SAN SALVADORE, El Salvador, May 3 (AP)—A sharp earthquake killed 43 persons and injured about 300 in this Central American capital early today. The earthquake, at 4 a.m., destroyed many dwellings and damaged at least 4,000, government officials said. The quake hit the neighboring towns of San Marcos and Santo Tomas as well as San Salvador. U. S. Ambassador Raul Castro told the Tucson (Ariz.) Daily Citizen by telephone that he understood 100 people were dead as the quake leveled low-income neighborhoods of the capital city.

The quake struck about 4 a.m., Castro said, and caused about $30,000 damage to his official residence.

The hardest-hit areas were in the areas of adobe homes about three miles from the embassy, he said.

Castro, a former Tucson judge, said no Americans on the embassy staff were reported hurt but two nationals were injured.

The new multimillion-dollar terminal building was damaged but runways remained operational, Castro said.

He said San Salvador is making preparations for other quakes of lower intensity expected to follow.

Tonight, Castro said, his family and staff will have to sleep outdoors on cots.

Casualties and damage were heavier in San Marcos and Santo Tomas, southeast of here, where the quake apparently centered.

The government ordered the two towns evacuated as further shocks were felt later in the day. One strong tremor shook the region at 9:02 a.m. and another at noon.

Mississippi River Rises In Two Areas

By The Associated Press
The Mississippi river, still gorged with its record flood burden, rose again today in the Hannibal, Mo., and Quincy, Ill., section by its record-breaking days were over.

The river, from Hannibal north to Minnesota, broke all higher-water records during its month-long rampage, took 14 million dollars damage.

To the south, with more room to spread out, it is not expected to cause major problems. The river is not expected to come within four feet of flood stage at St. Louis, and will only approach flood level at Chester and Cairo, Ill., the weather bureau said.

There was still major strain on the levees upstream where patrols kept watch, and sandbags were placed to reinforce weak spots.

At Clinton, Ia., where downtown stores have been closed for 10 days, more to discourage unessential traffic than because of water hazard, merchants reopened their establishments today.

S. marine was killed and two wounded by sniper action not related to the linkup. This brings to a total of five the official count of U. S. military men dead, plus 38 wounded, in four days of action involving U. S. forces.

Papers Criticize U. S. Participation

LONDON, May 3 (UPI)—President Johnson's administration drew strong editorial criticism from European newspapers today for sending U. S. marines into the Dominican Republic. Most of the editorials were written before Johnson's speech announcing an additional 4,500 U. S. troops were on their way to the island and saying the U. S. goal "is to help prevent another communist state in this hemisphere." This speech made headlines in the afternoon newspapers. "We fight Red

Selma March Protection Costs Listed

WASHINGTON, May 3 (AP)—It cost the defense department $510,000 to protect the Selma-to-Montgomery anti-rights marches, the Pentagon said today.

This raised to nearly 13 million dollars the cost of using federal troops and federalized national guardsmen in five major civil rights crises dating back to Little Rock in 1957.

The Pentagon said the $510,000 figure covered pay and allowances for 1,860 Alabama national guardsmen called into federal duty, plus transportation and other expenses in connection with measures taken to protect the voting rights march in late March.

The figure did not take into account the pay and allowances for about 1,000 regular army military policemen who also were used. The army has taken the position that these men would be doing such pay and allowances regardless of what duties they were performing.

Also excluded were the expenses involved in use of federal marshals and other resources of the justice department.

The Alabama national guard was federalized from March 20 to March 28.

Diplomatic Ties With U.S. Broken

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia, May 3 (AP)—The national radio announced today Cambodia has decided to break diplomatic relations with the United States.

The radio said Prince Norodom Sihanouk, the chief of state, reported his decision to the Cambodian people in an official message. Contents of the message were not available.

Foreign Minister Koun Wick received the U. S. charge d'affaires to announce the decision, the broadcast said. It was added, however, that a consulate-general could be established at Phnom Penh if the U. S. government so desired.

No reasons were announced for the break. However, relations between Cambodia and the United States long have been tenuous, chiefly because of raids along the border with South Viet Nam. Cambodia blames the attacks on U. S.-Vietnamese forces. Saigon charges Viet Cong guerrillas use Cambodia as a refuge.

Reservoir Is Filled Again To Capacity

CAREY, May 3—Because of heavy rains last week, the Fish Creek reservoir is filled to capacity again.

It was reported Wednesday that cold nights have lowered the inflow, but the water still slips over the banks when wind blows. All outflow ditches are filled, according to Joe Raush, secretary of the Carey Valley Reservoir company, with the outflow from Fish Creek running into Carey lake. Oldtimers of the area say Carey lake is higher than they have ever seen it.

Carey lake was purchased by the Idaho fish and game department three years ago to provide a refuge for waterfowl. It was planned when the lake was purchased and the first goose nest was built this year. A department official reports the nest has been flooded out.

Caution signs have been placed along U. S. Highway 93 over Carey lake. The road passes over the lake. Leonard Carlson, a maintenance man for the state department of highways, says the water is high, but has about 10 inches more to rise before the water will be on the oiled surface of the road. Shoulders of the highway are reported soft.

