

HOUSE PASSES HISTORIC RIGHTS BILL

Long Fight Ends, Johnson Prepares To Make Bill Law

WASHINGTON, July 2 (AP)—Congress finally completed action on the civil rights bill today as the house passed the historic measure and sent it to the White House to be signed into law. The house vote was 280-126. House approval of the Senate-passed bill brought to an end a year-long legislative struggle conducted against a background of rising racial tensions. President Johnson is expected to sign the bill quickly in hopes its bars against discrimination will help ease the pressure of civil rights demonstrations and countermeasures taken to oppose them. Negro leaders have promised a quick test of some of the bill's provisions, and some southern members of congress have predicted the first results of its passage will be increased violence, not a lessening of it.

The house originally passed its own version of the bill last February, 280 to 130. In the Senate, however, it had the bill with a three-month debate but on June 10 the senate finally passed it 72 to 27 in a revised form. That sent the bill back to the house.

Sheriff Stabbed by Prisoner in Burley

BURLEY, July 2 — Cassia county Sheriff Hubert Warrell was stabbed about eight times in the chest Wednesday night in the Cassia county jail.

Sheriff Warrell said he entered a cell about 10:25 p.m. to get a mental patient to put on a bus, and was stabbed with some sharp object by Alonzo Malogon, about 20, Burley. Warrell said he was struck about eight times, but the cuts were not too deep.

Malogon then fled, Warrell said. Apparently Malogon didn't know the courthouse too well, because he went into the basement and broke out a window to escape. The escapee cut his arm on broken glass, he added.

About 2 a.m. Thursday, county and city police officers cornered Malogon in the north end of Burley in a stolen car.

Sheriff Warrell said Malogon is in maximum security at the county jail. He was in jail originally for assault with a deadly weapon, Warrell said.

Warrell said he was going to be treated for the cuts this afternoon by a Burley physician.

Junior College System in Idaho Urged by Board

BOISE, July 2 (AP)—The state board of education yesterday urged creation of a statewide system of junior colleges and an advisory commission to aid in administration of Idaho's two tax-supported universities. Members, during a day-long session called to review policies governing education in Idaho, also approved a suggestion that the 1965 legislature be asked to appropriate funds for hiring of a full time research director to work under the board in its recommendation for creation of a university advisory commission. The board rejected suggestions that a separate board be set up to administer the institutions of higher learning.

Red Replies To Sister's Denunciation

HAVANA, July 2 (AP)—Primo Minister Fidel Castro, commenting for the first time on the denunciation of his sister, Juanita, today said her bitter denunciation of his regime was "written in the United States embassy in Mexico City." Castro said Juanita's act was "personally very bitter. But I understand that this is the price of being a revolutionary."

Senate Debates Need Of Pay Raise Bill

WASHINGTON, July 2 (AP)—The senate rejected 65 to 26 today a proposal to defer any federal pay raises for those making $20,000 or more until the budget is balanced. The amendment was offered by Sen. John J. Williams, R., Del., who said it would offer a tremendous incentive to those in the top levels of government to stop red-ink spending. This was the first vote today on the senate resumed consideration of a $64-million-dollar pay hike bill covering 4.7 million employees, including millionaires, including themselves.

Brasque Russ Doesn't Cow Norwegian

OSLO, Norway, July 2 (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev told his unwilling hosts at the sixth electrochemical conference in Norway today that he could not teach him anything about fertilizers. The firm's general manager replied that they could.

Khrushchev was met by the general manager, Rolf Oestbye, before he started a one-hour tour of the Halden fertilizer plant, part of the Norsk Hydro complex. He asked Oestbye which type of fertilizer was better, liquid or solid. Oestbye said that was a difficult question to answer.

Khrushchev remarked: "This seems to be a problem, which you have not solved." Oestbye replied that the company was doing research in this field.

Khrushchev said liquid fertilizer is best because it can be used in all sorts of terrain, while solid fertilizer would not be so good in dry country.

Oestbye related: "You cannot generalize like that." Khrushchev said: "Obviously I cannot learn anything from you." "Oh, yes," said Oestbye, "I'm sure you could."

Quota Change Asked by Rusk

WASHINGTON, July 2 (AP)—Congress was urged today by Secretary of State Dean Rusk to revoke U. S. immigration laws to eliminate discrimination in the program.

Rusk testified at a house hearing in favor of a world quota to replace the present national quota system. The plan was proposed originally by the late President John F. Kennedy.

NO MAN IN THE STREET When Mrs. Rita Elberg became head of the flag committee of the Clifton (Ohio) Business and Professional men's association, she thought the job only involved ordering the flags for the Fourth of July. But after the flag arrived the members of the group found various excuses and so Mrs. Elberg went to work herself with a drill and at last count had put up 20 or so flagpole sockets to the chorus of, "Rita, you shouldn't be doing this." Rusk Is Expecting Lively Asian Debate

WASHINGTON, July 2 (UPI)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk expects a "lively" discussion of U. S. policy on Southeast Asia in the presidential campaign, but does not believe it should be approached from an "specifically partisan" viewpoint. Rusk blames newsmen for any confusion there may be over whether the administration is emphasizing the warlike or peaceful aspects of its program in that area, but recognizes the "pressures of deadlines." These views emerged in the course of a 30-minute news conference yesterday in which Rusk also said:

"I believe Communist leaders can find a 'solid political base' for pulling their country together despite the critical problems emerging because of withdrawal of United Nations forces.

