Thirteen projects in district two, which includes a large part of the Magic Valley area, are scheduled as part of the 1964 Idaho state highway construction program, the highway department announced today. About 20 miles of interstate highway construction is scheduled in this area. The Idaho board of highway directors has approved a 1964 program of between 30 and 35 million dollars for construction contracts, engineering work and acquisition of right of way.

Twin Falls Couple Dies in Elko Crash

ELKO, Dec. 26—What started out to be a combined Christmas day ride and family reunion ended in tragedy about 3:45 p.m. Wednesday when a Twin Falls couple was killed in a two-car collision about 11 miles east of here on U.S. highway 40. The crash also claimed the lives of a Salmon brother and sister. Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Embree, 260 Heyburn avenue west, were killed when the car in which they were riding collided head-on with a car carrying Michael D. Miller, 18, and his sister, Jeanne J. Miller, 17, both Salmon. Jerry Combs, 16, Mrs. Embree's son, is in an Elko hospital with a broken leg.

Most Idaho Highways Are Bare and Dry

By The Associated Press
Snow was still reported on a few Idaho highways today, but they were bare and dry over most of the state. Bare highways with slick spots were reported in the Arco-Idaho Falls, St. Anthony and Salmon areas, including highways 191 and 91 into Montana. State police said there was fog along 191 into West Yellowstone. Highways 91 and 191 south to Utah from Pocatello were bare and dry with spots of black ice. Roads in the Pocatello-McCammon area were bare and dry. It also was bare and dry in the Twin Falls, Boise and Lewiston areas. So was Whitebird hill on U. S. 95.

Senate, House Plan Brief Friday Meets

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26 (UPI)—The senate and house, their Christmas holiday marred by the foreign aid bill tieup, will hold brief sessions tomorrow. But it's only for the record and no business will be transacted. The "pro forma" meetings are necessary to conform with legal requirements. Only a very few members from each house are expected to be on hand. For all practical purposes, the house has shut up shop for the year and members won't return until Jan. 7 when the second session of the 88th congress convenes.

Fair Weather Prevails In Country

By The Associated Press
Cold air nipped areas in the Southeast today but generally milder temperatures and mostly fair weather prevailed in the major part of the nation. Freezing weather was reported in sections of Florida, southern Georgia and southeast Alabama. In Florida, the mercury dropped to 23 above in Cross City, with readings of 28 in Tallahassee, 30 in Gainesville and 36 in Daytona Beach. Miami's low was 48. But weather bureau officials forecast warmer weather in the Southeast and a little cooler in the Northeast. Little change was indicated in other areas. Temperatures dropped to near zero in parts of Maine and Idaho but no severe cold or heavy snow was reported across the country. Light snow or flurries fell across the Northern tier of states while light rain dampened areas in Oregon and western Washington.

Erhard Has Passed First Big Test

BY JOHN WEYLAND
BONN, Germany, Dec. 26 (AP)—Chancellor Ludwig Erhard heads for his meeting with President Johnson bolstered by a stronger voice in world affairs, thanks to a solution of the Common Market crisis. This was his first big test as West Germany's new leader. Erhard is flying from Bonn Friday for a week-end at the Johnson ranch in Texas and the first full-scale talks since the chancellor and the President took office. Long famous as the author of West Germany's post-war economic boom, Erhard, 66, succeeded former Chancellor Konrad Adenauer Oct. 18 under a cloud of doubt. Adenauer called his former economic minister naive politically. But Erhard made a strong start in foreign affairs by standing up to the formidable French president, Charles de Gaulle, on the eve of the Western German leader's trip to the United States. De Gaulle's stand imperiled the Common Market experiment for West Germany and the four other member nations—Italy, Belgium, Luxembourg and the Netherlands. Erhard stubbornly refused to accept a unified agricultural policy De Gaulle wants until the French president made concessions. Erhard pressed De Gaulle into supporting a U.S.-favored liberal approach on the coming international tariff negotiations in Geneva. Although De Gaulle warned that the Common Market might break up, Erhard remained unruffled. Puffing slowly on a big, black cigar, his trademark, Erhard predicted a solution would be found. It was Monday, after a prolonged foreign ministers conference in Brussels. De Gaulle agreed to the joint tariff stand. Erhard made concessions in farm policy. The result, enthusiastically received in Bonn, boosted Erhard's chances for reelection in 1965, and strengthened his hand in dealing with Johnson.

Business Has Regained Its Momentum

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26 (AP)—Business activity has regained its momentum after a brief lag in November and it now seems likely to produce a sizeable gain the final three months of the year. This assessment of the national economy was made by the commerce department Wednesday in its monthly publication, Survey of Current Business. The department described the pause in November as a temporary interruption in the business tempo, attributed to the period of mourning for President John F. Kennedy. Retail sales picked up sharply in early December and industrial production continued at a high level. The industrial output was buoyed by a November uptick in steel production and a continuation of the steady increase in the output of automobiles.

