BOISE, April 9 (UPI)—Atty. Gen. Allan G. Shepard Thursday defended Idaho's Bible-reading law on grounds the U.S. supreme court did not intend to cut off school children from religious books and documents. In a brief supporting a motion for summary judgment in the U.S. district court case brought by Moscow parents and ministers, Shepard argued: "The restriction applies to religious teachings and instruction and not to matters of historical, moral or literary significance. There is a vast difference between exposure to religious works and the teaching of sectarian dogma."

Scranton Won't Run - Maybe

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 9 (UPI)—Pennsylvania's Gov. William W. Scranton today made what he described as "one final effort" to convince supporters that he is not a candidate for the Republican nomination. But he did not close the door irrevocably because "no American has the right to take that position."

At a news conference, Scranton said he would, if the GOP convention deadlocked, accept a draft that is "not engineered."

However, the governor said he wanted to make it crystal clear that he is not interested in the nomination for himself and that he is not playing a cage game to secure it when the Republicans meet in July to pick a candidate at San Francisco.

Scranton said the reason for this unusual news conference was that he was becoming increasingly worried about the number of people who have been rallying behind his possible candidacy.

Monsanto, BPA Power Pact Noted

PORTLAND, April 9 (UPI)—Bonnieville power administration today announced the signing of a 25-year contract with Monsanto company to deliver 120,000 kilowatts of power to its phosphate plant at Soda Springs. It is the first major industrial contract signed by Bonneville since its service area was extended into southern Idaho last year.

Charles F. Luce, BPA administrator, said the power would be possible expansion of the Monsanto operation to add 200 new round jobs.

But he said the contract is conditional upon development of capacity for transmission of Bonneville power developed on its Snake river system to southern Idaho.

Luce said transmission could be obtained in one of three ways: by wheeling over lines of Idaho power company and Utah Power and Light company, construction of a line by BPA, or lease from some other party which might build the line.

BPT officials have said that Idaho Power has refused so far to wheel power over its lines. The BPA move into southern Idaho, it announced Wednesday, signing of two long-term contracts to deliver a total of 45,000 kilowatts to two Pocatello phosphate plants, PMC corporation and J. R. Simplot company.

Bonneville has proposed construction of a transmission line from Lewiston to Soda Springs at a cost of about 80 million dollars. A request for 1 million dollars for a feasibility study is before congress.

Luce said Monsanto plans to expand its Soda Springs plant by Jan. 1, 1966, depending on availability of power transmission.

Luce said Monsanto had studied expansion in southern Idaho for 10 years, "but all expansions have been taken place outside the northwest area for economic reasons."

"The availability of necessary firm power at BPA rates makes the proposed expansion at Soda Springs feasible," he said.

At the same time Judge Taylor vacated a further hearing that had been scheduled for next Monday.

The order also listed as major issues determination of whether Idaho's statutes, as nearly as possible, reflect equality between voters in both districts and whether a practical method can be devised to remedy the situation.

Matters of law defined in the order include determination of whether the court has jurisdiction to order elections at large and whether the present districting denies the plaintiff, Dryden Hiller, Boise, due process and equal protection of the laws.

Hiller contends the disparity in population between the two dis-

Candidate Meets T. F., Jerome GOP

Dick Smith, Rexburg, candidate for the Republican nomination for U. S. representative from the second district, met with Twin Falls and Jerome county Republicans during an informal luncheon Wednesday noon in the Rogerson hotel Roundup room.

"Individual freedom and the private enterprise system have achieved for America the highest standard of living ever enjoyed by men," he said, adding, "It is only through the continuation and revitalization of the American plan that we can hope that freedom and abundance will continue. Excessive government control and regulation will bring fewer opportunities to American youth and depressed conditions to our economy."

Smith stated, "The responsibility of dealing with the human problems should be left largely to the local and state governments. It is not logical nor in the spirit of the Constitution to expect federal government intervention into the personal affairs of our people, their lives and their business."

Smith was in Ada county Thursday morning and plans to speak in all counties of the second district before May 1.

T. Kennedy Joins in Rights Debate

WASHINGTON, April 9 (UPI)—Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., joined the senate civil rights debate today with a declaration that John F. Kennedy's "heart and his soul are in this bill."

"If his life and death had a meaning," said the assassinated president's youngest brother, "it was that we should not hate but love one another; we should understand one another; we should create conditions of oppression that lead to violence, but conditions of freedom that lead to peace."

It was the maiden senate address for the young senator and he conceded he spoke on the legislation with some hesitation for "a freshman senator should be seen, not heard; should learn, not teach."

He said in his prepared remarks that he had planned to make his first speech on issues affecting industry and employment in his home state "but I could not allow this debate for the last four weeks—I could not see this issue envelope the emotion and conscience of the nation—without changing my mind."

To limit himself to local issues "in the face of this great national question, would be to demean the seat in which I sit," he said.

Witnesses said he joined her and Mrs. Darley in a bar. The three were seen leaving a bar about 12:45 a.m., which authorities said was shortly before the shooting.

Dell B. Darley, husband of the younger woman, testified he was at home the night of the shooting. He also was separated from his wife.

Witnesses said Mrs. Lyons and Mrs. Darley were neighbors.

Darley is from Rupert and Lyons was from Lewiston. Both couples had two children.

The inquest, called by coroner Arthur Smith, began at 7:30 p.m. and ran until nearly 1:30 a.m. The jury returned its decision about 15 minutes after hearing the last witness.

Washington Honors MacArthur, His Body Is Flown to Virginia

WASHINGTON, April 9 (UPI)—The city of Washington paid its requiem farewell to General of the Army Douglas MacArthur, 84, today as his body was flown to its final resting place in Norfolk, Va. The military hero will be buried Saturday in Virginia in an ancient building dedicated as a memorial to him and his family. MacArthur's body, in a steel-gray casket decked with the flag for which he fought, had lain in state in the great rotunda of his nation's capitol for 21 hours—an honor accorded to only two other military leaders in the past. An estimated 75,000 persons had filed silently past for a final farewell.

Additions Planned At T. F. High School

Two rooms will be built on the vocational building, new rooms added to the gymnasium and the athletic field will be completed at the Twin Falls high school by next school term, reports Ernest Ragland, superintendent of school district No. 411. He said the rooms on the vocational building will be used for metal and electrical classes. Locker rooms, shower rooms and a wrestling room will be added to the west end of the high school gymnasium. Harold Gerber, 203 Shoshone street north, architect for the construction work.

Ragland said the plans were sent to the state department of education, Boise, and were approved.

House Passes Cotton, Grain Subsidy Bill

WASHINGTON, April 9 (UPI)—The house early Thursday passed a sweeping cotton-wheat subsidy bill and sent it directly to President Johnson. The post-midnight vote came after earlier approval of a food stamp program for needy families.

The razor-thin margin for the cotton-wheat bill was 211-203 as announced by Speaker John W. McCormack. He first announced it was 211-208 and Republican leaders Charles A. Halleck of Indiana requested a recapitulation of the vote. Then McCormack corrected it to 211-203 and turned down Halleck's request.

The food stamp program was adopted on a 229-189 vote. It was a double victory for Johnson. The food stamp plan, which now goes to the senate, is a key part of his declared "war on poverty" while the farm bill is designed to prevent any drastic fall in wheat farm income in this presidential election year.

Witnesses said he joined her and Mrs. Darley in a bar. The three were seen leaving a bar about 12:45 a.m., which authorities said was shortly before the shooting.

Dell B. Darley, husband of the younger woman, testified he was at home the night of the shooting. He also was separated from his wife.

Work Started On Jerome Interchange

Work has started on one of three interchanges being built in Jerome county for the interstate highway being constructed through southern Idaho. Neilson and Miller Construction company, Twin Falls, whose bid was $698,600, is contractor for the interchanges.

Blaire Sessions, Shoshone highway district engineer, reports Peter Kleinfelt and Sons construction company, Idaho Falls, will do the irrigation construction.

Sessions said irrigation pipes, gas lines and telephone lines will have to be placed before the bulk of the work can start on the interchanges. They will be located one and one-half miles south of Jerome, on highway 79; two miles north of the Perrine bridge, on highway 93, and about a mile west of Jerome.

Sessions said the interchanges will be diamond-shaped and will be standard interchanges. The interchange west of Jerome is expected to be ready for use in a year.

Turnover of Teachers Is Less in T.F.

The raise in teachers' salaries has increased the number of teachers staying in the Twin Falls school district, reports Arthur Kleinfelt, assistant superintendent of school district No. 411.

