He carried that drive into a session of the rules committee which has been investigating the outside business interests of the former secretary of senate Democrats.

As an individual, I resent Bobby Baker's ability to blacken me.

New Jet May Help 'Fight' McNamara

PALMDALE, Calif., May 12 (AP)—The air force hoped today that the striking debut of the revolutionary X-70 transport plane today will help its battle with the defense department for supersonic bombers to defend the unique ship, unpowered, in the air.

Although the X-70 is mainly a forward-looking aircraft, McNamara's defense secretary, Robert S. McNamara, has advocated an all-out effort to develop the X-70 to help deterrence while the air force maintains that supersonic bombers are needed in addition to the X-70. The air force seeks to minimize the highly controversial X-70 in the war plane.

Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara has advocated an all-out effort to develop the X-70 to help deterrence while the air force maintains that supersonic bombers are needed in addition to the X-70. The air force seeks to minimize the highly controversial X-70 in the war plane.

At Monday's Brig. Gen. Fred Axtell, Air Force Brig. Gen. Fred Axtell, commander of the program, said the ship represents "a turning point in aviation history."

The X-70 will fly at 3,000 miles an hour and to altitudes of 50,000 feet or higher and it has many design and instrument innovations never before put into an aircraft.

In the near future, it will undergo tests at nearby Edgewood air force base. The ship will make its first test flight, with a pilot and copilot, from here to Edwards in about two months.

Refugees Enter Russia From China

MOSEOW, May 12 (AP)—Refugees are crossing into Soviet territory from Communist China at the rate of 1,200 a month to escape Chinese persecution, diplomatic sources said today.

The sources said the refugees are Mongol-Turkic people who are seeking asylum in the Soviet republic of Kazakhstan, which borders China's Sinkiang province and contains people of the same racial background. The Peking persecution is both racial and economic, the sources said.

The sources said the refugees are "border fugitives" and are not political refugees. In Soviet collective and state farms with their ethnic Chinese neighbors border guards occasionally try to prevent the fugitives but the border is too long and sparsely guarded to stop very many.

Soviet diplomats suggested the Chinese may be deliberately permitting the escapes to rid Sinkiang of its Moslem tribesmen and open the way to more Chinese colonization.

Sinking originally had a population of about five million, most of it Uighur, Kazakh, and Kirghiz. Since the Communist take over, official figures show the population has expanded from 300,000 to more than two million.

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK, May 12 (AP)—International statistical bureau says the peak in stock prices has not yet been seen. Any reaction, it adds, will be temporary and moderate.

"The advance of the industrial average to a new high clearly indicates that the recent irregular trend was largely a period of consolidation and not a fore-runner of markedly lower prices," the bureau said. But it cautioned against expecting a "straight-line advance."

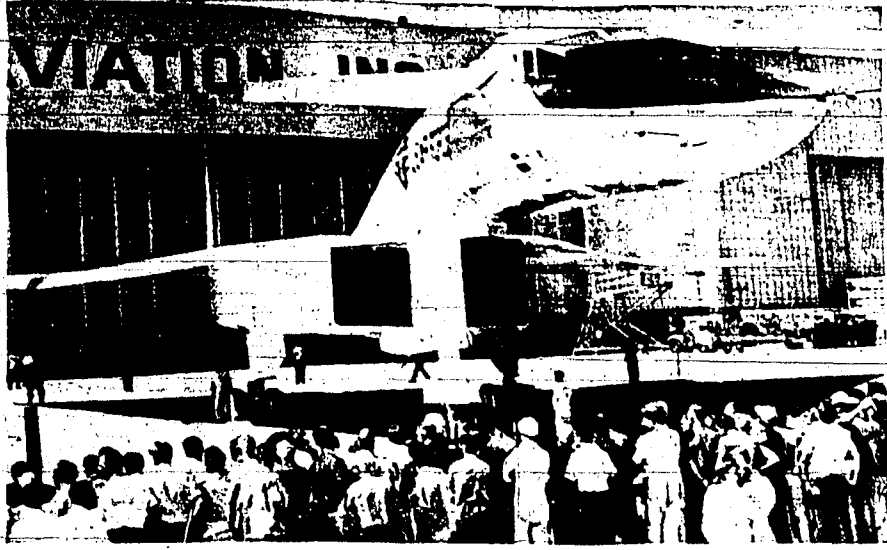

William Cohn and Stetson says "some traders have undoubtedly been frightened out of the market by the recent weakness. It remains to be seen" if the brokerage houses adds, "whether what now appears to be a synthetic strength in a few volatile blue chips will come to inspire a broad buying interest in other issues or will merely cause renewed deterioration in technical strength, preparatory to a resumption of the decline."

The Alexander Hamilton Institute advises investors to retain "good quality" stocks and maintain a cash reserve awaiting further development. The institute notes that the recent erratic and rather volatile behavior of the market "reflects a confused picture of nervousness over the near term."

