House Hands Aid Bill Win To Johnson

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24 (AP)—The house finally handed foreign-aid victory to President Johnson today with passage, in an unprecedented early day-before-Christmas session, of a bill with the feature on which the staked White-House prestige. The vote of 189 to 58 was a galling defeat for Republicans who had once beaten back the section giving the President power to guarantee credit for private wheat sales to Russia. The measure's compromise 3 billion dollar allotment of money for the aid program was not a major issue, though it was less than the amount Johnson had said would be the safe minimum.

Lakonia Survivors Assert Ship's Crew Panicked

FUNCHAL, Madeira, Dec. 24 (AP)—Some survivors of the Lakonia cruise ship disaster charged on arrival in port here today that the Greek line crew panicked, discipline cracked and that passengers had to take charge of the lifeboats. There was praise, however, for the Argentine rescue ship Salta, which docked here with 475 survivors—307 passengers and 168 crew members. With 24 persons known dead among the 1,035 passengers and crew members, there were reports to the British admiralty and the Greek line in London that the list of 135 missing might be further reduced.

Gem Spud Production Is Near Record

BOISE, Dec. 24 (AP)—Idaho's potato production this fall totaled 52 million hundredweight, a near-record and up 20 per cent from a year ago. The department of agriculture, reporting the final figures today, credited the increase primarily to a record per-acre yield of 225 hundredweight. It credited above-normal temperatures, and a killing frost much later than normal, Oct. 24. Acreage was down 17,000, from 249,000 to 232,000.

Such memorial gifts give hope to the living, since they have been used in public education, community service and medical research which in the past few years have helped relieve fear for today's heart attack victims, said the memorial chairman.

Pope's First Christmas Speech Given

VATICAN CITY, Dec. 24 (AP)—Pope Paul VI addressed his first Christmas message to the world Monday night and dedicated his Holy Land pilgrimage to a search for peace and unity for all men, Christian and non-Christian alike. "It will thus be a journey of prayer, made with humility and with love," the Pope said. "In our heart will be present the whole world. No one will be forgotten."

With his words the Roman Catholic leader underlined the broad scope he envisioned for his historic trip to the Holy Land, Jan. 4-8, the first papal voyage from Rome to Palestine. His Christmas message, just six months and two days after his election to the papacy, also was an appeal to the leaders of the world to achieve peace through negotiation, peace without arms races and deceptive propaganda, peace with confidence in the United Nations. And he called for efforts to meet the problems of feeding the world's growing population, not through artificial birth control but through scientific and technical assistance to the developing nations. The pontiff, 66, occasionally glanced up from his text to emphasize a point with a strong, firm voice. One such point was an expression of apprehension: "Peace in the present time is based more on friendship. It is maintained more by terror of deadly weapons than by mutual harmony and faith among all peoples. And if tomorrow peace were to be broken—which God forbid—all humanity could be destroyed."

Weather, Temperatures

MAGIC VALLEY—Fair today and tonight. Cloudy Wednesday. East winds 10 to 15 miles an hour today and tonight. Highs today 31-37, Wednesday 36-42; lows tonight 15-22 except Camas prairie highs 27-27 today, 26-25 Wednesday; lows tonight 3 to -7. Temperatures at 8 a. m.: 20 at Jerome, 15 at T. F. weather bureau with 74 per cent humidity, 11 at T. F. entomology laboratory with 74 per cent humidity, 12 at Rupert, -9 at Fairfield, 14 at Buhl, 16 at Castleford; at noon, 24 at T. F. weather bureau with 65 per cent humidity, Barometer: 30.42.

SYNOPSIS AND AGRICULTURAL SUMMARY
Christmas eve morning dawned fair and cold over southern Idaho, with below zero temperature readings over eastern valleys and Camas prairie. However, in the usually mild, sunny South, snow and cold have set records. Memphis, Tenn., registered a record breaking -13 early this morning. Many southern residents will see their first white Christmas as deep snow cover was the forerunner to their severe cold snap. In this area, minimums last night included -10 at Fairfield, in Magic Valley, minimums were grouped in the 12 to 16 above range. Slowly rising temperatures will allow daytime readings to climb into the 30s over Magic Valley tomorrow. Nighttime readings will range from around zero to -8 in Camas prairie and the teens to low 20s over Magic Valley tonight.

The strong high pressure cell blanketing the Intermountain region is now centered over Utah as an approaching Pacific storm system is moving onto the Washington and British Columbia coast. This storm system will be held north and weakened, but will force this area's high cell to sag into northern New Mexico during the next 24 hours. This area should experience an increase in cloudiness tonight and tomorrow, but any snow flurries will be low and far between over valley sections. Christmas day will be less sunny than today, but temperatures will be slightly higher.

Driver Is Cited In Car Mishap

Harry M. Wilson, 74, 310 Sixth avenue north, was cited by Twin Falls police Monday for driving out of the lane of roadway after an accident in which a parked car was damaged. Police said Wilson's 1952 Chevrolet sedan struck and damaged the front left fender and bumper of a 1953 Chevrolet pickup truck owned by Harry Chaplin, Jerome, which was properly parked and unattended in front of 346 Taylor street, at 6:15 p. m. Neither Wilson nor his wife, who was a passenger in the Chevrolet, was injured.

Yule Baskets Delivered to T. F. Needy

Several Twin Falls organizations promoting the Yule season spirit were out Monday and Tuesday delivering 700 baskets to the needy of the Magic Valley area.

One hundred ninety-three names for Christmas food baskets were submitted to the different organizations by the YM-YWCA, which acted as a checking station for the names. This list was for the Twin Falls area alone.

Organizations helping by giving baskets were the American Legion auxiliary, First Christian church, Domestic Centries, Elks club, Twentieth Century club, St. Edward's Catholic church, First Baptist church, First Methodist church, Magic Valley Young Women's Monday Y-Wives, Business and Professional Women, First Southern Baptist church, and Twin Falls Business college.

Also participating in the Christmas basket program were the Sorophimela Valley Christian church, Job's Daughters, Baptist Youth fellowship of the First Baptist church, Veterans of World War I, Junior club, Disabled American Veterans, Salvation Army, Mrs. Claude Wiley, First Presbyterian church, Rebekah lodge and the Jay-C-ettes.

House Hands

(Continued From Page One) and senate representatives went through the formality of notifying Johnson that congress was preparing to adjourn unless he had further matters to bring before it. This was done by telephone, and the house spokesmen—the two party leaders, Rep. Carl Albert, D. Okla., and Rep. Charles A. Halleck, R. Ind.—reported the President had no further communications.

The vote was taken in the first Christmas Eve session in modern congressional history—a session that convened at 7 a. m.

The action cleared the way for a general exodus of members for a recess until the next session on Jan. 7.

The senate was expected to pass the foreign-aid money bill Friday. It was in session today, but with an agreement that no business be transacted.

The house will hold at least one perfunctory meeting later to complete action on a sine die adjournment resolution. Final adjournment tentatively has been set for next Monday, but no legislation remains to be acted on by the house this year.

The authority given the President to negotiate sales of wheat or other products to communist nations would, in effect, take the risk out of private loans. It would allow the President, if he determines it to be in the national interest, to use export-import bank finances to guarantee the loans. He would have to report any transactions to congress within a month after they are made.

Although the amount of foreign aid approved—3 billion dollars—was 100 million dollars less than the amount Johnson said would be a safe minimum, administration forces counted the outcome a victory because the President won the authority to permit the credit guarantee.

Lakonia

Arthur George, Norwich, England, said no lifeboat drill had been held during the liner's three days at sea and the flares in his boat didn't work.

The Salta also brought six bodies to Madeira. More than an hour later came a British rescue ship, the Stratheden, with three injured and one body.

The Brazilian freighter Rio Grande arrived with 77 survivors. Other rescue ships were steaming toward Morocco and the Canary Islands with rescued passengers and crew members.

In London, the Greek Line issued this statement: "We have received no reports at this stage at all about the fire on board the ship. We cannot comment on isolated incidents, and can only say that the lifeboats were definitely properly equipped and had all been checked during the refit period before the sailing."

At Santa Cruz de Tenerife, in the Canary Islands, the Belgian rescue vessel Charlesville docked with 35 survivors, including the Lakopia's Greek captain, Mateu Zarsbels, 50.

The others were 28 crewmen and six passengers. In a brief talk with newsmen, Zarsbels said the bodies of six passengers were dropped into the sea while en route to the Canaries. Before hearing of the passengers' complaints, John Goulardis, managing director of the Green Line, had told newsmen the ship was not too old for cruise service. He promised "the fullest inquiry" and said: "We have always honored our moral and legal obligations."

Meanwhile, three tugs were on the way to try to salvage the Lakonia. It is insured for 3 million dollars.

ATTRACTION LISTED SHIOSHONE, Dec. 24—Ice Caves service is included in the latest edition of "Adventures in Travel," a book listing outstanding tourist stops. Zane W. Davis, owner of the establishment, has been informed.

HANSEN, Dec. 24—The Christmas story was presented by the members of Sunday school at a program Sunday evening at the Hansen Community Methodist church.

Melvin Wiseman read the prophecy and scriptures. The smaller children represented angels and shepherds surrounding the Holy family. Deana Callen, Claude Davis, Charles Daw, Dennis Pettigrove and Mark Barnes participated.

Familiar Christmas hymns depicting the scenes were sung by the children and the congregation. Charles Engel played a trumpet solo, for the Nativity scene.

Connie Allen, Deana Callen, Lunelle Engel, Kay Steelsmith and Phyllis Vaux gave a rhythm choir number.

Mrs. Mervyn Shay directed the program. Mrs. Raymond Higgins, Mrs. Dean Bowles, Mrs. Charles Bally and Mrs. Floyd Shepherd assisted. Mrs. Tom Steelsmith was pianist.

A fellowship hour and refreshments were served after the program by the commission of education members.

Rupert Soldiers Finish Training

RUPERT, Dec. 24—Two soldiers from Rupert, Pvt. Norman K. Bailey and Orvin D. Jenks, have completed eight weeks of advanced armor training under the reserve forces act program at the army armor center, Ft. Knox.

Bailey, 18, a 1963 graduate of Minidoka County high school, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman R. Bailey, route 2.

Jenks, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orvin C. Jenks, 336 South 200 West, is a 1963 graduate of Minidoka high school.

Johnson Says Ike Offered Him Advice

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24 (AP)—President Johnson, in some personal revelations of life as chief executive, reports he got advice and suggestions in a long memo from former President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Leading another of his impromptu and expansive goodwill tours of the White House Monday night, Johnson told a four-member group of reporters that Eisenhower sat down for 2 1/2 hours the day after John F. Kennedy's assassination to help Johnson with his ideas.

He said Eisenhower wrote in longhand on sheets of long yellow legal pad paper and then dictated in the executive office building after having paid his respects with top officials who came to view Kennedy's coffin in the East Room of the White House.

"Some things I said to the joint session of congress he suggested," Johnson said.

In a Christmas party mood, after entertaining members of congress at the White House Monday night, Johnson called back the four reporters for pictures with him and his wife on a curving marble staircase, and then launched them on a 45-minute tour.

It went through the Flower room, the swimming pool where he said he tries to take twice-daily dips, and his oval office where he said the President is called on to sign some 700 documents a day.

Although he said he had only one hour's sleep the night before, mulling over problems of his office, and had missed lunch except for a glass of diet drink, Johnson declared, "I never felt better in my life."

He said he has trimmed down from 228 pounds to 205 and felt he was in "perfect condition."

Johnson, walking from the formal rooms of the White House, back to his office in the west wing, took the reporters along, pausing to show them sights along the way and carrying much chat about his new life and his philosophy of the office.

Many of his remarks he placed "off the record."

Johnson ended his impromptu and friendly discourse by sitting down at his office desk and autographing pictures of his family for the four reporters.

He said he wanted to give women reporters a break. And he added he thought the women, covering White House events, were as good as the men reporters and, sometimes better and he wanted their bosses to know it.

Last Rites Held For Mrs. Boyer

HAGERMAN, Dec. 24—Final rites were held for Mrs. Mary Esther Boyer at 10:30 a.m. Saturday at the Hagerman Methodist church, with the Rev. James Holt and the Rev. Austin J. Ruggler officiating.

Two songs were sung by Mrs. James Holt, accompanied by Mrs. John W. Jones, sr. Prelude and postlude music was played by Mrs. Warren Berry.

Active pallbearers were Harlan Boyer, Thomas Boyer, R. V. Boyer, Jr., Sylvan Boyer, Milton Boyer and Marion Lee Boyer. Honorary pallbearers were Den Durfee, O. S. Smith, Charles Cary, sr., Ted Bell, E. C. Moore and Robert Gardner.

Last rites were held at Hagerman cemetery.

Supper Precedes Yuletide Event

HAGERMAN, Dec. 24—Members of the Hagerman Baptist church held a potluck supper prior to their Christmas program Sunday evening at the church.

Recitations were given by Richard Scruggs, David Holt, Janet Holt, Kathy Scruggs, Marilyn Holt and Mrs. James Holt.

The Rev. James Holt read the scripture. A solo was sung by Pamela Holt.

Mrs. Rose Kratzberg, Wendell, spoke and William Scruggs gave a Christmas meditation.

The manger scene was portrayed by Sherry Holt, Karl Kratzberg, C. E. Vernon, Alvin Vernon, Richard Scruggs, Bill Scruggs, James Holt and David Holt.

C. E. Vernon distributed treats after the program.

Pair Arrested For Cruelty To Animals

LEBANON, O., Dec. 24 (AP)—A Montgomery county man and a Warren county woman were free on $1,000 bond each today on charges of cruelty to animals stemming from the discovery of 43 dead pigs and more than 150 animals near starvation at their abandoned 85-acre farm near here.

Eugene Tufts, 41, West Carrollton, O., was arrested Monday afternoon. Mrs. Martha Tufts, alias Martha Scheer, Waynesboro, O., was picked up later in the evening by Warren county sheriff's deputies. A preliminary hearing for both was set for Dec. 30 in Warren county court.

Officials of the Warren county sheriff's office and the Miami Valley Humane society rushed food and water to the animals, but expressed fears that another 25 might die from thirst and starvation.

President Kennedy's Will Is Filed in Boston Court

BOSTON, Dec. 24 (AP)—President John F. Kennedy's will was filed in Suffolk county probate court Monday, naming his widow and children as primary beneficiaries. There was no estimate of the size of the estate.

After an initial bequest of $25,000 and all personal effects to his widow, Jacqueline B. Kennedy, the will directs that the estate be divided into two equal shares, with one trust set up to benefit Mrs. Kennedy and a second to benefit the children.

The will was drawn June 18, 1954, before the birth of his daughter, Caroline, and his son, John F., jr. It names as executors and trustees his widow and his brothers, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy and Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D., Mass.

The provision setting up the trust for Mrs. Kennedy gives her control over her share of the estate.

The will provided that no bond be required and hence, no estimate of the estate was necessary.

The trust set up for the Kennedy children provides for them to take control at the age of 21.

CARDS SET RECORD
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., Dec. 24 (AP)—The U.N. Children's fund sold a record number of 13 million greeting cards in the United States for the 1963 season. The cards and 175,000 calendars brought a gross income of 22 million dollars, an increase of 22.2 per cent over last year. The figures were reported by the U. S. committee for UNICEF.

Tykes Swipe Tree And Are Wished Merry Christmas

MASON, Mich., Dec. 24 (AP)—L. Swaboda, a farmer, discovered someone had chopped down one of his finest pine trees and dragged it off the farm over the week-end.

Swaboda followed the tracks in the snow to a small house nearby. Two boys, 11 and 13, and a girl, 6, admitted they took the tree for Christmas.

"We have no daddy," they explained. "We just did what we always did in Kentucky—go out and cut one down."

Swaboda left the tree along with wishes for a Merry Christmas.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

BY ANDREW TULLY
WASHINGTON, Dec. 24—It is a pleasure to report, after a survey of some weary parents, that none of their kids will find under the Christmas tree a gift certificate entitling him to a free seance with a psychiatrist.
Instead, their parents this year seem to have bucked the modern theory of giving the kids only what is good for them. Mostly, the loot already bought is stuff kids could have fun with. This comes out a healthy trend, it seems to me. I agree that kids are dangerous and that if you don't watch them they'll turn out to be almost as no-good as adults, but of late years some of our more intellectual mammas and papas have been overdoing things at Christmas time.

PSYCHOLOGY - ORIENTED DECISIONS—They have been loading down their offspring with "toys" designed to improve their character and intelligence. They pass over electric trains with the sneer they'll intoxicate the kids with power. Show 'em a teddy bear and they'll kick it away with the snarl they don't want any of their tads storing up false affection for a plaything. Suggest a pair of boxing gloves and they're horrified—they don't want their kids to turn bloodthirsty.
So they go for books with practically incoherent sentences designed to test the child's IQ. They give them portfolios of Old Masters, with a big space under each picture for a critique by the poor kid on style and shading. They tuck under the tree make-it-yourself kits that would stump an engineering professor at MIT.

