BOISE, Feb. 22 (AP)—An income tax increase, a key spending bill and controversial education legislation are on the Idaho legislature's calendar when it resumes business Tuesday. Much of the legislation was held over from special Saturday sessions conducted so the legislators could take today off in observance of George Washington's birthday anniversary. The income tax increase, proposed as an alternative to a sales tax, would put an additional two and one-half per cent levy on net adjusted income.

Matabeleland Residents to Talk in T. F.

The Rt. Rev. Kenneth J. F. Skelton, Anglican bishop from Matabeleland, Africa, will be guest speaker at the Episcopal Church of the Ascension, Twin Falls, at 7:30 p.m. Monday. Matabeleland is the area of Africa which includes half of Southern Rhodesia and the Bechuanaland Protectorate, and covers 217,000 square miles, or four times the size of England.

The service in Twin Falls will be evening prayer with junior and senior choirs, with the rector, the Rev. Warren L. Howell, in charge. After the address by Bishop Skelton and Zingani, there will be a question period in the Bishop Rhea auditorium, with coffee served by the Ascension Guild. ## Pope Names 27 Cardinals To Consistory VATICAN CITY, Feb. 22 (UPI)—Pope Paul VI today officially named 27 new cardinals in the consistory of his religion. The historic ceremony raised the number of cardinals in the college of cardinals to an all-time high of 70.

The new "princes of the church" include Archbishop Lawrence Shehan, Baltimore, Md., and Archbishop Josef Beran — a Czechoslovak prelate who was held behind the Iron Curtain for the past 16 years. Today's secret ceremony swept aside some of the centuries-old tradition surrounding new cardinals and several changes which made it more modern in a public ceremony in the splendor of St. Peter's Basilica. Two other rites were eliminated.

The move to de-emphasize pomp is part of the pope's campaign to modernize the church in the spirit of the Ecumenical Council.

Khanh Agrees to Quit, But Will Not Put Resignation in Writing

SAIGON, Feb. 22 (UPI)—Deposed strongman Lieut. Gen. Nguyen Khanh balked today at orders from the armed forces council to come to Saigon and sign his resignation. The Vietnamese military council said Khanh had agreed to step down after a series of telephone conversations with general who ousted him as chairman and stripped him of his military command, Khanh remained at his headquarters at Vung Tau, 40 miles from Saigon. It was reported that he was refusing to come here until some face-saving measure had been worked out.

Scientists Study Moon Photographs

PASADENA, Calif., Feb. 22 (UPI)—Scientists today studied 7,500 Ranger 8 moon photos hoping to learn the answer to a 240 million dollar question: Can an American spaceship land safely on the moon by 1970? Since Aug. 23, 1961, scientists at the California institute of technology's Jet Propulsion laboratory (JPL) have sent eight of the tinker toy-like Rangers hurtling toward the moon—at a cost of 30 million dollars each—in an effort to pry loose the secrets of the moon's surface. Only Ranger 8 and its predecessor, Ranger 7, sent back television photographs of the lunar surface.

Ranger 7 transmitted 4,000 photographs last July 31. Historically, they were the first of the moon's bright side and provided scientists with useful information.

Ranger 8 launched last Wednesday from Cape Kennedy, Fla., destroyed itself Saturday morning when it slammed into the moon's dusty "Sea of Tranquility." But for 23 minutes before its death, Ranger 8 televised back to earth 7,500 "excellent" photographs of the lunar landscape to the delight of earth-bound scientists.

Six television cameras—two wide-angle and four normal—focused their heavy eyes steadily on the moon's surface. See MOON, Page 2, Column 6.

103 Trapped By Japanese Mine Blast

TOKYO, Feb. 22 (AP)—A gas explosion ripped a coal mine in Japan's northernmost main island of Hokkaido today, trapping 103 miners, police said. Nine of them crawled to safety.

Sleeping gas prevented more than 100 rescuers from approaching the mine for hours. The National Police agency said an appeal was made for gas masks. They arrived four hours after the explosion, and the rescue workers began digging. A police spokesman said there were no details as to the cause of the accident in Yubari, a major coal mining city about 600 miles north of Tokyo. The explosion occurred at 8:30 p.m. at the Yubari refinery of the Hakkaido Coal company.

The accident came 15 months after 453 miners died in Japan's worst postwar mine disaster after an explosion ripped through a mine on the southern island of Kyushu.

Bus Overturns in Mexico, 27 Hurt

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 22 (AP)—A chartered bus with 33 tourists from the New York area overturned three times on a mountain road curve about 80 miles southeast of Mexico City yesterday after the driver swerved to avoid hitting an oncoming automobile.

Twenty-seven Americans were hospitalized in Tuxco and were transferred late last night and early today in ambulances to the American British Cowdry hospital in Mexico City.

Two were on the critical list and several others were seriously hurt, with extensive fractures and possible internal injuries.

Malcolm's Death May Be Avenged

NEW YORK, Feb. 22 (UPI)—Police today blamed the assassination of Malcolm X on his mortal enemies in the Black Muslim movement and feared followers of the venomous Negro nationalist may be planning violent reprisals. Police sources said six associates of the slain black supremacist had left New York in separate automobiles heading in different directions. At least two were believed en route to Chicago where Elijah Muhammad, leader of the Muslims, has his headquarters. Chicago police put stringent security measures into effect around Muhammad's home.

Civil Rights Leaders Blast Assassination

By United Press International
National civil rights leaders last night condemned the assassination of black supremacist Malcolm X and said it showed violence to be an evil and futile force.

Early today, detectives booked on homicide charges a 22-year-old Negro who they said fired a sawed-off shotgun at Malcolm X yesterday as he arose in a Harlem auditorium to address 500 of his followers.

Malcolm, a Muslim defector and bitter foe of Muhammad, died in a hail of shotgun and pistol shots before the terrified audience which included his hysterically screaming wife and at least one of their four daughters.

City medical Examiner Dr. Milton Halpern said that Malcolm died of multiple wounds of the heart and aorta by bullets of different calibers, and shotgun pellets, indicating that at least three assassins mowed him down. Halpern said the Negro leader was hit many times in the chest and lower extremities and once in the face.

The police sources said the two Chicago-bound allies of Malcolm were young nonstoppered Negroes wearing turbans. One was described as the godfather to one of Malcolm's children.

The destinations of the other four followers of Malcolm, who reportedly left New York after his slaying, were not known. Chicago police officials considered the report of the movement of the anti-Muslim nationalists as "speculative" but ordered heavy patrols near Muhammad's home and other security measures. Federal agents also were reportedly investigating the interstate movements of the Malcolm aids.

Of particular concern to Chicago authorities was the scheduled opening there Friday of the Black Muslim's national meeting. The New York leader of the Muslims denied his followers had any part in Malcolm X's murder. There was no immediate comment from Muhammad or his lieutenants in Chicago.

Malcolm said publicly he feared his former Muslim allies. See MALCOLM, Page 2, Col. 4.

Khrushchev Seen In Moscow Area

MOSCOW, Feb. 22 (AP)—Former Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, who slipped from power and left last October, recently visited Moscow with his wife, Nina, says a Soviet militiaman.

The militiaman, who gave his name as Melnikov, told newsmen yesterday he had seen and talked with Khrushchev at a monument to Soviet space flight.

Soviet Arms Said on Way To Viet Nam

MOSCOW, Feb. 22 (UPI)—Diplomatic sources said yesterday Soviet ground-to-air missiles, jet fighter planes and technical advisers are en route to communist North Viet Nam to defend against any new retaliatory air strikes by the United States.

Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin promised assistance to the Hanoi regime during his trip to communist Asia earlier this month. Although dispatch of the military aid could not be officially confirmed, the Kremlin has made it clear that the Soviets will follow through on Kosygin's pledge.

A UPI dispatch from Saigon last Tuesday quoted authoritative sources as saying Soviet ground-to-air missiles had already arrived in the North Viet Nam capital of Hanoi. The UPI report was based on accounts received from persons who arrived in Saigon from Hanoi.

In a related development yesterday, Marshal Nikolai Khrushov, commander of Russian rocket troops, rattled Soviet missile might.

"If the imperialists of the United States in their reckless attempt to carry out criminal schemes with regard to countries of the socialist camp, the war will immediately be transferred to the territory of the aggressor," Khrushov wrote in Trud, a trade union newspaper.

