WASHINGTON, Aug. 17 (UPI)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk opened the 1964 Democratic platform hearings today with a warning against "reckless deeds or words" in foreign policy which he said could reduce the world to "a tinder pile." The issues of military versus caution in foreign affairs and control of nuclear weapons rapidly came to the forefront as the 106-member committee opened hearings to draft a platform for the Democratic national convention in Atlantic City, N. J., one week from today.

As the hearing opened the national committee refused to meet delegates from Mississippi, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands because of challenges to their credentials. The all-white Mississippi group is under a challenge from a Negro "Freedom Democratic party."

In a blunt statement Rusk told the platform group: "This is no time to indulge in reckless deeds or words which would cast doubt on the confidence of both allies and other free nations and stimulate irrational action by our adversaries."

Twice during a question period following his speech the subject of administration responsibility in the use of military power came up. The issue has become acute in the light of charges that GOP nominee Barry Goldwater is a "hip-shooter."

Asked about frequent Republican charges that the Democrats have a "no-win policy," Rusk replied that a "no-win" policy would not "win" either because, he said, "a tinder pile is not freedom, it is not something the human race wants to look forward to."

Canvassers Report Idaho Vote Totals

BOISE, Aug. 17 (AP)—The state canvassers met for less than 10 minutes today to certify the vote totals in Idaho's 1964 primary election.

The board made no changes in the tabulations as compiled by Secretary of State Arnold Williams from the official county returns.

Only three members of the board were present: Williams, State Auditor Joe R. Williams and Treasurer Marjorie Moore. The two Republican members, Gov. Robert E. Smylie and Atty. Gen. Allan G. Shepard, were out of their offices. Shepard was in Pittsburgh for a campaign strategy meeting and Smylie was the publican Governor's association.

The canvass showed a total of 112,064 votes cast, fewer than the 1960 primary. That was the total in the supreme court race and there were 105,700 for congressional nominations.

George Hanson, Pocatello, Republican congressional nominee in the first district, got an official 16,270 votes; Keith Behndorf, Boise, 13,252, and state Sen. Dick Smith, Tuxburg, 13,684.

In uncontested races Rep. Ralph Harding, D., Ida., got 20,874 in the second district, Rep. publican John Matmiller, Kelso, 13,800 and Rep. Compton L. White, D., Ida., 13,058 in the first.

Chief Justice E. T. Knudson of the supreme court officially won 68,550 votes to 44,325 for former Atty. Gen. Frank L. Benson.

Dam in Utah Dedicated by Mrs. Johnson

DUTCH JOHN, Utah, Aug. 17 (UPI)—Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson made history today when she dedicated Flaming Gorge dam on the Utah-Wyoming border.

Unveiling a plaque which bears her name, the first lady said in a prepared speech: "How many people have dreamed and planned and built to bring this great reservoir into being!"

She was the first President's wife to dedicate a dam and also expressed regret that her husband was not on hand, "because he believes strongly that the age of adventure is not over."

She said that both she and the President, like John Wesley Powell, the geologist-explorer who named Flaming Gorge, had dreamed of building dams to harness water for man's use.

She said that during her husband's first years in congress, dating back to 1937, he had devoted his "prime energies" to the problem of water—the life-blood of the West.

"We are of water," she said, "much as it has enriched the quality of our lives, and she said, "much as it has enriched the quality of our lives."

The ceremony climaxed her exciting, four-day tour of Montana, Utah and Wyoming before she flew back to Washington.

Hoffa Gets 5 Years for Fund Fraud

CHICAGO, Aug. 17 (AP)—A federal judge today sentenced Teamster President James R. Hoffa to five years in prison and fined him $10,000 for Hoffa's receiving early this year a $5 million dollar union pension fund fraud.

U. S. District Judge Richard B. Austin ruled the sentence should be served concurrently with an eight-year term Hoffa received early this year in Chattanooga, Tenn., where he was convicted of jury tampering.

Hoffa could have received up to 20 years imprisonment and up to $13,000 fines for his fraud conviction.

Hoffa was convicted of two counts of wire fraud, one count of mail fraud and one count of conspiracy after a 13-week trial that ended July 26.

Reds Lure Vietnamese Into Ambush

SAIGON, Aug. 17 (AP)—Communist guerrillas lured Vietnamese troops into an ambush in the Mekong delta today, killing 35 government soldiers.

An American military spokesman said a relief force airlifted into the area by helicopter rescued and killed an estimated 40 Viet Cong rebels.

The battle was fought 63 miles southwest of Saigon.

The battle was reported as Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh assumed near dictatorial powers to pursue the U. S.-supported anti-communist war. Khanh had himself elected president Sunday by South Viet Nam's military junta.

Today the government announced that all cabinet members, civilian and military, had submitted their resignations to Khanh, while continuing on the job at his pleasure.

This gave Khanh a free hand to weed out ministers suspected of neutralist leanings when he forms his new "war cabinet" within 30 days.

Britain Asks Reds to Keep Out of Crisis

LONDON, Aug. 17 (AP)—Britain today urged the Soviet Union to keep out of the Cyprus crisis.

A spokesman for the British foreign office said the appeal was made in response to Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's pledge to aid Greek Cypriot President Makarios in the event of an invasion by Turkey.

The foreign office spokesman said Britain expected the Soviet government to conform to the United Nations security council resolution on Cyprus of Aug. 9.

This resolution called on all states to refrain from any action that might worsen the situation and contribute to the broadening of hostilities.

The spokesman took exception to Khrushchev's charges that both Britain and the United States had a hand in the Cyprus flare-up, and made it clear that Britain has no intention of abandoning its military bases on the island.

Experienced

LONDON, Aug. 17 (AP)—Arthur Riles, 65, says he is Britain's most experienced unlicensed driver.

He has 17 years of trying, 1,000 driving lessons and 10 tests—all unsuccessful—before he got his license.

He estimated he has spent $6,400 on lessons and practice runs, including for licensed friends to ride with him.

