

Foreign Aid Plan Explained

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 (UPI)—President Johnson submitted to congress today an economy size foreign aid program of slightly less than 3.4 billion dollars. It was the lowest amount requested since overseas assistance began 18 years ago.

At the same time, he asked for special standby power to increase help to South Viet Nam in its fight against communist attack. If approved, this would give Johnson almost unlimited authority in aid for the embattled Southeast Asian country.

For the time being, he proposed 500 million dollars for all of Southeast Asia, mainly Viet Nam and Laos.

In a message to congress, Johnson termed his program for the next fiscal year the "lowest and budget consistent with the national interest."

Summing up his aid request Johnson said: "We have pledged our strength—economic and military—in defense of those who would be free and in support of those who would join in working toward a stable, prosperous government."

"We will persist in our efforts to put more aid on a multilateral basis, to improve the coordination of bilateral aid, and to increase our share of the burden borne by other free world nations," he said.

The request followed last year's pattern of presenting congress with a tightly cut down aid program in hopes few cuts would be made.

Last year, this tactic resulted in the smallest cut ever made by congress in a President's foreign aid request—only 7.6 per cent.

The new funds would be for fiscal year 1966 which starts next July 1.

The lowest previous final aid request for any one year was $3 billion dollars asked by President Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1955. The smallest annual appropriation by congress for the program was 2.7 billion dollars in 1954.

Tuttle Woman Is Killed in Accident

GOODING, Jan. 14—Investigation was continuing Thursday into the car-truck collision about 3:45 p.m. Wednesday near Tuttle which claimed the life of Mrs. Walter Brown, 46, Tuttle, and critically injured her husband, Sheriff Verne Royse said no action can be taken until officers are able to talk to Brown, who is in critical condition in Gooding Memorial hospital. Mrs. Brown was killed instantly when the couple's 1955 Oldsmobile, believed to be driven by Brown, was struck broadside by a two-ton Ford tank-type gasoline delivery truck driven by

First Bill

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 (AP)—President Johnson signed into law today the first bill to come to him from the new congress—a measure pushing back the dates for submitting his budget and economic report to the senate and house.

In the normal course, the President is required to send the budget to congress by Jan. 19 and the economic report by Jan. 20. But because of preinaugural activities and the inauguration of Johnson on Jan. 20, congress extended the date for the budget to Jan. 25 and for the economic report to Jan. 28.

Reaction to Budget Plans Is Favorable

BOISE, Jan. 14 (AP)—Education committee leaders of the Idaho legislature reported partial agreement today on a new school fund distribution formula but delayed until Monday public airing of their proposal. Sen. Vincent Nally, R., Gem, and Rep. Frank Hirschi, R., Bear Lake, the chairmen, respectively, of the senate and house education committees, said a public hearing would be conducted Monday evening. They said the joint committees will meet again Friday morning in hopes of reaching final agreement on all provisions of the formula.

The house revenue and taxation committee met with state tax collector Floyd West. West went over the present tax structure and explained what effect a sales tax would have on it.

Expenses

BOISE, Jan. 14 (AP) — Gov. Robert E. Smylie signed today the first bill to reach him from the 1965 Idaho legislature. It appropriates $600,000 to pay expenses of the session.

Mileage for county travel was increased from eight to nine cents a mile. Justice Gwin reported having collected $560 the past month in fines and fees.

1965 Budget For Lincoln Is Readied

SHOSHONE, Jan. 14 — The proposed budget figures for Lincoln county have not yet been tabulated, but will be ready for publication in a few days, according to Mrs. Luella L. Kinsey, county clerk.

The budget may be lowered at the February meeting, but cannot be raised. It will be adopted as presented or as adjusted at the February meeting.

At a two-day meeting ending Tuesday the commission reorganized, electing C. F. Chatfield as chairman. He replaces Burrell Williams in the post.

A contract with Dr. R. G. Neher, county physician, was renewed. All officers and deputies and clerks will receive the same wages next year, except the weed supervisor, who received a raise of $120, making his salary $4,340.

Rehired were Ivan Hopkins, as county extension agent; Wayne Hickman, weed supervisor; L. E. McDermann and Mrs. F. N. Stowell, janitors; C. W. Gwin, justice of peace, and all current office helpers.

Financial report of the county fair board was received and approved as was the report of treasurer Myron D. Johnson, on the collection of 1964 real property taxes for the period ending Dec. 21, 1964.

A contract with Mrs. Leuel Luckl of Security Title for microfilming was signed and permission was given the Rotary club to prepare a picnic area on the courthouse lawn for use by tourists next summer.

Herb Love and Harrell Thorne met with the commissioners as representatives of the Rotary club.

Reid Newby was appointed as civil defense director for the county. This is the first director for the county since the resignation over a year ago of the late W. A. Muir.

Mileage for county travel was increased from eight to nine cents a mile. Justice Gwin reported having collected $560 the past month in fines and fees.

FRED WILLIARD and John Alexander, both Gooding, two of the original members of the "Blue Shirt" cavalry, ponder how to get a McClellan army saddle into a duffel bag in preparation for their trip Monday to Washington, D. Blue Shirt Cavalry Unit Membership Swells as Inaugural Parade Nears

By MARY THOMPSON
GOODING, Jan. 14 — The horse cavalry or "Blue Shirt cavalry" as they have become known—which originated in the Gooding area—has swelled from the original small group to 41 members.

The group will leave Monday to represent Idaho in the inaugural parade to be held Wednesday in Washington. Members of the national guard from all over Magic Valley have joined and are preparing up equipment in preparation for the trip to be made by national guard units from Boise.

All equipment and clothing will be taken with the men and horses will be rented in Washington.

Members of the original troop included only two men, Howard Haslam, Bliss, and Douglas Wood, Hagerman. These two rode in the July 4 parade in Wendell in 1963 and also the July 24 Pioneer day parade in Hagerman the same year. Immediately after this the membership rose to 18, where it stayed for quite some time.

These 13 men included, in addition to Haslam and Wood, Fred Williard, Karl Belsner, Sam Bishop, Earl Brown, John Alexander and Ray Pruitt, all members of the national guard unit in Gooding. Bill Werry, Joe M. Williams and Clyde Good, Jerome, Lee VanOstran, Buhl, and Tom Pessenden, Twin Falls.

Members now belong to the cavalry unit from national guard units in Buhl, Twin Falls, Gooding, Jerome, Rupert and Hainey. Haslam, the man behind the idea, worked long hours convincing the rest of the men that mounted cavalry unit would be a good idea. About four years ago he first presented the idea.

At that time, shortage of equipment was the main drawback, and not many of the men had horses. However, during the last year—prior to the announcement about the Washington trip—about a dozen men joined the organization. Since the time of the announcement membership has risen to 41.

The only requirement of national guard members who desire to belong is to get their own horse and equipment. Haslam said.

However, with the rapid growth of the unit in the last few weeks, it would seem highly probable that some sort of bylaws and additional requirements of membership will have to be devised.

Haslam added that the men plan to work out some drills and performances so they will be capable of performing at all the functions they are invited to attend.

These men started from scratch hunting for authentic, original equipment and clothing. They managed to secure some original McClellan army saddles, replicas of the Colt's army revolver of the 45, model 1873, and all their clothing, as well as horses.

Members spent many hours washing and dyeing shirts to obtain exactly the right color. They ordered hand-made boots from a shoe firm in Texas; belt buckles and trousers, which are replicas, were made especially by a supplier. All detailed down to the last button or lace, including cap bands, which are from the original seventh cavalry.

Not the least part of all this was the hours and hours of research the men put in finding what was needed for both men and horses.

Many a seamstress around Gooding was approached by the men with a request about the type of material needed and where it might be available. One of the original rules and regulations of the cavalry which was obtained through the Ghost patrol in California, and Haslam said they also got much help from Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

Even with all this help, human nature being what it is, a lot of people would call attention to some little detail and state they didn't think it should be this way. The men said much of the equipment was donated by interested friends and neighbors.

Credit also should be given to

Solon Eyes Property Tax Relief Bill

BOISE, Jan. 14 (AP) — Rep. Carl Burt, R., Ada, said yesterday he will introduce a bill that would allow cities and counties to offer property tax relief, providing a three per cent sales tax is approved by the Idaho legislature.

Burt said his bill would return to cities and counties at the rate of $10 per resident, a portion of the $22 million dollar surplus Gov. Robert E. Smylie said would result from enactment of a sales tax.

He said that as an example the city of Boise with a population of 68,000 would receive $680,000 which could be used to lower property tax rates.

After rebates are made to cities, said Burt, the balance would be distributed to county commissioners.

Smylie suggested that the bulk of the $22 million dollar surplus be used to provide reductions in income and property tax rates.

