WASHINGTON, June 17 (AP)—A woman who once bought a child for $3,000 urged congress yesterday to move against the multi-million-dollar "black market" in babies.

Theresa L. Heath, a New York housewife, testified in a public hearing by the senate juvenile delinquency subcommittee.

The subcommittee is considering a bill which would make it a federal offense for unauthorized persons to profit from the interstate or foreign placement of a child.

In endorsing the bill, Mrs. Heath and Katherine H. O'Leary—chief of the children's bureau of the department of health, education and welfare—invited huge profits for some persons and heartbreak for others.

Mrs. Heath told the subcommittee of buying a baby at Montreal, Canada, while investigating a black market ring there in 1954 at the request of local authorities.

"I was told that if I had the $3,000 available I could pick this 18-hour-old bit of humanity off the bed and leave," she said. "But before I had time to complete this deal, a rival gang kidnaped the infant and offered me another from their source of supply for the same price."

She said her investigation resulted in two arrests but a reliable source had formed her that "once again the black market baby business is flourishing in Montreal."

Jordan Asks Grasshopper Battle Relief

WASHINGTON, June 17 (AP)—Sen. Len B. Jordan said today he has asked the agriculture department for help in combatting an invasion of grasshoppers in Ada and Blaine counties.

The Republican senator said he told Dr. Byron T. Shaw, administrator of the agriculture research service, that immediate action is necessary to halt the infestation.

Jordan said he has been told the grasshoppers are now as high as 50 per square yard in an area of the two counties. He said the research service is responsible "if insecticides are needed."

He said, however, that insect control for the infested area rests with the bureau of land management.

"The private land owners will take care of their own lands that are infested," Jordan said, "but they certainly should be joined in this effort by the largest landowner in the area—the federal government."

Later, Idaho's Democratic delegation appointed to Agriculture Secretary Orville Freeman to make funds available for immediate control over the grasshopper invasion.

Sen. Frank Church and Reps. Ralph Harding and Conpton T. White, Jr. said they informed Freeman of reports they had on the grasshopper threats and said "emergency action" was necessary to deal with the situation.

Goldwater Question: Can He Keep Votes?

By WILLIAM THIES
WASHINGTON, June 17 (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater now has enough Republican convention delegates to win the GOP presidential nomination—if he can hold on to them.
Arkansas Republicans put Goldwater over the top last night when it was announced that nine of the state's 12 convention delegates had committed themselves to Goldwater.
The Arkansas action came only hours after Texas Republicans handed the Arizona senator all of their 56 convention votes. The additional delegates brought Goldwater's total of indicated votes to 656—four more than the 653 needed. Goldwater is expected to pick up 14 more votes later this week when Montana Republicans select convention delegates.

Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton said that although tallies indicated that Goldwater had enough votes to win nomination on the first ballot at the San Francisco convention next month, only about 200 were legally pledged to the Arizonaan.
The rest of the delegates attributed to Goldwater are "floaters," Scranton said, adding that he wanted to talk to them before the GOP convention opens.
Scranton's waving of Iowa delegates to the national convention began to bear fruit yesterday when he picked up another firm vote and prospects of several more. George Naide, a former Republican state chairman and an at-large delegate, announced he would vote for Scranton.
The Pennsylvania governor began a whirlwind tour of the Midwest at Des Moines, Ia., Monday night. He came into Iowa with six of the state's 24 GOP convention delegates and left it with seven—with two more said to be "leaning heavily" in his direction.
The United Press International tabulation of delegates gave Goldwater 650 first ballot convention votes, Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge 43, Rockefeller 114, Scranton 121, others 157 and uncommitted 200.

The UPJ tabulation gave Goldwater one Arkansas delegate prior to yesterday's announcement. The decision to switch from favorite son Winthrop W. Rockefeller, brother of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, to eight new delegates in the gold water column.
Coupled with the Texas delegates that would be enough to nominate Goldwater—provided he can keep his previous tally pledged but locally uncommitted supporters from defecting to Rockefeller.

Buyers Say Complaints of Consumers Go Unheeded

SALT LAKE CITY, June 17 (AP)—The quantity of complaints from the American consumer is a sign of complacency from buyers, and these complaints must not fall on deaf ears. This was the consensus of President Johnson's second regional consumer conference, gathering yesterday of 500 delegates representing advertisers, consumers, retailers and merchants.

Sparked by a talk from Utah native Esther Peterson, the top woman adviser in the nation to the President, the delegates were told that shoppers must insist on a "consumer-oriented" economic system as well as one "production-oriented."

Mrs. Peterson, presidential special assistant for consumer affairs, stressed the four-point theme announced in 1963 by President John F. Kennedy: "The right to safety, to be informed, to choose and to be heard."

She stressed that her letters, an average of 150 a day, complain of misleading advertising, half-empty packages, false-bottom jars and "appeals to the worst in human motivations."

"Let us not be afraid to judge government or industry when it is apparent that either is not fulfilling its responsibilities," she said. She added that of more than 600 lobbyists in Washington, D. C., not one solely represents the consumer.