He said there were about 35 teachers last school term who did not come back this year, but only 22 are not coming back next year. Kleinfelt said the largest factor in the decrease was the salary raise.

There are 17 vacancies for teachers at present in the district, he reported. If anyone is interested in teaching in any of the fields listed he is asked to contact the administration office. The fields are music, industrial arts, social studies, counseling, junior high science, first grade, fifth grade, sixth grade, special education and English.

Britain Betrayed MacArthur During Korean War, 1954 Interview Claims

NEW YORK, April 9 (UPI)—The late General of the Army Douglas MacArthur charged that Britain betrayed him in the Korean war by giving information on his plans to the Chinese. He said he could have won the war in 10 days by using 30 to 50 atomic bombs against Red China, it was reported Wednesday.

MacArthur also charged that "fools" and "Anglo-Saxonophiles" in Washington abetted the British in revealing his secrets to the enemy.

The general's views were obtained 10 years ago in separate interviews by Scripps-Howard correspondent Jim Lucas and Hearst Headline Service correspondent Bob Considine.

Their stories were kept secret while MacArthur was alive, but were copyrighted and published Wednesday.

Wirtz Tries To Avert Rail Strike

WASHINGTON, April 9 (UPI)—Labor Secretary W. Willard Wirtz, striving feverishly to flag down a national railroad strike one minute after midnight, conferred with union and management leaders today and reported "Both want an agreement very badly." But the railroads announced they were imposing a freight embargo at 12:01 a.m. Friday in anticipation a strike will be called by the rail unions. Wirtz met for more than an hour with representatives of the five railway unions who have threatened a walkout if the railroads impose their controversial new work rules at the 12:01 a.m. local time deadline.

Rail Strike Will Affect Mail Service

WASHINGTON, April 9 (UPI)—The postoffice department will restrict the movement of all but first-class mail in the event of a nationwide railroad strike. The department announced today that the shipment of all second-, third- and fourth-class mail beyond 150 miles from the point of origin will be curtailed.

First-class mail will be moved by all available transportation and airmail will continue to get top priority handling. Postmaster General John A. Gronowski said. Second-class mail includes newspapers and magazines. Third-class mail consists largely of advertising circulars. Fourth-class mail is parcel post.

First-class mail will move by air only on an available space basis. Gronowski warned shippers of emergency parcel post items such as medicines to use first-class or airmail if the shipment is to go beyond 150 miles.

Shippers of perishable goods were urged to discontinue mailings at once pending further information on the threatened strike.

CHICAGO, April 9 (UPI)—James R. Hoffa, president of the Teamsters union, today pledged the backing of his giant labor organization to the railroad brotherhoods in the event of a nationwide rail strike.

Morse, D. Ore., appealed to both sides to settle their differences and prevent their prolonged dispute from being subjected to "the cauldron of legislative politics."

Buhl Names Park After Jess Eastman

BUHL, April 9—An ordinance naming the Buhl city park in tribute to Jess C. Eastman, a local realtor who has spent many years in community service, was approved by city councilmen Tuesday night. Among his primary interests was the development of the city park and its swimming pool.

The dedication ceremonies for the newly named park are expected to be held in May. Gene Davis was granted a draft, bottled and was granted a license for the Buhl Sport shop for the rest of the year. Jess Holmes, street and water works superintendent, was granted $25 expense money to attend the Idaho sewer school in Boise Thursday and Friday.

Cleanup week was designated for April 28 through May 2. During this time residents are urged to cooperate by cleaning up their property as well as alleys and vacant lots in the city.

Two bids were received for the construction of local sewer improvement district No. 8 in Gray's first addition. However, neither bid was accepted and action was tabled for further consideration. Bids were submitted by the Kimberly Construction company for $39,430, and from S. Lloyd Merrill, Arco, for $42,285.

It was reported a partition is being erected in the civic rooms to separate the courtroom and city police offices.

Building permits were granted to M. O. Malone, for the construction of a new residence with attached garage for $12,000; Darrel Loos, remodel kitchen and porch of residence for $2,000; Lester McNeil, construct a carport and concrete driveway on northeast side of residence at $800; Frank Fisher, construct a 10 by 22 foot frame addition on rear of residence for $800; Guy Ulrich, enclose front porch at $40; E. E. Uptain, construct a patio at $50; Henry Maestas, repairs to residence at $500; Jerry Johnson, construct an open car port at $350; H. L. Clark, move a 16 by 20 foot building to rear of residential lot at $200; Citizen's Building Supply, construct an addition on a residence at $1,000; Farmers Security company, remodel offices of Hopeworth and Nungesser attorneys for $600, and W. L. McCormick, remodel kitchen interior for $800.

Winners Listed For Bridge Club

BURLEY, April 9—The Mini-Cassia Duplicate Bridge club had 10 tables in play Tuesday evening at the Burley Elks lodge.

North-south winners were Mr. and Mrs. Howell Onau, Burley, first; Mrs. Haen Giersch and Mrs. Kent Woodland and Barbara Zollinger and Jean Archer all Burley, tied for second place, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moffitt, Heyburn, third.

East-west winners include Mr. and Mrs. Gail Wolf, Burley, first; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Jensen, Twin Falls, second place; and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Warnke and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Christman, all Heyburn, tied for third place.

Next week masterpoint will be played at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the Burley Elks lodge.

UP THE LADDER TO FAME as a self-acclaimed champion among traveling cats is Horatio, shown here with Frances Archer and Beverly Gile, who will present a program of international songs and ballads at 3 p.m. Sunday in the Filer high school auditorium — final program in the current Magic Valley Community Concert association series. The traveling cat, which has tallied more than 150,000 miles, is pet and mascot of the two folk singers.

Community Concert Association to Have Final Performance in Series

Travelers planning to take along pet cats on future trips can take some tips from Frances Archer and Beverly Gile, folk-singing team scheduled to appear at 3 p.m. Sunday in the Filer high school auditorium on a program which will end the current series sponsored by the Magic Valley Community Concert association.

Their pet and mascot, part Persian and part "pure alley cat," has accompanied them on trips in the U. S. and Canada and has tallied over 150,000 miles in his special carrying case. As a self-acclaimed champion among traveling cats, Horatio shares fame and glory with his celebrated owners.

Horatio will not be seen by the audience which hears Frances Archer and Beverly Gile in the concert. He much prefers his own specially outfitted carrying case and toys in the station wagon, or a warm spot in a motel room, where he can snooze until it is time to play when his mistresses return after the concert.

Music critics and scholars esteem the work of Archer and Gile so highly they have been asked to present their program in such important cultural landmarks as Mexico City's Palacio de Bellas Artes, New York's Town Hall and the National Gallery of Art in Washington, D. C.

They returned to the gallery in December, 1962, for an even greater success than on their first visit.

Pocatello Still Seeks Lost Buffalo

POCATELLO, April 9 (AP) — A posse will try this week-end to capture the buffalo which escaped from Ross park zoo March 16 and has been wandering in the hills since.

The errant beast was spotted Tuesday by an employee of a pipe line company working in the Blackfoot area south of Pocatello.

The three-year-old male buffalo was grazing in a box canyon north of Palmer hill.

City Police Lieut. Earl Boyce said he would organize a posse to ride after the buffalo this week-end. P. M. Hiske, city parks superintendent, said he hoped the animal would stay where he has been seen grazing in the sheltered canyon.

Two buffalo escaped from the zoo, climbing over a snow drift, but one was recaptured near Inkom soon after, the other has been missing until he was spotted Tuesday.

highest and lowest voices in an all-girl quintette when they first met.

When they discovered their voices complemented each other and their musical tastes ran parallel, their artistic collaboration was virtually inevitable.

Doing some 90 concerts a year in coast-to-coast tours of the United States and Canada, and working together between times, they have learned to blend their voices so well it is difficult at times to tell which voice is carrying the melody.

Miss Archer and Miss Gile hold a unique place in the music world today. By bringing to the concert stage a program based on authentic melodies from many lands, sung in the original languages and given extra warmth and interest by their own special arrangements, they transport their audiences to far global corners and to times past and present.

Their soprano and contralto voices complement each other to perfection and their delightful artistry combines musicianship, personality and stylish presentation that means success wherever they appear.

They consider themselves among the truly fortunate people of the world, for they are recognized and appreciated for doing something which is both personally gratifying and artistically worthwhile. This is the true artist's greatest desire.

USDA Sets Hearings to Decide Fate of Pesticides Commonly Used by Farmers

WASHINGTON, April 9 (AP) — The agriculture department opened public hearings today to determine whether new restrictions should be placed on three pesticides widely used by farmers.

