U.S., South Vietnamese Planes Hit Red Military Facilities Second Time

SAIGON, Feb. 8 (UPI)—U. S. and South Vietnamese fighter-bombers today blasted military installations inside communist North Viet Nam for the second day. Gen. Nguyen Khanh, South Vietnamese military spokesman, said that 21 Vietnamese Skyraiders bombed and strafed communist installations at Vinh Linh, with

Soviets Label U.S. Attacks As "Barbaric"

MOSCOW, Feb. 8 (UPI)—The Soviets warned today that U. S. retaliatory bombing raids against communist North Viet Nam could have the "most serious consequences."

The Soviet government newspaper Izvestia in the first major Soviet reaction to the air raids, branded them "barbaric" and a "gross act of aggression."

The U. S. embassy prepared for possible protests, demonstrations as a result of the strikes Sunday against military installations in North Viet Nam in retaliation for guerrilla attacks on the U. S. base at Pleiku.

A senior Chinese communist military leader in Peking said Red China would not stand idly by while "U. S. imperialists" extended the war to communist North Viet Nam. Peking issued a similar warning during the Tonkin Gulf crisis last summer.

Izvestia did not say what action the Kremlin would take in the wake of Soviet Premier Alexei Kosygin's pledge that Russia would go to the aid of North Viet Nam in the event of aggression by "U. S. imperialists."

Earlier, the Soviet communist party newspaper Pravda had denounced the U. S. raids as "brutal military provocation."

Congress Praises Fast Retaliation

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8 (UPI)—Congressmen generally were unanimous today in praising swift U. S. retaliation against communist North Viet Nam for the sneak attack on U. S. bases.

But there were demands for an explanation of why the Red attacks caught U. S. troops off guard.

"It appears we were caught flat-footed," said Sen. Clifford P. Case, R., N. J. "This needs explanation."

The views of Case, a member of the senate foreign relations committee, were echoed by Senate Republican Whip Thomas H. Ruckle, Calif., who said "why the sneak attack was successful at all remains to be answered."

Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara told a news conference yesterday that the U. S. base near Pleiku sits on a plateau covered with shrubs and foliage which makes ideal cover for guerrillas. He said both he and the joint chiefs of staff agreed it probably would be impossible to protect such an area from night-time attacks.

"It was the type of attack we must expect more of in this type of war," McNamara said.

The attack by communist mortars was set up within two hours of a mile from the U. S. base under cover of darkness and that Red forces managed to get machine guns within 30 yards of one complex.

Sen. Hugh Scott, R., Pa., called this an "odd admission." He said the armed forces committee of both houses "should press for further inquiry into questions raised."

Senators and Democrats, however, agreed in praising the U. S. retaliation which followed the communist attack by 12 hours.

Ruckle said it was evidence that "whether anyone likes it or not, America is in South Viet Nam at her request to help her preserve her independence, and she is not going to be driven out or run away."

In a special message to congress, Johnson said that while the federal government can do much, a beautiful America will require the effort of government at every level of business and private groups.

Soviet Link With Raids Puzzles U.S.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8 (UPI)—U. S. officials are deeply puzzled about the Soviet Union's link—if any—with the week-end wave of communist guerrilla attacks on American installations in South Viet Nam. Was the operation encouraged and supported by the Soviet Union as part of its current maneuver to gain influence with North Vietnamese leaders? Did Red China and the men in Hanoi conspire to set a trap of embarrassment for Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin, timed to his arrival in Hanoi Saturday?

Or did the North Vietnamese merely react to attacks on their own as a pressure play to squeeze more military aid out of Kosygin than he planned to offer them?

At the moment Washington authorities generally believe that the pressure-play theory is correct. They think the North Vietnamese pulled a fast one on Kosygin in the hope of getting a bigger slice of Soviet help.

They reason that the timing of the attacks in South Viet Nam early yesterday morning, a few hours after Kosygin's arrival in Hanoi, could not have been accidental. Somebody wanted to prove something.

The Soviet Union which has trade and other interests in the West, would probably not see any gain and might see some loss in being identified with the killing of Americans in South Viet Nam.

Kosygin and Soviet communist party secretary Leonid Brezhnev only a week ago sent word to Washington that the Soviet government was interested in President Johnson's proposal for an exchange of visits. This was taken here as an encouraging indication of Soviet interests in improving relations with the United States.

Dangerously heating up the war in Viet Nam would clearly run contrary to such an interest. See SOVIET, Page 2, Column 5

Contract Let For Jerome Postoffice

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8 (UPI)—The U. S. Postal Service has awarded a contract to build a new postoffice in Jerome, Idaho, according to Postmaster General John A. Gronouski.

The building will be at East First avenue and Adams street in Jerome at a cost of $68,125. It will be leased to the postal department for 10 years, with renewal options running for 20 years.

The bid was one of 10 received by the postal department. The building will have 4,307 square feet inside, and 16,675 feet of parking space. The present building has 2,808 square feet inside.

Completion is expected seven months after approval of plans.

The settlement here left only Miami and Galveston, Tex., as major holdout ports and international Longshoremen's association (ILA) President Thomas W. Gleason planned to meet today with the union's executive committee to consider President Johnson's plea to end the strike at ports where contracts have been signed.

The Philadelphia Marine Trade Association (PMTA) and ILA local 1299 concluded a settlement, including a guaranteed annual wage raise, back after days of virtually continuous bargaining.

Secretary of Labor James J. Ransohoff, weary and unhappy, announced the agreement shortly before 11 p.m. at the end of 33 hours of nonstop negotiating.

"I am hopeful that work will be resumed at all ports where settlements have been reached," said Ransohoff. The government's No. 1 negotiator, he returned to Washington, but said he may fly south to Galveston or Miami where the negotiations remain at an impasse.

Tax Action Group Says Blick, Murphy Misleading Taxpayers

Sens. George Blick and Jack Murphy are deliberately misleading taxpayers on a referendum issue that has been mentioned in connection with the pending sales tax bill, declares the Tax Action for Growth committee. In a long statement printed in the Sunday edition of the Times-News, the pair attempted to explain the logic of tying a referendum vote to the sales tax. They also contended that if a referendum wasn't tied to the sales tax bill and a referendum developed, the state would be without revenue for six months or more.

So, declares the TAG committee, in the first place, the committee points out that the constitution provides for referendum vote, but does not say that a referendum shall "under such conditions and such manner as may be provided by acts of the legislature." In their statement, Blick and Murphy blamed the constitution for the referendum.

Accepting the senators' claim that the state could be without revenue for six months if a referendum would suspend the pending a vote, the TAG committee declares, "That is not right. It's amazing that state senators could be so wrong."