CHRISTMAS BACK TO THE KIDS—As a result a lot of kids with high-browed parents sneak out of the house as early as possible on Christmas morning and try to wheedle, or slug, a chance to hug some other kid's pet dog or ride his bicycle.
This year, the gifts look as if they were designed for kids. There are some real fancy electric trains and some mechanical jobs that give a boy a chance to try out his new screwdriver. There are plenty of bicycles, lots of teddy bears, some dump trucks, jigsaw puzzles that can be put together even by kids without Ph. D's, and some punching bags.

FUN GIFTS—The book situation also is improved. Boys of 7 are getting books with big print and colored pictures about medieval knights and pirates, not "Nietzsche Made Easy" or "Das Kapital for Beginners." Little girls are getting a flock of "OZ's" books and such, and not a collection of lectures on how to set a formal table for 27 people, including the ambassador from Outer Murgump. There are good tales of adventure like "Treasure Island" and "Kidnaped," and the original, non-movie "Peter Pan." And some old-fashioned bedtime stories about rabbits and beavers and amiable skunks.
In my circle, at least, it looks as if every kid is going to get at least one thing he'll like. Maybe the time is near when parents will give up and admit that Christmas day is for fun, not character-building.

RICKS COLLEGE SUMMIT—Ricks college looked back down the staircase of 75 years of distinguished service to Idaho this week.

The crest it fashioned on this monument in time and service, however, was not a memorializing of the past... as deserved as this undoubtedly is.

Quite decidedly, it was an orchestration of the future.

The dedication was really a re-dedication on an imaginative new plane. Dedicated were eight new buildings in the college's impressive new building in education facilities.

Ricks college this week passed through the threshold of a new educational dimension. The dimension is expressed in the tools for education—a magnificent new science building and a richly endowed new library—as well as in modern new accommodations for the students themselves.

The new Ricks college campus will accommodate 3,000 students—and many more as other phases of the expansion program unfold in the years ahead. And these students will now be exposed to modern new radiants of learning.

To those who could recall the early days of Ricks college when "the tuition sometimes consisted of food for the teachers and chopped wood for heat," the contrast to the imposing new edifices must have been as amazing as the nature-probing experiments which the Science building will serve.

We would like to extend our congratulations to the leaders of the LDS church, the Ricks college leadership itself, and to the many loyal supporters of the college down through the years. They deserve to be proud... as is Idaho, for this eminent new contribution to the education future in Idaho—Idaho Falls Post-Register.

TWILIGHT FOR GRAND CANYON

The Sierra club—ardent advocate of the North Cascades national park—is now enlisting support to defeat a project which it says would destroy the Grand Canyon.

There are plans to build a series of dams in the canyon to provide more water for the parched Southwest.

In articles entitled "The Last Days of Grand Canyon Too?" and "Twilight for Grand Canyon?" the current Sierra club Bulletin sees in these plans complete destruction of one of America's favorite scenic and geologic attractions.

The magazine calls on readers to write congressmen against it, and on newspapers to editorialize against it.

The Seattle Times, at least, has accepted the invitation. In an editorial Sunday it warned to "be wary of over-zealous dam builders" and says "the plan to despoil the Grand Canyon is an example of going too far."

This would appear to be the same kind of extremism in behalf of conservation that the Sierra clubbers claim obsesses those who would utilize wilderness.

Who says that turning the Colorado river channel into a placid lake is going to destroy the Grand Canyon? Would a reservoir tear down the wind-sculptured walls or throw up a curtain in front of the panorama that has produced awe in millions of Americans?

Before we jump to the conclusion that building reservoirs is going to ruin the Grand Canyon we should await word from the other side—those who have just as great a love for this archeological heritage but who are also charged with the responsibility of quenching the thirst of many parched people and acres in the Southwest.—Wenatchee World.

ANYWAY, YOU PAY

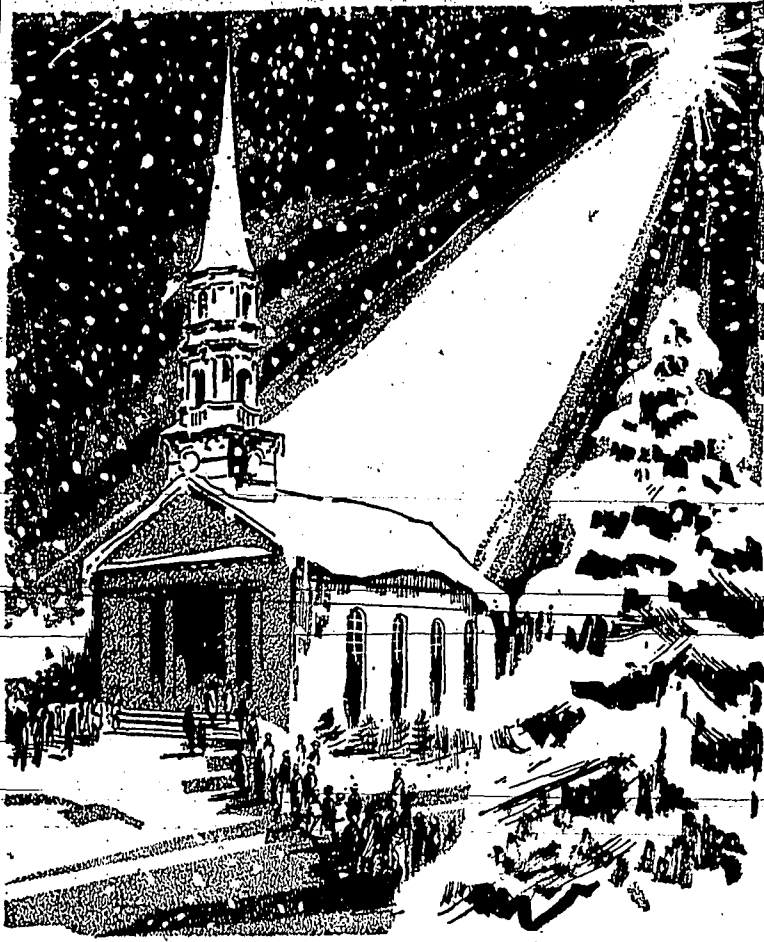

The automating internal revenue service is not yet ready to convert the taxpayer into a number, but it is about to relieve him, in addition to his cash, of the effort of writing his name. The new form 1040 so going to arrive with name, address and identification number already imprinted.

This isn't much, but it should end the annual taxpayers' hunt for social security or other identification number. Here, in fact, lies a principal reason for the change, because many a citizen puts down the wrong number. This is bound to blow fuses in the IRS' new electronic checkers.—Newark Evening News.

The United States seventh fleet, which has proved an effective barrier against Red Chinese attack on Formosa, is extending its protective arm to India.

Official statements have been guarded but from the first moment that it was learned limited units of the powerful seventh would visit Indian ocean waters it was apparent that the threat of U.S. naval action was in the event of massive attack upon India.
Indian Prime Minister Jawahar Nehru who has just concluded talks on Indian defenses with Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, denied that U.S. fleet movements in the Indian ocean "power vacuum" had any prominent part in their talks.
Reports of such fleet movements have aroused controversy in India and the curiosity of Pakistan, which as a U.S. ally in SEATO, demands the right to know of changes in U.S. strategy.
Nehru said that so far as he knew only "one or two ships" would visit the Indian ocean, "just to know the waters."
A look at the map suggests that the waters of chief interest to the U.S. forces would be the Bay of Bengal and the defense of India's Assam state which is regarded as an area of greatest threat in the Northeast.
Significantly, other reports have suggested that the "one or two ships" mentioned by Nehru would include an aircraft carrier nesting 100 military aircraft.

Despite the fact that winter now has just about ruled out any new imminent attack across India's border, Taylor's visit was both an indication of continuing U.S. interest in the buildup of Indian defenses and Nehru's own involuntary departure from his stand of non-alignment.
"How can you object to anyone going wherever they like on high seas?" was his somewhat lame rejoinder to a question whether India objected to the fleet visits.
It was not the Nehru of old. Taylor's visit which also is being extended to Pakistan, is a natural follow-up to last month's air exercises over India in which 18 U.S. F-100 fighter bombers participated along with aircraft of the Indian and British air forces.
The exercises provided the U.S. air force with valuable information of what the requirements would be in the event of a Chinese attack and a subsequent Indian call for help.
They also illustrated gaps which continue to exist in Indian defenses.
In exercises over the Calcutta industrial region a majority of "enemy" bombers broke through Indian and British defenses.
The exercises also demonstrated the necessity for integrating U.S. and Indian radio techniques, the Indians soon will be working with sophisticated radar equipment to be given them by the United States for their border defenses.
A case in point: Indian pilots normally cry "tallyho" when their radar "locks on" to an enemy aircraft.
The Americans report with the more prosaic codeword "Judy."

Interpreting the News

BY JAMES MARLOW (Associated Press News Analyst)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24 (AP)—President Johnson says he will decide when and how to hold news conferences according to "what comes naturally." What comes naturally to him so far is something between the news conferences of Presidents Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry S. Truman and those of Presidents Dwight D. Eisenhower and John F. Kennedy.
Roosevelt and Truman met with newsmen—far oftener than Eisenhower and Kennedy—in their offices but what they said could seldom be quoted directly. Eisenhower and Kennedy held their conferences in full view of cameras—in Kennedy's case, before live television cameras—and what they said was the public record.
Johnson, like Roosevelt and Truman, has met twice with newsmen in his office, without benefit of television or radio, but, like Eisenhower and Kennedy, what he has said so far has been attributed directly to him.
When the mood seizes him, Johnson may meet the press before live television cameras. He has foreclosed nothing, promised nothing specific.
Asked what kind of conferences he planned to hold, he said: "Maybe it will be a meeting of this kind today; maybe a televised meeting tomorrow; with maybe a coffee session the next day."
His first news conference Dec. 8 was a coffee session. If he keeps up his present pace, two conferences in 10 days, he will outdistance Eisenhower and Kennedy and be more in the Roosevelt-Truman tradition.

BARRY GOLDWATER

The house of representatives, in its action on the administration's foreign aid appropriation, accurately reflected the American people's deep-rooted disgust with the way the government has been squandering public money overseas.
No matter what the senate may do to restore the cuts made in the executive requests, the performance of the house of representatives Barry Goldwater on Dec. 18 will stand as a genuine monument to truly representative government.
Sometimes we don't give enough thought to the fact that members of the house are much closer to the people than almost any other elected officials. The reason for this is that every house member must seek reelection every two years. This requirement keeps the members acutely sensitive to the thinking and the desires of the people back home. Consequently, house action on a question of national importance always mirrors the desires of a majority of the members' constituents.
The house action constituted the biggest foreign aid cut to be voted in congress for more than 10 years. And it came in the face of a warning from President Johnson that the cut would weaken America's free world leadership and put U.S. foreign policy in a straitjacket. It carried, by a vote of 349 to 135.
So strong was the sentiment for heavy economy in foreign aid spending that Democratic leaders in the house gave up hope of increasing the amount even before debate began. What finally emerged after the series of house votes was a bill appropriating 2.8 billion dollars for economic and military assistance in 100 nations.
The amount covers expenditure for the fiscal year which began last July 1 and was 1.7 billion dollars less than what the late President Kennedy claimed was urgently needed to bolster the free world against international communism. It also was far less than the amount authorized for foreign aid appropriation in earlier congressional action.

Not only did the house rebel against administration foreign aid demands, but it also went against the government's expressed desire for underwriting part of the proposed American wheat sale to Russia.
The house tacked a rider on the foreign aid bill which would prohibit loan guarantees by the export-import bank in the current wheat sale to Russia. The vote on this important amendment carried by a vote of 218 to 169, despite administration warnings that this could wreck the entire wheat sale to the communist bloc.
Perhaps the most significant fact pertaining to the house action was apparent widespread belief among the congressmen that foreign aid is not the vital adjunct to American foreign policy that the administration insists. To hear some state department officials explain it, foreign aid is almost the only important factor involved in this nation's foreign policy. The argument is used by White House spokesmen every time congress has the temerity to reduce amounts demanded by the executive branch.
I suggest that it is a weak foreign policy instrument that is used at one and the same time to strengthen nations against the inroads of international communism and to strengthen nations already dominated by communism.
How, for example, can we find foreign policy value in spending billions of dollars to aid Yugoslavia and Poland? We know beyond any question of doubt that in a showdown between East and West these nations would throw in their lot with the communist bloc. Merely because Tito doesn't subscribe to everything the Kremlin puts out is no reason for us to believe that he is something less than a dedicated communist.
If we follow this line of reasoning far enough, we might someday find ourselves hearing foreign aid on Red China simply because Mao Tse-tung disagrees with Nikita Khrushchev.
How do you stand, sir?

The Doctor Says

BY WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

For centuries man has been trying, not hard enough perhaps, to keep alive year round the Christmas spirit of peace on earth, good-will toward men.

This is a wonderful idea, deserving of the support of all men, apparently does not always suffice to overcome such human failings as greed and selfishness.
However, purely from the standpoint of self-interest, the Christmas spirit is to be recommended. It promotes a peace of mind that has a direct bearing on health and is far superior to the popular but much-abused tranquilizing drugs.
Nervous disorders growing from the quickening pace of modern living can often be cured by the Christmas spirit—characterized by a refusal to let minor crises and the constant demand to hurry build up frustrations.
This admittedly requires much patience. Some persons spend the greater part of their lives achieving it. Some never do.

vantage that it can be taken in large amounts without harmful side effects. It may also be used when available, as a first aid measure for various accidental poisonings.
Q—My husband is 80 years of age and is bothered with a burning sensation when he urinates. What causes this? Can it be cured?
A—Burning urination may be due to a highly acid urine or to inflammation at the outlet of the bladder. If it is caused by acid urine it can be relieved by drinking large quantities of water and by taking bicarbonate of soda. If it is associated with cystitis, your doctor will want to give your husband a urinary antiseptic.
Q—My doctor says I have dyskinesia. What is it and can it be remedied?
A—Dyskinesia by itself means an impairment of movement. It may be applied to movement of the limbs or of one of the internal organs. The term is most frequently applied to disorders in the gall bladder or associated bile ducts. For this condition antispasmodic drugs are given and are usually helpful.
Q—What is the purpose of putting monosodium glutamate in frozen foods? Will this additive cause cancer?
A—Monosodium glutamate is added to foods to enhance their flavor. No additive of any kind is allowed by the federal food and drug administration if there is the slightest evidence that it may be harmful.

DEFENSE PLAY COMES EARLY

How would you go about making four hearts if you were South?
You would ruff the second spade, assuming spades were opened and continued, and you would look around for some way to avoid the loss of two heart tricks.
Then you would lead a low trump toward dummy and cover West's five with the nine. This would concede a trick to the ace of diamonds.

Was there a defense to beat you? There was! East could lead the seven of diamonds at trick two and West could duck. Later East would get in with one of his heart honors and lead another diamond. West would take his ace and East would overruff dummy for the setting trick.
What defense after East played the second spade? There wasn't any, but West could have given quite a problem. Suppose that he played his ten of trumps, that he played his jack would not the five. Your jack would be still force East to use one of his honors and you could make his hand by finessing, but you might decide that West had played the ten from queen-ten or king-ten. In that case his winning play would be to lay down the ace of trumps. You might not fall for the false card, but at least you would have had a moment of decision.

Atom Blast For Rail Route Eyed

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24 (AP) — A proposal to use 23 nuclear explosions to blast a two-mile railway and highway pass through the Bristol mountains of California has been submitted to the atomic energy commission.

The AEC, announcing this Monday, said the explosions would have a yield equivalent to 1,800,000 tons of TNT, almost the punch of two megaton H-bombs.

But the commission said the group advancing the idea has recommended further evaluation of the feasibility, safety and costs.

The AEC said framers of the plan claim their preliminary studies indicate (1) the idea is technically feasible and (2) it could be conducted without endangering public health and safety.

The AEC said it would study the proposal.

The project is called "Carryall." The site is about eleven miles north of Amboy, Calif., in the Mojave desert.

It would involve blasting out about 68 million cubic yards of earth, creating a cut about two miles long, between 100 and 350 feet deep, and about 325 feet in average width at the bottom.

It would be designed to permit construction of a double-track railway and a four-lane highway capable of being expanded later to eight lanes.

A "technical feasibility study" report was submitted to the AEC, the state of California division of highways and the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railway company, the AEC said.

It was prepared jointly by staff personnel of the railway, the state highway division and the AEC's San Francisco operations office.

"The study resulted," said the AEC, "from plans of the Santa Fe to re-align its route between Goffs and Ash Hill to eliminate 15 miles of trackage and reduce grade and curve problems to speed up transcontinental service."

The idea advanced by the study group would call for a series of about 22 nuclear detonations, with the total equivalent of 1,730,000 tons of TNT. Half would be set off at a time.

An additional 100,000-ton blast would be considered to provide drainage for the area.

The preliminary conclusions of the study group were:

1. Fallout—"It appears at this time that owing to the remote location of the site, protection of the public from harmful radiation can be assured." There would be "essentially no contribution to world-wide fallout."

2. Air Shock—"It is possible that, on the basis of currently available data, a few windows might be broken at Amboy, Calif., the nearest community."