Congo-Born Citizens of T. F. Say Life In U.S. Moves at Much Speedier Pace

By ANNETTE THORNTON
Twin Falls teenagers, Jean and Bob Lemon, both born in the Belgian Congo, have been greatly in demand as speakers for many special meetings and recently appeared on KBIO television, Boise, to tell of their life in the Congo. The brother-sister team has a specially prepared color movie and narration delivered to audiences with police that would put most adults to shame.

When asked how they felt about doing school lessons through the mail, Bob said, "We often didn't get our grades until a year or so after our work was turned in, and once we didn't get them at all. Without classroom competition it isn't nearly as stimulating. All we did was read the book and mail in our lessons."

Both the young people have been attending Gem State academy, Caldwell, since their arrival in Twin Falls in 1963, a church-sponsored, coeducational See CONGO-BORN, Pg. 2, Col. 3.

Vandals Turn On Hydrants In Twin Falls

Vandals kept a city patrolman and fireman busy early Saturday morning turning off fire hydrants in the city.

Eight fire hydrants were turned on within a half-hour period and a final hydrant was turned on about an hour after the last of the series of eight were shut off.

The police department received a call at 2:22 a.m. that a hydrant had been opened on Washington street.

After the first call was received the department answered calls, sometimes only a minute apart, to shut off hydrants in different sections of the city.

At 2:50 a.m. the fireman, being chauffeured around by a city patrolman, shut off the eighth hydrant at Second street and Ninth avenue east.

At 4:40 a.m. Saturday another hydrant was turned off at Second avenue west and Blake street.

Hydrants were turned off at Second avenue west and Sixth street west; Madison street and Heyburn avenue; Heyburn avenue and Van Buren street; Third avenue north and Sixth street north; Madison boulevard and Madison street; and Ninth avenue and Maurice street.

Spokesman for the fire department reported that the water pressure dropped 20 pounds between 2:16 a.m. and 2:45 a.m. Saturday.

"We have had quite a bit of this sort of thing in the past," the spokesman pointed out, "if there was ever a large fire in the city when a hydrant was open we could tell it by the loss in pressure," he added.

Tree Falls On Roof of Deelo House

DEELO, Feb. 22—A large tree heavily damaged the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Taylor, northeast of here, during a freak wind storm Sunday night.

SYNOPSIS AND AGRICULTURAL SUMMARY

Colder air has been moving into the intermountain region from the Gulf of Alaska, and the warm spring-like temperatures of yesterday are quickly being replaced by nearer normal daytime temperatures. A fast-moving cold front at the surface combined with colder air aloft has set off some snow showers in the valley areas of southern Idaho during the day and early morning hours. At 8 a.m. greatest amounts were 0.2 of an inch at Boise and Parma with traces of snow into southern valleys. Precipitation was just moving into southeastern valleys at that time. Accompanying the front were strong and gusty westerly winds.

The coldest air aloft appears to be period of snow are forecast today and mostly cloudy skies with occasional snow showers in the lower Malheur valley into Magic Valley today. Heavier snows along with strong winds will occur in the mountain areas of southern Idaho today causing blowing and drifting in higher elevations and mountain passes. Partial clearing and decreasing winds will bring lowering temperatures tonight with partly cloudy skies expected over the valleys on Tuesday. Variable cloudiness and slight warming is in the offering for Wednesday as higher pressure will be slow to move back into the area.

Maximum temperatures today and Tuesday will range from the 30's to low 40's. Minimum temperatures tonight will be below normal especially in Magic Valley with most readings across the valleys of southern Idaho in the teens to low 20's.

FIVE-DAY FORECAST

High pressure is not expected to rebuild strongly over this area for several days. A series of Pacific storms will be moving through the Pacific Northwest, keeping temperatures considerably cooler than during the past few days with recurring periods of showers of rain and snow accompanied by moderate to strong winds.

High pressures are indicated to rebuild over this area with some warming near the end of the week. For the period, temperatures will average near normal for the season. Some normal maximums and minimum temperatures for this period are Gooding 40-22, Twin Falls 46-25, Burley 42-22.

Precipitation is also expected to be about normal for the season with probable amounts of .05 to .20 of an inch during the period through Saturday. Sunshine should run about 50 per cent of possible with an average of about seven-tenths of the sky covered by clouds.

Malcolm

wanted to kill him and he blamed them for throwing fire bombs at his home a little more than a week ago.

The murder suspect originally identified as Thomas Hagan, was in turn wounded by one of Malcolm's aides and was severely beaten by the crowd before police rescued him and another man the frenzied Negroes were attacking with shouts of "kill him, kill him."

Police described Hagan as a "light-skipped Negro" who "told them nothing" including whether he had any connection with the Muslims or another extremist group.

An FBI fingerprint check identified Hagan as a man who had been arrested in Passaic, N. J., in November, 1963, for possession of stolen property. He then used the name of Talmadge Hayer and gave his address as 347 Marshall street, "Fairfax, N. J."

Hagan, or Hayer, was charged with firing a blast at Malcolm from a double-barreled shotgun which had been sawed off at both ends.

Two other men in the Audubon auditorium, on the fringe of Harlem, were shot in the melee. Police, who launched a refused to elaborate on what their role in the assassination might have been.

The wounded man in addition to Hagan, were identified as William Parker and William Harris. Parker was shot in the foot and Harris in the chest and abdomen.

Police charged Reuben Francis, 33, Malcolm X's secretary, with felonious assault and weapons law violations. Shooting Hagan as he attempted to flee the hall after Malcolm was killed, Hagan was hit in the leg and was taken to the Bellevue hospital prison ward.

The sawed-off shotgun, a .45 automatic and a 38 pistol had been fired in the ballroom where Malcolm died, police said. He was killed by the shotgun blast and had been hit by other bullets, a preliminary autopsy indicated.

Malcolm X, 39, who once was New York leader of the Black Muslims, left the Chicago-based group and formed a rival Afro-American supremacist organization.

Malcolm said last week he was a marked man and his assassination came only eight days after he had been in Queens was fired. He blamed the Muslims for the bombing and on what he said, he planned to identify the bombers yesterday in the speech he never delivered.

Miss Ritchie Takes First In Contest

EDEN, Feb. 22—Barbara Ritchie, Valley high school junior, was awarded first place in the local oratorical contest at the American Legion hall Thursday evening, sponsored by the American Legion.

The speakers were introduced by Austin Matheny, contest chairman, and each contestant gave a prepared speech on "The Constitution—Our To-Be-Defended." She took on "Why Trial by Jury is Such an Important Part of the Constitution."

Miss Ritchie's speech compared the birth and growth of a child to adulthood to the conception and growth of the constitution. She expressed a desire to awaken the people of the United States to the erosion at work trying to undermine the fundamentals of freedom.

She is the daughter of Mrs. Lois Ritchie, Hazelton, and Lloyd Ritchie, Twin Falls.

Second place went to Monte Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Noble Turner, route 4, Jerome and third to Gail Wellhouse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Wellhouse, Hazelton.

All contestants have been under the direction of Arlyn Bodily, speech instructor at Valley high school.

Judges were Mrs. Paul Brown, past department president of the Legion auxiliary, Piler; Mrs. Dean Weatherax, route 4, Jerome; Willard Latimer, Eden and Robert Hughes, Hazelton.

Clerks were Leroy Rehwal, Eden post commander, and Paul Brown, Piler.

As winner, Miss Ritchie will represent Eden and Hazelton at the district contest to be held at 8:00 p.m. Wednesday at the Legion hall in Paul.

forces commander-in-chief by order of Chief of State Phan Khanh Suu yesterday. At the same time he lost this position as chairman of the armed forces council, which includes all of the country's top generals.

An American embassy spokesman denied reports of involvement of the American mission here in the disappearance of some of the 14 persons implicated in the attempted coup last Friday. The armed forces council today offered rewards for the 14 dead or alive.

Ma Gen Tran Van Minh, a Roman Catholic known as "Little Minh," was named to succeed Khanh in the powerful post of commander-in-chief after three days of coups, counter coups and the threat of full-scale war between feuding factions in the Vietnamese army.

Khanh was reported to have promised to relinquish his post in a telephone surrender to the generals at 6:30 a.m. after his airplane ran low on fuel and landed in the mountain resort of Daiat. He had failed in frantic efforts to line up support of anti-coups among military commanders in the countryside.

The chubby little roated general, who had weathered a series of coups since he first took power 13 months ago had held out for more than 12 hours.

He was officially informed last night that he had been sacked in a decree signed by Suu.

After calling from Daiat, Khanh returned to his headquarters at Vung Tau, near the seacoast, Capt. St. Jacques.

