BOISE, Dec. 5 (AP)—Scheduled changes effective Jan. 1 may solve Idaho's problem of intra-state airline service, Gov. Robert E. Smylie said today.

Public Works Money Bill Is Approved

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5 (AP)—A 4.5-billion-dollar public works money bill was approved by the senate appropriations committee today.

Proposals Made on T.F. Water Situation

John H. Morrison outlined Wednesday night eight proposals whereby the city of Twin Falls could secure additional water. The firm of Morrison-Maierle and associates, engineers and architects, Helena, Mont., was retained by the city to study a solution to the water situation in Twin Falls.

Mayor-Elect Names Police Chief at Buhl

BUHL, Dec. 5—Reed P. Mauthan, mayor-elect, issued a statement today reporting he will name a new police chief upon assuming office Jan. 1.

Available

Copies of the water study developed by Morrison-Maierle and associates, Helena, Mont., will be available at the Twin Falls public library, announces City Clerk Constance Lelser.

Charles Burbank, the present police chief, will serve as assistant police chief.

Kendrick, 48, a native of Crossville, Tenn., moved to Buhl with his parents in 1922. He attended schools in Buhl and Castleford, being graduated from the Castleford high school with the class of 1934.

Kendrick is married, and he and his wife, Lynne, reside at 311 Thirteenth avenue north. They have one son, Tommy, who is attending the University of Idaho, Moscow.

Blood Drawing Slated in Jerome

JEROME, Dec. 5—The Red Cross bloodmobile will be in Jerome from 2 to 6 p.m. Monday in the Quota hall.

Quota for the drawing is 150 pints, according to Mrs. Dale Johnson, chairman, for the Syringa Rebekah lodge, which is sponsoring the visit.

She urges all Jerome area residents who are able to donate blood to do so as a Christmas gift.

UF Reports New Total of $25,000 in Cash, Pledges

A total of $25,000 in cash and pledges has been turned in towards the Twin Falls United Fund campaign goal of $30,000, reports Harold Gerber, president.

Four new chairmen for the business section of the general division have been selected, Gerber states. They are Olean Seaton,

Morrison pointed out studies thus far indicate further drilling of wells on the south side is risky and costly. Two wells, both near the existing filter plant, are considered adequate. These would be maintained under most of the proposals, along with the existing five-million-gallon reservoir.

Fourth possibility mentioned was a water collection tunnel drilled in the north rim of the canyon wall and a pipeline across the canyon or across Perrine bridge to Twin Falls.

The other proposals were variations of the first four.

License Plate Sales Steady

A total of 2,152 license plates had been sold by noon Thursday at the Twin Falls county courthouse, where business was reported steady, although lines remained fairly short throughout the morning.

The total sold at the courthouse includes 2,050 sets of passenger plates and 102 sets of truck plates.

In Buhl, at Dalls Insurance agency, 202 sets of passenger plates and 17 truck plates have been sold since the plates first went on sale Monday.

Business firms added to the 100-per-cent list are Smazal's office supply, Macie's shoes and repair shop, soil conservation service, Warberg's Moving and Storage, Intermountain Gas company, the school administration offices, and Parry, Robertson and Daly.

HOPING TO GET BACK soon to riding his "pickup," as he calls his bicycle, is Herbert Meyer, 80. The Gooding businessman is a familiar sight riding to and from work, but the "pickup" is sitting idle now as its owner recovers from a broken leg, received when he was struck by a car while riding home from work. He was fitted with a walking cast after one day in the hospital and was back at work Tuesday. (Times-News photo)

Mishap Grounds Gooding Man, 90, From Bicycle

GOODING, Dec. 5—You can't keep a good man down, even when he's past 80. Herbert Meyer, Gooding businessman, is a familiar sight riding his bicycle to and from work every day, but the old "pickup," as he calls his bicycle, is sitting idle for a few days while Meyer recovers from a broken leg received when he was struck by a car while riding home from work.

Fog, Cold Plague Magic Valley Area

Freezing, foggy weather in southern Idaho caused considerable trouble for telephone and power company maintenance crews Wednesday night and early Thursday morning, has jammed schedules of West Coast airlines flights and has resulted in several power failures. Power failures were reported in several parts of southern Idaho and in several sections of Twin Falls late Wednesday night, Thursday morning an Idaho company spokesman said.

Opens Dec. 14

FAIRFIELD, Dec. 5—Soldier mountain ski lift will open for the season Dec. 14, Bob Frostenberg, one of the owners, reports.

He said they planned to open Sunday but are hoping there will be more snow by the later date. He said there is enough snow on the ground now to open, but more snow would make better skiing.

New lifts have been added this year, with the 2,200-foot Poma rising 3,000 feet from the lodge. A J-bar lift was installed this year. Brush and trees have been cleared to enlarge the area.

The interior of the lodge has been rebuilt. Additional sanitary facilities have been installed. The area is patrolled by a trained ski patrol to give first aid and assist the skiers, he added.

Leaders Willing to Spur Action on Civil Rights Bill

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5 (UPI)—Two powerful house leaders indicated willingness today to spur action on the administration's stalled civil rights bill—but not until January.

Drive Started for Sales Tax Support

BOISE, Dec. 5 (UPI)—Confronted with a prediction that Idaho's general fund budget may hit 120 million dollars for the next biennium, a citizen's group has begun a new move to muster sales tax support.

But Halleck also predicted that the earliest that house passage could be expected would be in January. He acknowledged that Johnson would like to see action sooner but as a "realist," the President recognized that nothing probably could be done until after the next session begins.

Other developments: Taxes—Spokesmen for the oil and gas industry claimed today that any revenue raising reforms in the pending tax cut bill would result in higher gasoline prices for consumers.

Public works—The senate public works committee approved a 4.5 billion dollar public works money bill, containing river and harbor project funds and appropriations for the atomic energy commission and other government agencies.

Foreign aid—Senate and house conferees worked behind closed doors, hopeful they can finally reach agreement on a compromise version of the foreign aid authorization bill.

U. S. Officer Is Freed by Terrorists

CARACAS, Venezuela, Dec. 5 (AP)—Col. James K. Chenault, Sherman, Tex., kidnaped by pro-communist terrorists eight days ago, was released today.

Chenault, 47, was unharmed. He is deputy chief of the U.S. military mission in Venezuela.

The pro-communist Armed Forces for National Liberation—FALN—kidnaped him in front of his home last Wednesday in an attempt to focus international headlines on its campaign to sabotage the presidential elections last Sunday.

The terrorist campaign was a failure. A record number of Venezuelans turned out to vote.

The FALN in telephone calls to Caracas newspapers had said it would not harm the American officer and would release him on Saturday, the day before the election. But it continued to hold him after the voting.

The U. S. embassy said Chenault's kidnapers took him to a point a few blocks from his home and he walked from there. He reached home at 6 a.m. and telephoned embassy officials at once.

The FALN widened its campaign of violence to include British targets. Previously the terrorists had concentrated on U.S. interests and Venezuelan government installations.

Funeral services are pending at Bergin funeral chapel.

Guided tours through all the buildings will be conducted by personnel from the station, the weather bureau and the University of Idaho experiment station. The open house hours will be from 1 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m. Friday and from 9 a.m. to noon Saturday.

FRED J. OVERLY regional director, Pacific Northwest region of the Bureau of Outdoor Recreation, will be one of several speakers Friday afternoon during the 29th annual convention of the Idaho Wildlife Federation at the Twin Falls Elks lodge.

Green Giant Scholarships To Be Given

Future Farmers of America members in Buhl, Castleford, Piler and Twin Falls are eligible to compete for $300 agricultural college scholarships.

The scholarships will be made, beginning with the 1963-64 school year, by the Green Giant foundation. They are part of a program for eligible chapters in the Green Giant company crop growing areas.

Recipients of the $300 scholarships who must be graduating seniors, also will be offered preferential Green Giant summer employment before entering college and each year while they are college students.

To be eligible, FFA members must show interest in professional education programs in agriculture, have scholastic aptitude meeting requirements for a four-year college degree in a land-grant institution, have records of leadership and service, show financial need and application of scientific agriculture principles in home farm programs.

FFA members interested in applying may get application forms from high school guidance counselors or vocational agriculture instructors.

The Green Giant foundation also will give a $25 savings bond to the outstanding FFA member in each chapter eligible for the $300 scholarship.

These awards are in addition to 10 $500 cash scholarship-job opportunity awards the foundation has been awarding to high school graduates in communities where the company has plant operations.

Pope's Trip To Holy Land Draws Praise

VATICAN CITY, Dec. 5 (AP)—The unprecedented pilgrimage to the Holy Land by Pope Paul VI will be made in the first 10 days of January, a Vatican spokesman said today.

Jews and Arabs alike welcomed the news.

The Pope is expected to break a second precedent by making the trip by plane. No pontiff has flown before, although as a cardinal Pope Paul frequently used planes.

Christian and Jewish leaders around the world praised the Pope's decision to make the pilgrimage, coming at a time when the Catholic church has taken steps toward Christian unity.

'Record Changer' Makes Tests In High Altitude

UTICA, N.Y. (AP)—A sort of technically sophisticated "record changer" that can automatically sample and record the composition of the atmosphere at high altitudes will be used in the aircraft of the U.S. air force's weather service.

The unit, developed by the flight division of the Bendix corporation, was described by company engineers who said it was actually "a filter changer."

They said it operates in a manner similar to that in which a record is moved over the stack of records on a turntable, and back again in the opposite direction.

The filters are dropped into the air stream, held there for a time, and then raised into the aircraft.

SYNOPSIS AND AGRICULTURAL SUMMARY

A series of low pressure disturbances from the Pacific ocean are continuing to move across southern Canada and have weakened the northern portion of the high pressure ridge which is situated over the intermountain region. These disturbances will have little effect over southern Idaho and the pattern of fog and low cloudiness will continue over these valleys under the influence of the high pressure area through Friday and probably through Saturday also. The fog and low cloudiness will continue to be most extensive over the valleys of southwestern Idaho, while variable high cloudiness will be the rule over the mountains and parts of the southern and eastern valleys of Idaho. Little change from the past few days is expected in temperature through Saturday, with maximums generally in the 20s and low 30s and minimums in the teens in Magic Valley. Comes Prairie area will have minimums in the 10s to 15 range. Some light snow will fall from the low cloudiness at times today through Friday, but accumulations on the ground will be negligible.

Skies were sunny over much of eastern and southcentral Idaho yesterday, but considerable cloudiness and fog remained in the western valleys throughout the day. Maximum temperatures were mostly in the 20s and low 30s, with Rupert reporting the highest reading at 36. No measurable amounts of precipitation have been recorded at any of the observing stations during the past 24 hours, but traces of snow were reported over most of Magic Valley. Final field reported eight inches of snow remaining on the ground this morning.

Schedule Change May Aid Service

Smyle name a special committee to work with West Coast airlines to improve its service in the state.

"West Coast is the in-state carrier, so we've got to work with them," said Smyle. "We want to help them improve their potential service to us."

He said many of the problems can be worked out if communities have a chance to "speak their piece" before schedules are decided upon.

Smyle said he was "most gratified" at the explanation of West Coast's problems by Vice President H. E. Walls of Seattle. He said the airline is aware of its problems and wants to meet them, noting that two more F-7 jets will be added by Jan. 1.

The governor said a statewide approach to air scheduling is becoming increasingly important.

"Boise is going to be the jet port," he said. "We will need schedules that tie in intrastate and interstate flights."

United Airlines came in for a complaint that it was impossible last summer to fly from Idaho to the east coast without making an overnight stop on the way, or arriving at 2 a. m.

Smyle said he hopes the situation isn't repeated next summer. He said it can be attributed to jet schedules and the three-hour time difference between the east and west coast in the summer.

The advisory council approved a resolution vigorously protesting the proposal to divert Snake river water from Idaho.

Smyle met with the council at its request, describing the Southern California plan and outlining a proposal for bond-financed development by the state of water within its boundaries.

John J. Malloway, publisher of the Times-News, Twin Falls, and Charles Marshall, Jerome, said they would favor a special session of the Idaho legislature to speed action on the proposal. The legislature must agree to a constitutional amendment to permit bonding for water projects.

Without a special session, it couldn't go on the general election ballot before 1966. With such a session it could be submitted to the people in 1964.

Jerome Eyes Postal Site

JEROME, Dec. 5—Jerome city will make available to the postal department a city-owned site for $10,000 for a new postoffice.

Councilmen meeting Tuesday night authorized Mayor Paul Pratt to proceed with plans. The site east of the parking lot adjacent to the public library, currently is being used for a playground.

Postoffice officials have been in Jerome several times and have shown interest in the city-owned site, Jerome officials said.

Building permits were issued to Loyal Ferenburg for a garage; Mrs. Eldon Drieles, fireplace and re-broking her dress home, and Mrs. Walter Norris, remodeling her home.

Beer licenses were issued to the Northern Tavern, Safety store, Butcher Boy Market.

VIEW, Dec. 5—Funeral services for Alma Earnest Wayment were conducted at 11 a. m. Wednesday in the View LDS ward chapel by Bishop Milton C. Payne.

Meditation music was played by Mrs. Donald Lockwood, a granddaughter. Invocation was given by David S. Moffett. Soloists were Raymond Sanford and Howard Corless.

Speakers included Mrs. Lulu Corless and President David Green. Benediction was given by Wallace Banner.

Palbearers were Dal Wayment, James Wayment, Garr Wayment, Dan Wayment, Richard Gill and Lenny Jones, grandsons. Flowers were arranged by the View ward Relief society, assisted by granddaughters.

Last rites were held Thursday in the Plain City cemetery, Weber county, Utah.

K. Eisenhower Last Rites Held

Funeral services for Kenneth Wayne Eisenhower were conducted at 2 p. m. Thursday in Reynolds funeral chapel by the Rev. Donald L. Hoffman.

Soloist was James C. Reynolds and Mrs. John Birrell was organist.

Palbearers were Merlin Reed, Marvin Sheridan, Dick Leeban, Joe Sedillo, Vernon Bernier and Verle Jacobsen.

Final rites were held at Sunset Memorial park.

Chief Given Assurance on Tax Cut Bill

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5 (AP)—Assurance that the senate will act "early next year" on the tax bill and will make it retroactive to Jan. 1 was given to President Johnson Wednesday by senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen.

The Illinois senator, a member of the senate finance committee, told newsmen he had assured Johnson there would be "no dilatory tactics—no delay in moving along as fast as possible" on the measure.

Dirksen's talk of speed came on top of a statement earlier by Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D., Va., chairman of the finance committee, saying it is entirely possible the committee will reach some decisions on the bill before Christmas.

Taken together, the statements by Dirksen and Byrd seemed to hint at a stepped-up pace on the 11 billion dollar tax cut measure in response to Johnson's plea last week for quick action. Dirksen stressed that this does not necessarily mean the senate will act during January.

Before going to the White House, Dirksen had predicted that the bill might reach the White House after senate floor action and a senate-house conference—around March 1.