"Russian troops are withdrawing 'reticently' from Cuba, but he doesn't want to get into 'the numbers game.' The Soviet Union has not told the United States whether it has given or intends to give Fidel Castro control of long range anti-aircraft missiles there.

"Cyprus is a 'strategic and dangerous situation' but the United Nations mediator may be able to get Turkey and Greece to discuss the problem. Members of NATO, to which both belong, may be 'of some assistance.' Rusk said all Americans are 'stockholders' in the problems of stemming the communist tide in South Viet Nam and other parts of Southeast Asia. He said the 'serious leadership of both parties' should address themselves 'to the issue' in terms of the national interest.

However, he added, it is not quite clear where the basis is for making the discussions specifically partisan in character, because they are not partisan issues.

Rusk cautioned there is always a risk of war in any military activity designed to strengthen the ability of independent nations to resist communist aggression. But he emphasized that the primary American objective in Southeast Asia was to achieve peace without any extinction of the fighting.

LONDON, July 2 (AP)—A freighter from communist East Germany is expected to sail today with 100 buses which Britain is shipping to Cuba over American protests.

Sprinkling Regulations Now in Effect

Twin Falls residents are warned that the lawn sprinkling regulations are now in effect. H. L. (Herb) Derrick, city manager, said Wednesday the ordinance has been in effect since July 1, but due to the unusual amount of rain this year, notification of the ordinance was not released until now.

Derrick explains the ordinance is in effect on everyone in the city of Twin Falls can have more water pressure than would be available if everyone used water to sprinkle or irrigate at the same time.

The ordinance states the property owners, tenants or occupants on even-numbered properties will sprinkle or irrigate on odd-numbered days of the month. New seeded lawns which require water more frequently are exempt.

However, Derrick said, this regulation is not in effect on Saturdays, Sundays or on holidays. Violations of this ordinance can be fined up to $100, sentenced to 30 days in jail or both, Derrick said.

Smyle Asked to Introduce GOP Keynote Speaker

BOISE, July 2 (AP)—Gov. Robert E. Smyle announced today he has accepted an invitation to introduce the keynote speaker at the Republican national convention.

Smyle said he was asked to introduce Gov. Mark O. Hatfield, Oregon, the keynote speaker, at the evening session of the convention in San Francisco July 13. The invitation to Smyle came from the convention committee on arrangements.

Reds Destroy Vietnamese Army Convoy

SALGON, South Viet Nam, July 2 (AP)—Communist guerrillas knocked out a Vietnamese army convoy yesterday on a mountain highway notorious for bloody ambushes in the present Indo-China war, killing 20 government troops and wounding 21 others.

The communist attackers failed in the main objective of stripping the convoy of its cargo because of factors not available in the Indo-China war—helicopters—the defense ministry reported.

U.S. helicopters roared in over the convoy while the Viet Cong was stripping it of weapons. Zooming in on the black clad guerrillas with guns blazing, the Americans kept the Viet Cong from carrying off thousands of rounds of heavy artillery shells until reinforcements arrived by road.

The Viet Cong took a heavy toll on the 80-man Vietnamese security force that was accompanying the 30-truck convoy from coastal Qui Nhon, 250 miles north of Saigon, to Pleiku, 80 air miles inland in the central highlands.

Driver Dies

CHARLOTTE, N.C., July 2 (AP)—Famed stock car driver Glenn (Fireball) Roberts died today from injuries he received in a three-mile race during the world 500-mile race here on May 24.

Doctors at Charlotte Memorial Hospital listed the cause of death as pneumonia and septicemia—blood poisoning—secondary to burns.

Much Royalty Revealed by Droopy Dress

LONDON, July 2 (AP)—Princess Margaret danced in a low-cut gown Wednesday night and her husband, Lord Snowdon, sported a wig with a bow in it.

Along with the wig, the princess' ex-photographer husband wore an eggplant-colored velvet jacket with lace cuffs and a swan's tail at the back. Knee breeches, white stockings and a gold waistcoat completed Snowdon's ensemble.

The princess wore a wig, too, a silver one traditionally made of jeweled gown of pale blue silk. The neckline plunged down to a corset embroidered in gold and pearls.

A huge butterfly chain holding a multi-annular—stopped somewhat out of sight—neckline were more jewels ending in a magnificent pendant.

Neither the princess nor Lord Snowdon was setting a new fashion. They were guests of London's Lord Mayor Clement Dawson at a Georgian hall and all the guests wore the styles of two centuries ago.

In those days the very low neckline was customary and raised no eyebrows.

Smyle Says Board's Plan Is Good One

BOISE, July 2 (AP)—Gov. Robert E. Smyle voiced approval today of a plan for creation of junior college districts embracing all areas of the state.

The state board of education included such a proposal in recommendations it approved for submission to the legislature.