Operation Desert Strike to Fight Over Colorado River

NEEDLES, Calif., May 12 (AP)—Mock war has been declared over the Colorado river and the shooting starts this week-end.

But this time instead of politicians and water commissions, the firing line will be held by 100,000 soldiers and airmen, all participants in operation "Desert Strike"—the second largest U.S. military maneuver since World War II.

"Thousands of troops and tons of equipment have been moving into this area for the past month from military bases throughout the country. The battle ground will be barren, sun-scoured desert regions of Arizona, California and Nevada.

Sagebrush and snakes are about the only living things which call the battle area home. Troops have been briefed on how to survive in the desert. But some troops undoubtedly will succumb to desert heat rather than the enemy. Temperatures soar to the 100s at mid-afternoon and drop to almost freezing at night.

The reflection of the sun rays coat produce something similar to snow blindness and spring winds whip the desert sand to almost blizzard conditions. Winds near 50 miles per hour were recorded in southern Nevada last week.

The war games are based on the assumption that the mythical countries of "Nezoma" and "Gakonia" have been fighting 40 years over Colorado river rights. The United Nations has tried unsuccessfully to arbitrate the situation.

Not all of the battlefield is desert. Some of it is rugged mountain terrain. The area specifically involved is located in Mojave and Yuma counties of Arizona, Riverside and San Bernardino counties of California and Clark county Nevada.

About 7,000 troops will wear green battle dress designating they are part of the neutral force. These men are not subject to capture or harassment by either side. Their function will be to provide essential services to the combatant players in the ground maneuver area including repair of damages, the medical duties and aeromedical functions.

Army Lieut. Gen. Charles G. Dodge, vicee troops will be in command of the Colorado river, will head the forces of the mythical country of "Nezoma." West of the Colorado, under Air Force Lieut. Gen. Charles B. Westover, will be joint task forces Mojave, representing the mind of "Gakonia."

Army Gen. Paul D. Adams, commanding general of the third U.S. army, was designated commander in chief of U.S. strike command. He set up an exercise director's headquarters here last week.

The department of defense is coordinator of the operation. Officials hope to learn how well a strike command can operate from the United States and on short notice move anywhere in the world to meet an emergency. When the "war" is over May 30, the defense department think it will know more about the capabilities and the weaknesses of the United States military.

Crowley Raps Superintendent Turnover Rate

BOISE, May 12 (AP)—Idaho Education Association Executive Secretary Clinton Crowley says that "appalling losses" of school superintendents are continuing in Idaho.

Crowley said 16 superintendents already have indicated they will not return to their jobs this year—and it is "probable" that there will be even more leaving.

"On the average, one out of every five Idaho school superintendents is new to his job each year," Crowley said. "The very high turnover of school superintendents is but one of the serious problems of Idaho public education."

Art Calender, a Negro from New York; James J. J. Virginia, and Tommie Robinson, Memphis.

This is one of the last performances planned by this quartet, as two of them, Nelson and J. J., are graduating this spring. They have been singing together the past two years and have been popular at 1500 and in the surrounding area in hotel-entertainment performances.

Truman Says Rights Fight Shakes U.S.

NEW YORK, May 12 (AP)—President Harry S. Truman said Monday the civil rights fight was shaking the country and hurting it externally and that the issue should be resolved "once and for all and be done with it."

Truman also spoke out against "the disease of anti-Semitism" which, he said, infects "the United States and other parts of the world."

Referring to the debate on the civil rights legislation in congress, the president's former chief executive said:

"This nation is presently engaged in a reaffirmation and a regard in how at long last we are to make good on our constitutional commitment that none of our citizens be deprived of his or her civil rights in any scale of the union."

"This unfinished business has been haunting us internally and being unsettling us externally."

Truman said the civil rights battle has diverted the nation's energies from the needs of its growing population for too long a time.

"I say let us settle this debt to this large group of our neglected citizens, once and for all, and be done with it."

Truman said there was no larger aim than to keep putting off a decision made a hundred years ago—that all human beings are entitled to equal treatment. And that freedom is not something to be rationed on the basis of race or religion."

Express Train Smashes Car, Two Mothers, 8 Children Die

MESA, Ariz., May 12 (AP)—A high-speed express train smashed into a stationwagon, carrying two sisters and their eight children at a rural railroad crossing Monday, snuffing out all 10 lives.

One of the sisters was the mother of six of the youngsters who died in the crash and was expecting another child.

The tragedy occurred in clear sunny weather with excellent visibility.

Investigators said the driver of the stationwagon apparently failed to see the flashing warning signal at the crossing and drove into the train's path.

The crossing is in a flat, semi-agricultural area about five miles south of here.

Carcasses were scattered over a wide area around the wrecked stationwagon, indicating the women had been on a shopping outing with the children.

