Scranton Debates Running in GOP Presidential Race

GETTYSBURG, Pa., June 6 (AP)—Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania discussed today with former President Dwight D. Eisenhower — at Eisenhower's personal request — Scranton's chances of getting the Republican presidential nomination. Neither Scranton nor Eisenhower were available for direct comment on their hour and a half meeting, but the governor's press secretary, Jack Conmy, said "they discussed politics and they discussed the presidency, touching on Gov. Scranton's possibilities."

It was reported in Cleveland, O., as Scranton prepared to go there to attend the 50th annual National Governors conference, that the Eisenhower-Scranton meeting was a last-ditch attempt to keep the GOP nomination from Gen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona.

Conmy said, however, that Scranton would say nothing—at least, until Sunday—on reports he is ready to contest Goldwater for the nomination.

The answer was in reply to a question on whether he would join any movement to "stop Goldwater."

Conmy said Eisenhower asked Scranton to stress in his public statements that he would accept a Republican presidential nomination if the majority of the convention delegates want him. That, he said, is his position. He said again and again that he is not a candidate and that he would accept the nomination only if it is his.

WASHINGTON, June 6 (AP)—The number of persons out of work in the United States last month dropped to its lowest point in more than four years. President Johnson credited the administration's tax cut for the improvement.

The labor department said yesterday that the rate of unemployment in the labor force, the lowest level since February, 1959, when it was 4.5 per cent. The all-time high was reached in July, 1952, when the jobless rate soared to 7.5 per cent.

In a White House statement, Johnson said the 1.2 billion dollar tax cut enacted earlier this year has served as "an economic stimulus" that is being translated into new jobs. He called for congressional approval of a $1.2 billion job-creating bill to keep the employment ball rolling.

The fine advances already made in creating new jobs gives us courage and confidence that we can move steadily ahead toward our goal of full employment," he said.

The President noted that employment in May reached an all-time high of 71 million workers. The labor department report said employment continued to expand at a better-than-usual pace for this time of year.

At 3.6 million, joblessness was about 50,000 below the April level—about 200,000 better than expected at this time of the year—the labor department said.

Harold Goldstein, who presented the figures, said all the rest of the year, unemployment was among those seeking full-time jobs.

Man Killed, Woman Shot 3 Times Here

A Twin Falls man was shot and a woman was wounded three times early Saturday morning in the Blue Front bar, 221 Shoshone street south. Twin Falls Police Chief M. Frank Barnett called the shooting an apparent attempted murder and suicide. Dead was Guadalupe Sanchez, 26, a farm laborer. Reported in fair condition at Magic Valley Memorial hospital Saturday night was Natalie Sargent, about 23, 535 Main avenue west. She had been shot three times—in the head, back and right chest.

Gooding Girl Is Queen of School Rodeo

GOODING, June 6—Gayle Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Anderson, Gooding, was crowned queen of the fifth annual school rodeo held in Gooding Friday and Saturday.

The two-day event, which started Friday, was under the sponsorship of the Jaycees. Winners in the boys events were: Saddlebron, Jo Leeper, first; Wilson Pate, second, and Dick Myers, third; Hackback riding, Gary Wickel, first, Pate, second, and Myers, third; calf roping, Byron Gorrell, first, Pate, second, and Gary West, third.

Other boy winners were: Bull-dogging, Freeman, first, Cronk, second, and Corroll, third; bull riding, Pate, first, Freeman, second, and Myers, third; roping, Cronk, first, Leeper, second, and Larry Brown, third.

Girls' event winners were: Breakaway roping, Miss Park, first, and Anita Criddle, second; pole bonding, Sue Fankhouser, first, and Criddle, second; and Netra Morrison, third; clover leaf barrel racing, Miss Park, first, Linda Montgomery, second, and Gayle Cobb, third; cow cutting, Miss Park, first, Mona Freeman, second, and Miss Anderson, third.

Top winners of each event will compete in the state contest. Stock was furnished by Jake Pock, Twin Falls.

Montgomery Attacks Ike On Tactics

LONDON, June 6 (AP)—Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery used today's 20th anniversary commemoration of D-Day to launch a new and bitter attack on Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, the man he followed to victory in Europe.

Montgomery addressed a British television audience of millions Friday night by assailing Eisenhower's concept of the Normandy campaign as "muddled" and "unsound."

Montgomery, as in command of Allied ground forces during the invasion, said the campaign was "a man's second childhood."

"I do not believe that Eisenhower ever really understood the strategy of the Normandy campaign. He seemed to me to get the whole thing muddled up," Montgomery said.

Surrounded 300 Children Take Part in Fish Derby

HARVARD, Ill., June 6 (AP)—Luci Baines Johnson swigged milk, collected roasts, crowned a queen and reviewed 1,300 dogs and flea circuses today in a good will invasion of Illinois' Goldwater country.

Republican Mayor Donald Morris of Harvard told her, "Our hearts are open to you."

Virtually everywhere the blue-eyed younger daughter of President Johnson went there were Republicans lurking nearby.

Kimberly Girl Picked for Girls' Nation

CALDWELL, June 6 (AP)—The 243 delegates to the 18th annual Springs Girls' state meet for home-by-chartered buses today after a week's study of governmental functions.

Before the annual encampment wound up at the College of Idaho last night Nancy Schreiber, Caldwell, and Jane Shafter, Kimberly, were named delegates to Girls' nation. Alternates will be Connie D'Andrea, Kollong, and Iris Taylor, Idaho Falls.

In a mock legislative session at "State" Friday, the girls approved a bill that would direct the legislature to study the Idaho tax structure.

U.S. Seeking All-Bachelor Draft Force

WASHINGTON, June 6 (AP)—Defense officials are seeking an all-bachelor force in the lower enlisted ranks as a part of a long-range plan to cut the draft within 10 years, it was learned today.

One step in the plan, which would require congressional approval, would send 25 million dollars in family allowances now paid annually to more than 250,000 married men in the first four enlisted grades.

The change would be phased over the period of years so that no one currently getting an allotment would lose it without receiving an offsetting increase in pay.

Steps would be taken to raise and perhaps double recruit pay which starts at $76 a month and admittedly has not kept pace with the cost of living during the last 10 or 15 years.

Unarmed U.S. Jet Downed in Laos Area

WASHINGTON, June 6 (AP)—An unarmed U.S. jet plane reconnaissance plane observing communist troop movements in Laos was shot down today by ground fire in the Phou Douk region, the U.S. government announced.

The defense department withheld immediate identification of the pilot. But the state department, which made the announcement, said he was seen drifting and landing safely from his crippled plane.

"Efforts to locate and reach him were under way," the state department said. A Pentagon spokesman indicated that Americans were taking part in the rescue operation. "I am sure we would participate in efforts to rescue our own people," he said.

No government source would indicate whether retaliatory action, if any, was being planned. But the state department said the United States has no intention of abandoning the airventure flights, as requested by neutralist Laotian government.

The plane was described as a navy RF-4A Crusader, a single seat, supersonic, photo reconnaissance jet that has been in service for several years. It has a range of more than 1,500 nautical miles.

Although the Pentagon refused comment, the plane presumably was operating out of an air base in South Viet Nam or from a carrier of the U.S. Seventh fleet stationed off the South Vietnamese coast.

South Korea May Ban Spying Unit

SEOUL, June 6 (AP)—The executive council of President Park Chung Hee's Democratic Republic today urged the government to disband South Korea's controversial central intelligence agency.

Leftist-led students and opposition politicians have assailed the CIA as a military secret police force and a source of corruption.

The agency was founded after the 1948 military revolution by Kim Chong Pil, who resigned as chairman of the Democratic Republic party yesterday because of the student riots that have erupted in the capital, Seoul.

A party spokesman said the executive council also urged Park to put negotiations for a settlement of differences with Japan on a non-partisan basis.

ABERDEEN, Scotland, June 6 (AP)—Twenty-two more residents of this typhoid-stricken city were confirmed today as having contracted the disease and the epidemic threatened to become the worst in Britain's history.

Heyburn Man, 45, Is Accidentally Drowned

RUPERT, June 6—William L. Woodall, 45, Heyburn, accidentally drowned around 4:30 p.m. Saturday while swimming in the Snake river about two miles west of Heyburn. Minidoka county Sheriff Theo Johnson said Burley police contacted him after they had been alerted that a man swimming in the river apparently was in trouble. Two unidentified women were near the river bank where Woodall was swimming and they called and told Burley police the man seemed to be in danger.

Jobless Rate In U. S. Drops To Low Mark

Mission for Air Recovery Unit Changed

The mission of the 962nd air force reserve recovery unit will be changed but the squadron will remain in Twin Falls. Col. Rudy Woodson, commander of the local squadron, stated Saturday.

The local reserve unit was among 181 such units which were to be disbanded by the air force because "there is no foreseeable future military need for these units," it was announced Friday.

Lt. Col. M. Green, Hamilton air force base, Calif., flew to Twin Falls Saturday and advised Colonel Ashenbrenner that the present mission of the squadron is to be changed. Ashenbrenner said he did not know just what the new mission of the reserve unit would be.

The recovery squadron was organized to help maintain military planes in event of attack on the West Coast, but due to the shortages of the local airport it makes it impossible for military aircraft to land here.

The local airport is about 8,000 feet high and is not suitable for military aircraft. It must be at least 7,000 feet in length, Colonel Ashenbrenner stated.

Normandy Rites Honor Dead

OMAHA BEACH, France, June 6 (AP)—The United States and its Western Allies paid tribute today to the men who died in the 20th anniversary today of the D-day landings in Normandy.

They pledged themselves to maintain their wartime unity in the uneasy peace of 1964.

Allied unity was beclouded by the absence of French President Charles de Gaulle who ignored the ceremonies and sent only two junior cabinet ministers to represent him.

General of the Army Omar N. Bradley, who led the U.S. First Army into battle here 20 years ago, read a message from President Johnson at the memorial ceremonies.

The President called for continuation in the post-war era of the free-world unity that carried the Allies to victory in 1945.

Bradley heads a U.S. government delegation, which includes 20 World War II generals who took part in the battle of Normandy.

The anniversary program, which began with ceremonies on the British and Canadian landing beaches yesterday evening, resumed this morning at the liberation monument in Bayeux and continued at the U.S. military cemetery here, where 9,380 American dead are buried.

WATCHING AN FRENCH children place flags on the graves of his uncles, Frank Huck and Joseph Hurek, at the St. Laurent cemetery at Omaha beach in Normandy Saturday, the 20th anniversary of the Normandy invasion, is Leon Durohin, a soldier from Kelseyville, Pa., who is stationed at Glessen, Germany. Advance Meet Weighed by Gem Demos

By The Associated Press
Members of the Platform committee of the Idaho Democratic state assembly were called Friday to meet one day in advance of the regular session to begin drafting a statement of principles for the fall election campaign.

Rep. T. P. Terrell, D., Bannock announced in Pocatello he was asking the committee to assemble in Boise next Thursday. He invited individuals and representatives from throughout the state to propose platform planks.

The democratic face a tussle over the party chairman's pick, but Gov. William E. Drevlow, acting state executive in the absence of Gov. Robert E. Smylie, declined to be drawn into it.

Drevlow, who will be a delegate to the Democratic assembly from his home county of Lewis, said he would "see how things develop" at the convention before deciding how he will vote for the chairman's pick.

Incumbent Chairman Lloyd E. Terrell, who is resigning, said he would keep his hands off the whole affair and let the delegates make up their own minds.

Terrell announced appointment by Walker of an advisory group to assist the committee in drafting a platform. It is composed of seven individuals from all congressional districts plus two minority leaders in the 1963 legislature.

The platform committee will be composed of 44 members, one from each county, with each county making its own selection.

Idaho Panel Committed to Goldwater

CORNER D'ALENNE, June 6 (AP)—Idaho's Republican first district central committee has passed a resolution urging the state assembly to send a Goldwater-committee delegation to the party's national convention.

State Republican Chairman John McMurray has said he would prefer an uncommitted delegation to the national convention.

The first district is made up of five north Idaho counties. The district central committee includes the five county chairmen and state representatives of each county.

Ogden Man Cited After Truck Upsets

HAZELTON, June 6—George R. Christiansen, 28, Ogden, was cited for failure to be reasonable and prudent when the International truck he was driving went out of control on highway 25 seven miles east of Hazelton at 3 a.m. today.

Christiansen, traveling west, was en route to Boise with a new-fabricated house on his truck when the accident occurred.

Christiansen said the right wheel caught a soft shoulder, pulling the truck to the right. The vehicle then went out of control and across the highway to the left.

Deputy Sheriff Gordon Newby said the highway was blocked approximately an hour, with sections of the house and truck before it could be cleared to allow traffic to pass.

Idaho State Hospital Head Raps Local Health Centers

MCCALL, June 6—The superintendent of State Hospital North at Orofino said Friday that the institution is called upon to treat many patients who should receive help in their own communities.

Dr. Myrick W. Pallen, Jr., said the hospital has had a 410 per cent increase in neurotic patients in the last five years.

"These people should be under the care of private psychologists or mental health centers," he told the Idaho mental health planning conference. "They really should not be admitted to the state hospital."

"The patient is removed from his home and the actual problem, placed in the hospital, treated and then discharged to return home to face the same problem again," he said.

Dr. T. O. Garver, Idaho health administrator, complained of lack of funds for the mental health program in Idaho.

"Idaho spends less than the national average on public welfare, health and hospitals," he said. "Only on highways does the state spend more than the national average. If people of Idaho must decide what they want and are willing to pay for."

Dr. Eugene Gile, Moscow, president of the Idaho Psychological association, in response to a question, said the state lacks school psychologists because they are attracted by higher salaries in other states.

"Yet in the state there is a big demand and need for these people," he said.

Dr. John Casper, Idaho Falls, and Dr. Luther Thompson, Twin Falls, said mental health centers are needed in their areas. Idaho Falls was described as having funds, but lacking qualified personnel to operate a center.