Connally Leaves Dallas Hospital, Flies to Austin

DALLAS, Dec. 5 (AP)—Texas Gov. John B. Connally checked out of Parkland Memorial hospital today and prepared to fly home to Austin, his bullet-wounded wrist in a cast, but sheltered from the way to recovery from the sniper bullet that hit him as he rode with President Kennedy.

Connally said goodbye to 200 doctors, nurses and technicians in the cafeteria of the hospital, where Kennedy died Nov. 22.

"I'm ready to go," Connally, 46, said. "I owe my life to you at Parkland hospital. I'm sorry to have met you under these circumstances."

Shoshone Troop Has Honor Court

SHOSHONE, Dec. 5—Scout troop 103 held a court of honor Tuesday evening. First class ceremonies were conducted by Junior assistant scout leader, David Lowery for Kenneth Knowles, Donald Bennett, William Van Dyke, Michael Manning and Lowell Pearson.

John Haran was advanced to scout-rank by Junior Assistant Scoutmaster Andrew Payne.

Merit badges were awarded Kevin Terry, John Haran and Richard Neher.

Recognition was given Andrew Payne and Dale Bennett who recently received the Eagle rank.

Opening and closing ceremonies were under direction of Richard Neher with the Racon patrol conducting the flag ceremony.

Former Resident Taken by Death

Mrs. Lelah M. Birney, 83, former Twin Falls resident, died Wednesday at Evanston, Ill., of a long illness.

She was born July 25, 1880, at Blooming Valley, Pa., and was married to Hamilton L. Birney, who died in 1958. She moved to Evanston in 1959. She was a member of the Methodist church and the Order of Eastern Star.

Surviving are a daughter, Leona Birney, Alliance, Neb.; a son, Donald H. Birney, Kentwood, Ill., and three grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Saturday in White mortuary chapel by the Rev. Henry Gernhardt. Final rites will be held in Sunset Memorial park.

Mother of Oswald Loses Her Guards

FORT WORTH, Dec. 5 (AP)—The mother of Lee Harvey Oswald, suspected Presidential assassin, lost her secret service guards yesterday.

Mrs. Marguerite Oswald had been protected by the federal officers since her son was arrested in connection with the death of President Kennedy.

A spokesman said agents no longer felt that Mrs. Oswald's home was in danger. Oswald's wife, however, remained under guard.

City police also continued to stand guard over Oswald's grave. There was concern that thieves would dig up the body, even if several months passed before the night was re-excavated. Sheriff Lon Riggins said Oswald's family rejected a secret burial place proposal.

W. Robertson Dies at Age 86 in Burley

BURLEY, Dec. 5 (AP)—William Finley Robertson, 86, Idaho pioneer, died at Cassia Memorial hospital Wednesday of a lingering illness.

He was born Feb. 28, 1877, at Tryon, La., and lived in Lake City, Ia., attending the Capital City Commercial college, Des Moines. In 1898 he came west to teach school. Later he opened a general merchandise store at Victor.

On June 15, 1910, he married Ethel Worthington, Philadelphia, Pa. They celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary in 1960. In 1915 Mr. Robertson became auditor and recorder of Teton county at Driggs where he later opened a general merchandise store.

In 1935 the family moved to Burley where he opened the Mode Dress shop. He was president of the Burley Chamber of Commerce and during his years in business here he worked with the Lions club and the Merchants association.

Survivors include his widow, one son, Eric Robertson, Boise; two daughters, Mrs. Estes (Melba) Bowlands, Jerome, and Mrs. Richard (Mildred) Nelson, Seattle; eight grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday in the Joseph Papp Memorial chapel by the Rev. James R. Crowe, Idaho Youth ranch superintendent. Final rites will be held in the Pleasant View cemetery. Friends may call at the Payne mortuary Friday afternoon and evening and Saturday until time of service. The family suggests memorials to the Idaho Youth ranch, Rupert.

Nation's Top Businessmen Vote Support

NEW YORK, Dec. 5 (AP)—A gathering of the nation's industrial leaders yesterday promised "loyal support and cooperation" to President Lyndon B. Johnson.

The pledge came at the annual convention of the National Association of Manufacturers.

The resolution by the industrialists, gathered for a three-day meeting, promised support for a "new era of economic growth and expansion of job opportunities for all."

Sentiment of many businessmen interviewed at the meeting indicated they hope to find a friend in the President.

The feeling that seems to emerge from these interviews and recent opinion expressions in trade journals is that Johnson will tend to be more conservative in fiscal matters than his predecessor and that he has a better feeling for the role of business.

Laos Intelligence Chief Murdered Near His Home

VIENTIANE, Laos, Dec. 5 (AP)—Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma's intelligence chief, Col. Leuang, was assassinated early today as he arrived at his home on the outskirts of Vientiane.

The unknown assassins reportedly escaped in the dark.

Leuang was the chief of the Deuxieme second bureau, the coalition government's intelligence section. Like Prince Souvanna, he was a member of the neutralist faction which in theory governs Laos in coalition with the right wing and the pro-communists Pathet Lao.

There was no immediate indication of the motive for the slaying.

The assassins reportedly opened fire on Leuang's automobile with at least three automatic weapons. Leuang apparently was killed instantly.

English Judge Okays Punching Policeman's Nose

LONDON, Dec. 5 (AP)—It's all right for an Englishman to punch a policeman in the nose, under certain circumstances, according to Lord Parker, the lord chief justice.

Lord Parker cleared Sir John Barton yesterday of a charge of assaulting a policeman who came to take him from his home for observation at a hospital under the mental health act. The policeman, acting on a request by Sir John's wife, received a broken nose.

"If a householder is not to submit to his liberty being infringed in his house I cannot see that to hit out with his fist is an unreasonable use of force," Lord Parker said.

"An Englishman's home is still his castle," Sir John said.

Awards Are Presented at Annual Scout Meeting Here

Four Scouters in the Snake River council, Boy Scouts of America, received Silver Beaver awards during the 30th annual meeting of the council Wednesday night in the Twin Falls national guard armory.

They are John W. Roper and Elson Basom, both Twin Falls; Leslie R. Jones, Scoutmaster of troop No. 82, sponsored by Knuil Grange, and Elwood Grimes, Hagerman.

Roper, who has served the local Scouting district and council in several capacities during the past eight years, also is active in other community affairs. He is a past president of the Rotary club,

Gas Firm Is Ordered to Pay Millions

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5 (AP)—The federal power commission (FPC) today announced it would order the El Paso, Tex., Natural Gas company to return 155 million dollars to customers—the largest refund order in FPC history.

In approving settlement of the natural gas rate case battle, the FPC said the El Paso firm also must reduce its wholesale rates by 3.3 cents per thousand cubic feet, making a 30 million dollar a year rate reduction.

The FPC noted the company already has refunded $40,467,895 of the 155 million collected in what the FPC said were excessive rates to customers since 1955.

The settlement involves four successive rate hikes filed by the El Paso firm since 1954 totaling 80 million dollars a year in collections.

Fog Blamed for Rupert Accident

RUPERT, Dec. 5 (AP)—Heavy fog was blamed for a two-car accident one-quarter mile west of Paul on highway 25 at 7 p.m. Sunday, State Patrolman Roy Thomas reported today.

Vernal Munsee, 52, Paul, driving a 1959 Lincoln had slowed and was preparing to turn in his driveway when he was struck by a 1962 Chrysler driven by Larry Anderson, 23, Othello, Wash.

Anderson reported he was unable to see the Munsee vehicle until he was too close to stop. No injuries were reported.

"The Lived-in Books"

Several Christmases from now—your World Book may contain wrinkles, dog-eared pages, scribbled notes, fingerprint smudges, doodles, a photograph of the sixth grade, and 5 perfectly dry, pressed leaves... and it will still be the finest Christmas gift you could ever give your family.

When World Book comes home for Christmas, be prepared for the lived-in books. And feel a little bit proud... proud because you'll come to look on each scuff and crease as a badge... of growth and wisdom and wonder and affection—and most of all, use.

That's the kind of encyclopedia World Book is—the encyclopedia read and referred to, cherished and used, and even scuffed by more kids and grownups throughout the world than any other.

It's the easiest encyclopedia to use because of simplified arrangement and self-indexing.

It's the most interesting to use because of its thousands of informative illustrations and easy-to-understand writing.

It's the most helpful to use because through its resources and research it is continuously expanded, revised and up-dated to meet the needs of today's youngsters.

This Christmas, remember... when the kids muss up the new World Book or drop tinsel on it the first day, take heart, and be happy. And let it be used—because that's what it was meant for—and that's what it does best.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

By ANDREW TULLY
WASHINGTON, Dec. 5—In politics, the man who is both strong and wise grows a little every day, and yet it does not seem improper or unfair to recall an appraisal of President Lyndon Baines Johnson offered in June, 1959, a year before he battled John F. Kennedy for the Democratic nomination.

President Johnson has grown, of course. But what he had to say about himself in 1959 may suggest how and why he traveled to the eminence he enjoys today. For example, the lead I wrote then can stand unedited by events.

"Fresh from a long talk with Lyndon Baines Johnson, a visitor is left with a complex picture of a proud, tough and sensitive man who seems honestly baffled by what people say about him."

PROFILE OF COURAGE—Johnson is still proud, tough and sensitive, and he has a right to be baffled about what people say about him when the issue of civil rights is discussed. Pundits, especially those to the left of center, continue to insist that Johnson doesn't have his Texas heart in the job of freeing the Negro, but the record demolishes their claims. Ever since the 1960 campaign, he has been one of the loudest voices in the administration in behalf of the Negro, and he has not shrunk from alienating many of his own Texans by his stand.

In that interview, Johnson expressed hurt at the charges that he had veered to the right since his youthful New-Dealish days in the house. He insisted that his basic philosophy had not changed since his days as a protégé of the late Franklin D. Roosevelt. Nor could he understand why some people said that he was hungry for power, although he wielded tremendous power as majority leader of the senate.

"I don't have much time to think about it," he said, "but as leader of the senate all I try to do is accomplish the greatest good for the greatest number."

SATISFIED, HE SAID—His pride in his job then was enormous and heart-warming. Asked where he wanted to go, he replied swiftly, "I want to go right where I am. I have a place in this government picture and I like it and hope I'm worthy of it."

To this reporter at the time, Lyndon Johnson was a friendly, likable man who wanted people to be friends with him. He wanted to be liked, and he wanted the public to have a picture of him that was attractive, and he was annoyed by certain comments and news stories he felt gave a false picture of him. "They say I won't wear anything but $200 suits," he said. "Well, this one I'm wearing cost $80. They say I wear nothing but gold cufflinks. Well, I'm wearing black ones today. I've had these shoes resoled three times. Nobody ever mentions that."

REASONABLE, HE REPEATS—In 1959, Johnson was deeply conscious of the heart attack that felled him in 1955, but he insisted he worked harder than he did before his illness, and, indeed, his legislative day usually ran from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. He would not discuss the possibility of running for President except to say he saw no reason why his health should bar him from any job, including the presidency.

The Lyndon Johnson of 1959 disliked being tied down to specifics when discussing his political philosophy. He preferred to talk in aphorisms like, "I try to be fair to everyone," and "I try to be reasonable." That word "reasonable" still pops up often in Johnson's conversations because he feels it is the key to success in practicing that art of the possible called politics.

At the time, as a man whose job often required the courage to compromise, Lyndon Johnson's definition of "reasonable" seemed to his interviewer to imply getting along with as many diverse viewpoints as he could manage. Today, as President of the United States, Johnson will still try to be "reasonable," but he will find it a lot harder to manage.

Views of Others

TIME FOR Y'S TO UNITE
Burning of the 1907-built Railroad YMCA presents an unusual opportunity for the YM and YW to unite under one modern roof and give the community a far more useful facility than they have been able to provide separately.

Lavern C. Johnson, president of the YMCA, has suggested that the Y be rebuilt in a new and better location and his proposal should have everyone's support. The present site has been outgrown for use as a Y and is too valuable to be retained by the organization.

Okay Food Markets have started what should be a community-wide effort to raise funds for rebuilding the Y. We don't doubt that Pocatello citizens will be generous in this as they have been in similar worthy causes.

The Y will receive a sizeable payment on the insurance of the old building. In addition, it can sell the present site for a good price—much more than it will have to pay for a better site, with ample space for parking, outside the downtown area.

The functions of both the YMCA and the YWCA are quite similar today. The YW has given up its dormitory service and it seems logical and necessary that the YM follow the same course.

Times change and the needs for services change. What is needed now is a kind of community center, providing a swimming pool, gymnasium, and other recreational facilities. A truly first class establishment can be built by a united effort.

Logically there would be elimination of duplication of facilities and both the YM and the YW would have more to offer than either otherwise ever could afford.

With a modern Y community center, the boys and girls, young men and young women, and the older citizens, too, could enjoy the newest and best in recreation, classes, hobbies, etc., and at less cost than in separate establishments. Neither would lose anything, both would gain, and the city would gain.—Idaho State Journal.

RIGHT TO SAY 'NO'
Those who are still sufficiently individualistic to believe in the concept of personal sovereignty have found a staunch champion in Chief Justice J. C. McRuer of the supreme court of Ontario, Canada.

Through a court ruling, Judge McRuer has upheld that man still retains the inalienable right to decide for himself whether he should expose his body for medical examination.

Because of the edict, Oakville, Ont., town council has now voted to reinstate two police constables it suspended last February for refusing to take medical examinations. Judge McRuer said the town had no authority to require the men to submit to any such examination.

As society moves increasingly into the robotized age, the traditionally inherent rights of the individual are becoming correspondingly less evident. The Canadian judge declared no doctor had the right to "go probing" or take blood samples from anyone unless that person wanted him to do so.

A probe is abhorrent unless it is absolutely voluntary on the part of the patient. To force a person to undergo such an examination is, as the judge suggested, to trespass on an individual's basic rights.

These rights are becoming increasingly less respected in the United States. A judge has given them new strength and stature in Canada.—The Times (San Mateo, Calif.)

POT SHOTS

CAN'T BUY IT
Dear Mr. Pot Shots:
Few things in this world (or any other, I suppose) are free any more, so when anyone finds something that is free, beautiful and thoroughly enjoyable, everyone else should know about it.

I enjoyed two of the most beautiful scenes I've ever noticed on Tuesday. They were magnificent and almost breath-taking in scope. Everyone could have enjoyed the scenes equally and it was all for free. I'm talking about the beautiful sunrise and sunset that day.

With these short days, there's no reason why anyone can't watch for those beautiful, heavenly sights. Of course, foggy days don't count.

CLEARWATER WALTZ
Where two rivers meet, a wedding complete,
From each portal where tall cedar grows;
Near the old Lolo trail, in a high mountain dale,
It's the land where the Clearwater flows.

Roll on Clearwater, forever roll on,
Join the songs of the birds in the trees;
Leave the white sands on your margin,
As you race with the wild mountain breeze.

With arms open wide, and a white foaming tide,
The old Snake near the cotton wood tree
Will join in your song, as she bears you along,
Away to the far western seas.

GENTLEMAN IN THE FOURTH ROW

COVERING THE CAPITAL WITH PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5 (NEA) — The big thing to watch in the period ahead is whether the United States senate and house of representatives can meet the challenge thrown at them by President Lyndon Johnson.