The hearings follow complaints by the public health service and state of Louisiana that water pollution by such pesticides appeared to be the cause of massive killing of fish in the Mississippi river.

Interior Secretary Stewart Udall told a senate subcommittee Wednesday that the Mississippi fish kill was symptomatic of conditions throughout the country. He said lake trout in New York failed to reproduce because of pesticide in the water and cited other examples.

The agriculture department hearing was called to discuss uses and effects of endrin, aldrin and dieldrin. The department previously certified them as deadly to insects but, when properly used, not dangerous to human beings or animal life.

In a statement prepared for the opening of the hearing, Jusus Ward, director of the pesticides regulation division, discussed what the agency knew about the three chemicals and hoped to learn about them.

Ward said several chemical compounds had been found in significant quantities in dead and dying fish and in the water environment. He said these included at least two unidentified substances and endrin and dieldrin.

"Data are not available as to the origin of the two chemicals found in the water," Ward said. "They may have resulted from water runoff from agricultural land treated with the insecticides, or from discharge of wastes from plants manufacturing dieldrin or endrin, or from plants formulating them as finished insecticides, or other sources."

Ward said all information relating to uses of the chemicals and the cause of the fish kill "is essential to the department in meeting its responsibilities with respect to the registration and use of pesticides."

He said the information particularly was needed as a basis for determining what corrective measures, if any, should be taken to cancel or modify registration of endrin, aldrin, and dieldrin, whether or not the loss of fish is involved," Ward said.

Ward asked for testimony that would "pinpoint" the cause of the fish losses, the origin of the pesticides found in the Mississippi, and the importance of the chemicals to the production of crops.

Books Are Reviewed by Study Group

KIMBERLY, April 9 — Mrs. Carl Emerson, Kimberly, reviewed two booklets, "Congressman McFadden of the Federal Reserve Corporation: Remarks in Congress, 1934" and "The Enemy Within" by Wickliffe B. Veinard, sr., for the members of the "Freedom" study group which met Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Ferris Freestone, Hansen.

"The Enemy Within," Mrs. Emerson stated, "emphasizes the grave dangers America faces from our internal enemies, despite complacency to the contrary." Lincoln, it was recalled, advised, "If this nation falls, it will be from within."

The "Freedom" study group sponsors the Freedom library, located in the Co-op laundry in Kimberly. Books and pamphlets, dedicated to the preservation of the American way of life, can be checked out, and material to be read at the library or to be taken and passed on is available.

The next meeting will be May 13 at the home of Mrs. Warren Larsen. Mrs. Emerson, president of the group, emphasized that all those interested in furthering and retaining American freedom are invited to join the group. Further information may be obtained from her or Mrs. I. M. Jackson, Kimberly.

Panel Given for Burley Rotarians

BURLEY, April 9 — A panel discussion was heard by Rotary club members at their noon luncheon Tuesday at the National hotel.

Herman King, program chairman, introduced panel members, Kirby Wilson, chairman of Cassia county school board; Bruce Young, school board member, and Ezra Moore, superintendent of Cassia county schools.

Problems facing the schools were discussed by the panel including finances, plant facilities and special events.

Guests were Tanya Penrose, Gail Baker and Mark Warr. Visiting Rotarians were Gordon Hansen and Robert Walk, both Rupert.

Finkelburg Honored for Long Service

HAZELTON, April 10—E. A. Finkelburg, Hazelton, has been awarded a pin and commended for 45 years of continuous meritorious service by Howard Kappes, Boise, field aide for the U. S. weather bureau.

Finkelburg has taken the weather bureau readings of maximum and minimum temperatures and precipitation at the Hazelton weather bureau station every day since June, 1918, according to weather bureau records.

Although the job requires meticulous and accurate recording and reporting, and must be done daily, no monetary compensation is made by the bureau. The small gold pin, which is set with a ruby and engraved "45 years of government service," is the only recompense.

Doctors on Strike Are Isolated

BRUSSELS, April 9 (AP)—Belgium's 12,000 striking doctors and dentists found themselves increasingly isolated today with the government claiming the walkout will fall regardless of how long it lasts.

Some strikers, particularly general practitioners in rural Flemish areas, resumed house calls and seeing patients in their offices.

Strike leaders in Brussels declared, however, that the doctors would fight on to prevent implementation of changes in the socialized medical law which would set a scale of fees for treatment of persons covered by the state health insurance system and open doctors' treatment records on such patients to government inspection.

Each side waited for the other to make the first move to reopen negotiations.

Premier Theo Lefevre's Catholic-Socialist coalition government was so confident of eventual victory that it began looking for some way to save the faces of the doctors and not leave them permanently embittered.

Government sources said the Cabinet was bound to stand fast because it would risk a general strike if it surrendered to the doctors.

Candy Sale Being Held by Youth for Christ Members

Magic Valley Youth for Christ is sponsoring a candy sale which started Wednesday and will continue through April 18. Proceeds from the sale will be used to purchase a bus.

The bus will be used during July to take members to the International Youth for Christ convention at Winona Lake, Ind., and then to New York for the World's Fair.

It was reported by Vaughn Nemnich, director of Magic Valley Youth for Christ, the bus will be used for several different events after the trip. He said, "It will be considerably cheaper to use a bus than use cars like the group did last year." Nemnich reported there are about 25 members participating in this candy sale.

The door-to-door sale will be conducted throughout Magic Valley. Eight teams will participate and prizes will be given for the team who has the most sales. He said about $800 is expected

The sale started Wednesday and will continue through April 18. This is the first sale for the Youth for Christ and proceeds will be used to purchase a bus in which the group plans to travel to the World's Fair in New York. (Times-News photo)

BUHL, April 9—Ray Foleen, area power manager for Bonneville power administration, pointed out the bureau of reclamation requested that Bonneville power be extended into southern Idaho to avoid running out of power in critical years, when he addressed members of the Buhl Chamber of Commerce Monday at the R and R cafe.

Foleen stated there is a big demand for power in southern Idaho during the summer and a big demand in the Pacific northwest in the winter. He noted damns are built primarily for power, but they also serve as flood control, irrigation facilities as well as recreation facilities.

The federal government now has 27 power projects in operation or under construction and that 6,600,000 kilowatt-hours are now being distributed. The average price for all power sold is 2.36 cents per kilowatt hour, he asserted.

Foleen reported that power is not sold to individuals but to cooperatives, public utility distributors, municipalities and large industrial plants. He stated that each power project must pay back to the federal government the amount borrowed for construction along with interest. Each project must pay as it goes, he reported.

A question session followed his talk. He was introduced to the group by Charles Lunte.

Robert Koktavy, membership and finance committee chairman, reported there are 141 paid up members in the 1964 membership campaign with dues collected totaling $4,425.

Reorganized LDS Church Okays Income Report

INDEPENDENCE, Mo., April 9 (AP)—The biennial world conference of the Reorganized LDS church today approved a report of $1,695,444.54 net income in the two years ending last Dec. 31.

The eight-day conference, which ends Sunday, was scheduled to consider 1964 and 1965 budgets late today.

The income report was presented by Bishop G. Leslie DeLapp, chief financial officer of the church. The denomination has its world headquarters here.

The conference approved appropriations of $200,000 to the missions abroad capital fund and $200,000 to the missionary reserve fund.

The income was added to the church's equity fund, making it $5,053,139.48.

France Hopes It Can Dull Dragon Teeth

TOKYO, April 9 (AP)—French Premier Georges Pompidou said today that France hopes to influence communist China to be less aggressive in Southeast Asia. Pompidou, here on a week's visit, told a news conference that President Charles de Gaulle favors the neutralization of the countries of the Indo-China peninsula.

The premier said that this meant both North and South Viet Nam should be neutralized. He said this would require an agreement of both the United States and communist China.

"We will do everything we can to inspire peaceful intentions in the Chinese communist government," Pompidou told newsmen. "I am not saying that we will succeed."

The French premier said that to recognize the Peking government is not to "share in, approve of or support" the regime.

"It is only to recognize the existence of that government," he said.

Pompidou said France has become more interested in Southeast Asia — "less economically than morally and politically."

He said, "what happens in Southeast Asia depends to a great extent on the policies of the United States and Peking. This is one more reason why we have recognized communist China. It is not true that it was for economic reasons; this was only secondary."

The premier said France intended to sound out the intentions of the Peking government and to see if communist China would be willing to accept the neutralization of Viet Nam.

Declo Plans Auction for April 18

DECLO, April 9 (AP)—Ray Schmidt, committee chairman of the Declo volunteer fire department, announced a white elephant auction will be held at the Big D Roping Club arena one mile east and one and one-half mile south of Declo at 1 p.m. April 18.

