According to Twin Falls county Sheriff James Benham, Hopworth was driving his 1961 Pontiac west on highway 30 when the car veered across the four-lane highway and slammed into a 1959 Peterbilt truck owned by Western Livestock transportation and driven by Glen E. Schenck, 58, Idaho Falls. Schenck was taken to Magic Valley Memorial hospital where he was treated for cuts and released.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

By ANDREW TULLY

BONN, Germany, June 16—In informal chats with American newsmen, Chancellor Ludwig Erhard likes to reiterate that West Germany's trade with other countries is "merely a means of raising German living standards."

"Then he adds, wryly, 'We are firm on objectives but flexible on the means of attaining those objectives.'"

Thus Erhard echoes the traditional, pragmatic German approach, to wit, that you get what you can in material, benefits, even from your enemies. If this is the case, why is the all-out effort in the anti-communist world, if it is no more cynical than British selling wheat to Russia? In fact, Erhard's policy benefits the free world, since it helps to keep strong a West Germany which is a bulwark against Moscow.

POLITICAL VICTORY—West Germany carries on more trade with Russia and its satellites than any other western country. In 1963, it exported $20 million dollars worth of goods behind the Iron curtain. This was 63 per cent of its total exports, five times as high as that of the U. S. and the highest percentage of any western country.

Moreover, while making a profit on the satellites, the West German government has managed to maintain one of its chief political principles—the claim that West Berlin is a part of the Bonn republic. In the past two years, Bonn has negotiated agreements establishing trade missions in Rumania, Hungary, Bulgaria and Poland, and is now dealing with Czechoslovakia. In all these cases, the import and export trade with Berlin in the West German trade area.

JAWBONE BALM—Both the East German government and refugees from areas now under communist control continue to protest these arrangements. East Germany because they represent recognition by the satellites of the Bonn republic, and the refugees because they seek to accept the status quo. But the satellite governments in East Germany, in fact, that the trade agreements are their own business.

And Erhard seeks to soothe the refugees with their potent voting strength—by periodic statements reiterating Bonn's determination to recover all lost territories by peaceful means.

WANTS MORE TRADE—Chancellor Erhard, harping on the necessity of "maximum free trade" in effect, told Charles de Gaulle in the argument that there can be no real prosperity or peace in Europe unless the West does business with the East. He sees trade and so-called "cultural exchanges" both as a means of establishing better relations with the communist bloc and as a means of weakening the East German regime, which admittedly is a headache to the Soviet bloc.

Meanwhile, Erhard and company continue to press the United States, Britain and France to resume negotiations with Moscow on the subject of German reunification. For domestic as well as international reasons, Bonn wants the West to remind the Kremlin that reunification is still the central issue. There's an election coming up next year, and even these well-disciplined German voters get restive.

Views of Others

'OF THE SAME DIGNITY'

Either a man is a citizen or he isn't. The latest supreme court decision takes a new step beyond any halfway position. It declares unconstitutional a federal law under which naturalized American citizens have lost their citizenship through staying in these dissenting associate justice pointed out the complications in foreign relations and the difficulties that might arise "because thousands of persons living throughout the world will come under the court's broad sweep."

But we agree with Justice Douglas, speaking for the majority against a second-class citizenship, that it is a mistake, especially in today's interrelated world, if we deny the premise that the rights of citizenship of the native-born and of the naturalized persons are of the same dignity and are coextensive.

"There will still be a few 'passport Americans' to bedevil consular officers. They save their half-hearted citizenship for what it can do for them. They may get rid and comfort from the decision.

But this rightly has not prevented the court from deciding according to a just principle. It is, as Mr. Douglas said, an "important assumption that naturalized citizens as a class are less reliable and have less loyalty to this country."—Christian Science Monitor.

CHOU'S TURN

The least Chou En-lai can do now is call off the Viet Cong and tone down the Chinese Communist "diatribes" about "American" war-mongering imperialists.

For an agency of the United States government has extended the olive branch of appeasement to the Chinese. No longer will the defensive football team at the U. S. Military Academy at West Point be known as the "Chinese Bandits." They'll be simply the "bandits," without any reference to race or nationality. Presumably the Chinese laundry chants and coolie hats with which the cadets have spurred their second team to deeds of derring-do will vanish from the stadia where Army performs.

Czech Paul Dietzel got the term "Chinese Bandits" from a comic strip some 15 years ago. There has been a long history of racial slurs. It started, though it did give the defensive squad a certain esprit de corps as a tough bunch of guys. A West Point spokesman said no political pressure was applied to drop the Asiatic adjective and that is believable. A superstitiousness to anything that might be considered a slur to race or national origin has developed in recent years. Even German measles, which are epidemic in Oregon at the present time, are referred to in polite circles as rubella.—The Oregonian.

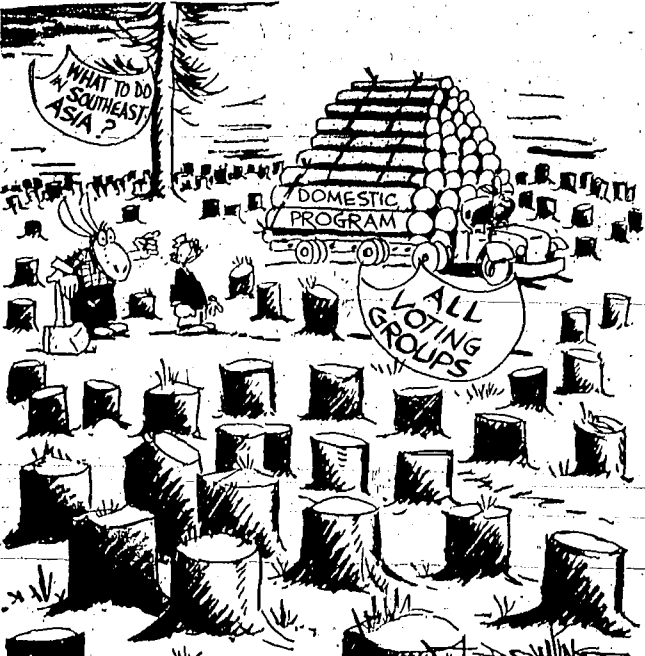

SOURCE OF POLLUTION

Concurrently with the phenomenal rise in the popularity of recreational boating there has arisen an organization called the National Association of Boating Law Administrators, and one of its most important tasks is to schedule for its convention next fall in Twin Falls pollution by water discharges from pleasure craft. Missouri has a law barring such pollution, but the legislature has not yet appropriated funds for its enforcement.