The three commissioners have been meeting with members of the county zoning board in an effort to work over and present a suitable ordinance to the public.

There is still a lot of work to be done on the ordinance, Carlson said. After everything is worked out the board possibly will schedule a public hearing as a continuation of other hearings on the ordinance. The hearing has never been closed, he said.

Travel Ban to Cuba Upheld By U.S. Court

WASHINGTON, May 3 (AP)—The supreme court ruled today the secretary of state has the constitutional power to bar American citizens from traveling to Cuba.

Chief Justice Earl Warren delivered the 6-3 decision. There were three separate dissents.

The questions for decision are whether the secretary of state is statutorily authorized to refuse to validate the passports of U. S. citizens for travel to Cuba, and if he is, whether the exercise of that authority is constitutionally permissible.

"We answer both questions in the affirmative." The court ruled on an appeal by Louis Zemel, a Middlefield, Conn., ski resort operator. He wanted to go to Cuba, he said, to become a better-informed citizen.

Conflicting Views Given On Medicare

WASHINGTON, May 3 (AP)—Congress heard sharply conflicting views today on the administration's medical care program.

The AFL-CIO said passage of the six-billion dollar program now before congress would match a step taken by nearly every other industrial country years ago.

The U. S. Chamber of Commerce said the bill would establish a principle which could lead to government-financed health care for the entire population, regardless of need.

The opposing witnesses were Earl T. Selhoterbeck, manager of the chamber's economic security department, and Nelson H. Cruikshank, director of the AFL-CIO's social security department.

They were among the first non-governmental witnesses to appear before the senate finance committee to testify on the house-approved package proposal for health care.

The senate resumed debate today on the administration bill to guarantee voting rights. Changes for an early knowdown depended both on northern liberals who want the bill to outlaw all poll taxes and on southern conservatives who want no bill at all.

Navy Ends Large-Scale Evacuation

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico, May 3 (AP)—The U. S. navy yesterday ended the major part of its refugee evacuation from the Dominican Republic.

It brought 1,415 Americans and foreign nationals here yesterday to boost the total number of refugees evacuated to nearly 3,000.

Many of the refugees were wives and children of U. S. servicemen stationed in the Dominican Republic. They told of terror and near-misses from rebel rifle fire.

The LST Wood County brought 1,018 persons — nearly 10 times its normal passenger load — and another navy ship, the USS Ruchamkin, brought 897.

Most of the American refugees had been at the Ambassador hotel on Tuesday waiting for transportation to the ships, when the rebels opened fire on the building.

Navy officials here said yesterday's ship loads marked the end of the large-scale evacuation. They said "trickles" of other refugees probably would continue to arrive.

The total brought by ship was 2,718. At least 30 others were flown here.

No Inquest Set in Death Of Small Boy

BURLEY, May 3 — Cassia county authorities said today there will be no inquest into the Sunday night death of a small boy on a ranch five miles west of here.

Douglas Lee Hanks, 3, son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip D. Hanks, died in a freak accident about 7:30 p.m.

Officers said the boy was playing on a 30-foot length of galvanized pipe, propped up on two stumps, that was used to water cattle. The pipe apparently bounced off the stumps, struck the boy in the back of the head and pinned him face down in muck and straw. The child smothered to death.

Officers said the child's father and a brother, Dennis, 18, were only 25 feet away but were in a building and did not hear anything. The boy was found by his older brother. His father attempted mouth-to-mouth resuscitation but to no avail. He was pronounced dead on arrival at Cassia Memorial hospital.

The child was born May 22, 1962, in Burley. Survivors besides his parents and brother, are two other brothers, Scott Hanks and Dallas Hanks, and one sister, Betty Hanks, all living at home, paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Hanks and maternal grandmother, Mrs. Burt Slocum, all Burley.

Social Status

BERKELEY, Calif., May 3 — Cows worry about their social status in the herd, says a University of California professor of animal husbandry.

"Age, weight, aggressiveness, agility and timidity are important factors that influence a cow's rank," says Prof. Kenneth A. Waggoner.

If the self-feeder accommodates eight cows, rarely more than four will eat at a time, he says, because dominant cows keep the timid ones away. The timid ones wait around and eat later.

Such insecurity problems prevent some cattle from gaining weight, says Waggoner. Grouping them according to age seems to result in better eaters, he reports.

LDS Official Says Negroes Should Be Treated in "True Sense of Equality"

SALT LAKE CITY, May 3 (AP) — Apostle Joseph Fielding Smith, next in line for the Mormon church presidency, says Negroes should be treated "in the true sense of equality as declared in the Declaration of Independence."

But the president of the church's council of twelve apostles, who will be 89 in July, insists the Negro cannot be ordained into the priesthood because he is a child of Cain whom God cursed and marked with a black skin for killing his brother Abel.

The LDS church has been under considerable pressure recently to publicly promote social equality for Negroes who make up a small portion—less than one per cent—of Utah's population.

