LIMA, Peru, May 25 (UPI)—The government decreed semi-martial law today to halt rioting after a stampede in the soccer stadium in which at least 268 persons were killed and more than 300 injured. A state of national mourning was ordered. The riot in the national stadium started when a Uruguayan referee disallowed a goal scored by Peru in a game with Argentina and the latter won, 1-0. Hot-headed fans in the crowd of 45,000 swarmed on the field to attack the referee and police started throwing tear gas grenades. The crowd stampeded for the exit only to find some of them still closed. Hundreds were trampled to death in the mass hysteria. A baby was born in the stadium at the height of the rioting. It was not known whether the child and mother survived.

Goldwater Has Use for Atom Bomb

WASHINGTON, May 25 (AP)—Barry Goldwater says low-level atomic weapons could be used to burn jungles and to supply lines of South Viet Nam's border. Arizona senator was asked Sunday how jungle trails which can't be spotted from the air should be handled in the war. In the interview, Goldwater said the bombing with conventional weapons of bridges, roads and railroads used to bring supplies from Red China and North Viet Nam into South Viet Nam was the communists' main military shipment. The senator also indicated he favored bombing supply lines inside Red China. "You might have to," he said, "or the war will drag on."

Presbyterian Meet Studies Federal Aid

OAKLAHOMA CITY, May 25 (AP)—The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U.S.A., traditionally insistent on separation of church and state, will be asked to consider the baring of some secular public school courses with pupils from church schools. It is a compromise proposed as a means of solidifying enough support to get Congress to pass federal aid for public schools. The General Assembly's 841 voting commissioners, representing 33 million members in 9,100 churches, resumed business sessions today after a Sunday of prayer and rest. The assembly studies through Wednesday. Its standing committee on the church and society asks the commissioners to say the church supports in principle a program of federal aid to public school systems that would encourage shared-time arrangements to permit students enrolled in private or parochial schools to obtain a portion of their education in public schools. The assembly of a year ago rejected the shared-time course. The assembly of a year ago rejected the shared-time course. The assembly of a year ago rejected the shared-time course.

Ike Describes Ideal '64 Party Candidate

WASHINGTON, May 25 (UPI)—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower today issued a description of an ideal Republican nominee which seemed to fit all of the present possibilities except Arizona's Sen. Barry Goldwater. Roscoe Drummond, political columnist for the New York Herald Tribune, which printed the statement, said it meant that if Eisenhower has his way "the Republican party will not choose Sen. Barry Goldwater as its 1964 presidential nominee." Drummond agreed with the former GOP president's statement that he had no thought of trying to dictate the choice of a Republican nominee at the San Francisco convention in July. But the columnist said Goldwater was at odds with most of the party goals set by Eisenhower.

SEOUL, Korea, May 25 (AP)—About 6,000 students demonstrated in four South Korean cities today, demanding immediate economic reforms, the elimination of corruption and the immediate release of students arrested in earlier demonstrations. Students from universities in Seoul, Pusan, Chunchon and Yeosu staged rallies despite police efforts to nip the demonstrations in the bud. At least 100 students were arrested today. The students demanded the release of 37 students and witnesses still under arrest.

Bargain Dog

SYRACUSE, N. Y., May 25 (AP)—Ray Lavine was against the idea, but he finally gave in to his wife's demands that he try to sell his dog. He ran this classified ad in the Sunday Syracuse Post-Standard: "The dog is full of fleas and ticks, is as vicious as any animal can be and hates people, especially children. Incidentally, the dog is half blind and limps on one leg. Price: $3,000."

KIMBERLY, May 25—A raging fire destroyed the Shader-Cullen Livestock company southwest of Kimberly early Monday morning. The blaze started about 2:45 a.m. Monday, according to Lewis Porter, a volunteer fireman for the Kimberly volunteer fire department. Porter said he received the call about 2:50 a.m. and firemen battled the blaze until about 6 a.m. It was estimated that it will cost about $50,000 to rebuild.

Meridian Man Killed in Plane Crash

CHANGEVILLE, May 25 (AP)—Civil aeronautics bureau officials planned to begin an investigation today into the crash of a light plane in Idaho's rugged primitive area that claimed the life of a 53-year-old Meridian man. The body of Harvey Aven Hill, a professional guide, was found Sunday in the wreckage of his plane near the Red River ranger station about 50 miles southeast of Grangeville. Idaho county sheriff's officers said Hill's plane apparently crashed into Friday, but was not discovered until a motorist on the Elk City road spotted the wreckage Sunday.

Officers said Hill was last seen when he refueled his single-engine plane Friday afternoon at the Grangeville airport. They said Elk City residents reported hearing an airplane there later Friday, but said the landing field was fogged in. Another landing strip on the Salmon river near Dixie was also reported fog bound at the time. "There was speculation that Hill might have been en route to one of the other fields when the crash occurred."

