

Gem Farm Leader Says Costs Will Force Price Hike

BOISE, Dec. 3 (UPI)—The chairman of the Idaho wheat commissions said today that the cost-price squeeze for farmers is so serious that many growers will be forced out of business unless crop prices rise. The time has arrived when a price increase is as necessary for agriculture as it has ever been for labor, for steel, for petroleum, for autos or for any other segment of the American economy.

Burley Girl Is Hurt When Hit by Car

BURLEY, Dec. 3—An 8-year-old Burley girl was reported in critical condition Tuesday noon at Cassia Memorial hospital with injuries received when she was struck by a car about 8:25 a.m. at the Grand View corner, one-half east of Burley.

Tena Lawrence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Justice, 480 Grand View addition, was walking across the street into the path of a 1955 Jaguar driven by James M. Ball, 1233 Grand View addition, Sheriff H. O. Warrell said.
Warrell, who investigated, said a group of children were waiting on the north side of the street when the little girl started to run across. She collided with the front left corner of Ball's car.
The child attends Edwardson hospital. Deputy sheriffs and city police assisted.

Rail Unions To Challenge Board Ruling

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3 (AP)—The unions involved in the railroad work rules dispute announced today they would file suits to challenge the decision of an arbitration board that would eliminate thousands of rail jobs.

The unions said railroad management would continue to ask Congress to send labor disputes to arbitration if the board's decision is allowed to go unchallenged or unchanged.
The arbitrators ruled Nov. 26 that 50 percent of firemen jobs on freight and yard locomotives could be eliminated gradually.
They also set up an arbitration system to determine size of most train crews if renewed negotiations could not settle that issue.

Connally's Health Is Improving

DALLAS, Dec. 3 (AP)—Texas Gov. Tom Connally continued to make good progress today from wounds received when President Kennedy was assassinated.
Bill Stinson, a Connally aide, said the governor "continues to make steady progress and has had no setbacks."
Connally, who will be in Parkland hospital about another week, has had the stitches removed from his leg.
The bullet hit Connally in the back, collapsed a lung, went through his right wrist and embedded in his thigh.

City Commissioners Pass Dog Leash Law

Twin Falls city commissioners passed the dog leash law unanimously after the third and final reading Monday night at the city hall. The law will be known as ordinance 1239, and will go into effect Jan. 1. However, Twin Falls dog owners were able to force one more change. Section was amended whereby a formal complaint would have to be signed against the owner of a howling dog. The dog owners, led by Dr. Max Wilkinson and H. H. Heard, felt the original section was too unreasonable. City Police Chief Frank Barnett told the commissioners that an officer's peace could not be disturbed in these matters, and a formal complaint was the "best answer." City Attorney William Langley concurred.

Dr. Wilkinson said to license dogs is unfair and called for blanket licensing of all pets. He said that if a license was a means of identification the rabies tag would suffice.
"It's like spending $10 for a rabies shot and then spending another $2 to tell everyone that the $10 was spent," he said.
Dr. Wilkinson and Heard proposed that a committee be set up to study the pet situation. The two-paragraph advisory ballot didn't indicate we would get a 34-section ordinance," said Heard in his appeal.
Not all of the 20 people attending the session spoke on the matter, but A. B. Thomas and Ann Steene went on record supporting the dog-leash law.
The commission authorized the city manager to purchase three police cars. A bid on three police cars was rejected because it was irregular and under Idaho law, items costing under $2,500 can be purchased without a bid. Two cars will be purchased from Glen G. Jenkins and the other from Milrany Bulk-Oidsmobile.
A pickup truck was purchased from Glen G. Jenkins for $1,777.13.
The city also decided to re-advertise for sale lots 3 and 4, block 149 and lot 16, block 108.
Langley, in a letter to the commission, recommended that the city not approve a bid for construction of lateral sewers in the city. A 30-day waiting period had elapsed and the bid had a five per cent bid bond instead of the Idaho-required 10 per cent bid bond.
New bids will be called for by the city in connection with the lateral sewer project.
The meeting adjourned until Wednesday evening.

Research Director Notes Plans

BOISE, Dec. 3 (AP)—Myran Schlecte, newly-hired research director for Idaho's legislative council, began looking for office space in the statehouse today.
Schlecte said getting an office and setting up a legislative library and a bill drafting service are among his primary considerations in getting the research arm going for the legislature.
He said he plans to confer with Council Chairman Pete T. Cernarrusa, R. Blaine, soon to determine what the council wants him to do first among the tasks assigned the interim study group in legislation passed earlier this year.
The proposal, called the "Shaff plan," would create a 58-member state senate based on population, and a 99-seat house, made up of one representative from each county.
The present 53-member senate and 108 member house are based on a mixture of population and area factors. A three-member U.S. district court panel last spring called the present legislature "invidiously discriminatory" because it did not give "equal voice" to residents of cities and towns.
However, critics of the Shaff plan said 24 per cent of the state's population would be able to control the house, whereas the percentage now is 27.
Neither the Republican nor the Democratic party has taken a stand on the plan. However, Democratic Gov. Harold E. Hughes barnstormed across the state in opposition to the plan, saying it would "scuttle our state senate as we have known it, and lock minor rule into our house of representatives."

Freighters Collide, Burn In Canada

MONTREAL, Dec. 3 (AP)—Two ocean-going freighters, one of them loaded with naphtha and other chemicals, collided and burst into flames in the harbor today.
The general cargo vessels "Lionel," a Watts and Watts ship under Norwegian registry, and the Furness-Whitney freighter "Manchester Merchant," rammed in the St. Lawrence river at 12:45 a.m. EST. There were no serious injuries.
The Lionel, extensively damaged amidships and blazing from bow to stern, was "put around for safety" near the south shore entrance to the St. Lawrence seaway, the harbor master's office said. A dozen of her crew rowed ashore in lifeboats immediately after the collision, and her captain and the remainder of the 20-man crew were picked up and brought to safety.
The Manchester Merchant was anchored on the other side of the river, flames shooting from a gaping hole in her bow. Her crew also was taken safely ashore as harbor firefighters fought to bring the blaze under control.
The Lionel, with flames believed to be from her cargo of naphtha, blazed through the night.
A harbor watchman said a loud explosion and sporadic smaller blasts followed the collision. A smoke-blacked crewman from the crippled Lionel said "it was sure as heck noisy," but "I didn't wait to see what had exploded or what was burning."

Iowa Starts Legislative Change Vote

DES MOINES, Ia., Dec. 3 (AP)—Iowans vote today on a legislative reapportionment plan that has been criticized for allegedly discriminating against both city and rural areas.
The proposal, called the "Shaff plan," would create a 58-member state senate based on population, and a 99-seat house, made up of one representative from each county.
The present 53-member senate and 108 member house are based on a mixture of population and area factors. A three-member U.S. district court panel last spring called the present legislature "invidiously discriminatory" because it did not give "equal voice" to residents of cities and towns.

Four Aides To Stay at White House

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3 (AP)—Four of the late President Kennedy's closest White House aides have accepted President Johnson's request to stay on the job.
They are Press Secretary Pierre Salinger, Special Counsel Theodore Borenseh, Appointments Secretary Kenneth O'Donnell, and Lawrence O'Brien, special assistant for congressional affairs.
Salinger said Walter Heller, chairman of the president's economic advisers, also agreed to keep working.

Effort Is Planned To Bring Rights Bill to Floor Vote

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3 (UPI)—Speaker John W. McCormack announced today that an effort will be launched Monday to pry the civil rights bill out of the house rules committee and bring it to a vote on the floor. McCormack said following a meeting of Democratic congressional leaders with President Johnson that "as far as the leadership of the house is concerned every effort will be made" to force the measure out of the committee.

FBI Murder Report Calls Oswald 'Loner'

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3 (UPI)—An FBI report concludes that Lee Harvey Oswald was a "loner" who shot and killed President Kennedy, government sources said today. The report says the President was hit by two bullets, either of which would have killed him. The report is expected to be submitted to Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy tomorrow. By the end of the week it is expected to be forwarded to the White House where it will be turned over to a seven-man blue-ribbon commission named by President Johnson to investigate the assassination. The commission is headed by Chief Justice Earl Warren.
Sources said the report finds that both Harvey and Jack Ruby, the night club owner who in turn shot Oswald before a television audience, were acting as individuals, not as part of any conspiracy.
The FBI concludes Oswald had no help in preparing his ambush from the sixth floor of the Texas school book depository building; that he was alone when he poked a bolt action rifle out of the window and fired three shots at the passing presidential limousine on Nov. 22.

Allies Want Johnson Plan For Alliance

LONDON, Dec. 3 (AP)—The United States' European allies want President Johnson to spell out as soon as possible his immediate plans for the western alliance and the cold war thaw, diplomatic sources said today.
The allies hope for an "early and more clearly defined outline" of Johnson's policies for the forthcoming round of diplomatic consultations. This will end in a series of "little summits" between Johnson and other western leaders.
Britain and most of the European allies were reassured by Johnson's speech to Congress last week in which he promised to follow the late President Kennedy's foreign policy. Now they want this pledge spelled out.
With a presidential election in 1964, Europeans fear that Johnson's preoccupation with domestic business might push international considerations into the background.

Plans Set for Annual Scout Council Meet

The 39th annual meeting of the Snake River council, Boy Scouts of America, will be held at 7 p.m. Wednesday in the Twin Falls National Guard armory, announces Dr. Vaughn Pond, president of the Snake River council.
A potluck dinner will be served, with about 400 Scouting leaders and their wives in attendance.
Featured speaker of the evening will be O. D. Sharpe, regional executive of the Northwest states, which include Idaho, Washington, Oregon, western Montana and Alaska.
Sharpe has been western with the Boy Scouts for 63 years and has served as Scout executive at Berkeley, Calif., director of registration, assistant director of personnel, and regional executive for region 11 since 1944. He is the father of two boys, one of whom is now Scout executive of the Cascade Area council, Salem, Ore.
The coveted Silver Beaver award will be presented to four Scouters of the council at the meeting Wednesday. Melvin Cutler, a holder of the Silver Beaver, and a national council representative will be present.

Sale of License Plates Hits 1,048

A total of 1,048 1964 auto and license plate sets had been sold at the Twin Falls county court house by noon Tuesday.
The total included 1,000 passenger car plate sets and 48 truck plate sets.
The low number of truck plates is because passenger car instead of truck plates are being issued for pickup trucks this year. It was explained at the office of the county assessor.
At the deputy assessor's office in Buhl, it was reported 155 sets of passenger plates and 15 sets of truck plates had been sold up to noon Tuesday.