3. Ground Shock—"Some 'minor damage' might result in Amboy from such shock."

Man Sentenced For Auto Deaths

SAN JOSE, Calif., Dec. 24 (AP) — Edward E. Sylvia, Fremont truck driver convicted of vehicle manslaughter in the deaths of his wife, employer and four other persons, was sentenced Monday to two years in jail.

Sylvia, 26, had been convicted of crashing his car into another auto carrying his wife, Audrey, and employer, Donald Gordon. Sylvia had pursued them after a party at which he thought Gordon was paying too much attention to his wife.

The June 8 crash on Nimitz freeway also killed four persons in other cars.

WALKING AND BLOOD PRESSURE

Q. I have high blood pressure. I walk to and from work. I walking bad for the blood pressure?

A. Walking brings into play many adjustment mechanisms, especially with regard to the blood vessels. The effect of walking at a moderate pace on existing high blood pressure would probably be slight. However, strenuous exercise might override the adjustment mechanisms and cause harm. It is well to keep in mind that mild exercise is generally a stimulant to circulation and basic body functions.

PUBERTY PROBLEM

Q. What can be done for a 14-year-old boy whose breasts have begun to enlarge? He is very self-conscious about this.

A. Breast enlargement at puberty is said to occur in about 80 per cent of boys. In most cases the enlargement is scarcely noticeable. A medical examination is called for when the enlargement is pronounced. Treatment may or may not be in order. The real "miracle" of today's medicine is that so much cure costs so little.

Commission Gets Letters By Oswald

NEW YORK, Dec. 24 (AP) — The communist party said Monday its correspondence with Lee Oswald, accused assassin of President Kennedy, had been forwarded to the investigation commission set up by President Johnson.

The letters from Oswald, the party said, were "asking for literature and information just as thousands of others do."

Arnold Johnson, public relations director of the party, said he also sent to the commission the routine replies he sent to Oswald.

Johnson said he voluntarily sent the commission copies of the correspondence "so that the American people can know the full truth" about "this monstrous crime."

Elmore Man Is Cited in Crash

BLISS, Dec. 24 — Darryl R. Bybee, Glenns Ferry, was cited for failure to be reasonable and prudent in his driving after a one-car accident about four miles south of Bliss on highway 30 at 2:30 a.m. Sunday.

Bybee, driving a 1949 Dodge car south on the Bliss grade, went to sleep at the wheel and his car hit the guard rail, tearing out about 60 feet of the rail, according to State Patrolman Walter J. Kirtley, who investigated.

The car was demolished, but the four occupants were uninjured.

Indian Net Fishing Law Protected

OLYMPIA, Wash., Dec. 24 (AP)—Indians picketed the governor's office Monday protesting efforts by the state to restrict their net fishing, a right they contend is guaranteed under a century-old treaty.

The pickets, including a number of children, carried signs reading "No Salmon, No Santa," "The White Man Speaks With Forked Tongue," and "We Met the Mayflower, Remember."

The protest was against a state supreme court decision last week that held the state could curtail Indian net fishing in Washington rivers to conserve fisheries resources.

About 30 Indians representing several western Washington tribes conducted the demonstration. They said they would follow the state ruling all the way to the U. S. supreme court.

A spokesman, Mrs. Janet McClellan, told Gov. Albert D. Rosellini, "The American Indian is being treated as a despised race."

The governor said he was sympathetic but couldn't change the decision.

Man Indicted In Vegetable Oil Scandal

NEWARK, N.J., Dec. 24 (AP)—A federal grand jury indicted Anthony De Angelis Monday on charges of circulating more than $9 million dollars in forged warehouse receipts in his attempt to corner the vegetable oil market.

De Angelis is president of the bankrupt Allied Crude Vegetable Oil Refining corporation, whose collapse last month shook the New York and Chicago commodity markets and created an international scandal involving 100 million dollars in edible oils.

The 18-count indictment charges De Angelis with interstate transportation of forged warehouse receipts between Bayonne, Allied's headquarters, and New York City.

Involved are 395,099,840 pounds of crude and crude degummed soybean oil allegedly held by Allied in the tanks of American Express Warehousing, Ltd. The oil was valued at $39,364,104.94.

Investigations into the case so far have indicated that some of the oil may never have existed.

The government says De Angelis used the receipts to obtain credit from banks, insurance companies and export-import firms on three continents.

HOMEDALE, Dec. 24 (AP)—A 6-year-old farm boy playing on an ice-covered pond with his two young brothers fell through and drowned Monday afternoon. Authorities said Bodney Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Cox, apparently walked onto a weak spot in the ice, over an air pocket. The pond was on his father's farm, near Homedale, but across the state line in Malheur county, Ore.

KELLOGG, Dec. 24 (AP)—There is still no sign of a break in the strike at the Sunshine mine which has idled 400 workers since Nov. 4. Members of the United Steelworkers of America walked off the job after rejecting a proposed pay increase linked with discontinuance of free bus service to the mine near Kellogg. No negotiations have been held for weeks and no further meetings are scheduled between the firm and the steelworkers. Despite the long strike, the price of Sunshine stock has remained relatively strong. Sunshine was up 50 cents a share on the Spokane exchange Monday, closing at $19.50 bid.

WALLACE, Dec. 24 (AP)—Workers at the Page and Galena mines returned to their jobs Monday despite lack of a working agreement with American Smelting and Refining company. The firm, which operates the mines, announced last week it would not agree to further day-to-day extensions of the old agreement. The workers, all members of the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter workers, met Saturday and voted approval of their negotiating committee's rejection of the last offer made by the firm. They also backed the committee's efforts to negotiate for a more favorable agreement. Negotiations broke down last Wednesday when the union group turned down the company's offer and the firm rejected a counter proposal by the union. The old contract expired Dec. 14 but was extended daily until last Friday.

BOISE, Dec. 24 (AP)—Health Administrator Dr. T. O. Carver said Friday he sees little significance for Idaho in a federal public health service declaration designating part of the state an air pollution potential area. The affected area is bounded by a line drawn from Boise through Ukiah, San Francisco, Salinas and Bakersfield in California, Reno, Delta and Salt Lake City, Idaho Falls and back to Boise. The order said the area is designated to forewarn persons and communities to be affected so steps can be taken in advance to curb open burning, restrict use of motor vehicles and perhaps check some industrial operations. Dr. Carver said this probably applies to areas with heavy urban population concentrations and industrial complexes and that he can see no danger of unusual air pollution in Idaho. He said the alert was probably prompted by a low pressure inversion that has resulted in heavy fog concentrations over much of southern Idaho the past week.

ST. MARIES, Dec. 24 (AP)—Physicians attending Emmet Dawson, 32, Sandpoint, say a bullet which wounded him near here Saturday damaged his spinal cord and left him paralyzed from the waist down. Dawson was hit by a bullet while sleeping in the back of a camper trailer driven by a friend during an elk hunt. Sheriff's officers said Carl Swalley, 38, of St. Maries, is free on $1,000 bond charged with assault with a deadly weapon. Swalley, said officers he tried to flag the truck down when it turned into his farmyard, then fired warning shots. Two men in the cab of the camper said they did not see Swalley.

BOISE, Dec. 24 (AP)—The chairman of the Idaho Draft Goldwater committee said Monday the Arizona senator is still the man to beat for the 1964 Republican presidential nomination. James McClary, Boise, said while the assassination of President Kennedy and succession of Lyndon B. Johnson have brought some uncertainty to the political picture, he believes voter sentiment behind Goldwater is unchanged. "I don't believe the situation has leveled down so you can say where you are," said McClary. "Much of it depends on the question of what Mr. Johnson does as president."

Yule Chicken Is Battery Powered

AYLESBURY, England, Dec. 24 (AP)—A prisoner in Aylesbury jail received a chicken for his Christmas dinner Monday but it looked a bit too plump.

The guard probed. Inside was a battery.

The prisoner said he needed it for his transistor radio. The break of rules wasn't all that serious, the jailers decided.

They gave him the chicken, seized the radio.

Frozen Flag

CONCORD, N. C., Dec. 24 (AP)—The flag in front of the Cabarrus county courthouse still was at half-staff Monday although the official mourning period for the late President John F. Kennedy ended Sunday.

A harried county official explained that the flag was frozen to the pole and it could not be raised or lowered.

Scranton Reveals Some of His Views on Foreign Policy

HARRISBURG, Dec. 24 (AP)—Gov. William W. Scranton says he favors stepped up military aid to South Viet Nam and military intervention where necessary to check communism in Cuba.

Scranton expressed his views on foreign policy in a news conference last Thursday. But he asked newsmen not to release his statements until the end of the 30-day moratorium placed on political discussion following the death of President John F. Kennedy. The moratorium ended Sunday.

Mrs. Smithwick Honored at Rites

BUHL, Dec. 24—Funeral services for Mrs. Etta M. Smithwick were conducted at 11 a. m. Monday at the Castleford Methodist church by the Rev. Bert Powell, retired Methodist minister of Gooding.

Gale Conner sang two selections accompanied by Mrs. Bill Kinyon, organist. Fred Ringert had charge of memorials. Walter Senten and a Roland Senten served as ushers.

Divorce Case Is Lost by J. Heifetz

SANTA MONICA, Calif., Dec. 23—Concert violinist Jascha Heifetz Monday lost a divorce case against his wife, and the court awarded her the interlocutory decree following 16 years of marriage.

Both had filed for divorce, followed by a series of charges and cross-charges.

The famed violinist, 63, married his wife, Frances, 53, in 1947 following an expensive divorce settlement with actress Florence Vidor.

Miss Vidor was paid $346,000 by Heifetz and today he also was ordered to pay $1,600 per month alimony and child support to Francis Heifetz.

Heifetz contended money paid Miss Vidor should be deducted in any computation of present community property. But Superior Court Judge Kurtz Kauffman ruled against the suggestion.

Mrs. Heifetz claimed the musician, who she said was worth more than 1 million dollars, greatly upset her by demanding she leave their Beverly Hills home. She said he regarded it as his private studio because he acquired it prior to their marriage.

Judge Kauffman awarded Heifetz the house.

In a cross complaint the musician claimed his wife argued with him, required that he "go places" he didn't want to go and complained that he saw his friends too often. Heifetz said it caused a "rotten effect" and gave him the "nervous jitters."

Judge Kauffman awarded Mrs.

Heifetz the decree and a division of property. Heifetz said due to heavy expenditures during the marriage and payments to Miss Vidor there was no community property.

Heifetz and Francis Sears Heifetz have one son, Joseph, 15.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 24—Brig. Gen. Harold A. Nisley, 71, a former member of Gen. Omar N. Bradley's staff, died Monday.

Truman, Nixon Have 'Friendly' Backstage Meet

NEW YORK, Dec. 24 (AP)—Former President Harry S. Truman refused Monday night to repeat for news photographers his impromptu handshake with former Vice President Richard M. Nixon. "The hell with it," Truman said as he walked away.

However, Democrat Truman finally posed for photographs with Nixon, the 1960 Republican presidential candidate.

An Associated Press photographer had recorded the handshake.

The apparently accidental meeting between the two men occurred backstage at the Shubert theater after the curtain closed on the musical comedy "Here's Love."

Angry Fisher Is Ready For Divorce

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 24 (AP)—Angry Eddie-Fisher said Monday he doesn't want to spoil Elizabeth Taylor's "record of getting everything she wants."

"She deserves it all," said Miss Taylor's estranged husband, "and she especially deserves Richard Burton."

"I want them to have all the happiness in the world—but I don't want to be a part of that happiness. I've tried to handle this whole thing with a little bit of honor and dignity."

"It's a terrible situation and I don't want to be a part of it. All I want is out. I'm tired of being made the heavy in this thing."

"I think maybe there is more tequila talking down there than anything else. My talking all comes from anger, not tequila."

Miss Taylor and Burton are in Puerto Vallarta, Mexico. She went there with Burton while he filmed "Night of the Iguana" in the resort town.

The picture is finished but the famed lovers are staying on and expect to get married there early in 1964, depending on the divorce talks. Mrs. Sybil Burton divorced Burton at Puerto Vallarta a week ago.

Miss Taylor has said that a dispute over her cut of the gross from "Cleopatra" was holding up the divorce.

A legal source, close to the situation, said Miss Taylor had offered 1 million dollars as a settlement but that Fisher's lawyers were holding out for more.

Fisher and the actress were married when the picture started but two years and 40 million dollars later, they were estranged and "Cleopatra" fell in love with "Maro Anthony," both on screen and off.

"I wasn't offered any million dollars," he said. "She can have half my voice, if it will speed up the divorce—and make her happy."

Program Given

SPRINGDALE, Dec. 24—A Christmas program was presented under the direction of Sunday school officers Sunday morning.

Participating were Sharon Johnson, Michael Streeter, Mrs. Josephine Manning and Mrs. Albert Fillmore. Music was directed by Mrs. G. S. Marchant, Sharon Johnson and Thomas Matthews.

TWIN FALLS ELKS CLUB gave out Christmas baskets to 129 families, which included 732 people, throughout Magic Valley Tuesday. Pictured loading baskets in a truck before daylight.

Tuesday are Bud Toucheite, Jeff Eller, and Lester Naylor, Hansen. The Elks is one of many Twin Falls organizations that gave out Christmas baskets. (Times-News photo)

World's End

BALTIMORE, Md., Dec. 24 (AP)—"The world is coming to an end," said 8-year-old Nicky Mitchell when he awoke Monday morning.

Nicky, visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stevenson, had never seen snow—falling before. He's from St. Petersburg, Fla.

Last Rites Honor C. Kriezenbeck

KING HILL, Dec. 24—Funeral services were held at 3 p.m. Monday for Carl William Kriezenbeck at the Grace Episcopal church in Glenns Ferry with the Rev. H. T. Knight officiating. Mrs. Stanley Jones was organist.

Pallbearers were Jack Graham, Allen Wheeler, Robert Uhl, Robert Robertson, Dick Robertson and William Robertson.

Last rites were held at Glenn Rest cemetery, Glenns Ferry.

KENNEDY PEAK

LIMA, Peru, Dec. 24 (AP)—An 18,700 foot peak in the Andes Monday was named in honor of President John F. Kennedy. The peak is in the White mountain range northeast of Huaraz.

Two Kennedy Children Go Unnoticed

PALM BEACH, Fla., Dec. 24 (AP)—The late President Kennedy's two children have visited toy stores, taken walks and played with cousins—all virtually unnoticed.

There was one exception. Monday, Caroline, 6, and John, Jr., 3, strolled along a shopping area with their mother, Mrs. John F. Kennedy, and their uncle, Robert Kennedy, U. S. attorney general. When a crowd of 75 or so gathered, the Kennedys left abruptly.

Caroline and John visited a toy store last Friday with Ann Gargan, niece of their grandfather, Joseph P. Kennedy. A clerk in the store said, "No one seemed to know them. They just came to play. Like all children, they love toys."

RELATIVE DIES

SPRINGDALE, Dec. 24—Dean Manning was called to Boise by the death of his step-father, David Bybee Coltrin. Funeral services were held Monday in the Boise third ward LDS chapel. The Coltrin family lived in Springdale for several years.

Farm Policy Of Fairview Grange Rates

BOISE, Dec. 24 — It was announced that the resolution originated by Fairview Grange concerning a change in the national farm policy has received favorable notice and comment from the national Grange and is now the foundation of the new national Grange farm policy, when the local Grange met Friday evening for its annual Christmas program and gift exchange.

It also was reported that of 390 resolutions presented before the national Grange sessions, this one brought forth more comment and created more interest and discussion.

Children taking part in the holiday program were David Barron, Bobbie Atkins, a poem; Jennie Barron, Caroline Barron, piano solo; Scott and Steve Atkins, vocal duet; Ricky Richmond, accordion solo; Kevin and Jana Kramer, vocal duet; Caroline Barron, Terry Kramer, Mike Richmond, recitations. Vicky Richmond and Beverly Atwood sang, accompanied at the piano by Marjorie Atkins.

The program concluded with a group of youngsters singing Christmas carols. Santa Claus brought treats and a gift exchange was held. Refreshments were served by the home economics committee.

Christmas Program Held At Hagerman

HAGERMAN, Dec. 24 — Mrs. George Lemmon and Mrs. Lyle Gilmore were in charge of the Reorganized LDS Christmas program Sunday evening at the church.

Hale Glauner gave the invocation and Mrs. Howard Carlson was pianist for congregation singing.

Members of the kindergarten class sang with Mrs. Hale Glauner as their teacher. Junior league members sang three Christmas songs, under the direction of Mrs. Lyle Gilmore and Mrs. Leslie Lynch.

The Junior boys class with Mrs. Lemmon as teacher presented an exercise, Kay Cary gave a reading and the Junior Sunday school members of King Hill sang. The primary class presented an exercise, with Mrs. Ed Davis as teacher.

Laura Lemmon played two flute solos and the King Hill group gave an exercise.

Robbie Allen gave a reading, George Allen and James King, King Hill, sang two original songs, written by Allen and accompanied by themselves on the guitar.

The Junior girls class presented a play, and a reading was given by Vicky Jo Gilmore. Kathy Lynch sang a solo.

Santa gave treats to conclude the evening.