Military leaders had said Khanh would have to leave South Viet Nam sooner or later for "making Viet Nam look foolish before the eyes of the world."

Economy Is Supported by Wendell Meet

WENDELL, Feb. 22—Gooding County Farm Bureau members have voted unanimous support to 12 economy-minded state senators, Alan Erwin, president, announced today.

Ray Harding, Gooding, reported on legislative problems at a meeting of the group Thursday evening. Members voted to write State Sen. Donald Frederickson and State Rep. Vernon Ravenscroft, stating their support of economy plans.

Members agreed "most of the Snake river area is in a depressed condition and any unnecessary spending would be detrimental to the economy of the area," Edwin said.

Action was taken to allow a bonus for the secretary for extra work this year.

Ray Asendrup, Jerome, presented a colored film, "Gift From the Clouds." The Farm Bureau board will meet at 8 p.m. March 4 at the home of C. Edward Gunning, Wendell.

Mr. and Mrs. John Perrine, Gooding, served refreshments.

divide Idaho's 44 counties into six districts for construction and maintenance of junior colleges.

Rep. Frank Hirsch, R., Bear Lake, has predicted opposition to the county tax assessment in counties would make some pay more for junior colleges than others.

More major legislation is scheduled for action Wednesday. The sales tax is scheduled for debate in the house and a compromise water resources agency bill was started through the legislative machinery. It was introduced Saturday.

The compromise bill "embodies the best parts" of a proposal backed by Gov. Robert E. Smylie and one backed by irrigation districts, according to Sen. Don Samuelson, R., Bonner, chairman of the public-resources committee.

Representatives of irrigation districts have criticized Smylie's proposal as giving too much power, including power to condemn land and water rights for state projects, to a resources agency.

The agency was approved in principle by the voters in 1964. Smylie said it was designed to plan uses for Idaho water to prevent the diversion of the "thirsty Southwest."

A change of the referendum law that would permit a public vote by June 1 on the sales tax—or any other law passed by the current legislature, is scheduled for senate action Wednesday.

The change would require filing of referendum petitions within 45 days of the legislature's adjournment and would permit a public vote 45 days later.

Under present law, referendum votes on any of the current legislature's measures would be put on the 1966 general ballot.

Six Survive Sea Ordeal In Dinghy

MARSEILLE, France, Feb. 22 (AP)—Six men were rescued from the Mediterranean sea yesterday after a fire forced them from their futuristic "floating island," scientific station.

A French tanker, the Alize, picked up the six Frenchmen—three scientists and three crewmen—from their rubber dinghy. All were unharmed. They flew back here from Ajaccio, Corsica, to report to Jacques-Yves Cousteau, the famed underwater explorer who built the "island."

The "island" consists of a superstructure containing living quarters and, submerged below that, a 22-foot-long, 10-foot-wide cylinder with an elevator. Cousteau, who has called it a "vertical submarine," put it in the water to conduct marine studies and test man's ability to live and work under the sea.

There is a heliport on top, the living quarters beneath that and, halfway down the steel cylinder, the underwater laboratories.

The men said the fire broke out Friday night in the machine room of the superstructure. They said they believed only the superstructure, including the living quarters, was damaged, and added they were ready to go back to work.

The men said they fought the fire for 15 minutes until thick smoke forced them out of the machine room. Soon after, they were forced to abandon the "island." They boarded the dinghy, which they kept anchored to the "island" until rough seas broke the mooring Saturday morning. The dinghy was about 35 miles from the sea-science base when the tanker spotted it Sunday.

Idaho Youth Is Found Dead in N. M. Apartment

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Feb. 22 (AP)—Two young Mormon missionaries were discovered dead in their Albuquerque, N. M., apartment this morning, the apparent victims of asphyxiation.

Dead were David A. Fuller, Idaho Falls, Ida., and Harold P. Raskelly, Roy, Utah. Both were 20 years old.

Their bodies were discovered by the apartment owner's son. Raskelly's body was on the bed and Fuller was slumped against the front door.

Dr. Jerome Greenblatt, Bernalillo county coroner, said the cause of death was still undetermined pending results of a toxicology test.

Sheriff's officers said, however, the two young men, operating out of San Antonio, Tex., were apparent victims of fumes from a faulty gas heater in the apartment.

Outstanding Flop

Idaho Democratic Chairman Lloyd Walker is quite right in declaring the new legislative council is a "magnificent flop." Speaking at the weekly legislative luncheon here, Mr. Walker added, "...we haven't seen anything they've done in the last two years coming to the foreground." He has accurately pinpointed one of the biggest disappointments in the current session of the legislature.

When the legislative council was created two years ago, many Idahoans had high hopes the new council would provide a semblance of legislature continuity and somehow would manage to accomplish much of the groundwork in preparation for the next session. If the legislative council has accomplished that sort of mission, it has managed to conceal the accomplishment rather well. It's just possible, because the legislative council, in one of its more outspoken moments, declined with emphasis an opportunity to give advance notice on the state's fiscal needs for the new biennium. The council also refused to make any recommendations.

The council had a few outstanding chances to make a name for itself. It has been known for many months that Idaho was facing an important decision on finances; the state is at the fiscal crossroads. The legislative council did nothing, although it had the rare opportunity and two years to study the situation and make recommendations that would assure fiscal sanity in the state. Reapportionment and congressional redistricting are two other problems that have loomed for months. Again, the legislative council has done nothing.

These failures of the current legislative council don't mean the idea of the council isn't good. To the contrary, it's an excellent plan and could be extremely advantageous to the legislature and the entire state. Hence, the problem must be one of personnel. It might have been wishful thinking in the first place to expect the council to be any better than its respective members. Obviously, Idaho voters must give a little more thought to the caliber of their legislators. Or it might help if the legislature set some good rules for operation of the council.

There's one more reason to praise the remarks of Mr. Walker at the legislative luncheon. The whole nature of the talk is so different from what Magic Valley residents have come to expect from Mr. Walker that it's hard to believe this is the same Lloyd Walker. Suddenly, he's sounding like a responsible, thoughtful citizen who is genuinely concerned over the direction of legislation, instead of the blindly partisan politician. And all at once Mr. Walker seems to measure up to the caliber of a senatorial candidate, an ambition widely attributed to him.

SAME OLD STUFF

The economy bloc that has developed in the Idaho senate could be called the stumbling bloc much more appropriately. There's nothing new about the suggestions from the group of 12 senators led by William J. Dee, D., Idaho, Democratic minority leader. It's the same course Idaho has followed for so many years that citizens should know it by heart. Basically, the formula has three parts: (1) close your eyes to the state's needs, (2) cut all budget requests and then (3) raise the revenue by greater demands from the same old over-worked sources, with emphasis on the income tax.

It may be economy, but it's the same old stuff that has placed Idaho in an uncomfortable position, unable to compete with other regional states for teachers, tourists, or industry. The legislative message of Gov. Robert E. Smylie this year held the promise that at long last Idaho would start living up to its responsibilities while at the same time working toward fiscal sanity that would attract industry and permit growth.

The so-called economy bloc is a stumbling block in the state's path toward progress and fiscal sanity. There is no hope for the state along the old route except more of the same disappointments and failures that have stymied the state for so long. Individuals believe they get just what they pay for, and it's that way with the state, too. If the state pays for stagnation, it will have stagnation; if it pays for a second or third rate educational system; that's what it will have.

It should be quite obvious by now that Senator Dee is most interested in building up his candidacy for the Idaho governor's office. He's chosen bitter opposition to a sales tax as the cornerstone for his gubernatorial aspirations. He's supremely interested in his Dee-for-governor campaign and couldn't care less what happens to Idaho in the meantime.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

BY ANDREW TULLY
SINGAPORE, Feb. 22.—In this hotting post of Southeast Asia, the antics of Cambodia's plump, opportunistic Prince Sihanouk are seen as pointing up the effectiveness of Red China's get-tough attitude toward the United States, especially in Viet Nam and Thailand.
It is Peking's aim to convince the little countries in this area of the world that it is dangerous to cozy up to the U.S. because the days of American influence are numbered. Inevitably, warns Peking, the Americans will be driven out of Southeast Asia and then it will go hard with their friends.
Sihanouk wants to continue to run his own show, without harassment from any Peking-sponsored "liberation" fronts. He also is not about to be caught out on any free-world limb. If Red China indeed is the "wave of the future," Sihanouk wants in.

