West Berliners Brave Snow, Seek Passes to East Germany

BERLIN, Dec. 18 (AP)—Thousands of West Berliners, braving heavy snow and freezing temperatures, queued up today to apply for permits to pass through the Berlin wall and see their relatives in the Soviet sector for Christmas. "It's the best Christmas present I've ever received," said one elderly woman, who at 3 a.m. was one of the first in line. "I am going to see my daughter, who will need me especially this Christmas because her husband died just a month ago," the woman said.

Progress Reported On Civic Auditorium

The Twin Falls civic auditorium-convention center campaign executive committee added four new members to its roster this week to bring the total to 44 out of the 60 members needed. After the 60 volunteer members have been secured for the executive sales committee, organizing will begin for the general sales organization. This second, larger sales team will be made up of 85 additional men and 85 women who will form 18 sales teams. "Only 16 more members are necessary to complete the membership," said Henry Willis, campaign chairman, "and when that hurdle is overcome, Twin Falls will be well on its way to receiving a dramatic 'shot in the arm' in the form of community spirit and accomplishment, which will surely add to our chances to get a fair share of today's and tomorrow's convention business, both state and regional."

"Our share will be in direct ratio to the willingness of our community leaders to launch and sustain a cultural and economic program," Willis added.

According to survey facts contributed by the International Association of Auditorium managers, people overlook the secondary benefits that an auditorium brings to a community—the increased property value in the city and the business it generates for the merchant of the city. Smylie Sets First Race Group Meet

BOISE, Dec. 18 (AP)—Gov. Robert E. Smylie today called an organizational meeting in Boise Dec. 27 for the newly appointed state racing committee.

Smylie told newsmen that the problem of financing the committee's activities until parimutuel receipts from horse racing come in will be one of the first the group will have to solve.

The three-member committee, appointed by Smylie last Saturday in compliance with a supreme court order, is charged with preparing and promulgating rules and regulations for horse racing and track betting under a pari-mutuel system.

The law setting up the committee, however, does not permit use of other state funds to pay salaries or expenses of the group.

Smylie said he had asked Atty. Gen. Allan O. Shepard to send a representative to the meeting to discuss these and other problems confronting the committee.

For "want of a better place," Smylie wrote committee members, the initial meeting could be held in his statehouse office and then a suitable place for further discussions could be arranged.

Freeman Sets Domestic Sugar Quotas

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18 (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Orville K. Freeman set 1964 domestic sugar needs today at 9.8 million tons—600,000 tons less than was marketed this year—and announced partial quotas for various supplying areas.

Marketing of sugar are controlled by the agriculture department under a program designed to stabilize prices and supplies.

Freeman set next year's marketing and import needs at less than this year because a large quantity—estimated at more than 600,000 tons—has been accumulated under buyer stockpiling in a period of short world supplies.

Under Freeman's program, less sugar will be imported next year thus reducing the impact of American buying on world prices.

Freeman allotted quotas totaling 5,700,832 tons to domestic areas compared with 5,703,463 supplied this year. The 1964 and 1963 quotas, respectively, by areas included: Domestic beet sugar area 2,698,590 tons next year and 2,698,590 this year; mainland cane sugar area 811,410 and 1,095,873; Hawaii 1,110,000 and 1,110,000; Puerto Rico, 965,000 and 870,000, and the Virgin Islands 15,832 and 15,000.

Kennedy Autopsy Reported

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18 (UPI)—President Kennedy was shot twice from the rear by the assassin who struck him down in Dallas last month but it was the second bullet that sealed the young leader's fate.

This unofficial finding by a team of pathologists who performed an autopsy on the President's body cleared up confusion over whether Kennedy was shot once or twice and whether both bullets came from the same direction.

The autopsy was performed at Bethesda naval hospital on the night of Nov. 22 after Kennedy's body was brought back to Washington from Dallas. The late President was shot earlier in the day during a motorcade through the streets of that city.

Sources said the first bullet hit Kennedy in the upper part of the right back shoulder and lodged in his lung. The bullet did not go through his body and was recovered during the autopsy.

The second bullet fired by the assassin hit Texas Gov. John B. Connally who was riding in the President's car. The third bullet hit Kennedy in the back of the right side of the head. A small fragment of this bullet also angled down and passed out through Kennedy's throat.

The Washington Post, in a story by medical writer Nate Haselette, said the first wound caused "no critical harm" but that the second bullet to hit him tore the back of his head so destructively that "it was completely incompatible with life."

UPI's sources were unable to confirm that Kennedy definitely could have survived the first bullet. They preferred to say "might have survived." But they left no doubt that it was the second bullet which caused the major damage.

Lemay Tells Of American Air Strength

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 18 (AP)—Gen. Curtis E. Lemay, air force chief of staff, said tonight an enemy attacking the United States will be given the choice of merely losing a war or also "losing their society."

"If they strike our armed forces they will lose the military decision," he said. "If they strike our cities they will lose both the military decisions and their society."

Lemay appeared before a Wright brothers memorial dinner in an attack on the theory of "overkill," which holds that the United States has more nuclear weapons than are needed to destroy Russian population centers.

The air force chief said the weapons are needed to destroy Soviet missiles and military forces in case of war.

"In view of the current public argument concerning 'overkill' and recent proposals that we adopt a philosophy of minimum deterrents, I am convinced that we have not presented the case for our current deterrent strategy as effectively as we must," he said.

"This strategy recognizes the need for a capability to defeat the military forces of the enemy. We call it counterforce and I, for one, am a firm believer in its philosophy."

Lemay's prepared speech was approved by the defense department, the joint chiefs of staff and the state department.

Lemay contended that a policy of waging war on populations would be a "questionable" deterrent, and would not protect the U. S. population if it failed.

He said the United States must maintain "a constant superiority of force at any level of conflict."

The air force chief also said that the United States "must develop and produce a new manned strategic bomber."

It appeared that Lemay was not referring to the controversial RS-70 bomber, which the defense department has held down to a plan for producing only three prototypes.

RICHARD W. BEST
Scout executive of the Snake River Area council, will leave Twin Falls to become Scout executive of the Yellowstone Valley council, with headquarters at Billings, Mont., effective Feb. 1.

Richard Best Accepts Post In Montana

Richard W. Best, for the past four and one-half years Scout executive of the Snake River Area council, Twin Falls, has accepted the position as Scout executive of the Yellowstone Valley council, Billings, Mont., effective Feb. 1, 1964. It was announced Wednesday by Dr. Vaughn Pond, president of the local council.

During the time Best has been in Twin Falls, the Snake River Area council has earned recognition on a regional and national plane for its growth in new packs, troops and posts and in new Cubs, Scouts and Explorers.

There were about 4,000 boys and 1,700 volunteers when he arrived, and the close of the 1963 year will see the council with about 6,500 boys and 2,100 volunteer leaders registered in 255 packs, troops, and Explorer posts throughout the eight-county Magic Valley area.

Best's new responsibilities will be in a large rural council, with headquarters in Billings, serving the 21 counties of the southeastern portion of Montana. This area has grown considerably in population over the past few years and has a boy potential about double that of the Magic Valley area for Scouting, Dr. Pond said.

During the time Best has been in Twin Falls, several of his professional staff have made outstanding records in Scouting. They include Fred Linton, who served in Burley and Tom Hatch who lived in Jerome. Earlier (See RICHARD BEST, Page 2)

Johnson Is Willing to Have Talks

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18 (AP)—President Johnson said today he is willing to meet with any world leaders—obviously including Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev—any time he believes such conferences would be "fruitful and productive."

Johnson was asked at a news conference to discuss his attitude toward a possible early meeting with Khrushchev. He replied with the statement of willingness to engage in promising talks—a number of which he already has arranged with leaders of West Germany, Britain, Italy, Canada and Mexico.

Reporters were summoned to Johnson's office without notice for the news conference. During the half-hour session, the President also covered these major reports:

—Thomas Mann, the new assistant secretary of state for inter-American affairs, will also serve as a special assistant to Johnson. The President said Mann would coordinate all Latin-American policy, and declared, "We expect to speak with one voice on all matters affecting this hemisphere."

—The senate action Tuesday adding 500 million dollars to the amount voted by the house for foreign aid was described by Johnson as "very constructive and very helpful." He expressed confidence that he could be satisfied with any appropriation that was the considered product of both houses of congress.

—Johnson expects to fly to his Texas ranch with his family next Sunday evening, or early next Monday, to spend the Christmas holiday. The President said he "might even go hunting" on the ranch, and that he has a desire to "go into the hills and commune with myself."

—Johnson said he could not tell yet whether the federal budget he will send to congress next month will top 100 billion dollars, because many decisions have yet to be made. And he said the new budget will include money for "new programs to meet new situations." He said he "would not be content to sit in our rocking chair and enjoy the status quo."

—The President believes his visit to the United Nations Tuesday was "very productive" and created better understanding.

—Johnson announced that Dr. Walter Heller, his chief economic adviser, had just told him that the national economy, as measured (See JOHNSON, Page 2)

Sneak Thief

NEW YORK, Dec. 18 (AP)—After four unsolved burglaries in 16 months, residents of an apartment building posted this sign in the entrance hall:

"Notice to thieves: Others have preceded you. All cameras, hi-fi systems, transistor radios, diamond rings, pearls, necklaces, as well as worthless and worthwhile jewelry, have been fished from these premises. There's nothing left to take."
The sign has been stolen.

Ghana Youths Stage Riot In Moscow

MOSCOW, Dec. 18 (AP)—Several hundred students from Ghana and other African nations stormed into Red square today right under Premier Khrushchev's office windows, fought with police and tried to break into the Kremlin.

The students said they were protesting the fatal stabbing of a student from Ghana by a Russian last Friday.

The Africans broke past barricades into Red square, where Russians march on May day and on the anniversary of the October revolution. But the scene was more reminiscent of the wild days of the revolution in 1917.

The students bore a sign showing a knife plunged into the head of an African. Another sign declared: "Friend today, the devil tomorrow."
"Moscow is a second Alabama," shouted one student.

The students fought police all the way to Red square from the Ghanaian embassy a mile away, where they first gathered.

T. F. Pomona Grange Meet Hears Report

MURTAUGH, Dec. 18—Members of the Twin Falls County Pomona Grange heard an intensive report by Cecil Calhoun, legislative chairman, on important current legislation of which every citizen should be aware, during the annual Christmas meeting and potluck dinner held in the Murtaugh Grange hall.

The resolution committee was instructed to meet to plan action on this report.

All members were urged to write their congressmen, expressing their views on the civil rights bill.

Don Somers announced proceeds from the sourdough and sausage supper to be held Jan. 15 in the Twin Falls Grange hall will go to the Idaho Youth Ranch.

A donation was given for Sue Loughmiller to help defray her personal expenses during her 4-H scholarship trip to Chicago.

