed out Saturday the first marshal, Ray Jarvis, resigned to work with the sheriff, the second marshal was not qualified and the current one, Ray Clark, is qualified for both marshal duties and maintenance responsibilities.
... He said the strip of land in question did not belong to the village and justified the increased water rate because of the high cost of village well.
... Other Paul candidates are Otto Riedinger and Marvin Loosli, incumbents, and Donovan Webster.
... At Shoshone there are four posts to be filled with only one contest. Herb Love and Richard Bauman are vying for the four-year councilman term in the west ward.
... Mrs. Burdett is unopposed for mayor and in the east ward Orville J. Harris and William Haux have no opposition for the two-year and four-year terms.
... Love is a retired newspaper publisher while Harris owns the Shoshone salesyards. Haux works at the Shoshone postoffice and Baumann is a railroad employee.
... Three incumbent Albion village councilmen are up for reelection and by Saturday night no one else had filed for the positions. The election starts at noon Tuesday at the Albion village office.
... Odian Redman is an incumbent for a two-year term and Curtis Mahoney, chairman, and Wilbur Dixon are up for four-year terms. The two holdovers on the board are William Barrett and Marvin Tremayne.

COVERING BODY OF Mrs. Thelma E. Johnson, who jumped to her death early Friday afternoon from the Perrine Memorial bridge, north of Twin Falls, is Twin Falls county Sheriff James H. ## Visiting Woman Jumps to Death From Perrine Bridge

Private services for Mrs. Thelma Johnson, 42, Wichita, Kans., who jumped from the 476-foot-high Perrine Memorial bridge over the Snake river north of Twin Falls, about 1:30 p.m. Friday, will be conducted at 10 a.m. Monday in Reynolds funeral chapel by the Rev. C. A. Rathjen.
Mrs. Johnson had been reported missing by her family to local police only minutes before she plunged to her death on the rock-covered canyon floor. Twin Falls county Sheriff James H. Benham and two deputies recovered the body about 2:30 p.m. Friday, an hour after she was reported to have jumped.

Okay Bequest

BOISE, Nov. 2 (AP) — A bequest to the city of Moscow for a youth center building was upheld Friday by the Idaho supreme court.
Carter F. Eggen, a life-time resident of Moscow, who died May 20, 1960, specified in his will that a certain sum be held in trust for construction of the center.
Executors of the estate contended, however, that Eggen did not have the capacity to execute the will and appealed probate of the instrument to Latah county district court.
Judge James G. Towles ruled that the trust provisions of the will were valid and his opinion was upheld by a unanimous decision of the high court.

Gem Civil Rights Law Is Sued

BY EARLE L. JESTER
BOISE, Nov. 2 (AP) — A quiet campaign of enforcement is credited with bringing widespread compliance to the public accommodation section of Idaho's two-year-old civil rights law.
"There still are evasions, but leaders in the drive to eliminate racial discrimination are greatly encouraged."
"I think the law has had a salutary effect on the problem of discrimination as it affects minority groups," said Don J. McClenahan, Boise attorney who is chairman of the Idaho state advisory committee to the U. S. commission on civil rights.
"We still hear reports of some discrimination but the law has been very helpful."

Top Honors Won by T.F. Girl, Horse

A Twin Falls girl and her Arabian mare have returned home from Dallas, Tex., where they received national honors during the National Arabian Horse show.
Susan Peters, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Peters, of Twin Falls, won the national equitation class, where the rider is judged for horsemanship. She was named the national champion of the class.
Miss Peters' Arabian mare, Fadnicia, was named one of the top 10 Arabian mares in the United States and Canada. The 11-year-old horse will now retire from the halter classes, Miss Peters said Saturday.
Miss Peters said she was eligible to participate in the national show because she was the Pacific Coast equitation champion in 1961.
She had to have competed in the national competition within two years to be eligible.
The horse was named grand champion mare of the Utah horse show in 1961.
Both Miss Peters and Fadnicia have won local and state awards.

Doctor Shuns Cigarettes, Favors Pipe

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2 (AP) — The surgeon general of the public health service has given up cigarettes in favor of pipe-smoking.
Dr. Luther L. Terry said, however, that his action was not based on any knowledge of the content of a forthcoming report of his special advisory committee on smoking and health.
When a reporter asked Terry about his smoking habits today the surgeon general replied:
"First, let me say I do not know anything of the content of the smoking report. Purposely I have stayed away from trying to know the content.
"The report is being prepared by a group of scientists in whom I have the greatest confidence and as a scientific document."
"I have been a cigarette smoker for many years but I have been gradually phasing over during the last several weeks and now I smoke a pipe, exclusively."
"I started smoking cigarettes about the time I was in medical school — I didn't smoke most of the time I was in college, and at the peak I probably smoked a pack to a pack and a half a day."
Asked what led him to change his smoking habits, the 62-year-old Terry would say only:
"I decided sometime ago, and without knowledge of what the committee will report, that I prefer to smoke a pipe at this time."

Gen Civil Rights Law Is Sued

BY EARLE L. JESTER
BOISE, Nov. 2 (AP) — A quiet campaign of enforcement is credited with bringing widespread compliance to the public accommodation section of Idaho's two-year-old civil rights law.
"There still are evasions, but leaders in the drive to eliminate racial discrimination are greatly encouraged."
"I think the law has had a salutary effect on the problem of discrimination as it affects minority groups," said Don J. McClenahan, Boise attorney who is chairman of the Idaho state advisory committee to the U. S. commission on civil rights.
"We still hear reports of some discrimination but the law has been very helpful."
McClenahan cited two areas in which he said there has been improvement, apparently as a result of the civil rights law.
Prior to passage of the legislation he said that in areas where there were migrant workers of Mexican ancestry many eating establishments posted signs excluding them from service.
Now, McClenahan said, he knows of no community anywhere in Idaho where such signs are posted.
In 1961, he said, a large number of motels in Idaho refused to accept Negroes as guests. Now, he said, most, if not all, have eliminated that policy.
McClenahan said one field in which improvement is needed is that of housing. There still is discrimination in selling and renting real estate, he said, and the Idaho civil rights law fails to cover that practice. He said he believes it will be eliminated gradually as discrimination ceases to exist in other areas.
Idaho's law is a broad one. In the area of employment, it says anyone is guilty of a misdemeanor who denies the right to work because of race, creed, color or national origin. "By refusing to hire, by discharging or by discriminating against in compensation or in other terms or conditions of employment."
Similarly, it is a misdemeanor to refuse to permit anyone for the same reasons "full employment, accommodations, advantages, facilities or privileges of any place of public resort, accommodation, assembly or amusement."

Teamsters Won't Okay Gem Strikes

CALDWELL, Nov. 2 (AP) — A Teamsters Union official said today his organization is not supporting a strike against J. R. Simplot company food processing plants in southern Idaho because "we do not and cannot accept the Grain Millers as a legitimate union."
Ken Gillette, secretary of Teamsters Local 945, asserted that the American Federation of Grain Millers, AFL-CIO, "raided" the Teamsters union three years ago, then ousted the latter as bargaining agent in Simplot plants in a national labor relations board election.
"The record will show," Gillette said, "that we, the Teamsters, support any and all economic actions instigated by any legitimate union as far as the present laws allow."
"Not one of our members at Simplot was asked officially or unofficially to go through the picket line at the Simplot plant in Caldwell. They elected to work because they were aware of the true reason why the unwarranted strike was called."
Both the Grain Millers union and Simplot management said the strike resulted from a demand for a unionshop in a new working agreement. Such a provision was in the contract between the Teamsters union and Simplot but was not included in

Miss Teen-Age

DALLAS, Tex., Nov. 2 (AP) — Poised and pretty Judy Doll held her first news conference today as Miss Teen-Age America.
The questions she fielded ranged from why she plays the organ barefoot to what her boy friend thought about her winning the teen-queen title Friday night.
Judy, 19, a senior representing Akron, O., said she was "still numb today," but she believes the Miss Teen-Age America honor will allow her "to represent the most wonderful part of our population, which is so often misrepresented."
The first contract signed by the Grain Millers Union after it gained bargaining rights two and one-half years ago.

Goldwater Is Seeking Political Insurance Policy

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2 (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., is preparing to take out some political insurance on his expected bid for the 1964 GOP presidential nomination by filing for reelection to the senate.
This maneuver, as explained by the senator's strategists, would be designed to provide Goldwater with a relatively secure landing field if he should be shot down at the San Francisco convention.
Denison Kitchel, the senator's campaign manager, said in an interview that Goldwater has no intention of seeking two office in the same election as Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson did in 1960.

$195 Taken From Grocery Store in Buhl

BUHL, Nov. 2—Paper currency totaling $195, was stolen from the Matthew Food market, 1704 Main street, Buhl, sometime between 10 a.m. and 7 p.m. Friday. Police Chief Charles Burbank reported Saturday.

He said Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Cope, managers, discovered the loss when they were checking the store receipts Friday evening. Bundles of paper bills were kept in a box on a shelf under the cash register.

Between 3 and 4 p.m. Friday Mrs. Cope was alone in the store while her husband went to the bank. During this time a witness reported seeing a car in front of the store.

Mrs. Cope said no one had been in the store to her knowledge, but Chief Burbank surmised it is possible someone could have entered and if they knew the money was in a box could have taken it without being heard, as Mrs. Cope was in the back of the store.

Elmore Has Hearings on Road Route

GLENN'S FERRY, Nov. 2—Residents of Glenn's Ferry and King Hill accepted the general proposed routing of Interstate Highway 209, it was reported today after hearings were held with highway officials in three Elmore county communities this week.

Wayne Summers, highway department secretary, was in charge of the hearings held at the Glenn's Ferry city hall, at the King Hill school and in Mountain Home.

He was assisted by Jack Pearson, planning and traffic engineer; Norman Crossley, urban engineer; R. F. Clements, bureau of public roads engineer; Dean "Dad" planning engineer; Howard Matson, assistant district engineer, and Doyle Symms, board member.

No serious objections were heard at the King Hill meeting, which was attended by about 40 persons.

Karl Anderson spoke in behalf of the King Hill Irrigation district, pertaining to canals, flumes and other property of the district. Highway board officials said these things will be taken into consideration.

Robert Graham gave his views of the disadvantages of the route, speaking for farmers affected by the route. Members said the highway will take approximately 250 acres of land in the King Hill area, and land will be appraised.

They also said this highway will cut down traffic deaths and bring more progress to the communities on the proposed route.

The 4.7 miles of highway will cost 17 million dollars at $438,000 a mile, and many interchanges will serve the local area. In the question session, the proposed bypass was explained by Pearson, who said the route selected for presentation to the public would cut off approximately three and one-fourth miles of the present route.

Alvin Joslin told the board some points agreed on by some Glenn's Ferry residents at a meeting earlier in the week.

They include a request that an interchange of adequate design be installed at the west entrance of Glenn's Ferry, that would make available all service connections of Cold Springs Creek road, the cemetery, city park and also to connect with the business loop now in existence.

East interchanges to Glenn's Ferry were asked to include present entrance of King Hill, east and west traffic signals, city dump, fairgrounds and alternate main east and business loop. Both interchanges and highway entrance roads should be of adequate construction to include lighting, sidewalks where needed, drainage, curbing, and oil road surface of same construction as present business loop, he said.

All present business loops should be maintained as near as practicable and the present underpass located on Elmore street for city traffic and pedestrian traffic should be retained.

News Around Idaho

BOISE, Nov. 2—Milk production in Idaho is estimated at 127 million pounds for September, down from the 129 million pounds produced a year earlier, the U.S. department of agriculture reported today. The September production was one million pounds above the average for the month in the preceding five years, however. Prices received gained from a year earlier, the department said, with dairymen getting an average of 84 cents per pound of butterfat in milk used in making American cheese, up four per cent.