Highway District Elections Held in Valley

Magic Valley voters in 10 towns turned out Monday evening for highway district, fire district and cemetery district elections. A total of 491 votes was cast in sub-district 3 of the Twin Falls highway district, where Ora W. Jones, Hollister, defeated Robert (Bob) Lechlitter, Twin Falls, 396 to 95.
Jones will serve a four-year term as commissioner, beginning Jan. 1. The post is now held by Leonard B. Peters, Amsterdam, who has served for 16 years and declined to run for reelection because of business and other commitments.
In Piler, 14 voters turned out to elect Elmer Reichert as commissioner for sub-district No. 3 of the Piler highway district. Reichert was appointed earlier this year as commissioner to fill the unexpired term of Harold Lancaster, who became Twin Falls county clerk.
Other elections were held in Glenna Ferry, Rupert, King Hill, Burley, Richfield, Bliss, Buhl and Wendell. Rupert voters also cast ballots in two Mindoka rural districts and in Wendell there were rural fire district and cemetery district elections.
In Twin Falls, unofficial results were:
Twin Falls No. 1—Jones, 131; and Lechlitter, 20; No. 2—Jones, 76; and Lechlitter, 12; No. 3—Jones, 60; and Lechlitter, 13; Berger, Jones, 4; and Lechlitter, 10; Hollister, Jones, 60; and Lechlitter, four; Rogerson, Jones, 32; Kimberly, Jones, 0; and Lechlitter, 17; Hansen, Jones, six; and Lechlitter, three; and Rock Creek, Jones, 12.
Polls in Twin Falls opened at 1 p.m. and closed at 7 p.m.
In Wendell, Truman Boyd, incumbent, was reelected for a four-year term in sub-district No. 3 of the Wendell cemetery district. Boyd received 213 of the 221 votes cast. The remaining votes were all write-ins.
In the West End fire district at Rupert, Clyde Greenwell, incumbent, polled 85 votes. In the Mindoka fire district two incumbents, LaVerno Montgomery and Clyde Gentry, were reelected with votes of 17 and 15.
Both incumbents, Dwight Osborne, polling 101 votes in sub-district No. 1, and Elmer Johnson, collecting 100 votes in sub-district No. 2, were reelected in Wendell's rural fire district election. Both will serve four-year terms. There were 119 votes cast in sub-district No. 2.
Results of other highway district elections in the valley were:
BURLEY
Sirie Powers, incumbent, was reelected for another two-year term, defeating Raymond Bean 343-270. Ervino Dowey, incumbent, was reelected for a four-year term and defeated Jack Morgan 365-246. Powers was appointed for sub-district No. 3.

T. F. Girls Are Hurt in Nevada Crash

MCDERMITT, Nev., Dec. 3 (AP)—Two Twin Falls girls, who were injured when their car overturned on highway 95 about 25 miles north of here late Sunday, were reported in fair condition Tuesday by attendants at the Winnemucca, Nev., hospital.
Injured are Roberta Walkup, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. H. B. Walkup, and Doris Cutler, 21. Both are former employees of the Times-News business office.
They were en route to Bethany Bible college, Santa Cruz, Calif. Two other companions, Naomi Pfister, 21, and Barbara Stevens, 20, were not hospitalized. They also were listed as Bethany college students.
Officers said the girls were returning to the campus after spending Thanksgiving at the home of Miss Walkup. It was reported the driver of the car lost control after skidding on black ice.
The car was demolished after overturning three times.
The girls were released from hospital Tuesday.

Germans Now In Rocket Business

HAMBURG, Germany, Dec. 3 (AP)—West Germany is back in the military rocket business, but only for export, the manufacturers say.
Joachim Boegner, chairman of the Weapons and Aviation Armament corporation, told newsmen last night his firm is developing military rockets for sale abroad and will test four of them Thursday.
"We see nothing wrong with it," he said. "Why should German industry not use opportunities opening up in these countries and leave export chances to countries like Sweden or Switzerland?"
Boegner said no sales would be made to communist nations. He said his company would concentrate on the undeveloped nations, but he declined to identify potential customers. Forty military rocket experts from several nations will attend Thursday's test firing, he said.
Germany has not built military rockets since World War II, when its V1 and V2 missiles rained down on London and other allied targets.

News Letter Tells of Book By Kennedy

CHICAGO, Dec. 3 (AP)—A book collector's news letter told today about a rare book, "As We Remembered," written by the late John Fitzgerald Kennedy as a tribute to his brother.

The news letter, Book Collecting World, said that only about 40 copies of the book were published. The library of congress did not acquire one of the copies until the week President Kennedy was assassinated.

The book contains 60 pages and 31 illustrations and is a collection of tributes to Lieut. Joseph P. Kennedy, navy flier killed during World War II while on a special assignment.

The Harvard university press published the book in 1945. John F. Kennedy presented one copy to the officers and men of the USS Joseph P. Kennedy when the ship was commissioned 18 years ago and it was this copy that was donated to the library of congress.

V. Celmer, editor of Book Collecting World, said he first learned of the book's existence when a copy turned up in a Chicago book store. It was purchased for the Lilly library in Indianapolis, Ind., by David Randall, librarian, who sent a photocopy to the library of congress.

The library of congress then began its search for an original.

Robert Kennedy Plans Unknown, But Expected to Carry on in His Job

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3 (AP)—What does the future hold for Robert Francis Kennedy, brother and No. 1 adviser to a president now dead at an assassin's hand?

The word today is that the 38-year-old attorney general—whom millions of television viewers saw constantly by the heroic widow's side—will be back soon from a brief rest in Florida, and that he is ready to support the new President, Lyndon B. Johnson, as fully as Johnson supported John F. Kennedy.

Though he has spoken no public word on his plans he is expected to carry on.

He would not, of course, if Johnson wanted another man.

But Johnson has asked all cabinet members to stay. Anyway, those knowledgeable of the national scene would consider it unthinkable for Johnson to let Kennedy go.

For one thing, much of the Kennedy mantle has fallen on the oldest surviving brother. To many Negroes, for example, Robert Kennedy is a knightly crusader for their civil rights, though by the same token some Negro leaders have felt he did not push hard enough.

There has been talk—too early to tell whether it has substance—that Johnson might ask him to join the ticket next year as vice presidential nominee.

As for the long-term future, his friends and wife Ethel are convinced that at some time he will run for public office. For the Kennedys have been and are competitive men, public men intent on affairs of state.

How did Robert bear the blow of his brother's death? With the somber calm of a Stoic—a calm induced by a faith younger than stoicism, yet old.

On the fateful Nov. 22, he had finished a conference at the justice department—a session dealing ironically with how to combat crime. He invited the conferees, U.S. Atty. Robert Morgenthau of New York City and an assistant, Silvio Mallo, out for lunch at the many-windowed, rambling, white brick farmhouse in McLean, Va.

With Mrs. Kennedy, they were seated on a veranda for the lunch, when a telephone rang. Robert went to answer it.

As he went, an electrician working on a nearly-completed addition to the house strode toward the open veranda and called out softly that he had just heard on the radio that the President had been shot.

Robert evidently did not hear this. He went to the phone and received from FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover the word that the President had been struck down, probably fatally.

Then, in a short time came a call from Texas, telling of the President's death. Old friends and neighbors dropped in soon to say and do what they could.

First was John A. McCone, head of the CIA, which is not far away.

McCone and Robert went out in the yard, walking for 20 minutes, their heads bowed, talking occasionally.

Lyndon B. Johnson called from Texas, asking in choked tones for legal advice. Would it be all right for him to take the oath in Texas? It would.

Ethel drove away to take the school-age Kennedy children out of school. She wanted to tell them—Kathleen, Joe, Bobby, David and Courtney—before others did.

About 4:30 p.m. the attorney general went to the Pentagon for a 20-minute talk with Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara.

Then by helicopter to Andrews air force base, where he bounded up a stairs and entered the plane bearing the casket, the widow, the new President, the new First Lady.

The world knows now how Robert was at the widow's side in the days that followed, how he walked and sat by her side constantly and helped with the funeral arrangements.

Robert F. Kennedy is no man to tell publicly now what his thoughts were, or what his words were, during the tragic days.

But he is known to have had this little conversation with an assistant who approached him: "How are you doing?" Kennedy asked.

"I've had better days," the saddened assistant said.

"Don't be sad," Kennedy said. "The assistant said he is certain that these words came from Kennedy's deep well of religious conviction."

Irving Grudel Honored at Rites

RUPERT, Dec. 3—Funeral services for Irving G. Grudel were held Saturday at the Walk mortuary chapel with the Rev. George H. Quarterman, vicar of the Trinity Memorial Episcopal church, officiating.

Mrs. Sally Cunningham was organist and Claud H. Bowman sang two solos. James LaRue and Eddie Linard acted as ushers.

Active pallbearers were Dr. D. P. Slavin, Robert Reed, Ray Duncan, H. V. Creason, A. H. Clayton and Robert Schrieber. Honorary pallbearers included Robert D. Seagist, Frank Hinrichs, A. D. Buckley, Jerry Masterson, W. C. Backman, Don Tolson and Alfred Zoerb.

Flowers were cared for by Rolla Zoerb, Evelyn Hinrichs, Betty Dickson, Sara LaRue, Pauline Wilks and Martha Reed.

Final rites were held in the Rupert cemetery under the direction of the Rupert Masonic lodge No. 65.

Clover Girl Will Direct Seal Drive

FILER, Dec. 3—Carla Losser has been named to manage the 1963 Christmas seals campaign, sponsored by the Waltham league, youth organization of the Lutheran church—Missouri synod.

She is a member of the Clover Trinity Lutheran church, Clover, and will direct the seal campaign in 28 congregations in southeastern Idaho and 12 congregations in Utah. This district comprises the Utah-Idaho Waltham league district.

The Waltham league seal campaign, sponsored each year since 1910, seeks to inform members of the church of the service projects of the Wheat Ridge foundation, a health and welfare foundation of the league.

Special contributions support the medical mission projects sponsored by the Wheat Ridge foundation in foreign countries and the foundation also sponsors social service programs in the United States and Canada and provides full tuition scholarships to young people studying for careers in social work.

Waltham leaguers anticipate receiving more than $500,000 this year from league members and adult members of the Missouri synod, Mrs. Losser said.

Birds Routed

MOFFETT FIELD, Calif., Dec. 3 (AP)—The United States navy announced today that the enemy has been met and routed.

Thousands of seagulls had been spending their days on the landing strips of this naval air station, creating a hazard for pilots.

Two weeks ago a navy sound truck began broadcasting the recorded call of a seagull in distress along the strips each morning.

"There are so few of them now they aren't much of a problem," a spokesman said.

Bubble-Top Auto May Be Retired

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3 (AP)—Vice President Johnson decides to use it, the bubble-top limousine in which President Kennedy was assassinated probably will be returned to a museum.

The vehicle was flown back to Washington after experts carefully examined it for bullet fragments or other evidence in connection with the fatal shooting of Kennedy in Dallas on Nov. 22.

