

Economy Is Termed Excellent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28 (AP)—President Johnson reported today that the U. S. economy was in "excellent" shape. He promised Congress he would try to keep it that way by maintaining a close watch on wages and prices.

Johnson said he would "draw public attention to those private concerns which threaten the public interest," but added that he counted on the "sense of public responsibility" of business and labor to help hold down the price spiral.

In his annual economic report to Congress the chief executive predicted "uninterrupted and rapid expansion" for the economy in 1965, but his optimism was tempered somewhat by a forecast of only a "modest" decline in unemployment.

The first major test of the president's wage-price stand appears to be shaping up in steel where the companies recently increased prices of certain products. Johnson has called for a report on the price hikes, and Chairman Gardner Ackley of the Council of Economic Advisors told pressmen he was feeding the president information "as fast as he gets it."

The president also is paying close attention to the forthcoming contract negotiations between the companies and the United Steelworkers. The president's contract expires this spring. Ackley noted that steel users already have begun to build up their stocks in anticipation of a strike. Either a strike or a slowdown in steel orders following the current inventory boom could hurt the economy later this year, he said.

Although the president cited good reason to believe prices would remain stable in 1965, he hoped that the U. S. economy was closer to using all its available men and machines than at any time since 1957. And although wage settlements have shown general moderation, he noted that "general restraint" had not been "dramatic exceptions."

The administration is known to feel that last fall's auto industry wage settlement was too high for the nation's economic good. The president himself has expressed concern about recent wage settlements.

Death Takes Mrs. Parry At Age of 67

Mrs. R. P. (Irene S.) Parry, 67, died at her home east of Twin Falls, Idaho, Thursday, Jan. 27, 1965. She was born Sept. 30, 1897, in Minn., the daughter of John and Estlin Shepherd.

She was married to R. P. Parry in 1921, and had resided continuously in Twin Falls since that time.

She was graduated from high school in Billings, Mont., in 1915 from Smith College, Northampton, Mass., in 1919. After being graduated from college, she worked as a secretary and assisted her father, who was engaged in completing the Grand Canyon canal company project and in work connected with the Jackson Lake dam.

She was greatly interested in the work of the Salmon river, and was one of the first to help in the early development of the Salmon river. She was active in the local Republican party and served as committee woman for many years.

She was a member of the Episcopal church, PEO, of which she was past president of chapter and was a member of the Blue Lakes Country Club.

Survivors besides her husband, two daughters, Mrs. Ann Phillips, Hidden Hills, Calif., and Mrs. Phyllis Barrett, Idaho Falls, and two sons, Mr. Julian Hayward, Glendale, Calif., and Mr. E. E. Tiffany, Billings, Mont., and six grandchildren. Funeral services are pending.

Funds Allocated for T.F. Junior College

Robert Blastock, jr., Filer, chairman of the Twin Falls junior college district board of trustees, said Wednesday evening board members were "delighted" by an announcement earlier in the day by Sen. George Blick that the district will receive $11,077.04 within the next few days as its share of the state liquor tax distribution for the last quarter of 1964. Senator Blick notified the Times-News Wednesday afternoon that Twin Falls county will receive $28,119.02 and the junior college district $11,077.04 from the fourth quarter distribution.

The junior college funds were figured on the basis of its being in existence for 53 days, from the time of the Nov. 3 election, instead of a full quarter period.

The liquor tax revenue, first to be received by the newly-formed junior college district, gives the board an earlier start on staffing the college. Up until now, the board had thought the money would not be made available until April, when the first 1965 quarter liquor tax distribution will be made.

Effective the first of this year, the college district and the county each will receive 50 percent of the liquor tax revenue allocated to Twin Falls county. Distribution for the Jan. 1-March 31 period will be early in April, Senator Blick said.

The Twin Falls county senator said Fred Charlton, superintendent of state liquor dispensaries, notified him earlier Wednesday that the junior college district should receive the funds.

Buddhists Are Jubilant About Coup

SAIGON, Jan. 28 (AP)—Thousands of jubilant Buddhists massed here last night in public celebration of the overthrow by the Vietnamese armed forces of the American-backed government of Premier Tran Van Huong.

But U.S. Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor showed where his sympathies lay by paying a call on the deposed premier after the bloodless coup that returned strongman Lieut. Gen. Nguyen Khanh to power.

China's Radio Peking yesterday claimed the coup in Saigon was a "victory for the people of Viet Nam." The Peking broadcast said that "no matter how hard the U.S. tries to maintain a relatively stable figurehead regime, there is no way out."

Sonic Boom Causes Same Reaction in Modern Days as Car Did 65 Years Ago

By MIKE McGREER
During the late 1800s and early 1900s the horseless carriage startled animals and people. Now, some 65 years later, sonic booms are causing the same reactions.

But in time, sonic booms will become as common as the automobile. Even now, the booms only cause little reaction. Since Oct. 30, 1964, 62 sonic booms have rattled windows in Twin Falls.

Thousands Pay Churchill Homage

LONDON, Jan. 28 (UPI)—Five thousand persons passed through Westminster hall every hour today in tribute to Sir Winston Churchill. They included some members of Britain's royal family and high-ranking statesmen from abroad. Shortly before 2 p.m. (9 a.m. EST)—Scotland Yard said more than 100,000 persons had filed past the tall catafalque in the "hall of kings," where an honor guard of four officers of the armed services stands with heads bowed and sword tips on the floor.

A mighty gathering of representatives from 100 nations is assembling in London today for the state funeral in St. Paul's cathedral on Saturday. The tribute to Churchill will be a universal one.

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and members of the official American delegation are due at London airport later today aboard an air force plane. Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Chief Justice Earl Warren head the U. S. delegation. President Johnson's doctors vetoed the trip because of his recent illness.

Even Russia, which has been critical of Churchill in both life and death, is sending Deputy Premier Konstantin N. Rudnev and Marshal Ivan S. Konev, one of the nation's World War II heroes, Russia has never forgotten Churchill for expelling its post-war expansion plans when he said at Fulton, Mo., that an iron curtain had descended across Europe.

Special arrangements were made for dignitaries at Westminster hall. They were escorted in through a private entrance and stood just inside the east door. Among them were Princess Marina, aunt of Queen Elizabeth; the Duchess of Kent; and the Duchess of Gloucester.

Two former prime ministers, Harold Macmillan and Lord Attlee—arrived together. Prime Minister Robert Menzies of Australia stood for six minutes with head bowed. Churchill's daughter, Mrs. Mary Soames, made her third visit to the bier.

Snow was falling at 7 a.m. (2 a.m. EST) today when the great door of St. Stephen's Westminster hall was reopened for the public after being closed for an hour.

In mid-morning the snow stopped, the sun came out and the line outside Westminster hall began to lengthen. Police are attempting to limit the length of the line to one mile.

FRENCH GENERAL DIES
PARIS, Jan. 28 (AP)—Gen. Maxime Weygand, 98, former commanding general of the Nazi invasion of France in 1940, died today.

are capable of causing the booms, and likely do cause some. Flying fast enough to cause the boom is a requirement of the air national guard and also other services which use jet planes.

A spokesman for the Mountain Home air base noted that almost any jet craft, whether air force or navy, can cause the sonic booms. The sonic boom is created by shock waves which build up around an aircraft flying at supersonic speeds, normally about 762 miles per hour at sea level.

Two Amendments On Idaho's Lottery Ban Are Introduced

BOISE, Jan. 28 (AP)—Two amendments strengthening the constitutional ban on lotteries were proposed today in the Idaho legislature. One, sponsored by the state affairs committee, would merely extend the constitutional ban on lotteries to include casino type gambling. The other, prepared by Rep. Carl Burt, R., Ada., and six other representatives, goes further, and includes a ban on pari-mutuel betting on horse racing. Legislators said the state affairs proposal includes a provision that would allow the state to authorize pari-mutuel gambling.

Legislature to Get Petitions From PTA

BOISE, Jan. 28 (AP)—Bundles of petitions supporting a sales tax and urging more state funds for public schools were ready for delivery today to the Idaho legislature. Gov. Robert E. Smylie, who got them last night from the Idaho Congress of Parents and Teachers, said he planned to deliver them to the lawmakers with appropriate ceremony. "The main import of these petitions," Smylie said in a statement, "is that people feel an urgent need to move ahead with educational problems and are willing to pay a sales tax to do so."

