SAIGON, South Viet Nam, Dec. 20 (UPI)—Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara was reported today to have made it clear the war is going so badly in South Viet Nam that the United States may be unable to pull out its troops by the target date of 1965. Informed American sources said McNamara delivered a personal message to South Viet Nam's junta leaders from President Johnson which in effect erases a previous 1965

Approval Is Given to River Plan

BOISE, Dec. 20 (AP)—Gov. Robert E. Smylie expressed qualified approval Thursday of a revised plan for southeastern Idaho's Bear river project.

The new plan expands the proportion of water allocated to the state. Smylie said, however, that further study will be needed before it is determined whether the state and residents of the area will support the project.

Smylie said the question is whether that involved in the proposed diversion of water from the Snake river in southern Idaho for use in southern California. In the case of the Bear river project, the water would be exported from Idaho for use in California.

The governor commented following a conference Wednesday with Frank Clinton of Salt Lake City, regional director for the U. S. bureau of reclamation. Clinton outlined provisions of a revised report on the project.

Idaho officials took sharp exception to the first draft, contending Utah was getting more than its share of water which would be stored in Idaho. The proposed Oneida Narrows dam would be built on the Bear river five miles north of the Utah border.

"It now stands," Smylie said, "at least Idaho is getting its share."

McNamara, who attended a NATO ministerial conference in Paris, flew here for a two-day intensive study of the critical state of the anti-communist war. The move followed a series of communist victories since overthrow of the regime of the late President Ngo Dinh Diem.

McNamara was far more optimistic when he visited South Viet Nam in September. It was after that visit the United States said it hoped to pull out its advisers by 1965 and that 1,000 men would be withdrawn this year.

But observers said the optimism evaporated when the overthrow of the Ngo family regime was followed by Viet Cong victories in the Mekong river delta south of Saigon. U. S. sources said McNamara spent more than two hours with junta leaders today urging strong central leadership to reorganize the army and administration and rally the population for the bitter and difficult struggle ahead.

It was not known what the Viet Cong had done with the Viet Cong. (See McNAMARA, Page 2)

Approval Is Given to River Plan

BOISE, Dec. 20 (UPI)—A legislative council subcommittee today recommended employment of the firm of Hummel, Hummel, Jones and Shawver to draw up preliminary plans for remodeling of the legislative floors of the statehouse. The council put off action on the recommendation until a 1:30 p. m. meeting with Charles Hummel to discuss the proposal. The council wrangled for 20 minutes on whether to thank the subcommittee and discharge it or just thank the committee. It decided just to thank it for now.

Members of the interim reorganizing committee also planned to meet later today with Gov. Robert E. Smylie to discuss new requests for state agencies that will be moved from the third and fourth floors of the Capitol. The legislature wants all that space for itself.

They also heard a proposal by Charles Thompson of the International Roll Call Machine company for leasing of electronic machines by the next legislature.

The report of Rep. Robert E. Smylie's subcommittee on remodeling of the legislative floors of the statehouse was read to the council by its research director, Myran Schlechte.

Schlechte said the first phase of remodeling—preliminary engineering and design—would take 18 months and cost $9,000,000. Hummel, Jones and Shawver propose to do the architectural work for eight per cent of the total cost of the job or $750,000 and six per cent—whichever is smaller.

REUNION IN EAST BERLIN is pictured as Mrs. Elizabeth Bingel is greeted by her daughter, Katharine, at Sandkrugbruecke control point after the daughter entered the communist country Friday. ## Red Wall Opened; Thousands Of Berliners Get Yule Wish BERLIN, Dec. 20 (AP)—Thousands of Berliners had their Christmas wish come true today. The Communists opened the Red wall and West Berliners streamed through for happy, tearful reunions with relatives on the other side. Throughout East Berlin—mostly in the privacy of homes behind the grim wall that divides the city—West and East Berliners fell into each other's arms. For most West Berliners it was the first meeting with relatives in East Berlin since the wall went up 28 months ago.

West Berlin police reported that by late afternoon 2,682 persons and 600 automobiles had passed through four special crossing points reserved for the Christmas visitors from West Berlin. Uncounted were those who took the elevated train and entered East Berlin at Friedrichstrasse station inside the wall.

The figure was lower than had been expected and lower than one the police themselves had given earlier. Some 800,000 West Berliners are regarded as eligible for the one-day passes through the wall which the East Germans will close again Jan. 5.

Officials figured that since this is a working day many persons were unable to go or preferred to wait until the whole family had a holiday, both in East and West Berlin. The heavy flow of visitors was expected to grow over the coming week-end and reach a peak for the Christmas holidays.

East German guards, who still have orders to shoot to kill if any East Berliner tries to escape to the west, were extremely courteous and West Berliners passed through the controls rapidly. Contrary to expectations, there were no queues at the grim concrete wall as dawn broke over the snow-covered city.

Kendrick will continue to serve as deputy sheriff for Twin Falls county and assist with the civil defense program through the sheriff's office. He served as police chief here from 1953 to January, 1962, when he resigned to become deputy sheriff. Kendrick has had special training in civil defense.

License Sales

A total of 6,050 sets of passenger plates and 309 truck plates had been sold by noon Friday at the Twin Falls county assessor's office. In Buhl, the Dais Insurance agency reported a total of 912 passenger and 80 truck plates had been sold by noon Friday.

Launching of Satellite Is Postponed Again

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla., Dec. 20 (AP)—Problems with the safety destruct system today forced a third postponement of an attempt to launch the Tiros 8 weather satellite. The shot was rescheduled for 4:30 p. m. EST Saturday. The national aeronautics and space administration reported the delay was caused by circuitry troubles in the destruct system—the device the range safety officer would trigger to destroy the Delta booster if it went off course during launching.

Adjournment of Congress Snagged On Aid Measure

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 (UPI)—Congressional leaders today abandoned plans to adjourn congress tonight, called on scores of members who already have left town to return, and said they plan to keep the lawmakers here until a contested foreign aid bill has been finally passed. They acted under the prodding of President Johnson who told Democratic leaders of house and senate at a White House strategy session it was imperative not only that they finish work on the aid measure but that they send it to the White House minus a house-approved curb on use of government credit in the proposed sale of surplus U. S. wheat to Russia.

This posed a tough task for house leaders, who apparently were expected to turn around enough home-bound house members to reverse a 218 to 169 roll call vote by which the house only last Monday had approved the trade curb. After only 288 of the 435 members answered an opening quorum call at the start of what was supposed to have been the year's last house session Democratic leader Carl Albert took the floor to announce the new plans. He appealed to those present to cancel their plans to go home, and called on those who already had left town to return. "There is no more important business for anybody than to be here to dispose of this bill," Albert said.

Albert's plea drew a sharp rebuff from Republican leader Charles A. Halleck who said he was willing to remain here a reasonable additional time, despite the fact congress already has been in session for almost 12 months, but that he did not see the need for any emergency action on the foreign aid money bill. As for the wheat issue, Halleck told the house: "I'm not particularly interested in staying around here to help (See CONGRESS, Page 2)

4 Injured in Mishap Still In Hospital

FILER, Dec. 20—Four persons injured in a four-car collision Thursday morning, two miles north of here still are hospitalized at Magic Valley Memorial hospital. Reported in fair condition are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Roper, both 28, Pullman, Wash. Their daughter, Laura, 10 months, is listed in good condition, and Jawad T. Agha, 27, Logan, is in fairly good condition. Agha was cited for reckless driving Thursday afternoon. State Patrolman James Gerke, one of the investigating officers, said Agha was passing another car in the middle of Deadman's curve and was in the wrong lane of traffic when his car collided with the Roper vehicle. Agha's car then spun around after the impact, and was struck in the rear by a 1963 Chevrolet stationwagon driven by Arthur L. Beltz, 49, Snohomish, Wash., which in turn was hit in the rear by a 1963 Mercury driven by Mrs. Thelma J. Stringer, Buhl.

Guns Used in Robbery Are Located

The Twin Falls police department has recovered the two guns and clothing used by two gunmen during an armed robbery of the Safeway store, 512 Main avenue north, Dec. 12, in which $4,575 in currency was taken, M. Frank Barnett, Twin Falls police chief, said Friday morning. Barnett said the two guns, a .38 caliber Colt revolver and a .38 caliber Smith and Wesson, and the clothing used by two gunmen during the robbery, were found in a suitcase at an Elko bus depot. Barnett explained the items were located through the investigation by the local police department and "especially City Patrolman F. C. (Chad) Thompson." Barnett said Thompson developed the initial information leading to the suitcase.

Thursday Barnett and Detective Tim Qualls went to Elko to check on the lead supplied by Thompson and found the suitcase at a bus depot. The suitcase was shipped there from a Twin Falls depot, Barnett stated, but he declined to say which Twin Falls bus depot shipped it. Barnett said the suitcase accidentally was mislabeled at the Twin Falls bus depot and this was the reason for not discovering it earlier. Barnett would not explain further about the mislabeling. McNamara

(Continued From Page One) name reply was but McNamara was told in earlier briefings by U. S. officials working in the countryside that Vietnamese officials in the provinces were complaining they lacked overall policy direction from Saigon, with the junta embroiled in politics instead of military matters.

McNamara also sought to ally other Vietnamese fears as to American policy.

The 1965 date itself had been taken by the Vietnamese to mean the United States would pull out then whether the war was won or not. This, he made clear today, is not the case and the United States is committed to victory.