France, U. S. Split on Asia Policy

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., May 25 (AP)—France split openly with the United States on Southeast Asia today, repeating its call for a new Geneva conference and rejecting Washington's proposal for a treaty with the Viet-Nam-Cambodian border. The state department rejected French and Soviet proposals for a new international conference on Laos—the third country carved from the former French Indo-China—unless there is an effective cease-fire and the communists withdraw from recently captured territory.

Dee Planning Meetings to Dump Walker

IDAHO FALLS, May 25 (AP)—Biate Sen. William J. Dee, Idaho county Democrat and leader of a faction opposing the reelection of Democratic State Chairman Lloyd Walker, said Monday he planned a series of meetings with the unnamed opposition candidate. Dee said that following the conference a formal announcement will be made and likely will be the end of this week or early next week. Dee also said there is a nucleus of support in east Idaho but that there is support from all over the state, and added, "It is increasing." Dee met with a dozen party leaders in Idaho Falls Friday night to decide on a candidate. He declined to hint who the potential candidate might be but he did say it would be a well known party leader. Walker, contacted in Twin Falls this morning, said he would make no comment until a candidate has been chosen.

Red Trap Has Snared Neutralists

VIENTIANE, Laos, May 25 (AP)—Surrounded neutralist forces were trying to fight their way out of a communist trap today after being routed from a stronghold on the northwestern fringes of the Plain-de-Jarres. The defense ministry said about 1,500 neutralist troops and 20 tanks were driven from Muong Kheung Sunday and were cut off by a larger communist force in their attempt to retreat to Muong Soui, nine miles west. A communique said Muong Kheung headquarters of neutralist armored units, fell in a pincer attack from east and west after 12 hours of heavy fighting. "Inflated heavy casualties to the rebels," No details of losses were given.

Khrushchev Ends Foray in Africa

MOSCOW, May 25 (AP)—Premier Khrushchev returned to Moscow today from his first African foray. He was warmly greeted by aging Marshal Klement Voroshilov and his son grandson, Nikita. The premier was bused from the two weeks in the United Arab Republic, and looked buoyant and healthy. Although the heads of the party and government, from President Leonid Brezhnev on down, were on hand to greet Khrushchev, the white-haired Voroshilov, once on the verge of retirement from Soviet upper circles, was the first to grab the returning premier for a big Russian kiss. Next was Nikita, 74, who discussed all affairs related by dining from the airport building to greet his grandfather. The boy, son of Sergei Khrushchev, was scooped up and kissed by his grandfather.

Prince Edward Told To Reopen Schools

WASHINGTON, May 25 (UPI)—The supreme court ruled today that Prince Edward county, Va., must reopen its public schools, integrating basic classrooms next September. The court set no specific date for the opening. But it gave a lower court judge the right to direct the action if he sees fit. The judge had previously ordered the reopening in September, 1962. In the majority opinion, Justice Hugo L. Black said a "deliberate speed" was not used and that phrase can no longer justify denying these Prince Edward county school children their constitutional rights to an education equal to that afforded by the public schools in other parts of Virginia.

Compromise Rights Plan About Ready

WASHINGTON, May 25 (AP)—A leadership-sponsored package of civil rights bills designed to pick up votes for the civil rights bill may be introduced Tuesday, Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., said today. A fourth conference of Republican senators to discuss the proposed amendments today was termed "a pretty agreeable meeting" by Dirksen, the senate GOP leader.

Republicans arranged to meet again this afternoon to consider additional amendments that have been proposed by individual senators. Dirksen said the amendments are found to have merit, they may be included in the package he worked out with Democratic leaders and Attorney General Ramsey Clark. The senate is starting its 12th week of debate on the house-passed bill, leaders are anxious to offer the compromise package as a preliminary to a move to invoke the debate-limiting closure rule.

Malay Crisis Conference Has Stalled

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia, May 25 (AP)—Plans for a summit conference to discuss the Malay crisis appeared to have stalled today over withdrawal of Indonesian guerrilla forces from Malaysia Borneo. Informed sources said the talks developed with arrival of a U.S. President Sukarno government in Jakarta insisting that withdrawals begin only when the talks start and with no commitment on the number of guerrillas to be pulled out by any specific date. Malaysian Prime Minister Tunku Abdul Rahman has demanded genuine and significant withdrawal before he will discuss "talks" and President Diosdado Macapagal of the Philippines.

Teamster Loan Files Used in Hoffa Defense

CHICAGO, May 25 (AP)—The Teamsters Union battled file cabinets packed with loan records today in a federal courtroom to help James R. Hoffa fight charges of up to $25 million dollar fraud conspiracy. Hoffa said the 616 cabinets contained records of loans made by the Teamsters Union pension fund. Hoffa and seven associates are charged with conspiring to fraudulently obtain $25 million in loans from the fund and diverting 1.7 million of it to their own purposes. The Teamsters Union president said there were 18 "more cabinets filled with loan records" in the pension fund's Chicago headquarters which would also be made available to the court.