The problem arises only in congested areas, but there are more than 100 in the Wisconsin area already requires that marine toilets be sealed or made inoperable when boats are used on its waterways, and similar restrictions apply to many harbors.

This is just one source of water pollution, and probably is still of relatively small importance when compared with the discharge of industrial wastes and sewage from cities. But it should be included in any program for assuring pure water, particularly in recreational areas and places where clean water is important for personal or industrial use. Missouri's law forces Iowa, Illinois and Michigan to pass one.—St. Louis Post Dispatch.

NO COVER-UP

Rain or shine, hot wave or cold wave, draft or no draft, Mrs. Earl Lako has been wearing a sweater for years as she slaves away at the proof desk in the T-N newsroom. Sometimes she has it buttoned up and at other times, the sweater is just tossed over her shoulders.

The particular sweater she happens to be wearing these days has a rather wide mesh—so some of her fellow workers couldn't help noticing evidence of a wide expanse of back gleaming through the sweater the other morning.

After a "couple" of comments, she asked one of the girls in the office to look at her back. Sure enough, the comments were confirmed. With more heads averted modestly, another girl did the honors. It seems Mrs. Lako had neglected to zip up the back of her dress that morning, considering she "felt more comfortable." And that zipper reached from way up there to clear down there!

WASHINGTON, June 16 (AP)—Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton and the man he is trying to head off for the Republican presidential nomination, Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater, have a common theme: "We are not a party." They are not a party.

Nowhere has he been so precisely spelled out where he disagrees with Goldwater, except now he says one of the factors which induced him to become a candidate was Goldwater's vote last week against ending the filibuster against the civil rights bill.

Scranton said he had long said he would support Goldwater's running mate and saw no basic differences between them. Goldwater has neither said nor done anything that he hadn't said or done before June 4.

Mr. Scranton said he had created an image of himself as a go-get-ten man "with rolled-up sleeves," refused an invitation to debate the issues with Scranton and New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

Goldwater, a free enterprise man, said they could get their own audience. Through all this, and before, Nixon had been performing.

In the past two years Nixon said he was finished with public life and would not even let himself be drafted for the presidency, then said he would accept the nomination. He tried to stir up opposition to Goldwater but said he wasn't trying to stop the Arizona, said Scranton.

"I'm not a puppet," said Scranton, and "bad impression" on television but changed to say he looks strong and vigorous by saying he would be criticizing Scranton but was only trying to analyze his problems.

GENTLEMAN IN THE FOURTH ROW

MARQUIS CHILDS WRITES ON WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, June 18—A defeated Republican Congressman from Idaho, with the impressive name of Hamer H. Budge, has been appointed by President Johnson to a place on the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The resulting angry growl in both senate and house comes from the fact that Budge is a Democrat who knew Budge only too well during his 10 years on Capitol Hill.

It was to the surprise of many right on every issue, Budge was the only member of congress from the Northwest to vote against the civil rights act of 1957. His constant allies were the Democrats.

According to an account in the Wall Street Journal, the boys on the New York Stock Exchange are throwing their hats in the air. They believe Budge will be good for the market. Anybody may be satiating that wish. SEC's reform-minded chairman, William L. Cary, resigns next month any reforms under consideration will be shelved.

The President did not name Budge to a Republican vacancy on the bipartisan commission to get cheers from Wall Street. That is fairly evident if only because so much of business is already on the Johnson side. The senate seems to favor the nuts and bolts of practical politics and who gets what and why.

Budge was a close friend and ally of House Minority Leader Charles Halleck. He is credited with the initiative of pushing Halleck for a job in Washington.

In the clinch as the senate showdown on civil rights drew near, Sen. Everett McKinley Dirksen is said to have added the formidable weight of his minority leadership to the majority which looked with dark suspicion on the Budge affair. He said that the day after the appointment was sent to the senate, Sen. Len B. Jordan, R., Idaho, announced that he would vote to shut off the filibuster. He was it.

There is little or no chance that the nomination will be stopped in the senate. Frank to be reelected from Idaho that mission. The federal power called the White House to say public power has been for Democrats a major issue in the recent past. Budge, as an opponent of government spending, has fought all power projects built with federal money.

Idaho Democrats are pretty unhappy about the Budge appointment. But the SEC figures in their lives than the SEC and Childs will not oppose the nomination.

A vacancy soon to occur on the SEC puts an even more awkward choice up to the President. The term of Charles E. Rios, a Democrat from Vermont, expires. He has the support of many northerners, but Republicans and Democrats, because on the whole he has backed natural gas consumers in the cities as against gas producers in the Southwest.

But he has thereby won the enmity of powerful forces in the oil and gas industry and their lobbyist allies in Washington. As a Texas, Lyndon Johnson supported one of the biggest money earners of his nation. As President he must be above regionalism.

Filling posts that extend far into the future—the commissions, federal judges—a president exerts an influence on policy long after his time. Paying attention to the past and the past has proved disastrous in the past and it can prove disastrous again.

President Kennedy's record on the commissions was good. He tended to name able men with expert knowledge. One of the high points in the Eisenhower administration, and particularly under Attorney General William F. Rogers, was the quality of the judicial appointments. The commission with a grain of the regionalist judges in the South named under Kennedy is paid.

A president writes a record in many ways and the record is most enduring monument. The men and women he selects to staff his government are an essential part of that record.

The Doctor Says

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Amelias, once thought to be limited to the tropics, is now found in every state. It is increasing as travelers return from high incidence areas. This disease used to be called amoebic dysentery, but it would rarely be discovered if we doctors waited for diarrhea to develop in the patients who are infected.

The disease is caused by a microscopic parasite that may contaminate drinking water. Vegetables may contain amoebic cysts or human carriers. This is why it is important to boil the water and avoid uncooked vegetables in areas where the sanitation is poor.

Of the estimated 10 per cent of the population who are infected, most have no symptoms and are classified as carriers. The symptoms, when present, are variable and may include fatigue, headache, loss of appetite, and vague abdominal discomfort.

Even in a person who harbors germs these symptoms are often unrelated to his infection. For this reason your doctor cannot make the diagnosis of amoebiasis on the basis of symptoms alone but must rely on a blood test and a "microscopic stool" examination.

BIDDING IMPROVES AFTER 30 YEARS

The first great bridge team was the "Four Horsemen" captained by the late P. H. Blinn. That had been the end of the team. No one was going to bid a grand slam unless he could see 13 sure tricks against his lead and any distribution.

Of course, this team operated to do well in really tough competition.

North was very bitter about Blinn's failure to go to seven hearts. He pointed out that had bid three hearts and had jumped to six hearts. He had bid three hearts and had jumped to six hearts. He had bid three hearts and had jumped to six hearts.