President Hugh B. Brown, first counselor to President David O. McKay, the 90-year-old leader of two and one-third million Mormons, said at the church conference in October, 1963:

"I would like it to be known that there is in this church no doctrine, belief, or practice that is intended to deny the enjoyment of full civil rights by any person regardless of race, color or creed."

"We say again, as we have said many times before, that we believe that all men are the children of the same God and that it is a moral evil for any person or group of persons to deny any human being the right to gainful employment, to full educational opportunity and to every privilege of citizenship."

"We call upon all men everywhere, both within and outside the church, to commit themselves to the establishment of full civil equality for all of God's children."

"Anything less than this defeats our high ideal of the brotherhood of man."

President Brown's statement was repeated in the church-owned Deseret News at the time the last state legislature debated civil rights legislation—and passed two dealing with public accommodations and employment.

President McKay is ill after a stroke last year. It is traditional for the president of the council of twelve apostles to become president upon the death of a church president.

President Smith is nearly as old as President McKay but looks quite robust and healthy. He said during an interview last week that he was born in 1876 but didn't feel that old.

The interview delved into his views on the Negro question and he referred to a statement he made a couple of years ago in reply to criticism from some members.

"No church or other organization," President Smith said, "is more insistent than the LDS church that the Negroes should receive all the rights and privileges that can possibly be given to any other in the true sense of equality as declared in the Declaration of Independence."

"They should be equal to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. They should be equal in the matter of education."

"They should not be barred from obtaining knowledge and becoming proficient in any field of science, art or mechanical occupation."

"They should be free to choose any kind of employment, to go

"In their defense of these privileges the members of the church will stand."

The priesthood is something else, he said, and thought it not unusual that God should choose his leaders for this world.

In the hereafter, President Smith said, there undoubtedly will be many Negroes who will attain a greater degree of glory than many whites.

into business in any field they may choose and to make their lives as happy as it is possible without interference from white men, labor unions or from any other source.

Lodge Talks With Pope in Vatican City

VATICAN CITY, May 3 (AP) — Henry Cabot Lodge, President Johnson's envoy on the Viet Nam question, conferred today with Pope Paul VI in a surprise papal audience that may have involved major diplomatic action.

It also was clearly more than a courtesy visit. Lodge's wife came to Rome with him from New Delhi Saturday, but she did not attend the audience, as she probably would have if business—diplomacy—had not been involved.

Officials declined to give details of the talks.

"They" had been no advance word of Lodge's visit.

Informants said Lodge and the pope met for 20 minutes in the Apostolic palace.

It seemed possible the Vatican's decision to impose silence about the audience indicated a diplomatic move in Viet Nam or the Dominican Republic.

Stogie Contest

NEW ORLEANS, May 3 (AP) — Tulane University, which rarely defeats Louisiana State in any activity except tennis, will take on LSU in a cigar-smoking tournament — a new twist in spring-time collegiate activities.

Squads of 10 fraternity men from each university will light up Thursday at Tulane and finish the next day at LSU in Baton Rouge under strict rules and an elaborate point system to determine the championship team.

Each school plans to have cheerleaders, jazz bands and pretty coeds to boost their teams.

There will be competition in four classes — longest ash, most smoke rings from one cigar, shortest time to consume one stogie and greatest pile of ashes.

Can Accidents Produce Disease?

By Dr. Ernest D. Paul, D.C.
Yes. Accidents can produce disease. An electric light bulb will not function properly if it does not receive the necessary flow of electric current. Likewise the organs of the body cannot function properly if deprived of their necessary supply of neural energy. If because of an accident, a vertebra becomes misplaced (subluxated) pressure may be applied on nerves. This pressure disrupts the flow of neural energy resulting in improper function of one or more body organs supplied by the affected nerve. This improper function of body organs is called disease.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

BY ANDREW TULLY
WASHINGTON, May 2 — It is interesting to get reassurance from Sen. Edward V. Long, D. Mo., that his judicial subcommittee will ask the internal revenue "what's going on?" in the matter of seizure of tax delinquents' mail by our bumbling postoffice department.

"We've still got a lot of unanswered questions," according to a spokesman for the subcommittee, "and we plan to ask them in simple language." Internal revenue officials will start marching to the witness stand May 15 to explain why their outfit violated the principle that first-class mail is private property and thus constitutionally protected against unreasonable searches and seizures.

This appalling invasion of citizens' rights was brought to light by another Missourian, Rep. Duward G. Hall, Republican, who reported the postoffice department admitted there have been at least 14 cases in which it intercepted the mail of tax delinquents and passed it on to the IRS sleuths. Long said there was some confusion as to how often mail had been seized and opened without a warrant, but added "one time is too often."

BUREAUCRACY VS. CONSTITUTION—Amen, sir. The postoffice department has admitted that first-class mail is supposed to be secret. But in typical bureaucratic fashion, its mouthpieces pointed out that the internal revenue code passed by congress says nothing about exempting mail from seizure for tax purposes. IRS lawyers say this loophole gave tax agents the right to snoop at the fourth amendment.

