SAIGON, South Viet Nam, Aug. 10 (AP)—U. S. jet fighters equipped with air-to-air missiles have been heading toward the communist north the past few days to meet the threat of approaching Red Chinese MiG planes, U. S. military sources said.

Though no clashes have taken place, the opposing flights were reported close enough to make active radar identification, the sources said.

A Saigon, capital of South Viet Nam, held an air raid alert Sunday afternoon. World War II U. S. planes bombed the communist propaganda organs and charged against the United States for its reprisal against North Viet Nam.

U. S. planes were reported to be heading toward the communist north the past few days to meet the threat of approaching Red Chinese MiG planes, U. S. military sources said.

U. S. jets moved into position Saturday to meet a possible communist thrust, sources said.

Communist China said yesterday that the U. S. had moved North Viet Nam given Peking "the right to take action" in "every possible way" to help the North Viet Nam regime.

Ying People's Daily, official organ of the Chinese Communist party, said in an editorial quoted in a radio broadcast: "U. S. aggressors, don't you rejoice too soon. Don't think you can get away with your support of the democratic Republic of Viet Nam. To tell you frankly, the debt in blood you owe the Vietnamese people must be repaid."

The two newsmen were evacuated from the battle area by U. N. Swedish troops. They were first taken to the Cyprus Mines Corp. hospital at Pendaris.

Rosenfeld was given a blood transfusion at Pendaris and operated on. A U. N. source said there was no damage to the brain.

U.S. Is Hit By Cold Air And Showers

United Press International temperatures dipped toward record lows in the Northeast today while steady rains drenched the Gulf Coast states. Thunderstorms swept central Kansas during the night with hail and lightning.

A cool front that broke records in the upper Midwest yesterday is sending the mercury plummeting over the northern Appalachians and New England today.

The weather bureau said the chilly temperatures would break record lows in many areas.

The rest of the nation recorded more normal midsummer weather, with heavy thunderstorms hitting the South and lightning storms hitting the southern plains. Temperatures climbed back up into the 90s through the Southwest.

Major Issue

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10 (AP)—Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon says the "explosive conflict" over civil rights will be a major issue in the presidential campaign.

Appearing yesterday on a taped television-radio program with Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R. N.Y., Nixon said the people will want to hear from the candidates how they plan to handle civil rights problems.

President Johnson and Republican presidential nominee Barry Goldwater have agreed to avoid during the fall campaign any statements that might inflame the rights issue and encourage renewed violence.

Union Happy Health Bill Is Voted in

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10 (AP)—A spokesman for the AFL-CIO said today that organized labor is "deeply committed" to President Johnson's program of health protection for the aged under social security.

Nelson H. Crutcherbank said in a prepared statement that "many millions of elderly citizens, living on earned retirement, are each year reduced to penury by catastrophic medical costs."

Crutcherbank's remarks came as the senate financial committee resumed public hearings on the prime election-year issue of Medicare, which would provide hospitalization for 18 million elderly persons.

Fire Destroys Trees, Grass in National Forest

The fire broke out about 1:30 p.m. Saturday in Wenatchee National Forest. It was contained about 4 a.m. yesterday by 300 firefighters using three bulldozers and two aerial tankers.

Jack Fowler, U. S. forest service dispatcher, said the fire was man-caused.

Crippled Boy Who Has Trouble With Legs, Runs Away From Home

CAMP EASTER BEAL, Aug. 10 (AP)—Eddie Odom, of Moses Lake, Wash., wanted to go to camp 30 miles away from home. Situations like that have happened before, but Eddie's journey from Moses Lake to Washington State University's Camp Easter Beal for crippled children on Lake Coeur d'Alene in north Idaho ranks as somewhat of a miracle.

Seventeen-year-old Eddie, who has been handicapped since birth and who walks with great difficulty, traveled 15 miles of his last leg of his clandestine trip on foot.

The story of Eddie's trek to Camp Easter Beal actually began last fall when he dropped out of school. This made him financially ineligible for his beloved camp, where he had spent several summers enjoying the outdoors.

The camp's only rule for admission is that the child be enrolled in a public school the previous year.

It's not that Eddie didn't want to go to school.

He was signed up for vocational rehabilitation and was supposed to go to Tacoma for job training, but his family did not have the $10 a month for board and room there.

But Eddie was determined to go to camp. Besides, he was supposed to meet his girl friend there.

He found someone at the Christian Bible and Music store in Moses Lake to pay the $40 camping fee and he set off on a bus for Coeur d'Alene.

There he abandoned his suitcase and bedroll and set out with his hiking gait toward the camp near Worley.