Another point of discussion was neighboring Cambodia. The Vietnamese fearing the kingdom will be neutralized, asked for American assurance the United States would have nothing to do with a proposed conference to ensure Cambodian neutrality.

McNamara could not give this assurance because the decision has not yet been taken in Washington but he assured the Vietnamese the United States would not let any conference interfere with, or change, its policies in Viet Nam.

American sources said briefings given McNamara today by U. S. civilian and military officials covered the general political, military and economic situation but concentrate on several vital provinces in the Mekong delta where the government position has deteriorated gravely.

YULETIDE GREETINGS The word form 'Jul' is older than Christmas. Scholars have found the world in ancient writings about a celestial festival during the middle of winter, in which an infant religious man was sacrificed to the pagan gods. When Christianity came to the Scandinavia, the word 'Jul' was used for Christmas in Danish, as 'Yule' in Norwegian and Icelandic. Yule does in its English form. When we wish our friends Yuletide greetings it is the meaning of the word 'rejoice' — how universal is the spirit of Christmas.

Christmas Adds Joy to Dark Winter

STOCKHOLM, Dec. 20 (AP)——To Swedes, the Christmas season is a month-long series of events—some solemn, some festive—which lighten the burden of the northern country's dark, ferociously cold winter.

Lucia day, a uniquely Swedish custom observed on Dec. 13, is a festival of light—virtually a rebellion against the brooding darkness which descends on Scandinavia in December. It evolved from the pagan tributes to Lucia, the goddess of light in ancient Rome, and is observed nowhere else in the world.

On Lucia day, a candle-bearing girl clad in white traditionally awakens the sleeping family at dawn. Coffee and wheat cakes are served and the Lucia songs sung.

On the evening of Lucia day, in nearly every city and hamlet in Sweden, a Lucia procession winds through the streets heralding the light which is so scarce and which the Nordic people in ancient times feared might not return with the spring.

—Most Swedes prefer, if possible, to spend Christmas in the countryside, perhaps the family homestead on a remote, snow-shrouded farm. Decorating the home is traditional with pine twigs, red berries and cones and miniature church bells quite popular. Small red tulips, white hyacinths or white Christmas roses are also often to be seen.

And standing in the living room is a majestic Christmas tree, decorated with candles and numerous ornaments which the family made together.

On Christmas eve, presents are distributed; each should have a poem attached. Christmas sheaths are set out for the birds, and there is the "dipping in the pot": The fat from the cooking Christmas pig is poured into a pot and the family members about dipping slices of spiced bread.

Candles are lighted everywhere against the darkness.

Christmas dinner is an occasion when food and drink in incredible quantities are consumed. The ham is the most substantial item. Then there is the lay-fish ("lutfish" in Swedish), which is a sun-dried and lime-cured fish served with white sauce, black pepper and salt. The festive table is loaded with hordes of "Smorgasbord" delights.

Next, the children wait for a knock on the door by Father Christmas ("Julmtomten"), who asks if there are any good children present, then distributes his longed-for parcels.

At dawn on Christmas day, the family goes to church, perhaps by sleigh, for traditional early services.

On the evening of the second day, "boxing day" comes the first of a series of gay holiday parties with songs, dances and games. The New Year is greeted with the ringing of bells and general conviviality.

There are parties on the Twelfth day and the Twelfth children dance around the Christmas tree for the last time. It is plundered of decorations and discarded. Thus, Christmas is danced out.

Shoshone FFA Plans TV Shows

SHOSHONE, Dec. 20—Plans are under way for the high school Future Farmers of America chapter here to present three television shows. They will run about 30 minutes each, deal with subjects on parliamentary procedure, preparing farm-equipment for spring work and veterinary demonstrations.

Tentative date of the first program is Feb. 5, officers announced Wednesday after their meeting.

The Shoshone chapter public speaking contest will be held Jan. 20. Three boys will prepare eight to 10-minute talks for the contest. Winner will represent the chapter in the district contest to be held at Shoshone Feb. 12.

Practices on parliamentary procedure will begin after the holidays.

Shoshone will enter a team of six boys in the district public speaking contest. Any FFA member is eligible to participate.

Jerome chapter members will be invited to the Jan. 6 meeting. Report was made that pictures were recently taken of projects of members in north Shoshone. Others will be taken in the near future.

Larry Braun and Dick Jessor are preparing the next issue of the newsletter to be published the first week in January. The mailing list for this is now 150 farmers.

Any interested person may receive the newsletter by notifying the chapter. It is free of charge and contains farm news on a variety of subjects.

Officers Are Chosen for Area C. of C.

SHOSHONE, Dec. 20—New officers were elected and reports given on the past year's activities of the Shoshone Chamber of Commerce at the annual meeting Tuesday night at the Manhattan cafe.

William Grange, Twin Falls, secretary-manager of the Twin Falls chamber, was guest speaker. He emphasized the value of tourist and convention trade in Idaho and told of work in the Twin Falls area the past few years.

Complimenting the Times-News and Louise Shaddock for advertising the state and area, Grange said there is a serious handicap in promoting the state because of lack of finances for this purpose.

Tourist information was made available at the Perrine Memorial bridge during summer months by the Twin Falls chamber, and 40,000 brochures were distributed during 1963, he reported. The service is provided through community organizations and individuals who give their time there.

Officers elected to head Shoshone chamber next year are Herbert Forbes, president; Douglas Hansen, vice president, and Myron D. Johnson, reelected secretary-treasurer.

Forbes replaces Francis Bergin in the post.

New directors elected are Cecil Cope, John George, E. L. Goms, Claude Wilson, Frank Dallas and Wilson Churchman. Holdover directors are Howard Adkins, Douglas Hansen, Del Hiatt, Thomas W. Conner, Herbert Forbes and Reid Newby. Retiring directors are Bergin, Robert Haddock, O. J. Harris, J. R. Churchman, Perry Hadlock and John Severson.

Guests were members of the city council and their partners and wives of the chamber members.

Nominating committee members were Bergin, Harrell Thorne and Ray E. Oyer.

Dinner arrangements committee included George Hiatt and Herb Love.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

BY ANDREW TULLY

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20—There will be no sea and air blockade of Fidel Castro's Cuba, despite the near unanimity of the Organization of American States (OAS) in voting an investigation of charges that Castro smuggled arms into Venezuela in support of communist terrorism there.

For a change, the reason is not that the OAS is largely composed of namby-pamby politicians who wouldn't say boo to a goose. The boys are still horrified at direct action, of course, but this time it is the usually aggressive United States that is dragging its feet. Uncle Sam's reluctance has to do with a man named Khrushchev.

MR. K'S FACE—Any successful blockade of Cuba would be a blow also to the Soviet Union, which is still spending 1 million dollars a day to keep the bearded egomaniac in business. And although there may be times when Mr. K. wishes he never heard of Cuba, he would have to start shaking his fist at the U.S. if only to safeguard his investment. Another crisis similar to that of October, 1962, could develop.

TRUJILLO LACKED BIG BROTHER—Back in 1960, the OAS took the then-unprecedented step of suspending diplomatic relations with the Dominican Republic regime of General Trujillo and imposing limited trade sanctions.

NO SHOOTING LIKELY—Venezuela's President Romulo Betancourt, who recommended the blockade, also has asked for whatever additional armed forces may be necessary to end Castro's campaign of subversion south of the border.

Views of Others
BY NO MEANS ORDINARY
Chief Justice Warren undoubtedly was aware of the risks involved in his chairmanship of the presidential commission to investigate John F. Kennedy's death.

WHY THE DELAY?
Almost a month after the assassination of President John F. Kennedy the public is told—but still unofficially—details of the fatal wounds. An autopsy was held the night Mr. Kennedy was shot and it was immediately obvious the President had been struck by two bullets, the second killing the President instantly.

INTENSE INTEREST
Russian leaders spend a good deal of their time criticizing and lambasting capitalistic America but the ordinary Russian still is intensely interested in anything connected with the United States.

THIS IS PROGRESS?
In the old days, if there was a famine in Russia, a committee of Philadelphians would collect donations of food, charter a couple of ships, and give their help, personally, on the spot.

Mine Blast Report Ready On Saturday

—Twin Falls, Dec. 20 (AP)—Results of an investigation of a coal mine explosion near Helper that killed nine men Monday will be released Saturday.

James Damanil, co-owner of the Carbon Fuel company, said the findings of about 40 investigators who went down into the mine Wednesday will be made public after they sift through the information.

Representatives of the U. S. Geological Survey joined the investigation Wednesday after the mine's operators had extended 75 feet into federal land.

Investigations today and Friday were called off while funerals for the nine victims are held. Fifteen men were caught underground when the explosion came. Ten escaped, including one miner who suffered minor injuries.

Among the investigators are representatives of the state and federal government, the company and the United Mine Workers of America.

Kiwanis Club Hears County Agent

—Twin Falls, Dec. 20 (AP)—"Our Changing Agriculture" was the topic discussed by Don Ed Youtz, Twin Falls county agent, during the weekly meeting of the Twin Falls Kiwanis club Thursday noon.

Youtz pointed out Twin Falls county ranks very high nationally in beans, potatoes, sugar beets, wheat, sweet corn, cattle and sheep production. He explained the farm income from these crops plays an important role in the economy of Magic Valley communities.

Parming is now a scientific undertaking, Youtz said. It is more efficient, but it is more costly than before, he added. Improved seed, cultural practices, fertilizers, weed and insect control all help to provide the abundance in America, said Youtz.

William J. Emerick was inducted into the club Thursday by Bert Larson, past president.