Such shocking shenanigans are another sign of the era of the government big brother. Over the past decade, our public servants have conducted a vigorous and sick-lawed campaign against the citizen's privacy. In most of these cases, the postoffice department has been the efficient, if not always willing, tool of a justice department which sometimes seems determined to make a mockery of its name.

SPYING ON THE PUBLIC — For example, there have been earlier complaints about the postoffice's "mail covers" kept on the correspondence of some 24,000 persons. For two long years, postal workers forwarded to the justice department information printed on the envelopes of this mail. Subsequently, all records of this operation were destroyed, obviously to prevent folks like Senators Long and Hall from asking questions about it.

And in the practice of recording the names of citizens' "face-saving" publications from abroad that some faceless bureaucrat had decided were pro-communist. You or I never appointed this joker to approve our mail, but a copy of the list nevertheless went to the house un-American activities committee, which is not famed for its judicial approach.

NEITHER RAIN NOR SNOW — Quite aside from the legal aspects of such furtive espionage, I don't believe the postoffice department has time to tamper wilfully with a citizen's mail. Recently, I mailed a column to my New York office on a Tuesday; it still had not arrived on the following Monday. Somebody, I suppose, was too busy spying on the correspondence of some poor ribbon clerk who owes the government 13 cents on his 1966 income tax return.

Senator Long says his subcommittee will write a statute making such sordid practices illegal. I suppose that's the best way to handle the situation at this point, but it wouldn't be necessary if the government weren't oversteering in the kind of porcine intellects who think up those tricks.

UNREAL MOCKERY, HENCE!
Like-well almost like—Macbeth confronted by Banquo's ghost, the supreme court has shouted: "Unreal mockery, hence!" No more shall television show a shaving cream shaving sandpaper, unless it is sandpaper. If it is not sandpaper, the viewer must be so informed.

Sponsors had argued that to identify a mock-up as a mock-up, and then to explain why the real thing was not being used, would take too much time. The court not unreasonably decided that if a viewer is being asked to trust his eyes, he should be correctly informed of what he is looking at. Writing for the majority, Chief Justice Warren offered this provocative thought:

"We think it inconceivable that the ingenious advertising world will be unable, if it so desires, to conform to the (federal) FTC commission's insistence that the public be not misled." He raised the startling suggestion that if it is impossible to do a commercial truthfully on television, perhaps truth should survive, rather than the commercial.

Should this be enforced, what would happen to those defenses the consumer is alleged to have built-up over the years? "He protects himself from the blind acceptance of advertising he sees as he does from other types of self-serving propositions," said a panel member at last month's Washington presentation of the American Association of Advertising Agencies' "Study on Consumer Judgment of Advertising."

If the consumer begins to assume that the court is protecting him from every illusion, will his supposed wariness be lured into accepting all sorts of "provocateurs"? Would it be better to leave advertisers to their mock-ups and let the buyer continue to beware?

Such are the foolish questions raised by a supreme court decision on the side of the plain truth. Can there be any serious ones?—Christian Science Monitor.

DIRTY TRICK ON SAM RAYBURN
Just about everybody has had at the new Rayburn House Office building, and just about everything said about it seems to be true. Built at a scandalous cost that may reach anywhere between $6 million and 122 million dollars, the thing took seven years and repeated upgrading of estimates to complete, and appears to be a triumph of bad planning, only 15 per cent of its space being devoted to offices and hearing rooms.

Worst of all, the Rayburn building is a monument of ugliness. Ada Louise Huxtable in "The New York Times" is none too harsh when she refers to it as a "solid gold turkey," a national disaster architecturally, perhaps the "biggest star-spangled architectural blunder of our time." She finds it characterized by "elephantine esthetic banality," "boring bulk," "empty aridity," "vulgarization without drama"—and from what we have seen she is right on every count.

But the most disgusting thing about the building to us is its powerful resemblance to some of the least inspired official structures of official Moscow. Take away the view of the Capitol or other identifying marks of Washington, and the other-guessing "The Rayburn Building" is hard to realize that he confronts a warren for senior United States representatives rather than some neo-classic communitarian of the USSR.

The tendency of national antagonists to become mirror images of each other has been frequently noted. Do we face the agonizing prospect that the cold war, in addition to everything else, means the establishment of a debased architectural style which embodies no national spirit but a common low denominator of twentieth century bureaucratism?—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Potsy:
I continue to run into overly polite people driving cars and hesitate to say anything except that it can be a bit annoying.

Everyone knows when approaching an intersection that the car on the right has the right of way. Except if one of the cars is appreciably closer to the intersection and enters the intersection first ahead of the other car, then the left one has the right of way.

But what's bugging me is that I've been encountering drivers who either don't trust my driving or else seem bent on yielding the right of way when they shouldn't yield. Sometimes they'll even wait for me after I have signaled them to proceed across the street. And there I just sit feeling like an idiot.

TAYLOR'S VIEWS ON WORLD NEWS

BY HENRY J. TAYLOR
Secretary of State Dean Rusk and embassies and Treasury department officials caught napping, so an almost mountain of money was allowed to flow out of the Treasury's $3 billion dollar bonanza abroad. Fellow passants, beware! It's a snow job.