Legislative provisions for a referendum provide that a measure so referred to the public law when it is approved by the public. The TAG committee further points out Idaho's supreme court held that a law which has held an emergency clause shall remain in effect until the end of the session.

The committee continues, "It's plain that any sales tax law passed by the legislature on or before the 30th day of the session would become effective on any date decided by the legislature and would be effective and unless it was repealed by referendum vote of the people on election day in November 1966 under no stretch of imagination could the state without sales tax revenue longer than from the legislature until the legislature meets on the following Jan. 1, more than two months."

Blick and Murphy are becoming increasingly obstinate. Senator Blick, major Murphy wants a tax and they're casting desperately for ways and means of either preventing such a law from coming into effect or the TAG committee.

Most of the argument for the proposal "came from border counties," Blick stated. It is these counties whose boundary lines adjoin other states which are usually hardest hit by operators who bid on projects, accept payment and turn out poor work, or none at all, in return.

This proposal has a tendency to take care of the border situation. Contractors affected by the bill would have to file a bond of $1,000 and pay whatever fees the contractor's board might deem reasonable in order to obtain a license.

The tentative county budget totaling $2,772,647 has been prepared by the county commissioners. The proposal is up $98,992 over last year's figure.

A public hearing on the proposed county budget will be held at 7:30 p.m. Feb. 15. The budget prepared by the county commissioners is $78,604 higher than the one adopted last year.

No opinion was voiced by noon Monday on the tentative county budget during the public hearing held in the county courthouse.

The hearing is scheduled to run all day, but W. W. Lowery, chairman of the county commissioners, reported that little interest in the budget had been evidenced by citizens.

Yank Saved Base From Further Ruin

PLEIKU, South Viet Nam, Feb. 8 (UPI)—Things were bad at Pleiku, but they probably would have been worse if Spec. 5 cl. Jesse A. Pyle hadn't been alert.

Pyle, a Korean war veteran from Marina, Calif., was on duty early yesterday at a listening post a few yards from the American soldiers' quarters at the Pleiku air base.

Pyle apparently heard noises after Viet Cong infiltrators slipped past South Vietnamese guards outside the compound. The sentry surprised the guerrillas as they were planting explosive charges and began firing.

The guerrillas immediately detonated their charges, and Pyle caught the full blast of one of the explosions. He died while being taken to the infirmary.

The Viet Cong followed up with a mortar attack. In all, eight Americans were killed and more than 100 wounded. U. S. officers said many more probably would have been killed if Pyle had not surprised the Communists before they had all their explosives in place.

"We were lucky. God, we were lucky," said a U. S. army major who had been sleeping in the officers' quarters nearby.

Pyle was married to a Korean he met in 1952 while he was fighting the communists there. They have three daughters, aged 11, 6 and 2. Pyle was transferred to Viet Nam last November from Ft. Ord, Calif. His family remained at home in Marina, near Ft. Ord. Mrs. Pyle wept at the news.

Idaho Police Investigate 2 Homicides

By The Associated Press
Police pressed investigations today into the violent deaths of a woman in Boise and a man in Pocatello.

In Boise, police searched for the last man to see alive 43-year-old Eugene Ruth E. Alms before he was killed. She was found nude and severely injured, she crawled on her hands and knees along a roadside and died.

In Pocatello, police found a man, Indian Reservation, crime control member Alan Richard Tindore, 33, for questioning in the shooting death of his nephew, Mike Diego, 26.

Burns will killed Sunday at a party at the home of a friend, Pete Morgan. He died of a single bullet wound to the head from a .38 caliber revolver. Diego, a Red Cross volunteer, died from a knife wound to the chest.

Tindore told him the weapon was fired accidentally while he was demonstrating it.

At Boise, Mrs. Alms was found Sunday morning in a field of Govan field by a 21-year-old force men heading to the desert on a patrol.

The 43-year-old divorcee, who was nude and broken, had her face battered, said Ada County Sheriff Paul W. Brown.

An autopsy shows Mrs. Alms had suffered a severe skull fracture, according to Ada County Sheriff Edgar D. Parke. He attributed the death at least partly to exposure.

Parke said Mrs. Alms was found nude through a search of a brushy area. She was found crawling 153 feet on her hands and knees along the roadside.

Senate Okays Rail Crossing Sign Bill

BOISE, Feb. 8 (UPI)—The senate approved today a bill which could result in installation of highway stop signs at all railroad grade crossings in Idaho. Sen. Perry Swisher, R., Bannock, sponsor, said the measure "will save lives" but it was criticized on grounds it failed to provide adequate legal protection against arbitrary action. The bill permits closing of grade crossings but gives the right of court appeal if a person can prove economic loss from such closings. The vote was 25-15 and the measure now goes to the house.

The bill originally made installation of stop signs mandatory at all grade crossings. It was amended to require such installations unless public officials determine that existence of a stop sign would be more of a hazard than its absence.

"This bill," Swisher said, "would be a major step in highway safety. It would save a good many lives in Idaho."

Sen. William Dee, D., Ida., said that although he agreed with the object of the bill as far as saving lives was concerned, he feared its potential effect. He said the highway board could order a crossing closed and an appeal from such an order might be difficult.

"Nothing is more deadly," Dee said, "than a bureaucratic decision from which there can be no appeal."

Swisher said the bill does permit appeal if economic loss can be shown. And he said an existing statute permits crossings to be closed by action of the public utilities commission and does not require appeal.

Sen. George L. Blick, R., Twin Falls, said the same bill was presented in the 1963 session, passed the senate and was killed by the house.

"Most of the argument for the proposal 'came from border counties,'" Blick stated. It is these counties whose boundary lines adjoin other states which are usually hardest hit by operators who bid on projects, accept payment and turn out poor work, or none at all, in return.

This proposal has a tendency to take care of the border situation. Contractors affected by the bill would have to file a bond of $1,000 and pay whatever fees the contractor's board might deem reasonable in order to obtain a license.

Farm Leader To Discuss Tax Proposal

Nail Rydahl, president of Idaho Farm Bureau federation, will present a brief sketch of Farm Bureau's tax proposal at the Twin Falls legislative luncheon Tuesday noon, at the American Legion hall.

Rydahl, a potato farmer from St. Anthony, will show the approximate cost for various families in each wage range.

The farm leader's presentation will explain how the broad base income tax would more equitably distribute the tax load and encourage the entrance of industry while raising as much money as a 3 per cent sales tax without an excessive cost of collection.

The Farm Bureau proposal is the result of a year long study by a state tax committee with the help of committees from each county Farm Bureau.

He was born March 18, 1913 in LeMars, Ia., and came to Hailey when he was a baby with his parents Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Howes. His father was Blaine county sheriff for several years.

He was graduated from the Hailey high school and received the purple heart in the African campaign in World War II. He attended the Catholic church in Hailey. He married Anne Teresa Rooney, Hailey, December, 1946, in Jerome.