Proceeds of the sale will be used to construct a building to house a fire truck and other supplies to accommodate the Declo village and surrounding rural area. Boundaries of the area are Springdale road on the west, south to third St. road, intersection of the north and to the point of the mountain on the east.

The entire area is being canvassed for contributions of saleable items for the auction. Gaylord Phillips will be the auctioneer.

The support of the community will be greatly appreciated, Schmidt said, as the fire department is one of the outstanding projects which will benefit all people of the community.

Anyone who is not contacted may call Schmidt at 654-2201 or Fire Chief Chet Behr at 654-4871.

Man Faces Sentence for Boise Murder

BOISE, April 9 (AP)—A 20-year-old Port Lewis, Wash., soldier today faced a minimum sentence of life imprisonment for the slaying of another man during religious service at the Boise Veterans administration hospital last Nov. 16.

George Leroy Stednitz was found guilty of first degree murder Wednesday within minutes after his three-day trial closed with arguments by defense attorneys that he was insane at the time of the slaying.

U. S. District Judge Fred M. Taylor scheduled sentencing for Tuesday at 10 a.m.

The death penalty could be imposed but was not asked by U. S. Atty. M. Sylvan Jeppesen. The minimum sentence for first degree murder is life imprisonment.

Stednitz was accused of gunning down down Eugene Carroll at the hospital while home on leave from the army.

Prosecution testimony indicated Stednitz was angry with Carroll because he had argued with his mother over money and church affairs. Witnesses also said Stednitz suspected Carroll of burglarizing his mother's home.

Mrs. Stednitz was pastor of a Boise Pentecostal church.

Stednitz declined to testify in his defense and two Boise psychiatrists said he knew right from wrong when the shooting occurred and knew what he was doing.

Dr. Dale Cornell, a defense witness, described Stednitz as immature and unsure and a person who had to prove to himself he was tough.

He requested defense attorneys to subpoena an army psychiatrist was denied by Judge Taylor on grounds he wasn't acquainted with Stednitz or the circumstances of the case.

A. B. Kading, one of Stednitz' court appointed attorneys, said the army doctor was advised by the army to caution by caution by the army and his friends and neighbors also criticized Mr. and Mrs. Stednitz who accompanied Stednitz to the hospital night of the shooting and did nothing to prevent it.

"I was a most," he said, "was a most."

News Around Idaho

POCATELLO, April 9 (AP)—Ladena Leuck, 19, a green-eyed brunette career girl, was named Miss Pocatello of 1964 Wednesday night in the city's annual beauty and talent pageant. Miss Leuck will represent Pocatello in the Miss Idaho contest at Boise in June. The new Miss Pocatello works as a clerk for a savings and loan company.

LEWISTON, April 9 (AP)—Elvon Hampton, Genesee, assumed duties as chairman of the Idaho board of education today at opening sessions of its April meeting at Lewis-Clark normal school. Hampton succeeds Ezra Hawkes, Pocatello. Curtis Eaton, Twin Falls, took over as vice chairman and John Peacock, Kellogg, secretary. The chairmanship rotates automatically each year. D. F. Engelking, state superintendent of public instruction, was not present. He returned to his Boise office earlier this week after recovering from surgery and said he had a backlog of work.

KELLOGG, April 9 (AP)—The outcome of an election to determine who will act as principal bargaining agent for employees at the Bunker Hill mine hinges on 42 challenge votes. The Northwest Metal Workers Union received 688 of the 1,408 votes cast Wednesday in a national labor relations board election. The total was 17 short, however, of the 50 per cent plus one majority needed by Northwest to retain its position as agent for the firm's 1,600 hourly employees at the Kellogg mine. The seven-member NLRB election team said the 42 challenge votes would be taken to Seattle for a check and announcement of the results would be made "within a couple of weeks."

BOISE, April 9 (AP)—An organization pledged to work for repeal of the state's part-mutual betting law has asked the help of all Idahoans who oppose the statute. Steven Fenn, pastor of the Boise Central Christian church and spokesman for the group—Idahoans to repeal racetrack gambling—said eight churches and the Idaho Allied Civil Forces have already volunteered their help. He said the group isn't limited to churches, a political party, moralists or any other designation but invites the support of "any Idahoans concerned with a sounder and honorable approach to government and tax income. Every candidate for the legislature," said Fenn, "will be asked his stand on the part-mutual question and his position will be made public before the August primary election. The vast majority of Idaho citizens clearly indicated their wishes in regard to gambling at the last general election," he said. "A small minority has sought to circumvent these wishes. Thus, the majority must again speak clearly."

BOISE, April 9 (AP)—Lieut. Gov. William E. Drevlow said Wednesday that the economic benefits of a state park proposed on the Farragut Wildlife Preserve on Lake Pend Oreille will more than repay the cost of development. His view differed from that of another Democrat, Secretary of State Arnold Williams, who had said Idaho can't afford to develop a park at the site at this time. Williams said it would take $250,000 to put the site into shape for the 1965 Girl Scout roundup. He said the legislature might be reluctant to appropriate the money with the state in financial difficulty.

BOISE, April 9 (AP)—A $63,250 contract for construction of an approach lighting system with sequence flashers at the Boise municipal airport has been awarded to the Watkins construction company. Sen. Frank Church and Rep. Ralph Harding, reporting the action, said the lights will help pilots in instrument approaches in bad weather both day and night and will improve safety and expedite traffic. Announcement of award of the contract to the Boise firm was made by the federal aviation agency in Washington.

CALDWELL, April 9 (AP)—A six man jury was selected in seventh district court Wednesday to hear testimony in the negligent homicide trial of James E. Andrews, 25, Lewiston. Andrews is accused of negligence in a two-car collision in Nampa last April 6th that resulted in the deaths of three members of a Nampa family.

BOISE, April 9 (AP)—Rigby Attorney Jay F. Bates has been appointed as an assistant U.S. attorney, succeeding Jim Christensen who resigned to enter private law practice. Bates has practiced in Rigby since 1956 and served as Jefferson county prosecuting attorney. He received his bachelor's degree from the University of Idaho law school and a master's from the University of Illinois.

GLENN'S FERRY, April 9 (AP)—State Rep. Alvin W. Joslyn, D., Elmore, has announced his candidacy for re-election. The two-term lawmaker said he is interested in tax questions and would oppose a sales tax but favors revision of property taxes.

Fund to Aid Children of Thresher Crewmen Growing

WASHINGTON, April 9 (AP)—When the 120 men of the submarine Thresher went down on her last voyage, she left behind almost 200 grieving children—and a fund to help educate the children and their big and little contributions have grown to more than $100,000 under the guidance of a Navy Paul H. Nizze gave her a certificate of appreciation for her "ambitious, unselfish dedication and driving zeal."

The "Hon's share of the assistance has come from the navy, not just our navy but the royal navy, the royal Canadian navy and the Japanese navy," Mrs. Hollingsworth said.

A British navy bandmaster wrote a song in tribute to the Thresher's dead and all proceeds from the copyrighted song goes to the fund.

The fund to send the children to college is for those of both the navy personnel aboard and the several civilian technicians in the Thresher when she failed to surface from a test dive off Cape Cod.

There are 194 children now, 11 of whom were born after the nuclear submarine sank, she said.

Gymkhana to Be Held at Glenns Ferry

GLENN'S FERRY, April 9 (AP)—A spring gymkhana will be held at 1 p.m. Sunday in the local arena, according to D. R. Clark, president of the Glenns Ferry Three Island Riding Club.

The field meet will be open to all clubs which are members of the Western Riding Club association, including the local club.

Activities for the afternoon include musical chair, flag racing, pole bending and rescue racing for juniors and adults. Ribbons will be awarded for the first three places.

At 3 p.m. the Glenns county fair board will sponsor the annual pig scramble. All eligible 4-H members may participate. Officials for this event will be Mrs. Claude Smith, Mrs. James Carpenter, Mrs. Bernard Smith and Mrs. Chester Carpenter. Myron Bliss will announce.

Characters in the play are portrayed by Randolph Patterson, Thomas Ekridge, Bette Jo Sweeney, Cathy Fife, Jan Merrill, and Julie Hall.

Buhl Reports Library Week Observance

BUHL, April 9 (AP)—The Buhl public library is participating with other Magic Valley libraries in the advertising campaign emphasizing National Library week, April 12-18, reports Mrs. A. S. Karaloff, local librarian.

The campaign calls for setting up bill board signs throughout the valley carrying out the National Library week theme, "Reading Is the Key."