The cover-up concerns our public's money in the form of foreign currencies allowed to accumulate unduly in what Henry J. Taylor, Washington calls "counterpart funds."

The enormous U. S. Treasury deposits abroad, snatched by treaties that should be renegotiated, accrue from local-currency payments for commodities and goods our government has sold overseas—chiefly agricultural products under public law 480. The catch is that the payment money must be spent inside the countries.

The treasury admits its deposits in one country after another are so overabundant that we cannot conceivably employ them to build new U. S. embassies, agency hangouts and whatnot. Globe-trotting congressmen, official junketers and designated leaders riding a gravy train are handed such money abroad—free.

Two months ago this column produced a series contending that counterpart funds abroad produced a series of favored official joyrides free are good enough to sell—sell to plain, ordinary American travelers who have no inside track.

In addition, the treasury could sell drafts on its local currency deposits to international airlines, travel bureau corporations sending dollars abroad to pay their operating expenses, etc.

Our treasury would obtain American dollars right here at home and give value to our foreign billions at the same time. The result would transfer money from the scandal-ridden bonanza back to our taxpayers' accounts where it belongs.

Readers' responses grew to the point that the state and treasury departments are now micrographing the form reply. This misleading document tries to give the proposal a downplay by claiming that "in most cases these would be no lasting gain for the U. S. balance of payments."

Why not and listen—clang—clang—to the final claim that ends the micrographed answer: "Every dollar is being made to utilize across foreign currencies to the maximum extent possible to benefit the U. S. balance of payments." Hokus, hokey, hokum.

Let's look at the record.

Take just airline tickets, for example. While our gold goes down—down and out—U. S. agencies—unnecessarily—spending an estimated 2.3 million dollars annually for air tickets instead of utilizing the billions bonanza. The state, treasury and defense departments, the agency for international development, the U. S. Information Agency and other bureaus are not carrying out their responsibilities. Moreover, they've failed to adhere to their own regulations.

These statements aren't mine. They're the official findings of the government's own office of the comptroller general. And I have them before me in black and white.

Instead of accepting the state, treasury self-serving whitewash, blessings be, the office of the comptroller general pursued its own investigation of the 3 billion nestegg. On April 15, the title itself is revealing: "Failure to Effectively Utilize Excess U. S.-Owned Foreign Currencies."

The pages bristle with "full advantage is not being taken," "failed to use," "management has been lax," "despite the expressed intent of congress and the executive branch," etc.

In only seven countries cited by the comptroller general the projected annual dollar expenditures for air tickets alone exceed 1.1 million met in dollars instead of cashing in on available counterpart funds.

Take Indonesia. In only three sampled months the treasury shoveled out $271,000 tickets (taxpayers' dollars for travel with its Indonesian rupiah deposits at bursting in Jakarta banks.

Moreover, our tax dollars were mostly used to transport Indonesians participating in U. S. financed economic military assistance programs—likewise free.

I quote the comptroller general's report, pages 14-15: "The state department did not aggressively pursue this matter. It received a telegram from the Jakarta embassy stating that negotiations to use rupiahs for international travel had been unsuccessful. The department accepted this telegram and the position of the Indonesians without attempting further negotiations."

Now Sukarno has cut the rupiah exchange rate and our taxpayers have lost 130 million in the treasury's deposits!

The embarrassed state and treasury officials have been asleep at the switch and their micrographed alibi is neither truthful nor acceptable. Public exposure is our taxpayers' only hope in this outrageous issue.

position that the United States must stop to stop communist expansion.

Some of the criticism is emotional; some is based on moral revulsion to the American bombing. One of the most distinguished critics is Hans J. Morganthau, director of the Center for the Study of American Foreign and Military Policy at the University of Chicago.

Horganthau says that by supporting communism in Asia this country is only assuming it is containing the communism of China. He argues the North Vietnamese reds will become Red China's satellite only if this country forces them to.

But this is a mighty big assumption all by itself, since Morganthau isn't in a position to say that if the United States pulled out of Vietnam it would later engulf all of Viet Nam and all of Southeast Asia.

Interpreting the News

WASHINGTON, May 3 (AP)—President Johnson likes to think he is expressing an American consensus when he does something. But he is running into some divided opinions on his policy in Viet Nam.

He is sensitive to criticism but he is being criticized on what is happening in Southeast Asia. Among the critics—Some students, some professors, some members of congress, some members of his own Democratic party.

But he is getting it from the communists, too. Red China's premier, Chou En-Lai, branded Johnson's call for "unconditional discussions" on Viet Nam a "plot."

The Soviet Union says the United States is threatening Southeast Asia with "nuclear blackmail."

Recently Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D. Ark., chairman of the senate foreign relations committee, suggested a temporary halt in the U. S. bombing of North Viet Nam in an effort to encourage the reds to negotiate.

After that members of Fulbright's committee said they got hundreds of letters and that 90 per cent of them supported his proposal.

But former President Dwight D. Eisenhower fully supports Johnson, and so does former Vice President Richard M. Nixon. Johnson has had vigorous support from the senate's Republican leader, Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois.