Survivors include his widow, two sons: David Howes, Portland, Ore., and Patrick Howes, Hailey, a daughter, Kathleen Marie Howes, Hailey, his mother, Mrs. Marie L. Howes, Hollywood, Calif., and a sister, Mrs. Beatrice Parks, Hollywood.

Funeral services are pending at the Bird funeral home.

Idaho State Adult Study Opens Today

The Idaho State university adult education classes will open this week in Twin Falls senior high school. Registration for the courses will be held each evening at 6:30 p.m. at the senior high school. Classes will begin at 7 p.m. daily.

On Tuesday evening the classes in session will include general methods in secondary schools, U.S. history since 1865, mathematics for elementary teachers, a library science course, bibliography and references and vocational guidance. At this meeting a time will be set for the remainder of the semester.

Wednesday classes will include major British writers, English composition, principles of accounting and philosophy of education.

On Thursday two drivers' training classes are scheduled. The advanced course is for people who have had experience in teaching driving. The other course is for men or women who expect to teach drivers' training in the future. Educational psychology and physical education for elementary schools are also scheduled. Advanced English grammar will be offered if an instructor is approved by the university.

The professors will begin their lectures at 7 p.m. Tuesday. The classes of Boyd R. Lowe will be registering the students at 6:30 p.m. Fee for two semester hour courses is $25 and for a three semester hour course the fee is $37.50. Those who wish to attend the classes for their own enrichment rather than for credit pay one-half these prices.

Winds will be moderate easterly or southeasterly today and shift to west or northwest tonight or early Tuesday.

Fair and cool dry weather prevailed in all sections yesterday and a light night. Afternoon temperatures yesterday reached the low 40s in southwestern valleys and the upper 30s in Magic Valley. Low today 18 to 21 in Magic Valley.

There are still 20 inches of snow on the ground at Fairfield and one inch at the atomic energy site west of Idaho Falls.

FIVE-DAY FORECAST
The next five-day period extending through Saturday will be dominated by high pressure conditions in southern Idaho. Storms from the Pacific ocean front will be steered far to the north through Canada with only minor effects reaching this area.

Temperatures will average a few degrees above normal with mostly small changes from day to day. Some normal maximum and minimum temperatures for this period are Gooding 37-19, Twin Falls 41-23, Burley 40-21.

Precipitation is expected to be lighter than normal with frequent snow in the northern mountains and occasional rain or snow in the valleys mostly during the middle and latter parts of the week. Sunshine should average about 45 to 60 per cent of possible with an average of 50 to 60 per cent of the sky covered by clouds.

Negro Enters Cafeteria, Owner Sells

ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 8 (AP) — Lester A. Maddox, 49, a segregationist who lost a long court battle against serving Negroes, locked his doors and offered it for sale when one appeared at his door.

Only Saturday, Maddox had announced that he would serve Negroes after a lengthy court fight in which U.S. Dist. Judge Frank A. Hooper ruled he was in civil contempt. It was the first such ruling under the civil rights act.

"I'm happy now," said the slim, bespectacled Maddox Sunday. "What I've been going through is worse than death."

Wary but smiling, he told a news conference in his cafeteria, "I let others talk me into surrendering because of financial reasons. The life I have lived and the torment that has been mine since yesterday would make me feel I am a fool."

Negroes made no effort to obtain service at the restaurant Saturday. Yesterday, a lone gray-haired Negro, Jack Goog, appeared at the door and told Maddox he had heard the restaurant was now serving Negroes.

Maddox then closed the doors and put up a sign which read: "Closed. Out of business resulting from an act passed by the U.S. Congress, signed by President Johnson, and inspired and supported by deadly and bloody communism."

Maddox has been under a federal injunction to cease discriminating against Negroes since last August. He closed the restaurant and opened a new name, Sept. 26 under the name, Lester Maddox Cafeteria. Again he refused to serve Negroes and the contempt citation followed.

The court ordered him to pay a $100 fine a day for each day the cafeteria was open and practiced racial discrimination.

Maddox told a news conference: "As of this moment this business, this property worth half a million dollars, is available to the first person who makes a reasonable offer for sale or lease."

The restaurant told newsmen he would continue to fight against the civil rights act.

Maddox said he has appealed his contempt ruling to the supreme court.

Cheating to Be Probed by Special Unit

AIR FORCE ACADEMY, Feb. 8 (AP) — A five-member fact-finding committee will arrive this week to begin its investigation of the Air Force Academy cheating scandal.

The committee, appointed by Air Force Secretary Eugene M. Zuckert, comes to the academy about a week after the Air Force Academy completed its investigation into a scandal which resulted in the resignation of 105 cadets.

The academy announced that the 105 cadets who resigned were directly involved in the theft, sale or use of examination papers taken from a filing cabinet.

The committee is headed by retired Air Force general and former chief of staff Thomas D. White. After Zuckert had appointed the committee Jan. 28 he said that although the majority of cadets were not involved, the "fact that breaches did occur makes it important for us to conduct a review of the problem."

One of the problems which led to the scandal might be the rigid "honor code" the cadets must live and abide by. It is a violation of the code if a cadet lies, cheats or steals, or tolerates it among others.

Zuckert said the committee will evaluate the structure and workings of the academy. He requested that the probe be made "with all prudent speed."

"Above all," Zuckert said, "my overriding aim is to make certain that the academy installs in our cadets the finest moral character, the highest ethical beliefs and the outstanding qualities of leadership which we have in the Air Force officer."

Vietnamese Hereditary Hostility May Have Begun Cracking Viet Cong Unity

By MALCOLM W. BROWNE
SAIGON, South Viet Nam, Feb. 8 (AP) — Hereditary hostility among Vietnamese, a major factor in Saigon's political upheavals of the past year, may have begun cracking the unity of the Viet Cong itself.

Leaflets have been turning up lately from what purports to be a new faction of the Viet Cong, essentially anti-North Vietnamese in character.

"If they are authentic," an intelligence official said, "it looks as if our side is not alone in having trouble. If this thing catches hold within Viet Cong ranks, it could spell real trouble for them."

There have been occasional reports of clashes between rival Viet Cong units, especially near the Cambodian frontier.

The leaflets, distributed mostly in Viet Cong-controlled provinces around Saigon, are signed by the "People's Revolutionary group of Nam Bo." "Nam Bo" is communist jargon for "South Viet Nam."

The propaganda contains the usual injunctions to fight harder against American imperialists but it also denounces the "National Front for the Liberation of South Viet Nam," Viet Cong proper — the communist Labor party of North Viet Nam, and communist China.

"On orders of the Chinese communist party," one leaflet reads, "military and political cadres of southern origin in the most important positions of the national front for the liberation of South Viet Nam."