These times he bought cars in expectation of getting his license. Three times he sold the cars after failing.

Racial Riots Flare In Chicago Suburb

CHICAGO, Aug. 17 (UPI)—Police, led by a straw-hatted sheriff, today broke up remnants of rioting Negroes who had seized the downtown area of an integrated suburb. The Negroes, ranging in age from preteens to adults, had injured scores of white persons who had innocently entered the southern Cook county area.

The whites mostly had been out for Sunday drives. More than 1,000 Negroes were drawn into the rioting, which reached a peak shortly before midnight.

The rioting was confined to Dixmoor and to an area between that village and Harvey, one of Chicago's more industrialized suburbs. State and county police joined those from neighboring suburbs to drive back the rioters with tear gas, fire hoses, dogs and a "flying wedge" of helmeted officers.

A Sheriff Richard D. Ogilvie, a World War II tank commander, led the main section of police advancing against the Negroes. Ogilvie, holder of the purple heart, had ordered the police to return any fire from the rioters.

The Sheriff led the advance wearing a sailor-type straw hat. The uproar started over a bottle of gin. Before it was over, at least two persons were shot, close to 40 were injured, 31 were arrested, two buildings—both believed unoccupied—were set on fire, stores were looted, and cars were overturned.

The trouble in Dixmoor started Saturday when Mike Lapota, white owner of the Poromont liquor store, accused a Negro woman of trying to sneak off with a bottle of gin. The woman, a charged Lapota slapped her.

The pills taken by the girl are known commercially as Hari-Kari, an extremely toxic insecticide pill used in a vaporizer for insect control. The pills contain 100 per cent lindane which has been concentrated and put in tablet form. A local spray and insecticide authority described the girl as extremely fortunate to have withstood the highly toxic poison in such a large dosage.

Nevada Fires Burn 170,000 Acres of Grass, Sagebrush

ELKO, Aug. 17 (AP)—Firefighters appeared today to be winning a battle with four large northeastern Nevada range fires which scorched an estimated 170,000 acres of grassland and sagebrush. A bureau of land management official said three of the blazes were largely controlled overnight. But at last report, a 51,000-acre fire still burned out of control in the rugged, hard-to-reach Boulder creek area northwest of Elko. About 800 men were on the fire lines today and 150 more were waiting in Elko to be dispatched.

A half dozen other major blazes burned an additional 13,000 acres in northern and central Nevada Saturday and Sunday. Most were not when a series of lightning-charged thunderstorms crossed the state Saturday.

A Boise pilot was killed Sunday when his plane crashed 30 miles north of Elko. He was returning to Boise after flying a group of firefighters to Elko, seat of a vast cattle and sheep ranching area. Two Elko county ranchers were hospitalized with serious burns, incensed as they tried to build a fire line with a bulldozer.

Clair Whitlock, bureau of land management district director, said he hoped all four big fires could be controlled today.

"We feel we may be getting on top of the situation. We feel we have adequate men and equipment now to handle anything that might happen unless we get high winds or some unforeseen situations," Whitlock said.

Four hundred Indian firefighters from New Mexico were flown by air force transport planes to Elko last night to join 600 men already on the fire lines. Several See NEVADA FIRES, Pg. 2, Col. 2

3 Automakers Offer New Pact to UAW

DETROIT, Aug. 17 (UPI)—The auto industry's big three of General Motors, Ford and Chrysler today offered the United Auto Workers union a new three-year contract which provides for retirement as early as age 55 and a wage increase of up to 34 cents an hour. The three separate offers were given to union officials at almost the same minute this morning. There was no immediate comment from the union. But UAW President Walter P. Reuther predicted earlier the offers would be inadequate in the face of worker's demands and record industry profits.

The offers came exactly two weeks before the big three contracts expire—Aug. 31.

The union, which had called early retirement its chief issue this year, got its answer in the form of a new and complicated package of proposals from the industry.

Under the plan, retirement benefits would be increased from $3.40 to $3.25 per month for each year of credited service.

And normal retirement benefits would be available as early as age 55 after 10 years service. Or a worker could retire voluntarily under a special plan as early as age 60.

He could also retire at age 65 if his job was lost because a plant was closed or if his job was eliminated through automation. He could also retire at 65 with special benefits if he was incapacitated.

Idaho Lake Is Searched For 2 Girls

COEUR D'ALENE, Aug. 17 (AP)—Boat divers continue as early as 11 a.m. today for two 16-year-old College Place, Wash., girls who were presumed drowned after a collision between a jet boat and their outboard boat Saturday night.

Officers said a search of the lake Sunday failed to turn up any trace of Barbara Horne, driver of the 60-horsepower outboard, or Carol Thornton, a passenger in the boat.

Occupants of the jet boat, Pete Peterson, 16, and Stephen Lambert, 16, both Spokane, were injured in the crash, but apparently not seriously.

Sheriff John Bender said the outboard boat was hit near the stern. People in the area said the impact sounded like an explosion and a geyser of water shot into the air.

Deputies said the jet boat was running a series of tight, high-speed circles with the blunder lights on when the outboard apparently crossed into its path.

The Horne family was camping at Preston beach on the lake. The Thornton girl was their weekend guest.

Strategists Seek Voters In GOP Plan

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17 (AP)—Republican campaign strategists in the 50 states began a grass-roots search today for voters to meet quotas set under a novel program designed to put Ben. Harry M. Goldwater in the White House.

State GOP chairmen were given their state quotas and a county-by-county breakdown at a meeting here Saturday. Precinct quotas are now in preparation and about one-third complete.

"We have projected the probable vote and have established what we expect is a safe margin for victory," said Ray Humphreys, a Republican national committee aide.

For example, the quota program estimates that 26,000 GOP votes will be needed to win Alaska this fall. It estimates the GOP need in Oregon at 441,000 votes and sets a Pennsylvania quota of 3,947,000.