Mrs. Karaloff noted the National Library week program is a voluntary citizen movement dedicated to the long range goal of encouraging lifetime reading habits, increasing people's use of libraries and expanding and improving the total reading and library resources of the nation.

She urges all residents to read a book for enjoyment, for inspiration and knowledge during the national observance.

The Buhl public library has more than 14,000 volumes, including reference books, with the overall circulation showing a definite increase. A new 24-volume set of Collier's encyclopedias, a 20-volume set of children's science encyclopedias, and a Bowker—1963 Books in Print, a library aid, have been purchased with a cash donation from the Rev. S. C. Orr.

Other new books have been ordered, with a partial shipment already received, to supplement some of the old books in the library, Mrs. Karaloff stated.

Newsman Is Assaulted By Truckers

NEW YORK, April 9 (AP)—Damon Runyon, Jr., 45, son of the late chronicler of Broadway characters, remained hospitalized today as the result of a fight with two truck drivers Wednesday.

Runyon suffered a broken jaw broken nose and severe cuts and bruises in the scuffle with the truckers. He was reported in "fine" condition today.

The two drivers were arrested by police and charged with felonious assault. They were identified as James Lore, 23, and Victor Pappa, 25.

Runyon, editor of the New York Herald Tribune Sunday news digest, noticed the truck drivers when they allegedly became abusive to customers and the owner of the restaurant near the newspaper's offices.

The newspaperman, who had a camera with him, took their pictures and then followed the men outside where he took more pictures. Police said the two men then assaulted him.

They were held in $2,500 bond each for a hearing April 17.

TAIPEI, Formosa, April 9 (AP)—Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon said today that surrender of the off-shore islands of Quemoy and Matsu to the Chinese communists could be the straw that would break the camel's back of resistance to communism in South Viet Nam.

Nixon, ending a two-day visit to Nationalist Chinese President Chiang Kai-shek, said "the free world cannot afford to surrender another inch of territory, particularly in Asia."

Lung Cancer 'Disappears' From Victim

SEATTLE, Wash., April 9 (AP)—The apparent remission of lung cancer in a 42-year-old navy employee, who describes himself as a medical oddity in whom cancer has disappeared with little treatment, has been confirmed by a Seattle physician.

The physician said use of the word "cure" might be a "little exaggerated."

"We used to use the word 'cure' if there was no recurrence after five years," he said. "Now we talk of survival, and if a patient has gone five years he might go 10, but we can't guarantee that."

Cancer was first diagnosed in Joe Mayerle, a guard at the Keyport naval torpedo station in March 1959. His case was widely publicized earlier when it appeared he was making a recovery.

Mayerle returned home two days ago from the veterans administration hospital at Seattle and said he had been pronounced "cured."

He has smoked heavily for some years and continues to do so. But after the 1959 diagnosis he "willed" himself to live and practiced his beliefs that good food, plenty of exercise and "good spirits" would bring recovery.

A VA hospital physician at Seattle, who asked not to be identified, said Wednesday: "As far as we can tell, Mr. Mayerle has no evidence of cancer at the present time."

Lawyer Says She Didn't Rap Group

WASHINGTON, April 9 (AP)—The power commission disclosed Wednesday that Evelyn N. Cooper, principal counsel for the Washington Public Power Supply system in the High Mountain Sheep case, has denied making statements critical of commission members attributed to her in a newspaper article.

Chairman Joseph C. Swidler said the commission had called on Mrs. Cooper who has offices here, to explain remarks attributed to her but now has accepted her explanation as denying a categorical denial that there is any foundation for the statements.

The newspaper involved was identified by the commission as the Pasco (Wash.) Tri-City Herald.

The commission split 3-2 in a decision in February denying a Washington power application for a Nez Perce hydroelectric project on the Snake river and approved instead the competing High Mountain Sheep project proposed by Pacific Northwest Power company.

The disclosure came when the commission made public exchanges of correspondence referring to a newspaper article of March 15.

The article was described by Swidler in a letter to Mrs. Cooper as quoting her to the effect that she had told Washington power board members she had been assured that commissioner Lawrence J. O'Connor, Jr., would vote with the other two Democrats to support WPPSS but that she had been misinformed.

The article was quoted as further saying she indicated that O'Connor, a Texan appointed by President Kennedy, "had assured the President before his death that his vote would be with Joseph C. Swidler's and David S. Black in favor of WPPSS."

Swedish Colonel Faces Trial for Helping Russians

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, April 9 (AP)—Col. Stig Wennerstrom goes on trial Saturday as a master spy accused of betraying Sweden's top defense secrets to the Soviet Union over a 15-year period.

A jury of nine, including five women, will decide his fate.

The prosecution calls him Sweden's most dangerous spy in modern times.

It says he has confessed he sold Sweden's top defense secrets to the Soviets from 1948 until his arrest last June. He knew a lot about the North Atlantic Treaty organization's defenses and weapons and presumably pushed this on to Moscow, but he will be tried only for betrayal of Sweden.

The story that will unfold includes attendance at a Soviet spy school in Moscow while he served as Swedish air attaché there; a secret room in his lavish villa where he received radioed instructions from the Russians; and exchanges of microfilm rolls during handshakes with Russians at diplomatic receptions in Stockholm.

Wennerstrom moved from one key position to another. Each gave him access to all the information on Sweden's defense plans and its defense forces.

Although neutral, Sweden is not a member of NATO he visited NATO military installations. He was friendly with many top Western diplomats here. From

HONOLULU STATION SOLD
HONOLULU, April 9 (AP)—The Honolulu Star-Bulletin has announced the sale of its radio and television properties in Honolulu and Hilo, Hawaii, to the Glassman-Hatch-Hettel interests of Utah and Idaho.

1952 to 1957 he served as Swedish air attaché in Washington. The United States honored him with its Legion of Merit when he left.

Interrogators took a month to break down Wennerstrom's pleas of innocence. They say he confessed only when confronted with irrefutable evidence, including films of classified information which Wennerstrom's maid had found in his villa.

The trial is expected to last four weeks. The maximum sentence that he can draw is life imprisonment.

Son Is Safe

Mrs. Elsie Cutler, 141 Blue Lakes boulevard south, has received a letter from her son, Robert T. Cutler, Anchorage, explaining he is safe.

In the letter Cutler said he was in a telephone booth at the time of the Good Friday earthquake. He said he saw a 60-foot land slide cover a railroad siding and turn over two railroad cars that were on it.

The 37-year-old colonel is confined in a special cell in Stockholm's police headquarters. He is under 24-hour watch by alternating teams of six guards in an adjacent room. The lights never are turned out in his cell.

He eats with a spoon. He is not permitted to use a knife or fork for fear of a suicide attempt. He is not allowed a belt or suspenders for the same reason.

Mrs. Vera Rauch, general chairman of the evening, was presented a corsage from club members honoring her as "Woman of Achievement for 1964."

Jane E. Adamson and Elva Olsen were decorations chairmen, assisted by Ina Knox and Verla Thompson.

Cy Radcliff, featured speaker, talked to the group on the power of the press and how it misleads the thinking of the readers.

Gordon Elliot provided the music for the evening by singing three songs, accompanied by Mrs. Gloria Blalock.

Boaters Gripe Answered; Money Needed for Facilities

By The Associated Press
Idahoans responded to a Utah complaint about boat registration fees Wednesday with declarations that the money is needed to provide facilities and clean up litter left by boaters.

They added that the fees, collected by the counties for waterway improvements, are lower than boat docking fees normally encountered in Utah. They said the law requiring the Idaho fees couldn't be changed before the 1965 legislature meets.

Ted Tuttle, boating supervisor for the Utah park and recreation commission, said Utah Gov. George Clyde to take back vehicle concessions granted Idahoans last fall unless the state waives registration fees for Utah boaters.

The dispute had some of the overtones of a conflict that arose last fall when southeast Idaho farmers closed their fields to Utah pheasant hunters in protest of auto and truck registration and license fees charged Idaho people in Utah.

Utah granted concessions but Tuttle said in return Idaho was supposed to waive boat registration fees for Utah vacationing in Idaho. He hinted Utah might charge Idaho boaters fees on Utah lakes.

"Utah should be willing to continue to pay the fees," said Lieut. Gov. William E. Drevlow, acting governor in the absence of Gov. Robert E. Smylie.

"The money is spent for their benefit, docks and parking facilities. They should be happy as long as they are going to use these facilities that they are available."

He said the primary purpose of the county waterway law was to improve boating facilities. Utahans pay no more than Idaho boaters, he said, for boating privileges in Idaho.