It would seem that North might have gone to seven hearts by the Blackwood bid after that jump to four hearts. Of course, there would be the unending "king, but at the worst, seven, would depend on a diamond finish.

An audible cheer went up from Washington last April 1 when the Brazilian military rose up against the government of Getulio Vargas.

Wing Gen. Goulart, President Johnson sent his "warmest good wishes" to the new government.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk announced he hoped to work "very closely" with the new regime.

Two and one-half months after the overthrow of Goulart, the cheers still were audible, if slightly muted.

To the credit of Brazil's armed forces, they moved quickly to restore constitutional processes once the revolution was secure and the new administration has shown a determination to remove the evils which all but wrecked the Brazilian economy and led to galloping inflation which last year amounted to more than 85 per cent.

Nor could there be any quarrel with the new regime's determination to sweep communists and their sympathizers from government posts.

But what did cause concern was the fear that the generals who engineered former Army Chief of Staff Humberto Castelo Branco into office to succeed Goulart, also intended to extend their purge to all critics of the new regime.

Along with some 250 others deprived of their political rights for terms of up to 10 years, the purge already had hit two former Brazilian presidents—Goulart and Janio Quadros, upon whose resignation in September, 1961, Goulart had succeeded.

Transfusion Ordered for Unborn Child

TRENTON, N. J., June 18 (AP)—The state's highest court Wednesday ruled in an emergency decision that the right of an unborn child to live outweighs its mother's religious convictions.

The court, acting within a few hours after receiving the case, ordered transfusion doctors may in some cases transfuse blood into the unborn child to save the child's life and possibly hers as well.

"We are satisfied that the unborn child is entitled to the same protection," the supreme court decision said.

Mrs. William Anderson, 29, a former Catholic who is studying to become a Jehovah's Witness, refused to take a blood transfusion although complications developed in her seven-and-one-half-month pregnancy. Doctors warned her she might die at any moment and take the life of her child as well.

Hospital attorneys asked the high court to hand down a "collegiate" decision to clarify an unborn child's right to live.

Chief Justice Joseph Weintraub said, however, there was not time for a sweeping decision because each moment might be the last for the woman and her child.

The court ordered that a "neutral guardian" be appointed for the child and that the guardian consent to such blood transfusions as may be necessary to preserve the lives of the mother and the child.

The order also directed Mrs. Anderson to consent to the transfusions and forbade her husband from interfering.

Bomber Releases Bomb Bay Doors, Vexing Officials

BROOKINGS, June 18 (AP)—Fairchild air force base officers today were investigating to determine what caused a B-52 jet bomber stationed here to drop its bomb bay doors into the Missouri River.

A spokesman said there was no immediate explanation for the incident yesterday. Officials said the doors fell harmlessly into the water and the plane landed safely.

Officials said the plane, attached to the 32nd Strategic Bombing Wing at Barksdale, was on a routine training mission and was carrying nuclear weapons.

Rejected Draftees Project Is "Dismal Disappointment"

WASHINGTON, June 18 (AP)—The Johnson administration's "human salvage" program to rehabilitate rejected draftees has proved a dismal disappointment so far.

Of 134,500 youths collected in the first three months, only 140 have been placed in training programs. Jobs—many of them of brief duration—were found for 2,200.

Only 17.5 per cent of the rejected draftees even bothered to respond to the government's letters telling them where to get help.

When first announced last January, Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz hopefully called it "the most important human salvage program in the history of our country."

Administration officials had hoped to assist some 35,000 young men in the first four months.

While conceding some serious problems in the initial stage of the program, the labor department isn't giving up.

Spokesman—say—the biggest problem is getting in direct contact with youths who have been rejected for physical or educational reasons and convincing them there are federal programs that can help them.

Charges of U.S. vaccination compromise, failure of will and "diplomatic schizophrenia" in Asia were made by the Critical Issues council of the Republican Citizens committee.

The latest of the council position papers was written by a force headed by Clare Booth Luce, former U.S. ambassador to Italy under the Eisenhower administration. Walter S. Robertson, former assistant secretary of state for Far Eastern affairs, and Adm. Arthur Radford, former chairman of the joint chiefs of staff.

The council, headed by Dr. Milton Eisenhower, collaborates with the GOP national committee but says its views do not necessarily reflect official GOP policy.

The administration must follow up a policy statement to this effect with a greater, forward-looking initiative in Asia, it said. It suggested "show-the-flags" moves, such as deployment of armed forces and naval units near threatened areas and regular joint military maneuvers with allied powers.

North Idaho Flood Works Curb Damage

BONNERA FERRY, June 18 (AP)—The leader of a U. S. Army engineer flood fight team says flood control works in the Kootenai flats of northern Idaho have paid off this season by holding high water damage to a minimum.

James Conway, head of the team from the army engineers' Seattle district office, today reported an estimated damage to grain crops of between $300,000 and $700,000 from seepage waters in the valley.

It is estimated to be between 15 and 20 per cent of the total crop value in the Bonnera Ferry area.

Although these damages seem high, Col. Ernest L. Perry, district engineer, said in Seattle that the loss is small compared with those in previous years when thousands of acres have been covered under water after levees broke.

POCATELLO, June 18 (AP)—The Pocatello city commission was told yesterday it faces an almost impossible task: it must obtain all the easements and other legal needs for the Portneuf flood control project in just five months. City and Bonanza county commissioners met with several engineers from the U. S. army corps of engineers yesterday, and came away with preliminary plans of the project. They were also warned that it is going to take a lot of work and cooperation for the city to accomplish its portion of the project in the time allotted. The corps will pay for the entire estimated construction cost of 3 million dollars, but the city of Pocatello has to provide work easements for the portion of the project within the city. It has $200,000 on hand for that purpose. The same holds true for Bonanza county, which is also involved.

Witness Says FBI Offered Oswald Aid

NEW YORK, June 18 (AP)—The woman who sheltered Lee Harvey Oswald's pregnant wife and yesterday the FBI offered the protection to the Oswald family three weeks before President Kennedy was assassinated.

Mrs. Ruth Paine of Irving, Tex., a suburb of Dallas, was quoted in an article in the current issue of Redbook magazine.

In Washington, the FBI said it had no comment on the article. But it was known that agents normally contact anyone coming to this country from behind the iron curtain and question them about whether they have been subjected to any pressures from their homeland. The FBI offers its help in counteracting these pressures whenever they are disclosed.

Oswald's wife, Marina, had been staying with Mrs. Paine while her husband had a room under an assumed name in Dallas. The rifle he used to kill the President was stored in Mrs. Paine's garage without her knowledge.