It was announced final plans for the father-son-daughter luncheon had been made. The luncheon will be held Dec. 26.

Kiwanians are to bring to the luncheon their children, grandchildren or neighbor's children.

Dr. John McNeese announced the local club will sponsor "Horns of the Hunter," an Alaskan wildlife film, Jan. 13 and 14.

Guests were Edward Staff, Dale Melvin Ellason, Boise; Dale Lee, Twin Falls, and Dennis Lewis and David Knutson, member of the Key club.

Arthritis Can Strike Anyone, Tots to Oldsters, Any Time

If you think arthritis is an ailment of old age you are wrong—it can strike anyone, infants to old people, at any time.

Rheumatoid arthritis, while it hits all ages, concentrates its crippling in the 20 to 45 "prime of life" years. For some unknown reason it attacks three women to every man. On the other hand, gout and rheumatoid spondylitis number 90 per cent of their victims among men.

In the Twin Falls area about 1,200 persons are affected by arthritis and each one is being helped in some way by the Idaho Arthritis chapter. During the fiscal year ending June 30, more than $4,200 was raised in Idaho to promote arthritis research and program development.

The Arthritis and Rheumatism foundation, founded in 1948 by Floyd B. Odum, an arthritic who still serves as the national board chairman, is the only national voluntary health agency concerned exclusively with the widespread problem of arthritis and rheumatic diseases. It is one of the seven agencies participating in the United Fund campaign in Twin Falls.

First objective of the foundation is to foster and finance research for better methods of treatment and to discover the causes and cures for arthritis and other rheumatic diseases. In addition to the research projects for which chapters provide support, the foundation offers high-level training in arthritis research through its national fellowship program. This year the foundation alone will put one million dollars into 93 projects in its quest for cause and cure.

Second primary objective is to increase and improve local treatment facilities. The ARP today contributes support to more than two-thirds of the 300 arthritis treatment centers throughout the United States. There are also staffs, health departments, fraternal, civic and service clubs and federal agencies.

The Idaho chapter has provided to the public medically-approved information on the rheumatic diseases and distributed a bi-monthly newsletter to more than 2,000 arthritic patients and other interested persons. Open forums have been established to further the public educational program.

There are now 45 members on the board. One-third are doctors functioning as the medical and scientific committee. Board members from the Twin Falls area are Mrs. R. T. Campbell, Dr. A. William Kendall and Dr. Roy O. Shaub.

In addition to the hydrotherapy treatments and a crafts class in Boise, the chapter has expanded its services during the past year to include a crafts class in Nampa and physical therapy treatments for persons in Twin Falls and several cities in northern Idaho.

Funds to assist the Idaho chapter in providing its services and carrying out its program are received from organized United Funds, bequests, memorials, memberships and proceeds from special events sponsored by organizations.

Providing training in rheumatic diseases to more doctors, therapists, medical students and nurses is the foundation's third objective. The foundation's informative bulletin on rheumatic diseases is sent to doctors each month, and post-graduate courses in arthritis are sponsored by chapters throughout the year.

The fourth objective is to extend public knowledge and understanding of arthritis and to protect its victims from exploitation by those who deal in worthless or grossly misrepresented treatments.

A wide variety of literature, films, exhibits and other educational matter is used to reach the public with the facts about arthritis quickly, the foundation has launched a campaign to end exploitation of the sufferer.

It has set up a special watchdog department to keep a check on arthritis products and work with government bodies and other agencies to expose misleading claims. It has attacked a wide variety of worthless and misrepresented treatments.

The Idaho chapter was chartered in 1958 with a board of directors of 18 doctors and lay persons. The outlined program for that year was public and professional education, registration of arthritics and a professional teaching seminar.

Through the years the chapter has expanded its program to provide direct patient services through hydrotherapy and physical therapy treatments, self-help devices and orthopedic appliances. Also handicraft classes have been established in some communities in Idaho.

Scientific meetings for general practitioners, medical specialists, physical therapists and nurses have been co-sponsored by the chapter. Film showings have been provided for nurses, hospital

Counties Are Designated For Job Lack

BOISE, Dec. 20 (AP)—Gov. Robert E. Smylie said Thursday that Blaine and Boise counties have been designated by the commerce department, as areas of "substantial and persistent unemployment."

As a result, he said they may qualify for forest service funds for road projects, including the Stanley-Lowman highway in Boise county.

The classifications are based upon data prepared by the Idaho employment security agency at the request of the Boise and Blaine county commissioners, said Smylie.

He said both counties have also been recommended to the area redevelopment administration for designation as redevelopment areas.

He described the designation as of special help to areas of chronic unemployment over many months, or in some cases, several years. He said it is a long-range program of "creative area redevelopment" as distinct from short-term anti recession measures.

State Will Acquire Land For Home

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 (AP)—The bureau of land management has been given authority to handle the transfer of 4.75 acres of federal land to the state of Idaho as a site for a new veterans home.

Idaho will pay $2.50 per acre, or less than $15 for the land, on the site of the veterans administration hospital near the Boise downtown area.

The legislature appropriated $400,000 to build the home, which will replace the old structure on West State street. It has been declared inadequate.

Sen. Frank Church, D., Idaho, said he was advised by the veterans administration and Asst. Interior Secretary John A. Carver that the BLM was cleared to handle details of the transfer.

The state is also seeking about three additional acres which can't be immediately transferred because of buildings on it. Acquisition of two acres nearby has also been proposed. It would be used for a recreation area.

Cash Prizes Offered for Rupter Event

RUPERT, Dec. 20—Mrs. Helen Dickinson, chairman of the Rupter Chamber of Commerce lighting contest, announced that cash prizes again will be offered this year in the annual Christmas lighting contest.

Mrs. Dickinson reported that judging of the local displays will be conducted Sunday through Tuesday of next week, and that competition is being limited to commercial and residential divisions for this year.

Prizes will go to the top three entries in the commercial division and the top three in the residential division. In the past, contests have been held in the commercial, residential and rural sections.

According to Mrs. Dickinson, amounts of the prizes in each of the divisions will be announced next week, as the committee has not yet set up the prize distribution.

Mrs. Dickinson asked residents to be certain to have their displays turned on Sunday through Tuesday and urged persons with displays to be judged to call the chamber office and leave their address for the judges.

Members of the Christmas lighting committee include Mrs. Dickinson, William Henschel and Ed Engert.

AEC Plans to Extend Nevada Weapons Site

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 (AP)—The atomic energy commission disclosed plans Thursday to extend its Nevada weapons test site to provide facilities for future underground nuclear testing—possibly to allow detonating of more powerful explosions than before.

The commission said it has begun development work in the Pahute Mesa area at the northwestern corner of the present test site, which is used both for underground testing of weapons, weapons detection techniques and for underground tests to explore possible peaceful uses of nuclear explosions.

News Around Idaho

CALDWELL, Dec. 20 (AP)—A member of the striking Grain Millers union, local 291, filed a charge of battery Thursday against a J. R. Simplot company employe, complaining he was struck by a car while walking a picket line. Donald Osen, Parma, filed the complaint in Canyon county probate court, against Rose Sowsley of Caldwell. Judge Edward J. Lodge signed a warrant of arrest.

BOISE, Dec. 20 (AP)—Douglas M. Hughes was sentenced to four years in prison Thursday on charges of stealing U. S. treasury checks from the mail in Tennessee and Texas and forging the endorsements. U. S. District Judge Chase A. Clark sentenced him to concurrent four-year terms on each of three counts in the Tennessee theft. He was sentenced to a year each on three counts on charges involving a $60 check taken from a mail box at Cleburne, Tex. The sentences are concurrent and the one year is concurrent with the four-year sentence. Hughes was arrested in Boise and consented to transfer of the Texas and Tennessee charges here. Richard Lee Strantz was sentenced to 11 months in prison on a charge of driving a stolen car from Spokane, Wash., to Priest River Nov. 16.

IDAHO FALLS, Dec. 20 (AP)—Idaho Falls police chief Milton Jones Thursday dismissed from the force Ray Naef, who has been with the force since 1947. Jones said reasons for dismissal were incompetency and conduct unbecoming an officer.

ST. ANTHONY, Dec. 20 (AP)—The St. Anthony school district, unable to come to a decision on whether the district should be divided, has turned to the state board of education for help. The board of trustees is really faced with two problems: (1) whether to separate the St. Anthony and Ashton areas into two separate districts and (2) whether to consolidate with the Sugar-Salem school district. The board says it cannot agree on certain matters concerning the moves, and has asked the state board for advice.

BOISE, Dec. 20 (AP)—The Idaho public utilities commission Thursday restored previous operating rights to Dwain J. Anderson, Shelley, and Virgie Bowlin, Hazelton, giving them authority to carry general commodities throughout the state. Anderson's permit, formerly held by Charles F. Collins, was restricted in 1954 to a 75-mile radius of Idaho Falls and Bowlin's permit was restricted in 1951 to a 75-mile radius of Hazelton. But the Idaho supreme court has ruled that restrictions made at that time were improper.

POCATELLO, Dec. 20 (AP)—Taxes in large amounts poured into the Bannock county treasurer's office Thursday from utilities in the county. The utilities and all other real property taxpayers, have until 5 p.m. Friday to pay their first installment of the 1963 property tax. After that the taxpayer is subject to a two per cent penalty and eight per cent interest. Largest single taxpayer in the county is Union Pacific railroad. It paid $201,394 as half of its 1963 tax.