He calls for action where congress wanted only delay. He does not set specific deadlines. But he wants civil rights and tax legislation now—not later. This is the master political craftsman of Capitol hill speaking—the man who is credited with believing that politics is the art of the possible but knowing better than anyone else in Washington what is possible.

Lyndon Johnson promises not to interfere with the independence of congress. But he now asks congress to act wisely and vigorously, to act speedily.

The prevailing sentiment in congress has been all the other way in the few days since John Fitzgerald Kennedy was assassinated.

At first there was a belief among some of the more progressive lawmakers that congress would forget its petty political differences, unite and get on with clearing up pending business.

The hope was that all the appropriation bills could be approved to run the government till next July 1, that a compromise could be reached on college and vocational education bills, foreign aid authorization, and all the other half-completed measures still pending in conference between the two branches of congress.

This was the minimum program. No thought was given to passing the civil rights or tax bills this year.

But there also has been more defeatist sentiment among some legislators to adjourn congress as soon as possible.

The expressed excuse has been that the new President needed time to prepare his program and to gather up the reins of government for driving the long, hard road ahead next year.

The unexpressed excuse has been that congressmen being only human, they are tired. They have been in session all year. The work load assigned to them has been heavy. The issues have been controversial. The men whose job it is to write laws wanted to go home and rest over the holidays.

The hidden but obvious excuse has been that the opponents of civil rights and tax reform and aid to education and Medicare and all the other unacted programs of the New Frontier have deliberately clogged the congressional machinery so that there would be no action on any of these measures.

Members of the house have maintained that they have done their work because they have cleared the tax bill and all the appropriation bills for the year except foreign aid, military construction and public works—the pork barrel bill.

The senate has been blamed for the delay because it has cleared only four appropriation bills—defense, interior, treasury, postoffice, labor-health, education and welfare.

But the house has been dilatory, too. Legislation which has passed the senate but not the house includes area redevelopment, securities exchange act amendments, transportation rate changes, the wilderness bill and job training for unemployed youth.

And the civil rights bill is now tied up in a house rules committee slowdown which may doom it for the year.

There are, in fact, only 15 legislative days in December before the Christmas holidays, assuming that congress holds no Saturday sessions. It is argued that there isn't time for congress to clear its calendar before the year-end.

The delaying tactic is to put everything off till next year. This is being attempted through a joint resolution which would enable government agencies to spend at their last year's appropriation rate until Jan. 31, 1964.

The thought is that congress will complete action on appropriation bills after it comes back next year—seven months too late.

Into this situation the new President calls on congress for action now. He sums it up in three words: "Let us continue." The crude translation put on that for congress is: "Go to work."

Poor Man's Plato

BY HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK, Dec. 5 (AP) — Jumping to Christmas conclusions:
Now that Santa Clause is on the horizon, the tidy people who milled their Christmas cards last October have a problem.

The stores are so thronged with yuletide shoppers they are unable to buy their Easter egg dyes now.

If the young lady can tell you from Adam all the rest of the year, but right now she gives you a dimpling smile everytime you come near, mark her off your list. She's just another selfish dame seeing how many dollars she can get for spring with Christmas gifts—so she can brag about them to her girlfriends.

—Women and show business folks think more coins into the cups of blind beggars than anybody.

The only Christmas carols most people can sing are those they learned as children. Not one out of 10 men ever learns the words to a new carol after the age of 40.

No matter how many lads there were in a large family, Santa usually left them a total of only one sled—although each of the daughters got her own doll to cherish.

A man usually gets the most muffers for Christmas the month before he retires and moves to Florida.

Quotes from the News

By United Press International
WASHINGTON — President Johnson, telling business leaders not to fear his administration and to help boost the economy by supporting a tax cut. "I am the only President you have. If you would have me fall, then you fail, for the country falls."

CAPE KENNEDY — Bob McGregor, incoming president of the Cocoa Beach Chamber of Commerce which decided its planned protest against re-naming of Cape Canaveral had little chance for success: "Ours is but a small cry in the wilderness."

BARRY GOLDWATER

President Johnson wisely turned his first attention to foreign affairs after assuming the reins of government.

This, of course, is the most crucial area of operation during a period of transition from one administration to another. It becomes even more crucial when the change is made suddenly because of an unforeseen event, such as was the case in this instance.

From the moment of President Kennedy's sad and untimely death, the need existed for another hand on the ship of state. Vice President Johnson supplied it immediately. He lost no time in assuming the oath of office as President and directing his attention to the most important questions of that high office.

At that instant, it was important for us to show the world that there is a continuity in the affairs of a democracy. It was important for us to convince the world that the American people were firmly behind the new President. And it was important for the new President to show the world that he had a firm grasp of the necessities of that moment in history.

I, for one, believe that this was done with both finesse and dispatch. President Johnson never faltered for an instant.

He exuded quiet confidence and determination in a way that could not fail to reassure a shocked and saddened nation. His conduct and his activities also served to assure our allies, as well as our enemies, that America can be steadfast even in the midst of sudden and unexpected adversity.

This was not an easy job. It had to be performed during a period of national mourning by a man heavily burdened with his own personal grief. It had to be done without ceremony in an office equipped with other types of governmental activity.

It had to be done between the demands of protocol level by his good friend and running mate. It had to be done while the world stood at his elbow and a nation watched through teardimmed eyes.

But it was done and done well. No matter how one may differ with the new President's policies and governmental attitudes, there is room for nothing but admiration on the part of all those in government for the way he assumed an almost impossible task.

In the space of a few activity-cramped days, it appears that the new President has brought himself up to date on most areas of international concern.

Among his initial activities was a conference with Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara and our ambassador to South Vietnam, Henry Cabot Lodge. This undoubtedly provided him with the latest information on one of the world's troubling trouble spots, Southeast Asia.

President Johnson also has given his attention to the affairs of the Atlantic community through conversations with French President Charles de Gaulle, British Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home and other European leaders who were in Washington for the funeral of President Kennedy. It is perhaps significant that one of the things arranged was for another visit to this country by President de Gaulle some time next year.

All in all, President Johnson has made an impressive beginning. He has given the nation confidence at a time when confidence is free world reassurance at a time when that is needed.

I'm sure that all patriotic Americans join me in wishing the new President the very best of success.

The Doctor Says

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Diabetes, like the motor car, is here to stay. This is because it is definitely an inherited disease. The number of persons who are capable of passing it on to their offspring is increasing.

High blood-sugar levels favor an increase in the activity of the blood (acidosis). This acts as a poison and may result in a diabetic coma. Obese persons run a greater risk of developing diabetes than slender persons.

The underlying cause is a deficiency in the ability of the pancreas to manufacture a sufficient amount of insulin. This is the hormone that enables the tissues especially muscles, to transform the glucose in the blood into energy.

Often all that is necessary to control a mild diabetes is to observe person is to bring his weight down.

In any diabetic a strict dietary control is important because an increase in calories from any source will cause an increase in the blood sugar.

If diet alone will not control the disease, a diabetic must take either insulin or one of the drugs such as tolbutamide that lowers the blood sugar level. Tolbutamide can be taken by mouth, but it is not effective in diabetics.

The delaying tactic is to put everything off till next year. This is being attempted through a joint resolution which would enable government agencies to spend at their last year's appropriation rate until Jan. 31, 1964.

Diabetics frequently are warned not to sit with their legs crossed because this impedes the circulation in one leg and anything that impedes the circulation also invites gangrene. Other complications include degenerative changes in the retina, kidneys and arteries of the heart and brain.

When insulin is lacking, the level of glucose in the blood rises. When it exceeds a certain amount, it is excreted in the urine. This is called glycosuria.

suming that congress holds no Saturday sessions. It is argued that there isn't time for congress to clear its calendar before the year-end.

The thought is that congress will complete action on appropriation bills after it comes back next year—seven months too late.

Into this situation the new President calls on congress for action now. He sums it up in three words: "Let us continue." The crude translation put on that for congress is: "Go to work."

Oswald Jacoby, Bridge

IF SHERLOCK PLAYED BRIDGE
Had Sherlock Holmes devoted his talents to bridge he would have had a lot of fun finding the criminal on his hand after various misadventures in bidding and play.

Who was the criminal? South had stolen the game, but he hadn't stolen a crime in bridge. Holmes would not have given him a second thought. The crime is to let your opponent steal it from you.

East took his ace of clubs and returned the suit. South won.

Was West the criminal? Certainly could. Have gone off with his ace of diamonds and set the hand and West probably should have been suspicious of the fact that immediate lead must be him down as an accessory, but the real criminal was East.

East had taken a club trick and was looking at tricks in spades and hearts. One more trick would set the contract and the best place to get it would be in diamonds.

East should have led a diamond at trick two and protected his partner. Elementary, Dr. Watson. East was the game's Moriarty!

CARD-SENSE
Q—The bidding has been:
North East South West
1♣ Pass 1♠ Pass
1♥ Pass 1♣ Pass
1NT. Pass ♠
You, South, hold:
♠A J 3 ♣A 8 5 ♠K Q 7 4 ♠A 11
What do you do now?
A—Raise your partner to three no-trump. He has shown a minimum type opening, but your 14 points should be enough for game. There is no slam.

TODAY'S QUESTION
Instead of bidding one no-trump over your one spade your partner has jumped to three clubs. What should you do now?

Two Infants Of Kennedy's Join Father

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5 (AP)—The late President Kennedy's two children who died at or shortly after birth were laid to rest near their father's grave at Arlington national cemetery last night.

White House Press Secretary Pierre Salinger announced the bodies of the infants had been transferred from their burial spots in Brookline, Mass., and Newport, R. I., and were reinterred at services attended by the family.

Presumably the decision to transfer the bodies of Patrick Bouvier Kennedy and an unnamed girl who died at birth was made by the president's widow, Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy.

Arlington is reserved for American servicemen, their wives and their children.

Salinger, who said he was acting as a representative of the Kennedy family rather than as White House press secretary, said the bodies were flown to Washington Wednesday aboard the family plane Caroline. They were accompanied by the late president's youngest brother, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D., Mass.

Later Wednesday night Salinger said the brief graveside rites were conducted between 8:45 p.m. and 9 p.m., long after the cemetery had closed for the night.

One Dead, 15 Hurt as Car Hits Children

BARTOW, Fla., Dec. 5 (AP)—One boy was killed and 15 other children injured yesterday when an automobile went out of control and smashed into the youngsters who were waiting to board buses after school.

Five other children, also students at Bartow high school, were treated for minor bruises and sent home.

Ronald Thompson, 17, was killed.

The children were among 100 or more waiting to board buses to go home when the automobile bounced over a curb and plowed into the group, police said.

Officers said preliminary investigation showed the car stopped, then suddenly leaped forward and over the curb.

Police Chief Louis Cromartie identified the driver as Mrs. Marguerite Frisbie, about 70; Bartow, she escaped injury. No charges were filed.

Satellites Obtain Photos of Red Sites for Missiles

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Dec. 5 (AP)—Dr. Ralph E. Lapp, a physicist who worked on the wartime Manhattan Project said today satellites are providing excellent photographs of Russian missile installations.

Dr. Lapp, speaking at Queens college, said information gathered by high-powered cameras in our satellites should be revealed to the American people.

Dr. Lapp said satellites had "enormous implications" for Soviet military strategy.

Bystander Is Victim in Brazil Tiff

BRASILIA, Brazil, Dec. 5 (AP)—A senator fired three shots at an opponent in Brazil's senate chamber yesterday and missed his target, but accidentally killed a third lawmaker.

The innocent victim was Sen. Jose Calisto, who died while undergoing surgery.

Calisto, from the western frontier state of Acre, was struck in the stomach by one bullet fired by Sen. Arnou de Melo.

Witnesses said de Melo whipped out a pistol and took aim from the speaker's platform at Sen. Silvestre Pericles.

Pericles, 61, a man known for his violent temper, had said he would shoot de Melo if he rose to speak. Both are from the northeast state of Alagoas, which has a reputation for stormy politics. Pericles, a member of the senate since 1957, had opposed the election of de Melo, a freshman.

Sen. Jose Agripino told newsmen he grabbed Pericles, who was about to return the fire, and disarmed him.

"His revolver was fully loaded and hadn't been fired," Agripino said.

Both men were placed in military custody. The senate appointed an investigating committee.

Senate sources said the feud was personal with no bearing on national politics.

Senate OK's New Water Bill for U.S.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5 (AP)—The senate passed by voice vote yesterday a bill providing for a federal-state program of long-range comprehensive planning for conservation of the nation's water resources.

The bill, which now goes to the house, would establish a federal water council composed of the secretaries of the interior, agriculture, army and welfare, and the chairman of the federal power commission.

The council would be directed to make biennial assessments of water supplies and requirements and to appraise the effect that individual river basin plans will have on other regions.

In addition, the bill provides for the establishment of federal-state river basin planning commissions to undertake studies of water and related land resource problems, to develop coordinated plans, and to recommend long-range schedules of project priorities.

Orley W. Phipps Honored at Rites

FAIRFIELD, Dec. 5 (AP)—Final rites for Orley William Phipps were held at 2 p. m. Tuesday in the Fairfield Community church by the Rev. W. James Post.

Two duets were sung by Mrs. Perdita Carman and Mrs. Victor Planansky. Prelude and postlude were played on the organ by Mrs. Lee Daniel.

pallbearers were Frank Mink, Willie Wilson, Rex O'Neil, Hugh Lewin, Dale Reedy and Frank Cooke. Honorary pallbearers were William D. Simon, James Bunting, Leslie Ruby, Horace Howland, Jack Edwards, Herman Perlick, Wesley Jones and Glenn Miller.

Last rites were held in the Mountain View cemetery north of Fairfield.

President's Heart Is Termed "Fine"

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5 (AP)—One of President Johnson's physicians said today the President's heart—"he had a heart attack in 1955"—is doing fine.

Dr. John Willis Hurst of Emory university medical school, Atlanta, said so when asked by a reporter to comment on a report that he had given the President a check-up in Washington on Saturday, Nov. 23, the day after President John F. Kennedy's assassination in Dallas.

The physician, interviewed by telephone in Atlanta, declined to confirm or deny that report, nor would he say how recently he had examined the President.

SETS INDIA VISIT

DAR ES SALAAM, Tanganyika, Dec. 5 (AP)—President Julius Nyerere will visit India in February.

POCATELLO, Dec. 5 (AP)—A Dallas, Tex., woman who wrote, "I only wish I had more to send" has contributed $3 to a woman from Hereford, England, stranded here because of medical expenses. Mrs. William Bowen's husband, a $25-per-week egg deliveryman, has petitioned parliament for help to bring her home to Hereford. Meanwhile, she remains at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Bergendorf, recovering from a "freak accident." The plane bringing her to this country made a rough landing at New York. She has an $8,400 medical bill and also needs money for a fare. Mrs. Ralph O'Fallon, Dallas, sent $3 to the newspaper here asking it be sent to Mrs. Bowen.

BOISE, Dec. 5 (AP)—The Idaho highway users conference was held yesterday that destruction of highway signs by vandals costs the state $75,000 a year. Traffic Engineer Marvin Lotspeich said it also costs $100,000 a year to clean up litter along the highways.

