

Steel Strike Is Delayed by Pay Raise Contract

PITTSBURGH, April 27 (AP)—A four-month steel strike reprieve was virtually certain today, lifting what the Johnson administration viewed as a disastrous threat to the nation's economy. Ratification by the United Steelworkers union and 10 major steel firms is expected to be a mere formality Wednesday, swapping a postponement of Saturday's 12:01 a.m. strike deadline for a pay raise of 11.5 cents an hour. "This is a good day for the economy," said federal mediator William E. Simkin after union President David J. McDonald and chief industry negotiator R. Conrad Cooper put their initials on the agreement.

Tractor Pins Hazelton Man In Accident

HAZELTON, April 27—Richard Taverna, route 2, Hazelton, was undergoing treatment in the emergency room at Magic Valley Memorial hospital, Twin Falls, Tuesday noon after being pinned underneath a tractor in a traffic accident at 10:45 a.m. today.

According to State Patrolman James Gerke, Taverna, who is employed by Charles Kimball, was driving a 1949 Moline tractor, pulling a Case disc, west on highway 25.

The disc overturned, overturning the tractor with it, and the equipment was struck by a 1955 International truck loaded with grain driven by James L. Grant, 28, route 1, Heyburn.

Grant told officers he had to cut back into his own lane of traffic because a car was coming from the opposite direction. Grant was not injured and there was no damage to the truck, owned by J. S. Craven, Paul.

Taverna received serious face and back lacerations and possible internal injuries.

Floodwaters Yield Large Catch for 3

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 27 (AP)—The Mississippi river, which has flooded lowlands in Minnesota for a month with huge property losses, proved a boon to three adventurers, wading hip-high in its muddy waters yesterday.

The youngsters were casting a net for rough fish, generally known as scavengers, in three feet of water covering St. Paul's downtown airport.

"Something seemed to have caught on my hook," said Tom Dahir, 15, "and I began to pull it in slowly."

Dahir drew the line closer, then shouted for his companions to "grab my fish."

The three youths grasped the sluggish fish and walked nearly a city block to dry land.

The catfish weighed 40 pounds, measured 44 inches in length and its girth was 26 1/2 inches.

Board Hears Debate On Area Road Plans

BOISE, April 27 (AP)—Alternate proposed routes for interstate highway 80N in the Bliss to Jerome section were debated before the state highway board today and Chairman R. Doyle Symms said the decision will be based on which can best serve the communities involved. Three routes are under consideration, one, called the railroad route, following present state highway 25, another taking a

Rural Roads, Fields Are Under Water

HAILEY, April 27—Some flooding was reported here today as runoff from heavy winter snows continues to swell the Big Wood river.

Water officials pointed out that so far the river has risen gradually and no serious trouble has been reported.

Jack Reinsch, Blaine county commissioner, said culverts have stopped up in the Lake creek subdivision and also on Deer creek. The Deer creek road, into Clarendon hot springs, is flooded by about six inches of water but is still passable.

In the Rock creek area, water was reported over a rural road and plowed ground owned by W. V. McAtee, Hailey, was under water. The area is about five miles west of Hailey.

The main channel of the Big Wood river has been widened to help protect the area from flooding.

Dominican Revolt Appears Deadlocked

SANTO DOMINGO, April 27 (UPI)—A military revolt here appeared deadlocked today after a day of ground and air fighting in which at least 20 persons were killed and more than 60 injured. The U. S. aircraft carrier Boxer, carrying a strong marine detachment and accompanied by a number of landing craft, was reported standing off the coast in readiness to rescue American civilians if the fighting spread. Some gunfire was heard during the night, but there were no reports of heavy fighting.

Plane Crashes

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif., April 27 (AP)—The newest and most promising of U. S. vertical takeoff planes—a breed designed to rise like a helicopter and speed like a fighter—crashed on the desert today in its first public test.

W. L. Lou Everett, 42, chief engineering test pilot for Ryan Aeronautical company, ejected but his parachute failed to open and he was killed.

His XV5A was one of two that made 52 successful flights before today. Powerful fans in wings and nose give it more lift than similar aircraft. It had many times taken off and landed vertically.

Jerome Sets Election on Bond Issue

JEROME, April 27 — Jerome school district patrons will vote Tuesday on a $300,000 bond issue to provide an addition to the Jerome junior high school and the remodeling of other school facilities.

The election, scheduled to begin at noon and continue until 8 p.m., needs a two-thirds majority to pass.

Voters living in the city and county of Jerome in the Jerome district will vote at the high school. Gooding county residents living within Jerome district zone three will vote at the high school or at Appleton elementary school, if they live in districts four or five. Lincoln county residents living in Jerome district four will vote at the Joe Taylor residence.

Signatures On Petitions Total 13,077

BOISE, April 27 (AP)—Valid signatures on sales tax referendum petitions filed with the secretary of state's office were counted today at 13,077.

Attaches in the office said names of 264 petition signers were added to the total even though they are not registered voters. Those persons submitted affidavits saying they had the qualifications to register and on the basis of an attorney general's ruling they were counted.

The secretary of state's office said the petitions filed so far also included the signatures of 2,133 unqualified persons.

2 Embassies In Tunisia Are Attacked

TUNIS, April 27 (AP)—An estimated 10,000 Tunisians attempted today to storm the Egyptian and Iraqi embassies to avenge anti-Tunisian demonstrations in the Middle East.

Windows were broken in the entrance doors of the two embassies were knocked down as crowds struggled for more than two hours with police and guard units.

The crowds clamored for death to Egypt's President Gamal Abdel Nasser.

The demonstration marked a new low in Tunisia's relations with the Arab Middle East and implied a challenge by Tunisian President Habib Bourguiba to Nasser's leadership.

Bourguiba has refused to follow Nasser's policy of an Arab boycott of West Germany for its plan to recognize Israel. In addition, he proposed negotiations with Israel as the only way of solving the Israeli-Arab problem.

Asparagus Hunters Urged To Wash Stalks Carefully

Asparagus hunters along ditch banks in Magic Valley are warned to use common sense and be sure to wash the stalks carefully because of chemicals used to spray weeds in the ditches.

Merle Cherry, Simplot Soll-builders official, said Tuesday, "People should always use care and caution when they go out looking for asparagus. However, there never has been any problem of anyone becoming sick from the chemicals used to kill grass and weeds along ditch banks."

It was reported to the Times.

Smylie Asks Legislation On Gas Tax

BOISE, April 27 (AP)—Gov. Robert E. Smylie said today he will ask members of Idaho's congressional delegation to seek legislation to require payment of state tax on gasoline used at the national reactor testing station. The U. S. supreme court ruled Monday that because title to the gasoline is transferred in Utah, Idaho cannot collect the six-cent-a-gallon state tax. Smylie said in a similar situation involving Washington and Oregon, Washington state tax is paid on gasoline sold in Oregon but used at the Hanford, Wash., plant of the atomic energy commission.

Differences in state law in Utah and Oregon permit the varied application of the tax, he said.

"This is a matter which should be straightened out by federal legislation. Unfortunately the congress does not seem disposed to lend a sympathetic ear to the states in problems like this," Smylie said.

State Tax Collector Floyd West said Idaho highway projects already planned would not be disrupted if the state is required to refund an estimated $400,000 in gas taxes under the court ruling.