Dead were Lola King, 26, Phoenix, Ariz., and two daughters, Victoria, 3, and Michelle, 2, and Mrs. Ina Lowe of Winkelman, Ariz., and her children—Clifford, 10, Mitchell, 8, Linda, 7, Karen, 6, Mark, 3, and Gregory, 1. Mrs. Lowe was nine months pregnant.

The Lowes had been visiting at the King home in Phoenix—20 miles to the west of here.

No one on the train was hurt.

Chuckholes

SALT LAKE CITY, May 12 (AP)—Salt Lake City's streets—known to some motorists as "Bittern roads of Utah"—are literally giving the state's motorists nightmares.

"I dream about chuckholes at night," says Commissioner George B. Catmull. "I get called late at night and early in the morning about their condition. My wife wants me to resign."

Catmull said an unusually long winter left more chuckholes than usual and a wet spring made repair difficult.

SALT LAKE CITY, May 12 (AP)—Salt Lake City taxpayers went to the polls Tuesday to vote on a proposed 7 million dollar school bond issue. Polls were open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. Eligible voters for the bond election were all registered voters in the city who paid a property tax on real estate or automobile in the past 12 months.

Stands Firm

LONDON, May 12 (AP)—Britain Monday squelched a plea to this large group of our neglected citizens, once and for all, and be done with it."

Truman said there was no larger aim than to keep putting off a decision made a hundred years ago—that all human beings are entitled to equal treatment. And that freedom is not something to be rationed on the basis of race or religion."

Mother Still Prays for Stolen Baby

CHICAGO, May 12 (AP)—Mrs. Dora Pronczak today faced another lonely trip to the church where she has prayed daily for the safe return of her baby boy who was kidnapped from her arms three weeks ago.

A nurse's suspicion about a child brought to Illinois Masonic hospital Monday night raised for a time some hope that the missing Pronczak child had been found.

The nurse's report triggered a flurry of police activity but footprint checks revealed that the hospitalized child was not Paul Joseph Pronczak, who had been taken from his mother the day after his birth by a woman posing as a nurse.

The footprints of the baby brought to the hospital verified his mother's story that he had been born to her April 6. There are no recorded footprints of the Pronczak child.

Rubin is accused of smuggling gold coins into the United States from Canada.

His wife Vivian is his attorney.

Taft Is Eyed As Keynoter At GOP Meet

WASHINGTON, May 12 (AP)—Rep. Robert Taft, Jr., R., O., is being talked up today as a likely choice for keynoter of the Republican National convention in a rooming house from a little-known state leader.

Early leaders, it was learned, have scrubbed the prior consideration given Minnesota state Chairman Robert Porzythie.

When word leaked out that the keynoting assignment was being held up, the not-so-well-known Minnesotaan, negative reaction chilled his prospects.

Taft, son of the late senate GOP leader, was pushed into national prominence just a week ago by his smashing four-to-one victory in the Ohio Republican senatorial nomination.

The 47-year-old Taft beat Ted W. Brown, Ohio secretary of state, and is favored to win the seat held by Democratic Sen. Stephen M. Young, who was re-elected in a landslide.

The GOP arrangements committee meets May 25 in Washington to pick officers for the convention opening in San Francisco on July 13. On May 26, the Republican National committee will give formal approval to the choices for temporary chairman, keynoter and permanent chairman.

Sen. Thurston B. Morton, R., Ky., who was party chairman from 1950 to 1951, heads the senate GOP campaign committee, is slated for the role of permanent chairman.

Gov. Mark Hatfield of Oregon is regarded as the best bet for temporary chairman. Both chairmen will deliver nationally televised speeches. But the heaviest load falls on the permanent chairman, who presides during adoption of the platform and nomination of the president and vice-presidential candidates.

Moon Money Could Bring West Water

SALT LAKE CITY, May 12 (AP)—Utah's Gov. George D. Clyde says the billions of dollars being spent on getting a man to the moon might better be spent getting water to the western part of the United States.

Clyde told the environmental engineering conference of the American Society of Civil Engineers Monday in Salt Lake City that you've got to "think big" in water-resource development.

He said it was technically possible to transport water from the earth's ice caps southward to the western states where the need is becoming more acute each year.

Clyde's comment about the moon money was not in his prepared talk, but he emphasized his "think big" theme.

There is a proposal to transport water from the Yukon to the Southwest—the so-called North American water plan.

But Clyde said, "The more we contemplate the sober facts, the more we are impressed that we must do something on this grand scale, or else write an end to progress and growth in this part of the nation."

Committee Head Charged With Padding Staff

WASHINGTON, May 12 (AP)—Top Republicans on the house public works committee Monday railed behind a freshman GOP member who accused veteran Chairman Charles A. Buckley, D., N. Y., of padding the committee payroll with political cronies.