BOISE, Dec. 5 (AP)—A March 26 trial is scheduled for Harold L. Potter, Boise, charged with filing fraudulent reports of his income in 1957, 1958 and 1959 to avoid paying federal income tax. Potter pleaded innocent yesterday in U.S. district court. The government claims he should have paid a total of $39,862 in those years, but actually paid $17,980.

MOUNTAIN HOME, Dec. 5 (AP)—Mountain Home air force base commander, Col. Charles A. Allard, announces the closing of the 186-unit Bennett Park housing area on the base at the end of this month. Many of the 785 people who live in the apartments are expected to seek housing off the base. Colonel Allard said the phasing out of the area is part of an air force program to eliminate housing classified as substandard. Bennett Park has had that classification since 1957.

BOISE, Dec. 5 (AP)—A federal grand jury yesterday returned a first degree murder indictment against a Ft. Lewis, Wash., soldier in the church-service slaying of Eugene R. Carroll, George Leroy Stednitz, 20, Boise, was charged with the premeditated murder of Carroll, 22. He was shot Nov. 16 as he participated in a church service at the veterans administration hospital in Boise. The 49 witnesses told authorities a man carrying a rifle walked in and fired four shots. Carroll was hit three times. Stednitz was in Boise on leave from the army.

POCATELLO, Dec. 5 (AP)—Pocatello school Supt. Rulon Ellis said today that the one uncertified teacher on the staff will be certified or dismissed before state financial assistance is discontinued. Ellis said he thinks he can appeal to the state board of education for an exception in the teacher's requirements and get her certified. He said that at the time she was hired, it was believed she would qualify for certification, but it has been discovered since that she lacks one course needed to qualify.

POCATELLO, Dec. 5 (AP)—An immunization program under way now in Burdock county may make epidemics of diphtheria and cases of tetanus and smallpox nearly impossible. Ivan G. Frazier, administrator of the southeastern district health department, said the department is carrying out a plan to immunize all 11th-graders in the city against the three diseases. He said the program will fill a gap in vaccination coverage in the city.

BOISE, Dec. 5 (AP)—The advisory council of the state department of commerce and development has approved a budget of $81,801 to advertise the state of Idaho in the next year. Louise Shaddock, department secretary, said it was reduced from the $84,087 for national advertising a year ago. She said reasons include an increase in advertising costs, and the holdback policy in effect for spending by state agencies.

POCATELLO, Dec. 5 (AP)—Organizations collecting trade stamps to purchase a bus for the Nampa state school were asked today to forward their collections to the school. Mrs. Earl Harmon, Boise, state chairman of the Nampa state school bus committee, said the request was being made in order to determine how close the group was to its goal. Groups throughout Idaho are collecting 6,882 stamps to buy a bus to replace the 20-year-old vehicle which has been used by the school for the 780 residents.

POCATELLO, Dec. 5 (AP)—A committee of the Pocatello Chamber of Commerce declared today it will vigorously support the city as a possible site for a medical education facility. A study group from the Western Interstate Commission on Higher Education (WICHE) was in Pocatello Nov. 21 and 22 studying Idaho State university as one of several possible locations for a medical school. WICHE, operating under a $140,000 grant from the Commonwealth fund, is in the closing months of an 18-month study into the need, if any, for a medical education facility in the four-state region made up of Idaho, Wyoming, Montana and Nevada.

BOISE, Dec. 5 (AP)—A syndicate headed by the Chicago brokerage firm of Smith, Barney and company, was announced as the low bidder today on a $3,303,000 bond issue of the Boise public school district. The firm offered to handle the financing at an average interest rate of 3.1512 per cent for a net cost of $1,462,825.93. School board President Robert Mason said there were 12 other bidders.

BOISE, Dec. 5 (AP)—Steve Stahl, executive vice president of the Oklahoma public expenditures council, was announced today as principal speaker for the annual meeting of the Associated Taxpayers of Idaho here next Monday. Stahl twice has won Freedom foundation awards and will speak here on the subject, "Responsible citizenship—America's most urgent need." Speakers will include Max Yost, executive manager of the taxpayers organization; Herbert Derrick, city manager in Twin Falls; Harry C. Mills, public school superintendent at Nampa, and S. S. Foote, auditor of Canyon county.

POCATELLO, Dec. 5 (AP)—Businessman Paul Herzog was elected president of the Pocatello Chamber of Commerce today. C. G. Billmeyer, Jr., named first vice president, and Alden Toeva, second vice president.

IDAHO FALLS, Dec. 5 (AP)—Idaho Falls businessmen were back on the job today armed with a refresher course in how to steal merchandise from their own stores. The merchants don't have any plans along that line, but the instruction is expected to help them thwart the throngs of Christmas shoplifters and bad-check passers.

IDAHO FALLS, Dec. 5 (AP)—The Idaho Falls planning commission has started the long process of hearing objections to the city's controversial zoning proposal. The objections, heard in the first of a series of three meetings, were mostly from residents of an Idaho Falls suburb, Pine Acres.

IDAHO FALLS, Dec. 5 (AP)—Mayor W. J. O'Bryant fired Idaho Falls city building official Alva C. Harris yesterday on the grounds that Harris had "repeatedly violated orders and instructions of the mayor and city council." Harris hotly denied the accusation and said that likely part of the reason stemmed from the fact he had insisted the proposed controversial zoning ordinance be given more study. A letter handed to Harris by the mayor informed Harris of the immediate termination of his employment.

New Missile Being Perfected

NEW YORK, Dec. 5 (AP)—The navy announced today that its new long-range submarine-to-submarine nuclear missile is a sister-ship, the Permit, since moving toward operational status has carried out testing in the us. The weapon works like a fly-fish.

The missile is called "Subroc," a contraction for submarine rocket.

First submarine to carry the rocket was the ill-fated Thresher, which went down 200 miles off Boston April 10 with 129 aboard.

A sister-ship, the Permit, since moving toward operational status has carried out testing in the us. The weapon works like a fly-fish.

Protests Are Voiced Over Name Change

CAPE KENNEDY, Dec. 5 (AP)—President Johnson's switch a week ago from the 48-year-old name of Cape Canaveral for the nation's spaceport to Cape Kennedy is drawing opposition.

Two nearby communities already have gone on record against the surprise Thanksgiving day decree in memory of the late President and petitions are circulating among area workers opposing the move.

Opponents endorse the renaming of the space center itself but the resistance develops in the abandonment of the geographical name of Cape Canaveral.

President Johnson's order renamed the huge space complex the John F. Kennedy Space Center and also changed the name Canaveral from the triangular expanse of sand that juts into the Atlantic from Florida's otherwise smooth Atlantic coastline.

The city council of Cape Canaveral, a tiny municipality south of the missile base, has approved a resolution to be sent to the President and to Florida Gov. Farris Bryant protesting the decision. The city of Cocoa has taken similar action.

The Cape Canaveral council also asked its city attorney to determine if President Johnson had the authority to change the name of a location in the state.

$3,760 Paid For Barrow At Exposition

CHICAGO, Dec. 5 (AP)—A Chicago meatpacker yesterday paid $3,760 for "Cyclone," the 64th annual International Livestock Exposition grand champion barrow exhibited by Iowa State University, Ames.

Swift and company paid $16 for each of Cyclone's 235 pounds which will be processed for the Jewel Tea company of Chicago. The local price was $137.50 less than the price paid for the grand champion crossbred barrow shown last year by Roy Keppy of Davenport, Ia., and well shy of the record price of $4,692 paid to Colleen Rae Callahan, Midford, Ill., for her 1960 grand champion Hampshire barrow.

American Meat Packing corporation of Chicago paid $178.50 for the reserve grand champion, a 234-pound Poland China exhibited by Oscar W. Anderson and sons, Leland, Ill. The price was 70 cents a pound.

Mme. Nhu Leaves Rome, Blasts U.S.

ROME, Dec. 5 (AP)—Mme. Ngo Dinh Nhu, with a parting blast at the United States, left for Paris today to take up a life of exile with her four children.

The former first lady of Viet Nam, who was in the United States when the coup in Vietnam took the life of her husband and her brother-in-law, President Ngo Dinh Diem, came to Paris last month.

She said she would pray that those now responsible for U.S. policy "never think it wise in their catastrophic innocence or candid malignity to be loyal and faithful only with gangsters."

In a written "press conference" statement—where Mme. Nhu both asked and answered the questions—she said "My personal radar has sent out rather favorable signals" about President Johnson.

She said Johnson would succeed in Viet Nam "if he honestly pulls back—as I think he will do—U.S. A.—in the straight and loyal line of its idealist and moral traditions."

Mme. Nhu had some harsh words for U. S. ambassador to Viet Nam Henry Cabot Lodge.

She asked herself: "What do you think of the precipitate departure of Ambassador Lodge for Viet Nam, without waiting to attend President Kennedy's funeral?"

She answered, "The presence of Mr. Cabot Lodge at the funeral of President Kennedy would only not add any comfort to the soul of either one or the other."

"Many think that his presence in Viet Nam is indispensable, for he has become as he wanted, the governor general. As for me, I think that he is only a bewilderment of rebel assassins as overwhelmed as their nanny," she added.

Mme. Nhu praised the "humble and all the other people of good will in Italy," but said she had chosen Paris as her place of exile because she wanted to be with her children.

City Crews Making Survey For Storm Sewer System

The Twin Falls engineering department is investigating the possibility of a storm-sewer system for Twin Falls, Paul E. Newton, city engineer, announced Wednesday.

The purpose, Newton states, is storm sewer system facts will be on hand if ever needed.

The idea has been on the drawing tables since last summer and the city surveying crew has been out marking spots for rock test for the past month, he said.

The rock test will be taken by Robert Jones, Boise, with a cone drilling rig, which will drill a small hole in the pavement to test how deep the rock layer is.

Newton explained the city engineering department likes to keep on hand plans and figures of city projects which might be used in the future.

ing number readings for Miller is Clare Harkins, 356 Elm street north. The city surveying team has been out working on the investigation for about a month. (Times-News photo)

Richfield Meet Held About Old School Building

RICHFIELD, Dec. 5 — Richfield Grange representatives met with Richfield school board members at a special meeting Tuesday evening to make decisions concerning the Grange contract to purchase the old school gymnasium.

Both groups decided the building could be torn down in an effort to salvage materials for resale to enable the Grange to pay the $2,750 balance due on the $5,000 contract entered into in 1953.

Cost of maintaining the three-story structure was given as reason for the Grange inability to continue using the building. The Grange agreed to keep the structure insured.

New High School Interact Club Sponsored by Rotary

Peter De Luca, Twin Falls high school senior, has been elected president of the newly-organized Twin Falls high school Interact club, Earl Haroldsen, president of the Rotary club of Twin Falls, announced Wednesday.

Other officers elected for the new club are Tom Kolouch, vice president; Mike Greer, secretary; and Howard Marshall, treasurer.

The Interact club, established according to a plan provided by Rotary International, will be individually sponsored by the Twin Falls Rotary club. The new organization, according to Haroldsen, provides an opportunity for young men to work together in a world fellowship dedicated to service and international understanding.

Within five months after the program was announced by Nish C. Laharry, Calcutta, India, president of Rotary International, 68 Interact clubs had been organized on three continents.

Haroldsen said, "The members of the new club in Twin Falls have demonstrated good character, leadership potential, superior achievement in the classroom and in extra-curricular activities, as prescribed by the Interact constitution.

New members will be chosen according to procedures determined by a committee composed of Fred Wanzneried, representative of the Rotary club, Herbert Smith, representative of the Twin Falls high school, and the board of directors of the Interact club.

Haroldsen emphasized that the formation of the Interact club

KIMBERLY, Dec. 5 — Cade Dale Franklin Vosika, Kimberly, has been promoted to second lieutenant in the air force reserve officers training corps at the University of Idaho.

Negro Leader Not Satisfied With Statement

SALT LAKE CITY, Dec. 5 (AP)—Negro leader Albert B. Fritz Wednesday night expressed strong dissatisfaction with Gov. George D. Clyde's recent statement affirming a state policy on civil rights.

Fritz, Salt Lake branch president of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said Clyde's statement "reflects the apathy of a state which can no longer afford the immoral luxury of giving some of its citizens a second-rate existence."

Monday, the Republican governor said in a press release that the "employment of persons in the various departments, agencies and branches of state government shall be affected on the basis of merit and without consideration of the race, religion or color."

The statement continued, "It is also the express policy of this administration that the use of all facilities and services of the government of the state of Utah shall be available to all citizens, provided they otherwise qualify, without regard to race, religion or color."

Mrs. Walker, 85, Dies at Salmon

GOODING, Dec. 5 — Funeral services were held at the LDS church at Salmon Wednesday for Mrs. Sarah E. Walker, 85, Gooding, who died at the Salmon hospital Saturday.

A Gooding resident the past 10 years, Mrs. Walker was visiting relatives in the Priest River and Salmon area. She was born March 29, 1878, at Springville, Utah, and married Frank Walker March 24, 1899. He died Feb. 21, 1947, at Salmon.

Survivors include seven daughters, Mrs. Ben Glauner, Gooding; Mrs. Lucy Pearl Williams, Colville, Wash.; Mrs. Ann Pope, Boise; Mrs. Vera Durrant, Priest River; Mrs. Ada Stinson, Morris Town, Ariz.; Mrs. Mamie Mink, Spokane, and Mrs. June Howell, Salmon, and two sons, Frank E. Walker, Anaconda, Mont., and Fred Walker, Salmon.

T. H. Etherington Taken by Death

JEROME, Dec. 5—Thomas Hyrum Etherington, 73, died Sunday at Veterans hospital of a lengthy illness.

He was born Aug. 29, 1890, in Lucin, Utah, and came to Idaho as a youth, moving to Jerome in 1953. He had been a farm laborer and sheepherder most of his life.

His wife preceded him in death. Survivors include one brother, Robert W. Etherington, Salt Lake City, and one sister Mrs. Alice Keeton, Phoenix, Ariz., and one niece, Mrs. Sally Leonard, Ogden, Utah.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a. m. Friday in the Hove funeral chapel by the Rev. George R. Barnhart. Final rites will be held in the Jerome cemetery. Friends may call at Hove chapel from 7 to 9 p. m. Thursday and Friday until time of service.

Safety Honors to Go to Pilots

BOISE, Dec. 5 (AP)—Idaho pilots who have compiled perfect safety records during 1963 will receive special awards at a series of banquets early next year, State Aeronautics Director Chel Moulton said today.

Moulton said pilots who have flown five, 10, 20 or more years without an accident or violation will receive extra recognition.

Officers Named By K. H. Church

KING HILL, Dec. 5—The Rev. R. I. Barnes presided at the King Hill United Presbyterian congregational meeting Tuesday night at the church for election of officers.

Kenneth Jones was elected elder for three-year term; Mrs. Karl Anderson and Mrs. Mildred Carnahan, reelected deacons for three-year term; Karl Anderson was reelected trustee, and Mrs. Gerald Bybee, trustee for a three-year term.

Mrs. Nick Robinson was elected Sunday school superintendent; Tom Robinson, Gloria Woodward, Delmora Miller, Roma Young and Linda Callison were elected ushers for one year. All officers will take their offices Jan. 1.