It was announced State Master Emil Jerome, Kuna, is making preparations for a schooling session for all subordinate Grange Masters Jan. 11 and will attend the January Pomona meeting.

The program was under the direction of Mrs. Bryan Platt, lecturer. She introduced David Thompson, of the Knoll Grange scout troop, who spoke on the trip to the national Grange session in Portland.

The troop was elected as the most outstanding Grange-sponsored troop in the nation. Notification of the honor was received only two weeks before the Grange session.

Young Thompson told how the $49.60 was needed for bus transportation was raised, enabling the bus to leave the Knoll Grange hall Nov. 16.

Aboard the bus were the 27 Scouts, their Scoutmaster, Leslie Jones, Mrs. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Joslin, Elmer Dossett, instructional representative, and Maj. Charles Thompson, assistant Scoutmaster.

Thompson related their difficulties eating at cafes in such a large group, told of the highlights of their trip through Portland and of their part in the program during the Grange session. He said most of the Scouts were awed at the magnitude of the city, and received a liberal education on the difference of prices and life in the big city.

He expressed the heartfelt gratitude of the Scouts to the community and the Granges for making it possible for the entire troop to make the trip.

The program was closed with a modern jazz number by five girls from Merle Stoddard's dance school and Christmas numbers by Robble and Glen Walters.

Weather, Temperatures

MAGIC VALLEY—Increasing high cloudiness this afternoon, tonight and Thursday, with change for showers Thursday night. Areas of light and morning fog. A little cooler days. Highs today 37-45; Thursdays 35-42; lows tonight-in-20s, except Camas prairie, highs in 30s, lows 2-12. Continued chance for showers Friday. Temperatures at 8 a.m.: 26 at Jerome, 21 at T. F. weather bureau with 83 per cent humidity, 29 at T. F. entomology laboratory with 85 per cent humidity, 31 at Rupert, 41 at Fairfield, 30 at Buhl, 37 at Castleford; at noon, 34 at T. F. weather bureau with 75 per cent humidity. Barometer: 30.20.

FIVE-DAY FORECAST
Pronounced low level southerly flow, coupled with higher pressures aloft, will dominate the weather pattern over the Intermountain region through Wednesday. Pacific storm centers will be held to the north of this area, with only trailing portions of these disturbances passing across southern Idaho. Temperatures under this pattern are expected to average four to eight degrees above normal over southern sections during the next five days. Southcentral sections will not have such persistent fog and will achieve greater daytime heating. Frequent but minor temperature changes can be expected through Wednesday, with a minor cooling trend expected to hold into Friday, before giving way to warming over the week-end. Temperature normals through Wednesday are Gooding 35-21, Twin Falls 38-21 and Burley 38-20.
Precipitation totals will average .10 to .20 of an inch occurring as light rain or snow late Thursday and Friday and again about Monday or Tuesday. The precipitation at the first of this period is more in a chance category and will be at best quite light and mostly confined to southwestern and northern sections rather than across southern Idaho. Heavier precipitation is expected over northern Idaho and western Montana as the Pacific storm track will hold to this more northerly track. Agricultural valleys in southern Idaho will be partially protected by higher pressures aloft. These ridge conditions will tend to weaken the trailing portions of the Pacific storm systems moving across the northern Intermountain region.
Sunshine will total 40 per cent of possible in Magic Valley. Winds will be fairly strong today and tomorrow but will diminish Friday.

SYNOPSIS AND AGRICULTURAL SUMMARY
The latest weather maps show a low pressure trough aloft off the West Coast with a higher pressure ridge over the Intermountain region. As surface storms move out of this low-pressure area in the Pacific they are weakened as they move into the ridge conditions over this area. One such system is presently making its way into the Pacific Northwest coastline and will swing across Idaho tomorrow and Friday, but will be very minor and not produce any great amount of rain or snow. Temperatures will range in the 30s and lower 40s today, with Magic Valley in the higher end of this temperature range. Temperatures will sag a few degrees tomorrow but will still range in the 30s generally. Nighttime minimums will range from the low to mid 20s over Magic Valley. Camas prairie will register minimums in the sub-teen range.

Myron Dossett worked in Jerome and Bill Scarth, in Twin Falls.

Currently the professional staff is composed of Maurice Lamont, assistant Scout executive, living in Twin Falls, and Alan Hutchison, Burley. A district executive to replace Harold in Jerome has not been hired as of this date, but plans to do so soon have been approved by the executive board.

Dr. Pond stated an executive selection committee will be appointed to fill the vacancy created by Best and this committee will work with the regional executive, O. D. Sharpe, Portland, Ore., in making its selection.

Dr. Pond noted that because of the current size of the Snake River council in boys, it should be possible to hire an executive with previous experience as a council executive. This man could come either from a council in the Northwest area, or from another council outside region XI.

During the time Best has been the Scout executive in Twin Falls, the council has been able to completely pay off the money owed on Camp Bradley, which was dedicated a year ago as a memorial to Robert Bradley, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Bradley, Twin Falls.

Also received this year has been the Idaho Power's old office building which will become the service center for the Scout council in the late spring of 1964.

Best's wife and four children will join him in Billings as soon as they can make the necessary arrangements.

ured by the gross national product, was now passing the 600-billion-dollar mark. Johnson termed this "about as fine a Christmas present as could come to the American people."

The President said he hopes to propose new programs for a broad assault on poverty. And expressed hope congress, next year, will consider a comprehensive farm program.

Discussing his attitude toward news conferences, Johnson said that one day he might hold an office session, the next day a televised news conference, and on a third day invite reporters to a "coffee hour" conference of the sort he held on Dec. 7—his first meeting with newsmen.

Mrs. William Warberg, 606 Sixth avenue east, only living charter member of the Twin Falls First Baptist church, touched a candle flame to her mortgage on the church Sunday morning, in view of a full sanctuary, to symbolize the end of a $285,000 indebtedness on the brick structure at the corner of Shoshone street and Ninth avenue east.

The structure was dedicated April 22, 1951, with the groundbreaking ceremony held Nov. 30, 1947.

The Rev. Ernest Hesselblad reminded members that completion of payments on the church, while a great accomplishment, does not mean that the church is free of debt. He spoke of the indebtedness to the members of the past, as well as the debt to the future.

"This is the point of beginning," he told the congregation, and urged that they set a new goal which will include a Christian education building for the children's department as well as remodeling of some of the remaining building for better use of the balance.

"It would be disastrous if we were satisfied with this accomplishment," the pastor said. "He urged greater individual responsibility in witnessing in the community, that it be blessed, enriched and inspired by the faith and commitment, not only of those whose foresight brought about the new plant, but by the present members whose dedication will look to tomorrow.

Highlights of the history of the church were given by Mrs. Lucille Dodson, church historian. Chairman of the board of trustees, Robert Brackett, Roy Holloway, chairman of the building committee at the time of construction, LaVern Routh, same committee, and Dwight Shaw, present board of trustees chairman, all spoke briefly.

Russell Bennett sang "Bless This House," as he had done at the ground-breaking ceremonies for the church.

The second project, west of Twin Falls where Rock creek goes under highway 30N, is called the Rock creek trash project No. F2351 (26). Apparent low bidder is Nelson and Miller, Twin Falls, whose bid was $15,637.

Highway officials said it will be several days before the contracts are awarded but the two firms are the apparent low-bidders.

Death Takes Miss Wilson Area Nurse

Bertha Gerrish-Wilson, 83, 204 Fourth street north, died at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday at Hazel Dell Nursing home of a long illness.

She was born Aug. 17, 1880, in Griggsville, Ill., and came to Idaho from Illinois in 1911. She took nurses training in Chicago and post-graduate work in nursing at Columbia university. She helped nurse during the typhoid epidemic at Salmon dam about 1912.

She was superintendent of nurses and instructor of the nursing school at the Good Samaritan hospital, Portland. Miss Wilson worked as a public health nurse in both Idaho and Oregon. She was past president of the first district of the Idaho Nurses association and a member of the Twin Falls Presbyterian church.

Miss Wilson also worked as a private duty nurse at Magic Valley Memorial hospital. She never married.

Survivors include one brother, Cullen Wilson, Filer, and two sisters, Mrs. Frank Atkins and Mrs. P. J. Weiland, both Buhl.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Friday in the First Presbyterian church by the Rev. Ronald J. Keeshan. Concluding services will be held in the Buhl cemetery. Friends may call at the Reynolds funeral chapel from Thursday until Friday noon. The family suggests contributions to the memorial fund of the First Presbyterian church.

Report Made On Progress Of Campaign

A recent article by Tom Parkinson in Billboard magazine credits the Cow Palace in San Francisco with generating some eight million dollars in revenue for the city and San Francisco businessmen in a six-month period.

"What better way to prepare our children for activities away from home, than to bring the culture of the world to our own city first, as well as further stimulate the interest in our children," continued Brumbach, than for parents to actively engage in a cultural and civic development program sufficient for all to say, "there's a community that had little bit of something with it," instead of being forced to admit there's a community that had a fine potential, and has done nothing with it."

Saunders Is President of Buhl C. of C.

BUHL, Dec. 18—Warren Saunders, manager of the Buhl branch, Mountain States Telephone and Telegraph company, president of the Buhl Chamber of Commerce during a reorganizational meeting of the board held after the chamber noon luncheon Monday at the R and R cafe. Charles Lunte, owner-manager of the West End Fertilizer company, was elected vice president. A secretary will be named soon. A tally taken of ballots mailed to members to vote on two new directors for the chamber showed Charles Lunte and Robert Koklav were each elected to a three year term on the board. Holdover directors and their remaining terms include Saunders and Andy Anderson, two years; Kenneth Curtis, Dave Erb and Robert Erkins, one year. The directors set Jan. 20 as the date for the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet meeting. During the luncheon meeting Lloyd Byrne, secretary, was instructed to write a letter to the Twin Falls county commissioners endorsing their policy requiring participants in the county aid program to work for the benefits received. Byrne also was requested to write thank you letters to Joe Cox for his role as Santa Claus, to the local police department and Buhl Jaycees and Jay-C-ettes for their assistance in the annual Christmas program. It was noted several bags of treats were left over from the holiday party and these will be given to the Jay-C-ettes to be included in Christmas baskets to be given needy families in the community.

McNamara and Party Narrowly Miss Crash

PARIS, Dec. 18 (AP)—A plane carrying U.S. Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara and members of his staff narrowly missed a collision today while taking off from Orly airport for South Vietnam. The defense secretary had attended the annual winter meeting of the North Atlantic Treaty organization ministerial council. He is going to Saigon for his second on-the-spot assessment in three months of the Vietnamese and American fight against the communist guerrillas.