George Denney, director of the motor vehicle division for the department of law enforcement, said Smylie had advised Tuttle that the 1965 legislature would be advised of the situation and might change the law.

He said virtually all waterways in Idaho are open to public use without charge. But the said most of them in Utah are privately controlled and a fee is required for ramp and dock use.

Denney said the Utah fees are higher than the Idaho registration fees, which run as low as $2.50.

"The Utah fees are higher than the county waterway tax, he said, which may be as low as $2.50.

Richard Tufts, Preston, secretary of the Franklin county waterways committee, said the average county tax paid by boaters is $4. But he said docking fees in Utah run about $5 a season.

He said his county would oppose repeal of the fee. Utah boaters outnumber Idahoans 2-1 in Franklin county, he said.

"Seventy-five per cent of the money we get is turned right back and used in improving the waterways," said Tufts. "If we charged docking fees it would take half of it to collect it. It would probably cost the boater double."

"We're not against reciprocity," he said, "but we believe the people who are using the boating should pay their way. It shouldn't be up to some other source."

Tufts said the county had put in picnic tables, 50 or 60 garbage cans, about 13 floating docks, 12 to 14 toilets and is presently levelling parking space for 300 or 400 cars at Twin lakes, a popular boating spot.

"We want them to come and we don't want to tax them any higher," said Tufts. "The sad part is that the people buying the licenses are not opposed to it. We have talked to the boat owners. They say they are happy to pay it and get the improvements."

Tufts said most reservoirs in Franklin county are owned by irrigation districts and if the litter wasn't cleaned up they might be closed to boaters.

He said a study showed only two of 60 boat owners in Franklin county go in to Utah to boat.

Tuttle said Clyde and Smylie should work out a way to solve the problem before the summer boating season.

He said if the vehicle concessions continue "why should Idaho feel any urgency in granting our requests since its requests have been satisfied."

Clyde said he would have no comment until he studied the letter. Smylie was in Washington, D. C., to preside at a meeting of Republican governors.

Linda Berry, Gardner Wed in Temple Rites

RUPERT, April 9 — Linda Berry, daughter of Mr. Arlene Berry, daughter of Mr. Wayne Pehrson, and Mr. Robert Gardner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Gardner, were united in marriage in a ceremony March 20 at the Idaho Falls LDS temple.

The couple was honored at a reception in the Paul LDS cultural hall. The room was decorated in an Easter motif with floral arrangements made by Mrs. William Anderson, Idaho Falls, aunt of the bride. The couple greeted guests before an archway of greenery and carnations.

The bride wore a floor-length white gown styled with a fitted bodice, long pointed sleeves and a full skirt enhanced with lace applique accented with sequins and seed pearls. Her nylon veil was held by a tiny cap of sequins and pearls. She carried a bouquet of white and lavender carnations accented with bells and lavender streamers.

Maid of honor was Sharon Hansen. She wore a lavender chiffon gown with white overalls. The bridesmaids were Sharon Gardner, sister of the bridegroom, and Alice Crandall. They wore identical dresses of white chiffon with lavender overalls. Each carried a bouquet of lavender and white carnations.

Best man was William Berry, brother of the bride, and Gary Gardner, brother of the bridegroom.

The bride's mother chose a powder blue lace suit dress. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue dress. Each wore a corsage of white carnations. Special honored guests were Mrs. Preston Fuller, Mrs. George Pehrson and Mr. and Mrs. William C. Berry, Jr., grandparents of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hansen, grandparents of the bridegroom.

Guests were registered by DeWayne Pehrson, brother of the bride, and Tony Fuller, cousin of the bride. Gifts were arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Burton and Mary Armstrong.

The bride's table was covered with a white lace cloth made by the bridegroom's mother, and centered with the wedding cake. The cake was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom and flanked by candles. Guests were seated at quarter tables. Presiding at the refreshment tables were Mrs. Rulon Griffin, Mrs. Richard May, Mrs. Merlin Fuller and Mrs. William Anderson.

Music for dancing was provided by Merlin Fuller, Lud Mahler and Wayne Rogers.

For traveling, the bride changed to a blue and white dress with white accessories.

The bride is a 1961 graduate of Minico high school and has been employed at Minidoka Memorial hospital.

The bridegroom served an LDS mission to the midwestern states and is presently attending Utah State university. The couple resides at 215 East Fifth north, Logan.

The bride was honored with a kitchen shower given by hospital employees; a personal shower, with Mrs. W. F. Baker and Alice Crandall as co-hostesses, and a miscellaneous shower at Tetonla, with Mrs. Fuller and Mrs. Urs as co-hostesses.

Magic Valley Favorites

MRS. ALBERT LICKLEY
Route 3, Jerome

Peanut Butter Fingers
Cream, together—
1 cup butter or margarine
1 cup white sugar
1 cup firmly packed brown sugar
Blend in—
1 egg, unbeaten
1 cup peanut butter
1 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla

SUP
1 cup all purpose flour
1/2 cup quick oatmeal
Spread in a greased 13x9 inch cookie sheet. Bake at 350 degrees for 15 to 20 minutes. Take out of oven and sprinkle with one cup chocolate chips. Let stand five minutes.
Combine one-half cup sifted powdered sugar, one-fourth cup peanut butter and two to four teaspoons cream. Mix well.
Spread chocolate evenly. Spread powdered sugar mixture on like icing and it will blend with chocolate chips. Cut in finger bars.

(The Times-News will pay $5 each week for the best recipe submitted for Magic Valley Favorites. If you have a favorite recipe, just mail it to the Recipe Department, Women's Page editor. The recipe becomes the property of the Times-News and cannot be returned.)

Union Leader Convicted of Jury Tamper

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 9 (AP)—Union leader Henry F. Boster Bell of New York was convicted Wednesday night of tampering with a federal court jury that tried Teamsters President James R. Hoffa on conspiracy charges in 1962.

The jury of seven women and five men found Bell guilty of offering a Nashville numbers racketeer up to $30,000 to try to buy the votes of two jurors in the 1962 trial here.

Bell could receive a maximum sentence of five years in prison and fines of $5,000. U.S. Dist. Judge Frank Gray, Jr., delayed sentencing until April 27.

Bell, 54, is vice president of the International Longshoremen's association.

Bell was the eighth person to go on trial on charges of tampering with the 1962 Hoffa jury. Hoffa himself was convicted of the charge in a recent trial at Chattanooga and was sentenced to eight years in prison.

Masters Tourney Begins With Water-Soaked Links Ideal for Long Hitters

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 9 (P)—Nearly 100 of golf's greatest players teed off today in the 28th Masters tournament over the Augusta National course that days of steady rain have turned into a links built for two — defending champion Jack Nicklaus and three-time winner Arnold Palmer. Nicklaus, the 24-year-old Ohio Golden Bear who is the youngest winner ever, was a 4-1 choice to repeat—something no Masters winner ever has done. Golf's longest driver, Nicklaus has the length to handle the nearly 7,000 water-logged yards of the course that Bobby Jones designed.

Two-Course Golf Tournament Planned

Plans for a two-course city golf championship tournament and increasing the length and difficulty of the municipal course were announced Wednesday night at the Twin Falls Municipal Men's Golf association meeting. In other action, it was announced Duane Serpa and Dick Stocker tied at three-under par 65 for medalist honors in qualifying for the spring best ball tournament. The tournament pairings are available at the clubhouse and all first-round matches must be completed by April 10.

Course professional Clyde Thomsen said the city golf tournament will be city-wide for the first time in history. Under the proposed format, the field is restricted to members of the Blue Lakes Country club and municipal association, will play 18 holes at each course.

The medal competition will be flighted according to handicap and there will be prizes. The tournament then will go on to match play with the low 32 scorers in the medal portion advancing into the additional competition.

Three tees will be moved back and two greens will be surrounded with sand traps according to tentative plans for "toughening up" the municipal course. The tee on No. 5 will be moved back approximately 70 yards and the 15th tee will be placed near the sandtrap on the 18th green, adding some 80 yards and making a dogleg right on the hole. The other tee to be moved is on No. 8, which will become about 70 yards longer. The 13th and 11th greens will be completely surrounded by traps. Thomsen said other "toughening up" measures will be undertaken by the city in the future as the current budget cannot provide funds.

The association voted to accept an agreement with the city commission and tear out the fireplace in the clubhouse. President Paul Bull also announced the association "kick-off" dinner-dance will be conducted April 25 in the Elks building.

Major League Team to Move To Atlanta

ATLANTA, April 9 (AP)—An unidentified major league baseball team has agreed to transfer to Atlanta next season under a long-term lease at the city's proposed new stadium an official said Wednesday.