Pre-Addressed Forms Sent to Idaho Taxpayers

Idaho taxpayers are urged to file the federal income tax return form on which their name and address are pre-printed by the Internal Revenue Service. The second, or "plain" copy in the mailed package should be retained for the taxpayers' records.

The Card Form 1040A has been pre-addressed for a number of years, but pre-printing of taxpayer identification on Form 1040 is new in the western region. The printing is done through a die-cut on the first page of the mailed tax package similar to the familiar window envelope. It is this form that should be completed and filed with internal revenue.

If the pre-identified form should be spoiled, or is used inadvertently as a work copy, Wright suggested that taxpayers print the information on the second copy exactly as it appears on the first.

Long Run

JOHN O'GROATS, Scotland, Jan. 14 (AP) — Briant Frost, 19, has begun an 800-mile run from the extreme north of Scotland to Land's End, southernmost point of England.

He said he expects to cover 70 miles a day on a diet of fruit and orange juice. He's running barefooted.

KING COAL WARBERG'S
733-7371 for Quality

Lieut. Col. Thomas Hovenden, commander Third Squadron, 118th armored cavalry, with headquarters in Jerome. Because of his intense interest in his squadron and in the "Blue Shirts" he was instrumental in arranging the Washington trip, as well as many other appearances the troop has made.

Also, Van Ostran has spent many hours above and beyond the call of duty during the last few months with researching and procuring equipment for the Blue Shirts. He is quartermaster sergeant in the Blue Shirt cavalry.

Itinerary for the trip includes leaving Boise at noon Monday and arrival at Andrews air force base at midnight. The next day members will work with their horses, and on Wednesday, participate in the parade.

On Thursday they will dine with Sen. Frank Church and Sen. Len Jordan and will be taken on a tour of Washington, and will return to Boise at 4 p.m. Jan. 22.

So, with their swelling ranks, these "long knives" are finding that their many hours of work and research, as well as drilling, is beginning to pay off, both in recognition for them and for Idaho.

All the people of the state, and most especially of Gooding, should feel proud when they see these men riding in a parade anywhere, for with one national recognition surely others will follow. Gooding county residents should also feel proud that the beginning of the group was in Gooding, and for the most part, by residents of Gooding county.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

By Andrew Tulley
WASHINGTON, Jan. 13—Personally, I am not quite so smug about being an American since the Supreme Court decided to protect President Johnson with a sheet of bulletproof glass while he reviews his inaugural parade. It is a belated admission that my country is not, either, the safest in the world.

But while such an admission may wound our pride, perhaps it will be the toll needed to convince us all—and especially Congress—that some things need to be done to protect both the President's person and the President's line of succession. The country needs a sensible gun law, and legislation to fill a vacancy in the vice presidency and to deal with the problem of a President incapable of discharging his duties.

GUNS FOR THE KIDDIES—In Washington recently a 14-year-old boy was charged with the murder of a cab driver. He was quoted as saying he borrowed the pistol from his 16-year-old brother, who had bought it "from a man on the street." The mechanics of murder are as simple as that in America these days, whether you want to kill a cab driver or the President of the United States. You merely buy a gun and fire away.

RIGHT TO BEAR ARMS UNTOUCHED—Inevitably, opposition to the proposed gun law is based on the claim that it would impair the Constitutional right to bear arms. It would do nothing of the sort, of course. All that is proposed is that firearms be licensed, and that their sale be prohibited to minors, felons and lunatics. It is a bill that would place responsibility upon the traffic in firearms where it belongs—upon the "man in the street," and the dealer, wholesaler and manufacturer who make pistols available to 14-year-olds.

LAWS NEEDED—Bayh's bill provides first, that in the event of a vacancy in the vice presidency, the President would nominate a replacement in that post with the consent of a majority of both houses of Congress. It also provides: (1) If the President declares in writing that he cannot discharge his duties, the vice president would take over as acting President, and (2) If an incapacitated President failed to make such a declaration, the vice president, with the written concurrence of a majority of the cabinet, would assume the chief executive powers.

WHITHER AWAY?
Now that Indonesia has pulled out of the United Nations, the obvious question concerns the future of that nation. Apparently President Sukarno believes his country can grow and prosper at a much better rate outside the United Nations. He also must believe that membership in the U. N. holds no particular guarantee for the independence of Indonesia. These suppositions are based on an even larger supposition, namely, that President Sukarno is a normal human being not subject to any sort of mental stress or illness. But Sukarno's antics and activities in the past are enough to raise more than a reasonable doubt.

TAX JOLT AHEAD
The income tax revision act of 1964 called for a two-step reduction, but it put the rate withholding at the second level. The result is that "take-home pay" this year is really higher than it ought to be. Further words not enough is being withheld from wages to cover as much tax liability as should be done. So next spring employees will find they have to dig up additional to meet their tax obligations for 1964 income. This will not be universally true, but generally so for employed persons.

Capital Report

By ALVIN SPIVAK
WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 (UPI)—Backstairs at the White House: To Washingtonians and tourists, the construction of inaugural parade grandstands and a presidential reviewing box outside the executive mansion is a traffic-snaring mess.

The contractor and the workmen on the $43,000 project are fighting through the sales of seat tickets—the activities meant to take home pay and something to do until the conglomeration is torn-down after the Jan. 20 inauguration. And to posterity, this year's construction chores provide new entries in the capital's already-crowded field of statistics. The figures have been published by "The Carpenter," official organ of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, AFL-CIO.

Describing President Johnson's own reviewing stand as "the most ornate yet built for an inauguration," the union magazine says: "It will provide the President, his personal friends, and various dignitaries with a high vantage point, and protect them from the weather. A forest of 36 delicately-fingered columns, 27 1/2 feet tall, support a four-foot thick flat canopy. Plastic-covered skylights at the top of each column admit diffused light, which will bathe the columns and help illuminate the President and his guests. The whole pavilion will have a graceful, airy look, much different from those in earlier years."

The Doctor Says

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
A reader who is in his teens writes that he so admired the ability of dogs and cats to withstand winter weather that four years ago he started walking to and from school without his overcoat. He admits that he got pretty cold but he is still here, and he has gradually become hardened to the cold. Last winter he went in a T-shirt and slacks. Dr. Brandstadt says: "Although the temperature that day was about 35 degrees, he was comfortable. His mother tells him, however, that he is in grave danger of getting rheumatism and he wants advice."

There are many kinds of arthritis. Among the causes are infectious diseases, heredity, injury to the joints, and aging. There is no evidence that, in the absence of one or more of these factors, chilling would cause this disease. Furthermore, in a person who has become thoroughly acclimatized there is no actual chilling. Remember that this boy was not sitting watching a football game in his T-shirt, he kept moving. The only hazard, as I see it, would be that if he were to fall and break a leg, he would be in grave danger of shock and this would be aggravated by his exposure to low temperatures. The answer to this, as I have pointed out before, is that one should never go hunting alone.

World Corners

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst
As a politician British Prime Minister Harold Wilson greatly admired the winning tactics of the late President Kennedy. As an individual, long before Hubert Humphrey ever became his party's candidate for the nation's second highest office, Wilson also admired and considered himself a close friend of Humphrey.

Wilson's own campaign in office took on an American style, complete with spotlight, hands and entertainers, and with Wilson himself always on center stage. The Labor party's winning margin was razor-thin, giving Wilson a working majority of only five votes in the house of commons and it freely was predicted that his would be a short-lived government. But, using the same razzle-dazzle which helped him win the election, Wilson in the last two months had been confounding his critics.

As Wilson has captured the headline, he also has captured the public fancy to an extent far greater than the election outcome would have predicted. Immediately after the Oct. 15 election, the new government quickly survived two no-confidence motions, one of which involved the touchy issue of the nationalization of the steel industry. It seemed that neither the Laborites nor their Conservative opposition would seek an early new test of strength at the polls. Labor was unwilling to risk its already thin margin, and the Conservatives were faced with a

Interpreting the News

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 (AP)—Republicans are like a family searching for what's left of its valuables after an explosion, although the explosion of the 1964 election was only a minor explosion.

They have a hard time reaching that point in American history where the voters treat them as a kind of second-ary group, handy to have around but to be called upon or listened to seldom. As the family is scattered, as the election showed when Republicans were divided into Goldwaterites, anti-Goldwaterites and half-hearted Goldwaterites. Now, in an effort to build a single shelter comfortable for all the uncles, cousins and aunts, two Republican congressional leaders, Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois and Rep. Gerald R. Ford of Michigan, propose a

A brain trust of the party's five presidential candidates still alive, 11 senate and house leaders, five representatives of the Governor's association, and the chairman of the national committee. What they're seeking, although they don't put it this way exactly, is a sense of direction which could provide a rallying point for themselves and their party. It has become a never-ending search, going back over more than a generation, and they have paid a heavy penalty for not having found it.