She said on Nov. 1 an FBI agent came to call on Oswald's wife.

"He told her she could appeal to them for help if she received blackmail threats from Russia," Mrs. Paine said.

She learned later that the FBI routinely offers protection of this sort to emigres from iron curtain countries about a year after they have come to America."

The banquet climaxed a busy day for Khrushchev, making his first visit to Denmark. He talked business with Danish Premier Jens Otto Krag and then took Mrs. Khrushchev to lunch with King Frederick IX and Queen Ingrid at Fredensborg castle.

Scholarships for Teachers Offered

BOISE, June 18 (AP)—Mrs. Eleanor Bodahl, supervisor of elementary and special education for the state education department, said today two federal scholarships are available for persons interested in teaching the mentally retarded in Idaho.

Federal payments to state and local governments, in the form of grants-in-aid, represent an average of 14.1 per cent of the letters' budgets, according to the U.S. Senate Committee on Government Operations. The Newsmpg shows a state-by-state breakdown for 1959, the latest year for which complete figures are available. Payments range from 6.4 to 32.3 per cent.

Maroa Woman's Club Celebrates Anniversary

FILED, June 18 — In an atmosphere reminiscent of 1914, the Maroa Woman's club observed its 50th anniversary celebration with a tea at the Plier Orange hall. All the members and guests were dressed in period costumes and the hall was decorated with old furniture and antiques, with a number of old lamps furnishing light.

Members and former members were welcomed by Mrs. A. K. Reed, Mrs. Glen Hostetter and Mrs. Paul Handy. Mrs. Paul Hainline and Mrs. Raymond Hepworth regaled the guests. Mrs. Cecil Brown gave the address of welcome.

Four charter members of the club were introduced and presented coronas. They are Mrs. H. A. Pierce, Kimberly, Mrs. Fred Gillott, Mrs. Earl Hakeside and Mrs. L. G. Cobb.

A club meeting such as those enacted in 1914 was conducted, with Mrs. Edward McCauley serving as president and Mrs. Jacob Toik, secretary. Mrs. Brown had compiled old club records to make the meeting authentic.

Mrs. Donald Hill and Mrs. Hester Bean presented a program of songs and readings. Cuth J. Bean played a piano solo. Mrs. J. H. Sharrup gave a reading. Mrs. Ralph Assendrup presented a piano solo and accompanied group singing. Mrs. James Brennan sang a number of old songs, accompanied by Glen Hildre.

The refreshment table was covered with a linen cloth and centered with a crystal wedding cake holder which contained an arrangement of yellow roses and blue lilies. Gold candles in crystal holders completed the table appointments. Mrs. Harold Hainline and Mrs. Ted Shier, honorary members, presided at the coffee service.

A special highlight of the tea was the displaying of an old quilting frame containing a friendship quilt which held blocks embroidered and autographed by members.

Each guest was presented a blue felt case adorned with a 50-year emblem and containing pins and needles. The club had been known as the "Pins and Needles" circle until the year 1914 when it was renamed the Maroa Woman's club. The club's colors had been blue and gold. Members met in homes until the Maroa school house was built after which meetings were held there. Mrs. Leonard Brown was the first club president. Hainline was co-chairman of the anniversary tea, assisted by past presidents.

Seven Rupert Rodeo Queen Hopefuls Training Horses

RUPERT, June 18 — Seven contestants for the title of Rupert rodeo queen for 1965 are busy training their horses for the annual queen's riding competition to be held Sunday at the Minidoka county fairgrounds.

Mrs. Hazel Dean Hunter, chairman of the contest, reports the girls have been working with their horses each Tuesday and Thursday evening in preparation for the event. Assisting the girls in riding skills during the sessions are Rex Rasmussen, Seth Rasmussen, Clyde Kendall and Roger Thompson.

Judging for the rodeo queen title will be on riding ability, 15 per cent on appearance at the riding competition and 25 per cent on a popularity vote which will be conducted at the jamboree on June 27.

The winner of the competition will reign over the 1965 rodeo and will be crowned at the jamboree and will officially take over her reign from Bette Meuleman, 1964 queen, during the July 4 rodeo performance.

The contestants include Lorraine Kehteu, 10, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LaMont Kehteu, route 3, who has been riding about five years and will be riding a buckskin called Fox during the competition.

She has been a member of the Minidoka County Wranglers and is active in Future Nurses of America at school.

Also competing is Leslee Gray, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Gray. She will be riding a buckskin quarterhorse and has been riding since she was in the sixth grade. She has been active in 4-H work, and is a member of Pop club, Thespians and Junior choir at school.

Karen Shurrum, 16, has completed her junior year at Minidoka and who has been riding horses ever since she was about 3. Trained her own horse. She will be riding a quarterhorse called

"Ace High."

Miss Shurrum has been an active 4-H member and a member of the Minidoka Wranglers. She was active in the Ski club, Girls Athletic association and Junior choir at Minidoka.

Linda Montgomery, 17, Heyburn, will be riding a quarterhorse "Miss Kitty" in the competition. The contestant has been active in 4-H work for the past six years, is a member of the Wranglers, the Junior Herdford association and will be a senior at Minidoka this fall where she has been active member of Pop club, Future Homemakers of America and of the Future Nurses. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Montgomery.

Another Heyburn miss 16-year-old Dixie Walton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Walton, will be riding "Lil Abner," a black quarterhorse. She herself broke in competition. She is a member of concert band and pep band at Minidoka high school where she has just completed her sophomore year. She is active in 4-H club work and the Wranglers.

Claudia Ellison, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hill of the Northside, is a graduate of Minidoka and is employed at the ASC office. She will be riding a palomino quarterhorse "Cindy" in the competition. She helped break and train her horse.

Mrs. Ellison was a member of the Mini-Coeds, Pop club and Future Nurses while at high school, and has been active in her church youth group.

Juanita Summers, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Summers, route 4, Rupert, attends school in Idaho Falls in the winter and spends her summers in Rupert. Miss Summers has been riding "ever since she can remember" and will be riding a three-quarter Arabian called "Penny," which she helped break herself.

Red China May Be Bent on Generating Frigate in U.S.

PRINCE SOUPHANOUVONG is shown at Pathet Lao headquarters town of Khang Khay in Laos Tuesday. He denounced a raid on the town the week before as the work of American, rather than Laotian government, pilots. Behind him is what the Pathet Lao claim is wreckage of an American jet downed by communist ground fire earlier this month. (AP wirephoto via radio from Hanoi)

By WILLIAM L. RYAN (AP Special Correspondent)

Red China's leaders may be trying to generate panic in Europe and the United States by playing up the idea that a general war in Asia is just around the corner.