Conferees were told that Twin Falls county commissioners failed to approve a county mental health unit.

Seat Belt

SACRAMENTO, Calif., June 6 (AP)—J. William Beard, the chairman of the state industrial accident commission, was so busy thinking about his work that he drove out of the state capitol garage through the wrong exit.

"The front of his car dropped over the edge of an outside-loading platform. But he said, 'I had my seat belt on.'"

One-Car Crash Claims Boisean

RENO, June 6 (AP)—Nevada's 1964 highway fatality toll climbed to 70 today with the death of a Boise, Ida., man in a Winnemucca hospital of injuries sustained in a one-car accident Wednesday.

Albert B. Danley, 45, of the Oxford hotel, lost control of his stationwagon two miles west of McDermitt on the Cordera mine road.

The Nevada highway patrol said the car hit the right shoulder of the road, skidded over to the left shoulder and rolled over, throwing Danley 24 feet from the car.

T. F. Home Show Closes Today

The 1964 annual Twin Falls Home Show, being held in the high school gymnasium, will end Sunday and, according to Thomas Wilkins, show manager, about 12,000 Magic Valley residents are expected to attend the final day. The show, which opened Thursday night, saw about 7,500 residents there Friday and between 7,000 and 8,000 residents Saturday.

The most popular exhibit at the show seems to be a 27-foot mockup of the project Mercury space capsule and escape tube, furnished for the show by the national aeronautics and space agency.

The show will be open from noon until 10 p.m. Sunday. Four nightly prizes of $25 are given away each night.

"Everyone attending seems to be enjoying the show," Wilkins stated.

Exhibits include new stereo phonographs for automobiles, stereo tape recorders, electronics of all kinds, closed circuit television, a rock shop which demonstrates cutting and polishing of different rocks, new attire, radio amateurs giving demonstrations of how to operate ham radios and a new Plymouth Barracuda automobile.

Steady crowds have been going through four modern homes being displayed by Key Realty in connection with the show, Wilkins noted.

Three of the homes are located on Burine boulevard north and the other is located on Alta Vista drive. They will be on display from noon until 10 p.m. Sunday.

Fire Damage Set for Glenns Ferry Blaze

GLENN'S FERRY, June 6—Damage to merchandise in a jewelry store fire here Friday afternoon was estimated at between $11,000 to $15,000 Saturday by family members who own the Marlin Jewelry store.

Gerard Harris, 35, who leases the building from the Marlin estate, was reported in good condition today at St. Luke's hospital, Boise, where he was taken with burns on his face, hands and arms.

Harris was cleaning watches at the store about 1 p.m. Friday when some cleaning fluid he was using ignited, starting the blaze. The blaze spread to a coin-operated laundry in an adjacent building.

Rollin McKeeth, manager of the Sunshine laundry, said structural damage was extensive, but damage to machines was not as bad as he expected. The laundry was partially covered by insurance.

Mrs. Brent Taylor, member of the Marlin family, said Saturday no estimate had been obtained on damage to the jewelry store building.

She said decision about rebuilding will depend on cost of repairs.

Mrs. Taylor reported the burns Harris incurred apparently are not as serious as was first believed, having complications, he should have no permanent injury to his hands, she reported.

Some smoke and water damage was reported to the Idaho Power company office and Mills variety store, both located in the same block, and the Glenn's Ferry postoffice situated behind the jewelry store.

Persons outside the building said the explosion sounded like a "shot from a gun." McKeeth said persons inside the store had the initial blaze nearly extinguished when someone opened a door and the draft fanned the blaze out of control.

Firemen had the fire under control again about 5 p.m., but the smoldering structure was patrolled throughout Friday night.

News Around Idaho

BOISE, June 6 (AP)—The P.M.C. corporation, which operates an electric furnace phosphate plant at Pocatello, is the high bidder on two federal phosphate leases near Soda Springs in Caribou county. Its bids of $557,000 for a one-acre lease and $203,004 for one of 2 1/2 acre leases, well above other bids received by the bureau of land management.

MARSHING, June 6 (AP)—Three times residents of the Marshing school district defeated a proposed property tax increase. They voted again yesterday for Cleveland and the eight-mill tax levy was defeated. The vote was 131 to 13, more than the required two-thirds favorable majority.

BOISE, June 6 (AP)—Plans were disclosed today for a second out-of-state trip by Gov. Robert E. Smylie this month. The governor left Boise yesterday for Cleveland to attend the National Governors' conference and a meeting of the Republican governors association. He will return to Idaho Thursday to attend the Republican state assembly in Idaho Falls and then leave for New York to appear at Idaho day at the World's Fair, June 15. While in New York, Smylie will attend a businessmen's luncheon hosted by financier and railroad executive E. Roland Harriman.

SUN VALLEY, June 6 (AP)—The president of the Pacific Seedmen's association Friday described the book by the late H. H. Cresson, "The Blight Springs," as a "most complete" record of the organization's members at its 1955 annual meeting that the book had hurt their business. It describes harmful effects of agricultural sprays on plant and animal life.

IDAHO FALLS, June 6 (AP)—A Wyoming firm continues its hunt for the local Rotary club this morning. Drilling in the remote and mountainous southeast corner of the county will be undertaken for the second straight year by Loffland Drilling company, Casper, Wyo. It is doing the job for Pan American Oil company, Denver. So far attempts at finding the "black gold" have been unsuccessful.

IDAHO FALLS, June 6 (AP)—The city's snorkel fire engine was ordered removed from service Friday after a mechanical failure on a similar truck in the east resulted in serious injury to a fireman. City Vice Chief Carl Foster said the accident had apparently resulted from a failure in the hydraulic shock mechanism.

BOISE, June 6 (AP)—The chairman of the Idaho Goldwater for President committee Friday said he expects the Arizona senator to win the Republican nomination on no later than the second ballot. James McClary, Boise, also said he expects all 14 Idaho delegates in vote for Goldwater. He said the delegation is committed by the state convention next week in Idaho Falls or not.

IDAHO FALLS, June 6 (AP)—"Operation gladhand"—a helping hand extending from the Idaho Falls Rotary club across the state to hundreds of Philippine island children—is under way today. The local Rotary club is boxing and shipping 6,500 obsolete textbooks of the Idaho Falls school district to Manila, Philippines Islands, for students badly needing English textbooks there.

POCATELLO, June 6 (AP)—A hailstorm and near-cyclonic storm dropped an estimated inch of moisture in less than an hour this afternoon and caused a flash flood in a residential area. A drain pipe carrying runoff from Highland golf course under a street overflowed and flooded at least one basement and washed about some lawns with three-foot gullies. Debris was left strewn about the neighborhood. Drivers were forced to pull to the side of the road during the height of the storm.

BOISE, June 6 (AP)—Delegates to the 1964 Idaho Gem Boys' state began arriving in Boise today for the beginning of the week-long annual program in citizenship and government. The program, which opens officially Sunday at Boise Junior college, is sponsored by the Associated Gem Boys of Idaho. About 300 boys who will be high school seniors next year are expected to attend.

Hansen Bible School Ends With Program

YANGSON, June 6 (AP)—A program was held Friday evening at the Community Methodist church by the Bible Vacation school students after a week's sessions.

Mark Barnes held the American flag in the procession. Mary Coffey, the Christian flag, and Debbie Mothershead, the Bible. Denise Shepherd led the American flag salute; Deon Pettigrove led the Gethsemane Hymn; and Kathy Elly led the salute to the Bible.

Children's group songs were led by Mrs. Roger White, who was the song leader during the week's sessions. They were accompanied by Mrs. Morvyn O. Ronnie Mothershead, Kurt Daw and Marty Shepherd took the offering.

Space Official "Confident" of 1969 Moon Trip

HOUSTON, June 6 (AP)—A top U.S. space official said yesterday he is "comfortably confident" America will land two astronauts on the moon by Jan. 31, 1969—nearly one year ahead of most current estimates.

He is a surprising burst of optimism. Dr. Joseph Shea, manager of the federal space agency's Apollo spacecraft program office, said "We have a much better than even chance of getting men to the moon well ahead of the prescribed 1970 deadline."

Shea made his prediction before the opening session of the three-day Federal Space association convention in Houston.

PHILADELPHIA, June 6 (AP)—Frank (Chilly) Pardo, convicted of conspiracy and extortion, started serving a 15-year term yesterday in Philadelphia's Holmesburg prison. He will stay there until assigned by the justice department to a federal institution.

Youth Admits 5 Slayings in Crime Spree

KALAMAZOO, Mich., June 6 (AP)—A slightly-built, unemphatic teen-ager yesterday admitted five slayings in a crime spree that spread from Nevada through Kentucky and Indiana and into Michigan, police said.

Larry Lee Ranes, 18, was arrested early yesterday. He offered no resistance and readily admitted the slayings of Plymouth, Mich., school teacher Gary Albert Smock, 30, last Friday, police said.

When taken to the police station, Ranes also said he killed school teacher Charles Edward Sander, 33; a Michigan air force man; another man in Las Vegas, Nev.; and a fifth "somewhere in Kentucky," according to state police Det. Earl Lakin.

He said he did not know the names of his victims and was vague about details in the Nevada and Kentucky slayings.

LICENSES OKAYED

Utah Pilot Not Hurt Landing on Idaho Highway

BOISE, June 6 (AP)—A Utah pilot and two passengers escaped unhurt today in an emergency landing of a light plane on interstate highway 80-N about 10 miles east of Boise.

William E. Gaden, owner and pilot of the craft, said his plane ran out of gas. He said he called the Boise control tower of the federal aviation agency and reported he was putting his plane down on the four-lane divided highway.

The plane landed on the pavement but rolled off before it came to a stop.

More Hail

OKALEY, June 6 (AP)—No damage was reported Saturday from a brief rain and hailstorm here Friday afternoon. The storm, which lasted only about 20 minutes, brought 3/8 of an inch of precipitation.

Since Wednesday, when hail reportedly ruined the first crop of alfalfa in Golden valley area between Burley and Okaley, 3/8 of an inch of precipitation has been recorded in Okaley.

Goldwater Earns Majority of Washington Vote

TACOMA, Wash., June 6 (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater won 21 of 27 national convention delegates today and the other three said they would vote for him if he appears to be the Washington choice.

An Associated Press poll showed 21 for the Arizona senator and the other three uncommitted. But ready to swing to Goldwater.

The delegates were elected at congressional district caucuses and ratified at the state convention here today.

All 24 alternates also said they preferred Goldwater.

View courts recreation hall was decorated with baskets of pink and white spring blossoms and the tea table was centered with an arrangement of pink roses, carnations and gladioli accented with gold foliage. (Times-News photo)

BY NOELMA HERZINGER

Remembering when Elizabeth boulevard was only a trail between farm homes and was in such condition that a team of horses could hardly pull a sarray through the hub-deep mud was one of the remembrances brought to mind at the Morningside club's 50th anniversary tea.

This tea was held at the Sunny View courts recreation hall in observance of the 50 years the Morningside club has been in existence.

A color scheme of pink and gold, the club's colors, and a group of enthusiastic women provided the background setting for this memorable occasion.

The room was decorated with baskets of pink and white spring blossoms and the tea table was centered with an arrangement of pink roses, carnations and gladioli, accented with gold foliage. The centerpiece was flanked by tall pink tapers and pink napkins engraved "Morningside club—1914-1964."

Mrs. Vernon Scribner, Dolse, only remaining charter member, and Mrs. Vera Holland, senior active club member, presided at the tea table. Mrs. Eugene Stacey was general chairman of the event.

The historical program opened with the group singing the club's song, "Morningside Club," written in 1917 by Mrs. Otha Widener, included facts from the club history taken from the "complete" file of secretaries' books covering the full 50 years. The history included reading some of the papers written years ago by club members for presentations as club programs. Two poems about the club and its members, one written in 1934 and one written in 1955, were read.

A memorial service was conducted by Mrs. Anthony Federico honoring all deceased club members. Mrs. Terry Sullivan was soloist.

As each member and former member was introduced, she told when she joined the club and briefly stated what the club has meant to her.

A women's group can be of much assistance to a newcomer to a community or to women who are all alone. As one of the former members stated, "I came to Twin Falls from England in 1945 and joined the club in 1946. Many times since I have thought, if it hadn't been for the Morningside club in those days of adjustment, I'd have given up and gone back to England."

Mrs. Scribner, the only remaining charter member, brought to mind many, many memories as she related various experiences of the club in its early years, some jovial and some more serious.

Mr. and Mrs. Scribner came to Twin Falls in 1913 from Wisconsin. From 1913 until 1944 they operated the Clover Leaf dairy, then located just east of where KMYT broadcasting studio is now. In 1947, Mr. and Mrs. Scribner moved to Dolse. During her years in Twin Falls she was an active member of the club, serving terms as president and secretary.

READING the complete history of Morningside club at the group's golden anniversary tea are, from left, Mrs. Rhonda Hall and Mrs. Otha Widener. The history was written for this occasion by Mrs. Widener, taken from the club's complete files for the past 50 years. This history included reading some of the papers written years ago by club members for presentation as club programs. (Times-News photo)

QUESTS AND MEMBERS of the Morningside club are shown conversing and enjoying the social hour held at the Morningside club's 50th anniversary tea at Sunny View courts recreation hall. As each member and former member was inroduced at the tea, she told when she joined the club. This group was organized March 27, 1914, with a membership of 11. The name, Morningside, was chosen because the women lived on the east, or "morning," side of town. (Times-News photo)

Double Ring Wedding Rites Unite Couple

EDEN, June 6—Sandra Eisenhauer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Eisenhauer, Edin, and Larry Durk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Durk, Blackfoot, were united in marriage May 24 in the First Presbyterian church, Twin Falls. The Rev. Robert C. Harvey performed the double ring ceremony before a background of a line of pink roses and flowering almond flanked by white ferns in brass candelabra.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of seashell lace over taffeta, enhanced with a fitted bodice featuring a scalloped neckline and lily point sleeves. The full lace skirt was accented with a daisy motif of chiffon and lace and a chapel train. She wore a shoulder length veil of silk bridal illusion held by a crown of seed pearls and crystals.