HOLDING INFANT DAUGHTER after the baby had two blood exchanges is the mother, Mrs. Robert Crowley, 723 Northview drive, Twin Falls. The baby, Cathy Crowley, was born with an ABO incapability type of blood and had to have her blood exchanged twice before she was completely cured. The Twin Falls Red Cross chapter supplied the names of two donors to donate the blood for the small girl. (Times-News photo)

Main Purpose of Red Cross Is to Help in Emergencies

The American Red Cross is a worldwide organization set up to help people during an emergency. The Twin Falls Red Cross chapter, which is affiliated with the American Red Cross, serves the same purposes locally.

Mrs. Elson Basom, executive secretary of the local chapter, says according to the congressional charter, the Red Cross must provide food, clothing, shelter and medical care during a disaster when emergency help is needed, and help servicemen and their families when there is an emergency.

Mrs. Basom said almost all things the Red Cross does are of an emergency nature.

"The Red Cross helps servicemen only when there is an emergency, such as illness in the immediate family, which warrants the serviceman home, or a death in the family. Sometimes, the Red Cross provides food, clothing, shelter and medical care for the serviceman and his family. Mrs. Basom explains this further by saying if a serviceman and his family pass through Twin Falls en route to a base hundreds of miles away, and illness strikes the family to an extent where they are hospitalized and he doesn't have enough money to pay the medical bills, or for food to feed his family, then the Red Cross provides food and medical care for the family.

However, if the serviceman is able to repay the Red Cross later, he is requested to do so—by the branch of service he is in and not by the Red Cross. Mrs. Basom said if the serviceman is not able to repay and it would be a hardship on him, he doesn't have to pay it back. The loan is written off the books as a grant.

Mrs. Basom said during a disaster all that is given during the emergency is given as a grant.

If the local chapter has funds, the community feels there is a need, the local chapter can have first aid courses, swimming classes and home nursing care.

During the past year, 477 people were given first aid classes, 1,054 given swimming classes and 182 were given home nursing care.

Also, eight veterans and 140 servicemen were helped by the local Red Cross chapter, Mrs. Basom noted.

The biggest project under way by the local chapter, Mrs. Basom explains, is the blood program. During the past year, a total of 2,373 pints of blood was used locally. She said a pint of blood is worth about $40 on the commercial market.

Of this amount, 1,173 pints were whole blood, 569 pints were made into gamma globulin and distributed; 27 pints made into fibrinogen and distributed, five pints made into serum albumen and five were made into frozen plasma and packed red cells.

When an emergency arises and fresh whole blood is needed, the Red Cross has a list of live donors who will donate blood for the transfusions, Mrs. Basom said.

New Diversion Program to Reduce Stock of Low Quality Spuds In Effect

BOISE, Dec. 24 (AP)—A potato diversion program aimed at reducing the stock of low quality potatoes and boosting prices went into effect in Idaho today.

The agriculture department announced that Idaho processors have signed contracts with the agricultural stabilization and conservation service agreeing to receive potatoes for processing into flour and starch at 25 cents per hundredweight.

Inauguration of the program was prompted by depressed prices resulting from a record potato crop. The harvest yielded about nine million hundredweight more than the 10 year average.

Growers have been getting about 25 to 35 cents for potatoes sold for starch, while No. 2's sell for 40 to 50 cents. The price for No. 1's is $1.40 to $1.50.

In addition to the 25 cents paid under the diversion program, the growers will receive 50 cents a hundredweight for all potatoes that grade A, or equivalent to U. S. No. 2 in the fresh market.

The government will reimburse the processors with the 50 cents for all they purchase in that category.

That means the grower will get 75 cents a hundred for all potatoes grading A.

Aubrey Pratt, Craigmont, state ASCS chairman, said the extra compensation for the better grade potatoes is scheduled to drop to 40 cents a hundredweight in January, and to 30 cents in March.

He said some processors signed contracts only through January, while contracts with others run through April.

Lloyd Brown, Boise, marketing specialist for the ASCS, said no limit has been set so far on the volume that can be diverted.

Already in effect is a diversion of potatoes to cattle feeders. The government also pays five cents a hundredweight for all those grading A. The feeder pays 15 cents on all of them.

Battalion Will Be Flown To Germany

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24 (AP)—The Pentagon announced Monday that a mechanized infantry battalion of about 900 men will be flown from Georgia to Germany next month. No specific date was set for the movement of the second battalion mechanized, ninth infantry, second infantry division, now stationed at Ft. Benning.

The unit will be airlifted across the Atlantic to replace a 1,500-man battle group of the first infantry division which returned to the United States in October.

This occurs commonly throughout the year.

Most of the time the donors are called to donate a pint of blood for a newborn baby which has the RH factor type of blood. However, this was not the case Oct. 19 when a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Crowley, 723 Northview drive, Twin Falls.

According to Mrs. Basom, the baby, Cathy Crowley, was born with a type of blood doctors call ABO incapability. She said this is quite different than the RH factor, because RH factor deals with the blood cells and the ABO incapability deals with blood type.

The night of Oct. 19, Armour Anderson, 530 Cindy drive, was called to give a pint of blood to keep the child alive and exchange its blood. Then, on Oct. 21, Vern C. Barnard, 241 Buchanan street, was called to donate a pint of blood.

The baby had two complete blood exchanges and now is a healthy little girl, 2 months old.

Mrs. Basom urges everyone to donate blood during the next drawing in Twin Falls which is scheduled to be held at the American Legion hall Jan. 20.

The Red Cross is a participating agency in the United Fund here.

WHY SMIRNOFF INSTEAD OF GIN?

It's filtered through a "mountain" of charcoal

Smirnoff makes the driest of Martinis because it's the driest of liquors. Every drop is filtered and refined through 7 tons of activated charcoal—14,000 pounds—literally a "mountain" of charcoal. This "black magic" removes most of the congeners. No wonder Smirnoff is the world's finest liquor; crystal clear and smooth with no noticeable liquor taste or odor. Today Smirnoff outsells every brand of gin in America. Isn't it time you tried it?

80 AND 100 PROOF. DISTILLED FROM GRAIN. STE. PIERRE SMIRNOFF FLS. (DIVISION OF HEUBLEIN), HARTFORD, CONN., 1963

A FINE EXAMPLE of what can be done with what some people call weeds, is this small, well decorated thistle Christmas "tree." Mrs. Robert Dingfield, 315 Eighth avenue east, stands beside the thistle "tree" she made and displays near the front window of her home. Thistle "trees" are made by placing thistles into cone-shaped wire mesh. (Times-News photo)

Odd Types of Christmas Trees Showing up in T. F.

According to several scholars, the first Christmas tree was a young fir and for many years the decorated fir tree has been a symbol of Christmas in many homes. But today, with the imaginative mind and creative hands of persons and manufacturers, the fir tree is getting some competition.

For instance, the Christmas tree in the home of Warren E. (Ben) Jewell is a cleverly-decorated yucca cactus Jewell picked up in southern California on a return trip from San Diego.

Jewell picked the tree up near Caliente, Calif., and for about 500 miles he drove through desert, towns and cities, with the tree on top of his car.

Yucca actually is the name of a group of interesting plants of the lily family, which are found in the southern and southwestern parts of the United States.

Jewell's "tree" stands about four feet tall and is mounted in a five-gallon can. The leaves are sharp and stiff, but the base of the tree is moist. It is decorated with small Christmas lights and sprayed with canned snow.

Another creative tree can be made with thistles found in the Snake river canyon.

Two examples of the thistle "tree" can be seen in the Dairy Queen drive-in, located on Addison avenue west, and at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dingfield, 315 Eighth avenue east.

Both trees stand about two feet tall and, like the yucca, have sharp spickers.

The thistles for the tree which adorns a front window table at the Dingfield home were found near Thousand Springs and the thistles for the tree at the drive-in were found in the Rock creek canyon area.

Mrs. Harold Murphy, owner of the drive-in, stated the tree was made by her mother-in-law, Mrs. Clara Murphy, 169 Carney street, who paints the trees in different colors and uses different colored beads for light effects. Mrs. Dingfield uses miniature lights to decorate her thistle tree. Both trees are good examples of what can be done with what some people call weeds.

The manufactured aluminum Christmas tree is another fairly recent tree idea which has come into focus during the past few years. Many persons who use the aluminum tree have colored spotlights to add a Christmas effect.

Event Given At King Hill

KING HILL, Dec. 24—Annual Christmas program sponsored by the King Hill United Presbyterian church was held Sunday night with Mrs. Lynn Sherman, Mrs. Kenneth Jones and teachers of the children's department in charge.

Prelude was played by Mrs. Gerald Bybee and the Rev. R. I. Barnes gave the invocation. Welcome was given by the kindergarten class and the nursery class sang with Mrs. Charles Finlayson and Mrs. Rodney Ruberry in charge.

A solo was presented by De-Jorma Miller and a guitar duet was played by Robert Parish and Keith Mitchell. Scripture reading was given by the primary class and the junior choir sang under the direction of Mrs. Kenneth Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Bybee sang a quartet number. The junior class gave scripture readings and the youth choir sang. A meditation was given by Kenneth Jones and Mrs. Kenneth Jones gave the closing prayer.

Ushers were Lorraine Carnahan and Phyllis McCleary. Teachers assisting were the Rev. Mr. Barnes, Mrs. Martin Woodward, Mrs. Jack Craig and Mrs. Ted Moore.

Mrs. Gerald Bybee was accompanist.

A YUCCA CACTUS in place of a Christmas tree? Strange and different, but it's true, as shown here by Steve Jewell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren E. (Ben) Jewell in the front room of his home, 585 Alturas drive, Warren Jewell picked the yucca up in Southern California, thinking it would make an attractive and different Christmas tree. At bottom right is a Mexican pinata he picked up in Tijuana. (Times-News photo)

STANDING BEHIND sharply pointed thistle Christmas "tree" is Shirley Reed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Reed, Washington street south. The tree was made by Mrs. Clara Murphy, 169 Carney street, and adorns a top shelf at the Dairy Queen drive-in, Addison avenue west, owned by Mrs. Murphy's daughter-in-law, Mrs. Harold Murphy. The Daily Investor

Q. I have a number of good stocks and I have been thinking about selling puts and calls. I would sell calls only on stocks I would not mind selling anyway. And I would sell puts on stocks I would like to buy. Would this be a sound plan to boost income without too much risk? Also, how would I make the arrangements?

Doyle

A. Your idea is basically sound. And, frankly, the way to make money with puts and calls is to sell them—not buy them.

Puts and calls are options. When a person buys a call he pays money and gets the right to buy 100 shares of the stock named in the call at a fixed price, within a fixed period of time.

If the market price of the stock goes up, the person who bought the call can then exercise his call option and buy the stock at the price specified in the call—which would be less than the higher market price. If the market price of the stock doesn't go up within the time specified in the call, the person who bought the call naturally will not exercise it. The call will expire and he will lose the money he paid for it.

A put, of course, is just the opposite. When a person buys a put he pays money and gets the right to sell 100 shares of the stock named in the put at a fixed price, with a fixed period of time.

If the market price of the stock goes down, the person who bought the put can then exercise his put option and sell the stock at the price specified in the put—which would be higher than the market price. If the market price of the stock doesn't go down within the time specified in the put, he won't exercise his put. It will expire and he will lose the money he paid for it.

more than the market price of the stock.

That could make you unhappy. You can make the arrangements for dealing in puts and calls through almost any brokerage firm. Just make sure you have the details explained to you. Dealing in puts and calls can get mighty complicated.

Q. Loomis-Sayles Mutual Fund, in which I own some shares, pays dividends four times a year. In previous years, a dividend has always been paid in October. But in 1963 that payment was not made until November. Loomis-Sayles is a very fine organization. But isn't this bad business practice?

A. Checking it out, we find that it was the result of good business practice. Loomis-Sayles Mutual Fund is a regulated investment company, under subchapter M of the internal revenue code. As such, it is required to pay out to its shareholders, as dividends, at least 90 per cent of its net income each year.

This fund's fiscal year ends Oct. 31. The fund's directors, by waiting until the end of the latest fiscal year to declare the final dividend of the year, were able to have a much more exact figure on the amount of money available for dividend purposes.

State Still Searches for Poison Grain

BOISE, Dec. 24 (AP) — A state agriculture department official admits today the state doesn't really know how many sacks of poisoned grain it is chasing down.

Leland Fife, director of plant industry and assigned by the state agriculture department to assist in locating the rolled wheat mixed with poison, said as many as 42 sacks may have been taken

Q. Is there any reason why stock certificates are so large?

A. People in the business pass on the word that a stock certificate must, for various legal reasons, have from 1,000 to 2,500 words printed on it and have space for endorsement, transfer, etc. Then, there's the important matter of having space for good engraving, to protect against counterfeiting.

(Mr. Doyle will answer only representative letters of general interest in his column. He cannot answer phone queries.)

from the Ada county warehouse where the cricket bait was stored. First reports said 38 sacks were missing.

Fife said a Caldwell junk dealer, who the attorney general said apparently "deliberately" put the poisoned grain in commerce, took only 38 sacks. Fife said there were more than 38 sacks in the warehouse and the remaining number may have been "stolen."

Fife said the grain was sold at a Meridian auction recently but minus red tags indicating the contents of the sacks were poison.

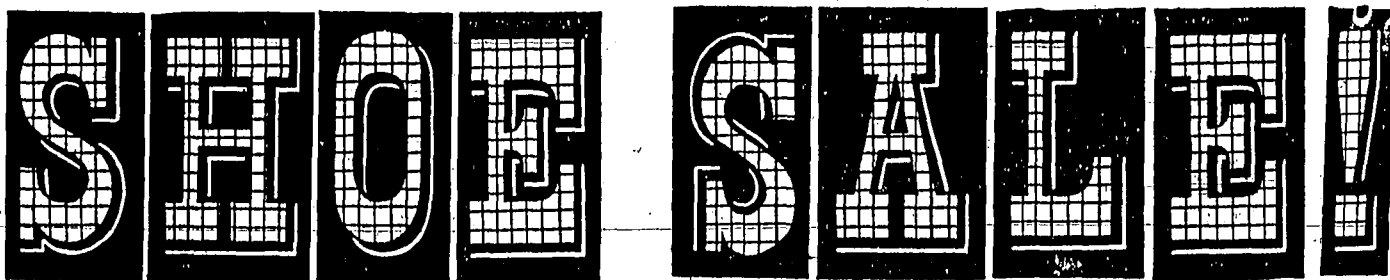

The rolled wheat in the unmarked plain brown gunny sacks were sold at the auction for about $1.90 per sack, he said.

Atty. Gen. Allan G. Sheperd said yesterday he has handed his information to Canyon County Prosecutor O. Robert Yost. Yost said he has not yet filed charges in the case and has decided if he will.

Girl Steps Into Path of Vehicle

HAGERMAN, Dec. 24 — Sandra D. Venell, was bruised but not seriously injured when she stepped into the path of a car driven by John Williamson, Grants Pass, Ore., Saturday evening after a Wendell-Hagerman basketball game here. According to State Patrolman Walker J. Kirtley and Hagerman Marshal Dana Gilmore, Miss Durfee apparently stepped out between two parked cars, directly in front of Williamson, and a lanceing blow knocked her to the pavement. No citation was issued.

East German Compares Life To Prison

By WALTER SCHULZ

BERLIN, Dec. 24 (AP)—The old man stood among other East Berliners at the Friedrichstrasse station, looking toward the west, and did not smile.

I watched him a while and then asked:

"Who are you waiting for?" He banged the sidewalk with his stick.

"Me? I want to go to Baden-Baden—my home."

Baden-Baden is in West Germany.

An invalid from World War I, he held my arm with an old man's grip. "You from the West?" he asked.

"I'm from the West." "Do you know what is wrong here?"

He lifted his cane and pointed it angrily into the crowd who waited for relatives from West Berlin. "This here is the greatest defeat of bolshevism. Who built his wall? Our people here. And who now claims to be humanitarians? Our people here. And who ..."

"Watch out—police approaching," I said.

His words changed but not his voice. "I am a Christian," he said loudly, "and this life is for me only the passage to another."

I remarked that many people seemed happy over the passes to East Berlin.

"Dear God," he said as he banged his stick in the snow again, "who in jail isn't happy to receive a visit—or do you think we have something else here?"

What about the East Berliners who are awaiting their relatives? "Certainly they are happy, but they are anxious about the second terrible separation which will occur when the passes stop for God knows how long again."

Finally, I asked: "What shall I say when I go back to the West?" The old man straightened his armuffs. "Tell them we have no more hope."

Joan Hadden, Kriegh Repeat Nuptial Promise

FILER, Dec. 24—Joan Jean Hadden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ohran E. Hadden, Paul, and Jerry Wayne Kriegh, son of Mrs. Frances Kriegh, Filer, were married Nov. 30 at the First Presbyterian church, Burley.

The Rev. Kenneth Beall performed the evening ceremony before a background setting of baskets of bronze, gold and white chrysanthemums.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white gown of peau de sole with an oval neckline, long sleeves and a full skirt with chapel train. The gown was accented with atonon lace applied on the bodice, sleeves and in a wide arc down the skirt. She carried an arrangement of white carnations and baby white roses.