"They are heartening to those of us who feel that Idaho is finally ready to make her big move," Smylie said he was "hopeful that all citizens will make their sentiments known on this important issue to their elected representatives."

The petitions, bearing an estimated 25,000 signatures, urge a state appropriation of about $70 million for the schools and pledge support of a sales tax to provide the revenue.

Mrs. Rulon Lewis, Rexburg, president of the Idaho Congress of Parents and Teachers, said the signatures represented residents of all 44 counties and were obtained in 20-day drive by volunteers beginning Jan. 7.

The governor was urged to pass the petitions on to the legislature by Mrs. R. B. Kading, Boise, chairman of the PTA legislative committee.

"Each signer has indicated a willingness to pay the bill," she said. "Now that they know we have the signatures, we hope the legislators will have the resolution to act."

Smylie said he will send the petitions to the speaker of the house and the lieutenant governor, who is presiding officer of the senate, "with appropriate covering notes."

"The 'education alert' drive to secure the signatures was the PTA's first such campaign. 'It shows,' said Mrs. Lewis, 'that we do have an action program.'"

Johnson Will Not Attend Funeral Rites

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28 (AP)—President Johnson, who heeded his doctors' advice not to go to London for the funeral of Sir Winston Churchill, was taking life easy today, the White House reported.

Press secretary George E. Reedy said Johnson was in bed in the executive mansion when he last saw him late this morning.

Johnson returned to the White House Tuesday after spending four days in the Bethesda naval hospital with a heavy cold and throat irritation.

Asked whether there had been any release in the President's condition, Reedy replied: "No, no. There has been no release."

Reedy said there still was a chance that Johnson might come to his office in the White House west wing later in the day.

The President summoned seven reporters to his bedroom last night to announce he wouldn't be flying to London.

Hospital Bill Is Vetoed by Gov. Smylie

BOISE, Jan. 28 (AP)—Gov. Robert E. Smylie vetoed today a bill designed to allow creation of a hospital district in Wallace because he said it "contains a defect in draftsmanship."

The measure was the first one introduced in the house at this session and it passed both houses of the legislature without a dissenting vote. It was the first bill vetoed at this session by Smylie.

Smylie said the defect in the bill would deny the measure's intended effect and said sponsors of the proposal had asked him to veto it.

"I am advised," he wrote Speaker Pete T. Cenarrusa, R., Idaho Falls, "that the proposed legislation will be presented for consideration by the two houses."

The proposal to remove the superintendent of public instruction from the list of publicly elected officials faced senators for debate again after being postponed yesterday.

Proponents say one purpose of the status change is to put full policy making authority on schools in the hands of the state board of education.

D. F. Engelking, current public instruction superintendent, said the superintendent would be replaced by the board of education.

Peterson Elected President of UF

A certified public accountant, John H. Peterson, 1921 San LaRue avenue, will head the 1965 United Fund, Inc., it was decided during a breakfast meeting of the officers and board members Thursday at the Rogerson hotel. Peterson will replace Harry W. Eaton, 1964 president. First vice president and drive chairman will be selected in about 10 days by the executive board members, Ivan Cook, other officers elected are Mrs. Edward Benoit, secretary, and Steve Ollenkv, treasurer.

The 1964 drive is not yet complete. The campaign is about $3,000 short of its $60,974 goal.

At least one effort to help the campaign reach its goal, will hold its annual collection roadblock Saturday on Addison avenue west.

During the meeting Cook and U. N. Terry were presented with certificates of thanks for their efforts during the 1964 campaign. Board members include Gould, Robert Saxe, Earl Haroldson, John Wolfe, John Roper, E. E. Marlow, John Rosholt, Bob Alexander, Larry Harvey, Eagan Drenker and Mrs. William Keck. Holdover members are Terry, Frank James, Kinsey, Mrs. Mildam Breckenridge, Faren Fakel, Harold Garber, Lloyd Hamilton, the Rev. Ernest Hestblad, J. J. Mulhowny, C. P. Parikh, Harold Reynolds, the Rev. Earl Riddle, Joseph Ryan, Jack Shaw, Dale Strong, Jack Swisher, Leo Vogel and W. W. Prantz.

Wet snow fell briefly Wednesday night in Fairfield, but it was sunny there Thursday and the sun also was shining in the Magic Valley. It was rainy and overcast.

17 Arraigned In Rights Killing Case

MERIDIAN, Miss., Jan. 28 (AP)—The defense studied every legal angle today in an effort to block trial of 17 men charged with conspiracy in the murder of three civil rights workers.

Three defense lawyers have 15 days in which to file additional arguments to their claim that FBI agents "made a fatal mistake" in their investigation, which would rule out key evidence.

The men were arraigned in federal court here yesterday. They included Horace D. Barnett, 26, one of two defendants alleged to have given the FBI a signed confession.

All 17 included innocent and remained free on bond. They were charged with conspiring to violently deny the civil rights of the slain trio.

The session included an attack on a CBS cameraman, Laurens Pierce, Montgomery, Ala., when he tried to film defendants as they emerged from the courthouse.

The 18th man indicted in the case, James Edward Jordan, 38, formerly of Meridian, will be arraigned in Atlanta— but not for several weeks.

The FBI said Jordan gave a full statement on the killings of Michael Schwerner, 24, and Andrew Goodman, 20, both white New Yorkers, and James Chaney, 21, a Meridian Negro.

6 U. S. Jets Sabotaged In Canada

EDMONTON, Alberta, Jan. 28 (AP)—A saboteur dynamited six U.S. air force jet fighters and fatally shot a night guard early today at this city's industrial airport. A German immigrant was arrested and charged with murder.

Dead is Trenton J. Richardson, 48. Police found his bound and gagged body after receiving a telephone call from the airport tower that someone was running between several USAF F4 Thunderbird jets at Northwest Industries' repair depot.

The suspect is Harry W. Hubach, 36, a farm laborer who immigrated to Canada from Germany in 1957. He was charged with murder. An 18-year-old youth also arrested was later released.

Four of the F4 jets were heavily damaged by dynamite. Dynamite wired to a timing device was found strapped to several other jet fighters at the repair depot.

The plan, drafted principally by Rep. John W. Byrnes of Wisconsin, senior Republican member, is backed by most but apparently not all the GOP members of the committee.

Chinese Chief to Visit Indonesia

TOKYO, Jan. 28 (AP)—Premier Chou En-lai of Communist China will visit Indonesia in April at President Sukarno's invitation, it was announced today. The announcement was contained in a joint communique signed in Peking at the conclusion of Indonesian Foreign Minister Subandrio's visit to Red China.

Galena Route Is Closed by Slide Danger

Highway 93 over Galena summit is closed and will remain closed until further notice because of extreme danger of slides, state highway district officials reported Thursday.

Extremely high winds raged through the Sawtooth forest area north of Ketchum Wednesday night and the route over Galena is only wide enough for one-way traffic. Jack Reinisch, of North Fork store, said the sign indicating the highway is closed was put out by highway crews about 5 p.m. Wednesday.

Three pieces of equipment were working on the summit route Thursday trying to widen the road. State Patrolman Willard Baker, who came over the summit Tuesday, said the overhanging snow was "enough to give one the creeps."

Wet snow fell briefly Wednesday night in Fairfield, but it was sunny there Thursday and the sun also was shining in the Magic Valley. It was rainy and overcast.

Pomerelle ski area south of Burley remained closed Thursday because of continued snowfall and wind. It was rainy and overcast at Burley Thursday.

At Hailey, Mrs. Francis Bergin reported 10 inches of new powder snow will provide excellent conditions at Rotorun ski area west of town.

Both the J-bar and rope tow will be in operation from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday and Sunday and the newly completed lunch counter at Rotorun will be open.

Oanh Named Premier by Gen. Khanh

SAIGON, Jan. 28 (AP)—Lieut. Gen. Nguyen Khanh today reappointed the U.S.-educated Nguyen Xuan Oanh acting prime minister of South Viet Nam and denied any personal ambitions to take over the government.

In outlining the structure he plans to impose on the nation, however, Khanh made it clear that the powerful council of generals he heads will be the final arbiter in affairs of state.

Khanh, acting with the approval of the armed forces council, ousted the U.S.-supported government of Premier Tran Van Huong yesterday. The bloodless coup returned Khanh to power as a military strongman for the second time in 15 months.