SNUB U.S. AND SURVIVE—Thus Sihanouk reacts predictably to every communist success in South Viet Nam. By now, his regime is completely communist-oriented, with economic and military aid pouring in from Peking. Mao Tse-tung has rewarded Sihanouk by putting his stamp of approval on the prince's leadership, just as he has in Burma, where the government of Ne Win has steadily moved away from U.S. influence.
To Southeast Asia, the message is clear: Communist China will not interfere in a country's internal affairs so long as it continues to snub the United States.

WHY U.S. MUST STAY—That is why it is so important for the U.S. to remain in Viet Nam. An American defeat there, either on the battlefield or at the conference table, would convince the communist world that Red China's policy of waging guerrilla-type "liberation" wars is both comparatively safe and effective. It would beckon communists elsewhere in the world—in Africa and Latin America, for example—to similar adventures.
As of now, the North Viet Nam communist regime of Ho Chi Minh is safely in the Peking camp not because of any romance with Red China but because the Mao regime is helping Hanoi to get on with its job. That job is the "unification" of all Viet Nam under Hanoi domination.

HANOI ON TWO SIDES—Red China's goal is the elimination of American power and influence from Southeast Asia. The North Vietnamese cannot hope to take over South Viet Nam unless the Americans are forced to withdraw, and so it welcomes Peking's help.
But in weighing its chances for survival, the Southeast Asian country also should take note of another recent development. It is the resumption of more or less cordial relations between Hanoi and the Soviet Union. Hanoi, which for years sought to steer a middle course between Moscow and Peking, now has been assured of Russian backing in its war against the Saigon government.
Hanoi, of course, is hedging its bet. It wants Moscow along as protection against the day when Red China turns ugly and tries to grab it all.

SCIENCE LOOKS AT UNDERGROUND WATER
In contrast to the international geographical year, which began its worldwide scientific efforts in 1957 amid great fanfare and official launching celebrations, the international hydrological decade which began with the new year received almost no publicity.

Yet, in the words of Dr. Raymond L. Nace, head of the United States national committee for the international hydrological decade, the IHD may be "the most important long-range international program yet organized to help make human knowledge serve human welfare."

What is the IHD? Nothing more nor less than an attempt to understand the flow of water molecules through their ocean-vaporization-land-ocean cycle. Scientists who thought they had a working knowledge of this cycle have learned in recent years that the secret to great new reservoirs of fresh water lies underground.

Ninety-nine per cent of this planet's water is in the oceans or frozen in its ice caps. The remaining one per cent is the fresh water man must depend upon for all his needs. In terms of the over-all water total, this one per cent may sound like a small pool, but it isn't. Man just has not learned to use it properly.

Consider, for instance, that 1,430 cubic miles of water is added to the continental United States each year. At least 1,000 cubic miles of this is never touched by man, returning to the sky through evaporation and transpiration. About 400 cubic miles of water seeps into the underground reservoirs and only a small volume of the 390 cubic miles of water, which flows back to sea through river waterways has served man.

So, a large part of surface water is wasted. But that is nothing compared to the huge quantity of water stored beneath the surface. An estimated two million cubic miles of it is stored in the earth—virtually untapped.

These few statistics, combined with growing shortages of water in many parts of the world, reveal why hydrology is becoming one of the more important sciences and the international hydrological decade one of the most far-reaching scientific explorations yet undertaken.—The Times (San Mateo, Calif.)

CODDLING OUR ENEMIES
The 204-to-177 vote in the U.S. house of representatives to prohibit "sale" of surplus farm products to the United Arab Republic under the food for peace program demonstrated an understandable lack of confidence in state department and Johnson administration overseas policies.

The vote shattered the Democratic majority, with 76 Democrats joining 128 Republicans against providing more food for Nasser's government to sell to the people to get enough money to finance Nasser's private war in Yemen. It was a vote to take Nasser at his word when he, in effect, told the United States to go to hell and that his friend was the Soviet Union. It was also, one may suspect, a vote of censure for Nasser's continuing threats against Israel and arming of Congo rebels.

We think the house vote reflected American public opinion that the state department and AID officials have been too soft in turning the other cheek to all threats and attacks against the United States. The Johnson administration, already mounting a full-scale effort to get the senate to restore the food-for-Nasser give away (the United States is paid in UAR currency and spends most of that to help the UAR in other fields), pleads that it must have a free hand to deal with Nasser. It has had a free hand—in the UAR, Indonesia and other nations that have turned against the United States. The result has not been satisfactory to the American people.

Perhaps the house will not prevent over the senate in this issue. If not, the administration has been warned of public mistrust. Americans are fed up with paying enemies to insult and to join alliances dedicated to destroying us.—The Oregonian.

THE TYPICAL AMERICAN
A typical American is a fellow who has just driven home from an Italian mogle in his German car, is sitting on Danish furniture, drinking Brazilian coffee out of an English china cup, writing on Irish linen paper with a Japanese ball point pen—complaining to his congressman about too much American gold going overseas.—Northwestern Miller.

WHAT WINTER?

Polsty:
If we're going to have that additional six weeks of winter weather predicted Feb. 2 by the old groundhog, well, we'd better start having it pretty damned soon. Even if the additional winter started right now, it would run past the first day of spring which is scheduled on the calendar for around March 21.

I think this is one time the old groundhog flubbed terribly. I think our winter weather is all behind us and we're going to have a gradually warming and quite long spring.

And by the way, although there's plenty of snow in the mountains, there really wasn't any bad weather this year. Even the Richfield-Carey area didn't have the sort of weather experienced last year. And down here in the bottom lands, I don't think the temperature even got down to zero did it?

SLOW PROGRESS

Dear Mr. Pot Shots:
When I first started working for a living, we didn't use a clock to tell when it was time to go to work, we used the sun. At daylight, it was time to be working and nearly everyone worked until along about sunset, give or take a hour or so.

Well, after a few years we worked up to the point where we worked only 10 hours a day, but managed to put in 10 hours every day except Sunday. More years went by and our working time was cut to nine hours, then eight hours, but still six days a week.

Then we hit the jackpot! Eight hours a day, five days a week. Still later, we managed to sneak in a couple of coffee breaks and get paid for them. Now I think we've been stalled at this point too long. I think it's high time our work week should be cut in half because too many of us have ulcers and other signs of over-work.

World Corners

BY PHIL NEWSOM

UPI Foreign News Analyst
India's 1961 census disclosed that in the huge sub-continent there are 845 different languages and major dialects.

Of this polyglot, Hindi and its dialects are used by some 350 million less than half of the population, mainly in the north. Among them all, the single unifying factor has been the English language, an inheritance of years of British colonial rule. Particularly this applied to the civil service.

The great diversity of language made hopeless the task of unifying state and national administrations without a common denominator.
And so it was that the constitution to 1950 directed that English should be the official language for the first 15 years and on Jan. 26, 1956, should be replaced by Hindi.

In 1963 parliament passed a law saying that non-Hindi speaking states could, if they wished, retain English as an "associate language" for another 10 years. But it failed to appease the fears of millions of Indians who feared loss of their jobs to Hindi speakers or the resentment of those states proud of their own native tongue.

Rule by not being uncommon among the explosive Indian population, it was not too surprising that on Jan. 26, in the state of Madras in the south mobs began taking to the streets.
Madras is a Tamil-speaking state, a language used by about 34 million.

The rioters attacked trains, burned stations and cut telephone lines in an attempt to halt communication.
The mobs seized two policemen and burned them alive. Seven persons burned themselves to death in protest suicides.

The riots then spread to Mysore and Kerala states where students attacked trains and post offices and stoned Hindi teachers.
In Calcutta where Bengal is the principal tongue, student demonstrators smashed windows of bookshops and burned Hindi books.

For mild-mannered Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri the language riots were just one of many burdens but they threatened to have widespread repercussions.
Neither the Indian president nor some members of Shastri's cabinet approved of his handling of the situation.

The rioting put new strains on the ruling congress party already bursting at the seams as result of the loss of former Prime Minister Nehru.
In Kerala state elections are scheduled for next month, and the communists who made political profit out of the food riots of last November seem likely to make further gains out of the language riots.

Kerala is the only Indian state where the communists ever have held power. They were in office from 1957 to 1959.
It is a tragedy of India that Nehru left it with a heritage of 17 years of democracy but failed to solve any of its other major problems.

The greatest of these is a faltering economy unable to feed India's exploding population. Hand in hand are inflation and mounting unemployment.
With all of these facing him, Shastri seemed ready to compromise on the language issue.

This can be followed by an application of calamine lotion. You should also keep the child's fingernails cut short and, if necessary, tie mittens on his hands. Every scratch may result in a scar.