Aware that this is an election year in the United States, Peking may seek to capitalize on the embroilment of Americans in debate over foreign policy and on the atmosphere of uncertainty this can create elsewhere in the world.

The end of this summer suggests itself as the ideal time for the Red Chinese to apply the heaviest pressure. The season of the monsoon rains is at hand now in Indo-China, and it will last until the end of August. This provides a prospect of full inactivity in Laos and Viet Nam and South Viet Nam and time for diplomatic maneuvering.

Between now and then, Peking seems bent upon a campaign of spreading fright among U. S. European and even Soviet public opinion that there can be calamitous consequences for all Asia and perhaps the whole world because of what is going on in Laos and Viet Nam.

The Soviet Union also says it wants the withdrawal of U. S. forces from South Viet Nam.

The Red Chinese also seem to have around deep uneasiness in Moscow that the southeast Asia situation can involve the USSR in an untidy mess from which it might have little to gain and much to lose.

Agitated Moscow statements in the verbal war with the Chinese communists accuse Peking of following a war policy. Moscow hardly wants a showdown in which it would be obliged to support Peking at the risk of raising danger of a general conflict in Asia.

Peking propaganda says peace in southeast Asia hangs by a thread, that the United States is trying to compel Red China, Viet Nam in accordance with the program of the South Viet Nam national liberation front.

That is its over-organizing for the communist Viet Cong. What it is saying is that South Viet Nam should be left alone so that the communists can take over completely.

Communists would use a new conference to drag in South Viet Nam with the aim of applying pressure for neutralization there, too. President Ho Chi Minh of Red North Viet Nam has clarified what this means.

Ho said Vietnamese should be left alone to settle the question themselves on the basis of national independence, peace and neutrality, so they can later attain peaceful reunification of

Schedule of 3 Churches Is Decided

IANSEN, June 18—Hours for church services of the Kimberley, Murtaugh and St. Paul's churches were set at a joint meeting of the three official boards Tuesday night at the Hansen church, with the Rev. Robert McNeil, new pastor of the three-point charge.

Murtaugh church services will be held at 10 a.m.; Hansen, 10 a.m. and Kimberley, 11:15 a.m. starting Sunday morning. This will be a trial period of three months.

It also was decided that a secretary will be hired to help the minister. His will be allowed 20 hours a week. Other financial responsibilities were discussed. It was decided that parsonage upkeep as well as the other expenses would be shared on a percentage basis by the three church congregations, according to their size.

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. McNeil and three children will reside in the Kimberley parsonage. Their former parsonage was at Vale, Ore.

Committed

HOUSTON, Tex., June 18 (AP)—Johnnie Mae Mackworth, 59, accused by the secret service of writing a threatening letter to President Johnson, has been committed to a government hospital for observation and examination.

Mrs. Mackworth was taken to the hospital in Lexington, Ky., in accordance with a court order. Lane Bertram, agent-in-charge of the secret service here, said yesterday.

Location of Signs Eyed For Heyburn

HEYBURN, June 18—Location of business promotion signs was discussed Tuesday during a luncheon meeting of the Heyburn Chamber of Commerce.

W. Blake, president, conducted the business meeting held at the Rupert Elks club, west of Rupert.

J. R. Brown, member of the village board, reported the state will give the village easement to a portion of land located between the cemetery property and the Snake river for a large sign providing the village clean and maintain the area.

A committee will be appointed during the next board of directors meeting to meet with the village board and cemetery committee concerning the easement condition.

Virgil D. Mattson reported he is corresponding with the Union Pacific Railroad company to obtain an easement on property east of the village for the proposed location of a small sign.

There are three promotion signs to be erected, one large and two smaller ones. The third location will be west of town near the village limits on the Airforce road.

William Welborn reported a population number of 1250 has been derived by the village clerk through the village electric meter service accounts. The population and a 4150 foot elevation will be printed on the sign by Mrs. Virginia Hansen, Burley.

Blake reported on a recent board of directors meeting and informed members the board had decided to keep June 30 as the end of the fiscal year, postponing election of officers will be held during the July meeting. A nominating committee of Oscar Egbert, Brown and Mattson was selected.

Richard Noble, president of the Rupert chamber, reported on plans for the official opening ceremony for the new four-lane highway which is nearing completion between Burley and Rupert.

He said the chambers from Rupert, Burley and Heyburn will combine resources for the ribbon cutting and ceremony at which a state official will be honored guest. The ceremony location will be announced later.

The Heyburn chamber is contemplating having a float in the Fourth of July parade in Rupert and Lorea. Kenneth and Welborn were appointed to make arrangements with business establishments.

Blake said all establishments will be notified for ideas concerning the chamber float and they also will be welcome to sponsor their own individual float.

Otis Orton, of the Orton Realty in Burley, was a guest.

Birth Control Pill Cancer Study Is Hit

CHICAGO, June 18 (AP)—A spokesman for G. D. Searle, a pharmaceutical manufacturer, said Wednesday there is no scientific evidence to support any conclusions that the pill spreads the growth of cancer in women.

James W. Irwin, corporate policy counselor for Searle, issued the statement. University of Oregon medical researchers who found that the pill, enovid, "greatly accelerated the development and growth of all carcinoma tumors" in rats.

"Enovid does not cause nor does it promote the growth of already existing cancer in humans according to all known scientific data," the Searle spokesman said.

"In fact, most recent scientific data actually suggests that the incidence of breast and genital cancer in women receiving the pill is less than the normal expectancy in women who do not receive such therapy," the company said.

Trading in the company's stock on the New York stock exchange was delayed Wednesday morning because of an accumulation of sell orders which followed the research team's findings.

Trading began with a 100-share block at $50, down 1 1/2 from Tuesday's closing price.

Extension of Excise Tax Passes House

WASHINGTON, June 18 (AP)—The House agreed yesterday to extend for one year 1.9 billion dollars worth of excise taxes enacted during the Korean conflict. It also rejected a Republican drive to strip $17 million from the excise tax structure.

The extension, which must be approved by the Senate, continues levies on alcohol, tobacco, passenger automobiles and auto parts, telephone service and air travel which were due to expire June 30.

Earlier, House Republicans, claiming they were striking a blow for women — failed in a bid to repeal $17 million in excise levies on handbags, luggage, cosmetics, furs and jewelry.

All of the taxes involved in yesterday's action are part of the 14.7 billion excise tax program — a varied collection of taxes on 43 products and services. Most were enacted during World War II and the Korean conflict.

Presses Needed At Denver Mint If Silver Wanted

DENVER, June 18 (AP)—Mrs. Fern V. Miller, Denver mint superintendent, said today additional presses would be needed if Denver was to mint any of the 45 million new silver dollars, a proposal now under study.