Oanh, 43, served as interim prime minister once before but lasted only seven days. That brief tenure ended on Sept. 4, 1964, when Khanh's earlier regime as military strongman was overthrown in a storm of Buddhist-led street riots against the dictatorial powers he wielded.

Oanh studied extensively in the United States and holds a economics degree from Harvard university. He is said to have close relations with U.S. officials here.

"Personally, I would like to repeat that I have no ambition to take over the government," Khanh said today in announcing Oanh's appointment at news conference.

The entire blame can't be placed on one air station because with present day range of jets, state boundaries mean nothing. Aircraft at Mountain Home air force base are not capable of causing sonic booms and neither are those stationed with the Utah air national guard.

Net Earnings Reported by Steel Firms

NEW YORK, Jan. 28 — Bethlehem Steel corporation, second-ranking producer, makes its contribution today to the story of steel industry earnings recovery.

Bethlehem's figures were sure to put the company alongside U.S. Steel corporation, Republic Steel corporation, National Steel corporation and other firms chalking up hefty 1964 profit gains over 1963.

U.S. Steel, the industry giant, reported yesterday a 16 per cent jump to 236.3 million dollars or $3.90 a share, up from 203.6 million dollars or $3.30 a share and the highest since 1960.

National, Republic and Youngstown Sheet and Tube company, all among steel's big eight, boosted earnings 30 per cent or more as the rebound continued from a slump that hit bottom in 1963.

Results were swelled by a thundering production pace that eclipsed the old output record of 117 million tons set in 1955 by nearly 10 million tons. A bustling national economy spurred demand.

Reapportionment Faces Rocky Road in Legislature

By RICHARD CHARNOCK
Boise, Jan. 28 — Recent debate in both houses of the legislature on a joint memorial to the congress left little doubt in the minds of most observers that reapportionment faces a rocky road.

In speech after speech both senators and representatives rumbled into the supreme court for its controversial "one man, one vote" ruling on legislative apportionment of the several states.

Focus point of the attack, of course, was the idea that the state senate should be apportioned on the basis of population alone. Those from the sparsely populated counties made it clear they will resist this idea — court order or no court order.

Not as evident, but certainly present, was resistance, too, to any reapportionment plan that might deprive a small county of representation by at least one person in the house. These counties want a voice in that body and they want a home-grown one.

A federal court panel already has ruled that Idaho must reapportion its legislature within 30 days after this regular session. By agreement, legislators and the governor are putting off this task until a special session to be called when the regular session adjourns sine die.

Whether the lawmakers will accomplish the chore when the time comes, however, frankly is questionable. Despite the court order there is a constitutional problem in reapportioning the legislature on a population basis.

Under the Idaho Constitution — on which no federal court has as yet ruled — each of the 44 counties is entitled to at least one representative in the house. And the same document requires the senate to be composed of one senator and one only from each county.

Reapportionment opponents are certain to use these constitutional provisions as arguments to block reapportionment at the special session. They will take note of the fact they have sworn to uphold the Idaho Constitution and then ask what they can do.

Without a federal court ruling on the validity of its apportionment provisions.

In respect to apportionment of the senate, they will contend their hands are tied. In respect to apportionment of the house they will be confronted with a peculiar problem.

Active under the state constitution, the legislature could, if it desired, reapportion the house on the "one man, one vote" ruling. But the membership of such a reapportioned house would be mighty large.

Population disparity between counties ranks from a low of about 900 persons in Clark county to a high of 100,000 in Ada. If Clark is entitled, under the constitution, to one representative, then Ada, when the "one man, one vote" order is applied, should be entitled to more than 100.

The legislative council has some 70 reapportionment plans gleaned from research raised by the July special legislative session. Among these is one for creation of legislative districts which elect at-large legislators who are nominated from individual counties. Some observers see in this plan a way to get around both the state constitution and the supreme court.

Yet even this plan is destined to meet stern resistance from the small counties.

And this brings up the crucial question: What happens if the legislature ignores the court order and doesn't reapportion itself?

There is speculation that the courts, lacking machinery for reapportioning the legislature themselves, may declare the constitutional apportionment provisions in Idaho invalid and order a new election of legislators at large.

This is similar to what happened in Illinois, except in that state the two major political parties agreed to nominate no more than two-thirds of the total membership.

If the court were to so rule for Idaho and if the two parties did not agree on some ground rules, some observers say, there is a possibility that one party, through its numerical strength, could elect all or nearly all of the legislators.

And, because of their large populations, the cities could choose all or nearly all of the members of both houses.

The dust that would follow such a happenstance as that would pale by comparison the present reapportionment arguments.

New Hotel Planned at Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS, Jan. 28 — Planned construction of "Caesar's palace," a 20 million dollar hotel, was announced yesterday by its promoters, who said it would be the first major hotel built on the Las Vegas "strip" in more than eight years.

Preliminary site preparations have begun, construction will begin within 30 days, and completion is expected in time for the summer tourist trade in 1966, according to the announcement.

The hotel includes 700 rooms, 14-story building, gambling casino, plus convention and restaurant facilities. The hotel will have a Greco-Roman motif. The site is 34 acres adjacent to the Flamingo hotel and roughly opposite the Flamingo hotel.

The hotel will be built by Desert Palace Inc., whose principals include Jay J. Sarno, Atlanta, president; Nathan S. Jacobson, Baltimore, vice president and secretary; Stanley A. Fallon, Atlanta, vice president; and Harry L. Lewis, Miami, each, treasurer.

Bill Okayed by Idaho Senate on Redevelopment

BOISE, Jan. 28 — The Idaho house of representatives passed yesterday a measure clarifying a 1963 law setting up the department of commerce and development as coordinating agency for area redevelopment programs.

Under the existing law, the department acts as the state planning agency in obtaining and administering federal funds for area redevelopment programs.

The new measure simply clarifies the existing act and expands it from including only communities to cities, metropolitan or regional areas, counties and Indian reservations.

Rep. Fred Bagley, R. Ada, the floor manager, said three Idaho communities — Lewiston, Idaho Falls and Twin Falls — are planning to submit applications for federal funds under the act. He said passage of the amendment would assure that the applications would receive consideration by the federal government.

George Raft Is Questioned By Grand Jury

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28 — Movie actor George Raft was questioned yesterday by a federal grand jury investigating interstate gambling.

Justice department attorneys declined to say why Raft was called.

Raft has had a long acquaintance with gamblers and gambling, and once had a small interest in a casino in Las Vegas, where gambling is legal.

The grand jury here is reported to be seeking links between Washington area gambling and racketeering across the country. It began its inquiry last November, but has been in recess, witnesses from Miami, Las Vegas and the West Coast have testified before it.

Merger of Idaho Paper Firms Okayed

MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 28 — Stockholders of Boise Cascade corporation of Idaho and Minnesota and Ontario Paper company have approved a merger.

Under the plan, approved yesterday, Mando will become a division of Boise Cascade.

Robert Hegre, Mando president, will become vice president of the merged companies and will direct the new Boise Cascade division.

Divisional office will be maintained in Minneapolis.

The merger is to take effect Jan. 29. Each outstanding common share of Mando stock automatically becomes one share of common stock of Boise Cascade corporation.

The Mando shares will be entitled to a preferential dividend of $1.40 per year.

Holders will have the privilege of conversion at any time each share of preferred stock into 65-100ths of a share of Boise Cascade common stock.

4 Firms Charged With Violating Antimerger Law

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28 — The federal trade commission has charged U.S. Steel and three other large companies with violating the antimerger law by acquiring business concerns and controlling producing companies.

The complaints yesterday against U.S. Steel, Texas Industries, National Portland Cement company, and Mississippi River Pulp corporation followed an announcement of a consent requiring Lone Star Cement corporation to sell 25 plants had acquired by purchasing other companies.

The FTC said U.S. Steel, the nation's largest steel producer, is one of the four largest cement producers. It carries out cement operations through its Universal Atlas Cement division.

Crocodile Tears

Perhaps Idaho's Democratic chairman didn't quite live up to past performances last week when he was bewailing "an open snub to Idaho" because Rep. George Hansen was denied a post on the house agriculture committee. Chairman Lloyd Walker obviously felt moved to make some sort of comment, but this was one he shouldn't have touched with a 10-foot pole. Basically, he was telling the Republicans how futile they were because Hansen couldn't get named to the agriculture committee of which Hansen's predecessor, Ralph Harding, had been a member.