During the acute stage, it helps to spend as much time with your child as possible so that you can keep him occupied and keep his mind off the itching. Antihistamines given by mouth may help to check the itching.
As the lesions dry, scales form. Later they fall off or are brushed off. These scales are harmless and will not spread the disease.
Q—It is true that if a baby is born two months ahead of time he may be perfectly formed and weigh seven pounds at birth?
A—Since estimating the exact length of pregnancy is subject to a variety of errors, we no longer define prematurity in terms of months, but rather in terms of birth weight. The arbitrary dividing line is five and one-half pounds. Any baby that weighs more is not premature.

The Doctor Says

BY WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Chicken pox is usually seen in late winter or early spring. It gets its name from the chickenpox which the lesions are said to resemble, not from the barnyard fowl.

Although it is not severe in children, it can make an adult very sick for a few days.
The cause is a virus, the same one that causes shingles. Since an attack almost always confers a life-long immunity, if you get chicken pox you need never fear an attack of shingles.

This is one reason some doctors advocate exposing a child to chicken pox when he is young—not under 1 year, however.
Once exposed, there is an incubation period of 12 to 21 days. Since you may get this disease from close contact with a person four or five days before he himself comes down with it, you are never quite sure whom you should avoid.

This is true of most of the so-called diseases of childhood and this fact is a tremendous help in keeping them going.
In the first two, or three days of the disease the victim appears to have a cold. No one can say for sure it is chicken pox. Then, a rash of little blisters starts to appear and the diagnosis is clear. The lesions usually itch intensely.

Although they won't leave any scar unless they become secondarily infected with pus-forming germs, it is hard to keep this from happening.
There are rarely any other complications and your doctor can help you prevent your child from getting these scars.
It is important to keep the child clean and to allay the itching. A daily tub bath using baking soda or a starch that dissolves in warm water will help.

This can be followed by an application of calamine lotion. You should also keep the child's fingernails cut short and, if necessary, tie mittens on his hands. Every scratch may result in a scar.

During the acute stage, it helps to spend as much time with your child as possible so that you can keep him occupied and keep his mind off the itching. Antihistamines given by mouth may help to check the itching.
As the lesions dry, scales form. Later they fall off or are brushed off. These scales are harmless and will not spread the disease.
Q—It is true that if a baby is born two months ahead of time he may be perfectly formed and weigh seven pounds at birth?
A—Since estimating the exact length of pregnancy is subject to a variety of errors, we no longer define prematurity in terms of months, but rather in terms of birth weight. The arbitrary dividing line is five and one-half pounds. Any baby that weighs more is not premature.

MARQUIS CHILDS WRITES ON WASHINGTON

By HENRY J. TAYLOR

Goodbye to the boys in Syracuse, Bobby Kennedy has piled a free ride in the postoffice there, too. Oh, mama mia!

This column recently detailed a gray-train in New York's Grand Central postoffice. Not one word about his wootty ($200,000) lulu, mind you, until the public was informed. Then explanations—and denials—Marquis Childs came winging from Mr. Kennedy and his aides like startled pigeons on the postoffice itself. Postoffice regulations state that "limited office accommodations be made available when convenient" to the state's two U.S. senators visiting New York. Modest layouts have been set aside on the fifth floor for years. But what do regulations mean to Bobby Kennedy? He piled himself into something totally different.

Politicians so habitually make unreliable statements themselves that many somehow come to assume everybody lives like that. They should know better. The formula would be quick death in the newspaper business.

The denials in no way change the official facts. These are that Mr. Kennedy gave the boot to the postoffice operations manager and his executive group, properly located to supervise the public's mail, and took over (free) the space himself; thereby posing a serious and unfair problem to postoffice efficiency while he at the same time brazenly nicked the taxpayers' apen-ty.

I have in hand the official postoffice department directive. It is entitled "Space for Senator Robert P. Kennedy," dated Jan. 7, signed by engineering and facilities division Director J. J. Kerwin to Regional Director Sean P. Keating.

I quote: "As a result of a request made by Senator Kennedy for space," Rooms 401, 402, 403, 404 and 405, presently designated as the general offices of the operations manager, Grand Central postoffice, will be vacated and that space allotted to the senator."

To achieve this, it then orders (free) precisely the upheavals, alterations and movings on the fourth- and fifth floors that I enumerated. Next it authorizes form 73 for the free purchase of Mr. Kennedy's furniture, glass, and clothes with the telephone equipment problem on the two floors "because of the dislocation of the postoffice units."

Government engineers in charge tell me, as I wrote, what the over-all tab will run more than $200,000. This estimate is official and impeccable. Actually, the cost probably will be nearer to $225,000. Drove—have been working at the thing for the solid weeks and have at least three more weeks to go. At Mr. Kennedy's $12,000 to $15,000 figure is hogwash.

However, the Neanderthalist in Mr. Kennedy's typical plea of innocence ("Who, me?") made me wonder if visions of other sugar plum aunts dancing in his head. Was he also throwing his weight around behind the scenes elsewhere? Upstate, where he intends another office? Surprise, surprise—he is.

On Feb. 11 Washington aide Walter J. Sheridan said, "Mr. Kennedy has chosen the main postoffice building on Clinton Square." I find, but Sheridan failed to say, all will likewise be free. I also find the choice makes hardly-predictable Mr. Kennedy New York's first and only elective officer of any kind ever to contrive this gimmick.

The district office of the U.S. railroad retirement board goes out. It vacates rooms 372-374. Bobby Kennedy moves in. Board Manager William R. Spence says his group will move to the Chimes building, 109 West Onondaga street, room 620.

Well, what? Mr. Kennedy achieves another free ride, the federal government rents on lease the space in the Chimes building and the tune you hear is the cheery sound of our tax money clinking, clanking, tinkling down the drain.

Irrepressible Mr. Kennedy has arranged himself into a place so overstrained that on Feb. 11 the postoffice department opened bids sought by its release No. 64-119 of "an" for an "existing building" to "alleviate conditions at the main postoffice in Syracuse."

Conscience and money somehow do not seem to mix in politics. But when I wrote that I find it especially galling if the very rich—silently, oh, so silently—spend our money when they should spend their own, believe me, I meant it.

But his rhinestone youth has long since turned into a diamond brilliance. He touches the industry where its heart is—the box office cash box. Now, feeling a bit camera weary, he'd like to try Broadway. "I'm looking for a good musical role," he said. "I've been taking singing lessons for a year."

At 39, this 200-pound, 6-foot, 4-inch actor probably is the man most U.S. voters would rather be cast up on a desert isle with. What kind of a person is he? "Well," he said, enjoying the question, "I like coffee, nice people, old clothes, old cars, new cars, leftover foods, skin diving, hockey, wood paneling, hand-rubbed wooden antiques, old books, paintings, sculpture, the feel of marble, candlelight, leather, color films, harmony of sea, heat waves, electric fans and grays, scooters and a dog."

"And I like clean sheets, good service, moonlight, fireplace, traveling, yodelling, reading fantasy tales, biographies, reference books, do-it-yourself books, making tape recordings of good music, playing the piano—but just for myself—remodeling houses, opera, limousines, the month of July, excitement in my life, kitchens, and Julie Andrews."

His first screen test in 1947 was so poor that one studio for a time showed it to other beginners as an example of poor acting.

Oswald Jacoby, Bridge

BRIDGE "UPPERCUT" IS HANDY TOOL

The Johannesburg Bridge club of South Africa publishes a monthly bulletin and is kind enough to send it to members of the International Bridge Press association.

A monthly "feature" is an article for students by Ben Cohen, Hove, and his November article about the first three tricks. He simply cashes three high clubs and then looks around for some place to find a fourth trick.

In a brief review of the bidding will tell him that there is no chance to collect a trick in either red suit. South has bid four spades all by himself and certainly has at least six spades in his hand. He has shown up with three clubs and therefore can hold more than four top cards and dummy has four top cards in the red suits.

Thus the only possible trick is in trumps and West can get a trump trick if he can get his partner to trump the lead of a fourth club with the king, queen or jack of spades.

West must lead the last club and if East is smart enough to trump with the jack he will force South to use up one of his high honors an West can spot and take the setting trick.

CARD SENSE

Q—The bidding has been: South-West North-East
1♠ Pass 1♠ Pass
2♥ Pass 3♥ Pass
4♥ Pass 5♥ Pass
5♠ Pass
You, South, hold:
♠A10KQJ98 ♣AQK ♠AKK
What do you do?
A—Pass. You have about your full strength already. However, if you do choose to bid six hearts you should expect to have some play for the slam.