Ship Passengers Continue to Rap Lakonia's Crew

LONDON, Dec. 26 (AP)—The British liner Arkadia headed for the British Isles today carrying 120 passengers and 150 crewmen who survived the fearful fire aboard its sister ship, the Lakonia. About 100 other survivors refused to sail on another ship of the line. The Arkadia's departure from the Madeira Island port of Punchal was delayed because of the dispute. The controversy over the performance of the Lakonia's captain and crew continued to rage in London, where returning survivors made strong allegations that were denied vigorously. A spokesman for the Greek line, operators of the Lakonia, said that 985 persons out of 1,827 were accounted for, including 89 whose bodies were recovered. But 42 persons were still missing as a result of the fire, that virtually consumed the Lakonia.

Christmas Eve Fire Destroys Sheriff's Records in Camas

FAIRFIELD, Dec. 26—Most of the records of the Camas county sheriff's office were lost in a fire Christmas eve. Sheriff Alvin Lawson said the blaze broke out about 8 p.m. Tuesday in the building behind the courthouse which houses the jail and his office. There were no occupants in the building. Swift action of volunteer firemen and other residents kept the blaze confined to one room in the three-room structure and in the attic. However, smoke and water damage were reported to the entire building, which houses the jail cells and two rooms used by the sheriff. The walls, ceiling and Sheriff Lawson's desk were burned.

Idaho Explores Filing for Unused Water Above Milner

BOISE, Dec. 26 (AP)—Gov. Robert E. Smylie said today the idea of his filing for rights to unused water in the Snake river above Milner dam as proposed by a Boise engineer already is being explored. But he said there is a question as to whether he has legal authority to file. If so, he said a filing by former Gov. Barzilla W. Clark would be legal is being explored," said Smylie. "I would have no objection to it if it were feasible. If it were valid, then the Barzilla Clark filing is valid and would supercede it."

Johnson Bags Deer, Tackles Problems

JOHNSON CITY, Tex., Dec. 26 (AP)—President Johnson, up before dawn, went hunting today and bagged a good-sized buck deer. Then he returned to his ranch and tackled official problems. Johnson dropped the animal with his first shot. A second buck fell before the rifle of a ranch guest, former Gov. Buford Ellington of Tennessee. The hunters were out for four hours in northeastern Blanco county. Johnson and his party traveled to and from his ranch and the hunting ground by jet-powered helicopter.

Vietnamese Forced From Mekong Forts

SAIGON, South Viet Nam, Dec. 26 (AP)—Government troops are abandoning an outmoded system of forts in the Mekong delta in the face of mounting communist pressure, it was learned today. The delta, Viet Nam's rice bowl and main source of income, is also one of the heaviest areas of communist penetration. It lies south of Saigon, between the capital and the South China sea-coast. The last remaining symbols of central government authority for thousands of Vietnamese peasants are now being erased as the small detachments of government troops in the old mud-walled forts are marched away.

226 Killed on Roads; None Die in Idaho

By United Press International
Traffic accidents killed a total of 226 persons across the nation during the 30-hour Christmas holiday, final tabulation showed today. Idaho escaped logging any traffic deaths. The toll was far below the record of 253 for a one-day Christmas holiday set in 1946. But the national safety council said the death rate jumped 20 percent from the normal during the period from 6 p. m. Tuesday until Christmas midnight. The United Press International tabulation, adopted by the safety council as official for this holiday, showed a total of 288 holiday fatalities from various causes. The breakdown: Traffic, 226; fires, 35; plane, 7; miscellaneous, 20; total, 288. Fires ranked as a major cause of holiday tragedy. The victims included 10 children and teenagers. California, with 33 fatalities, had the nation's worst record of automotive deaths over the holiday. Texas followed with 16 and there were 14 in Kansas, 13 in Michigan, and 12 in both Florida and North Carolina. Eight states escaped traffic deaths over the holiday. They were Alaska, Delaware, Hawaii, Idaho, Minnesota, Montana, New Hampshire and North Dakota.

Turks Raid Greek Post On Cyprus

NICOSIA, Cyprus, Dec. 26 (UPI)—Turkish Cypriots today attacked a Greek Cypriot defense position here for four hours, firing with heavy weapons, government sources reported. The sources said the Greeks did not return the fire because they were complying with a truce agreement reached between the two factions with British aid. The Turkish attack, however, was a clear violation of the cease-fire agreement, the sources said. The British army today took command of Greek and Turkish forces stationed on the island to prevent the communal clashes from erupting into civil war. Since the fighting began Saturday 17 persons have been killed and more than 50 wounded, according to official figures.

Gem Racing Committee Meets Friday

BOISE, Dec. 26 (AP)—The newly-appointed Idaho racing committee will meet for the first time Friday to get started on its task of providing machinery for horse racing with pari-mutuel betting. The three members will confer with Gov. Robert E. Smylie, who appointed them pursuant to a court order. The supreme court directed him to name a committee after finding the pari-mutuel betting law constitutional. The most serious problem of the committee may be finding money to finance its operations before the racing season starts. The bill establishing pari-mutuel betting provided no source of revenue until races are licensed. The state is to receive a five per cent cut on all bets, with 20 per cent going for expenses of administering the law. Committee members are Arthur Oppenheimer, Boise, head of a national food sales organization; Leigh Nielsen, Rigby auto dealer, and Clarence Mathews, Oakley rancher.

