Johnson Cuts Federal Spending, Makes Move To Conclude Arms Race

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8 (UPI)—President Johnson today announced a surprise below current levels. He also ordered a cutback in nuclear production in a dramatic and wasteful arms race. Johnson proposed spending 79.9 billion dollars in fiscal 1965—a cut of 500 million dollars from the 58.4 billion dollars budgeted by the late President Kennedy for the current year. He said this would mean a deficit of 45 billion dollars, far below previous expectations.

In his first state of the union message, Johnson had said that he would lead in ordering a 25 percent reduction in output of enriched uranium—an atomic explosive—and closing down four nuclear reactors.

He said such action by Russia, coupled with new disarmament proposals, would mean a world without war, a world made safe for diversity.

Johnson said that the United States would not advance at Geneva, would not an important step toward arms control, would not pursue a goal of a world without war, a world made safe for diversity.

Area Temperatures Hit Season-Lows

Lowest temperatures of the season were recorded in central Magic Valley communities Tuesday night, including 12 at Rupert, zero at Jerome and -22 at Fairfield. In Twin Falls it was seven degrees above zero, also the coldest of the season, according to the Twin Falls weather bureau. On Dec. 12 it was nine above. In Burley the mercury dropped to below zero, the previous low for December being one above.

Gas Truck Explodes At Ketchum

KETCHUM, Jan. 8—Smoke was still rising today from a 1-1000 gallon "interceptor" tank truck which exploded at a gas station owned by E. V. McElhaney and one-half mile south of here on highway 93 Tuesday afternoon.

Damage in the spectacular fire was estimated at several thousand dollars. The garage and tanks, as well as two 200-gallon underground tanks, were saved because of heroic action of Thomas Molanese, 22, new member of the Ketchum fire department, officers said.

Molanese crawled under the flaming truck and attached a chain—so the truck could be pulled across the road away from the building and underground tanks.

Most of the smoke still appeared Monday but it was slowly lifting Tuesday. The rest will be cleared by Thursday evening and not so cold tonight.

The fire broke out at about 10:30 a.m. when a gas truck was being filled at the station. The truck was owned by McElhaney and was being driven by a driver named McElhaney.

Goldwater Is In Favor of Test Blast

MELROSE, N. H., Jan. 8 (UPI)—Sen. Barry Goldwater,umping New Hampshire in search of votes in his bid for the Republican nomination, today said he would support a nuclear test in the atmosphere to develop its military defenses.

The Arizona senator today said he would support a nuclear test in the atmosphere to develop its military defenses. He said that he was not a nuclear test in the atmosphere to develop its military defenses.

Farm Bureau Raps Johnson Wheat Plan

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8 (UPI)—The American Farm Bureau Federation today attacked a new Johnson administration wheat plan which would require farmers to sell wheat at a price set by the government.

The plan is a "voluntary" one which would reward farmers who have back stockpiles of wheat by giving them refundable market certificates.

Wheat producers last year rejected a mandatory control program which also included high price supports.

What Is Life Like in Castro Cuba? There Is Mucho Sausage, but No Fun

(Editor's note: Castro has been a communist regime. What is life like in Cuba today? A Canadian newspaper, the Montreal Star, has been reporting on the life in Cuba today. The article is by Edward Murphy, a Canadian journalist who has been in Cuba for some time. He says that life in Cuba is not what it used to be. There is much sausage, but no fun. The article is a critical one, and it is worth reading for those who are interested in the Cuban situation.)

Indonesia Complain of Violations

UNITED NATIONS, Jan. 8 (UPI)—Indonesia today accused Britain and Malaysia of numerous air and ground violations of Indonesian territory. Indonesia also charged that it committed aggression against the new state of Malaysia.

The Indonesian complaint said that British and Malaysian planes flew over Indonesian territory from Sarawak and Sabah (North Borneo) and also over Indonesian territory from Sarawak and Sabah (North Borneo) and also over Indonesian territory from Sarawak and Sabah (North Borneo).

The exact number of alleged violations was not disclosed by the Indonesian spokesman, but it was estimated that the list included at least 25 alleged violations of Indonesian territory.

The complaint included flights of aircraft off the coast of Indonesia, but within the 12-mile territorial limit claimed by that country. One such flight was said to be "just off the coast of northern Celebes."

Lt. Lambertus N. Palis, Indonesian ambassador to the United Nations, handed Secretary General Thant a document detailing the alleged violations of Indonesia's territory between Sept. 10 and Dec. 22, 1962.