The supreme court ruled Monday that Idaho's gas tax was not properly levied on gasoline sold in Salt Lake City for delivery to the atomic energy commission site near Idaho Falls.

The court ordered the case back to Idaho courts "for further proceedings not inconsistent with the opinion" of the high court.

West said taxes collected on the gasoline have been kept in a separate fund and their loss would not affect any current highway projects.

Members of the highway board, meeting in Boise expressed concern shortly after the supreme court decision was announced. They said the loss could cut into money already spent.

Suit for the refund was filed by the American Oil company in Salt Lake City, which sells the gasoline to the AEC for its Idaho Falls operation.

The Idaho supreme court had ruled that the gasoline, though sold out of state, was "received" when it crossed the state line for use in Idaho.

Mr. Derrick's Funeral Held In Oregon

Funeral services for Gerald Lee Derrick, 22, Roseburg, Ore., were held at 2 p.m. Tuesday at Ontario, Ore. He was the son of City Manager and Mrs. H. L. (Herb) Derrick, Twin Falls.

Mr. Derrick was killed in a two-car collision about midnight Saturday when his car collided with one driven by Pasquale Gonzales, 29, Ontario, Oregon state police said Mr. Derrick was dead on arrival at Ontario hospital.

Officers reported that Mr. Derrick drove past a stop sign that was so badly damaged it was not recognizable.

Mr. Derrick's parents went to Ontario Sunday. Egon Kroil, chairman of the Twin Falls city commission, said Monday night the commissioners sent word to the city manager to remain in Ontario, "as long as necessary" to take care of family affairs.

Surviving, besides his parents, are his wife, an infant daughter, and one sister and one brother. The brother, Dalton Derrick, is a captain in the Ontario police department.

Two Parties in Korea to Merge

SEOUL, South Korea, April 27 (AP)—South Korea's two conservative opposition parties have agreed to merge on May 3 in an attempt to strengthen their campaign against President Chung Hee Park's efforts to establish formal relations with Japan this summer.

The new party will be called the Masses party. It will be headed jointly by ex-President Yun Po-sun, head of the Civil Rule Party, and Assemblyman Park Boon-chun, head of the Democrats.

The two parties now have a total of 62 seats in the 170-member national assembly.

MORRIS CARLSON was elected the new chairman of the Twin Falls county commission Monday. Heber J. Loughmiller, new commissioner, was named vice chairman.

Carlson Is Head of T. F. County Board

Morris Carlson, Piler, was elected the new chairman of Twin Falls county commission during an election Monday in the commissioners' office.

Carlson was elected to fill the position left vacant by the death of Mr. W. W. Lowery.

"I'm very pleased and very humble to have this job. It's a big job and I will do my best with the cooperation of Maurice Klaas and Heber J. Loughmiller, the new commissioner," Carlson stated Tuesday morning.

Carlson said the county commissioners met Monday and held an election "among ourselves." The election was held after the new commissioner was sworn in.

Carlson has been a county commissioner for about three months. Loughmiller was named vice chairman.

E. R. Murrow, Newscaster, Dies in N. Y.

PAWLING, N. Y., April 27 (AP)—Edward R. Murrow, 57, internationally known radio and television newscaster and former head of the U. S. information service, died at his home today. He had been ill with cancer for some time.

Murrow gained fame during World War II when his broadcasts from London described in vivid detail the courage and tenacity of the British people under the Nazi blitz.

He had a cancerous lung removed in 1963 and has been in and out of the hospital since.

Cigarettes were one of Murrow's trademarks. He once commented, after chain-smoking through two programs which presented sometimes grim evidence on the connection between smoking and lung cancer: "Smoking is a habit to which I am addicted. Since I've been in this business I have smoked 60 to 70 cigarettes a day. I couldn't very much that I could spend a half-hour without a cigarette with any comfort or ease."

THREE TEEN-AGED BOYS hold 40-pound catfish they caught Monday with a thin line in the Mississippi river overflow at St. Paul, Minn., downtown airport, still covered by three feet of water. ## New Forest Unit Slated Near Ketchum

A new district forest ranger's office to be constructed on the Ketchum and Sun Valley road, is scheduled for completion in September, 1965.

Max Rees, forest supervisor, Sawtooth National forest, Twin Falls, said Tuesday that invitations to bid have been sent out and bids are due by May 12.

He said the new office will be erected on land purchased several years ago by the forest service from the Union Pacific railroad.

The building, which will be of native rock and wood construction, will have an overall width of 33 feet and will be 59 feet in length.

He said the single story building will provide office space for five persons and will feature a reception and display room about 20 by 17 feet. A receptionist will be on duty to better serve the public, Rees said.

"The present office is located on a side street in Ketchum and, according to Rees, is too small to house the district office and is in the wrong location to serve the public.

Persons interested in submitting bids may contact the Twin Falls office or the district ranger's office in Ketchum, Rees stated.

Rivers Bill to Have Rough Go in Congress

WASHINGTON, April 27 (AP)—A wild rivers bill appears headed for a working over similar to that of an earlier wilderness legislation.

A 1964 law, enacted after nearly a decade of study and controversy, authorized the preservation of a nine-million-acre system of wilderness areas in as nearly their natural state as possible.

A senate interior subcommittee hearing last week indicated the legislative rapids will be rough for a measure to create a wild rivers system for the preservation of portions of streams in wilderness areas.

It was announced that many amendments would be considered in an attempt to eliminate criticism that water rights and resource development might be jeopardized.

The bill probably will find its roughest going in the house interior committee.

Influential members of this committee, who refused to go along with senate versions of the wilderness legislation, are known to be skeptical of the wild rivers idea.

Generally they are opposed to setting aside large areas for a single purpose with restrictions against development of water, electric power and other resources.

Some feel that people in flood endangered areas would rather have the wild rivers controlled by dams instead of being preserved in a state that would let them cause death and property damage by flooding.

Most of the 27 witnesses who testified or submitted statements at a two-day senate interior subcommittee hearing recommended approval of a wild rivers bill.

But some proposed changes and others requested field hearings.

Both McGee and Sen. Len B. Jordan, R., Ida., recommended hearings in the areas involved.

Church promised field hearings at places and on dates yet to be chosen. Since two of the rivers are in Idaho, he said, a hearing definitely will be conducted in that state.

Jordan pointed out that two of the six rivers proposed for the system—the Salmon and Clearwater—are in Idaho.

He said Idahoans want change in the bill to make it more acceptable.

"They need assurances that Idaho's economy will not be thwarted" by locking up land without some compensation to Idaho's tax base and over-all economy," he said.

Jordan said sportsmen and conservationists in the West should be given a chance to testify.

In addition to portions of the Green, Salmon and Clearwater, the wild river system would include stretches of the Rogue in Oregon, Upper Rio Grande in New Mexico, and the Suwannee in Georgia and Florida.

The bill also names nine other streams which could be added later.

Chicago police continue searching for the child after having interviewed more than 40,000 persons. Mrs. Fronczak has said, "I believe that God will return Paul some day." (AP wirephoto)

United States Appears to Be in Strategic Bind Again

WASHINGTON, April 27 (AP)—The United States appears to be in a strategic bind in Asia.

Quit possibly, it may produce in time the same bitter debate that U. S. refusal to bomb the Chinese sanctuary north of the Yalu river did in the Korean war.