Smylie Is Pleased With Demo's View

BOISE, Dec. 26 (AP)—Gov. Robert E. Smylie said today he is pleased that State Democratic Chairman Lloyd Walker feels presentation of a detailed plan is needed before a decision is made on a special legislative session. The governor said he made that point in saying Tuesday he will call such a session if members of the legislature indicate in advance they will approve a plan for bond-financed development of Idaho water. That plan is yet to be drafted by a special committee which Smylie said he plans to appoint early in the new year.

Record Tax

CHICAGO, Dec. 26 (AP)—This year marked the first time in history that federal tax collections exceeded 100 billion dollars, the commerce clearing house said today in a review of 1963. The federal government took in almost 106 billion dollars in taxes, up 6.5 billion dollars from 1962, during the 50th anniversary year of the income tax, the statistical agency said.

CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 26 (AP)—Cleveland Press Editor Louis B. Seltzer today predicted 1964 will be the biggest boom year in United States history as world leaders switch emphasis from the cold war to a great international trade struggle. Seltzer, speaking for the 20th consecutive year to the West Cleveland Kiwanis club, said U.S. political and business leaders will keep a wary eye on chaotic trends and tides which might threaten international trade property.

Sadness of East Berlin Visit Told

By ERIKA STAMMLER
Written for The Associated Press
BERLIN, Dec. 26 (AP)— It was wonderful to see my relatives and friends—again. But it was terrible at the same time.

My 84-year-old grandfather thought I had neglected him because I hadn't visited him since the communists built the wall through my home town 28 months ago.

He's still in good physical condition. But you know how these things are with some elderly people. He never really has grasped the reality of the wall.

Consequently he scolded me for not being interested in him and said my dead mother, his daughter, would never have left him alone for nearly 2½ years.

I broke down and cried. Finally I succeeded in convincing him I still loved him when I promised I would see him again before the visiting period ended Jan. 5.

That was Christmas eve, the first Christmas eve I have spent with my relatives in East Berlin since 1960.

I can go over two more times. There are so many of us West Berliners who want to, that they have limited us to three visits each.

At any case, that's better than no visits at all.

I'm worried about grandfather. He lives by himself in a two-room flat. He gets a small pension and now and then a part-time job guarding a parking lot or something like that.

When I got to his place, his neighbors told me he was collecting tickets for a soccer game at a stadium down the street.

When I finally found him, he didn't recognize me. I guess that, for one thing, my Western clothes confused him a bit. They certainly are different from the styles he's used to seeing.

After visiting grandfather, I rushed halfway across town on the rickety subway to see my dead father's sister, her husband and their children.

Because my aunt and her husband are young, they both work and have an easier time than grandfather.

They too were not certain I was coming. Their surprise on seeing me after this long separation had to be seen to be believed.

My three nephews didn't recognize me at first.

My uncle's main Christmas present for his family was a table model television set.

He paid 2,000 marks—$500 at the official exchange rate—for it. It would have cost him about 800 marks—$200—in West Berlin.

But we turned it on to a West Berlin program of Christmas carols and we all sang along with the choir. Then the children opened their presents.

The time went so fast. When it was finally time to go one of my nephews asked me: "Why are you crying Aunt Erika?"

He's too young to understand. Then he put his little arms around my legs and tried to console me by promising to visit me in my home.

Some day he'll know his government won't let him out. When I walked through East German customs on returning to West Berlin, a young border

Projects Are Planned by Legion Post

SHOSHONE, Dec. 26—Projects to be carried out by the local American Legion post were listed this week by officers.

The projects include: the birthday calendar; possible lighting of the baseball and football field and tentative plans for a countryside spelling contest.

Robert Haddock, Joe Pagona and Herb Love are members of a committee to investigate further details of the field-lighting project. E. I. Shaw gave estimates of cost from the Idaho Power company.

It would be about $4,000 if sofe of the old lighting equipment on the present field is used. The new lighting would provide for lights for night games for the Little League baseball during the summer.

The outfield of the baseball diamond would be the new football field if the plans go through and both sports would be benefited.

Haddock, summer baseball manager, said more than 100 boys participate in the summer program. Biggest handicap has been necessity of playing games and holding practices in daylight since some of the boys and all of the coaches cannot take time from work for daylight practices.

The county-wide spelling contest was first discussed several years ago but it was too late in the winter to proceed. It is designated to promote interest in spelling and include students from all schools of the county. Harry Eden and Herb Love will discuss the project with school executives. Committeemen on the birthday calendar are Haddock and Hal Ross for Shoshone residential area, Pagona and Wally Burkett for Shoshone business district.

Walker Is In Favor of Bond Study

BOISE, Dec. 26—State Democratic Chairman Lloyd Walker says he is in favor of a study of any program for development of Idaho water, including Gov. Robert E. Smylie's bond finance proposal.

But he said he believes the governor is "premature" in suggesting that a special legislative session be called to consider his proposal.

Smylie said Tuesday he will call a 1964 special session if at least two-thirds of the lawmakers approve the plan in advance after it is drafted by a special committee he expects to name after the first of the year.

"I don't believe any of the legislators are conversant enough with the proposal to be in a position to properly answer the question at this time," said Walker.