This policy in practice is aimed at gradually transforming Nam Bo into a province of Red China.

There are significant cultural and linguistic differences among North, Central and South Vietnamese. These have plagued Viet Nam ever since it became independent of France in 1954.

The languages of the three parts of Viet Nam are separate dialects. Food and customs of the three groups are quite different.

Heart Attack Kills Leader Of Uruguay

PUNTA DEL ESTE, Uruguay, Feb. 8 (AP) — President Luis Giamattasio died of a heart attack in this beach resort last night at the age of 71.

Government sources said Washington Beltran, who was to become president on March 1 in any case, will succeed Giamattasio at once.

Foreign Minister Alejandro Zorrilla (de San Martin) will fill the vacancy on the federal council created by the president's death.

Giamattasio returned Wednesday from London, where he had attended Sir Winston Churchill's funeral. He was the only Latin American president who attended the Churchill rites.

The president, who was born in 1894, graduated from a Uruguayan engineering college in 1918. He went to the United States on a scholarship for post-graduate work at Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

He devoted most of his adult life to his engineering career, as the head of his own construction firm and as a professor at the University of Montevideo.

In 1968, he was appointed public works minister, a post which launched him into politics.

Activities for Women's Units Are Announced

JEROME, Feb. 8 — An active season lies ahead for the county extension home economics agent and Jerome county club women, according to Mrs. Wanda Nix, county home economics agent.

A schedule of activities includes Feb. 24, leader training; "Kitchen efficiency, part II" (storage ideas); Feb. 24, open meeting; "Foundation Garments" types, how to fit and care for; March 1, leader training; "Food purchasing" cost of fresh versus frozen versus canned; March 22, Extension Homemakers council meeting; April 5, leader training; "Sweet breads"; May 3, leader training; "Cleaning and maintaining small appliances"; and May 26, open meeting, "Flower arrangements."

Topics for leader training meetings are planned by the Extension Homemakers council. Two representatives from each of the 18 county clubs attend the sessions. These two women then return the material to their respective clubs. In this way nearly 475 club women are reached with education information.

Representatives from any local organization may attend the council meetings and may participate in any planned training session. Open meetings are available to the public and are open to anyone interested in the subject being presented. They are not designed to be returned to a club group.

Two special interest sessions are being planned. One is on furniture slip covering and the other is a home decorating clinic. Anyone interested in either or both of these should call the Jerome county extension office to register for the classes. The telephone number is 324-4571.

Former Area Man Dies in Washington

HANSEN, Feb. 8.—Word has been received here of the death Saturday of Dallas A. Reynolds, 45, Quincy, Wash., a former resident of Hansen.

He was born April 6, 1918, in Romeo, Colo. His family moved to Hansen in 1924 where he attended public schools. Later he moved to Twin Falls where he was employed as a field representative for the Cornell Seed Company for several years. For the past seven years, and at the time of his death, he was engaged in farming and seed contracting in the Quincy area. He married Alice Foster Feb. 9, 1938 in Twin Falls.

Survivors include his widow, two daughters, Mrs. Fred (Joan) McCoy, Twin Falls and Joyce Reynolds, Seattle; one son, Robert Reynolds, Seattle; his mother, Mrs. Mary E. Reynolds, Twin Falls. Three brothers, Norville Reynolds, Hansen; Grant Reynolds, Salt Lake City, and Morris Reynolds, Twin Falls; three sisters, Mrs. Orville (Oleah) Lawhorn, Eden, Mrs. Norma Dalby (Thelma), N. Y., and Mrs. Donald (Thelma) Voorhees, Reno, Nev., and three grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his father, Jesse A. Reynolds and two sisters. Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at Quincy, Wash. A memorial fund has been established at the Quincy Valley hospital and gifts may be sent there.

Uncle

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Feb. 8 (AP)—That famous symbol of forest fire prevention, Smokey the Bear, is an uncle.

Officials at Albuquerque's Rio Grande Zoo announced the birth last week of Smokey II, a cinnamon bear cub, to the presumed sister of the famous Smokey who is in a zoo in Washington, D.C.

Smokey and Ruby, the cub's mother, were rescued from a forest fire more than 15 years ago by a ranger, and officials have presumed the bears were brother and sister.

News Around Idaho

REXBURG, Feb. 8 (AP)—A Ricks college coed from Sugar City, Tauna Drake, has been chosen Miss Rexburg and will represent the city in the Miss Idaho Beauty pageant in June. Miss Drake won the honor Saturday night in a pageant sponsored by the Rexburg Junior Chamber of Commerce. Three other girls placed high in the judging also are Ricks college coeds. They are Julie Smith, Rupert, first runner-up; Kathy Bird, Rexburg, second runner-up; and Paula Thomas, Oakridge, Tenn., Miss Congeniality.

POCATELLO, Feb. 8 (AP)—The need for a day care center for trainable retarded children in Bannock county will be studied by a newly formed committee. Joe Barnett was named chairman of the committee. He is president of the Bannock County Council for Retarded Children. Mrs. Edna Dyer, program coordinator for the state mental retardation and neurological program, said Bannock county has at least 22 retarded children who are trainable. These children are not eligible for the special education class at Lincoln school, which can accept only children who are "educable."

POCATELLO, Feb. 8.—Four local and four visiting religious leaders will be featured during Idaho State university's religious emphasis week, which began today. Sponsored by the ISU religious council, the week is an annual program designed to stimulate religious thought throughout the campus and community. This year's program includes daily chapel and vesper services, seminars and discussions in student residence houses; two luncheons, and several special evening events. The visiting speakers are the Rev. Robert M. Peterson, administrative director of the school of religion at the State University of Iowa; the Rev. Monsignor Jerome Stofor, chaplain of the Newman Foundation at Utah State university; Elder Martin D. Hansen, Salt Lake City, a general authority of the LDS church; and Elder Paul H. Dunn, Salt Lake City, member of the first council of the seventies of the LDS church.

By The Associated Press
Most Idaho highways, except at higher elevations, were reported bare and dry today. State police said roadways in the extreme north were wet and U. BOISE, Feb. 8 (AP)—A 364-acre island on the Coeur d'Alene river in northern Idaho has been deeded to the state fish and game department as a public hunting ground, the department announced. The island, about three miles downstream from Rose Lake, was deeded by the American Game society with a condition that it will be returned to the society if public hunting or fishing is denied. John R. Woodworth, department director, said the site formerly was a private club and provides excellent waterfowl shooting and some fishing. He said the island is surrounded by marshland that has been degenerated and filling in. He said the department is studying the possibility of building a dike to protect remaining waters.