The Indonesian complaint was in reply to a protest made by Thant to Malaysia's Ambassador Ong Yoke Lin Dec. 31, charging Indonesia with repeated acts of aggression during the last year.

Thant said that the Indonesian complaint was "a serious matter" and that he would be taking steps to resolve the situation.

Secretary of State Arnold Wilson said, "I have known Joe for many years and his death is a great personal loss to me and will be a loss to the potato industry both in Idaho and the United States."

Marshall was a charter member of the Idaho potato and onion commission which was formed in 1937 and he served on it until recently. Smylie said that he was the "last charter member alive."

"His particular delight," the governor said, "was in building attractive displays of Idaho potatoes at conventions and fairs throughout the United States. He personally selected each potato to be used and arranged the displays himself."

"He always made certain that a deserving charity or institution received the potatoes after the display had served its original purpose."

"TITAN WORK TO START" MOUNTAIN HOME, Jan. 8 (UPI)—Modification work on Titan I intercontinental ballistic missiles will start June 22 at Mountain Home Air Force Base. Completion date for the project is Sept. 1, the base public information office said today.

Astronauts To Dunk and Test Gemini

HOUSTON, Tex., Jan. 8 (U) — The nation's astronauts will take a Gemini test vehicle into the Gulf of Mexico in late February or early March to practice climbing out of the water, it was announced Tuesday.

The test vehicle is a full-size model of the actual two-man Gemini spacecraft. It was unveiled at the manned spacecraft center Monday.

The early Gemini flights will end in water landings, but a flexible parashute wing will be added later to permit controlled landings on the ground.

Engineers fitting the test capsule with instruments to record its reactions to a water landing.

Teachers Are Angered by Pay Increase

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8 (U) — Some teachers in U. S. schools are angry, indignant over a small $100-a-year pay increase, have been returning to the classroom, says Robert S. McNamara in a letter.

This was disclosed Tuesday by J. J. Katzenbach, Jr., deputy assistant secretary of defense who is in charge of education for the U. S. military and civilian personnel stationed abroad.

Katzenbach told reporters U. S. teachers in overseas schools consider the $100-a-year boost this year insulting and are returning the money bit by bit to McNamara's office and through various channels.

There have been reports that some U. S. teachers stationed overseas have been mailing their pay checks back to the Pentagon at the rate of about $1 a week.

The defense official said he was unable to say how many teachers had reacted in this fashion, but he said the money is being returned to the teachers.

Katzenbach discussed the teacher protest at a news conference announcing that the school system, now run separately by the states, will be placed under unified federal department control starting July 1.

Overseas teachers average $7,720 this year compared to a national average of $5,850.

However, the overseas teachers enjoy certain fringe benefits such as housing allowances.

Nehru Ails, Sent to Bed By Doctors

BHUBANESHWAR, India, Jan. 8 (U) — Nehru was sent to bed Tuesday after the care of doctors feared his health might be toward high blood pressure.

The doctors expressed hope for a quick recovery but they advised his 74-year-old patient, modern India's first and only chief of government, to take a complete rest and avoid all engagements for two weeks.

Accumulated strains of government, politics and the annual meeting of his ruling Congress party in Bhubaneswar, the capital of Orissa state, near the Bay of Bengal 800 miles from New Delhi.

Nehru looked haggard and spoke to hardly anyone at a committee meeting in the city alone in a corner. He had flown to this city after delivering a speech, then came back, rambling, to the International Congress of Orientalists in New Delhi.

Nehru's vitality has declined visibly since he suffered an infarction in the winter of 1962. Working as foreign minister and Congress party chairman as well as prime minister, he has at times appeared so tired as to look asleep.

Recent medical men have speculated that he is suffering from hardening of the arteries, a common ailment in men of his age. His own doctor, who includes a heart specialist, has refused comment.

Despite interest in India and abroad about who might succeed him, there was doubt here, that any struggle for succession would come into the open under the present circumstances.

Frontier-in-charge speculation about who will be India's prime minister is Lal Bahadur Shastri, a middle-ranking member of the cabinet. Only a tall and weighing 180 pounds, Shastri is a close friend of Nehru and is expected to be the next prime minister.

Shastri dropped him at the last minute in a cabinet reshuffle last fall.

Family-Makes Dramatic Dash And Escapes East Germans

BERLIN, Jan. 8 (U) — An East Berlin family of five fled down a rope and escaped to the West Tuesday night after being evacuated from their second-floor apartment on the communist side.