One member, Rep. Fred Schwengel, R., Ill., set off a drive to ouster Buckley as the committee's budget for the next year goes before the house administration committee.

Schwengel and Rep. William Kramer, R., Fla., second-ranking Republican committee member, pressed Rep. James C. Cleveland, R., N. H., for naming nine committee staff members who he said were rarely seen in Washington. The nine were identified as political aides in Buckley's Bronx district.

Cleveland listed the names in a footnote in a prepared article on "minority staffing." Buckley has denied the padding charge, saying that "I stand for good government."

States Rights Party Pickets Integrated Film

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 12 (AP)—A leader of the National States Rights party says a theater here has agreed to suspend showing of a movie with an integrated cast.

Dr. Edward R. Fields, a leader of the NSRP, said the theater group and the Ku Klux Klan protested showing of the movie "Free, White and 21" at a local drive-in. The States Rights organization picketed the theater.

Fields said further picketing was planned Monday night but was canceled when the theater manager agreed to withdraw the picture.

Pickets waving anti-Jewish placards and Confederate flags drove away all but a few potential customers Sunday, police said.

BOISE, May 12 (AP)—The drafting subcommittee of Gov. Robert E. Smylie's water study group met Monday in Boise, but Chairman William Hayden, Idaho Falls, still has not made his decision on a plan for financing of state water projects with revenue bonds, repayable with project revenues. He maintains the state must develop its water resources or face diversion to the thirsty Southwest. Once a plan is drafted it is to be submitted to the full committee, which hasn't met since its organizing session in March.

POCATELLO, May 12 (AP)—A 20-year-old Port Hall man has been handed sentences totaling seven years on charges of negligent homicide and grand larceny. Manuel McKean pleaded guilty to both charges after a psychiatric evaluation at state hospital south showed he was competent to stand trial. He had originally pleaded innocent to both charges. McKean was charged with negligent homicide in connection with an automobile accident in January in which 15-year-old Kathleen Seppi, Lava Hot Springs, was killed. He was fleeing in a stolen car when it struck another vehicle at Tukom, knocking it into a car in which Miss Seppi was a passenger.

BALMORON, May 12 (AP)—A bridge over the Salmon river on U. S. highway 93 five miles north of here has been closed to heavy traffic. State police ordered the bridge closed to heavy vehicles Monday after a truck with load piled too high hit the superstructure. They fear the accident may have weakened the span. Officers said only passenger cars and empty trucks will be allowed to cross until a complete inspection is made. It was the third bridge problem in the Salmon area in a week. Last Thursday an old wooden bridge over the Lemhi river just north of Balmoron collapsed under a city truck. Another bridge in Balmor has been restricted to one-way traffic during a widening project.

BOISE, May 12 (AP)—Horse racing with pari-mutuel betting is scheduled to come to Idaho Saturday with a 10-race meet at Emmett, the first of 13 planned in the state this summer under the controversial 1963 law. A portable electronic tote board and pari-mutuel machines are being brought from Montana for the 10-race meet at the item county fairgrounds, sponsored by the county's mounted sheriff's posse. Representatives of the posse were in Boise Monday to post the $25,000 bond required and apply for a license for the meet.

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

TUESDAY, May 12—Born today, you are one of those rare few who will probably have a choice between a career that primarily makes use of intellectual capacity, or one that will draw for the most part upon athletic prowess. Proficient in both areas, the decision will not be an easy one should opportunities for both arise. If you come at the same time, make your choice as wisely as possible—and, once you have made it, stick with it!

You have an exceptionally warm nature that, if you do not learn to balance it with good common sense, could deteriorate into pure sentimentality. This, of course, could wreak havoc with whatever career you have chosen, and could turn your life into one of misadventure and misadventures. Always listen to what your heart tells you, of course; but do not under any circumstances ignore the wisdom of your head!

You women, especially, have magnetic personalities, and will draw all manner of people, good and ill, into your circle of acquaintances. The ability to discriminate will serve you well, and you must begin to cultivate it early in life. You men are somewhat better protected against your own charm by a bit of masculine gruffness, charming in itself—but only to your friends.

Among those born on this date are: Millie Perkins, actress; Philip Wylie, American author, critic; Vogt Borra, N.Y. Yankee manager.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Wednesday, May 13
TAURUS (April 21-May 21)—Take care that your adventurous nature does not take you too far in the wrong direction; keep your goal ever in mind!

BOIEM (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)—Good old-fashioned horse sense will serve you better than all the fashionable theories of the moment.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22)—The present storm may reflect your own attitude rather than the true situation. Take a good, long look around you.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23-Jan. 20)—You know well how to employ the art of tact; do just that today and you can turn a troublesome day into a perfect one!

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)—Avoid everything and anything that could force you to change your mind against your will. You will prevail in time.