An assembly of experts in various fields of buying, selling and advertising addressed the group comprised of many international region buyers, in panel discussions. David Angovine, director of public relations for the Cooperative League (USA), Washington, D. C., said, "We're responsible for reading labels and seeking additional information. We must make rational, logical and sensible decisions in buying."

LITTLE MARGARET MOON, 4, Fairytown, N. ## Administration Battles Beef Legislation

WASHINGTON, June 17 (AP)—The Johnson administration is having little luck in getting Congress to drop legislation which would impose tighter controls on imports of beef even though foreign supplies have fallen off in recent months. Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman told a House Interstate commerce committee the week before last that imports this year will be down to the 1958-63 average—the level sought in legislation pending in both houses of Congress and being pushed by cattlemen.

Freeman made the same point at a news conference last week, saying that there was no need for the legislation because of the lower level of foreign supplies.

Despite this, the Senate Finance committee called him to appear before it today to testify on the legislation. He will make the same argument before this committee that he made before the House committee.

The administration contends that the proposed legislation would greatly impair the country's efforts to obtain a reduction in barriers to world trade.

The low cattle prices—blamed by many livestockmen on imports and by the agriculture department on increased domestic production—has become a political issue between Democrats and Republicans.

The Republican national committee took a slap at the administration in a news letter entitled "Republican Farm Roundup."

It drew contrasts between prices livestockmen and poultrymen were receiving when the Democratic administration took over in January, 1961, and those being received on May 31, this year. It said choice steers at Chicago brought $28.75 a hundred pounds in January, 1961, compared with $21.50 on May 31 this year. It said hog prices at Chicago were $18.50 and $10.85 a hundred pounds, respectively, for the two dates. It said egg prices had declined from 37 to 27 cents a dozen and chicken broilers from 17 1/2 cents to 15 cents a pound.

The Republican committee contended the recent decline in beef imports is temporary, because prices of beef in Europe have increased due to shortages there. Supplies once coming to this market are now being diverted to Europe, it said.

Idaho Tax Reform Discussed At T. F. Exchange Club Meet

Idaho's tax structure and how it affects attraction of industry to the state was discussed by William Grange, Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce secretary-manager, during the Tuesday noon luncheon meeting of the Twin Falls Exchange Club in the Boardman Hotel. Grange, one of four Idaho men who have formed a team to meet with groups throughout the state as a panel discussion of Idaho's taxes, remarked on tax legislation which was passed last year by Idaho's legislature, but was defeated in the senate. The bill, said Grange, would have resulted in a sales tax for the state along with significant reforms to the state's two present taxes—property and income tax. Grange strongly disagreed with a statement made earlier this year by Gov. Robert E. Smylie that Idaho's tax structure was not one of the main reasons Minnesota Mining and Manufacturing company decided against locating a plant in Idaho. The company, which had con-

Grange said he will speak on the same topic next Tuesday noon during a meeting of the Burley Rotary club.

Before he spoke on the tax structure situation, Grange asked members of the local Exchange Club for support in operation of the travel booth at the Perrine Memorial bridge. He said he expects to have the booth open later this week and asked members to assist a few hours on some days during the summer.

During other business the club made plans for putting up flags around town on July 4. One of the club's civic projects is putting flags up and taking them down on holidays along the city's main thoroughfares.

Club members also discussed insuring the flags and the little league football uniforms.

Senate Roll Call Voting Sets Record

WASHINGTON, June 17 (AP)—The senate last night set a new record for roll call votes in a single day as it fought off southern amendments to the civil rights bill. When it finally recessed at midnight (EDT) after being in session for 13 hours, the senate had taken 94 roll calls on a series of southern proposals to revise the measure, which is assured of eventual approval. It also rejected, 73 to 18, a motion by Sen. James O. Eastland, D., Miss., to adjourn. Such a motion normally is a challenge to senate leadership without regard to the issues involved. Two Republicans, Peter H. Dominick, R., Colo., and Dwin R. McCheser, R., N.M., voted originally for adjournment. Both changed their votes, however, after Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen, Ill., was seen talking to Dominick. The number of roll call votes reached 20 as the senate carried the fight into the night. The highest previous number for one day was 18 on June 24, 1951, when the Senate was considering extension of Korean war economic controls.

Rockefeller Seeks Unity For Scranton

NEW YORK, June 17 (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller said yesterday former President Eisenhower and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon should come out openly for Gov. William W. Scranton in the fight for the Republican presidential nomination.

Rockefeller, who withdrew from the race in favor of the Pennsylvania governor, also said he would refuse the vice presidential nomination if it were offered to him.

Rockefeller met with leaders of his campaign and afterward held a news conference. During a question and answer session, he said he had talked to both Nixon and Eisenhower and asked them to support Scranton but they refused in order to continue a neutral course.

"They are good examples of moderate, progressive Republicans who should speak out in support of Bill Scranton," Rockefeller said. "I think they would help him."

He was asked whether he thought Nixon's strategy was to sit on the sidelines and wait for a possible convention, leading to a possible grab of the nomination for himself.

