Copyright 1964 Pitman Publishing Corporation (Distributed by Newspaper Enterprise Association)

A year ago I was wondering how a child's fears might influence the strategies of those of these kids have been consistently self-centered, self-protective, aimed above all else at avoiding embarrassment, punishment, disapproval or loss of status. This is particularly true of the ones who have had a tough time at school. When they get a problem, I can read their thoughts on their faces. I can sense their "I'm going to get it wrong" right? Probably not, but I'll happen to me when I get it wrong? Will the teacher get mad? Will the other kids laugh at me? Will my mother and father hear about it? Will they keep me back next year? Why am I so dumb? And so on.

Even in the room periods, when I did all I could to make the work non-threatening, I was continually amazed and appalled to see the children avoiding their jobs, covering their faces in annoyance, trying to fix things so that whatever happened they could say they had been right, or if wrong, no more wrong than anyone else. "I think it will sort of balance."

They are tense, straddled, afraid-never-to-commit-themselves-and-at-the-age-of-10, playing games like twenty questions, which are not meant to be played in school. The simple things of them might have something to put up a good front, to look as if they knew what they were doing, whether they did or not.

These self-limiting and self-defeating strategies are dictated, above all else, by fear. For many years I have been asking myself why intelligent children act unintelligently at school. The simple answer is "Because they're scared." I used to suspect that children were "dumb" had something to do with their bad work in school, but I thought I could clear it away with hearty cries of "Forward you can do it!"

What I now see for the first time is the mechanism by which fear destroys intelligence. The way it affects a child's whole way of looking at, thinking about, and dealing with life. So we have the problem, not one to stop children from being afraid, and then to break them of the bad thinking habits into which their fears have driven them.

What is so surprising of all is how much fear there is in school. Why is it so little said about it?

Perhaps most people do not recognize fear in children when they see it. They can read the gross signs of fear; they know what the trouble is when a child clings howling to his mother; but the subtler signs of fear escape them. It is these signs, in children's faces, voices and gestures, in their movements and ways of acting that tell me plainly that most children in school are working that tell me plainly that most children in school are scared most of the time, many of them very scared. Like good soldiers, they control their fears, live with them, adjust themselves to them.

But the trouble is—and here is a vital difference between school and war—that the adjustments children make to their fears are almost wholly unskillful. They are not intelligent and capable. The scared fighter may be the best fighter, but the scared learner is always a poor learner.

Stuart Junior High Pupils Give Concert

The orchestra, band and choir of Robert Stuart Junior High school presented a Christmas program Monday night in the school auditorium.

The seventh grade orchestra, under the direction of Mrs. Virginia Christopherson, played "The Merry-go-round" by Paul Yoder, "Country Gardens," an old English dance, prelude from "L'Arlésienne Suite," by Bizet, "We Three Kings," traditional carol, and several songs of yuletide.

The eighth grade string orchestra, directed by Mrs. Christopherson, played suite from "Finlandia" and overture, march, march and fantasia on "Green Sleeves" by R. Vaughan Williams.

The full orchestra and the seventh grade choir, conducted by Mrs. Mary Baun, played "Finnish Suite," a Scandinavian carol by Edward Edelson. The suite, of which the title suggests the sound of a loy drum, is an old French Bergandian carol celebrating the gaily of Christmas.

The junior band, directed by Arthur Klotz, played "I'll Be Home for Christmas," "Heart This Night Rejoices," Ger-

Trading Stamps May Become Issue

BOISE, Dec. 15 (AP)—Despite Gov. Robert E. Smylie's veto of an anti-stamp bill in 1961, trading stamps may be an issue in the 1965 legislature.

Although 47 per cent of the legislators who answered a UPPI questionnaire said they were opposed to outlawing trading stamps, 33 per cent said they would favor imposing additional taxes on them. And 10 per cent of those who answered the questionnaire specified the tax they want: A tax on unredeemed stamps.

A controversial issue that arises through party lines like a sharp knife cuts through butter, the stamp issue has summed up the machinery of more than one session of the legislature in Idaho.