This is a switch from what happened to President Harry S. Truman in the early days of the Korean war when it was going badly. Republicans were on his back. But in all this one point may get overlooked.

Johnson got a blank check from congress last Aug. 7 to do what he is doing. At that time both houses approved a resolution giving the President approval in advance for any action he might take in the Southeast Asia crisis.

The house voted 416 to 0 for this, the senate 88 to 2. The two dissenters were Democrats, Sens. Wayne Morse of Oregon and Ernest Gruening of Alaska. They are now two of his most persistent critics, particularly Morse.

SAIGON, South Viet Nam, May 3 (AP)—In war-torn South Viet Nam, you may take your life in your hands if you venture far outside Saigon.

But if you do much walking inside Saigon, you take your life in your feet.

There is no such thing as an innocent bystander here.

Particularly if he is a pedestrian he is fair game for all ends.

The only time he isn't in danger of being run down is during the curfew hours between 2 and 4 a.m. If he is abroad then he is only in danger of being shot by the police.

It is said that one reason the besieging Viet Cong haven't taken Saigon is that after reaching the outskirts of the city they decided it would be hopeless to try to fight their way through the traffic.

Saigon traffic is famous throughout the Far East. It starts early in the morning and except for a three-hour sista break, continues until it gets too dark to see a pedestrian.

If you strike one and are found at fault you must pay his hospital or funeral costs. Rules of the road prohibit a motorist from pursuing the pedestrian across sidewalks or into public buildings.

"Actually you rarely see a pedestrian or bicyclist badly injured," remarked a motorist who has won an unsafe driver's badge with three oak leaf clusters. "The main idea is merely to brush him out of the way with your bumper."

The traffic here is picturesque as well as impossible. The streets are a whirling mass of the history of wheeled vehicles.

Your status depends on whether you own your vehicle, what kind of wheels it has and how much it cost.

At the bottom of the social totem pole is the cycle driver, who wears a conical hat and operates a pedal taxi resembling a bicycle pushing a wheelbarrow.

From this social basement your prestige goes up to the motorcyclist to the cab owner to the man who owns his car or, even better, is driven by a government chauffeur.

The cabbies of Paris are regarded as Europe's wildest steersmen. But in Saigon, every-

The blaze was located in a bird's nest atop a large, 30-foot cross built into the front of the church. A fire engine from a station half block away doused the conflagration. The congregation went back to resume the hymn.

BOISE, May 3 (AP)—Cascade corporation reports an 18 per cent increase in sales during the first quarter of 1965 over the same period last year and a 28 per cent increase in earnings per common share. More than 150 students from each of the four classes will be examined Thursday through Saturday. Each student will be given a five-minute oral examination. Some of the students in which cavities or other problems are found will be asked to return for more extensive examinations.

He said the society's chief interest in the western United States is to promote Finnish exports—which he said reached 11 million dollars in 1964, 50 per cent of that in newspaper. The diplomat said his country is grateful for loans from the United States, which have been repaid, but is proud that it has not asked for foreign aid.

Drunk Pilot Problems in U.S. Increase

WASHINGTON, May 3 (AP)—Federal aviation officials fear they may have a bigger drunken flying problem among private pilots than they suspected. The base for this concern, a house appropriations subcommittee was told, were the findings of some 50 autopsies conducted on crash victims.

"To our great surprise, there has come out of these autopsies a much more serious drunk flying problem than we understood there to be before," said Najeeb E. Halaby, in testimony March 2 before he resigned as federal aviation agency administrator. The testimony has just been made public.

Halaby stressed that he was talking about private pilots, not airline pilots.

ORPHEUM

Divorces to Be Easier in Soviet Union Soon

MOSCOW, May 3 (AP)—Divorces are to be made easier shortly in the Soviet Union. The outmoded conservative Stalin era family law of 1944 will be repealed and new legislation is expected in the near future.

The new draft law provides for simplified divorce procedures to avoid the present delays and expenses involved in dissolving marriages.

Petitioners for divorce are now required to give notice of intention through the press—a complicated and difficult matter. Then they have to appear before a people's court and convince the judges of the necessity of divorce.

Grounds for divorce have not been specified by law up to now, and the judges enjoy wide discretion in determining whether the spouses should be separated. If judicial efforts to reconcile the parties fail, the court permits another hearing before a higher court which finally decides the matter.

Court fees may run up to 200 rubles ($220) for each spouse. The revised family law will eliminate the requirement of prehearing publication and permit a single court to dispose promptly of divorce suits. Court fees, now virtually punitive, will be abolished.

The new code also will protect children born out of wedlock—whose birth certificates are now marked "fatherless" by providing for measures to establish paternity.

Although there is no social stigma attached to "fatherless" children, both mother and child now suffer from the fact that the father is free from any liability of support.

The current Stalin era law does not recognize common law marriages or provide for alimony to deserted common law wives. This situation also is due for correction.

The new family law will apply which is not the case now—to foreigners living in the Soviet Union, and to cases involving the marriages of Russians with foreigners. Under existing legislation the rights of foreigners are vague and are often subject to capricious bureaucratic treatment.