"I have no idea," Rockefeller said. "He speaks as a commentator, not as a political leader. I'm interested in getting delegates for Scranton, not sitting back and watching."

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK, June 17 (AP)—Bache and company says "the recent consolidation and the market's refusal to move significantly lower have in our opinion greatly enhanced the possibility of a summer rally."

Bache adds that with "a strong economy anticipated through the early part of 1965, a positive attitude toward selected common stocks is recommended."

E. P. Hutton and company believes that "one of the weaker and more disturbing points about the market recently has been the preponderance of big-name listees on the daily list of new lows with almost none appearing on the new high list."

Hayden, Stone attributes the stock market's recent "volatility, dislocations" and the general price weakness in foreign securities markets. It further notes that more than 100 million dollars of available investment funds were withdrawn off by the "OOMSAT" offering, "with some stock selling in the high-priced bracket still seem to have discounted too many anticipated future benefits too far ahead."

Meeting Held by Livestock Club

Better Livestock 4-H club met at the home of Paula Hoppe at 8 p.m. Monday night. Cindy Leazer reported on her entomology project, Doug Smith reported on how to break a colt to lead and Wade Miller reported on breaking a calf to lead.

The next meeting will be held at 8 p.m. July 6 at the home of Betty Monroe.

Car Hits Truck In Kimberly

KIMBERLY, June 17—Twin Falls county sheriff's deputies investigated a two-car accident at 4:45 p.m. Tuesday in Kimberly.

It was reported the Brown vehicle had no brake lights and the truck driver, which was apparently on, was dim.

Socialist System Said More Mature

COPENHAGEN, Denmark, June 17 (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev plunged into the thorny topic of different political systems yesterday after his arrival on a friendship tour. He told Danish officials the socialist system is more "mature" than theirs.

At a government reception given by Premier Jens Otto Krag, Khrushchev said: "Your agriculture is good, but you know that different cultures mature at different times. Our socialist society has matured and yours has not yet matured."

"That your time will come, too, and we shall see which system is better. History has shown that our system, which is only 40 years old, already has surpassed many other countries which were once ahead of us."

At a government reception given by Premier Jens Otto Krag, Khrushchev said: "Your agriculture is good, but you know that different cultures mature at different times. Our socialist society has matured and yours has not yet matured."

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 17—Born today, you are forceful enough to make your needs and desires known, resourceful enough to take care of them yourself and not be alarmed about you occasionally falling. Altogether stable, you almost never rise to heights of joyous oblivion or fall into the depths of despair.

In fact, you may be too stable; perhaps you resent too strongly to take full advantage of your talents and abilities. If this is the case, however, it is because you have consciously worked to make it so. By nature you are close to the ideal insofar as action and reaction are concerned and it is, of course, by your own nature that you should live.

Your nature is far from devoid of strong affection, however, and you are to be warned against side-stepping marriage simply for fear of becoming "involved." Fear of "involvement" is actually essential to your happiness. Only take care that you do not choose a mate one whose response to people and situations is overpowering to one with your outward reserve.

Among those born on this date are John Hersey, Pulitzer prize-winning novelist; Charles Gounod, famed French composer; Igor Stravinsky, Russian composer.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

CANCER (June 23-July 23)—The dictatorial approach will gain you more enemies than followers. Use tact in telling others what to do.

LEO (July 24-Aug. 23)—Don't allow restlessness to sidetrack you from your present course of action. That feeling will pass—but lost time cannot be regained.

VIRGO (Aug. 24-Sept. 23)—An excellent day for a journey within circumscribed limits. If sailing, keep strictly within your own territory!

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)—Appreciation and applause may well come your way today. However, what you do not deserve, turn over to another.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 23)—Display your affectionate nature within the confines of your own home—but make it a point to be circumspect in company.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 23)—Exert your power and self-control. The Sagittarius who goes overboard in an effort to take advantage of opportunity may be sorry.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 24-Jan. 20)—Though your own four walls may attract you most today, you'll be wise to join others in mutual labor for mutual gain.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)

University of Idaho Pushes State Television

MOSCOW, June 17 (AP)—A major preliminary step toward a statewide educational television network was announced today by the University of Idaho.

The university's regents amended the school's application to the U.S. department of health, education and welfare and federal communications commission to place the transmitter for its planned station on Paradise ridge 1,100 feet above the campus.

The school said that linking of the proposed system at Idaho with those of Idaho State University and Boise Junior college would give coverage to 92 per cent of the public schools in the state.

—Keep your spirits high today. There is hardship in store for the Aquarius, who gives in to depression.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20)—At home and at work, make things lively today through the judicious application of sense and humor.

ARIES (March 21-April 20)—Let your good nature shine. The Aries who wants things his own way today—and lets others know it—may have a difficult time.

Rain Keeps Cowboy Potential Hidden Through Lack of Work

How are the Magic Valley Cowboys looking? That's a question being asked around Twin Falls this week if anybody comes up with the answer team manager Rex Carr would like to hear it. The Cowboys walked with faint hopes of getting some work done Wednesday afternoon and only slightly more optimistic of going into the promised next season. "I don't even know if we'll get a game," Carr said. "We've got 10 pitchers and I've only seen three of them in action."