BOISE, Nov. 2—A 50-year-old Soda Springs man was killed instantly Friday afternoon when his cattle truck overturned on state highway 34, about 19 miles north of here. State police said Charles Peterson was thrown from the cab of the truck when it slid off the shoulder of the road and overturned. They said the truck rolled over him.

BOISE, Nov. 2—Federal tax collections in Idaho totaled more than 168 million dollars in the fiscal year ended June 30, a report of the internal revenue service showed today. The bulk was represented in individual income and employment taxes, which amounted to $153,995,000. Corporate income tax payments amounted to $27,745,000. Estate taxes brought in $1,829,000. The report showed 5,449 federal occupational tax stamps of all kinds were issued. They included 761 for retail liquor dealers and 1,539 for retail beer dealers.

BOISE, Nov. 2—Twelve Bolivians are participating this weekend in a fallout shelter survival program being conducted by the University of Idaho adult education department. The 12, eight men and four women, entered the Highlands community shelter at 7 p.m. today for a 12-hour stay. Murrell Hansen, university adult department director, said results of the night-long stay will be evaluated during a three-week shelter management course being conducted by the Boise-Ada county civil defense office.

BOISE, Nov. 2—Appointment of Eugene C. Dorsey, East St. Louis, Ill., as general manager of the Statesman newspapers was announced today by John A. Scott, acting publisher. Scott said Dorsey, for the last five years general manager of the Evening and Sunday Journal in East St. Louis, will begin his duties here Nov. 25. He is 36, married and the father of two boys. He expects to move his family to Boise during the Christmas holiday season.

POTLATCH, Nov. 2—Fire destroyed the Rock Creek bridge yesterday on the south city limits of Potlatch. Fire Chief Ted Sand said when he arrived, the entire decking of the bridge was on fire. He said there were indications it was purposely set afire. The bridge was closed last fall to motor traffic by Potlatch Forest, Inc., as a safety measure. With the bridge gone from the top of the dam on the Palouse river by PFT's Mill pond, residents from across the Palouse river will have a long detour to work in Potlatch.

ELSIE MAXWELL DIES
NEW YORK, Nov. 2—Elsie Maxwell, sharp-tongued critic, ardent friend and hostess to the glittering cream of international society, died Friday in New York hospital, aged 80.

Clyde Plans Meet Over Border War
SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 2—Utah Gov. George Clyde plans to lead a delegation of state officials to a "summit meeting" over the so-called "spitting war" on the Utah-Idaho border.

The governor announced plans to go to Logan Nov. 12 to discuss with Idaho representatives the situation that caused some southern Idaho farmers to post their lands to keep Utah hunters out.

Clyde said no official explanations on the action have come from Idaho. Idaho officials have been asked for a full bill of particulars.

The governor announced he would lead a delegation consisting of the Utah fish and game personnel, officials from the highway patrol and representatives of the tax commission to the Nov. 12 meeting.

Crash Injures Burley Man
BURLEY, Nov. 2—Jack Church, Burley, was listed in good condition Saturday at Cassia Memorial hospital as the result of injuries received in a two-car crash at 8 p.m. Friday two and one-half miles east and two miles south of here at a rural intersection.

State Patrolman Charles Peugh, investigating officer, said the 1962 Volkswagen Church was driving south collided with a 1963 pickup truck operated by Juan Ananda, who went through a stop sign. Ananda was driving east.

Ananda was treated and released from the Cassia Memorial hospital. Church received a broken left ankle, injuries to his left wrist, several broken ribs and facial lacerations, his wife said. The crash is under investigation.

Lincoln Man Breaks Leg Second Time

RICHFIELD, Nov. 2 — Jack Roundy, 28, Richfield, was listed in good condition Saturday at St. Vincent's hospital, Jerome, where he underwent surgery for the second broken leg in the past 10 months.

Roundy, still on crutches from an accident in Paulson's garage here last winter, was making his way to his boat on the dock at Magic dam Wednesday morning when one of his crutches slipped through a crack in the board work, causing him to fall.

He was taken to Shoshone for medical aid by an unidentified couple in their station wagon. His right leg was fractured just below the hip and some injury was reported to the old break above the ankle of his right leg. He underwent surgery Thursday afternoon. Last winter a heavy hydraulic press fell on his left leg while he was at work.

Workshop For Library Trustees Set

A library trustee workshop will be conducted in Twin Falls Friday at the Twin Falls public library and the Blue Lakes Country club, reports Mrs. Grace Keveren, Twin Falls, chairman in charge.

The workshop will begin at 8 a.m., with a coffee hour, and at 10:30 a.m., trustees from throughout Magic Valley will speak. They include Mrs. M. V. Klingler, Gooding; Mrs. C. R. Bacon, Jerome; Mrs. Leon Street, Burley; Mrs. R. G. Neher, Shoshone, and Dr. E. M. Wright, Twin Falls.

During the noon luncheon at the Blue Lakes Country club, Robert N. W. Balleisen, Twin Falls, member of the Idaho state library board, will be featured speaker. Other speakers during the luncheon will be Mrs. Evelyn Nabbutt, Shoshone, and H. L. Dorrick, Twin Falls city manager.

During the afternoon a discussion of the Ballie survey will be held with the trustees and librarians meeting separately. At 3 p.m. Helen Miller, Boise, state librarian, will conduct a joint business session. The workshop will adjourn at 4 p.m. Friday.

Commission Opposes Tiff With Utahns

PRESTON, Nov. 2 — An official of the Idaho fish and game commission told Franklin county farmers last night the commission is opposed to them arranging Utah hunters from their lands.

In answer to a question from one of the farmers, Glen Stanger, fifth district commissioner from Idaho Falls, said:

"You have the right to post your property with signs prohibiting Utahns from hunting if you want. We can't stop you. But we can and do encourage you not to."

Members of the Franklin

County Sportsman's association and area farmers met with officials of the Idaho fish and game department in the county courthouse.

"The meeting was called to consider objections to the state pheasant hunting law. However, the broader dispute between Idaho and Utah also came up."

A number of area farmers have barred their lands to Utah pheasant hunters in retaliation against Utah highway regulations they consider unfair.

Those attending the meeting included Director John Woodward of the fish and game department; Stan Rorer, Heber Smith, National Wildlife Federation Intermountain director from Grace, and Bill Reynolds, president of the Idaho Wildlife Federation from Pocatello.

Stanger told the approximately

60 persons at the meeting he realized "that you people believe you have trouble here with Utahns."

"But so far as the department is concerned," he said, "if they (Utahns) buy a license to hunt or fish in Idaho they are entitled to do it, at least on all of the state property."

One farmer asked what kind of support they would receive from the department.

Director Woodward replied that the department is primarily concerned with hunting and fishing and leaves other problems to other law enforcement agencies.

"I hate to see hunting or fishing used as pressure or a scapegoat for other issues," he said.

On another subject, the Franklin County Sportsman's association agreed to comply with the regulation that allows one pheasant hen to be included in a hunter's daily bag limit after the 10th day of the pheasant season.

They had been opposed to killing pheasant hens.

LDS Group Has Hobo Party For Halloween

HAGERMAN, Nov. 2 — Members of LDS Mutual group held a hobo Halloween party at the church. All teachers and officers assisted with the party.

The meeting was conducted by Mrs. Floyd Marsh. Terri Larson gave the opening prayer and Arlene Zellar led the theme.

Mrs. Ed Larson was in charge of party arrangements. Halloween decorations were used, including a graveyard with head stones and original obituaries. Decorating was done by Mrs. Marsh, Mrs. Larson and Mrs. Leroy Jolley. Dee Christensen was in charge of the spook alley.

The refreshment tables were covered with orange cloths centered with a lighted jack-o-lantern. Decorated cup cakes and punch were served.

Prizes for the best and most original hobo costumes went to Karen Kenitzer and Coletta Lloyd for the girls; and Wallace Akers and Dick Miller for the boys.

Judges were Mrs. John Barton, Lynn Wood and Mrs. Cleveland Lloyd. Music was under the direction of Mrs. Wood, newly substituted mutual chorister, and Lynn Rosenkrantz.

Mrs. Larson led the games. Each MIA class gave a skit and Kathy Larson played a piano solo. Miss Kenitzer gave the benediction.

The primary department of the LDS church had a Halloween party after school, with Mrs. Ernest Tolley conducting. Prayers were given by Anita Akers and Rex Shobe.

Music was under the direction of Lana Butler and Miss Lloyd.

T.F. Civic Orchestra to Open Fifth Season Nov. 26

The Twin Falls Civic Symphony orchestra, under the direction of Del Slaughter, will open its fifth season with a concert at 8:15 p.m. Nov. 26 in the O'Leary Junior high school auditorium. Rehearsals have been under way since Sept. 3, and each Tuesday evening finds the group in the music wing at the high school, practicing from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Magic Valley is well represented among the personnel, with members coming from Kimberly, Hansen, Burley, Rupert, Hazelton, Piler and Twin Falls. Businessmen and women, teachers, housewives and high school students all work together, giving of their time and talent to make the orchestra a success, Slaughter said. Guest artist will be William Billingsley, of the music faculty at the University of Idaho, who will play "Concerto for Trumpet and Orchestra," by Franz Joseph Haydn. Other numbers on the program will be "Song of Jupiter," by George Frederick Handel; "Unfinished Symphony," No. 8 in B Minor, allegro moderato, and the "Sleeping Beauty," Suite from the ballet, by P. Tchaikowsky; "The Great Gate of Kiev" from the suite "Pictures at an Exhibition" by M. Moussorgsky; "English Folk Songs Suite," march, intermezzo, march, by R. Vaughan Williams; "Gardens of Granada," by F. M. Torroba, and "The January February March," by Don Gillis. Patron tickets will go on sale Tuesday. Those who have previously held these memberships will be given an opportunity to renew them. Anyone desiring additional information may call Mrs. R. A. Sutcliffe at 733-4060.

Memorial Rite Due for Bishop Rhea

A memorial service for the Rt. Rev. Frank Rhea, late bishop of the Episcopal Missionary district of Idaho will be held at 10 a.m. Monday in the Episcopal Church of the Ascension, 210 Blue Lakes boulevard north. Bishop Rhea died in Seattle Thursday. He had been living there since retirement in 1957, having served as bishop of Idaho since 1942. Funeral services for Bishop Rhea were held at 11 a.m. Saturday in the Trinity church, Seattle. The memorial service in Twin Falls will be presided over by the Rev. Warren L. Howell, rector of the church. A brief address will be given by the Rev. W. Douglas Ellway, dean of the southern deanery, including Magic and Wood river valleys. Other clergy to be present are the Rev. John Tull, the Rev. J. F. Knight and the Rev. George Quarterman, Jr., vicars of churches in the deanery.

Last Rite for L. K. Larsen Set Tuesday

HANSEN, Nov. 2 -- Funeral services for Lars Kenneth Larsen, 44, route 2, Hansen, who died Friday morning of a heart attack, while cutting cattle two miles east and eight miles south of Kimberly, will be held at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday in Reynolds funeral chapel by the Rev. Martin Torrence. Mr. Larsen was born Aug. 19, 1919, at Rock Creek, and attended Pleasant Valley elementary school and Kimberly high school. He married Capriola Brown in Kimberly on Dec. 24, 1939. He was a member of the Western Stock Growers association and Idaho Cattlemen's association, and was master of the Pleasant Valley Grange. Surviving, besides his widow, are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Larsen, Kimberly; one daughter, Linda Larsen, and a son, Douglas Larsen, both in Hansen, and a sister, Mrs. June McCary, Pocatello. Concluding rites will be held at Sunset Memorial park.