Mrs. Kenneth Ling was matron of honor. She wore a bronze crystalline dress styled with a rounded neckline, three-quarter-length sleeves and a bell skirt. She carried a bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums.

Joanna Martens and Marlene Jarolimek were bridesmaids. Each wore a peach colored crystalline dress and carried a bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums.

James Dalos, Pocatello, was best man. Ushers were Vernon Hoskin and Chuck Kriegh, brother of the bridegroom.

The bride's mother selected a green wool dress with black and rust accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore an off-white, broad-shouldered dress with green accessories. Each wore a corsage of tallman roses.

Mrs. Leslie Stroud and Mrs. Vern Kriegh, grandmothers of the bridegroom, wore white carnation corsages.

Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Keith Uscola. Allan Dowd was soloist.

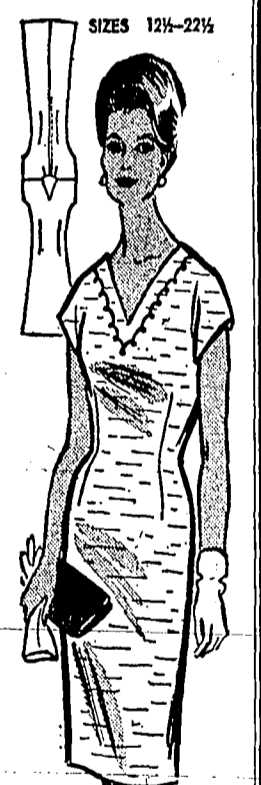

A reception was held following the ceremony. The bride's table, covered with a lace table cloth, was centered with a three-tiered white wedding cake decorated with yellow roses. The cake was cut by Mrs. Lee Kessinger, aunt of the bride. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Wallace Higley and Mrs. Willis Hulton, aunt of the bride.

Mrs. Lyle Uscola, sister of the bride, registered the guests. Gifts were arranged by Mrs. William Schlund and Kathy Hadden, sisters of the bride, and Kathy Kriegh, sister of the bridegroom.

For traveling, the bride wore a blue wool suit with black accessories and the corsages from her bridal bouquet. The couple will reside in Twin Falls where they are both employed.

The bride attended Minidoka county high school and Twin Falls Business college. The bride-

Holiday Gifts Completed by Camp Fire Girls

SHOSHONE, Dec. 24—Christmas gifts have been completed by girls of the Mets-Mets-Li Camp Fire Girls group. They have worked on the projects at meetings held at the home of their leader, Mrs. Leon Pagoaga. Kathleen Graham is president of the group and Vera Garrett is secretary.

Miniature Christmas trees were constructed from a pine cone and decorated and were taken to the Wood River Convalescent center for the patients.

Mrs. Pagoaga escorted the girls to the Adam's greenhouse, Jerome, where they viewed winter flowers.

Hostesses were Barbara Stoddard, Nancy Depew, Heidi and Terri Forbes and Katherine Pagoaga.

Turkey Steaks Please Palate

MANHATTAN, Kans., Dec. 24 (AP)—Turkey steaks will soon compete with the traditional roast turkey for a spot on the nation's Christmas dinner tables, two Kansas State university poultry specialists believe.

Dr. Jack Fry and his assistant, Hal Taylor, said such steaks are cut from the breast and deboned thighs of tom turkeys.

They currently are engaged in a program to determine the best method of preparing turkey steaks. But whatever they decide, they already are agreed upon three points.

—Turkey steaks have a low fat content, a boon for dieters.

—There is little waste in serving turkey steaks, compared with the waste involved in preparing a whole turkey.

—Turkey steaks are considerably easier to prepare and to serve than the traditional turkey.

The two researchers said the steaks can be cut for use either as a cube steak, for which the meat is first ground, or as a regular steak.

Christmas cards were signed by those present to be sent to shutin members. A potluck dinner preceded the meeting. Tables were decorated in the Christmas motif. A Christmas gift exchange was held.

A pre-nuptial shower was given for the bride at the home of Mrs. Stroud by Mrs. Betty Poin-dexter and Mrs. Jack Skinner.

Legislation Program Given For Civic Club

SHOSHONE, Dec. 24—A program on legislation was given by Howard E. Adkins, Lincoln county prosecutor, at the Civic club meeting. The prosecutor stressed the need to be alert in seeing that small counties of the state are not overshadowed in a current move for change in representation at the state level. Mrs. Adkins was program chairman.

The club met at the Legion hall with Mrs. Domingo Soloaga president, conducting the meeting. Mrs. Reid Newby was secretary pro tem.

The project for this year is to promote fencing Little Wood river through the city park. As a fund-raising project, the group will sponsor a charity ball in February.

Committee members for the ball are Mrs. Arthur Gerity and Mrs. Paul Jacobson, orchestra; Mrs. R. G. Nener, tickets; Mrs. Charles Hansen, advertising; Mrs. William Haux, decorations; Mrs. Dale Chatterton, hall; Mrs. Fred Olsen and Mrs. Omer Shook, coke bar, and Mrs. Robert Vaden, coat check.

Mrs. Nener and Mrs. Howard Hill were named to a nominating committee to select a new vice president to replace Mrs. William Townley who has moved from the community.

Hostesses were Mrs. Oliver Payne, Mrs. Ella Vredenburg, Mrs. Shook and Mrs. Floyd Kising. Tables were decorated in the Christmas motif. Members brought Christmas decorations for display.

Mrs. Donald Treadwell was general chairman. The turkey was prepared and served by Mrs. Sigarns. Mrs. Velma Treadwell was in charge of the treats.

The tables were decorated by Mrs. Anna Branson, Mrs. Grace Samples, Mrs. Evans and Mrs. C. P. Blawell.

Myrtle Anderson was in charge of invitations. The next meeting will be the formal installation Jan. 3 at the IOOF hall.

MRS. CHRISTOPHER JANCIK

Miss Roberson, Jancik Wed in December Rites

JEROME, Dec. 24—Diana Jo Roberson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie T. Roberson, Boise, former Jerome resident, was married to Christopher Joseph Jancik, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rohrer, Hollister, Calif., Dec. 8 at the Jerome Methodist church.

The Rev. Ralph Fothergill performed the ceremony before a background setting of orchid chrysanthemum bouquets.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white chiffon street-length dress accented with a bouffant skirt. The fitted bodice was styled with a shirred cummerbund and rounded neckline. The fitted Chantilly lace jacket was enhanced with three-quarter length sleeves.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence (Buck) Harvey, Twin Falls, were attendants.

The bride's mother wore a red afternoon dress and black accessories.

Dawn Roberson and Dona Roberson, sisters of the bride, were candlelighters.

Mrs. Harold Campbell played the traditional wedding music.

A reception was held in the ladies parlor. Mrs. Roberson and Mrs. Harper poured punch. A white cake, decorated in pink, centered the bride's table covered with lace.

The bride attended Jerome schools and was graduated from Winnebago high school, Winnebago, Ill. She is employed at Troy National laundry, Twin Falls.

The bridegroom is employed by the Cornell Seed company, Twin Falls. He is a graduate of Woodside high school, Woodside, Calif., and served two years in the army.

The couple will reside at 553 Locust street south, Twin Falls.

Little Julie Gill Visits President

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24 (AP)—Little Julie Gill got the Christmas present she wanted most after all—a visit with the President of the United States.

Julie is 11, suffers from cerebral palsy, and comes from Wichita, Kans.

In fact she and her mother and father and three sisters came as fast as they could by car, driving day and night, to get to Washington before the President left for a holiday visit to his own home in Texas.

Today, Julie and her family met the President in the cabinet room of the White House.

"Julie," Johnson told her with a big smile, "I'm so happy to see you, my sweetheart. My, you look pretty."

They traded presents. Johnson handed the little girl an autographed picture of himself.

The President bent down, Julie put an arm around his neck, and then she kissed him on the cheek.

Julie had a little package for the President.

"Can I open it?" he asked.

"Yes," she assured him.

The package contained a key ring with a tiny mustard seed encased in it.

"Oh, isn't that nice," Johnson exclaimed. "I'll think of you every time I use it. Thank you dear and good luck to you."

The President had one of his assistants get a red pencil and he handed it to Julie saying, "I want you to keep in touch with me."

The meeting was arranged after Julie wrote the chief executive that she and her family were coming to visit relatives in early Falls Church, Va., and the nicest Christmas present she could get would be to meet him. Johnson sent back an answer telling her to come by the White House, that it would be just as nice a present for him.

Ruby Freedom Fight Continues

DALLAS, Tex., Dec. 24 (AP)—A tense legal skirmish over Jack Ruby's right to freedom on bond will resume Jan. 10 in a small courtroom a stone's throw from where President Kennedy was assassinated.

Attorney Melvin Belli—who charged his client cannot get a fair trial in Dallas—said he will seek a change in venue when the legal proceedings resume.

The bond hearing for the strip club operator, who shot accused presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald in view of nationwide television audience Nov. 24, was recessed Monday after 3½ hours.

One of Ruby's strippers touched off an additional bit of excitement when she showed up at the hearing with a pistol buried in her purse.

A bailiff found a .25-caliber automatic wrapped in a scarf in the purse of dancer Karen Lynn Bennett, 19.

Defense investigator R. B. Denson told newsmen the firing pin had been removed from the gun. He said it had been in her purse so long she had forgotten about it.

She was the final witness to testify in the hearing. She said she worked at Ruby's Carousel club and that on Nov. 24 she received a $25 money order from Ruby to pay her room rent.

Ruby emerged from the hearing no better off than before. Judge Joe Brown said he must remain in jail without bond until Jan. 10.

His trial is set for Feb. 3.

U.S. to Get Slice of Bet Money

BOISE, Dec. 24 (AP)—The federal government as well as the state stands to profit by taxes on winnings under Idaho's pari-mutuel betting system.

But application of federal tax rules will depend, to some extent, on regulations adopted by the three-man racing committee, scheduled to meet for the first time Friday.

The Boise office of the internal revenue service reports that pari-mutuel operations licensed by a state are exempt from the individual 50 percent federal gambling license. State-licensed betting is also exempt from the 10 percent federal gambling taxes.

But gambling winnings are taxable as income and the government requires a report from the track for winnings of over $500.

There is a federal tax on admissions to race tracks, one cent for every 10 cents over $1.

The state will collect five percent of the total money bet. Of that, 89 percent will go to the school fund and 20 percent will be used to pay the committee's expenses in administering the law.

Airman Anderson Case Chosen Idaho's Top 1963 News Story

(Editor's note: What were Idaho's top news stories of 1963? The Associated Press asked the state's news writers and newsmen that question. Here are their conclusions.)

By EARL L. JESTER

BOISE, Dec. 24 (AP)—The story of Airman Gerald M. Anderson, freed of an air force murder charge after hearings which drew national attention, is rated Idaho's top news story of 1963.

The story won out over the supreme court decision upholding the pari-mutuel betting law, rating No. 1 for the second successive year.

In 1962 the story dealt with Anderson's arrest for a double-killing at Mountain Home, his release by civil authorities after another man confessed and an air force hearing on the murder charge subsequently filed against him.

The story carried over into 1963, climaxing with the air force's dismissal of the murder charge and the granting to Anderson of an honorable discharge from military service.

Tied in with it was the sentencing to life imprisonment of Theodore Thomas Dickie, the itinerant laborer whose confession first cleared Anderson of the civil charge.

The Anderson - Dickie story was rated tops by 13 of the 24 newsmen and newsmen who took part in the Associated Press poll. It gained a total of 205 points out of a possible 240.

The pari-mutuel betting story got two first place votes and a total of 168 points for second place.

Ranked third with 107 points was the legislative session which set a record for longevity, 72 days, and following closely behind in fourth place with 102 points was the story of Idaho's reaction to the California proposal to divert water from the Snake river.

The rest of the top ten:

- Extension to southern Idaho of the marketing area of the Bonneville power administration.
- Idaho's reaction to the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.
- The federal court challenge of the apportionment of the state legislature.
- Spring flood damage in eastern Idaho.
- Rest home fire near Riggin which killed seven elderly men.
- Actions taken to balance state general fund at end of biennium.
- Although it ranked sixth in the poll, the Kennedy assassination impact was rated Idaho's No. 1 story by four writers. Two writers each picked for first place the pari-mutuel ruling, the legislature and the California water diversion plan. One ballot ranked the east Idaho floods in first place.

Only the Anderson story was given a top ten ranking by all 24 writers and it was rated from first to ninth place. Twenty-three voters included the pari-mutuel story in the top ten, rating it from one to eighth. The legislature, finishing third in consensus, missed out entirely on seven ballots.

On a point basis, the California water story pressed the legislature closely, scoring 102 points to 107 for the lawmakers' session. The fifth-ranked story—the Bonneville power extension—was far behind with 83 points. The Kennedy story rated 80 points, legislative apportionment 72, spring floods 60, the rest home fire 58 and the budget balancing 50.

Four more stories were closely bunched: The loyalty oath law court test got 43 points, the territorial centennial 42, Rep. Ralph Harding's criticism of Mormon church leader Ezra Taft Benson 41 and the north Idaho bank robbery at Troy 40.

Finishing out the second ten were the Bible-reading law court test with 31 points, the closing of southeastern Idaho farm fields to Utah hunters 29, banning of giveaway games by food stores and suspension of the Pioneer baseball league, 27, each, the potential teacher strike 25 and the choosing of Idaho for the 1963 Girl Scout roundup 21.

Only four other stories rated mention. Beginning of construction on the Dworshak dam in north Idaho drew seven points, the freeing of two men from a well near Rupert got five points and argument over sale or lease of state lands and the shooting of two youths near Burley by a crazed gunman each rated four points.

Richfield's Church Has Yule Program

RICHFIELD, Dec. 24 — The story of Jesus' birth, song numbers, recitations, description of Christmas in other nations composed the Methodist Community program Sunday afternoon at the Sunday school rooms. Mrs. C. M. Priddy, church school supervisor, was in charge.

The nativity was portrayed by Pat Riley, Glenn Conner, Billy Chatterton, Richard Magoffin, Rodney Priddy, Johnny Paulson, Alan Paulson and Arnold Roks.

Mrs. Gail Hansen directed kindergarten children in a manger scene and song number. Mrs. Hansen also gave a reading. Mark Hansen and Tommy Camarusa recited poems. The Methodist choir sang opening and closing carols.

Narrators were Joy Faddis, Marge Helderman, Clarice Proctor and Joy Alexander. The Advent ceremony was told by Rodney Riley, Pam Dehnbomb, David Brush and Linda Akins.

David Ross presented a small fir tree to the Christ child as a German child, Kelly Priddy and Dawn Walker, as Italians, carried a crèche; Carrie Schmidt a yule log from England, and Pam Piper, Brenda Johnson and Lorna Jean Brush, as Japanese children, presented gay fans and Sunday school pictures at the manger scene.

The Mexican legend of a small girl's gift of a weed turning into a gorgeous poinsettia was enacted by Laurie Priddy and Marie Hubsmit. Other children decorated the fir tree with foil wrapped gifts.

Mrs. Victor Cenarusa, Mrs. Theo B. Brush and Mrs. LeRoy Magoffin were other teachers assisting with the program. Mrs. Ralph Riley, sr., distributed treats at the conclusion. The Rev. Woodrow D. Harris, church minister, gave the benediction.

Recipients Of Welfare Suffering

CHICAGO, Dec. 24 (AP) — For Chicago's 26,000 public aid recipients, Christmas will be just another day.

A sub-zero cold wave coupled with recent cutbacks in food and rental allowances have left the predominantly Negro welfare recipients bitter, cold and hungry.

"I've already explained to my children that they won't be getting much for Christmas," said Mrs. Henrietta Johnson, 31, who lives in an unheated south side apartment with her five children.

"The older ones understand, but the smaller ones, keep on asking me what they're going to get."

Earlier this year, the Illinois general assembly approved a 10 percent reduction in food allowances and set a $90-a-month rental ceiling. The measures went into effect Nov. 1.

"Even before they cut it I had less than enough," said Mrs. Johnson. "Now I can't send one of my kids to school because she doesn't have enough clothes."

Public and private welfare officials agree the situation is bleak.

"We can talk in terms of rehabilitation, but it isn't going to do much good unless people have full stomachs and warm clothes," said Kenneth Wickham, planning director of the welfare council of metropolitan Chicago.

"One truant officer found 20 kids in one week who were being kept home from school because they didn't have adequate clothes," Wickham said.

"Before the cuts, a family could shortcut on food to do a little better on the clothing side. But now, with less money, the family isn't even able to make any decisions."

Wickham said the council, which coordinates activities for 268 welfare agencies and settlement houses in Chicago, is overwhelmed with requests for food, clothing and rent money.

Al Mackin, director of the Association House, said his agency has had three times the usual number of requests for help this winter.

"We've had cases where people came in with shoes just barely tied together with string," Mackin said.

He said he knew of one family that had two winter coats for six children. "They take turns going to school."

A Chicago Urban League spokesman said 85 percent of the relief recipients are Negroes, many of whom lost more than $10 per month in aid due to the relief cuts.

Tom Nicholas, 40, a job development specialist for the league, said although Negroes make up 27 percent of Chicago's population, only 18 percent of the maids between 18 and 45 are working.