She wore a single strand pearl necklace, a gift from the bridegroom and carried a cascading bouquet of feathered pink carnations and white hydrangeas.

Mrs. E. L. Hodgkin, Broken Bow, Nebr., grandmother of the bride, wore a pink lace dress, and Mrs. Gertrude Durk, Hansen, grandmother of the bridegroom, wore a blue lace dress. Each wore a white carnation corsage.

William Kay Hill, organist, played the traditional wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Mildred Eisenhauer, Boise, aunt of the bride, who completed the table appointments.

The cake was cut and served by Mrs. Elaine Stephens, Mrs. Helen Vanley and Mrs. Carl M. Kelly. Punch and coffee were served by Mrs. Earl Trew, Ansley, Nebr., Mrs. Edward Givler, Eddyville, Nebr., aunts of the bride, and Mrs. Austin Mathewson, Clatskanie, Ore., aunt of the bridegroom.

Gifts were received by Judy McClain, Margie McClain and Kathy O'Rourke.

For her wedding trip, the new Mrs. Durk wore an off-white imported Swedish linen two-piece dress fashioned by her mother, and a corsage of pink carnations.

Out-of-town guests attended from Hazelton, Buhl, Piler, Cassiell, Moore, Blackfoot, Jerome, Hansen, Sparks, Nev., and Broken Bow, Ansley, Eddyville, and Arvid, all Nebr.

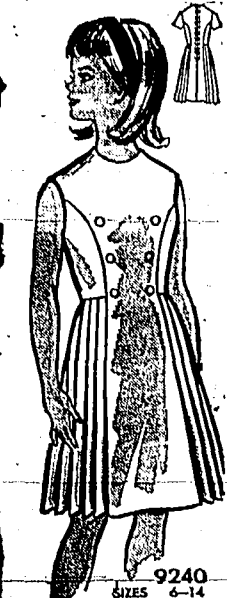

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Max Durk at the Depot Grill Caboose room.

Pre-nuptial showers were given by Mrs. Beverly Hughes, Mrs. Kenneth Tinsley, Mrs. Otis Strain, Ellen Rogerson and Glenna Rolos, all Edin; by Larie Cass Hall, Cassia, Thaddeus, Mrs. Ronald Buschhorn, all Hazelton, and by Mrs. Craig Dunlap, Mrs. Francis Sharp, Mrs. Rex Lancaster and Mrs. Ed Sharp, Piler.

The bride is a 1964 graduate of Valley high school. The bridegroom is a 1961 graduate of Valley high school and is now stationed with the marine corps at Pearl Harbor.

After June 16, the couple will reside at 2785 Kapoian boulevard, Honolulu, Hawaii.

MR. AND MRS. GARY C. RIVER

American Falls Miss, Siver Say Nuptial Vows

Darla Rae Misenheimer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Misenheimer, American Falls, was married to Gary C. River, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl River, Twin Falls, April 12 in St. John's Lutheran church, American Falls.

The Rev. Floyd L. Yokers performed the double ring ceremony before a background setting of pedestal baskets of pink chrysanthemums and gladioli enhanced with aqua ribbon bows at the sides of the altar and pink, white and dark pink carnations at the altar.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a champagne-length gown of silk organza featuring a sash and neckline entwined in sequins. The skirt and overskirt were appliqued with alencon lace and trimmed with roses of lace and organza. The bodice was fitted and was styled with long rilly point sleeves.

Her full, bouffant veil of bridal illusion was shoulder-length and cascaded from a silk organza tiara.

She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom.

She carried a bouquet of pink roses surrounding a white orchid.

Mrs. Stanley Monson, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, with Mrs. Robert Allright, Thelma, Monte, and Mrs. Kenneth Wilder, Pocatello, as attending matrons and Beverly Burgenmeister as bridesmaid.

They were attired in street-length dresses of aqua crystalline with bell-shaped skirts, rounded necklines and full ruffled fabric roses at the center front of the waistlines. Each carried a cascade bouquet of pink camellias and pink elfe roses.

Cheri Monson, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She carried rose petals in a basket and wore a light silk-trimmed cotton pink frock.

William Cooper, Pocatello, was best man. Ushers were Gary Beer, Thomas Coontz and Gary Deford, Twin Falls. Her and Coontz also served as candle-lighters.

Ringbearer was Michael Chapin, nephew of the bridegroom. Mrs. Theodore Smith was organist and Stanley D. Monson was soloist.

A reception was held in the basement of the church. Mrs. Valdez Kelly, Pocatello, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. A. B. Hanson, Twin Falls, aunt of the bridegroom, served from a table covered with a lace cloth that was used at the wedding of the bride's brother and sister. The table was enhanced with silver candelabra holding aqua candles and pink elfe roses.

The wedding cake, served by Mrs. Mabel Madson, Mrs. Ed Bass, Martin Chapin, sister of the bridegroom, was surrounded by pink elfe roses. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Chapman were hosts.

Byron Collins was in charge of the guest book. Assisting with the gifts were Mrs. Louise Burgenmeister, Mrs. Dennis McDermott, Rose Ann Deeg and Mrs. William Cooper. Gifts were also from Mrs. Adolph, Justice Adolph, Robyn Hinge and Blia Kay Hinge. They also assisted with the serving.

Those serving include Mr. and Mrs. Ted Schell, Mrs. Ed Bass, Mrs. Lewis Deitel, Mrs. Harold Deeg, Mrs. Clarence Gohl and Mrs. Albert Burgenmeister.

Gary Meadows played background piano music for the reception.

For the occasion the bride's mother wore a dark aqua dress with matching jacket enhanced with pink accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a white brocade dress and jacket with pink accessories. Each wore a corsage of pink camellias.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Olive Adolph, enhanced her ensemble with a corsage of pink carnations.

For traveling, the bride changed to a blue knit coat and dress ensemble with white accessories and the white orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet.

A rehearsal supper was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Guests attended from Twin Falls, Pocatello, Idaho Falls, Burley, Salt Lake City, Rosentau, Mont., San Diego, Calif.; San Antonio, Tex.; and Covina, Calif.

The newlyweds plan to continue their studies at Idaho State University, where both are students. They reside in Pocatello.

Golden Wedding Anniversary Is Celebrated

FAIRFIELD, June 6—Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Howland celebrated their golden wedding anniversary with an open house at the Community church recreation room. A special wedding cake was made for the affair.

Howland is the Cassia county probate judge. The couple was married in Colorado Springs and moved to Halley where Howland later owned and operated a cattle ranch on the south Boise river near Peatherville for 20 years.

Howland was county commissioner for four terms in Elmore county. They have resided in Fairfield for 27 years.

Wayne Corey Is Presented in Piano Recital

JEFFERSON, June 6—Mrs. Henry Brown presented Wayne Corey, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Corey, Jerome, in a solo piano recital at the Corey home.

Mrs. Corey presented her son's former teachers with programs. They include Mrs. Lawrence Campbell, Mrs. Harry Hays, piano and organ; Mrs. Alvin Koutchek, accordion and piano; and Mrs. Brown, his present teacher. Selections included "Light Sonata," Beethoven; "Clair de Lune," Debussy; "Nutsacker Suite," "Dachaukowl March," "Dance of the Sugar Plum Fairy," "Aral Dance," "Waltz of the Flowers," and "Deep Purple," by Peter Delloze.

Dale Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Brown, presented two recitals, "The Blind Pilgrimage," by Robert Clark, and "That's An Irish Lullaby," by Shannon.

Linda Kullm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kullm, was in charge of the gift book.

Request duets were played by Corey and his grandmother, Mrs. Lawrence Campbell.

A social hour and tea were held following the recital. Harry Hays and Mrs. Campbell served. Guests attended from Murlough, Twin Falls, Jerome and Falls City.

Jesse Berain Is Speaker for Hansen Group

JEFFERSON, June 6—Jesse Berain, Twin Falls, was guest speaker at the Women's Society of Christian Service meeting held at the home of Mrs. Bryan Harris. He spoke on the migrant worker and the ways in which groups could help.

He stated that migrants need education, both school and general, religious training and birth control knowledge. Berain, once a migrant, spends as much of his spare time as possible working with migrants.

He suggested some interesting ways in which migrants might be helped.

He suggested that groups come to the camps and have prayer meetings and religious training. He suggested nutritional training so that migrants could stretch their money further with cheaper cuts of meat.

He stated that machinery is replacing much of the manual labor, and the migrant must learn other ways of making a living.

Fair Judging Talk Given by County Agent

DEPOLO, June 6—Mrs. Margaret Hathorn, Cassia county home demonstration agent, was speaker for the "Thrifty Thrivers" club on points in judging articles.

The club held a meeting held at the home of Mrs. Robert Fuqua.

Some points stressed were always use cake flour if you want a fine textured cake, and do not use too much icing. Taste, flavor, grain and texture are the points to strive for in baking products.

Juice should be strained in order to make nice clear jelly and it should be cooked very carefully and just enough so that it will hold its shape and still be tender.

Mrs. Hathorn set June 16 and 17 for jelly making demonstrations to be held at the demonstration kitchen in the courthouse. She will show how to test for pectin in order to know how much sugar is needed in each kind of juice.

Furniture Talk

By Russ Cunningham
QUALITY
In home furnishings, the most important consideration of all to the buyer, is something you can judge a lot better than you think. You can look — and you can ask questions. For instance, you know quite a bit about good fabrics, just from selecting clothing for many years. And you can judge tailoring. Take a good look at that chair you like. Check the evenness and neatness of the welting. See if the fabric is properly centered on the back, seat and arms. See how well it fits. Then inspect whatever wood trim or frame shows. See how well the wood is finished. If you don't know what kind of wood it is, ask. Then read the manufacturer's label that tells you what the cushion content is, whether foam, cotton, felt, down, urethane foam, or a mixture. And ask more questions of the salesman.

You'll find our courteous salespeople always ready to answer your questions — so don't hesitate to ask as many as you like. And you'll find that our display includes fine manufacturer's names, your best assurance of quality. Look closely at whatever you buy — and be sure to take a good long look at our display of quality furnishings.

In the beginning the membership in the club was limited to those living in the area between Elizabeth boulevard and the south side of Addison avenue, east of Maurice street. But those boundaries were lifted when the club was moved to other parts of Twin Falls.

The original copy of the club's constitution and by-laws, hand written and drawn up at the club's institution in 1914, gives a complete list of the charter members.

Contributions are made annually to the Boise Children's home, the Red Cross and the Idaho Youth ranch.

In two instances there are three generation memberships among Morningglade club members. One family is Mrs. Frances Osborn; her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Berks, and her daughter, Mrs. Kathryn Coak. All members until Mrs. Coak moved to Oregon. Mrs. Osborn and Mrs. Berks are still active members. Another of Mrs. Osborn's daughters, Mrs. George Van Houten, is currently club president.

Class leaders and visiting teachers were given a special tribute and each presented a pot-plant.

Mrs. Thomas Cox is in charge of the birthday calendar this year and is distributing kits to the community workers.

The group voted to donate $100 toward the purchase of a new ambulance for the county.

Mrs. Leland Lamson, outgoing president, noted that during the year the club donated $100 toward the swimming lesson program, $100 for the summer music camp at Moscow, $25 to the Idaho Youth ranch and $5 to the Eastern Real camp in addition to contributions to all the major charity drives.

Clothing, foods and gifts were sent to the Idaho Youth ranch and the Boise Children's home in addition to the donations.

Hostesses were Mrs. Hubert Lewin, Mrs. Russell Pale, Mrs. George Perkins, Jr., Mrs. Howard St. Clair, Mrs. George Perkins, and Mrs. Thomas Wokereleit.

Mrs. Joseph Preston gave the social science lesson. Mrs. Earl Darrington spoke to the teachers of their responsibilities and organization.

Mrs. Bruce Turner and Mrs. Norman Hulse were in charge of the meal, with Mrs. Donald Jacobs singing two solos, accompanied by Owen Jacobs.

Mrs. Fred Preston recited poems about visiting teachers.

Mrs. Emma Preston was awarded a Relief society plate for selling subscriptions to the Relief society magazine.

Luncheon was served by Mrs. Earl Hurst, Mrs. Mike Matthews, Mrs. Gerald Mallory, Mrs. Brent Peterson, Mrs. Donald Whipple and Mrs. Robert L. Stevens. The tables were decorated by Mrs. Turner, Mrs. Leroy Darrington and Mrs. Myron Okelberry.

The spiritual flowers were used for centerpieces.

Mrs. Archie Mills, Burley LDS stake, and Mrs. Doris Fredrickson, Rupert, were guests. Mrs. Elmer Wickel gave the closing prayer.

Mrs. Stone to Represent DAV Unit at Tea

Mrs. W. O. Stone will represent the Disabled American Veterans auxiliary as first vice president of the Elmer Gray Tea June 14. It was announced at the DAV auxiliary meeting held at the DAV hall.

Mrs. Lydia Graybill gave the prayers. The group voted to have another "old time" dance June 19 at the DAV hall. Everyone is welcome to attend. Bring your own table service.

It was announced that Mrs. Dewey Julian and Mrs. Addie Radakowich will attend the convention in Boise.

A social meeting will not be held in June, but the birthday anniversary dinner and gift exchange will be held in July at the home of Mrs. Graybill.

The last social night was held at the home of Mrs. Doris Stradley. Memorial wreaths were made. Mrs. Graybill placed the wreath for the auxiliary at the tomb of the unknown soldier at the cemetery Memorial day.

A gift was presented to Mrs. Julian from the auxiliary by Mrs. Knight for her two years of service as commander. Mrs. Julian was elected for the third term and all officers will be installed at the July 5 meeting.