Since Feb. 7 the United States has been bombing North Viet Nam, but it has carefully refrained from attacking three major target areas—so far.

A military source made the point that on the day any one of the three targets are attacked the fat could be in the fire, meaning this might bring the Red Chinese into the war on an all-out basis.

The three targets are:

- The huge earthen and concrete dam on the Red river north of Hanoi, capital of North Viet Nam.
- The industrial center near Hanoi which the North Vietnamese have been building for the past 10 years and which is the key to their industrial progress.
- The port of Haiphong at the mouth of the Red river which is North Viet Nam's only major deep-water port.

U. S. refusal so far to bomb these targets has limited the world's most powerful air forces to shooting up bridges, rail lines, trucks and junks in the effort to slow North Viet Nam's southward movement of men and material.

Gen. Omar Bradley once asserted that air power can harass and delay, but it cannot stop permanently the movement of men and equipment.

What is going on in North Viet Nam is precisely the kind of effort leveled against the Chinese in North Korea.

Twenty years ago North Viet Nam imported about half its food requirements. While the needs may be smaller now because of an intensive effort to achieve agricultural self-sufficiency.

ports to improve the standards of living and to manufacture goods to be exported in return for food.

The port of Haiphong is the gateway to North Viet Nam. Without its facilities in good working order, North Viet Nam would have difficulty exporting manufactured goods and ores and importing needed foodstuffs.

A military source estimates that the United States could wreck all three targets in one day if so minded.

But if these were destroyed, the industrial center is Hanoi's pride. It is the key to efforts to improve the standards of living and to manufacture goods to be exported in return for food.

Pentagon runs, the North Vietnamese would have nothing left to lose by inviting the Chinese into the war.

German Measles Epidemic Termed "Major Tragedy" to Unborn Babies

WASHINGTON, April 27 (AP)—The doctors call it "rubella." But to anyone who's ever had it, the disease is always "German measles."

Once it was thought to be a relatively harmless and almost unavoidable part of everyone's childhood—like mumps, or chicken pox with which it's sometimes confused, or a broken collar bone.

But now an epidemic of German measles is termed "a major tragedy" by a spokesman for the Johns Hopkins university hospital in Baltimore contends that it is "much more serious" than the menace from the now outlawed drug thalidomide.

Dr. Richard Masland, a director of the national institute of neurological diseases and blindness, told a congressional committee recently that the German measles epidemic which struck the nation last year could result in "thousands of defective babies."

official later elaborated on Masland's testimony. He said there were still many cases of German measles but that the outbreak was not expected to reach epidemic proportions in every section of the United States.

A United Press International survey shows that most of the German measles—associated births apparently occurred in East Coast cities.

At the Johns Hopkins hospital, for example, approximately 40 children were admitted in infancy or were "congenitally malformed" in the past year as the result of their mothers having had German measles.

A Hopkins spokesman said he believed the epidemic "is going to turn out to be a national problem of great magnitude in terms of acute and long-range community problems of education and medical care. The net cost is going to be very great."

"All of this will be much more serious than the thalidomide aftermath, particularly for this country."

Infants infected with German measles usually are underweight, most being two pounds, to four pounds at birth. They are afflicted with congenital heart diseases and cataracts, but these symptoms sometimes do not show up until six months or more after birth. Dr. Joseph Melnick, Houston, one of the world's foremost "virologists," said that occasionally afflicted babies "still put out the virus" for as long as six months after birth and could set off new epidemics.

Doctors are still not certain under what conditions the infection causes malformation in the unborn baby. There are about "six or seven variables" involved, one public health service official said, including the extent of the infection and the mother's physiological system.

Philadelphia, Houston, Baltimore and Washington, D.C. appeared to be the principal areas affected by the German measles epidemic.

Probably the last word on the matter came from a doctor who is chairman of obstetrics and gynecology at Richmond's largest hospital.

"My best advice is for pregnant women to stay away from anyone with measles."

Hot Line Cut

COPENHAGEN, April 27 (AP)—A bulldozer cut the hot line between Washington and Moscow yesterday, local newspapers reported.

They said the line was dead for 16 minutes before the emergency line via Tangier was established.

In order to prevent sabotage and listening-in, the line is constantly switched from one cable to another. Yesterday morning the ordinary postal cable between Denmark and Holland was used.

The line was reported cut near Ringsted, west of Copenhagen, by a bulldozer during road repairs.

If the Sioux had had Soft Whiskey they would never have called it fire water.

The Indians didn't call whiskey "fire water" for nothing. (Why do you think they were yelping all the time?)

And basically, distilling methods haven't changed much since those days. Except for Soft Whiskey, of course.

Soft Whiskey swallows easy. It's gentle going down. You could say we've gotten rid of the evil spirits.

But don't fool yourself. Soft Whiskey isn't for old squaws. It's 86 proof. And it can do anything any other 86 proof can do. It just does it softer.

How did we put out the fire?

For one thing, we distill Calvert Extra in small batches instead of giant ones. The rest of the process will have to remain our secret. You see, other distillers have been trying to develop a Soft Whiskey for years. It was many many moons before we even hit upon it 12 years to be exact. After all that work, we rather enjoy the idea of being the only Soft Whiskey.

Not to admit it would be speaking with forked tongue.

Johnson Signs Manpower Act Extension Bill

WASHINGTON, April 27 (AP)—President Johnson yesterday signed into law his bill to extend the 1957 manpower development and training act to mid-1969.

Calling the bill "a wise and necessary companion" to the administration's education programs, Johnson said he hoped that employers would make every effort to create the jobs needed to keep pace with the expanding labor market.

The development act was originally scheduled to expire next year. In addition to extending its training programs, the new law also provides for extended federal financing of training programs, instead of calling on the states to supply a large part of the cost after June 30, 1965.

Evangelist Ends Crusade In Alabama

AUBURN, Ala., April 27 (AP)—Evangelist Billy Graham turned to the campuses of two more Alabama colleges today to climaxed a four-day crusade twice delayed by rain.

A morning sermon at the football stadium at Auburn University and another at Tuskegee Institute tonight will bring the famed minister's tour of Alabama to a close. He then will go to Copenhagen, Denmark for a two-week revival.

Graham will return to this state for what he calls a major evangelistic crusade in Montgomery beginning June 13.

A heavy spring thunderstorm cut short the services at the University of Alabama last night just as another downpour had interrupted Graham's sermon at Dothan Sunday.

Before the storm halted the program, Graham had spoken only briefly to the racially mixed crowd of about 10,000 huddled beneath umbrellas in the concrete stands.

Graham again made no mention of Alabama's racial problems but he did make a passing reference to racial troubles generally.

U2 Plane Crashes in California

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif., April 27 (AP)—A high-flying U2 reconnaissance plane crashed on the desert near yesterday, fatally injuring its civilian pilot.

His name was withheld pending notification of next of kin.

A spokesman for Lockheed Aircraft company, manufacturer of the plane, said the test pilot, a Lockheed employe, was on a routine flight.

The plane's mission was not revealed, but the squadron of U2s flying from his desert research center makes high-altitude weather flights and conducts experiments with advanced reconnaissance gear.

High Water

RICHFIELD, April 27 (AP)—Walter Chatfield, Omaha, Neb., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Chatfield, is in the Mississippi river flood areas of Illinois and Iowa.