The 30-month-old limousine is in perfect condition except for a small, unexplained hole in the windshield which may have been caused by a bullet fragment.

If Johnson decides against using the auto, it would likely be returned to the Ford Motor company. The specially designed navy blue Lincoln Continental is leased by the government from Ford for $500 a year.

Ford would presumably donate it to the Henry Ford museum at Dearborn, Mich., where one former presidential car, the Lincoln "Sunshine Special" used by President Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry S. Truman between 1939 and 1950, is already on display.

The vehicle in which Kennedy was slain had been in presidential service since June, 1961.

Camas to Hear Portland Pastor

FAIRFIELD, Dec. 3—The Rev. De McFarling, Portland, district superintendent of the American Sunday School union, will be guest speaker at 7:30 Wednesday at the Community church, according to the pastor, the Rev. James Post. The Rev. Mr. McFarling spoke at the church about a year ago. For many years the children and youth of the church have been attending the American Sunday School union camp at Camp Sawtooth on the north fork of the Big Wood river. The organization also maintains Sunday schools in remote areas of Magic Valley and has one at Pratherville during the summer.

Nervy Pair

BOSTON, Dec. 3 (AP)—Two 7-year-old boys used two subway tokens and a lot of nerve to get a round trip flight to New York.

Back in Boston, Billy Alther and Steve Murray told authorities they rode the subway from their homes to Logan airport Monday night, then nonchalantly strolled with other passengers aboard an Eastern Air Lines plane.

The shuttle plane was airborne before a stewardess selling tickets came to the boys and discovered they were alone and broke.

New York police put the boys on the first Eastern flight back to Boston.

Murder Trial Delayed Pending Test Results

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 3 (AP)—The murder trial of Robert Evans has been delayed until January pending results of psychiatric tests.

Evans, 27-year-old Hawaiian born suspect, is accused of strangling to death Irene Davis, 41, an Idaho cattle heiress.

House Passes Disposition Bill Won by Indians

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3 (AP)—The house passed Monday and sent back to the senate a bill to provide for the disposition of $359,000 won by the Bonners Ferry Kootenai Indians in Idaho in a suit against the government.

As passed by the senate, the bill provided that the tribe would authorize the method of disposing of the money, subject to approval of the secretary of the interior. As passed by the house the secretary himself would have to join in authorizing the payment method.

The suit was settled in 1960 and the money, now amounting to approximately $380,000, including four per cent interest, is held in trust by the U.S. treasury.

RACE RULE OKAYED

ATLANTA, Dec. 3 (AP)—The board of aldermen adopted Monday a resolution calling for voluntary desegregation of public places. The resolution, passed 10-4, urges all public and private businesses, agencies, organizations and institutions to give immediate consideration to the removal of racial barriers. It does not have the force of law.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

BY ANDREW TULLY
 WASHINGTON, Dec. 3—In Budapest, a woman stood in the street, her face drenched with tears and cried out to the world. "What will become of us all?" and in her cry there was hope for mankind.

For her cry was not of a Hungarian or a Catholic, or a Protestant or a Jew, or a Moslem. It was not the cry of a Communist or a capitalist. It was, simply and powerfully, the cry of a human being.

Statements around the globe, preoccupied with the parochial crises of their own little worlds, will "with noble nor long remember" the wail of that woman in a Budapest street over the murder of John Fitzgerald Kennedy. And they will be blindly, criminally wrong, as they have been so often in the past.

MAN ALONE MATTERS—For that woman has reminded those statesmen of the fleeting significance of political philosophies. She has reminded them that communism and all the other ideologies are only slogans to snare the populace, angrily and impatiently forgotten when man is snatched by death.

In their frenzied maneuverings for power, the statesmen have overlooked the one important factor of international life. It is that nations are not made up of communists or capitalists or Democrats or Republicans or single taxers. They are made up of people.

John Kennedy was President of the United States, but he was something far more important. He was a human being. And all over the world, the lonely animals that also are human beings lost something personal, something of frightening importance. They lost a part of themselves, a blood brother. In a street in Budapest and in Moscow's Red Square, John Kennedy's brothers and sisters in the human family knew John Donne's words, even if they had never heard of him.

GRIEF UNIVERSAL—They realized again that "No man is an island, entire of itself," and their hearts cried out with Donne that "any man's death diminishes me, because I am involved in mankind." To the plain citizen in Paris and Bangkok and Peking and Belgrade, John Kennedy belonged to the only political party that matters—the party of mankind.

In Communist East Berlin the newspapers appeared with heavy black mourning borders, and in Moscow the state radio played funeral dirges. West Berliners marched in a sorrowing torchlight parade. The voice of a Yugoslav commentator was heard to quaver as he broadcast the news of the President's death.

"He was so young!" cried a woman elevator operator in Moscow. "Those wretches!"

PART OF THE MAIN—Statesmen of the world, this is the world speaking. Your own official statements of grief are proper and do you credit as civilized men, but they are unimportant, even routine. Whether you are communist or neofascist, it does not matter what you say about John Kennedy's death, because what the plain people of the world are saying, with sob in their throats, are the words of mankind. They are not concerned with the words of Kennedy's politics were, but with the fact that he was, in Donne's words, "a piece of the continent, a part of the main," which is humanity.

Take heed, gentlemen, of the voices they are not the voices of your constituents or your slaves. They are the voices of your masters.

LAUDABLE SERVICE

The Idaho Farm Bureau Federation is losing a president but gaining the continuing services of member L. B. Martin, who is completing this week a record period of service as leader of the state-wide organization.

Since 1949 "L. B." has been a member of the official family, first as a member of the board of directors, then as vice president, and since 1964 as president. His service period brought a growth and expansion without parallel in the history of the Idaho Farm Bureau which was reorganized at about the time Martin became a member.

His organization ability, dedicated to high principles, insight and ability to arrive at sound conclusions after examination of problems have paid dividends to Idaho's farflung farm organization.

A farmer who began in a small way, Martin is expanding his own holdings and operations and must reduce the time he is contributing to public service to give the necessary close attention to his own enterprises.

Farm Bureau will miss him at the council table, but he will remain active as a member and it can be expected he will be available to give the benefit of his long experience. His termination of the presidency does not mean a termination of service.

A tireless worker in behalf of the Farm Bureau, he was selected for membership in the American Farm Bureau Federation—board of directors where he has served four years.

He has appeared at sessions of the Idaho Legislature to advance the cause of Idaho farm people. His philosophy of service steers a clear course in accomplishment as a member of the Friends church at Caldwell, as a member of the Farm Bureau, and as an outstanding citizen.

The Farm Bureau and "L. B.'s" many friends are appreciative of the many years association with him, and wish him well in his new venture. —Idaho State Journal.

SPEEDIER IN '64?

There is a much-quoted maxim among newspaper reporters who have learned how to spend a maximum of time away from the newsroom and the eagle eye of the city editor, yet keep that worthy convinced they are working hard. It is: "When from the office far you fit, always get back in time to quit."

Judging from the great numbers of congressional figures absent from the Capital while the house and senate assertedly are grappling vigorously with civil rights, a tax cut and foreign aid, our federal lawmakers are becoming well versed in this delicate technique. And they are heeding the final admonishment, too. They'll return from their Christmas vacation Thursday, Jan. 2, just in time to adjourn the first session of the 88th congress and convene the second session the following day.

Next year, being an election year, we may expect to hear a great deal about how ardently our senators and representatives labored this year in the public's behalf, and at what great personal sacrifice they relinquished their customary recess to remain in continuous session to grapple with the nation's problems. We suspect, however, that these problems will be no less knotty next year, but that as election day, 1964, approaches, the lawmakers somehow will find ways to get their work done with more dispatch and hit the campaign trail openly and officially, rather than covertly as at present. —The Oregonian.

STICKERS

There ought to be a law against putting bumper stickers on parked automobiles without the consent of owners. But since there isn't, people distributing such stickers ought to come to some mutual agreement not to plaster up untended automobiles.

It's bad enough for an automobile owner to find his bumper gaudily advertising some resort area. But the worst blow comes when he finds his car a moving advertisement for a political candidate whose views he opposes.

The stickers are not only irritating, which is good enough reason for distributors not to take advantage of parked cars. They also are extremely difficult to remove and often ruin the appearance of the automobile bumpers to boot. —Raleigh News and Observer.

The Doctor Says

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
 Q—You said in one of your answers that there was an increase in syphilis in teen-agers. Why don't they require all high school students to have a blood test? And food handlers, too, so they won't give it to someone else. Is there any way to tell if someone has syphilis without a blood test?
 A—Because syphilis is transmitted by such contact as kissing or sexual intercourse and not through food or eating utensils, there would be no point in singling out food handlers for blood testing.
 All public health agencies are interested in case finding but mass blood testing of teen-agers or any other group is not as effective as finding those who have had intimate contact with known cases.
 A physician making a physical examination of a person with early syphilis may find lesions, that strongly suggest syphilis, but he should confirm his suspicions with a blood test or other laboratory findings.
 Q—Is syphilis in the late stages curable?
 A—In late syphilis, which may affect the bones, heart, brain and other organs, tissues that are destroyed cannot be repaired. But the process can be stopped to prevent further damage. Some form of penicillin is usually used. The earlier the treatment is applied the better the results.
 Q—A doctor told me 28 years ago I had syphilis although I was not tested for it until 15 years later. At that time the tests were negative. Could I be infected now?
 A—No responsible doctor would make a diagnosis of syphilis without confirming laboratory tests. You do not say what treatment you took, but it is unlikely that your doctor would have cured you with his methods. Penicillin was not available in those days and, although cure was possible, the treatment was long and tedious. Fortunately most doctors are careful and painstaking and practice the best medicine consistently with the times.
 Since your tests show that you don't have syphilis now, there is a better than average chance that you did not have it 28 years ago. The initial lesion, the chancre, is not painful and does not itch.
 Q—When I was overseas I had 40 shots of penicillin for syphilis and was pronounced cured but my blood test still comes back positive. What is the reason and what should I do?

 A—Yours is a relatively common but troublesome problem. If you had 40 injections of penicillin and were pronounced cured (most cures require much less penicillin), it is safe to say you were cured. In a few persons a cure fails to cause a return of a negative blood test. With this fact established, your best course is to stop worrying as long as you don't expose yourself to reinfection.

Interpreting the News

BY JAMES MARLOW
 Associated Press News Analyst
 WASHINGTON, Dec. 3 (AP)—The time America took a look at itself.

When an African or Asian leader is slain it may be regarded here as the result of a so-called "adversity" less advanced than this one. This is an American myth, a myth that Americans have demonstrated once again.

A President and a policeman shot to death and a governor wounded in Dallas and the man charged with the crimes in turn murdered, before he got a fair trial, by a gunman who leaped through police lines to shoot him.

These crimes are a product of the American society where violence and talk of violence increase as state officials deny federal court orders until troops are called out to stop them.