Smyle said he thinks there is particular merit in the junior college program in the field of adult education. He said such courses, aimed specifically at vocational training, could be offered most efficiently through a junior college system.

The governor said he favors financing at both the state and local levels, and that it is important that the district system be used to assure local control.

Smyle said plans should be prepared now. They could be implemented later.

BRITAIN'S PRINCESS MARGARET showed up at an 18th century-style ball in London Wednesday night in what could be called a near-foppish dress. The neckline dips to a corset embroidered in gold and pearls, featuring a large butterfly chain thrust at the critical point. She wears a smoky blue wig watching a jeweled pale blue silk gown styled in the manner of two centuries ago. (AP wirephoto via cable from London)

Government Nears End of Hoffa Case

CHICAGO, July 2 (AP)—The federal government neared the end today of its second attempt this year to send Teamster Union boss James R. Hoffa to prison.

The last witness for the prosecution appeared Wednesday in the marathon trial of Hoffa and seven associates.

The eight defendants are charged with fraudulently obtaining $3 million dollars from the master union pension funds and diverting $7 million dollars of the amount into their own pockets.

There were indications the government would rest its case by today.

The police guard began Nov. 24, the day accused assassin Lee Harvey Oswald was shot by Jack Ruby.

The police protection ended Jan. 2 several weeks after the threatening calls ceased.

R. Pound, Great Law Expert, Dies

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., July 2 (AP)—Roscoe Pound, considered in legal circles the greatest living authority on law though he never earned a law degree, died Wednesday night at the age of 93.

Death came to the former Harvard law school dean of febrile old age after a long illness in Harvard's Hillman infirmary where he had been living in recent months.

A memorial service will be conducted Thursday in Memorial Church in Harvard Yard where Pound was a familiar figure to generations of Harvard men.

Follow-up lawyers have called Pound "the man whom lawyers recognize as the greatest student of common law of all time."

On Pound's 92nd birthday, Chief Justice Earl Warren said of him: "His devotion to the law, his contributions to the education of members of both the bench and bar, and his great contributions to the jurisprudence of our country have not been excelled in our history."

Pound went to Harvard to study law in 1890, but he never finished the course.

He earned his A.B., master's and Ph.D. degrees at the University of Nebraska—in history. Pound was born in Lincoln, Neb., on Oct. 27, 1870. His father was Stephen B. Pound, who eventually became a lawyer and a judge.

In 1910, Pound was summoned to Harvard, to begin what has been described as one of the most illustrious law professorships of all time.

In 1913, he was given the coveted Grater Professorship of law. In 1916, he was made dean of the Harvard law school, a post he was to retain until his retirement in 1935.

He thus became Harvard's first University professor with a lifetime appointment.

Pound resigned in 1947 and at the age of 76 accepted an invitation from Chung Kai-shek to codify Chinese laws.

Prominent Idaho Solons Jeopardized By Court Ruling to Alter Vote Lines

BY NORMAN MARTIN BOISE, July 2 (AP)—The last great battle in Idaho history in which natives fought against federal intervention was the Nez Perce Indian war 87 years ago Saturday.

What amounts to the start of another historical chapter over federal intervention will be taken up at a special session Monday of the Idaho legislative council.

The council has been asked by Gov. Robert E. Smylie to act over a U.S. Supreme court decision that the Idaho legislature is invalid because it does not give equal representation to the voters.

The Nez Perce Indian war began when the tribes became restless over white soldiers who wanted to divide their fertile lands. When the federal government intervened and attempted to force the Nez Perce into dividing and sharing the land, the tribes resisted and went to war but after three years all was lost.

There are at least five members of the Idaho council who may wish to fight because their fertile existence in the political field is jeopardized by the federal court decision.

Because they represent small counties that could be gobbled up and lost in huge electoral districts, such Republican leaders in the state as House Speaker Pete T. Conarrus, Blaine county, and President Pro Tem Jack Murphy, Lincoln county, could be forgiven for fighting like savages against district drafts that would leave them out in the cold, and likely Britain Ships Cuba Buses, Defies U.S.

LONDON, July 2 (AP)—The first of 850 buses ordered in Britain by Cuba were shipped off to Havana yesterday in defiance of the U.S. embargo.

The first shipment of 10 buses left aboard a communist East German freighter, the Muhl-Cassia, to avoid further complications with U.S. authorities who have strenuously opposed the deal. The United States blacklist ships trading with Cuba.

The British government has refused to halt the buses-for-Cuba deal on the grounds that it is a straight commercial deal which does not involve any strategic materials.

The British government has repeatedly stated that Britain bars only the sale to Cuba of goods on the strategic embargo list agreed to by the Western allies for communist countries; buses are not on the list.

The buses were ordered by Cuba from the British Leyland motor firm in a deal worth the Cubans more than 25 million dollars.

Russ Trying to Get Message To China Watch Your Step

MOSCOW, July 2 (AP)—The Kremlin is trying to get a message across to Mao Tse-tung: Be careful about getting into a quarrel with the United States over the Chinese at a time when we might not come help you.

The message is an important third voice in the dialogue between Washington and Peking, who have been warning each other that a minor conflict could develop out of Viet Nam or Laos.