RICHFIELD, May 25 — Judge Ann Werberg Shaub, Twin Falls, in commencement address at the Richfield high school graduation Wednesday evening at the high school auditorium.

She instructed the graduates to use their motto, "Knowledge is an ever increasing sea," to seek in the key to success. To be successful, she said, they must be able to discover their own talents and to help people discover theirs. She stressed the dignity of the individual in a free society.

The need for continuing education through college was stressed.

"Don't accept ignorance," she said. "Strive for the highest degree of quality whatever your position in life, because this can be learned in daily living," she said.

Judge Chaifield gave the valedictory and Elaine Behr the salutatory for their class.

Pastor Uses Class Motto In His Talk

FILED, May 25 — The class motto, "My God, my Father, make me strong, when tasks of life are hard and long," was quoted by the Rev. Henry Pyy, pastor of the Kimberly Lutheran church, in his address to eighth grade graduates of the Glover school Friday evening.

The Rev. Mr. Pyy stressed that life is not intended to be easy and that the young people would need to "remember" and "repeat" their motto many times in the years to come.

"A building is no better than the foundation upon which it stands," stated the minister. He urged graduates to choose a firm and good foundation in their choice of future education.

The class history was read by Matthew Martens. The class sang its song, "Take My Life and Let It Be." The class was presided by Emil Lindemann, principal, and diplomas and class pins were distributed by Keith Bligenfelder and David Lutz, members of the school board.

The final prayer and benediction were offered by the Rev. Carl Losser, pastor.

Graduation exercises were presided by an operetta, "Roundup on the Moon," presented by the students of grades one through five under the direction of Mrs. Ross Stennet and Gayle Timken, teachers.

WASHINGTON, May 25 (AP)—Goldwater's cavalier treatment of Oregon Republicans was in the character of a man who may be the strangest politician ever to run for the presidency.

Five weeks before the Oregon primary, Goldwater decided... He was silly to campaign further... He was silly to campaign further...

FINISHED THE BALL—It is possible that Goldwater could not have carried Oregon even had he continued to campaign. But Rockefeller did campaign and Rockefeller did carry Oregon against seemingly overwhelming odds.

Perhaps congress is on the verge of a new approach to the farm problem. It might be dawning on some members of congress that long bureaucratic efforts to manage American farming aren't succeeding.

It seems almost incredible that 7.7 billion dollars could have been spent last year to improve the lot of the U. S. farmer without much in the way of success.

Perhaps sometime in the distant future the world will learn that communists sign treaties only when pacts will serve their purpose best.

Back in April when rightist forces seized control of the government in a surprise coup, the U. S. used its influence to restore the status quo.

How many times must the free world get the same lesson before it soaks in? By now, it should be crystal clear that strength—armed force—is the only thing that the communists understand and respect.

Interpreting the News
BY JAMES MARLOW
(Washington Post News Analyst)
WASHINGTON, May 25 (AP)—Alabama's segregationist Gov. George C. Wallace has proved his point: There is wide opposition to the so-called civil rights bill.

It is too soon to say what effect his showing, particularly in Maryland, will have on the bill. But it will fortify the southern states who can say with good evidence that they're not alone in wanting it killed.

Wallace combined his attack on civil rights with an appeal to those who see, or think they see, the encroachment of socialism in American life.

DETROIT, May 25 — Democratic party powerful as union chief Walter P. Reuther has to run with the hares and hunt with the hounds. In any convention showdown between Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy...

In fact, with time running out, Mr. Reuther's persistent refusal to be budget lands to solidify Mr. Kennedy's lead in the industrial balloon floated in another direction: that he may run for the senate from New York.

This implies no Reuther "disrespect" for Robert Kennedy, and certainly none for his brother, but the Reuther-Johnson roots are much deeper than supposed. These roots go back 16 years, ago before John F. or Robert Kennedy ever came into the political scene, and are largely untested beyond general knowledge.

The occasion was a 1948 Texas crisis when Johnson "made his scene" as the primary rival against former Gov. Coke Battle. Johnson, Steven's unfairly, but effectively, denounced Johnson as "a fool of the reactionaries."

While it's widely reported that organized labor likes Mr. Kennedy, apparently he has no lead over the other many key city concentrations where with the South—the party depends on super support to win the White House.

Manhood is practically static, which means that in relation to the terms of the industrial unionism has been steadily losing ground. It struggles against the undertow of a renaissance, mounting, it is said, which has been realized by the public. Deep behind the scenes...

Lloyd Hamilton Speaks at T. F. Baccalaureate Services

It is doubtful that there was ever more opportunity, more genuine interest awaiting those who were prepared and willing, with the courage and the character and qualifications to take responsibility, than Twin Falls High School students had during the baccalaureate services Sunday afternoon in the Twin Falls high school gymnasium.

Commenting that the students academically are better graduates than their parents were, Hamilton said, "You should be 20 or 30 or 40 years more accumulation of knowledge than your parents had."