IDAHO FALLS, Dec. 20 (AP)—Idaho Falls has an underground mystery which is occupying several crews of the city engineering department's "detective bureau." The problem: The city doesn't know where the sewers are. For more than half a century the almost complete lack of information concerning the location of water and sewer lines has plagued the city and its residents. But the engineering department has begun a mapping job which should float the problem down the drain. When completed, the maps, records and other information will result in a big savings for the city, according to Don Ellsworth, city engineer.

IDAHO FALLS, Dec. 20 (AP)—The Union Pacific railroad depots here are due for a facelifting. Both the passenger and freight stations of the railroad are going to be dismantled, moved to the southern part of town and reconstructed as a combined station. Right now the depot is right in the middle of town, on the Yellowstone highway. But the highway is being widened now to six lanes, and as a result the depots will have to be moved. The project is scheduled to be completed next fall.

IDAHO FALLS, Dec. 20 (AP)—Bonnevilles County Attorney Jack G. Voshell Thursday asked the Idaho Falls police department to aid the county sheriff's office in investigating a series of beatings and assaults upon an Idaho Falls man. The victim of the assaults is Marvin Barney, who has been assaulted at least three times, according to Voshell. The prosecuting attorney says he suspects the same people are responsible for all of them. Voshell said the original assault took place in the county, but the next two in the city. That's why he called in the city police. Voshell said he believes a conspiracy was evident in the case.

BOISE, Dec. 20 (AP)—The state board of education was designated today as Idaho's agency to administer federal aid to institutions of higher education. Gov. Robert E. Smylie announced the designation and said it was in response to a request from Anthony Celebrezze, secretary of the department of health, education and welfare.

Prediction For Wheat Falls Short

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 (AP)—Official predictions of a big overproduction of wheat in 1964 as a result of grower rejection of controls in the referendum last spring were not borne out in an agriculture department report Thursday.

The report indicates the crop may be about equal to demands and thus add nothing to surpluses.

The report forecast the winter wheat crop to be harvested next spring and summer at 959,958,000 bushels. A crop of this size would be only 8 per cent larger than this year and 6 per cent below the 1958-62 average—a period when controls were in effect.

The report said winter wheat farmers had planted only 2.3 per cent more acres than for this year's crop.

U.S. Bases in Morocco Are Pillaged

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 (AP) — Moroccan forces pillaged U.S. air bases in Morocco before the air bases were turned over to the Moroccan government.

The bases were picked clean of everything from latrines to electric motors. At least one Arab was electrocuted accidentally.

"These actions are rendering the facilities now closed useless to anyone," said an air force report from Morocco.

The report, dated Dec. 2, became available to the Associated Press today, three days after the handover of a trio of bases once used by the strategic air command to be handed over to the Moroccan government.

The United States stopped flying bombers from those bases after this year and the air force gradually cut back the number of bases stationed there.

By the time the 386-million-dollar complex was evacuated by the forces this month, the rear end was down to 150 men and the equipment—the air force had to keep had been shipped.

In addition to the runways and airfields, the Moroccans fell on warehouses, administrative buildings, barracks and other facilities that went to make up the bases used by the United States for a decade.

The long list of items stolen included:

- wooden doors, doorlocks, windows and frames, window partitions, electric panels, copper wiring, brass, copper and bronze fittings, stainless steel fixtures, mirrors, wash basins.
- Metal siding was stripped from maintenance building.
- Poles carrying power lines were saved off at the ground.
- Electrical and communication cable was cut away in sections.

Idaho Farm Force Slumps Below Normal

BOISE, Dec. 20—An estimated 20,000 persons were employed on Idaho farms during the week of Dec. 17-23, 1963, reports the crop reporting service.

Employment at this level is up from the 1957-61 average but is 2,000 fewer than was employed during the comparable week of 1962. A decline of 2,800 workers from a month ago is to be compared to the 2,041 average seasonal decline in October to November of 1962.

Family workers, including farm operators, are estimated at 13,000 workers, 2,000 fewer than the comparable week of a year ago and 1,000 below the 1961 average.

The number of hired workers is 7,000, the same as during the comparable week of both 1961 and 1962 but eight per cent above the 1957-61 average.

Major activities during the survey week included late potato and sugar beet harvest, fall plowing, feed and care of livestock, and harvest of corn for grain in southwest Idaho.

The number of farm workers nationally during the week of Nov. 17-23 totaled 5.8 million—seven per cent less than a year earlier and the smallest of record for this period. The family work force, consisting of farm operators and other family workers, was down eight per cent to 4.3 million. Hired farm employment during the week totaled 1.3 million—five per cent below last year.

The decline in this month's working force is attributed mainly to an earlier than usual completion of fall harvest in most areas. Contributing factors were long periods of open weather, early crop maturity, and fast drying of crops to desirable storage levels. More machine power to use the good harvest conditions also has undoubtedly been a factor in 1963 harvest success.

Larger or more versatile tractors, combines, pickers, diggers, balers, and machines of every type made shorter work of harvesting the large or record production of crops in many leading production areas of the nation.

Family workers made up about 77 per cent of the total working force, the same as last year. The number of family workers, however, was down in all regions, with the Pacific states down 12 per cent, showing the greatest decrease.

The number of hired farm workers was up 31 per cent in the South Atlantic states and 13 per cent in the East South Central states. However, these increases were more than offset by declines in other regions, resulting in an overall five per cent decline in the number of hired workers.

In below average condition in the southern Plains and Texas, November weather has been favorable for further utilization of grazing feed.

Supplemental feeding has been at a minimum except in northern and mountain areas where hay feeding is a regular practice for this time of year.

Stockmen report about four-fifths of expected fall marketings of cattle and calves had been marketed by Dec. 1—only slightly below the proportion marketed by this date the past two years.

Production Given on 19 Area Cows

GOODING, Dec. 20—During November, 19 cows in the Gooding, Lincoln and Jerome Dairy Herd Improvement association, unit one, produced 79 or more pounds of butterfat, reports Sam Gardner, official tester for the unit. One of these produced over 100 pounds of butterfat and another five produced 80 or more pounds of butterfat.

The top cows included Pet, registered Holstein, owned by Clarence Wells, Gooding, who produced 2,530 pounds of milk and 121.4 pounds of butterfat. Marge, grade Holstein, owned by R. W. King and son, Wendell, produced 2,400 pounds of milk and 91.2 pounds of butterfat. No. 100, grade Holstein, owned by Bob Tupper, Hagerman, produced 2,280 pounds of milk and 81.2 pounds of butterfat. Star, grade Holstein, owned by Emmett Lambeth, Gooding, produced 1,810 pounds of milk and 88.9 pounds of butterfat. Stiles helper, grade Holstein, owned by C. F. Lehman, Wendell, produced 2,120 pounds of milk and 80.8 pounds of butterfat.

No. 6, grade Holstein, owned by Bob Tupper, Hagerman, produced 2,130 pounds of milk and 78.9 pounds of butterfat. No. 10, grade Holstein, owned by Bob Tupper, Hagerman, produced 2,500 pounds of milk and 77.7 pounds of butterfat.

Beth, registered Holstein, owned by Clarence Simpson, Glenns Ferry, produced 1,870 pounds of milk and 76.8 pounds of butterfat. Starlight, registered Holstein, owned by Clarence Simpson, Glenns Ferry, produced 1,800 pounds of milk and 76.6 pounds of butterfat.

No. 47, grade Holstein, owned by V. F. McMahon, Wendell, produced 1,890 pounds of milk and 73.7 pounds of butterfat. Blondie, grade Holstein owned by Wood brothers, Bliss, produced 2,040 pounds of milk and 73.4 pounds of butterfat. Rachel, registered Holstein, owned by Clarence Simpson, Glenns Ferry, produced 1,240 pounds of milk and 73.1 pounds of butterfat.

Karen, grade Holstein, owned by Little Valley Holstein farm, Bruneau, produced 1,820 pounds of milk and 72.8 pounds of butterfat. No. 19, owned by Ralph Groesens, Mountain Home, produced 1,910 pounds of milk and 72.8 pounds of butterfat.

Water Users Hear Bureau Agent Talk on Development

TUTTLE, Dec. 20—More than 120 persons attended the North Side Water Users meeting held Monday evening in Jerome, reports Vernon Ravenscroft, chairman.

The original meeting was postponed because of the assassination of President Kennedy.

David Crandall from the bureau of reclamation planning division was the main speaker and outlined the development of the Snake river basin. While those in attendance were concerned with the full development of the basin and proposed construction of additional facilities, the discussion soon shifted to legal subjects.

Main concern of those responding from the floor at the meeting was the proposed Los Angeles water deal. Considerable time was devoted to legal steps which could be taken to protect existing water rights and establishment of legal procedures to insure the continuing protection of water rights.

Questions also arose concerning the transfer of water from one district to another within the Snake river basin and the legal technicalities involved.

Also discussed at the meeting were proposals on future developments below Bliss on the Snake river. These included the Guffey project, irrigation of the Mountain Home flat and development of the resources of the Bruneau river.

According to Ravenscroft, the development of the resources of the Bruneau river is one of the key features in securing Snake river water for the maximum benefit of southern Idaho residents.

Downstream developments below Milner could hinge on the successful completion of projects on the Bruneau, thereby committing and utilizing water below Milner, claims Ravenscroft.

In his summary, Crandall said full development of the Snake river basin could use some 10 million acre feet of Snake river basin water. Readings taken at Welser indicate the Snake river carries out of southern Idaho some 11 million acre feet of water.

The full development and the water available is about equal. There is no extra water in the basin, said Crandall.