There are indications that the Soviet Union has not made up its mind just what it would do if a war developed. It wants to avoid being forced to make up its mind.

But the Kremlin sees the possibility that the Chinese will force it to split itself on one of the horns of a dilemma long implicit in Soviet policy.

Premier Khrushchev has warned against nuclear war with the United States as a realistic way to expand communist control. Khrushchev has been advocating economic competition instead.

The Chinese have gone ahead pressing policies that carry the potential of war.

The dilemma would be whether to let down another communist country and thus help the Western alliance, or to get involved in a war that Khrushchev says would be disastrous to everyone.

So the Kremlin has been issuing warnings to try to restrain Red China. It has not said publicly what the Soviet Union definitely would do—China—its own to face American military power. What the warnings have said is that China could happen.

"This is a change from the old situation of automatic support to the north—no, my, right of wrong."

The warnings have been conveyed in the rather obscure way that communists talk to each other through cryptic articles in their newspapers.

The treaty of friendship, alliance and mutual assistance that Stalin and Mao negotiated in 1950 says:

If one country is engaged in a state of war with Japan or states allied with it, the other will immediately render military and other assistance with all the means at its disposal.

Western observers have assumed that allied states meant the United States primarily.

The treaty also provides for consultation on all important

Meat Import Bill Okayed By Committee

WASHINGTON, July 2 (AP)—The senate finance committee yesterday approved a bill to allow a more liberal import of meat.

The bill, backed by U.S. cattlemen whose prices have been low for more than a year, would allow imports to the 1963-64 average, beginning next January 1. It cleared the committee by a vote of 11 to 2.

The measure was sponsored by Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield, Mont.

"SUBSTATION-IN-BOX," designed and built by Idaho Power company, is getting its final inspection by company officials. Making checks in the compact, though packed with complex control equipment, box are G. E. Davis, left, electrician, and Cliff Diffendaffer, protection studies technician who designed the control system. The tiny substation will be installed at the utility's new Blue Gulch irrigation-pumping substation near Buhl.

Wrong Bed

LA SPECTRA (May, July 2)—Mrs. Margherita Medinelli, 60, returned to her apartment yesterday to find a complete stranger lounging on her bed.

"Excuse me, I must be in the wrong apartment," the man said, and left through the window.

Mrs. Medinelli told police she was not surprised she never even recognized him. When the stranger was gone, she called police.

A check of the house showed 150,000 lire ($250) and one of her husband's suits missing.

"Substation-in-Box" Will Be Installed in Buhl Area

A "substation-in-box" soon will be installed at Idaho Power company Blue Gulch irrigation-pumping substation near Buhl.

This tiny substation, of containing compactness, consists of a steel cabinet only eight feet long and four feet high. Inside the box is the complex control equipment, including service-protection devices, switches and eight six-volt batteries used for the substation now under construction west of Buhl. It will supply additional irrigation pumps near Salmon Falls creek.

"Considerable savings in materials and installation man-hours with this new control concept for Blue Gulch added up to a reduction of about 12 per cent of our costs," reports John Harolan, supervisor of the relay and control group that engineered the small substation.

The small substation was built by the utility's engineering department at Boise.

Viet Cong Are Downing More 'Copters'

SAIGON, Viet Nam, July 2 (AP)—Major Patrick Delavan, who has been shot down twice, says why other army helicopter pilots in Viet Nam, says that Viet Cong anti-aircraft gunners are "not quite as primitive as they are made out to be."

Seven U.S. army helicopter gunners were shot down in three successive days this week. On two occasions, the helicopters were under fire from the Viet Cong, resulting in two of the deaths.

In the other incident, four crewmen were killed in a non-combat accident.

In the latest incident yesterday, a pilot was killed and his three crewmen were injured when his helicopter crashed into a tree. The pilot was killed and his three crewmen were injured when his helicopter crashed into a tree.

Idaho Power Park Expects Big Crowds

Idaho Power company reported Thursday that the long Fourth of July week-end is expected to draw capacity crowds of pleasure seekers to the top-of-hill public park occupying some 10 acres atop a bluff overlooking its Twin Falls hydro-electric plant and reservoir.

The throngs of visitors to the utility's recreation "oasis" are expected to include anglers, boaters, swimmers, fishermen and "just plain sightseers," according to E. Haroldson, Idaho Power's southern division manager here.

"Our park was developed for public use soon after the Twin Falls dam was completed and invite everyone to take advantage of its many facilities— not only on this Fourth of July week-end, but every chance they get," Haroldson said.

To develop the park, Idaho Power has planted some 200 trees and established a carpet of grass on the former rock bluff.

Among the park's other features are electric cooking facilities, fireplaces, tables and benches, boat-launching ramp, boat dock and swimming beach.

In 1963, Idaho Power installed a new lighting system that allows the day's outing to extend beyond the sunset.

More recently, Haroldson pointed out, the utility enlarged the area's parking lot and added more picnic tables.

U.S. Helicopter Pilot Is Killed In Viet Nam

The pilot was the seventh American to die in South Viet Nam this week, the 81st this year and the 244th since January, 1961.