Arthur Montgomery, chairman of the Atlanta-Fulton County Recreation Authority, said the lease would cover at least 15 years.

Montgomery said the team cannot be identified until the 1964 season ends, but said the team's ownership actually "would like a 30-year lease."

"It is not a sweetheart lease," Montgomery said. "They expect to pay their own way and we expect to get a fair return."

The authority has approved a crash program on a 12-month basis for the stadium to entice big league baseball and football to Atlanta for 1965.

"We're shooting for an April 15 starting date for construction," Montgomery said.

Chicago Group Applies for AFL Franchise
CHICAGO, April 9 (AP)—A syndicate of eight men has submitted an official application for an American football league franchise for Chicago.

Bob Nussbaum, investment broker who heads the group said Wednesday. No deposit of money accompanied the application to AFL headquarters in New York "because they told us they didn't want one."

The application was the second filed with the league for a Chicago franchise. Nash Dowdle, Midland, Tex., oilman, announced last month he had applied.

The other pros have complained the course's roll is gone and it will take plenty of sunshine and wind to bring it back before the tournament ends Sunday.

The predictions are that the rains are through, but the man who picks the weather around here must have bet on Tom Dewey in 1948. He is battling about .025 lately, according to the local inhabitants.

Boros won the Greater Greensboro Open last Sunday.

Nicklaus has won only one tournament all year, and Palmer none, but they still rank first and fourth on the money list.

Top prize at the Masters is usually $20,000. The payoff based on gate receipts, runs in the $100,000 neighborhood.

Impressive as those totals are they are small compared to the value of a Masters victory for endorsements and personal appearances. That has been put in the million dollar class.

Nicklaus also listed former open champion Billy Casper, Tony Lema, who was the runner-up last year, and 1961 Masters winner Gary Player of South Africa among the leading threats to his title.

Boros, who is not given to wild predictions, said "you never can tell" when asked about his chances.

Champagne Tony said "my best chance is for lightning to strike the clubhouse while 90 per cent of the field is inside."

Player is running a fever from infected tonsils and may not have the strength for four top rounds over the demanding course.

Long Course Trend Hit By Champ
AUGUSTA, Ga., April 9 (AP)—U. S. amateur golf champion Deane Beman decries what he called the recent trend of building new courses or altering old ones to favor the power hitters.

"I may be wrong, but I think it has taken something away from the game," he said Wednesday in the shelter of the Augusta National course clubhouse while the week-long rain continued to pelt the scene of the Masters championship opening Thursday.

He continued, "The U. S. Golf association started this trend some eight years ago, particularly at courses where the open championship has been played. New tees were built, lengthening the courses to favor the power hitters, such as Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer, at the expense of finesse."

"Golf architects and people building new courses have followed the USA lead in this pattern."

He pointed to what he called an obsession with power in recent years, among builders of courses, players and the general public. He cited the case of Gary Player, the little South African, winner of the Masters title in 1961.

"Gary, as you know, even wears black clothes to get what he calls an added feeling of strength."

Allen Beat Hoak Out of Third Base Spot, Draws Raves From Manager

CLEARWATER, Fla., April 9 (NEA)—This spring Richie Allen had to take the third base job on the Philadelphia Phillies away from Don Hoak, the surly veteran who had slipped to a 231 season and isn't helped by the fact he's 36 years old.

"There's nothing Hoak can do that I can't do," Allen said, and went out and won the job. In his first nine games, for instance he hit six home runs and drove in 17 runs.

"If this is his norm," gloated Gene Mauch, the articulate manager of the Phillies, "he's too much. If he's 75 per cent this good, he's a terrific player."

Mauch ticked off the attributes of his gifted rookie.

"He looks like he's here with the bat. He knows pretty well the ball's he can handle. He has the short stroke that's indicative of most good hitters, and he has tremendous hand action."

"He's done everything a man can be asked to do so far at third base. He has good hands and good feet."

"An infielder has to have good feet," Mauch explains, "before he can have good hands because he can only field with his hands what his feet put him in position to field. Allen has good feet."

Allen, a broad-shouldered, wasp-waisted 22-year-old out of Wampum, Pa., looks like the No. 1 candidate for major league "rookie-of-the-year" honors, even though he will be back in the infield after three minor league seasons as an outfielder.

Mauch isn't worried about the adjustment.

"He started as a shortstop," the manager says. "The Yankees have five guys in their lineup who started as shortstops, including Mickey Mantle. If you're thought of highly enough as a shortstop when you're signed, you can play anywhere."

The Phillies thought highly enough of Allen to give him a bonus of $60,000. He was an All-American basketball player at job on the Philadelphia Phillies away from Don Hoak, the surly veteran who had slipped to a 231 season and isn't helped by the fact he's 36 years old.

After a season as an infielder, he was switched to the outfield and told to wear glasses. "I think I could hit without them," he says, "but I hit 317 the first year I wore them, so I vowed to wear them from then on."

He hit 329 the next year at Williamsport, then jumped to Little Rock last year. It was a grim experience for Allen, because he was the first Negro player to compete in Little Rock.

"I didn't want to be a crusader," Allen says. "I kept thinking, 'Why me?' It's tough to play ball when you're frightened."

The last month of the season, the Phillies brought him to the big club, although they were snarled in a fight for the first division.

"They just told me to hit like I could hit," Allen remembers, "and help 'em get the money."

Allen hit 292 (7 for 24) and helped the Phillies get fourth place money.

Having survived Little Rock and the rigors of playing a treacherous left field hill, Allen isn't worried about adjusting to third base and the big leagues.

"Baseball is baseball," he says. "God gave me just so much talent, and it's up to me to use what I have. I feel inside that I'm ready for the big leagues. I feel like I'm here and I'm here to stay."

Don Hoak notwithstanding.

The four were infielder Pumpsie Green, rookie first baseman Bill Haas, who has hit 222 in exhibition games, and pitchers Dick Selma and Ron Locke.

Javier Homers for Cards' 5-4 Victory

By The Associated Press
Julian Javier, the lightweight of the National league's heavyweights, slugged a two-run homer in the eighth inning Wednesday, giving St. Louis a 5-4 exhibition baseball victory over the New York Yankees.

Javier's hit overshadowed the fact that the Yankees' Mickey Mantle played his first complete spring game. Mantle, who has been bothered by knee trouble went hitless in four trips to the plate.

Home runs also were factors in most of the other grapefruit games.

Cleveland got three four-baggers in crushing San Francisco 14-4. It was the Indians' first victory against the Giants in 10 games. Max Alvis, Leon Wagner and John Romano hit homers off starter Billy O'Dell.

Willie Mays was struck on the right wrist in the first inning on an attempted pickoff throw from the Indians' Dick Donovan. The Giants' star had to leave the game for ice pack treatment but is expected to be all right by Thursday.

Alex Johnson cracked a two-run homer and Richie Allen three-run homer in sparking Philadelphia over the Los Angeles Dodgers 11-4. Allen also drove in a run with a single. The Dodgers' B team lost to Pittsburgh 11-1.

Minnesota nipped Houston 5-4 on pinch hitter John Goryl's two-run homer in the ninth. Jim Wynn's homerun had given the Colts the lead in the eighth.

Home runs by Boog Powell, Russ Snyder and Luis Aparicio carried Baltimore to an 8-1 triumph over Cincinnati. The blasts accounted for six of the runs.

Boston and the Chicago Cubs hit five homers between them, but it was Dick Bertell's soft line drive single in the 11th that gave the Cubs a 7-5 victory.

The New York Mets defeated Kansas City 11-9, after getting five runs in the fourth inning. The Mets piled up a 9-0 lead before the Athletics got to Jay Hook for five runs in the sixth.

The Los Angeles Angels beat Hawaii of the Pacific Coast league 7-2.

ISU Wins Big Sky Twin Bill
POCATELLO, April 9 (AP)—Idaho State university defeated Montana State college 3-0 and 11-5 Wednesday in a Big Sky conference baseball doubleheader.

Southpaw Ken Leland tossed a three-hit shutout for the Bengals in the opener and outfielder Steve Kuharski drove in four runs with a single, double and homerun in the second game.

The sweep improved ISU's season record to three victories against seven losses. It was the first conference action of the season for the Bengals.

Montana State now is 2-7 for the season and 1-3 in Big Sky play.

Class Hears Dangers of Alcohol Use

RUPERT, April 9 — Minidoka county students heard about the dangers of the use of alcohol, narcotics and narcotics beverages during sessions conducted by state patrolmen and Robert W. Hoag, executive director of the Idaho Narcotics and Alcohol Education foundation, sponsor of the classes.