Meeting Held by Toastmistresses

Sagebrush Burns West of Hailey

HAILEY Nov. 2 -- A range fire of undetermined acreage, burned sagebrush and brush Friday and for a time endangered Idaho Power company lines west and north of here. The fire started on land owned by George Arkoosh, who was burning brush. Since the fire season is past, no permit is needed, forest personnel said. The fire burned to the Fairfield road, then went to the top of a mountain. Several controlled burns have been reported this week in the Hailey area. Sagebrush was burned on the John Fox ranch on Quigley gulch, Everett Campbell, Bellevue, set two fires eight miles north of Hailey, east of the Red Top cabins, and A.W. Reimers burned a large acreage of range land four miles west of Hailey. Rupert House and Frank Knight, both of whom have ranches on the east fork of Wood river, also had controlled burnings.

Yearly Event Set at Rupert Wednesday

RUPERT, Nov. 2—Final arrangements have been made for the annual Business-Agriculture dinner scheduled for Wednesday in Rupert under the sponsorship of the Chamber of Commerce, according to Chairman Wendell Johnson.

Age farmers will be guests of the chamber members and 250 scheduled to attend the event to be held at the St. Nicholas Catholic parish hall.

The presentation of the 1963 County Farmer of the Year award will be made during the evening and 1963 Minidoka Grassman and candidates will be honored.

Johnson said, county farmer candidates will be judged Monday with a scheduled four of judges including the county extension agents. Candidates for the award include L. A. Gillette, Richmond Burks, Frank Maricle and Robert Pershing. Previous winners of the award were Gerald Schneider, Paul, in 1961 and Clyde Pruess of the Northside in 1962.

County Grassman LaVern Montgomery, along with candidates Hueston Duff, Orin Baker and Reed Lewis will be special guests at the dinner.

Johnson reported Robert Adams will serve as master of ceremonies for the evening and featured speaker will be L. W. Davis, vice-president of Allis-Chalmers Implement company, who will arrive in Rupert Wednesday afternoon.

Women Hurt In Hazelton Car Mishap

HAZELTON, Nov. 2—Two women from Edwall, Wash., were reported in good condition today at Minidoka Memorial Hospital, Rupert, from injuries received in an auto crash about 7 p.m. Friday, seven and one-half miles east of Hazelton.

Citation was pending today against Leslie Mitchell, Pocatello, who lost control of the 1963 Lincoln he was driving when a truck made a left turn in front of him. The truck driver did not stop and was not identified.

The Mitchell car veered into the left lane, into the path of a 1963 Ford carrying three women. Taken to the Rupert hospital were Mrs. Clara Duncan, 53, and Mrs. Amilla Dormier, 73, who are moving from American Falls to Edwall. The third occupant, Mrs. Dewayne Klein, 29, who resides in Edwall, was not hospitalized.

Mrs. Klein was helping the other two women move to Washington and her husband and other men were in a truck ahead of them, hauling furniture. The truck was stopped in Jerome to notify the men of the accident.

Deputy Sheriff Gordon Newby and State Patrolmen Marvin Wright and Marvin Synder investigated the crash.

Former Resident Of Bellevue Dies

Gaskins' 92-Yard Kickoff Return Saves 14-10 Win

PULLMAN, Wash., Nov. 2 (AP)—Sophomore Bill Gaskins sprinted 92 yards on a kickoff return to bring revived Washington State to a 14-10 victory over favored Idaho today. The stocky Gaskins, who is deceptively swift, took the ball on the eight, crashed through a cluster of Idaho tacklers, shook off a grab by Bill Scott at about the 40 and then dashed the rest of the way without threat, but with Scott in pursuit.

Munson Stars As Utah State Buries BYU

PROVO, Nov. 2 (AP)—Quarterback Bill Munson threw for two touchdowns and set three school passing records today as he led Utah State University in a 20-0 romp over Brigham Young University.

Munson, one of the nation's leading passers, completed 19 of 33 passes for 225 yards, setting records for completions, attempts and yardage.

Oklahoma Is Easy Winner Over Buffs

NORMAN, Okla., Nov. 2 (AP)—Sixth-ranked Oklahoma, pestered more by its own miscues than by Colorado's defense, packed most of its scoring into the second and third periods today and defeated the Buffaloes 35-0.

FILER SURPRISES BUHL IN 14-12 UPSET

Defensive Unit Makes Two Early Scores Stand up

BUHL, Nov. 1.—Outgained but never outfought, the inspired Filer Wildcats pulled off the upset of the fourth district season yesterday by clouting the proud Buhl Indians 14-12. The victory, which saw the alert Wildcat defensive unit pounce on six Buhl fumbles and pick off two passes, was the first for Filer in this West-end rivalry since 1957-58 and ruined Buhl's homecoming. Buhl, which had culminated a season-long bid and finally made the state's top 10 in the Associated Press poll, moved the ball well into scoring territory.

Sports FROM ALL ANGLES

BY LARRY HOVEY
"It was just something the boys really wanted to do," said Filer coach Carl Elliott, who should have at least one foot firmly on the ground sometime Tuesday evening. Floating on clouds nine after watching his Wildcats beat the Buhl Indians, coach Elliott couldn't find the words. "It was just something the boys wanted to do."
There was little the Indians did that Filer wasn't expecting. Particularly the one thing that killed Buhl—fumbles. That has proved the one thing Buhl has done best or worst depending on which side of the field you're standing on. Last week this column noted Buhl had been able to win despite the fumbles. Friday there were too many. And Buhl fans may rest assured Filer had its eyes on the ground whenever the action became violent.

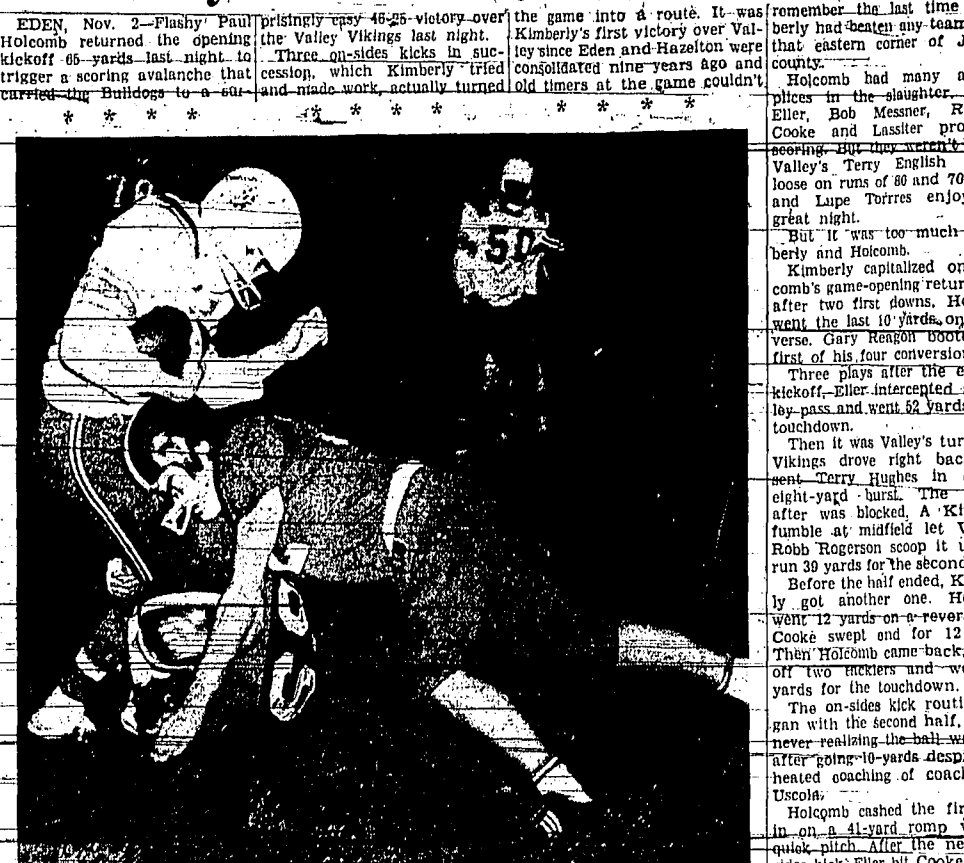

"We told the kids all week that Buhl had been fumbling a lot and to watch for them," coach Elliott said.
Still somewhat incredulous, he added, "I think Buhl made the mistake of underestimating us. This was the one we really wanted. They presume Buhl's opponent on Veteran's day with the Cross State loop (title hanging in the balance)."
"I still can't believe our sophomores. Our defensive secondary is almost all sophomores and we felt Buhl could hurt us badly with passes. But these kids were always around when they (Buhl) threw, either batting them down or intercepting once in a while. Oh, Buhl completed some sure, but nothing like it could have been," he said.

TWIN FALLS SHUTS OUT HIGHLAND 28-0

HIGHLAND, Nov. 2 (AP)—Twin Falls outplayed Highland in a 28-0 victory. The game was a rout. It was Kimberly's first victory over Valley since Eden and Hazelton were consolidated nine years ago and old timers at the game couldn't remember the last time Kimberly had beaten any team from that eastern corner of Jerome county.
Holcomb had many accomplishments in the slaughter. Rusty Eller, Bob Messner, Richard Cooke and Lassiter providing scoring. But they weren't alone. Valley's Terry English ripped loose on runs of 80 and 70 yards and Lupe Torres enjoyed a great night.
"But it was too much Kimberly and Holcomb."
Kimberly capitalized on Holcomb's game-opening return and after two first downs, Holcomb went the last 10 yards on a reverse. Gary Reagan booted the first of his four conversions.
Three plays after the ensuing kickoff, Eller intercepted a Valley pass and went 52 yards for a touchdown.
Then it was Valley's turn. The Vikings drove right back and sent Terry Hughes in on an eight-yard burst. The point after was blocked. A Kimberly fumble at midfield let Valley's Robb Rogerson scoop it up and run 30 yards for the second score.
Before the half ended, Kimberly went 12 yards on a reverse and Cooke swept and for 12 more. Then Holcomb came back, shook off two tacklers and went 26 yards for the touchdown.
The on-sides kick routine began with the second half, Valley never realizing the ball was free after going 10 yards despite the heated coaching of coach Lyle USCain.
Holcomb cashed the first one in on a 41-yard romp with a quick pitch. After the next on-sides kick, Eller hit Lassiter with yards and then hit Lassiter with a short pitch. Lassiter shook off a Viking and roared 25 yards to score. The same routine gave Kimberly the ball again, but this time Bob Messner saw an eight-yard touchdown plunge nullified by a penalty and Kimberly was stopped. Moments later Valley had to put out of trouble and minutes later Holcomb went in from a yard away after an Eller pass had set it up.
Then English started coming on for Valley. After Kimberly was stopped on another drive, he went 80 yards with two pifty cut-backs springing him loose. The Bulldogs bounced back with another drive. Messner scoring. But English rebounded with a 70-yard romp. Torres shaking him loose with a timely block. Jerry Hughes got the extra point.

Reed, McAdams Provide Scoring In Easy Victory

POCATELLO, Nov. 2 (AP)—Fullback George McAdams ran for two touchdowns and halfback John Reed ran 48 yards for one score and passed for another to give Twin Falls a 28-0 Southern Idaho conference football victory over Highland last night. The victory gives Twin Falls a 7-2 season record and a 4-2 SIC record. Highland dropped its eighth straight game, gaining 275 yards on the field while holding Highland to 26 rushing yards.
Twin Falls led 21-0 at the half and added another touchdown in the third quarter. Covering 81 yards in three plays, the Bruins scored in the first 90 seconds of the game. Reed slashed off tackle, then reversed to the left side for the score.
A short Highland punt which rolled dead on the Rams' 24 set up the second-Bruin touchdown. McAdams made it on a four-run yard up the middle.
Twin Falls recovered a fumble on the Rams' 47-yard line and scored five plays later with McAdams again going the last four yards.
In the third quarter Reed passed to end Larry Hunter on a 43-yard scoring play.
The deepest penetration by Highland came in the fourth quarter when the Rams advanced to the Bruin 24 before losing the ball on downs.