McNamara's big K135 air force jet transport blew its tires when the pilot braked to avoid hitting the plane. The defense secretary had attended the annual winter meeting of the North Atlantic Treaty organization ministerial council. He is going to Saigon for his second on-the-spot assessment in three months of the Vietnamese and American fight against the communist guerrillas. The plane had been cleared for takeoff in a fog and was rolling down the runway when Capt. Meredith Sutton at the controls saw a large passenger plane land directly in line with the K135's takeoff path, a member of the American party said. Sutton shut off all power and hit the brakes. The tires exploded under the strain and the huge jet bumped down to a stop. "We were almost at the point of no return," a member of the party said. "Another few seconds and the pilot could not have stopped in time." McNamara and his staff planned to take another U. S. military plane. President Johnson is known to be gravely concerned that the successes of the Viet Cong communists have continued since a military coup overthrew President Nhin Diem a month after McNamara's last visit. Since the military's assumption of power Nov. 1, guerrilla attacks have risen sharply, with heavy losses in men and equipment by South Vietnamese forces. McNamara was reported to have decided on the trip to investigate whether the military junta can reverse the pattern.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18—General Eisenhower is wrong in urging Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge to come home at once and campaign for the 1964 Republican nomination. The best place for Lodge to campaign from is where he is—in strategic Viet Nam.
In Saigon, Lodge has a base from which to write a new chapter in his record as a public servant. There is a big job to be done there as Washington shoots the works to win the war against the communist Viet Cong. That war won't be won before next election day, but if it goes well Lodge will come in for a generous slice of the credit. After all, it was Lodge's tough stand against the Diem regime's persecution of the Buddhists that created the climate for the Nov. 1 military coup.

PRaise BY KENNEDY—As reported here last Sept. 10, Lodge also has something unique going for him—praise from a Democratic president. After he sent Lodge to Saigon, the late President Kennedy told a television audience that the country was "fortunate" to have a man who "has strong feelings about the United States and ... put this ahead of his political career." When any President praises a politician's patriotism, it is money in the guy's bank.
It's hard to see how Lodge could fall on his face in Saigon. The situation had been bungled long before he arrived, and there was nowhere to go but up. If things turn out well there, Lodge will get plenty of headlines as the man on the scene. If things go wrong, it can be argued with some validity that Lodge inherited an impossible chore and should have been called on before the mess had become insoluble.

POWERFUL BOOSTER—General Eisenhower says he merely wants to add Lodge's name to the list of Republicans he'd like to see make the run for the marbles. But by his appeal to the Bostonian to come home instanter, Ike has made Lodge the No. 1 man among equals. The general has made no such dramatic plea to Dick Nixon or even Gov. William Scranton of Pennsylvania, who is a particular Eisenhower pet.

The reason, of course, is that Lodge is peculiarly Ike's kind of candidate—a down-the-line internationalist, a worrier about fiscal problems, and a man of impeccable antecedents. Barry Goldwater is downright distasteful to the general, and Ike has never seemed convinced of Nixon's qualifications. A Puritan at this stage of the game, Ike is now concerned about Nelson Rockefeller's remittance as well as what to him appear to be the Rock's leftist tendencies. He's about given up hope that Scranton will make himself available.

EVERYTHING BUT LOG CABIN BIRTH—In political parlance, Lodge is "clean." He has no hangars on from the radical right such as be-devil Goldwater. He is not a loser, despite the defeat of the Nixon-Lodge ticket in 1960, because the loss properly is the responsibility of the No. 1 man. He is a happily married grandfather, and he is the party's leading aristocrat, a breed for which the voter has acquired a late affection. He is a former senator and a former ambassador to the United Nations.
Lodge has said he doesn't see how he could return to the United States until next June. He doesn't have to, and he would be foolish if he did. In Saigon he has the opportunity to remind the voters every day of his devotion to the public service and his qualifications for promotion.

Views of Others

RELIGION IN SCHOOLS
In many parts of the United States a groping continues for the exact meanings, and nonmeanings, of the supreme court decision which held prescribed prayers and Bible readings to be unconstitutional.
In Massachusetts Attorney General Edward W. Brooke has asked a court order to direct the North Brookfield school committee to recognize that the precedent in the Pennsylvania case applies to Massachusetts.

In Illinois the editor of the Galesburg Register-Mail proposes, as have others, that a constitutional amendment be submitted to the states to legalize school prayers and Bible readings.
In Minnesota the board of education at Red Wing infers, as have some others, that baccalaureate services and Christmas and Easter exercises also are banned.
In Oregon, however, Supt. Thomas Woods of the Beaverton public schools believes it is possible to incorporate information about religion into various courses, such as literature, history, or art appreciation, as part of the picture of the nation's culture.

Proponents of a constitutional amendment find serious difficulty in formulating a revision that will not weaken the guarantees of freedom of religion and separation of church and state in the first amendment.
On the other hand, many of the inferences drawn as to the restrictive nature of the Schenck decision may not prove true, Mr. Woods is probably on the right course in endeavoring to supply an awareness of the presence of religion as part of an American's cultural and social environment without engaging in indoctrination.—Christian Science Monitor.

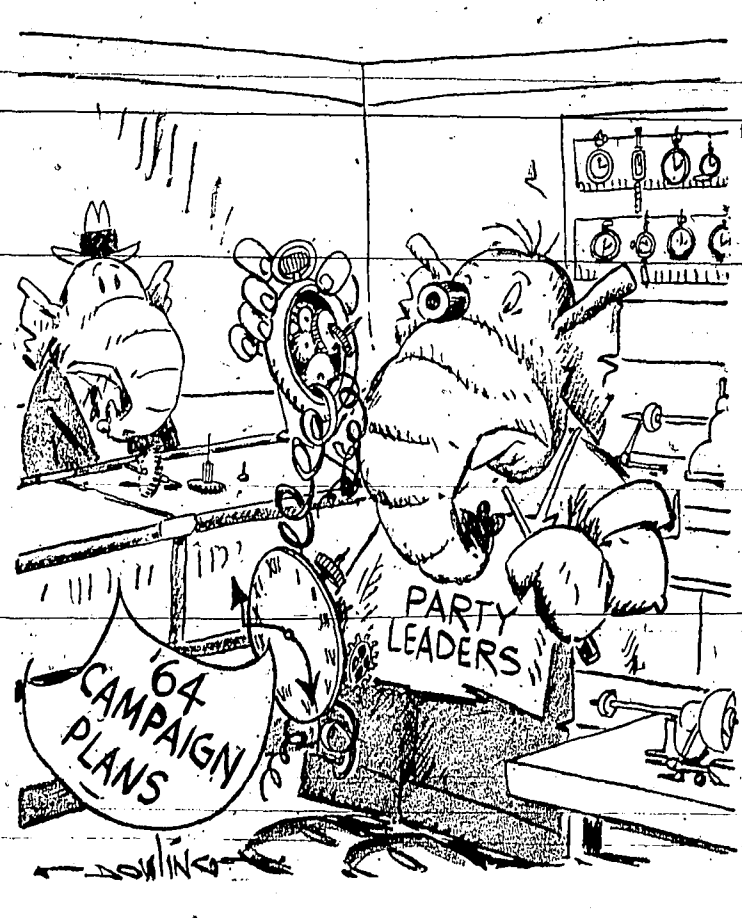

PLEASANT NEWS
It makes pleasant news locally that the President has asked Secretary of State Dean Rusk to remain in the cabinet.
First of all, we feel that Secretary Rusk has performed as well as could any man in this most difficult post. That is important to the nation and the free world. Obviously he is the kind of man that President Johnson himself might have chosen as secretary of state. More to the point, it seems probable that Secretary Rusk will be given a bit more of his "head" in the present administration—although we shall have to see as to that.
The point we make here is that in his appearance in Seattle the secretary made a most favorable impression. He is not of the striped-pants, stuffed-shirt variety of diplomat. He has an incisive mind, his answers are as clear and direct as he can make them. He gives the impression of toughness and of character.
And, not to be overlooked, is that he had the excellent judgment to choose a Seattle girl to be Mrs. Rusk!
At in all, we hope he finds it comfortable to stay with LBJ.—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

BOOM IN BOOKS
Those who fear we have become a nation of philistines, so lost in material pursuits that we trample on culture, may take some comfort from the report of the book publishing industry that 1963 will be its biggest year. The pleasant thing about this prosperity is that its principal spur is a vast expansion in the sale of books of educational and cultural value, both hard cover and paperback.
We keep reading about electronic "brains" that squirrel away a whole library of lore on law, medicine, science or any other subject and spew forth extracts, neatly synthesized and printed, on demand. But happily, the uncybernetized brain is still eager for enrichment. Mysteries, Westerns, and miscellaneous trivia are selling well but the "growth" element in publishing is the growth of the mind.—The New York Times.

How do you intend to dispose of those that are referred to you to give away? Will you take orders for dogs? (Pot Shots note: NO!) Will you reserve one day a week and list a whole bunch or will you go right on listing them like you do now?

WHAT ELSE?
Dear Mr. Pot Shots:
After the snow the other day, I thought it would be nice to have the stuff cleared off the walks before it turned to ice. So I asked our teen-age boy to get the snow shovel from the garage and clean the walks.
After the usual amount of grumbling, he headed for the garage. Half an hour later it dawned on me he hadn't returned. So I went to check. There he was out in the garage tinkering with the power lawnmower! Seems he had decided it should be prepared for winter.
Eventually, the sidewalks were cleaned off.

World Corners

BY PHIL NEWSOM
(UPI Foreign News Analyst)
The Soviet army, which crushed the Hungarian revolution seven years ago, plans to leave Hungary in the next few months, diplomatic sources said today.
—UPI news dispatch from Moscow.

It was 8 o'clock in the morning of Nov. 4, 1956 and over Budapest radio came the desperate cry:
"Help Hungary! Help us! Help us!"
Just before that had been the playing of the Hungarian national anthem, and before that an announcement by Premier Imre Nagy.
—Soviet troops attacked the Hungarian capital with the open purpose to overthrow the legal government," he said. "The Hungarian troops are in combat ... this is announced to our people and to the world."
The following days were a story of human courage raised to incredible heights, of treachery compounded, and, in the West, a time of agonizing indecision.
The reappraisals and the harsh recriminations for what might have been would come later.
On that morning in the blasted streets of Budapest men, women and children hurled their homemade Molotov cocktails beneath the treads of Russian tanks or threw themselves bodily against tank portholes.
It was an unarmed population against 200,000 Soviet troops and 4,000 to 5,000 Soviet tanks, and before it was over more than 20,000 Hungarians were to die. These were some of the memories evoked by the dispatch sent from Moscow seven years later.
This had been the sequence of rapid-fire events:
Oct. 27-28 — Nagy announces Soviets had agreed to immediate withdrawal of Russian troops from Budapest and negotiations for withdrawal of troops from the whole of Hungary.
Oct. 29-30 — Nagy ends single party rule, forms an all-party government and promises free elections. The new government includes Janos Kadar.
Nov. 1 — Nagy repudiates the Warsaw treaty and proclaims Hungary's neutrality.
Nov. 3 — on this night, on a Soviet guaranty of security, Hungarian military leaders meet with the Soviets to negotiate withdrawal of Soviet troops. The Soviets arrest the Hungarian leaders and launch their attack. It was the same treachery which had been employed against Polish military leaders in 1945.
Nov. 4 — Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty takes refuge in U.S. legation in Budapest (where he still remains). Soviets recognize turn-coat government of Kadar. Nagy takes refuge in Yugoslav embassy.
It was on Nov. 22 that Nagy was tricked from the Yugoslav embassy and June 17, 1958, that his executioners announced his death.
There were other far-reaching results. India, quick to condemn the Israeli-Anglo-French invasion of Egypt, finally came to realize the brutality of the Soviet attack on Hungary. President Tito of Yugoslavia condemned the Soviet action as a "mistake" and a new period of coolness resulted between the Soviet Union and Yugoslavia.
But more important, the heroism of the Hungarian freedom fighters frightened the Soviet leaders and did gain a relaxation of sorts for all of the Soviet European satellites.