Each state chairman left Saturday's meeting with similar quota breakdowns for the nation's 3,073 counties. The data being compiled will provide similar information for 185,000 voting precincts.

Humphreys said that GOP campaigners could find the voters needed to meet their regional quotas in the reservoir of non-voters who make up about one-third of the potential electorate.

He said that from the uncommitted one-third, "we expect to get sufficient support to win this election."

Caught

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 17 (AP)—County Sheriff's Deputy Al Stett Sunday as he was making out a traffic citation behind an auto blocking a driveway.

"That's my car," said Miss Smith as she handed Stett her driver's license.

"Why did you park it in the driveway?" Stett asked.

But before Miss Smith could answer, Stett found a marijuana cigarette stuck to the plastic folder containing the license.

She was booked on suspicion of possession of narcotics.

IBM Process to Bring New Talk to Idaho Registration

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Moscow, Aug. 17—Terms such as IBM packet, class permit, permit to enroll and tentative permit to register will be new lingo to the language of registration procedure at the University of Idaho when students return to the campus this fall.

The reason for the new vocabulary stems from the IBM process to be used for the first time this fall to register students.

With enrollment figures rising each year, educators are becoming hard pressed to accommodate the students and handle and process the records required for each. These problems increase the demands for automation.

Punched or keyed cards will be used for registration and cataloging of individual student records. Each undergraduate student will have a total of eight cards to fill out before admittance to the class registration lines in Memorial gymnasium.

A graduate student must complete 10 cards.

Before the student is admitted to the gymnasium, the card entitled "Official registration card 05" must be filled out and signed by the student's academic dean. From this card, all other cards are modeled.

TAUNTON, England, Aug. 17 (AP)—When a boy chased by the police jumped into the Tone river here, Policeman Maurice Draper, 30, stripped down to his underwear, dived in and got his man.

"The swim didn't worry me," Draper said after the capture yesterday, "but the wolf whistles I got from the crowd on the bank as I stripped down were most embarrassing."

Soviet Dealing

Nikita Khrushchev once defended the infamous Hitler-Stalin pact of 1940 by saying, "The Russians would have signed an agreement with the devil himself if it would have prevented or postponed war."

The Russians are still finding themselves forced to deal with a sort of devil—in this case, the capitalist world.

They may not believe that money and its uses are here to stay, but until that glorious day of the classless and wantless society dawns, they, like the rest of us, need cash (or credit) to get along in the world as it is.

So, finding that westerners are fascinated by a shiny, yellowish metal called gold, of which Mother Russia holds vast stores beneath her copious bosom, they are selling it for old-fashioned cash on the European market.

The Russians are estimated to have sold from 450 to 550 million dollars worth of gold last year to the West—more than double the amount they traded in 1962. One effect was to depress the going price of gold to its lowest level in months.

As if this was not enough, the Russians have been reduced to the flagrant capitalist practice of borrowing money and like good businessmen, trying to get the best long-range credit terms they can wrangle.

This bourgeois Russian behavior is generally attributed to lagging export earnings and the need to pay for the huge amounts of wheat they are importing.

What impact all this could have in the long run, not only on the world's monetary structure but on the ideological wall the Russians have built to protect themselves against Western influences, is something better left for experts in various fields to ponder.

Westerners might keep in mind, however, that the Russians are not the only ones dealing with the devil.

FORKED TONGUE

Governments, like young suitors, should not be taken seriously when they use a word like "forever."

In 1794, the nation of the United States signed a treaty with the Seneca Indian nation granting it a reservation along the banks of the Allegheny river in western New York which the Senecas were to enjoy undisturbed forever—at least "as long as the grass grew green."

In 1864, the Indians are being dispossessed because most of their land will be submerged under water when the Kinzua dam flood control project 27 miles downstream is completed.

The Indians may, in their wisdom, understand that the living cannot always be bound by the promises of the dead. In 1794, America west of the Atlantic coast was a great wilderness that Thomas Jefferson thought would take a thousand years to settle.

No one could foresee that the U. S. population would multiply 45 times in 170 years. No man dreamed of the mechanization, the rapid transportation and all the other things that place a larger human gap between 1964 and 1794 than existed between the infant United States and the Roman empire.

One thing the Indians cannot understand, however is why it should take so long for them to be paid for their land. Some 140 Indian families must find new homes by Oct. 1. They no longer refer to the President as the Great White Father, but as far as they can tell, the white man still speaks with a forked tongue.

HIG MAN HUNT

A good man is hard to find, indeed, especially when it comes to certain jobs in the government.

After two years of vain searching, the food and drug administration finally found someone to head its important bureau of medicine, which is responsible for enforcing federal standards for drugs on the market.

The man persuaded to enter the Washington ulcer derby is Dr. Joseph P. Saduk, Jr., George Washington University.

FDA people have always been, and are now more than ever, under pressure from three sides—the drug industry, congress and the people.

Salaries are low, compared to levels in private work. Facilities and personnel are limited. Whatever the decision about a particular drug, an enemy is usually made somewhere. Public acclaim, such as that which came to the FDA's Dr. Frances O. Kelsey when she refused to license thalidomide despite terrific outside pressure, is rare.

It is not surprising we get the kind of government we deserve. What is surprising is that it is often so much better than we deserve.

THIRTEEN DEMOCRATS

A new political party, composed of Negroes, called the Freedom Party, has been formed in Michigan, and has qualified for the ballot by filing 22,000 signatures requesting certification.

Some 100 leaders plan on running candidates for congress and the legislature.

Democrats are worried about how many votes the new party will take away from their candidates. Negroes in Michigan up to now have almost no voice.

Chairman of Freedom Now, the Rev. Albert Cleage, Jr., pastor of Detroit's Central Congregational church, says the party will capture at least 100,000 votes this fall.

Should the political movement in several upstart balance of power in the northwestern states, it is a development worth watching.—Seattle Argus.