An engineer with several hundred men under his direction, Chatfield said he was writing from a sandbagged hotel with 18 feet of water being held back from some of the areas. He said the golf course was under 10 feet of water and stated the swiftness of the flood waters was unbelievable.

Court Denies Requirement For Voting

WASHINGTON, April 27 (AP)—The supreme court struck down today Virginia's requirement that persons who want to vote in federal elections without paying the state's poll tax must file certificates of residence.

The decision was given on a Virginia appeal from a ruling by a three-judge U. S. district court in Richmond. The district court said the certificate requirement was unconstitutional because it imposed unreasonable burden on voters in elections for president, vice president and members of congress.

Chief Justice Earl Warren delivered the 9-0 decision.

In delivering the opinion, Warren noted that it was the first case to be decided under the 24th amendment of the constitution. The amendment bars the poll tax in federal elections.

Virginia's plan, adopted in an emergency session of the legislature in 1963, required that certificates of residence be filed six months before elections. Voters who pay poll taxes in local and state elections are not required to file the certificates.

BOISE, April 27 (AP)—Idaho's 1965 youth conservation camp will run from June 21 to Aug. 17, state forester Roger Guernsey announced today. Applications for appointment to the camp must be received in his office by May 20, Guernsey said. Youth 14 to 17 are eligible. Sixty-seven youths will be chosen to attend the camp, which will be located in the Forest Lake state forest. Each county is eligible to send as many youths as it has representatives in the new re-appointment plan. Guernsey said. If applicants exceed the number of places available, those chosen will be determined by lot. The boys receive $1 per day, plus transportation to and from camp. Work involves trail maintenance, erosion control, stream clearance and other conservation projects. Crews will be sent from the camp for special details at Farragut state park, the scene of the 1965 International Girl Scout Roundup.

BOISE, April 27 (AP)—The Idaho public utilities commission reported today it has determined no additional major protection is needed at railroad crossings in Ada county. The ruling was in a case brought by the county and Boise city against the Union Pacific Railroad company. The city and county asked that the railroad be required to install electric signals, watchmen or other safety devices at eight crossings. The commission said that because of improvements in warning devices which have been made it believed no further action is needed now. But it said that after the interstate highway is completed through the area it will consider the matter again in the light of any changes in traffic patterns.

BOISE, April 27 (AP)—The flood threat in Idaho appears to be easing, Gov. Robert E. Smylie said yesterday, but statewide flood alert efforts will not be relaxed. "A few days that are too warm," said Smylie, "the almost normal warm rains of early May, and we could be in trouble again with the accelerating snow melt in high country." But moderating weather, which controls spring thaw, has been almost absolutely conditioned to the state's needs, the governor said. "If we are lucky," he said, "we may get by without substantial damage." Runoff swollen rivers washed out a number of unimproved roads and flooded lowlands last week near Idaho City and Fruitvale in southwest Idaho. The Portneuf river and Henrys fork in the southeast part of the state continued to rise near flood stage yesterday but were not expected to overflow their banks unless the weather changes.

BOISE, April 27 (AP)—An Idaho state penitentiary trustee who might have been eligible for parole this summer until he walked away yesterday is back in his cell today. The trustee, Edwin Papp, 21, was recaptured when a guard discovered him on the roof of a building behind the prison, said Warden L. E. Clapp. Papp had lost his shoes and apparently had walked a long way but would not say where he had gone or why, the warden said. He said Papp had served one year of a three-year sentence for a Bingham county burglary and might have been eligible for parole in July. He was the fourth escapee from the penitentiary in less than two weeks. The other three prisoners also were caught the same day they escaped.

BOISE, April 27 (AP)—A small piece of metal was flung into a Boise man's car and across the back of his neck last night, but he was not believed seriously injured, Jerry Elam, 19, Boise, was cut but was later treated and released from St. Luke's hospital. Sheriff's officers said the metal was apparently flung at Elam by another car as he drove toward Garden City just west of Boise. The metal made a loud report as it hit the ledge of the car window and the first reports sheriff's officers received were that there had been a shooting in the area.

BOISE, April 27 (AP)—Gov. Robert E. Smylie urged Idahoans to plant trees this week for Arbor day Friday. He said he already has planted his—a bush—over the week-end. "It takes two kinds of people to make a world," said Smylie, "poets to write about the beauties of spring and the rest of us to mow it."

BOISE, April 27 (AP)—Water pollution, sanitation of migratory labor camps and compulsory testing of newborn babies for phenylketonuria (PKU) are among items to be considered by the Idaho board of health at a meeting May 13 and 14. The meeting will be held the first day in Lewiston and the second in Orofino. Potlatch Forest Industries has asked for time to discuss water pollution. Dr. Terrell O. Carver, administrator of health, said yesterday. He said authorization for public hearings on proposed regulations for migratory camp sanitation and PKU testing will be considered. The board also will discuss approval of continuing agreements for mental health and public services with county boards of commissioners, Carver said.

BOISE, April 27 (AP)—The executive secretary of the Idaho Mining association said yesterday his organization finds "cause for concern" in several aspects of the proposed wild rivers bill. A. J. Teske, Boise, outlined the association's objections to the measure and asked that hearings on it be held in Idaho in a letter to Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D. Wash., chairman of the senate committee on interior and insular affairs. Teske complained that the measure lacks guidelines for administrative determination of what constitutes related land areas; conveys too broad authority for federal acquisition of private land and water rights, and would have an adverse effect on Idaho's economy.

BOISE, April 27 (AP)—The non-discrimination clause in the new federal civil rights law is described as asking "that businessmen be color blind in employment." The description was used by Sylan A. Jeppesen, United States district attorney, in discussing the law at a seminar yesterday sponsored by the National Association of Manufacturers. Jeppesen said there is "no need to fear the civil rights act; it is an attempt to cure discriminatory methods by the most moderate means possible." Don J. McManahan, Boise, chairman of the Idaho advisory committee of the United States commission on civil rights, said there are injustices in housing and employment in Idaho for non-white persons. But he said conditions have improved considerably since enactment of the state civil rights law in 1961.

BOISE, April 27 (AP)—An elderly Caldwell couple remained in critical condition today from injuries sustained in a rear-end collision Sunday near King Hill.

Attendees at Caldwell Memorial hospital said there had been no change in the condition of George A. Witte, 77, and his wife, Margaret, 75.

The Wittes were hurt when a car driven by Charles A. Hilton, 22, Glenns Ferry, struck them from behind about two miles east of King Hill. Witte lost control of his car which crashed through a fence and plunged 40 feet over a cliff onto railroad tracks.

Hilton and two passengers escaped injury. Hilton later was fined $155 at Mountain Home and sentenced to 15 days in jail for basic rule violation and for driving while his driver's license had been revoked.

Part-Time Priesthood Being Studied in Africa

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa, April 27 (AP)—After a hard day's work at the office, a few South Africans may soon swap their smart business suits for the attire of an Anglican priest. The possible establishment of a part-time priesthood is being studied by the Anglican church in Johannesburg. The businessmen-priests would continue with their every-day jobs. But after office hours they would become full-fledged ministers. The Anglican bishop of Johannesburg, the Right Rev. Leslie Stradling, said candidates would receive training for ordination over three years at evening classes. A correspondence course for people living in country areas also might be started. "It is only an idea at the moment and we will have to feel our way," said the bishop. "But we think it is a good one. We are all concerned at the lack of

Starvation Is Threatening South Africa

PORT ELIZABETH, South Africa, April 27 (AP)—Thousands of Africans living off the land in the sprawling Ciskei region between here and East London, 200 miles to the east, are threatened with starvation. Drought has reduced their fields to parched wasteland.