WALLACE, Feb. 8 (AP)—A district court jury has convicted Mrs. Lila Shreve, 43, Warden, of involuntary manslaughter in the death of a child, placed in her home under a foster care plan. Judge James Towles set sentencing for 10 a.m. Thursday. Mrs. Shreve was charged with second degree murder in the Oct. 5, 1964, death of Virginia Davidson. The jury of nine men and three women returned a guilty verdict on the lesser charge after deliberating about eight hours. Mrs. Shreve's trial began Monday.

PORT HALL, Feb. 8 (AP)—Training will begin here this week for sewing machine operators who will produce women's blouses at a new plant to be operated by the Hallmark Manufacturing company, Portland, Ore. Thirty persons will be training in sewing, pressing, inspecting, and other production techniques in the manufacture of junior blouses. Temporary training facilities have been set up in Timbee hall, pending completion of a new plant. The plant is on 17th and 10th streets. Contractor is Rockford Lumber and Hardware company, and estimated cost of the building is $34,000. Robert Margolis, president of the firm, has been here the past few days with two assistants to initiate the training. Each person will receive 240 hours of instruction, starting Wednesday. According to Margolis, those who finish the training program will be upgraded to more responsible and higher paying positions as production increases. Training will be under the state vocational education program, and trainees will receive subsistence from the bureau of Indian affairs.

POCATELLO, Feb. 8.—Port Michelle Dumas, an 18-year-old Moscow high school senior, is Idaho's choice for Junior Miss in national competition next month in Mobile, Ala. She became the second Moscow girl in as many years to win the Idaho title. Last year's winner was Carol Farley, now a student at Indiana university. Miss Dumas won the title at the state pageant Saturday in Pocatello. She also won the youth fitness award. Linda Reynolds, Pocatello, was named first runner-up and winner in poise. Marilyn Roubidoux, Blackfoot, was named second runner-up and winner in achievement and talent.

Burley Lions Hear Lecture During Meeting

BURLEY, Feb. 8.—The Burley Lions club heard a lecture and viewed a film during the noon luncheon meeting Friday at the National hotel.

Karl Detton, president, presided during the business meeting. Speaker was Dr. A. Paul Brown, local dentist, speaking on dental care. The program was in observance of the 17th annual national children's dental health week, Feb. 7-13. Following Dr. Brown's lecture the group viewed a film.

Cancer Problem Is Explained

NEW YORK, Feb. 8 (AP)—There is a way to stop cancer. Ban all automobiles. Force every man and woman to stop smoking. Plug every factory smokestack.

Forbid chemical additives to food. Ban pesticides and fertilizers. Halt discharge of wastes into rivers. Stop pill-taking. End the use of X-ray machines.

Science now knows cancer is in considerable part a disease of industrial civilization and if it is ever to be conquered we will have to give up or modify or police many of the products and practices of that civilization.

It will be difficult in the extreme. You know how true this is if you're a cigarette smoker. If you're not, ask one.

The United States in 1964 reached the one billion dollar mark in money spent on cancer research. In that billion dollars worth of knowledge is persuasive evidence that cancer became a big-scale killer only when man learned how to start a fire when he wished and to control it.

Fire is combustion. Combustion is chemistry in which components of fuels are broken apart molecularly, scrambled, and reassembled in new arrangements.

Some of these "combustion products" are proved cancer-causers in laboratory animals. The very first proved cancer-causer in people was in the real world of fired coal. Percival Potts, an English surgeon, proved it in 1975 when he identified a cancer which appeared only in chimney sweeps.

This makes Sir Walter Raleigh an unknowing friend of cancer. He began the popularization of tobacco smoking which places intense combustion at human lips and pours the "products" into the human breathing apparatus.

So were all the inventors who increased both the scale and intensity of man's combustions until now the atmosphere is everywhere contaminated with the combustion products of uncountable billions upon billions of cars, trucks, buses, planes, factory stacks and household chimneys.

Firemaking led men into becoming a superlative chemist. He first analyzed minerals and then broke down the natural molecules. He routed out and put into commonplace use tens of thousands of natural compounds of mineral, vegetable and animal origin. Now he plays God with molecules by making his own.

There is scarcely a natural fiber or sinew for which he has not made a substitute. He has created molecules to combine with natural nutrients to preserve meats and vegetables or to tenderize them or color them or emulsify them or foam them. And he has synthesized drugs for all his ills, including cancer.

He has made exquisite poisons for insects, fungi and weeds that compete with him for nature's supplies and encourages it. They remain in soils in "definitely" and "accumulatively" those which are not washed into streams already polluted by wastes of industrial chemistry.

From these streams people get water for drinking and cooking. Industrial civilization's creativeness as fire-maker and chemist now seems to approach the ultimate, and the cancer rates have steadily increased. There is no scientific contention that even a large percentage of that man-made man-made and exotic natural compounds in general circulation are cancer-causers. But among them are some which are beyond any quibbling—in experimental animals.

The implicating evidence that they are or may be cancer-causers is or may be extrapolated or circumstantial or statistical or all three. If a given compound causes cancer in experimental animals it is said to follow it could do it in people. That's extrapolation. It isn't necessarily accurate. If the widespread use of any compound or group of compounds is accompanied by a marked rise in the incidence of particular cancers, that's circumstantial and the measurements of parallelism are statistical. Either can produce error.

Scientists most intent on cancer prevention contend, and logically, that prevention is the only sure way of making inroads on cancer's toll, and anything capable of causing cancer in animals should be kept away from people.

One such scientist is Dr. Wilhelm C. Hauser of the National Cancer Institute and one of the world's leading authorities on environmental cancer. To him any other cause is "a lottery of human fate."

But what chaos really thorough-going cancer prevention would bring to the paraphernalia of civilization: Take cigarette-smoking as the shining current example. Cancer science would abolish the large industry which causers. This is the atomic age, and will it be possible to shield populations entirely as it develops?

No one should support Americans will readily give up the product of their industrial civilization, nor does any cancer scientist want them to give up the new essential ones, such as motor cars, asphalt highways and indiscriminate planning.

What cancer prevention wants is to cut the circulation of even suspected cancer-causers to the barest possible minimum which will not harm the civilization and its over-all economy.

Casper Birdies Final Hole to Win Bob Hope Golf Over Palmer, Aaron

PALM SPRINGS, Calif., Feb. 8 (AP)—Bill Casper, Jr., facing intense pressure from Arnold Palmer and young Tommy Aaron, holed a three-foot putt for a birdie on the final hole to win the $100,000 Bob Hope desert golf classic Sunday. The 33-year-old Casper, who had been near but not close enough to win in three tournaments this year, shot an even-par 72 for a total score of 3-18 in the 90-hole golfing marathon. Palmer and Aaron each had a 70 for 3-19. A gallery of about 8,000, including former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, crowded the last green at the Bermuda Dunes Country club to watch the dramatic finish.