Geiberger Has Big Lead In Golf Meet

SAN JOSE, Calif., Nov. 2 (AP)—Lanky A. Geiberger birdied the first three holes with long putts, carded his second straight five-under-par 67, and grabbed a four-stroke lead today at the three-quarter mark of the $25,000 Almaden open golf tournament.
His 203 total for 54 holes put him four strokes ahead of Jay Hebert and Alex Sutton, and six ahead of a five-hole of amateurs Dick Lotz, Bob Goetz, Dutch Harrison, Bob Rosburg and Roger Ginsberg.
Geiberger shot 34-33 over the 7,045 yard, 36-36, 72 Almaden course, but it was not until the last three holes that he slipped away from the field.
The defending champion dropped a 25-foot putt at the 18th hole, a 28-footer at the 17th and a 25-footer at the 16th that barely had enough steam to reach the cup.
Ginsberg, Bob Harris and amateur John Lotz—Dick's brother—also fired 67s on the rainy, chilly day. But they were back at 209, 210 and 211 respectively.
Sutton, 28, of San Jose, an infrequent tour performer, carded a 34-34—68.

Canadiens Stop Red Wings 5-1

MONTREAL, Nov. 2 (AP)—Jean Beliveau collected two goals and a pair of assists as the Montreal Canadiens whipped the Detroit Red Wings 5-1 tonight and moved into the National Hockey league.
The Canadiens stifled Gordie Howe in a bid for his record-breaking 545th lifetime goal. The Red Wings' star winger was limited to four shots on Montreal sub goalie Charlie Hodge.

Mississippi Rolls Over LSU by 37-3

BATON ROUGE, La., Nov. 2 (AP)—Mississippi unleashed a devastating running game spearheaded by fullback Fred Roberts and ex-fullback Perry Lee Dunn to overwhelm Louisiana State 37-3 in a Southeastern conference battle today.
It was Ole Miss' most lopsided victory over the Bayou Bengals since 1917 when they whipped LSU 52-7.
The third-ranked Rebels also showed why they are the nation's top defensive team. A blocked punt and a fumble recovery set up the first two Ole Miss touchdowns.
Midway in the third quarter, Ole Miss successfully defended its goal after LSU's Joe Labruzzo had race 81 yards with a punt to the Mississippi one.

Minico Shatters Mountain Home by 27-7

RUPERT, Nov. 2.—Speedster Rick Miller untracked Minico's offense with four consecutive plays for a second quarter touchdown and the Spartans went on from there to handle the Mountain Home Tigers 27-7. It was the first Cross State loop win for the Minico Bobcats.
Mountain Home, hurt by injuries, didn't generate anything until late in the game when the Tigers marched 60 yards against the Spartan reserves and scored with a minute left. Ricky Richards carried that touchdown home after he had picked up most of the yardage.
Minico made one bid in the first quarter, driving to the Mountain Home 20-yard line. A pass from Jim Blake to Tim Kay got the big yardage. But then the Spartans tried a forward pass and lateral to a trailing back. The lateral misfired and Mountain Home recovered.
After trading punts for the next few minutes, Miller got Minico going with a pass interception at the Tiger 40-yard line. Miller then turned loose with his personally directed touchdown. He passed to Kay for 12 yards and then swept left end for 15. He came back right on the next play for another nine yards and finally capped it by getting the last four yards on a buck lateral sweep. Allen Cueva converted.
The Spartans added two more in the third quarter, a pass from Bresko to Kay putting the ball on the Tiger 25-yard line. Minico got a first down at the 44 and finally scored six plays later. Bresko punting off tackle.
Three plays after the kickoff, Minico stole the ball out of a Tiger ball carrier's arm. The Spartans ground to the four before Ron Woodskow hit a big pile at the line, spun away and fell in for the touchdown. Gerald Artette converted.
In the fourth period, Tom Lundexter set up the last Minico touchdown on a pass interception at the 34. Minutes later Bresko hit Dick Stimpson for the last 80 yards.

BJC Beats Ricks In Second Half

BOISE, Nov. 2 (AP)—Stymied by a stout Ricks defense for the first half, the Boise Junior college Broncos roared back in the final 30 minutes to score three times and rack up a 27-14 intermounthigh Collegiate athletic conference victory today.
Ricks started fast, scoring on a 65-yard drive with George Morgan hitting Henry Navajine on a 62-yard pass play for the touchdown.
BJC opened the second quarter on its own 83 and moved to the Ricks one in six plays. John Brittle carried over from there for the score. Quarterback Don Neves added the extra point and the score was tied 7-7 at the end of the half.

Bighorns Planted In Owyhee Area

BOISE, Nov. 2 (AP)—Nineteen bighorn sheep from the Williams lake area of British Columbia have been transplanted to the Owyhee mountain area of southwestern Idaho, the state fish and game department reported today.
John R. Woodworth, director, said the project is part of the department's wildlife restoration project. He said plans call for transplanting another 100 of the animals from British Columbia within the next several years.
TAILBACK RICK MILLER comes to the end of a nine-yard end run against the Mountain Home Tigers Friday to set up the first touchdown in Minico's 27-7 Cross State conference victory. # Lewis Sparks Michigan State to 30-13 Upset Victory Over Wisconsin

EAST LANSING, Mich., Nov. 2 (AP)—Little Sherm Lewis, the mighty mite of the Spartan backfield, led Michigan State to a 30-13 Big Ten upset over Wisconsin today. Michigan State has three victories and a tie in the conference and remains among the front-runner favorites for the Big Ten title and a Rose bowl bid. Wisconsin, ranked ninth in the nation, previously had been beaten only by Ohio State.

Fifth-Ranked Auburn Belts Florida 19-0

AUBURN, Nov. 2 (AP)—Jimmy Stiehl put on a dazzling exhibition of ball handling and Woody Woodall equaled an Auburn field goal record today in leading the goal-kicker to a 19-0 victory over Florida. Stiehl was the running and passing of the 21-year-old junior quarterback which put the ball close enough for Woodall to kick close goals and raise his college field goal total to 17. That equaled the school record established in 1951 by Ed Dyas.

Hagerman Is 27-6 Winner Over Carey

HAGERMAN, Nov. 2 (AP)—Terry White shook loose on the longest quarterback sneak possible as the Hagerman Pirates ended their season with a 27-6 victory over the Carey Panthers yesterday. White, after Hagerman had staged a goal line stand, went 69 yards, two feet and six inches with 50 seconds left on the clock. And all the Pirates were trying to do was wedge the ball out of danger.

Ohio State Slips Past Iowa by 7-3

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 2 (AP)—Sophomore Tom Barrington, shifted from substitute quarterback for his first try at left halfback, sparked Ohio State to a 7-3 victory over Iowa today that kept the Buckeye Big Ten title and Rose bowl hopes alive.

Pitt Flashes To 35-27 Win Over Orange

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 2 (AP)—Flashy quarterback Fred Mazurek, running for two touchdowns and passing for another, brilliantly engineered a determined Pitt football team to a 35-27 come-from-behind victory over Syracuse today.

Young Texas Extortionist Held in Jail

ABILENE, Tex., Nov. 2 (AP)—A young securities salesman was held in the Taylor county jail here today after the FBI charged him with attempted extortion of $250,000 from a Sweetwater, Tex. banker.

The federal bureau of investigation charged Ronney Marion Mason, 23, Sweetwater, formerly Hobbs, N.M., in the attempt to extort the money from Wilson Guest, president of the National Bank of Sweetwater by threatening to blow up the town's schools, hospital and courthouse. Mason, a thin, calm-voiced man, was arraigned here Friday night before U.S. Commissioner Gladys Walls who set his bond at $10,000. After the arraignment, FBI agents took him to the county jail here in lieu of bond.

J. Gordon Shanklin, FBI special agent-in-charge at Dallas, said a letter, mailed to Guest on Oct. 23 and signed "The Saxon," gave the banker five days to turn over a quarter of a million dollars to the sender. The letter said further instructions would come later.

Mason, at his arraignment, told the commissioner, "The plan was a crazy thing."

The letter told Guest that bombs planted in the schools, hospital and courthouse would be exploded by electronic device. But he told Mrs. Walls that he knew nothing about electronics.

Politics, Religion Sparked Vietnamese Rebellion

TOKYO, Nov. 2 (AP)—The coup d'etat in South Viet Nam had its seed in discontent over political and religious issues coupled with a steady deterioration in relations with the United States, authoritative sources said today.

Though dissatisfaction with the policies of the Diem regime shimmered for some time in South Viet Nam, it did not burst into the open until the Buddhist dispute flared last May.

Close observers of the situation in Saigon said the communist Viet Cong guerrilla fighters were able to exploit the discontent in the countryside, and their hit-and-run attacks threatened an ultimate communist takeover of the country.

The coup climaxed the Buddhist protest movement which charged the government, dominated by Roman Catholic officials, with religious discrimination. The dispute intensified in May when government troops killed eight Buddhist demonstrators in the city of Hue.

On Aug. 21, President Ngo Dinh Nhu, apparently took over actual control of the government. Using police and loyal American-trained special forces units under the command of a family protegee named Col. Le Quang Tung, Nhu directed the raids on Buddhist pagodas and the mass arrests of Buddhists and other dissident elements.

head of opposition to the Ngo Dinh family after the Buddhists leaders were arrested.

But the regime's suppressive tactics brought a sharp deterioration in relations with the United States, which had previously given the family all-out support. The United States publicly dissociated itself from the regime's treatment of the Buddhists and South Viet Nam, John Richardson, was recalled to Washington at the urging of Lodge.

Richardson had become close-ly identified in the eyes of Vietnamese with previous all-out American support of the Ngo family regime.

Most top-ranking U.S. military officers in Saigon still favored continuing all-out U.S. support for the regime. But the attitude of the state department and Lodge, along with the suspension of American economic aid, were clear indications to dissatisfied elements in the Vietnamese military that the United States would not be unhappy to see a new government in Saigon.

Latent discontent with the Ngo family regime has always been present among younger and middle-ranking officers in the South Vietnamese armed forces.

One pilot was shot down and captured and the other flew his American-made AD-6 fighter-bomber to neighboring Cambodia and escaped.