Thief May Have Saved Lives of English Couple

POOLE, England, Dec. 24 (AP)—Thieves at Southampton stole the luggage of an elderly British couple.

"So probably the thief saved our lives," said John Groom, 76-year-old retired businessman. He and his 73-year-old wife, Mabel, were to have sailed on the Lantonia's Christmas cruise Dec. 19.

Three of their four suitcases were stolen on the dock so the couple turned around and drove home in disgust.

Honest Santa

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Dec. 24 (AP)—A young shopping center Santa Claus, who recently returned a wallet containing $43 in Christmas savings to the woman who had lost it in a parking lot, received $100 from a Philadelphia man.

Walter Cooley, 19, Louisville, said the letter from Harold E. Miller, Philadelphia, contained a money order and a note praising Miller's honesty which read: "If I had a son, I'd like him to be like you."

Lucerne Grange Holds Pageant

BUHL, Dec. 24 — A Christmas pageant highlighted the annual Lucerne Grange Christmas program and gift exchange Friday at the Grange hall.

Taking part in the pageant were Teresa Karel, Ethel Traxler, Greg and Debbie Davis, Terry, Kathy and Danny Vitek and Tedy Svanecara. Mrs. John Davis and Mrs. Leonard Vitek were narrators and Bunny Brown served as accompanist.

The program also included songs by Terry Vitek and Ethel Traxler and a reading by Teresa Karel. A community sing followed. The program was under the direction of Mrs. Elbert Stewart, lecturer.

Santa Claus distributed gifts and treats to all in attendance. Refreshments were served under the direction of the home economics committee with Mrs. Arnold Svanecara, chairman.

Travel to Cuba Is Forbidden

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24 (AP)—The state department again issued a general warning Monday that travel by U.S. citizens to Cuba is forbidden unless the department gives special permission.

Press officer Robert J. McCloskey repeated the same warning he issued last week, telling newsmen "we have received information that several groups of American citizens may be planning to travel to Cuba during the Christmas holidays without passports."

FROM ALL ANGLES

BY LARRY HOVEY

All Idaho Vandal football fans want for Christmas is a nice announcement from the University of California that Joe Doaks, or even Pappa Bear Halas, has been named as the new Golden Bear football coach.

The reason being that Idaho, who has been a perennial loser, has been bringing the Vandals out of the football wilderness, has to be rated as one of the prime candidates for the job. Not only is he an assistant coach at Stanford, he also is a close friend of athletic director Pete Newell. And a similar friendship was clearly on record when Tippy Dye, athletic director at Nebraska, sent an SOS to ex-student Joe Cipriano, Cipriano, as you know, is now head basketball coach at Nebraska.

It is often said that California has many problems and the head football coaching job is made less attractive by the various conditions.

However, it must be pointed out, there is room for improvement and growth at California. While there is room still for improvement at Idaho, there is no prospect of growth. The new Big Sky conference statutes preclude the Idaho or Idaho State, football programs from advancing due to the 50 grid scholarship restrictions. Not only did this mean the end to football growth in Vandaville, it also meant a cut-back.

This, more than any one thing, is the fact all Idaho fans must remember. It is the one thing that will prey heaviest on Andros' mind if and when the California job is offered him.

Couch Andros informed the Times-News Monday "I will admit this, that the 60 scholarships in 1965 do concern me and I certainly hope that we are able to convince our people that we should not cut back just as we have things going for us."

Whether coach Andros meant that for publication or not, we care not. He refers to the solid, continuing improvement of the Vandal football teams have shown the first two seasons under him. The Vandals will lose a few seniors of last year's club—the only winning team Idaho has had since 1938. But these graduation vacancies will be more than replaced by probably the brightest freshman crop ever to hit Moscow the same year.

"I can assure you that I am not taking the California job too seriously—at least as yet. As you know, they have shown interest in me but we have never discussed any details of the job. . . I have not applied and do not plan to apply for the job," he said.

The grapevine throws an interesting light along that line too. Coach Andros and his wife will be guests of the University of California at the Rose bowl game next week. There will be some discussions then, it appears.

What does the University of Idaho have going for it in its hopes to retain coach Andros?

1. He is under a three-year contract with one season remaining. While no one in Idaho should expect him to pass up what would appear a real advancement, coach Andros would not take this commitment lightly.

2. Idaho, for probably the last time, will have a very good football schedule in 1964. In fact, it would be good enough to get the Vandals ranked if they would go undefeated. The schedule runs San Jose State, Iowa, Utah, Oregon, Oregon State, Pacific, Arizona, Utah State and Arizona State. The only breather on that slate seems to be Pacific.

3. With the schedule and the prospect of some pretty good boys being available to make it all interesting, coach Andros would like to stick around to see how far along he's taken Idaho football.

But the underlying thing remains, if he passes up California this year, when will he ever be in such good position to go for a larger school later on?

BYU Rally Beats Michigan State

PROVO, Dec. 24 (AP)—Bright Young came from behind and held the Spartans in check the second half, defeating Michigan State 95-50 Monday night.

Michigan State's Fred Thomann scored 28 in the first half but John Fairchild of the Cougars clamped down on him and the backboard in the second half. Thomann could score only seven points for a game total of 33.

The lead changed hands 17 times in the first half and was tied nine times. Michigan State led 52-50 at intermission.

Siler Is Promoted By Huskie Coach

LONG BEACH, Calif., Dec. 24 (AP)—Washington Coach Jim Owens promoted quarterback Bill Siler to the first team Monday in what was seen by some as an effort to ease discouragement over the loss of fullback Junior Coffey.

Coffey fractured his left foot Saturday and will not play against Illinois in the Rose bowl New Year's day.

Siler was the No. 1 quarterback at the start of the season but contracted hepatitis and did not play after the opening game. Bill Douglas was the regular quarterback the rest of the season.

Antitrust Exemption Is Extended to Pro Golfing Tour by Federal Judge

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 24 (AP)—The Professional Golfers Association of America does not violate anti-trust laws, says a federal judge. In the first anti-trust suit ever brought against the PGA, U.S. district judge Lloyd H. Burke ruled Monday against golfer Herbert C. Deeson of Berkeley, Calif., who asked $210,000 treble damages. Judge Burke's green light for PGA tournament management policies put this country's controlling force of pro golf in the same category as major league baseball and the National football league, other successful sports defenders against anti-trust action.

Diallo Gets Easy Decision Over Fullmer

PARIS, Dec. 24 (AP)—Fast-jabbing Souleymane Diallo, Senegal, punched out a 10-round decision Monday night over Don Fullmer, West Jordan, Utah, at the Palais des Sports. Diallo weighed 154½, Fullmer 158½.

The Senegalese pressed Fullmer from the opening bell, moving in relentlessly behind a cracking jab. Fullmer, 24-year-old brother of former world middleweight champion Gene Fullmer, backed-pedaled throughout most of the fight.

Blocking beautifully, Diallo gave Fullmer few chances to score with his combination which usually began with a left hook to the head. Diallo, billed as the French middleweight champion, took charge in the third round and Fullmer never solved his attack.

Under French rules the cards of the two judges and the referee were not disclosed. The Associated Press scored the fight for Diallo 6-2-2.

Houston Wins Bidding War For Don Trull

PALO ALTO, Calif., Dec. 24 (AP)—Record-setting quarterback Don Trull of Baylor signed with the Houston Oilers of the American football league Monday night for an unannounced but apparently sizable sum.

"The contract was satisfactory to both parties," said Trull.

Oilers general manager and head coach Frank Fry said it was against league policy to disclose its amount.

"But it is no doubt better than any that were ever made when I was with the Cardinals," he said in reference to his term as head coach of St. Louis of the National Football league.

The Oilers had to outbid Baltimore of the NFL to get Trull, the nation's leading collegiate passer for two years.

Trull is here with the West Shrine team as is his Baylor teammate, tackle Bob Crenshaw, whose signing also was announced by the Oilers.

Ivy said he planned to use Trull next year because he played in a pro-type offense at Baylor. George Biardi, regular Houston quarterback for four seasons, will be 36 next year.

Trull, however, was somewhat doubtful he could immediately become a starter.

"It'll take a lot of work," he said.

Trull was picked as a future in 1962 by the Oilers and Colts.

Crenshaw, 22, 235-pounder, was the Oilers' third pick this year and the No. 11 choice of the Dallas Cowboys of the NFL.

Ivy said he would use Crenshaw at offensive guard.

He called the signings his "two most important to date."

Ortiz Gives Verbal OK to Elorde Bout

NEW YORK, Dec. 24 (AP)—Carlos Ortiz has made a verbal commitment to defend his world lightweight title at Manila about Feb. 1 against Flash Elorde of the Philippines.

Dewey Fragetta, New York representative of Manila promoter Lope Sarreal, said Monday that final details would be ironed out later in a conference with Billy Daly, Ortiz' adviser.

"The Ortiz people have made a verbal commitment," said Fragetta. "A few points have to be worked out, such as the exact date, the percentages and the officials. They should be clarified soon."

Daly said in Englewood, N.J., that he expected to confer with Fragetta Wednesday and also hoped to make definite agreements for three title defenses in 1964, including a match with Kenney Lane of Muskegon, Mich.

Sarreal said in Manila he had received information that the match was on by a call from Fragetta on overseas telephone.

Sarreal did not divulge any terms but he had said previously that he had offered Ortiz $60,000 to defend against Elorde. He said he had left a signed contract in New York before returning to Manila.

Sarreal, father-in-law, and manager of Elorde, said the Community Chest of Manila, a charity organization authorized by the government, will promote the bout in the open air football stadium.

Elorde, who holds the junior lightweight title, has been after the lightweight crown for years ever since Joe Brown held the title.

Florida State Stuns Tulsa

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Dec. 24 (AP)—Florida State surprised Tulsa 91-67 in final minutes of a close game Monday night.

The struggle went most of the way with seven or fewer points separating the teams. The winning Seminole had only a three-point halftime bulge. A rally sent them ahead in the last three minutes.

Bill Kusilek, individual scoring standout of the game with 26 points for Tulsa, kept the Golden Hurricane close on FSU's track throughout.

Cincinnati Nips Kansas State

CINCINNATI, Dec. 24 (AP)—Cincinnati downed Kansas State 72-70 in a thriller Monday night when George Wilson tipped in the winning field goal for the Bearcats with one second left.

The upset-minded Wildcat tied it 70-70. Cincinnati got the ball with 14 seconds left and called a time out.

The Bearcats came back, gave the ball to All-American Ron Bonham who fired and missed, Wilson tipped it in and the game was over.

Cincinnati led at halftime, 35-24.

Pros Ban Mira's Play in Challenge Bowl

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex., Dec. 24 (AP)—The San Francisco 49ers informed the Southwest Challenge bowl Monday that it could not have George Mira, the Miami passing star, for its Jan. 4 game.

It threw the Challenge bowl people into an uproar with Bob Hamric, chairman of the selection committee, threatening suit.

Mira was announced a week ago as quarterback for the Southwest All-Stars in the game matching a southwestern team against the rest of the nation.

Hamric said there had been a brisk ticket sale because of Mira's anticipated presence.

But the 49ers, through general manager Lou Spada, said they would not grant Mira, whose contract they hold, permission to play in the Challenge bowl and that he would have to appear in the Senior bowl Jan. 4 at Mobile.

Hamric said "I believe we have the basis for a lawsuit and I don't know what the board of directors of the Challenge bowl will do. I thought our deal with Mira was as firm and set as any I ever made in my life. I have a telegram in which he agrees to play in the Challenge bowl."

"We even went so far as to pay $1,000 to Mira ($400 above the amount being paid members of the winning team). We agreed to allow him to bring his wife at our expense and invited his pass-catching end, Nick Spinelli, whom we really didn't want. We agreed to send the $1,000 to Mira's coach, Andy Gustafson, who was to hold it until after Mira played in the game here. We have a receipt that Gustafson received the money."

Hamric said Mira was contacted five times and the first four times reaffirmed his intentions of playing here. But the last time Mira said he had been told by the 49ers he would have to play in the Senior bowl. Hamric said Mira told him there was nothing he could do about it.

Hamric said the agreement with Mira was made before he signed with the National Football league club.

Bradds, Shaffer Pace Buckeyes

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Dec. 24 (AP)—Gary Bradds and Jim Shaffer got 49 points Monday night as Ohio State outclassed Houston 70-62 in a dull basketball game.

The Buckeyes, leading by only four points early in the second half, ran off eight straight points to take a 39-27 lead and were never threatened after that.

Bradds fired in 29 points and his 6-foot, 8-inch teammate contributed 20.

Utah Takes 8th In Row 101-72

SALT LAKE CITY, Dec. 24 (AP)—Utah warmed up for the holiday festival basketball tournament in New York this week with a 101-72 victory over New Mexico State Monday night.

It was Utah's eighth straight and Coach Jack Gardner's 500th career victory.

The game was no contest as the Utes moved to an early 28-5 lead and led 53-25 at halftime.

Army Wins

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24 (AP)—Phil Helkie and Mike Billman led an Army scoring spree Monday night as the Cadets crushed American University's basketball team 100-70. Ron Rawlins led the Eagle scoring with 16 points.

Cincinnati Is Only Team In Top Ten Not Entered In Holiday Tournaments

By The Associated Press
Bah, humbug on Cincinnati. With the exception of the fifth-ranked Bearcats, every Top Ten team in the Associated Press poll is entered in one of the over 100 holiday tournaments dotting the basketball map for the next week. Top-ranked Loyola of Chicago will be in Philadelphia for the Quaker City tournament starting Friday, meeting Georgetown in a first-round game. Second-ranked Kentucky,

Montreal Pro Gridders Get 2 Illinois Men

MONTREAL, Dec. 24 (AP) — The Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Pro Football league Monday signed Northern Illinois quarterback George Bork, star of the 1963 Little All-America team. They also signed his favorite receiver, end Hugh Rohrschneider.

Bork set a flock of American college records at Northern Illinois. His career figures showed 577 completions in 902 attempts for a 640 average and a total of 6,782 yards, all records, along with 43 completions and 68 attempts in one game.

Bork was passed up in the draft by both the National and American Football league, possibly because of the minor opposition he played against.

"I don't care if he was playing against a girl's school team," said Montreal Coach Jim Trimble. "A player who completes as many passes as that deserves a full look. We plan to give him just that."

Bork and Rohrschneider played in the North-South game in Miami last Saturday, and came to terms with Trimble after the game. Bork had spent a week in Canada as a guest of the Montreal team.

Chargers Claim Total Offense Title

NEW YORK, Dec. 24 (AP) — The San Diego Chargers, Western division champions of the American Football league, claimed the total offense crown and finished second in total defense, league statistics showed Monday.

The Chargers, who'll meet either the Buffalo Bills or Boston Patriots for the league title, gained a total of 5,160 yards, an average of 368.5 per game. The Chargers' defense allowed 3,904 yards runner-up to Boston's 3,715.

In Sunday's final game of the season, Oakland's Olem Daniels gained 158 yards to break the AFL rushing mark. Daniels needed 187 to break the standard of 1,066 set last season by Buffalo's Cookie Gilchrist. He wound up with 1,068.

Two individual records fell. Fred Glick of Houston had 12 interceptions and Jim Fraser's 45.8 punting average for 78 kicks set the other marks.

Tobin Rote of San Diego, the league's most valuable player in an Associated Press poll, won the passing title and Lionel Taylor of Denver took the pass receiving crown for the fourth straight year.

King Is Winner In PBA Tourney

HIALEAH, Fla., Dec. 24 (AP) — Johnny King, 42-year-old bowling veteran from Chicago, won his first major tournament Monday by defeating Glenn Allison of St. Louis 214-169 in finals of the Professional Bowlers association $25,000 Hialeah Open.

King was seeded into the last game of the four-match finals because he led the 40-game qualifiers. Allison posted victories over Mel Henderlitt of Orlando, Fla., and Vern Downing of San Francisco.

King received $4,000 for his four-day effort. Allison made $2,000, Downing $1,500 and Henderlitt $1,300.

WHEELING, W. Va., Dec. 24 (AP) — Wheeling racing operator James Edwards asked the FBI Monday to investigate five costly fires that have destroyed his two race tracks and about 50 horses during the past 14 months.

winner of its own Kentucky Invitational last week, will wait until next Monday before starting play against Loyola of New Orleans in the Sugar bowl tournament.

Third-ranked Michigan, fourth-ranked UCLA and 10th-ranked NYU make up part of the field for the Los Angeles Classic beginning Thursday. The Wolverines and Violets meet in a first round game while the Bruins tackle Yale.

Sixth-ranked Vanderbilt will meet Memphis State when the Vanderbilt invitation gets underway Thursday, seventh-ranked Davidson gets Penn in the Charlotte Holiday tournament beginning Monday. Duke will tackle Auburn in the Sugar bowl and Oregon State opens in the far west classic at Portland, Ore., against Louisiana State.

Oregon State jumped back into the Top Ten again this week, while Toledo dropped out. Loyola, Kentucky and Michigan kept their places in a tightening race but there was considerable shuffling below the Big Three.