The annual congregational meeting will be held Jan. 13 at the church.

Mental Health Meeting Planned

BOISE, Dec. 5 (AP)—Directors of the Idaho Mental Health association hold their annual mid-year meeting in Boise Saturday to make arrangements for the group's annual meeting in Boise next April.

The directors also will hear a report from Mrs. Harold Henderson, Gooding, president of the association, on results of a National Mental Health association meeting in Washington.

Party Planned

KING HILL, Dec. 5 — Annual Christmas gift exchange party sponsored by the King Hill Grange, will be held at 8 p. m. Dec. 14, at the Orange hall, with Mrs. Thomas Timbers, home economics chairman, in charge.

Committees include Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Ruberry, who will be in charge of treats; Mrs. Cecil Bell and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jones, decorating; Mrs. Frank Jones, lecturer, program and gifts, and each member is requested to furnish either cookies or homemade candy.

POLICE MOVED KING HILL, Dec. 5—Les Paulin, Meridian, has replaced Lewis Butler at the port of entry station here in King Hill. Butler has been assigned to a revolving port of entry car in the Meridian and Boise area. Mr. and Mrs. Paulin live in Glens Ferry.

Red China's Air Force Is Lacking Fuel

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5 (AP)—Red China's air force is reported caught in an aerial fuel shortage—arising out of the split with Russia—so serious as to be causing drastic curtailment of operations.

A highly based military officer who has returned from several years duty in the Far East, used the term "paper planes" when asked the current status of the Communist Chinese air force.

Red warplanes are now seen only rarely over coastal waters of the mainland, the officer said.

Since Russia pulled out her technicians and stopped shipments of equipment and weapons into Red China, Chinese military forces have had to rely heavily on fuel stockpiles accumulated from Russian sources earlier, both for operating aircraft and military vehicles.

China, almost entirely lacking petroleum stores, now must depend on what fuel it can get from neutral and communist countries other than Russia—in the South Pacific or in Balkan regions.

Hazard

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5 (AP)—Police officers who ride three-wheeled motorcycles in San Francisco will wear crash helmets from now on to protect them in accidents.

None. To protect them from rock-throwing juveniles who have been pelting Police lately as they try to disperse crowds.

N. H. Primary Plans Hinge On Senator

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5 (AP)—Sen. Norris Cotton said today he is delaying New Hampshire presidential primary campaign plans until Sen. Barry Goldwater indicates whether he is willing to run.

Cotton, New Hampshire Republican heading up a committee to put Goldwater's name on the March 10 preferential ballot, said in an interview he has had no conversation with the Arizona Republican since President Kennedy was assassinated.

Possibly reflecting indecision about political matters, Goldwater has declined to talk to newsmen since he announced shortly after Kennedy's death that he was cancelling all political appearances for the 30-day period of mourning.

Cotton said that immediately after death removed Kennedy target and elevated Lyndon B. Johnson, a Texan, to the presidency, he felt the Arizona senator's chances for the nomination had "skidded" sharply.

But he said he subsequently has altered his opinion that Johnson might cut into Goldwater's stronghold of support in the South. He noted Johnson's endorsement of civil rights and other key provisions of Kennedy's legislative program.

Slayer Given Life Term in Nevada Case

AUSTIN, Nev., Dec. 5 (AP)—Armand R. Bacon, 27, was convicted of first degree murder yesterday and sentenced to life in prison without possibility of parole for the killing of a school teacher.

Bacon had pleaded guilty to an open murder charge in the fatal beating of Mrs. Ann Kayser, 34, Battle Mountain, Sept. 28.

Dist. Judge John F. Sexton, Las Vegas, and Judge Don Collins, Elko, favored life without parole. Bacon was taken back to the county jail in Battle Mountain following the three-day hearing. Sheriff Don Maestri transported Bacon today to the state prison at Carson City.

Bacon showed little emotion as the verdict was read, after one hour and 25 minutes of deliberation by the judges. He was nervous while the judges were locked up, however.

The decision of first degree murder was unanimous, the judges said.

Kenneth L. Man, Elko, Bacon's attorney, contended in his final argument that Bacon was too drunk at the time to be responsible for his actions.

Closed Hearings Set on Scandal

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5 (AP)—Senate investigators will explore in closed hearings Friday the role of Robert G. Baker in a vendetta machine business row which triggered his resignation as secretary to the senate Democratic majority.

The senate rules committee will seek information on whether Baker had misused his official position to advance his business interests.

Harry Turner Is Awarded Pencil

Harry Turner won the blue pencil for his talk entitled "Truth Is Stranger than Fiction" at the meeting of Toastmaster club No. 149 Tuesday evening at Kay's Supper club.

Other speakers were Harold Gerber, Creighton Nelson and L. James Koutnik. Jack Lavin served as toastmaster and Joe Ryan conducted table topics.

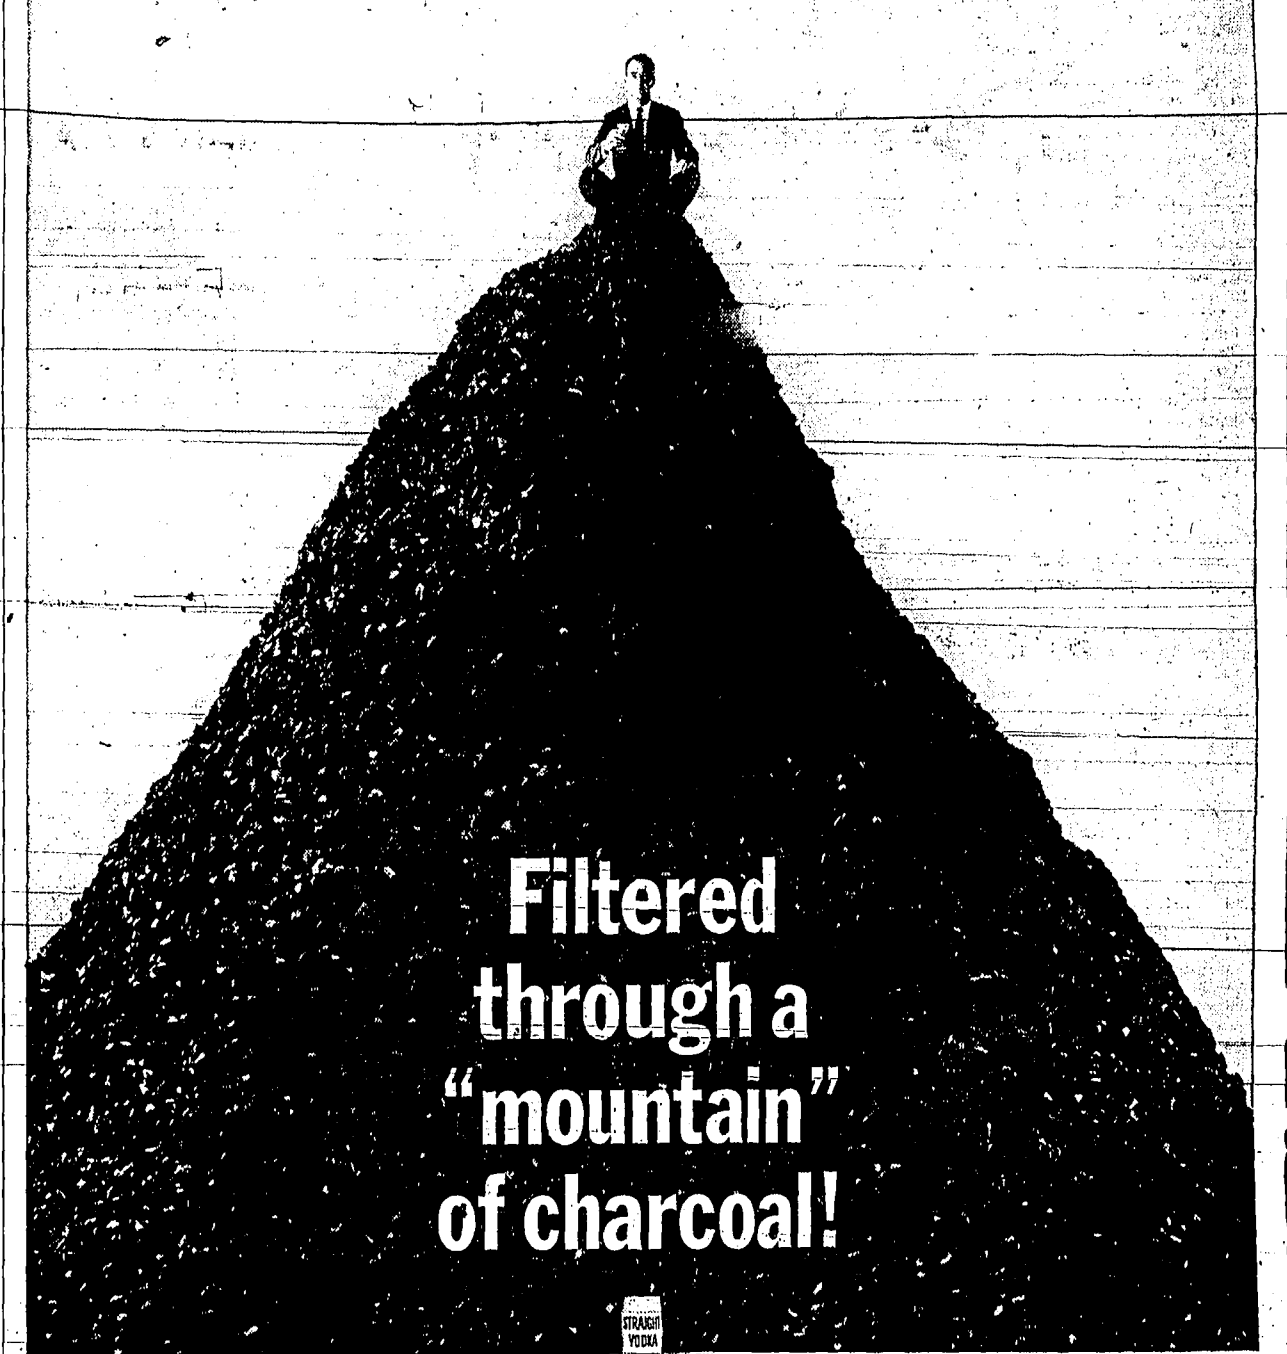

Oswald Funeral Expense Paid

FORT WORTH, Tex., Dec. 5 (AP)—A spokesman for Miller funeral home said today funeral costs for Lee Harvey Oswald have been paid.

The spokesman said Robert Oswald, brother of the accused assassin of President John F. Kennedy paid for the funeral with a cashier's check.

Cost of the funeral has never been disclosed, but it is believed to have been under $250.

Why crystal clear Smirnoff makes a better, smoother drink

Every drop of Smirnoff is filtered and refined through 7 tons of activated charcoal. That's 14,000 lbs! Literally a "mountain" of charcoal. Far more charcoal filtration than other vodkas use.

This "black magic" removes most of the congeners. No wonder Smirnoff is the world's finest liquor—smooth and flawless. Smirnoff blends perfectly with the flavor of fruit juices or soft drinks. Smirnoff leaves you breathless!

Today breathless Smirnoff outsells every brand of scotch and gin! Try it yourself, on the rocks or in a Martini, and find out why.

It leaves you breathless!

Dallas Fund May Reach To $200,000

DALLAS, Dec. 5 (AP)—A police official said today that a fund for the family of slain officer D. Tippit may reach $200,000.

It's getting more amazing every day," Lieut. V. K. Hipkind said.

Tippit was shot to death while chasing Lee Harvey Oswald, suspected assassin of President Kennedy.

Tippit's wife and three children were entitled to a $231 monthly pension and no insurance. Then generous Americans and some persons in other countries started sending donations.

Hipkind, supervisor of the detail handling mail for the widow, said 14 sacks of mail are left to be opened and counted. He said more than 40,000 letters were involved.

He had deposited more than $81,000 to a special account and estimated the total gifts would reach the $200,000 mark before the spontaneous donations stopped.

BOY SCOUT TROOPS in Twin Falls are getting ready for their curb-side collection of Christmas toys for needy children, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday. Pictured showing toys already collected are Dennis Byington, 14, left, son of Mr. and Mrs. Deimer Byington, 555 Folk street, troop 79; and Dennis Brown 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Brown, 184 Tyler street, troop 81. Scouts will tour their neighborhoods Saturday to pick up the toys and will deposit them at the Ralph Harris warehouse, 725 Shoshone street south, for sorting and repairing. (Times-News photo)

Wave of Hate Denounced By FBI Chief

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3 (AP)—FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover last night attacked hate merchants who use the cloak of patriotism to preach a doctrine of intolerance toward their fellow man.

Attacking extremists of all types, Hoover said that they serve the cause of communism.

"These venomous fanatics, whether they are extremists of the left or right, are carriers of a highly infectious disease," Hoover said in accepting an award from the Brotherhood of the Washington Hebrew Congregation.

Communism, he said, profits by this since it is trying to "divide and weaken America from within."

Hoover made no reference to the assassination of President Kennedy. The FBI still is preparing its report on the tragedy for President Johnson.

Also, Hoover warned that the civil rights movement could be a target for communist penetration.

Boy Scouts to Collect Toys For Needy T. F. Youngsters

Boy Scout troops will make a curb-side collection of Christmas toys for needy children from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday in Twin Falls.

Deimer (Bing) Byington, district Scout activities chairman, who is head of the project, urged residents to gather old and unused toys and place them in boxes on the curb, labeled "Boy Scouts."

Scouts will tour their neighborhoods Saturday to pick up the toys and will deposit them at the Ralph Harris warehouse, 725 Shoshone street south, where they will be sorted and repaired if necessary.

Distribution of the toys in time for Christmas will be handled by the Salvation Army.

Byington said if Scouts miss toys placed on curbs, special arrangements may be made for pick-up by calling Scout headquarters.

In urging the cooperation of parents, he stated, "Last year this project was a tremendous success, and many boys and girls had a brightened Christmas because of it."

Black Muslim Is Ousted for Lauding Death

NEW YORK, Dec. 5 (AP)—Elijah Muhammad, leader of the Black Muslim movement, has suspended his heir apparent, Minister Malcolm X Shabazz, for statements he made about the assassination of President Kennedy.

Malcolm X told a Black Muslim rally the assassination was an instance of "the chickens coming home to roost."

"Being an old farm boy myself," Malcolm X said, "chickens coming home to roost never did make me sad, they've always made me glad."

Muhammad said Malcolm X did not speak for him or the "Nation of Islam."

"We, with the world, are very shocked at the assassination of our President," Muhammad said.

Death Takes James Allen

BURLEY, Dec. 5—James Bird Allen, 79, died Wednesday at his home of a short illness.

He was born Nov. 17, 1884, at Smithfield, Utah, and attended Cache valley schools. He was a member of the LDS church and served a mission in England from 1904-08. On June 15, 1915, he married Alice Isabel Cushman at Salt Lake City. They have resided in Burley the past 25 years.