Fifteen miles and several hours later, Eddie found a ride with a passing motorist for the final few miles to camp.

It was midnight when a surprised camp director, WSU Physical Education Professor Roger Larson, found Eddie at the entrance to the camp.

A phone call to Eddie's home brought his startled parents and he was allowed to remain on the condition he promise to go back to school this fall.

Eddie is home now—the memory of his camping adventures still "thrill[ing] his spirit" and the lightning as a clown at the water carnival.

He plans to enter Spokane Community college this fall to learn a trade.

"If I don't go to school," Eddie chuckles, "I'll be a dark eyes upward, that Mr. Larson will come down looking for me with a club."

Cease-Fire Plan Is Agreed on by Turkey, Greece

NICOSIA, Cyprus, Aug. 10 (AP)—Turkey and the Greek Cypriot government agreed today to a U. N. security council call for a ceasefire on this embattled island today. A brief Turkish air attack on a northwest village before Turkey's announcement sent a new scare through Cyprus, Greece, said it hoped the straining attack on a square in Polis was due to a mix-up in Turkish military orders. A government source in Nicosia said 10 persons were wounded in the Polis attack.

Two Die in Racial Violence Across U.S.

Racial violence broke out at widespread points of the country yesterday. A white youth was shot to death in Dallas, a Negro was stabbed to death in Alabama and racial gangs fought in Cleveland, O. The white youth, Billy Wayne Wallace, 18, was shot to death at Dallas after what homicide Capt. Will Fritz described as a "teen-age name calling session" near the shores of the city's White Rock lake.

Three others were wounded and four Negroes were being held for questioning.

In another incident near downtown Dallas, two 23-year-old white men were shot and wounded by Negro attackers who fled.

Fritz said two Negroes pulled pistols and fired in the White Rock lake incident.

Near Bessemer, Ala., a Negro who authorities said carried a white man after he stopped behind his parked car and blew his horn was stabbed to death in a fight between three Negroes and two whites. The remaining four combatants were wounded.

Jefferson County Sheriff Mel Bailey identified the dead Negro as Bennie O. Gates. The sheriff said he sent 18 deputies to block all entrances to the small Raymond community, near where the incident occurred, to keep out "curiosity seekers, and those who would stir up trouble."

Idaho Bible Law Is Unconstitutional

BOISE, Aug. 10 (UPI)—A federal court panel today declared unconstitutional the portion of the Idaho code providing for daily reading of Bible verses in public schools. The court issued an injunction prohibiting officials of the state of Idaho and the Moscow, Ida., school district from enforcing provisions of the law. The judgment followed the issuing of a summary judgment two weeks ago in favor of the plaintiffs in the suit, 36 ministers and parents of the Moscow area. The plaintiffs had contended the Bible reading practice was a meaningless ritual and violated the first and 14th amendments of the constitution.

Goldwater Gives Views On Viet Nam

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10 (AP)—Republican presidential nominee Barry Goldwater, calling for "peace through preparedness," said today the war in South Viet Nam never would have started had the communists believed the United States would not let them.

"We have gone to war," he said, "only when the enemy has thought us too weak to fight," or has doubted the nation's will to act, he said.

He said that that was the case at the outset of World War II, and added that there would have been no Korean war had the United States not "boldly announced" that that nation was outside its sphere of interest.

Goldwater said American troops are in Viet Nam today "fighting" as we hope for the freedom of these people.

Killer May Have Been Transferred

JACKSON, Wyo., Aug. 10 (AP)—Officials here remained tight-lipped yesterday on reports the accused killer of two young girls Friday had been transferred to another jail for the second time.

The accused, 21-year-old Andrew Pixley, Dallas, Ore., was moved unannounced from the jail at Jackson in northeastern Wyoming Friday to a jail at Lander, Wyo., 130 miles away.

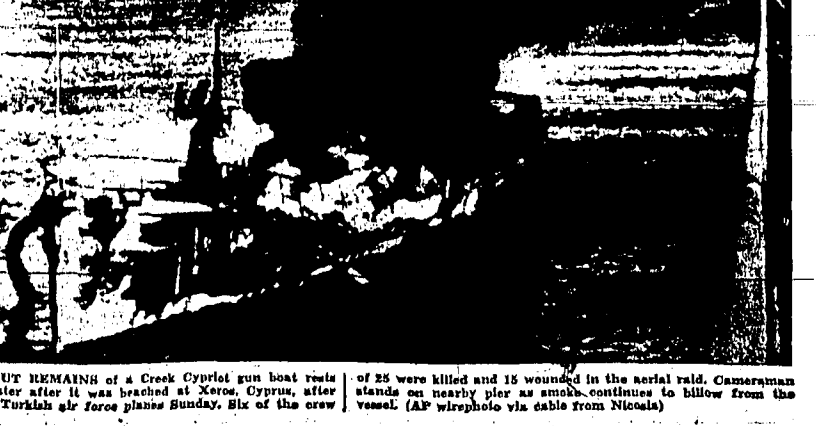

The move was made at the request of Pixley's court-appointed attorney Robert Hufsmith, Jackson.