"The treasury department has assured us we will receive additional presses in the near future," Mrs. Miller said. "With those, we might be set back a little if we have to mint silver dollars, but we could adjust and there would be no serious problems."

The senate appropriations committee yesterday gave approval to minting 45 million carwheelies at the Denver and Philadelphia mints. Similar action now must be taken by a senate-house conference committee and approved by the house.

By WILLIAM A. DOYLE. J. When I learned that the stock of a prosperous chemical company was going to be offered for sale to the public for the first time, I called my broker and asked for information about the offering. He said that he could not learn much about the stock and he said that no prospectus was available.

I then called the brokerage firm which was offering the stock. I was told that even though the offering had not yet been made, the stock was "oversubscribed." I was told that I could not get a prospectus because it was "out of print." Doesn't this seem strange to you?

A. Yes—but probably for reasons that are different from your reasons. To me, it is always "oversubscribed" because the people who will often rush in to buy stock about which they know little or nothing—just because the stock is being offered to the public for the first time.

This may or may not have been the case with you, Al. As you showed the good sense of asking for a copy of the prospectus—a document which provides...

Stanley Heller and company say it is our opinion that new highs will be reached sometime this summer in an upward phase of the market which could prove more dynamic than anything experienced so far this year.

International statistical bureau forecasts that new market highs will be reached during the coming months with only intervening dips only "moderate and temporary." But, the bureau cautions, "new construction activity would not hesitate to take full advantage of any near-term selling pressure by accumulating well situated stocks."

Enforcement Of Dog Leash Law Praised

Enforcement of the new dog leash ordinance in Twin Falls has been good, H. L. (Harb) Derrick, city manager, said Wednesday.

Since the law went into effect Jan. 1, 64 dogs have been impounded by the dog catcher, Derrick said. Very few of these dogs have been reclaimed. The ones that have been reclaimed are those that were destroyed after a period of time. Most of the dogs impounded, Derrick said, are strays.

Derrick said a total of 44 court citations, a total of 301 warnings and 17 citations have been issued to Twin Falls dog owners since Jan. 1. The warning citations are issued to dog owners the first time they are contacted by the dog catcher, Derrick said. The dog catcher contacts the owner for the same offense, the owner is given a court citation and will have to appear in court.

All dog owners are reminded July 1. Licenses purchased after July 1. Licenses purchased after July 1 will cost dog owners an additional dollar, a penalty for purchasing them late.

Dog licenses are required for all dogs six months old and older and they must be inoculated with rabies vaccine.

After their arrival in Wichita, Crawford bought a .38 caliber pistol with which he threatened to kill Mrs. Duke said. She used the gun to shoot him in the back of the head as he lay on a bed in a room at the motel.

State Senator Proposes One-House Legislature

By The Associated Press

State Sen. Jack Wood, D., Bonnellville, yesterday proposed that Idaho adopt a one-house legislature in view of supreme court reapportionment rulings, and move to yearly legislative sessions.

The idea of a unicameral legislature drew immediate support, but both Lieut. Gov. W. E. Drevlow and Secretary of State Arnold Williams said the legislature should meet annually instead of every two years.

Williams also said that action should be taken before the 1966 legislature meets to draft a district plan for reapportionment before the legislature meets to consider reapportionment bills.

He suggested that county party chairmen each appoint two persons to a committee to work on it in their counties.

Under supreme court rulings handed down Monday it seems certain that Idaho will restructure both houses of its legislature on a population basis, with both house members and senators representing equal numbers of people.

"The senate is now organized primarily on a geographic basis with one member for each of the 24 counties."

Senate districts, with smaller house districts, have been suggested.

"In view of the numerous changes that will be brought about by the court's reapportionment decision," said Wood, "it would seem the proper time to consider changing our present two-house legislature from a two-chambered to a single-chambered assembly."

Wood said under the present system "special interests" have a better chance to block popular legislation. He said the two-house assembly sometimes makes it impossible to fix responsibility for legislation.

Wood said Nebraska, with the nation's only unicameral legislature, gets a higher caliber lawmaker who is more responsible to his constituents.

Williams said Idaho's legislators were elected by districts many years ago, before all the existing counties were created. He said some were created primarily to bring people closer to county seats.

"The secretary of state said the problem of drawing up a district system will inevitably get into politics, with Democrats and Republicans both trying to draw boundaries favorable to election of lawmakers of their party."

Williams said if party county

Woman Cuts Off Head of Rattlesnake

TRIJONCA, Calif., June 18—"I should have been petrified, but I wasn't. I just grabbed up a hatchet and chopped that snake's head off."

This was the calm story a 21-year-old housewife told authorities today after she killed an 18-inch-long rattlesnake that invaded her kitchen in this Los Angeles suburb.

Mrs. Sandra Morell said she was feeding her son, Dennis, 10 months, when the rattler crawled from behind a chair. Her husband, Dennis, Jr., was an active duty with his naval reserve unit in nearby Long Beach.

Morell had been remodeling the house and had left his tools out, including the hatchet.

After killing the reptile, Mrs. Morell telephoned the Humane society, which advised her to put the fanged head in a bag and bury it.

She said she had no idea how the snake got into the home.

"I kept hearing rattles last night," Mrs. Morell said, "and helped in search, but we couldn't find a thing."

Cowboys to Move Under Lights for Final Workouts

The Magic Valley Cowboys will move under the lights for their final two practice sessions before heading for the Pioneer league opener at Idaho Falls Sunday afternoon, reminds manager Rex Carr. The team will play two intra-club games Thursday and Friday nights and each should go from 12 to 14 innings. The team will begin practice at 6 p.m. both nights, working in the infield and outfield and the pitcher about 7:30. The Cowboys will hold only a loosening up workout Saturday and leave for Idaho Falls at 9 a.m. Sunday for their 2 p.m. game.

Big Week-End

The Twin Falls American Legion junior baseball team has slated an ambitious week-end schedule in which it will play at least four games with three different teams.

Play will begin at 11 a.m. Saturday when Mountain Home will arrive for a seven-inning affair. Caldwell will arrive at 2 p.m. for a six-inning game. Sunday morning a pair of seven-inning tilts.

Wrapping it up will be a doubleheader Sunday against Pocatello, the first game to start at 11 a.m. with the second at 2 p.m.

Coch Coach Harold Brown reports "we have five pitchers ready to go and we're hoping they all can go the distance."