POOR MAN'S PLATO
By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK, Dec. 18 (AP)—There are many signs to remind a person he's beyond some of the better milestones of living. Life so often reminds us how old we have become that we sometimes forget to recognize how youthful we still are.
But it's young you are getting again if—
"The face you see in the mirror while shaving reminds you of the grandson you are, more often than the grandfather you remember. Night seems to have more light than morning, and you discover serious purposes after midnight.
When a thoughtful teen-ager stands to yield you a seat on the bus you feel more insulted than grateful.
Taking steps two at a time is a pleasure, and running downstairs against an upgoing escalator is a worthwhile thrill.
You need your bifocal glasses only to read that your doctor's report on your last electrocardiogram is heartening.
The cost of a college education for a member of your family now doesn't remind you of how much cheaper it was in the days when you earned your own living.
If you see a strange woman with red hair, you believe that is her natural color.
A walk amid the many-fingered rain brings you the touch of romance rather than the stench of rheumatism.
The morning after the night before still makes the night before worth the morning after.
You retain the belief that giving the boss good solid honest advice will make him appreciate you because you are not just another yes-man.
The dog doesn't take you out for a walk; you take him.
Yes, it is by such thoughts that one is sure that he is getting younger.
Or at least taking a youthful step into second childhood!

Quotes from the News
By United Press International
AUSTIN, Tex.—J. J. (Jake) Pickle, commenting on his victory over a conservative Republican in a special congressional election:
"This vote is one for unity, a vote of confidence, by the people of this district in the Democratic party and in President Johnson's administration."
NEW YORK—Richard J. J. (Jake) Pickle, a faculty member of the air force institute of technology who studied in Moscow, reporting that communist leaders face severe internal discontent unless they boost crop production:
"A hungry population is a discontented population, and such discontent may generate political opposition and even counter-revolution."
EL CENTRO, Calif.—Air Force Capt. Charles J. Corey, describing his free-fall jump of almost eight miles with 12 other parachutists:
"Your body starts falling faster than 200 miles an hour. You're on the ground in a little over three minutes, so you don't have much time to think."

COVERING THE CAPITAL WITH PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18 (NEA)—The way all the pressure groups are climbing aboard the Lyndon B. Johnson ranch wagon often for conflicting reasons is a true political phenomenon of the age.
At first there were some predictions that President Johnson would have heavy opposition from the liberals who in 1960 did not even want the tall Texan for vice president.
Just two months ago this sentiment was so strong that there was much speculation Johnson might be dropped as vice presidential candidate of the 1964 Democratic ticket. It took a denial from President Kennedy to stop the rumors.
After Johnson became President, almost his first endorsements came from American Federation of Labor-Congress of Industrial Organizations, Americans for Democratic Action and the 80-organization Leadership Conference on Civil Rights: That ended the liberal revolt against Johnson.
Since that time many special interest groups of all varieties have issued voluntary statements supporting Johnson. Some of these testimonials even come from opposing camps.
For instance, the Citizens Foreign Aid Committee—which is against it—says that since Johnson has pledged strict economy, he will "seize the golden opportunity" to curtail government foreign spending.
Supporters of AID, the government's agency for international development, however, cite a speech Johnson made just before he became President, in which he said, "The foreign aid program has been a success. . . . We must turn away from those who counsel that the works of peace represent failure."
U.S. Chamber of Commerce President Edwin P. Nellan wrote Johnson that the chamber was heartened by the President's emphasis on the need for a tax cut "to stimulate job-creating investments."
But now comes James B. Carey of the AFL-CIO Industrial Unions with a statement that, "the recently reported 6.9 per cent unemployment rate emphasizes the need for immediate passage of the consumer-oriented tax legislation."

If the new President can rally both management and labor on a tax bill, he will indeed have the greatest compromise and the most of all times.
The curious thing about Johnson's support for fast action on civil rights reform is that it has not yet met serious opposition from the South.
"There," as one political leader puts it, "they recognize that Johnson is a wheeler and a dealer." They'll let him make civil rights speeches to the north and vote for him. But southerners expect Johnson to soften the blow as it will affect them.
This penchant for wanting to make the new President "good boy" characterizes many endorsements the lobbies now put out.
Thus the American Public Power association, and the Cooperative League of the U.S.A., supporting rural electrification and public power, claim Johnson is theirs.
So do the National Education association, supporting federal aid for schools and teachers' salaries, the National Council of Senior Citizens supporting medical care for the aged under social security, the National Farmers Union, Committee for a National Trade Policy, AFL-CIO committee on political education, National Association of Home Builders supporting private housing industry and others. But there are a few exceptions.
National Right-to-Work committee has told its members that Johnson is clearly committed to repeal of section 14(b) of the Taft-Hartley act. This recognizes the right of the states to enact and enforce local right-to-work laws, which the committee wants retained.
And Rep. Jerry Ford, R. Mich., while endorsing Johnson's promises to defend freedom from communism from Berlin to Viet Nam, declares:
"On the other hand, it should be noticed that the new President endorsed all of the federal spending policies . . . I reserve the right to oppose where consequences dictate."
These are but first straws in the winter winds to indicate that the honeymoon isn't going to last forever.

The Doctor Says
By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
If you were sick where would you rather be—at home or in a hospital? Most of us would rather be at home.
Recognizing this fact, hospitals in many communities have inaugurated home care plans whereby patients in some categories can be treated at home without any sacrifice of adequate medical care.
Although the Boston Dispensary has had such a plan for 167 years, the plan has not yet been adopted by more than a small percentage of hospitals but the idea is becoming more popular as appreciation of its advantages increases.
Some patients in hospitals who would otherwise have to remain there for many months are sent home under this plan but are still carried on the hospital records as patients for whom the hospital is responsible. Others may be admitted to the hospital's home care plan without entering the hospital at all.
This type of service is particularly applicable to persons with chronic heart disease, paralysis, various kinds of rheumatism, cancer (after operation) and some mental illnesses.
This plan makes it possible for a hospital to extend its services to a larger number of persons without the necessity of building a new wing. Treatment is still supervised by a staff doctor and the patients are attended by nurses, interns, dietitians, physical therapists and laboratory technicians as the occasion demands. The services within the hospital using this plan. Some are limited to making a diagnosis and providing drugs. Others add minor operations and consultations with staff specialists. Nurses change dressings, give hypodermic injections or demonstrate to the patient's family procedures for his care.
The home atmosphere gives a distinct boost to the patient's morale and in that way speeds recovery. The presence of the patient at home allows the family of worry, allows them to share in his care and eliminates a sometimes difficult trip to the hospital.
Also the cost of treatment is reduced to about one-fourth of what it would be were the patient in the hospital. Only those patients whose recovery will be hindered by such care are selected. In some states where home care programs have been rapidly increasing in popularity, the Blue Cross and other voluntary health insurance plans are extending coverage to recipients of home hospital care.
As the times change, methods of providing medical care change. When such changes represent an improvement they are accepted with enthusiasm as the home care programs of an ever-increasing number of hospitals have been.

Oswald Jacoby, Bridge
NO-TRUMP BID WASTES HAND
All bridge experts don't agree on how many points are needed for an opening no-trump. My limits are 15-17, others use 14-16, some use stronger or weaker no-trumps.
Disagreeing on points, they stand together firmly on the principle that you only open no-trump with no-trump shape and that no-trump shape is either, 5-3-3-2, 4-4-3-2 or 4-3-3-3.
Occasionally an expert will decide to open one no-trump with 5-4-2-2 or 5-3-3-2, but never will he open no-trump with a singleton.
The reason is that hands with singletons (even singleton aces) cry out for play at a suit contract and while you can open no-trump and wind up in a suit it is much easier to reach the right contract if you start bidding with a suit.

Today North has an automatic raise to three no-trump after his partner's one no-trump opening. West has an automatic spade lead and South should go down one trick.
South made the hand and was quite proud of himself. He entered dummy with the ace of hearts and led a club. East ducked and South had a club trick.
Then he ran off the rest of the hearts, guessed the diamond finesse and hit his nine trick. North pointed out that it was a great waste of talent. If South opened correctly with one club he would have wound up at five or six clubs and would have made six without the trouble of a finesse.
CARD SENSE
Q—The bidding has been:
North East South West
1 ♠ Pass 1 ♠ Pass
3 ♠ Pass 1 ♠ Pass
You, South, hold:
♠ A J 4 3 ♥ A 8 5 ♦ K Q 7 4 ♣ 8
What do you do now?
A—You are surely going to win. Bid four no-trump to take for ace.
TODAY'S QUESTION
You bid four no-trump and as hoped, your partner bids five hearts to show both missing aces. What do you do now?

J. J. Pickle Wins House Demo Seat

AUSTIN, Tex., Dec. 18 (AP)—Democrat J. J. (Jack) Pickle, personal friend of President Lyndon Johnson, won election as U. S. representative Tuesday in a campaign that many called the new President's first popularity test at the polls.

For Pickle, 49, it is his first elective job in more than two decades of political life. He succeeds Rep. Homer Thornberry, D., Tex., who has been appointed a federal judge.

With all but a few rural votes tabulated in the 10-county central Texas district, Pickle had 27,206 to 16,039 for Republican Jim Dobbs. Party affiliations did not appear on the ballot.

The outcome leaves the house balance of 257 Democrats and 178 Republicans unchanged. Texas, at one time considered solidly Democratic, now has a Republican senator and two of its 23 representatives are Republicans.

The results of this election are much more than a "personal victory to me," Pickle said.

"This vote is one for unity—a vote of confidence by the people of this district in the Democratic party and in President Johnson's administration."

Pickle, who helped Johnson and two Texas governors in several statewide campaigns, cited this friendship during the campaign.

Dobbs, 38, is a former Church of Christ minister. He quit a job as Washington commentator for a nationwide conservative radio program (Life Line) to make the race.