Ravenscroft said the meeting was successful and answered a lot of questions concerning the development of the river and some of the legal aspects involved.

"The southern Idaho farmer is concerned about his water future and is taking steps to insure his future. He is awake, aware and ready to take action," said the chairman.

Idaho Range Feed Makes Minor Gain

BOISE, Dec. 20—Range feed use on Dec. 1 showed a one point improvement over last month according to the crop reporting service. The current condition is four points above the five-year average for this date.

The above average condition reflects abundant fall forage growth and later than normal freezing temperatures on the lower elevation ranges. Some 100,000 acres of Idaho received snow cover during the latter part of November while other ranges throughout the State remained open.

Feed supplies are generally considered adequate as supplemental feeding to date has been light. The condition of both cattle and sheep remained unchanged from a month ago and two points above average. Marketings of cattle and calves remains low. Movement of sheep and lambs has been only moderately active.

Grazing conditions Dec. 1 in the western states range area were about the same as a month earlier. However, range feed supplies are below last year in northern and Plains States but higher in the Intermountain States and California. On the northern Plains favorable November weather permitted extensive grazing of ranges although feed in some sections was becoming dry and brittle due to lack of moisture. Supplemental feeding had begun in many northern areas.

Tests for Tuberculosis Are Held for Minidoka Herd

RUPERT, Dec. 20—County Agent LaMont Smith reports tests aimed at keeping the Minidoka county dairy industry on a certified tuberculosis free basis are presently underway in the area.

Smith reported that Dr. M. M. McCoy, Caldwell, a state department of agriculture official, is currently working in the area and making blood tests on dairy cows for tuberculosis.

Smith urged all local dairy farmers to cooperate with Dr. McCoy in making the checks. He explained that the periodic check is required by state regulations and the test must be made with or without the cooperation of the dairy farmers.

The tests are necessary if the county is to maintain its tuberculosis free state, according to the county agent. He noted that cows that are found to be infected have to be slaughtered.

The Minidoka county area was certified to be both tuberculosis and brucellosis free several years ago, Smith stated.

The county agent explained the blood tests being made at present are required to maintain the tuberculosis free status, while a new ring-type test made on milk is used to check on any local brucellosis infections.

Smith reported tuberculosis tests formerly had to be made in the same manner as the tuberculosis checks, but that the new ring type has simplified the method.

He explained that the ring tests for brucellosis are presently made in the milk processing plants in the county with blood tests taken on the herd if some trace of brucellosis should show up in the ring test.

"The county agent urged all dairymen in the area to cooperate when contacted by Dr. McCoy for the herd checks."

U. S. Agency Calls for Improvements

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 (AP)—The agricultural economics research advisory committee has called for improvement in preparing and presenting economic facts about U.S. agriculture to help the United States meet its international and domestic commitments.

The committee said national agricultural policy planning, individual farm planning, farm market analysis and decisions of business and financial institutions about agriculture depend upon economic information furnished by the department.

The committee recommended concentrated research on interpreting information from worldwide sources. This information, it said, affects the economic and technical assistance on the agricultural economic position of the United States and other nations.

Louis Bott's Herd Is High In Minidoka

RUPERT, Dec. 20 — Registered Holsteins owned by Louis Bott and sons of Rupert were the high producers in both herd and individual sections during November in the Minidoka County Dairy Herd Improvement association Unit 1, according to unit supervisor Fred Tolman.

Tolman reported the Bott herd of 35 milking Holsteins averaged 48 pounds of butterfat per cow during the month and also claimed the two top individual producers in the unit.

Bott's Ida produced 127 pounds of butterfat from 2,450 pounds of milk at a 5.2 test, while Lois had 100 pounds of butterfat from 2,380 pounds of milk at a 4.2 test.

The supervisor also reported a total of 317 cows from 13 herds in the unit produced totals of 289,980 pounds of milk and 11,884 pounds of butterfat for averages of 757 pounds of milk and 31.2 pounds of butterfat per cow.

Farm Exports Could Equal or Exceed Record, Hinging on Red Wheat Deal

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 (UPI)—Agriculture department economists predict farm exports in fiscal 1964 will approach a record value of about six billion dollars.

The previous record of 5.1 billion dollars was set in fiscal 1963 and almost equaled in fiscal 1962.

A team of department economists said developments domestically and abroad point to a new export record for U.S. farm products in fiscal 1964. The team added that "given the best efforts of both government and the trade, and assuming the successful negotiations of the 38% of a large quantity of wheat to meet the needs of the Soviet bloc, a total value of exports of around six billion dollars seems likely."

It is expected that all major export commodities would share in the increase, with the largest gain, for wheat, cotton, soybeans and vegetable oils.

A large part of the almost one billion dollar increase in farm exports would be due to the biggest wheat exports in U.S. history. If anticipated sales to the Soviet bloc materialize, U.S. wheat exports—likely—will total around one billion bushels. But if the anticipated Soviet sales falter, wheat exports still may total around 800 million bushels. This would be far ahead of the 718 million bushels sold abroad in fiscal 1962 or the 636 million bushels sent overseas in fiscal 1963. With a smaller crop this year, Western Europe is expected to buy more U.S. wheat than normally.

The economists team said commercial sales abroad for dollars in fiscal 1964 should reach 42 billion dollars, compared to 3.6 billion in fiscal 1963. This would account for nearly all the increase in total agricultural exports. Shipments under government aid programs probably would total 1.8 billion dollars, up 20 per cent from fiscal 1963.

The economists listed these factors as pointing to a record export year:

- Strong economic activity overseas, particularly in Western Europe.
- Gold and dollar holdings in most countries that buy U.S. farm commodities for dollars are at all-time highs.
- U.S. exports subsidy payments that make possible sales of U.S. farm products at competitive world prices.
- Poor grain crops in the Soviet bloc and low quality grain harvest in Western Europe.
- Continuing U.S. sales for foreign currencies to countries short of gold and dollars.
- Lower textile stocks in Western Europe and Japan leading to increased demand for raw cotton imports.
- Cotton exports in fiscal 1964 are expected to total about five million bales. This would be well above last year's relatively low level of 3.6 million bales. The reasons for the expected increase are an upturn in mill consumption in the major importing countries, a decline in foreign production resulting mainly from yields below last year's high averages, reduced inventories in both importing and other exporting countries, and the government's export sales program to enable cotton to be competitively in price with similar foreign cotton.

The economists said exports of oilseeds and products will continue to advance to new records in fiscal 1964. Exports of soybeans will increase only moderately from last year's record because of the supply for overseas sale.

Exports of dairy products are expected to increase in fiscal 1964 with most of the gain coming from larger donations. Tobacco exports are likely to be moderately higher. Feed grain exports are expected to be near last year's record.

Twin Falls County Agent Reports on Dairy Output

Canal Company Employees Hear Challenge by Chief

Some 100 to 150 employees of the Twin Falls Canal company heard Alfred Peters, manager, recall the history of the company and challenge employees to fill the vacancies which will be created by the retirement of key personnel.

"Our system is improving," said Peters. "Each year we make considerable progress in insuring the efficient delivery of water for farmers of the Twin Falls tract, with no increase in cost to the farmer. This speaks well of the company and the employees."

Peters made his remarks at the annual Christmas party the company sponsored for the employees. The party was held at the Twin Falls Grange hall, south of Twin Falls.

After the banquet, held in the basement of the Grange hall, the employees convened in the main meeting room, where Peters made his remarks.

Ed Reichert, chairman, board of directors, then honored three employees of the canal company. Alfred Peters, Harvey King and A. R. Miracle each was presented with a plaque representing 40 years of service with the canal company.

Payments Listed In Minidoka Area

RUPERT, Dec. 20 — Leo Van Every, local agriculture, stabilization and conservation committee office manager, reports payments totaling $352,261 were made to producers voluntarily reducing their acreage of wheat and feed grains in Minidoka county during 1963.

Producers on 251 farms earned $337,448 for diverting wheat production on 5,680 acres to conservation (non-crop) use. The normal production of the acreage diverted would have been 326,016 bushels of wheat at an average of 57.6 bushels per acre.

According to Van Every, the average return per acre diverting in feed grain acreage was 88 for corn and 437 for barley and involved 29 farms. He said payments for this diversion amounted to $14,813. The average earning per acre of feed grain diverted from production was $28.22.

T. F. Federal Land Bank Will Declare Dividend

Upwards of 600 farmers and stockmen in this area will share in a $19,899 dividend to be paid by the federal land bank association, Twin Falls.

The dividend, declared by the association to its stockholders of record on Nov. 20, represents the association's share of a six-percent dividend declared by the federal land bank, Spokane, W. R. Nutting, association manager, said.

The Spokane bank's dividend approximated one million dollars. Nutting explained that the capital stock of the federal land bank of Spokane is entirely owned by 61 federal land bank associations in Idaho, Montana, Oregon and Washington. The associations make and serve loans for the bank.

The capital stock of the association, in turn, is owned by the farmer and stockmen members who are the bank's borrowers. The 1963 dividend is the largest ever paid by the Spokane bank and brings to $6,000,000 the total in dividends paid since 1944, according to Nutting. The payment of dividends, he pointed out, has the effect of reducing the interest cost on loans.

Feed Grain Dips In Export Trade

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 (UPI)—The foreign agricultural services said U.S. feed grain exports during July-September totaled 3.1 million metric tons—down 11 per cent from the 3.6 million tons for the corresponding period a year earlier.

Of the four feed grains, corn was the only commodity showing an increase. Corn exports during the period were about 200,000 tons greater than in the same period last year. Oats exports were down 72 per cent, barley down 33 per cent, and sorghums down 22 per cent.