WATCHING INTENTLY as a lag putt on the 18th green at Bermuda Dunes, shot and off time during the final round of the Bob Hope desert golf classic Sunday is Billy Casper, Jr. It would have been an eagle three had it dropped. Casper knocked in the next putt to beat Arnold Palmer and Tommy Aaron by one stroke. (AP wirephoto)

Palmer finished the round in the threesomes just ahead of Casper and had birdied the par-five hole, although he missed the green and had to shoot from within the crowd. Palmer went for an eagle but had to settle for the birdie.
 Casper was on the green in two, well above the hole, and his first putt left him about three feet to the side of the cup.
 This was, in effect, the $7,000 putt—the difference between the winner's $15,000 and the runner-up's $8,000.
 Adding further tension to the scene, Aaron also birdied No. 18 just ahead of Casper, and there was a prospect of a three-way sudden-death playoff.
 Casper lost the San Diego open last month in a playoff with Wes Ellis, Jr., tied for third at Los Angeles and finished in the same position in the Bing Crosby tournament.

Referring to his approach shot on the 520-yard 18th hole, Casper said "the second shot was the key shot on 18. I knew I had to get up there and make a birdie."

Gen. Eisenhower, in presenting Casper the Eisenhower trophy, congratulated the San Diego professional and said "that putt you knocked in was a regular knee-knocker."

Palmer and Aaron divided the second and third-place money of $13,200, each getting $6,600. Almost from the start it was a three-man struggle in the 90th round.

Casper went into the final 18 with a two-stroke lead over Frank Beard. But Beard shot himself out of contention with a 38 on the first nine and as play went into the final nine it was Casper by one stroke over Aaron and two over Palmer.

The 36-36-72 for the 7,000-yard course.

Casper maintained his lead but began to falter when he bogeyed the 16th and 17 holes. He missed the green on 16 and three-putted, and on the par-3 17th his tee shot found a trap.

Casper got out of the trap but left himself a 12-foot putt. As his followers groaned, his putt curled in and out and he took a four. That reduced his lead to one stroke with one hole to go.

Aaron's 70 matched the Palmer round and Beard finished with a 74 and a tie at 352 with Jack Nicklaus, who finished with a 69, and Dave Marr, who had a 73.

Don January finished with a 72 and a tie at 353 with Stan Thrask, who had a 71.

Tony Lama ended with a 71 for 362, his third round 77 eliminating him from serious consideration.

Tied at 354 were Butch Baird, 72, and Al Geiberg, 71.

Grid League Sets Special Player Draft

NEW YORK, Feb. 8 (AP)—The Atlantic Coast Football League, left with eight of its 14 members following the combining of several with the United League, set up a special draft for a special draft of players at Scranton, Pa., Feb. 20-21.

A league spokesman said players from six clubs which no longer are members of the circuit will be drafted under a provision that all player contracts revert to the league. Drafted players will be from Atlanta, Westchester, Hartford, Springfield, Mass., Newark and Richmond.

Newark, Richmond, Springfield and Hartford dropped out of the ACFL Saturday to form a new circuit with four teams from the old UFL—Philadelphia taking over the Canton franchise, Charlotte replacing Montreal, Charleston-Wheeling and Fort Wayne, formerly Indianapolis.

The spokesman also said the ACFL will consider applications for franchises at its Scranton meeting. The eight teams comprising the ACFL are Jersey City; Portland, Maine; Boston which is moving to New Bedford, Mass.; Providence, R. I.; Mohawk Valley which plays out of Hickory, N. Y., and Harrisburg, Scranton and Pittsburgh in Pennsylvania.

The four teams which are joining with the UFL club in the formation of a new circuit were dropped by the ACFL for jumping in the new league. The other ACFL club were dropped because of failure to meet their obligations.

"Science of Keeping Well"
 By Dr. Ethel O. Paul, D.C.
 Elbert Hubbard, one of the brilliant writers of recent times, investigated Chiropactor. He wrote in his book "The Science of Keeping Well":

"Above all things a Chiropactor has faith in nature. He does not boast that he cures people. He knows that it is nature and only nature that heals. The chiropactor puts his patient in line with the healing forces of nature. Chiropactors are doctors of health. From them we get a new science which is adding greatly to the happiness and welfare of the world."

Celtics Edge Past Lakers By 101-97

BOSTON, Feb. 8 (AP)—John Havlicek and Bill Russell teamed up in a third-quarter flurry which cemented Boston's 101-97 National Basketball Association victory over Los Angeles Sunday.

Despite a 36-point effort by Jerry West, the Western division leader, the Celtics edged the Lakers in the third quarter when Havlicek was inserted into the line-up. The Celtics immediately went on an eight-point spree.

Havlicek fed Russell for a shot, Sam Jones stole the ball and gave it to K. C. Jones who set up Havlicek. Then Big John took a pair of feeding passes from Russell and it was 92-68.

Havlicek got 10 points in the period when Boston expanded its lead from 52-48 to 84-72 and wound up the game with 24 points compared to 21 for teammate Sam Jones.

Tied at 354 were Butch Baird, 72, and Al Geiberg, 71.

Jay Hebert, 72; Mike Souchak, 73, and Gay Brewer, 74, deadlocked at 365.

Tucker Tops Shooters In Southern Portion Of Idaho Rifle Meet

Craig Tucker, Fairfield, won three of five matches Sunday en route to his victory in the southern portion of the Idaho state gallery rifle championships although he was topped in the northern section for the state title by Vic Menning, Mont. Tucker fired a 776 to Benning's 783 as he took the southern junior trophy for the statewide meet. Tucker was the only shooter in the southern matches to place in the final state standings. Tucker's wins came in the prone, offhand and the Camp Perry fund matches, although the Camp Perry match did not count in the aggregate score.

Ortiz Slates Fifth Defense of Crown

Lightweight champion Carlos Ortiz, unbeaten in 3½ years, makes his fifth title defense Saturday night when he meets Panama's Ismael Laguna at Panama City in Panama's first world championship fight. Ortiz, Puerto Rican-born New Yorker, has a 35-0 record, including 12 straight victories. He has scored 17 knockouts. Laguna, the No. 4 contender, has a 37-2 record, including 25 knockouts. The 24-year-old Ortiz won the title from Joe Brown on a 15-12 decision on April 21, 1962. In his first defense, he knocked out Juan Tejero Kosaok in five rounds. Cuban Doug Vaillant in a stopped Filipino Flash Flores in 14 and outpointed Kenny Lane in 15. The last title bout was at San Juan, P.R., on April 14.

Ortiz has been guaranteed $10,000 for the Laguna bout, which is expected to draw 18,000 to the National stadium.