Hufsmith said the transfer had offered more security, both from escape and for the protection of Pixley. Hufsmith earlier had expressed concern for the inflamed feelings in the Jackson community after the brutal attack-murders.

But the attorney yesterday denied any knowledge that Pixley had been transferred again.

"I have no knowledge of his being transferred again," Hufsmith said, "or didn't request it and to my knowledge he hasn't."

But Lander Deputy Sheriff Warren Spriggs said the Fremont county Sheriff's office took Pixley from the Lander jail at 2:30 p.m. Saturday and drove him to Dubois, Wyo., to meet Teton County Sheriff Carl Rolfe who originally had held the suspect.

Drysdale Is Accused of Spitball Pitch

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 10.—The Milwaukee Braves think that Drysdale, the Los Angeles Dodgers' ace, is downright unsportsmanlike. They're convinced to a man he has developed a dandy splitter.

In the absence of rain, the Braves accused the big right-hander of using baseball's outlawed pitch—even offering him a bucket of water—during a 6-2 victory over the Dodgers Sunday.

"It's not that the splitter is so hard to hit—it's unsanitary," said Milwaukee catcher Ed Bailey.

Some of the Braves thought for a while Drysdale was using a water-soaked sponge and not a spitball.

After regulation baseball, however, plate umpire Tony Venizou ruled the ball legal and ignored complaints. And Umpire Joeck Conlan ruled out the bucket of water in the last of the sixth inning.

"It was throwing it all the way," said Braves Manager Bobby Bragan. "It can be hit. But don't forget, he throws a lot of spit stuff other than the splitter."

"Was he throwing a splitter? Why, I got hit in the eye as the ball spun by me," said Eddie Mathews. "It was loaded."

Clayton, who singled to ignite the fourth-inning rally in the fourth inning after Drysdale had retired the first 10 Braves in order, said he was thrown three splitters. "The best I've ever seen."

Confronted with the Braves' charges as he hurried to catch a plane, Drysdale grimaced and said:

"I've always lived by one thing. My mother told me never to put dirty fingers in my mouth. Milwaukee's third baseman, Joe Jo White, a former major league outfielder figured Big Don isn't listening to mama."

North Vietnamese PT boat attacks on U. S. 7th fleet destroyers in the Gulf of Tonkin.

"The U. N. Security Council has no right to examine" the clash between the United States and North Viet Nam, a statement by the North Vietnamese foreign ministry declared.

North Viet Nam's official newspaper Nhan Dan, said: "Our people will never be duped by the U. S. imperialists who intend to use the United Nations to execute their plan of slander against our country."

North Viet Nam's army command charged that two U. S. reconnaissance planes flew over the international control commission which is responsible for supervising the Geneva agreement.

Communist guerrillas Sunday kidnapped a U. S. aid mission official 30 miles northwest of Saigon. Officials said Joseph W. Granger, 30, Sumter, S. C., was stopped by the Viet Cong while riding in a jeep with a Filipino technician and a Vietnamese sugar plantation director.

Granger was the first civilian U. S. official to be captured by the Viet Cong.

Negotiations To Continue Over Strike

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 10—Kennecott Copper Corporation and the striking international union of mine, mill and smelter workers continued negotiations today after federal mediators reported progress in the labor dispute.

Federal mediator S. Lytle Johnson said last night that some progress had been made in the full-scale contract talks that ran all week-end.

He said several issues, including economics, job security, and health and welfare, were under discussion.

Mine-Kennecott installations in four states—Utah, Arizona, Nevada and New Mexico—a little more than a month ago.

Workers in Utah and Arizona had been on strike since the start of a week-end strike of the United Steelworkers of America. Some 10,500 workers in the four states are involved in the walk-outs.

Worker Says He Hit Girl With Hammer

MODESTO, Calif., Aug. 10—A young carnival worker says he hit 16-year-old Linda Marie Park over the head with a hammer and dropped her out of a car north of Salt Lake City, according to police.

A ground air search of the area in Utah has turned up no sign of the girl, missing on a trip from her home in Taden, Calif., to her grandmother's home in Turlock, Calif.