Percentages, when you speak of stamps, sometimes are misleading. Those for and against them will not always say so openly, keeping their feelings submerged like the base of an iceberg because of pressures from home. Significantly, 11 per cent of those returning questionnaires declined to answer questions about their feelings on the stamps.

The issue draws many views, as may be seen by the comments of the lawmakers. Twenty-seven per cent said they do not believe this is the sort of issue to come before the legislature although some personally dislike stamps.

"I do not like bills outlawing any kind of legitimate business but I would favor placing an additional tax on them," said Rep. Darrell Manning, D., Bannock.

Tax Headache

It's regrettable that Idaho's new legislative council hasn't done more research on the tax problem in the last two years. Evidence continues to accumulate that the 38th session of the state legislature will face the biggest tax headache the state has had for many years. And as pressures continue to mount in favor of a sales tax to meet rising costs of government and education, there's also considerable evidence to indicate loss and less chance of relief from other taxes.

Idaho Budget Director Don Y. Walker has estimated the state will lose $1.5 million dollars in the red. Inasmuch as the state constitution specifies the budget has to be balanced, that amount will have to be taken from the next biennium to leave a balanced budget. The net effect is to start out the next fiscal period $1.5 million dollars in the red.

Arvil Millar, Republican representative from Bingham county who was chairman of the revenue and taxation committee for the 37th session, has voiced the hope that legislative leaders will face up early to the sales tax problem. He hopes the tax can be passed and made effective prior to July 1, the start of the next fiscal period. It's obvious Mr. Millar would like sales tax revenue to make up some of the deficit from the current biennium.

Meanwhile, everyone will be hoping for some sort of tax relief as soon as a sales tax becomes effective. The Idaho Farm Bureau already is on record asking a reduction in property taxes while at the same time increasing the personal income tax. Merchants want an end to the inventory tax. And the utilities would like to see a different system of evaluating property so their taxes would be reduced. In short, all Idahoans want a reduction in the special tax loads that hurt them most.

The hard and simple facts are that no Idahoan should count on much tax relief of any description. There's a good chance that any reductions voted by the 38th session of the legislature will be reinstated by the next session. Idaho has waited too long in the sales tax field to expect any marked relief in other tax lines. In the meantime, the pressures for more money in government and education have grown to the point where demands for more tax money right now are equal to all present sources of revenue AND whatever funds would be raised by a sales tax.

This doesn't mean that the legislature will roll over and play dead, appropriating all the funds being asked by education and the various departments of state government. Nevertheless, the demands are present and they won't be reduced as time passes.

One of the speakers at the meeting last week of Associated Taxpayers of Idaho urged a comprehensive study leading to a more efficient operation of government, "revitalization" of the tax structure and the whole fiscal picture in general. He estimated cost at about $400,000.

That's probably too big a pill for Idaho to swallow right now. However, if the situation becomes much worse, Idahoans might be willing to spend practically any amount to clear up the mess. By this time, it should be apparent to one and all that Idaho needs tax reform and needs it badly. However, if taxpayers following for tax reform until they're hurting more than they are now, it's doubtful if the politicians have the fortitude to take the lead in doing what has to be done.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

BY ANDREW TULLY
WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—I am not sure the title is tops for the whirligig King and other American Negro leaders who are filling the front pages with opinions on world politics. They are giving their opponents a chance to maintain a leadership in civil rights movement here at home is some way mixed up with all sorts of causes abroad.

Dr. King, who frequently mistakes his purely domestic role for that of a world statesman, indulged himself in an unnecessary if not gratuitous slip of the tongue in his address to the other day when he addressed a Communist China's congress in London's St. Paul cathedral, admitting the Chinese Reds to the UN would help toward disarmament efforts.

TAKE STANCE ON CONGO—Meanwhile, six prominent Negro leaders wrote a letter urging the withdrawal of all external forces from the Congo. Let the Organization for African Unity handle the situation, said the six, ignoring the fact that the O.A.U. has proved to be little more than a shell organization.