Dangers in the use of alcohol and narcotics are brought out in the course by the use of films, visual aids, and lectures. Hoag assisted last week by Roy Thomas, Rupert, and Charles Burley, Idaho state police. Officer Peugh is assisting during the final week.

During the past week, 14 classes in all four grades were conducted at Minidoka, with classes held this week at the junior high schools at Rupert, Heyburn and Paul.

Included in the demonstrations are the use of balloon breathers used by the state patrolmen and other law enforcement agencies to determine the degree of intoxication of drivers.

Hoag quoted National Safety Council figures to show that some 55 per cent of all traffic fatalities are directly related to drinking on the part of the drivers involved.

He pointed out that figures compiled seven years ago showed this to be just 20 per cent, but Hoag said that the facts are not known. Now, he said, it is known that the largest single cause of traffic fatalities is drinking drivers.

Hoag explained this is the fourth year similar courses have been presented in Idaho schools, with different phases of the narcotics and drinking problems being featured each year.

The foundation sponsoring the classes is supported by private donations, Hoag explained. Under the program, these information sessions are being taken to some 26,000 students this year, he said.

Drunk Driver Case Here Is Dismissed

A drunk driving charge against Curtis J. Smith, 289 Pierce street, was dismissed Tuesday on a motion presented by City Attorney William Langley.

The case had been tried twice in police court, on Feb. 5 and March 25, both times resulting in hung juries.

Smith was arrested at 9:20 p.m. Jan. 7 by state police in the 1000 block of Blue Lakes boulevard, where his car was stalled in the street. Smith was in the car.

He was charged with drunk driving and given a Mokat (balloon) test which a chemist in Boise said indicated intoxication. Smith contended he had drunk only four bottles of liquor and that the test was wrong.

Milo Pope was Smith's attorney.

Power Firm Expands East Idaho Service

BOISE, April 9 (Special)—Two new long-term contracts covering 45,000 kilowatts of electric power for the rapidly expanding phosphate industry in eastern Idaho were announced Wednesday by T. E. Roach, president of Idaho Power company.

The new contracts involve 25,000 kilowatts of power for FMC corporation, Pocatello, and 20,000 kilowatts for the J. R. Simplot company, also Pocatello.

"These contract commitments," Roach said, "again demonstrate that ample electric power at low rates is available here in Idaho to fully satisfy all requirements for the continuation of the dramatic growth of eastern Idaho's phosphate resources without any need for importing tax-free electricity from the government-subsidized Edinville Power administration at an exorbitant cost to the nation's taxpayers."

FMC corporation operates the world's second largest elemental phosphorus plant. The new contract is the second major commitment for additional power to FMC within the last six months.

COLLEEN ELLIS

daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ellis, Hazelton, and student at Valley high school will receive her state homemaker degree at the state Future Homemakers of America convention at Boise, April 16-18. She will be president of the Valley chapter for 1964-65 and currently is district four parliamentarian. A junior, she belongs to the Pep club and is on the annual staff.

Goulash Gobbler Fails to Send Hungary Motors

BUDAPEST, Hungary, April 9 (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev admitted breakdowns in deliveries to his East European allies Wednesday.

Speaking off-the-cuff to workers in an optical factory here, Khrushchev said the party secretary of the plant told him "a certain foreign country hadn't given us enough motors."

"I asked him if it was the Soviet Union and he said yes. So I started clearing things up to find out why they didn't deliver," Khrushchev continued.

"I knew it must be either from the Ukraine, from Leningrad or from Moscow. If it's from the Ukraine, then the chief culprit is among us," he said, gesturing toward Ukrainian Communist Party First Secretary Pyotr Shplust.

"Here's Comrade Shplust. He's here eating goulash but not delivering motors."

Smylie's Stock May Be on Rise With GOP

BY RICHARD CHENOCK
BOISE, April 9 (AP)—Gov. Robert E. Smylie's political stock may be on the rise with Republican party faithful.

Slumping recently because of intra-party warfare, it got a lift this week when the chief executive appointed veteran State Sen. Harry Nock of Cascade to the public utilities commission.

By picking this Democrat over others, Smylie in one action silenced at least official complaints from the opposition party over filling of the vacancy and at the same time aided the GOP state senate cause.

While it would take more than Nock's Valley county seat to give Republicans control of the senate next year, capture of that post would give the GOP a better chance.

And this is just what some of the party faithful have been arguing in promoting Nock's candidacy for the $12,000 a year PUC post left vacant by the death of Frank Meek.

In 1963, the Republicans held a two-vote margin in the senate—23 to 21. Two of the GOP seats, however, are up for grabs. Hal Wallington of Blaine county isn't seeking reelection and Dick Smith of Madison county is seeking the GOP nomination for congress.

When Meek died earlier this year the Democratic State Central committee nominated three legislators as his possible successors. They include Nock and state Reps. A. F. Terrell of Bannock county and James Monroe of Nez Perce county. By law the PUC must be bi-partisan and since the two surviving members are Republicans, Smylie had to hand Meek's job to a Democrat.

State Democratic Chairman Lloyd Walker made it clear when the central committee offered its nominations that he would kick up a fuss if Smylie failed to pick a good Democrat for the job. Since the central committee nominated Nock for it Walker can't complain about the appointment Smylie made.

From the Republican standpoint, selection of Nock was a good political move. Choosing Terrell, they have argued would simply have opened the door for election of another Democrat to the house for traditionally—Democratic Bannock county. Appointment of Monroe, they maintained, would have done the same thing in Nez Perce.

With Nock, a seven-term Senate veteran, out of the way the Valley county seat now is up for grabs.

When Republican strategists first started the Nock talk there were rumors that McCall lumberman Warren Brown might be persuaded to seek the senate seat if Nock got the PUC appointment.

Now, Valley county sources say,

Brown apparently won't go, but it appears likely that Republican Rep. Bob Fogg will. A possible opponent for Fogg in the general election is former Rep. Woodrow Bean of Cascade, providing Bean doesn't try to recapture his old house seat.

If critics of Republican National Committeewoman Gwen Barnett needed any ammunition to fire at her in the state convention this June they got it this week.

Mrs. Barnett has been under fire for her part in taking convention committee appointments out of the governor's hands and putting them in those of the State Central committee. There have been a number of not-too-subtle though behind-the-scenes attempts to find a popular candidate to run against her when she seeks re-election.

One of the blasts her opponents have fired has been Mrs. Barnett's outspoken enthusiasm for Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater. Her critics maintain that as an official representative of the party in Idaho she would not be endorsing any presidential hopeful before the state convention meets—although her counterpart in a neighboring state is actively working for New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller.

Up until now, all these critics had to fire at Mrs. Barnett were some of her statements indicating she favored Goldwater. This week, however, came the announcement she would attend the spring conference of the National Federation of Republican Women in Washington, D. C., and would be an official representative of the Idaho Goldwater headquarters.

Thursday, April 9, 1964
Twin Falls Times-News 19

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

THURSDAY, April 4 — Born today, you are a natural leader, and you are instinctively turned to you for help and advice. Yet you are inclined to be somewhat impatient and fiery when provoked. If you are not careful, you could become something of a despot in your own circle. Your instincts for kindness and sympathy and leave your family behind; remember that there is no real reason why the advice you give should always be taken. The choice is up to the advisee.

Wise and able in general, if you learn to bide your time, aiding others but not demanding obedience from them, you should find yourself eventually in a position of considerable authority. Once you do, resist any temptation to abuse that position; bear in mind that the fall is always more than the climb would indicate.

You women are somewhat inclined to be imperious; your natural charm, however, is enough to counteract this, and it should stand in the way of your popular appeal. Both you men and women should have ample opportunity to marry, but must be especially on guard against being swept off your feet. Take your time; a good marriage is worth waiting for.

Among those born on this date are: Charles Baudelaire, French symbolist poet; Brandon Wilde, actor; S. Hurok, impresario.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Friday, April 10
ARIES (March 21-April 20) — Let and show of friendly impulses should enable Aries to avert professional difficulties arising out of argument.

TAURUS (April 21-May 21) — Make a concentrated effort to routine chores during morning hours. Then allow a free afternoon to drift into a free evening.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21) — Inadvertent of instability today could create problems. Look for realistic solutions.

CANCER (June 22-July 23) — A day in which haste makes waste. Take time to check the minor details in your method of operations.

LEO (July 24-Aug. 23) — Allow you sense of personal independence to guide you into interesting channels of activity.