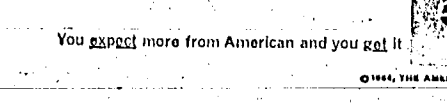

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20)—If you are thoroughly practical in all personal matters, you can avoid the difficulties that loom on the horizon.

ARIES (March 21-April 20)—Guard against a health upset. If you stand pat on decisions made recently, you should be able to ride out present storms.

Panama Vote Is Going to Marco Robles

PANAMA, May 12 (AP)—Official vote in Sunday's presidential election gave a commanding lead today to government candidate Marco A. Robles, advocate of a tough policy toward American rights in the Panama Canal Zone.

Electoral tribunal figures from 704 of 1,144 precincts gave Robles 80,447 votes to 73,131 for Dr. Arnulfo Arias, a slight favorite before the election.

About half the estimate of 130,000 votes cast in Panama province, where Arias had his greatest strength, were yet to be counted. It was believed the former president would have to take more than 70 per cent of the uncounted votes in the capital province to win.

Bullishness replaced the carnival atmosphere that had prevailed in the Arias camp. Some hinted at government manipulation, claiming that the electoral tribunal gave Robles an early edge to provoke Arias followers into violence. Then the national guard could jail Arias and other leaders of his party.

A Robles victory could portend difficulty for the United States in negotiations on the Panama Canal treaty. Although all seven presidential candidates demand revision of the treaty and it was not an issue in the campaign, Arias was considered more sympathetic to the United States than Robles.

President Roberto Chari, prevented by law from succeeding himself, had given the government coalition's backing to Robles, a 58-year-old banker-politician.

Arias, 63, drew his chief support from the lower-middle and lower classes and a large following of women.

U.S. Money Helps America Show Latins We Like Them

WASHINGTON, May 12 (AP)—With money and friendly persuasion, President Johnson has moved to dispel Latin American doubts about his interest in their problems and in the Alliance for Progress.

"I felt he was sincere and warm," an Argentine diplomat said at the White House Monday night after hearing Johnson announce 40 million dollars in fresh credits under the alliance to 13 Latin-American nations.

Johnson said the United States will double its assistance activities under the program and "there will be twice as much accomplished as in any previous year."

After addressing the Latin-American ambassadors to Washington and the chiefs of missions to the Organization of American States, Johnson signed 12 separate loan agreements covering 13 countries. Normally such agreements are announced by the state department.

They will help fight malaria in Brazil, train farmers in Bolivia, for the first time establish three rural electric cooperatives serving 10,000 homes and farms in the Colombian countryside.

They also will bring credits and assistance to 21,000 small farms in the land reform and colonization program of Peru, help construct a new airport in Chile, help Mexico establish a national agricultural center and provide food for peace commodities to Ecuador.

Although the 40 million was a comparatively modest amount by the standards of current aid projects, it was aimed for maximum effect.

Johnson spoke to the Latin diplomats in a persuasive tone, departing frequently from his prepared text.

The President went to the crux of Latin-American problems when he linked economic progress and representative democracy.

Without representative democracy, "and the freedom of labor," he said, "material progress is an aimless enterprise; destroying the dignity of spirit it is meant to liberate. We will continue to join you to encourage democracy—until we build a hemisphere of free nations from Tierra del Fuego to the Arctic Circle."

After his speech Johnson invited the diplomats to join him in another room at the White House for a small talk. "After all we are all brothers," he said.

Strike Ends

SPOKANE, May 12 (AP)—Pickets were withdrawn from the Milwaukee road yards in this area Monday ending a nine-hour strike.

Donald Broaden, state legislative chairman for Local 751 of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen said the union members would return to work today, "those who yet have jobs."

He said the union planned to file a complaint within the next few days with the state utilities and transportation commission charging that the state's fuel contract was being violated by the Milwaukee.

Blitzstein's Missing Opera Score Is Found

NEW YORK, May 12 (AP)—The missing manuscript of the late Marc Blitzstein's last and most completed opera reportedly has been found by the manager of a used car lot.

The Metropolitan opera, which commissioned the work, said the discovery was made after the composer's car was put up for sale.

Blitzstein, 58, who adapted and translated the long-running off Broadway hit, "The Threepenny Opera," was killed in an alleged robbery-vesting in Manhattan.

The Met quoted Leonard Bernstein, New York Philharmonic music director, and Blitzstein's literary executor, as saying the first and second acts of "Yocco and Vanzetti" seemed substantially finished.

Rep. Cannon, Oldest House Member, Dies

WASHINGTON, May 12 (AP)—Rep. Clarence Cannon, D., Mo., 85, the oldest and one of the most powerful members of the house of representatives, died today.

Cannon was chairman of the house appropriations committee. He had been a member of the house since March 4, 1923. Cannon had worked as a steno until last week-end. The cause of death was heart disease.

Prior to being elected to congress, Cannon worked on Capitol Hill, serving as an aide to the late Speaker Champ Clark of Missouri, and as parliamentarian to the house.