Detective Capt. Dewey Pilla of the Salt Lake City police department said that David Lee White, 20, Saint Mary's, Pa., told police in Modesto that he struck the girl with a hammer and left her along a road.

White was jailed earlier last week on grand theft charges when officers say, he tried to claim portions of the girl's baggage at a Turlock bus depot.

Stanislaus county sheriff's deputies said he told them then that he met the girl near Salt Lake City but she left with another man and "told him he could have her baggage."

The girl was supposed to arrive in Turlock by bus on Sunday, Aug. 2, Stanislaus county and Salt Lake City authorities had been trying to find her.

Bloodmobile to Be in Gooding

GOODING, Aug. 10—The Red Cross bloodmobile will be in Gooding from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Tuesday, according to Mrs. Charles Gies, chairman.

She pointed out that since the unit is usually here from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m., donors should make a special note of the different time, and come early to donate their pint of blood.

Gooding club also has challenged all other organizations in the Gooding area to donate the most blood, with the winner based on the percentage of membership.

Everyone is urged to get out and visit the bloodmobile Tuesday at the War Memorial hall.

Indian Drowns

PROVO, Utah, Aug. 10—A Port Duchesne Indian, Irvin Shavaneux, 32, Ivanhoe, drowned yesterday in Utah lake.

Police said Shavaneux entered the lake during a picnic with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Joe Serawop, Port Duchesne.

Serawop told officers he saw Shavaneux lying face down in the water, but thought he was joking.

Police said when Serawop realized Shavaneux's plight, he pulled him from the lake. Attempts to revive him were unsuccessful. Shavaneux was dead on arrival at Utah valley hospital.

WIN CROWN

Guardsman Is Listed Good After Crash

SFO Carl W. Boyd, 650 Jackson street, is reported in good condition Monday at Magic Valley Memorial hospital after injuries he sustained in an one-vehicle accident Saturday evening about 10 miles west of Magic Mountain Ski resort.

Sgt. Boyd was on a training exercise along with other members of troop L, third reconnaissance squadron, 118th armored cavalry, Idaho army national guard, in the south hills. Commanding the troop is Capt. Richard L. Lennan.

Sergeant Boyd was pinned beneath the two and one-half ton truck he was driving about one-half hour before other members of the troop freed him.

According to Captain Lennan, Sergeant Boyd was traveling west on a gravel road about 10 miles west of Magic Mountain behind another army vehicle.

Due to low hanging dust and the sun, Sergeant Boyd apparently did not see a curve in the road. Captain Lennan said. The truck went off the road and rolled over and down an incline pinning Sergeant Boyd beneath the vehicle.

The top and one side of the truck were damaged. There were no passengers in the truck with Sergeant Boyd.

Cartoonist Dies

GREENWICH, Conn., Aug. 10—Cartoonist Fontaine Fox, of the Torrville Trolley conductor, is dead.

Fox's Torrville Trolley cartoons delighted American newspaper readers for 35 years.

He died in a Greenwich hospital yesterday at the age of 80. It is said that Fox earned more than two million dollars from his drawings of Torrville's rickety trolley and rollicking folks. They appeared from 1920 to 1955 in as many as 200 newspapers.

Report Given on Rights Men

REPORTER'S NOTE: It takes time, persistence and persistence to solve crimes. A famous FBI agent, now working on the case of three racial killings in Mississippi, here is a report on the case.

BY AL KUETTNER
JACKSON, Miss., Aug. 10—From the top of Old Burroughs' new dam you can see a glow in the night sky from the carnival midway of the county fair south of Philadelphia, Miss.

Visiting the carnival, you would never guess that the townspeople of Philadelphia—moving by the rules of tradition into fairground cabins for the annual event—had anything on their minds but fun.

Looking at Burroughs' dam, you would never guess from the smooth soil that will back up a flashing pond that it held a dark and gory secret just a few days ago.

But the townspeople were not allowed to forget that all was not fun in Philadelphia. The presence of a large group of earned and patient young strangers—agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation—served to remind them their town had three unsolved murders.

The FBI—plus local and state authorities—meant to find the solution to the three crimes if they could, but it was a tough problem to unravel.

The three civil rights men were working on a "Mississippi summer project," a controversial interracial effort to get more Negroes registered to vote and to focus the nation's attention on Mississippi racial conditions. Hundreds of the "workers" were fanning out along Mississippi highways, into small towns and large, in the early summer. As it happened, these three were traveling in the vicinity of Philadelphia, investigating the alleged arson-burning of a Negro church, when they were arrested for speeding.