Trenhaile Eyes Gem Egg Rule Hearing

BOISE, Dec. 18 (AP)—State Agriculture Commissioner Stanley I. Trenhaile has taken under advisement testimony presented at a hearing on Idaho's proposed egg grading regulations.

Trenhaile said few objections were voiced at Tuesday's hearing and that he will decide later this month whether to promulgate the regulations. If accepted, they will become effective Feb. 10, 1964.

Trenhaile said producers objected to the original date of Jan. 10 on the ground they would not have time to change their cartons.

The regulations would require labeling of egg cartons with the grade and size of the eggs, the name and address of the distributor by or for whom the eggs were graded, and a candied-and-a-facsimile of the seal of the state agriculture department.

They would forbid the use of the words fresh, country, henery, ranch or similar words which might be construed as official grade designations.

The regulations provide for labeling of eggs as grade AA, A or B. Size would be designated as jumbo, extra large, large, medium, small or pee-wee.

Rainbow's End Found by Dozer Driver

MINEOLA, N.Y., Dec. 18 (AP)—Stephen J. Fox, a bulldozer operator from Ronkonkoma, Long Island, was clearing a three-acre site in Hicksville, N.Y., three years ago when his machine unearthed a box containing $89,000 in currency.

Police couldn't determine whose money it was.

Tuesday, a court-ruled Fox is entitled to two-thirds of the find, or $59,333. The present and former owners of the property on which the money was found will split the other third.

18 DIE IN BOAT CRASH

QUIBDO, Colombia, Dec. 18 (AP)—Two boats collided Tuesday on the Atrato river. Authorities said 18 bodies were recovered. Twelve more persons were missing and feared drowned. One of the boats sank.

Man Killed With His Own Burglar Trap

FORT WORTH, Tex., Dec. 18 (AP)—"I've killed myself!" moaned B. C. Russell, 63, after a shotgun triggered for burglars fired at him at the back door of his food store Tuesday.

He stumbled to a front counter and died. The charge struck him in the chest.

A pistol mounted in the same fashion killed an ex-convict, 21, in 1959 as he started inside the store at night. A shotgun charge took the life of a 19-year-old prowler in 1961 when he touched some cigarette back of a counter.

Russell himself suffered a wound from the pistol in 1960. Police said this caused him to remove the pistol trap but he set the shotgun after another burglary of the store, in suburban Everman.

The store's butcher, J. E. Riley, 61, said Russell obviously forgot about the 12-gauge shotgun. He was taking a box of trash outside.

"I guess I'll regret this for a long time," Russell said after the first man was killed in his store. Repeated burglaries led him to replace the trap, however.

Owyhee Road Problems Are Faced

BOISE, Dec. 18 (AP)—The Idaho highway board told an Elko delegation Tuesday that it doesn't have the funds to complete paving of state highway 51 in Owyhee county.

The Elko delegation, headed by Nevada State Sen. Warren Monroe, met with the board during the second day of its December meeting, which concludes today.

In answer to the delegation's request that higher priority be given to paving of the route, State Engineer G. Bryce Bennett said it has received "good attention" considering the "traffic using it."

Arsen Alzola, Grasmere, president of the State Highway 51 association, told the board Owyhee county could provide another $50,000 in county secondary funds and hoped to persuade Elmore county to put up a like sum to help construct 8.9 miles of the road north of Riddle.

The board Monday ordered engineering of that section following receipt of a letter from Nevada Gov. Grant Sawyer urging completion of the route.

CLOCKWATCHER DIES

EXETER, N.H., Dec. 18 (AP)—Duncan R. Taylor, once the royal clock watcher for Queen Victoria, died Tuesday. He was 84. A native of Tarran, Scotland, Taylor was responsible for making sure that clocks in Balmoral castle kept the correct time. He gave up the job in 1893 and moved to the United States.

KELLOGG, Dec. 18 (AP)—No break is sighted in a 7-week-old strike against the Sunshine Mining company, the nation's largest silver producer. The strike, called Nov. 4 by the United Steelworkers, has idled about 400 employees at Sunshine's mine near Kellogg.

BOISE, Dec. 18 (AP)—Fred Schaeffer, a former Boise newspaperman, is the new director of the wheat marketing program of Western Wheat Associates in Pakistan. Schaeffer's appointment was announced in Boise Tuesday by the Idaho Wheat Growers association. Western Wheat Associates is the foreign marketing arm of the wheat commission and grower associations of Idaho, Oregon and Washington. Schaeffer is currently manager of the Walla Walla, Wash., Chamber of Commerce.

COEUR D'ALENE, Dec. 18 (AP)—Classes at Coeur d'Alene high school were suspended Tuesday after police received an anonymous telephone warning that a bomb would go off in the building at 9:30 a.m. The call was received Monday night. A thorough search of the building failed to turn up a bomb, but school officials decided to suspend classes anyway.

AMERICAN FALLS, Dec. 18 (AP)—Mrs. Zina Ellasen, 74, Rockland, was killed Tuesday in a truck-car smashup on a county road about seven miles south of American Falls. Officers said Mrs. Ellasen's car collided with a truck near the crest of a hill. The car was demolished and the truck, loaded with wheat, was tipped on its side. The truck driver, George W. Heusen, 23, also of Rockland, escaped injury.

BOISE, Dec. 18 (AP)—Idaho's air national guard will trade its F-86L Saber Jets for supersonic delta-wing F-102 all-weather interceptors early next year. Gov. Robert E. Smylie said Tuesday the conversion will result in a substantial increase in authorized fighter group personnel and additional civilian technicians. The F-102 is a single-seat plane.

Senator Jordan Asks Protection For Stockmen

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18 (AP)—Sen. Len B. Jordan, R., Idaho, wants the U.S. tariff commission and the trade information committee to take action to protect the domestic livestock industry.

In urging the federal agencies to act, Jordan said imports of livestock and meat products "threaten to topple the livestock industry and in turn our whole agriculture economy in the West." "Livestock prices are down," Jordan said, "and the loss can be directly attributed to meat imports."

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18 (AP)—A war between the house and the senate seemed to come to an end Tuesday when Rep. Tom Steed, D., Okla., still voting never to let the house down-apologized to the senators for linking them with talk about call girls.

The house listened to Steed's vow and apology and gave him a standing ovation. Then it passed a bill containing a pet project of Steed—free congressional mail to anyone back home with a mail box, whether the congressman puts down the name of the occupant or not.

This provision, which the senate calls "junk mail" and the house calls "patron mail," has held up for months a $163,293,000 legislative appropriation bill and led to the famous charges of Steed.

The bill now includes a compromise provision allowing house members—but not senators, who say they don't want the privilege

CHINA BUYS GRAIN

Glenns Ferry Riding Club Elects Aides

GLENN'S FERRY, Dec. 18—Officers of the Three Island Riding Club at Glenn's Ferry were elected at the annual Christmas party Monday evening.

R. D. Clark is president; Myron Bliss, vice president; Mrs. W. A. Rullen, secretary, and Mrs. Kenneth Porter, treasurer. Elected as directors were James Carpenter and Robert Smith, with Harry Knox representing the junior members.

Trophies for high point winners of the year were awarded to Claude Smith, first; James Carpenter, second, and Francis Clark, third. In the junior division duplicate trophies were awarded for a first place tie to Mary Knox and Ann Knox.

Points were won by these riders at local shows, western division of the Western Riding Club meet at Boise and the state meet at Emmett.

Mrs. Bernard Smith and Mrs. Claude Smith were awarded ribbons won at the October gymkhana.

In appreciation of the support and cooperation given the outgoing officers and directors, Mr. and Mrs. James Carpenter, Bernard Smith, Forrest Jones and Claude Smith, a copper cowbell was presented to each family.

More than 100 members and guests of the Three Island Riding Club attended. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Graham and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. King, King Hill, were guests, as were Mrs. Claude Johnson, Mrs. Lester Hall and children of Glenn's Ferry.

Plans were shown by Bernard Smith of past pleasure rides, gymkhanas, homecoming and fair parades and local rodeos. Square and round dancing concluded the evening.

Lightning Is Suspected In Air Crash

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18 (UPI)—The federal aviation agency (FAA) has added fresh impetus to belief that lightning or a massive static discharge blew up the Pan American World Airways jet that crashed at Elkton, Md. Dec. 8, killing all 81 aboard.

The agency disclosed yesterday it was considering an order requiring installation of a device to prevent electrical discharges on the wingtips of all jets. The modifications would not involve grounding the planes.

The FAA said the Pan American plane was one of 98 early model Boeing 707's which carried the so-called "static discharge eliminators" on horizontal tail surfaces but not on its wings. A few early DC's also were believed to carry them only on the tail surfaces.

The device is a small metal rod which "bleeds off" static charges that might interfere with radio communications. But there is some evidence they also serve as tiny lightning rods and are capable of rendering a one-million-volt lightning strike harmless.

The civil aeronautics board (CAB) said last week it had found evidence of a lightning strike on the left wing of the Pan American plane. It also said that a fuel-air mixture explosion had occurred in a left wing fuel cell, although it carefully avoided saying that the explosion resulted from the lightning strike.

The FAA emphasized there was no evidence that the absence of the discharge wicks incited a lightning strike. Jets carrying the static eliminators only in their tails have been exposed to lightning bolts and huge static discharges hundreds of times without experiencing difficulty.

The agency also noted that an aircraft itself is its own best protection against lightning because it is not grounded. But, an FAA spokesman said, safety experts are concerned that absence of discharge wicks from the wingtips—if accompanied by unusual circumstances—might be fatal loopholes for tragedy.

An open house will be held by the pastor and his family at the manse, 712 Twelfth avenue north, from 2 to 5 p. m. Sunday. Members and friends of the church are invited.

Deadline for Payment of County Taxes Is Friday

Twin Falls county taxpayers are reminded this is the last week in which to pay their real and personal property taxes without any penalties being added.

Deadline for real property taxes is 5 p.m. Friday. Mrs. Ruth Jones, county treasurer and tax collector, said this is for the first half payments. She said taxpayers can start paying the second half payments starting Jan. 27.

On all first-half payments which are paid after Friday, an additional interest and penalty will be added, Mrs. Jones said. She urges all taxpayers to have the first half payments in before Friday.

Mrs. Jones explained the treasurer's office has collected more this year than at the same time last year. She said the office has collected more than one million dollars so far. She explained she did not know how much had to come in, but "little more than one-half of the first half payments are in."

The largest real property taxpayer again this year is Idaho Power company. This year the property tax for the utility in Twin Falls county is $212,561. Last year the utility paid $387,021.

Japanese Pusher Turns to Pulling
TOKYO, Dec. 18 (AP)—They used to call them "pushers," those men specially employed at railway stations to push and pack passengers through train doors during the rush hour. Now they are "pullers." Instead of pushing passengers they pull them off. Officials believe this is safer for passengers.

Air Pollution Report Rejected

BOISE, Dec. 18 (AP)—The Idaho air pollution control commission wants the U.S. public health service to revise its report on air pollution in the Lewiston-Clarkston-Wash. area before it is published.