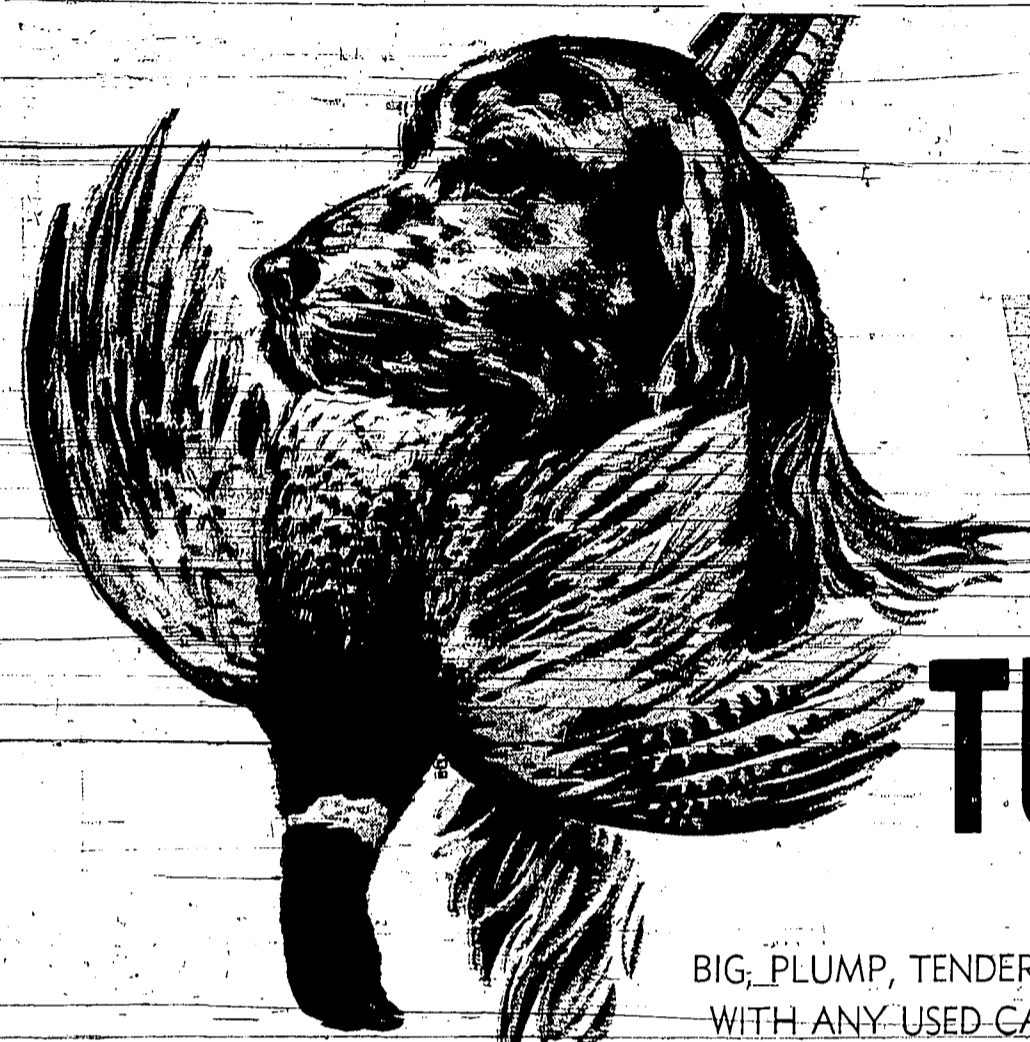

This dissatisfaction burst to the surface Nov. 11, 1960, when rebellious paratrooper officers led an abortive coup d'etat against the regime.

The Ngo family called loyal troops into Saigon and crushed the coup in two days of fighting during which about 100 persons were killed.

Railroad Memories Come To Light as Result Of Newspaper Article

By O. A. (GUS) KELKER
Times-News Feature Editor

The Iron Horse is gone—but the memory of the smoke-spewing wonder of the rails, with the shrill whistle and the clear-sounding bell, is still around.

Romance such as has gathered around few things in their time lingers in the wake of the "monster" of the rails. This was forcibly brought to light with publication of a Times-News feature last week having to do with closing of the railroad station at Oakley. It marked the end of an era in Magic Valley.

Hardly had the newspaper been delivered than calls began pouring into the feature desk. More than 20 in the first hour of the early Sunday morning, and then dribbles throughout the balance of the week.

Each one of the callers had something to add to the story. A relative had worked on the first railroad into Oakley. As a little girl a local resident had been a passenger on an early train. The old round was still visible. Another famed old railroad spanned the distance between Jerome and Gooding, was someday supposed to connect with that from Milner to Oakley, but the closure never came. And so it went.

There is Mrs. Helen C. Taylor, a teacher at Lincoln school. She was well versed on the old railroad history. Her father, the late Harry F. Campbell, was engineer on the old "puffer" which ran from Gooding to Jerome. In fact, he was the only engineer the road ever had during its operation from Dec. 28, 1908, when the first run was made, to 1916 when the line gave up the ghost. Called the Idaho Southern railroad, it was originally incorporated for $250,000 and had rolling stock of two locomotives, two passenger coaches, a baggage car and a flat car. The road distance was just under 23 miles.

And that wasn't all. Mrs. Taylor's uncle, the late Jimmy Brown, was engineer on the train from Milner to Oakley.

This railroad, according to the old station stamp at Milner, was known as the Oakley, Idaho Milner, and Northside.

Telephone conversations also determined that the widow of the fireman on that run—John Osterman—by name—still resides in Twin Falls.

Marian Turner, 535 Second avenue east, was a daughter of the late Walter Turner who was station agent at Milner in "the good old days of railroading." Her recollections of those days are interesting. She recalls that the train (there was the locomotive, a combination baggage and chair coach, and some freight cars) made the round trip from Milner to Oakley daily.

But it was Saturday she looked forward to. On that day she rode in the chair coach to Oakley where there were more stores and more of a variety of shopping. The train stayed there about two hours after which the return trip started.

Between the two towns the train would whistle and stop at Marion, Churchill and Kenyon, now merely names remembered by a few, but in the early days of the section a community large (SEE RAILROADING PAGE 23)

To preserve the outside wood the coach has been given a stucco coat. (Times-News photo)

Former Resident of Austria Now Enjoys Cooking for 200 St. Edward's Students

G. H. CHAMBERS

Keeping 160 to 200 young stomachs full each day at noon is quite a task, but Mrs. Wulfhilde Pesendorfer takes it all in stride. Mrs. Pesendorfer is the cook at St. Edward's school.

Mrs. Pesendorfer and her assistant, Mrs. Julia Peterson, prepare the noon meal, and, according to Mrs. Peterson, working with Mrs. Pesendorfer is quite an experience.

Originally Mrs. Pesendorfer was a native of Linz, Austria. In her lifetime she has been through both World Wars, serving as a nurse in the first war. Her husband was imprisoned. She can recall wondering if the Russians or the Americans would be the first to arrive in Linz at the end of World War II.

With experiences like this behind her, the woman from Austria rarely finds something in this country to complain about. Small mishaps in the kitchen don't bother her. She believes everything should be taken in stride and a smile goes a long way in correcting things.

She is quite pleased with her job. She points out one thing—children act like children no matter where they live. In Austria the children had their favorite dishes. In this country they are hamburgers and hot dogs.

The school participates in the national school hot lunch program. Thus the meals at St. Edward's are similar to meals served in the public school system. The exception to the menu is days of fast and abstinence, Lent, and Fridays.

Her day starts at 7:30 a.m. and concludes as soon as the students eat and she gets everything shipshape for the next day. This is usually around 2 p.m. Each day a couple of students assist with the serving and cleaning.

Mrs. Pesendorfer is quite satisfied with life in Twin Falls. She recalls her first impressions of the United States quite vividly. New York City was the biggest thing she ever had seen. She arrived there by boat with her husband on Oct. 22, 1951.

Her daughter already resided in Twin Falls, so the Pesendorfers left New York bound for Idaho.

Idaho at that time was a name in a geography book. Mrs. Pesendorfer could speak English. She soon found out that the English she spoke was the "King's English," and few people in the United States conversed in this manner. However, she managed to get by.

As the American countryside rolled by the train window, it was shocking. She couldn't imagine the vastness. She points out that in Austria it is one small village after another and one easily can walk from one to the next.

She was glad to see the mountains when she arrived in Idaho. It helped remove some of the homesickness. Another thing that amazed her was the ease with which one could move from house to house.

Adequate housing in Austria is scarce—even more so after the war. It is not unusual for a couple to get married and have to wait several years before they can find a home of their own.

Being able to pick a place of residence with no effort, or for that matter picking up and moving to a better place, was quite an experience, claims the woman from Austria.

Mr. Pesendorfer died in 1956. This past summer she returned to her native country for a short visit. The visit was pleasant and she enjoyed meeting old friends. The buildup impressed her, but housing still is inadequate. The trip did one thing—it convinced her that Twin Falls is the best place in the world to live.

On the trek to Europe, she stayed a few days in Rome and was fortunate to view Pope Paul VI shortly after the College of Cardinals held its election.

The days of occupation and war are over for Mrs. Pesendorfer. One of the hardest experiences she can remember is wondering if the American troops would get to Linz before the Russians. They did, and probably because of this Mrs. Pesendorfer was able to come to Twin Falls.

POT OF HOT DOGS is inspected by Mrs. Wulfhilde Pesendorfer, St. Edward's school cook. Each day she and her assistant prepare the noon meal for some 160 to 200 students. She is a former resident of Linz, Austria, and came to this country in 1951. She abandoned her former profession as a nurse shortly after World War I and is quite content to cook for the youngsters. After two wars, occupation and political unrest in Austria, there isn't too much that disturbs her. (Times-News photo)

THINGS HAVEN'T changed much over the past 100 years as far as postal letter carriers are concerned. George (Bud) Taylor, 1222 Fourth avenue east, sorts out his mail in front of his cage in much the same manner as his predecessors did. The only noticeable change has been the addition of the mail cart and the substitution of raincoats for umbrellas. (Times-News photo)

Postal Letter Delivery Undergoes Few Changes

In a hundred years' thing by the department. Besides tree city delivery, Blair introduced the money-order system, railway postal system and suggested the Paris conference which led to the International Postal Union.

Typical of letter carriers throughout the nation is George Taylor, 1222 Fourth avenue east. Taylor began carrying the mail in 1936. He has the longest record of service for a letter carrier out of the Twin Falls postoffice.

Taylor estimates that his walk around the streets of Twin Falls over that period of time is equal to four trips around the world.

Children and dogs are the number one problem a letter carrier has to contend with, but according to Taylor they are not insurmountable. He solved the dog problem simply by getting a dog to travel with him.

There is one drawback to running an efficient postal service, claims Taylor. He recalls one lady insisted that "this was the day she should have received a certain letter." No amount of convincing would change her mind. Taylor didn't have her letter. She insisted that this was the day it was supposed to arrive.

"We know where it is, don't we?" said the woman as she closed the door on Taylor.

Misaddressing the mail is the number one problem with the office. In a town like Twin Falls, with the confusing street system, the problem is even more acute, Stanger pointed out.

The only major change in delivery during the past hundred years of operating the postal department is the addition of "zip" code numbers. It will be a long time before the letter carrier is eliminated, Stanger adds.

Terror Marks Venezuelan Ballot Fight

By PAUL FINCH

CARACAS, Venezuela, May 20

Grim posters showing the results of terrorism are a key to the presidential election campaign now going on in Venezuela. One shows a shoeshine boy whose legs were blown off by a terrorist bomb.

These are posters put up by President Romulo Betancourt's Democratic Action party. Its candidate for the Dec. 1 election is Raul Leon, 58, a labor attorney who helped Betancourt found the party. Betancourt is ineligible for reelection.

The background is years of bombings, shootings and sabotage blamed officially on followers of Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro. The Betancourt government says the leftist terrorists aim to drive it from power.

Leon seems headed for victory unless enough voters believe his party somehow is responsible for the violence or has failed because of ineptitude to halt it.

Six candidates oppose Leon. Of these only Rafael Calera, whose Social-Christians have been part of the government coalition for nearly five years, blames communists for terrorism. Leon defends Betancourt's struggle with terrorism and accuses the communists and MIR of aiming to overthrow democracy and establish a Cuban-type regime in Venezuela.

Idaho Conservation Officers Report Violations Are Climbing in State

By JIM HUMBIRD
Idaho fish and game department BOISE, Nov. 2 — During the first three quarters of this year ending Sept. 30, 287 more fish and game violations were discovered by 64 conservation officers around the state than during the initial nine months of 1962. The figures are 874 this year compared to 607 arrests last year, from Jan. 1 through Sept. 30. This is a gain of over 40 percent.

Commenting on this situation, the "Idaho Daily Statesman" for Oct. 15 editorialized in part as follows:

"Some of these violations are doubtless unintentional and due to ignorance of the prescribed rules. So the importance of continuing and perhaps stepping up educational effort is indicated."

"There is little doubt, though, that a good many of these violations are premeditated or deliberate. And that emphasizes the importance of the need to continue and perhaps step-up vigilance on the part of the conservation officers, and the imposition of penalties that really make a lasting impression."

Hawley Hill, chief of enforcement, Idaho fish and game department, says the philosophy of conservation enforcement is an affirmative one of prevention as well as apprehensions. The department regards money assessed by the courts as a relatively small budgetary item, a by-product of enforcement. During the nine-month period this year for which figures are available, a total of $19,823.50 was collected in fines, and half of this remains in the 34 counties and is apportioned between the school and general funds.