RAIN, RAIN GO AWAY is clearly the sentiment of Magic Valley Cowboy pitcher Tim Veal, left, and batting coach Hank Bauer as they look over the puddled infield at Jaycee park Tuesday afternoon—before it really started raining. "If it would just let up enough to get in a little running," Veal pleaded. The Cowboys have had only four "working" days out of the possible eight, and the Pioneer league season opener at Idaho Falls is coming up Sunday. (Times-News photo)

FROM ALL ANGLES

By LARRY HOOVER

Although most baseball people think that pitching is anywhere from 75 to 90 per cent of the game, whenever they get together they talk almost exclusively about batting.

In seven years of watching the Magic Valley team work out under three different parent clubs, it is the same. It is the batting, the method of getting changes.

The past few days—except for the monsoons—have been possible for Magic Valley fans to learn more about baseball in an hour than watching it for several years. And the man most watched was hitting instructor Hank Bauer. With 10 years in the majors, one has to listen when Hank speaks.

To a large degree, so far as the pivot, keeping the bat still and other things go there is not a difference from what the Chicago Cubs preached in 1953. The Phillies the past three years and the Giants now. But there is one.

The Phillies preach "fill-down" on the ball. Adolfo Phillips heard that enough from Jack Phillips, Philadelphia operator under a theory that is followed in golf. The harder you hit the ball, the better it is hit. Although the golf thinking also says the higher the ball is hit, but to a large degree, it is felt that the Phillies thinking is a reminder against trying to up-bend the ball and hit it high.

Still a night is recalled when Fred Walters said to me, "You know, Phillips 'I'm not getting my distance. What can I do?' Phillips replied, 'If you want distance, chop down harder.'"

"I don't go along with that thinking," says Bauer. "Anybody that plays baseball concentrates on the bottom half of the ball up to the center. It's only logical. They want to get it up in the air and out of the park. To get that you have to hit the bottom half of it to lift it."

"I want my swing and all of these boys" (the Cowboys) to be like Bauer continued. "A swing naturally has to come up a little but if you end it here (he brought his left arm up to about shoulder level) the swing has been about as low as it can be for a low pitch. If you hit the ball square you've got a line drive. Just a fraction under center and you can get the height. Bauer gave two examples. "First," he was hitting a lot of pop flies. He asked me how that could be on the ball, he told me. He hit them, like almost everyone, center on the lower half of the ball. That's where he was hitting. Every time he hit it there the ball went straight up in the air or up enough to be an out."

His second example was Harvey Kueny goes opposite to the

Finley Raises Three Men's Pay

KANSAS CITY, June 17 (AP)—The Kansas City Athletics said Tuesday that three of their players—shortstop Wayne Gandy, relief pitcher John Wyatt and pitcher Orlando Pena—have been given "substantial raises."

"In appreciation of the outstanding job they have been doing," Mr. Finley (Charles C. Finley, A's owner) told his club members and provided them with very substantial increases," said general manager Pat Friday.

Cincinnati Is 9-4 Winner Over Giants

SAN FRANCISCO, June 17 (AP)—Vada Pinson and Leo Cardenas slugged two-run homers, powering Cincinnati to a 9-4 victory over San Francisco that dropped the Giants a full game behind the National League leading Philadelphia.

Pinson's third inning homer over the right field fence followed Bob Klauer's double.

Giants starter Jack Santford, 4-7, rejected two batters before pitching a third that Cardenas smashed into the left field screen for his sixth inning homer.

Indians Top Twins 5-3 in Homer Battle

CLEVELAND, June 17 (AP)—Leon Wagner's eighth-inning homer broke up a see-saw homer battle as the Cleveland Indians topped the Minnesota Twins 5-3 Tuesday night.

Home runs put the Indians ahead three times, and Minnesota twice led the game the same way.

The Indians took leads on rookie Bob Chance's two-run homer in the fourth and Woodie Held's seventh-inning clutch. The Twins came back on homers by Rich Rollins in the fifth and in the eighth by Frank Koza.

Umpires Shelve Strike Threat

CHICAGO, June 17 (AP)—The National League umpires association shelved Tuesday plans for a threatened strike July 3 and will meet with the league's executive committee in New York July 6 to discuss a pension plan increase.

At a news conference John J. Reynolds, Chicago attorney who represents the league's 20 umpires, said the umpire threat of "appropriate action," if pension benefits were not increased, would be suspended pending results of the July 6 meeting.

The contract will be held the day before the annual all-star game in New York's Madison Square Garden.

Court Upholds Bribe Sentence

NEW YORK, June 17 (AP)—The five-judge appellate division of the New York supreme court upheld Tuesday the conviction of Jack Molinas, former Columbia University and professional basketball star, on charges of fixing college basketball games.