CONFUSING THE ISSUE—This is an unfair state of affairs. Neither Dr. King nor those six Negro leaders pretend to speak for their black fellow when they comment on world problems, but when they do so, they do so successfully. What is their intention? They leave the impression among some Americans that the Negro living in a ghetto in Detroit wants Red China in the UN and demands an end to foreign "interference" in Africa's political affairs.

FIRST THINGS FIRST—As American citizens, Negro leaders are entitled to sound off on any subject they choose, of course. This does not mean they should defend their rights if they do not want to campaign for the abolition of television or the adoption of a new system.

THE VANDAL FUTURE—There is question whether the University of Idaho football team is the Big Sky champion. The Big Sky, with one or two exceptions, does not really pose the formidable opposition that is the caliber of Idaho needs to get test satisfaction or, crowds. It simply is not a high-caliber conference for the Idaho athletes officials apparently thought because the Vandals would only be involved in four conference games they would have the freedom to play a tougher independent schedule. And this appears to be the case.

A—Here's one you missed: ischemic heart disease. This term is used now, preferred by most doctors, indicates a failure of oxygen to be supplied to the heart muscle through the coronary arteries. This always causes pain in the region of the heart, but may have other causes. When the deficiency is permanent and complete, there is tissue death in the segment of the heart supplied by the involved artery. This is called myocardial infarction. It may be a disease of the arterial wall itself (hardening of the artery) or a plugging of the artery by a clot.

MARQUIS CHILDS WRITES ON WASHINGTON

KARACHI, Pakistan, Dec. 14.—In the annual wrangle in Congress over the foreign aid appropriation bill, the aid to Pakistan is a dreary, unexciting item. It is a relic of the past, dreamed up for the benefit of bureaucrats. It is the underdevelopment of the world. It is a vital reality on which the future turns.

Most projects are being carried out by aid from the U.S. and other countries. Pakistan and elsewhere throughout the underdeveloped area of Asia, American engineers and administrators seem to have an excellent working relationship with their opposite numbers in the receiving country. These are practical men anxious to get on with the job and to cooperate. As at Mangla, they proceed by side and in the process learn much about getting along together.

But at the same time political frictions are eroding the political cooperation that has been the basis of the success of the Mangla project. The American dilemma in Asia is rather like that in Europe. It is not so much a matter of getting on with the job as it is a matter of getting on with the job and to cooperate. As at Mangla, they proceed by side and in the process learn much about getting along together.

Manager at Hazelton Is Transferred

HAZELTON, Dec. 15—Dale L. Adams, manager of the Idaho Power company's Hazelton district, has been transferred to a similar position in Nyssa, Ore.

His successor at Hazelton, manager here will be announced soon, according to Earl Haroldsen, southern division manager in Twin Falls.

A native of Fairfield, Adams joined the Idaho Power company in 1945 as a repairman in the Hazelton district. Acquiring a broad background of experience during the following years, he was an apprentice lineman and apprentice serviceman before becoming a full-fledged serviceman at Hazelton.

In 1954 he was promoted to manager of the Hazelton district. Adams, who owns a farm on route 2, is a member of both the Hazelton and Grange. For many years he has assisted in projects carried out by the Future Farmers of America.

He has been active in community affairs, serving as president of the Hazelton Lions club and as elder of the Presbyterian church.

Adams will succeed Paul H. Penrod, who retires Jan. 1 after more than 36 years' service, the last 12 as manager of the Nyssa area.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams and daughter have gone to Nyssa. Their son, Warren, will remain in Hazelton until school closes for the semester.

Floods Cause Damage in Great Britain

LONDON, Dec. 15 (AP)—Icy highways and heavy fog added today to Britain's weather woes. Flood waters receded but heavy damage was reported in Wales.

Four persons were killed today in auto accidents blamed on the fog.

Two buses collided near Bradford in northern England, injuring 27 persons, including several school children.

Reports said 25 farm families all were isolated in Montgomeryshire, Wales. Thousands of acres were reported under water.

In England, the major flood threat centered at Shrewsbury, where the Severn river became a muddy lake.