The commission rejected the report at a meeting Tuesday, contending too many conclusions were based on "subjective findings" rather than objective determinations.

The commission also held that the report contained no finding of fact relating to a health hazard, but implied that there was, and that some figures quoted in a contamination study were inaccurate.

It directed its three-member executive committee to draft a letter asking the division of air pollution of the U. S. public health service to revise the report to meet its objections.

The report concludes there is an air pollution problem arising primarily from the Kraft Paper mill of Potlatch Forests, Inc., at Lewiston.

It recommends formation of a local "air resource management council" to combat it, including representatives from county and city and the two state governments.

It also suggests a program of air quality monitoring, assistance in development of a plan to control emissions of air pollutants, annual progress reports by the council, and steps by local governments to minimize the burning of refuse, including elimination of open burning of municipal refuse in Clarkston.

Jess B. Hawley, Jr., Boise, commission chairman, said he was "very disappointed" in the report. "I had hoped a more objective approach would be taken," he said.

Hawley said the report infers that the effluent from the stacks of PFI in Lewiston is deleterious to health.

"I don't think there is any factual presentation that that situation is deleterious to health," he said. "It is an indictment of PFI, and not a valid indictment."

"Where they stay with the facts I think the report is excellent."

Robert W. Brown, Kellogg, said the report is good where it stays on the scientific side but parts of the summary were "entirely inconsistent."

Clifford J. Hopkins, Lewiston, secretary of Potlatch Forests and a commission member, said the proposal for an air resources council has merit. But he said industry should be represented.

Hawley was reelected chair-chairman. Dr. T. O. Carver, Idaho man and Frank P. Hendrickson, health administrator, is second. Soda Springs, was elected vice-vicary by law.

Paul Legion Membership Is Growing

PAUL, Dec. 18 — With a membership of 85 already signed for the 1964 year, the Wilbur C. Hall post 77 of the American Legion has established a solid base for its community service programs during the coming year, Omdr. Otha McGill announced today.

The number of Legionnaires signed up by this post represent an increase of over 10 per cent above the advance enrollment as of this time last year, Commander McGill pointed out. "This expansion of our membership ranks here in Paul is further assurance that we will have both the manpower and financial resources necessary to continue and enlarge our community service programs and activities," he said.

The commander issued an invitation to any non-member eligible veteran of both world wars and the Korean wars who might not have been contacted by the membership workers to join post 77 and participate in its programs.

Paul VI May Visit India In November

NEW DELHI, India, Dec. 18 (AP)—Pope Paul VI has accepted an invitation to visit India for his second break with the tradition against papal travel abroad, officials said Tuesday night.

The pope will make a pilgrimage to the Holy Land Jan. 4-8, ending a period of 150 years in which papal travel has been restricted to Italy.

Officials at the Vatican declined to confirm the report, but Vatican circles said "there was a good chance Pope Paul might attend the International Eucharistic congress in Bombay next November."

Indian sources said the invitation was extended by President Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan through India's envoy at the Vatican.

Predominantly Hindu India has seven million Roman Catholics, including many in Bombay. In recent years popes have sent personal messages to eucharistic congresses. Pope John XXIII addressed the last congress, in Munich, Germany, by a telephone hookup.

It has been traditional for the pope to delegate a cardinal to represent him at the congresses. With the unwritten restriction on foreign travel broken by the Holy Land pilgrimage, there would be no reason for Pope Paul not to attend the Bombay congress.

U. N. Session Marked by Highs, Lows

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. meeting marked by a new lull in African attacks on segregation, the cold war and a new peak in colonialism.

Ezra Benson to Speak in Boise

BOISE, Dec. 18 — Ezra Taft Benson, former secretary of agriculture and a member of the council of 12 apostles of the LDS church, will speak at 8 p.m. Thursday at the North Junior high school.

Benson will speak on "The Internal Threat Today." His appearance is sponsored by the Treasure Valley Freedom Forum.

Benson was scheduled to speak in Boise originally on Dec. 9 but was unable to attend because of plane trouble.

Tickets will be available at the door.

MOSCOW, Dec. 18 (AP) — Vladimir Promyslov, mayor of Moscow, announced in the Supreme Soviet Monday night that no more new factories can be built in the Soviet capital.

He said the council of ministers, headed by Premier Khrushchev, had decided that was the only way to hold down the city's population, which has been growing at the rate of 17,000 to 25,000 a year.

Housing is lamentably short despite active construction.

The present population is now about six million, including nearby suburbs.

The session opened with delegates heartened by the atmosphere of East-West harmony and ended with many apprehensive over what effect President John F. Kennedy's assassination might have on the world.

This anxiety was eased somewhat by President Johnson's assurance to the assembly Tuesday that he would carry on Kennedy's international policies.

Soviet Ambassador Nikolai T. Fedorenko hailed Johnson's speech as "a positive approach to world problems."

The "spirit of Moscow," which set the harmonious tone of debate on disarmament, outer space and other East-West issues, resulted in a number of unanimous votes. However, none of the decisions could be described as far-reaching.

On the broad question of general disarmament no advances were made, but the ticklish problem was turned over to the Geneva negotiators with the blessings of East and West.

Some strides were made toward the Soviet Union and the West, and the two sides moved a step closer to a total ban on nuclear weapon tests.

There were some discordant notes. The Soviet Union and the Western powers clashed over West Germany. The West lost on a number of colonial and racial issues marked by an all-out African assault against both South Africa and Portugal.

The assembly voted overwhelmingly for a worldwide oil embargo against South Africa, despite opposition by the United States, Britain and France.

In a final thrust at white supremacy, the Africans rammed through the assembly Tuesday a call for security council investigation of segregation in South Africa on the ground it threatened world peace.

Christmas Mail Volume May Be Low

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18 (AP)—The Christmas mail rush may fall short of the record volume predicted. Postal officials are convinced the death of President John F. Kennedy is the reason.

For the first half of December the mail volume was 2.5 per cent below that of the same period a year ago.

Unless the peak expected this week shows a significant spurt, the postoffice department expects the 1963 Christmas mailings to reach, but not surpass, the 10 billion pieces handled in 1962.

"I can't imagine what else could have caused the lag," Asst. Postmaster General Frederick C. Helen told a reporter. "The President was assassinated Nov. 22, and we're convinced people just didn't feel like buying and addressing and mailing Christmas cards and packages for a while after that."

Every postal region except Chicago—center of the mail order world—has fallen below expectations. Across the country, Christmas mailings by the beginning of this week averaged five per cent below the predicted rate.

The biggest lag was in letter mail, including Christmas cards. So far, about 6.5 billion pieces of mail have moved through the system since the month began.

Meanwhile, the department reported the prospect of record sales for its 1963 Christmas stamp, depicting the national Christmas tree and the White House. More than two billion are being printed.

No Changes Planned in Farm Policy

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18 (AP)—Agriculture Secretary Orville L. Freeman said Tuesday there would be no overall change in agricultural policy under the Johnson administration.

Freeman told a news conference the guidelines for agriculture laid down by Kennedy still hold—keep up farm income, cut cost to taxpayers, and reduce surpluses.

He said Johnson would be just as concerned as Kennedy in guarding farmers' welfare.

Freeman said he had not been subjected to any pressures for farm legislation.

Freeman said he had reached no firm conclusions on wheat legislation and had made no recommendations, but that he "probably would make recommendations to the President in due time."

Freeman said he believes the United States will sell a substantial volume of wheat to Russia in spite of obstacles.

However, he said the export-import amendment adopted by the house Monday would make it substantially more difficult to effect the wheat sale.

Freeman said he agreed with a recent statement by Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D., Minn., that the commodity credit corporation was too large. As a consequence, he said, "We've been doing our best to cut down surplus stocks. We have cut feed grains and wheat surpluses without additional cost to the taxpayer."

Freeman refused to predict the size of the agriculture department's 1965 budget because he is prohibited by law from doing so. He said, however, "We expect to do more than our share in meeting the President's mandate" for economy.

In connection with cost savings, Freeman issued a six-page statement at the beginning of his conference discussing savings that had been effected through introduction of new management techniques and efficiency efforts.

Freeman said the largest savings had been effected in the agricultural stabilization and conservation service where 31 million dollars had been lopped off.

Freeman said the department is preparing legislation to give the government power to set trading margins on all commodity exchanges. He said another proposal under study would give the commodity exchange authority power to enjoin further trading by exchange members suspected of attempting to commit fraud. He said now the department cannot act until the fraud has been committed.

Memo to Santa Makes Changes In Yule Lists

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK, Dec. 18 (AP)—Memo to Santa: Forget the new housecoat I originally requested for Christmas. Instead, remember me with a floor-length chinchilla peignoir.

Skip past the new draperies I'd said would be welcome for the big bedroom. Just unload instead imported blue fur blanket with matching pillows for the bed.

Never mind I mentioned I could use a new wool for the office. Make the list read instead a fur coat dress of black broad-tail... plus dinner date with hubby at Le Pavilion to show it off.

We want to go not by mere taxi, but roll up by Rolls with chauffeur courtesy of a gift certificate which you can—if you're feeling really opulent—drop into our Christmas catchall.

Such luxury offerings mentioned are appearing in infinite variety this year, indicating there are a lot of people with a lot of money to spend on gifts, walk into any store to see what I mean.

That floor-length chinchilla peignoir (Saks Fifth avenue) goes for $14,000.

The blue fox blankets, to fit a double bed, are $1,800; matching pillows are $85 each (both from Georges Kaplan, New York).

The assortment of fur variations in the luxury class turns out to be amazing. Several furriers and fur departments in stores offer mink lap robes, mink duffel bags, blue fox or mink slippers for at-home wear. And one furrier (Kaplan) offers mink boots with leather sole and low stacked leather heel for $150 a pair. There's a white mink throw from one store (Saks) for $895; it also offers fur coat dresses of a variety of pelts including black broadtail priced a $8,000 and jaguar for $3,000.

One chain of men's stores (A. Sulka) has turned guanaco, fur from an Andes mountain animal with a coat similar to vicuna, into lap robes in natural shades of beige and white, to sell for $750 each.

Vicuna remains a luxury fabric—a man's vicuna robe is available; vicuna ear muffs, in turn, are a mere $7 per pair.

But it's in the jewelry-world that the costliest gifts abound.

One store (Nelman-Marcus) offers a cat-eye necklace with matched stones surrounded by diamond petals for $110,000. One jewelry firm in New York (Cartier) offers a cushion-shaped emerald ring set in platinum and surrounded by diamonds for $175,000. An 18-carat gold mesh evening bag, envelope shape, with a diamond border is available for $6,000. Another evening carryall with a gold and diamond design is $9,000. A diamond necklace choker goes for $86,000.