New York's Madison Square Garden, which had a 19,100 seating capacity with the Floyd Patterson-George Chuvalo heavyweight fight, expects to do good business Friday night with a lightweight clash between Juan Luis Rodriguez and Rubin Curran.

Rodriguez, the former welterweight champion, hopes to move to a line for a middleweight title shot with a win over Carter, the third-ranking contender. From Peterson, N.J., Carter lost a close decision to middleweight champion Joe Gaudinello last Dec. 14 in Philadelphia.

Sugar Ray Robinson, the 44-year-old former welterweight and middleweight ruler, is scheduled to meet Sonny Moore of Montreal at Clearwater, Fla., Friday night.

Heavyweight contender Roger Mischer of Oakland, Calif., defends his California title against Willie Richardson of San Jose, a 12-fighter at Oakland Wednesday night.

Newly-Traded Players Lead Ranger Win

NEW YORK, Feb. 8 (AP)—Rod Gilbert and newly-acquired Doug Robinson each scored two goals Sunday night and led the Rangers to an 8-3 rout of hapless Boston.

Robinson, acquired last week in a seven-player trade with Chicago, and Gilbert also added an assist as the Rangers spotted the Bruins a 1-0 lead, then finished scoring in flurries.

Boston jumped ahead with the game just 17 seconds old when Murray Oliver grabbed a rebound of a Tom Johnson slap shot and beat Ranger goalie Marcel Paille easily. New York came back with three goals inside of two minutes and 18 seconds midway through the period.

Bob Nevin started the rush with his 13th goal at 12:43 on a pass from Phil Goulet, who had three assists. Harry Howell's first goal of the season came 17 seconds later, giving New York a lead it never surrendered. Donnie Marshall made it 3-1 at 14:55.

Engan Breaks American Ski Leap Record

LEAVENWORTH, Wash., Feb. 8 (AP)—Toralf Engan, gold medalist in last year's Winter Olympics, went all out on his first jump at the Leavenworth ski championships Sunday to set a new North American record of 324 feet.

With the title already clinched with leaps of 314 and 309 feet, Engan put his best effort in his last jump. His distance was first measured at 323 feet, but judges measured the hill and added another foot.

Through an interpreter, Engan said he jumped "about the same" as he did in Austria, and he was "satisfied" with the hill and conditions. The old North American record was 322 feet set by Gene Kotlarek, Duluth, Minn., at Steamboat Springs, Colo., in 1954.

Judge gave Engan the unusual feat of 324½ points, counting the last two of his three jumps. His first two and shorter jumps averaged better as to form. Gus Engan was one of the judges who measured his long jump.

Engan landed nearly 40 points behind second place Yukio Kato, Tokyo, Japan, who was 212½ points for jumps of 244 and 287 feet.

Jay Martin, of the University of Wyoming, was third with 209.9 points. He fell on his first jump of 284 feet, but recovered and jumped 276 and 287 feet.

The defending champion, Per Einarson, University of Washington, was fourth with 203.9 points, with jumps of 262, 271 and 277 feet.

Emerson Takes Tennis Title

AUCKLAND, New Zealand, Feb. 8 (AP)—Wimbledon champion Roy Emerson of Australia withstood a strong challenge from Pierre Barthes of France Sunday and won the Auckland International tennis tournament, 3-6, 6-6, 7-5, 6-3.

Emerson paired with countryman Fred Stolle to take the men's doubles. They defeated Pierre Darmon of France and New Zealand champion Les Gerrard 6-4, 6-2.

The women's singles title went to Britain's Rita Bentley with a 6-4, 6-3 decision over Jill Blackman of Australia.

Hot Speech

AUBURN, N.Y., Feb. 8 (AP)—The Auburn Mets held their annual "Hot Stove League" dinner Sunday night, and you guessed it—there were two fires in the hotel where Yogi Berra, coach of the parent New York baseball Mets, was speaking.

One fire was in a piano in a small shed attached to the hotel. The other was in a cloakroom.

Berra calmly told the 1,000 guests: "Don't worry if you smell smoke. The fires are already out."

The Auburn Mets are in the New York Penn league.

Wings Blank Canadians By 6-0 Score

DETROIT, Feb. 8 (AP)—The Detroit Red Wings scored five goals in the second period on their way to a 6-0 National Hockey League victory over Montreal Sunday and continued their mastery over the Canadians.

Detroit goalie Roger Crozier made 20 saves in recording his fifth shutout of the campaign, tops in the league.

The victory was the Wings' sixth in 10 meetings of the two clubs this season. Montreal, which has lost four straight, has beaten Detroit twice and there have been two ties.

The goal-scoring flurry started early in the second period and followed a scoreless penalty-riddled first period.

Ron Murphy, Gordie Howe and Norm Ullman scored in the first seven minutes of the second with Larry Jeffrey and Jean Beliveau beating Montreal goalie Gump Worsley later. Bruce MacGregor's 16th goal of the season just past the mid-point of the final period completed the scoring.

The Red Wings carried the play through the third period and poured 14 shots at Worsley. Crozier made only four saves on the Detroit end of the ice during that span.

Group Deeds Island to Outdoorsmen

BOISE, Feb. 8 (AP)—A 394-acre island on the Cœur d'Alene river about three miles downstream from Rose Lake in northern Idaho has been donated to the fish and game department for use as a public hunting ground by the American Game Association, it was announced today.

A reversion clause in the deed requires that the property will be returned to the American Game Association in the event the public is ever denied the right to use the site for hunting and fishing, according to John R. Woodworth, department director.

The island is surrounded by marshland that in recent years has been degenerating and filling in, according to Woodworth, who added that the department is studying the feasibility of building a dike to protect the remaining waters. The site formerly was a private hunting club, it provides excellent waterfowl shooting and some fishing.

Woodworth commented that the island is not counted as one of some 125 public access sites provided by the department around the state because it only access to this area is by boat.

Hawks Take Warriors By 126-103

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 8 (AP)—A vicious offensive thrust led the St. Louis Hawks to a 126-103 National Basketball Association victory over the San Francisco Warriors Sunday afternoon.

The Hawks evened their season's record at 28-28, second to Los Angeles in the Western division.

With seven scores in double figures, St. Louis grabbed a big lead early and never eased up. Zelmo Beaty's 14-point first period ignited the Hawks' attack. Several times in the final half, St. Louis led by 26 points.

San Francisco played without all the second half without a foot, 11-inch center Nate Thurmond, who aggravated a back injury. A Warrior official said Thurmond would undergo surgery when the club returns home Sunday night.

The balanced St. Louis attack was led by Bob Pettit and player-coach Richie Guerin. Each scored 23 points. Zelmo Beaty had 19.