At least 100 homes at Shrewsbury had water reaching the first floor level last night. Hundreds of troops and amphibious equipment stood by to help.

Authorities reported only five major roads in England were blocked by water. But they said many minor roads still were impassable.

James Griffin, minister for Wales, conducted a four-hour helicopter inspection tour of the worst hit areas and said the waters had inundated valleys in the west.

He said it was impossible to estimate flood damage so far. But he said the government had called for reports from such areas to determine if relief measures were needed.

Out-of-Town Yule Cards Should Be Sent Wednesday

To be promptly delivered, out-of-town Christmas cards should be put in the mail Wednesday, at the latest, Postmaster Frederic M. Banger warned Tuesday.

The Twin Falls postoffice will be open from 8 a.m. Wednesday for that patrons may purchase stamps and mail cards and packages.

The postmaster also noted that five-cent postage provides first-class mail privileges for Christmas cards. This means they may be forwarded or returned if undeliverable and they receive normal first-class priority in handling and delivery.

The postoffice department predicts another record volume of mail this Christmas, with seven billion pieces moving through the system during the pre-Christmas week.

The department suggested that local ZIP code (83301) in return addresses.

"People should keep Christmas mailing lists current. They should check the return addresses in their little black books and then add ZIP codes to their listings," he said.

ZIP-code mail generally moves in a more direct route and is handled fewer times before reaching its destination, Banger said. This not only speeds handling of the mail, but saves the postoffice department a considerable sum of money, thereby enabling the postal service to maintain the present postal rates.

Postmaster Banger noted that the Christmas rush is the busiest season for the postoffice, but that the country is in the midst of a mail explosion. The 72 billion pieces of mail handled during the past year is six billion more than the number of pieces delivered only three years ago.

"The postoffice needs your cooperation," he concluded.

2 Die When Car Crashes In Germany

BAMBERG, Germany, Dec. 15 (AP)—Two American servicemen were burned to death and two injured when their small car in which they were riding struck a wall and burst into flames near the town of Steinfeld yesterday, the army announced today.

An army spokesman identified the dead men as Spac-4-cl. Dennis North, 20, Bethel, Kan., and Pfc. Jerry L. Kammerdiner, 19, Sherman, Tex.

The victims' car parked a curb on the highway, leading from Bamberg to nearby Steinfeld, and hit a two-foot thick utility wall.

The spokesman said the two other servicemen were in fair condition in Nuenberg, U. S. Army hospital.

They were Pfc. Kenneth D. Mason, 21, Galesburg, Ill., and Spac-4/cl. John B. Myers, 19, Albany, N. Y.

Typhoon Hits Island in Philippines

MANILA, Dec. 15 (AP)—Typhoon Opal swept across the heavily populated island of Luzon yesterday.

The storm grounded a British freighter, damaged buildings, knocked out communications and caused a washout that derailed a passenger train with 1,000 persons aboard.

The national police reported at least two persons killed and three injured.

The late season typhoon swirled into the Philippines' principal island early yesterday with winds of up to 176 miles per hour. It lost strength as it slipped across the coconut-rich Ilocos region but maintained an 11-mile-per-hour pace, with winds of 125 miles per hour, in a west-northwesterly direction.

The Manila weather bureau said the typhoon was expected to pass 40 miles north of Manila. Heavy rains accompanying the typhoon triggered a landslide in Catanduanes province. The slide buried a home, and police reported a father and a daughter killed. "Seven other members of the family were listed as injured."

Eight coaches of an express train were derailed in Aloneroc. A Manila railroad company spokesman said typhoon-spawned rains had washed out the tracks.

Giardello Staves Off Carter for 15 Rounds to Keep Middleweight Title

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 15 (AP)—Middleweight champion Joey Giardello, a battle-scarred veteran with 17 years of pro experience, fought off the savage drive of Rubin Carter Monday night and retained his title on a unanimous 15-round decision at Convention hall. Judge Jimmy Mina scored it 69-64 for the champ, Judge Dave Bellotti had it 70-57 and referee Bob Polts scored 72-66. The Associated Press scorecard was 69-68 for Giardello. The decision was greeted by mingled cheers and boos by the crowd estimated at 6,000. One fan heaved a bottle into the ring as the two fighters left. Nobody was hurt. There were no knockdowns in this bitterly fought contest, the first defense for Polts who won the crown from Dick Tiger of Nigeria Dec. 7, 1963, in Atlantic City.