Noted for his crusty disposition, Cannon once got into a fistfight with the late Sen. Kenneth McKellar, D., Tenn., then chairman of the senate appropriations committee.

A small man, wisened by the years, he walked the corridors of the Capitol with his eyes down-cast, speaking to no one, and he wore his committee with an iron hand. Cannon, a representative from Missouri's ninth district, was born in 1878. He observed his 86th birthday April 11.

The Daily Investor

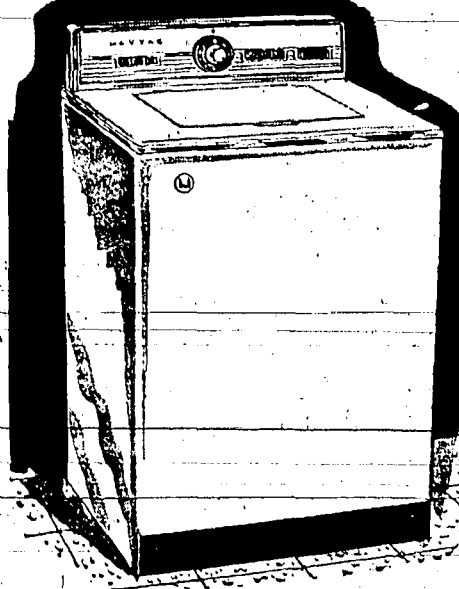

BY WILLIAM A. DOYLE
Q. Back in the dark days of the depression many people who owned stocks of banks lost the hard-earned money they had invested and had to put up additional money. In essence, a "double liability." I know this, through bitter and expensive experience.
Now, we are told, by bankers, that "all this has been changed and that bank stockholders cannot be assessed." I have looked at bank stock certificates. Nowhere do I find a statement that the stock is "fully-paid and non-assessable," as most stocks are.
"Has this really been changed? If so, how?
A. Yes, it has been changed—by federal and state legislation, and by the action of the courts. When congress passed the banking act of 1933, that allowed national banks (those chartered by the federal government and regulated by the comptroller of the currency) to eliminate double liability on stocks issued after June 16 of that year.
The banking act of 1933 permitted national banks to eliminate double liability on all their stocks, on and after July 1, 1937, provided that the banks went through certain formalities such as publishing notices of this.
In 1933 congress took another look and found that 25 national banks (mostly small ones) had not done this. So, new legislation was passed, doing away with double liability on all national bank stocks.
Now, for state banks—which are chartered by states and subject to state regulation.
States started passing legislation to allow state banks to get

Kennedy Sees New Schools For Negroes

FARMVILLE, Va., May 12 (AP)—Smiling broadly, shaking hands and fielding questions, Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy whizzed through Prince Edward county Monday touring a private school system set up for Negro children.
About 1,600 Negro and eight white pupils are attending four schools set up for a year on a de-segregated, tuition free, privately financed basis. Prince Edward county abandoned public education in 1959 and most of the 1,200 white children transferred to private segregated schools.
Kennedy once denounced the county as a dark spot in the free world, one of the few places anywhere without public education and the only place in the United States.
Kennedy stopped at all four schools, and at each school he received bags filled with coins, mostly pennies, collected by the pupils, most of them children of tenant farmers, a vast labor force for the John F. Kennedy Memorial library.

Filer Slates Salary Hike For Teachers

PLATEAU, May 12 — Trustees of school district #13 announce they are offering salary increases to their members next year. The decision to increase salaries was voted by the board in order to complete a contract with other districts and to compensate employees in the district, they stated. The trustees of the recent state appropriation formula to education makes possible the increase.

Teachers will receive an additional $150 per year, and those with a bachelor's degree will be compensated an additional $250. The district bonded indebtedness has been reduced from $100,000 to $100,000. The district will levy a millage rate of 30 mills for general school purposes and 10 mills for bond interest and redemption. Total proposed expenditures for the district will be $1,000,000, an increase of $17,500 over the past year.

Man Is Facing Charge of Burning Wife

VALLE, Ore., May 12 (AP)—Portland church bishop Willford Keith Harris had $110,000 in life insurance riding on his wife last Dec. 17 when she died in a flaming automobile, three insurance company employees testified Monday.

Harris, 40, is accused in circuit court here of burning his wife, Vera, 27, to death in their car near the Burns Junction in Malheur county. He is accused of first-degree murder. The testimony Monday showed Harris had taken out two $50,000 life insurance policies on his wife's life and a $10,000 death and dismemberment policy. Harris also had insured himself for $40,000 for a trip from Salem to Galt Lake City, the insurance was testified.