By ANDREW TULLY

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17—Citizens whose lives are plagued by excursions into nostalgia should be pleased to meet Sen. John Stennis of Mississippi as key-note speaker of the Democratic national convention in Atlantic City. Stennis will be the first important-mustache since the 1920s.

The Stennis mustache is even daintier than Dorey's, but it remains the McCoy. And that remains this aging sprout that the nation has not had a mustache since the 1920s.

President John F. Kennedy, Howard Taft and his magnificent walrus. Indeed, America has become a country of mustache-men. Several years ago, I cultivated one of the things after a narrow-minded officialdom thwarted my plans to open an opium den. It was a splendid specimen, black, with just enough gray at the roots of distinction, and full all the way across. The kind of mustache, in short, that fair cried for a crimson cloak and sword.

But I was not prepared for the reaction of the public world. Being the public mustache for the first time in a hurrying order, roughly comparable in my experience to flying blind in a blizzard over Alaska or crossing Moscow's Gorky street. People just aren't very kind.

NOBLE EXPERIMENT—Tumble in, it takes courage to grow a mustache. Several years ago, I cultivated one of the things after a narrow-minded officialdom thwarted my plans to open an opium den. BY DICK WEST
WASHINGTON, Aug. 17—In thinking back over the history lessons I had in school, I am unable to recall any mention of our founding fathers getting snookered on "arrack punch."

This gap in my education has been plugged by a document someone sent me from Williamsburg, Va., home of the famous 18th century restoration project.

A section of the annual report of the president of the Williamsburg Foundation devoted to the taverns that flourished there in pre-revolutionary times.

Taverns were favorite meeting places of many early American patriots and, the report says, "in their night rooms, 'the intrigue against the British crown brewed.'"

The report also makes it clear that intrigue wasn't all that was brewing.

After attending a dance at the Raleigh Tavern in 1763, Thomas Jefferson, then 20 years old, wrote that "I never could have thought the setting sun would have seen me so wretched as I now am."

The report suggests that Jefferson was love-struck. It sounds to me more like a hangover.

Some 30 years before, when Jefferson's father bought a piece of land from William Randolph, the contract stipulated that the deal be closed with "the biggest bowl of arrack punch" the Raleigh Tavern could provide. When the deal was closed, the report says, "the biggest bowl of arrack punch" the Raleigh Tavern could provide.

WERE JAYCEES THAT HARD UP?
We must presume that the Junior Chamber of Commerce was hard up for a keynote speaker at its national convention in Dallas this week. We must presume that the Junior Chamber of Commerce was hard up for a keynote speaker at its national convention in Dallas this week.

Consider some of the statements he made Tuesday night:

Because of the supreme crisis ruling against capitalism, the school of thought, Wallace said, students cannot afford to study "America" because it has the word God in it.

That is not true, and we cannot see how a man as intelligent as Wallace would fail to know it is not trifling the civil rights bill now in congress.

He said that it "attacks the right to own and hold private property." Again, that is not true, and Wallace ought to know it is not true.

Wallace went on to charge that a "force cult" has taken over the party, dedicated to "pure, brute, naked federal force." Presumably he was referring to efforts of the courts and congress to protect the constitutional rights of American citizens—citizens who have been denied many of these rights state power in such states as Mississippi and Alabama.

In Washington, these matters are handled in open court or in open sessions of congress, with due deliberation and all constitutional safeguards. It seems strange that if Wallace worries about "pure, brute, naked federal force," he does not look it over in the open.

But Wallace had nothing to say about the lawless violence in those areas. And if Wallace is so concerned about the party, he should look it over in the open.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

BY WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Adults rarely sleep around the clock, but a newborn infant will normally sleep about 22 hours a day.

By the time he reaches the age of 2 months, he may sleep 20 hours. At 4 months, 18 to 19 hours. At one year, 14 to 15 hours. At two years, 12 to 13 hours.

If your year-old baby sleeps less than this, he is probably not getting enough sleep. If he sleeps more than this, he is probably not getting enough sleep.

When a child of 12 or 14 months habitually wakes up in the middle of the night and cries without apparent cause, his parents may attribute this to painful teething. But if the crying usually stops when the child is picked up, it proves that pain has nothing to do with it.

At 1 year, your baby is not too young to learn that he must respect the comfort of others and make his own contribution to a peaceful family life, but he will not learn this valuable lesson unless you teach him gently but firmly.

Babies and toddlers are naturally light sleepers so don't expect them to go into a deep sleep until they are 4 or 5 years old.

At this age they are capable of wearing themselves out physically. Once asleep, it is almost impossible to arouse them.

Between 2 and 3 many children develop night terrors. Sometimes they are relieved by giving the child a very light evening meal. In others a small feeding that is high in sugar content and given just before bed will stop the attacks. In a few youngsters the attacks are not stopped until the tonsils and adenoids are removed.

For this reason the child who has frequent night terrors should have a thorough checkup before the attacks have caused loss of weight and a fear of going to bed.

A 2-year-old child is not too young to learn to take these attacks to obtain extra attention. A good test is gently to try to open his eyelids. If he is truly asleep this can be done easily but if the child resists such a maneuver, he is faking.

In this case you should give him more attention during the day but insist on his behaving himself at night.

It might involve just a janitor scolding from wastebaskets—or a formula for a new wonder drug that took years to develop.

There are even firms that specialize in industrial espionage and will help place a spy for a willing industrialist. Jackson said, "Since the spies are usually well qualified in their own fields, getting a job with a competitor is relatively easy."

Such a spy can even reach the top of a manufacturing firm, in the Midwest, a number of top officials of a manufacturing firm conspired to steal their company's secrets and go into business for themselves, he said of one case. Lured by the prospect of a cheap supply, one large customer

Adults rarely sleep around the clock, but a newborn infant will normally sleep about 22 hours a day.

By the time he reaches the age of 2 months, he may sleep 20 hours. At 4 months, 18 to 19 hours. At one year, 14 to 15 hours. At two years, 12 to 13 hours.