"I think it would be well if the governor gave us a more detailed outline of the plan and its possible effects before anybody is asked to make a decision on it."

MOSCOW, Dec. 26 (AP)—The Soviet news agency Tass reported today that Samoli students in Moscow had met to protest a demonstration last week by Ghanaian students and Western news reports of the demonstration.

Tass said the Somalis, at a meeting Wednesday, said the Ghanaian demonstration was carried out by "a small group of African students who made themselves obnoxiously notorious."

The Somalis, Tass continued, adopted a resolution saying that reports of the demonstration by Western newsmen were "designed to divert the attention of the peoples from the brutalities committed by the imperialists."

Sea Disaster Described by American

(Editor's note—The following account of the Lakonia disaster was given The Associated Press by Ivor S. Buchanan, an American consulting engineer at the air force base in England. Buchanan, from Atlanta, Ga., and his wife Dorothy of Wilmington, Vt., were among survivors landed at Funchal.)

By IVOR S. BUCHANAN
FUNCHAL, Madeira, Dec. 26 (AP)—We had planned it as a quiet evening. The ship was heading for Madeira and we wanted to rest up for a full day with friends on the island.

Some of the younger passengers were enjoying a pre-Christmas party. The idea was to go dressed as hoboes.

Passengers were enjoying a late movie—I do not remember what it was. Many were joining in group singing of Christmas carols in the lounge.

Dorothy and I retired about 11:30 p. m. I was dozing off as the ship moved smoothly through the calm seas and my wife was still reading when the alarm bell sounded.

We both got up and the first thing I thought was this is a hell of a time to have a fire drill—but my wife put on a slip and her underwear, and a coat—my coat—and I put a suit over my pajamas, stockings, shoes and a cap. We walked out of the cabin leaving everything. I happened to have my passport and a slight amount of money in my pocket but all the rest was left behind.

On opening the cabin door we found the companionway was filling with smoke. Smoke seemed to be coming up from below. We went to the lifeboat station but as we were going I noticed fire-fighting activity. It was quite amateurish—people trying to connect two male ends of a hose, that sort of thing.

We finally reached our station and awaited instructions. We stayed there waiting and we could hear the crew working at the davits on the boat deck above.

Finally a lifeboat was lowered to position at our level.

A Greek subordinate officer was at the tiller. The rest of the boat crew were Greeks, with one exception. This was a substitute, a German barman.

We got some people into the boat, about 80 in all, including seven or eight crew members.

I tried to stay behind but my wife insisted that I get in. Then someone grabbed me and I was shoved into the boat.

The lifeboat was lowered. It behaved properly and dropped into the water hitting the waves in perfect style. The subofficer in the stern disengaged the davit cable from the stern but the bow cable could not be released. It was stuck in some way.

As a result, the lifeboat was dashed against the side of the ship by the waves time after time. We thought it would be smashed to pieces.

But there was a greater danger. I looked up and saw that we were directly below lifeboat No. 18 which was being lowered towards us, loaded with people.

With that boat hanging only 10 feet above us, disaster stared in the face. But just in time the forward cable was released and we slid from beneath the other lifeboat.

We got away from the burning ship with the crewmen pushing against its towering sides until we were past the stern. This was the only way we could do it because ours was the windward side of the Lakonia.

Once we were free, the boys started rowing steadily just enough to keep the boat's head into the wind. Good seamanship, this was.

We were all jammed together so tightly that I could not move but that may have helped us keep warm.

The sea swell was heavy but the waves, thank God, were not breaking over our lifeboat.

About a mile-and-a-half away we could see the Lakonia blazing. It was a horrible sight. My wife couldn't bring herself to look at it.

Soon after launching we heard a voice and we pulled a man aboard. It was a clergyman but who he was I don't know.

About 4 a.m. one of the crewmen shouted he had spotted a light, and a wave of hope spread through our lifeboat. At first we feared that it was another lifeboat that had drifted past us.

Then a young fellow, a book-maker from London who did a great job trying to keep our people cheerful, shouted: "Hell, it's got red and green lights. It must be a ship."

The subofficer urged the men at the oars to head toward those Christmas-colored lights. He and the barman seemed to be in charge of the crew and they did well.

Finally a searchlight from the ship played directly on us and they brought us up to their port side, well aft.

This was the windward side and the ship was the Argentine vessel, Galia, which did such a grand rescue operation.

Which side didn't matter. We were lucky because we were the first boat they had sighted. A rope was thrown down to the lifeboat. The young bookie grabbed it and pulled us alongside.

The swell was pushing us almost under the ship's stern and for a while it looked as if we might capsize when rescue was only yards away. I thought the end had come but the Galia crew got ladders down. Greek crewmen took off—they were the first to go aboard.

Bird Battler Has Admiration For His Foes

ATLANTA, Dec. 26 (AP)—Georgia's Secretary of State Ben W. Fortson, who has been conducting an all-out war on thousands of starlings which infest the state capitol grounds, admits to a reluctant admiration for the pesky creatures.

In fact, he says the birds imported from England during the last century to chase the sparrows from Central park in New York City, remind him of Britain's dauntless spirit.