The new family code is intended to "strengthen the Soviet family, to build family relations of voluntary unions between men and women, founded on mutual love and respect, and free from materialistic designs," a Soviet official said.

This is a far cry from the attitude towards the family expressed by such early Bolsheviks as Alexandra Kollontai who after the Russian revolution said, "The family is ceasing to be a necessity both for its members and the state."

Family ties were comparatively loose in the 1920's when a divorce could be obtained by the simple expedient of writing a postcard to the discarded spouse. In Moscow alone the divorce rate in the early 1930's was 38.3 per 100 marriages. Now, although specific figures are not available, the Russians claim one of the world's lowest divorce rates.

The Soviet attitude toward sex and the family has been changing since the mid-thirties and the family is now considered a necessary and desirable institution. Stalin outlawed common-law marriages and abortions (which used now) and made divorce difficult. Soviet authorities now appear confident enough in the stability of the family to liberalize the laws governing family relationships.

Seven Drown In Georgia Boat Mishap

WOODSTOCK, Ga., May 3—Seven members of three related families drowned yesterday when a small overloaded boat nosed under at the start of a pleasure ride on Lake Allatoona.

One of the victims was a father who watched the boat sink from shore and drowned trying to swim to the scene and save his son.

A nearby boatsman rescued one of the four children aboard the flooded boat and also picked up another who had been rescued by the boatsman before reaching the foundering victims.

The dead were identified by a funeral home as Alton Andrew (Elgie) Giddeons, 28; his son, Bobby, 5, and his brother, Jack O' Giddeons, 35; Danny Huffman, 18, his sister, Margaret, 11; and two sisters, Peggy, 10 and Diane Clayton, 8, all near Woodstock.

Jack Giddeons, his wife, Ann, 28, and Elgie Giddeons' pregnant wife, Nell, 20, watched the tragedy from the shore, about 150 yards away. Jack immediately dove into the lake and struck out for the capsized boat.

"I never did see him no more," said his wife. "I started out too, and got a cramp and had to come back."

"I could hear Elgie hollering. 'My babies are drowning; my babies are drowning,'" she said.

Elgie's son, Kenneth, 4, was the only survivor. He was rescued by S. Carver Underwood, who was riding around the lake in a boat with his wife. Underwood also took in F. Sheffield, who had tried to swim from shore but "rave out" after covering almost 100 yards.

More Funds Asked for Idaho Project

WASHINGTON, May 3—Rep. Compton I. White, Jr., D. Ida., called on a house subcommittee today to provide another $570,000 for the Mann creek reclamation project near Weiser.

White told the subcommittee on irrigation and reclamation the money is needed for changes in the design of Spangler dam on Mann creek and because of increased construction costs.

The estimated cost of the project when it was planned in 1961 was $3,490,000 White said. A cost estimate made in January this year was $4,060,000.

Spangler dam would impound 28,000 acre feet of water which would irrigate 465 acres of new land and provide supplementary supplies for 4,500 acres.

Texas Leads Nation in Junkyards

WASHINGTON, May 3 (AP)—Texas is the proud home state of the nation in junkyards and "similar eyesores" along her main highways and streets, the White House said yesterday.

To underline the need for Johnson's "beautiful America" report, the White House released a report from the Commerce department showing more than 17,500 automobile graveyards, junkyards, scrap metal heaps and similar ugly spots now dot the highways and avenues of America.

The state-by-state survey of roadside clutter was made by the Commerce department's public roads bureau in preparation for the Johnson roadside beautification program.

Texas was at the top of the list with 7,802 junkyards, visible from interstate and other federal-aid primary routes. This type of highway carries 46 percent of the nation's traffic and the survey applied to 285,000 miles of these primary routes. Second to Texas was Georgia with 1,955 junkyards, North Carolina was third with 957, Pennsylvania next with 899 and Tennessee fifth with 870 junkyards.

The nation's smallest state naturally had the best record—Rhode Island with only 22 junk heaps. The District of Columbia was at the bottom of the list, however, with only seven junkyards.

Navy's Oldest Warplane Is Hero in Viet Nam's Air War

NORFOLK, Va., May 3 (AP)—The oldest warplane in the navy has been the biggest hero of the air war in Viet Nam.

Pilots call it the Spad, after the remarkably durable French biplane that was the backbone of the French and American air forces in World War I.

Officially it's the A1 Skyraider, a propeller-driven fighter-bomber that first went into service 20 years ago.

The navy is retiring the Skyraider. The Douglas Aircraft company has been snapping up mothballed "Spads" for use in Viet Nam.

Pilots swear by the Skyraider's endurance, toughness and bombing accuracy. It has been the mainstay of Vietnamese and American striking power against the Viet Cong.

A former combat pilot who has flown 1,000 hours in Skyraiders, and many more in jets, said he'd prefer the Skyraider over any jet if he were fighting in Viet Nam.

There have been reports the department of defense has alerted the Douglas Aircraft company to reopen its Skyraider production lines, shut down since 1957. But a Pentagon spokesman said there are no immediate plans to order new Skyraiders.