The outcome of the last election, in which Republicans not only did not win the presidency but suffered big losses in congress, was not a surprise. It was just an exaggerated repetition which illustrated their dwindling condition. The evidence is in how the voters treated them over the past 32 years while entrusting the country to the Democrats most of that time. Since 1932 the Republicans have been given control of congress only twice—for a total of four years—and the presidency twice for a total of eight. But it was Dwight D. Eisenhower who won the presidency three times and the vice-presidency twice for him personally, not for the party. He carried the party with him to control of congress when he won his first term in 1952. That was the last time the voters showed such confidence in them for the Democrats won back control in 1954 and has retained it in every election since, including the years of Eisenhower's second term.

This should have been enough to convince any party it was out of tune with the people's thinking but the proof, which should have been necessary, became overwhelming in President Johnson's defeat of Sen. Barry Goldwater by the greatest plurality in history. Yet even that may not be enough to give Republicans this some kind of unity in philosophy or action or agreement. Dirksen said the brain trust called the Republican coordinating committee before it is actually created, is designed to achieve a broad consensus on vital objectives for our country and our party.

HAND DIFFICULT TO PLAY BADLY
Here is a hand with an unusual twist to try out on your friends. Let them play it at seven diamonds and see if they can manage to go down.
There are untempting ways to make the contract, but when the hand came up in actual play one of the world's greatest players did manage to go down.
As some might say, "He played brilliantly, but with conspicuous lack of success."
He started by winning the heart lead and discarding a spade from his hand on a second heart. He cashed the ace of spades, then ruffed a spade and entered dummy with the king of clubs.

Mrs. V. Nelson Presents Garden Club Program

Representing houseplants was the topic presented by Mrs. V. Nelson at the Twin Falls Garden Club meeting at the Sun-View courts recreation hall.

View court was introduced by Mrs. Nelson, president.

Mrs. Nelson discussed methods of starting new plants from over-ripe or misshapen potted plants. She listed reasons why plants do not flourish and said proper light, watering, fertilization, temperature and ventilation are important factors for success.

She noted that less food than most light need as geraniums, which require full light.

Mrs. Nelson commented that plants can be rejuvenated by taking leaf cuttings, plantlets from crowded main plant and layering.

Mrs. Nelson concluded her talk with a demonstration of cutting and division and potting various kinds of plants on display. She advised that cuttings of aloes and geraniums should be left to dry a few hours to form a callous before being set in a moist rooting medium.

Mrs. Russell Miller reported on hydroponics, or soilless gardening. She told how, with the use of controlled lights, plants could be grown in water, fortified with nutrients. Vegetables such as beans, develop full sized pods in 45 days instead of 59 days when grown outdoors.

Mrs. Hicks conducted the business meeting. Mrs. Sam Porter read the collection. The secretary's and treasurer's reports were given by Mrs. Lloyd Johnson.

Mrs. R. C. Lawson, corresponding secretary, read a thank-you note from the Salvation Army for the decoration of a downtown booth during the holidays. A letter was read from the Civic auditorium committee.

Club members decided to purchase a copy of "Knowing Your Trees" by G. H. Collingwood and Warren P. Brush, for the use of members and the Junior Garden club. Mrs. Miller reported on Junior club work and asked assistance from club members.

Mrs. Nelson read an article, "New Era of Gardening," by Carlton Lees, from the National Gardener magazine.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. John Platt, Mrs. Otto Fowler and Mrs. Miller. Mrs. Carl Berg was a guest.

The next meeting will be held Feb. 3 at Sunny View courts recreation hall. Slides of new roses will be shown.

All-Day Work Meeting Held

DIETRICH, Jan. 14—Members of the Dietrich LDS Relief society held an all-day work and business meeting at the chapel.

Mrs. Blanche Cooper gave a demonstration on how to service and fix for the sewing machine. A potluck luncheon was served at noon.

The work meeting lesson, "An Introduction to the new home evening program," was presented by Blanche Cooper. A program was presented honoring two of the members who have recently moved, Mrs. Florence Pitman and Mrs. Ella Hubert. These women have both been active in the Relief society organization for many years.

Prayers were by Alberta Sorenson and Jean Sorenson.

MR. AND MRS. SCOTT W. NIELSEN

Linda Roberts, Nielsen Wed in Temple Rites

BURLEY, Jan. 14 — Linda Diane Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn C. Roberts, Burley, and Scott William Nielsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Nielsen, Pocatello, were married Dec. 18 at the Idaho Falls LDS temple. The ceremony was performed by William L. Kilpatrick.

The bride wore a floor-length, candlelight satin gown styled with a scooped neckline and elbow-length sleeves enhanced with lace panels adorned by pearls. The fitted bodice was accented with a chapel train that fell from a bow at the shoulders. The train was adorned by a lace panel and pearls.

Her elbow-length veil of silk illusion fell from a tiara of seed pearls and crystals. She carried a cascade bouquet of green and white carnations adorned with white satin streamers.

Betty Wood was honor attendant. She wore a blue brocade satin dress and carried a white fur muff with a corsage of green carnations. Margaret Etherington was maid of honor. She wore a blue brocade dress and carried a white fur muff with a corsage of green carnations.

Bridesmaids were Susan Roberts, sister of the bride, Susan Nielsen, sister of the bridegroom, Jane Nielsen, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, Janet Warren and Beth McBride. They wore identical dresses of blue and green brocade. Each carried a muff with a corsage of green carnations.

Jill Jensen was flower girl. She was dressed identical to the bridesmaids.

Ronald Nielsen, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Robert Chandler, B. Jensen, DeWen Probart, Joseph Roberts, brother of the bride, and Gordon Armstrong.

The bride's mother was attired in a gold and green wool sheath ensemble. The bridegroom's mother selected a blue and green silk dress. Each wore a corsage of white roses.

The newlyweds greeted guests at a reception held in the Burley LDS sixth ward recreation hall.

The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a four-tiered square wedding cake. The cake was decorated by Mrs. Joseph Horn, Rupert, grandmother of the bride, and featured white roses, green leaves and white bells. Bud vases of green carnations flanked the wedding cake.

Guests were served at quartet tables covered with white cloths and centered with snifter glasses covered with blue and green sequins and glitter holding candles. The recreation hall stage was decorated with pine cones, and pine bows with square candles covered with blue and green glitter and sequins.

Gifts were displayed by Mrs. Gale Roberts and Mrs. Leland Olson, both aunts of the bride, and Mrs. Shirley Haak, sister of the bride. Mrs. Jean Ingram registered the gifts. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Hyrum Andrus and Mrs. Jean Cornia.

John Stone was master of ceremonies for the program.

The bride is a graduate of Burley high school and attended Salt Lake City LDS Business college.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Pocatello high school, served a two year LDS mission in the southwest Indian mission, and is a sophomore attending Idaho State university.

The newlyweds reside in Pocatello.

Alvin E. Moore Chosen State Cooking Winner

Alvin E. Moore, a farm irrigator, Twin Falls, was selected as state champion in the western region men's national cooking championship.

Amateur male cooks from all walks of life have been selected by a panel of leading women food experts for this honor. They won their titles in competition with thousands of other men from their states, more than 132,000 across the nation, by submitting the best original main dishes using potato chips, according to championship executive director Harvey P. Nuss. The competition was sponsored by the Potato Chip Institute International.

Moore's recipe, "Fluff Merry Chip Around," was selected on the basis of flavor, texture, originality and appearance. It was chosen by a panel of leading women food experts headed by noted nutritionist Marj Wood. "Our impression of this year's entries," said Mrs. Wood, "is that America's amateur male cooks are rapidly acquiring sophisticated culinary skills. The improvement is highly impressive."

Moore, a farm irrigator for the Ed Baker ranch, Filer, started cooking when the children were born. "Since his oldest child is 24, he's been at it a long time. He is married to the former Evelyn V. Helebrant, Ravenna, Neb. They have four children. Moore is fascinated by his hobby of world history and is a heavy reader when he isn't out hunting or fishing.

A regional champion will be selected by the judges from among the state champions. The 1964 men's national cooking champion is Randolph Jones, a motel employee from Colorado.

Six Million More Asked For Highways

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 (AP)—The commerce department today asked Congress for $6 million more to build roads to meet traffic needs in 1967. Originally, the system was designed to meet the needs through 1975. This "basically required wider highways."

Also, the report said, local road building programs have pushed up prices, and there has been a general increase in construction costs.

"The federal road system, permitting motorists to drive non-stop at high speeds, is paid for by a special fund getting revenues from road users. The government pays 90 out of every $10 spent on the system, with the states paying the balance."