Mr. Walker chose the wrong time to shed his crocodile tears. He should have spent lots of time at the weeping wall four years ago when Rep. Hamer Budge left the house of representatives and the powerful rules committee. Mr. Budge was the only Idahoan ever to serve on the rules committee and it'll be a cold day before any other Idahoan is ever named to that committee again. Of course, that was different; Mr. Budge is a Republican.

There was another reason why Chairman Walker chose a poor subject this time for one of his familiar statements. It's no secret that Mr. Walker and Mr. Harding weren't the best of friends. Moreover, Mr. Walker must have been quite relieved, personally, when Harding was defeated. The word around the state was that Harding would run for the senate in 1956 if he were elected to his third term as second district representative. That would have been an open conflict with what many observers believe Mr. Walker has in mind.

Unless circumstances are quite different a year from now, voters can expect to find Mr. Walker's hat in the ring for the senatorial post now held by Lew Jordan. There's been considerable speculation that Governor Smylie would like to win the Republican nomination for the same office. It would create a lively campaign, and one that would suit Mr. Walker's taste just fine, if Walker and Smylie were the finalists in the senate race of 1956.

ILL-ADVISED SECRECY

Public boards and commissions are prone to forget that they're acting on behalf of the public. When directors and commissioners lose sight of their purpose, they're quite likely to start convincing themselves their work is no one's business or should even be ranked as top secret. There's nothing down that road but trouble for everyone concerned.

A case in point is a Lewiston problem that probably has assumed importance completely out of proportion to its actual size merely because public officials slapped the secret label on the matter more than a year ago. The Lewiston city commission was asked more than a year ago to close a portion of a street to permit construction of an elementary school. The school board purchased the necessary property and the street still hasn't been closed off, for reasons that have never been made public.

To illustrate how these matters of ill-advised secrecy become even worse, members of the school board now apparently have caught the secrecy bug from the city commission. Instead of an apparently routine matter being handled in routine fashion, everyone will be wondering about possible ramifications that merit secret discussion and consideration.

The Lewiston boards should have discovered a point for themselves long ago. They should have realized that secrecy always imparts an unjustified importance to any issue or topic. And the longer a public board strives to maintain secrecy about anything, the more ridiculous the situation becomes.

Perhaps there has been no public explanation of the problem in Lewiston, but it's a good guess that many citizens know unofficially what has caused all the delay and why the commissioners are stalling over closing off the street in question. It's just not possible for five or more persons to keep a secret among themselves for over a year.

Impossible as it is for a board to maintain any secret among its own members, it's even more ridiculous for a public official at a public meeting to insist that something is secret or "off the record." No one yet has been able to explain how something can remain "off the record" when repeated in the presence of a couple of hundred persons.

These boards and public officials disposed toward secrecy should keep one thing in mind at all times: They're handling the public's business—not their own—and the public is entitled to every last bit of information. Any other handling is a violation of public trust.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

BEN CAT, Viet Nam, Jan. 28—Capt. Andrew Erickson spat out the blades of grass he'd been chewing. "Hell," he said, "I guess we can take the daytime, but the nights are pretty long."

ENEMY AT ARM'S LENGTH—It is the regiment's job to keep 44 kilometers of highway 13 open to peaceful traffic. It is the chore of Erickson's special forces unit to keep some 1,200 Viet Cong—regular army and guerrillas—at more or less comfortable arm's length with harassing actions.

FIRE POWER TAKES TOLL—As a result, the headquarters is laced with 10-foot-deep trenches and adorned with sand-bagged strongpoints every several yards. These detritus decorations are a tribute to an enemy whose fire power killed 26 men, including two Americans, in a recent action. A few days before, the special forces strike force lost 32 killed, 27 wounded and 33 missing.

DISPENSARY ALWAYS BUSY—The dispensary, housed in a whitewashed brick barn with a thatched roof, is another strong hint of the nature of the war out here. Under the cool supervision of its only nurse, a pert and pretty Vietnamese named Nguyen Tien, the dispensary treats 45 to 50 minor wounds every day, most of them due to flying shell fragments.

JAIL JOGS MEMORY—There is also special housing provided for Viet Cong prisoners—a home away from home designed to help them remember certain information valuable to their hosts. This is a jail, which in fact is a barbed wire cage about 10 feet square and only two feet high. After a couple of days in these cramped quarters, a prisoner's memory is considerably improved.

PEN AND PENCIL SET
The ballpoint pen industry is strictly the kind of industry we like to read about. There are so many companies in it that no one knows how many there are. There is apparently no end to the number of ballpoint pens people are venturing and able to buy. Price is no object—it runs all the way from 10 cents to $100. Although ballpoints didn't get going until Oct. 29, 1945, if you don't watch out, ballpoints are going to out-sell pencils for the first time in history (a good deal of which, incidentally, has been written in pencil).

STANDARDS OF JUSTICE
The controversy over criminal justice in the United States should be framed by the project being undertaken by the American Bar association, recent charges about police behavior, court practices, etc., have taken place in a curious vacuum produced by a lack of national standards. It has been intensified by supreme court rulings introducing new themes on which local variations can be played. A set of standards would provide a measure for testing such variations.

GETTING READY AGAIN
Residents of the flood-ridden Willamette valley are not alone. Those living in southern Oregon, who have been keeping a wary eye on snowfall, heavy rains and rising temperatures—the willians in the Christmas run-off—cannot be sure it won't happen again this winter. But the odds are against it.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28 (AP)—For a thousand years, the descendants of this century's generations will examine the life of Sir Winston Churchill to find why he was one of the most beloved of the most beloved figures in history. They should have no trouble. They will read his speeches, they will look at television reruns of the chubbiness of the chubby man in a derby poking around battlefields with a cane, they will grin at his grout.

MARQUIS CHILDS WRITES ON WASHINGTON

LONDON, Jan. 28—This capital is preparing for a great pageant in memory of the greatest of an era that already seems part of the remote past.

The death of Sir Winston Churchill had long been expected. Coming at the end of the long, gentle sleep of his last days it was almost an anticlimax.

Normal life of the city has been slowing to a pause. Government offices in Whitehall have been working on details of a state funeral that will be a solemn spectacle such as has not been seen since the death of Queen Victoria, January 22, 1901, at the age of 81.

Hitler said: "I did not come into the world to make men better but make-use of their weaknesses."

Churchill said: "In my country public men are proud to be the servants of the state and would be ashamed to be its masters."

Hitler's regime was the most cruel in history. One of Napoleon's biographers said, "His genius was based on the pedestal of a million corpses."

Churchill said: "In my country public men are proud to be the servants of the state and would be ashamed to be its masters."

The Doctor Says

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
I've received so many questions about Paget's disease osteitis deformans, a combined answer is in order.

Q—My doctor says I have osteoporosis of the spine and a compression fracture. What causes it? Can it be cured?
A—Osteoporosis is a gradual weakening of the bone structure, due to a failure of your body to maintain a calcium balance.

Q—When an affected vertebra collapses you have a compression fracture. This may or may not be painful, depending on whether a nerve is pinched in the process. You should wear a back brace or orthopedic corset until new bone is formed.

Q—Avoid heavy lifting and sleep on a mattress that doesn't sag in the middle. Drink milk three times a day or get your calcium in tablets.

Q—Stay active to prevent further wasting. Fluorides have been shown to aid in preventing osteoporosis.

News Around Idaho

Adoption Bill Approved by Idaho Senate

BOISE, Jan. 28 (AP)—The Idaho senate this week approved a bill an opponent asserted "causes further deterioration of an old law that already is inadequate."

The measure, which now goes to the house, gives probate judges discretion as to whether a petition for adoption shall be referred to the department of public assistance for investigation. Present law requires such referral.

Sen. Ray Higby, D., Madison, was principal spokesman for the bill. He said it would facilitate adoptions and he would be believed probate judges could be depended upon to order investigation where necessary.

Sen. William Roden, R., Ada, and Perry Swisher, R., Bannock, argued against the measure, which was approved 30-7. Roden said that if the bill becomes law he doubted any case would be referred to the department of public assistance.

Swisher said revision of adoption laws was recommended by the children's commission which was created by the 1961 legislature but the 1963 session failed to approve its proposal.

"This bill," he said, "causes further deterioration of an old law that already is inadequate."