Survivors include his widow, three sons, Lloyd V. Allen, Byron, Wyo.; James B. Allen, Jr., Ogden, and Willard D. Allan, Burley; three daughters, Mrs. Fred McCord, Heyburn; Mrs. Emanuel Kerbs, Rupert, and Mrs. Don Mueller, Ogden, and 15 grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday in the Burley LDS fifth-seventh ward chapel by Bishop Jay Schofield. Final rites will be held in the Pleasant View cemetery. Friends may call at the Payne mortuary Friday afternoon and evening and at the place of service Saturday noon until time of service.

Hopes Jolted

TOKYO, Dec. 5 (AP)—Japanese war criminal Toyama (Meatball) Kawakita's hopes of leaving an American prison to take up residence in Japan have been jolted by a Japanese government ruling that Kawakita is not a Japanese citizen.

Kawakita, accused of mistreatment of American prisoners of war, has served 15 years in McNeil Island federal prison in Washington.

He was pardoned by President Kennedy in one of the last official acts before the President's assassination.

The Sankai Shimbun newspaper reported that the Japanese consulate in Seattle has balked at issuing Kawakita a visa he will need to get out of prison and return to Japan.

Kennedy made Kawakita's release conditional on his leaving the United States.

New Officials of Italy Take Oath

ROME, Dec. 5 (AP)—Premier Aldo Moro and his new center-left cabinet were sworn in today, giving Italy a four-party coalition government, including Socialists for the first time in 18 years.

It was Italy's 25th post-fascist government.

As the premier took the oath before President Antonio Segni, there was speculation whether the uneasy alliance patched together with such difficulty could stand much strain.

Volcanic Ash Is Plaguing Capital

SAN JOSE, Dec. 5 (AP)—Volcanic ash is settling on this capital city with the regularity of tropical rain and the San Jose provincial governor asked today that a state of emergency be declared.

The source of the ash is an eruption of Irazu volcano. The ash has been falling for several months now. In the last four days it has come down so thickly that the quarter million residents of this Central American city have gone into the streets with umbrellas or cellophane bags over their heads, or with handkerchiefs covering their faces.

German Nabbed On War Crimes

LUDWIGSHAVEN, Germany, Dec. 5 (AP)—Dr. Georg Fieleschmann, chief of the Ludwigshaven criminal police, was arrested last night as a war crimes suspect.

Fieleschmann, 57, is suspected of having been on the staff of "Einsatzgruppe V," a Nazi extermination command that killed hundreds of thousands of Jews in the Smolensk region of German-occupied Soviet Russia, justice authorities said.

Missing U2 Wasn't Shot Down in Gulf

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5 (AP)—After examining its records, air force investigators have ruled out the possibility that a U2 reconnaissance plane was shot down over the Gulf of Mexico two weeks ago.

However, they still have not pinpointed what caused the U2 to crash into the gulf some 40 miles northwest of Key West, Fla., apparently after completing a high altitude photo reconnaissance mission over Cuba.

The pilot, air force Capt. Joe G. Hyde, Jr., La Grange, Ga., has been declared dead, although his body has not been recovered.

The wreckage of the U2 was retrieved from waters 100 feet deep and has been examined by members of an accident investigation board set up by the strategic air command.

The air force told the Associated Press today the remains of the plane showed no evidence of rocket hits or rents from bullet, cannon, or other gunfire.

Human Dignity, Security Vital, Bargoorn Says

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Dec. 5 (AP)—The U.S.-Soviet cultural exchange program should be continued only if the "dignity and security" of individuals is guaranteed, according to Yale Prof. Frederick C. Bargoorn.

The professor said Wednesday that if the exchanges are to be made "it is very important that the personal security of individuals concerned be safeguarded."

Bargoorn, a 52-year-old political scientist, was imprisoned for 18 days last month in Russia on spy charges. He was picked up while touring the Soviet Union to do research for a book.

The professor was released after scholars across the nation protested his arrest and strong pressure was exerted by the late President John F. Kennedy.

Bargoorn's imprisonment led to the postponement of talks designed to extend the program which presently will expire on Dec. 31.

In Washington officials said the negotiations to extend the program would begin next month.

South Africa Arms Bar Is Voted in U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., Dec. 4.—In a rare show of unanimity, the U.N. security council today for a world-wide arms embargo against South Africa to curb enforcement of the country's white-supremacy policy.

The 11-nation council approved a resolution representing the toughest stand in U.N. history against South Africa's policy of apartheid, or rigid racial segregation.

Objections by East and West were dropped at the last minute for the way for the unanimous approval which previous resolutions on apartheid failed to achieve.

The Norwegian resolution asked that all nations halt shipments of supplies to South Africa's arms industry as well as arms.

U.S. Chief Delegate Adlai E. Stevenson gave the draft unanimous support. He said the United States would have agreed to the arms embargo independent of the council approval, even without council approval.

The United States has agreed to halt all arms shipments to South Africa by Dec. 31.

Bureau Okay Held Key to Loan Merger

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5 (AP)—Department of Justice approval was described today as the key to merger of Idaho Savings and Loan association with Equitable Savings and Loan association, with headquarters in Portland, Ore.

Idaho Savings and Loan association president, said efforts are being made to obtain a ruling from the department as to whether the merger would violate federal anti-trust laws.

But he said so far there has been no direct word from the department since a telegram was received on Oct. 14 asking that the merger not be consummated until an investigation was made. The merger had been scheduled to become effective Nov. 30.

Lind said he has conferred in Washington, D.C., with department of justice officials but has been unable to get a direct reply as to whether the merger is legal.

Lind said he believed the one-time association with Idaho Savings of D. Spencer Grow, who is under indictment on mail fraud charges in Maryland, will have no effect on the merger proposal. Grow once was an officer of the company but Lind said he is not now, although a substantial stockholder.

Jordan Declares Water Proposal Is Not Best Use

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5 (AP)—Sen. Len B. Jordan said Wednesday that a southern California proposal to tap Snake River in Idaho is not in the best interests of national water conservation.

Water, the Idaho Republican said, is the life blood of the United States and every effort must be made to get full potential use from water resources.

He said that carrying of water through an aqueduct to supply water for a coastal state which admittedly has not developed nearly all of its own water resources that are presently wasting to the sea cannot be termed the wise use of that resource in the national interest.

Wendell Lions Plan Yule Event

WENDELL, Dec. 5—Plans were made for the annual Christmas party to be held at 7 p.m. Dec. 8 at the Grange hall, when the Lions club met Monday at the Motor Inn. There will be a program, and a gift exchange.

Wendell Lamb, club treasurer, reported a successful light bulb drive recently completed under the direction of Dr. M. E. Scheel and the Rev. Austin G. Ruggier.

Charles Ireton, president, appointed Ralph Eslinger to investigate the skeet shooting equipment available and make a report at the next meeting.

SUPPER SET

KIMBERLY, Dec. 5—Kimberly Methodist men will sponsor a pancake and waffle supper from 7:30 to 8 p.m. Saturday at the Kimberly Methodist church. Proceeds will go towards the church building construction and pledges to Camp Sawtooth, north of Fairfield.

California's Resort Wear Fashions Noted

By DORIS KLEIN
BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., Dec. 5 (AP) — The Mexican guitarists who strummed to the opening of California's resort wear fashion week missed a few notes. The models distracted them.
California's designers are turning out women for next spring and summer as Latin men like them—in hot colors, figure-moulding styles, yet ladylike.
American men should like them, too.
There's even sports wear to get married in.
Campus casuals copied the Mexican peasant's wedding shirt and his bride's wedding dress and converted them into jackets and shifts. Even the embroidery is authentic.
And the fabrics are lighter-weight cotton copies of the heavy Mexican hand-woven cottons, but retaining the iridescent shimmer of sulphur yellow, tangerine, hot pink and brilliant turquoise.

The same colors, neutralized with sandy beige, turn up in nearly all the collections. Sometimes they're in giant flowers, clinging vine prints, gulliver-size pears and seven-colored paisley. Other times they're just flat, solid and strong as a Mexican chili pepper.
One is the sack-like shift. It's seamed, belted, draped to show that women still have bosoms, waists and hips.
Sleeves are making a comeback. Some shifts have kabuki sleeves. Tabak of California showed them. Butterfly sleeves turned up on some of Geno of California's silk patio dresses and shifts. He calls them stem dresses.
Geno, a new designer who uses mostly silk, had the day's most convertible dress. Three layers of silk linen—gold, pink and green—started as a patio dress.

SERVING PUNCH at the Magic Valley hospital tea is Mrs. W. M. Peterson. At right is Ida Merle Nielsen. The tea is sponsored annually by the Hospital Guild. Mrs. F. Wayne Schow was tea chairman. (Times-News photo)

Personnel Tea Is Given by Hospital Guild

Hospital personnel tea, sponsored by the Hospital Guild, was held in the hospital cafeteria.
Mrs. F. Wayne Schow was tea chairman, assisted by Mrs. Jack Alfred, Murtaugh, and Mrs. Arthur Carrier, Hansen.
Mrs. Oliver Stewart and Mrs. James Nickle were in charge of decorations. Pouring tea were Mrs. Claude Detweiler, Mrs. W. M. Peterson, Mrs. Allred and Mrs. Lyle Schmitker.

Mrs. Schmitker, president of the hospital guild, conducted the business meeting prior to the tea. Guild members furnished cookies and all hospital employees were invited.

The cafeteria was decorated in a Christmas motif.
Dr. Ellis Knight, Kimberly, made the centerpiece for the tea table. Dr. Knight furnishes the centerpiece every year.

Cathie Carter, Bastian Wed in LDS Temple

Cathie Ann Carter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Carter, Ogden, was married to Reese John Bastian, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arion L. Bastian, Twin Falls, in a ceremony Sept. 6 performed in the LDS temple.

Following the rites, a wedding breakfast was held at Harman's cafe, and the couple was later honored at a reception in the 35th LDS ward, where a white, gold and turquoise color scheme prevailed.

The bride was attired in a gown of white delustered satin daintily trimmed with seed pearls. Her shoulder-length veil of sheer net fell from a tiara of pearls. White roses centered with a white orchid formed her bridal bouquet.
Attendants were Sheila Carter, maid of honor; Camille Bastian, Ina Claire Carter and Denise Carter, bridesmaids, and Marleta Bastian, flower girl. They wore bellroom-length gowns of turquoise crystal charm and each carried a bouquet of white carnations and gladioli.
Bruce Bastian was best man. Mrs. Leonard Maw assisted at the reception.
The newlyweds reside in Provo, where they are seniors at Brigham Young university.

Husbands Feted At Banquet

RICHFIELD, Dec. 5 — Husbands were honored by Burmah Club members at their annual holiday season banquet held at the Methodist recreation rooms.
Garlands of poinsettias and holly decorated the tables, centered with a large Santa Claus made by Mrs. Robert Simerly, Wendell, and Christmas lanterns.
A three-act pantomime was given by Mrs. Hal Ross, sr., assisted by Mrs. R. O. Bell, Mrs. Olive Capps, Mrs. Glen Ross and Mrs. Eva Sorensen. Mr. and Mrs. Orin Capps presented banjo and piano selections.
Mrs. Hal Ross, jr., club president, welcomed the group, with Glen Ross responding for the men. Mrs. Clinton Easton, Paul, was a guest.
Mrs. Olive Capps and Mrs. LeRoy Magoffin were in charge of decorations. In charge of the program were Mrs. Orin Capps, Mrs. Olive Capps and Mrs. Bell.
The Dec. 13 meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Glen Ross with a gift exchange.

Spring, Summer Fashion Trends Are Described

By DORIS KLEIN
BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., Dec. 5 (AP) — Women will not longer look like Bill Shoemaker next spring and summer.
The jockey look—hip boots and leather caps—is out.
But colors brighter than jockey silks are in.
That's the word from California's resort wear designers at their press week showing for the nation's fashion editors.
The designers had a few more things to say:
Behind every flower, there'll be a woman. Huge flowered prints turned up in every collection.
Borrow blenders. Colors are brilliant—hot pinks, fiery yellows, ripe tangerine, Mediterranean turquoise, late summer green. Even white's taken on tone—a sandy beige.
Last year's shift is as out-moded as a potato sack. Draping outlines the bosom. Seams show the waist. Bellies ride the hip-line.
If it doesn't have a sleeve, it's last year's. Koret of California sewed blouse sleeves on a vest and made it a jacket. Removed, there's a sleeveless blouse underneath.
Geno of California revived bat wing sleeves on shifts and sinuous patio dresses. Tabak had short sleeves on its tunic and fringe-draped sheaths.
Any souvenir from south of the border is high fashion. Campus Casuals came up with enough authentic outfits to dress an entire Mexican wedding party. Shifts, ending three inches above the knee, were copied from Mexican peasant wedding dresses. Jackets, down to the last embroidery, were reproductions of Mexican wedding shirts.
Slacks and lounging trousers are wider and longer. John of California had flowing trousers for beach and patio wear. Koret borrowed sailor's bellbottoms and lengthened Bermuda shorts to kneecappers.
Crepe emerges from the cocktail hour for luncheon and sportswear. Koret had crepe shifts, crepe Jamaica shorts and slacks.

Prohibition, Noble Test, Ended Just 30 Years Ago

NEW YORK, Dec. 5 (AP)—Prohibition—the "noble experiment"—came to an end on a high-spirited note just 30 years ago today. A gavel slamming in Salt Lake City signaled that Utah had become the 36th state to ratify the 21st amendment.

It was 5:32 1/2 p.m., New York time. By 5:33 p.m. legal drinks were being downed by customers lined four deep at bars here and in cities across the country.

Now, says Licensed Beverage Industries, Inc., the drinking of liquor is less per capita than it was in the free-swinging era of gangster Al Capone and the speakeasies; less, also, than before prohibition.

It said the per capita consumption was 1.05 gallons in the prohibition years, compared with an average of 1.25 gallons over the last 15 years, and 1.37 gallons last year.

The industry placed the prohibition figures at 1.61 gallons. Prohibition, the 18th amendment to the Constitution, lasted for 13 years, 10 months, 18 days. The 21st amendment, which repealed the 18th, provided for state and local option and that, in turn, has left a complexity of laws varying from state to state.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5 (AP)—House Speaker John McCormack, D., Mass., and former Speaker Joseph Martin, R., Mass., have been shown that you don't have to travel all the way to Idaho to get Idaho potatoes.

The two veteran congressmen were presented a sack each of Idaho's famed contribution to the nation's staple diet.

Making the presentation at the Capitol, on behalf of the Idaho potato and onion commission, were Reps. Harding and Compton I. White, Jr., both Idaho Democrats.

Wedding Ring Placed on Kennedy's Finger Was Returned to His Widow

NEW YORK, Dec. 5 (AP)—The wedding ring that Mrs. John F. Kennedy placed on her dead husband's finger was returned to her the next day, Life magazine reports.

The return of the ring was disclosed by Theodore H. White in a copyright epilogue for the late President Kennedy in the current issue of the magazine. The White House confirmed White's account.

Mrs. Kennedy transferred the ring to her assassinated husband Nov. 22 in a Dallas hospital after efforts to save his life had failed. White, a close friend of the late president and Mrs. Kennedy, is the author of "The Making of the President." The White House said Mrs. Kennedy had read the account before publication.