The mother suffered a broken leg in a fall, West Berlin police said, but continued to help her husband and three sons, the youngest 6 years old.

Police said the family, whose names were withheld, had been told by East Berlin authorities that they would be evacuated from their apartment Wednesday.

It was the first known escape of its kind since Soviet the communist wall divided Berlin in 1961, and it was the most dramatic in months.

The escape was made at the Tackauer plant an area within a number of East Berlin apartments.

Farmers Are Warned on Feed Poison

BOISE, Jan. 8 (U) — A state agriculture department officer warned farmers today of severe penalties for mixing poison mercury-treated seed with animal feed.

Leland Pitt, director of plant industry, said dependent feed agents have found "some" sacks of chicken feed that contained the highly-toxic mercury mixture.

"This is a highly dangerous thing to do," Pitt said. "Mercury is a very lethal poison."

He said if the farmers believed they "can get away with this they should understand they can be caught."

He said he would check with the attorney general's office as to whether the poison feed was discovered.

The mercury seed was found in sacks of feed in this area. A day ago, Pitt said, he said the feed agents used a light process that can "pick up a grain of mercury the size of a pinpoint."

At the same time, Pitt said he learned the 16 remaining sacks of poison crickets feed taken from an Ada county warehouse last month were found to be safe.

Pitt said he would look those remaining sacks probably buried or buried them. He said he would look those remaining sacks probably buried or buried them.

Some 43 sacks were reported taken and only 11 have been accounted for, he added.

Lesser Count Filed Against Oregon Man

A new charge, being an accessory to a felony, was filed in Twin Falls police court Wednesday against Ernest McCullough, 34, of Twin Falls, Ore., in connection with the armed robbery at the Safeway store, 101 N. Main, on Dec. 12.

A charge of armed robbery against McCullough was dismissed when he appeared before Judge Dale J. Adamson on the Wednesday with his attorney, Robert N. W. Ballieten. McCullough requested a preliminary hearing which has not set for 2 p.m. Monday.

McCullough had not post the $1000 bond set by Judge Adamson and is being held in jail.

Charged with armed robbery and being held in the county jail in connection with the robbery was James Jacob, 26, and Donald M. Collins, 21, both Eugene, Ore.

Reply Given To Criticism By Walker

HALLIDAY, Jan. 8.—The Halliday chamber of commerce, organized by V. K. Jeppesen, plaintiff counsel prosecuting attorney, today issued a reply to criticism by Lloyd J. Walker, Twin Falls, state democratic chairman, of the resolution passed by the group last month against the proposed civil rights bill now in congress.

Walker, who was reared in Halliday, expressed shock and disapproval as people from the former "home town" peddled their views. The accused chamber members of branding supporters of the civil rights bill as traitors.

Walker also said he never heard the word "nigger" mentioned in Halliday. The chamber spokesman pointed out that no member of the chamber nor has any member of the chamber nor has the word mentioned in the resolution.

Jeppesen pointed out no member of the chamber is opposed to civil rights. The resolution in part: "We are in accord with the principle there should be no discrimination in civil rights by reason of race, color or previous condition of servitude; we believe that the federal government is not providing a method which in effect places all people under a racial discrimination."

Noting that Walker called the language used in the resolution "a type of slur," Jeppesen replied both Washington and Jefferson are quoted to explain the resolutions. Chamber members point out while some think the idea of these laws great, others are opposed to them and others who believe in their old-fashioned wisdom.

Jeppesen pointed out congressmen have always requested their constituents to advise them of their opinion on current issues and this the chamber did in its resolution passed Dec. 9. Copies were sent to Idaho senators.

It is pointed out by chamber members that the U.S. constitution never would have been adopted if it had not been for safeguards reserving the greater part of governmental authority to the states.

"We believe the powers granted to the federal government have been extended by specious and unwarranted claims of interpretation and by finding based upon nothing more than unfounded conclusions. This is a very real and attainable appeal for power is now being used for constitutional rights are being used as a shield for the heart of our democratic ideals," Jeppesen declared.

Quoting from the resolution, he added, "We believe the civil rights act of 1964 appears to traverse practically every basic principle of liberty and justice contemplated by the constitution; that it is saturated with unbecoming principles and only can be proper as part of a totalitarian regime."

Jeppesen continued, "We will be the effect of passage of this act at least as to the 30 states where the federal act is not unconstitutional. It will mean nothing more than the right of the federal government to substitute its method and its officials for those of the states. As to the remaining states, we can expect some more armed intervention followed by only token compliance and practically no results."