Yet, supreme achievements of the Western world are supposed to be respect for law, democratic and orderly change in government, a fair trial, and freedom and protection of freedom for the individual man, no matter who he is.

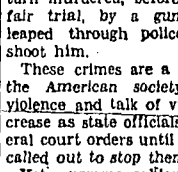

If President Kennedy had been the first president killed in office, it would be awful enough. It would mean one individual, ignoring constitutional and peaceful change in government, decided to take the law into his own hands to eliminate an elected leader.

But killing American presidents, or trying to, is now assuming the complexion of a tradition. Four have been assassinated: Lincoln, Garfield, McKinley, and now Kennedy.

Attempts were made on the lives of three other presidents: Jackson, Franklin D. Roosevelt and Truman. A gunman shot Theodore Roosevelt after his presidency but while he was seeking reelection.

In that same period of almost 100 years not one British prime minister was assassinated. A madman did kill a prime minister, Spencer Perceval, 151 years ago.

It can't be argued the British are basically different or that among them the percentage of lunatics or discontented are proportionately smaller. They are simply more dedicated to peaceful and orderly government.

As long ago as 1200 B.C. an Egyptian king, Ramses III, looking over his own administration of law and justice, said: "I made the land safe so that a lone woman could go on her way freely and none would molest her."

That's more than the United States can say today, 3,100 years later, even about the safety of its presidents. But the worst criminal, even the killer of a president, is entitled to a fair trial.

Even here in Washington, tireless unceasingly walking the streets at night because of the number of people being robbed, stabbed, shot or dragged into alleys to be raped.

Adlai E. Stevenson, twice a presidential candidate and now U. S. ambassador to the United Nations, found one month ago, also in Dallas, that not even a man in his position was safe from some violence on the street.

After leaving an auditorium, where he made a speech on the 18th anniversary of the United Nations, he was surrounded by pickets, one of whom spat in his face. He was hit on the head with a sign carried by a woman.

Stevenson, who has a fine sense of history, freedom and justice, told her: "It's all right to have your own views but don't hit anyone."

Chief Justice Earl Warren, at a justice beside President Kennedy's casket, wondered what moved "some misguided wretch" to murder the President.

He said: "We do know that such acts are commonly stimulated by forces of hatred and malevolence such as today are eating their way into the bloodstream of American life. What a price to pay for fanaticism!"

He knows about fanaticism. Hate has spilled all over him and the other justices of the supreme court for their decisions on the issue of freedom and civil rights.

He has been ridiculed and mocked. There have been calls to lynch him and impeach him for "giving aid and comfort to the communist conspiracy."

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon asked all Americans to "pledge themselves to fight this tendency of hatred and violence we've seen in the last two days. We cannot help but deplore a man taking the law into his own hands."

And Dr. A. Raymond Grant, a Methodist bishop in Oregon, said: "I shuddered when I learned that crowds cheered when Lee Oswald had been killed. God have mercy upon us, that human life has become so cheap and that tragedy has been heaped upon tragedy."

BARRY GOLDWATER

In the nation's initial shock at the assassination of President Kennedy, there was little time or opportunity for objective assessment of motivation.

Further complicating matters was the alleged assassination of Lee Harvey Oswald. This eliminated the need for hearings, grand jury presentations, trial and appeals, all of which would have thrown Barry Goldwater light on the working of the warped mind which conceived and carried out the assassination of the President.

During three and one-half days of continuous reporting of the events of that tragic week-end, our major television and radio networks presented the views and speculations of commentators, who understandably failed in their attempts to get at the thinking of Oswald himself.

As to Jack Ruby, who pressed a pistol into the assassin's ribs and fired, little explanation was needed.

Ruby, a small-time nightclub operator, was a man of violent political passions who had been known to become almost uncontrollable at criticism of his political idols.

John Kennedy was such an idol, and his assassination threw Ruby into a blind rage which led to the murder of Oswald. Intemperate? Irrational? Emotional? Yes, it was all these things, but at least we can understand the motivation.

As for Oswald's act, we have been given less material upon which to base a fair analysis. Immediately following the shooting of Mr. Kennedy, there were some misleading statements to the effect that the assassination had been engineered by the so-called "radical right."

Even the U. S. Information Agency, in its broadcasts to Russia, said the assassination had taken place in Dallas and described that city as a center of right-wing extremism. This broadcast was at the root of the Soviet contention that rightists were responsible for the killing and that the subsequent slaying of Oswald was part of a plot to cover up the conspiracy.

Efforts to tie every group to the right of center, whether extreme or not, into the slaying of President Kennedy have continued since, despite the long communist background of Oswald himself. One columnist even suggested that "extremists" are best upon such acts of violence, and therefore we should do away with free speech. His reasoning was free expression leads to violence, a few minutes of sober reflection on the goals and origins of communism, however, can afford us a better understanding of the thinking which led to Oswald's alleged crime.

Karl Marx, the father of communism, was himself similar to Oswald in many respects. He was rejected by those in his community because of a number of personal habits which were distasteful. But, as usually is the case with psychopathic malcontents, Marx concluded that the community, not he, needed correction.

In his writings, he called for destruction far greater than that of a single man—the overthrow of all civilization as we knew it. This philosophy has been implemented by his adherents since. Millions of men, women and children have been slaughtered by the reds simply because they represented our historic principles and mores. The communist dedication to our destruction has been expressed best by Nikita Khrushchev, with whom some would have co-existed peacefully, when he said, "We will bury you!"

To the communist mind, even institutions and every person representative of capitalist society, whether he be a self-styled liberal, a radical or a conservative, is marked for such obliteration. There may be differences as to method, such as those which exist between Mao and Khrushchev, but the goals of communists the world over are the same—the annihilation of Judeo-Christian culture and the capitalist society it has produced.

Denials by the national heads of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee, Fidel Castro and Khrushchev, that Oswald was a card-carrying member of the communist party or a Cuban agent are of no consequence. The Rosenbergs and a host of others who acted as agents of the international conspiracy also lacked such membership. The fact is that in his allegiance, his hatred of his native land and his desire to obliterate "capitalist imperialism" and all its representatives, Oswald was a dedicated communist.

Obviously, there have been and are cracks in the other extreme, but this should not blind us to the cold realities of communist aims and the effect they have on the minds of warped men like Lee Oswald.

How do you stand, sir?

OLD LADY LUCK SHOWERS TRICKS
 South wasn't proud of the three-no-trump bid. He did have the spades thoroughly stopped and a fit for his partner's diamond suit, but East had opened with a club and the club suit was wide open against him.

When West doubled, South liked his bid even less. But he

South did not say anything. He was too busy planning his play.

He took East's king of spades with the ace, led the jack of diamonds and let it ride. It held.

and things were looking up. Now South could count two spades, one heart and five diamonds for a total of eight. Where was the ninth trick coming from?

South decided that West would hold a singleton honor in clubs with six clubs to the three top honors it looked as if East would have rebid the suit.

Perhaps East had a singleton honor of hearts. Why not? It seemed worth a try so South played his ace of hearts and East dropped the queen.

A second heart was won by West's king and West led the ten of hearts. Dummy's jack won. South had nine tricks, but he wasn't satisfied.

He led another heart and West was in the lead. West played the king of clubs which held. Then West led a diamond and South was able to run out 10 tricks.

Good Question

Americans have been wondering for years about the steady erosion of morals and the changes in society's standards of decency. Some have spoken out strongly against what appears to be a steady trend away from decency and morality. General lip service is paid such spokesmen, yet the erosion of morals continues even as historians point to other great powers—notably ancient Rome—as evidence of what results eventually.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, writing in the December issue of the FBI Law Enforcement bulletin, has words about morality and integrity that are well worth repeating.

"Are we Americans ashamed to be identified today with decency and morality? Are we forsaking the time-tested principles upon which our great country was founded for a substandard, more accommodating code of conduct?"

"There appears to be a preponderance of evidence to indicate a truthful reply to these questions has to be in the affirmative. However, here a true answer is the 'strong' answer, and it is high time righteous, freedom-loving people take a closer look at what is happening to our moral standards.

"Morality is one of the most perplexing and controversial problems facing our nation. Why? Primarily, it is because of individual and collective moral cowardice on the part of our society. We do not have the courage to stand in conflict with the mad rush for material wealth, indulgence, and social prestige. We are condoners and appeasers of a practice which we distrust and disapprove but which we will not overtly oppose.

"The lack of morality and integrity stems from a false sense of values. Many persons are so preoccupied with selfishness and greed they no longer know—or care for that matter—where honor stops and dishonest commences. Others are simply confused.

"Rationalization and double standards have so clouded some moral principles that right and wrong are no longer clearly distinguishable.

"Moral retrogression is not confined to any one group or sector of our country. This social illness is universal. Immorality rears its ugly head in every American institution and profession. None is free from its stigma. It is reflected equally as much in corporative price-fixing as in teen-age vandalism; in payoffs to politicians as in classroom cheating; in sports world bribes as in law enforcement scandals, and in income tax returns padding as in voting frauds.

"Immorality itself is not the only danger of the crisis. Some theorists suggest our moral standards be scrapped for a less restrictive code by which our moral derelictions can be justified. Such thinking is a flight from responsibility and an accelerator to further moral decadence.

"If the destruction of our great nation itself were the goal of these advocates, they could not devise a better means to achieve it.

"With the approach of the joyous holiday season, let us, as God-loving people, shoulder our moral responsibilities, not flee from them. Let us stand proud and erect, champions all, for morality, integrity and Godliness. Let us assure that it may always be said of our country, 'America is great because she is good.'

THAT'S DIFFERENT

The end is not yet in sight for railroad efforts to reduce unnecessary overhead. So far, the nation has avoided any lengthy, paralyzing tieup of rail facilities, but anyone can guess what will happen before the matter is resolved finally.

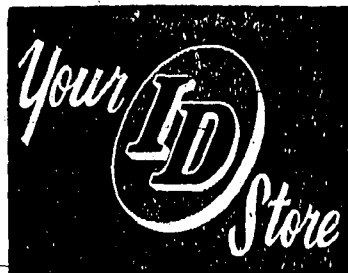

Following legal procedures, the railroads took their case clear to the supreme court, which ruled they had the right to abolish firemen's jobs. That didn't settle the matter, even though the highest court in the land had spoken. So last August, on the eve of what could have been a giant strike, congress passed a law setting up an arbitration board and specified the board's findings would be binding on both parties.

Comes now the new arbitration board with a ruling that 90 per cent of firemen's jobs should be eliminated by attrition. But that hasn't ended the problem, either. Two of five railroad unions say they will file suit over the ruling and the law setting up the board.

Presumably if the board's ruling had gone the other way, then the railroads would have been fighting it through the courts. There is no reconciling the opposite positions of rail unions and management, with every indication the row will continue for some time. Eventually, there must be some agreement, but the fighting isn't over yet. Maybe it hasn't even started.