Cattle have died and others are too weak to be taken any distance in search of grazing and water.

With winter rapidly approaching, a strange mental depression has set in among these country folk. Everywhere there is talk of poverty, starvation and death. Help is needed desperately.

Except for efforts by church mission stations, nothing has been done for these tribesmen.

Africans do not get all the state benefits accorded to drought-stricken white farmers. There is talk of an appeal to the state for help.

There are no irrigation schemes to bring water and no feeding schemes for humans or stock.

Methodist and Anglican churches have combined to run a school feeding scheme, but they lack funds.

Some people say it already is too late for rain to help.

Dr. P. De Vos, head of the department of sociology and social work at Fort Hare university college at Alice, described the position as "really desperate." He said the people called the drought the worst in 70 years.

Oregon Solon Blasts Rusk, McNamara

WASHINGTON, April 27 (AP)—Sen. Wayne Morse, D.-Ore., denounced U. S. policy in Viet Nam yesterday, calling it "immoral and godless." And he said Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara "should have been removed months ago."

Expressing fear of a general war in Southeast Asia, Morse told the senate that if President Johnson "continues to follow the ill-advice of McNamara and Rusk he is going out of office as the most discredited president in American history."

"This is not only McNamara's war, and Rusk's war," Morse said. He added that no president can lead this nation into a massive war in Asia and "not go down in American history as totally discredited."

There was no immediate response from other senators. Neither Rusk nor McNamara had any immediate comment.

Morse spoke after senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois threw cold water on suggestions that an international conference on Cambodia might provide an opening for informal discussions of the Vietnam war.

Car Switching Nets Two Bank Robbers

HOUSTON, Tex., April 27 (AP)—A switch in getaway cars with similar license plate numbers tripped up two men charged with a $37,663 bank robbery yesterday.

A cashier at the suburban Meyerland State bank telephoned police with the license number of the first car, MGH 213. Fifteen minutes later, patrolman John Lohmann spotted a car with the license MGH 413.

Acting on a hunch, he gave chase and stopped the car. Inside was the missing money, police said. Charged with the hold-up were its passengers Glenn Sanford Webb, 22, and Jim Don Smith, 26.

Gem State Racing Dates Are Reported

BOISE, April 27 (AP)—A revised pari-mutuel horse racing calendar listing 56 days of racing this season, including 14 Sunday dates, was released yesterday by the Idaho racing committee.

Kenneth Hammond, committee secretary, said the Lewiston Roundup association and Twin Falls fair at Piler have also applied for permits but will not announce meet dates until later.

Hammond said two dates previously authorized for races at Emmett, May 8-9, were transferred to the Treasure Valley Racing association for races at Boise after the Emmett sponsors withdrew their request. Two Boise dates, June 5-6, were shifted to Pocatello.

EX-ENVOY DIES

WASHINGTON, April 27 (AP)—Wallace Smith Murray, 78, a retired state department expert on the Middle East and former U. S. ambassador to Iran, died yesterday after a long illness.

Murray headed the office of Near Eastern and African affairs during World War II.

The First World War

Written By PHILIP VAN DOREN STERN for Newspaper Enterprise Association

After the Allied navy failed to force a passage of the Dardanelles on March 18, the Allied armies were called upon to attack the other side of the Gallipoli Peninsula. Soldiers from Africa, India and the British Isles arrived at Alexandria for training.

Most numerous were husky, green troops who gave war's glossary a new word: ANZAC, the initials of the Australian, New Zealand Army Corps.

Symbolic perhaps of the young men who were assembling in Egypt was the handsome romantic poet, Rupert Brooke, who had written:

*If I should die, think only this of me:
That there's some corner of a foreign field
That is forever England.*

These lines were prophetic. Brooke never reached Gallipoli, and his "corner of a foreign field" was on the island of Skyros where he died on April 23 from blood poisoning brought on by a minor infection.

Two days later the great invasion began. To us it may seem badly thought out and poorly prepared, yet it foreshadowed some of the tactics of the Second World War.

An officer swam ashore to place flares on the target position; then at dawn, an old collier with exit holes cut in her sides ran in close to discharge landing troops.

White battleships hurled shells at the Turkish positions, thousands of Allied soldiers hit the beach at more than half a dozen places. A German general was in charge of the defense, but a then-unknown Turkish officer named Mustafa Kemal was the effective director of operations. He was to become president of his country eight years later.

Since the invaders had to fight uphill, they were at a disadvantage. They managed to entrench themselves, but the first day's action, which might have been decisive because there was little opposition then, soon petered out when shovels replaced rifles.

A long series of attacks and counterattacks took place as each side won ground and then lost it. By May 13, the situation for the Allies had deteriorated badly, and they were running out of ammunition, especially for artillery.

A massive Turkish assault on May 18 was repulsed, but with 10,000 casualties. On May 26, when Winston Churchill, who had sponsored the campaign, was removed as First

And All for Nothing—Gallipoli: 21

Illustrated By John Lane

Lord of the Admiralty, it was evident that Gallipoli was losing favor in London.

But the troops had to remain here all summer while smaller encounters took their daily toll. A few British soldiers went swimming in the warm waters, but Gallipoli was no picnic. Not only Turkish bullets but dysentery disabled men by the thousands. Some died and were buried on the barren hills.

In November, Lord Kitchener arrived to evaluate the possibilities and make recommendations to the cabinet. After several days of inspection he decided on an evacuation.

Winter was coming on, and it began with a blizzard that killed men in the trenches. Elaborate plans were made to get all the able-bodied troops and the sick and wounded off the peninsula with as little loss as possible.

Horses which could not be removed were slaughtered, and tons of ammunition were dumped into the sea. The withdrawal went on all through December and early January. It was so brilliantly carried out that there were no real casualties. Only the men buried on the lonely hills were left behind, and they were beyond caring that they had died for nothing.

Atrocities Committed on Both Sides in Viet Nam

BY MICHAEL T. MALLOY
United Press International

SAIGON, April 27 (AP)—A squad of Viet Cong sneaks silently into a sleeping village. Wearing sandals cut from rubber tires, they pad silently to the house of the village chief, who is loyal to the government of Saigon.

They pull the chief from his bed, wake up the villagers and assemble them in the public square. They pick out one or two more men who are known to have informed the government of their movements.

Then they cut the throats of the men they have chosen.

The villagers who watch will be less eager to talk next time government troops come looking for information about the whereabouts of the communists.

This is an atrocity of war. So is this:

A Vietnamese ranger captain squats on the chest of a Viet Cong captive and pours water from a rusty tin mug into a towel wrapped around his victim's face.

The Viet Cong struggles and gasps as the cloth becomes so soaked that only water rushes into his nose and mouth when he gasps for air.

A sergeant alama his heavy combat boot into the prisoner's side. Two enlisted men holding the guerilla's ankles and legs begin twisting them.

The captain dips his mug into a rusty bucket and ladles out more water. This is an "interrogation" on the battlefield, Vietnamese style.