Bill Doctors Examining Poverty Act

WASHINGTON, May 12 (AP)—President Johnson's anti-poverty bill went on the congressional operating table today. Democrats prescribed a light hand on the scalpel, but Republicans said major surgery was needed. The house education and labor committee, which started consideration of the $62 million dollar measure nearly two months ago, scheduled to read sessions to write finished legislation for submission to the house. The job was expected to take a week or longer.

Utah Solon to Oppose Firearm Registration

WASHINGTON, May 12 (AP)—Rep. Sherman P. Lloyd, R., Utah, said Monday that he would oppose any legislation requiring registration of firearms. The constitutional right to bear arms is not absolute and has been limited in certain ways, he said. He is carrying a loaded weapon, having a machine gun and a .45-caliber pistol in the car.

Youth Preares $400 Breakfast

POOR WORTHY, May 12 (AP)—Mrs. Jack Swanson cared for their $400 in bills in their own home before going to bed Sunday night, sure it would be their 14-year-old son, Jackie, who had prepared the breakfast. Most of the serial numbers on the burned bills are recognizable, so the Swansons probably will not be redempted by the treasury department.

Mayor Talks To Chamber About Power

BURLEY, May 12 — Mayor Mack Crouch reported on the power hearing held last week in Washington, D.C., at the Monday noon luncheon meeting of the Chamber of Commerce at the National hotel. A transmission line for power is needed into Burley and southern Idaho for supplying Bonneville power to its customers, Crouch declared.

The city of Burley had to purchase power from somewhere for the bureau of reclamation gave notice it was going out of the power business in 1964. The city administration in 1963 signed a contract with BPA, reported Crouch.

At one time electricity was used in the city of Burley for heating of homes, business and even the high school (now the Junior high) building. In 1953 the use of electricity for heating purpose had to cease because of the shortage of power, stated the mayor.

The city of Burley always has owned and operated its own power business, he added. Joe Preston introduced William Martin, Mrs. Nona Jacobs and Mrs. Ella Turner, all Declo, who presented two musical numbers from the minstrel show to be held at 8 p. m. Friday in the Burley high school auditorium.

Other guests were David Lake, past president of Oakley Chamber of Commerce, and Robert Franklin, boys counselor at Burley high school.

Smylie Defends Wickberg From Walker's Blast

BOISE, May 12 (AP)—Idaho Public Utilities Commission President Ralph Wickberg was asked to testify before a hearing probing a request for funds for Bonneville power transmission lines, Gov. Robert E. Smylie says. The governor defended Wickberg's trip to Washington, D. C., Monday in the face of criticism from the State Democratic Chairman Lloyd Walker. It was apparent, Smylie said, that if the house senate appropriations committee wanted "factual information" about Idaho utilities, the place to get it was from the state PUC. But Smylie declined to comment on a statement by Walker that Wickberg's appearance made a "mockery" of the non-partisan policy that governs the commission.

"Furthermore, I was happier to meet Khrushchev and I like him more." Hefnawi's climb is a standard slideshow for visitors to the 481-foot monument.

Smylie Says State Income Running Less

BOISE, May 12 (AP)—Gov. Robert E. Smylie said on Monday the state's tax income is running about six per cent less than the estimates used by the 1963 legislature in making its appropriations for this biennium. But he added he is hopeful that income tax returns yet to be processed will cut that figure down a little before the end of the fiscal year June 30. Smylie said there was nothing yet to warrant any change in the 4.8 per cent cutback in general fund spending ordered at the start of the biennium and already authorized to continue through Dec. 31.

His comment followed issuance of the monthly tax report which showed April collections 1.3 million dollars more than a year ago and revenue for the first 10 months of the fiscal year 4 million dollars ahead. Unless the figure drops under six per cent by the end of the next fiscal year in July, 1965, the state could have some trouble balancing the books, even with the 4.8 per cent holdback. However, Tax Collector Floyd West predicts more revenue next year because of normal economic growth.

Convict Granted Hearing by State High Court

BOISE, May 12 (AP)—A convict serving two life terms for robbery who contends he has been subjected to cruel and unusual punishment has been granted a hearing by the state supreme court. The justices ordered the hearing Monday for Paul Anderson Mahaffey, an inmate of the state prison in Boise since the fall of 1953. Mahaffey drew his life sentence for two robbery counts in Minutoka county. He was sentenced to an additional five years for escaping from jail. Justice Henry McQuaid, who wrote the opinion, said the court granted Mahaffey's request for a hearing because the prisoner had no other remedy. The court, however, denied the convict's request for a writ of habeas corpus. SEE TIMES-NEWS WANT ADS FOR FAST-SELLING RESULTS

WASHINGTON, May 12 (AP)—The Washington Senators scored one run on a freak play and two more on Don Zimmerman's triple in the seventh inning Monday night and defeated Baltimore 6-4, snapping the Orioles' four-game winning streak.