In other words, conservation officers are responsible for developing and maintaining within their districts public information campaigns with the sole purpose of keeping people out of trouble. The officers, as well as the state office, study arrest reports.

Whenever a local or statewide pattern begins to appear in a particular type of violation, the support of all public information media is enlisted. The officers go to the newspapers and broadcasting stations and invite their help in spreading information designed to clarify a regulation, thus reducing unintentional violations.

California Joins Mouse Explosion

By DIAL TORGERSON
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 2 (AP)—Southern California is having a mouse explosion.

Beverly Hills has mice. So has Bel Air. The Hollywood hills are teeming with them. A few have been known to share swimming pools—bricly—with swimmers.

In Thousand Oaks, in Ventura county, schoolboys were trapping them for 10 cents a mouse—but householders had to cut the rate. Too many mice.

"Every time I stock the shelves with mousetraps," said a grocer, wincing appropriately at his own joke. "they get snapped up."

A Laguna Beach man turned down a $50 offer for a 10-mouse-a-day Siamense.

There are even mice in the halls of Ivy at UCLA. First they were in the ivy. Now they're in the halls. Someone called the roentgenology office last week to ask if they had someone who could play a pipe, and lead a small parade.

Mice are invading places where they've never been before.

Don Rohe, an officer of the state department of public health, explains:

"Partly it's the normal cycle increase common to a number of small mammals. The last time we had mice in anything like the present number was 1057-58."

"In addition, we have had warm, pleasant weather, ideal for mice."

"Most seem to be the harvest mouse. It is the same shape and coloration of a house mouse, but cleaner. Almost no fleas. Normally it lives in the fields."

"The population has increased tremendously—the total number would be astronomical. In the hills, where they normally live they can't sustain themselves. So they are moving on."

Slides Shown To Rotary at Hailey Meet

HAILEY, Nov. 2—Hailey Rotarians were entertained at their regular meeting Thursday night at the Star cafe dining room by Richard Stauber, Ketchum Sawtooth forest ranger.

Stauber narrated colored slides he took at the Eagle creek controlled burn last August, which was held under his direction. He was introduced by Arthur Engstrom, program chairman.

Birthday anniversaries were observed for Keith Bird, Grant Hawkes and Joseph W. Fuld. Bill Grant, secretary, was presented with a wedding gift from club members.

Dr. A. E. Richards, president of the Rotarian Ski association, reported a $3,000 in pledges for erection of a "J" bar on the ski hill west of Hailey, have been received.

Francis Jones had, as his guest Glenn Green, who recently moved here from Burley.

Leon Friedman, program chairman for the Nov. 7 meeting, will present an exchange student from Australia, who is being sponsored by the Rupert club.

MAGIC VALLEY PORTRAIT

Lifetime in Profession of Nursing Proves Satisfying for Rupert Woman

RUPERT, Nov. 2.—Once a nurse, always a nurse. At least that seems to be the creed developed by Mrs. Robert Walk, Rupert, who entered nursing school after graduation from Pocatello high school. She later attained the rank of captain in the army nurse corps, USAAC, and today is more active than ever in her chosen field.

Her training and army service were completed before her marriage to Robert Walk, local mortician. It was as Jacquellie Byrd, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Byrd, Pocatello, that she served in the armed forces nursing corps.

She was born in Pocatello Dec. 17, 1906, and grew up in a farm atmosphere. Her father was the operator of one of the largest dairies in the region.

A rock house, now at the south end of the Gate city's Ross park was the milk house. It still stands. Her mother's father, James A. McConkey, came to Pocatello in 1897 and operated a brick yard which furnished brick for many of the structures of the city.

When Mrs. Walk finished high school in Pocatello, she was offered the yearly scholarship for highest honors and a chance to go to a university of her choice. Instead she decided to study nursing and enrolled at the LDS hospital school of nursing, Idaho Falls.

There she became president of the student council and editor of the year book. She finished third in her class in state board examinations.

Today she admits that nursing was her life.

"I practically ate, lived and slept nursing," she laughs.

Her record proves it. She has done a great deal to further nursing education in the state. She taught at the Pocatello general hospital, taught home nursing and also first aid classes for the American Red Cross. She is the last to admit it, but she has financed several student nurses through their training.

She also has taught a class of practical nursing at Burley and has spent two years at Cook county school of nursing, taking postgraduate work with classes at the University of Chicago.

It was in 1936 that she was obstetrical supervisor at the Twin Falls County General hospital, now Magic Valley Memorial hospital. She felt that position to accept an advancement which saw her as head nurse in obstetrics at the LDS hospital in Salt Lake City. She studied at the University of Utah during that time.

She returned to Twin Falls in 1939 and worked as a surgical nurse until she moved to American Falls as superintendent of Schiltz Memorial hospital.

It was in 1942 that she answered the call of the Red Cross for nurses to serve with the armed forces. Entering as a second lieutenant, she emerged a captain and surgical supervisor.

Still feeling her nursing background was not complete, she entered and was graduated from St. Vincent's school of anesthesia, Portland, Ore. That was in 1947.

From there she went to St. Louis where she spent a year assisting the famed Dr. Walter L. Echarat, an oral surgeon. Returning west she took the post as anesthetist at Dec Memorial hospital, Ogden, and then went to Cottage hospital in Burley.

About this time she purchased

MRS. ROBERT WALK

Rupert General hospital from Mrs. M. S. Rasmason. She operated that hospital until 1958, during which time she also was president of the South East Hospital association and a member of the Idaho Hospital association.

It was in 1958 that she leased the hospital to the county of Rupert while the new Minidoka County hospital was under construction. She then returned once more to Burley where she gave anesthetics for Cottage hospital.

In March, 1961, she retired from her profession to marry Mr. Walk.

She admits, however, that the retirement was in name only because "when an emergency arises I always seem to be available."

Part of this "retirement" has consisted of her appointment as editor of the Idaho Anesthetists, a statewide professional publication.

In addition, she has found the time to attend all the state unit meetings and also took a 14-day course on "non-explosive agents" at Ft. Miles, San Francisco.

Actually, though, she admits that being a housewife is less hectic than being an active nurse. There are the hectic times, though, like when she aids her husband by driving the ambulance in rush cases.

She shares her husband's enthusiasm for old cars, but admits she is "replaced in these vehicles by my possessive 7-year-old Jennie." There is another adopted child, Henry George Walk.

She is a charter member of the Idaho X-ray technicians organization and a charter member of the Rupert Soroptimists. Likewise, she is a charter member of the local Lady Elks and has been active in practically all civic groups. At present she is program chairman of the Rupert Women's club.

A member of the Christian Science church, she admits to various hobbies which include skilling, collecting antique dishes and playing bridge.

Only recently she received a top honor by being included among "a biographical dictionary of notable living American women"—better known as "Who's Who of American Women."

"I'll never know how I rated that one," she opined.

Campground Improvement Is Reported

HAILEY, Nov. 2—Lorin Bartolome, recreation construction foreman for the Sawtooth national forest reports the two campgrounds at Lake Cleveland, near Mt. Harrison at the head of Howell canyon, southwest of Albion, are nearly complete.

The Lake Cleveland campground has eight family camping units and two picnic units with fire circles to accommodate groups of from 15 to 20 persons.

A new water system for drinking and culinary purposes was installed. A new spit-block toilet has been constructed for the first time by the forest service the past summer.

A new campground also has been built at Brackenbury on the shores of Lake Cleveland. This unit has one large picnic ground and eight family camping units, with drinking and toilet facilities. At this campgrounds a large parking lot was constructed for fishermen.

Both camps have shoreline units, with other units back from the shoreline as far as 400 to 500 yards. The fish-and-game department keeps the lake stocked on a "put and take" system.

Bartolome says there was a crew of 12 men on the job through the season. Only painting and roofing the toilets needs to be done next spring.

Dams in U.S. Mostly Safe From Slides

BY G. K. HODENFIELD
WASHINGTON, Nov. 2 (AP)—Conditions similar to those which led to the recent Valmont dam tragedy in Italy are generally lacking in the United States, a veteran seismologist and geologist said today.

The appraisal came from Dr. Dean B. Carder of the U.S. geologic survey.

In the Italian disaster, between 3,000 and 4,000 persons died Oct. 9 when a landslide struck the reservoir behind the Valmont dam. A huge wall of water swept over the dam and into the densely populated Pave valley below.

The only similar landslide in the United States was about six years ago in Alaska, Carder said, and involved a bay rather than a dam.

An avalanche, in large part from a glacier, fell into Lutaya bay about 150 miles west of Juneau, and sent a wave crashing 1,600 feet high over a mountain spur. Several fishermen lost their lives.

Carder said that although most of America's major dams have stood the test of time, "This is not to rule out the possibility of a landslide caused by an earthquake, similar to the one which occurred in Montana four years ago, killing 28 people."

Even in the Montana quake, Carder said, the Hobgen dam on the Madison river was damaged only slightly.

Carder made this assessment of some of this country's major dams:

Hoover dam on the Nevada-Arizona state line—There have been several small slides into the reservoir but none caused damage. Most of the slides occurred around 1941, when Lake Mead behind the dam was at its highest level, within about 20 feet of the top of the dam.

Grand Coulee dam in Washington—The wave comparable to the Italian one is a very remote possibility here," Carder said.

Grand Coulee is in an area without heavy rainfall, there are no high mountains there and any falling rocks and earth would be absorbed by the Columbia river below the dam without harm to the populated area.

Shasta dam in Northern California—The dam has been in existence some two decades and if there was any danger of a major slide, it would have occurred by now," Carder said. "The earth there is largely composed of hard volcanic rock covered by soil, but the soil is not deep. If it came down, it would only be in small amounts. Furthermore, although there have been earthquakes about 50 or 60 miles to the west, no major one has occurred close to the dam."

Hungry Horse dam in north-west Montana—This high dam is located in a mountainous, forested area with quite a heavy rainfall. But Carder said there have never been landslides in the area. He added that the dam is located in a "moderate" earthquake area, and the "potentiality of a heavy earthquake cannot be ruled out."

Airman Reassigned

makes the mare go—
without it, the American system collapses

Some people fail to understand the function of profit in a national economy like ours. Even government sometimes seeks to eliminate the profit system by replacing investor-ownership of business with some form of government ownership.

Profit actually is what makes everything else possible—jobs, wages, taxes, our government itself.

A company's profit:

1. Helps support the government (52% of that profit is paid out in tax).
2. Creates jobs by financing new plants, research and development.
3. Improves jobs by supplying money for new machinery, which makes wages and security possible.

When a company does not make a profit:

- it pays no income taxes, does not help support government.
- it provides fewer and fewer jobs because it cannot afford money for new products and markets.
- it cannot increase wages or expand its facilities, soon begins to deteriorate; then likely there are no jobs at all.

Profit, therefore, benefits everyone, and any government which hampers it is cutting its own throat—and yours.

Hammett Sand Dunes Area Becoming Popular for Fishermen, Picnickers

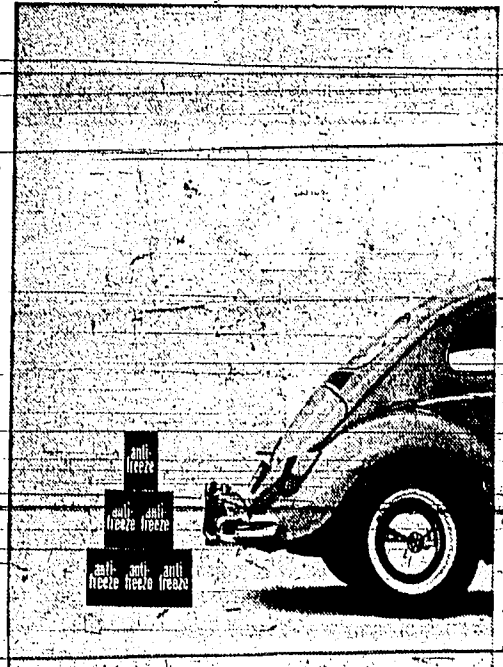

HAMMETT, Nov. 2 — The Sand Dunes lake area near here is fast becoming a tourist attraction. The lake is something that was added only recently, as time goes.