If your year-old baby sleeps less than this, he is probably not getting enough sleep. If he sleeps more than this, he is probably not getting enough sleep.

When a child of 12 or 14 months habitually wakes up in the middle of the night and cries without apparent cause, his parents may attribute this to painful teething. But if the crying usually stops when the child is picked up, it proves that pain has nothing to do with it.

At 1 year, your baby is not too young to learn that he must respect the comfort of others and make his own contribution to a peaceful family life, but he will not learn this valuable lesson unless you teach him gently but firmly.

Babies and toddlers are naturally light sleepers so don't expect them to go into a deep sleep until they are 4 or 5 years old.

At this age they are capable of wearing themselves out physically. Once asleep, it is almost impossible to arouse them.

Between 2 and 3 many children develop night terrors. Sometimes they are relieved by giving the child a very light evening meal. In others a small feeding that is high in sugar content and given just before bed will stop the attacks. In a few youngsters the attacks are not stopped until the tonsils and adenoids are removed.

For this reason the child who has frequent night terrors should have a thorough checkup before the attacks have caused loss of weight and a fear of going to bed.

A 2-year-old child is not too young to learn to take these attacks to obtain extra attention. A good test is gently to try to open his eyelids. If he is truly asleep this can be done easily but if the child resists such a maneuver, he is faking.

In this case you should give him more attention during the day but insist on his behaving himself at night.

By HENRY SHAPIRO
MOSCOW, Aug. 17—Trade with the United States has become, in Russian eyes, the all-telling barometer registering the improving relations between the two countries.

Moscow has indicated repeatedly that relations will not be normal until the United States removes a host of alleged discriminatory practices restricting the exchange of goods.

The Russians want not only a substantial increase in the volume of imports and exports, but a revision of the American blockade of strategic goods, a liberalization of the licensing system for exports and above all long-term credits.

Restoration of "the most favored nations treatment" which the Russians enjoyed in the pre-war American-Soviet trade agreement, and of which they have been deprived since the Korean war, is essential to the Soviet understanding of normalization of trade relations.

Because of this absorbing Soviet interest in trade no visiting foreign dignitary can obtain the ear of Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev or any other high Soviet leader more easily than businessmen—foreign businessmen who can talk "business" with the Russians.

A case in point was a conversation early this month between the Soviet premier and American banker David Rockefeller.

The conversation dealt largely with trade and enabled Rockefeller to give the Soviet premier an authoritative explanation of the obstacles towards any substantial expansion of trade.

Among them Rockefeller mentioned the failure to achieve a settlement of American claims for lend-lease supplies totalling approximately 11 billion dollars. It is a long-term credit and we may be able to settle lend-lease, Khrushchev, in effect, told Rockefeller.

Khrushchev's insistence on long-term credits runs counter to the American position that a lend-lease settlement must be negotiated independently of any general trade problems.

Moreover, American policy strongly opposes the granting of credits in excess of five years to other than under-developed countries.

Minidoka Fair, Sept. 3-5, to Have Flower Show, Horse Races, Exhibits

RUPERT, Aug. 17.—The 1963 county fair broke all records as being the largest and most successful fair in the history of Minidoka county and plans for this year's annual show Sept. 3-5 are shaping up well, according to LaMont Smith, fair-board secretary.

This year's fair is again under the direction of the Minidoka county fair board, with the county commissioners and the Minidoka Wranglers cooperating. Included in the events scheduled for the fair include FFA and 4-H exhibits, open class exhibits, miniature rodeo, horse show, tractor pulling contest, a flower show sponsored by Rupert Woman's club and part-mutual horse racing which will take place each afternoon of the fair and one additional day after the fair has closed.

Youngsters between the ages of 9 and 14 will have the opportunity of competing in the miniature rodeo being scheduled this year. Participants in the rodeo events will compete for prizes with other interested enthusiasts and provide excellent entertainment for spectators. The Minidoka Wranglers assist in this event each year.

The Wranglers will also host a horse show this year and plans are to hold the event Aug. 28 and 29, prior to the county fair.

A tractor pulling contest will again be featured in the fair this year with contests being held in the lightweight division, middleweight, heavyweight and open class division. First, second and third place winners are recognized after the contest.

Flower raisers and enthusiasts from throughout the area are invited to enter exhibits in the second annual flower show to be held in connection with the county fair.

The Rupert Woman's club previously presented a flower show annually, but 1963 was the first year it was held in connection with the fair. The show will be held at the national guard armory, which is located just adjacent to the fairgrounds. Chairmen of last year's event termed the show a success with a record number of flower exhibits displayed.

Part-mutual racing will be held in connection with the county fair this year on Sept. 3, 4, 5 and 7. A new track has been constructed at the fairgrounds and has been patterned after the Pomona race track in Los Angeles county.

Exhibits from the 4-H and FFA divisions will be entered in the fair. FFA exhibits will include beef, dairy, sheep, poultry, swine, potatoes, sugar beets, grain, beans, seeds and farm machinery.

Open class exhibits will include sheep, dairy and bulls.

4-H exhibits will include beef, dairy, horse, pig, sheep and poultry, as well as potato, bean, small grains and sugar beet projects. Also included in 4-H exhibits will be entomology, weed fighter project, farm electrification, garden, tractor maintenance, automotive, forestry, photography, rock collecting, wood-working and safety.

4-H home economics division will include clothing, canning, foods, home improvement projects, health projects, child care, home beautification, style dress and junior leadership.

Blue, red and white ribbons will be given in each class based on quality, also on fitting and showing in each division for those participating in the vocational agricultural division. Also a grand champion and reserve champion animal will be selected in beef, dairy, swine and sheep divisions.

Filer Family to Show Top Hogs at T.F. County Fair

FILER, Aug. 17.—Four showmen to watch for in the open class and 4-H swine divisions at the Twin Falls county fair this fall are Jerry Kruse, Filer farmer, and his three sons, Ricky, 15; Randy, 13, and Rex, 10; all of whom have proven themselves expert swine growers and showmen at the fair during the past three years.