Lad Shoots Pet Lioness In Attack

SPRINGFIELD, Ore., Dec. 3 (AP)—A 10-year-old Corvallis, Ore. boy shot a pet lioness to death as the animal dragged him to its pen.
Bob Stevens, Springfield, had owned Cleo, the 2-year-old lioness, since the animal was three weeks old. It was chained in his back yard.
Ronald Guiley was returning from a crow hunt Sunday, and spotted the 250-pound lioness as he walked by with a friend. The boys said they had pelted the lion before.
Cleo tripped the boy by biting through his boot.
"I think she was just playing at first," Guiley said. "But she saw blood on my leg and started to drag me toward her pen."
Guiley tugged a shotgun cartridge from his pocket, loaded his gun, and pressed the muzzle under Cleo's left eye. The blast killed the animal.
"It was the fastest reload I ever tried," the youth said.
He suffered tooth and claw wounds. His condition at a hospital Monday was good.

Secret Agent Is Cited for His Bravery

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3 (AP)—Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy plans to leave seclusion today to attend a special ceremony citing her secret service man for exceptional bravery in the moments after an assassin shot down President Kennedy.
The agent, Clinton J. Hill, 31, is to receive the citation from Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon. The secret service is an agency of the treasury.
In the Dallas motorcade, Hill was riding in the car behind the Kennedys. When the shots fell, Kennedy and wounded Texas Gov. John Connally, Hill sprinted from his car and vaulted into the moving presidential limousine. He threw himself over the President and Mrs. Kennedy to protect them.
Hill was assigned to guard Mrs. Kennedy shortly after the 1960 election. He has traveled with the former First Lady ever since.
Tight security has been clamped down on the investigation of the assassination and Hill was not permitted to give reports of his account of Kennedy's murder and his part in trying to guard the First Family.
Hill is the second secret service agent to receive commendation for actions on that tragic Friday 11 days ago.
Rufus Youngblood, assigned to protect then Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, was personally commended by the newly sworn President Johnson for throwing himself over Johnson when the shots exploded.
The secret service has been asked by President Johnson to continue its protection of Mrs. Kennedy and her two children, Caroline and John. Hill is one of the agents being kept on the assignment.

Law Change Makes It Easier For Idaho to Get Teachers

By RICHARD CHARNOCK
BOISE, Dec. 3 (AP)—One of the lesser known changes in Idaho education laws adopted by the 1963 legislature is making it easier to get teachers from other states.
While local school districts still are confronted by the perennial salary problem in luring instructors from outside Idaho, they now are more able to take advantage of the talents of those who come here for other reasons.
Until the last legislature re-coded the public school laws of the state, the Idaho board of education was permitted to endorse an out of state teaching certificate for only one year.
Now, thanks to a change slipped into the law in re-codification, the board may approve out of state certificates for use in Idaho up to a period of five years providing requirements for those certificates are no lower than Idaho's.
Donovan Douglas, certification chief for the state education department, said that so far this school year 89 out-of-state certificates have been endorsed or approved for use in Idaho. This is a dramatic increase from previous years.
There were just 13 endorsed in 1958-59, four in 1959-60, eight in 1960-61 and six in 1961-62, Douglas said.
This increase, of course, raises questions: Are Idaho schools getting rejects from other states? Does the increase mean Idaho is getting more teachers under the new program than it otherwise would?
Whether Idaho is getting teachers other states have certified but would rather not have is a question that is "difficult to measure," Douglas said.
"Frankly," he said, "Idaho has been getting for several years a number of older teachers who have been retired elsewhere... where there is a compulsory retirement age of 65."
Under Idaho's new endorsement provision, these teachers can come to Idaho and teach another five years on their out-of-state certificates before hitting this state's retirement age of 70.
"And I've known of teachers forced to retire at age 70 in Idaho," Douglas said, "who were better than many who were considerably younger."
Some of the teachers undoubtedly are wives of men transferred to Idaho from other states by their employers. These include spouses of military personnel, atomic technicians and others employed by far-ranging organizations having activities in Idaho.
To qualify for endorsement by the Idaho board of education, the out-of-state teachers must have at least two years of college training. That is the minimum requirement for an emergency or provisional certificate in this state, Douglas said, and the endorsement law will not permit approval of any certificate with a lesser requirement than Idaho.
These teachers may teach up to three years in this state if their certificates are valid that long in the states where they were issued. Those holding the equivalent of Idaho's standard certificate — which requires a minimum of four years of college — may teach up to five years before seeking Idaho certification.
"It'd be of the opinion," Douglas said, "that many of those

Commonwealth Ministers Have Telephone Talk

OTTAWA, Dec. 3 (AP)—Alec, Mike, Bob and Keith—four British Commonwealth prime ministers—cracked jokes, compared their weather and talked politics Monday night over a 15,000-mile telephone hookup.
Millions in Britain, Canada, Australia and New Zealand listened in by radio and television.
Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home of Britain, Lester B. Mike Pearson of Canada, Sir Robert Menzies of Australia and Keith Holyoake of New Zealand used a new auburn line cable across the Pacific from British Columbia to Australia.

Russ to Release Dutch Tourists

THE HAGUE, Dec. 3 (AP)—Two Dutch tourists will be freed Wednesday after spending more than two years in Soviet prisons on charges of spying.
The Netherlands' foreign office announced Monday that the Soviet Union had agreed to free Avert Reydon, 31, and Louw de Jager, 27, as a goodwill gesture.
The Soviets said the two confessed they entered the Soviet Union posing as tourists and gathered military and strategic information for Western intelligence agents.
SPECIAL MEET
WASHINGTON, Dec. 3 (AP)—Rep. Richard Bolling, D., Mo., said Monday he will force the house to hold an unusual Saturday session this week in an effort to hasten the administration's civil rights bill to a vote.

News Around Idaho

BOISE, Dec. 3 (AP)—State Treasurer Marjorie R. Moon on Monday redeemed 3 million dollars in tax anticipation notes, the first to be redeemed since the state started the new biennial July 1 with a backlog of unpaid bills. That left the state owing $3,750,000 on notes still to be redeemed, compared with eight million dollars on the corresponding date a year ago.
BOISE, Dec. 3 (AP)—A total of 186 new disease cases were reported to the state board of health for the week ending Nov. 30, bringing the total for the year to 20,400. This compares with 13,728 for the first 48 weeks of 1962. Dr. Orville E. Merrill, acting director of the preventive medicine division, said the report indicated no significant changes. Strep infections continued to lead the list with 78 new cases reported bringing the total for the year to 5,051. A total of 33 new influenza cases were reported bringing the total to 5,009, compared with 2,518 during the first 11 months of 1962.
BOISE, Dec. 3 (AP)—State Land Commissioner O. J. Buxton said Monday that sale of 22 cottage sites in the Stanley Basin points to the possible sale of 2 million dollars worth of sites in the state. Buxton noted that the sites brought nearly $50,000, an average of $2,300. Another 22 remain to be sold. He said applications for sites and interest suggest as many as 2,000 might be sold in various parts of the state. At an average of $1,000 it would mean 2 million dollars. Buxton said that would provide about $80,000 a year in interest for support of the state's public schools. Income from state land sales goes into the school endowment fund. Buxton said sites also will be prepared for sale next year at Cavanaugh bay on Priest lake.
POCAHELLO, Dec. 3 (AP)—It appears a campaign against road sign vandalism in this area is paying off. County Commissioner Chairman Emmette H. Spraker said the county has recovered about a dozen signs stolen earlier. And, he said, stealing of county signs has virtually stopped since last month when officials announced prosecution would start of anyone caught with a stolen road sign in his possession. Between 19 and 20 stolen signs were turned in to the Pocatello police department during a week-long amnesty period. The public was advised that stolen signs could be returned without disciplinary action during that period.

Parents of Boise High Student Injured in Nov. 8 Auto Accident

BOISE, Dec. 3 (AP)—Parents of a Boise high school student injured in a Nov. 8 auto accident near Cascade filed a $225,000 claim Monday against the city of Boise. The boy, Rich Albertson, was injured when a car carrying members of Boise's cross country team ran into cattle 10 miles north of Cascade. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Albertson claim that the city is liable because a city car was involved. They claim that Pat Bleter, the Boise track coach and driver, was negligent. They say the boy is still hospitalized.

Lynda Bird's Life Changed By Security

AUSTIN, Tex., Dec. 3 (AP)—Secret service agents assigned to protect President Johnson's 19-year-old daughter at the University of Texas may find the duty more rewarding than expected.
A friend of Lynda Bird Johnson's quoted her as saying Monday in her dormitory room with reference to the agent who accompanied her to classes: "He sits in the class and seems very interested. He's learning things too."
Lynda Bird is taking a 19-hour class load of English, Latin, history, government, chemistry and Bible.
A sophomore in the school of arts and sciences, Miss Johnson returned to classes Monday with more than 20,000 other students at the university.
She was taken from her dormitory by secret service agents Nov. 22 immediately after the President was shot in Dallas. Agents took her to the governor's mansion in Austin for protection. She attended the funeral services in Washington with her family and returned to Austin Sunday.
Lynda Bird's close friends—Merry Nell Van Fleet, 18, a freshman student from San Antonio—said the Johnsons' eldest daughter had not been appreciably changed by the swift turn of events.
"She's taking it all in stride," Miss Van Fleet said.
At least three secret service agents have been detailed to guard Miss Johnson. She lives with 800 other women students in a university-operated dormitory.
At least one agent is with her wherever she goes in public.
Inside the dormitory, the secret service has set up an office in a glass-walled room that commands a full view of the lobby and main entrance to the building. Extensive telephone circuits have been set up in the office.
Despite the tight security, student life goes on as usual at the dorm.
Agents said no interviews with Lynda Bird would be permitted. Reports from close to the White House have said the President's daughter may transfer late in January at the end of current semester to a school in Washington. They said such a move would greatly simplify the job of guarding her.
Another daughter, Lucy Baines, 18, attends a private high school in Washington.

Ruby Trial Probably Set in '64

DALLAS, Dec. 3 (AP)—It seems almost certain that the murder trial of Jack Ruby, who killed the man accused of assassinating President Kennedy, won't be held until well into next year.
Dist. Atty. Henry Wade, who will prosecute Ruby on the state charge, and defense lawyer Tom Howard said Monday they can't finish preparing their cases by next week.
Dist. Judge Joe B. Brown has set the trial tentatively for Dec. 9. Presumably he will order a postponement on formal request from either side.
One reason for delay, Howard said, will be a defense move for a pre-trial sanity hearing for Ruby, 62, a Dallas night club operator. He estimated it would take two months to get ready for this alone.
As thousands of television viewers watched, Ruby shot and killed accused assassin Lee Harvey Oswald as police started to take Oswald from the City Hall to county jail Nov. 24.
In neighboring Fort Worth, Police Sgt. Jim Stout estimated 10,000 people have walked or driven past the grave of Oswald in Rose Hill cemetery.
Stout is part of a special detail on guard around the clock. Spectators are permitted no closer than a roadway 30 feet from the grave.