World Milk Total Slumps

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 (AP)—The foreign agricultural service estimates world milk production in 1963 will be down about two per cent from last year.

FAS based its prediction on estimates of 35 countries which normally produce about 63 per cent of the world's supply.

The output in the major producing countries is expected to total 606 billion pounds in 1963, compared with 619 billion pounds in 1962.

Production in the United States is expected to be about 126.3 billion pounds, down one per cent from the 128.9 billion pounds of 1962. Production in the Soviet Union is expected to be 105 billion pounds, down 10 per cent from the 116.4 billion pounds of 1962.

Gooding Hosts FFA Teams For Contests in 3 Events

GOODING, Dec. 20 — High school Future Farmers of America teams competed in three contests held here last week in dairying, meat judging and cooperation.

Gooding high school hosted teams from the North Magic Valley district, which includes Gooding, Hagerman, Valley, Wendell, Shoshone, Carey and Jerome.

The three-event contest is held to cut down travel expense and eliminate lost school time.

Charles Clark, Gooding vocational-agriculture instructor who hosted the contest, pointed out competition always is close at the three-way meet.

Clark noted that local participation by the merchants and other interested citizens has aided the contests considerably. For example, Clark noted that Richard Munson, Safeway's butcher, has sponsored the meat judging contest for several years.

"Munson takes pride in the contest and some people consider his contest harder than the state contest," said Clark. "In the state contest some 40 to 50 cuts of meat are judged. The North Magic meat contest featured 73 different cuts of meat, ranging from ordinary beef cuts to fancy cuts of lamb and pork," he added.

Winner of the meat contest was the Wendell team of Wayne Chandler, David Francis and Wally Jerke.

Carey high school walked off with top honors in the dairy contest. Working closely on the dairy contest are representatives of Ida-Gem Dairymen, Inc. The Carey team consisted of Phillip Adamson, Kenneth Meecham and William Smith.

Leon Fielstiek, Jerome high school, was the high winner in the districts' Co-op contest and will compete with other Idaho FFA students for additional honors in other contests.

Ore-Ida to Pay 1963 Dividend

ONTARIO, Ore., Dec. 20—The board of directors of Ore-Ida Foods, Inc., has announced a dividend of 10 cents per share, payable on Jan. 15, to stockholders of record as of Dec. 20.

Ore-Ida Foods, Inc., is basing the dividend on projected earnings of $500,000 after provision for income taxes for the year ended Nov. 3.

Service to Improve for Rural Areas

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 (AP)—The agriculture department said improved telephone service will be provided for many isolated farm families and other rural subscribers as a result of advancements in the use of electronic equipment with buried telephone cable.

The department said electronic equipment now is available for use with underground cable, free from threat of storm damage. The agency said the equipment was developed to meet standards set by the rural electrification administration.

The department said the equipment, known as subscriber cable carrier, permits several conversations to be carried simultaneously on each pair of wires.

Price Index Drops for Gem Farmers

BOISE, Dec. 20—The Nov. 15, 1963, index of prices received by Idaho farmers was 237 per cent of the 1910-14 average, according to the crop reporting service.

This was one per cent below the October, 1963, index of 239 and four per cent below the 247 per cent computed for November, 1962. The decrease from a month earlier reflects decline on both the all crops index and the livestock and livestock products index.

The all crops index at 208 was one point below last month's index and was 11 points, 5 per cent, below the index of a year ago. Higher average prices for wheat, oats, barley, potatoes, dry peas and red clover seed were more than offset by lower average prices received for apples, dry beans and alfalfa seed.

The average price of all hay was changed from a month earlier. The livestock and livestock products index for Nov. 15, 1963, at 272 was three points, one per cent, below the October, 1963, index, and 10 points, four per cent, below the index of 282 computed for Nov. 16, 1962.

Compared with a month earlier, lower average prices were received for all items in the index except lambs, milk and eggs, which were higher, and wool, which was unchanged.

The broiler-feed price ratio at 3.1 for Nov. 15, 1963, was below both the 3.2 of last month and the 3.5 of Nov. 15, 1962. The egg-feed ratio at 10.4 was above both the 9.8 of Oct. 16, 1963, and the 9.5 of a year ago. Price ratios reflect the number of pounds of poultry feed equal in value to one pound of chicken and to one dozen eggs.

Farm Worker Total Slumps in November

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 (AP)—The crop reporting board said a number of farm workers during the week of Nov. 17-23 totalled 5.8 million, down seven per cent from a year earlier and the lowest of record for the month. The family workers totaled 4.3 million, down eight per cent from a year earlier. Hired hands totalled 1.5 million, down five per cent from a year earlier.

The board said the decline in the working force in November was attributed mainly to an earlier-than-usual completion of fall harvest in most areas. Contributing factors were long periods of open weather, early crop maturity, and fast drying of crops to desirable storage levels.

Also, there was more machine power to use the good harvest conditions.

U.S. Peanuts End up as Table Fare

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 (AP)—An agriculture department study shows that peanut butter is the principal food crop made from peanuts. In 1961-62, of the total 4.5 pounds per person of shelled peanuts used for food, 2.5 pounds were used in making peanut butter.

The department said the other products made from peanuts, in order of quantity of peanuts used, are peanut oil (and meal), salted peanuts, candy, peanuts roasted in the shell, and miscellaneous uses (mostly peanut toppings).

Peanuts form a major cash crop in Southeastern and Southwestern United States. Last year the harvested crop was worth more than 200 million dollars to producers.

The department said almost 70 per cent of the peanut butter produced in the United States is manufactured outside the peanut growing areas.

Cost of CCC Increases Over 1962

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 (AP)—The agriculture department says the government's investment in price-supported commodities as of Oct. 31 totaled $7,411,857,908. This was 54 million dollars greater than the investment of Oct. 31, 1962.

The current investment was made up of $5,382,300,997 in commodities owned outright by the commodity credit corporation and $2,029,556,910 in outstanding loans on commodities still held by producers.

Wheat was the largest item in the investment—more than 1.2 billion bushels valued at about 2.4 billion dollars.

Corn, making up a volume of about 1.3 billion bushels, represented slightly more than 1.5 billion dollars of the total investment.

An "expense item," cotton, practically tied corn. The cotton in inventory and posted as collateral totaled about 8.4 million bales, valued at about 1.5 billion dollars.

Other big items in the investment included grain, sorghum, tobacco, and dairy products.

USDA Lists Best Buys From Farm

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 (AP)—An agriculture department study shows that these vegetables are the best buy from the farm: Brussels sprouts, broccoli, asparagus, green beans and carrots.

But it is cheaper, the department said, to buy peas, spinach, sweet corn and asparagus in a can and lima beans frozen.

The department said that while a larger quantity of food was distributed to schools and institutions during the first quarter of fiscal 1964, less food was needed for needy families. The department noted that feed recipients in the needy family category in September totaled 5.2 million, whereas participation totaled 6.1 million persons a year earlier.

Schools received 105.4 million pounds, 10 per cent more than in the first quarter of fiscal 1963. The department said this reflects not only increased enrollments, but also continued federal-state cooperative actions to provide lunches for children attending schools located in economically depressed areas. These foods are in addition to those purchased and distributed by the department specifically for schools in the national school lunch program.

The department said needy families received 253.2 million pounds of food in the three-month period, compared with 286.2 million pounds in the comparable period of a year earlier. Distribution to institutions in July, August and September totaled 44.8 million pounds, compared with 38.9 million pounds in the first quarter of fiscal 1963.

The department said the cost of donated commodities to all users for the July-September period totaled 79.9 million dollars, two per cent under the 79.2 million dollar cost in the same period of 1963.

World Harvests Record Crop of Corn, United States Produces Major Part

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 (AP)—The foreign agricultural service predicts the world corn crop in 1963 will exceed a record eight billion bushels. The previous record was 7.6 billion in 1960.

The current corn crop is expected to exceed last year's output by about 540 million bushels. Of this increase, FAS said, the United States supplied about 380 million bushels. France contributed the next largest single increase. France and the United States accounted for 85 per cent of the increase over last year. FAS said the forecast of a crop of more than eight billion bushels, combined with production of barley and oats, indicates that world total production of the three big feed grains will reach a new high of about 370 million tons. This compares with 357 million tons a year ago and the 1955-59 average of 326 million.

The agency said world import demand for feed grains may be slightly larger in 1963-64 than in 1962-63. It said Japan's requirements are expected to be larger, and reduced harvests in the Soviet Union and parts of eastern Europe may increase requirements there.

Of the huge outpouring of corn worldwide in 1963, the United States accounted for 36 per cent more than last year. U.S. production of 4,033,000,000 bushels of corn was 125 million bushels more than the U.S. record in 1959.

Mexico produced a record 199 million bushels in 1963. Western Europe's output was a new high mainly because of the increase in France. Corn production in Eastern Europe changed only slightly from the 1962 output.

The 1963 corn crop in the Soviet Union showed little change from 1962, despite an increase in acreage. FAS said yields in the Soviet Union were somewhat below average this year and that Corn production in Asia had a new record this year and is 10 per cent above the 1953-59 average, according to FAS.

African corn production is expected to be larger than in 1962. The crop in South America is expected to be smaller than a year ago because of an expected drop on Brazil's production. Drought has plagued Brazil.

Precipitation Aids Seeded Wheat, Hampers Harvest

BOISE, Dec. 20—Above normal precipitation during November over much of Idaho was beneficial to fall-seeded wheat but hampered late harvest of sugar beets and potatoes, according to the crop reporting service.