Kruse is the assistant leader of the Filer Livestock 4-H club and his sons are members of the club. Ricky has been in 4-H work for six years, Randy for four years and Rex for two years.

Each boy has had three hogs, a Berkshire, Duroc and Yorkshire, for 4-H projects and the living room in the Kruse home contains 13 trophies won by the boys for their efforts.

There also is a string of ribbons for each year they have participated in the fair and last year's ribbons include six grand champions, 12 first place and numerous second and third place awards.

Last year, Ricky took grand champion in fitting and showing at the fair. Rex had the grand champion fat hog at the 4-H FFA livestock sale and Randy had the reserve grand champion fat hog at the sale.

Kruse said that in the open class showing last year, the competition was more rigorous than ever before and he expects it to be the same this year. Many hog breeders from Washington and other surrounding states have begin entering their stock in the fair and the local competitors are finding that their competition makes for an exciting show, for exhibitors and spectators alike.

Clark Mills, superintendent of the swine division in open class showing, reports the swine department was once a small part of the livestock exhibition. However, it has now grown to the size that the showing arena on the grounds had to be used to house some of the hogs at last year's fair.

The exhibitors and department officers are worried about the limited space available due to the increase in the entries and are hopeful that additional space will someday be available to accommodate the growing division.

Mistake

MIAMI, Aug. 17 (AP)—A cow fell into a canal here and a passing motorist made the mistake of calling the police.

Officer James Hulbert, first on the scene, tried desperately for nearly a half hour to pull Rozzie out with a rope, to no avail.

He called a wrecker and for two hours the wrecker crew worked in the sticky mud, muttering about cars and cows.

Finally, they got the cow out and it plodded off unhurt.

Hulbert went back to his car, stuck in the mud. The wrecker backed up to the rescue, threw a line on the patrol car and pulled.

The wrecker's axle cracked. A second wrecker came, freed the patrol car, hooked up to the disabled wrecker, and everybody took off — in a hurry.

Glen Canyon Generator Is Producing

PAIGE, Ariz., Aug. 17 (AP)—The first generator at Glen Canyon dam's power plant began turning today as water behind the dam in Lake Powell flowed through the turbines down to Lake Mead.

Ben Frank E. Moss, D. Utah, announced yesterday that the lake has reached 96 feet since May 11 when the gates of the dam were closed. He said the lake content was 6,124,000 acre-feet.

"This is the red-letter day for the upper Colorado river basin," he said. "The unit will be ready for electrical testing by the scheduled date of Aug. 30."

"This means that electric revenue shortly will begin to flow to the basin fund out of which we will pay for our participating projects like central Utah and Emery county," Moss said.

A total of 3,500,000 acre-feet has been stored since the gates were closed.

Two Russian Musicians Go Into Hiding

FRANKFURT, Germany, Aug. 17 (AP)—Two Soviet musicians who defected to the West in Tokyo so they could play jazz in the United States flew here today and were immediately taken into hiding by American intelligence agents.

These two persons will be afforded facilities for residing from their 9,000-mile flight," a U. S. embassy spokesman told reporters.

Agents of the U. S. army counter-intelligence corps (CIC) met Boris Mitner, 37, a tenor saxophone player, and Igor Isakovich, 31, a drummer, aboard the airliner that brought them from Tokyo.

The musicians were hustled into a waiting U. S. military sedan and sped to Rhine-Main Airbase.

By the time newsmen got to the airbase, the musicians had vanished. Air force officials professed not to know they had even arrived there.

It was assumed the "facilities for residing" referred to by the American spokesman were at Camp King, the U. S. intelligence center at Oberrhein in the Taunus mountains, a few miles north of Frankfurt.

The two men said they had fled from a Bolshevik variety troupe in Tokyo Friday because there were no opportunities for jazzmen in Russia.

They said they were going to leave their instruments behind, but they went instead to the U. S. embassy and asked for political asylum.

Simplot to Go Ahead on Expansion

POCATELLO, Aug. 17 (AP)—The J. R. Simplot company says it has decided to go ahead with a proposed four-million-dollar expansion program at the chemical fertilizer complex west of Pocatello.

The firm canceled the program earlier this year following the signing of a contract by the Bonneville Power administration calling for delivery of federal power to the Monsanto company's phosphate plant at Soda Springs.

W. Grant Kilbourne, Simplot vice president, said Sunday, however, that the firm decided to reinstate the program in view of the rejection by the house and senate appropriations committees of a request for one million dollars to begin preliminary studies on a proposed federal transmission line into southern Idaho.

"Now we feel we have no need to gamble another four million that both the congress and the people of Idaho will continue to rebel against putting us out of business with our own tax money," Kilbourne said.

Simplot had contended that it would be unable to compete with the Monsanto company's electric furnace method of producing phosphate if low cost federal power became available at Soda Springs.

"The Simplot plant uses the 'wet acid' method which utilizes sulphur rather than electricity in processing phosphate rock," Kilbourne said.

Kilbourne said work on the expansion, which will double the plant's present capacity, is scheduled to begin this fall with the first phase scheduled for completion by next spring.

He said when the expansion is completed an additional 50 men will be added to the payroll. The plant currently employs 300 men.

French Boy Campers Die In Bus Crash

BOURG ST. MAURICE, Aug. 17 (AP)—Fourteen French boy campers and three of their counselors were killed Sunday when their overloaded bus plunged down a 250-foot ravine near the Bernad pass in the French Alps.

All 17 persons on the bus were killed or injured. The survivors including 49 children and nine adults, but some were so seriously injured they were not expected to live.

The bus has a normal capacity of 45 persons—37 sitting and eight standing.

The boys, all between 10 and 15, were vacationing at a "youth and joy" summer camp in the French Alps. The bus had taken them to a shepherd's festival near the Italian-French border and was on the way back to camp when it left the road.