Stock Mart Records Big Dip in Week

NEW YORK, June 6 (AP)—The stock market made its first decline in 19 weeks when on Thursday it took its biggest nose dive since Nov. 22, the day President Kennedy was assassinated. The long-awaited breather in the narrow trading range which has dominated the market since late March took few Wall Streeters by surprise since brokers had been expecting the Dow-Jones industrial average to move below its 100-day average of 810.77. April closing point at which the market would either turn around or accelerate downward.

T.F. Truck
Overtakes
At Shoshone

SHOSHONE, June 6 — A 1962 Chevrolet truck belonging to Dan Daniel's Roofing company, Twin Falls, overturned 10 miles north-east of Shoshone about 2 p.m. Thursday.

Sheriff Thomas W. Conner, who investigated, said the driver, Frank Charles Wayne, Twin Falls, reported he had had trouble keeping the front end of the truck in line that morning and he lost control as he negotiated a curve.

This is the same curve where numerous accidents have happened and a Hightfield girl was killed a few years ago.

The driver was treated for minor injuries by a local physician, then taken to Twin Falls by the sheriff.

Considerable damage resulted to the truck and masts and building materials in it were strewn along the roadway.

FAT DUECY
... son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Y. Duecy, Ketchum, has received a four-year scholarship to the University of Idaho, Moscow, under the naval reserve training corps. The scholarship amounts to approximately $6,000. He was class officer and student body representative at the Italy high school where he was graduated last month.

Expensive

BUHL, June 6 — About $600 damages resulted when Mrs. Patricia A. Netz, 26, Buhl, tried to relieve her husband's pipe as it slipped off the dashboard of the 1955 Chevrolet she was driving at 8:30 p.m. Thursday in the 700 block on Fourteenth avenue north.
The car struck a parked 1957 Plymouth owned by Ivan Coley, Buhl. There were no injuries, Buhl police reported.

Buhl Breakfast To Aid Baseball

BUHL, June 6 — Annual baseball benefit breakfast to raise funds for the youth baseball programs in the city will be held next Saturday at Eastman park.
Serving will be from 7 to 10 a.m. Proceeds will be used to finance the youth summer baseball program including the Legion Junior baseball team, Little League and Pony League. The public is invited.

Members of the youth baseball committee making arrangements are Frank Gleason, Dick White, James Harris, Pat Hamilton, Olin Smith, Edward Peterson, Dwane Machacek and Denny Patrick.

Delegate Named

SHOSHONE, June 6 — Kip Mills, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Mills, north Shoshone, was selected as Lincoln county delegate to the youth conservation camp on Lake Pend Oreille near Coeur d'Alene this summer.
First alternate is Robert Dalne, with Ronald Knowles, second, and David Conner, third.

QUADRANGLE COASTS TO BELMONT WIN

Northern Dancer Left Behind in Triple Crown Bid

NEW YORK, June 6 (AP)—Quadrangle, a strapping bay colt from Paul Mellon's Rokeby stables, spoiled Northern Dancer's bid for the triple crown Saturday when he won the 96th running of the $164,600 Belmont stakes by two lengths at Aqueduct.

Winner of the Kentucky derby and Preakness, and the odds-on choice of the record Belmont stakes crowd of 51,215 had to settle for third place as Roman Brother, the mighty mile from Louis Wolfson's Harbor View Farm came up for second place, four lengths in front of the Canadian-bred Northern Dancer.

Yeaza Felt He Could Win at Quarter Post

NEW YORK, June 6 (AP)—Maurice Yeaza, who ruled Northern Dancer's bid for horse racing's triple crown by riding Quadrangle to a surprise victory in the Belmont stakes Saturday, knew he was home with one-quarter of a mile to go.

"This was the most relaxed this I ever had," said the Billie Panamanian jockey who picked up more than $11,000 in 2:28 1/5 for his share of the purse. "I never worried for one minute until I saw Northern Dancer coming fast on the outside and running three-quarters of a mile to go."

Two Redleg Hurlers Stop Cardinals 3-0

CINCINNATI, June 6 (AP)—John Taitouris and Sammy Ellis combined on a five-hitter tonight as Cincinnati blanked St. Louis 3-0, two of the runs scoring on Jerry Bush's error in the first inning.

Taitouris left the game in the eighth when his arm tightened after rain forced a 23-minute delay. Ellis retired the Cardinals on two hits in the final two innings.

The Reds scored all of their runs in the first of Ray Washburn who pitched a four-hitter.

Yanks Edge Angels 2-0 In 15 Innings

LOS ANGELES, June 6 (AP)—Eliot Howard's two-out, two-run double in the 15th inning carried the New York Yankees to a 2-0 triumph over the Los Angeles Angels tonight despite a brilliant pitching performance by the Angels' Dean Chance.

The Yankees, ending the Angel winning streak at four games, didn't get a hit off Chance until the seventh inning and made only three before he was removed for a pinch-hitter in the 14th.

Gonzaga Back Joins Vandals

SPokane, June 6 (AP)—Dennis McCann, all-city back on Gonzaga prep's unbeaten football team last season, has accepted an athletic grant to the University of Idaho, coach Dee G. Andrews said today.

"McCann, a 6-foot, 1-inch, 165-pound ace, was also named to the city baseball squad."

"We are happy that Dennis chose to come to Idaho," Andrews said. "I know that he will be a definite asset to our freshman team and to our athletic program as a whole. We have been very pleased with the caliber of Spokane prep football players we now have on our squad and I know that Dennis will follow this pattern."

Idaho Frosh to Meet Four Teams

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, June 6—The Idaho frosh will play a four-game football season this fall, director of athletics J. N. (Skip) Stahley said today.

The frosh will meet traditional rivals Washington and Washington State, New additions to the state will be Boise Junior College in Boise on Oct. 17, and Montana in Missoula on Oct. 31. Schedule: Oct. 17, Boise Junior college at Boise, 8:15 p.m.; Oct. 23, Washington at Moscow, 1:30 p.m.; Oct. 31, Montana at Missoula, 1:30 p.m., and Nov. 6, Washington State at Pullman, 1:30 p.m.

British Tennis Star Sidelined

LONDON, June 6 (AP)—Christie Truman withdrew from the British Wightman cup tennis team Saturday because of an injury and American hopes for victory soared again.

SPORTS

U.S. Distance Runners Prove Themselves to Be World Class

COMPTON, Calif., June 6 (AP)—American runners have served notice on the world—Russia in particular—that they pose a solid threat in the distance events in coming international competition.

No fewer than eight speedsters bettered the once famed four-minute mile in the Compton Invitational track meet Friday night.

Leading them was Deyrol Burleson of Oregon, who outdid Chicago's young Tom O'Hara in the gun lap. Burleson's time was 3:57.4, O'Hara's 3:57.6.

And in the 5,000-meter run the winner was fast developing Bob Schul of Miami University of Ohio whose 13:38.6 set an American record.

Slender Jeff Fishback of Santa Clara Youth Village bettered the American runner's record in the 3,000-meter steeplechase with a clocking of 8:32.

Second in 8:34.8 was George Young, of Phoenix, Ariz., who with Fishback broke the citizen's mark Young set in the U.S. U.S.B.R. meet in Moscow in 1961 at 8:38.8.

Bethel who ran the last lap in 54 seconds to Hallie's 58, said he was running to win, not for a record. But, noting the Kutsu world mark, Bethel declared: "Next time I'll go after the clock."

Hallie, concluding his American visit, said he will drop out of training until he resumes preparations for the Olympic Games in Tokyo.

He also rated Don Meyers of Boulder, Colo., as a potential 17-foot vaulter.

"But no matter what they do in the gold medal in Tokyo," said Bethel Saturday when told of Hansen's achievement.

Hansen was quick to praise the fiberglass pole.

"It's progress," he said. "I doesn't throw you over the bar like a lot of people think. Vaulting is much more technical now. It will get better, too."

Hansen, 23, son of a Cuero, Tex., turkey raiser, gave a light rain that fell on Japponen stadium some of the credit for his history-making leap.

"Conditions were ideal," he said. "The rain cooled things off and there was no wind at all to bother us."

Hansen, a 168-pound 6-footer, barely missed clearing 17 feet, 3 1/2 inches later. He was over at that height on his final try but knocked off the bar on his way down.

But he remained confident after the effort.

"I thought I could have made 17-4," he said. "I know I can make 17-4 or even 17-6."

Two Redleg Hurlers Stop Cardinals 3-0

CINCINNATI, June 6 (AP)—John Taitouris and Sammy Ellis combined on a five-hitter tonight as Cincinnati blanked St. Louis 3-0, two of the runs scoring on Jerry Bush's error in the first inning.

Taitouris left the game in the eighth when his arm tightened after rain forced a 23-minute delay. Ellis retired the Cardinals on two hits in the final two innings.

The Reds scored all of their runs in the first of Ray Washburn who pitched a four-hitter.

Yanks Edge Angels 2-0 In 15 Innings

LOS ANGELES, June 6 (AP)—Eliot Howard's two-out, two-run double in the 15th inning carried the New York Yankees to a 2-0 triumph over the Los Angeles Angels tonight despite a brilliant pitching performance by the Angels' Dean Chance.

The Yankees, ending the Angel winning streak at four games, didn't get a hit off Chance until the seventh inning and made only three before he was removed for a pinch-hitter in the 14th.

Gonzaga Back Joins Vandals

SPokane, June 6 (AP)—Dennis McCann, all-city back on Gonzaga prep's unbeaten football team last season, has accepted an athletic grant to the University of Idaho, coach Dee G. Andrews said today.

"McCann, a 6-foot, 1-inch, 165-pound ace, was also named to the city baseball squad."

"We are happy that Dennis chose to come to Idaho," Andrews said. "I know that he will be a definite asset to our freshman team and to our athletic program as a whole. We have been very pleased with the caliber of Spokane prep football players we now have on our squad and I know that Dennis will follow this pattern."

Idaho Frosh to Meet Four Teams

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, June 6—The Idaho frosh will play a four-game football season this fall, director of athletics J. N. (Skip) Stahley said today.

The frosh will meet traditional rivals Washington and Washington State, New additions to the state will be Boise Junior College in Boise on Oct. 17, and Montana in Missoula on Oct. 31. Schedule: Oct. 17, Boise Junior college at Boise, 8:15 p.m.; Oct. 23, Washington at Moscow, 1:30 p.m.; Oct. 31, Montana at Missoula, 1:30 p.m., and Nov. 6, Washington State at Pullman, 1:30 p.m.

LONDON, June 6 (AP)—Christie Truman withdrew from the British Wightman cup tennis team Saturday because of an injury and American hopes for victory soared again.

Vaulter Isn't Satisfied With 17-Foot Record

HOUSTON, June 6 (AP)—Confident Fred Hansen predicted today he could vault 17 and one-half feet. The Rice university graduate student said his fiberglass pole is a height of 17 feet, 1 inch but might, higher than any other man. Hansen's effort came at a U.S. Track and Field-Federation district championship. It was a quarter of an inch higher than the pending world record set by John Pennel of Northeast Louisiana State last year.

And Pennel, the only other vaulter to hit 17 feet, did it with one of Hansen's fiberglass poles. Hansen "borrowed" one of Hansen's poles and set his mark. He liked the pole so well he still has it.

"In fact, he still owes the U.S. athletic department a pole," Hansen said.

Pennel competed Friday night at the Compton, Calif., relay. He sat on the sidelines while others attempted to get over 15 feet, 6 inches, then asked all three of his own tries at that height. He has been plagued since mid-winter with injuries.

Pennel and Hansen both competed at the Modesto, Calif., relay two weeks ago and the Florida native then predicted that Hansen would clear 17 feet in the near future.

He also rated Don Meyers of Boulder, Colo., as a potential 17-foot vaulter.

"But no matter what they do in the gold medal in Tokyo," said Bethel Saturday when told of Hansen's achievement.

COWBOYS TO BEGIN TRAINING WEDNESDAY

Ex-M.V. Pilot, Dick Wilson, to Be Instructor

A total of 19 prospects and three instructors will officially open the 1964 Magic Valley Cowboy spring baseball camp Wednesday morning at Jaycee park, announces general manager Warren E. (Hon) Jewell. The training camp, which might include three local young men, will continue through June 20 with the Cowboys opening the Pioneer league season at Idaho Falls June 21. They will return for their first home game June 23.

Sports FROM ALL ANGLES

By LARRY HOVEY

"Claver's Lagoon," a man-made lagoon situated on the Maynard fish hatchery property, is one of Magic Valley's favorite fishing spots. It should be. It is heavily planted and you can drive into a convenient parking lot.

It makes for a nice family fishing spot. Mom, Dad and all the kids—don't forget grandma—can get to it. The idea of the lagoon is fine. It provides a good spot for youngsters and older but the fishermen are making somewhat a travesty of it.

Now a lot of people don't like the idea of healthy, able-bodied fishermen getting these "catchables" so easily especially since there are mountains to climb, rickety old bridges to cross and other fishermen to fight in the lagoon. They have been freed a few weeks and now are "native."

The lagoon actually was better planted for opening day than some of the reservoirs around the state. Not on purpose, but the manager to point out, but because the seine was not adequate to let the department extract some fish put in the lagoon as a fishing pen.

That the lagoon ranks some of the state and game department personnel was illustrated at a luncheon with district fish biologist Stacy Gebhardt and state fisheries supervisor Jim Simpson.

"It can't be going to work here to give them (the fishermen) plastic sacks and clean the fish for them," chuckled Gebhardt.

Simpson never looked up. "We already are getting some static about it," he said.

In the field with a fish and game department man shows their life is no bed of roses. It's not the long hours, walking, cold and other things that earn them our sympathy. It's the constant threat of the repeated cliché and cracks they have to endure in performing their duties.

A check showed basically four kinds of fishermen.

The successful fisherman greets the game warden or what he calls a deputy as his companion. "Golly, Joe, I told you we shoulda bought licenses!" This one always gets a laugh—but next time you try it see if that smile the department man gives for your antics doesn't look more caused by gas or pain than humor.