Loyola grabbed 20 first-place votes and 409 points to 17 first and 393 points for the Wildcats. Michigan drew the remaining eight top votes and totaled 360 points in balloting by The Associated Press' special panel of sportswriters and sportscasters.

UCLA climbed from sixth to fourth while Cincinnati dropped one notch. Vanderbilt jumped two spots to No. 6 and Davidson vaulted three to No. 7.

Duke dropped from fifth to eighth after losing to Michigan 83-67, and NYU fell from seventh to 10th following a 77-78 overtime defeat by Wagner.

The Top Ten teams with first place votes in parenthesis, and won and lost records through Dec. 21 and points on a 10-0-0-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis.

New Mexico Hits Late to Win 63-61

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Dec. 24 (AP) — Skip Kruzich dropped in two free throws with 10 seconds remaining to give New Mexico a 63-61 victory Monday night over Purdue.

After a nip-and-tuck battle, Purdue tied the score 61-all with 44 seconds left, but Ron Hughes fouled Kruzich and officials ruled it intentional.

New Mexico gained its widest margin at halftime with the score 38-29.

One field-goal was the difference in the contest as New Mexico connected on 23 of 50 and Purdue 22 of 60. Each team scored 17 free throws.

Sold Out

SEATTLE, Dec. 24 (AP) — The last 75 of about 44,000 Rose Bowl tickets assigned to the University of Washington were sold Monday.

"There are no more to be had," said Evan Travis, university ticket manager.

All went to season ticket-holders, alumni, the faculty, staff and students. There was no public sale.

Burton Will See Action in Playoff Game

BOSTON, Dec. 24 (AP) — Ron Burton, sidelined all season, definitely will play in the Eastern division playoff at Buffalo Saturday, Coach Mike Holovak of the Boston Patriots said Monday. Holovak expressed pleasure at the way Burton ran in drills as the Patriots prepare for the American Football league regional showdown.

Holovak said he wouldn't decide who to sit down until the last minute. Burton, strong boy of the Boston running attack a year ago, was sidelined by a back injury at the start of preseason drills last August.

"We've got to respect Burton," Buffalo coach Lou Saban, the ex-Patriot leader, said in a long distance telephone interview. "His return should affect our defensive thinking."

Holovak said he was making no excuses, that the Patriots are going to Buffalo with every intention of winning the title but did show concern over the physical condition of the defensive unit.

"After all, our defense has been our stock in trade all season," Holovak said. Boston tight end Tony Romeo missed the workout because he was caught in a snowstorm in Charlotte, N. C., but all other hands went full speed.

"This should be a ball game to end all ball games," Saban said. "Each team knows the other. One play or one break could make all the difference."

SETS POINT MARK

STILLWATER, Okla., Dec. 24 (AP) — Oklahoma State university shattered a school scoring record for the second time in six days here Monday night in a 92-68 basketball victory over Los Angeles State.

Utah State Beats Bradley 95-90

LOGAN, Dec. 24 (AP) — Utah State outlasted Bradley Monday night 95-90, in a game that saw six players foul out in a wild final quarter.

The Aggies started slow, trailed Bradley 43-39 at halftime, then moved up to a 63-63 tie in slightly more than ten minutes of the second half. Surging ahead, they built up a 13-point lead.

Bradley pressed hard in the last two minutes, outscoring the Aggies 14-6. The Braves hampered Utah State in the final quarter with a full-court press.

Hecklers

NEW DELHI, Dec. 24 (AP) — In a match with cold war overtones, South Korea defeated North Korea in the Asian volleyball tournament Sunday, 7-15, 15-7, 12-15, 15-12, 15-3, while rival rooters jeered at each other and sang songs.

The North Koreans had a feminine cheering section that won the honors. North Korean girls are among the most enthusiastic singers and anti-West slogan shouters in the communist world.

The players, however, were sportsmanlike throughout.

Hunt Has Second Skating Record

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Dec. 24 (AP) — Dick Hunt of Crescenta, Calif., turned in his second record-breaking performance in two days Monday in tryouts for the nation's Olympic skating team.

Hunt flashed the 5,000 meters in 8 minutes, 36 seconds. The time is about seven seconds faster than the best previously attained by an American skater, said Les Freisinger of Los Angeles, coach of the team.

In Sunday's trials, Hunt won the 1,500-meter race in 2:11.

Neutral Coaches Split Over Picks In NFL Title Tilt

NEW YORK, Dec. 24 (AP)—Coaches of the four teams that have played both the Chicago Bears and the New York Giants are divided on the outcome of Sunday's National Football league title game at Wrigley field. Two like the Giants, one favors the Bears and one straddles the fence.

Jack Christiansen, whose San Francisco 49ers were the only team to beat the Bears in 14 regular season games, thinks the Giants will win. The Giants thumped the 49ers 48-14 later and there were complaints about rubbing it in.

Skiing

SUN VALLEY, Dec. 24—The Sun Valley news bureau Monday reported good skiing on all runs at the central Idaho resort.

It listed 25 inches of Bald mountain, 20 on Roundhouse, 17 on Dollar mountain and 12 on the valley floor.

Clem Daniels Breaks Mark By One Yard

NEW YORK, Dec. 24 (AP)—By gaining 159 yards against Houston in the final game of the season last Sunday, Oakland's Clem Daniels broke an American Football league record with a yard to spare.

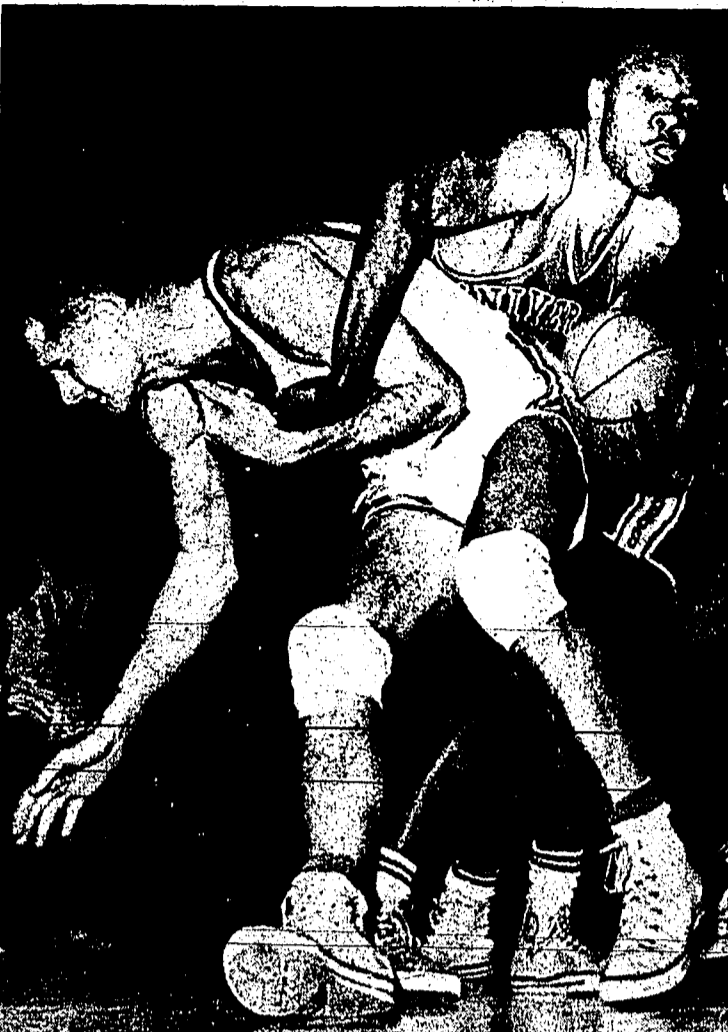

Going into the game, Daniels needed 157 yards to break the season rushing record of 1,000 yards set last season by Cookie Gilchrist of Buffalo. He wound up with 1,098 yards on 214 carries for an average of 5.1 yards on each attempt. Since the Raiders netted only 1,594 yards by rushing, Clem's efforts were no mean contribution to Oakland's successful 10-4 season.

Two other records fell to the regular AFL season end. Fred Glick of Houston intercepted his 12th pass, beating the league mark held by Goose Gosnolin of Denver and Lee Riley of New York, and Jim Fraser of Denver made an average of 45.8 yards on 78 punts, wiping out the 45.0 average made by Billy Atkins of Buffalo in 1961.

Tobin Rote, the veteran San Diego Chargers' quarterback, beat out Tom Flores of Oakland for the all-important passing title. Rote received 41 efficiency points to Flores' 38 in a rating system based on yards, touchdowns, interceptions, completion percentage and yards-per-attempt. Rote completed 170 of 287 passes for 2,510 yards and an 8.7 yard average.

A couple of other veteran passers also did well—George Blanda of Houston with 3,003 yards and Len Dawson of Kansas City with 24 touchdown passes, both tops.

Lionel Taylor of Denver took the pass receiving title for the fourth straight year, catching 78 passes for 1,101 yards. The 78 catches were far short of his record of 100 in 1961, but his 14.1 yard average was the best of his pro career.

WRIST LOCK held by Purdue university's Earl Brown immobilizes University of New Mexico's Claude Williams during a basketball game Monday night. Williams held the ball until he finally wrestled free of Brown's grasp. New Mexico downed the Boiler-makers 63-61. (AP wirephoto)

Deadline Noted for State Bowling Meet

Entry deadline for the 17th annual Idaho State Bowling association's state tournament is Jan. 5, Vernon E. Smith, Twin Falls, state secretary and tournament manager, reminded Idaho bowlers Monday night. The tournament will be divided between one Twin Falls bowling house and another at Kimberly between Feb. 15 and April 5, Smith said. He noted teams will bowl at the Kim-Lanes, Kimberly, while the Magic Bowl, Twin Falls, will be the site of singles and doubles competition.

Howe Is Canada Athlete of Year

DETROIT, Dec. 24 (AP)—"It's a tremendous thrill. I will always treasure it." Gordie Howe of the National Hockey league Detroit Red Wings was telling how it felt to be named Canada's male athlete of the year. The honor was voted Howe by a panel of 154 writers and broadcasters in a Canadian Press poll.

The 35-year-old Red Wing star who broke Maurice Richard's career goal scoring mark of 544 early this season, barely edged Russ Jackson, quarterback of the Ottawa Rough Riders. Howe totaled 220 points and Jackson 215 on a 3-2-1 point basis for first, second and third place votes.

Davidson Is New Coach at Montana State

MISSOULA, Mont., Dec. 24 (AP)—Hugh Davidson, 35, assistant coach for the past six years, was named head football coach at Montana State university today. Dr. Wally Schwarz, athletic director, said Davidson was selected from more than 50 applicants.

Coach Ray Jenkins was fired last month. Under Davidson's direction, a "new look" is expected in Montana State university football. He is an advocate of the winged T and slot-T formations, with emphasis on a wide open type of game. Jenkins was fired Nov. 22 after completing a year of one win and nine losses, the worst that MSU has had since 1958 when the Grizzlies went 0-8 in Jenkins' first year as head mentor. "No effort will be spared in giving the university and its supporters a fine football team," Davidson said after his selection. The athletic department recently increased the number of football scholarships from 55 to 60 to bring MSU in line with other Big Sky conference schools.

Christiansen Is Retained as Head Coach of San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 24 (AP)—Jack Christiansen gets more time to pull the San Francisco 49ers out of the National Football league cellar.

Just how long they won't say, nor how much he'll receive for the rebuilding effort, but the 49ers did announce Monday that the 35-year-old former defensive ace has been reappointed head coach.

Following the season, players were virtually unanimous in support of Christiansen's continuing as coach. President Vic Morabito said no one else was considered. Chris took control when Red Hickey quit Sept. 30 after the 49ers had lost five exhibition games and their first three league battles. Under the interim coach, the club posted only a 2-9 record yet showed improvement through continually plagued with injuries.

Quarterback John Brode, defensive halfback Jerry Mertens and defensive end Charlie Krueger all were on the ailing list most of the campaign. Christiansen said his aim for the team is better execution of a limited number of plays. He'll stick with the basic pro T.

easy to handle and then concentrate on execution," he declared. "Green Bay doesn't have a great number of plays but the team has good execution."

Morabito said, "We feel Chris deserves a full opportunity to coach the club. He took over as interim coach early in the season under adverse circumstances. We feel he merits the chance to develop the team."

Maple Leafs Gain Tie With Rangers

NEW YORK, Dec. 24 (AP)—The Toronto Maple Leafs, scoring while short-handed midway in the final period, salvaged a 1-1 National Hockey league tie with New York Sunday on Bob Nevin's goal.

"I talked only to Chris. The only reason for the delay in my appointment was my health. Doctors advised me to refrain from any club activity for a certain period of time and this I did."

Christiansen said his assistants—Bill Johnson, Jack Myers and Dick Voris—would return. He will be able to appoint another assistant since no one was named to his own defensive backfield coaching position when he was promoted.

The Rangers, with Camille Hoary sitting his 11th goal early in the opening period, protected their advantage until the final period and, with Bob Pulford in the penalty box, had a chance to score a clinching goal but Nevin spoiled it.

Larry Cahon, Ranger defenseman, put the puck on Nevin's stick at mid-ice. Nevin skated in and passed to Ron Stewart. When Ranger goalie Jacques Plante stopped Stewart's shot, Nevin pounced on the rebound and scored his sixth goal.

Tate Given Head Coach Job at Miami

MIAMI, Fla., Dec. 24 (AP)—The University of Miami announced Monday night that Charlie Tate, defensive coach at Georgia Tech, had been given a four-year contract as head football coach.

Tate, 42, will succeed Andy Gustafson, who retired after 17 years as coach to become athletic director.

Tate's appointment was unanimous, said Dr. Henry King Stanford, university president. He said that Tate, among others, had been unanimously endorsed by the faculty athletic committee and the board of trustees.

Stanford said Tate would have a free hand and was expected here later this week to discuss salary and other details. Stanford would not reveal what salary Tate had been offered.

Among others considered for the coaching job were Walt Kichefski, assistant under Gustafson; Bill Peterson of Florida State; Bob Devaney of Nebraska and Hank Stram, coach of Kansas City of the American Football league.

"I'm real thrilled," Tate said. "This is a real Christmas present, a real challenge. I worked there once before in a high school capacity and I have a lot of friends down there. I'm very glad to have the chance to go back and I hope I can do a good job for Miami."

Tate has been coaching at Georgia Tech under Coach Bobby Dodd for seven football seasons. He handled offensive assignments for one year and has been defensive coach ever since. Tate coached at Miami senior high for five years and won four state championships. He was freshman coach at Florida before coming to Georgia Tech.

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

TUESDAY, Dec. 24—Born today, you are adventuresome, and never fail to take advantage of an opportunity as long as it is this side of the law. Fortunately, your intuitive judgment is excellent; hence you usually win even when you take chances which to others might seem too risky. You are witty, independent, and efficient—a combination which can result in brilliant accomplishments. Only take care that you do not mistake sarcasm for wit or you might talk yourself out of many an advantage.

You have a gift for words which, with the necessary "breaks" could gain you fame either in writing or lecturing. Indeed, words plus the necessary education, and coupled with your high ideas and unusual sensitivity, could go to make you an excellent teacher at the university level.

Unless kept under control, your emotions could make trouble for you. You lack patience not with others, but with yourself, and are sometimes apt to abandon a project simply because you feel you are moving too slowly. Remember that Rome wasn't built in a day, and you will get along better with your own nature.

Among those born on this date are: Ava Gardner, actress; Matthew Arnold, English poet, critic, essayist; Howard Hughes, millionaire producer; Kit Carson, American pioneer scout.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 25
CAPRICORN (Dec. 23—Jan. 20)—This Christmas day should bring you real happiness. Morning hours bring friendly remembrances; return in kind.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21—Feb. 19)—A day which shows signs of success for the Aquarius seeking romance. Don't overlook spiritual benefits of giving.

PISCES (Feb. 20—March 20)—You may be able to combine family and business associates pleasantly if you can avoid differences of opinion.

ARIES (March 21—April 20)—The day begins happily and can continue so if you avoid too much excitement. Consider children—but don't behave like one!

TAURUS (April 21—May 21)—Happiness and contentment attend Taurus this special day. The presence of loved ones should add just the right touch!

GEMINI (May 22—June 21)—Morning hours are happiest. Sidelstep friction during afternoon by avoiding conflicting social engagements. Contact loved ones early.

CANCER (June 22—July 23)—If there are children in the home this should be the happiest of mornings. Settle any adult arguments in private.

LEO (July 24—Aug. 23)—If disappointed, avoid showing it. Olive loved ones the benefit of the doubt where they may have failed to please you.

VIRGO (Aug. 24—Sept. 23)—Seek joy through friends and relatives. Be cautious during afternoon festivities when chance of accident mounts.

LIBRA (Sept. 24—Oct. 23)—Peace and good will should be the keynote of your home atmosphere. Afternoon may bring social complications; be tactful.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24—Nov. 23)—Being a good manager and a good social mixer will be greatly to your benefit today. Be diplomatic with business associates.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23—Dec. 22)—Now the weeks of planning pay off handsomely with a happy well-organized day.