Solons Probably Won't Finish Fallout Program

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3 (AP)—Senate sources said today it is questionable whether congress will complete action this year on a $190.6 million dollar nuclear fallout shelter program already approved by the house.
A senate armed services subcommittee postponed until next week the hearing of further testimony on the compromise bill, which has administration backing.

State Wheat Official Will Speak at Bean Grower Meet

Harold West, Boise, administrator of the Idaho wheat commission, will be the featured speaker at the annual membership meeting of the Bean Growers Warehouse association, Inc., Thursday at the National Guard armory, Frontier field.
West served as commissioner of agriculture from 1955 until 1957, at which time he resigned and assumed the management of the newly formed Idaho Potato Processors company, Burley. In 1959 he accepted an executive position as administrator of the newly-formed Idaho wheat commission, and in January, 1960, he assumed the executive director's position for the bean commission.
The meeting will begin with a noon luncheon at the armory. The welcome and introductions will be made by Edward Reichert, president of the association.
At 2 p.m. the nomination and election of directors will be held, followed by a speech by West. The FGA bean contest winner will be honored after the speech and at 3:15 the board of directors will meet and officers will be elected.

Fat Lady Can Reduce, but It's Work

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 3 (AP)—The circus fat lady can reduce, but she'll have a lifelong job holding the weight loss, says a New York physician.
He adds that men seem more successful in re-reducing.
Dr. S. K. Fineberg of Harlem hospital's metabolism service told the American Medical association today of 12 patients who weighed at least twice what they should.
The heaviest weighed 640 pounds at the start of treatment. In nine weeks he lost 97 pounds, almost 11 pounds a week. But he failed to continue treatment.
Two patients, a woman scaling 406 pounds to start and a man weighing 363, each lost 130 pounds in 51 and 27 weeks, respectively, Fineberg said.
His treatment consists of two phases. The first is intensive with a diet of 900 calories a day, drugs to curb appetite, and drugs to get rid of excess water. The treatment lasts two to 12 months. Control is modified in the second phase, which Fineberg says should continue for life. It includes dieting, drugs, education about eating and psychotherapy.
Fineberg said prolonged salt and water retention during weight reduction can probably be blamed for most failures in treatment of obesity.
He explained that water retention can cause a weight gain even while a patient is maintaining a low caloric intake and actually losing fat tissues. The discouraged patient often then abandons treatment.

House Damaged By Auto Here

The northwest corner of a house at 244 Blue Lakes boulevard was damaged at 11:13 p.m. Sunday when it was struck by a car.
Police said the car was traveling south on Blue Lakes boulevard, made a left turn into the driveway at 244 Blue Lakes boulevard and went up the driveway for about 16 feet, then across the lawn for 11 feet, striking the corner of the house owned by Wilbert Lambert.
The car backed out into the street and proceeded along Blue Lakes boulevard to Second avenue east and turned onto Second avenue east.
The Twin Falls police department is continuing investigation.

Super Busy Tulsa Bank Tries Again

TULSA, Okla., Dec. 3 (AP)—A new bank opened Monday to replace a national bank whose doors were shut on 31,000 depositors three weeks ago. Hundreds turned out for the reopening.
Most of those who showed up came to get back money they had put into Southern Hills National bank after it opened Aug. 12. But a few came to open new accounts or to transact other business.
Southern Hills drew 31,000 customers with an offer of "no service charge for life" to initial depositors. It has deposits of about $2 million dollars. First National Bank of Tulsa, general regarded as the biggest in the state, has 29,000 accounts, with total deposits of 280 million dollars.
Comptroller of the currency James Saxton shut down Southern Hills Nov. 8 because its book-keeping fell behind its business. Monday's opening ended three weeks of financial frustration for Southern Hills customers.

Negroes Use Money in New Slum Attack

NEW YORK, Dec. 3 (AP)—Harlem Negroes have chosen a new weapon—money—in their battle against slum housing. It is too early to judge the effectiveness of their rent strike, begun Nov. 1 and given a big impetus Sunday as many more families joined. The fight is based on claims of violations of the city housing code. Jesse Gray, executive director of the community council on housing, expects the movement, now involving about 50 tenements and 353 families, to spread to perhaps 300 more buildings by January. Gray spoke Monday with bank officials about arrangements for holding the tenants' rent payments—normally ranging from $50 to $100 a month—in escrow until their demands are met. The rent strike focuses on complaints of no heat and no hot water. But discontent ranges over such claims as poor roofing, inadequate toilet facilities and the situation. "If the landlords do not make the buildings their own habitations," Gray told a rally Sunday, "let the city government take them over and provide livable conditions in these houses."

District VFW Meet Favors Use of Flags

BUHL, Dec. 3—VFW members of district six went on record as favoring teaching better flag etiquette by working with individual schools in their respective communities during a district meeting held here Sunday with the local VFW post and auxiliary as guests. It was announced the district bowling tournament will be held in February at Gooding. Each post reported on activities and currently sponsored programs. Bill G. Will, Boise, department adjutant quartermaster, was featured speaker for the event. He outlined the programs being sponsored by the VFW in Idaho. He stressed membership, the life blood of any organization, and reported on the "Voice of Democracy" contest being sponsored for high school students. He noted winner of the contest receives an expense paid trip to Washington, D. C. Mr. Will, national council member, spoke at the auxiliary meeting. Walter Smythe, Burley, district commander, and Mrs. Sophie, district auxiliary president, conducted the meetings. With Ioannis is his mother, who accompanied him to the United States from Greece about two weeks ago. (AP wirephoto)

Within minutes, police and national guardsmen with rifles and submachine guns stormed into the office and began evacuating personnel from the office. Then they opened fire on the snipers. The shooting continued for almost 30 minutes and most of us remained crouched in the corridors outside the office. We had already spent fifty-five terrifying minutes on the floor in the darkened office. Police eventually arranged to escort personnel to their homes. A few newsmen went to radio Caracas television to attempt to continue our election coverage as best we could. This morning we returned to the office. On the walls outside—above and below the ninth floor windows of our offices—we counted at least three bullet pockmarks. Inside, a gash an inch in di-

Journalist Recounts Moments as Red Terrorists' Bullets Demolish Office

Editor's note: The following eyewitness account of the terrorism that accompanied the Venezuelan elections is written by the UPI bureau manager in Caracas. BY JAMES R. WHELAN CARACAS, Venezuela, Dec. 3 (AP)—Shortly after 7:30 p.m. Sunday shots rang out in the plaza candelaria below the UPI offices in downtown Caracas. Richard Eder, New York Times correspondent who was writing his election story in our office, ran to the window of the newsroom, one of three offices facing on the street. I joined him at the window. Suddenly Carlos Schiebeck, UPI photographer from Los Angeles, shouted from the adjoining teletype room, "They're shooting at us—hit the deck." At that instant, Irma Hernandez, one of three women receiving returns in the administration office, rushed into the newsroom just in time to see a bullet bury itself in the ceiling over my desk, scattering plaster on the floor. Then the lights went out. So did the teletypes and television and radios. At that moment, Barnard Collier, correspondent of the New York Herald Tribune, was at our Telex machine—a direct teletype to New York—transmitting a dispatch to his newspaper. William Simmons was in the photo laboratory, in the midst of a radio-photo transmission to New York. Both stopped. Suddenly Carl Warner, newsfilm cameraman from Miami on special assignment for UPI, shouted, "I've been hit!" He fell backwards into the teletype room. Schiebeck crawled over to him to discover blood oozing from bullet wounds in his chest. Everyone else in the office crouched under desks or behind doors. In the first few moments of darkness and drumfire shooting, few spoke. Merwin Sigale, who was preparing a news dispatch on the election, skittered across the floor. His typewriter tumbled on top of him. A total of 16 UPI employees—including Warner and Schiebeck—were in the office at the time. Apart from them, there were three visiting foreign newsmen: Collier, Eder and Ruby Hart Phillips of Newsday of Garden City, N. Y. Eder and Miss Hernandez were the first to reach a telephone and called for help. Meanwhile, Collier, Jose A. Valbuena of the UPI and Schiebeck began dragging Warner out of the office. Warner remained calm throughout and even urged those around him to stay put and not expose themselves to fire.

BEFORE THE SPEEDOMETER READS 30—HE'LL KNOW HOW NEW IT IS!

The second he touches his toe to the accelerator, his amazement will begin. For no previous Cadillac ever moved like this one!

At 10 miles an hour, the most powerful engine in Cadillac history will already be working its magic.

By 20 that great Cadillac transmission—the newly Improved Hydra-Matic or the completely new Turbo Hydra-Matic—will reveal a smooth, flawless kind of action he's never felt in any motor-car before.

And by 30 the whole splendor of this new Cadillac performance will begin to unfold. New response. New quietness. New balance and poise. New alertness.

At 40 or 50, the car will have so much added acceleration that passing will be incredibly easy—with an extra margin of safety he's never known before.

And even at the full legal limit, this new Cadillac car will be so steady and quiet that the only sensation of motion will come from the passing scenery.

And then, he will take restful note of the other great new Cadillac virtues—the extraordinary luxury of Comfort Control... the magnificent comfort of the new contoured seats... the marvelous roominess and convenience that come only with the "car of cars".

Want to find out yourself how new the 1964 Cadillac is? Your dealer is standing by with the keys. All he needs is you and thirty minutes.

Slim Budget Is Headache For Agencies

BOISE, Dec. 3 (AP)—Idaho general fund agencies cut back 4.5 per cent in their spending for the six-month period ending Dec. 31, expect to stay within their budgets for some time but face a tight squeeze.

Head of agencies estimating the last month of the period, were asked to estimate how they will come out, and specify any economy measures taken.

Some say the second quarter will be easier to weather, because this one started with a backlog of bills held over from last June.

Dr. T. O. Carver, state health administrator, said a new law requiring nurses at state hospitals to meet general nursing standards has reduced the staff at state hospitals south.

He said there was enough money to keep a state hospital north at Orem and the Nampa state school to keep the personnel to temporarily replace those receiving training.

Carver said the state hospital at Gooding is particularly hard hit, because its appropriation before the hold-back was up only two per cent from the previous two years.

Dr. Carver said, the department itself has less of a problem because one-third of its revenues is in federal funds, not affected by the hold-back.

At Idaho State university, Dr. J. Barry Adams, assistant to the president, said additional personnel who were to be hired were not and in some cases positions left vacant by resignation have not been filled.

Bumr William Bartz said the real test will come later, because the university has only four monthly payrolls for faculty in the first quarter. He said the "test of truth" will come in the second quarter, and particularly in the second year.