The court said, however, that it considered Molinas' sentence of 10 to 15 years imprisonment "unnecessarily excessive" and added: "Were it not for the other charges, this court would be inclined to modify the sentence."

Molinas, a New York attorney, was found guilty in February, 1953, of conspiracy, three counts of bribery and attempted subornation of perjury.

Rowfield became the first pitcher to shut out the Tigers this season, overshadowing the performance of Detroit's Phil Regan, who gave up five hits and struck out 13 in the first night inning.

Motivation of the U.S. Voter Shows Vast Diversity

By JOHN BARBOUR
(AP Science Writer)
TWIN FALLS, Mich., June 17 (AP)—The American voter these days is not just a few weeks away from picking a personal candidate for president. For some voters, it just isn't time yet.

Some will wait until the candidates emerge officially from the primary conventions. Some will wait until the party stowaways are out of the campaign. Some will wait until the party stalwarts are out of the campaign. Some will wait until the party stalwarts are out of the campaign.

But when current issues tend to pull a voter away from the party of his allegiance, he takes such longer to decide.

"People often say they vote for the man because that seems the intelligent thing to do—but many of them are actually voting for a party," explained Prof. Angus Campbell of the Survey Research Center of the University of Michigan.

From their figures, the American voter stacks up this way in several respects:

Twenty-five per cent are weak Democrats.

Twenty-five per cent are non-partisan, popularly called the independents.

Fifteen per cent are weak Republicans.

Fifteen per cent are strong Republicans.

Who then are the independents? The old textbook notion is that they are the true weighers of the issues, the judges, the arbiters of national conscience.

But modern researchers have found that in practice they are mostly the disinterested, uninformed, the "I don't care—no opinion" political creatures who do not actually vote.

From them, SIRO interviewers get a full range of answers—from the woman who said she has no personal preference, who knew the campaign was "a critical time" but would be glad when it was over, to the man who said: "I just vote the way the guy on the corner tells me, cause he does no favors."

While in fact the independents constitute a range of apathy between the two parties, they also yield an unusual one per cent who are likely the elite of the voting population. These few are among the best informed voters, but they salute neither party flag.

The independents began as a movement of enlightened voters weary of party promises and corruption, who wanted better government. They are dubbed the Muzumps, but they bore little similarity to the independent voter of today.

The strong party voter, on the other hand, is better informed as a group. But as much as he reads, hears and sees, he likely will not change his basic allegiance short of a major personal revolution.

His politics are hereditary, passed on from his parents in the conditioning of youth.

Utah Plans for Commemoration Of Million Mark

SALT LAKE CITY, June 17 (AP)—Plans are already under way to commemorate the date when Utah's population is expected to hit the one-million mark.

One problem of the celebration will be deciding on the date when Mr. Million will arrive. A committee headed by Salt Lake advertising executive David W. Evans is busy coordinating planning with local groups throughout the state.

Utahns are expected to number one million late this summer, possibly in August.

There is also a politically homogeneous nature to America now, which allows the voter to find his own kind of company, his own political persuasion wherever he lives or works.

"Everyone thinks of the suburbs as filled with bright young executives who are all Republicans," says Campbell.

"But it just isn't true." People are always surprised, he said, when he tells them that one-third of the nation's million members vote Republican. On the other hand they are not surprised when he tells them that two-thirds vote Democratic.

There is scarcely any geographic shift of the American electorate that is all over there for another. The American voter—wherever he lives, works, plays—keeps his own political solidarity, the privacy of his own personal voting booth.

Quarantine of Astronauts Recommended

HOUSTON, June 17 (AP)—A U. S. scientist has said he will officially recommend that astronauts return from trips to the moon be quarantined for at least three weeks "for the protection of everybody."

The danger, said Dr. R. M. Lammont, Berkeley, Calif., is that the specimens may pick up the moon disease-causing organisms "which may be totally different from anything we have here on earth."

Lammont, a chemist and member of a special bio-science panel, said the quarantine recommendation will be made to the national aeronautics and space administration (NASA) in September.