President Johnson is expected to send congress recommendations on getting the extra money after his budget message goes up Jan. 25.

Reds Make Second U.N. Payment

UNITED NATIONS, Jan. 14 (AP)—The Soviet Union yesterday paid another $5 million dollars on its U.N. debt. But officials said it was far short of the amount the Russians must pay to escape loss of their general assembly vote.

It was the second Soviet payment in recent days and it brought the total paid since the Christmas recess to about 4.8 million dollars.

But it left a further 21.7 million dollars to pay before the Soviets get out from under the threat of Article 19 of the U.N. charter, which provides for vote loss if a nation is two years in arrears.

Secretary General Thant yesterday continued his efforts to negotiate a settlement of the financial deadlock caused by the Soviet debt. He called in U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson and Soviet Ambassador Nikolai Fedorenko for separate meetings.

A U.N. spokesman said the talks were the "beginning of the secretary general's final rounds of efforts to resolve the situation."

The United States insists that Russia cannot vote in the assembly while owing more than two years' U.N. dues. The Soviet contend they are being assessed illegally for U.N. peace-keeping operations they opposed. Because of the dispute, no votes have been taken at all since the assembly convened Dec. 1.

Yesterday's payment by the Soviets represented "the balance of their regular budget assessment as they see it," a U.S. source said. The payment did not cover peace-keeping expenses and did not even cover all categories of the regular budget.

The sources said the Soviets apparently were withholding payments for regular U.N. activities they oppose, such as interest on U.N. bonds and expenses for running a Korean war cemetery.

The payment left the total Soviet debt at about 59 million dollars including the peace-keeping costs. It does not all have to be paid immediately to keep voting rights.

The American sources yesterday reiterated their opposition to any move to adjourn the assembly soon to get around the financial deadlock.

Grazing Board To Meet Jan. 21

SHOSHONE, Jan. 14 (AP)—The advisory board for the bureau of land management, Shoshone grazing district number five, will meet at 9:30 a.m. Jan. 21 at the American Legion hall.

Members will review petitions which may be presented on advisory board recommendations from a previous meeting held Dec. 15, and make recommendations on other current matters.

Congo Chief Cancels Trip To Brussels

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo, Jan. 14 (AP)—Congo's Premier Joseph Kasavubu yesterday abruptly canceled a trip to Brussels for important talks with Belgian leaders. He said he did so because of Belgium's "two-faced policy."

Tshombe's dramatic cancellation brought relations between the Congo and Belgium to a new low, observers said.

He had intended to discuss financial differences pending since the Congo obtained its independence from Belgium as well as continuation of Belgian military aid for Tshombe's fight against communist-backed rebels.

Tshombe told newsmen last night he called off the trip because his predecessor and rival, former Premier Cyrille Adoula, had planned to be in Brussels at the same time.

He called Adoula's trip a "malicious coincidence." He charged it was "part of a plan mounted in advance with the sole aim of provoking the failure of the Brussels negotiations."

Tshombe blamed "certain Belgian elements" for what he called these maneuvers.

"It is regrettable that in spite of our numerous appeals, the Belgian government seems not to return to reason and continue its two-faced policy."

AMERICAN FALLS, Jan. 14 (AP)—Wheat growers of eastern Idaho are being penalized in present grading schedules, members of the Pocatello County Wheat Growers association have advised Rep. George Hansen, R., Ida. in a telegram to Hansen, the growers suggest that standards on shrunken and broken kernels be relaxed from three to five per cent for grade No. 1, with one per cent and under classified as no dockage. The plea is included in a statement: "We understand that grain standards on wheat of contracting classes have been relaxed. We feel this is a step in the right direction. However, the close tolerance on broken and shrunken kernels is penalizing the hard red wheat-producing area. We are in a hilly, arid district where it is almost impossible to harvest and handle wheat without cracking it. Further handling in the elevators adds to the broken kernels."

LAVA HOT SPRINGS, Jan. 14 (AP)—Small flood projects on the headwaters of the Portneuf river to help ward off floods such as those during Christmas week have been proposed to the U.S. Army corps of engineers. The proposals came during hearings conducted here yesterday by the corps of engineers. Similar hearings were scheduled today in Pocatello. Witnesses said the headwater projects could avoid the need for most costly projects in the Pocatello-Melba-Melrose district, situated just east of the town of Lava Hot Springs. He said information gathered at the hearings will be included in a study that probably will not be completed until 1967. Flood programs, recommended would ultimately need the approval of the secretary of the army and construction would be contingent on authorization of funds from congress, he said.

AMERICAN FALLS, Jan. 14 (AP)—Wheat growers of eastern Idaho are being penalized in present grading schedules, members of the Pocatello County Wheat Growers association have advised Rep. George Hansen, R., Ida. in a telegram to Hansen, the growers suggest that standards on shrunken and broken kernels be relaxed from three to five per cent for grade No. 1, with one per cent and under classified as no dockage. The plea is included in a statement: "We understand that grain standards on wheat of contracting classes have been relaxed. We feel this is a step in the right direction. However, the close tolerance on broken and shrunken kernels is penalizing the hard red wheat-producing area. We are in a hilly, arid district where it is almost impossible to harvest and handle wheat without cracking it. Further handling in the elevators adds to the broken kernels."

Filer Board Adds Extra School Bus

FILER, Jan. 14 (AP)—Overcrowded conditions on the Rexson-Hollister-Filer route for school buses were discussed by trustees of school district 413 at a Tuesday meeting at the schoolhouse.

Garth Kirkman, bus contractor for the southern routes, proposed a solution by addition of an extra school bus and the proposal was accepted by the board. Legal notices calling for bids for the bus will be published between now and the February meeting.

Contracts for all northern bus routes expire this year and bids for these will be called for during the February board meeting.

Thomas Turner, superintendent, accepted a three-year renewal contract.

The trustees went on record that they will comply with the civil rights act. This act forbids discrimination in the use of equipment purchased under the national defense education act.

Walter Schenkel, mayor, and Richard Shelton, councilman, met with the board to discuss needed recreation facilities, and prospects of joint ventures for city-school use. They will also meet with the Citizens' committee to discuss these projects.

Arthur Chaburn, principal, and Mrs. Elizabeth Rowland, librarian, were granted permission to attend a guidance counselors meeting in Pocatello early in February. This meeting will help facilitate enrollment of Filer students at Idaho State university.

Authorization was given for minor remodeling in the kitchen at Central school to speed up serving time during hot lunches. Mrs. Loren Farmer gave a resume of the hot lunch program for the schools.

A work progress report from the Citizens' committee was read by Superintendent Turner.

Filer Kiwanians Presented Theme

FILER, Jan. 14—Arthur Chaburn, Kiwanis club president, discussed the 1965 administrative theme and committee objectives at the Tuesday luncheon meeting.

He showed a film portraying the committee goals for this year, which he noted is the 50th anniversary of Kiwanis International. Chaburn was assisted in presenting the film by Floyd Hardesty, Key club president.

Other Key club members who attended were Fred Baenger, John Kaufman, Richard Storrs, Edna David Hardesty, Louis Molendenaar and Warren Lowery. Twin Falls were guests.

Revision of Immigration Laws Sought

Congo Chief Cancels Trip To Brussels

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 (AP)—President Johnson asked Congress yesterday for a major overhaul of U.S. immigration laws by proposing abolishing the 40-year-old system of national quotas which he called "incompatible with our basic American tradition."

Johnson's special message to congress carried out his state of the union plea last week to seek an immigration law "based on the work a man can do and not where he was born or how he spells his name."

The President told the lawmakers today that correction of "serious defects" in the law was long overdue. He urged that the program be given "priority consideration."

Except for technical refinements, the proposed legislation is essentially the same as sought by the late President John F. Kennedy in 1963. Kennedy's proposal failed to clear either the house or senate judiciary committee.

Sen. Philip A. Hart, D., Mich., announced that he would introduce legislation Friday to carry out Johnson's recommendations.

The heart of Johnson's plan is a recommendation for gradual elimination of the quota system which has been in use since 1924 to determine the number of foreigners permitted to enter the United States from each country.

The President asked that the promise of America be opened to others based on their skills and ability, and on their relationship to relatives in this country so families could be reunited — not on the basis of a person's country of origin.

"We are not merely a nation, but a nation of nations," Johnson declared. "Violation of this tradition by the national origin quota system does incalculable harm."

The procedures imply that men and women from some countries are just because of where they come from, more desirable citizens than others. We have no right to displace the ancestors of millions of our fellow Americans in this way."

Under the proposal, existing country-by-country immigrant quotas would be gradually eliminated over five years. The quotas would be reduced by one-fifth in each year until abolished, thus avoiding an abrupt change in the pattern of immigration.