Fortson has been trying all kinds of weapons but the birds still hold the fort.

Reds Don't Like Playing Game With Own Rules

MOSCOW, Dec. 26 (AP)—Izvestia says the U.S. information service is sending out fraudulent letters to try to intensify the Soviet-Chinese ideological struggle.

The Soviet government newspaper said Wednesday the letters were distributed to business firms in various parts of the world—purporting to come from the Soviet foreign trade association. Actually they were written by the USIS, Izvestia asserted.

Izvestia said the letters contain criticism of a book by Red Chinese leader Mao Tse-tung. They were sent to business firms in Argentina, Mexico, Colombia, Australia, Italy, Sweden, Somalia, Morocco and Iran.

Rockefeller Changes His Attack

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26 (AP)—Goldwater for his conservative views and to lambasting Kennedy for what the governor said was the President's failure to live up to his 1960 promises on civil rights, action to end unemployment and to get the country moving faster economically.

The New York governor, only announced candidate for the nomination, resumes campaigning with a Jan. 3 Portsmouth, N. H., speech after a month's political moratorium following the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

The sweeping political changes brought about by the probability that President Johnson will head the 1964 Democratic ticket are expected to be reflected in altered campaign tactics by Rockefeller.

In the period preceding Kennedy's death, Rockefeller gave about equal time to attacking making no claims that the governor has passed Goldwater in popular support among Republicans. But they think the field is now wide open and there would not be much profit in continuing to single out one man as a target among many who may be contenders for the nomination.

This could change, of course, if the March 10 New Hampshire primary narrows to a Rockefeller-Goldwater contest.

Rockefeller's associates don't believe there is much political mileage in attacking Johnson at this point. That can come later, after the new President has begun to make his own record. But there would be little to peg such attacks on in the New Hampshire campaigning.

Christmas Comes to War Fronts

By The Associated Press
A Christmas tree gleamed on the frozen Korean front and U. S. soldiers standing guard hoisted an electric sign pointed toward the communist north saying "Merry Christmas." Back came Christmas music from Red loudspeakers.
From behind the grim Berlin wall Communist East German loudspeakers blared "Bing Crosby's 'White Christmas'" in an incongruous serenade of West Berliners. And not far away East German border guards broke the Christmas calm by firing on two youths who escaped from East Berlin over the German wall. One was wounded.
In the bloody jungles and rice paddies of South Viet Nam, the communist guerrillas called a Christmas day cease-fire in their fight against the Vietnamese soldiers and their U. S. advisers. And so the day honoring the Prince of Peace came to a world that has found little peace since the dawn of history.
Barriers dividing mankind, from the Berlin wall to the hostile frontiers of the Holy Land, opened for Christmas uniting in juletide joy and prayers for peace.
More than 66,000 West Berliners with communist permission poured through the Berlin wall for Christmas reunions with relatives isolated for 28 months since the wall went up. Many West Berliners carried geese for the Christmas dinners.
Thousands of other pilgrims crossed the fortified Israel-Jordan frontier to kneel at the Bethlehem shrine where Christ was born.
Pope Paul VI celebrated mass in a poor workers' quarter of Rome, distributed toys and candles to the unfortunate, and reminded Catholic worshippers: "Christmas is the feast of the needy and the poor."
Like most Americans, President Johnson spent Christmas with his family, at their ranch outside Johnson City, Tex.
It was a white Christmas for millions of Americans, but still a time of sadness for some.
There was none of the water skiing, tennis or touch-football typical of past Christmases with the family of President John F. Kennedy in Palm Beach, Fla.
But Santa Claus still showered gifts on the Kennedy children—5-year-old Caroline and 3-year-old John, Jr.—as he did for millions of American youngsters.
And lonely Americans on the dreary front lines of the cold war were not forgotten.
The 16,000 U. S. troops in South Viet Nam and their buddies on barren outposts in frozen Korean hills took advantage of a precarious lull in hostilities to slip down to a turkey dinner.
Communist loudspeakers on the treetop dividing North and South Korea broadcast Christmas music to homesick GIs along with Red propaganda.
Soldiers of the U. S. first cavalry division lit a 40-foot Christmas tree atop Hill 191, the scene of fierce fighting in the Korean war and raised an electric "Merry Christmas" sign in 14-inch letters.
In a self-proclaimed gesture of good will, Communist Viet Cong guerrillas called a 24-hour cease-fire in South Viet Nam. Skeptical American military spokesmen said the Vietnamese government had "no plans" for a temporary halt in the guerrilla war.
Western Christians in the two chandeliers of atheistic communism, Moscow and Peking, improvised services as Christmas went by almost unnoticed around them.
The Russian Orthodox church celebrates Christmas Jan. 7, according to the Julian calendar. But, in a rare sign of warm interchurch relations, Metropolitan Nikollin of the Orthodox church attended midnight mass with Russian Roman Catholics in Moscow.
The relatively few practicing Russian Catholics, mostly older persons, attended services at the Church of St. Louis of the