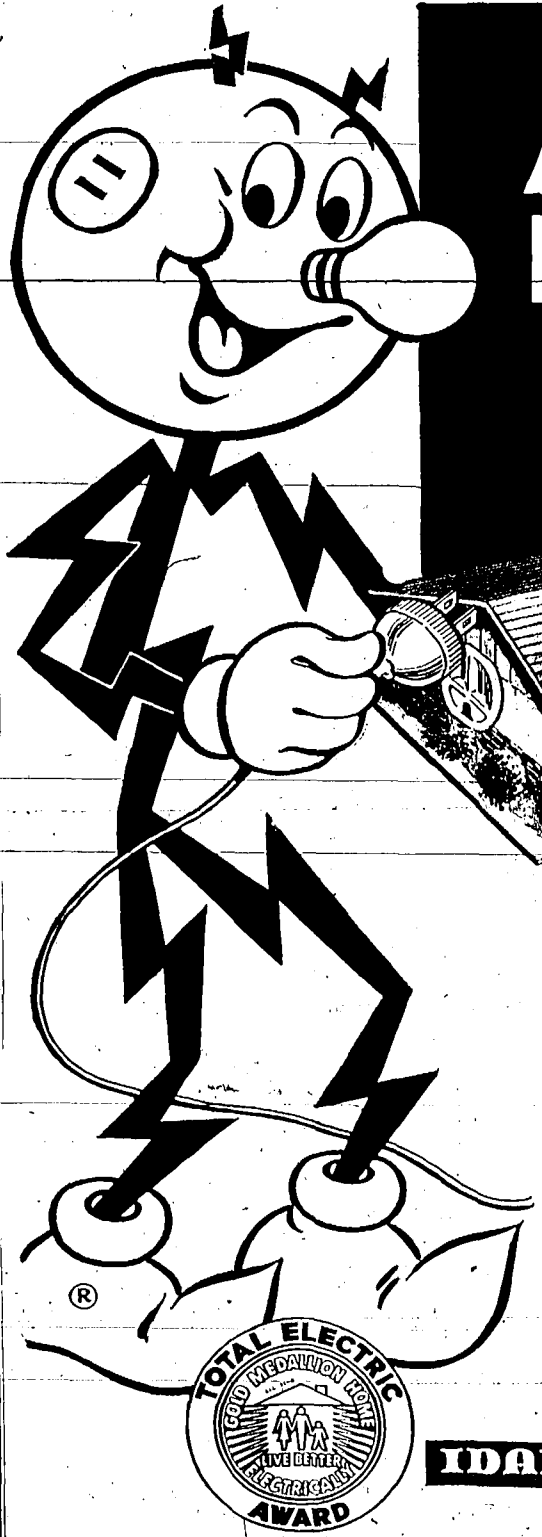

The slender, gray-haired scientist also said all space probes aimed for the moon should be sterilized "for the benefit of posterity if nothing else."

Smylie Meets to "Sell" Gem State

NEW YORK, June 17 (AP)—Idaho Gov. Robert E. Smylie met with top executives of nearly 60 of the nation's largest industrial and financial corporations yesterday to sell Idaho's industrial potential.

With Smylie were state Commerce Secretary Louisa Shuduck and a dozen of the Gem state's industrialists. They gathered at a luncheon at which E. Roland Harriman, railroad executive, financier and president of the American Red Cross, presided.

Another Good Reason for You to Enjoy Total Electric Living

For the second consecutive year the popularity of Total Electric Living has made possible a reduction in the electric heating rate for "All-Electric" homes... this time a reduction of more than ten per cent! The electric heat portion of the bargain "All-Electric" rate has dropped from 1.4¢ per kilowatt hour to a new low of 1.25¢.

Present "All-Electric" home owners and those who plan electric heat installations can learn from your local Idaho Power office how the new rate will affect your individual situation.

USERS LIKE IT . . . YOU WILL TOO

The satisfaction with electric heat is evidenced by hundreds of testimonials from people in this area who are using it. They particularly like its cleanliness, its quietness — the comfort and carefree convenience of flameless electric heat.

Smylie Sells Idaho Benefits at N. Y. Meet

NEW YORK, June 17 —(UPI)—In a quality furnished banquet room at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel Tuesday, Gov. Robert E. Smylie appointed a new deputy conservation officer for Idaho.

The ceremony solved a fishing problem for a railroad executive and a friend of the state, E. Roland Harriman, board chairman of the Union Pacific railroad.

This was a light-hearted luncheon in a luncheon Harriman arranged to give Smylie an opportunity to tell 45 top executives of some of the nation's biggest corporations a little about the state and the advantages it has to offer industry.

As he welcomed the guests, Harriman complained of a situation he first aired last fall at his dedication of a library named for him in Pocatello.

"One gripe I have about Idaho is that in 53 years of residence I've never been permitted to buy a resident fishing license. I've never lived there three months in a row. The result is that I have to buy a non-resident license every week to qualify to get three weeks of sport."

"There's something screwy about a state that thinks more of a fish than a spouse!"

The laughter died down, then surged again when Smylie replied that "this is in hot pursuit of our habit of putting first things first."

Smylie said he had looked into the situation and found it would take a special act of the legislature to get a resident license for Harriman—who is giving the state the family's 20,000-acre "railroad ranch" for a public park. The governor said he didn't push for such legislation lest some legislator "argue against a bill for the relief of blind Harriman."

But he did surprise Harriman with the appointment as deputy conservation officer and the badge of office.

Smylie used a "soft sell" approach to tell the executives about Idaho. Talking with newsmen before the luncheon, he said that he had no specific goal of attracting any specific industry, but he merely wanted to plant the idea of Idaho in their minds.

"The state has no smog, no traffic problems, no water shortages," Smylie told the guests, but he made his biggest point when he said:

"You couldn't locate a plant in the state that would be more than 50 miles from a ski hill, more than 15 miles from a trout stream, more than 10 minutes from pheasant shooting."

Smylie stressed that "we've a natural resources state," but he cautioned that "we have to say that this isn't heaven—because taxes are taxes."