Bruin-Bobcat Tilt Highlights Action

Twin Falls' thrice victorious Bruins entertain the Burley Bobcats, who will be at full strength for the first time this season, in a southern-central A power clash that should highlight an eight-game Tuesday night schedule. Burley will have back four boys who have been sidelined for a month. In other action, the Jerome Tigers, who have not been scoring too well, will take on the Minico Spartans at Jerome. The Spartans have been scoring less for now. Coach Les Riva.

Bochona Braves' Gooding for a rematch of a season opener. Gooding, 4-1, topped the Indians 50-30 last time. Bochona is even at 2-2.

Kimberly also will be on the road, traveling to Buhl where the Indians are seeking their first victory.

Carly's Panther's 2-1, will be seeking to make it two straight over Wood River when the clubs again collide at Buhl. Carly won the first meeting 10-7 at Wood River by trying to break the four-game losing streak it started.

District came out of a week-end tour in the Boise area with a split and a 2-2 record and will meet with the line at Hansen. Hansen topped the Blue Devils 50-46 and the Huskies are 3-1 and off to their best start in years.

Hagerman, another of the area's undrafted teams, will be at Castelford. The Pirates topped the Wolves a week ago but due to a leg injury they might not have top gun Alvin Boyer available Tuesday.

Utes Prepare for Liberty Bowl

SALT LAKE CITY, Dec. 15 (AP)—Competing with scorching tests, cold weather and a farewell banquet, Utah football coach Ray Nagel drilled his squad Monday for the Liberty Bowl clash with West Virginia.

The drills were limited to 45 minutes because the Liberty Bowl last week at the university. All the Utes were reported healthy except starting tackle Steve Taylor, who wrenched his knee in the last regular season game against Utah State. Nagel said it's still uncertain whether Taylor will play in the Liberty Bowl.

Wichita Surges to Top Of Cage Poll; Michigan Drops to Second Place

Wichita's tall, talented Shockers, unbeaten in four starts, surged to the top and Michigan, the pre-season favorite, dropped to second Monday in The Associated Press basketball poll that featured wholesale changes from the previous week. Not one of last week's top ten teams remained in the same position as San Francisco and Minnesota advanced two notches each, to third and fourth, respectively, and Louisiana State and St. Louis fell six places each, to ninth and tenth.

Wichita gained 23 of the 33 first-place votes of the panel of sports-writers and broadcasters and wrestled first place away from Michigan, which managed to grab five first-place votes despite a 74-73 loss to Nebraska Saturday night. The poll total was 300 to 270.

The Shockers, paced by All-American Dave Swarth, who scored 66 points and pulled down 12 rebounds, breezed past Brigham Young 81-66 for their fourth straight triumph Saturday. Michigan has a 4-1 record. The poll includes games through Saturday Dec. 12.

The surprising defeats sustained by Vanderbilt and St. Louis were responsible for the reshuffling among the top ten weekend victories, including a 66-55 decision over California, which picked up 24 points to edge Minnesota out for third place. The Copiers, Michigan's top challenger in the Big Ten, also picked up two first place votes on the strength of their triumph over Marquette which boosted their season record to 4-0.

Other winners were UCLA, Duke, St. John's and Kentucky. UCLA moved from seventh to fifth on the heels of a 68-54 victory over Oklahoma State which gave the West Coast quintet a 2-1 mark. Duke won two games last week and advanced from eighth to sixth, beating out St. John's of New York for that spot by five points, 118 to 113. The Blue Devils routed South Carolina Saturday night, 112-72 for their third victory in four games while Los Angeles Syracuse 110-77 to come from behind to win Miami of Florida 70-77. It was the first of Tommie's third straight victories.