Late one night in February the Viet Cong overrun a district headquarters 70 miles northeast of Saigon.

They lead four American soldiers into nearby jungles.

The Americans are bound. Then begins a systematic beating. Blows rain on the Americans' heads, stomachs, kidneys, legs. After a time the Americans are shot. Their bodies are left to rot in the jungle. A few days later they are found.

This is an "interrogation" on the battlefield, Viet Cong style. Chalk up one more "atrocity" for each side.

War is rough and tough business. The war for control of the rice-rich plains of South Viet Nam is getting to be just as ugly as any that has ever been fought.

When opposing groups of men contest a piece of land with guns, planes, bombs, napalm, mortars and artillery, elements of terror are bound to play a role in the conflict.

Who is committing these atrocities? This is war.

Vietnamese armed forces regarding 609-TTL-20 says:

"No torture of any kind is allowed to be performed with the prisoners in order to get information from them."

But a wiry little Vietnamese lieutenant with a chestful of combat ribbons says:

"The government sometimes looks in the other direction."

It looked in the other direction a few months ago when infantrymen of the 21st division pulled six Viet Cong soldiers out of a foxhole and handed them

Lodge Ends Visit With Korean Chief

SEOUL, South Korea, April 27 (AP)—Special U. S. presidential envoy Henry Cabot Lodge left for Hong Kong today after exchanging views on the Vietnamese situation with Korean President Park Chung Hee.

Park's press secretary said the President and Lodge agreed that there must be unity not only between Korea and the United States but among all free nations to stop communist aggression in Asia.

He also said Park reminded Lodge of the need for a long-term U. S. assistance to help Korea attain a self-sufficient economy.

Lodge promised that the United States will make the maximum efforts to this end, the spokesman said.

Concert to Have 232 Students In Orchestra

"Orchestra Night," involving 232 orchestra students from all Twin Falls public schools, will be held at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at Robert Stuart Junior high school. Students from the sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth grades as well as high school pupils will participate.

Each grade will play a selection of numbers and the program will conclude with "Psalm and Fugue," with the combined group.

The orchestras will be directed by Mrs. Virginia Christopherson, Larry Christopherson and De Laughter.

ENVOY IS NAMED

MOSCOW, April 27 (AP)—Mikhail Bytenko, a career diplomat, has been named Soviet ambassador to Indonesia, the Tass news agency reported last night. He will succeed Nikolay Mikheylov.

SALES TAX OR ? ? ?

Idaho Schools Need the Sales Tax

Nobody likes to pay taxes . . . but look at the alternatives. An increase of up to 49% in Idaho State Income Tax and/or drastic increases in taxes on Idaho farms and homes would be required without sales tax to meet appropriations already made by our Legislature.

Let's not fool ourselves; Idaho needs the tax reforms that go along with the sales tax law to stimulate growth and earning opportunities for all. You cast your vote for sales tax when you refuse the petition carrier!

Bearcats Pound Coyotes by 9-4

CALDWELL, April 27 (UP)—Williamette batters hit College of Idaho pitchers for 12 hits Monday and claimed their first victory in Northwest conference competition with a 9-4 decision. Clayton Fulle, a power-hitting left-fielder, blasted a double to left center to open a four run Bearcat attack in the fifth inning, when the visitors held a 3-1 lead.

Fulle picked up his second RBI when he smacked a triple to the 410 foot mark in right center in the eighth.

Boyer Ready To Return To Lineup

ST. LOUIS, April 27 (UP)—Ken Boyer, whose aching back has put a pain in the St. Louis Cardinals' attack, pronounced himself ready to return to the lineup Monday after having X-rays taken and engaging in some high class batting practice. "I think I can play tomorrow," he said before leaving for Milwaukee where the Cardinals open a three-game series Tuesday night.

Boyer, named the National League's most valuable player last year, returned to St. Louis from Cincinnati Sunday for an examination of his sore back. Dr. I. C. Middleman gave Boyer the go-ahead. "He'll be able to play. All the X-rays were negative. The trouble was all muscular in his left side. It's nothing serious."

Nicklaus Favored To Win His Third Tournament Title

LAS VEGAS, Nev., April 27 (AP) — The bookies are making Jack Nicklaus a 21-1 favorite to win his third Tournament of Champions this week. The 25-year-old Golden Bear is the heaviest favorite in memory here on the strength of his brilliant play in the Augusta Masters. It will be his first start since that tournament three weeks ago. Behind Nicklaus is Arnold Palmer and Billy Casper at 6-1.

Astro Domed Park Still Not Ready

By The Associated Press. There is nothing like a dome. Nothing in the world. There is no ball park called home. That has quirks like a dome. Houston Astros, 1965

That refrain may become quite popular in Houston, where the Astros have played their first day game under painted panels—and found that the tinted skylights on the 31 million dollar stadium may not have fully solved a glaring problem.

With the 5,496 panes in the roof of the Astrodome painted white in an attempt to keep out the glare of the sun, the Astros defeated Pittsburgh 5-4 in 11 innings Sunday and 2-0 Monday, completing the first test of the new system without any fly balls being dropped.

And it seemed like the problem had been solved. Paul Richards, general manager of the Astros, thought so. But there were dissenters.

"It is a lot better but there are still some problems," said Houston center fielder Jim Wynn. "I lost one ball but managed to find it."

"When the sun is really shining brightly I don't believe you'll be able to see the ball," said right fielder Roberto Clemente of the Pirates, who pointed out that the sky was slightly overcast.

New Champ Slates First Title Defense

LONDON, April 27 (AP)—Newly crowned flyweight champion Salvatore Burrelli of Italy will make his first title defense against Scotland's Walter McGowan at Wembley's Empire pool, Sept. 3.

British fight promoter Jack Solomons announced Monday he had completed arrangements for the bout while in Rome, where he watched Burrelli wrestle the title from Thailand's Pone Kingpetch.

Solomons said there had been some question as to the promotion of Burrelli's next match but indicated "the battle is over" despite "some difficulties in getting the fight for McGowan."

It was revealed that Italy's Rino Tomassi, who backed the Burrelli-Kingpetch bout, had the same fight for the new champ's first defense but agreed to bow to Solomons, who has promoted 21 world championship bouts.

"Mr. Tomassi and Burrelli's manager, Umberto Branchini, have agreed that the new champ's first defense should be for me," Solomons said.

"Both Burrelli and McGowan have agreed that the winner of the Sept. 21 fight will have the next title fight under Tomassi's promotion in Rome," he added.

COMING OFF GROUND with an argument is Pittsburgh Pirates centerfielder Bill Virdon. Virdon heads toward first base umpire Ed Budak in the first inning of the Astro-Pirates game in Houston Monday. Virdon had hit a slow roller down the first base line and Hurley Dave Giusti (39) flied the ball and tagged Virdon after he overshot first on a slide. Umpired Budak called him out and the fight was on, until Pirate manager Harry Walker was thrown out of the game. (AP wirephoto)

Giusti Holds Pirates for Astro Sweep

HOUSTON, April 27 (AP)—Young Dave Giusti handcuffed the Pittsburgh Pirates on four hits Monday night to give the Houston Astros a 2-0 victory and a sweep of the four-game series.

Giusti scattered four singles while facing only 33 Pirates and sent nine down on strikeouts to pick up his third win of the season against no losses. The victory was Houston's fifth in a row.