TODAY'S QUESTION
Instead of responding one spade to your one-heart opening, your partner has responded two clubs. What do you do now?

TOTAL ELECTRIC HOMES

An insurance company has recently announced home owners' insurance at lower rates for total electric homes in Idaho than for homes using other forms of energy. The reduction amounts to 10% of the company's fire insurance rate. This recognizes the superior safety of flameless electric house heating, water heating, cooking and laundry drying.

Until now, insurance costs for total electric homes, and for homes with a combination of electric and flame-type equipment, were exactly the same. Fire policies are permitted under the new, lower-cost policies applying to total electric homes.

I would like to put some of my money in municipal bonds, because the interest paid on such bonds is not subject to Federal income tax. But I once read that unless an individual is in at least the 42 per cent income tax bracket, he should not invest in municipal bonds. What do you think of this?

A: I think it's a rather strong and accurate statement. Granted, the so-called municipal bonds appeal more to people in higher tax brackets. But they are owned by people in just about every tax bracket.

Such bonds are more properly called "tax-free public bonds." Because they are issued by states and political subdivisions of states (counties, cities, towns, school districts, bridge and tunnel authorities, etc.) the owners of the bonds are not required to pay Federal income taxes on the interest they receive from the bonds.

Varied Instruments Used to Determine Weather Forecast for Twin Falls Area

By SAMUEL DAVIS
KIMBERLY, Feb. 22—It has been said many times that no one can do too much about the weather. But with many varied types of instruments a meteorologist can predict what the weather will be doing the next day or week.

Twin Falls is surrounded by mountainous terrain. Flat farm land extends in most directions from here, and farmers need to know the general forecast so they can predict when to start planting.

The United States department of commerce-weather bureau, located a mile east of Red Cap corner near Kimberly, provides this information.

But, without gathering daily the solar information and weather data there is no way a meteorologist can forecast what kind of weather is predicted for the area.

This area has well earned the name of "Magic Valley." The most rainfall ever recorded in Twin Falls is 18.35 inches in 1907. Farmers in southern states do not have to worry very much about irrigation as farmers in the Magic Valley, because of rainfall there.

Total annual rainfall average, according to the weather bureau, around this area is 8.74 inches. This is compared to a 48.91-inch average in southern Georgia.

According to W. E. Huxman, meteorologist, "This weather bureau station is different than the ones located at airports."

It is an agricultural weather service office to aid farmers. At airport stations weather observations are taken every half hour. Huxman said observations here are made every hour.

John W. Cline has been employed as chief meteorologist to replace the late C. B. Nelson. Nelson was the meteorologist when the station first opened here in the spring of 1962.

Probably one of the most valuable instruments to the farmer the weather station has is the soil temperature recorder.

Huxman said this instrument records temperature at four, eight, 20 and 36 inches. This instrument is not usually found in the weather bureau is —30 on Jan. 19, 1922. The highest ever recorded is 106 on July 9, 1939. The highest temperature in Twin Falls does not vary too much with this southern city. Highest ever recorded there is 105 on July 12, 1897, and the lowest is 7.8 degrees above zero on Feb. 13, 1899.

The humidity is much higher in Georgia or any coastal city than in Twin Falls.

The weather bureau plays an important part in this agricultural area, especially in the spring and summer. Farmers depend on it greatly.

Dutch Aid Sought by Indonesia

AMSTERDAM, Feb. 22 (AP)—Indonesia has come to Holland asking help to get out of its financial difficulties. The Dutch are ready to help—but not endlessly.

It is a strange relationship that the nation with 100 million people should count heavily on this tiny little population of 12 million, but that is the way it is.

The Dutch, who were crowded out of Southeast Asia after the war, have lost much interest in their old colony. However, some attachments continue—financial, political and sentimental.

The European common market enticed much Dutch attention away from Southeast Asia and the Dutch also discovered that the millions in investments they had poured into Indonesia could be invested with even greater profit at home.

The change has contributed to making Holland one of the most prosperous little countries in the world, and one of the most industrialized.

With the change of direction, Holland's exports climbed from 15 billion dollars in 1950 to over five billion dollars in 1958. Overall industrial production increased by about 80 per cent over 1951 while the national industrial income jumped from four billion dollars in 1949—the year of Indonesia's independence—to over 12 billion dollars in 1963.

And what has happened to Dutch trade with Indonesia? In 1938, before the war, about 10 per cent of Dutch exports went there. By 1963 it was barely a third of one per cent. More than half Holland's exports go to the common market.

A delegation of Indonesian officials is in Holland. Foreign Minister Joseph Luns assured them their country could count on credits of a hundred million guilders, about 30 million dollars. That is only a drop in the bucket of Indonesia's needs. A foreign ministry official commented that Indonesia needs not millions, but billions.

"That kind of aid cannot come from our population of 12 million," he said.

Building up relations with Indonesia at this time invites its own chain of troubles.

"We are facing problems on the United Nations security council when the Malaysia issue comes up," said one Dutch spokesman. He explained that Britain, the principal supporter of Malaysia, is also Holland's closest friend in Europe. Britain wouldn't be happy about large Dutch credits to Indonesia while President Sukarno threatens to obliterate Malaysia.

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

MONDAY, FEB. 22—Born today, you are a person of great integrity and inner strength.

Though you may not stand out from the crowd during ordinary circumstances, in times of unusual stress or strain your courage and determination comes to the fore, enabling you to take over the situation and make order out of chaos. One of those who people follow, you have a responsibility to others which you know and accept.

Your life is not destined to be any "bed of roses." Indeed, there may be times when you will wonder whether good times will ever come again. These are feelings, however, which you will keep to yourself, especially if you have a family. To them and to any who depend on you, you will impart your wisdom and your hope, but never your disappointment.

Emotionally stable, you are not one to fly off the handle or to see the world through rose-colored glasses. A realist through and through—but never without that dash of hope that makes your view of reality special—you would make a reliable mate for anyone so long as that anyone possessed the same sort of integrity that you do.

Among those born on this date are George Washington, first president; Frederic Chopin, noted Polish composer, pianist; James Russell Lowell, American poet, critic.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Tuesday, Feb. 23
PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20)—You can benefit greatly by appeals to the right people. Put your personality to work.

ARIES (March 21-April 20)—See to debts without further delay. Your reputation rides on your promptness.

TAURUS (April 21-May 21)—Whatever travel is necessary to fulfill this day's requirements successfully should be accomplished before noon.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)—Limit today's activities to those affairs that are absolutely necessary. Let all else go by the board.

CANCER (June 22-July 23)—An excellent day to make all decisions in consideration of quality not quantity.

LEO (July 24-Aug. 23)—Stick to essentials in all business affairs today. The planning done today should bear fruit tomorrow.

VIRGO (Aug. 24-Sept. 23)—Avoid limiting your activities to today. Test your own work capacity.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)—Separate business from pleasure at this time. Avoid financial transactions with friends.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 23)—A number of leads regarding your future may crop up today. Keep alert.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22)—Don't mistake the results of labor for the off-hand smile of Lady Luck. Emulate those whose success you admire.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23-Jan. 20)—The Capricorn who puts on his reputation may be in for a rude awakening by the end of the week.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)—Whether news from afar is good or bad depends upon how you interpret it and what you want from it.

Argentine Is Winner of Bogota Meet

BOGOTA, Columbia, Feb. 22 (AP)—Argentine veteran Robert de Vincenzo broke a three-way tie with a four-under-par 68 Sunday and won the Bogota open golf tournament, second stop on the Caribbean tour, by four strokes.

De Vincenzo, who has topped a half dozen international titles and is playing the Caribbean circuit for the first time, finished with a 272, 16 under par for the four rounds over the Los Llanos course.

The 41-year-old pro entered Sunday's final round in a deadlock with Al Spassink, Canadian, and John Barnum, American, but he pulled out in front.

He ripped off a four-under-par 32 on the front nine, then came home in par 36 for the $3,000 first prize.

Besselink closed out with a par 72 and second place at 278 while School went to a 74 and third place at 278.

"I saw Besselink was shooting par after the ninth hole," de Vincenzo said, "while I was four over par after that."

West Ellis, West Caldwell, N. J., and Raymond Floyd, St. Andrews, Ill., were tied for fourth at 279 and John Barnum, Belmont, Mich., had a 280. Defending champion Art Wall shot a final round 69 for 284.

Detroit Nips Toronto, Ties For Third

DETROIT, Feb. 22 (AP)—Detroit packed all its scoring into the second period Sunday night and then squeaked out a 3-2 victory over Toronto that moved the Red Wings into a third-place National Hockey league tie with the Maple Leafs.