Pitcher Benjie Dantels, with the bases loaded, blooped a ball that dropped in shallow center field. Ken Hunt did not leave the bag at second. Center fielder Jackie Brandt picked up the ball and raced in to second, forcing Dantels to throw to first. Zimmerman's triple in the seventh inning was the only hit for the Senators.

The paper said a Columbia Broadcasting System official confirmed that Grange, one time star of the college and the NFL, has quit announcing the games.

Grange's retirement ends a long association with the Bears. He signed with the club at the end of the college season in his senior year, 1922, at Illinois. Idaho Game Complaints Total 544

BOISE, May 12—A total of 544 wildlife department complaints received by the Idaho fish and game department during the 1962-63 fiscal year resulted in the removal of 411 animals at a total cost of $11,082 for servicing, including man hours, travel expense and materials.

The department reported today that beaver led all species of animals involved in the depredations, but pheasants, bear, geese and ducks also caused trouble.

Pheasant complaints came almost entirely from southwestern and southeastern Idaho, according to Levi Mohler, chief of game management.

The department tabulated the complaints by district, county, month received, number of service trips and number of animals removed. Marauding birds, and occasionally other animals, sometimes are trapped and transported to a distant area before release.

LOS ANGELES, May 12 (AP)—Pitcher Johnny Podres of the Los Angeles Dodgers had his name in lights here Monday night, but he might not have liked the billing. Shoshone Seniors Hold Rites

SHOSHONE, May 12 — Using the topic "Decision Decides Your Destiny," the Rev. John Shaw, of the local Assembly of God church, asked graduating seniors of Shoshone high school class to make proper choices as he spoke at their baccalaureate services Sunday night at the high school gymnasium.

He urged them to dare to be different, dare to make their own decisions.

Mrs. Vern R. Thomas played the processional and recessional. She also directed the high school chorus in two numbers for the program.

The Rev. John P. Tulk, Episcopal minister, gave the invocation, and benediction. O. Simpson, of the LDS church, read the scriptures.

Alice Griggs was vocal soloist. Graduation exercises for 35 seniors will be held at 8 p.m. Friday at the high school gymnasium.

Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK, May 12 (AP)—Like the weather, business relations with government are always subject to change. But today a generally pleasant climate seems to exist.

Industrialists and bankers to be in prospect.

Part of this expectation is due to the feeling that the new administration in Washington will see things more the way a businessman does. Part is due to the growing prosperity which leaves less excuse or desire for carping. And part is due to the cutting of federal taxes in the middle of the year monetary policy on money and credit, the stressing by Washington that profits are a good thing and that wages and prices should rise only moderately if at all—policies that business likes or can live with.

Business doesn't like the recent rash of antitrust actions, nor the harder line on mergers, nor the moves to extend government involvement in many lines through new regulations.

But overall the climate seems much better than a year ago. Now long this will last is anyone's guess. Government is now so involved with business—through regulations, competition, labor mediation, awarding and controlling of contracts—that clashes between government and specific industries or individual companies are almost weekly occurrences.

And Washington has made it plain it will push its idea of wage and price guidelines in the months ahead. These will be tested this summer in important labor contract negotiations, notably in the auto industry.

Government regulatory agencies doubtless will step on more toes. For one example, this week the nation's stock exchanges and the securities and exchange commission will start debating new rules for stock specialists—the brokers who are assigned to guide the trading in a particular stock to prevent unruly markets.

And businessmen are with fair regularity called before various executive or congressional investigating bodies—a fixture in modern business life which many industrialists regard as an expensive time waster, especially when the investigations tend to overlap.

Government needs a healthy business community to make the economy grow if it's to combat unemployment and lack of living. It needs business and living cooperation if it's to keep the balance of payments problem that in recent years drained too many dollars and gold into foreign hands.

If the wage-price difficulties brewing this summer are handled to the satisfaction of labor, management and government, all of today's outpouring of good feeling may be justified—that is, until new problems or conflicts come along.

Water on the Brain

Q. Is there any cure for water on the brain?

A. Some cases of hydrocephalus (water on the brain) can be treated—others are almost hopeless. Doctors who have had extensive experience in this field usually offer the following advice: If the condition is getting worse—but has not yet affected the brain, an operation may help. If the condition is at a standstill the child should be given regular checkups to see if surgery will be needed. If the brain has been badly damaged, the child should simply be given the best care possible until the end. Operations to relieve "water on the brain" are difficult and not always successful, but some children are helped, even to the point of growing up in a perfectly normal way.

MILK-ON-THE-WRIST TEST

Q. Is the "milk-on-the-wrist" method a good way to test the temperature of a baby's formula?

A. No, but lots of mothers use this method. To feel the warmth of the milk on the wrist the temperature of the liquid would have to be this hot. It is about 32 degrees hotter than the temperature of milk nature provides for the breast-fed baby.

Answers do not necessarily reflect the opinion of all doctors. The diagnosis and treatment of disease is the function of the patient's personal physician.