It was a pitchers battle for six innings between Giusti and veteran Bob Friend. Houston nipped Friend for the winning run in the seventh on successive singles by Jim Wynn, Walt Bond and Bob Aspromonte, coupled with a Pirate error.

Friend had a two-hitter working for six innings and had not allowed an Astro to second base. Giusti, making his first start had the Pirates in his hand all the way. The Astro rookie was in trouble only once in the game when the Pirates loaded the bases in the third on two errors and a single.

Giusti put out the threat by fanning Willie Stargell for the third out.

The Pirates did not get a runner to second off Giusti outside the third inning threat.

Pittsburgh 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 Houston 0 0 0 0 2 0 2 0 2 Friend and Giusti (3-0); Giusti and Aspromonte, W (3-0); 1- Friend (2-1).

Bragg, Irwin Take T.F. Doubles Meet

Only one place fell during the last day of the Magic Bowl handicap doubles tournament, co-sponsored by Cactus Pete's Motel, and Paul Bragg and Dick Irwin, both Twin Falls, won top money in the $600 added tournament with 1,355. Irwin teamed up with Paul Miller, Twin Falls, to make the only change in the top 10. The two combined for a 1,312 and eighth place, pushing Larry Adams and Ken Hill, both Kimberley, into ninth with their 1,310.

The entire list climbed from less than 200 the first week to 574 by the time the tourney was completed to make it worth $1,044. Bowlers were allowed to bowl as often as they wished, but could place only once with the same partner.

The top ten finishers, including two ties, are as follows: Bragg and Irwin, 1,355; Tucker Forsythe, Twin Falls, and Dale Drayce, Idaho Falls, 1,348; Cal Amen and Blaine Bird, Burley, 1,334; Roger Wagner, Twin Falls, and Morshita, 1,330; Hugh Farmer and Wagner, 1,321.

Cornelius Lanting and Miller, and Neil Pyle, Boise, and Paul Onishi, Burley, both 1,316; Harry McFall and Lou Morton, Twin Falls, 1,313; Irwin and Miller, 1,312; Adams and Hill, 1,310; and Wagner and Miller and Morshita and Irwin, both 1,308.

There were three 267 games rolled by John Rogers, Jr., Twin Falls, Grady Evans, Burley and Roger Wagner. There also were three bowlers with 266. Rogers had the high series of 710.

In announcing the fight today, Harry Markson, managing director of boxing at the Garden, said the bout would open the new season at the New York arena.

NBA Teams Could Take Lesson From Russian Cage Team: Avoid Celtics

BOSTON, April 27 (AP)—The rest of the National Basketball Association could learn a lesson from the Russian basketball squad. The best way to deal with the Boston Celtics is to avoid them.

The Russians recently backed out of a scheduled game with the world professional champions. But the Los Angeles Lakers, survivors of the NBA's Western playoffs, went ahead and faced the Celtics.

Phillies Hand First Loss to Koufax 4-3

LOS ANGELES, April 27 (AP)—Sandy Koufax took his first loss of the season Monday night when the Philadelphia Phillies belted him for three runs on four hits in the first inning and went on to beat the Los Angeles Dodgers 4-3.

The Phillies go what turned out to be the clinching run in the top of the ninth when Koufax walked, stole second and came home on catcher Clay Darynple's single to right off reliever Ron Perranoski.

Phillie relief man Jack Baldschun saved the game for starter Chris Short, but got into deep trouble in the bottom of the ninth, when the Dodgers got their third run on three singles. Short got credit for his third victory of the season against one deft, going 6 1/2 innings and giving up two runs on five hits.

The Phillies unloaded on Koufax in the first, when John Callison hit a 400-foot homer into the right centerfield bleachers. Richie Allen singled, went to second on an error and score don Dick Stuart's double to left. Rojas then tripled to right to score Stuart.

The Dodgers got their first run off Short in the fourth on a single by Tommy Davis and a double by Ron Fairly. They slipped another one over in the sixth on singles by Fairly, Jeff Torborg and pinch-hitter Wally Moon.

Philadelphia 800 000 001-4 8 1 Los Angeles 000 101 001-3 1 Short, Baldschun (7) and Triandou, Darynple (9); Koufax, R. Miller (1), Perranoski (9) and Torborg, W. Short (3-1); L. Koufax (2-1); Home runs, Callison (2).

Declo Athletes Given Awards

DECLO, April 27 — Devon Anderson, former coach of the Declo High School, was guest speaker during the "D" club athletics banquet, held Friday evening in the cultural hall of the LDS church.

Lovell Turner, principal of the high school, welcomed approximately 150 guests.

Robert Saxvik of KBAR Radio station was master of ceremonies. Highlight of the evening was the presentation of trophies and letters to the athletes by local coaches Keith Wilson and Boyd Chuge.

Glenn Price, football captain, Larry Darrington, basketball captain, and Larry Bingham and Robert Broadhead, co-captains of the wrestling team presented the district trophies to Mr. Turner, on behalf of the high school.

Coach Wilson presented special awards of pen and pencil sets to Arvil Voyce, time keeper and manager of the school, and to Mrs. Wayne Newcomb, who kept score during the season.

They get the prize for courage and a fat paycheck. But they're probably wondering if Sunday's nationally televised 129-96 championship licking was worth it.

Boston rolled up its seventh straight playoff crown and eighth in nine seasons in the most one-sided title game victory of their long reign. The demoralized Lakers missed 12 successive fourth quarter shots while the Celtics were setting a record of 21 field goals in a single period.

The Celtics, who have won the Eastern Division championship and swept the ailing Lakers off the Boston Garden court in a humiliating five games.

Los Angeles, operating without the great Elgin Baylor and with Dick Barnett on limited duty, was no match for a defense-oriented Boston club that is "the greatest" according to the man who keynotes them, Bill Russell.

The abrupt end of the scheduled best-of-seven title showdown substantiated the belief that the Celtics' domination of the Eastern Division playoffs was a fluke.

Boise, Nampa Golfers Dominate Boise Pro-Am

BOISE, April 27 (AP)—Boise and Nampa golfers dominated play Monday in the pro-amateur golf tournament sponsored by the Rocky Mountain section Professional Golfers Association, Idaho chapter, at Hillcrest Country club.

Arnold Haneke, golf pro at the club, took the professional sweepstakes with a score of 69. Ken Sparks, Nampa, was second and Myron Tucker third.

The pro-amateur sweepstakes was won by a team led by M. Clair, Mountain Home, and Charles Chronister, Boise.

Newt Carter, Boise was the low amateur sweepstakes gross winner and Gene Bogie, Nampa, won the low net sweepstakes.

Chicago Still Trying for Stanley Cup

CHICAGO, April 27 (AP)—The Chicago Black Hawks, who have had plenty of opportunity to roll over and give up, surprisingly were still in contention for the Stanley cup today.

Not surprising, however, was the fact that Bobby Hull ignited this comeback.

Hull's 70-foot slap shot in the opening minute of the last period Sunday night sparked the Hawks to a 5-1 decision over the Montreal Canadiens to deadlock their championship series at two wins apiece.

It was the third time in this year's playoffs that the Hawks have come from behind to tie. They did it twice against Detroit before winning the vital seventh game. Earlier, the Hawks dropped from first to third place in the last month in the National Hockey League season.