The ceiling on the number of persons admitted would be about 165,000 a year under the program, only about 8,000 more immigrants than now allowed under the quota system.

Numbers are released from national origin quotas, they will be added to a central pool at the rate of about 32,500 immigrants a year. Eventually, all under the program would be in a single pool.

With quotas eliminated, first preference — regardless of nationality — would be given to those persons with exceptional skills who would improve American society, such as scientists, artists and skilled craftsmen.

by about 50,000 persons a year, filling their quotas.

Under the administration proposal, these unused numbers would be pooled and parceled out to countries with large waiting lists. Experts estimated that at the end of five years, Italy would be the only country with a waiting list of preferential applicants.

Parents of U.S. citizens could obtain admission without waiting for a quota number.

Administration sources said that an average of about 300,000 immigrants enter this country each year, including those admitted under the quota system and under a complex of special immigration laws.

This would be increased to about 350,000 annually under the bill, they said.

The increase would result from the fact that some Western European nations, notably Britain, Germany and Ireland — ran short

Easterners Edge West 124-123 in NBA All-Star Tilt

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 14 (AP)—The East all but blew a 20-point lead in the last half but hung on for a 124-123 victory Wednesday night in the 15th annual National Basketball Association all-star game. Oscar Robertson's two free throws with 1:15 remaining gave the East its decisive points for a 124-117 lead. The West closed the gap in the final minute on baskets by Jerry West and Bob Pettit and two free throws from Don Ohl. But the East ran out the final seconds.

FROM ALL ANGLES

By LARRY HOVEY
The grapevine has been working for the past few weeks and somehow it seems to get things pretty well lined up. It is true again. Idaho will soon be in the line of fire for a new football coach with Dee Andros moving across the state line to Oregon State.

The FRUIT of the matter is the grapevine has the chain of events going long before the initial step was announced. College coaches at the end of the football season were saying that Barnes was definitely out as UCLA football coach and within a few days it came to pass. At the same time it was said Tom Prothro would move from Oregon State to UCLA, but not until after the Rose bowl game—and it came to pass. And the third step was that Andros would step across to Oregon State—where it hangs right now.

From CHICAGO, where the NCAA convention and coaches meeting is going on, came this word late Wednesday night.

"When we had a vacancy, our first thought was of Andros," said OSC athletic director Blais Gill. He declined further comment.

Perhaps a key to that is the word "when." It is hard to imagine that if all Intermountain coaches knew the three-step reaction before Barnes even left UCLA, Oregon State also wouldn't be in the know. So the "when" could mean the negotiations started at the last Thanksgiving or thereabouts.

The part that bothers in all this, however, is the grapevine didn't supply the name of Andros' successor.

If the University of Idaho has learned nothing in the past 30 years, it should have come up with the point that you have to attack with the young men. Face it, Idaho is a "stepping stone" university where a good record means a good step up the coaching ladder.

Idaho it gives you ups and downs practically every year, the fact remains that Idaho can be a stepping stone only if the incumbent coach is successful. Had Andros beaten some teams and scared a lot more, he wouldn't be in line for the OSC job. So it is okay to be a stepping stone under those conditions—winning.

Conversely, Idaho can ill afford an "established" man who can't produce and won't leave because there's no place to go. Then the university falls into the hapless category of having to fire him and regardless of who it might be, the canned coach will have some friends who immediately become university enemies.

The Idaho situation will depend, if Andros leaves on the next step—that is, if Andros takes his staff along with him. Dick Monroe has left for the pro ranks—and that could be a tipoff to leaving Steve Mizerau and young John Easterbrook. Mizerau might well be considered a head coach prospect and Easterbrook's only "fault" would be youth.

But if Andros can successfully take both with him, you have to start from scratch.

It would appear that Idaho would then be delving into the assistant coaching ranks again, the same place it found Dee Andros.

Into all this walks Paul Ostyn, who recently was appointed athletic director at the school. "I have been informed that I will be brought up to date in full immediately after the NCAA convention and that's about all," Ostyn said Wednesday night. He said he had received nothing from the school about a possible coaching change and couldn't be sure that the school knew more about it than the grapevine.

The chance strikes when Idaho needs another first class recruiting job last year, although the Vandals picked up some good names, the material available wasn't there in quality. Idaho needs a good year to keep the momentum building.

Should Andros move on, it is interesting to imagine how he feels about Ray McDonald and the flight left behind it. It is a good football team. But the 110 Beaver scholarships, extra pay, prestige, etc., are bound to beckon. The answer should be with us within a week or 10 days.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 14 (AP)—The East all but blew a 20-point lead in the last half but hung on for a 124-123 victory Wednesday night in the 15th annual National Basketball Association all-star game. Oscar Robertson's two free throws with 1:15 remaining gave the East its decisive points for a 124-117 lead. The West closed the gap in the final minute on baskets by Jerry West and Bob Pettit and two free throws from Don Ohl. But the East ran out the final seconds.

The East now leads in the series 10-5 and six of those victories belong to Eastern-based teams. Backlog of the Boston Celtics, which has lost three times in the NBA chess.

Jerry Lucas of Cincinnati, who scored 25 points, was named most valuable player in the game by a vote of the sports writers. Lucas led the East to a 35-27 first quarter lead with 11 points. He notched 10 more in the third quarter as the East moved out to six 20-point leads in that position.

Robertson led all scorers with 28 points and the West's Gus Johnson of Baltimore matched Lucas' total of 25.

The East appeared on its way to an easy victory as it combined Lucas' shooting, the defense of Boston's Bill Russell and Robertson's all-around play to surge into a 75-61 halftime spread.

Ignoring the record breaking crowd of 16,733 rabbit West fans at the East, on a first half shooting binge of 47.3 per cent compared to only 37.8 for the West.

Lucas finished with 13 points in the half and Robertson, who was awarded last year's Most Valuable Player award in the All-Star game at Intermountain, totaled 12.

Wilt Traded
ST. LOUIS, Jan. 14 (AP)—The San Francisco Warriors traded Wilt Chamberlain to the Philadelphia 76ers for Paul Neumann, Connie Dierke and Lee Shaffer and an undisclosed amount of cash Wednesday night.

The trade was announced immediately after the National Basketball Association All-Star game. Chamberlain apparently played for the West without knowing he had been traded.

The trade was effectively immediate and all players will report to their new clubs at once.

Bills' Owner Calls for Mutual Draft
HOUSTON, Jan. 14 (AP)—Ralph Wilson, owner of the champion Buffalo Bills of the American Football League, urged Wednesday a mutual draft as the solution to pro football's basic problem: "I think the two leagues must have some sort of an understanding on the draft before too many years roll by or I see some very serious storm clouds on the horizon for pro football," said Wilson.

The Bills' owner, interviewed before the annual AFL winter meeting, emphasized he was speaking only for himself.

"As long as anybody stands about I see continued trouble and serious continuities three or four years from now," Wilson said.

"I would think the first step would be on the level of the two commissioners," said Wilson. "As far as I know, no such move has been made."

Wilson said he thought a common draft could be worked out before another season.

Furor Arises as NFL Players Try to Depose Commissioner

CLEVELAND, Jan. 14 (AP)—The decision to try and unseat National Football League commissioner Pete Rozelle was the unanimous verdict of the team representatives last week in Hollywood Beach, Fla., Berne Parrish, vice president of the NFL players' association, said Wednesday. But the idea to replace Rozelle with former Cleveland Browns coach Paul Brown "was my own idea," said Parrish, a defensive back for the Browns. The players' association held its annual meeting last week in Hollywood Beach. Parrish, in an interview Tuesday, said he would try to line up players' support to remove Rozelle. He said he felt Rozelle did not represent the players "as we feel we should be represented."

Chance Okays $40,000 Pact With Angels

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 14 (AP)—Pitching star Dean Chance has agreed to a $40,000 1965 contract with the Los Angeles Angels baseball team, the Herald-Examiner said Wednesday.

Dean's Has First Outlaw Victory

Dean's Richfield posted its first victory of the Twin Falls recreation basketball season Wednesday night by dropping a 45-35 decision against the Pioneer basketball team.

Chance started last season at a salary of $18,000. After a massive over pay he got an increase and went on to win 20 games and the Cy Young award.

The newspaper said it had learned that Chance will sign the new agreement Feb. 11 when he arrives here from his winter home at Wooster, O.

NCAA Sets March 1 as New Deadline for Dual Sanctioning of Track Meets

CHICAGO, Jan. 14 (AP)—The National Collegiate Athletic Association cleared the way Wednesday for college athletes to participate in most of the indoor track season this year and issued an invitation to the AAU to participate in cooperative sanctioning. Earlier in the day the NCAA slapped a one-year probation on West Texas State, lifted the probationary status of Iowa and Centenary and put some teeth in its stand on its relations with the professional football leagues. The NCAA adopted a bylaw which stayed the effective date under which collegiates could compete in indoor unsanctioned meets to March 1.