Members challenge Walker to publish the full text of his statements alongside this resolution and let the readers determine which carries "mental fitness" which is intolerant and which shows least concern for the dignity of man.

"We are not calling names. We are not trying to impugn bad motives. We are only trying to warn against that which appears to be a trend to communism and danger to our basic liberty."

William J. Williams, outgoing president of YVCA board of directors; Mrs. Kelly Evans, vice chairman of building committee; Mrs. Cecil Payne, new president of YVCA, board of directors and Eugene Kreil, new chairman of city commission. Formal dinner groundbreaking ceremony will be held Jan. 24 at the Episcopal church and the public will be invited. (Times-News photo)

Cuba Has Plenty Sausage; But Life Lacks Luster

high and its food poor by American standards.

Breakfast of dry toast, sausage meat and hot chocolate came to us.

The cocktail lounge of the same hotel does a booming evening business. But a bottle of old Cuban rum sells for $23 and if you know the waiter, well enough he will get you a package of American cigarettes for $5.

But—Cuba, undismayed by high prices and lack of food, jam the Capitol lounge nightly.

Most Havana night spots formerly owned by Americans have closed. Directly across from the Capitol hotel, the now famous Club 5, is deserted and shuttered.

Broken-down cars, trucks and buses are a common sight on city streets. All automobiles except those in state of disrepair, painted fenders, bald tires, chipped paint and no mufflers.

Abandoned cars are straggled of their parts right on the streets.

Russian gas is supplying Cuba with gas and oil since the American blockade 13 months ago. But Russian gas is too low in octane and Russian oil is too thin for Cuba's tropical climate.

The leaking oil covers streets and sidewalks with a thick, gummy film that sticks to your shoes and clothing.

The word "oil" hangs in the air.

Cuba's prime industry is still agriculture. But distribution and crop prices are rigidly controlled by the revolutionary government and with few price incentives, the farmer is reluctant to produce more than he needs.

Annual Spud Grower Meet Slated

RUPERT, Jan. 8.—ANNUAL meeting of the Magic Valley Potato Growers and Marketing association is scheduled for 8 p.m. Thursday at the Rupert Hotel.

The agenda has passed over 100 but some members of the 1964 committee have objected on the grounds it would create too large an area with too many restrictions against commercial and other activities.

"What many fail to realize," White said, "is that a large percentage of western land is federally-managed. The measures now pending before the committee in most instances, do not take into consideration those individuals who are dependent on their livelihood on the natural resources located on public lands."

"Several organizations have favored measures on this issue," he said, "and I have every hope that these hearings will provide us with sufficient information so that the committee can mould a piece of legislation compatible to all."

ENTRIES ORIENTATION
BURLY, Jan. 8.—National guard, Second Lt. George R. Woodall, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Woodall, route 1, Burley, has completed a nine-week orientation course at the army-army center, Ft. Knox, Ky.

Wilderness Compromise Is Forecast

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—D. Idaho, predicted today that the hearing on wilderness bill will be held on hearings of a house interior subcommittee beginning Thursday.

The public lands subcommittee will hold hearings on legislation to set up and protect a national wilderness system. The hearings will be held at Olympia, Wash., Jan. 9, Center, Jan. 10-11 and Las Vegas Jan. 12-13.

White, leaving to attend the hearings, said a compromise bill will be written by the interior committee which is acceptable to western members of congress.

The senate has passed one bill, but some members of the 1964 committee have objected on the grounds it would create too large an area with too many restrictions against commercial and other activities.

"What many fail to realize," White said, "is that a large percentage of western land is federally-managed. The measures now pending before the committee in most instances, do not take into consideration those individuals who are dependent on their livelihood on the natural resources located on public lands."

"Several organizations have favored measures on this issue," he said, "and I have every hope that these hearings will provide us with sufficient information so that the committee can mould a piece of legislation compatible to all."

He trumped up being batting .500 more than his .437; more doubles, six more total bases, 696; most runs scored, 134; he flared for most homers, 134. He fled for most hits, 814. And he did it all, too, with habit of hitting at bad pitches.

"He was the best bad hitter I ever saw," said "Red" Prisch, who managed Medwick when Joe was a league member of the Class-House team in St. Louis. "He also was a pretty good pitcher."

"When I was managing," continued Prisch, "I used to - because he had such a reputation - he'd been the greatest batter in baseball if he'd laid off other batters. But he didn't. He was so sure. Maybe he wasn't worth while if he'd bow swung only at strikes. He was a vicious - hell, the harder ever saw next to Babe Ruth."