A U.S. military spokesman said the helicopter was landing under communist fire in Vinh Loi Province, 85 miles northwest of Saigon, to pick up an Army engineer man wounded by a grenade in a ground battle.

Wallace Will Aid Party That Backs Southern Cause

MONTGOMERY, Ala., July 2 (AP)—Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace says he would gladly withdraw his name as a presidential candidate and throw his support to either major party if one would write a platform advantageous to the South.

Such a platform, he said, would have to contain "a stand for local government, the rights of the states, repeal the civil rights bill, rights of the states to control their schools, strong national defense and a crackdown on communism."

Wallace, a Democrat, told a news conference Wednesday that if his unpledged elector plan is successful, he will use it to elect "either party" in hopes of getting a platform acceptable to the South.

He said he is confident that his unpledged elector campaign will keep both major parties from getting a majority of votes in the presidential election, thus giving him a tool to help control the platform.

U.S. Asserts NATO Role Is Protection

GENEVA, July 2 (AP)—In a sharp reply to the Soviet Union, the United States said today that the planned Western Allied multi-national nuclear force is designed only to protect Western Europe against the Soviet nuclear threat.

U.S. delegate William C. Foster defended the Western project against a Soviet attack in the 17-nation disarmament talks. Foster said a spread of nuclear weapons in the world was the only alternative to the Saurborne nuclear force.

Foster blamed the Soviet Union for using "groundless, irrational arguments against the nuclear force in the pursuit of its longstanding aim to disrupt defensive arrangements of the North-Atlantic-Treaty organization."

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin declared such weapons in being devised under a West agreement to stop the spread of nuclear arms will break down unless the United States renounces the nuclear force plan quickly.

Foster told the meeting that the force of ships armed with nuclear weapons is being devised "to enable members of NATO to cope with a range of threats."

"We believe that so long as hundreds of Soviet nuclear-armed rockets are arrayed against Europe," he continued, "effective European participation in any kind of 'deterrence' cannot be provided."

The arrangements contemplated for the multinational force would not increase the number of independent nuclear weapon capabilities and are thus consistent with our objective of preventing the spread of such capabilities."

Demanding that the Western nations junk the multinational nuclear force, Zorin declared:

"The time of choice has come for the Western powers—the NATO members."

"If you really want a solution of the problem—and life-savers already demands its speediest solution—you must renounce the project for the creation of the NATO multilateral nuclear force."

Wall-Street Chatter

NEW YORK, July 2 (AP)—The market is continuing to get well, and anticipates further gains in the month ahead.

Investors may sniff or the better situated stocks and continue to reflect strong fundamentals, as evidenced by the increasing number of issues making new highs. Jachos views the market's recent sideways action as a normal pattern following the advance to new highs.

Walter Mintz, Shearson, Hamill and company, says that despite the favorable intermediate-term prospects and notwithstanding the market's performance, there is considerable evidence that professional investors are still quite cautious.

Edward F. Underwood, of Matthews, Jones and Tompkinson says that the market's bullish opinion and the complacency of most forecasters in all the more reason to predicate any investment operations in a clear-cut technical plan of swift and orderly withdrawal. This is certainly no time to throw caution to the winds, Underwood said.

McCALL, July 2 (AP)—Idaho is relatively free of opium addiction, a federal narcotics officer told the closing session of the Idaho State Pharmaceutical Association annual convention yesterday. Walbert Penberthy, Seattle, district supervisor of the federal bureau of narcotics, added that many persons confuse narcotics with drugs such as sleep-inducing and pop-up pills. Teen-agers are not the major problem, Penberthy noted, rather the addiction to narcotics frequent in adults. John E. Hovey, chief of the California bureau of narcotic enforcement, Sacramento, agreed. But, he explained, delinquency and addiction are often connected.

BOISE, July 2 (AP)—The United States court of appeals, ninth circuit, has reversed one judgment issued by the U. S. district court, and affirmed another. The latter was brought by Ray Drumfield and Al Lamothe against the Truck Insurance Exchange corporation, claiming the insurance company was responsible to pay for injuries to a third person. The lower court had ruled that the third person was not covered by the terms of the policy, and the higher court affirmed the decision. The court reversed a judgment which would have entitled Robert C. and Grace Mathews, Boise, to deduct expenses incurred while they lived in a trailer house on various work projects. They had claimed the deductions since they were "living away from home."

POCATELLO, July 2 (AP)—Completion of new hazing and building facilities at its fertilizer plant near Pocatello was reported yesterday by the J. H. Simpson company. W. Oran Kilbourne, vice president and general manager, said the installation is the fourth major project to be completed since the company announced plans for expansion in 1957. Kilbourne said production at the Pocatello plant has increased steadily during the past year and additional shipping facilities were needed.

McCALL, July 2 (AP)—Leasing of the McCall sawmill of Brown's Tie and Lumber company to the Boise Cascade corporation, was announced yesterday by Warren Brown, president. SUN VALLEY, July 2 (AP)—Use of fluoride in drinking water was described yesterday as the best preventive of tooth decay. Dr. John M. Deines, Seattle, district trustee of the American Dental Association, made the statement in a talk to the annual convention of the Idaho State Dental Association. Dr. Deines said the ideal solution is one part of fluoride to one million parts of water. In some areas water contains fluoride naturally, he said, while in other sections it must be added artificially. Much of the program for the four-day convention which ends Friday is made up of technical discussions.