Two Mishaps Are Reported At Shoshone

SHOSHONE, Dec. 28—Two accidents are reported by county sheriff's office. On Monday evening damage resulted to two vehicles as result of a collision one and three-fourths miles west of Richfield on highway 69 alternate.
Fred Hubsmith, Richfield, was driving a 1957 GMC pickup truck ahead of a 1957 Mercury belonging to Mrs. Grace Whitesell, Richfield, when he stopped on the right side of the road. As the Whitesell car was passing, he drove in front of it to go into a lane on the left side of the road, officers said.
Riding with Mrs. Whitesell were Mrs. Cecil Helderman, Mrs. Robert Bell, Mrs. Helen Wells and Mrs. Boyd Wilmoth.
State Patrolman William Van Dyke, who investigated the accident, cited Hubsmith for driving with an expired driver's license.
The car Mrs. Whitesell was driving belonged to her son, David Whitesell. The accident happened at 9:10 p. m. Monday.
Damage was reported to a 1950 Ford stationwagon driven by Joan Fogal, Aurora, Ore., at 8:30 p. m. Monday eight and one-half miles east of Richfield when the car hit ice and left the road to land on some boulders.
There were no serious injuries reported.

DENVER, Dec. 28 (AP)—One week after he received the kidneys of a baboon in a transplant operation, a 40-year-old man was listed in satisfactory condition today.

A team of surgeons from the U. S. veterans hospital here and Colorado medical center performed the transplant.

Idaho Dry Bean Production Dips

BOISE, Dec. 28 (AP)—The U. S. agriculture department says Idaho dry bean production this year dipped seven per cent to 2,130,000 bags.
Acreage planted to dry beans dropped four per cent because of early prospects for restricted irrigation water, the department said. The yield at 1,780 pounds per acre was down from the average of 1934.
October rains also slowed the harvest and caused some seed discoloration.

Sparks May Have Caused Utah Blast

SALT LAKE CITY, Dec. 28 (AP)—A coal mine explosion near Helper that killed nine men last week probably was caused by sparks from a machine, a state official said Wednesday.
Casper A. Nelson, industrial safety commissioner, said investigation showed a digging machine had struck hard rock and may have thrown off sparks that ignited methane gas and coal dust.
"There's no question about the machine, hitting a fold of rock," Nelson said. "The cutter heads had bitten into the rock and torn off a chunk of it, so sparks were likely."
Ten men escaped the Dec. 16 blast in the Carbon Fuel company mine.

Solon Blasts Civil Rights Opposition

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26 (AP) — Rep. Ralph Harding, D., Ida., Wednesday labeled advertisements that have appeared in Idaho newspapers opposing civil rights legislation "vicious and misleading."

Harding said the advertisements, which have appeared in most of Idaho's weekly papers, are paid for by the "Coordinating Committee for Fundamental American Freedom," which he said is supported by the Mississippi Sovereignty Commission.

He said statements made in the advertisements are "not relevant" to the civil rights bill pending before the house rules committee.

"However, by omissions and distortions such as 'the bill is 10 per cent civil rights and 90 per cent extension of federal executive power' this advertisement has induced hundreds of intelligent, sincere and otherwise compassionate Idahoans to write letters opposing the bill," he said.

"Actually," said Harding, "the most controversial section of the bill, the public accommodations section, is not as strong as a similar section of a civil rights bill passed by a recent Idaho legislature. If every state had a civil rights law as good as Idaho's there would be no need for a federal law."

CONGRATULATIONS WERE in order when Sen. Frank Church, D., Ida., chairman of the senate subcommittee on Indian affairs, was introduced to Mrs. Annie D. Wauneka, Navajo woman who was awarded the presidential medal of freedom. She was honored for her work in helping to improve the health of her people.

Student Cost Increases In America

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26 (AP) — The average cost of educating a child in the public schools this school year is $352, an increase of $17 or five per cent over last year, the magazine School Management reported today.

The magazine said only $7 of the increase will be spent for better education, with the other $10 being used simply to offset the effects of inflation.

The magazine's annual survey is directed by Dr. Orlando F. Furno, director of research for Baltimore city schools.

Furno estimates that public schools across the country will spend 20.3 billion dollars this school year, including the costs of school transportation, building and equipping new schools, and paying off old school debts.

The average cost per student for bus transportation is $18, and Furno said the school districts will spend $47 per student for new school construction this school year. These costs are in addition to the $352 per-pupil expenditure.

School debts, mostly long-term bonds for school construction, totaled $388 per student in the average school district as of last Sept. 1. Almost 10 per cent of the country's school districts were in debt $1,000 for each pupil enrolled.

The magazine said New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania are spending the top per-pupil figure, $482. This is about 42 per cent above the national average.

The magazine said only 10 per cent of the nation's school districts have salary scales which make it possible for classroom teachers to earn more than $9,500 a year.

The average teacher will earn $5,837 this school year, School Management said. The average starting salary was listed as $4,600 and the average maximum salary, $7,307.

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

THURSDAY, DEC. 26 — Born today, you are inventive and ingenious, and have a constant need to exercise your nimble mind. In fact, there is no exercise that entitles in wriggling out of situations or difficulties that have others confused and stymied. As a troubleshooter, you will make an excellent addition to any business or profession.