On June 21, according to Neshoba County Deputy Sheriff Cecil Price, they were released from jail, taken to the edge of town and sent on their way. That was the last time anyone would admit seeing them alive.

As the FBI entered the case, the state was flooded with rumors and speculation as to the whereabouts of the missing men. It was all a hoax, claimed many who objected strenuously to the Mississippi project.

Wild stories made the rounds. They had been killed and their bodies slipped into quicksand that prevails in the Bogie Chitta swamp near Philadelphia, said some. They had been fed into the claws of a sawmill "hog," said others.

But few were prepared for the facts, apparently supplied by an informer whose tongue was loosened by a large reward offering.

The facts were that the three workers had been shot to death, either before or after at least one was audaciously beaten, and their bodies had been placed in a shallow hole at about the midpoint of the 400-foot earthen dam Burroughs was building for his new fish pond.

Approximately 20 feet of fill dirt had been bulldozed on top of the bodies by the unsuspecting contractor closing the middle-of-the-dam.

The FBI, protecting its sources, refused to say where the information came from that led them—equipped with a bulldozer and a "drag line" scoop—to a specific spot on the Burroughs dam.

Working from some basis of reliable information, the FBI found the badly decomposed remains before nightfall, Tuesday, Aug. 4. The bodies were put into plastic bags and sent to Jackson for post mortem examinations.

Results of the autopsy: All had been shot. No official report has been issued but a family doctor reported that one had been savagely beaten, probably with a blunt instrument or a chain.

"Ninety-nine per cent of the people in Mississippi hope they catch the people responsible for this and bring them to justice," said a Jackson businessman who is white.

THE WORLD'S FINEST USED CARS ARE BUILT BY CADILLAC.

To prove our point, we offer as evidence the three Cadillacs shown above.

From top to bottom in our illustration are a 1960 Sedan-de-Ville, a 1962 Coupe-de-Ville and a 1963 Sixty Special. Each is unmistakably Cadillac. Each, regardless of vintage, will have special appeal to the man who desires the comfort, convenience and pride of ownership that only Cadillac can offer.

That's why thousands of wise car buyers favor a previously owned Cadillac over new cars of other makes.

First of all, they realize that Cadillac engineering is so far advanced that "newness" becomes a relative term. In fact, there are features found on late model Cadillacs that are only now being offered on other cars. This is a major reason why a Cadillac retains its value through the years, from buyer to buyer.

Another thing to consider. Cadillac owners lavish the most meticulous care on the cars they are so proud to own. The "car of cars" almost always receives regular maintenance and servicing by highly skilled and carefully trained mechanics.

Your authorized Cadillac dealer's selection of one-owner models has never before been so appealing. And he can probably match one of these fine cars to your budget.

Who knows? Your used Cadillac could possibly be the "newest" car you've ever owned!

A reception honoring the newlyweds was held July 10 at Wendell LDS cultural hall. Baskets of bridal wreath and red roses decorated the hall. Floral decorations were arranged by Mrs. B. W. Nelson, Mrs. K. T. Butler and Mrs. Dwan Butler, all Gooding.

Bride's gown of white Chantilly lace over taffeta was designed with a fitted bodice, cap sleeves and a bouffant floor-length skirt. Her veil of nylon illusion was attached to a crown of white nylon trimmed with pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations. For sentiment, she wore her mother's pearl necklace and a blue garter.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Lloyd Peterson, Jerome, sister of the bride. She wore a blue lace ensemble enhanced with a corsage of pink carnations.

Bridesmaids were Jeanna Peterson, Annette Peterson, Jerome, niece of the bride, and Maxine Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maxine Lewis, Castleford.

The Rev. Carl Lousier performed the double ring ceremony before a background of pink carnations and white gladioli.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a short-sleeved pink cotton and tulle dress with lace. It featured a scoop neckline and a bell-shaped skirt accented in the back with a pink bow and streamers.

She wore a pillbox hat of pink tulle, enhanced with white pearls on the crown. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink roses and white carnations.

Black hair may not be worn as tight as in the past. Women are wearing them since the advent of stretch fabrics. Keep that "good" dress to the middle of the knee or longer, although sports the shorter skirts are all right.

Leave the heavy makeup for the elders. And keep the jewelry to just one or two "nice" pieces. In the popular roll of wind, the shift dress ranked first, followed by knee-length bermudas and culottes.

The nation's trend-setting designers, cottoning to the fashion fact that not all dancable like pant suits for at-home events, have put together tremendously flowing gowns — especially appealing to the hostesses whose enthusiasm for slacks is lacking.