Smylie said that Harriman arranged the session because the Republican governor was visiting New York in connection with Idaho day at the World's fair, and this would be a good opportunity for a "pleasant and perhaps profitable" get together.

"There are an awful lot of people in the business community on the East coast who realize that there is an Idaho, but they aren't sure just where it is or what it's all about," the governor joked.

He reminded the guests that as "the continent begins to thin ever more westward in terms of population" more and more national concerns will need West coast outlets and fabricating plants. Smylie suggested that they save the literature Idaho will be mailing them for consideration when they may be expanding westward.

Accompanying the governor were his staff aide, Bob McCall, and Idaho Secretary of Commerce Louise Bhaddick. The delegation of state businessmen were:

Joseph Blanco, president of the Bank of Idaho; John Kibball, executive vice president of American Foreign Powers; R. V. Hamberger, president, and W. D. Everle, executive vice president, Boise-Gasco company; J. R. Smplot, president, and Lloyd Halght, executive vice president, J. R. Smplot company; P. G. Valley

These pictures will help you relive an important day in our nation's history Exactly 50 years ago — on June 17, 1914 — the first transcontinental telephone line was completed at Wendover, Utah. For the first time, people could call directly from New York to San Francisco. Today, Long Distance is a lot faster, more convenient, and much less expensive than it used to be — as you'll see when you read the captions under the photographs.

Telephone men used Model T Fords to drive out to the job each morning. At night, they returned to large covered wagons in which they slept. When the line was finished, operators needed an hour to get a call from New York to San Francisco. Today, your calls go through in 2 or 3 seconds.

The man in the middle, getting ready to make the first transcontinental call, is Alexander Graham Bell, the inventor of the telephone. In Mr. Bell's day there were only 8,500,000 phones in America. Now there are more than 84,000,000, and 28 new telephones are installed each minute of the working day.

This picture was taken just after the man on the pole had spliced the transcontinental line. This tied New York and San Francisco together for the first time by telephone. Coast-to-coast calls in those days cost $20.00 for three minutes. Now you can call for just $1.00.

Here's how telephone poles were taken into the Nevada desert when the line was being built. Today, although poles — and wires — are still used for Long Distance, most of your calls travel through the air on a radio beam called Microwave. Each of these beams can carry 600 conversations at the same time.

Negro Graduates Mark Desegregation Stage

ATLANTA, Ga., June 17 (AP)—Graduation exercises in some southern high schools this year mark not only the educational pivot point for students, but also a historic stage of desegregation.

Three Negroes were graduated from formerly white schools in Birmingham, Ala.—a significant first for what was the nation's big racial battleground only a year ago.

Negroes for the first time were among the graduating classes in some southern high schools. No accurate count can be obtained on over-all Negro and white graduation figures since state school systems keep no racial breakdown.

But a survey showed the percentage of Negroes graduating from formerly all-white high schools in the South was very small.

There have been no unusual problems in the classrooms and the Negro graduates often are among the top students scholastically.

In Little Rock, Ark., where HAYDEN FINED

SAN FRANCISCO, June 17 (AP)—Actor Sterling Hayden was fined 220 and placed on probation for a year yesterday for participating in a civil rights demonstration at a San Francisco automobile agency last March.

seven years ago federal troops enforced the initial desegregation. A Negro girl was graduated with highest honors and was named a presidential scholar.

The girl, Jacquelyn Faye Evans, also was named to the National Honor society.

She had an A-plus average in her final year at Little Rock High, a predominantly white school.

Italian Singer Eyes Career In Westerns

HOLLYWOOD, June 17 (AP)—Italian singer Sergio Franchi has come so far west that he wants to become a cowboy actor, a pizza pie playman.

"Why not?" asks the operatic tenor. "There must have been some Italians wandering around the West."

"Do you mean to tell me that out of all those people who came West that there weren't any Italians? I'm not sure some Italian singer didn't go to Virginia City to entertain during the gold rush days. And he probably carried a gun. And with any luck he could have outdrawn somebody."

Franchi's background is a potpourri of dance band music and classical opera. He arrived in this country 18 months ago.

and now plans to become an American citizen. The 34-year-old singer has a wife and two children.

Sergio has become such a cowboy nut that he dreams up plots that would be ideal for an Italian whose English has a slight accent. In a word—himself.

"I could shoot the musical conductor," he said suggesting a cultural quick draw contest. "Or I could play an opera singer who goes west. The fellow has a girl friend, a squabble, and some kind of accident during the gold rush days. Or else it could be the story of an Italian who came to California to grow grapes."

When Franchi isn't playing the western Walter Mitty, he's pursuing a successful singing career, one that some folks say can make him a big star.

"The American public has such a vast taste in music," said Franchi, who has been well received in this country. "They go to hear symphonies and concertos. And they go to hear this Fitzgerald and enjoy her. The Americans appreciate music more than the Europeans."

"When I visit a city in America I walk around and meet people. I've seen more of America than many Americans, cities such as Houston, Boston, San Francisco, Reno, Las Vegas, New York, Philadelphia and Miami—and smaller cities such as Fresno and Modesto, Calif."