Hull scored twice in the last period outburst to give him 10 goals in the playoffs, and 49 this year.

The Hawk victory sent the two teams back to Montreal for Tuesday's fifth match and guaranteed a sixth game here Thursday. If a seventh game is necessary, it will be in Montreal Saturday.

HURLS FOUR-HITTER

PORTLAND, Ore., April 27 (AP)—Tom Kelly pitched a four-hitter for his third consecutive victory Monday night and drove in two runs as Portland defeated Spokane, 5-0, to take a 3-1 lead new season at the New York arena.

SENDING TEE SHOT "scorching" down the 10th fairway during Monday's first round of the North-South amateur golf tournament at Pinehurst, N.C. is Billy Joe Patton, Morganton, N.C. Patton was in good position for the crown when defending champion Dale Morey was upset. (AP wirephoto)

harmful contaminants
(before they choke your fuel line)

What does the American FINAL/FILTER really do? Automotive engineers know—they asked for it and American Oil Research developed it to stand between you and trouble. You see, all gasolines pick up tiny impurities in transit and in storage. These impurities, should they get in your gasoline tank, could clog up the fuel line filter and stop you cold. The American FINAL/FILTER bars contaminants right at the pump nozzle. If you use your car on the job (and even if you don't) you stay out of trouble when you "fill 'er up filtered" with American, Regular or American, Super-Premium.

2 New Space Teams to Be Named Soon

HOUSTON, Tex., April 27 (UPI)—The United States will select two new teams of astronauts within the next two months to raise its pool of space pilots to about 50.

Ten to 20 men will join the civilian federal space agency's 28 spacemen and trainees as so-called "scientist-astronauts" by the end of June.

The U.S. defense department, meanwhile, is expected to select its first astronauts by the end of this month or early May, for the air force's new Manned Orbital Laboratory (MOL) program.

The pool of pilots should be enough to get the United States through an all-out assault on space that will include launching of the nation's first orbital space station, the landing of the first men on the moon and the first exploration of the lunar surface within the coming five or six years.

But once again, no woman will make the grade. The space agency said the national academy of sciences, which reviewed all applications for the scientist-astronaut jobs, turned down the four requests that had been received from females.

It was understood the MOL astronauts also would be limited to men.

The space agency's scientist-astronauts, probably mostly civilians, are expected to make trips to the moon for exploratory purposes after members of the present pool of 28 space trainees accomplish the first lunar landing—probably around 1970.

Youth Dance Is Slated in East Garden

WASHINGTON, April 27 (UPI)—The White House garden, usually the scene of staid diplomatic functions when warm weather sets in, will be filled with teenage couples doing the watusi and the frog Friday night.

According to an official spokesman, President Johnson's 17-year-old daughter Luci volunteered the use of the executive mansion for the senior prom of the National Cathedral girls school, from which she graduates June 1.

The dance, to be attended by Luci's 58 classmates and their escorts, will be held in the East Garden, which was named last week in honor of Mrs. John F. Kennedy. The party will be moved indoors in case of bad weather.

Bamboo lanterns will decorate the garden and tables will be set around a wooden platform for dancing. The girls are expected to wear short formal dresses and the boys dark business suits.

Boy Is Third Victim of Coast Sniper

SANTA BARBARA, Calif., April 27 (AP)—A 5-year-old boy is the third victim of a 16-year-old "extra good boy" who turned sniper, killed two motorists, wounded 11 more and then took his own life with a bullet between his eyes.

Kevin Dean Reid, shot in the head in the Sunday morning ambush, died last night after brain surgery at Cottage hospital in Santa Barbara.

He died 36 hours after the attack by Michael Andrew Clark, a high school junior, Clark had run away from his Long Beach home Saturday night and wrecked the family car. Early Sunday he turned up as a sniper on a grassy hillside above U. S. 101, 60 miles north of here.

Clark used a 30-06 rifle equipped with a telescopic sight.

His mother, Joyce E. Clark, described her son as "an extra good boy" and said, "when he wrecked the car, turning off the road, perhaps he hit his head."

Women Hear Representative

Ray Lincoln, Twin Falls county legislative representative, spoke to Twin Falls County Republican Women's club Monday on the procedure of the legislature and how a bill becomes a law.

He gave a resume of the major bills passed and stressed the importance of the sales tax, the parks bill and the uniform assessment bill. Following his talk he answered questions from the floor.

Mrs. George Detweiler conducted a short business meeting following the program.

Demonstrations in China Have Been Automated

TOKYO, April 27 (UPI)—In Peking, capital of Communist China, the anti-imperialist demonstration has been automated. Peking's propaganda machine frequently cranks out stories about the sudden appearance of millions of Chinese to protest the latest "foul outrage" committed by Americans in Viet Nam, the Congo, or elsewhere around the world.

The stories may be exaggerated, but they're not entirely wrong. American correspondents, barred by a lack of cold war late from witnessing these demonstrations, generally report what the Chinese propagandists write with a touch of tongue-in-cheek.

Most of them, after all, are sensible enough to know that the movement of, say, a million and a half people at once creates a staggering problem in logistics. If not done with the utmost precision, it can lead to incredible chaos.

But according to the Peking correspondent of one of Japan's major newspapers, the Yomiuri, the Chinese have learned to run a demonstration with the precision of a Swiss watch.

Most of the demonstrations are held in Peking's Tienanmen square (appropriately misnamed "Gate of Heavenly Peace").

Within several hours from the time news is received of the American invasion of the Communist North Vietnamese territory, huge crowds of citizens who seem to have appeared from nowhere start marching down the streets around Tienanmen, flying red flags and raising placards, to the accompaniment of gongs and drums," he wrote recently. "To our surprise, the new buildings in Peking, especially the buildings near Tienanmen, such as the big People's hall and the museums of history and military art, and all the palace gates and the big buildings along Changan street are equipped with red flags to be hung out immediately and searchlights to be turned on in constant readiness for demonstrations.

"In a few minutes after they receive an order, the red flags start fluttering and the illumination lights up the night sky. Powerful microphones which blare out war songs and the speeches of the leaders standing on Tienanmen to all corners of the vast plaza have been installed.

"Besides, each paving stone in the plaza is numbered. It is so devised that a fixed place can be designated: For example, '50 people from X people's commune shall stand between A-13 and A-15,' and '100 students from X university shall stand from B-5 to B-10.'

"In other words, the Tienanmen plaza has reserved seats. Given this setup it isn't difficult at all to line up people into Chinese characters or beautiful geometric patterns."

Moreover, wrote the Yomiuri correspondent, the march route and assembly and dispersal points are all designated in advance. For example, it is designated that when the demonstration rally is over, the 'W people's commune shall turn at the corner of X, march down Y street and disperse when they reach the buses waiting at point Z."

And that isn't all. First aid teams are sent to the square, where they set up shop with stretchers, medicine, and bandages.

Children of the boy's vanguard corps wearing red scarves around their necks are in charge of supplying cups of hot water and red antiseptic solution to demonstrators whose throats get parched after hours of shouting "down with American imperialism" or "long live Chairman Mao."

The demonstrators are selected from among the ranks of workers. The "four goods" are: "Good in ideology, good at work, good at study and good in health."

"It is an honor," wrote the correspondent, "to be selected to join a demonstration rally and those who participate shout loudly from the bottom of their hearts."