At the University of Idaho, said Dr. H. R. Thompson, president of the hold-back continues, it would mean a loss of $750,000 for the two years.

"We are not filling any positions or adding any new ones except where we absolutely have to," he said.

Briton Raps Pact With Warsaw Unit

PARIS, Dec. 3 (AP)—A British cabinet member opposed today the nonaggression pact between the Atlantic alliance and Warsaw treaty powers that would weaken the Western position on Germany.

Speaking to a meeting of the Western European Union assembly, Lord Carrington said of the pact frequently put forward by the communist bloc:

"It would not accept any argument which enhanced the position of the authorities of the Soviet zone of Germany."

Lord Carrington, government spokesman in the house of lords, said any nonaggression pact between the North Atlantic treaty organization and the Warsaw pact would not in itself guarantee that the Allied access to West Berlin would not be threatened.

Speaking of the assassination of President Kennedy, Lord Carrington said: "His death is a loss to us all. The best memorial we can build to his memory is to work for a Europe united in its political and economic, and social, too, with the United States in its determination to stand together in the cause of peace."

The union is a consulting body composed of Britain and the six Common Market nations of Belgium, France, Germany, Italy, Luxembourg and the Netherlands. It is concerned with defense and economic questions.

Turk Leader Seeks to Solve Crisis

ANKARA, Turkey, Dec. 3 (AP)—President Cemal Gursel started interviewing leaders of Turkey's five major political parties today, seeking a solution to the political crisis that followed the resignation of Premier Ismet Inonu's coalition government.

The 80-year-old premier resigned Monday after two of his coalition partners quit. Gursel issued a statement urging citizens to go about their work and assuring them the crisis would not be prolonged.

Major interest centered around Gursel's talks with Ragip Gulumshala, head of the justice party, which bested the coalition in local elections last month.

Gursel also was to talk with leaders of the National Peasants' Nation and New Turkey parties, as well as with Inonu and other leaders of his Republican Peoples party. The New Turkey and Peasants' Nation parties were the other members of the coalition.

A presidential spokesman said it was not known when Gursel would make a decision on a new premier-designate.

Smoke Study Is Urged at Medical Meet

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 3 (AP)—An intensive, long-range research program to fill gaps in knowledge about the relationship of smoking to health was urged yesterday by the board of trustees of the American Medical association.

It is "imperative" to discover which human ailments may be caused or aggravated by smoking, the board's statement to the AMA's policy-making house of delegates said.

The proposal is subject to approval at the AMA's 17th annual clinical meeting here. Delegates are expected to act on the proposal tomorrow, the same day Dr. E. Cuyler Hammond of the American Cancer society delivers an important paper on smoking and health.

If authorized, the proposed research program would be initiated by the AMA's education and research foundation, a separate corporate entity. It would be financed by a substantial contribution from the AMA and money solicited from industry, foundations, voluntary health agencies and physicians.

The board said: "A mass of statistical information has been developed indicating certain relationships between smoking and disease which cannot be ignored, even though the significance of them in terms of cause and effect is still being debated."

"The proposed research projects would be designed to probe beyond statistical evidence, to search for answers not now available to such questions as which diseases in man may be caused or induced by the use of tobacco."

Harvest Ball Is Slated on Friday

HAGERMAN, Dec. 3 — The Hagerman chapter of Future Farmers of America will hold the annual harvest ball at 8 p.m. Friday in the American Legion hall.

Queen candidates from each class are Sherri Elliott, freshman; Peggy Flinn, sophomore; Betty Artterburn, junior, and Ann Penfold, senior. These girls will be selected on a penny vote basis by students and on ticket purchases at the harvest ball.

This is the FFA's only money making project for the year. Booths will be featured and refreshments will be sold.

Crowd Attends PTA Open House

A large group of parents attended the annual open house at O'Leary Junior high school Monday night.

Members overflowed the cafeteria into the hall so the meeting was transferred to the gymnasium. John Campbell, principal, explained parents were to follow their children's class schedule.

Utah Students Cheer When President's Death Reported

SALT LAKE CITY, Dec. 3 (AP)—A social science teacher at a suburban Salt Lake City junior high school told Monday how some of his pupils cheered when news of President Kennedy's assassination was announced.

In a letter to the Salt Lake City Tribune, Dean H. Bradshaw said "approximately 10 of my students upon hearing the news cheered and clapped in an obvious demonstration of gladness."

He said about 20 other pupils in the class showed "a momentary surprise and disgust" at the cheering.

In his letter, the teacher blamed the cheering on "an attitude of disrespect" that he said is "growing in the minds of this generation like a great incurable cancer."

He said the disrespect is caused by a new "spirit of individualism, or radical right wing extremism, and of extreme leftism."

Bradshaw was reluctant to talk about the incident. "I don't want any of the kids to get adverse publicity," he said.

But he declared the cheering resulted from more than "youthful thoughtlessness."

Bradshaw teaches seventh grade classes at Wasatch junior high school.

Joint Moon Shot Plan Is Renewed

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., Dec. 3 (AP)—Soviet delegates to the United Nations awaited instructions from the Kremlin today before replying to a renewed U.S. offer to attempt to joint moon flight.

President Kennedy's dramatic invitation to the Russians before the U.N. general assembly Sept. 20 was revived Monday by the chief U.S. delegate, Adlai E. Stevenson. He told the assembly's main political committee he was speaking for President Johnson.

Stevenson suggested the two nations cooperate in preliminary engineering and scientific endeavors related to the massive undertaking, even if they cannot reach an over-all agreement.

There was no immediate reaction from the Russian delegation, but this was not considered significant. Soviet representatives abroad almost never respond to unexpected Western overtures until they get instructions from the Kremlin.

When the joint moon project was first proposed to the Soviets, their response was lukewarm. A month ago Premier Khrushchev said he wasn't against a joint expedition, but he indicated it would have to await further easing of international tensions.

Most Western diplomats at the U.N. feel there must be a great improvement in confidence and trust between the two powers before such a joint venture is feasible.

Judges Are Named in Gem Bible Case

BOISE, Dec. 3 (AP)—Idaho's two federal judges and a justice of the ninth circuit court of appeals were appointed Monday to hear a suit which challenges Idaho's public reading law.

Judge Chas. A. Clark of Boise, one of the appointees, said the case probably won't come to trial until next March. He said he has been assigned to hear several cases in California during January and won't set a date for the trial until February.

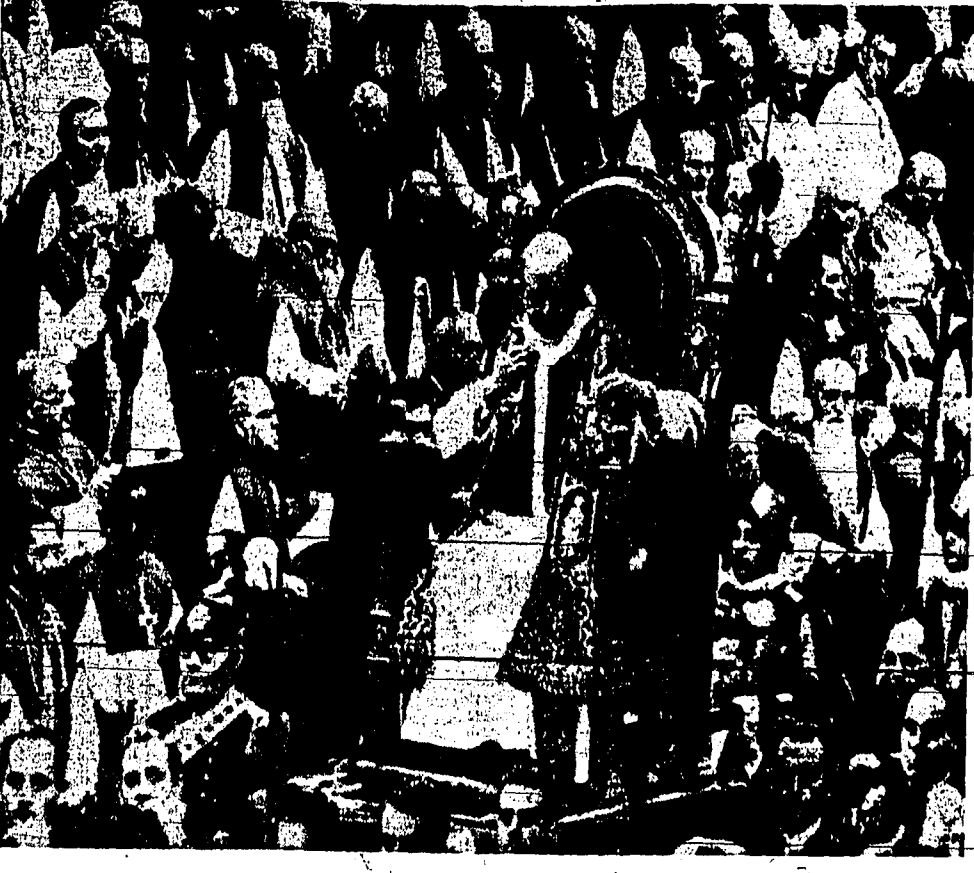

Also named to the panel were Judge Fred M. Taylor, Boise, and Circuit Judge Oliver Boelsch, San Francisco. The appointments were made by Chief Judge Richard N. Chambers of the appeals court.

The suit, which challenges the constitutionality of the 1953 law which requires daily scripture readings in Idaho public schools, was filed by ministers of several church denominations and a group of students attending Idaho public schools. It was filed in Moscow but Judge Clark said hearings will be conducted in Boise.

Defendants were State Public School Superintendent D. P. Engelking, members of the State Board of Education and members of the Moscow school board. Atty. Gen. Allan G. Shepard will represent Engelking and the state board.

Engelking has advised school districts to continue the reading unless a court in Idaho told them to quit.

Idaho's law differs from those already tested, he said, and unless a court rules it is unconstitutional he is bound by his oath of office to administer it. The law requires reading of selected verses of scripture taken from the American standard version of the Bible but prohibits any comment.

Mrs. Oswald Blames Officials For Kennedy, Son Shootings

FORT WORTH, Dec. 3 (AP)—The mother of accused presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald came out of seclusion last night and blamed police and federal authorities for the death of both her son and President Kennedy.

Mrs. Marguerite Oswald, 55, told the Fort Worth Star-Telegram the federal bureau of investigation should have been watching her son since they knew he once defected to Russia.

The mother of Oswald said she told the newspaper an agent of the federal bureau of investigation came to her home Nov. 23, the day after President Kennedy was assassinated, and showed her a picture of a man she later identified as Ruby. The FBI has denied they showed her a picture of Ruby another protecting her son. She told the newspaper an agent of the federal bureau of investigation came to her home Nov. 23, the day after President Kennedy was assassinated, and showed her a picture of a man she later identified as Ruby.