Mix Tried, Failed to Stop Boycott

NEW YORK, Jan. 14 (AP)—Ron Mix, a San Diego Chargers tackle who is a member of the American Football League's West all-star team, tried to avert the walkout of Negro players which forced the AFL to shift Saturday's game from New Orleans to Houston. He failed, but he still thinks the method the Negroes used to protest was wrong.

In an article in this week's issue of Sports Illustrated, Mix explains his reasoning and how it failed to impress the Negro players.

"I felt that something was wrong about what the Negro ballplayers were doing. Not wrong to protest, but wrong in the method," Mix wrote. "An action such as this must lead to a favorable result. What would be accomplished by their actions? Nothing that I could see."

Mix went to a hotel room where about 20 of the Negro players of the two teams were meeting and asked them to listen to his views.

"The whole city isn't guilty," he told them. "Do you think that those ignorant individuals who wrong you give a damn whether or not they see a football game? They'll be glad to see you go. And so what's been done? Those low-lives have their way. You're gone."

"We should stay here and focus national attention on what is going on."

August Game Is Proposed At AFL Meet

HOUSTON, Jan. 14 (AP)—An all-star football game between the champions of the American Football League and a league all-star team to be played in New York's Shea stadium in August was proposed Wednesday at the annual AFL meeting.

Commissioner Joe Poff said the proposal made jointly by Ralph Wilson, owner of the Buffalo Bills, and David Werblin, owner of the New York Jets, has strong support. However, no decision was made and the matter will be considered later in the week.

If the new game is added to the program, it would pit the Buffalo Bills as 1964 champions against an all-star team of league veterans. No rookies would be involved, so there would be no conflict with other all-star games played in late summer.

The AFL voted to retain its 36-man player limit which also permits two additional men on the injured deferred list.

Poff said he had been well received at Chicago Tuesday when he spoke with members of the National Collegiate Athletic Association's pro relations committee. Poff said he had some recommendations to make on the committee's proposal that will be considered Thursday or Friday.

The commissioner said the league would not expand at this time but might decide if and when it would expand. He said some 38 groups were interested in franchises.

Poff was asked if the withdrawal of Saturday's all-star game from New Orleans after 21 Negro players claimed racial discrimination had harmed New Orleans' chances of obtaining a franchise.

"You could help but say there was some setback," said Poff. "However, something like this could happen in a number of cities."

CLEVELAND WILL MOVE FENCES
CLEVELAND, Jan. 14 (AP)—Gabe Paul, Cleveland Indians general manager, announced plans Wednesday to move back the outfield fence at Cleveland Municipal stadium 10 to 20 feet in hopes of speeding advancement of the Indians' pitching in the 1965 baseball season.

The fence will be moved 10 feet deeper in left and right field—to 375 feet—and 20 feet deeper in left and right center—to 400 feet.

The distance from home plate to the foul poles will remain at 320 feet.

Paul and Manager Fergie "Red" Toback's new-fangled outfielders—Leon Wagner, Vic Davalillo, Chuck Hinton, Tommie Agee and Calico Salmon—won't have any trouble covering the extra territory.

Jerome Man Places Second in Italian Weightlifting Tourney

VERONA, Italy, Jan. 14—Pvt. 1st Lt. LeRoy May, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald May, 619 East Fourth, Jerome, placed second in the light-heavy (181 pound) division in the fourth "Gran Premio di San Lucia" Italian weightlifting meet here recently. May, an information specialist assigned to headquarters and headquarters company, southern European task force (SETAF), totaled 731.5 pounds in three Olympic lifts (236.5

in the press, 209 in the snatch and 286 in the clean and jerk) to give him second place. Italian light-heavy division champion, Corradini Gino, out-totaled May with 825 pounds to take first place.

May is a member of the Italian weightlifting club, I. C. Bentegodi, of the Veronese Sports Association, and trains during the week after duty hours in the Bentegodi gym here with his Italian teammates.

A native of Jerome, May won the Idaho state middleweight division championship in 1963 and the light-heavy division championship in 1964. At one time he had held six Idaho state weightlifting records.

After graduating from the Jerome high school in 1961, May attended the Utah State university until 1962. He then worked for civilian enterprises until April 1964 when he enlisted in the army.

Upon completion of basic training at Fort Ord, Calif., he was assigned to the defense information school at Fort Slocum, N. Y., prior to his arrival to the SETAF command in September 1964.

May has been training with weights consistently for the past two years. During the first year and a half, he was trained and coached by Gerald Engelbert, Idaho's strongman and top competitor for the middle-heavy weight lifting championship. May has high hopes of competing in the 1968 Olympics.

Family Home Evening Is Emphasized

The greatest responsibility is that of the home, emphasized Elder Jack Price, Salt Lake City, during the Minidoka stake LDS conference Sunday in Rupert.

Elder Price, a member of the church welfare committee, stated that "spiritually determines the success or failure of leadership." The theme of the conference was "The Family Home Evening started 50 years ago, but parents have been given outlined helps in planning a weekly family evening."

Mrs. Norma O. Nichols, a member of the general board of the primary association, also Salt Lake City, spoke at both sessions and outlined new assistance that could enrich the Family Home evening.

President Rodney Hansen, Paul, conducted the conference sessions. Special music at the Sunday sessions was furnished by the Lithonia girls and Trillbulet boys of the Stake Primary, and Mrs. Oron conducted 500 voices. Mrs. Oron, Paul, stake primary chorister, conducted and Nancy Gijler was accompanist.

Mrs. Dolle Barlow, stake organist, Rupert, played the prelude and postlude music and accompanied congregational music which was conducted by Kesi Govers, stake music director.

The Minidoka Stake mission presidency was released and included Ferrell Catmull, president; Reed Jensen and Laverl Bingham, counselors. Sherril Stallings was released as second counselor of the stake YWMA and Melvin Moncur was released from the high council.

Theron Griffin was ordained high priest in the Melchizedek priesthood. Ordained elders were Dale Babbitt and Merrill James Palmer, both Emerson; Alan Dale Sumaker, Rupert, and Russell White, Heburn.

Sustained in the stake mission presidency were Reed Jensen, president; William R. Quigley and Robert Hoggan, counselors. Leo Coles was sustained as secretary.

Charles Doane was sustained as second counselor in the YWMA.

Some 1,740 persons attended the morning session and 1,800 the afternoon session. President Hansen reported the church has 4 missionaries in the foreign missions and seven on a stake sale.

He reported briefly on the church welfare farm, stating this had been the best year ever. The stake realized $37,000 after the welfare budget was paid and credit had been made for donations of labor. He thanked those assisting on the farm this year.

Other speakers at the morning session included Ferrell Catmull, Reed Jensen and Duane Loveland. Loveland reported on his experiences teaching in the LDS church school at Samoa the past three years.

During the afternoon session

THESE PANAMA national guardsmen advanced up Central avenue in Panama City Tuesday night clutching tear gas grenades which they threw at anti-American demonstrators. The President Hansen spoke on the family defense and encouraged families to hold weekly Home evenings.

Other speakers included President Earl Griffin, President Jay Merrill, LaVar Wilcox and Mrs. Nepht Douglas, member of the stake Primary presidency.

Prayers were given by Vao Palmer and Royal Blacker, both Rupert; Orlis Anderson, Paul, and Leo Morgan, Emerson.

The conference concluded with a MIA speech festival Sunday evening in the tabernacle. Janeal Aldridge was in charge and Mr. and Mrs. Murrell Johnson assisted. "The Gift of Life" was the theme of the conference.

All Mutual classes and all 12 wards in the Minidoka stake were represented.

Saturday afternoon sessions were held for the stake Primary workers with Mrs. Nichols in charge. An evening meeting was held for all bishoprics, high council members, quorum presidencies and primary workers with Elder Price and Mrs. Nichols speaking.

A skit was presented on how the Primary can enrich Family Home evenings. Those participating included Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hardy, James Oath, Lynn Handy, Susan Olson, Ned Moon and Lou Ann Douglas.

Cars Damaged As They Collide

SHOSHONE, Jan. 14 — About $200 damage resulted to each of two vehicles early Monday morning when they collided near the bowling alley here.

Bill Anderson, city police judge, said Wally C Jerke, Wendell, driving a 1960 Chevrolet, was cited for improper passing and having an expired driver's license.

The other car was a 1958 Chevrolet owned by Donald Sandy, north Shoshone, and driven by Linda Johnson, Shoshone.