Some areas of north Idaho, however, remained dry until late November which retarded germination and emergence.

By Dec. 1, grain corn was about the only crop for which harvest had not been completed due to poor drying weather. Soil moisture supplies are generally good at present although some localities are a little short.

As of Dec. 1, winter grain stands were generally good throughout the state. However, November temperatures were too cool for best growth on late planted acreage. Due to insufficient moisture during late September and October, much of the north Idaho acreage was seeded later than usual.

Stands are good although more growth and ground cover would give better protection against erosion. Only high elevation areas received snow cover in November.

Some snow fell in the lower valleys but did not remain. November milk production at 115 million pounds was below both last month and last year but was above the 1957-61 average. November production of 112 million pounds of egg production for November at 20 million is the same as last year's production but is one million less than the 1957-61 average.

A warm November favored the completion of harvest of late crops in all areas of the nation and enabled farmers to make full use of crop residues for livestock feed.

Winter vegetable and potato production is expected to be smaller than last year. Mild November weather kept winter wheat growing in the Northern Plains areas with the rank top growth drawing heavily on surface moisture supplies, but providing protection from wind erosion during the winter period.

Livestock were able to make full use of crop residues in all areas of the nation. In the western states, growth of range grasses had been favorable and open conditions aided the full use of range feed.

The first forecast of 1964 winter potato production is 3,320,000 hundredweight. This is 14 per cent less than 1963 production and 22 per cent less than the 1958-62 average. The 18,500 acres for harvest is nine per cent less than a year ago and 27 per cent under the five-year average. California's indicated production is 2,180,000 hundredweight, 16 per cent less than the 1963 crop. Generally, condition of the

Citrus Crop Harvest Is Below Par

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 (AP)—The crop reporting board said the 1963-64 citrus crop is down about three per cent from last season's small crop, and is 20 per cent below average.

The board said early, mid-season, and navel orange crop currently being harvested is about three-fourths as large as last year, but production of valencias, which will be picked later, is expected to be up 18 per cent. The all-orange crop is down about five per cent from last season.

The board said the 1963-64 crop of grapefruit is about seven per cent below last year's, but that the lemon crop is up 27 per cent from a year earlier.

Treasury Wants More Arms Laws

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 (AP)—The treasury department urged Congress Wednesday to clamp controls on the imports of low-cost foreign firearms as well as tighten restrictions on mail-order gun buying in this country.

John W. Coggins, chief of a technical unit, testified for the committee hearing that state and local governments are entitled to more federal protection than they now receive.

He endorsed a bill of Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D. Conn., saying it would put local police on notice of firearms being obtained by individuals through the mails.

Thomas L. Kimball, executive director of the National Wildlife Federation, also said that group supports Dodd's bill "with some modification."

But strong opposition to new firearms legislation "under a hysterical climate" brought by the assassination of President John F. Kennedy was voiced by Rep. John D. Dingell, D. Mich.

He said Dodd's bill was better than others that have been introduced but it would be a step toward disarming law-abiding citizens and would not prevent crime nor prevent criminals from obtaining firearms.

Dodd's bill would require a person ordering a gun, rifle or other firearms by mail to submit a notarized affidavit giving his name, address and age, his criminal record, if any, and a statement that his possession of the weapon would not violate local law.

The dealer would be required to forward a copy of the affidavit, by registered letter, to the local law enforcement officer in the area. He could not ship the firearm until a return receipt was received.

Hansen said he hopes the committee will be in a position at its second meeting "to consider the direction and speed of the manpower training program in Idaho."

Pick Picasso

LONDON, Dec. 20 (AP)—The Institute of Contemporary Art said Wednesday it will hold a charity art raffle, with the winner taking home a Picasso painting for only $56.

As each of the 62 tickets to the raffle are pulled from a hat, the owner will try to identify the unmarked Picasso from among 61 other paintings on show. Each contestant will keep the painting he picks—and the lucky one will get the Picasso.

Urgency of Job Problem Recognized

BOISE, Dec. 20 (AP)—Chairman Orval Hansen said Thursday that the new Idaho manpower advisory committee recognizes the need for urgent action to deal with unemployment and will meet again within three or four months.

The committee ended its first session Thursday, after being told that demand for workers in professional and technical fields is growing in Idaho, while the need for farm workers is declining.

Hansen said training of people for jobs that are available is the primary goal of the committee. He asked the employment security agency and the department of vocational education to provide specific information on training needs and unemployment problems, along with proposed projects.

The nine-man committee, named by Gov. Robert E. Smylie, serves in an advisory capacity to the two agencies.

Hansen said he hopes the committee will be in a position at its second meeting "to consider the direction and speed of the manpower training program in Idaho."

Fire Reported

BALT LAKE CITY, Dec. 20 (AP)—A small fire broke out Thursday night in the new Prudential Federal savings building in downtown Salt Lake City.

A few flames were seen shooting out from the eaves of the eight-story building, but they were quickly extinguished by firemen. Four trucks answered the alarm about 9 p.m.

Damage to the still unfinished building appeared to be minor. The cause of the blaze could not be learned immediately.

Christ Child Fair Is Held At Nuernberg

NUERNBERG, Germany, Dec. 20 (AP) — Everyone knows Santa Claus' workshops are at the North pole. Anyone who has visited Nuernberg in December knows his showrooms are right here.

Nuernberg's "Christkindmarkt" is a dream come true for children from 3 to 103. The name means "Christ child's fair." Here in southern Germany, Santa Claus is credited only with the pre-Christmas gifts. The most cherished presents are saved for Christmas day, and the children believe they come not from Santa but from the Christ child.

The Christkindmarkt, held in the Nuernberg main square against a magnificent backdrop of gothic-carved buildings, runs from Dec. 4-24. The heart of this old Franconian town—renowned for toys and gingerbread and Hans Sachs, the singing cobbler—hero of Richard Wagner's "Die Meistersinger"—gleams with multi-colored lights.

A giant nativity creche dominates the square. Around it are display stands of Germany's finest toy-makers. Bright-eyed children lead parents through a maze of stuffed animals—like a dappled giant giraffe, a cuddly panda—model railroad trains, and thing-a-ma-jigs that squeal, jiggle and whirl.

In tow of ever-hungry youngsters, parents run a gauntlet of sweet marzipan, zesty Pfefferkuchen (pepper cookies) and mouth-watering Lebkuchen (ginger-nutmom cookies). These tickle the nose, titillate the taste buds and overcome the calorie-conscious.

Prilly-bloused, Bavarian farm housewives sell candy-girted blond-haired rauschgoldengel (crackly-foll-angels) and zwtchenmaennli (little prune figures).

The Christ child, played by a teen-age actress, opens the fair from the St. Mary's church-balcony. A children's choir of more than 100 voices peals out carols. Any afternoon the old post-trundler's cobbled streets. Any visitor can buy a ticket for the ride.

Dec. 12 is the "lichterzug" (parade of lights). About 1,000 school children, each carrying a bright home-made lantern, march from the fletsbruecke (butcher's bridges) through the main square to the old castle.

Dec. 15 is students' night. Hundreds of young men and women wearing the brightly-colored caps and scarfs of all south German universities take the traditional "thomasbuehme" (tom's tramp) through the streets, hoisting earthenware steins of Bavarian beer several times in their meanderings.

But the Christkindmarkt is no boisterous affair. Nuernberg city fathers like it good humored and romantic and keep it that way. First and foremost, Christkindmarkt is for the children who wander its toy-crammed streets in starry-eyed anticipation of what the Christ child will bring them Christmas morn.

Lutheran Church Slates Service

BUHL, Dec. 20—The children of St. John's Lutheran church will present a sacred Christmas eve service at 8 p.m. Tuesday entitled, "On Earth Peace," announces the Rev. Maynard Hilgendorf, pastor.

Some 70 children will participate in the service which will be presented in three parts. The first part, "The Promise of Peace," pertaining to Old Testament prophecy, will be presented by the old children. The second part, "The Prince of Peace," will be interspersed with song and recitation about The Christ to be presented by the younger children.

The third part, "The Prayers of Peace," will feature prayers by both younger and older children and the congregation.

The Rev. Mr. Hilgendorf also announces a special Christmas day worship service will be held at 11 a.m. Wednesday.

Aid Asked

SEOUL, Dec. 20 (AP)—South Korea's new national assembly by unanimous vote called on the U. S. congress Thursday to keep economic aid coming, at least at the current rate of 80 million dollars a year.

North-South All-Star College Game Set for Saturday in Orange Bowl

MIAMI, Fla., Dec. 20 (AP)—George Mira, Miami's passing wizard, and Jack Concannon, the run-or-pass threat from Boston college, will quarterback the South and the North teams in the college all-star football game Saturday in the Orange Bowl. The starting line-up selections indicated that the Rebels will rely heavily on Mira's aerial bombs, while the Yankees will go with a mixed attack featuring

Killebrew Is Winner of Homer Title

BOSTON, Dec. 20 (AP)—Minnesota's Harmon Killebrew won the American league slugging crown last season with a .555 average, ending the two-year reign of Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees.

The final official averages released today revealed that Killebrew, runner-up to Mantle in 1962, collected 286 total bases in 615 times at bat in 1963.

Bob Allison, another hard-hitting Minnesota outfielder, was second last season with a .533 mark followed by Elston Howard of the Yanks, the circuit's most valuable player, .628, Dick Stuart of Boston and Jimmie Hall, Minnesota rookie, tied for fourth at .521.