Then there's the unsuccessful fisherman. He never lets on that he's aware a warden is within 50 miles and is usually watching the ripples in the water when the warden makes the opening statement. "Sure wish you guys would plant some fish around here," he counters sullenly. "I can remember when this stream used to be good. Whatlady, using with all that money up there in Boise?"

Surprisingly the most prevalent type of fisherman actually is one painting to show off. (A) His catch and (B) his fishing license. People actually drop their rods and reels and come at a quick trot toward a department official to show off that license. And it seems the need for such exhibitionism goes somewhat beyond that of cooperation. It's just something they have to do.

In a long day there usually are one or two of the real bubble-popping, meat-hunting, tall-tale seeking fishermen that enter a warden's life. We were privileged to have one such last week-end. "Boy, sure lot of people out for the opening," big smile, forced enthusiasm. "Sure bet you guys are humping it today, huh?" A replying nod.

"I'm fishing a little muddy today around here. Are they about the same all over? Haven't seen many fish—none of any size. Saw one guy with a trout that might go two or three pounds."

Runs Third

STANFORD, Calif., June 6 (AP)—John Briggs, Idaho State, won the 100-meter dash at third in the Pacific association AAU track meet today in the 100-meter dash.

Briggs was timed in 10.8 in finishing a yard behind Steve Woodall, who was timed in 11.2.

John Briggs, Bill Herman, and John State. They were caught in 10.7.

Borah Ace to Enroll at Idaho

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, June 6 (AP)—Bob Batterfield, the "brains" of Borah high school's cage squad last winter will enroll in the University of Idaho this fall. Coach Jim Goddard said today.

Batterfield, son of the Idaho school's basketball coach Murray Batterfield, led the Lions into the state tournament. He is 5'11, 140 pounds and weighs 100 pounds.

Do you know where anything like that might be found in this creek?"

The warden gives the man a brief rundown on the stream, pointing to show off (A) his catch and (B) his fishing license. People actually drop their rods and reels and come at a quick trot toward a department official to show off that license. And it seems the need for such exhibitionism goes somewhat beyond that of cooperation. It's just something they have to do.

3 Top Cagers Accept Grants

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, June 6 (AP)—Three of the Idaho Empire's top prep basketball players have accepted athletic grants to the University of Idaho, coach Jim Goddard said today.

Rick Day, who poured in 400 points for the 25-point game average at Rosalia, will join the Vandals from this fall. He was the top scorer in the state and a unanimous choice for all state class B honors in the Washington tournament. He averaged 30.7 points per game in the tournament. Day is 6 feet, 4 inches.

Two of the top scorers in Spokane will also add the silver and gold this fall. Craig Johnson from Blaine Park, a 6 foot, 3 inch all-city pick, and Charlie Smith from University will enroll at Idaho this fall. Johnson is also a basketball player and Smith is the top high jumper in Spokane.

Bowman and Fowler Pace Track Meet

Bruce Bowman clipped off a 2:07.2 half-mile and Kenneth Fowler paced the 440-yard dash in 5:45 and Terry Dodds picked up two firsts, winning the mile in 5:03 and the two-mile in 11:18.1.

In the field events, Fowler paced the 120-yard dash in 45.5 while Simonson's George Trinkle put the shot 40 feet, 3 inches. Bob McClusky won the high jump at 5 feet, 10 inches.

Fowler was the big ribbon taker of the day as he ran in everything from the 100-yard dash through the two-mile. The class B state half-mile champion, Fowler was dead last in his specialty. Of course, the 440-yard dash was the last event of the day and he came immediately after the two-mile run.

Running event summaries:

100-yard dash: Aleta Taylor and Ken Holman, 12.5.

200-yard dash: Ken Holman, 25.5.

400-yard dash: Ken Holman, 51.5.

800-yard dash: Ken Holman, 1:03.5.

1600-yard dash: Ken Holman, 2:11.5.

3200-yard dash: Ken Holman, 4:24.5.

6400-yard dash: Ken Holman, 8:38.5.

12800-yard dash: Ken Holman, 16:52.5.

25600-yard dash: Ken Holman, 33:45.5.

51200-yard dash: Ken Holman, 67:30.5.

102400-yard dash: Ken Holman, 134:45.5.

204800-yard dash: Ken Holman, 269:30.5.

Twin Falls Legion Team Will Host Nationally-Rated Billings

The best in American Legion junior baseball will go on display at Jaycee park Tuesday night when the Yellowstone post of Billings meets the Twin Falls club in a nine-inning game. Billings, which has won 11 straight Montana State League titles and advanced to the national finals last year, will make Twin Falls only one of its 10 stopping points on a 12-day, four-state tour. Game time is 8 p.m. and tickets are available from any of the team members or at the box office Tuesday night.

L.A. Benches Top Hitters, Belts Mets

NEW YORK, June 6 (AP)—Tommy Davis and Frank Howard were benched today and the Los Angeles Dodgers in a 2-1 victory over the New York Mets.

Wally Moon, who played right field in the fourth and scored on John Roseboro's double, Parkers also singled in the sixth, starting another three-run burst that knocked out loser Jack Pinfield.

Twins 2-1 to Lead League

ST. PAUL, MINN., June 6 (AP)—Steve Barber and Stu Miller combined for a five-hit performance as the Minnesota Twins 2-1 today and regained the American league lead.

Miller came on in the eighth with one out after Zolo Verasalles singled and Barber gave up his fourth walk to Rich Rollins, then went 3-0 to Tony Oliva. Miller completed the walk to Oliva but then Bob Allison hit into an inning-ending double play.

Orioles Edge

Until the eighth, the only hard blow against Barber was Allison's 12th homer in the fourth inning.

Barber pitched a 7 1/3-inning effort, allowing only one run, two hits and two walks.

Two Golfers Hurt In Cart Mishap

GREEN BAY, Wis., June 6 (AP)—Two of Wisconsin's leading amateur golfers are hospitalized with injuries suffered Friday when an electric golf cart overturned at the base of a 25-foot incline.

Ray Massey and Frank Cornelison, high ranking seniors, are expected to be in the hospital about a week. They were riding the cart when it rolled down the incline at the Onida Club and Riding Club. Massey was struck by the cart and suffered a cut and facial lacerations. Two of Cornelison's ribs were fractured.

Lema Has Second Eagle, Increases Tourney Lead

RYE, N.Y., June 6 (AP)—Champagne Tony Lema pulled off another dramatic eagle in the clutch for a two-under-par 70 today and increased his lead to three strokes through the third round of the $100,000 Third derbird golf classic. He had a 64-hole score of 205, 11 under par. Just when pursuers were breathing hotly down his neck the slender stylist from San Leandro, Calif., rolled in a 20-foot eagle putt on the ninth hole, and the pressure was off.

Boston Uses Homeruns to Defeat A's

KANSAS CITY, June 6 (AP)—Homeruns by Tony Conigliaro, Dick Stuart and Lee Thomas in the first two innings powered the Boston Red Sox past Kansas City 8-6 today.

Conigliaro smashed his eighth homerun following Chuck Schilling's leadoff walk in Boston's first inning. After one out, Stuart connected for his 11th homer. He also singled in a run in Boston's three-run second and scored on Thomas' fourth homer.

Miami Grid Team Loses Best Players

MIAMI, June 6 (AP)—Coach Charles Tate said today the Miami football team has been drastically weakened as its strongest positions by an honor council request that six players withdraw from the school.

"We lost four boys who had counted on heavily including two first-string linemen," Tate said. "We were hit where we thought we were the strongest."

"I would say that our strength has been reduced 20 per cent."

The players were not named, under a policy of the honor council not to identify students involved in disciplinary action.

Dr. Henry Kling Stanford, the university president, ordered Tate not to disclose the names.

Eleven students in all were charged before the council with violations of the honor code, apparently for cribbing on final exams. Two were excoriated and the others were asked to leave the school. They would be eligible to apply for readmission next week.

"We didn't have much depth," said Tate, a former Georgia Tech assistant hired in December to succeed Andy Gustafson, who became full-time athletic director.

"That's where we got hurt in depth. We got injuries in key spots where these boys played and we set-down-to-players-who are really inferior."

Braves Rally In Ninth to Whip Cubs

MILWAUKEE, June 6 (AP)—Leo Maye singled a two-run single with two out in the ninth inning today, boosting Milwaukee to a 6-5 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

The Braves' rally nullified a four-run explosion in the seventh that put the Cubs ahead 5-4.

Chicago reliever Low Burdette, acquired from St. Louis earlier this week and a former Brave, walked his first two Milwaukee batters in the ninth before Mike de la Hoz singled.

Lindy McDaniel replaced Burdette and Rico Carty beat out an infield hit, moving pinch runner Woody Woodson to second. Both runners advanced on a wild pitch before Maye singled.

Grider said the date is set in the association's constitution and an amendment would be necessary before a change could be made. He said an amendment will also be necessary before the board can grant personal schools full membership in the association.

The board adopted a regulation requiring that the 440-yard run, 440 relay, 220-yard run, the 440 leg of the medley relay and the first leg of the mile relay be run in lanes and around curves. Grider said compliance with the regulation will be mandatory in the district, regional and state meets and that member schools

Braves Rally In Ninth to Whip Cubs

MILWAUKEE, June 6 (AP)—Leo Maye singled a two-run single with two out in the ninth inning today, boosting Milwaukee to a 6-5 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

The Braves' rally nullified a four-run explosion in the seventh that put the Cubs ahead 5-4.

Chicago reliever Low Burdette, acquired from St. Louis earlier this week and a former Brave, walked his first two Milwaukee batters in the ninth before Mike de la Hoz singled.

Lindy McDaniel replaced Burdette and Rico Carty beat out an infield hit, moving pinch runner Woody Woodson to second. Both runners advanced on a wild pitch before Maye singled.

McHale Gripes At Beer Guzzling

MILWAUKEE, June 6 (AP)—John McHale, Milwaukee Braves president and general manager, griped today that too much beer has produced too much rowdiness at Braves games. "It's something to be concerned about," McHale said, and he called for the Braves, police and courts to "continue to be tough" on tipsy, quarrelling fans.

Rookie Bats Indians Past Senators 6-4

CLEVELAND, June 6 (AP)—Rookie Ichu Chance belted a homer, double and two-run single today in backing the Cleveland Indians to a 6-4 victory over the Washington Senators.

Southpaw Jack Krallack won his sixth of seven decisions and ran his scoreless inning string to 16 innings, but failed to finish. He was tagged for Chuck Collier's homer in the eighth and four straight hits in the ninth before giving his to Don McMahon.

Thompson Sets Dash Record

BALTIMORE, June 6 (AP)—Doris Thompson, 16-year-old track star from Frederick, Md., bettered the listed women's world record for the 100-yard dash today, running the distance in 10.3 seconds.

The high school junior was clocked in 10.1, 10.2 and 10.3 by three timers. She finished about nine yards ahead of Tammy Davis, her teammate on the Frederick Track and Field club.

The listed world record of the distance is 10.3 seconds set by Marlene Mathews, Australian, in Sydney on March 20, 1958.

There was a "highly visible" wind during the junior Olympic track meet in Clifton park, but there was immediate doubt as to whether the mark would be accepted as official because no meter was available to clock the wind velocity.

Sprawling Desert Waste Snaps to Life as Guard Members Fire Big Guns

By O. A. (Gus) KELKEL
Times-News Feature Editor

GOWEN FIRING RANGE

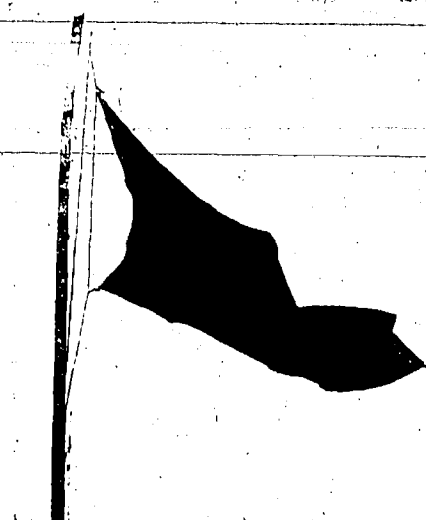

June 6—Sweat, dust, rain, wind and the smell of expended gunpowder and TNT—all are a part of life for Idaho's citizen soldiers, members of the 110th armored cavalry regiment on maneuvers. The sprawling desert waste, which seems to stretch on forever southward, crisscrossed by hundreds of roads which lead nowhere, is site for firing tests and field maneuvers which will extend to the end of next week. Practice sessions in firing and field problems ended late this week while participants took another deep breath in preparation for field maneuvers getting under way Monday.

During these maneuvers the men and officers live under simulated battle conditions day and night for at least four days. Then, on June 13, they are scheduled to return home and the sometimes uninteresting events of everyday living.

Between now and then they will know they have been somewhere and that they have learned something about the art of survival.

More than 1,500 men are engaged in the maneuvers, now half completed. Operations base is Gowen field at Boise, but most of the men will spend most of their time in the unpredictable desert areas.

The area is unique in that it is one of the few remaining in the nation where tank gunnery, howitzer firing and mortar practice is still done.