Both vehicles were traveling east on F street when Jerke passed on the wrong side of the street, Anderson said.

Illness No Longer Pays As Well as It Once Did

By RAY DE CRANE
Newspaper Enterprise Association

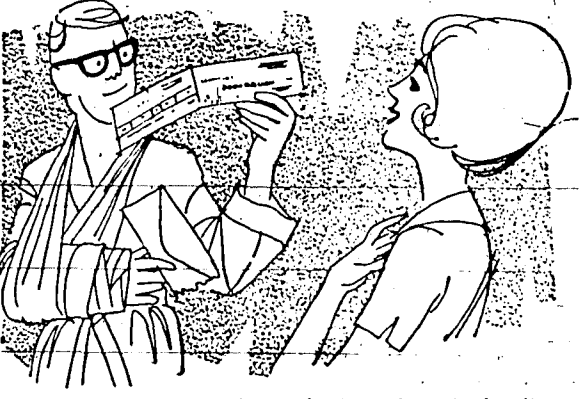

It's still possible to say that you can make (and keep) more at home sick and drawing your pay than it is to go to work every day.

But possibly because of abuses of the sick pay credit in former years, this is one area where congress made drastic changes in 1964. Before sick pay becomes a factor in your tax return there must be present these elements: You were absent from work because of sickness or injury in 1964 and during this period of enforced absence from work you received compensation from your employer. If you received payments under an insurance contract, the amount so received are not reportable on your return.

If you were off the payroll while you were absent from work, you have no sick pay credit and none of the following applies in your case.

The new sick pay rules will probably become known as the 75 per cent-$75-$100 formula. Here's how it works:

You were absent from work because of sickness or injury and your employer paid you your full rate or more than 75 per cent of your full rate while you were away. After you were away 30 days your full rate while you were away. After you were away 30 days you would take a sick pay credit of the actual amount received weekly up to a maximum of $100 a week for the balance of the time you were away.

Sick pay is still nice to get, but the tax rules affecting it are changed.

Contrary to the old rules in this situation, it makes no difference whether you were hospitalized or not. If you received more than 75 per cent of your normal salary while you were absent, you get no credit until you have been away more than 30 days.

For example, an employee was absent because of illness for 60 days in 1964. His employer continued to pay him during this time his full salary of $600 a month. Since his payment was greater than 75 per cent of his pay he would receive no credit for the first 30 days. For the remaining 30 days he would take a credit of the $100 weekly maximum.

Now take the case of a worker whose employer paid him 75 per cent or less of his normal pay while he was absent because of sickness. Unless he was hospitalized at least one day during the period of absence there is no credit for the first seven consecutive days.

Thereafter, for the remainder of the 30 days, he would deduct his full pay up to a maximum of $75 a week. After the 30th day the maximum deduction would be $100 a week, assuming the employee received that much or more.

Assume the same facts but the employee was hospitalized at least one day. He received a sick pay credit for the full period of absence. The maximum credit was $75 a week for the first 30 days. At the actual pay or $100 a week, whichever is lesser.

Notice the attempt to equalize the tax break between the employee who receives full pay while he is sick, and the one who receives a reduced rate during such time. The former must wait 30 days before the credit begins the latter waits only seven days. And if he is hospitalized any time during his period of absence he starts to get instant credit.

Wherever sick pay applies it presents an opportunity to make a substantial tax savings.

Take the time to give a full explanation of the circumstances and attach this statement to your return. Your statement should recite the date you first missed work, the date you returned, the amount of pay received as contrasted to your normal wages, nature of the illness, the name of the hospital and the date you were hospitalized.

Area Lodge Holds First 1965 Meet

WENDELL, Jan. 14—Wendell lodge No. 94 AF and AM met Monday at the Masonic temple for the initial meeting of the newly installed officers.

Reports were given on holiday activities, Jobs Daughters' installation, friendship night for the Masons and Eastern Star Masonic night.

Plans were made for the annual past masters night to be observed March 15. Albert Lancaster, junior past master, will be in charge of arrangements.

The annual Washington's birthday banquet for Masons and Eastern Star members will be held Feb. 22. The committee in charge of arrangements will be Phil Hirtell, Ray Ward, Oren Hutron and Thomas Frith.

The lodge will have a business meeting and degree work on the first meeting of the month and schedule social and entertainment activities for the last meeting of the month.

Standing committees appointed for the coming year by Harry Frith, master, include Phil Hirtell, Albert Lancaster, Leslie Wallace, visitation; Walter Kelley, Raymond Turner, Roy Dean and Kenneth Brown, grounds; Harry Frith, Darrell Anderson, Roger Brown, Denton Adams, building, and Frith and S. K. Bungum, press.

Refreshment committee for the Jan. 25 meeting will be Walter Kelley and Paul Pihlerson. Refreshments were served by Ray Ward and Clyde Petersen.

Cutter Races Are Slated Sunday

RICHFIELD, Jan. 14—Wood River Cutter Race association has scheduled chariot races for 2 p.m. Sunday at the Bliss race grounds.

Second race meet of the season for the association was held Sunday at the Jerome fairgrounds. First half of the track was reported very slick but no chariots were upset or spills reported.

Hap Gates, association president, took his second win as chief contender for the top place in the group. He won over Ernie Watts, Pat Schannen won over Howard Haslem, Heber Kelly over Cotton Riley, Rob Robinson over Bud Roseberry, William E. Swan over Andy Kendall;

Trustees to Buy Machines For Hansen

HANSEN, Jan. 14—Two sewing machines will be purchased for use in the home economics department. It was decided at the Monday night meeting of the school board of trustees.

Members decided to invest some funds in short term treasury notes. Baccalaureate exercises will be May 16 and May 18 was chosen for commencement exercises.

Robert Pettigrove and Everett Norris met with the members to discuss a possible consolidation of the Kimberly-Hansen schools. However, no action was taken.

Bryan Harris, Jr. acted as chairman as Louise Miller is on a trip to Alabama.

Supt. William Barnard announced that eleven training classes were started Monday. Marvin Rose is conducting a class after school with 24 freshmen and a few seniors enrolled.

Barnard stated much interest was shown in the beginning class and that well over 100 students had enrolled. He also stated that at least one class and possibly two would be conducted during the summer months and classes will continue during the fall and winter.

A car will be obtained at a later date. Drivers training courses will be a part of the regular curriculum from now on, he said.

Farm Bureau's Tax Plan Termed Good Alternative

BOISE, Jan. 14 (UP)—Chairman Arvi Miller, R-Bingham, of the House Finance and taxation committee said yesterday that the farm Bureau's income tax proposal is as "good an alternative" to a sales tax as we can find.

But he said he personally feels the proposal which would virtually double state income taxes does not solve the problem of equating tax burdens.

"What it does do is put the burden on people who pay income taxes and doesn't pick up persons, who don't pay income taxes."

"It isn't in its effect a broad-based tax at all," Miller said, "it magnifies the shortcomings of the income tax."

A subcommittee appointed to study the proposal asked for more time today and indicated it would meet with Farm Bureau representatives next week. Miller said.

Space Unit Will Ask for 1.36 Billion

HOUSTON, Jan. 14 (UP)—The national aeronautics and space administration (NASA) will ask congress for more than 1.36 billion dollars to forward its manned program of space during the next fiscal year, it was learned yesterday.

NASA officials at the agency's manned spacecraft center near Houston said its total requests for fiscal 1966 will include:

- 242 million dollars for the Earth-orbiting man-in-space program, Gemini.
- 112 billion dollars for the man-to-the-moon project, Apollo.

The money will go for "operations, support vehicles and spacecraft," it was reported.

However, detailed breakdowns were not available. Shortly after United Press International asked for and received the overall figures, the agency put the wraps on money information.

The details, an agency spokesman said, will be left for President Johnson to release in his message to congress on Feb. 2.

The 242 million dollars for Gemini is compared with 308.4 million dollars the program requested in fiscal 1965. The reduction, it was reported, is the result of completion of a number of phases of build-up work in the project.

The 112 billion dollar request revealed by NASA for Apollo is substantially less than the nearly 267 billion dollars sought last year. No explanation for this considerable change was immediately available.

Not Dead

MANCHESTER, England, Jan. 14 (UP)—Embarrassed city officials yesterday blamed a printer's error for a handbook entry listing Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery as deceased.

The listing of the famed British commander of British troops during World War II says he died on June 12, 1963.

Montgomery, 61 and a heavy at 47, was told of the entry.

"Supposed to be dead, am I?" he said. "Well, I'm delighted about it."

Jordan to Back Tax Credit Bill

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 (AP)—Sen. Len Jordan, R-Ida., said yesterday he is taking on a co-sponsor of a measure intended to grant income tax credits for college costs.