Liquor Sale at Airports Bill Is Introduced

BOISE, Jan. 28 (AP)—A bill introduced yesterday in the Idaho senate would authorize sale of liquor by the drink at any airport owned or operated by a county or municipal corporation.

At present airport restaurants may serve liquor only if they are within the boundaries of an incorporated municipality.

GIBBONSVILLE, Jan. 28 (AP)—Elmer Bulmer, 65, died yesterday in a fire that swept through his cabin, where he lived alone, in this remote village 30 miles north of Salmon.

SPENCER, Jan. 28 (AP)—A head-on collision on snow-slicked U. S. 91 north of here yesterday killed a Montana rancher and injured two Canadian couples in the other car. Killed was Charles Prensner, 67, Wisdom, Mont. His death was the 15th on Idaho highways in 1965. Injured were James Bulmer, 67, his wife, Mary, 66, Miss Gress, 54, and his wife, Mary, 56, all Viscount, Saskatchewan, Canada.

BOISE, Jan. 28 (AP)—Accuracy in filling out income tax returns is made more important than ever due to a new machine processing system. Boise internal revenue director Calvin E. Wright said yesterday. Faulty or incomplete returns are automatically rejected, Wright said, and "patchwork" on them must be done by hand later in the year.

BOISE, Jan. 28 (AP)—A former Blackfoot policeman has been arrested on a grand jury indictment charging that he beat three Indian prisoners in Blackfoot city jail with his fists, knees and night stick. The former policeman, Martin E. Johnson, 37, was arrested on the charge in Pocatello yesterday. U. S. Commissioner R. Don Bistline released Johnson on his own recognizance and set arraignment for Feb. 2. The grand jury indictment charges Johnson with "acting under cover of laws of the city of Blackfoot and the state of Idaho" in the assault of the three Fort Hall Indians. The three, who had been arrested on charges of drunkenness, were identified as Lamont Deigle and De Leon Belgie and Llewellyn Fandoah. The indictment against Johnson was one of 18 secret indictments handed down by the grand jury last week, not to be publicly announced until the accused persons were arrested.

POCATELLO, Jan. 28 (AP)—A $205,800 damage suit for injuries a Pocatello girl suffered in an automobile accident Aug. 29, 1963, has been filed by her father in district court. Dr. W. R. Hearn, whose daughter, Kathleen, was injured in the accident, filed the suit against two oil companies, "truck driver" and the guardian of the teen-age girl with whom his daughter was riding when the collision occurred.

Kimberly, Hansen Eye School Merger Plan

KIMBERLY, Jan. 28—A group of 25 Kimberly and Hansen students met this week to discuss the advantages of consolidating the junior and senior high school in the two districts.

The group felt that under consolidation the tax-dollar would offer a better educational program to the students of the two schools. At the present time neither school offers a curriculum which meets the college recommendations.

Under consolidation the existing school facilities in the two districts would handle the present enrollment, and an increase in subjects also would be possible.

At the present time there are classes in each school which could handle more students without over-crowding the class, which in turn would free an instructor to teach an additional school offers a foreign language and a shop class which isn't available in the Kimberly school.

Kimberly teaches a four-year vocational course, advanced speech and science classes and additional English courses which would be of great benefit to many Hansen students.

Combining the two schools would eliminate duplication in many departments, which would make it possible to offer the students a larger range of subjects. This would enable them to obtain suitable employment after graduation from high school without further training.

It would enable the college-bound student to have qualifications to help him meet the competition now being felt in the majority of the nation's colleges. At present there are 138 colleges throughout the United States which require a foreign language for college entrance. This would eliminate any graduate of the Kimberly high school. In too many instances good students do not qualify for enrollment in colleges outside the state of Idaho.

If the schools are consolidated it will give the graduates of the 1966 class a chance to be better qualified for either college or employment, school officials say.

Idaho State Police Officer Is Suspended

POCAHELLO, Jan. 28 (AP) — Veteran Idaho State Police Lieut. Albert Nogo has been relieved from duty as Pocatello station commander it was learned yesterday.

Capt. Clark Hand delivered a letter of suspension to Nogo last night at the state police office.

It said in part, "For conduct unbecoming an Idaho state police officer during the early morning of Jan. 15 you are hereby suspended."

Nogo was a member of state patrol for 17 years. He was the ranking lieutenant in uniform.

The suspension is reported to stem from an altercation between Nogo and a Pocatello police officer in the city police station Jan. 13.

He is, according to reports, the only ISP officer who does not wear a uniform, was sent to Pocatello last week to investigate the situation.

Several Units Back Photos On Licenses

BOISE, Jan. 28 (AP) — Law enforcement agencies and several trade organizations voiced strong support yesterday for a measure that would require that color photographs be affixed to Idaho driver's licenses.

Opposition was voiced, however, by representatives of the Idaho Transport Association, the Idaho State Automobile Association and the Highway Users Association at a public hearing held by the house transportation and defense committee.

The public hearing was ordered by the committee after it received the bill from the senate which approved it last week.

Warner Mills, director of liquor law enforcement, took a nearly neutral stand but pointed out that a photograph on a driver's license wouldn't help his department as the bill is now drawn.

He said the state has an identification card system which is the only one recognized for proof of age.

"If the driver's license was to be used as a substitute," he said, "the other measure would have to be repealed."

Martin Huff, Ada county prosecutor, said the measure would reduce the case load in his office by cutting down on bad checks passed and by providing photographs of persons wanted for non-support. He also said it would cut down the number of younger persons who are driving on "borrowed licenses."

Boise Police Chief Jack Barney said it would help all law enforcement agencies and added the Idaho Peace Officers Association favors the bill.

Also supporting the measure was Tim Brennan of the Idaho Retailers Association. He said it would be a protection against bad check passers and would benefit all law enforcement.

V. E. Barnett, state pharmacy board drug inspector, said color photos on driver's licenses would help limit the abuse of drugs sold where only a signature is required.

Chief objection to the proposal was the cost, reported to be 75 cents, with the photo costing about 35 cents with part of the balance going to the highway fund and the balance to counties.

Ollie M. Arbelvide of the Motor Vehicle Association said the measure would result in "double taxation" particularly in the case of chauffeur's licenses which are issued annually.

"This is an excessive cost and in no way benefits the highway program," he said. Next we'll be asked for blood types and fingerprints.

Ken Miller of the Automobile Association, said the measure will serve no purpose of bettering highway safety and that it has no connection with driving ability.

Senate Okays Legislators' Expense Hike

BOISE, Jan. 28 (AP) — The raise of Idaho legislators' expense allowances to $25 a day was approved by the senate yesterday.

The measure, introduced by House leaders looking on from the galleries.

The $10 increase was approved by the house 33-21 last week and now is ready for Gov. Robert E. Smylie's signature.

House leaders including speaker Pete T. Cennaruska, R. Blaine, sat in the senate visitors' gallery during debate. All of it in favor of the measure.

Both parties held caucuses on the increase immediately before the vote was taken.

"I feel we are entitled to this," said Sen. Arthur P. Murphy, D. Shoshone, on the floor. "If we don't get it, it will be a reflection on the calibre of legislators."

He said "powerful men" in the past had endorsed low pay for legislators to limit them to professional men.

Said Sen. R. H. (Bill) Young, R. Canyon: "It has been my experience, from talking with constituents, that we are not paid enough."

A proposed constitutional amendment that would permit legislators to set their own salaries also has passed the house but has yet to be decided by the senate.

Brazil Will Send Coffee To Viet Nam

RIO DE JANEIRO, Jan. 28 (AP) — The foreign ministry announced last night that Brazil will send coffee and medicine — not troops — to aid the anti-communist war effort in South Viet Nam.

A spokesman said the Brazilian freighter Ventura will leave soon for Saigon with a cargo of coffee and medical supplies requested by the South Vietnamese government in June.

"We assured the plea in a message that said we support the fight against communism and promised that we would send foodstuffs and medicines through the Brazilian Red Cross," the spokesman said.

He said U. S. press reports saying the United States has asked Brazil to send a token military force to South Viet Nam are "completely false."

The troop report also was denied by Major Gen. Pery Bevilacqua, chief of staff of the army forces.

"I know of no approach on this matter," he said. "I would consider it extremely difficult, if not impossible, to send troops, because the country is trying to reduce expenses."

"Brazil is already carrying a heavy burden with the expenses of troops sent to the combat theaters in Gaza, the Congo and Cyprus."