About 10 years ago the sand hills was the only attraction and these, in the summer season, were practically unbearable in the intense heat. About that time, however, water started to reach the surface in various areas, with the result that today a large lake practically dominates the hills.

It was stocked with fish by the Idaho fish and game department, and sportsmen are being attracted to it. The only drawback is that vandals also are being attracted, with the result that comfort stations, picnic tables and trees are being damaged quite regularly. State police winds and that "in their time" has moved more than two miles eastward. Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Clarke, Glenns Ferry, and a friend are pictured on top of one of the many sand dunes in the district. A lake has formed in the section in the past few years. (Times-News photo)

It never touches a drop.

The Volkswagen is cooled by air. Not water. An ingenious advantage.

Since air cannot freeze, the Volkswagen engine cannot. Even at temperatures below zero, it is safe and sound.

The VW has no radiator problems for an eternally simple reason.

It has no radiator.

Viz: It never needs anti-freeze. It never needs flushing out. There is no radiator hose to crack and leak and possibly lose expensive anti-freeze.

When drivers line up for anti-freeze etc. on the first bitter winter day, the VW owner is spared the annoyance.

Not to mention the expense.

The Volkswagen has an equal advantage in hot weather.

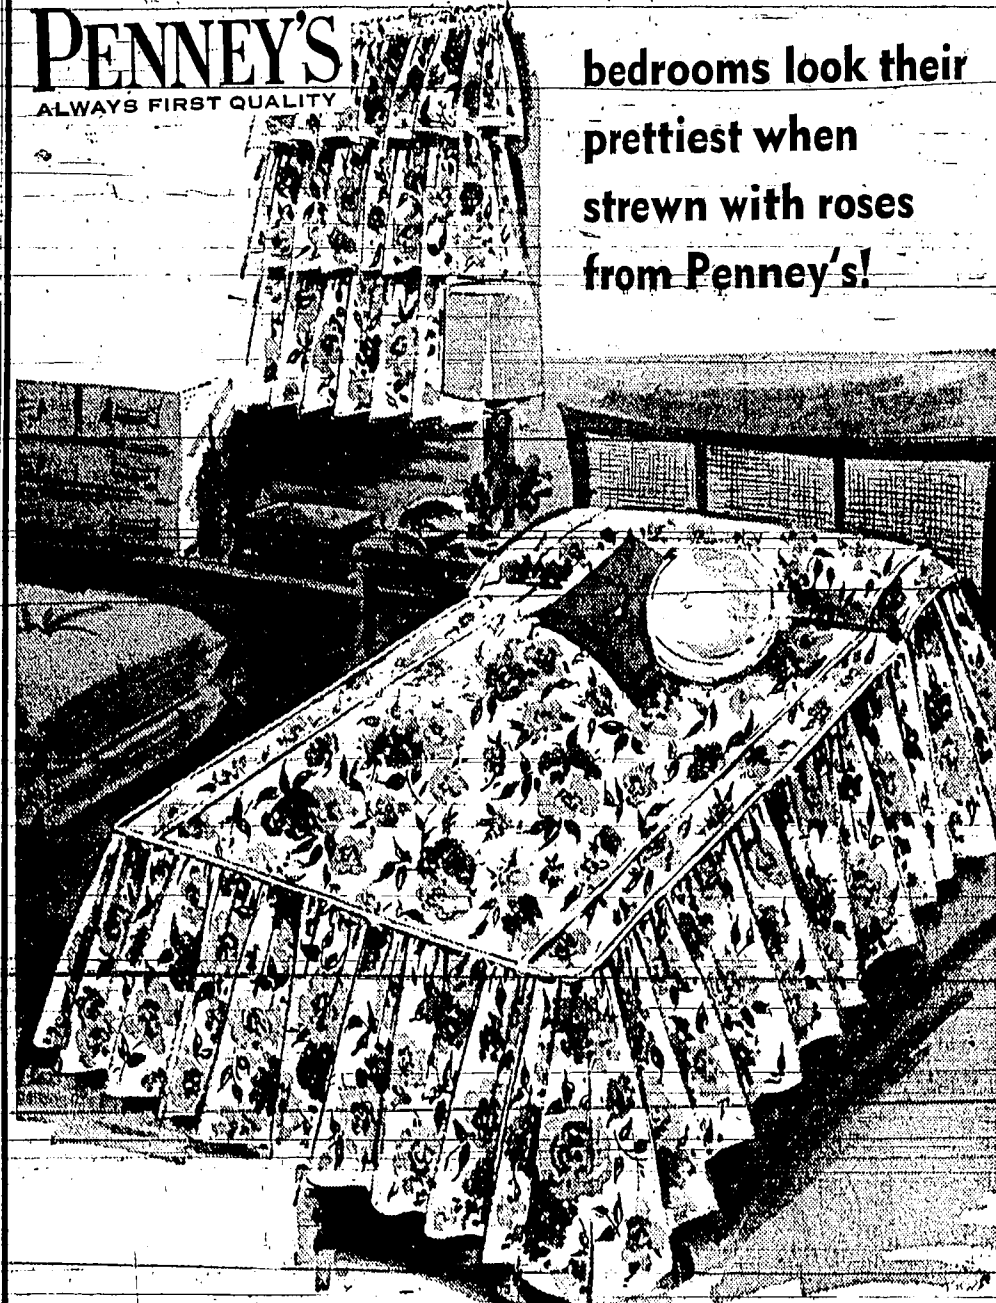

Air cannot boil any more than it can freeze. Neither can the VW.

In bumper-to-bumper traffic, when tempers and water grow short, when cars sit at the side of the road waiting to cool, the little Volkswagen goes right on past.

It is above it all.

Riding on air.

Chairmen of Pomona Unit Appointed

GOODING, Nov. 2 — Elmer Hanson, newly installed master of Pomona Grange, has appointed committees for the coming year.

Named to serve are Walter Mracek and Mrs. William Uhlman, education; Omar Schmidt, youth; Mrs. Elmer Young, Mrs. Harold Hainline and Mrs. Melvin Gibson, home economics; Ira Kistler, Don Fredericksen and Doran Butler, legislative.

William Pyle, Melvin Gibson and Clint Abercrombie, resolutions; Harley Williams and Elmer Young, agriculture; Rhores Schiffler, Stanley Hoskovec and Glenn Navis, county agents advisory council; J. V. Baumgarner, credit union; Mrs. Ira Kistler, ways and means; Mrs. Elizabeth Pauls, and Mrs. J. V. Baumgarner, reporter.

At the meeting held at the West Pomeroy Grange hall, reports were heard by Mrs. Melvin Gibson on the annual 4-H achievement day to be held at the Gooding Grange hall Nov. 9.

Mrs. Harold Hainline, last year's home economics committee chairman, reported that work done by Mrs. Arthur Byce and Mrs. Joe Stille would be entered in the national Grange contest.

Mrs. Kistler asked that any handmade items made from material provided last spring be brought to the next Grange meeting to be sold. This meeting will be an oyster supper at the Tuttle Grange hall Nov. 25.

The Good County Pomona Grange went on record as favoring the continuation of vocational agricultural courses in the high schools.

The group received a check from the Chamber of Commerce for commissions received on the sale of stock in the Stockman's Meat Packing company.

It was announced the national Grange meeting will be held in Portland Nov. 11-20, with the seventh degree being presented by national Grange officers Nov. 15 and 16.

Refreshments were served by committee chairmen Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bittell.

BIGGER AND BETTER machines are making highway construction much easier, according to road officials. Not too many years ago, construction such as that required on highway 30 east of Twin Falls required scores of workmen. Now machines do most of the work. This equipment is operated by the Kimberly

Construction company, contractors for the work. The equipment is now idle, with the job practically completed except for "finishing touches" next spring. Early unseasonable weather caused some delay in completion, officials report. (Times-News photo)

SMOKE LEAPS SKYWARD—as "puffing Betsy" goes about the work of being a part of the mixing equipment utilized in construction of highway 30 east of Twin Falls. A truck waits under a belt mover while mix is dumped for the trip in the road section being completed. Modern equipment such as this assures construction jobs speedy results. (Times-News photo)

Big Machines Take Place Of Workmen

For all intents and purposes, the construction job east of Twin Falls on highway 30 is completed and the job was accomplished with results which showed conclusively that masses of men are being replaced by big machines.

Contract for the 2.8 miles of construction is held by the Kimberly Construction company. The job was started Feb. 1 and completion date set for Oct. 15. Adverse weather along the way slowed the work, however, and highway engineers have had to shut down the project at the present time. Touching up work as a result, will be completed next spring.

Even though touchup work is yet to come, highway crews last week were busy marking white travel lines on the blacktop.

Cost of the project, according to Wayne Walker, superintendent, was $438,000. It will be a vast improvement over the old approach to the east end of the city.

After the road was opened to traffic, motorists were impressed with the large mix plant in operation between the cemetery and the Kimberly turn.

This plant, when in operation to produce hot mix, was highly noticeable by reason of a large upright boiler which workmen termed "puffing Betsy." The great volume of smoke pouring from the stack could be seen for miles and attracted much attention.

Connected was a furnace operated by "bottled" gas, and behind this was a belt arrangement which supplied mix and gravel to the correct places. A truck space, where mix was dumped for transportation to the road site, was adjacent.

For those who contend that machines are replacing masses of men in laboring jobs, the road construction project is a living example.

As one local businessman put it: "If this doesn't show the need for specialized training of all people who can absorb such training—and less and less need for common laborers—then, I don't know what does."

Construction company officials report that work, with exception for the weather delays, progressed as planned. Highway 30 from the east is now the widest thoroughfare entering Twin Falls.

Wives Feted

SHOSHONE, Nov. 2 — Ladies night was observed by Rotary club Wednesday with a dinner party at the Blue Lakes Country club, Twin Falls.

Douglas Hansen was general chairman, assisted by W. E. Grosche.

Howard E. Adkins led the group for observance of birthday anniversaries. Mr. and Mrs. Hansen were congratulated on their wedding anniversary.

Riding Club Elects Head

HAILEY, Nov. 2 — C. W. Gardner was elected president of the Sawtooth Rangers Riding club at a meeting Wednesday evening at the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schoessler near Gannett.

Other elected are Harold Drusel, vice president, and Mrs. Schoessler, secretary-treasurer. Directors are Wallace Young, Omer Arrington, Ted Uhrig, Schoessler and Rupert House. Frank O'Donnell will be drill captain.

The annual Christmas party was discussed and committees will be named at the Nov. 26 meeting at the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Clark.

Mrs. Harry O'Crowley and Mrs. Decker Nicholson were co-hostesses.

ATTEND EVENT

RICHFIELD, Nov. 2 — Mr. and Mrs. Tom Roseberry have returned from Kansas and Oklahoma where they attended the golden wedding celebration of his brother and sister-in-law.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Roseberry, Perdonia, Kans. Mrs. Albert Renner, Gooding, and Mrs. Bruce Sorenson and daughter, Shelley, accompanied the women's parents on the trip.

SUNDAY'S A GREAT DAY

TO CALL LONG DISTANCE

Whose voice would you like to hear today? A favorite relative? An old friend? Chances are you'll find them at home if you call on Sunday. What's more, Long Distance rates are low all day long.

Pick up your phone and enjoy a Long Distance visit today. It's the next best thing to being there.