Driver Henri Lohier, 61, said "My bus was in very good condition and the brakes worked perfectly." Police said the bus veered slightly to the right on a hairpin mountain road to let a car pass.

The driver gave way under the weight of the bus, they said.

Russia to Orbit Two Men Soon

MOSCOW, Aug. 17 (AP)—The Soviet Union today unveiled a new space launching involving two or more men. Western sources said it was expected shortly and could put the Soviet 18 months ahead of the United States.

There has been no announcement of space shot plans. The Soviet government does not give advance notice of its launches, Western experts, however, have noted several indications in the Soviet press that something was in the works.

The sources said the space shot could take one of these two forms:

—A linkup in space between two space ships, with one or more men in each.

—An attempt to orbit the moon and return to Earth by manned spacecraft.

They said the space linkup was the more likely plan. If successful, it would put the Soviet at least 18 months ahead of the American Gemini program, which does not plan such a flight until early in 1966, the sources added.

Launching of U.S. Satellite Is Delayed

CAPE KENNEDY, Aug. 17 (AP)—A short circuit has delayed until Wednesday America's attempt to rocket a Syncom communications satellite into the world's first stationary orbit.

The one-day postponement was caused yesterday by a faulty electrical connection between the first and second stages of Syncom-3's new Delta rocket called TAD. Launch time is from 6:40 a.m. EST to 7:30 a.m. Wednesday.

Scientists hope to take advantage of the switchboard satellite's planned continuous station over the Pacific to relay live telecasts of the Olympic games from Japan to the United States Oct. 10-24.

The launch, which follows the spectacular Ranger-7 moonshot of July 20, is the first of eight scheduled within a month's period at the nation's East and West coast rocket centers.

The ambitious string of launches includes the flight debut of the air force's new Titan-3A space booster now set for Aug. 28. The three-stage rocket will carry a 5,000-pound dummy payload to test its orbital ability.

Log Exports Exceed Same Period of '63

PORTLAND, Aug. 17 (AP)—The U. S. forest service director of the Pacific northwest forest and range experiment station says the area's softwood log exports in the second quarter of 1964 were more than the same period a year ago—but less than during the first quarter of 1964.

Philip A. Bringley said the Pacific Northwest exported 225 million board feet in the second quarter.

Japan received 89 per cent of the logs. Eight per cent went to Canada, and three per cent to South Korea. The logs were western hemlock, white or redwood, silver fir, Douglas fir, and Port Orford cedar.

Shipments were about evenly divided between Oregon and Washington customs districts. Bringley said the second-quarter lumber exports were 64 million board feet, with nine million going to Japan. It was primarily Douglas fir.

New Tension Is Sparked in Mississippi

GREENWOOD, Miss. Aug. 17 (AP)—The shooting of a Negro civil rights worker sparking new tension today in the Delta city. Acts of racial violence spread across the state.

Two white men were arrested in Jackson for shooting a Negro, opening fire on a white civil rights worker, and beating another white integrationist.

Crosses were burned in the Jackson area — one at a main thoroughfare in the Negro section.

Bliss McChes, 31, remained in satisfactory condition after surgery at the University hospital at Jackson. He was shot in the face as he sat in his car in a Negro neighborhood in Greenwood Saturday night. Hospital officials said he was shot near the left cheekbone, almost at the temple with a small caliber weapon.

Unidentified witnesses said a young white man shot McChes. They said the shot was fired from a station wagon carrying two white men.

The young white men were jailed in Jackson on charges they committed three acts of violence. "Aimed at civil rights workers Saturday, including the wounding of Negro Willie Earl Guyton, 18, in the leg outside a dance hall in the capital city."

Detective Capt. J. P. Shipp said Markus Perkins and D. J. Hawkins, both in their 20s, were being held under a $15,000 bond each in the three cases.

They also were charged with beating white civil rights worker Philip Hocker, 19, a Princeton student from Corning, N. Y., with a ball bat, and firing several shots into a car driven by Steve Smith, 19, another white summer camper from Iowa State university.

An empty glass was found on the floorboards of the vehicle.

The woman was found Saturday by her brother-in-law, Clifford Shannon, Boise. Her husband, Weldon Jordan, is traveling for Albertson's food stores, and was in Portland Saturday night, Paris said.

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

MONDAY, AUGUST 17—Born today, you have exceptionally good judgment and can always think clearly in a crisis—in spite of the fact that your general attitude is somewhat lax and easy-going, quite as if you never gave a second thought to anything. Because of your ability to handle an emergency, you may often find yourself asked to interfere in situations which are really none of your affair. Be wary of this sort of thing; it could lead to trouble.

You have a love of beauty which should broaden your life immensely. You also have a love of pleasure which could divert you away from your true aim into time-consuming byways of fruitless experience. Take care not to become sidetracked through your search for what may not really be the "good" things of life after all.

It is quite possible that, despite your charm and personal magnetism, you will find it difficult to declare yourself romantically to "the marrying kind" and so not marry until relatively late in life. Only take care that you do not in this way miss what could well be the one "true love" of your life!

Among those born on this date are: Davy Crockett, American pioneer; Mae West, actress; John Hay Whitney, noted American newspaperman.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday

She was born in American Falls Oct. 3, 1915, to Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Walton. She spent most of her life in Rupert and was graduated from high school there.

She took nurses training at St. Anthony Memorial hospital in Pocatello and after graduation lived in various places about the state.

She is survived by her husband and her mother, Rupert.

Proposal for College District Is Discussed

A study group of interested members of the American Association of University Women met at the home of Mrs. Eldon at Twin Falls, to discuss the proposal for a college district.

Mrs. Ralph Onstead gave the general outline of various community college systems. It was pointed out that a community college in Twin Falls county could incorporate many of the best features of all types and in addition, a freshman and additional college classes, could include trade and vocational subjects and adult education classes.

The junior college district law, passed by the 1953 state legislature, was discussed by Mrs. R. H. Miller. Under the terms of this law, Twin Falls county more than meets the requirements set forth in terms of pupils, assessed valuation, and need. A petition signed by 1,000 electors will give the question on the November ballot and a two-thirds vote is needed then to establish the district.