Kentucky's Wildcats, still reeling from an early season loss, thrashed Syracuse 10-77 to pick up eighth place on Commodore's win over their first three, were joined by Virginia Tech 66-54 Saturday. St. Louis barely made the top ten after a 74-73 loss to Michigan. It was the team's first defeat in four games.

Others receiving votes, listed alphabetically: Baylor, Bradley, Brigham Young, Cincinnati, Colorado, Cornell, Dartmouth, Drake, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas State, Miami (Fla.), Miami (O.), Nebraska, Notre Dame, Penn State, Providence, St. Joseph, St. Louis, St. Mary's, St. Paul, St. Thomas, St. Xavier, Texas Tech, Utah State, Villanova.

Status of Hardin Still Up in Air
ANNAPOLIS, Md., Dec. 15 (AP)—Navy athletic officials emerged from a two-hour meeting Monday with Wayne Hardin's status as football coach still up in the air.

Capt. William S. Husk, athletic director, said after the meeting of the academy's athletic board of control that deliberations on Hardin's contract are incomplete.

"We expect to meet later in the week," Husk said. "We fully expect to have a statement on Thursday."

Husk said the "whole spectrum" of Hardin's contract remained under consideration, and that it would be premature to speculate on whether he will remain at the school.

Barrett told the FBI he spent 11 days hiding in a haystack near Payette. He said he had nothing to eat for nine of the days but finally found some apples and milk.

The FBI said it was believed Barrett to Boise only Sunday. He told the agents he walked most of the 60 miles to Boise, managing to catch but one short ride.

Barrett was dressed neatly in non-prison garb, including a shiny red corduroy coat. He declined to tell officers where he obtained the clothing.

Mine Blast Kills Utahn

BLANDING, Utah, Dec. 15—A 40-year-old Blanding man was killed yesterday afternoon in a dynamite blast at a small uranium mine at Cottonwood, 12 miles west of Blanding.

San Juan county Sheriff Chauncey Black identified the victim as Walter Burdett Shumway, 40.

Black said the victim and a cousin, Cleon Shumway, were working at a family mine at the time of the explosion.

The sheriff said both were apparently caught when a short fuse prematurely set off dynamite. The blast knocked Walter Shumway down and a second blast sent rocks cascading down on him, Black said.

Cleon Shumway was taken to the San Juan county hospital in Monticello where he was reported in fair condition.

The seven men kidnaped a Walla Walla couple and forced the pair to drive them into Oregon. Near Portland they abandoned the couple and split up.

Late the night of Nov. 24 four of the men abandoned a stolen car in Payette, when stopped by police and fled on foot. Two of them, Richard Louie, 26, and Harold Oscar Thomas, 35, were captured within the Payette city limits.

W. Bendix, Actor, Dies In Hospital

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 15 (AP)—The death of William Bendix, the fifth of the funniest performers in show business to die in as many months, cast a pall today over movietown's Christmas preparations.

The gruff, likeable actor, who led "The Life of Riley" on radio and television for 18 years, was 58 years old when he died yesterday in Good Samaritan hospital. His death tentatively was attributed to lobes pneumonia and complications.

His demise followed that of Percy Kilbride, of "Ma and Pa Kettle" fame, by less than a week. Kilbride died last Friday in Chinese sanitarium from arteriosclerosis and pneumonia. A memorial service was slated for him today in the First Methodist church here. His remains were interred yesterday in the Chapel of the Pines.

On Oct. 10, banjo-eyed Eddie Cantor passed away when he suffered a coronary occlusion.

The month before, on Sept. 28, gayly Harpo Marx died shortly after he underwent heart surgery.

And on Aug. 27, the inimitable, scatter-brained Charlie Allen suffered a fatal heart attack.

A rosary tentatively has been scheduled Wednesday night for Bendix, according to his daughter, Gioplatina. A funeral also has been scheduled Thursday in Our Lady of Grace church in nearby Encino. Interment will follow in San Francisco Mission cemetery.

Bendix entered the hospital last Friday and died at 4 p. m. P.M. (7 p. m. EST), with his wife, Theresa and the widow of actor Alan Ladd at his bedside.