MOUNTAIN STATES TELEPHONE

ONE BIG MACHINE with one man at the controls piles and moves gravel necessary to keep the paving mix plant in operation. This great piece of equipment is typical of those now in use. In years past the same jobs took long hours to complete because of necessity to use smaller equipment, such as scoops drawn by horses. Earth moving jobs, for instance, now are easy with available equipment. Need for large crews of laborers has become a thing of the past. (Times-News photo)

Escaping Big Tax Collection Proves Impossible With Present Sleuthing

OLYMPIA, Nov. 2 (AP) — You can't escape death, but some people think you can get out of the clutches of the tax collector by crossing the border.

That is, there are Washington residents who think they can avoid the state's four per cent sales tax by going to Oregon or Idaho to do their shopping.

If you're a nickel and dime player who goes to Portland for cigarettes or Coeur d'Alene for soap, you might get away with it; but if you play for bigger stakes, watch out.

The state tax commission has sleuths to track you down.

Right now they might be checking your charge account with a Portland or New York department store or looking into the books of a California grocer with outlets here. If anything is being sold there for use here, they intend to find out about it.

Many out-of-state businesses,

Including 400 in the Portland area alone, voluntarily register with this commission. Most pay the Washington state tax on your purchases themselves. They think you'd rather have it done that way than have a tax agent knock on your door.

There are a few who guard their customers' anonymity with the zeal of a Swiss bank and refuse to open their books to the commission.

The commission has other ways of dealing with them. Border agents snoop along the state lines on the lookout for suspicious activity, like perhaps an Oregon contractor putting up a garage in Walla Walla.

The agent contacts the central desk here to see if the contractor is registered. If not and if he refuses to pay, he may lose his bulldozer.

The central desk does a lot of probing on its own.

It checks with the licenses department to see if you've registered a car without paying sales tax. The departments of labor and industries and employment security may provide tips on out-of-state firms employing workers here.

Tax men are careful readers and may check out a news story about a new firm opening to see if it has registered with them.

The commission is quick to point out that all this covert activity not only puts money in the state's coffers, it also protects state businessmen who have to compete with outside firms.

If you steal across the border in the dead of night and pay cash for a contraband refrigerator, you still might not get away without paying taxes. A jealous neighbor can squeal on you.

Tax Commission Chairman Charles Hodde cites an example: "About 20 years ago, long before I joined the commission, I knew nothing about its laws," Hodde says. "I went to Idaho to buy a tractor. Two weeks later the Washington tax commission sent me a bill for $42,000. Some stool pigeon had squealed on me."

NON-ON BOARD

WENDELL, Nov. 2 — James Scheel, son of Dr. and Mrs. M. E. Scheel, a pre-medical student, is a member of the executive board of the student body at the University of Idaho, Moscow. He attended the student-faculty retreat held recently at Coeur d'Alene.

WANTED! MEN-WOMEN

From ages 18 to 52. Prepare now for U.S. Civil Service job openings in this area during the next 12 months.

Government positions pay as high as $446.00 a month to start. They provide much greater security than private employment and excellent opportunity for advancement. Many positions require little or no specialized education or experience. But to get one of these jobs, you must pass a test. The competition is keen and in some cases only one out of five pass.

Lincoln Service helps thousands prepare for these tests every year. It is one of the largest and oldest privately owned schools of the country and is not connected with the Government.

For FREE information on Government jobs, including list of positions and salaries, fill out coupon and mail at once—TODAY! You will also get full details on how you can prepare yourself for these tests.

Don't delay—ACT NOW!

LINCOLN SERVICE, Dept. 39
Pekin, Illinois

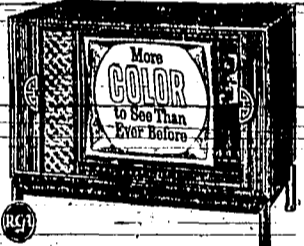

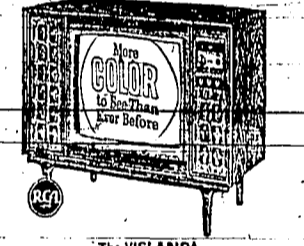

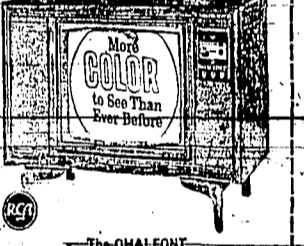

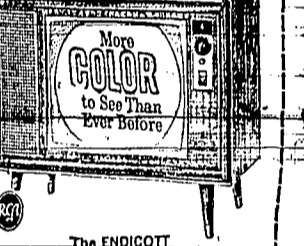

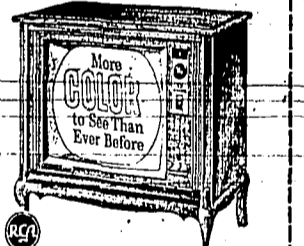

I am very much interested. Please send me absolutely FREE (1) A list of U.S. Government positions and salaries; (2) Information on how to qualify for a U.S. Government Job.

WHY DID THE GANG LAUGH AT YOU WHEN YOU GOT SAT DOWN TO PLAY PIANO?
I GOT TO BUY A STUCCO!

DID THE WAITER APPRECIATE THE TWO TIPS YOU GAVE HIM?
NO! BOTH HORSES LOST!

GOOD IDEA! BUT YOU'LL NEED TO PRACTICE! LEND ME TEN DOLLARS, AND YOU CAN PRACTICE ON ME!

IF MR. WARNER CALLS ON THE PHONE BEFORE I GET BACK TELL HIM I'LL MEET HIM AT TWO AT THE CLUB.

YES, SIR! BUT WHAT SHALL I TELL HIM IF HE DOESN'T CALL?

I'M THINKING OF GETTING A SOFT SA BEST COLLECTOR!

GOOD IDEA! BUT YOU'LL NEED TO PRACTICE! LEND ME TEN DOLLARS, AND YOU CAN PRACTICE ON ME!

SLIPPER WHEEL

DO YOU FIND YOUR FRIEND MURPHY'S HOUSE LATEST NIGHT?

IF MR. WARNER CALLS ON THE PHONE BEFORE I GET BACK TELL HIM I'LL MEET HIM AT TWO AT THE CLUB.

YES, SIR! BUT WHAT SHALL I TELL HIM IF HE DOESN'T CALL?

OUR BOARDING HOUSE
with MAJOR HOOPLE

UM... WONDER WHAT I CAN DO WITH MY TIME TO TURN MY TIME TO PROFIT!

LOOK THERE'S AN INTELLIGENT-LOOKING CHAP RELAXING ON A PARK BENCH—PERHAPS WE CAN STRIKE UP AN INTERESTING CONVERSATION!

BEAUTIFUL FALL DAY!

YES, AND IT'S MY FAVORITE SEASON OF THE YEAR— I SHOULD'NT BE HERE! I SHOULD BE WORKING ON MY OVERLY FULL SCHEDULE! I MUST HAVE A BIT OF RELAXATION WHILE I CAN AFFORD ONLY FOUR HOURS OF SLEEP EACH NIGHT!

YOU GET ONLY FOUR HOURS SLEEP A NIGHT?

NOT A MINUTE MORE! I HAVE SO MANY INTERESTS— CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD OF 11 CORPORATIONS, INVESTMENT COUNSELOR, MANAGING SEVERAL GIGANTIC APARTMENT HOUSES!

GOSH, DOESN'T IT TIRE YOU OUT?

NOT AT ALL! I LOVE WORK, AND SLEEP IS A WASTE OF TIME!

I TELL YOU, BOSS, THIS GUY WOULD MAKE GREAT MONEY! EIGHT MILES EVERY DAY, TERRIFIC BUS-INESS! COULD EASE YOURS A NIGHT!

OKAY! GET HIS LOCAL MAN, MAYBE?

YOU SAY YOU WANT TO INTERVIEW MAJOR HOOPLE?

YES! HE'S TOLD ME HOW HE KEEPS IN PHYSICAL TRIM BY GARDENING AND DOING THE HEAVY CHORES AND WITH ALL HIS INTERESTS HE SLEEPS ONLY FOUR HOURS A NIGHT!

NEL, HE DOES SKIMP ON HIS SLEEP AT NIGHT BECAUSE OF LATE ACTIVITIES, BUT HE TAKES A FOUR-HOUR NAP EVERY AFTERNOON AND A BIG SNOOZE AFTER DINNER. BUS-INESS! DID YOU SAY HE HADN'T WORKED IN 30 YEARS?

HE'S ENJOYING HIS AFTERNOON NAP NOW AND I DON'T LIKE TO DISTURB HIM! BUT IF YOU MUST—

OH, NO! JUST FORGET IT, MA'AM!

BIG-BUSINESS MAN DOES ALL THE HEAVY CHORES AROUND THE HOUSE. I OUGHT TO LET YOU HAVE IT WITH THIS MOP!

HO-HUM—NOTHING EVER HAPPENS AROUND HERE! I MUST DEVELOP A SENSATIONAL INVENTION OR SOMETHING TO AROUSE THE PUBLIC TO MY GREAT TALENTS!—HAR-RUMPH!— I WONDER IF DINNER IS READY.

MR. MCKEE, YOUR ANTIQUE CARS WERE ONE OF THE HITS OF THE PARADE! ELM CITY THANKS YOU!

MY STARS, IT WAS A PLEASURE... BUT WHERE'S EASY? HE WAS DRIVING MY OLD PIERCE-ARROW!

SOME CLOWN DRESSED LIKE AN OLD MOVIE KEYSTONE COP GOT INTO TH' CAR WITH EASY AN' THEY LEFT TH' PARADE!

PRETENDING TO ARREST EASY IN THE 'OLD HOME WEEK' PARADE, A COMIC POLICEMAN HAS TRICKED HIM INTO DRIVING DOWN A SIDE STREET...

THIS IS A REAL GUN SON! KEEP DRIVING...

I RECOGNIZE YOU NOW... YOU'RE THE MAN WHO WAS SO ANXIOUS TO BUY THIS OLD CAR!

RIGHT, CHUM! MCKEE WOULDN'T SELL, SO NOW I GET IT FOR FREE!

YOU TOLD MCKEE MISS MANNING WANTED THE CAR FOR PUBLICITY TO HELP SELL HER BOOK, 'MY FATHER WAS A JEWEL THIEF'!

WHAT SHE DON'T KNOW IS THAT THE DIAMONDS HER OLD MAN STOLE 30 YEARS AGO, ARE SEWED INTO THIS FRONT SEAT!

BLAZES! YOU MEAN HER FATHER USED THIS OLD PIERCE-ARROW ON THAT JOB?

YOU CATCH ON FAST, TURN DOWN THIS CLAY ROAD!

DESPERATE, EASY DECIDES TO FAKE CAR TROUBLE...

Whup! SOMETHING'S GONE WRONG WITH THE STEERING!

HEY! STOP THE CAR!

CAN'T THE ACCELERATOR'S JAMMED, TOO!

MY LATEST INVENTION, FREEZE-PROOF CAR WAX! NO RUB CAR WAX!

HEY, HEY! THAT ROUTE NUTTY!

YOU'LL LEAVE MARKS!

GOOD!

IT WON'T EAT THROUGH THE PAINT EITHER!

IT SHOULD HOPE NOT!

NEITHER WILL IT GET DULL OR CLOUDY, OR CHANGE PAINT COLOR, OR BLISTER IT!

MAN, OH, MAN!

SUPER!! HOW'D YOU EVER DO IT, NUTTY?

WELL, ER... IT TOOK LOTS OF EXPERIMENTING! JUST ASK MY MOM!

AND NEXT I HOPE HE INVENTS AN EXPERIMENT-ERADICATOR!

No sign of any of 'em! They could at least be at home when I come to visit them!

This, Alfie, seems like a good time to get rid of old whiskers and take over this valley!

You fuss over them when they take sick-- help 'em when they're in trouble!

--and then they forget all about you!

Hey, Jink, it's Old One! He- ph, oh, look!