He mentioned that more money is being spent now for aspirin and tranquilizers than to support churches and added "too many of us do not have an articulate philosophy to live by."

Hamilton pointed out many people who live both happily and successfully in this rapidly changing world have some things in common.

"First," he said, "they all have a profound dedication to some great idea or principle. This gives their lives direction."

"Secondly, one of the most fundamentally stabilizing influences of men and women is faith in the Almighty," he said.

Hamilton noted the importance of patriotism, stating "Anyone that doesn't have the conviction that this is the greatest nation

Arbor Day Is Marked in Heyburn Rite

HEYBURN, May 25—The annual Arbor day celebration was held here Friday in conjunction with the regular school activities.

A special program was presented in the morning by about 90 students from the three third grade classes under the direction of Mrs. Trish Wrigley, Mrs. Earl Peterson and Mrs. Victor Hill. The production depicting scenes from the "Old West" was a climax to units of study for the classes this year.

Anti-Christians, recreation director, was accompanied for musical numbers and special parts were read by Thyron Hansen, Steven Rupert and Johnny Pomeroy. Approximately 200 parents and students attended.

In the afternoon, children from the first three grades went to the village park to participate in tree planting. They were presented balloons by the village recreation department.

Assisting Christians with arrangements were Mrs. Isabelle Greenhalgh, Mrs. Vingo (Clay) Booth, Virgel Mattson, village manager, and William Christensen, village board member for recreation.

Hughson's Nursery, Twin Falls, donated a red crab tree for the ceremony and the village purchased a blue ash.

"The Lucille Ball Show," (8:30 p.m. CBS)—Guest star Ethel Merman gets a singing lesson from Lucy, who doesn't know her pupil's real identity.

"Wagon Train," (9:30 p.m. ABC)—Tonight's show involves the discovery of a remote ranch which is being operated like a Chinese dynasty. Carol Lawrence is featured guest star.

"East Side, West Side," (8 p.m. CBS)—Maureen Stapleton appears in a drama about New York bowery derelicts and a woman who tries desperately to reform one. It's called "One Drink at a Time."

"Emmy Awards," (Special, 8 and 8:30 p.m., NBC)—The three major U.S. networks have been having quite a squabble over the presentations and procedures for selecting them this year. Earlier, this month ABC and CBS issued some controversial criticism about the way voting was handled and pulled out, leaving NBC as sole supporter of the awards and their sponsor, the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences. So there may be some interesting commentary during the program concerning the issue. Besides awards for performance, other categories include program of the year, comedy, drama, variety, music, children's shows, documentary programs and news. Joey Bishop will hand out the prizes in Hollywood, with E. G. Marshall doing the same in New York City.

BEST MONDAY NIGHT MOVIES

"Phone Call From a Stranger," (1952) Shirley Winters, Michael Rennie, Boris Delya and Roman Yulkin. (8:30 p.m. KTVY and KPVI)—Interesting and well-made drama about the aftermath of a plane crash in which thirty persons are killed. "Customs Agent," (1959) William Edythe and Marjorie Reynolds (10:35 p.m. KCPX)—A U. S. customs agent poses as a dog peddler in order to crack a drug smuggling outfit. Plenty of action.

11th Armored Cavalry to Leave Europe

HEIDELBERG, Germany, May 25 (AP)—The U. S. Army announced today it is withdrawing the 11th armored cavalry regiment from its bases along the Rhine and sending it back to the United States.

A spokesman at army European headquarters here said the return of the highly mobile unit is part of the withdrawal of all extra U. S. forces sent to Germany during the Berlin crisis of 1961.

The defense department announced last month about 3,100 troops would be sent home. The normal strength of an armored cavalry regiment is about 3,800 men.

The 11th armored cavalry has been stationed along West Germany's borders with communist Czechoslovakia and East Germany. There was no indication what unit would take over its duties.

Baptists End Meet, Note Faith Beliefs

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 25 (AP)—North American Baptists ended an unprecedented convalescence here with a "message to the world" outlining the beliefs of their members.

The three-day 150th anniversary jubilee, which brought together for the first time representatives of the seven largest Baptist groups in North America, ended Sunday after a day of evangelism. Billy Graham, who called for a religious revival to obtain equal rights for all Americans.

The Baptists stood "as an affirmation of the faith" in affirming the message, drafted by key leaders from each body.

Areas covered included salvation, religious liberty and freedom, the importance of the individual, Christ's love for all men and belief in the Bible. It also included mild and brief statements on race relations.

The message did not specifically state that Baptists believe in the absolute literal truth and divine inspiration of the Bible. This is a point of controversy among Baptists.

It was a day of jubilee: "Many people today want social freedom and deserve it. They are marching for it, demonstrating for it, picketing for it."

"But they will not get it in this decade unless they and we have a religious revival and convert the people to Jesus Christ."