The FBI has denied they showed her a picture of Ruby another protecting her son. She told the newspaper an agent of the federal bureau of investigation came to her home Nov. 23, the day after President Kennedy was assassinated, and showed her a picture of a man she later identified as Ruby.

She said she would accept the findings of a state court of inquiry proposed by Texas Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr. "But I would like an opportunity to verify that they are proven facts," she said.

"I want another question answered," the paper quoted her as saying. "Why would Jack Ruby be allowed within a few feet of a prisoner-of any prisoner—when I could not see my own son?"

Her son was shot to death in the basement of the Dallas police station a week ago Sunday by Ruby, who is now awaiting trial for murder.

She emphasized she was a person seeking the facts, not a comment on the resemblance came from many parts of this country and abroad.

If the man in the picture actually had been Oswald, it would seem to prove that he was not the Kennedy assassin because he would not have had time to reach the entrance.

Oswald was accused of shooting the President from a sixth floor window of the Texas school book depository building where he was employed.

Coed Honored

FAIRFIELD, Dec. 3 (AP)—Norma Rice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gwinn Rice, Hill City, has been chosen for listing in the 1964 edition of "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities."

This honor came as a result of superior academic achievement, outstanding community service and extensive activity in school affairs. Miss Rice is a senior at Cascade college in Portland, majoring in English.

Comment on the resemblance came from many parts of this country and abroad.

If the man in the picture actually had been Oswald, it would seem to prove that he was not the Kennedy assassin because he would not have had time to reach the entrance.

However, R. S. Truly, superintendent of the book depository building, identified the man in the picture as Billy Lovelady, another employee of the firm. Truly declared:

"At first glance this does look like Oswald. But after looking it over I knew it wasn't. They don't even look alike. I showed the photograph to Lovelady, who said, 'Yes, that's me.'"

Mrs. Oswald also denied a story which appeared saying she had asked her son to be tried posthumously.

She is still being guarded by police and federal authorities.

"Spiritual Underworld" Is Undermining U.S. Religion

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 3 (AP)—A "spiritual underworld" of religious apostasy is trying to undermine religious influence in America just as Nazism and communism did elsewhere, a church historian told the 31-member National Council of Churches on Monday.

The statement came from the Rev. Dr. Franklin H. Littell, professor of church history at Chicago Theological Seminary, at a session of the council's general assembly, in the second day of a week-long triennial meeting.

Dr. Littell told some 3,000 persons—representatives of the council's 38 million church members; alternates and consultants; and visitors including Jewish and Roman Catholic observers—that "widespread faithlessness and apostasy among baptized Christians has given tragic character to the church's struggle with totalitarian movements in the 20th century."

"In our own land," he said, "in the moment of truth put to us by the race issue, we face a crisis of unparalleled proportions."

He condemned what he termed "ates" such as "German Chris-

Those who urged in Hitler's churches was to undergo 'das Deutsche Volkswesen' the German way of life have their counterparts in those who insist that our churches exist to gird up 'the American way of life' or 'the Southern way of life,' he said.

"The issue put to all believing people by racism is not primarily the matter of simple justice or common decency," Dr. Littell said. "It is the matter of whether we are churches under orders or private religious clubs with purely human terms of reference."

Dr. Littell said that "a local church which withholds the hand of fellowship from Christians of other races and peoples has blasphemed."

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., Dec. 3 (AP)—Sabu Dastagir, the movie elephant boy, died of a heart attack Monday in his home at nearby Chatsworth. He was 39.

"HOW I SAVED $28.00 ON CAR INSURANCE"

"I heartily recommend Nationwide car insurance. It saved me $28.00 this year and I'm sure that others can save that much or more, if they'll take a few minutes to compare rates. In addition, I like Nationwide's broad coverage and their budget pay plan."

Hainz Widditsch, 501 W. Olympic Place, Seattle, Washington

HOW MUCH CAN YOU SAVE? Perhaps as much as 30% or more! To find out, mail coupon at right and Nationwide will send by return mail an application form indicating your exact rates. To order your coverage, merely complete the form and mail it in with your first month's premium.

If you own a second car, and it, too, is insured with Nationwide, you may save an additional 10% to 20%. But one car or two, our convenient monthly pay plan is yours at no extra charge.

Today, careful drivers in 32 states rely on Nationwide for broad coverage and fast, personal claims service. In fact, over half of all Nationwide claims are paid within 24 hours after proof of loss; nearly two-thirds within 72 hours.

You can order your Nationwide coverage now—to take effect when your present policy expires. So, mail the coupon today. You'll receive complete information together with your exact rates within a few days.

63 Minor League Players Selected by Majors in Annual Baseball Draft

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 3 (AP)—The major leagues selected 63 minor league players—the most ever—at a cost of $691,000 in their annual draft as the first order of business at the winter baseball meetings Monday. Led by the Los Angeles Angels, who grabbed six players worth $99,000, the majors took 11 players with four or more years of experience and 52 first-year players. The veteran minor leaguers brought $25,000 apiece. The first-year players were worth $8,000 each.

"Independent" Minico Spartans Boast Six Returning Lettermen for Season

RUPERT, Dec. 3—Embarking the top scorer among the returning Minico Spartans and each season when he posted 103 points. Bill Matthews set out on a 20-game schedule that will bring them into closer association with the eastern side of the state. With the old Big Seven hoop dead, the Spartans must wait for the activation of the Eastern Idaho league next season. The Spartans will open their schedule at Pocatello Saturday night. Coach Matthews has six returning lettermen and several juniors hovering around the 6-foot mark. The guard spots are more than adequately taken care of by three veterans: Lonnie Johnson, 6 feet, 1 inch; Mike Manning, 6 feet, and Rick Miller, 5 feet, 8 inches. Manning is 7, Minico at Aberdeen, and Jan. 11, Oakley at Minico. Jan. 15, Minico at Malad, Jan. 17, Buhl at Minico; Jan. 21, Minico at Burley; Jan. 24, Aberdeen at Minico; Jan. 28, Twin Falls at Minico; Jan. 31, Highland at Minico; Feb. 4, Burley at Minico; Feb. 6, Minico at Oakley; Feb. 11, Minico at Jerome, and Feb. 14, Minico at Buhl.

The back-up power for these come from a group of juniors. The Minico schedule includes Dec. 7, Minico at Pocatello; Dec. 11, Minico at Highland; Dec. 12, North Cache at Minico; Dec. 14, Borah at Minico; Dec. 20, Pocatello at Minico; Dec. 21, Malad at Minico; Jan. 3, Jerome at Minico; Jan. 11, Oakley at Minico; and Jan. 15, Minico at Aberdeen, and Jan. 17, Buhl at Minico; Jan. 21, Minico at Burley; Jan. 24, Aberdeen at Minico; Jan. 28, Twin Falls at Minico; Jan. 31, Highland at Minico; Feb. 4, Burley at Minico; Feb. 6, Minico at Oakley; Feb. 11, Minico at Jerome, and Feb. 14, Minico at Buhl.

Meeting Set Monday for County Unit

Annual membership meeting of the Twin Falls County Livestock Marketing Association will be held Monday at 9:30 a. m. at the office of the county agent in the old hospital building.

Purpose of the session will be to elect four directors, hear committee reports and transact other business.

Directors whose terms expire are Marvin Lohr, Harry Holmquist, W. E. McCoy and L. E. Venable.

A no-host luncheon will be held in the dining room of the Rogerson hotel at 12:30 p. m. Members are urged to bring their wives to the luncheon.

Featured at the session will be Mrs. Ben Eldridge and Mary Ann Jackson, district winners in the "Make It Yourself with Wool" contest.

Wade Wells, Idaho extension animal husbandman, will report on dry lot versus pasture management research and other management problems. Dr. A. K. Kuttler, inspector in charge Idaho sheep commission, will report on parasites and diseases of sheep.

Donald F. Youlz, county extension agent, reported the association year "has been a successful one in the sale of wool and lambs." He added that the continued participation of members is needed to assure continued success.

Clyde Opposes Kennedy Name On Reservoir

SALT LAKE CITY, Dec. 3 (AP)—Gov. George D. Clyde says the reservoir behind Flaming Gorge dam in northeastern Utah should be called Flaming Gorge lake.

The governor took exception yesterday to a proposal by Sen. Frank E. Moss, D. Utah, to name the reservoir Lake Kennedy, in honor of the late president.

"I feel the importance and desirability of memorializing the late president," Clyde said. "But memorials, I believe, should be something closely and intimately associated with the individual involved."

The governor also said there is a danger that too many memorials to President Kennedy may be created, making the name commonplace and detracting from its significance.

Clyde previously opposed a suggestion that the Utah portion of the reservoir be named Lake Ashley and the Wyoming portion Lake O'Mahoney.

Kennedy Grave Grass Restored

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3 (AP)—Crews worked under glaring floodlights during the night to patch up the trampled ground around President Kennedy's grave.

Thousands of visitors have streamed into Arlington national cemetery since the chief executive was buried a week ago Monday, tearing up the grass on the slopes where he lies.

Cemetery Supt. Jack Metzler said workers were spreading gravel and chipped stone around the area.

Troops Leave

SAIGON, Viet. Nam, Dec. 3 (AP)—The United States started pulling 1,000 troops out of South Viet Nam today.

A total of 15,500 U. S. military personnel will remain in Viet Nam, but authoritative American sources reported that their gradual withdrawal may begin early next year.

New Air Route To Northwest Is Requested

SALT LAKE CITY, Dec. 3 (AP)—Continental airlines has made application for a new air route which would stretch from Florida to the Pacific Northwest.

Continental said the route would cross Texas, Colorado, Utah and Idaho and services would be offered to Salt Lake City and Boise.

The interstate commerce commission is considering the request.

GIFTS OF THE MAGI

Thumbing through a railroad magazine, Nelson Hesh, Sunday editor of the New York "World," was amazed and delighted by a story by one O. Henry, a writer new to him.

Back at the "World" editor Hesh assigned Tom Orr, an office boy, and Billy Williams, a cub reporter, to find the unknown writer, O. Henry, and bring him back.

They canvassed every magazine office and every other likely place, but three months passed without a clue.

Sharp-Eyed Citizens Flunk Leader Identification Test

TRENTON, N. J., Dec. 3 (AP)—The Trenton Evening Times sent out a reporter Monday to see whether the man in the street could recognize two men in a news picture—President Charles de Gaulle and Lyndon B. Johnson of the United States.

Boan Trial Date Set in January

BOISE, Dec. 3 (AP)—Trial has been set for Jan. 20 for an Idaho state prison inmate charged with knifing another prisoner to death last September. Earl David Boan, 28, is accused of first-degree murder in the death of Ernesto Blanco, 36, Blanco was stabbed in the back as he stood in a line at the prison.