Snow Hampers Cutter Racing

RICHFIELD, Jan. 28 — Snow hampers the Wood River Cutter Race Association races Sunday at Jerome and caused a forfeit by Andy Kendall's team to Kenneth Montes. Kendall was snowed in at Picabo and couldn't get out for the races.

Bud Roseberry chalked up a win over Tom Webb; Bob Robinson over Ernest Stevens; William E. Swan over Darnell and Haslem; Cotton Riley over Ernest Watts; Hap Oates over Pat Tschannen; Howard Haslem over Thompson and Walton, and Kenneth Daniels over Heber Kelly.

Races this Sunday afternoon will be held at Bliss.

BEST THURSDAY NIGHT MOVIES

"That Forsyte Woman" (1949) Errol Flynn, Greer Garson and Janet Leigh (9:30 p.m. KMVT) — Rather long and on the cliche side. Greer falls in love with the man who is engaged to her niece. Acting is good. Based on Galsworthy's "A Man of Property."

"The Bounty Hunter" (1954) Randolph Scott and Dolores Costello (10:30 p.m. KSL) — Typical, fast-paced Randolph Scott saboteur. Okay for western fans.

"Gorilla at Large" (1956) Cameron Mitchell, Anna Bancroft and Lee J. Cobb (11:15 p.m. KBOI) — Don't let the top-name cast fool you. It's just another run-of-the-mill murder yarn. One of Bancroft's earlier film efforts.

Gooding, Musers Place Title Hopes on Line as Murtaugh Seeks Revenge

The week-end of decision arrives for Gooding and Camas County and the Murtaugh Red Devils seek a bit of revenge as the conference championship plots start to thicken in Magic Valley. Gooding, which saw a large part of its rebounding strength leave with the transfer of 6-foot, 5-inch Gene Wilkins to Bliss, draws the now-favored Jerome Tigers Friday night and follows up Saturday by hosting Glens Ferry, which will hardly forget Gooding, the team that ruined an otherwise perfect record.

The starting lineup also underwent a minor reshuffling this week with senior Alan Brown replacing Junior Ned Williams. "Brown earned it with his rebounding against Pocatello Saturday night," Oatyn explained. Other than that the Bruins will carry nearly the same look.

Going into the week-end Kirk Williams continues to lead in scoring with a 17.7 average and 18.1 in league play. He is hitting a total .807 percentage from the four line in league play and has a hit .38 in 60 at bats. Williams is second on both counts with 698 for the year and .725 for the conference.

Stover pulled in 51 rebounds in two games last week and hit his total to 169 for the year. He has 72 offensive and 97 defensive rebounds. His offensive total leads the Southern Idaho conference and he is second to Nampa's Tom Batra (116) off the defensive board.

George Smith tops the team with 43 fouls for the year. Williams is hitting .407 from the field overall and .394 for SJC section.

Closed TV System to Air Fights

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 28 (AP)—Three leading U.S. boxing promoters and a closed-circuit television company joined Wednesday to present national bouts every other Tuesday.

The organization plans to sell exclusive one-city rights to local promoters, who will augment the national bout with local cards.

Fred Brooks of New York, president of SportsVision, announced the formation of Fight of the Fortnight, Inc. Promoter Chris Dundee, Miami, is president.

George Barnass, Los Angeles, and Irving Schenwald, Chicago, secretary-treasurer.

The Delaware corporation, with offices in New York, hopes to stage its first show within two or three months, Brooks said. It has commitments with 25 promoters now and hopes to start with 30 cities.

Promoters will buy rights for a flat fee — $1,800 for a major city, $1,200 for a smaller one. Fees will include mechanical costs, promotion and other assignments. In previous closed-circuit arrangements, local franchisers paid these costs and gave 50 per cent of the gross to the national company.

Old Hat Wins Handicap in Final Yards

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 28 (AP)—Old Hat came on fast in the final yards to win the $31,400 Columbus handicap Wednesday, 20-15 1/2 at Hialeah park Wednesday.

Tomahawk, the 3-5 favorite, finished sixth in the field of 18.

Old Hat wrestled the lead from Miami Mood midway in the stretch run and was three-quarters of a length in front at the wire, and Steeple Jill third and Songster fourth.

Windsor Lady got up to fifth, followed by Tosmah, Licensee Plate, Dennis Belle and Grecian Princess and Tune-Swept.

Tosmah, champion filly for the past two years, packed light weight of 128 pounds. Jockey Sam Dummett said he had good position all the way and no excuses.

Out of the money only one in 14 starts, Tosmah was second at the last mile but apparently tired under her burdensome weight in her first start since last Oct. 3.

Old Hat, owned by Stanley Conrad and ridden by Donald Brumfield, carried second high weight of 124 pounds and ran the seven furlongs in 1:33 1/2.

Old Hat was third in the betting and returned $12.60, $6 and $3.60 Miami mood, under jockey paid $16.40 and $7.20, while Steeple Jill, under John Ruane, 118 pounds, was an entry with Songster and paid $3 to show.

Xavier Loses Top Scorer to Injury
CINCINNATI, Jan. 28 (AP)—Xavier University's basketball team, trailing against a highly touted opponent all season, sustained a blow Wednesday when it was announced that Steve Thomas will be lost for the remainder of the year.

Thomas, with a 30.2 scoring average, was the nation's fifth leading scorer going into last Saturday night's game against Duquesne. He incurred a knee injury in a fall and Wednesday it was determined an operation will be necessary.

Last season, as a junior, he averaged 30 points a game, the seventh best in major college basketball.

34 Horses Die In Track Fire

PAWTHUSKA, Okla., Jan. 28 (AP)—A fire which started in a pile of hay at the Osage Downs racetrack barn Wednesday destroyed 34 race horses valued at over $100,000 and did an estimated $100,000 in other damage.

Forty-one thoroughbred and quarter horses were housed in the barn. Handlers were alerted to save only seven. Many died in the stalls, refusing to flee to safety, and several were brought outside but broke away and returned to the barn.

An employee at the track said the fire was reaching the roof over the hay room in the barn before it was discovered.

The seven animals saved were all quarter horses whose stalls were near the barn door.

An estimated $15,000 in equipment was lost in addition to the barn.

Deer Removal on Winter Range Is More Humane Than Feeding

BOISE, Jan. 28—Moving portions of a deer herd from a depleted winter range to "greener pastures" such as the project now under way in the Wood River section near Sun Valley is a "humane effort to ease the immediate problem and give relief to individual animals," the Idaho fish and game department explained today.

Levi Mohler, chief of game management, pointed out that emergency feeding of deer through kindness than it would help survive the period of deep snows.

He disclosed that 56 deer had been removed from the Wood River Springs creek earlier and moved to relatively snow-free ranges in southwestern Idaho where competition from other game animals is practically nil.

A sudden switch away from all natural foods to hay often kills more deer than will the otherwise from malnutrition when there is not enough browse materials to go around on the winter range.

Most people cannot understand why these animals "subsist in parks on steady diets of hay while wild deer must shun hay as poison. The reason is that all cud-chewing animals need or desire specialized bacteria and one-celled organisms called protozoa in their digestive processes. Different kinds of bacteria and protozoa are needed for each plant species an animal may be eating.

Captives do not have been subjected to unnatural feed gradually, sometimes from infancy, and wild deer on a feed lot usually are able to mix natural browse materials available on the winter range with hay or other artificial feed. Eventually, such animals build up enough specific bacteria and protozoa to digest hay. It nevertheless is a below standard, subsistence diet for them.

Heavy snows on the Warm Springs creek wintering areas have cured the sparse shrubs and plants normally available and artificially fed deer would be unable to mix the hay with natural feed. Thus many of the deer will die unless moved to more open winter ranges.

Bold Lad Is "Big Horse" At Hialeah

MIAMI, Jan. 28 (AP)—The big horse at Hialeah this winter is a strapping 3-year-old named Bold Lad.

Regally bred and standing a good 16 hands, 44 inches tall, Bold Lad, gets the royal treatment at the Wheatley stable's barn. His stall, No. 30, is just outside the stable office and trainer Bill Wintrey gives him as much personal attention as any champion gets.

When Bold Lad takes his morning workout, Wintrey has exercise rider Tommy Quinn in the saddle but the trainer always goes along on another horse and watches every move.