Deputies said the search will be suspended until the waters recede. They said they hope to begin an aerial search of the area at that time. California Race Starts Final Week

LOS ANGELES, May 25 (AP)—Campaigning in the pivotal California primary goes into its final week today with Republican presidential aspirants battling in opposite ends of the state.

The presidential hopes of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater clash June 2. The plum of votes at the Republican national convention is in the hands of the candidates each campaigned today in an area where they are weakest—Goldwater in the north and Rockefeller in the south.

Goldwater flew to Redding Sunday night and planned to make several appearances today in the northern end of the state.

Rockefeller, riding a wave generated by his Oregon primary victory, launched a statewide drive in San Diego today. He will concentrate his efforts in vote-rich Southern California, a conservative stronghold.

The formation in California of a committee to draft Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scrantom was announced over the week-end. It was indirectly pro-Rockefeller.

Rockefeller's campaign tour hit a detour when his scheduled appearance in Los Angeles was canceled. Ross McKelvie, exalted ruler of the Long Beach Kiwanis lodge 266, said the cancellation order came from top-ranking national officials of the organization.

Utah Family Held Hostage By Gunman

SALT LAKE CITY, May 25 (AP)—A 30-year-old Dallas, Tex., gunman who held a Kearns family of six at home Saturday night said Monday he had asked for psychiatric help while on trial in California.

Jimmy McCoy Lindley summoned Salt Lake taxi cab driver Chester Roberts, 50, early Saturday night and asked him to take him home and feed him. He also demanded money.

The gunman, who said he walked away from a Los Angeles court last week about two months ago, held Roberts and his family at gunpoint. Lance, Robert's 16-year-old son, escaped the home about noon and called the sheriff's office. Later Lindley gave Rex IV, his freedom, saying he was "across beggars."

Lindley was disarmed by sheriff's officers about 8:40 p.m. after Dr. Kenneth Hill, Hunter, who officers asked to give the gunman doped whiskey, talked him out of his gun. Three deputies rushed in and captured him.

The gunman, who Roberts described as a hard drinker who could hold his liquor, said he would like to see the doctor again. He said Dr. Hill's religious persuasion to give himself up made him let the gun go. The religion, the LDS church, is all he has, he said.

Dr. Hill said he would visit the gunman in the Salt Lake county jail where he is being held without bail.

U. S. Has Good Chance to Get On Moon by '70

WASHINGTON, May 25 (AP)—The United States has a better than 50-50 chance of landing a man on the moon by 1970, Dr. Werner von Braun, director of the Marshall Space Flight center at Huntsville, Ala., said today.

In a copyright interview in U.S. News and World Report, Von Braun said: "We cannot be absolutely certain, because any critical setback may, of course, still deny us success in time."

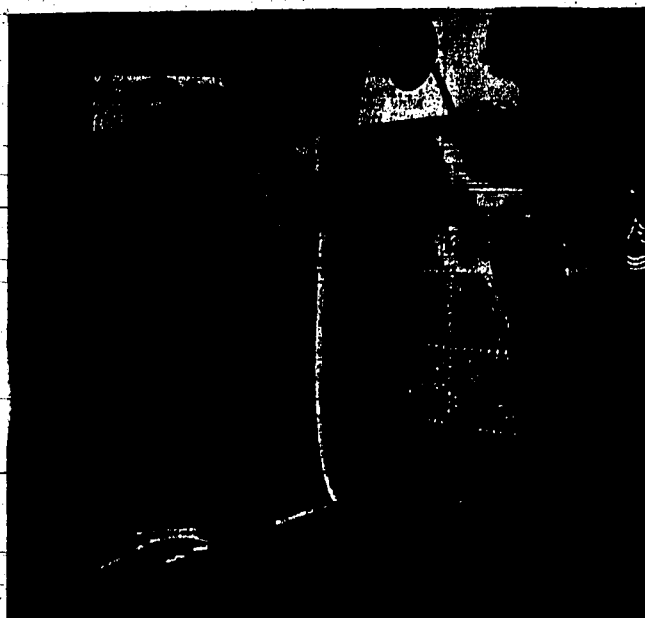

"But I would say if you asked me for a personal opinion, that we have a better than 50 per cent chance of being on the moon before the decade is out."

TWO UNIDENTIFIED special forces parachutists make ready to jump into space during parachute training exercises Sunday near Hollister. 200 Magic Valley Residents Watch Reservists Parachute

A crowd estimated at nearly 200 Magic Valley residents turned out Sunday morning to watch a parachute training exercise by 39 army reservists from detachments in company A of the 17th special forces group. Jumpers from Idaho, Montana and Washington participated.

The parachutists, who normally train every three months in the Boise area, jumped from two air force C-19 "flying boxcars" into a drop zone which had been set up four miles west and two miles north of Hollister. The drop zone itself was one mile long and one-fourth of a mile wide, with an impact target near the north end of the rectangular zone.

During a briefing Saturday afternoon, when most of the jumpers arrived in Twin Falls, they were told that Twin Falls county had been taken over by a diabolical government. Their job, as special forces teams, was to parachute into an area near "guerrilla" camps where they would train the guerrillas to combat the enemy.