The bill would permit as a deduction in figuring federal income tax portions of the amount spent up to $1,500 for tuition, books and supplies at an institution of higher education.

GREAT CAESAR! MY BARRICADE TRAPPED THE SNOW INSTEAD OF KEEPING IT OFF OUR WALK! THE WIND MUST HAVE SHIFTED DURING THE NIGHT! ONCE AGAIN CAPRICIOUS DAME FATE, HAS UPSET THE PERFECT SYSTEM!

TO HEAR HIM TELL IT MUST BE IT, HE NEVER MISSED A PICKY WINTER EVERY TIME, ONLY THE HUSK OF THE TREE IS LEFT! THE TELEPHONE DENTAL WORK!

IT WAS ALMOST GONE, BUT IT'S COMING BACK - I GUARANTEE IT UP TOO SOON!

STIFF UPPER LIPS

Out Our Way

WHEN YOU SAID YOU HAD A HEADACHE AND WENT UPSTAIRS TO LIE DOWN, I THOUGHT TO GIVE YOU A LIFT WITH TONIGHT'S DINNER. THERE WASN'T ANY DISHWASHER HANGING ON THE BACK SO I USED THESE PAPER TOWELS TO WIP UP YOUR HEADACHE!

IT WAS ALMOST GONE, BUT IT'S COMING BACK - I GUARANTEE IT UP TOO SOON!

HEROES ARE MADE, NOT BORN

Ben Carey

MAYBE DR. LANIER DOESN'T CONTROL THE GRADES GIRLS GET IN MED SCHOOL, BEN, BUT THE PRESSURE IS THERE...

AND THEN THE MINUTE YOU FALL BELOW A CUM ANY COURSE HE HAS YOU FOR A CONFERENCE WHICH LEAVES YOU LIMPI!

AFTER THAT YOU START FEELING YOU'RE COMING UNSTUCK AT ALL THE SEAMS...

IN FACT, BEN, I DON'T THINK I'M GOING TO MAKE IT!

Bugs Bunny

IF YOU GO OUT TO PLAY IN THE RAIN, TAKE YOUR RUBBER RUGS!

OKAY AN' PROOBY!

WEARIN' RUBBERS & BETA-BLOCKERS TO KEEP YOUR FEET DRY!

Kids Glasses

"It's a nice change for Sylvia, here. Back home about this time she'd be on the hot line to the delicatessen!"

Carnival

"He's a marvel at diagnosis! Just a simple examination and he can tell what a patient has... almost to the penny!"

Sweetie Pie

"I spread antifreeze all over the sidewalk to keep it from icing up!"

Steve Roper

FOR A WEEK, MIKE GOES ABOUT HIS DUTIES, HELPING WICK CLEAN THE UNLIVERY...

YEP... UNLESS WE CLEAN YOUR FURNACE MISTER, SOMEBODY ELSE LL HAVE TO PUT IT BACK TOGETHER.

SEE? ...THOSE FUMES COMIN UP IN THE HOUSE COULD KILL YOU AN' YOUR INVALID HUSBAND MA AM!

POOPY!

AND EACH WHATE HE MEETS STEEL SECRETLY IN THE PHOTO DEPARTMENT OF 'VALVE'...

THE TAPES ARE CLEARER SINCE YOU STARTED GETTING CLOSER TO WICK WITH THE LUNCH BOX!

...AND THESE ARE THE BEST ENLARGEMENTS YET... YOU'RE REALLY LEARNING TO USE THAT CIGARETTE LIGHTER CAMERA.

Tony and the Pirates

OKAY SIR! THE REDS WANT TO REGAIN THE FACE THEY LOST IN THE TONKIN GULF - BUT THE JET BAGE?

THAT BASE MUST BE WELL PROTECTED, THEY'D BE NUTS TO RISK A PITCHED BATTLE USING LOCAL GUERRILLAS...

THE VIET CONG HAS PROVED HOW RESOURCEFUL IT CAN BE. LEE...

HANOI HANNAH! SEEMS TO KNOW WHAT'S UP, THE VIET CONG GET THE WORD FROM HER BROADCASTERS, SO YOU FIND OUT AND LET OL' SNAPPER KNOW, I HATE NOT BEING AN INSIDER!

RELAX, MOSCOW!! - OUR BOMBS ISN'T GOING TO LEAVE THE U.S.A.!!

WE'VE CHANGED ITS COURSE!! - IT WILL ORBIT, AND DROP ON US!!

THAT'S NICE!! - CALL AGAIN SOME TIME. HOW'S THE WIFE?

SAND MY REGARDS!!

WHO NEEDS YOUR REGARDS?

WHEN THE EMERGENCY IS OVER!!

NOT QUITE, SIR!! YOU'VE GOT 60 SECONDS TO PICK A PLACE IN THE U.S. TO S'URFER - DROP IT!!

Captain Easy

YOU SURE IT'S SAFE? I MEAN, LIKE HAS REGAINED HIS SANITY?

SURE! HE REALIZES NOW HE'D OVERRATED YOUR PAINTING, PAL!

IT DID HAVE A SUPERFICIAL APPEAL, KOONITZ! APPRAID, I ACTED LIKE A POOLED CHILD!

I SHUDDER NOW AT THE THOUGHT OF YOUR BILIOUS LOOKING ZODIACIC TAORTING AMNESIS!

I BEG YOUR PARDON! YOU'RE STILL SO ADDLED YOU'VE CONFUSED IT WITH ANOTHER PICTURE! IT IS A MODERN MASTERPIECE!

ONE OF US IS LOCO, AND TEN BUCKS SAYS IT'S NOT ME! IF I WEREN'T BEDRIDDEN, I'D GO TO THE GALLERY AND PROVE IT!

THAT SHOWS YOU'RE A TOBER, WHEN I MAKE IT TO MAKE IT BY AND GIVE YOU KNOWS NITS!

Bar Morgan, M. D.

THIS IS DR. MORGAN! HAVE YOU BEEN ABLE TO LOCATE DR. HARDY AS YET?

NO, DOCTOR!

IS DR. SMITH IN THE HOSPITAL?

THIS IS HIS NIGHT OFF... BUT I BELIEVE HE'S IN INTERN'S QUARTERS! SHALL I GET HIM FOR YOU?

NO! I'LL GO ON UP THERE TO SEE HIM!

Gasoline Alley

I'm Phoebe Fuddle, Mr. Wicket! I hope my seat didn't inconvenience you terribly!

I'm sorry we're so late, but Stubbs and I -

Stubbs? Oh, great! He's gone!

I don't know what goes on here, Miss Fuddle, but if you plan to keep a seat in my dorm -

Heavens, no! I've arranged quarters for her at the lab - if you'll permit Mr. Wicket to take me!

There's no room, young man, she's not back by my seat!

Rip Kirby

WHEN DO YOU INTEND TO START THIS... AND SECRET PLAN, YOUR HIGHNESS?

WHAT BETTER TIME THAN TONIGHT?

WELL, SINCE I CAN'T DISSUADE YOU, I'LL GET READY.

I WISH YOU WEREN'T DOING THIS, SIR.

SO DO I, DESMOND, BUT SINCE ROYALTY CAN'T BE STOPPED, I'LL TAKE ALONG A LITTLE HELP.

Short Ribs

I CAN'T DO IT.

IT WOULDN'T BE FAIR.

AW COMON, PLEASE

NOPE, I JUST WON'T DRIVE ALL THE EVIL SPIRITS OUT OF YOUR MOTHER-IN-LAW.

WHY, THERE WOULDN'T BE ANYTHING LEFT OF HER BUT A HOLLOW SHELL.

BUT WHY NOT?

Alley Oop

OOH! I WANTCHA TO DO SUMPIN FOR ME, YEH?

I WANTCHA TO TAKE WOOZIE FOR A RIDE ON OL' DINNIN'!

WHAT?

NOW LET'S NOT GET MULE-HEADED ABOUT THIS, I PROMISED THE KID YOU WOULD!

MY GOSH, GLIZ, I CAN EVEN FIND HIM! HAVE YOU SEEN HIM LATELY?

NO... BUT I CAN'T SEE WELL, AN' HIS BIG AS HIM! BE HARD TO FIND!

WELL, AN' I'VE GOT A LOOK!

Steve Roper

FOR A WEEK, MIKE GOES ABOUT HIS DUTIES, HELPING WICK CLEAN THE UNLIVERY...

YEP... UNLESS WE CLEAN YOUR FURNACE MISTER, SOMEBODY ELSE LL HAVE TO PUT IT BACK TOGETHER.

SEE? ...THOSE FUMES COMIN UP IN THE HOUSE COULD KILL YOU AN' YOUR INVALID HUSBAND MA AM!