In the Life article, White wrote that the day after the assassination, Kenneth O'Donnell, a White House aide, removed the ring from the president's hand in Bethesda naval hospital in Maryland and returned it to her.

Mrs. Kennedy's gesture in slipping her wedding ring off and putting it on her husband's finger was reported the day of his death by Rep. Henry B. Gonzalez, D., Tex., who said as she did so she kissed her husband on the lips.

Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield, D., Mont., used the incident as the basis for his eulogy to the late president in the Capitol rotunda.

White said Mrs. Kennedy was 18 wearing the ring at Hyannis Port as she told of being horrified by reports that she might live abroad.

"I'm never going to live in Europe," White quoted her. "I'm not going to travel extensively abroad. That's a desecration."

"I'm going to live in the places I lived with Jack. In Georgetown, and with the Kennedys at the Cape. They're my family. I'm going to bring up my children. I want John to grow up to be a good boy."

SWEDEN VISIT SET
STOCKHOLM, Dec. 5 (AP)—Nobel peace prize winner Prof. Linus Pauling will pay a three-day visit to Sweden starting Dec. 7.

White said Mrs. Kennedy was 18.

Dallas Needs No Defense, Britisher Says

LONDON, Dec. 5 (AP)—Lord Bossom, 62-year-old president of the Anglo-Texan society, said today that the people of Dallas did not need any defense in connection with the assassination of President Kennedy there.

"What happened there might have happened anywhere in the United States, once an assassin had determined to strike," he told United Press International.

Lord Bossom's connections with Dallas go back to 1903. He changed the face of the city in 1928 by designing what was then the tallest building south of Washington.

TEAMS SET 21 HOOP GAMES

Jerome Hosts Nampa in Feature; T. F. and Buhl Will Be Only Teams Idle

All but two of Magic Valley's basketball teams will step into action this week-end with a schedule of 21 games. Only Twin Falls and Buhl will wait for their openers, while such highly regarded names as Jerome, Idaho Falls, Gooding, Camas County and others step into the limelight. Two of the games will be out of district, Minico opening at Pocatello Saturday night Bliss going to Grand View the same evening. Burley gets an early look at Idaho Falls, which is expected to contend for the Southern Idaho conference championship. That game comes Saturday night after the Bobcats already have hosted usually strong Madison of Rexburg.

Castleford Welcomes Back Three Starters

CASTLEFORD, Dec. 5—A pair of sometimes flashy junior guards and a proven scoring punch at center highlight the basketball outlook for the Castleford Wolves and new head coach Gary McEwen. The Wolves welcome back Gerry West, 5 feet, 8 inches, and Jim Lewis, 5 feet, 10 inches at guard spots for the second year and Jim Griggs, who will be switched to center to replace his high scoring brother. In all, the Wolves lost only two starters from last year and the height is adequate to make them a solid Magic Valley conference contender.

Bradley Rips Past Idaho State 101-70

PEORIA, Ill., Dec. 5 (AP)—Sophomore Ernie Thompson and senior Lavern Tart each scored 25 points to guide Bradley to a 101-70 basketball victory over Idaho State Wednesday night.

Thompson pumped in 18 points in the first half and Tart 13 as the Braves swept into a 61-41 lead. They gradually pulled away in the last half.

It was unbecoming Bradley's second victory of the season. Idaho State now is 1-1.

Ken Briggs with 17 points and Art Crump with 15 topped the visitors.

Title Match Promoters Eye Miami

LAS VEGAS, Nev., Dec. 5 (AP)—Promoters of the Sonny Liston-Cassius Clay fight decided Wednesday to take a look at Miami's offer to host the fight.

But Las Vegas backers of the bout said they think they still have it sewed up.

Jack Nilon, adviser of heavyweight champion Liston, was due to fly to Miami Wednesday night. He is now in Philadelphia.

Bill MacDonald of Miami has reportedly offered a $625,000 guaranteed gate.

Ash Resnick, Las Vegas hotel executive and friend of Liston, said Nilon is simply "doing Miami the courtesy of looking at its offer."

The Las Vegas Hotel association couldn't agree on a guarantee.

"I still feel we'll get the fight," said Resnick. He said Jackie Gaughan, an owner of El Cortez hotel in Las Vegas, could personally back Las Vegas' offer of a $400,000 guarantee.

"A $400,000 guarantee here is better than $25,000 in Miami," said Resnick. The Miami area would have to be blacked out for television if it got the fight.

Liston's Intercontinental Promotions, Inc., won a Nevada promoters' license Tuesday.

The title fight is expected to be held Feb. 17 or 24.

"I think we have a good chance to land the fight," MacDonald said at his home in Miami Beach. "We can give it the promotion that will add prestige to the boxing business."

"We have the best possible convention hall, parking, hotels, housing, police protection and transportation. Our atmosphere is clean—the very best."

Idaho to Study Green Pheasant

BOISE, Dec. 5 (AP)—The fish and game department said Wednesday it plans "VIP" (very important pheasant) treatment for 16 Japanese green pheasants received by air express from Virginia.

The birds are breeding stock for an experimental program to release selected exotic pheasant species in the state. It will be conducted at the Jerome game farm.

Iron Man

CHICAGO, Dec. 5 (AP)—Andy Hebenton of the Boston Bruins set a National Hockey league "iron man" record Wednesday night when he took the ice against the Chicago Black Hawks.

The 34-year-old right wing was engaging in his 51st consecutive NHL game in a career which began with New York in 1955.

The former record was held by Johnny Wilson with Chicago, Detroit, Toronto and New York.

Both Lewis and West, who were starting guards last year, hit 100 and 87 points, respectively, and were perhaps at their best in the district tournament. Overall Castleford won 12 and lost 8 last season.

Castleford lost its first game to Hagerman 69-45 and will host Bliss Friday night.

Gooding travels to Wendell while Valley plays its first home game by hosting Decio, Mountain Home, an unknown quantity in this area although a South Central Idaho loop member, will be at Glenns Ferry.

Camas County will travel to Halley while Hagerman, which won its opener against Castleford, will be at Shoshone. Murtagh's first appearance will be at home with the Oakley Hornets as the visitors.

Carey will entertain out-of-district Mackay.

Wake Forest Fires Coach And Director

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C., Dec. 5 (AP)—Wake Forest college announced Wednesday that athletic director Bill Gibson and football coach Billy Hildebrand were being relieved of their duties in a shakeup of the college's athletic department.

Dr. Harold Tribble, president of Wake Forest, said in a statement that Gibson and Hildebrand would be offered positions in the college's development office.

Hildebrand served four years as head football coach at Wake Forest. His teams won only seven games and lost 32. In 1962, Wake Forest lost 10 straight games and this past season, the Deacons won only once in 10 starts—beating South Carolina 20-19 on Nov. 18 to snap an 18-game losing streak.

Gibson, who served nearly 14 years as an FBI agent, had been athletic director at Wake Forest for eight years.

Knicks Win in Last 32 Seconds

DETROIT, Dec. 5 (AP)—Len Chappell's basket with 32 seconds left gave the New York Knicks a 120-119 victory over the injury-riddled Detroit Pistons Wednesday night in a National Basketball association game.

The victory ended a five-game losing streak for the Knicks, while the Pistons went down to their seventh straight setback and their 19th in 21 outings.

The basket by Chappell was the 26th time in the game that the lead changed hands. It was also tied on 11 occasions.

California Tops St. Mary's 65-50

BERKELEY, Calif., Dec. 5 (AP)—The University of California led all the way Wednesday night in winning its initial basketball game of the year over St. Mary's College 65-50.

It was the eighth straight time that California beat St. Mary's in the season opener and the 10th time in 17 years.

Fifty-three personal fouls were called during the game, and Bob Wueste of the Bears was thrown out of the game near the close of the first half after he shoved Caroliselli.

Indians' Kirkland Traded To Baltimore for Al Smith

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 5 (AP)—The Indians traded pitcher Al Smith to the Cleveland Indians, up to their eyeballs in left-handed hitting outfielders, and the Baltimore Orioles, looking for power pulling a trade Wednesday. The Indians gave up outfielder Willie Kirkland and got outfielder Al Smith and about $25,000.

It was the third trade of the winter baseball meetings. The Indians earlier acquired outfielder Leon Wagner from the Los Angeles Angels for pitcher Barry Latman and a major league player to be named later.

The Milwaukee Braves traded catcher Del Crandall and pitchers Bob Hendley and Bob Shaw to the San Francisco Giants for outfielder Felipe Alou, catcher Ed Bailey, pitcher Billy Hoelt and a minor league player to be named later.

Said Cleveland Manager Br- die Tebbets: "Smith gives up some right-handed power, which we badly needed. He's a versatile man and could also play third base in an emergency."

Said Baltimore Manager Hank Bauer: "Kirkland is a good outfielder and he's got power."

After their first trade here, the Indians had a half-dozen left-handed hitting outfielders—Wagner, Kirkland, Vic Davalillo, Tito Francona, Al Luplow and rookie Chico Salmon.

Smith appeared in 120 games for the Orioles last season and batted .272, hitting 10 homers and driving in 39 runs. Kirkland was in 127 games, batted .230, hit 15 homers and had 47 RBI.

Smith has been with three clubs, counting Cleveland, in less than three years. He'll be

Staubach Is Top Point Winner on UPI's 1963 All-America Grid Team

NEW YORK, Dec. 5 (UPI)—United Press International today presents its 1963 All-America football team with Navy's Roger Staubach leading the way. Chosen as the finest 11 players to perform on collegiate football fields this season in a nationwide ballot of 305 football writers and broadcasters were Vern Burke of Oregon State and Jim Kelly of Notre Dame at ends.

Griffith Resigns as Georgia Grid Coach

ATHENS, Ga., Dec. 5 (AP)—Football coach Johnny Griffith resigned Wednesday after compiling a 10-16-4 record during Georgia's three most turbulent years, and Auburn freshman coach Vince Dooley was named to succeed him. The 39-year-old Griffith's resignation will be effective Jan. 31.

Beathard's Price-Tag too High for Ford

DETROIT, Dec. 5 (AP)—Kansas City snagged the Detroit Lions' top National Football League draft choice because the bidding was too rich—even for millionaire owner William Clay Ford.

La Mar Hunt (all millionaire owner of the American Football league franchise at Kansas City) apparently was prepared to go first cabin all the way.

Ford said Wednesday. He made the comment after Kansas City handed quarterback Pete Beathard of Southern California.

"But he's welcome to the boy," Ford added. "It's good riddance for us at those prices."

Admittedly stunned by the deal, Beathard made for himself, Ford said he "wouldn't dare match an offer" like Kansas City's. He described it as "exorbitant and unrealistic."

According to Ford, the rival AFL club beat out the Lions by handing Beathard:

1. A bonus in excess of $15,000 for signing.
2. A no-out contract calling for more than $20,000 a year.
3. A paid-up life insurance policy.
4. Option on shares of stock in a west coast pay-TV corporation, cost of which would be financed by Kansas City.
5. A new car.
6. Free rent in an apartment for an unspecified duration but presumably for no less than a year.

Steelhead Run Down From 1962

BOISE, Dec. 5 (AP)—The fall run of steelhead trout at Lewiston is only half what it was a year ago, the Idaho fish and game department reported Wednesday.

But the agency said the run is above the 10-year average and good fishing has been reported, especially along the lower Snake river and in some sections of the Clearwater river.

The department said 12,185 steelhead were counted at the Washington Water Power company dam at Lewiston between July 1 and Nov. 19 this year compared with 26,361 in the corresponding period last year.

Tiger, Philly Players Involved In Trade Deal

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 5 (AP)—The Detroit Tigers traded pitcher Jim Bunning and catcher Gus Triandos to the Philadelphia Phillies today for outfielder Don Demeter and pitcher Jack Hamilton.

It was the fourth trade of the winter baseball meetings and the first inter-league swap.

BATTLE TO DRAW

WICHITA, Kan., Dec. 5 (AP)—Jim Barnes hit 32 points in pacing Texas Western to a 75-74 basketball upset over Wichita Wednesday night.

Dooley's four-year contract approved unanimously

ATHENS, Ga., Dec. 5 (AP)—Auburn athletic board at Auburn approved unanimously Dooley's four-year contract.

Dooley's four-year contract was approved unanimously by the athletic board. He had been a freshman coach at Auburn for three years and was a top backfield performer for the Auburn Tigers.

Dooley became the second member of the Auburn staff to be named to Georgia in recent days, which to Georgia's basketball coach, became Georgia athletic director last week.

No successor was named immediately to the 39-year-old Griffith, whose resignation will be effective Jan. 31.

The school president, Dr. O. C. Beathard, said Griffith was offered a position in the Physical Education department, but Griffith said: "I just don't know what to do. I have only had a few weeks to think it over."

He added: "I have done the job I could, and I and my staff will walk out with our heads held high."

Only Tuesday night, about 200 people hanged and burned effigies of both Beathard and Griffith with crudely lettered signs reading "Coach Griffith" and "Do-nothing Aderhold."

Griffith succeeded Georgia's college coach, Wallace Butts, three years ago and later testified for the Saturday Evening Post during the trial of Butts' suit against the publication.

Butts was awarded a $300,000 dollar judgment last August against the Post, which had published a story saying Butts was inside information on the Georgia team to Coach Paul Bryant of Alabama before the 1962 Georgia-Alabama game. Alabama, heavily favored, won the game 35-0.

Griffith occupied a hot seat all these years, first as the successor to the successful Butts, who took him to eight bowl games, won four SEC championships and named out such performers as Frank Sinkwich, Charlie Trippi, John Rauch, Zeke Bratkowski, Francis Tarkeyton, John Carson and Bobby Walston.

Then there was the magazine article and the trial, with all its bitterness, some open and some hidden.

Griffith himself apparently expressed any bitterness, he said after resigning: "I have been privileged to work with the best of the young men, with a coaching staff which is dedicated, and with members of the faculty and an athletic board who recognize that sportsmanship and character are developed to their best on the playing fields."

Grayson Sues

SEATTLE, Dec. 5 (AP)—John Grayson, former University of Washington basketball coach, filed a $300,000 libel suit Wednesday against the Curtis Publishing company.

Grayson contended an article in the Dec. 31, 1962, Saturday Evening Post published by Curtis "tended to destroy his reputation for integrity and sportsmanship." The article was written by Al Lighner, Salem, Ore., referee.

NO DEFENSE

EAST LANSING, Mich., Dec. 5 (AP)—Michigan State edged Western Michigan 101-103 Wednesday night on Marcus Sanders' layup in the basket with 20 seconds left.

WEST POINT SEETHING

WEST POINT, N. Y., Dec. 5 (AP)—Army is seething to a boil for the Saturday service football game with heavily-favored Navy.

One prime ingredient is a quotation from a Navy scout: "This is the worst I've seen an Army team look in years."

Navy men are looking down their noses at us and that isn't being unnoticed," Coach Paul Hanel of Army said Wednesday.

His team again assumes the merdow role. Navy, ranked second nationally behind Texas, has won the last four meetings.