Sunday morning, after the reservists stayed overnight at the Twin Falls army reserve center, the jumpers assembled at Jonlin field where they boarded the two planes.

The aircraft, traveling 125 miles per hour at an altitude of about 1,250 feet, made three passes over the drop zone, with small groups of four to seven reservists jumping each time. The planes traveled separate routes and left the airport two minutes apart, about 7:30 a.m. The first jumpers were out of the planes at 8 a.m. and the actual jumping was completed in about half an hour.

Lt. Edward Green, Twin Falls, commanding officer of department four, 17th special forces group, which meets in Turley, said the training exercise was "very successful," and that local residents who watched the parachutists appeared to be impressed.

Lt. Col. Dwight C. Crofford, Mountain Terrace, Wash., group commander, also complimented air force personnel who furnished support for the exercise as well as transportation for jumpers in southern Idaho, Montana, and from the Seattle area. He said the air force personnel also were reservists.

Beales headquarters and headquarters company, Seattle, seven detachments participating in the exercise were detachments 1 and 12-A, both Boise; detachments No. 4, Burley; No. 12, Idaho Falls; No. 7, Great Falls; No. 8, Billings, and No. 9, Butte.

One of the planes used in the exercise was flown onto Mountain Home air force base for refueling before it returned to Jonlin field, where reservists from Idaho Falls, Pocatello and other in Montana boarded for the return flight home.

Aircraft used in the exercise were flown here from Paine field, near Seattle.

Dull Moon

CANTONIA, May 25 (AP)—Sir John Eccles, a Nobel prize winner, says the race for the moon is "futile, fantastic and crazy."

"I don't know the point of going to the moon," Sir John said in a speech to the Astronautical National Science Facilities association conference in Canton. "It's an awfully dull place with just dust, mountains and no climate."

President's Murder Is Reinacted

DALLAS, May 25 (AP)—A secret service agent playing the role of the late President Kennedy rode in an open limousine Sunday down a hill on Elm street toward the triple underpass.

As the 1964 black Cadillac convertible got to the spot where the first of two fatal slugs hit the President on Nov. 22, 1963, another agent in a sixth floor window of the Texas Schoolbook Depository building tightened his finger on the trigger of the murder rifle.

But instead of firing a bullet from the rifle, the agent snapped a camera shutter to record the scene of the assassination, presumably Lee Harvey Oswald, saw it six months before.

Time and again the assassination was re-enacted for investigators of the Warren commission, preparing an official report on the death of the President.

Still and motion picture photographs were taken from all angles, to prove without a doubt that the fatal bullets were fired from the window where Oswald was believed to be crouched behind some book cartons.

Edelen Defeats Kelly in Yonkers Marathon Race

YONKERS, N. Y., May 25 (AP)—Buddy Edelen, a South Dakota native now teaching in England, defeated Johnny Kelly Sunday in the Yonkers Marathon, and won a spot on the U. S. Olympic team. Edelen loped over the 26 1/2-mile, 385-yard course in suburban New York in 2 hours, 24 minutes, 25.6 seconds, fighting terrible heat and almost a decade of Kelley's domination.

The lithe Kelly, a 33-year-old school teacher from Groton, Conn., had won the event for eight straight years, but could do no better than third Sunday, finishing behind Adolf Gruber, an Austrian who was third last year.

The race was a triple-titled affair, serving as one time as the 31-year-old Kelly's run of the National AAU marathon and an Olympic trial. Edelen's triumph made down a ticket to Tokyo.

The other two U.S. Olympic marathoners will be chosen in the final trials in Culver City, Calif., in July.

Gruber's time was 2:44:11.4 and Kelly's 2:44:46.4.

Edelen made his move 13 miles out and simply ran the field of 42 into the ground, surviving the brutal heat that took a staggering toll. Only 37 had finished when the count was closed four hours after the start.

"The heat was terrible," said Kelly, who ran one of the longest miles of his career. "I'm now going to make a five-minute project of walking from here to the showers."

"I'd expected it to be hot," Edelen said. "That's why I trained the way I did, heavy clothing, with five sweat shirts. I'd figured it to be hot, but this was a little too much."

Marine Lt. Al Breckenridge became ill with the heat and did not finish the race. He was 15 miles out, leading Kelly by 15 minutes and 10 seconds.

Torre, 24-year-old catcher and part-time first baseman, collected four singles, driving in two runs. In the eighth, he had a single and a pair of homers good for three RBI in the nightcap.