You concentrate profoundly and easily and are possessed of just the tenacity of purpose it takes to reach success. Your proneness to look on the bright side can be real asset, for such optimism is the stuff that determined effort and progressive activity are made of.

Probably the most important outside influence on your disposition, ability to work, and ultimate success are your immediate physical surroundings. If they are poor, your response will be poor. Avoid, therefore, attempting to adjust to situations completely incompatible to your nature; work on the improvement or the elimination of the situation instead! Your own home is of particular importance to your welfare, and your marriage must be spiritually harmonious if it is to survive.

Among those born on this date are: Richard Widmark, actor; Henry Miller, author; Donald Cook, actor; Steve Allen, TV entertainer, author, composer.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Majority Wants Anti-Jew Meet

CAIRO, Dec. 26 (AP)—An Arab league spokesman says nine of the league's 13 members have accepted President Gamal Abdel Nasser's call for an anti-Israel summit meeting in Cairo.

Nasser called for the meeting to consider the possibility of military action if Israel carries out its long-pending plan to divert waters of the Jordan river to irrigate the Negev desert.

Nasser suggested the meeting be held Jan. 6, but a spokesman said the date had not been decided.

'Mature' Man Marries Teen-Ager

DENVER, Dec. 26 (AP) — An 83-year-old Denver real estate man married a 19-year-old girl Christmas eve, but they planned no honeymoon today because, as the bridegroom said, "there's too much work to do."

Earl L. Medsker, divorced 30 years from his first wife, father of four and grandfather of 12, was married to Gwendolyn Davis who arrived about a month ago from her home in Baker, Fla. She's been secretary to Medsker since arriving.

"The marriage might seem silly to some people," Medsker said, "but it makes sense to us."

"We'd been thinking about it for some time. You might say it's a business arrangement. She's been my secretary and she's good at handling the correspondence and clerical work."

Medsker, who has been in the real-estate and tax certificate business for about a half century, said he's done so well financially that he's set up a $100,000 fund to educate Medsker children. The foundation will guarantee a college education for Medsker descendants.

"This is where Gwendolyn comes in," he said. "She's got a good grasp of what the educational fund means. She thinks it's a wonderful program and it's had a lot to do with our marriage."

"I need someone I can trust and who has the know-how," Gwendolyn is going to take up law and is interested in education.

Said Mrs. Medsker, who worked as a secretary in the Florida high school from which she graduated:

"I haven't too much business experience yet, but I'm attracted to the work involved... I can type too."

FUNCHAL, Madeira, Dec. 26 (AP) — Among the Lakonia survivors was an Englishman in a lifeboat, dressed in a neat suit, natty topcoat and carrying a briefcase.

He refused helping hands and climbed aboard the Argentine ship Salta unaided.

The Salta's third officer, Tullio Troviano, congratulated him on his cool behavior. He replied:

"I am an Englishman."

Russ Thinks Communists Can Kiss, Make up

MOSCOW, Dec. 26 (AP)—Nikita Khrushchev said Thursday he is confident the Soviet Union and Red China will overcome their current ideological difficulties.

The Soviet Premier expressed this hope in birthday greetings he sent to Chinese Communist Leader Mao Tze-tung, now 70.

Western records say Mao was born on Nov. 19, 1893.

Khrushchev's message, printed in Pravda and distributed by Tass, said the Soviet party central committee "strives to strengthen the unity of our countries, of the countries of the socialist community."

By The Associated Press

The big one is the Los Angeles Classic with nationally ranked Michigan, UCLA and New York university heading the field of eight.

Isaacson Is Too Short to Try Pro Ball

ORLANDO, Fla., Dec. 26 (AP)—Terry Isaacson may be the best quarterback on the college scene who has never considered becoming a professional football player.

The Air Force academy senior has all the equipment—except a step ladder.

"I have enough trouble trying to see over the linemen in college," said the 5-foot, 8-inch, 175-pounder. "I don't imagine they've thought any more about me than I have about playing in the pros."

Isaacson is a scrambler who dashes all over the field just out of the reach of enemy linemen. But he's "the best of offensive football player in Air Force history," says his coach, Ben Martin.

The Oak Park, Ill., lad and his teammates are practicing to play North Carolina in the Gator bowl game at Jacksonville Saturday.

Coach Jim Hickey said his team wasn't ready for Air Force yet, but would be by Saturday. "We haven't been able to get much done the last week," Hickey said. "The field has been frozen, and we've done mostly running and conditioning."

He said his squad hasn't played a team as fast as Air Force and he didn't know how good Isaacson was—compared to other quarterbacks the Tar Heels have played. "But we'll find out," he added.

Isaacson said he received about 70 offers to play college football.

"I had actually narrowed it down to Iowa and Michigan before Air Force entered the picture," Isaacson said. "I became impressed with the school, the glamor and the opportunity. I made my decision to attend the academy and I've never been sorry."

United States, Australia Tie During Opening Singles of Davis Cup Matches

ADELAIDE, Australia, Dec. 26 (AP)—Unpredictable Dennis Ralston, Bakersfield, Calif., won but American tennis ace Chuck McKinley, San Antonio, Tex., lost today as the United States and Australia's defenders tied 1-1 in the opening singles of the Davis Cup challenge round.