Mantle captured the slugging championship in 1961 with .887 and in 1962 with .805. Last season, he slugged .522, but appeared in only 65 games with 217 plate appearances because of injuries. To be eligible for the slugging title a player must compile a minimum of 502 plate appearances.

Detroit Beats Boston in Hockey

DETROIT, Dec. 20 (AP)—Rookie goalie Roger Crozier recorded his first National Hockey League shutout as the Detroit Red Wings scored a 3-0 victory over Boston in the only league game played Thursday night.

Crozier, playing in only his fifth NHL game, made 17 saves, only one of them in the final period, as the Red Wings fought to preserve the youngster's shutout. Another of Crozier's stops included a breakaway chance by Murray Oliver in the first period.

Pit Martin's 50-foot shot from near the Boston Blue line with less than five minutes remaining in the second period broke the scoreless deadlock in the fast skating contest.

Celtics Edge Knicks 143-140

PROVIDENCE, R.I., Dec. 20 (AP)—The Boston Celtics, playing without the services of perennial MVP Bill Russell, built up a big lead, then barely withstood a club record 49 points by the Knicks down the stretch to edge New York 143-140 Thursday night.

Russell was on the sidelines with a leg muscle injury suffered Wednesday night and Frank Ramsey also was unable to play.

Boston was in front 87-84 in the third period when the Knicks started their big push. New York outscored Boston in the final 49-30.

REMEMBER WHEN?

By BOB REESE

The man was a carpenter, and his name was Joseph. The expectant mother who traveled with him was called Mary. They came to a little town called Bethlehem, looking for shelter for the night. But the town was crowded, and there was no room for them.

Humbly with out complaint, they found refuge in a stable, where they were to spend the night. Strange things happened near that stable. Shepherds who were watching their flocks heard voices, as of a chorus of angels singing.

And in the sky overhead, one star shone with startling brilliance. From the East three men came, who said they had followed the star. They were strangely garbed, and they looked as if they had traveled a long way.

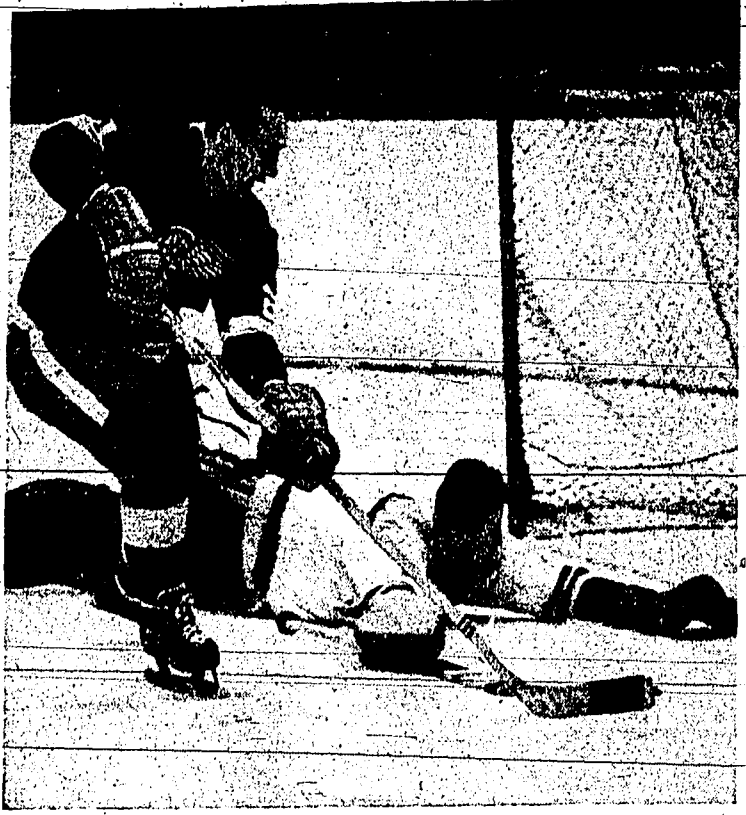

They came to the stable, where they found Joseph and Mary, and the new-born Child, whose name was Jesus.

It's not necessary to ask, as we usually do in these columns, if you remember the year. For, although it occurred nearly two thousand years ago, the whole world remembers that night during this Christmas season.

We would like to take this space to remember all of the friends with whom we have done business during this past year, and all of our other friends and associates. . . . And to wish you and yours a Merry Christmas and the happiest of New Years.

Idaho Bows To Western Washington

MOSCOW, Dec. 20 (AP)—Western Washington, struggling up from an 11-point halftime deficit, ran Idaho into the ground in the second half and beat the Vandals 71-68 Thursday night.

The taller and stronger-appearing Vandals held a firm hand through the first half and built a 40-29 intermission margin.

But the Vikings from Bellingham pulled even midway through the second half on the fine shooting of Keith Shugarts and Don Houston. Houston—smallest player on the floor at 5 feet, 1 inch—was the key man in the Vikings' offense—outjumping men eight inches taller.

In the final minutes, the Western Washington lead looked like it would stand and the Vandals went into a grab—committing foul after foul to give the visitors an additional pad.

WCAC May Drop Hoop Tourney

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 20 (AP)—Next week's fifth annual West Coast Athletic conference basketball tournament may well be the last.

Pete Peletta, athletic and basketball coach at the University of San Francisco, explained to Northern California basketball writers Thursday:

"Expansion of the league this season to eight schools means that each team plays 17 games within the league, 14 in regular season and three during the tournament. That leaves only nine possible games outside the league and that's not enough if a team wants to take a trip or play the other schools on the coast."

Other coaches present hinted that the decision to cancel the tourney may be announced next week when faculty advisers and officials meet before this year's event, starting Dec. 26.

Player of the week honors from the scribes went to Santa Clara guard Ruus Vrankovich, who dumped in 42 points against Tennessee State and Gonzaga in a Portland tournament.

Peletta, whose team left on an eastern road trip with a 3-0 record and mention in rankings, called it "a severe road trip." The Dons lost three straight.

"We played well at times but our defense sagged. Those three defeats could easily have been three victories, but we didn't play well."

The Dons' Ollie Johnson hit for 31 out of 40 floor shots—pretty good, but he should have had more chances to shoot, Peletta commented.

est scoring race in history, is 12th with 28.8. Kramer is with 23.6.

Delegates at U. N. Observe Yule Customs

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Dec. 20 (AP)—United Nations diplomats thousands of miles from home tend to celebrate Christmas in much the same manner as their American friends.

The usual practice of U. N. delegates who observe the holiday is to hold small parties in their mission headquarters, attend church, and then enjoy family dinners in the apartments or houses they rent while assigned to New York.

Some, like the Scandinavians, uphold old traditions which they observe in their native lands. The Russians ignore Christmas and concentrate on New Year's. The non-Christians from the Middle East, North Africa and parts of Asia, of course, do not recognize Christmas.

The Christmas-New Year's period traditionally is a "let-down" for U. N. diplomats. The three-month general assembly session ends a few days before Dec. 25 and then there is a mass exodus across the oceans by temporary delegates. Only the small permanent staffs of the 111 U. N. member states remain in the United States.

"Generally speaking, the delegates are tired out from the final weeks of the assembly session and prefer to spend a quiet holiday away from international problems," explains a member of the delegates' hospitality committee.

Diplomats from Ghana, Nigeria and the Congo, which have the biggest delegations among the sub-Saharan African nations, have no special events. They may go to church and then gather for small parties in their mission offices or homes.

The same is true for European countries like Portugal and Ireland, and for the Philippines, one of the few Christian nations in Asia. Latin Americans, who are predominantly Roman Catholic, generally depart after the assembly concludes to celebrate at home.

With some of the bigger powers, such as Britain and France, the holiday festivities are held by the consul-general in New York rather than the U. N. missions. The French consul-general invites members of the French community to enjoy a Christmas tree and presents for children.

The Scandinavians, for whom Christmas is the biggest holiday of the year, observe "Lucia" on Dec. 13 as they do at home.

The Swedish delegation, for example, joins with the Swedish Chamber of Commerce and Information service in New York for a "Queen of Light" ceremony to which their employes and families are invited. The ceremony begins at 8 a. m. with a procession led by the queen wearing a crown of burning candles.

On Christmas eve, the Scandinavians enjoy intimate family gatherings with presents and special dinners of ham and fish.

The communist delegations, which are the only ones with most members living together in individual Manhattan buildings, have their public holiday celebrations Jan. 1 in mission headquarters when they welcome the New Year.

Russ, U. S. Are Held Equal in Space Rocketry

LONDON, Dec. 20 (AP)—An authoritative reference book on aviation suggested Wednesday that the United States and Russia have attained a measure of equality in space rocketry.

The latest edition of "Jane's All the World's Aircraft" said Russia's space program in the past year has not gone with its customary smoothness.

The book suggested the Russians had failed to achieve orbital rendezvous with their "space twin" flight.

"By comparison," Jane's said "America's mercury man-in-space program far exceeded its original—more limited—design objectives with the final 22-orbit flight of Gordon Cooper, while the Mariner space probe sent back invaluable, if depressing, data concerning conditions on the planet Venus."

White fingers and nimble fore at the ribbon and paper. And then an ecstatic scream of joy.

"Never fear, Dell," Jim said. "Nothing could make me like my girl less. But if you'll unwrap that package you may see why I looked a little disturbed."

And then, alas! A quick feminine change to hysterical tears, necessitating the employment of all the comforting powers of the lord of the flat.