What may well rank as the world's most precious picture frame consists of 108 diamonds arranged in scrolls of 18 carat gold. The frame, two and one-half inches tall, sells for $2,500. (Veneto, New York.)

Other luxury gifts available: At least one New York limousine rental service (Buckingham-Livery, Inc.) offers gift certificates for Rolls Royce rentals includes and greenery by Mrs. Spriggs.

There will be no meeting Tuesday. The next meeting will be held Jan. 14.

Catholic Bishop Raps School Bus Law

BOISE, Dec. 18 (AP)—The spiritual leader of Idaho Catholics says barring of parochial students from public school buses is illegal for buses operated by school districts to carry parochial students, but added it is legal if the buses are privately owned.

Engelking's statement came after the Pocatello school district refused to bar parochial students from its buses. The district is expected to review the decision.

Bishop Treinen said in a statement that bus rides do not give aid to religion. "Bus rides are just much time and attention should be given to the comparatively small matter of what children sidewalks, health services and others," he said.

"Bus rides benefit the student. To deny all students rides on an equal basis is to infer that some students and their parents are second-rate citizens, which would be a very serious charge."

Bruins Use Free Throws To Outlast Burley After Losing 18-Point Margin

BURLEY, Dec. 18—Coasting on an 18-point lead at halftime, the Twin Falls Bruins had to turn to the free throw line to salvage a 53-47 victor over the Burley Bobcats in a rousing non-conference game Tuesday night. The Bruins were happily pushing in front with their three platoons all seeing action when a tow-headed splinter named Terry Jones took over with a tremendous exhibition of outside jump shooting in the third quarter. Jones' effort, which subsided in the fourth quarter, still perked up the Bobcats who pulled to within three points with 1:19 left in the game. Then Twin Falls put the ball under wraps and Burley had to foul on the chance the Bruins would miss the free throw. But Twin Falls hit eight straight in that span to pull out the victory.

Coeur d'Alene Rated Best Team in Idaho

By The Associated Press
Coeur d'Alene, 1962-63 Idaho class AAA champion, took over the top spot in the Associated Press poll for Gem state prep basketball this week and Caldwell, leader in the inaugural listing, tumbled to sixth. Second a week ago, the Coeur d'Alene Vikings sailed past Bonners Ferry 64-36 and edged Spokane university high 58-56 to run their record to 4-1 while Caldwell was beating Ontario 55-44 and losing to Emmett 66-43. The Couglirs now are 3-1.

Borah jumped two spots from fourth to second by extending its record to 4-0 and Bonneville leaped even further, from seventh to third. The Southeastern Idaho Bees trampled Idaho Falls, sixth a week ago, by 63-42 and whipped Highland 59-40 last week.

Kellogg, 3-1 after winning over Sandpoint, but losing to Spokane Lewis and Clark, slipped from third to fourth and Lewiston, 71-58 winner over Milton-Freewater climbed from eighth to fifth.

Emmett, now 2-2, moved into seventh, Mountain Home knocked off Nampa and lost to Jerome but skipped from eleventh to eighth. Idaho Falls slid to ninth and Jerome moved into the tenth spot.

Sandpoint and Madison, loser to Idaho Falls Saturday, fell out of the top ten to 16 and 15 respectively, trailing Nampa's Bulldogs, fifth a week ago and now 14th.

The Vikings gained 12 of the first place votes on the 17 ballots cast by AP member sportswriters and sportscasters and led Borah by 15 voting points with 155. Borah hauled in three first place votes and Bonneville got two.

Boise, which has won once in three games, took eleventh place, two points ahead of Twin Falls, unbeaten in two. Salmon, also unbeaten, is 13th and two points behind Twin Falls' 21.

The Associated Press top ten Idaho prep basketball teams (with records as of Dec. 15 and first place votes in parentheses). Points awarded on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis:

1. Coeur d'Alene (4-1) (12) 155

BYU Grid Coach Of Year in 1962 Is Fired

PROVO, Utah, Dec. 18 (AP)—Hal D. Mitchell, the Western Athletic conference's football coach of the year in 1962, was fired Tuesday by Brigham Young university.

In a brief announcement, President Ernest Wilkinson said Mitchell's contract would not be renewed for 1964 and termed the action "in the best interests of the university's football program."

Wilkinson said it has not been determined whether Mitchell, who has been head coach at Brigham Young for the past three years, would remain at the school in some other capacity.

Mitchell's teams won only eight of 30 games. In 1962 the Cougars had a 4-6 record. Last season they posted a dismal 2-8 mark, the same as in 1961.

Long a devotee of the single wing, Mitchell switched to "Y" offense this season, but it didn't do any good as the Cougars continued to lose.

Wolves Gain Early Edge, Beat Bliss

BLISS, Dec. 18—The Castleford Wolves jumped to a 10-point lead in the first quarter and then matched baskets with the Bliss Bears to earn a 53-41 victory Tuesday night.

Castleford's defense caught the Bears flat footed in the opening period with the Wolves intercepting several passes. That helped Castleford to a 15-5 edge and those 10 points marked the difference for the rest of the game.

Castleford also won the preliminary 40-24.

SMU WINS
DALLAS, Dec. 18 (AP)—Sophomore Carroll Hooser, who started the season slowly, found himself against Georgia Tech Tuesday night as he shot the Southern Methodist Mustangs to 97-75 basketball victory.

Caldwell Wins

CALDWELL, Dec. 18 (AP)—Gary Locke, senior forward for Northwest Nazarene college who sets new school records everytime he shoots, hit for 32 points Tuesday as the Crusaders edged College of Idaho 79-76.

Burley, which has won only once this season, just took too long getting started. The Bobcats opened well, moving in front 4-0 on buckets by Charles Skaggs and Cjuck O'Bryan, but Twin Falls caught up and then went romping.

All three Bruin units padded the margin to send themselves off the floor at intermission with a seemingly prohibitive 18-point edge.

But as the third quarter opened up, so did Jones. He hit six of seven long jumpers, mostly from around 30 feet. Burley managed to cut the lead to nine points but with two seconds left Bill Johnson hit a pair of free throws to give Twin Falls an 11-point edge after three periods.

The lead stayed at around 10 points until 4:16 remained in the game. Then Tom Darrington hit two buckets and Skaggs added another to cut the margin to 42-38. Steve Humphreys hit from the field with 3:12 left in the game and from then on Twin Falls had only free throws. Paul Stover got a charity point to put the Bruins on top by seven before O'Bryan got a rebound shot and Darrington hit a 12-foot jumper. But that was as close as Burley could come. With 1:19 left, Twin Falls went into its control game and Beer and Stover hit two free throws each and Humphreys four to hold the desperate Bobcats at bay.

Burley outscored Twin 19-16 in field goals.

The Twin Falls sophomores won the first game by a single point.

Ex-Tackle Quits Bar Business

DETROIT, Dec. 18 (AP)—Suspended tackle Alex Karras of the Detroit Lions has quit his bar business, hoping this might help restore him to play in the National Football league. Karras, suspended by NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle earlier this year for betting on games, gave up the bar Monday night. He and his partner, Jimmy Butearis, decided to sever relations. They owned a downtown bar together. The two said they arrived at the decision together and that they hoped this would help Karras' cause.

This we change.

This we don't.

Now you can see for yourself where we make most of our changes. Way down deep. Every part you can see and every part you can't see has been changed again and again and again. But we never change the Volkswagen without a reason. And the only reason is to make it even better.

When we do make a change, we try to make the new part fit older models, too. So you'll find that many VW parts are interchangeable from one year to the next. Which is why it's actually easier to get parts for a VW than for many domestic cars. And why VW service is as good as it is. The same principle holds good for the beetle shape. We made the rear window bigger one year so you could see other people better. We made the tail lights bigger last year so other people could see you better. But nothing drastic. Any Volkswagen hood still fits any VW ever made. So does any fender. And, in case you hadn't noticed, every VW still looks like every other VW. Which may turn out to be the nicest thing of all about the car. It doesn't go in one year and out the other.

Parseghian, Notre Dame Finally Get Together; Northwestern Hires Agase

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Dec. 18 (AP)—After about 36 hours of confusion and speculation, Ara Parseghian was named head football coach at the University of Notre Dame Tuesday. Minutes later, Alex Agase was appointed his successor at Northwestern university. Parseghian's appointment was announced by the Rev. Edmund P. Joyce, executive vice president of Notre Dame, in South Bend. Agase's appointment was announced by Northwestern Athletic Director Stu Holcomb.

Parseghian had been head coach of the Wildcats under Parseghian. The business began with a statement by Father Joyce that Parseghian was "in" as mentor of the Irish. Only Monday, the 40-year-old Parseghian had walked out of a meeting with Father Joyce concerning a four-year contract with the Irish.

Since Parseghian's walkout, speculation grew as to the real reason for the apparent break between the coach and Notre Dame. There still is no immediate answer to the question.

However, Father Joyce did make the following statement Tuesday:

"The slight difficulty which arose on Monday morning has been resolved. Ara Parseghian will immediately assume the position of head football coach at the University of Notre Dame and will be resident at the university following the East-West Shrine game in San Francisco.

"As we said before we are delighted to have Mr. Parseghian as our head football coach and we look forward to a successful football program."

Simultaneously, Parseghian made this announcement at his home in Wilmette, Ill.:

"I regret the embarrassment caused Notre Dame by the brief delay. I'm looking forward eagerly to directing football fortunes of the Irish.

"I will immediately assume the position of head football coach at Notre Dame and will be a resident of Notre Dame after the East-West Shrine game in San Francisco.

Thus, one of the stranger episodes in football history apparently ended.

It appeared that Parseghian wanted clarification of the status of his long-time friend, Agase, former All-America linebacker at the University of Illinois, before he made any contract commitment with the Irish.

Parseghian, Wildcat head coach for eight years, apparently wanted to be assured that Agase either succeeded him at Northwestern or became his No. 1 assistant at Notre Dame at a salary more substantial than the Irish usually pay staff members.

But apparently once the Agase situation was resolved, Parseghian moved ahead with Notre Dame.

But the mystery remained as to why Parseghian, after meeting with Father Joyce for two hours Monday, appeared so perturbed when he walked out on what was to have been a news conference for his official signing of a Notre Dame contract.

In Tuesday's negotiations, there was no mention made of salary for either Parseghian or Agase's new posts.

The 41-year-old Agase began his athletic career as a guard at Evanston Junior high school. But Northwestern left Agase slip away from his home territory and he went on to All-America fame at Illinois and also at Purdue, where he was a marine trainee in 1943.

In announcing Agase as the Wildcat choice, Holcomb said: "I had only one man in mind for the job once Ara was committed to going to Notre Dame."

Agase, in accepting his three-year contract, said:

"I am very grateful for the confidence Northwestern has shown in me. I succeed a man who did a great job at a great school and that, also, will be my goal."

Hoop Results for City Loop Noted

Three teams marked victories in the Tuesday night city adult basketball loop.