Ralston, slender, 21-year-old University of Southern California junior, pulled out of a tangle to overcome 19-year-old John Newcombe, a surprise starter, 6-4, 6-1, 3-6, 4-6, 7-5, in the opening match of the best-of-five series for the storied cup, symbol of world tennis supremacy. Ron Emerson, 27, the Australian champion, downed McKinley, 22, the Wimbledon king from Trinity university of Texas, 6-3, 3-6, 7-5, 7-5 to even the competition before a capacity crowd of 7,000 in the Memorial drive stadium.

$100 Purchase, Old Suitcase Responsible for AFL Playoff

NEW YORK, Dec. 26 (AP)—A $100 purchase and a battered suitcase may be largely responsible for the American Football league's first divisional playoff, between Boston and Buffalo at Buffalo, Saturday afternoon. The $100 purchase is Bills' quarterback Jack Kemp, and there always will be a question of whether someone made a mistake by putting the veteran quarterback in the right place at the wrong time. But there was no mistake when Patriots' back Larry Gannon couldn't find his suitcase.

Kemp, then with the San Diego Chargers, was placed on the waiver list midway through the 1962 season. He had a broken finger on his passing hand, reserve quarterback John Hadl was sidelined with damaged ribs and coach Sid Gillman needed a signal-caller.

Then came the questionable move. Gillman activated Dick Wood, now the New York Jets' quarterback, and placed Kemp on the waiver list. But he went into the next game with the league limit of 33 players, so Kemp could not be removed when Buffalo claimed him.

Gillman has always maintained he knew what he was doing. But there have been those who figure the Charger coach may have tried to sneak Kemp through. The Bills spotted the move, at any rate, and for $100 Kemp became the Buffalo quarterback.

This year Kemp was the AFL's third leading passer.

Gannon's problems began in college at Southern Illinois at the time Lou Saban took over as head coach. Gannon, out of money, was set to leave when Saban pilfered his suitcase, and hid it until he had time to talk Gannon into staying at school.

Saban eventually became the Patriots' coach and signed Gannon. But Gannon's troubles were just beginning. Saban took him to Boston in 1960, but Gannon ran into stomach trouble and was forced to undergo an operation that whittled his weight down to 165.

Saban, meanwhile, was forced to cut his protegee. But he told him again not to give up, and Gannon worked at his weight. He brought it back up to 185 in 1961, but never started for the Patriots because he was tense and fidgety from his stomach troubles.

Then, in 1962, things began to go well for Gannon, who blossomed to 200 pounds and one of the AFL's chief rushing threats. This season, he was Boston's leading ground gainer, and fifth in the league with 750.

Gannon, however, never got to repay his debt to Saban, and he won't be out to help Saban Saturday.

Saban now is the Buffalo coach. Saban now is the Buffalo coach.

Kimberly, Eller Top Big Five Statistics

The non-conference phase of the Big Five conference schedule added up to Rusty Eller and the Kimberly Bulldogs. Eller ended up leading the league in points, average, free throws and fouls during December but the Bulldogs also have played the most games. Only Kimberly came out of December with a winning record, the Bulldogs posting a 6-1 mark and averaging 64.8 points along the way. Wendell is a distant second with a 47-point average.

Wendell held two of the other three leads, however. The Trojans limited their opponents to 46.3 points and also shot .817 from the free throw line, conversions against opponent fouls. Kimberly was charged with the most fouls, 20 per game for seven outings.

Kimberly also boasted two of the five men in the league averaging more than 10 points per game. Eller is hitting at an 18.8 clip while teammate Bob Myers has 12.9.

Runner-up in the scoring competition is Shoshone's George Trenkle with 16.3 while Charles Hansen, Wendell, is 13.2. The other man is Terry Sims, Glenns Ferry, who averaged 10.6 during the month.

The Little Five also had the best free throw shooting in Magic Valley during the district. Eller ended up with 29 conversions while Trenkle had 26, Hansen 25 and Sims 23. Eller had 24 fouls while Blair, Glenns Ferry, was second with 21.

Cornhuskers Get Out of Sprints

MIAMI, Fla., Dec. 26 (AP)—University of Nebraska football players drilled conscientiously Christmas morning for the Orange bowl game, then gave Coach Bob Devaney a broad hint it was time to knock off for the holiday.

"Merry Christmas," bellowed one as the practice went into final stages. "Oh, all right," said Devaney. "Skip the sprints and go on in."

Burke Gets 'Pop' Warner Grid Award

PALO ALTO, Calif., Dec. 26 (AP)—Vern Burke, Oregon State end, was named Wednesday winner of the 15th annual Glenn S. 'Pop' Warner Memorial award as the most valuable senior football player on the Pacific Coast this season.

Burke was high in a poll of more than 400 sportswriters, sportsmasters and coaches. In 1962, Burke caught 69 passes for 1,007 yards, both NCAA records.

Ernie Nevers, former Stanford university football great, will present the award to Burke at the Palo Alto Sports club Jan. 21.

Burke, who's scheduled to play in the East-West Shrine game Saturday, has signed with the San Francisco 49ers for the 1964 season.