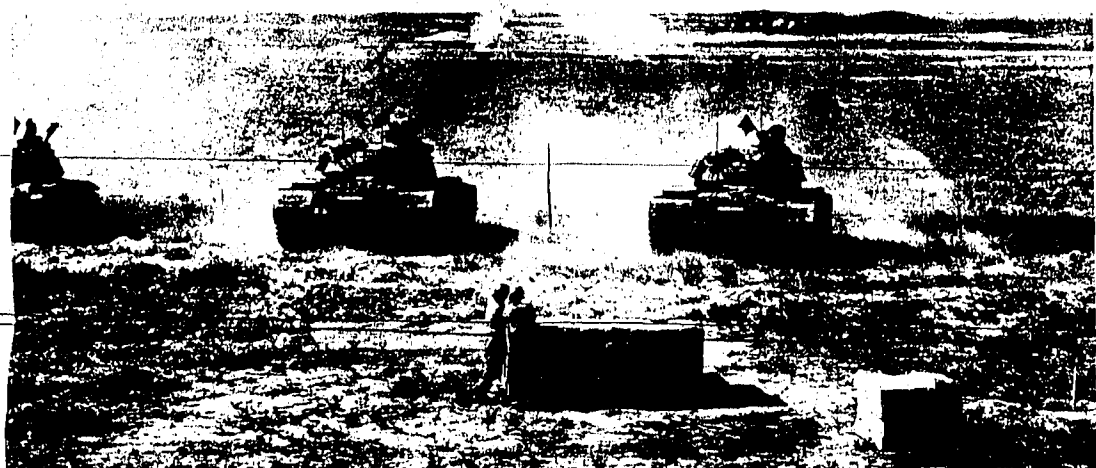

WHEN THE FLAG, a red one, flies in the desert southeast of Gowen field it means the firing range is open. Some 1,500 officers and men of the 110th armored cavalry regiment will continue maneuvers there through the end of this week. (Times-News photo)

EARTH SHAKES and shock waves, outlined in the foreground by flying dust, rush toward the photographer as a big M-48 tank lets go with a 90-millimeter shell aimed at a distant target. The heavy equipment, manned by national guardsmen from areas including Twin Falls, Burley, Rupert, Gooding, Buhl and Jerome, is playing a part in summer maneuvers under way in the desert area southeast of Gowen field, Boise. More than 1,500 officers and men, under command of Col. Edward G. Elliott, Burley, are in the field. Participants are connected with the 110th armored cavalry regiment, Idaho army national guard. (Times-News photo)

MOVING TARGETS operated by electricity are fired upon by M-41 and M-48 tanks during field maneuvers under way near Boise by members of the 110th armored regiment of the Idaho army national guard. This special range, unique in army circles, is being operated during the maneuvers by Lieut. Robert Weaver and Lieut. James Cothran, both Buhl. The picture was taken from the observation tower just as two of the tanks fired. The shells kicked up clouds of dust, background, as one scored a direct hit and the other a near miss. These moving targets are operated by as many men who are secured behind 30-foot-thick bunkers which are dug deep to prevent injury from exploding shells. (Times-News photo)

AS LONG AS TWO opponents remain, hand-to-hand combat will never be supplanted with any other type warfare. On this theory, bayonet practice is undertaken in the field while exploding shells from other operations land nearby and add to the realism. These two Burley guardsmen were snapped as they went through the paces. The "men" under attack were dummies made with gunnysacks filled with waste material. Pvt. Ben Anderson, troop G, foreground, aims his rifle butt at the "head" of the enemy while Pfc. Patrick O. Bryan, also troop G, has just rammed his bayonet through the target. (Times-News photo)

FIELD CASUALTY is displayed by Sgt. D. M. Calne, Jerome, regular army adviser for the third squadron, based in that community. The casualty, however, was not the result of action during current maneuvers. The broken little finger resulted from Calne's activities in coaching a Little league baseball team in Jerome just prior to leaving for camp. (Times-News photo)

Atlantic City Brushes up For Parley

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J., June 6 (AP)—This resort likes to call itself the "Convention Capital of the United States" and it plans to show the country it deserves that title during the Democratic convention this summer.

"It's important to us," said one official. "We've never had such an opportunity to put our best foot forward before so many people. This convention has given us the heaviest concentration of exposure we've ever had and we don't want to mess it up."

It is the first time that New Jersey ever has been selected as the site of a national political convention by either major party. With a population of only 60,000, this is the smallest city ever to be host to such a convention.

There have been bigger conventions held in this Atlantic resort city—with its famed boardwalk, hotels, motels, and eating places—since it actively began seeking conventions in an organized manner in 1900. But none of the some 15,000 held in the past—more than 500 were to be held here this year—has put the spotlight so directly on the city.

The main room of the hall, which can seat 41,000 persons, has no obstructions and is so tall that a 13-story building could be set on the floor without touching the roof. It is at Convention hall that the annual Miss America pageants are held.

In order to prevent any disease, signs of b.c.t. must be kept out of the city, and even though vaccinations for this and distemper are given each mink, occasionally it does occur.

No stray cat or dog is allowed to come into the yards because of the chance it might have distemper, which can wipe out a herd in a short time.

Like so many other things in the fashion world the fur for a particular color changes often. For several years the all-white mink was in great demand.

Now the auction companies want more black or dark mink. Prices depend on the color, the size of the pelt and the quality of the fur. Along with this, the price also follows the stock market. The pelts will average from $15 to $20 apiece.

A full length mink coat takes close to 60 male pelts. Scarves can be made from one to five pelts, while jackets take about 30 pelts.

From the last of December to March is a rest period, or sorts, for a mink rancher, when he catches up on repairs and other things that need to be done.

Meeting Slated On Grasshoppers

SHOSHONE, June 6—There will be a special meeting at 8 p.m. Wednesday at the courtroom of the courthouse to discuss the grasshopper situation in the county.

County commissioners are sponsoring the meeting. Meeting with the group will be Keith Evans, Twin Falls, of the pest control division of the bureau of entomology. All interested persons are urged to attend.

HEALTHY OUT at the ball is practiced by T. D. Loveland at Harmon park. Loveland is typical of the 1,000 or more youngsters who have signed up to play Knott's baseball during the city's summer recreation program. Baseball is only a portion of the planned program. (Times-News photo.)

Thousands of Twin Falls Youngsters Will Participate in City Recreation

Recreation is becoming big program, with Doug Schow, Larry Basterwhite, David Church, John Astorquia and Larry Hunt, recreation director, the program director. This summer will encompass more youngsters than the combined populations of Buhl and Gooding.

More than 1,000 boys will participate in Knott's baseball. About 1,600 youngsters have signed up for swimming. Almost 500 girls will participate in girls' softball. In addition, there is band, tennis, golf, summer bowling, gymnastics, tumbling and physical fitness. Just to mention a few.

The program will encompass some 6,000 youngsters. Many youngsters will be participating in several programs. It is quite possible that one boy will be enrolled in swimming, tennis and baseball. The variety of the Twin Falls program makes it possible for the youngsters to have several summer activities.

The program also provides part-time summer employment for almost 30 youngsters skilled in recreation. As the city follows a policy of making each department pay its own way, very little tax money is touched.

Browning pointed out there will be 70 Knott's baseball teams using five ball diamonds, with 12 players per team. Harry Light will be in charge of the Archery instruction will be under the director of the Ot Yv Xcwa Archery club. Joyce Halliday will direct the tap dancing and twirling classes. Dale Williams will direct the tennis and gymnastics classes. Golf will be under the direction of Clyde Thomson.

The city has six playgrounds, Harmon park, Sunrise park, Harrison park, Harry Barry park, South park and Drury park. Supervising the play will be Jerry Michner, Linda Snyder, Dee Ann Day, Terry Ashenbrenner, Marilyn Able, Terry Mc-

Alvie L. Sparks Honored at Rites

BUHL, June 5—Funeral services for Alvie Lester Sparks were conducted at 3 p.m. Thursday in the Buhl LDS chapel by President Delbert Alexander of the Caspian LDS branch.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Cox sang. Mrs. R. A. Carlson was organist. Ushers were Dudley Watson and Leo Peterson.

Gary McEwen gave the invocation; President Alexander, the cointary; Wayne Bauer, paid tribute. Roy Wing gave the benediction and Lowell Allred, the dedicatory prayer.

Pallbearers were James Deatherage, Loren Rosenkrantz, Sidney Wiggins, Clifford Sparks, Keith Schreier, Everett Butler, John Barnes and Leo Graham. Concluding rites were held in the Buhl city cemetery.

HOLDING a baby mink which is only 9 days old is lots of fun for David Burch, but in another five or six weeks the desire to play with the kitten-like animals will be gone as they will begin to exert their biting ability and will bite anything that comes within reach. When first born they are the size of a little finger and are full grown at 6 months. (Times-News photo.)

Life in MAGIC VALLEY

Raising a family of anywhere from one to 12 little ones is a common occurrence at this time of the year for the female mink that live at the James C. Burch mink ranch in OAKLEY. Beginning at the end of April and running through May tiny muffed squeaks are heard from the cozy nests of straw in the mink pens.

"When these animals are first born they are about the size of a man's little finger," Burch notes, "and they resemble baby mice with no hair and their eyes shut. This particular animal will reach full maturity within six months and is one of the fastest growing animals there is."

"For the first few weeks the little ones live entirely on their mother's milk and gradually they are fed a diet of liver, fish and chicken prepared with cereals in a strictly balanced diet."

Upon reaching the stage where they can use their sharp teeth on each other, at about six weeks old, and incidentally, can cause heavy damage to each other's pelts, the little ones are weaned from their mother and placed in cages by themselves, with a separation between each pen as a further precaution.

"The little animals are vicious and many a mink rancher has found himself with badly bitten hands. They should not even be handled with bare hands when handling the animals."

Their four snake-like fangs have been known to tear a finger completely to the bone, and a few had to be killed before they would break their grip.

March is the only time of the year that the animals will mate and it usually takes only about 42 to 72 days for the babies to begin arriving.

From that time on the job of raising mink becomes a trying one, with the animals having to be fed two to three times a day and supplied with water constant in the summer months as they will quickly die without water in extreme heat, Burch notes.

Most of the animals' life span will be only about 10 months, but not because they want it that way. When cold weather comes the fur begins to prime out and one more hair shedding will come before the end of November when the harvesting of the crop begins.

The mink are graded and must be maintained at all times judged for the next year's season and any adult that is not up to the standards will lose its head along with part of this year's kill crop.

The day after Thanksgiving usually sees a crew arriving to begin the month-long job of killing, feasting and stretching the hides.

One man will do the killing by using cyanide gas in an airtight box, skimming the hide from the carcass and freezing the skin to keep it from drying out.

At this stage the odor of this weasel-like animal usually is strong, as the animal carries a scent less similar to a skunk and occasionally a skinner has the misfortune to break one.

Then the hides are flayed or scraped clean of their animal fat and stretched on a long, narrow board to dry for about three days, at which time they are removed, sorted as to color and sex and then packaged for shipping.

These animals are carnivorous and like nothing better for dinner than a night at a neighboring chicken coop, where they do nothing more than catch a chicken, kill it—and suck—the blood out of the jugular vein, then leave it to move on to another one.

Consequently, this problem must be solved by any rancher and Burch has a four-foot-high guard fence with a slanted top around the yard, and a concrete base about four inches into the ground.

Occasionally a mink does get out, though, and usually a trained cocker spaniel will track one down and bark until Burch brings a wooden box to take the animal home.

A complete sanitary program must be maintained at all times

BUSINESS END of a mortar shell, known as a 4.2 and packing a punch deadly to exposed troops, is inspected before firing by four participating in national guard maneuvers on the desert southeast of Boise. From left are Lieut. E. L. Farrar, troop 1.

Sprawling Desert Waste Snaps to Life As Guardsmen Practice With Big Guns

 tice can be undertaken without danger of hitting someone.
 Normal live residents of this action are limited to a few rodents and some birds, which seem to disappear completely when the heavy firing gets under way.
 The regiment is commanded by Col. Edward Elliott, Burley. He and Brig. Gen. George B. Bennett, Boise, assistant to the adjutant general's staff, both are in the field. The regiment consists of three squadrons, an aviation company and a regimental headquarters troop. It is completely self-sustaining, with officers and men sleeping, eating and working in the desert area. Barracks at Cloon field are utilized for non-field maneuvers.
 Coming from all walks of life, the officers and men quickly pick up the tempo of military living in an area where civilization as they know it seems to far away.
 To get their view of the attention, and also enable the gathering of a first hand report on the maneuvers, the Times-News writer-photographer spent two days in the area.
 The trip from Twin Falls airport to a place in the desert known as Blago strip, was made by air in a "beaver," a single engine, four-place plane capable of very short field takeoffs and landings.
 It was just as well that the plane was available, because Blago strip is not more than 600 feet long and looks just about like the desert which surrounds it.
 From Blago, the jump to regimental command post, a few miles away, was by helicopter. The chopper hugged the ground en route, as part of a problem of being undetected.
 At the command post, Colonel Elliott took over the orientation task aided by Lieut. Col. T. R. Pence, Buhl, executive officer; Maj. G. K. Magaw, regimental operations training officer, Twin Falls, and Colonel Elliott.
 Sgt. D. M. Calnie, Jerome, regular army adviser for the third squadron, was assigned as Jeep driver and all points on "background" were visited and inspected during the two following days.
 Additional briefing and explanations during the inspection were provided by Maj. Larry Laubridge, Twin Falls, regimental adjutant, and Sgt. J. E. Catterson, Twin Falls, regimental personnel sergeant.

From then on it was one round of dust, noise and question asking.
 Firing at targets from 1,300 to 4,800 yards away, the big M-48 tanks sent out tremendous shock waves as the shell was hurled away. Each vehicle weighs 66,000 pounds and is manned by a crew of four—the driver, the loader, the gunner and the tank commander.
 Nearby howitzer units lobbed shells overhead which exploded in tremendous clouds of white smoke far away. Mortar firing units bracketed a hillside with 4.2 shells, 50 caliber machine gun units blazed away at targets which simulated moving men, automatic rifles sent out their steady "tat-tat" of fire, and 32 rocket launchers, held on the shoulder of the man carrying the weapon, blazed away in the distance.
 Plying in the whirlybirds and the ground-hugging L-19s being used for observation, various bird code calls could be heard through the earphones cupped over the head. The calls were for such code names as fashion study, ivory pinboy, pierced outside, heavy serum, top hat, alive lizard, baker jungle and bent ditch. All peculiar sounding names—but all picked because they were easily spoken and as easily understood.
 Element of the training activity was easily noted from the air, while far in the distance the great jet bombers housed at Mountain Home air force base field in and out practically unnoticed.