First Sun Valley Ice Revue Of Season Slated Saturday

SUN VALLEY, July 2 (AP)—One of the best ever staged at Sun Valley, it is directed by Herman Maricich, who has returned to Sun Valley as director of skating after spending last summer in England as a featured skater.

Among the stars will be Jimmy Grogan, who is teaching here for the first time. A former member of the United States Olympic and World skating teams, he has skated for the past several years in the Ice Capades.

Also featured will be Lorna Dyer and John Carroll, Seattle, who are the ranking American pair of skaters having placed first in a field of 48 in the world championship in Europe last winter.

Yvonne Drummond, Detroit, Midwest ice champion will be a soloist, and Dick Hunkeler, "Laker" City, who has been a member of the Ice Capades and the Ice Follies, and who has recently toured Europe with a barrel-jumping act that he originated at Sun Valley, will be seen here once again.

Mexican officials scoffed at the suggestion so many had been captured by Cuban agents but Felix sources insisted Castro has a small army of secret agents working here. The exiles said the captives were returned to Havana after their capture through Gulf Coast ports aboard Cuban-bound freighters.

Mrs. Castro disclosed her dejection Monday night in a dramatic press conference in a downtown office, and then vanished. Reports Wednesday indicated she may have left Mexico City for a hideout, possibly near Cuernavaca, or that she may be on route to the United States.

Mrs. Kinsey Is Speaker for Area Auxiliary

SHOSHONE, July 2 — "God and country were stressed from morning until night," stated Mrs. Luella L. Kinsey in a report of her work as counselor at Glendale at the American Legion auxiliary meeting.

This was the first year Mrs. Kinsey served as a counselor. She was directly responsible for 27 girls. Within the organization they held training sessions in American government, wherein they met in classrooms, held a city election and elected a mayor and city council.

Mrs. Kinsey said "The girls needed only a minimum of guidance." In addition to selecting a problem to discuss, they heard well informed speakers on various subjects.

A highlight of the confab was a talk by Oy Radloff, world traveler.

Mrs. Kinsey said, "With such youth of this caliber, girls that can think and act, we need not fear the future. More power to the American Legion auxiliary that helps make such development possible." She concluded, "Educate a boy and you educate a man; educate a girl and you educate a family."

MR. AND MRS. SAMUEL V. SULLIVAN

Miss Ainsworth Is Bride of S. V. Sullivan

JEROME, July 2 — St. Jerome's Catholic church was the scene of the June 1 marriage of Shanon Elizabeth Ainsworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laird Ainsworth, Memphis, Tenn., to Samuel Verle Sullivan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Verle E. Sullivan.

The nuptial mass was celebrated by the Rev. David J. Kunkel, O.S.A., before altar flowers of white gladioli and spring flowers.

Cary Lynn and Patrick Rediker passed nuptial mits and Michael East and James Tubbs were acolytes.

Mrs. John Hoeman, organist, played the wedding music and accompanied soloist, Linda Cope, Meridian.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length white satin brocade gown accented with an over-the-shoulder, three-quarter-length sleeves and a jeweled neckline. Her illusion net veil was held by a lace cap worn by three supporting attendants of the bride's family.

She carried a bouquet of white roses and pink and white carnations on a white prayerbook.

Barbara Vore, Monrovia, Calif., was maid of honor. She wore a pink satin dress enhanced with a lace jacket and carried a long-stemmed red rose.

Slayers of the bride, Anita Ainsworth and Jill Ainsworth, Memphis, were bridesmaids. Each wore a street-length rose net over taffeta dress and carried a long-stemmed rose.

Hughston Hall was best man. Jerry Webb, Hazelton, and Hank Wendling, Twin Falls, were ushers.

The bride's mother chose a beige lace over blue taffeta dress with blue and white accessories.

The bridegroom's mother wore a pink and white flowered dress with a pink linen coat and pink and white accessories.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Ainsworth, Berkeley, Calif., was attired in a silk dress accented with a white carnation corsage.

A reception was held at the parish hall hosted by the Catholic Women's League. Christine Ainsworth registered guests.

The bride's table was covered with a handmade lace cloth over pink, centered by a tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. The lace cloth was borrowed from Mrs. Fred Clubb. White tapers in crystal holders flanked the cake.

Feasting were Mrs. Evan Guthrie, Shoshone, and Mrs. Veldon Sullivan, Salt Lake City, aunt of the bridegroom, Mrs. Harold Carlson and Mrs. A. J. Cassidy, Davis, Calif., aunt of the bride, out and served the cake.

The bride is a graduate of Central high school, Memphis, and the College of Idaho and will continue studies at the University of Idaho.

Out-of-town guests attended from Bush, Twin Falls, Boise, Hazelton, Caldwell, and Nampa, Berkeley, Davis, San Diego, Calif., and Salt Lake City.