WEDNESDAY, Dec. 25—Born today, on Christmas Day, you have been given rare unusual talents. You have the mind to think clearly, and the analytical powers to make discerning decisions and to act with discretion. Your love of your fellow man is strong and, just so long as you do not give in to a slight tendency to become overemotional about it, you can, if you wish, leave this world a far better place than you found it!

You have a magnetism which works wonders on an audience, and were you to enter public life of any kind you would most likely be an immediate and lasting success. Make it a point to become well-informed on a great many subjects, for you have a gift for public speaking which should not be wasted on a small talk.

You will probably never be rich, for your interests do not really lie where money is. Nevertheless, you should never want for the necessities of life no matter how difficult the road, for your nature is such that there will always be those ready and willing to aid you materially and spiritually when and if it is necessary. Only take care that you do not try to take advantage of such a circumstance; it would not do to turn fine points into bad ones!

Among those born on this day are: Rebecca West, author; Clara Barton, reformer; Tony Martin, singer, actor; Sir Isaac Newton, scientist; Elbridge T. Gerry, philanthropist.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

THURSDAY, Dec. 26
CAPRICORN (Dec. 23—Jan. 20)—You can make important gains today if you follow through on some idea of your own. Be sure you are backed by competent talent.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21—Feb. 19)—If those Christmas checks need spending, this is a good day to bargain hunt. Exert caution this evening.

PISCES (Feb. 20—March 20)—Plan to attend to important matters during the afternoon hours when things are more favorable. Evening not made for exertion.

ARIES (March 21—April 20)—Occupational plans should begin to work out in your favor today. Avoid pushing authorities for definite facts and figures.

TAURUS (April 21—May 21)—Morning and afternoon favorable for all activities. Be warned against an excess of excitement in evening. Keep reasonable hours.

GEMINI (May 22—June 21)—Avoid becoming involved in activities not essential to this day's success. Benefit by taking things easy this evening.

CANCER (June 22—July 23)—A strenuous day which could easily overtax your strength. Take periodic rest periods; be fresh for an enjoyable evening.

LEO (July 24—Aug. 23)—Day-time hours should be devoted to employment in and out of the home. Let yourself go at evening and enjoy yesterday's remains.

VIRGO (Aug. 24—Sept. 23)—A day to be especially tactful with friends and neighbors. Avoid gloating over yesterday's gains and you'll avoid an argument.

LIBRA (Sept. 24—Oct. 23)—If you've a long holiday weekend at your disposal, this would be a good time to visit distant friends. Care advised in travel, however.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24—Nov. 23)—A good day for all Scorpio's efforts. Catch up on business if you

Judge Asked To Set Aside Convictions

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 24 (UPI)—Federal Judge John F. Kennedy Monday took under advisement motions to set aside small fraud and conspiracy convictions of three men.

The convictions were returned recently by a jury in Pendleton.

The motions were filed by Richard D. Walker, 41, Los Angeles; John M. Phillips, 38, Evanston, Ill., and Jack Chero, 37, Chicago. They claimed there was insufficient evidence at the trial to sustain conviction and that the court erred by allowing prejudicial and improper statements and evidence.

Four men were found innocent at the Pendleton trial, which involved sale of lands south of Burns in Harney county.

Connally Hopes To See Johnson

AUSTIN, Tex., Dec. 24 (UPI)—Gov. John Connally, gravely wounded by President Kennedy's assassin, said Monday he hopes to get a chance to talk with President Johnson when the President returns home for Christmas.

Connally, a close friend of Johnson, said he is planning to attend the Cotton bowl game between Texas and Navy in Dallas New Year's day, weather permitting, "and I feel up to it."

Connally looked fit although he has lost 10 pounds since he was shot in Dallas Nov. 22.

Burned Church Is Searched For Arson Clue

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Dec. 24 (UPI)—Detectives and foremen searched the charred, snow-covered skeleton of a burned-out inter-racial church Monday but found nothing to indicate evidence of arson.

The Negro pastor, of the Roanoke Baptist church, Rev. James D. Rice, had complained to President Johnson last week that there was discrimination in Hot Springs' famed "bathhouse row" spas. He said his life had been threatened as a result.

"Personally, I can't see any foul play," said Police Chief John Ermy. "Up to right now, the detectives have not come up with anything that looks like anything was wrong." Fire Chief Vern Smith and County Prosecutor David Whittington agreed. Ermy said he would talk further with Rev. Rice, who also is local head of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored people.

Solons Get Static About New Offices

BOISE, Dec. 24 (AP)—Picks at home are starting to give some of Idaho's legislators, particularly in southwestern Idaho, static about renting quarters for agencies to be moved out of the statehouse.

When word first got out that two floors in Boise's new Bank of Idaho building were under consideration as a location, money-minded taxpayers started yelling.

They claimed there might be other space available in the capital city at perhaps a lower price.

Gov. Robert E. Smylie and the legislative council settled the question—at least as to choice of housing—Saturday. Smylie said he wanted to rent two floors of the bank building for agencies to be moved out of legislative space in the statehouse and for agencies quartered elsewhere in the city.

He said the space would be available about Feb. 1 and suggested plans for moving day be started by that time. Cost of the office space Smylie said the state needs would run an estimated $2,500 at the most.

The council debated the governor's choice before concurring as required by law—in the time and amount. Some frankly lobbied for another building—one once used by the telephone company—between Ninth and Tenth streets on Jefferson in downtown Boise. Like the bank building it is two blocks from the capitol.

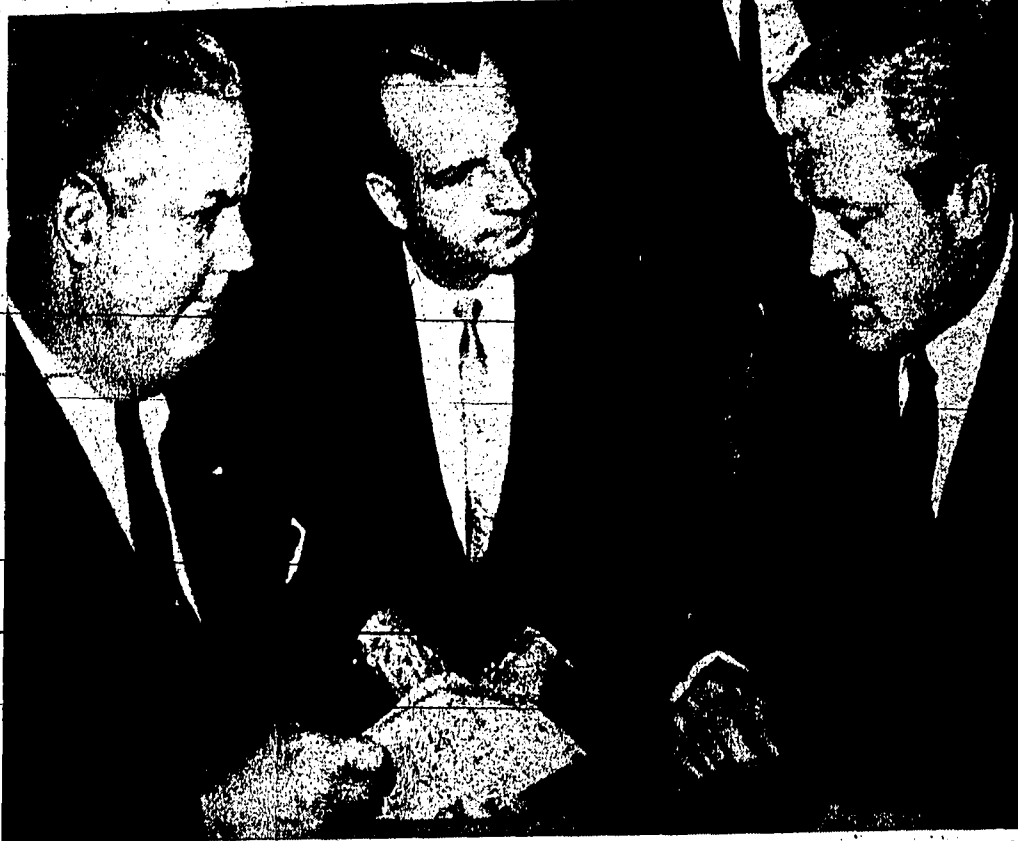

Rental charges quoted the council for this building were somewhat lower than those for the bank. However, there was an additional charge mentioned of $2,500 a year for parking space. There also appeared to be some other costs involved.

For one thing, the owner of that building made it clear he would not lay out any large sums of cash for renovation that might be necessary.—another factor in the council's decision.

Such problems as employee morale, good working conditions and others also were discussed by the council along with putting as many agencies as possible in a central location for taxpayer convenience.

In spite of all the talk, qualifying and other wise, over the choice of quarters the council in essence did go along with Smylie. Some said frankly they felt the choice of building was an executive department rather than legislative decision, anyway.

One lawmaker, Rep. Robert Green, R., Ada, Friday evening urged the council to stay out of the choice matter. Green, head of the council's building subcommittee, said that "as far

Bear River Group Lauds President

GEORGETOWN, Dec. 24 (AP)—The Bear River Protective committee Monday made public a letter to President Lyndon B. Johnson, praising a water policy statement by his administration as "the most important in 50 years."

In another letter, to Secretary of Interior Stewart Udall, it declared that the result will be an end to "river piracy" in the West and clearing off the log jam on federal water projects.

The committee, which has objected to proposed use of Idaho water in Utah through the Bear River project, offered Johnson "deepest appreciation" for the statement.

The letters refer to Udall's declaration Dec. 11 that the administration will not permit diversion of Idaho water to any other region.

"To individuals and organizations deeply interested in reclamation and conservation, and familiar with the problems of the arid West," Johnson was told, "this statement of policy by Mr. Udall is the most important in 50 years."

Committee Chairman Lloyd Dunn wrote that the Idaho congressional delegation is being asked to insert the statement in the records of the senate and house, and of the interior and insular affairs committees.

The letter to Udall praised the proposal of Gov. Smylie for bond-financed state development of some water projects. It said the "citizens of Idaho will give him full backing."

"We of the Idaho Bear River drainage have for the past 14 months been on the rack of the wheel to save our water rights," wrote Dunn. "Actually had application filed against our water to dry up our river and tributaries forever, to be transported out of the state, except for a spurious token . . ."

Dunn said the committee has received support from Reclamation Commissioner Floyd E. Dominy, the entire congressional delegation, and the governor.

"With your statement of policy you have blown up the log jam that had developed on federal projects and the way is now clear to constructively legislate

Navy Shoe Policy Is Expensive

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24 (AP)—The general accounting office said Monday that the United States is wasting $158,000 a year because the navy refuses to stop using brown dress shoes.

In a report to congress, the GAO said the army, air force, and marines all use black dress shoes, but the navy still prefers brown.

The report said the defense department has asked the navy to re-examine its dress shoe policy, but added:

"On the basis of past experience, if the navy does not agree to eliminate the brown dress shoes, it appears doubtful that the defense supply agency will require the navy to do so."

Governor Asks Help for Coal Mine Industry

OLYMPIA, WASH., Dec. 24 (AP)—Gov. Albert D. Rosellini Monday urged Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara to help the state's ailing coal mining industry get back on its feet.

The best tonic McNamara could prescribe would be orders for about 20,000 tons of coal a year for military installations in the state, according to the governor.

Rosellini said he had been advised that the installations are getting the coal now from out-of-state sources.

The governor said that the very idea of military posts in Washington getting their coal from outside the state was disturbing enough. He added:

"In view of an economic crisis facing our state's coal mining industry, the use of out of state coal to the exclusion of our own product presents a most serious problem, indeed."

Integration Struggle Washes Out Minstrel Show Tradition

By United Press International
The waves of the integration struggle have washed away a 100-year-old American tradition that depended largely on the Negro people.

The minstrel show is gone. It was one of the marvels of the theater and of the men's club extravaganza at the high school auditorium.

Minstrel-loving bankers, preachers and the town characters would black themselves up with burnt cork, pull on white gloves, cutaway coats and bright-striped britches. When the curtains parted, the audience was in for two hours of shoulder-tapping, innocent fun.

White actors in blackface had fun with the minstrels but they couldn't match Negro perform-with the spirit of two end men in a fist fight. They argued that minstrels portrayed Negroes in a degrading manner as bums, loafers and numbskulls.

In towns in the south, where word of a minstrel show always drew a capacity crowd, the audiences never made such an evaluation. Minstrels were regarded simply as pure fun and the performers were looked upon with great esteem.

But the minstrels have just about died because of the complaints.

In these latter days of the civil rights crisis, things have grown super-sensitive.

In Philadelphia last week, more than 100 mummies parade marchers demonstrated at the home of magistrate Elias Myers, parade director for a traditional New Year's day festivity. Myers and the city recreation commissioner had decreed there could be no black-

GIFTS-OF-THE-MAGI

And here I have lonely related to you the chronicle of two foolish children in a flat who most unwisely sacrificed for each other the greatest treasures of their house.

There are not many laughs in a situation that produced 11 deaths, thousands of arrests and large scale damage this year. Perhaps 1964 will be brighter, with room for a laugh.

But in a last word to the wise of these days let it be said that of all who give gifts these two were of the wisest. Of all who give and receive gifts, such as they are the wisest. Everywhere they are the wisest. They are the Magi.

Stockpiling of Copper Sighted

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24 (AP)—The office of emergency planning may increase stockpiling of copper because demand for the metal would be "practically unlimited" during the nuclear war, Rep. Sherman P. Lloyd, R., Utah, said Monday.

Lloyd said in a statement that OEP officials had told him copper stocks were adequate for present needs but that a preliminary study indicated "nuclear war requirements are practically unlimited."

However, Lloyd said, no decision on possible increased stockpiling is expected until after a review which will take about a year to complete.

ALTHOUGH IT IS fairly large by earth standards (12 feet), the Explorer 19 balloon satellite is so small in space even scientists using high-powered telescopes could not find it after launching. The satellite was designed to help determine density and temperature of the atmosphere at various altitudes. A technician of the national aeronautics and space administration's Langley research center at Hampton, Va., inspects it inflated. White dots were painted on for temperature control to insure operation of the tracking beacon, solar cells and batteries mounted on the sphere's skin. Due to parallax—as opposed to an equatorial orbit (one that follows the equator)—it may be seen only at dawn and dusk, if scientists find it, that is, and tell you in which section of the sky you should look.

14-Year-Old Rudolf Still Guides Christmas Sleigh

NEW YORK, Dec. 24 (AP)—Edie Duchin, talking to a friend in the summer of 1949, exclaimed, "Do you know what that Johnny Marks wants me to play at the Waldorf? Some song called 'Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer.' He's got to be out of his mind!"

RCA, considering "Rudolph" for Perry Como, liked it all except the last line. Marks recalls, "My natural inclination was to change it." But he consulted an old friend, Carmen Lombardo, who advised him not to change a word or a note, for anybody. "So I called the fellow at Victor. That was some decision, when I had one of the big names interested in singing it."

Gene Autry wasn't too crazy about the song, as he listened to a demonstration record sung by Guy Mitchell on his home phonograph, but his wife liked it. She asked Gene to pick a Christmas song he thought would be a hit and put "Rudolph" on the back of the 78, for her.

Autry's record, "Here Comes Santa Claus" and "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer," came out Sept. 19 (Christmas music was issued earlier in the season) and immediately started selling. Buyers and radio stations played "Rudolph."

Johnny Marks, who had written the song early in 1949 because he liked the title of a children's book, had formed his own company to publish it and personally had taken it around to entertainers and recording companies, realized he wasn't going to end the year in bankruptcy.

He says, "I thought it was a very good song, but I couldn't conceive of this avalanche that was going to happen."

By Christmas, night club pianists, including Duchin, the hands and the vocalists were doing "Rudolph" every night. The Autry record sold two million copies. Columbia's next-best-selling record for the year sold a mere 300,000.

In 1950, with 15 artists recording the song, and all selling well, the Autry record sold a million and a half more.

Now, the between 250 and 300 different versions of the record have sold an estimated 37,500,000 copies. There are 15 new ones this year. Marks' company, St. Nicholas Music, Inc., has sold nearly three million copies of the sheet music.

Marks, 54, born in Mount Vernon, N.Y., left Colgate university to travel around the world playing the piano. He'd been writing tunes and words since he was 14 and occasionally had songs published. "When I was doing well enough with my songs," he says, "I quit playing."

He presently lives in Greenwich Village with his wife and three children, writes music until the early morning hours and arrives at the publishing company office near noon.

In 1960 Brenda Lee recorded his "Rockin' Around the Christmas Tree." He says, "It was written strictly for teen-agers."

Exchanges To Close On Holiday

United Press International Stock exchanges, commodity markets and banks throughout the United States and Canada will be closed Christmas day. On Christmas eve U.S. stock markets will conduct full sessions. Commodity exchanges plan to close at noon local time. The Chicago Mercantile exchange closes one hour and 15 minutes earlier. The London stock exchange, metals market and most commodity exchanges will close early Christmas eve. In Canada the Winnipeg grain exchange will close from noon Christmas eve until Friday, Dec. 27, to observe Boxing Day, the first weekday after Christmas. Let aside, to give Christmas boxes to postmen and other civil servants. In London and most of Europe, banks, commodity markets and stock exchanges also will be closed on Boxing day.