McCovey's Pinch Homer Fine-Silencer

Building instructor Hank Bauer was equally pleased with the pinch-homer his hitters were hitting. "I'm awfully disappointed in the club's inability to hit very often. It was Carr's first look at the pitchers used Wednesday and he generally he was satisfied with them although none had good control. Ron Franzman, Graellano Para and Cook Henry were three of the men used. We'll take a look at the rest of them Thursday and Friday night," Carr said, "but we have to start watching how much they work because the season is so close now."

Other news: Third baseman Neudo Morates appears hot for the season because of a trick knee that gave out during Sunday's practice game. Morates is slated to have the knee operated on in the near future.

Rupert Club Edges T. F. by 3-2

RUPERT, June 18 (AP)—Rupert edged a T. F. team 3-2 Wednesday night and Byrnes made them stand up for a 3-2 victory over the Twin Falls American Legion junior baseball club.

Thomas and Westendorf led off the decisive rally by living on errors and moved up when Jolly bounced out second to first. Tim Miller delivered a single worth two runs and the fleet Miller scored minutes later when Beckle walked and Jolly's grounder was error.

Twin Falls got its two runs in the second inning. Ed Miller touched it doubled and Ruby Oliphant lived on an error that let Touchette score. Oliphant moved up while Ed Storey was being put out and scored on a throwing error.

After that the pitchers dominated play, Miller getting the only other Rupert hit, a single in the third inning. The loss was hung on Robert Klundt, who worked the first three frames.

Wild Pitch Helps Cubs Drop Phils

CHICAGO, June 18 (AP)—Rubever Jack Baldschun wild-pitched across a seventh-inning run that gave the Chicago Cubs a lead they never lost in a 9-5 victory over the National league-leading Philadelphia Phillies Wednesday.

For good measure, Billy Williams, the league's leading hitter, and Tom Santo stroked successive home runs for the Cubs in the eighth. Williams' blow, his 17th, was his second of the game. He also had a triple, and his three-for-five performance boosted his batting average to .312.

Phils' pitcher, Steve Carlton, pitched a 2-1 game. He struck out 10 batters and walked 10. He pitched 10 1/3 innings, allowing 10 runs, 11 hits and 10 errors. He pitched 10 1/3 innings, allowing 10 runs, 11 hits and 10 errors.

Rickey Advances In Tennis Meet

LONDON, June 18 (AP)—Cliff Rickey, America's top tennis prospect, scored another handsome victory Wednesday and became the only American representative in the quarter-finals of the Queen's club tournament.

With a fine display of volleying and driving, the 17-year-old from Dallas overpowered Francis Goodhart, Canada, 6-0, 6-4.

Two other Americans were knocked out in men's singles and four in women's singles in this last big tennis tournament before Wimbledon opens next week.

Giants Win on Pinch Homer By McCovey

SAN FRANCISCO, June 18 (AP)—Willie McCovey's two-run pinch-hit homer in the bottom of the ninth inning gave the San Francisco Giants a 3-2 victory over the Cincinnati Reds Wednesday.

Reds' starter Joe Nuxhall scattered six hits and had a 2-1 lead going into the ninth and retired Jim Davenport opening the Giants' ninth. But Jose Pagan singled to left before McCovey, battling for Detroit, blasted a grounder that set up Cincinnati's go-ahead run. Leo Cardenas singled to drive Vada Pinson home with the lead run.

The Reds had taken the lead against Giant starter Bob Bolin on an unearned run in the eighth when Jim Davenport batted a grounder that set up Cincinnati's go-ahead run. Leo Cardenas singled to drive Vada Pinson home with the lead run.

Jofre-Pimental Title Bout Set

LOS ANGELES, June 18 (AP)—World lightweight champion Eder Jofre, Brazil, and Mexico's Jesus Pimental will meet for the title here in mid-August in either the Coliseum or the Sports arena, boxing promoter George Parassous announced Wednesday.

Parassous said the champion had agreed to terms guaranteeing him $10,000, and expenses and Pimental, who has scored 20 knockouts in 40 fights, stands to earn at least $416,000.

Pimental will go through with his 10-round fight July 1 in the Sports arena with Fighting Harada of Japan, but Jesus' manager, Harry Kabakoff said he anticipates no danger for the title match.

Player's Dream Sees U.S. Open Victory, but Doesn't Say When

WASHINGTON, June 18 (AP)—Like Hamlet, Gary Player dresses all in black and has dreams. Player dreams about golf. If one of his dreams had only lasted a little longer, the world's best golfer would have saved a lot of nightmares at the U. S. open this week-end. And heartaches. And shocks. But Gary woke up too soon. Or, as W. Shakespeare had his Hamlet say: "To sleep, no more. And via sleep to end the heartache."

Caddie Bows To Pressure, Quits Palmer

WASHINGTON, June 18 (AP)—Arnold Palmer's caddie quit him Wednesday on the eve of the national open golf tournament—he said he couldn't stand the pressure.

"I'm a nervous wreck," said Ed Morrison, a 31-year-old Negro who voluntarily blew the dream of most every bag-toler in the world.

"I thought about it all night. I couldn't sleep. I tossed and turned. I couldn't sleep."

"Then I decided I couldn't do it. All them people pushing and cheering. All that tension and there, I didn't feel up to the pier."

Ed was trembling and on the verge of tears when he disclosed his surprising decision in front of the caddie shop, run by ex-fighter Joe Miller.

"The caddie said he realized he was giving up one of a caddy's most desired assignments and perhaps blowing a $1,000 check in case Palmer, a favorite for the title, should win."

"I decided money didn't mean that much to me," Ed said. "I can't take it here."

He put the place where his caddie was surprised but not shaken by the department for Palmer said he didn't understand why Ed left him. "He was okay and we didn't have any trouble," the Masters champion and world's all-time leading money winner said. "I noticed he was a bit fidgety and nervous."

"I figured maybe he saw me play yesterday and decided he'd like to get on another horse."

Carr Will Miss NCAA Meet

EUGENE, Ore., June 18 (AP)—Sprinter Henry Carr, Arizona State, won't make it, but 10 other former champions will be competing in the three-day national collegiate track meet, starting Thursday.

Carr, who has run the 230-yard dash faster than any other man, injured a leg muscle last week-end. It may even keep him out of the national AAU meet at New Brunswick, N. J., June 20-27.

"That does away with Carr's match against Bob Hayes of Florida A and M. Hayes intends to stick to 200 meters in this meet, waiting until the AAU meet for the 100 meters."

Borcs does that.

"There are a couple of others but these are the main ones."