The home base costumes were among fall and winter designs shown during the New York Couture group's fashion press week.

The most opulent at-home gown: A long, white mink robe with flowing sleeves and skirt. Apparently, this is meant only for entertaining at home.

There also were at-home outfits of velvet, accented by satin. Others were made of lace and included bow treatments for accents at neckline, backline, waist or bosom.

The favorite silhouette: A full, long skirt topped by a bosom-accenting bodice with slim-to-the-shoulder-to-ankle-length.

Beautifol brocade figured in many at-home costumes. A particularly striking one in the Maurice Rentner collection looked like this: A long brocade skirt, ankle-length, topped by a bodice with a scooped neckline featuring long sleeves and lots of sparkle.

The sparkle came from dozens of long bugle beads attached to the bodice. They dangled, giving the bodice a crystal chandelier look.

Do's and Don'ts For Teen-Age Girls Given

By GAY FAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK, Aug. 10 — Six high school girls from a fashion team which scored the highest in a national contest on dress know-how offer a variety of "do's" and "don'ts" for their age group anywhere.

Don't try to be exotic. Do remember to be courteous to others. Don't smoke or chew gum in public. Do use common sense when shopping.

And don't wear sneakers with long formal! It was news to me that beneath those fluffy-floor-length gowns at high school proms were such casual footwear as sneakers.

Instead of pumps. But one of the six, Marilyn Elm, a 17-year-old high school senior, wised me up. The sneakers are for comfort for doing the Frug or Madison, but to Miss Elm, "I wouldn't feel dressed up in them."

All for her with formal, a request for the school dance. The six are among the 28 members of a home economics class at Winchester high school, Winchester, Mass., who named the top team in the first year of a school program sponsored by Du Pont.

The firm, working with high school faculty, introduced the project to help raise standards of teen-age dress and grooming. Objective of the "what to wear when and where" program was "to educate the eye and cultivate the taste of teen-agers."

They are becoming a major influence in fashion. The Winchester high girls were among 24,000 students participating nationally. They finished first—although they never were told by what margin.

The firm said the special project, supervised by their home economics teacher, Harriet Nelson, had made them more aware of labels on fabrics and aware of how they would really wear.

They would build a wardrobe instead of buying "just because it like it," more conscious of neatness in dress; and of thinking in terms of fewer clothes but better ones.

Some other advice to girls their own age: wear gloves for dressy occasions and put on a hat or something in the hair for formal occasions. Like long too high or earrings too long and dangling. Keep shoes always polished. Keep hair neat and out of your eyes.

Black hair may not be worn as tight as in the past. Women are wearing them since the advent of stretch fabrics. Keep that "good" dress to the middle of the knee or longer, although sports the shorter skirts are all right.

Leave the heavy makeup for the elders. And keep the jewelry to just one or two "nice" pieces. In the popular roll of wind, the shift dress ranked first, followed by knee-length bermudas and culottes.

The nation's trend-setting designers, cottoning to the fashion fact that not all dancable like pant suits for at-home events, have put together tremendously flowing gowns — especially appealing to the hostesses whose enthusiasm for slacks is lacking.

The home base costumes were among fall and winter designs shown during the New York Couture group's fashion press week.

The most opulent at-home gown: A long, white mink robe with flowing sleeves and skirt. Apparently, this is meant only for entertaining at home.

There also were at-home outfits of velvet, accented by satin. Others were made of lace and included bow treatments for accents at neckline, backline, waist or bosom.

The favorite silhouette: A full, long skirt topped by a bosom-accenting bodice with slim-to-the-shoulder-to-ankle-length.

Beautifol brocade figured in many at-home costumes. A particularly striking one in the Maurice Rentner collection looked like this: A long brocade skirt, ankle-length, topped by a bodice with a scooped neckline featuring long sleeves and lots of sparkle.

U. S. Female Is Chatterbox

By GAY FAULEY
NEW YORK, Aug. 10 (UPI)—Mrs. Allen is a chatterbox.

The American female chatterbox is a chatterbox along with some of her sisters in other parts of the world, concludes John Knowles, a journalist, novelist who has returned from two years in the Middle East with European alops over and on the way back to the States.

"American women tend to dominate a party," said Knowles. "The American men don't do anything. They sit there passively, gradually melting into the chairs of the room."

Knowles isn't suggesting that American women shut up altogether but he does think that in the long run the men "have more to say."

In comparing the American woman he's met with the Arab women so self-effacing that if they were at a gathering at all, they wait in the corner away from the men.

"American women feel it a duty to 'make things go,' said Knowles. "This is admirable but it can be overdone."