As family man Riley, Bendix invariably refused to comment on anything by saying: "What a revolting development this turned out to be."

Survivors beside his widow, Theresa, and daughter, Stephanie, include another daughter, Lorraine.

T. F. School Yule Concert Is Wednesday

The Twin Falls high school music department will present its annual Christmas concert at 8 p. m. Wednesday at the high school gymnasium.

Participating in the concert are the symphony orchestra under the direction of Del Slaughter. The orchestra will present "Concerto Grosso in D Major" by Antonio Vivaldi, "Rosamunde Overture" by Schubert and "The Faithful Shepherd Suite" by Handel.

Following the symphony orchestra—the girls chorus, conducted by Mrs. Owens, will sing "The Christmas Carol" and "Love With Love" and a group of Christmas carols. Nancy Prater will accompany the group.

Madrigal Singers also directed by Owens and accompanied by Nancy Brackett, will sing "Nativity Tale," "We've Been a While a-Wandering," "May There Be Peace on Earth This Christmas" and "Did Mary Know."

Slaughter will direct the symphony band in six numbers, "March From Symphony No. 2," "Symphony for Band," "Ernie's Tune" and "Kings' Four Sketches," "Deck the Halls" and the "March of Christianity."

The band, orchestra and audience will join in the final number, "A Carol Festival," which was scored by Hawley Ades.

Gigantic Ice Jams Clog Alaska River

ANCHORAGE, Dec. 15 (AP)—Gigantic ice jams clogged the Klutina river in the Alaska interior yesterday, pushing the river from its banks and causing the evacuation of 40 to 50 persons.

Col. Bud Turner, director of the Alaska Defense office, said about one-third of the 160 residents of Copper Center, 200 miles northeast of here, were evacuated in 62 degrees below zero weather.

Most of them were taken to the nearby Copper valley school, he said.

"Our main goal right now is to keep these people alive," Turner said. "It's too cold to worry about anything else."

A seven-mile-long jam on the Kenai peninsula southwest of here has completely stopped the flow of the Kenai river and residents of Soldotna and Kenai were warned to be ready for immediate evacuation in case of a sudden dam burst. Turner said neither of the towns was in immediate danger.

The Klutina, fed by Lake Klutina and glaciers in the Chugach mountains, surged around the huge jam, and began picking its way over the landscape.

A ground party said the situation was changing practically hourly as the river flowed hazily outside its banks, according to Turner.

Lichterstein, veteran GOP political researcher and writer, replaces Edward McCabe, Washington attorney, who is returning to law practice. Lichterstein served as an aide to former Vice President Richard M. Nixon in his presidential and gubernatorial campaigns.

Briton Says Congo Rebels Killed 20,000

LONDON, Dec. 15 (AP)—An estimated 20,000 persons have been murdered by rebels in the Congo, including 5,000 in Stanleyville, minister of state for foreign affairs George Thomson told the house of commons yesterday.

Thomson said in a statement on the Congo that 27 British subjects were still in rebel-held territory.

He said a Roman Catholic nun had been murdered by rebels since the last statement to the house Nov. 30.

The vast majority of the 20,000 killed, he said, were Congolese. The nun was a British subject, he said.

Thomson said the British ambassador in Leopoldville has been in continuous touch with the Congolese government about the safety of subjects still held.

He rejected any suggestion of direct negotiations with the communist-backed rebels on their fair.

"We cannot negotiate with a people who are in armed rebellion against the government we recognize as the legitimate government of the Congo," Thomson said.

consider this:

add this:

do this:

Be fair to yourself. No matter which car you're driving—or thinking of buying—put Rambler on your list of cars to see, sit in, and drive. The spectacular new changes in Rambler may change your ideas about cars. See how much more Rambler gives you for your money. See your Rambler dealer. American Motors—Dedicated to Excellence.

An analysis by W. T. Folk & Co., the leading automotive statistical organization, indicates that in an average week 41,600 owners of Chevrolets, Fords and Plymouths will switch from the make they own to another make.