Bruce MacGregor, Val Fonteyne and Alex Delvecchio tallied for Detroit. Delvecchio's power play goal was his second winning goal in as many days.

Bob Pulford and George Armstrong scored for Toronto, which lost for only the second time in its last 10 starts.

The Leafs started five defenses, a play used somewhat successfully several weeks ago by Toronto Manager-Coach Punch Imlach against Montreal. But this time the five defenses didn't get a shot on the Detroit net.

Pulford gave Toronto a 1-0 lead at 6:30 of the second period with his 18th goal of the season, shoveling a shot from behind the goal line. It hit Detroit goalie Roger Crozier on the hip and caromed into the net.

MacGregor scored 55 seconds later on a scramble in front of Leaf goalie Terry Sawchuk. It was his 10th goal of the season.

On Fonteyne's goal defense, man Marcel Pronocost intercepted a Toronto pass and fired the puck into the corner. MacGregor dug it out and centered it for Fonteyne.

Delvecchio increased the Wing lead to 3-1 at 13:21, just four seconds after Shuck was penalized for slashing Gordie Howe.

Memphis Sets Fifth Annual Track Meet

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Feb. 22 (AP)—Some of the most powerful track and field teams from eight states will converge on Memphis this week-end to participate in the fifth annual Jaycee indoor track carnival.

A total of 21 college and university squads have already entered the two-day event, including Tennessee, Arkansas, Florida State, Murray State and Tennessee A and I.

High school squads will see action on Friday and colleges and universities Saturday.

Tennessee, now being driven by Coach Chuck Röhre's determined effort to make the school a national track and field power, is sure to be a front-runner in the event.

The Vols last year won the Southeastern conference outdoor championship and last week, in Montgomery, Ala., ran away with what is, in effect, the SEC indoor championship by scoring more than three times the points of their nearest challenger.

The most notable entry in the carnival will be Tennessee A and I. The Tigers, who produced the world's great long jumper in Ralph Boston, will enter a full team in the event, integrating it for the first time.

DATE SET? BOSTON, Feb. 22 (AP)—The date of the long-delayed world heavyweight title fight between champion Cassius Clay and challenger Sonny Liston, will be announced Monday.

SUN VALLEY, Feb. 22 (AP)—Two Twin Falls boys dominated the amateur racing class here Sunday in the 25th running of the Sun Valley Ski club championships.

Charles McWilliams went down the course in 67 seconds and Bob Sevy was second with 72.

In the women's championship class, 12-year-old Sandra Poulsen, Squaw Valley, won with a time of 77.4 seconds on the same course raced by the men. Jacky Watson, Sun Valley, was second at 77.4.

Colorado Is Victor of Own Skiing Meet

LAKE ELDORA, Colo., Feb. 22 (AP)—Denver University won the slalom event, but couldn't overcome Colorado's big lead as the Buffaloes won their own intercollegiate meet here Sunday by 4½ points.

Colorado had the individual slalom winner in Bill Marolt, but Denver outscored CU by 1.2 points in the event.

CU's 5.5 point lead was too big a spread for the defending champion Buffaloes to overcome. Denver led CU by nearly two full seconds after the first slalom run, but Rip McNamara, in sixth place after the first run, straddled a gate and was disqualified.

Colorado meanwhile skied cautiously, taking no chances on losing racers by disqualification. The victory was Colorado's first against Denver this year, and was the Pioneer's first loss against intercollegiate competition.

Upham received the Dickie Schoenberger award.

Chicago Thumps Bruins by 7-0

CHICAGO, Feb. 22 (AP)—The Chicago Black Hawks took a slightly firmer grip on the National Hockey league Sunday night by beating the last place Boston Bruins 7-0 in a wild fight-filled battle.

Chicago's triumph, combined with second place Montreal's 2-2 tie with New York, boosted the Black Hawks' edge to three points.

Bobby Hull, Chicago's high-scoring left wing, sat out his second game in a row and his sixth in the last eight because of stretched ligaments on both knees.

Memphis Sets Fifth Annual Track Meet

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Feb. 22 (AP)—Some of the most powerful track and field teams from eight states will converge on Memphis this week-end to participate in the fifth annual Jaycee indoor track carnival.

A total of 21 college and university squads have already entered the two-day event, including Tennessee, Arkansas, Florida State, Murray State and Tennessee A and I.

High school squads will see action on Friday and colleges and universities Saturday.

Tennessee, now being driven by Coach Chuck Röhre's determined effort to make the school a national track and field power, is sure to be a front-runner in the event.

The Vols last year won the Southeastern conference outdoor championship and last week, in Montgomery, Ala., ran away with what is, in effect, the SEC indoor championship by scoring more than three times the points of their nearest challenger.

The most notable entry in the carnival will be Tennessee A and I. The Tigers, who produced the world's great long jumper in Ralph Boston, will enter a full team in the event, integrating it for the first time.

DATE SET? BOSTON, Feb. 22 (AP)—The date of the long-delayed world heavyweight title fight between champion Cassius Clay and challenger Sonny Liston, will be announced Monday.

Charles Coasts to Win In Tucson Golf Tourney With Two-Under-Par 70

TUCSON, Ariz., Feb. 22 (AP)—Lanky Bob Charles shot a conservative two-under-par 70 Sunday and coasted home for a four-stroke winner in the $46,000 Tucson open golf tournament with a 72-hole total of 271. Charles, a 29-year-old left-hander from New Zealand, led from the start with earlier rounds of 65-69-67. He finished 17 strokes under par and received $8,800 for winning a tournament he almost didn't enter. The closest contender to the former British open champion was Al Geiberger, who drew to within three strokes at one point on the front nine Sunday, then fell back to finish at 273. Geiberger collected $3,850.

West Leads Lakers Over Celts 129-114

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 22 (AP)—Jerry West's 47-point barrage leveled Boston's defense and enabled Los Angeles to defeat the Celtics 129-114 Sunday night in a National Basketball Association game.

The victory snapped the Lakers' six-game losing streak to Boston and marked their sixth victory in a row.

Los Angeles seized an 11-lead at the start and kept applying the pressure to halftime when it led 65-50.

Besides West's scoring spree, Gene Wiley's constant under-the-basket play enabled Los Angeles to maintain board control over Boston's giant center Bill Russell.

In the third period, a full-court driving lay by Elgin Baylor took the starch out of Boston's rally that had closed the gap to six points 78-72. Baylor was fouled on the play and made good the free throw to boost the Lakers' advantage to 81-72.

Seconds later, West connected on a 20-foot jumper to make it 83-72.

The world champion Celtics never seriously threatened again.

U.S. Olympic Swimmers Top Meet

BREMEN, Germany, Feb. 22 (AP)—A team of American Olympic swimmers, some well off their peak form of the Tokyo games, won five of 10 final events Sunday in the windup of a star-studded international meet.

The winners included Olympic champions Ned Dyer of Verona, N.J., Cathy Ferguson of Burbank, Calif., Dick Roth of Atherton, Calif., the women's medley relay team of Miss Ferguson, Claudia Kohn and Donna de Varona of the Santa Clara, S. C., and Sharon Stouder of Glendora, Calif. The other U.S. victor was Olympian Phil Riker of Paterson, N.J.

Roth took the 200 meter backstroke in 2:14.3; Roth won the 400-meter medley in 4:57.1; Riker captured the 100 meter butterfly in 58.0; Miss Ferguson won the 100 meter backstroke in 1:38.1 and the girls' medley relay quartet edged Holland by three-tenths of a second in 4:37.5.

Miss Stouder, winner of three gold medals and one silver at Tokyo, had been busy touring the meet circuit. She only recently resumed training.

The 18-year-old Olympic queen bowed to Ada Kok of the Netherlands, who was timed in the Dutch record of 2:25.8 for the 200 meter butterfly, and lost in the 100 meter freestyle to another Dutch girl, Winnie Van Weerdenburg, who was timed in 1:02.2. Miss Stouder was timed in 1:02.5 in the freestyle with Miss de Varona third in 1:03.4.

Group Seeks Spot With AAU

NEW YORK, Feb. 22 (AP)—The Road Runners club of America, a group which promotes long distance running, took steps at its annual meeting Sunday to become an allied body of the Amateur Athletic Union.

In doing so, the group, through its president, Hugh D. Jascourt of Greenbelt, Md., announced its support of the AAU in its current feud with the National Collegiate Athletic Association over control of amateur athletics in this country.