But Franchi says he won't meet the mass of Americans until he's in a hit picture—hopefully one which features him astride a horse.

Big Pay-TV Gamble Nears Start Amid Sound and Fury of Politics, Dreams

HOLLYWOOD, June 17 (UPI)—The biggest pay-TV gamble of all is approaching its scheduled opening date—July 1—amid such sound and fury, political repugnance and a huge dream of a new era in entertainment.

It will not be merely a hit or miss, but rather a boom or bust. For the West coast operation—in Los Angeles and San Francisco—is a multi-million-dollar business aiming for eventual national saturation.

It all depends on whether the public will buy the programs—with baseball the big come-out—on whether multi-pay-TV voters have enough strength to buy it in November. If Subscription Television, Inc. (STV), fails, big scale pay-TV may well be hard to resurrect for a long time.

Epitomized for STV may they are still counting on the July 1 playing date for Los Angeles. And though baseball is only one aspect of a vast promised entertainment schedule, it is still the key at the beginning.

Ironically, unless the slumping Los Angeles Dodgers improve their game, the quality of the attraction could be diminished by this unexpected factor. Last year's world champions are floundering this season.

The area that is being wired is an indication that, at least at the start, STV is not really going to depend heavily on cultural attractions—to bring in the look. Though there may be a number of these attractions, down-to-earth programming is the immediate requirement because the area—in question is not what might be termed the high-rent district.

Panama City Bathes in Quiet, But Anxieties Still Remain

ROBERT BERELLEZ
 PANAMA, June 17 (AP)—The "strange" sign has disappeared from Jolly Khan's cocktail lounge and the welcome mat out for the Yankee visitor of business is slack.
 "It isn't the same and probably never will be again," says a patron.
 That about sums up the picture in this deceptively tranquil-looking capital six months after the Canal Zone violence between Panamanians and Americans that claimed more than 20 lives.
 A subtle but distinct change has muted Panama's once brightly, colorful mood. There side the U.S. banner at 29 public sites in the American sector. An attempt by Panamanian students to hoist their flag at Balboa high school in the zone led to the January fighting.

 Although American tourists freely roam downtown Panama shops in increasing numbers and U.S. citizens living in the city say they are not molested, many American residents refuse to go into Panama City.
 A wave of small-scale terrorism and violence of vague origin is helping prolong the state of anxiety under which Panama has lived since January.
WARNING TO VOTE
 WASHINGTON, June 17 (AP)—American Heritage foundation and the Advertising Council launched a 10 million dollar "register and vote" campaign today with the warning that voting is essential to the national welfare.

Radishes Grow Faster to Music of Beatles

NEW YORK, June 17 (AP)—Radishes like music. They also like some kinds of music better than others. They grow better when they're listening to it.
 "They like Lily Pons' operatic coloratura quite well. They don't care quite as much for symphonic works. What they really like the most though, is the Beatles. Radishes simply go wild over the Beatles."
 This discovery was made by Lynn Boshkov, 15-year-old daughter of a Columbia university professor, in a sophomore biology class experiment at suburban White Plains high school. Her father, Stefan Boshkov, associate professor of mining engineering, was inclined to laugh off the experiment. But she didn't laugh about having to listen to Beatle music around the house day after day. Here is what she did: She planted four large trays with radish seeds last December and kept the trays near a sunny window inside the house. They all grew in the same type soil and got the same amounts of water and sunshine. However, when the plants had grown about three quarters of an inch above the soil, Lynn started playing music to three of the trays. Each in turn would be placed on the living room floor in front of the phonograph loudspeaker and get 45 minutes daily of Beatles, Pons or Dvorak's "New World Symphony." The fourth tray of radishes got no music. Lynn wound up the experiment a few days ago when the radishes had reached maturity. She made precise measurements as to leaf and root growth, as well as the size of the edible part of the radish. She calculated the different rates of growth in percentages, using the radishes which had not been entertained as a basis of 100 per cent. The others came out in this fashion:

 Weight of foliage above ground: Radishes which listened to the Beatles, 247 per cent; radishes in the Lily Pons audience, 224 per cent; radishes treated to the "New World Symphony," 168 per cent.
 Weight of radish and root: Beatles-lovers, 332 per cent; the Pons group, 128 per cent; the Dvorak division, 100 per cent—
FIDDLERS TO BEGIN
 WEISER, June 17 (AP)—The national old time fiddlers contest begins swinging here tonight but the real competition between fiddlers starts tomorrow night.

Job Open

Open competitive examination for postal clerk-carrier for Twin Falls will close June 20, says Agnes A. Attkin, examiner in charge. The examination probably will not be opened for another year or more, she added. Further information can be obtained at the Twin Falls postoffice.

Nice Try

DUBLIN, June 17 (AP)—Two boys, aged 5 and 6, tried to rob the Bank of Ireland this week and nearly succeeded. Police said one booted the other through the teller's counter while the staff was out to lunch. A queue of stole 20 pounds ($50) in the pound ($74) notes.