He thinks the French are working out a better convention compromise. French women talk, but so do the men.

"It's like keeping up with a tennis match," said Knowles. "Knowles has traveled extensively in his three years as a freelance editor of Holiday magazine. Three years ago he did a book, a novel, 'A Separate Peace' won the William Faulkner foundation award for a 'novel in first' and he quit the magazine to devote full time to writing. His second novel, 'Morning in Antibes' was published in 1962. Now just out is 'Double Vision.' About 100,000 copies of the series of journalistic sketches from his travels through Europe, Jordan, Lebanon, Syria and Greece.

In an interview, the author said he'd planned originally to do an official biography of Jordan's King Hussein. "But what the monarch didn't bother to tell me was that he was doing an autobiography," Knowles laughed.

He said he got the total impression that many people of the Near East "stand in awe of the United States. They are not generally an 'affluent society,' he said.

"They are still primitive countries. Hussein's place is about like a $40,000 house in the United States."

Knowles, 37, is the son of Fairmont, W. Va., and a graduate of Phillips Exeter academy and Yale. He worked on the Hartford, Conn. Courant before joining Holiday.

Cowboys Slug Way Past Idaho Falls 14-3, Joa Starts Four-Run Fifth

IDAHO FALLS, Aug. 10 (AP)—The Magic Valley Cowboys slugged a four-run fifth inning Sunday night to pave the way to a 14-3 win over Idaho Falls in Pioneer league baseball. Cowboy shortstop Juan Joa, who slammed three hits during the night's play, led off the fifth with a single. He was followed by Ken Henderson, who drew a walk, and then by Brooks Tolbert, who singled Joa home. Don Staveland then singled to score Henderson and Ron Smith singled to score Staveland.

Phillies Continue Conquest of Mets

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 10 (AP)—Philadelphia's Jim Banning pitched a five-hitter and Frank Thomas, recently acquired from New York, hit a two-run homer as the National League-leading Philadelphia Phillies whipped the Mets 6-0 Sunday. Banning, now 12-4, extended his perfect game to 13.

49ers Happy About Win Over Browns

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 10 (AP)—Halfback Billy Kilmer summed it up for the jubilant San Francisco 49ers today after their 20-7 victory over the Cleveland Browns.

"Well, we've already shown we're at least half as good as we were last year," said Kilmer. His reference was to the 49ers' 2-7 record in exhibition and regular season games last year, worst in the club's 16-year pro history.

Coach Jack Christensen had praise for nearly all his players following the exhibition game triumph.

"We were real tough on defense and controlled the ball very well on offense. I think we're way ahead of last year—we're going to give a lot of teams a lot of trouble," said Christensen.

Quarterback John Brodie, injured most of last season, completed 15 of 25 passes for 188 yards and one touchdown. He refused to admit he was surprised by his or the team's showing.

"This is just about what I thought we'd do if we just got together and clicked," he said. Cleveland Coach Blanton Collier, although admitting his team was badly outplayed, saw some bright spots in the performance of individual players.

He singled out rookie flankers Clifton McNeill and Walt Roberts for special praise, noting they could give the Browns their first top-flight men at that position since the days of Bobby Mitchell. Roberts, who has run the 100 in 12.8 seconds, failed in two passes for 57 yards. McNeill, just a step slower at 57 seconds, caught three for 44.

Dropped Ball Leads Solons Over Angels

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 10 (AP)—The Washington Senators, checked on five hits through eight innings by Dean Chance, knocked out the Los Angeles Angels in the ninth inning. First and second base were empty when Chance dropped a ball that slid into the glove of Lou Clinton's throw to the plate.

Chance, seeking his eighth straight victory, took a 5-1 lead into the ninth but was replaced by Bob Lee after successive singles by Don Luck, Dick Phillips and Mike Brumley caught a run.

Pinch runner Claude Osteen tagged up from third on Chuck Clinton's fly ball and scored the winning run when catcher Bob Lee dropped a ball that slid into the glove of Lou Clinton's throw to the plate.

Chance, seeking his eighth straight victory, took a 5-1 lead into the ninth but was replaced by Bob Lee after successive singles by Don Luck, Dick Phillips and Mike Brumley caught a run.

Chiefs Hold Lead To Drop Raiders

OAKLAND, Aug. 10 (AP)—The Kansas City Chiefs jumped into an early lead Sunday but had to hold on for dear life before claiming a 21-16 cliffhanger from the Oakland Raiders in the American Football League exhibition opener for both clubs.

The Chiefs intercepted four passes from the Raiders' Cotton Davidson and turned three of them into first half scores for a 17-7 halftime lead.