"Navy says it won't go to a bowl unless it beats Army and, apparently, they've already beaten us," Dietzel said. "They've beaten Texas and seen it to be a national title. They're not looking legally. I noted one headline recently which said 'Navy says it won't go to a bowl unless it beats Army and, apparently, they've already beaten us.'"

"Last year their scouting report called us 'A very dull, unimpressive team.' A Navy scout came out of the press box this year and told us: 'Well, some old Army offense — off tackle left, off tackle right and punt. Yes, it's the same old dull' stuff some people like Texas use. Sure, they run it better. But generally you are as spectacular as the team is successful."

"We've had seven spectacular Saturdays and two dull, unimaginative ones this season."

"One of Army's great victories was in 1953 and I don't remember us getting fancy or filling the air with footballs. The same thing was true two years later when Don Hollender proved Colonel Ebaugh was right moving him from end to quarterback by beating Navy. All these things are relative."

"I saved some interesting clippings. One from Philadelphia recently quoted Navy's Rip Miller as confiding he couldn't think of the name of Army's quarterback. The story says when someone nearby offered to look it up, Miller is quoted as saying: 'While you're at it, see if you can find who plays halfback, too.'"

"Another item quotes Captain John Hopkins, chief Navy scout, and I quote: 'This is the worst I've seen an Army team in years.'"

Phil Piton Elected President Of Minor Loop Baseball Group

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Dec. 5 (AP)—Phil Piton, assistant to the late minor league czar George Trautman for many years, was elected president of the National Association of Professional Baseball leagues at the minor league convention today. Piton, 60, was elected for a term of five years at $30,000 a year. A native of Chicago, Piton entered baseball in November of 1929 and served as a stenographer in the Back of Week Award Goes To Grisham

NORMAN, Okla., Dec. 5 (AP)—A wild man on the football field, but gentle as a lamb in person—that's Oklahoma fullback Jim Grisham, the Associated Press college football back of the week.

A typical Grisham post-game comment came Saturday after he shattered the school rushing record by gaining 218 yards and scored four touchdowns against arch-rival Oklahoma State in a 34-10 victory.

"There ought to be a yardage column for the blockers," he said modestly. "Our line was really blowing them out of there. All I had to do was stroll through the holes."

But OU coach Bud Wilkinson has another version. Seldom given to superlatives, the Sooner mentor says of Grisham, "He's an even better player this year than last." And last year as a sophomore, Grisham was good enough to be labeled by Wilkinson as potentially the finest back he has ever coached.

"He's our best linebacker," says Wilkinson, "but he's so important to our offense that we use his linebacking only in critical situations."

"And, in addition, he's a super young man with a fine attitude." The 221-pound junior from Olney, Tex., has scored 16 touchdowns and gained 1,572 yards rushing in his first two varsity years. He's expecting even greater things next year — not for himself, necessarily, but for the team.

Mississippi State Gets Bowl Berth

STARKVILLE, Miss., Dec. 5 (AP)—Mississippi State has accepted an invitation to play in the Liberty bowl at Philadelphia on Dec. 21, athletic director Wade H. Walker announced Wednesday.

Mississippi State, the surprise team of the Southeastern conference, will play North Carolina State.

The bid was extended by Bud Dudley, president of Liberty bowl Charities.

Walker said the squad and coaching staff voted unanimously to accept the bid. The athletic committee also approved.

Coach Paul Davis said, "The boys certainly earned this bowl invitation. They deserved it and it's a real honor."

The Maroons, who finished the season with a 6-2-2 record, last played in a bowl game in 1941 when they beat Georgetown 14-7 in the Orange bowl.

course, would have to be approved by the majors at their meeting in Los Angeles later this week," explained Piton.

It informed that Frick had threatened to deprive the International league of these benefits because of its recent decision to cut back from 10 to eight teams for 1964, Piton said:

"I don't wish to comment on this."

Should the majors act to exempt the International league from these benefits, the amendment would be returned to the minor leagues for ratification or rejection.

Bliss Will Rely on All Junior Lineup

BLISS, Dec. 5—An all-junior lineup, with the exception of senior Karl Christofferson, will carry the basketball fortunes of the Bliss Bears into the 1963-64 basketball season. The Bears, who notched a 7-13 record under coach Jay Durfee last year, open their season on the road this week-end.

Navy Would Be Pleased to Rank Top

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Dec. 5 (AP)—Navy Coach Wayne Hardin noted wryly Wednesday that his second-ranked Middles have already been installed as a favorite over top-ranked Texas in the Cotton bowl Jan. 1—even though they haven't gotten past Army yet.

"If they can make the favorite in a game that hasn't even been discussed yet, why don't more people vote us No. 1?" Hardin asked at a news conference.

"We would welcome No. 1 ranking. We also welcome being the favorite in the Army-Navy game Saturday."

He said that it was the first time since the Bruins' head coach five years ago that Navy has been favored. Hardin has won his four previous encounters with Army.

You get no quarrel from Naval academy officials that a bid to the Cotton bowl against Texas will probably be accepted promptly if the Middies whip Army, although they cannot discuss it publicly. The official 30-day period of mourning for President Kennedy will be over before New Year's Day.

On another aspect of the Army-Navy game, which is up- permost this week in the minds of Naval Academy personnel, Hardin said his team is mindful that it lacks only 25 points of winning the national scoring title this year.

"But that's one record we're really not interested in," he said. "If we can beat Army, we'll be satisfied regardless of the score."

They will be at Castleford Friday night and switch to Grand View Saturday. Highlighting the returning list is 5-foot, 9-inch Terry Watkins, who scored 160 points last season. But the Bears are without Wayne Henderson, a 122-point producer last winter.

The Bliss lineup includes centers Rusty Purdy, 5 feet, 10 inches, and Jim Collins, 5 feet, 11 inches; guards Rod Frust and Willy Medley, both 5 feet, 10 inches; David Fleming, 5 feet, 9 inches, and Mike Hardwick, 5 feet, 8 inches; and forwards Bruce Robbins, 5 feet, 11 inches, and Kent Krohn, 5 feet, 10 inches.

The Bliss schedule includes Dec. 6, Bliss at Castleford; Dec. 7, Bliss at Grand View; Dec. 10, Bliss at Hansen; Dec. 13, Hansen at Bliss; Dec. 14, Gooding State at Bliss; Dec. 17, Castleford at Bliss; Dec. 27-28, holiday tournament at Notus.

Jan. 3, Bliss at Carey; Jan. 10, Hagerman at Bliss; Jan. 17, Bliss at Dietrich; Jan. 18, Carey at Bliss; Jan. 21, Bliss at Richfield; Jan. 24, Carey at Bliss; Jan. 28, Bliss at Camas County; Jan. 31, Bliss at Hagerman; Feb. 7, Dietrich at Bliss; Feb. 8, Grand View at Bliss; Feb. 14, Richfield at Bliss, and Feb. 15, Bliss at Gooding State.

Hawks Overcome Warriors 105-83

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 5 (AP)—The St. Louis Hawks capitalized on a four-minute stretch when Walt Chamberlain was on the bench and turned a close National Basketball association game into a 105-83 rout of the San Francisco Warriors Wednesday night.

When San Francisco coach Alex Hannum removed Chamberlain—the third quarter—the Warriors trailed only 58-52. Chamberlain didn't come back until the start of the fourth quarter, but by that time St. Louis held a 73-59 lead.

Bullets Handle Lakers 118-98

BALTIMORE, Dec. 5 (AP)—The Baltimore Bullets blew an early 20-point effort by Walt Bellamy in the fourth quarter to defeat the Los Angeles Lakers 118-98 in a National Basketball association game Wednesday night.

Bellamy scored 24 of his 48 points in the last period after the Lakers pulled ahead 75-72. Bellamy connected on 20 of 31 shots from the floor and also nailed down 29 rebounds as Baltimore extended its winning streak to three in a row, tying a club record.

"Pen Pal" of Kennedy Is Game Guest

FAIRLESS HILLS, Pa., Dec. 5 (AP)—A grandmother who wrote a shabby letter to the late President Kennedy every month will see the Army-Navy football game Saturday as the guest of President Lyndon B. Johnson.

Mrs. Precious Humble, attractive, "fiftiish . . . plus" by her own admission, still stunned by the rapid fire run of events which included a telephone talk with Johnson, will take her 11-year-old grandson, John Douglas, to the game.

It was John Douglas who answered the telephone Monday afternoon and heard the magic words "Washington calling Mrs. Humble."

He explained that she was at her regular employment, office manager for a local department store. He gravely accepted the message to have his grandma make a return call.

An hour later she returned the call. The extension carried her to Maj. Gen. C. V. Gilton, military aide to Johnson.

"It was lucky I was sitting down," Mrs. Humble explained, "because he said 'the President would like to talk to you.'"

"Then another voice came on and said, 'This is President Johnson.'"

"I could only mumble a reply," she added frankly.

The President told her he was aware of her regular correspondence with President Kennedy.

"My last letter to him (Kennedy) around Nov. 1 was that I saw him on television at the Army-Navy game last year. I wrote how good he looked and thrilled I was to see him," Mrs. Humble said.

"President Johnson said he thought President Kennedy would like me to see the game. He said two tickets would be placed in the mail for me that night."

"I picked them up at the post-office Tuesday."

Mrs. Humble, a widow for five years, and whose son John, died six years ago from wounds received in naval service during World War II, said she wrote her first letter to Kennedy after his nomination and resulting campaign visit to adjoining Levittown, Pa.

"I received one reply from him, shortly after his inauguration," Mrs. Humble said.

"I had written him that I was so pleased that America could elect a Catholic president, that a man could be elected despite race or creed. I feel that way."

"He thanked me very courteously in his reply."

The once-a-month letters to the White House followed. The subjects?

"Well, it was just like writing to a friend. When it was baseball season, I wrote about baseball. In football season, I wrote about football," she explained.

"There really was nothing special. I wrote about my grandson and his school. And when there were international problems, I wrote about them, too. I wrote just a friendly letter."

—And so, Mrs. Humble, mother of a navy hero, will be a guest at the football game, dedicated to another navy hero.

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

THURSDAY, Dec. 5—Born today, you are an unusual combination of creative artist, executive, and intellectual. It is extremely important, therefore, if you are not to become a misfit in life, that you find your niche early. Parents of children born on this date must be careful that they do not allow their offspring to scatter their interests too broadly as they approach adulthood. Of particular importance is early training along the lines of the child's most basic interest.

You are not quick to make friends with individuals—though once made, your friendships last a lifetime—but you are interested in people in general, and are quick to take to heart the problems that beset humanity as a whole. Indeed, much of your energy and perhaps even considerable personal sacrifice may well go into an attempt on your part to solve these problems.

In considering marriage, it is vital that you select for your mate one who is your intellectual equal. Otherwise, though you may have everything else, complete and lasting happiness will elude you. Remember, too, that in this matter potential is not enough; for you are not a teacher by nature and would grow impatient trying to bring another up to your level.

Among those born on this date are: Martin Van Buren, 8th President; George F. Custer, U. S. S. cavalry hero; Sir Sidney Lee, English scholar, editor, writer.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday star and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

FRIDAY, DEC. 6

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22)—Caution in afternoon should turn to good account the questionable aspects of an active morning.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23-Jan. 20)—Best to stick to routine throughout most of the day. As evening approaches you can dispense with excesses of caution and GO!

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)—Not too soon to begin planning for the holidays ahead. Take care, however, that what you have in mind is truly feasible.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20)—Hold decisions in abeyance until late in the day. Aspects are most favorable then for a keen display of good judgment.

ARIES (March 21-April 20)—A double-duty day: First for making decisions; then for acting upon them. Do not be put off your path by another's difficulties.

TAURUS (April 21-May 21)—A day when the home atmosphere may be just right for the blowing of fuses. Divert family members by divulging plans for their future.

CANCER (June 22-July 23)—An up-and-down day for the Cancer whose main interest is business. Affairs should level off by early evening.

LEO (July 24-Aug. 23)—An excellent day for straightening out affairs at home. See that junior family members have their say in holiday planning.

VIRGO (Aug. 24-Sept. 23)—An easy-does-it day for the Virgo who has followed recent good advice. Avoid making excessive demands on loved ones.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)—Prudence and a neat appearance can make this day more of a success than you might think. Draw attention to yourself.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 23)—Avoid travel wherever possible. Business necessitates your driving, heed all caution signs and exercise courtesy of the road.

Pope Plans Pilgrimage To Holy Land

VATICAN CITY, Dec. 5 (AP)—Pope Paul VI announced Wednesday he will go to the Holy Land next month on a pilgrimage dedicated to Christian unity and peace among men.

He will be the first ruler of the Roman Catholic church to make such a trip.

The Holy Land is Palestine, whose great Christian shrines have been divided between Moslem Jordan and the Jewish state of Israel since the Arab-Israeli war of 1948.

Israel hold Nazareth, where Christ lived and first preached. Within Jordan's 2,125-square-mile segment west of the Jordan river are such religious centers as the Church of the Nativity at Bethlehem and the Church of the Holy Sepulcher in the walled old city of Jerusalem.

Jerusalem is about 1,500 miles southeast of Rome.

This will be the longest trip any reigning pontiff ever made. It will be the first time any Pope has left Italy since Pius VII went reluctantly to Paris in 1804 to crown Napoleon.

And if Pope Paul goes by air—as he is expected to do—it will be the first papal plane trip.

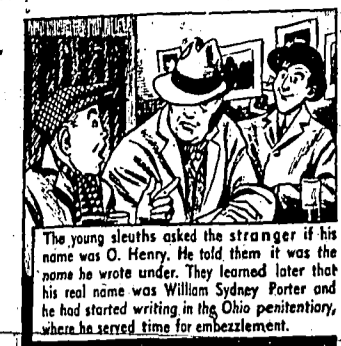

Pope Paul made his announcement at the close of the second session of the Vatican ecumenical council.

He did not set any exact date or itinerary, but said he wanted to visit the holy places "where Christ was born, lived, died and ascended to heaven."

His disclosure stirred speculation that he eventually may make even longer trips to the Americas or the Far East. He has been invited to New York for the 1964 World's fair.

Paul's predecessor, Pope John XXIII, broke a long precedent on Oct. 3, 1962, when he traveled 350 miles in a whirlwind trip across Italy to the shrine of Loreto and Assisi.

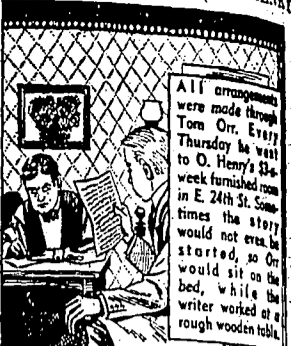

GIFTS OF THE MAGI

The young sleuths asked the stranger if his name was O. Henry. He told them it was the name he wrote under. They learned later that his real name was William Sydney Porter and he had spent writing in the Ohio penitentiary, where he served time for embezzlement.

Orr and Williams reached an agreement with him. He would write a story every week, but he would not come downtown to see the editor.

All arrangements were made through Tom Orr. Every Thursday he went to O. Henry's 85-week furnished room in E. 24th St. Sometimes the story would not even be started, so Orr would sit on the bed, while the writer worked at a rough wooden table.