Back in the stable area, Wintrey helps to sponge Bold Lad and clean and rub him down. Then a purple blanket with the letters "WJ" is draped over his big frame and Bold Lad is walked quickly for 10 or 15 minutes.

The Bahamas next Wednesday will be his first start. Wintrey said, "We're confident of the Florida Flamingo in the 2 1/2 erlgades stakes at the Flamingo distance 1 1/2 miles on Feb. 11, the seven-furlong Hibiscus stakes on Feb. 22. Wintrey hasn't decided about the Florida derby in Gulfstream in April.

2 Air Force Cagers Cut From Team
AIR FORCE ACADEMY, Colo., Jan. 28 (AP)—Two members of the U. S. Air Force academy varsity basketball squad were dropped from the roster Wednesday.

Bob Peck, sports publicity director, said he did not know whether they were implicated in the current cheating scandal.

The players were Scott Ely, junior guard from Wilmette, Ill., and Jerry Yanke, senior guard from San Antonio, Tex.

The two players' names were omitted from a roster released for the game against Brigham Young University Friday and University of Wyoming Saturday, both at the academy.

Peck said he did not know the reason for the omissions and other academy officials would not comment.

Basketball coach Bob Spear said earlier "If any of my boys are involved in this scandal, I don't know about it."

More than 30 football players have been reported among 100 or more cadets reportedly involved in the cheating scandal, which grew out of the sale of stolen examination papers.

They have not been identified.

St. Louis Ends Losing Streak
ST. LOUIS, Jan. 28 (AP)—St. Louis Hawks caught fire in the second half to register a 117-100 victory over the New York Knicks Wednesday night to snap a four-game losing streak.

The Hawks overwhelmed the Knicks in the last two quarters after fighting for their life in the first half. St. Louis struggled to a 57-49 halftime lead. It was the fourth straight loss for New York.

New York led by as much as 10 points early in the game but saw the lead dwindle on efforts by Pettit and rookie Paul Silas in the second quarter. The Hawks quickly increased their lead in the third period, leading by as much as 13 at one point. Silas got one of his 11 points in that second period.

Meredith Signs Long-Term Pact
DALLAS, Jan. 28 (AP)—Don Meredith, the injured No. 1 quarterback of the Dallas Cowboys of the National Football League, signed a new contract "for more than a year."

Cowboy officials who announced the signing, would not reveal the money involved except to say that Meredith accepted a boost in pay.

The Dallas NFL club said Meredith had recovered from a knee cartilage operation, that his shoulder separation was responding to treatment.

Patterson May Be Millionaire, but He's Still Hungry

MARLBORO, N. Y., Jan. 28 (AP)—Floyd Patterson may be a millionaire but he still considers himself a hungry fighter. "You can be hungry for more things than money," Patterson said Wednesday at his training camp. "There are things like vindication, victory and things like that. I feel these things are enough to make me hungry. I can't be considered hungry for money any more. Hunger is something you can't create. It has to be there."

When they talk about hungry fighters in boxing, they usually mean someone like George Chuvalo who, although he has held the Canadian heavyweight title, never has made it to the Toronto fighter gets his big chance Monday at Madison Square Garden against the only man who won—and lost—the heavyweight title twice.

Patterson never has seen Chuvalo fight but he has formed an impression of his opponent while meditating at San Carlo, Tony Canzoneri's old camp. "He is very strong and aggressive," said Patterson. "He throws short, sharp punches. He takes an excellent punch and he is a very good puncher himself. He likes to move ahead and I always find it better to move forward."

"One of us is going to have to give ground. I have tried to go back but it hasn't worked out too well. A man can change his style but when he becomes overtired or hurt he always will go back to the way he used to fight."

How does Patterson rate the 1965 Patterson with the 21-year-old Patterson who last fought in the Garden in 1958 with Hurricane Jackson?

"I am a lot stronger and I punch harder," he said. "I may have had more technique then. But I am more settled in my punching. I was a bit of a lighter worker for the title than after I got it. And I am better now than when I was the champion because I am more active."

"This will be my fourth fight in 13 months. I am sharper now. I have more confidence and I feel that I punch better. Inactivity hurt me because I depend so much on sharp reflexes."

"When I retire I want to stay in boxing in some capacity. But the big things now are to get another shot at Sonny Liston. I guess I could get vindication by whipping Cassius Clay because he beat Liston."

And how would Patterson fight Liston, the man who knocked him out twice in the first round?

"I'd run and stay away for awhile."

Such expenditure is both a vote of confidence in baseball by the club and a great service to the city. The club should be forced to fold and right now that doesn't seem likely unless the individual towns collapse in the next few years. Jaycee park will remain in good repair for the benefit of other activities. It would be sad indeed to see Twin Falls lose its baseball park to Boise.

In the meantime, the Magic Valley baseball club has reached a very solid, and very heady, plateau.

Right now the eyes of Magic Valley high schools are focused on the primary and secondary schools. The local point is 6-foot-6-inch Gene Wilkins, who left Boise to live with his father in Bliss.

Northside conference and fifth district coaches are particularly interested.

Wilkins could turn Bliss into a championship team. All they need is that big boy inside," says Jerry Christensen, Richfield coach.

"I know Wilkins didn't score much in crossing," says Eugene, mentor Al Glendard. "But he is a league boy that tall gets a lot of points by accident."

The crux of the matter seems to be some grades right now. Wilkins has to pick up sub-par marks forwarded to Bliss by George.

Gooding, meanwhile, hit with second major disaster of the year. Mike Hall moved to Boise and appears currently to have a chance at attaining the 2000 mark.

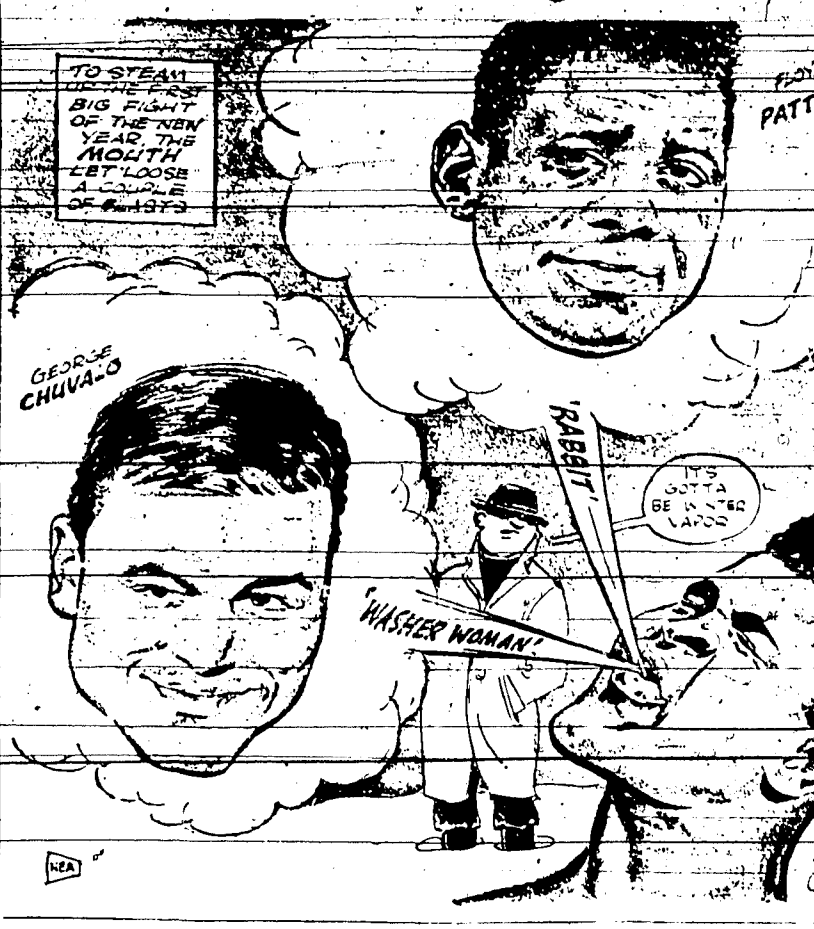

It appeared headed for 2000 in January.

January Magic Valley golfers are thinking about the two Sundays ago when the one with all the fog was jammed onto the Buhl for an afternoon of pastime.

Bliss Sunday saw one of the most interesting things occur. Fred Moner, Twin Falls, was being out on the fourth hole when the conference of the lakes springs and Snake River. Masoner's hands were understandably cold so when he was out on the follow through he stopped and the driver hit. It plopped well out into the stream.