Mrs. Evans concluded with a report on the practical aspect of a community college in the county. She stated, "with well over 1,000 students of high school age in the county, the financial relief to parents of students who could continue their education while living at home will be great. In addition, a well-planned trade and vocational program would do much to eliminate school dropouts and prepare students for available jobs."

Members present were in unanimous agreement to support the proposal and to work for its passage.

I don't know about watts

but I'm glad my water heater is FLAMELESS

My husband says the reason our new quick recovery electric water heater is so fast is because it has two high-speed, 4500-watt elements.

What's a watt? I don't know, but we get all the hot water we want and our water heater is flameless. To me that means clean, quiet, carefree and dependable.

It's the modern way to heat water!

Antitrust Angle Is Brought Into Yank-CBS Deal

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17 (AP)—The chairman of the house judiciary committee said Sunday purchase of the New York Yankees by the Columbia Broadcasting system appears to raise problems under the Celler-Kefauver antitrust act. But Dr. Frank Stanton, president of CBS, countered with a statement that "before reaching its decision to purchase a majority interest in the Yankees CBS was advised by counsel that the acquisition would in no way violate the antitrust laws, including the Celler-Kefauver act."

McPhail Says Sale Will Not Upset Game

BALTIMORE, Aug. 17 (AP)—Larry McPhail, the manager who brought Dan Topping and Del Webb into baseball, said Sunday the sale of the New York Yankees to CBS would not upset the structure of the game nor endanger its public image. "I can't say that I'm personally overjoyed at the idea of a giant business moving in on baseball, but I can't see how it would harm the game," he said. "As I understand it, the Yankee corporation will be a separate entity with Topping continuing as head man and directing the policy."

"I don't think Judge Landis, if he were commissioner today, would approve such a sale because he always believed, as I do, that individual ownership helped build the foundation of baseball. But Ford Frick, the present commissioner, approved it just as he approved the sale of the St. Louis Cardinals to Mr. Claude Ruch of Anheuser-Busch brewery about 10 years ago."

"I would hate to think that Dr. Frank Stanton and Mr. William S. Paley were considered any less ethical than Mr. Frick. Can you question the integrity of such men?"

Chicago Nips Boston 2-1 to Stay in Race

BOSTON, Aug. 17 (AP)—Chicago parlayed a pair of misplays and a wild pitch by Ed Connolly into a 2-1 victory over Boston Sunday and remained in the thick of the American league pennant race. Jim Lofgren got a triple to the right field corner in the third inning when Lee Thomas staggered and fell retrieving the ball. Lofgren hit the White Sox ahead to stay when he scored on a wild pitch by Connolly. Although no errors were charged, center fielder Carl Yastrzemski misplayed triples by Floyd Robinson in the first inning and Bill Skowron in the sixth. Robinson scored on a single by Skowron.

We don't say stop smoking. That is your decision, a very personal one. But there is a safer way to smoke. With a TAR GARD. This new, scientific device can prevent up to 85% of irritating high-temperature tars from entering your body. What does that mean to you? Well, if you are like most people, you have not stopped smoking, in spite of research reports and cautions and government statistics. But now you can stop the soot and hot tars and irritants from entering your body. With TAR GARD—the most important advance in protective smoking ever developed. TAR GARD can actually identify and separate irritating high-temperature tars from smoke without significantly impeding the flow of flavor and aroma. Technically, TAR GARD is not a filter. Instead, it is a new concept, adapting a principle of aerodynamics based on the Venturi tube. Smoke is drawn through a pinpoint opening and greatly accelerated. The smoke races through a tiny chamber at incredible speed. With the impact of 200 miles per hour, the smoke hurtles abruptly against a barrier. Depending upon the brand, up to 85% of the irritating high-temperature tars are literally knocked out of the smoke. Yet the cool, low-temperature tars that give a cigarette its flavor and aroma flow right on through with the smoke. How does smoking with a TAR GARD taste? As satisfying as it has always tasted. How does smoking feel?

Foye and Purves Advance to Quarterfinals of City Meet

The two top shooters of the first 36 holes in the Twin Falls city golf championships, both won individual matches Sunday and moved into the quarterfinals of the two-course meet along with six others. Loren Foye defeated Tom Fink-houser 3 and 2 while Jim Purves went 4 and 3 over Sherm Williams in his match. Both Foye and Purves fired 65s during the first week-end of the meet, but Purves entered the match play bracket with a 132 while Foye went in with a 134.

Harry Schlagenhauf went 1 up on Jim Sincal and Rich Cook defeated Jon Memmott 4 and 3. This is the first time in the history of the city meet that the play has been split between two quarterfinal matches.

The top bracket will play their quarterfinal matches at the city course while the lower bracket course.

TAR GARD

Worry-free. Your teeth stay white. Smokers cough usually disappears. A quarter of a million dollars has been invested in the development of TAR GARD and a continuing program of research confirms the unprecedented performance of this important smoking safeguard. TAR GARD has been granted 15 patents by the government of the United States and additional patents in foreign countries. But the importance of TAR GARD can be easily demonstrated whether you smoke filter or non-filter cigarettes. When you purchase TAR GARD, you will be given the transparent mouthpiece shown above, as well as a handsome opaque one. You will quickly see dark gummy tars build up inside the TAR GARD. When you clean your TAR GARD, you will probably be shocked at the amount of tar that has accumulated. But you will be reassured that these irritating properties of smoke have collected inside your TAR GARD, rather than staying in the smoke you inhale. TAR GARD is priced at $2.95. You never buy cartridges or replacements; TAR GARD is permanent. You simply clean it with a tissue or under the hot water tap. If for any reason you are not fully satisfied, your purchase cost will be refunded by the manufacturer. Your most important possession is your body. We earnestly suggest that you protect it with TAR GARD. Tar Gard Co., San Francisco, California.