Also Scandurra, chairman of the AAU long distance running committee, presented a plan to make the Road Runners an allied body of the AAU, which was accepted by the Runners.

N. Y., Montreal, Deadlock at 2-2

NEW YORK, Feb. 22 (AP)—Rookie Doug Robinson dropped in a long shot by rookie Rod Selby with one second to play, giving the New York Rangers a 2-2 deadlock with Montreal's National Hockey League contenders Sunday night.

Robinson's dramatic knotted capped a two-goal, third-period comeback by the 11th-place Rangers, who had been outskated and outshot in the first 40 minutes.

Schollander Adds Award To Collection

NEW YORK, Feb. 22 (AP)—Olympic swimming champion Don Schollander keeps piling up awards.

Acclaimed as The Associated Press male athlete of the year for his four gold medals at Tokyo, Schollander today holds the James E. Sullivan award, given to America's top amateur athlete.

Schollander received his latest award Sunday from Clifford H. Buck, president of the Amateur Athletic Union, at a luncheon at the New York Athletic Club. The award is presented by the AAU each year.

The 18-year-old Yale university freshman from Lake Oswego, Ore., is the second youngest athlete ever to receive the Sullivan award. Decathlon star Bob Mathias was six months younger than Schollander when he was honored in 1948.

Buck described Schollander as a great swimmer and an honor student, who possesses "willingness to help others and advance the cause of amateurism."

The youngster, 35th recipient of the award, scored a record 2,181 points in the balloting by a panel of 739 amateur sportsmen, sportswriters and sportsclub members.

LT. Billy Mills, who won the 10,000 meter race at Tokyo, was second.

Beaty Paces St. Louis Past Detroit

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 22 (AP)—Zelmo Beaty scored nine points in the last four minutes of play as the St. Louis Hawks outlasted the Detroit Pistons 112-107 in a National Basketball Association game Sunday.

The Hawks needed a hot hand from Beaty and teammate Cliff Hagan to offset a last quarter effort by Detroit's Joe Caldwell. Beaty and Hagan combined for 18 of the Hawks' 29 points. Caldwell had 12 in an effort to keep Detroit close.

Caldwell did bring Detroit within two points, 107-105 with two minutes left, but the Hawks prevailed.

Detroit missed an opportunity in the third period when St. Louis hit on only six of 21 field goal attempts and scored 18 points. But, the Pistons could score only 20.

The Hawks never trailed after midway in the second quarter.

Unbeaten Bonavena to Meet Folley

By The Associated Press
Oscar Bonavena moves up in class Friday night when the unbeaten heavyweight from Argentina takes on Ora Folley, a high-ranked contender for Cassius Clay's title.

The husky slugger from Buenos Aires has won eight in a row since he turned pro Jan. 3, 1964. Seven of his fights ended in knockouts. The only man to go the route with him was Dick Wipperfurth in a 10-rounder. In other appearances he stopped Tom McNeely and Billy Stephan.

Folley has been mixing with the best for years. At the age of 31 he has fought 78 times as a pro. His record is 68-1-4 with 38 knockouts. One of his more important victories was scored in 1964 over George Chuvalo of Toronto, who fought such an exciting losing battle with Floyd Patterson Feb. 1.

If Bonavena whips Folley, who is ranked No. 5 by Ring and No. 4 by the World Boxing Association, it could land him a bout with Patterson in May. If Folley wins he might be interested in Patterson, the winner of the WBA's heavyweight title fight in Chicago March 5 between Ernie Terrell and Eddie Machen.

Widener Handicap Jockeys Are Asked to Review Race Movie

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 22 (AP)—It may cost one or more jockeys some time off or a fine for his part in Saturday's $135,600 Widener at Hialeah park. Stewards said Sunday that Sandino Hernandez on Primordial 2nd, the winner; Larry Adams on Your Alibhai, Jacinto Vasquez on Tibaldo and Bob Ussery on Valiant Man would be invited to review motion pictures of the race along with the other eight Widener jockeys who may wish to attend. In race track parlance, invited means he is there. Asked if the press would be admitted, veteran steward Keene Dangerfield replied:

"No. You don't invite the neighbors in when you're going to spank the babies." He said the press could view the movies later.

Primordial 2nd survived a foul claim by Adams, who alleged interference at the end of the stretch. After studying film pictures for 10 minutes, the stewards denied the claim.

First money was $88,140 and third was $13,560. If Primordial 2nd had been disqualified and placed third, that would have put Your Alibhai in second and made his share $27,120.

Hernandez, the 24-year-old Panamanian jockey, said there was no foul. He claimed the horse in front of Your Alibhai—

Hicks Raises U. S. Ski Jump Hopes

ISHPEMING, Mich., Feb. 22 (AP)—Dave Hicks, a 19-year-old student at the University of Minnesota, Duluth, campus, lifted America's international ski jumping hopes Sunday when he edged Japan's Yukio Kasaya at Ishpeeming's international ski jumping championships.

Hicks electrified a crowd of more than 4,000 with a 258-foot leap off Suicide Hill's 70-meter slide, holding his form in the face of a 30-mile-an-hour wind. The wind carried him five feet off course near the edge of the landing area but he held his position for a perfect landing. It was the longest jump of the day.

"It was one of the best jumps I've ever seen an American make in this country," said Art Tokie, U. S. Olympic ski jumping coach.

"This represents a fantastic step for us in our bid to become a leader in international ski jumping competition."

Combined with another jump of 251 feet, Hicks' point total of 228.4 gave him a near 10-point edge over Kasaya. Total points are based on distance and form. Judges awarded Kasaya a total of 216.5 points for leaps of 255 and 240 feet.

Point du Jour—stopped and Adams had to pull up and come out.

"Well, he came out and brushed my horse as we went by," Hernandez continued. "I didn't bother him. What does he expect? Should I take my horse into the clubhouse to give him a room?"

What actually happened, according to observers, was that Primordial 2nd was carried out by Your Alibhai and brushed by Adams' mount at the top of the stretch.

The Vasquez-Ussery matter was more personal. "My horse was lugging in on the backstretch," Ussery said. "But I got him straightened up and when Vasquez came by me on the inside, he let me have it."

"I wish you'd look at the movies and draw your own conclusions. I don't want to be a rat," Ussery said.

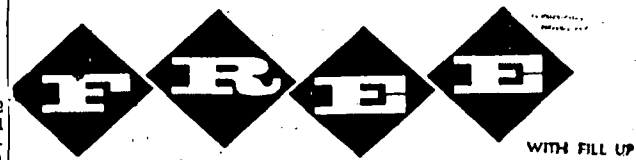

Vasquez, a Panamanian, said, "He was coming in on me."

An official said Ussery cut in on Tibaldo on the first turn, left room for Vasquez to get through along the backstretch "then it happened."

Any suspension could cost Ussery the Hialeah riding championship. He has ridden 29 winners to 33 for Mike Venezia, the leader. It could cost any of the jockeys involved a chance to ride in the Black Hills, Hialeah Turf Cup, Florida Breeders' and the Flamingo stakes, all scheduled for running in the next 10 days.

TV Schedules

"Cinderella" (Color Special, 6:30 p.m. CBS)—Once upon a time (back in 1957) Rodgers and Hammerstein wrote the only musical ever originated for television. It was based on the classic fairy tale involving a mistreated peasant girl, a prince and a fairy godmother who has the magical powers to change pumpkins and mice into coaches and teams of horses. The earlier video version of the beloved children's tale went over rather big, so now it's being restaged with a new cast and one new song. The cast includes Ginger Rogers, Walter Pidgeon, Celeste Holm and Jo Van Fleet. Featured as Cinderella and the prince are Lesley Ann Warren and Stuart Damon.

"The Alfred Hitchcock Hour" (8:30 p.m. NBC)—Tonight's drama concerns "An Unlocked Window," with Dana Wynter portraying a nurse who spends a terrifying night in an old country house.

"The Bing Crosby Show" (8:30 p.m. ABC)—Frankie Avalon and Vikki Carr are co-starting tonight as a pair of teen-age newlies who move next door to Bing and his family.

"CBS Reports" (10:30 and 10:40 p.m. CBS)—Walter Lippman, famed author and political analyst, assesses the state of the nation and the world when he returns for his sixth annual appearance on this news-documentary series.

"The River's Edge" (Color, 1956) Debra Paget, Anthony Quinn and Ray Milland (8 p.m. KSL)—Suspense-filled drama of a killer who seeks revenge on the Korean war veteran who married his girl friend.