The wood was recovered, but before it cut one and one and quite a bit of rowing out of the foursome's after-

Rookie Starter Hits 26 Points As Bobcats Belt Vandals 84-64

BOZEMAN, Mont., Jan. 28 (AP)—Sophomore Tom Storm hit 26 points in his first starting assignment with Montana State college to lead the Bobcats to an 84-64 Big Sky conference win over Idaho Wednesday night. Montana trailed for most of the first half after a slim lead in the first two minutes and a tie midway in the period. The Bobcats took the lead at 46-45 with 16 minutes left when Idaho hit a cold spell.

The Vandals hit only six points in one eight-minute freeze. Idaho had hit 44 per cent from the field in the first half but slipped and averaged only 34 per cent for the entire game. Montana State hit 43 per cent from the field.

The 6-foot, 4-inch Storm led the Bobcats to a 75-66 advantage and then boosted this to 81-56 two minutes before the final buzzer. Idaho added eight points in the final two minutes.

Montana State coach Roger Craft started Storm and center Lynn Klassert rather than regulars Don Rae and Jim Moffitt. Kermit Young, leading MSC scorer, hit 19 points, one below his average.

Jerry Skaffe was the sparkplug for Idaho, hitting 22 points. The Vandals had maintained leads of two to seven throughout most of the first half. They led at the intermission 38-36.

With four minutes remaining the Bobcats had gained a 17-point lead, allowing coach Roger Craft to send in his reserve squad who made the 20-point margin by the final buzzer.

The Nankai Hawks interpret the $10,000 they received from the Giants as a "sort of bonus and not trade money," Niyama said. But the Giants insist that Murakami is Giant property since they purchased his contract outright last November.

Niyama admitted the Nankai club may have misinterpreted the deal but he emphasized that the Hawks "did not agree that Murakami will pitch for the Giants after the coming season."

In San Francisco, Giants vice president Charles Feeney explained, "We brought over three players from Japan last year with the option to purchase. We exercised the option on Murakami and we have the cancelled check."

"We thought we were being gracious to the Hawks' owner when we agreed to let Murakami choose where he wants to play in 1966 if he does not make the Giants."

"We told them that in such circumstances, he could decide whether to play for one of our minor league teams or return to Japan."

The triumph boosted the Canadians' lead over the Black Hawks to four points. Goalies Gump Worsley of Montreal and Denis DeJordy of Chicago battled through a scoreless tie for 56 minutes, 14 seconds before Talbot fired the puck into the Black Hawks' net with 4:46 to play.

Talbot hit again three minutes, 21 seconds later.

Covey took a cut from his 1964 pay, estimated at $30,000. Through 1964 he was handicapped by recurring injuries to his feet and legs. In 130 games he had 80 hits, 18 were homers. In 1963 he had 44 homers, tying for the league lead.

Royal Fights Pros to Keep Top Receiver

AUSTIN, Tex., Jan. 28 (AP)—Texas Coach Darrell Royal said Wednesday he had learned that George Sauer, Jr., the Longhorns top pass receiver, may pass up his final year of college eligibility and sign a pro football contract with the New York Jets of the American Football League.

Royal indicated he may try to delay the move a year.

He said Jet Coach Webb Ewbank and Sonny Werblin, one of the team's owners, have "given me their word they won't sign him without my consent, and I have assured them I won't give my consent."

Sauer's father, former football coach at Baylor, is director of player personnel for the Jets.

"I feel I have an obligation to college football not to give my consent," Royal said. "I'm not going to give my okay because it opens the door for everybody to sign up early. Once they start signing boys who become eligible year there is nothing to stop them from dropping back another year."

Sauer was eligible for the draft—and picked as a future Jet—because the class in which he entered school finished up its four years this season. He was redshirted his sophomore year at Texas.

Whatever happens, Royal said he did not think Sauer would return to the squad next season.

"They've already done the harm but if he comes back, I'd like to have him," he said.

"I think his professional career is another year away yet. After that I hope he gets a baseball bat full of money," Royal added.

'67 Pan-America Games Stalled By Lack of Funds

WINNIPEG, Jan. 28 (UPI)—The Pan-American games scheduled here in 1967 are reported in jeopardy because of a multi-million dollar operational deficit which nobody wants to assume. The 15 separate cities and municipalities in metropolitan Winnipeg are maintaining a wait-and-see attitude toward their respective financial commitments.

They want to know how much the federal government will contribute. Federal health minister J. W. Lamont, who is responsible for coordinating the games, is due here in February for discussion of costs with game officials.

Mayor Joseph Guay of St. Boniface wants the health minister to guarantee the games' entire net cost, estimated at three million dollars.

"The whole question rests with her," Guay said. "Our salvation would be for Miss Lamont to give the Pan-American Games committee the entire grant. This would solve the problem."

Mayor C. N. Kishner of West Kildonan said Miss Lamont should underwrite the difference between the original cost estimate of $1,380,000 and the revised estimate of 3 million dollars.

The city of St. Vital says it does not want to contribute to the games at all.

A pledge of $265,000 was earmarked by Winnipeg proper as its municipal contribution.

The remaining 11 municipalities are marking time and remain uncommitted. On the basis of original estimates the remaining municipalities—all but Winnipeg—would be responsible for raising only $105,000. Since the budget deficit estimate has risen to 3 million dollars, the sum which these municipalities would have to raise now has climbed to something over $300,000.

No one is sure where it would come from.

A member of the St. James executive council, Douglas C. Croff, said Winnipeg was in danger of losing the games unless the financial stalemate was settled in a hurry.

Croff, ex-president of the Winnipeg Chamber of Commerce, said a recent meeting of the committee "can not begin the work until the cost of the games is completely underwritten."

Campbell Sent To Baltimore

ST. PAUL, MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 28 (AP)—The Minnesota Vikings turned linebacker John Campbell over to the Baltimore Colts Wednesday as part of the deal that brought Larry Kramer, Nebraska tackle, to Minnesota.

Kramer, a future choice of the Colts in the 1963 National Football league draft, signed with the Vikings Jan. 14, after the Colts gave Minnesota permission to bargain with him. The Denver Broncos of the American Football League also were after Kramer.

Under the agreement, the Vikings still owe the Colts a draft choice.

Texan Seeks Law On Early Pacts

AUSTIN, Tex., Jan. 28 (AP)—Rep. Jack Crain, Nocona, a University of Texas star halfback in the 1940s, is co-sponsor of a bill introduced in the Texas house Wednesday to prohibit premature signing of college athletes to professional contracts.

The measure's introduction followed criticism of some professional football clubs for signing college athletes with eligibility remaining.

Professional contracts signed before an athlete's eligibility has run out would be nullified by the bill, which also would bar the pro team from recovering any payment or gift to an athlete for signing.

A team violating the terms of the proposed legislation would be barred from any athletic contest in Texas if the bill becomes law.

OSC Expands Search for Grid Coach

CORVALLIS, Jan. 28 (AP)—Oregon State university widened its search for a new head football coach with announcement that Bob Holloway of Michigan and Homer Beatty of Los Angeles State were scheduled interviews Thursday for the job.

The 11-member athletic board interviewed two candidates Wednesday. Oregon State assistant Bob Zelinski appearing in the morning and Idaho head coach Dee Andros in the afternoon.

Athletic Director Slatk Gull, heading the search for a coach to replace Tommy Prothro who resigned to go to UCLA, gave no hint of how many others have been invited to appear.

Holloway, senior assistant at Michigan to Bump Elliott, is a 1950 Michigan graduate, and previously coached at Maine and at Eastern Michigan college.

Beatty, a star back at the University of Southern California in 1955 and 1956, coached at junior colleges in Bakersfield and Santa Ana. His Los Angeles State teams the past two years won 18 and lost 1.

The athletic board, conducting the interviews, is made up of faculty, student and alumni representatives.

WHY DO MORE PEOPLE BUY WITH FULL CONFIDENCE

At Union Motors

IF A MEANINGFUL GUARANTEE is important to you... then Union Motors is the place for you to buy your cars. Too often a guarantee or warranty you receive with the purchase of a used car isn't worth the paper it is written on simply because the dealer has no intention of making it good. We furnish auto buyers with a guarantee that is meaningful and is backed by our good reputation which demands that we stand by it under every circumstance.