The bride was honored at a luncheon given by Mrs. Charles P. Otto.

The couple reside at 250 1/2 First avenue east, Jerome.

Bunning and Pascual Are Likely Starting Hurlers In All-Star Tilt Tuesday

NEW YORK, July 2 (AP)—Perfect game pitcher Jim Bunning of the Philadelphia Phillies and 20-game winning candidate Camilo Pascual of the Minnesota Twins are the early choices to oppose each other in the major league all-star game at Shea stadium next Tuesday. The two star right-handers were among the 17 pitchers selected by rival all-star managers Walter Alton of the Los Angeles Dodgers and Al Lopez of the Chicago White Sox. Alton selected four right-handers and three left-handers. The southpaws included Dodgers' Danny Tompkins, who pitched a no-hitter against Philadelphia; Dick Ellsworth, who won 10 games for the Chicago Cubs and Chris Short of the Phillies, who owns a 6-4 record.

Koufax Hurls L.A. Past Phillies 3-2

LOS ANGELES, July 2 (AP)—Sandy Koufax won his seventh straight game and 11th of the season with a five-hitter Wednesday night as the Los Angeles Dodgers edged Philadelphia 3-2 and dropped the Phillies 1 1/2 games behind National League leader San Francisco. Koufax, 31-4, joined the Giants' Juan Marchal as the majors' only 11-game winners. Marchal reached the mark earlier in the day.

Orioles Turn Breaks Into Win Over L.A.

BALTIMORE, July 2 (AP)—The American League leading Baltimore Orioles took advantage of three breaks, scored in the eighth inning and defeated the Los Angeles Angels 4-2 Wednesday night.

Held to four hits through seven innings by all-star choice Dean Chance, the Orioles opened the rally when Alvin Dark and Earl Perry scored on a sacrifice fly by Jerry Adair then failed to sacrifice, but he smacked a single to advance Kirkland to second.

Both runners moved along on a sacrifice and scored when Jack Brandt struck to left. Luis Aparicio then beat out an infield hit and Brandt scored on an error by Bobby Knoop on Hoog Powell's grounder.

Hawley Leads T.F. Legion Past Valley

TWIN FALLS, July 2—Jim Hawley crashed a pair of homers and a single worth five runs—brought in Wednesday night to carry the Twin Falls Legion junior team past Valley 6-1. It was the second win in as many nights for Twin Falls, which dropped Shoshone 4-1 Monday.

Hawley's first homer came after lead-off man Rusty Eller had walked to open the game and gave Twin Falls a 2-0 edge. Twin Falls added another run in the seventh with a pair of homers and singles by John Hull and Ed Eller.

Valley's Ron Clark then broke Hull's shutout bid in the fourth with a line-drive homer in the fourth. But Hawley nullified that with his second homer, which also plated the doubling Larry Hunter.

In the seventh Eller doubled and rode home on Hawley's single.

Salmon Run Is Similar To Last Year

HOIST, July 2 (AP)—Timing for the spring run of Chinook salmon in Idaho streams is expected to be about the same as it was last year, the state fish and game department reported Wednesday.

James C. Simpson, chief of fisheries management, said about 21,000 of the spring run salmon have been counted passing Ice Harbor dam on the Snake river near Pocatello, Wash. He said that was smaller than hoped for since from 28,000 to 30,000 are needed "to meet the demands of spawning and sport-fishing."

Department biologist John H. Woodworth last month asked Oregon fish commission to permit a larger escapement of salmon above the commercial fishery in the Columbia river. The commission agreed to delay the commercial season as a result, Woodworth said, adding:

"It still is too early to tell whether the later commercial fishing season will improve the numbers of fish coming to Idaho."

The peak of the fishing season for the spring run salmon is expected to be between July 4 and 10, Simpson said. Most of the spring run return to the upper Salmon, the Lemhi and Mettles fork rivers.

The summer run Salmon generally spawns in the south fork of the Snake and in other tributaries, Simpson said.

"It is said to be the fish ladder on the Clearwater river upstream from Lewiston."

Tigers Slip To 3-1 Win Over Indians

DETROIT, July 2 (AP)—Bubba Phillips' tie-breaking homerun in the fifth inning boosted the Detroit Tigers to a 3-1 victory over Cleveland Wednesday night and brought Hank Aguirre his first victory since May 17.

Al Smith homered for Cleveland in the second inning to tie the score, 1-1 after the "Tigers" scored in the first on Dick Howser's error and a double by George Thomas. Phillips' bases-empty homer snapped the tie.

Lopez picked four right-handers and four left-handers. In addition to Pascual an eight-game winner, other right-handers were Dean Chance of Los Angeles, Dick Radatz of Boston and John Wyatt of Kansas City. Radatz and Wyatt are bullpen specialists who won 11 victories and 23 saves between them.

Whitely Ford, dean of the New York Yankees pitching staff, headed the southpaws. The left hander included Jack Krall of Cleveland and Gary Peters and Juan Pizarro of Lopez's Chicago-White Sox. Ford has won his last 10 decisions after an opening day loss. Pizarro has won 10, Krall, eight, and Peters seven.