STEALING A HOMERUN, Orioles' rightfielder Sam Rice goes high along the railing to rob Yankee rightfielder Roger Maris of a homer in the sixth inning of the opener of a doubleheader Sunday at New York's Yankee stadium. The Yanks scored twice in the sixth, enough to win 2-1. They then dropped the nightcap to Baltimore 4-2 and remained two games out of first in the American league race. (AP wirephoto)

Baltimore Splits Bill With Yanks To Retain Lead

NEW YORK, Aug. 10 (AP)—Boog Powell's two-run homer powered the American league-leading Baltimore Orioles to a 4-2 victory over the New York Yankees Sunday and a doubleheader split before 58,102—the largest crowd in the majors this year. The Orioles, who lost the opener 2-1, then wound up the vital four-game series between the penultimate contenders with victories while building a two-game lead over the Yankees. The Yankees went into the series holding first place by four percentage points.

Braves Jump On Drysdale For 6-2 Win

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 10 (AP)—The Milwaukee Braves jumped on Don Drysdale for four runs in the fourth inning, en route to a 6-2 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers, Sunday behind the four-hit pitching of Deiny Leunster.

Leunster, boasting his season record to 12-7, was in command all the way except for brief lapses in the third and eighth innings.

He also stopped Tommy Davis' hitting streak at 20 games. Davis failed to get the ball out of the infield in four times at bat.

Roger Maris cut the deficit to 4-2 with a homer off Roberts in the sixth, but that was it. Dave Vinnyard relieved the veteran right-hander in the seventh and Harvey Hadfield came on in the eighth to preserve Roberts' ninth victory against five losses.

At Downing pitched a four-hitter in the opener for the Yankees, who scored their runs in the sixth against Dave McNally on run-producing singles by Bobby Richardson and Elston Howard.

Downing, bringing his record to 9-4, struck out nine and walked only one, pitching out of his tightest jam in the eighth when the Orioles scored their lone run.

Dick Brown led off with a walk, moved to third on Jerry Adair's double and scored on Blomher's grounder. With Adair and Lying run, Downing bore down and struck out Jackie Brandt and Powell, who was pinch hitting.

Little Dick Howser, smacked a three-run homer as the Indians stretched their winning streak to five games by taking the opener 7-0.

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

MONDAY, AUG. 10 - BORN TO be one of those who will be called a "leader." Beoming, intelligent, even jocular, you have hidden depths of proficiency and wisdom which only those who know you best have even been given a hint of.
You are never to have any tragedy, you have probably saved your share and have lived it amazingly well.
Your occasional devil-may-care attitude concerning friends and colleagues is belied by your true loyalty. You are not one to take relationships lightly, you sometimes stop to trouble by hiding your true feelings, and with others unaware of your loyalty, you may not realize your loyalty and feeling-ness to return.

TUESDAY, AUG. 11 - YOUR confidence in the morning can give your career an unexpected boost by afternoon. Every Leo has a chance today.
WEDNESDAY, AUG. 12 -
Don't let morning irritations spoil your day. Co-workers should be ready to cooperate.

THURSDAY, AUG. 13 -
LIRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23) -
Personal interests demand more attention than you may be able to give them. Ward off frustration through activity.

FRIDAY, AUG. 14 -
BOORPO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) -
The horoscope predicts should have the chance for advancement.
Don't overlook the seemingly dim corners of another's mind.

SATURDAY, AUG. 15 -
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22) -
Take care of financial matters immediately. A good day for signing documents, so long as you understand the fine print.

SUNDAY, AUG. 16 -
CAPRICORN (Dec. 23-Jan. 20) -
Contact an old friend for word of a new one. On this day your word must definitely be your bond.

MONDAY, AUG. 17 -
AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19) -
You may be spreading your talents over too wide a field.
Limit your activities, and thereby your problem.

TUESDAY, AUG. 18 -
PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) -
The end of present difficulties is in sight. Take another into confidence if the opportunity should arise.

WEDNESDAY, AUG. 19 -
ARIES (March 21-April 20) -
You should see your way clear with new projects replacing the old ones. Be reasonable.

THURSDAY, AUG. 20 -
TAURUS (April 21-May 21) -
Only an unwise Taurus will increase on fighting against the odds which this day may present. Roll with the punches.

FRIDAY, AUG. 21 -
GEMINI (May 22-June 21) - Increase your productivity in what there is still time to make a showing. Full speed ahead.

SATURDAY, AUG. 22 -
CANCER (June 22-July 23) -
Relax! Yesterday's difficulties need not carry over—unless you let them. Begin a new day with a new confidence.