 Unlike the days of old, when opposing armies stopped to rest when the sun went down, today's men fight in light or dark. Training is the same way. Some activity was noted at all times.
 But the long night, with little sleep, proved conclusively that you forget how it is to sleep on a narrow army cot or how it is to get up before 5 o'clock in the morning.
 And you find again how it is to eat standing up. No chairs, no place to sit, just boards to hold your plates at a height providing the shortest distance between it and your mouth. And the food—no matter what it was it tasted good.
 As the hot day progressed, time for departure neared. An L-19 popped over a nearby incline and squatted down precisely at regimental headquarters.
 Goodbyes were said and the officer-pilot slammed home the throttle. Airborne and en route home, the helicopter soon faded in the distance and ahead lay the green fields which hug the Snake river.
 The pilot? He was a citizen-soldier, too. He was from Weiser and works in Ontario, Ore. His job? A railroader, and a member of the diversified team with the mission assigned of security, reconnaissance and surveillance.

 JEROME — TWIN FALLS

DISCUSSING forthcoming state posse meet are J. L. Van Orman, on horse, and Charles Andrus. A pony will be given away at the meet by the Jerome County Sheriff's posse, which will host the two-day event next week-end. (Times-News photo)

Jerome Fairgrounds Will Be Location Of Idaho State Sheriff's Posse Meet

JEROME, June 6—Next Saturday and Sunday Jerome will host the Idaho State Sheriff's Posse Meet. Members of the host posse are out to win. A lot of punting and time has gone into their preparations.

In fact, horses may outnumber people when the Idaho State Sheriff's Posse association's fifth annual drill and race gets underway at the Jerome county fairgrounds.

According to Jack Thomason, chairman, posses will be entered in the meet from Cassia, Benewah, Ada, Bligham, Canyon, Pocatello and Twin Falls counties, in addition to the host posse from Jerome county. More than 200 horses and riders will be in town June 13 and 14.

The meet will be broken down into three sections. There will be the parade and drill competition and the race competition. In order to qualify for the race competition, contestants must participate in the drill and parade.

The inspection of the posses will be held at 3:30 p.m. Saturday, with the parade scheduled to begin at 5 p.m., through Jerome and concluding at the fairgrounds. At 8 p.m. Saturday the grand entry will be held at the fairgrounds, with the drill competition to follow. Also Saturday night will be the trailer race.

During these activities the posses will be judged and scored. Each posse is required to furnish one judge, color guard and queen. Posses are penalized if they don't furnish these needed extras. No judge can judge his own posse.

In the inspection and parade sections, a grand total 100 points is possible. Up to 50 points can be given for inspection. Points are given for cleanliness of horses and equipment, grooming and matching of horses, beauty of horses, uniformity of attire, uniformity of posse and behavior of posse.

In the parade section a score of 50 points is perfection and points are awarded on horses—beauty and cleanliness; equipment—gear, harness and uniformity; horses—grooming and dressage; rider—cleanliness and uniformity; horsemanship—posture and control; matching—size, color and build; maneuvers—maintaining straight lines and spacing; behavior—talking, smoking and noise and general overall appearance.

In the drill portion of the competition a score of 100 is perfection. Posses are judged on alignment and uniformity of horses, horsemanship, timing, variety of pattern, performance of pattern, spectacularity, briskness and flag carriage.

Trophies will be awarded in the meet for the first three places in competition classes and in addition, a grand trophy will be awarded and trophies will be given for sportsmanship and hard luck.

Sunday morning there will be a chuckwagon breakfast at the fairgrounds, concluding at 10 a.m. At 1 p.m. the races start. The race events will consist of a potato race, one-eighth mile race, one-quarter mile race, flag race, baton race, three-eighths mile race, three leaf clover race, baton relay race, 10-barrel race and keyhole race.

According to Thomason, the host committee has furnished all participants copies of the rules and regulations which must be followed during the course of the meet. These rules cover everything from improper language to sportsmanship.

PLENTY OF WORK has to be done before horses are in shape for the state posse meet which will be held in Jerome next week-end. Dewey Cavin spends a lot of spare time shoeing horses and getting equipment ready for the meet. The Jerome posse will host the meet. (Times-News photo)

Former Resident Receives Honor

Jeffrey F. Harrington, former Twin Falls resident now residing in Cranston, R.I., has been awarded the coveted degree of Chevalier for outstanding work in the DeMolay order and in the community, according to word received here.

In the United States not more than 100 youths are selected each year for this honorary award. Harrington's award was granted with approval of the advisory council of the order and was presented to him at a reception held in his honor.

The youth, together with his mother, Mrs. Jean Harrington, and a younger brother, Edwin, resided in Twin Falls at the time his father, Gene, was killed in Korea. They were residing with the father's mother, Mrs. Flo Harrington, at the time of his death in the service. Together with his mother and brother, he moved to Cranston, where the family could be close to his mother's relatives. Mrs. Flo Harrington still resides in Twin Falls at 643 Second avenue west.

Put on Probation

Donald E. Hardin, 27, Buhl, was placed on one-year probation by Eleventh District Judge Theron Ward Friday for issuing a check without funds to the bank.

Hardin was convicted of issuing a $30.05 check to the Snake River Auction company on March 23.

Abundance of Water Is Responsible For Increase in Gem State Boating

BY JIM HUMBERD
 Idaho fish-game department BOISE, June 8 — Idaho has the most abundant supply of fresh, clear water for recreational use in the Intermountain states. It is largely the responsibility of about 22,500 numbered boat owners and their passengers to preserve the safety of all water users in order to prevent restrictive regulations.

Carburetors on all engines of motorboats, other than outboards, shall be fitted with a U. S. coast guard approved device for arresting backfire. Although lights are required to be displayed only at night, most people use their craft after dark sooner or later, so it's wise to get the proper lights — for safety's sake as well as to remain within the law.

Nothing is said in the regulations about an anchor, a compass or other boating gear, but common sense dictates that equipment should be aboard which may be vital in unexpected circumstances. The following equipment is recommended, as well as the know-how to use it.

No boat, regardless of size, should be without extra line, a paddle, a small anchor and a tool kit. Other recommended items are a compass, flashlight, gas can, life pump, first aid kit, distress flare and extra shore pins.

One of the greatest boating fatalities in that storm hit without warning — heavy weather sometimes overtakes the unwary suddenly, whipping a calm surface into huge white caps, but storms always send advance warning to the seasoned boater. Some of the surest omens of oncoming weather changes are cloud formations.

Especially dangerous are the cumulonimbus with a high vertical development. The first signs will appear on the horizon from the west, southwest or northwest. It will be a high cloud formation with a dirty bottom that has a tall, thin and stringy cirrus anvil top. This type of storm may be light or very severe. The wise boatman must always expect the worst and prepare accordingly. If a storm is on the way, head for a protected area promptly.

If a storm or equal blows up, here are recommendations from the experts.

Head into the waves at an angle; reduce speed; seat passengers on the bottom of the boat, keeping them as close to the center-line as possible; and make for the nearest shelter on shore.

In the event of motor failure or failure to make headway against the waves, trail an anchor from the bow to keep the boat headed into the waves. Remember, a boat and motor are the best fish-pickers in the world. A boat goes where they're billing, covering the most water in the shortest time.

Idaho has an abundance of rivers and reservoirs that provide excellent boat fishing. For the best in boat fishing, follow these simple safety rules.

For an added measure of safety, cast overhead, not sideward; remain seated while casting and be sure of the positions of "others," especially on bank casting; keep a lookout on the water and traffic ahead while trolling; net fish with a firm, quick sweep, without disturbing the boat's balance.

An article such as this is no place to talk about drowning. But, then, where is a good place? And such talk is necessary because several times as many sportsmen are drowned every year in Idaho than are hunting fatalities.

The following four points outlining the technique for mouth-to-mouth rescue breathing are quoted from Denney's new booklet with the suggestion that they be clipped separately from the article and carried in wallet or other convenient place:

Place one hand under victim's neck and lift. Tilt head back as far as possible by holding the crown of the head with your other hand.

Pull chin upward until the head is tilted back fully. This is essential for keeping the air passage open.

Place mouth tightly over victim's. Pinch nostrils shut. Breathe hard to make chest rise. For very young children, cover nose and mouth tightly with your mouth.

Remove mouth. Listen for returning air. If you don't hear it, recheck head position. Repeat breathing, removing mouth each time for escape of air.

For an adult, breathe vigorously about 12 times a minute. For a small child, take relatively short breaths, about 20 per minute. All of this is common sense but bears repeating. Learn as much as possible about your boat, the water on which it operates and the weather which affects it. Respect the wind and water.

Learn your boat's capabilities, what you can and can't expect it to do — and always keep them in mind when you're on the water.

Norman Thomas Ought to Know

"The principle behind public power is socialistic and it is rather childish to deny it."

The quotation is from Norman Thomas, long-time leader of the Socialist party, its leading spokesman and many-time presidential candidate of that party. He ought to know whereof he speaks.

Americans have repeatedly rejected socialism — by that name. Even proponents of public power tend to rise in wrath to deny the name. They prefer to sugar-coat it in numerous ways.

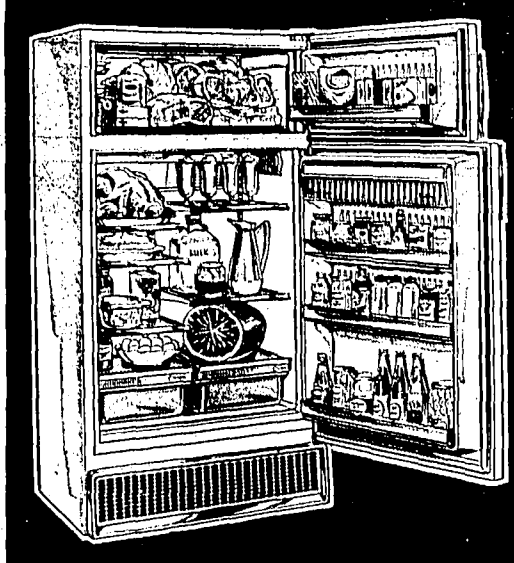

If the path of America is to be socialism — let it be identified by its true colors. Too often now it masquerades as something respectable.

MAGIC VALLEY PORTRAIT . . .

Mrs. T.S. Nicholson, Filer Artist, Retires After 20 Years in Club Post

FILER, June 6—Mrs. T. S. Nicholson, well known local artist, is retiring from her position as state chairman of the fine arts division of the Idaho Federation of Women's Clubs, after serving more than 20 years as either state or district chairman.

MRS. T. S. NICHOLSON

This does not mean she is giving up art, which to her is a part of life. Rather, she hopes to gain more time to work in her home studio where she paints both oil and water color paintings and also does china painting.

Mrs. Nicholson was district chairman of the fine arts committee in 1945 when Idaho Federated clubs first adopted the "Pennies for Art Fund" project. The 20th Century club of Twin Falls was the first federated club in Idaho to take over this project which now receives support from all the clubs in the state.

The art fund project was first used in Idaho to circulate an art exhibit of advanced works of artists from University of Idaho Moscow, and Idaho State college, Pocatello. The paintings were sent throughout the state to be exhibited by the clubs.

The next year funds were used to purchase an oil painting of a scene in Stanley basin which was presented to the State Tuberculosis hospital, Gooding.

The third year "Pennies for Art" purchased slide projectors and screens to be placed in the Boise Children's home and the Children's home at Lewiston.

The clubs adopted the Idaho Art schools contests the next year and has sponsored them each year, since. Each school child in the state has a chance to participate in the local club contests. Winning entries are sent first to the district, then to the state.

Prizes for each of the contests are furnished by the Idaho Federation of Women's Clubs, which earmarks money for this purpose. For a number of years, the clubs also have conducted poetry contests in which prizes are given, as in the art contests. The federated clubs also help sponsor the international mark Art contest, which each year offers three scholarships to high school students in the United States. Two years ago an Idaho girl was recipient of one of the scholarships, Mrs. Nicholson states.

During the more than 20 years in which she has served actively as a state or district chairman of the fine arts committee, she has seen the "Pennies for Art Fund" projects grow into very worthwhile phases of club work and she feels that has been justified.

The art chairman is responsible for getting the contest rules and blanks to all the schools. Most clubs conduct their own local contests, but the art chairman must exhibit all the winners at the district contest and again at the state. She must select judges, award the ribbons, see that the checks are made out and sent to the winners, and also see that all entries are returned to their owners.

Each year the entries are outstanding, Mrs. Nicholson noted. Entries are taken of the winning art entries at the state contest and these are sent to the various clubs throughout the year to be exhibited at club meetings.

Mrs. Nicholson is a member of the Magic Valley Art guild and of the Idaho Art association. She also belongs to the 20th Century club, Twin Falls, Filer Women's club and Filer Garden club.

The artist has exhibited her paintings at the Magic Valley Art association's exhibit at the Twin Falls county fair each year and this fall she plans to exhibit at the state art convention in Boise.

Most of her paintings, both oil and water colors, are from nature studies. Among her later paintings is a water color of a flowering cactus which she painted last winter when the couple spent several months in Arizona.

Mrs. Nicholson also does a great deal of china painting and taught classes in this art for a number of years. Her home studio is complete with kiln and she receives many orders for painted china. She has painted full sets of china in services for eight for both her son and daughter.

The artist studied art at the university in Dayton, O., from which she was graduated. After her graduation, she studied at the Art auditorium in Chicago and later worked at the Dennison painting studio in Elgin.

The Nicholsons were married in the Methodist church near Dayton in 1911 and came to Idaho that same year. They lived in Twin Falls for three years, after which they moved to their present farm home north of Filer.

They have a daughter, Mrs. Lynette Engle, who teaches in the Victory school, and a son, Sidney Jay Nicholson, who is an attorney in Florence, Ore. They have four grandchildren and one great-grandchild. They celebrated their golden wedding anniversary with an open house at their home in 1961. They are members of the Filer Methodist church.

Nicholson, a retired farmer, is an ardent fisherman and likes nothing better than fishing in the Idaho streams and rivers.