Emerson Takes Tennis Title

AUCKLAND, New Zealand, Feb. 8 (AP)—Wimbledon champion Roy Emerson of Australia withstood a strong challenge from Pierre Barthes of France Sunday and won the Auckland International tennis tournament, 3-6, 6-6, 7-5, 6-3.

Emerson paired with countryman Fred Stolle to take the men's doubles. They defeated Pierre Darmon of France and New Zealand champion Les Gerrard 6-4, 6-2.

The women's singles title went to Britain's Rita Bentley with a 6-4, 6-3 decision over Jill Blackman of Australia.

THREE TOP SHOOTERS during the southern portion of the Idaho state gallery rifle championships Saturday and Sunday are Rod Tucker, Fairfield, left, Craig Tucker, Fairfield, center, and 30-day Novak, Buhl, right. Craig fired a 776 aggregate score out of a possible 800 Sunday, to take top honors in the southern section and win the high junior trophy statewide. Rod won the southern high junior award with 761 and Mike Novak was the high lady of the meet with 740. (Times-News photo)

Future Projects to Be Main Subject at Outdoor Club Meet

Southern Idaho Fish and Game association will meet at 8 p.m. Tuesday at the Idaho Power company auditorium. New projects which the association might undertake, will be the main subject of discussion. Association President W. C. (Bill) Malberg said the group is still striving to boost its membership and memberships are still available. Malberg pointed out that the cost of membership hasn't increased since the association was organized in 1959.

One of the projects which will likely come up for discussion at the meeting will be improvements at Salmon Falls reservoir with the recent on access to the lake. There are nine miles of fishable water for the bank fishermen with only five access roads to the area.

In recent years recreational activity in addition to fishing has increased at Salmon Falls reservoir and this large body of water is becoming more important in future recreational plans and programs. The group plans close cooperation with the Twin Falls county planning board.

The association last year successfully improved facilities at the association-owned hatchery in Twin Falls. This hatchery last year produced 18 tons of fish for area sportsmen. Some 35 tons of fish were planted in Roseworth reservoir and about two tons of fish were planted in Salmon Falls reservoir. The balance of the fish were planted in streams from Jarbridge to Oakley, on the south side of Snake River.

Malberg also noted that the group has an excellent record in cooperation with many governmental agencies such as the Idaho fish and game department, which manages the hatchery, the bureau of land management, forest service and other agencies.

Heinsohn Is Angered Over His Ejection

BOSTON, Feb. 8 (AP)—Boston's Tommy Heinsohn claimed "gross misconduct" by Los Angeles rookie Walt Hazzard started the row in a televised National Basketball Association game here Sunday.

Hazzard claimed he doesn't remember what happened.

Both were puzzled after the Celtics' 101-97 victory over the Lakers.

The two collided and went down heavily under Boston's basket in the fourth quarter of the game. Heinsohn started a volley of a few sharp punches before teammates intervened.

Heinsohn was ejected from the game for having landed the first blow, per NBA law.

He was slumped in disgust near his locker later wondering about the justice of it all. He will draw a league fine, too.

If ever there was a case of gross misconduct, this was it," Heinsohn said. "Talk about unsportsmanlike conduct."

I was under the basket for a few points. I jumped up for the shot and faked Hazzard out. He was already by me, but reached around, grabbed me by the neck, pulled me off balance and hit me on the way down.

"But the time I hit the floor I was purple."

Hazzard, hit on the side of the head, was black, blue and bandaged.

He was walking around the Los Thunderdome when teammates what had happened Hazzard, like a battered fighter, complained he felt woozy.

Dr. John Doherty, Boston team physician, said Hazzard was able to depart with the team.

Hull Left on Sidelines With Injured Knee

CHICAGO, Feb. 8 (AP)—Bobby Hull, the Chicago Black Hawks' high-scoring left winger, did not dress for Sunday night's National Hockey League game against the Toronto Maple Leafs because of an injured right knee.

Hull injured the knee late in Saturday night's 6-3 victory at Toronto.

Coach Billy Reay said Hull also may miss Wednesday's game against Detroit and possibly would not be able to play until next Saturday at New York.

The knee, placed in a cast, was believed to be severely twisted. Hull, who has missed only eight previous games in eight seasons, said he was injured when hit by Tim Horton in the third period Saturday.

Seattleite Is Feature Victor

PHOENIX, Ariz., Feb. 8 (AP)—Seattleite turned on the power when needed Sunday to win the 14-mile feature race at Turf Paradise by three lengths.

The winner, a 4-year-old chestnut colt ridden by Paul Frey, took command early, yielded to favored Graneray Park and then retook command to win going away. Seattleite ran the distance in 3:03 on a heavy track and paid $7.00, $3.80 and $3.20.

Coach Says AAU-NCAA D-Day Nears

SEATTLE, Feb. 8 (AP)—"The guns are loaded, the fuses lit and D-Day is March 1," Bud Winter, said Sunday.

March 1 is the day the truce ends between the Amateur Athletic Union and the National Collegiate Athletic Association. After that, college athletes will not be permitted to compete in meets lacking sanction by the NCAA-backed United States Track and Field federation.

"Some of the big meets are going to be caught between the two loaded guns, not knowing which way to go," said Winter. San Jose State college coach and one of the coaches of the 1960 American Olympic team.

Winter brought a group of San Jose athletes here to compete Saturday night in Seattle's invitational indoor track meet. Victories were posted by his mile relay team, by Lester Bold in the triple jump, Mike Gibeau in the 1,000-yard run and Wayne Herman in the 400-meter dash.

"If the AAU chooses," Winter said, "it can shut the Olympic door on athletes who take part in meets not sanctioned by the AAU. The colleges can lock up their own athletes when meets lack sanction by the track and field federation."

"It's a civil war in the sports world, and nobody is big enough to step in and stop it."

Phils Should Have NL Pennant Edge

CINCINNATI, Feb. 8 (AP)—If anything like a recap of the 1963 pennant race is in the cards for the National League this year, Philadelphia should have a definite edge.

The official 1963 league schedule shows that the Phils will end the season with six games each against New York and Chicago, neither of which is expected to finish close to the top.

Last season Philadelphia, St. Louis, Cincinnati and San Francisco had a chance to grab the pennant in the final two weeks. This year, the Giants will start next-to-last week at Cincinnati. They will then go home and entertain Milwaukee, St. Louis, and Cincinnati at Candlestick park.

All the teams will open on the same day—April 12. This marks a change from the past when Cincinnati opened at home a few days before the other teams in view of the Reds' status as the first professional baseball club.

This year, the Reds will play host to Milwaukee opening day. Los Angeles will open at New York, San Francisco at Philadelphia, Philadelphia at Houston.

Philadelphia fans will see their first home game April 14 when the Giants come to town. On April 15, Chicago and Cincinnati will play in the first games at Milwaukee and St. Louis, respectively.