Murtaugh edged the Valley Sporting Goods 32-29. Gary Nebeker scored 18 points for the winners and John Darrington boosted 15 for the losers.

Sapphire lounge had an easy win over the Volco Builders 51-38. Wally Peterson bagged 15 points for the winners and Schroeder had 16 for the losers.

The Faux Cigar powered by the Rainbow Bar 55-37. Nick Fisher scored 13 points for the winners and Chuck Brown had 11 for the losers.

Richter Would Take Cal Job

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 18 (AP)—Former California All America Les Richter, one of many men mentioned as possible candidates for the football coaching job at his alma mater, said Tuesday he might be interested if approached by the school.

But he said he has "no expressed interest" in the job.

Richter was an All America guard at California in 1950, an All America linebacker the next season and an outstanding defensive player with the Los Angeles Rams thereafter. He retired after the 1952 season.

"I've been drinking that water for 17 years and it's not easy to top," Richter said. "But right now," he said, "I'm thinking of getting away from the game."

Chinese Baptists Put Bears in Bowl

HOUSTON, Dec. 18 (AP)—Baylor's Chinese Baptists are defensive specialists whose football training helped put the Bears in Saturday's Bluebonnet bowl game against Louisiana State. The game between the two 7-3 teams matches defensive units with fancy names—Chinese Baptists and Chinese Bandits. LSU came up with its Bandit unit several years ago. Baylor followed this year after the substitution rule was changed. John Bridgers, coach of the Baptist school who had built a pro-type offense around the passing arm of Don Trull, decided the revised rule would allow the use of offensive and defensive specialists.

Wendell Uses Late Surge to Top Mushers

WENDELL, Dec. 18 — The Wendell Trojans made a full-court press payoff with two cripples in the closing minutes Tuesday night to overcome the Camas County Mushers 44-37.

The press culminated a second-half comeback rally by the Trojans who forged in front in the third quarter and protected narrow leads until the two cripples helped to break the game open. Camas County lead 14-9 and 21-18 at the first two quarter rests but couldn't penetrate Wendell's improved defense or match the Trojans shooting in the last half.

Kimberly Is 64-49 Winner Over Filer

FILER, Dec. 18—The Kimberly Bulldogs blew a 10-point lead in the second half, fell behind by three and then rallied to whip the Filer Wildcats 64-49 Tuesday night.

The game was almost a carbon copy of the team's earlier meeting, with Filer getting sparking play from Lloyd Hardesty and Del Ericson making a strong third quarter bid only to be roughly handled in the final minutes.

Bob Myers was the leading Kimberly gun as many of his 23 points came while the Bulldogs were mounting a 29-18 halftime lead. But in the third quarter Ericson and Hardesty began bringing Filer back and the Wildcats moved in front early in the fourth quarter 46-42. Then the Bulldogs oiled up their running machine and fast-broke to victory.

SMU Victory Over Navy Is Upset of Year

NEW YORK, Dec. 18 (AP)—The 1963 college football season had more upsets than a drunken tight-rope walker. It seemed there were at least a couple a week.

The biggest upset of them all? A panel of 98 sports writers and sportscasters gave the nod to Southern Methodist's 32-28 triumph over Navy.

A nationwide poll by the Associated Press gave the Mustangs' surprising victory over the second-ranked Midshipmen a slim 82-27 vote edge over UCLA's 14-0 shocker over Rose bowl-bound Washington.

Sixteen other triumphs or ties by underdog teams were nominated for the No. 1 upset of the year but none received anywhere near the votes gathered by the Mustangs and Bruins.

Memphis State's surprising scoreless deadlock with highly favored Mississippi was regarded as the biggest upset by eight voters. Seven picked Florida's 10-8 stunner over Alabama. The same number selected Kansas State's 21-10 surprise victory over Iowa State. It snapped a 26-game Big Eight losing streak for the Wildcats.

Michigan's victory over Illinois and Nebraska's triumph over Oklahoma rated three votes each while Penn's defeat of Harvard and Wake Forest's upset of South Carolina were worth two votes apiece. The Deacons had lost 17 straight before knocking off the Game-cocks.

Two Teams Gain 11 Positions on AFL All-Star

NEW YORK, Dec. 18 (AP)—San Diego and Oakland hogged half of the 22 jobs on the 1963 All-Star team of the American Football league selected Tuesday for The Associated Press by a panel of 24 sports writers and sportscasters, three from each league city. Al Davis' surprising Oakland Raiders placed three men on the offensive unit and three others on the defensive team. San Diego's powerful Chargers placed four on offense and one on defense.

Houston and Buffalo each had three men on the first teams and Boston and Kansas City two each. New York placed one.

Art Powell, a fleet split end who formerly played with the old New York Titans; center Jim Otto and running back Clem Daniels were Oakland's representatives on offense. The Raiders' defensive unit was represented by middle linebacker Archie Matsos, acquired from Buffalo in a trade; corner back Fred Williamson and safety Tommy Morrow.

Sid Gillman's high-scoring Chargers had the only unanimous choice in Lance Alworth, the fleet flanker back from Arkansas who received all of the 24 votes. Tobin Rota, 35-year-old quarterback, and fullback Keith Lincoln, gave the Chargers three of the four backfield jobs. Tackle Ron Mix also made the offensive club. San Diego's lone representative on the first team was Earl Falson, the 6-foot, 5-inch pass-rushing end from Indiana.

In addition to the four San Diego and three Oakland men on the offensive team, others were tight end Fred Abrams of Kansas City, tackle Steve Barber and guard Bill Shaw of Buffalo and guard Bob Talamini of Houston.

Joining the three Oakland men and Falson on defense were corner back Tony Banfield and safety Fred Gilk of Houston, and Larry Eisenhauer and tackle Houston-Antwino of Boston, linebackers E. J. Holub of Kansas City and Larry Grantham of New York and tackle Tom Sestak of Buffalo.

There were only eight repeaters from the 22-man squad of last year—Snow, Mix and Otto on offense and Eisenhauer, Holub, Grantham, Williamson and Banfield on defense.

Abominable

MOUNTAIN HOME, Dec. 18. (AP) — Someone put an "abominable snowman" in the middle of a Mountain Home street.

It was abominable, that is, to Deputy Sheriff Larry Olson and Patrolman Ernie Pfliger, who had the job of getting rid of it. The eight-foot, 300-pound monster, built during the night, blocked traffic.

When they got to the bottom chunk of snow, they had to substitute horsepower for manpower, using the bumper of a patrol car to break it into movable pieces.

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

WEDNESDAY, Dec. 18—Born today, you have a keen, quiet mind that is able to originate dozens of ideas at once. Strong in planning and organization, you should end up in an executive capacity in whatever career you choose. You need only guard against taking yourself too seriously, for you have a sharply refined sense of humor which, unless you lose it, should be of great aid to you in your race to the top.

In dealing with persons in your own field, you need never fear

Threat of Explosion Washes Away

EAST CHICAGO, Ind., Dec. 18—Six thousand barrels of a TNT component mixed into the waters of Lake Michigan evaporated Tuesday and this heavily industrial city breathed deeply in relief.

For 14 hours yesterday, the people of this city, part of the Calumet district complex of steel-making areas south of Chicago, lived in fear of a terrible holocaust.

A match could have done it. The bow of a barge sank in the Indiana Harbor Ship canal in the pre-dawn hours as its cargo of 12,000 barrels of toluene was being pumped into the American Oil company refinery.

Toluene is a blend of gasoline used to increase the quality of ordinary motor fuels.

The toluene—a component of tri-nitro-toluene (TNT)—bubbled to the surface and its fumes filled the air. The canal became "like dynamite," one officer said, and explosive conditions spread for at least three-quarters of a mile.

The coast guard ordered all marine traffic halted between Lake Michigan and the ship canal and it stopped movement on seven railroad bridges. Major passenger-trains were delayed as much as two hours.

Auto traffic was halted on U.S. 41 and U.S. 12-20.

Smoking was banned.

Firemen poured foam on the canal.

The toluene was pumped into waiting tank cars and tank trucks as it collected at closed bulkheads.

At 3 p.m., Fire Chief Nick Pala lifted the "all clear" signal. Traffic on land and water returned to normal.

The next Saturday meeting will be held for masterpoint play.

defeat, when the light is carried outside that field, however, you must take care that you do not advance too boldly. Remember that your authority in one field does not necessarily carry over into another, and that it would be very easy, therefore, for you to bite off more than you can comfortably chew outside your own ballpark.

No one will be more important to your life's work than the person you marry. Thus you must choose someone who understands completely both your nature and what you're after in life. If a woman, you may well wish to combine marriage and a career, and it is vital that your mate know of and agree to this. Otherwise you may be in for trouble!

Rickover to Be Kept on Duty

NEW YORK, Dec. 18—President Johnson nominated Vice Adm. Hyman G. Rickover today for retirement at his present three-star rank. But the navy is going to keep its controversial nuclear reactor expert on the job.

White House officials said he reached retirement age of 62 on Jan. 27, 1962, but was retained on active duty for two more years. Under existing law, he must retire Feb. 1. But he still can be recalled to active duty, and this will be done.

Man-Eating Tigers Plague India Area

NEW DELHI, Dec. 18—Man-eating tigers have killed 75 persons in the Bastar jungles, 730 miles southeast of New Delhi, according to news reports.

According to the reports, three tigers have struck terror in the villages bordering Narayanpur district in Bastar.

The reports said 22 villages in the area have been deserted because of the tiger menace.

Bastar, a former princely state, is inhabited mainly by primitive tribesmen, some of whom regard the tiger as a reincarnation of the god Blue! While these tribesmen live on wild game shot with bows and poisoned arrows, they seldom kill tigers.

The man-eater menace is not new to Bastar. Last year's figure showed 123 human victims—most of them women.

Shoshone Party Well Attended

SHOSHONE, Dec. 18—A large crowd of youngsters attended the Chamber of Commerce-sponsored Christmas party Saturday.

A free movie was sponsored by the chamber-at the Rex theater. Distributed were 620 sacks of candy and nuts, with Santa arriving by Shoshone fire truck.

Chamber members who assisted on the scene were President Francis Bergin, E. L. Comes, Douglas Hansen, with city police chief Bill Anderson, and Patrolman William Van Dyke assisting with traffic. Three men from the fire department and four high school boys also assisted.

In addition to the candy given to the children, the chamber took sacks to each patient at the convalescent center.

Mystery Spy Identified As Russian

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18—The justice department said Tuesday that a mystery man accused of espionage for the Soviet Union has been identified as a 44-year-old Russian.

Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy said the accused spy, who assumed the name of a New York priest, really was Alexander Sokolov, 44, a native of Tiflis, Russia.

The department said it still does not know the identity of the woman arrested with Sokolov, in Washington by the FBI last July 2.

The couple was living together in a fourth-floor walkup apartment under the names of "Robert King Balch" and "Joy Ann Garber Balch."