Both of the Nicholsons enjoy working in their large lawn and garden, both of which are beautifully landscaped. Mrs. Nicholson's artistry also extends to the art of flower arranging and her rooms always hold a number of lovely arrangements.

4-H Girls Visit Packing Plant

A tour of the Independent Meat Packing plant was taken by members of the Happy-Goin' Lucky 4-H club Wednesday.

The meeting was held at the home of Beth Britt. The Meg salute was led by Susan Yurk and the 4-H pledge by Ginny Mingo. Sewing project books were distributed and summer meeting dates discussed.

Officers elected are Miss Mingo, president; Sylvia Briggs, vice president; Miss Britt, secretary; Miss Yurk, treasurer; Genell Howe, reporter; Carolyn Chellie, speaker leader; Tracy Peterson, song leader; and Edward Britt, recreation director.

Mrs. Marvin Oster was featured speaker. She spoke on patterns and proper materials for the various projects.

The next meeting will be held Wednesday at the home of Miss Britt.

Burley Slates Blood Drawing

BURLEY, June 6—The bloodmobile will be at the Burley Elks hall from 2 to 6 p.m. Monday with a quota of 150 pints, announced Mrs. Adelle Toeva, Cassia county bloodmobile chairman.

In the last four months Cassia county residents have used 192 pints of blood. A total of 88 pints has been used at Cassia Memorial hospital and 16 pints in other hospitals or areas that are supporting the Red Cross blood program may replace the blood they used at the drawing Monday in Burley.

Those receiving the gamma globulin and whole-blood transfusion are responsible for getting blood donors to repay the blood they have used. According to past records there is more blood used during June, July and August than any other three-month period during the year.

Exchange Student From Paraguay to Leave Buhl

June 6—Mario Campos, foreign exchange student who has been attending Buhl high school since he was 15, will be returning to his native home, Paraguay, in a few short weeks. Campos, who is a better understanding of what Americans are like, and to return here in the future.

MARIO CAMPOS

Campos' impression of the land of luxury was projected through American movies shown in his home town of approximately 90 people. Through the movies he learned that the United States had many vast cities, there were many cars, and that the United States had many farms.

Summer Fun Program at Hailey Starts

HAILEY, June 6 — The baseball field at the school playground was swarmed with 6- to 14-year-olds Friday as the summer recreation program was launched.

Being a city boy, the youth found farm life unique and a new experience. He has made his home with the Frank Clute family, southeast of Buhl, during his stay here and has enjoyed the opportunity to run a tractor and work with the chores.

Gunmen Are Menace to Airlines

WASHINGTON, May 16 (AP) — If there is any foolproof way to prevent armed gunmen from shooting up an airplane, the government and the airlines would like to know about it.

Campos notes students in Paraguay attend school on a nine-month, one-half day basis. There are no extra-curricular activities nor sports of any kind.

The FAA is a public accounting business. Campos upon his return home, plans to enter college and also pursue a career in public accounting.

HAILEY, June 6 — Mine county youths attending Olive Grove school in Hailey, Idaho, will take with him many fond memories. He will leave Buhl around June 21, for the United States with other students.

—A locked cockpit door is potentially dangerous in event the crew has to evacuate a plane in flight. A few seconds delay could mean the difference between life and death for a pilot.

SAY UNCLE AMOS, I READ A STORY ABOUT A GUY ORDERING A MOUNTAIN TO COME TO HIM—WHEN IT WOULDN'T, HE WENT TO THE MOUNTAIN! WHAT'S THAT SUPPOSED TO MEAN?

HEH, HEH! JUST A SIMPLE PABLE, LADY! I'M SURE WE SHOULD DO WHAT'S POSSIBLE, RATHER THAN EXPECTING THE IMPOSSIBLE!

JOVE, THAT'S THE ANSWER TO MY PROBLEM—I'LL SIMPLY CONCENTRATE ON GREGORY'S NATURAL TALENT.

PRETTY IMPRACTICAL GUY TO SAY!

YOUR SEND GREGORY TO THE MOUNTAINS.

Out Our Way

TO THE BRUSH BOYS! THE THICKEST BRUSH! WHERE THEY CAN GET ANY OF IT, IF YOU WANT TO GET AWAY FROM THE CITY! I THOUGHT HE ONLY HAD A VITAMIN TABLET IN THAT PILL-BOTTLE!

I COME OUT TO ROUGH IT AN' I'M BUSHIN' UP BEFORE HE UNFOLDS THE HOUSE—I WANT FREEDOM!

WALL NUTS

San Casey

YOU... KADAM WHY I CAN'T SEE, DR. CASEY?

I THINK SO, MAMMA! I GUESS YOU CAN'T FOOL ANY LONGER!

I'M NOT TRYING TO FOOL ANYBODY, DR. CASEY!

OH, NOT DELIBERATELY, OF COURSE. THIS IS ALL MISUNDERSTANDING.

AND I'M CURD THIS ALL RELEASE TO YOUR PARENTS—SOME—THESE—HAPPENED—WHAT WAS IT, MARRY?

Bugs Bunny

SYLVESTER'S DRIVING HE BEESK WITH THAT RACKET, BUT THIS COWBOTA STOP HIM FER AWHILE!

HE CAN'T EAT AN' PLAY THAT SQUEEZE-BOX AT THE SAME TIME!

HOW ABOUT A SANDWICH, DOG—ON TH' HOUSE?

THANK YOU, GUNNOR! MAY I TROUBLE YOU FOR A CHAIR?

CAN'T AFFORD TO LOGE ANY POTENTIAL CUSTOMERS—WHILEY PARTAKING OF THIS DELICIOUS REPAST!

Side Glances

"Why can't I carry my lunch in a briefcase, like Daddy does?"

Lament

"Stand in the corner!" he says. "I did just what he told me. I DID out a little of my noise!"

Sweetie Pie

"I'll hold your doll while you get in there and CLOBBER them!"

Steve Rorer

ARE YE DAFT, UNCLE TUNK? STEALIN' THE LADY'S CAR WOULD ONLY SLOW US UP IN GETTIN' OUT OF THE STATE.

YOU'RE A FOOL, BIG JOE!

COULD BE HE'S SMARTER THAN YOU... I'LL GAMBLE EVERY HIGHWAY PATROLMAN IN THE COUNTY KNOWS MISS KOLE'S LITTLE FOREIGN CAR!

AVE... SO THEY'LL HATE NO DIFFICULTY IDENTIFYIN' IT... WHEN I FOUND IN THE OLD QUARRY DOWN THE ROAD... 'OL' ROPER AN' HER INSIDE!

Verry and the Pirates

WHEN'S THIS MATCH GONNA BE DOIN' US, GERCAINT?

HIS PLANE'S DUE IN BANGKOK IN THE MORNING, COLONEL TIAMERUFF.

OKAY, I'LL MEET HIM MYSELF.

... BUT MY HEART WOULDN'T BE IN IT, WITH A NAME LIKE 'TERENCE' HE COULDN'T BE A GUITAR PLAYER.

NO OLD GLOBBOVIA AS ICE CREAM AND NOW YOU CAN GET IT WELL, EXCEPT THERE'S NO PLACE TO BUY ON!!

EGGS-OCTY! SOON AS THE STORE GETS NEXT SHILOAD, WE'LL ALL-SO... DROWN!!

WHAT'LL WE DO?

BUY YOURSELF ANOTHER COUNTRY! YOU CAN AFFORD IT—AND YOU OUGHT TO GET ON AS GOOD AS GLOBBOVIA, CHEAP!

THANK YOU HARWARD!!

Captain Easy

YOUR COUSIN MAY DO KID! YOU SAW HE WAS CHATTING WITH LOCAL BIG SHOTS—WHEN HE GOT OFF TH' PLANE LAST NIGHT?

YEAH... LEO MAKES A GOOD IMPRESSION ON STRANGERS—WHY, I'LL GO GET HIM...

GAR, THIS IS LEO! HE SAYS HE'S OPEN TO ANY WILL-PAYIN' PROPOSITION!

FINE! I'LL PAY YOU THREE GRAND TO GO TO TH' COPS TONIGHT AND REPORT SEEIN' A MURDER COMMITTED AT 11 O'CLOCK LAST NIGHT!

OKAY, I'D SEND MY OWN GRANDMOTHER TO THE CHAIR FOR $5,000! WHO DO YOU WANT FRAMED?

YOU WILL, POSITELY! I'LL SEND YOU MILLER FROM HIS SHOTS—$5,000!

Rev. Morgan, M.D.

I'M TERRIBLY EMBARRASSED ABOUT DAD'S PLACING THAT ANNOUNCEMENT IN THE NEWSPAPER, DR. MORGAN!

DON'T BE EMBARRASSED FOR ME, KATE! WHAT ABOUT THAT YOUNG MAN TO WHOM YOU'RE ENGAGED? WHAT'S HIS NAME?

JIM WALDEN! IT'S NOT GOING TO BE EASY TO EXPLAIN TO JIM WHAT ACTUALLY HAPPENED!

YOU KNOW, I'VE BEEN THINKING TONIGHT YOU TWO TAKE YOUR HONEYMOON TRIP. I'M GOING WITH YOU! A TRIP AROUND THE WORLD WILL DO ME SOME GOOD...

DAD... THERE'S NOT GOING TO BE ANY HONEYMOON... AND NO WEDDING! YOU'VE GOT TO GO TO THE HOSPITAL!

Gasoline Alley

Then Fenwick locked his keys in the car and I got blisters walking, but we had a ball, Mom!

Your father just pulled into the garage!

Squeezik! Are you all right?

I'm fine! A little argy, but fine!

The Kids

I know! I said Fenwick's car out front!

Could you get the car out, Squeezik, and give Fenwick a dough? His battery is dead!

I usually park on a hill, but there wasn't any hill!

Ma Kirby

TO A PROSPEROUS FUTURE, MOTHER FAGIN!

CERTAINLY, SHERKOOK! WE'LL STEAL THE AN-STILES DIAMOND AGAIN WHEN WE'RE READY...

AND MEANWHILE, IT WILL DESTROY OUR DEAR FRIEND KIRBY.

THIS CHARM BRACELET, IT'S NEWER FATHER FAGIN! I'VE GIVEN IT TO ME, BUT I DON'T REMEMBER...

Short Hibs

GOSH, WHAT HAPPENED TO YOU?

I SAVED A BEAUTIFUL MAIDEN FROM A DRAGON THIS MORNING.

IT LOOKS LIKE HE GAVE YOU QUITE A SCRAP.

NO, HE WAS A PUSHOVER.

BUT MY WIFE FOUND OUT ABOUT THE MAIDEN.

Alley Oop

WELL, WHAT YOU GUYS WANT?

WE WANTA KNOW WHAT W.P.A. IS!

DOUBLE AYE!

YEAH! IT'S SOME KINDA PROJECT GONNA GO ON OUT THERE!

OH! THAT'S TH' TEMPLE AN' ALTAR GONNA UP FOR OUR HERO, RAMRODDIN TH' DEAL...

W.P.A. MEANS WEATHER PROTECTION ALTAR!

Steve Rorer

FRIBBLES and his ARBIDS

by MERRILL BLOSSER

THIS TIME I'M REALLY GONNA GO ALL OUT TO PLEASE HER!

GUESS WHAT? DRY TEAKWOOD IS LARDY!

IS IT THE DAY I'D

IT'S MY BIRTHDAY, YOU BKG. SELF-CENTERED OAK? OOPS! OOOLES OF PARDOONS PET!

IT'S BETTER GO SHOPPING!

IT'S A STRAIN TO GET HIS MIND OFF HIMSELF!

HIM... I'VE OFTEN HEARD HILDA RAVE ABOUT THAT LEOPARD SKIN...

AND SO... FROM NOW ON YOU'LL BE ULTRA-STYLISH WHEN WE GO OUT, HILDA!

GENUINE IMITATION LEOPARD SEAT COVERS! HAPPY BIRTHDAY, BABY!

ROPHONE

DING-DONG!

I'M FOLLOWING A TRAIL!

7th Avenue

WOWE!

You sure have lots of clocks!

I'll bet you never have to guess what time it is!

Indeed not!

Hum... give or take a minute, I'd say it's hard to...

...WAS about nine o'clock!

open up! open up!

I fell outa my nest!

BUGS BUNNY

YIFE! I DIDN'T REALIZE IT WAS THAT SLUGGIN' BUTCHS. TIME T' BAT AGAIN!

TIME OUT!

COME ON, LONGEARS. QUIT STALLIN'!

PEASANT!

A CRUCIAL MOMENT HAS ARRIVED!

THAT AIN'T NO NEWS FLASH, SYLVESTER!

HAS THE MOMENT ARRIVED TO USE OUR SECRET WEAPON?

RIGHT! THERE'S ONLY ONE OUT TO GO T' WIN, BUT BUTCH ALREADY HAS CLOBBERED ME FOR THREE HOME RUNS!

FILBERT, ARE YA SURE THIS CAST IRON GLUCK CN STRIKE OUT THAT SLUGGIN' BULLY BUTCH?

OF COURSE! I INVENTED WONNIE WOBOT AND I'M A GENIUS!

I'LL PLAY SECOND BASE WHILE TH' ROBOT'S PITCHIN'!

LEAVE US HOPE OUR STRATEGY IS SUCCESSFUL!

A FEW MINUTES LATER...

STEE-RIKE, TWO!

ONLY ONE MORE TO GO!

STEE-RIKE THREE!

YER OUT!

EE-YIFE! TH' ROBOT'S ARM WENT WITH THAT LAST PITCH AN ITS HEADIN' RIGHT FER BUTCH!

OH, LINHAPPY MOMENT! DISASTER HAS STRUCK!

KLONK

WASNT IT LUCKY THAT MASTER BUTCH WASNT PUFFED ASO... SERIOUSLY INJURED?

YEAH, BUT SAVE YER BREATH AN KEEP RUNNIN'... WHEEZE... ER WE'LL BE!

The Flint