Although Koufax' eight Ford rate among the most glamorous names in baseball, the starting choices are likely to be right-handers because of the preponderance of right-handed hitters in the starting line-ups of both squads.

Billy Williams of the Cubs is the only left-handed hitter among the NL starters. Tony Oliva of Minnesota is the only strictly southpaw swinger in the AL starting line-up. Mickey Mantle of the Yankees is a switch hitter.

Pascual has appeared in two previous all-star games, permitting four hits in six innings. He lost his only decision, Bunning, accounted for the Phils' victory in the first game.

Pascual has pitched in five all-star games, all with the American League.

He has pitched 14 innings, given up just four hits and has a 2.00 earned-run average against the National League.

Action will be centered in batting, does as well against the American League next Tuesday.

Tebbetts Ready To Assume Helm

CLEVELAND, July 2 (AP)—Dirde Tebbetts, Cleveland Indian manager who had a heart attack in spring training April 1, said Wednesday he plans to rejoin the team in Chicago Friday and "gradually ease myself into full responsibility of the club."

George Brickland, a former coach, has been managing the team since the season began.

"Tebbetts came here from his Florida home early this week and underwent examinations at Cleveland clinic."

"Mr. Tebbetts has made an excellent recovery from his heart attack and I see no reason for him not to join the team," said Dr. W. L. Proudfoot.

McKinley Loses Title, but Won't Turn Pro

WIMBLEDON, England, July 2 (AP)—Chuck McKinley lost his Wimbledon title Wednesday but retained his faith in amateur tennis.

McKinley told newsmen after his 4-6, 10-8, 9-7, 6-4 defeat by Fred Stolle of Australia in the semifinals that he planned to return next year for another crack at the championship — as an amateur.

"You wouldn't prove anything by throwing Wimbledon or any other big tournament open to professionals," said McKinley. "The pros may need open tennis because they're not drawing crowds. But more people watched tennis at Wimbledon this year than last. And the crowds are increasing at Forest Hills, too."

British and United States tennis officials have been campaigning for open tournaments in a bid to stop them from amateurism, but McKinley said it is not true that top ranking amateurs make big money.

But that's what makes it hard to win at Wimbledon. It's a real tough tournament.

McKinley is about to start a business career with a finance company in San Antonio.

"I don't know whether the professionals are still interested in signing me," he said. "After being beaten today I suppose I'm not such a lucrative proposition for them. Even if they offered me $100,000 I would have to think hard about it. If I make progress in business, I can be earning that much in 10 years—time—and I will have played a lot of tennis for fun in the years between."

"It's been a tiring tournament," he said. "I had some long singles matches in the earlier rounds. Last night Dennis Stanbury and I were beaten in the men's doubles after a five-setter. I guess I may have been a little tired."

McKinley said he had to Stolle because he didn't serve as well as he could.

WIMBLEDON, Calif., July 2 (AP)—Loukahl beat off a determined bid by Roman Goddard to win the $10,000 "spinal" cord research center purse Wednesday at Hollywood park.

CONVENTIONS AND CRISES/ The Republicans

by Don Oakley and Ed Kudlaty

"My hat's in the ring! The fight is on and I'm strapped to the bull," said Theodore Roosevelt as he roared into Chicago in June 1912 for the 15th national convention of the Republican Party.

third-term tradition (though he had only been elected president once, in 1904, having succeeded William McKinley after the latter's assassination in 1901). More important, the conservatives had control of the national committee. In disputes over credentials, they ruled against the Roosevelt delegates.

The Taft men expected physical violence—so much so that they took the precaution of stringing barbed wire around the platform in the Chicago Coliseum, underneath the patriotic bunting. Squads of extra police guards stood around the hall.

But the Taft steamroller proceeded smoothly, flattening all opposition. The infuriated Roosevelt finally withdrew his name, telling his supporters not to rally the fraudulent convention by participating in it.

561 votes. Roosevelt got 107. There was a smattering of others for Robert La Follette and Charles Evans Hughes.

"No less than 340 delegates, however, abstained from voting in this the bitterest convention in the party's history.

Roosevelt roared out of Chicago, taking the progressive Republicans with him, and roared back again in August, when his Bull Moose Party held its first and only convention.

In the elections of 1912, Roosevelt received 4.2 million votes; Taft, 3.4 million. But the new president was the Democratic candidate, Woodrow Wilson, although his 6.2 million total was far from a majority.

Both Taft and Roosevelt had some small satisfaction, however. Each had kept the other out of the White House.

President Hails Aid Bill Okay

WASHINGTON, July 2 (AP)—President Johnson has hailed the passage of a 3.3-billion-dollar foreign aid bill as a victory for American foreign policy and the American people.

Republicans. The appropriations measure which provides the foreign aid money was then sent to the Senate, where the foreign relations committee is working on the President's foreign aid authorization request. The first step toward the ceiling on foreign aid spending. Action on the authorization will follow.

Johnson promptly issued a statement praising the House action as "in line with the best interests of America and the best interests of the free world."

But he pledged to "keep on fighting this monstrosity" and asked, "I don't think nine times out of 10 is too bad an average do you?"