Koufax Extends Shutout String, Blanks Braves

LOS ANGELES, June 18 (AP)—Sandy Koufax pitched a three-hitter and ran his string of scoreless innings to 22 Wednesday night with his fifth consecutive victory as the Los Angeles Dodgers defeated Milwaukee 3-0. Koufax, 4-4, permitted only one runner to reach second and struck out eight while walking one. He fell two strikeouts short of breaking the major league record for most 10-or-more strikeout performances. He has done it 54 times and shares the record with Rube Waddell and Bob Feller.

The Dodgers made 11 hits, eight of them off starter and loser Denny Lemaster, 7-4.

The Dodgers scored their first run in the third inning on a single by Tom Davis, a walk and a single by Nate Olyver.

"They scored four in the next inning, chasing Lemaster. Dorell Griffith started the rally with his first major league homer."

In his last four starts—beginning with his no-hitter at Philadelphia June 4—Koufax has allowed only 11 hits and one run. In his last nine appearances, including one in relief, he has allowed eight earned runs in 60 1/3 innings.

This was his fourth shutout of the season. His earned-run average is 1.84.

Improvement in Water, Road Conditions Noted For Week-End Fishermen

BOISE, June 18 (AP)—Some improvement in water and road conditions was listed in the weekly fishing report of the Idaho fish and game department Wednesday. But the agency said weather "is still the controlling factor in that storms continue to drift in and cause immediate changes on localized areas." "Streams are generally still high but are fairly clear and are dropping unless it rains," the department said. "A period of three or four days without additional storms could make great changes and fishing improvement."

Boston Nips Yanks 4-3 in 12 Innings

NEW YORK, June 18 (AP)—Russ Nixon, a pinch-hitter, singled with two out in the top of the 12th inning, scoring Leo Thomas with the run that gave the Boston Red Sox a 4-3 victory over the New York Yankees Wednesday. Nixon's game-winning hit came off Ralph Terry, the Yankees' fourth pitcher, and made a winner of pitcher Dick Radtch, Boston's brilliant relief who pitched five innings, his longest since the year before. Radtch checked a Yankee batter in the seventh but served no home runs to Mickey Mantle in the eighth which narrowed the lead to 3-2.

State Trapshooting Tournament Opens Here Friday

The top shooters from Idaho along with some from Oregon and Utah will compete in the Pacific International Trapshooting association's Idaho State championship Friday through Sunday at the Twin Falls Country Club facilities on Washington street north.

Club president Barney Glavin notes that while the exact number of competitors is not known, a top flight field is expected. At stake will be the 100-yard singles, doubles and handicap singles. The public is invited to watch.

At least two defending champions are expected back. Ike Ellis, Idaho Falls, won the 100-yard singles last year while Jim Hays, Idaho Falls, hit a fantastic 98 out of a possible 100 dummies to claim that division.

Giving these competitors will be Sunny Boyd, the Boise police detective, Ted Leichty, Nampa, and Kent Harris, Boise. Twin Falls will contribute a solid contender in 11-year-old Barry Glavin, 11, who last month was the junior runner-up in the American Trapshooting association state finals in Lewiston.

The 100-yard single title is decided on the basis of 200 birds with the program being split. The first 100 targets of that competition will be shot beginning at 9 a.m. Friday. The preliminary afternoon session will be the Cactus Pete special, consisting of 100 handicap targets.

Writer Foresees Changes in Political Control if Idaho Is Reapportioned

By RICHARD CHARNOCK
BOISE, June 18 (AP) — More than just representation will change if the courts, as expected, command reapportionment of both houses of the Idaho legislature.

Political control and the very character of legislation may change along with county boundaries and, possibly, even the number of counties in the state.

When the U.S. supreme court struck down the apportionment laws of six states by ruling that both houses should be apportioned on a population basis it set in motion the wheels for sweeping reforms.

While the ruling did not directly refer to Idaho, most observers believe it will result in reconsideration of the Idaho reapportionment case which was dismissed in U.S. district court that case now is on appeal to the high court.

And in that case, attorney Herman A. MacNeil, Pasco, argued that both the house and senate should be reapportioned on a population basis.

There is some doubt whether the courts would order reapportionment of the Idaho legislature before this year's elections. But like death and taxes, many believe that reapportionment is inevitable.

A number of solutions are available for the problem created by the reapportionment ruling. One of the more likely is formation of legislative districts from which house and senate members will be elected.

If this is tried, as some believe it will be, the days of one party rule in many areas of the state may be over. Harking out and out gerrymandering, you may see some Democrats elected from Ada, Canyon and Twin Falls counties. And you may see some Republicans chosen to represent Hamock, Nes Perce and other Democratic strongholds of the past.

For, by electing men and women from districts instead of selecting them from at large within counties, you shift emphasis from the party to the candidate.

Legislators, who by sheer force of their party numbers in some counties are assured of election by winning the primary, no longer will be able to count on numerical party strength to carry them to victory.

A lot of Republicans live in counties nominally Democratic and a lot of Democrats live in so-called Republican counties. Unless they are gerrymandered out of position they may, at long last, get a vote for their votes.

Some politicians already are starting to add up their hidden strength in these "one-party" counties where, until now, they have had as much chance of election as a rock-ribbed Republican in the deep South.

The elites, of course, hold the key to political control under a system where population is the criterion for apportionment. Republicans still look hopefully to those, Caldwell and Twin Falls, while the Democrats are speculatively counting noses in Nampa, Pocatello, Idaho Falls and Lewiston. Both could make inroads, however, in each other's territory.

Because reapportionment on a population basis gives the elites the whiphand in the legislature, you can expect tax revision that some agricultural interests long have stymied.

Municipalities, for instance, may get a bigger slice of highway monies to care for their streets and possibly may get a chunk of other revenues to help their ever-increasing financial problems. Education, too, may achieve some of the goals that county lines and provincial interests heretofore have blocked.

Legislation of, by and for those who live in the densely-populated areas of Idaho is headed for the forefront of the law-making machinery and the legislature as you know it now is headed for the fate of the buggy whip.

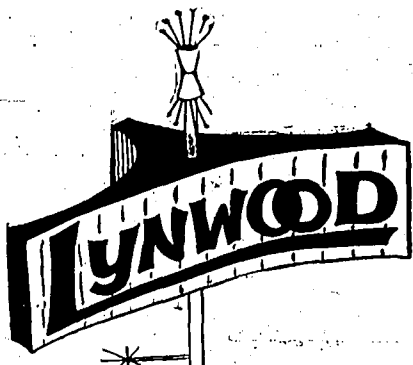

The U.S. supreme court sound of the death knell for rural control of the legislature when it handed down the decision requiring apportionment of both houses on a population basis. Some have questioned the wisdom of that ruling. But unless somebody finds a way to circumvent it the farmers are going to have a mighty small voice in the scheme of things ahead.