CRITICALLY INJURED Glen (Fireball) Roberts' car, right, burns away as rescue workers attempt to put out blaze. Roberts was injured Sunday in a collision at the Charlotte, N. C., motor speedway when he collided with Nat Jarrett and Junior Johnson. Car at left is that of Nat Jarrett. The NASCAR drivers were participating in the World 600 race when the collision occurred. Jarrett and Johnson were not injured. The accident occurred just after the start. (AP wirephoto)

Roberts Is Injured in 600 Pile-Up

CHARLOTTE, N.C., May 25 (AP)—Three top drivers entangled together in a fiery collision at Charlotte Motor speedway just after the start of the fifth annual World 600-mile stock car race Sunday, sending Glen (Fireball) Roberts to a hospital with critical burns.

Three other drivers, Ned Jarrett and Robert (Junior) Johnson, were treated at the field hospital for burns and bruises. Neither apparently was seriously hurt.

A witness to the crash on the straight-backstretch of the 1.3-mile speedway said Jarrett was spun out and Roberts and Jarrett, following closely at better than 150 miles per hour, smashed into Johnson.

The cars of Jarrett and Roberts burst into flames when their gas tanks exploded. Jarrett was seen climbing through the smoke from his car. Roberts was pulled out by a rescue crew, his fireproof driving uniform smoking hot.

The accident, one of the worst in World 600 history, occurred during the seventh lap with the cars hunched coming out of the second turn into the backstretch, the fastest part of the track.

"The caution flag was up for 13 laps while track workers cleaned the debris.

Roberts' car, No. 22 Ford, one of the most feared in NASCAR's late model competition, was hauled into the garage area with only the frame and motor remaining. Jarrett's Ford likewise was destroyed, and Johnson's yellow Ford, also was unable to continue.

Altogether there were 74 golfers who tried to go under the 72 par at the Toppin Country club over the week-end.

Herm Loingerhurst took second place in the gross division. In the net division Frankie Regan was runner-up to Kerbal with a 137. Glenn Hedwood took third with 140 followed by Paul Hansen with 141 and Tom Church with 143.

Clay Wants Next Fight in Africa

ACCRA, Ghana, May 25 (AP)—World heavyweight champion Cassius Clay said Sunday he would like to fight his next title bout in Africa.

"I've never realized I was so popular and loved by Africans," Cassius told a big crowd which turned out to watch him in an exhibition match at Kumasi.

"I'm so overwhelmed and fascinated and I feel it an obligation to arrange my next championship fight here," he said.

Orioles Rally In Ninth to Top Twins

BALTIMORE, May 25 (AP)—A sacrifice fly by Luis Aparicio clinched a three-run rally in the ninth inning and carried Baltimore to a 7-6 victory over Minnesota and a sweep of their doubleheader Sunday. Bob Li Roberts set the Twins down on five hits in the opener.

Aparicio's fly scored Jackie Brant, who had been out at the field roller and continued to third when Rich Rollins threw wildly past first. Bob Saverine scored from first on the error.

Paschal Wins Crash Riddled World 600

CHARLOTTE, N. C., May 25 (AP)—Jim Paschal, 38-year-old High Point, N. C., Elymouth driver won the World 600 mile stock car race Sunday after wrecks or mechanical failures had eliminated most of the early favorites. Paschal, driving for the Lee Petty team, Randleman, N. C., won $25,840 and a share of the lap money in recording his first victory on a major speedway. Richard Petty, Paschal's driving teammate, finished second, and Rex White, Spartanburg, S. C., was third in a Mercury.

The average speed was slightly more than 125 miles per hour. Only 15 cars from the starting field of 44 were running at the finish.

One of the casualties was the veteran Ken (Fireball) Roberts, who was burned critically as the result of a three-car smash-up early in the race.

Three of the pre-race favorites—Roberts, Ned Jarrett, and Robert (Junior) Johnson were eliminated early in the race in a fiery crash on the backstretch.

Another favorite, Marvin Panch, Daytona Beach, Fla., went out midway in the race when he blew a tire in the turn, hit the wall and burst into flames. Panch who was critically burned in a crash at Daytona Beach in February, 1963, escaped this one with minor injuries.

Paul Gojtsmith, the St. Clair Shores, Mich., veteran, who drove this track for the first time, led for more than 100 laps early in the race before blowing an engine.

Fred Lorenzen, the prime pre-race favorite who was seeking his seventh straight major speedway victory, ran into a series of mishaps while leading with about 150 miles to go and had to settle for a fourth place finish.

Paschal took the lead from Lorenzen on lap 374 and, except for a brief challenge from Mercury driver Darel Dieringer, cruised to an easy finish.

Tounding out the first 10 finishers were Billy Wade, G. D. Spencer, Larry Frank, David ... (rest of names) ...

Betsy Rawls Wins Civitan Tourney

DALLAS, May 25 (AP)—Betsy Rawls, the veteran from Spartanburg, S. C., broke out of a year's slump and won the $13,500 Dallas Civitan open Sunday with a 72-hole total of 282 as Mickey Wright threw away her chance with a bogey on the 18th of 41.

Miss Rawls shot a closing par 71.

Miss Wright, who was seeking her fifth tournament victory of the year, finished second with 285 and Ruth Jessen, the leader, finished early in the race in a time 18-hole record with 44 in the first round, wound up third with 284.

Miss Wright finished with a one-under par 70 and said she had a good round except for three putts in 13 and one overbird, the green on 18 when she was tied with Miss Rawls for the lead.

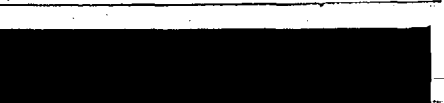

Miss Rawls birdied 13 to set up a tie.

Pearson, Wendell Scott, the only Negro driver on the NASCAR circuit; and Jack Anderson, Pearlsburg, Va., rookie.

Employment Hike Comes With Spring

Agriculture, construction and retail trade sparked a March-to-April gain in employment, which provided 8,000 new jobs for Idaho workers according to H. Fred Garrett, executive director, Idaho Labor Market news.

In the Burley area, job opportunities increased substantially during April primarily because of the need for workers in food processing plants. The demand for both men and women exceeded the local supply because of the poor condition of stored potatoes and the need to replace workers who were returning to their summer farm work.

Unseasonably cold weather during April delayed farming operations and construction work in the Jerome area. Sugar beet planting is a continuing problem. There is a shortage of experienced irrigators which is expected to continue throughout the irrigating season.

In the Rupert area, hiring increased considerably from last month in both farm and non-farm activities, but remained below the year-ago levels because of continued, inclement weather. Farm work was from two to three weeks behind normal schedules.

Although the weather remaining poor during April in the Twin Falls area, non-farm hiring was quite good for this time of the year. There also was considerable demand for experienced farm hands and irrigators. Farm hands eager for workers are being recruited and are scheduled to arrive in time for spring work.

Improved weather conditions followed the late spring in the Coocleer area, resulting in a heavy demand for farm workers during the latter part of April. The usual shortage of experienced farm hands was developed and is expected to continue throughout the season.

Ex-Students Are Given Signup Word

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Moscow, May 25—In Idaho and other parts of the nation are former University of Idaho students who are planning to re-register at the university in the fall, but they have not gotten the word. Registrar Lee O'Neill said today. The word is that they must pay an advance deposit of $25 on their registration fees by June 9. With heavy crowding of facilities expected in the fall, the university desires to keep a close check on all students definitely planning to register. Consequently, the advance deposit is required not only of all new students but all undergraduates now registered at the university and all former undergraduate students who plan to re-register. "We have had no problem getting the word to students now on the campus," registered O'Neill. "Advising former students of the new rule, however, is a real problem."

U. S. Sleuths Have Found Many Bugs in Envoy Offices

WASHINGTON, May 25 (U.S. Sleuths overseas have discovered that fireplaces can have ears. One such fireplace was in the office at the residence of the ambassador in Prague. Late last year state Department security men found a tiny radio hidden in the framework. The midget transmitter, which could beam conversations in the room to eavesdroppers outside the ambassador's home, was described today as the most sophisticated device yet uncovered in a continuing check on attempts to spy against U.S. envoys abroad. Over the past 15 years some 170 hidden electronic snappers have been ferreted out of the offices and homes of American officials in foreign lands, mostly behind the iron curtain. The bugging is still going on and so are searches by specially trained state department security men. Their biggest find announced last week, was 40 microphones in the U.S. embassy in Moscow. The Soviet microphones were relatively crude as spy devices go. But they defied U.S. detection for 13 years because they were so deeply imbedded in the walls of the embassy and because they sent their signals by wire, not radio. The state department has a 65-man security squad operating abroad, headed by a former FBI and central intelligence agency officer, G. Marvin Genille. Some of the overseas investigators are engineering graduates who specialize in electronic counter espionage. Others do personnel security work, such as checking the backgrounds of federal job applicants who have lived overseas. In Washington, the state department has a locked "chamber of horrors" room for display of captured gadgets. The security men are briefed on the latest advances in eavesdropping technology. Armed with modern detecting equipment, the overseas investigators travel out of Frankfurt, Beirut and Tokyo headquarters to "weep" official quarters in the more than 100 countries where the U.S. government has buildings. If Congress votes money, they will set up such headquarters in Africa. Even with the stepped-up program, the security men can't be 100 per cent sure they have uncovered all the spy devices. It is a standard rule for the diplomat, especially in the communist countries, to assume his friendly ears are trying to listen in. Just turning on a water tap or blaring a hi-fi set is enough to offset a secret listening device. Skilled monitors still pick out the conversations. The best eavesdroppers "diverted" far is "secure," or bug-free rooms specially constructed for embassies. Talk is possible in these rooms-within-rooms without fear of eavesdropping. The embassies are regarded as easier to keep free of bugs than diplomats' homes. The because embassies have a 24-hour guard, while homes are often unattended or are visited by local people who could be spies. When the security men do find a hidden gadget, they do another problem: what did the eavesdroppers get? They must check on what the secret but still ambulatory information the snapper has picked up to use as a tool against his diplomat.