77 Charged With Selling Game Birds

WASHINGTON, May 3 (AP)—Federal and state agents at daybreak today began arresting or serving summons of 77 persons in 11 states on charges of selling migratory game birds.

Interior Secretary Stewart L. Udall, who announced the crackdown, said that numerous deer, quail and other types of resident game also were purchased.

He said other purchases involved were bunnings, a form of protected migratory song bird.

Udall said the states involved were Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Kentucky, Maryland, Mississippi, Missouri, Nebraska, New York, North Carolina, and Virginia. He said simultaneous arrests were made to prevent any possible advance warning.

Market hunting and selling of migratory game birds were outlawed in 1918 by the migratory bird treaty with Britain and Canada. Violations were considered misdemeanors or minor offenses by the courts until 1960 when they were classified as felonies.

Salmon Trail Closure Proposed

SALMON, May 3—The forest service proposes to close the Salmon river trail from Corn Creek bar to Horse creek to travel by motor vehicle.

Purpose of the closure, the announcement said, is for public safety.

"The trail is narrow with sheer dropoffs into the river. Pack and saddle animals meeting a scooter, one of the narrow points could easily be spooked with the result of a certain accident."

Five miles of trail are involved.

The forest service said "this is the only section outside of the primitive area on the Salmon national forest that is recommended for closure to vehicular traffic."

Persons opposed to the closure are asked to contact the Indianola district ranger at Indianola.

Palmer Wins His First PGA Title of Year With 277 in Las Vegas Meet

LAS VEGAS, May 3 (UPI)—Arnold Palmer won his first PGA title in a year Sunday as he led an all-star field all the way to win the $75,000 Tournament of Champions golf classic with an 11-under-par score of 277. The determined slugger from Laurel Valley, Pa., fired a closing 71 to defeat 23 other PGA tournament winners entered in this windswept event. His 27-hole score was 66-69-71-71-277. Not since the Oklahoma City open last May has Palmer won a PGA tournament although he did capture the world match play championship last November in Wentworth, England.

BLASTING OUT of the trap on the 18th hole at Las Vegas Sunday is Arnold Palmer. It took Palmer two putts for a bogie five to finish with a 277 for the four-day Tournament of Champions. He picked up $14,000 in first prize money with his 11-under-par total. (AP wirephoto)

Obviously out to regain his title as the king of golf, Palmer finished 13 strokes ahead of defending champion Jack Nicklaus, the 1965 Masters champion and last year's leading money-winner. Nicklaus had won the T. of C. two years in a row and had been favored to repeat this year.

Juan (Chl Chl) Rodriguez, who started the round three shots behind Palmer, made a tremendous closing surge with birdies on the last four holes, but it was too little and too late. Rodriguez finished two shots behind Palmer with 70-67-72-70-279.

Doug Sanders salvaged third place with a closing 72 for a 281 total while Sam Snead and Australian Kei Nagle tied for fourth at 283, each shooting a two-under-par 70 as gusts of wind up to 40 miles an hour were recorded on the 7,200-yard Desert Inn Country club course.

Palmer really wrapped up the tournament on the 10th hole when he sank a wedge shot from 60 yards out for an eagle three.

He fired three birdies on the front nine against a single bogey for a two-under-par 33. He sank a 12-footer, an 18-footer and drove the green in two on a five-par hole for his birdies.

On the back nine, he opened with the eagle but his approach shots strayed in the wind and cost him bogeys on three holes and he finished with 34-37-71.

That gave Palmer $14,000 for winning his second Tournament of Champions title.

Rodriguez had 10 one-putt greens and a total of only 27 for the round. But the colorful Puerto Rican was wild off the tee and had to have a near-perfect round on the greens to make his 70. Chl Chl won $8,000 for his runner-up finish while Sanders collected $6,000 and Snead and Nagle each collected $4,750.

Miller Barber, a Texan who plays the wind very well, closed with a 71 for 288 and a tie with Bill Casper, Jr., for sixth place. Casper soared to a 75.

Dick Sikes, golf's rookie of the year in 1964 who was only four strokes behind Palmer going into the final round, blew a 79 for 287 and a tie with Australian Bruce Crampton.

Palmer had entered 19 PGA tournaments since his win in Oklahoma City in May, 1964 without finishing in the winner's circle.

"I had heard so often this week that I had gone 19 in a row without winning one that it was getting to me," Palmer said. "The way I played the last few holes I was wondering if I could win."

George Knudson, Canada, finished in 10th place with 289 followed by Nicklaus at 290, two over par, and Chuck Coody and Jack McGowan at 291. The rest followed by Nicklaus at 290; two scores ranging up to 302 posted by PGA champion Bob Nichols.

He fired three birdies on the front nine against a single bogey for a two-under-par 33. He sank a 12-footer, an 18-footer and drove the green in two on a five-par hole for his birdies.

On the back nine, he opened with the eagle but his approach shots strayed in the wind and cost him bogeys on three holes and he finished with 34-37-71.

That gave Palmer $14,000 for winning his second Tournament of Champions title.

Rodriguez had 10 one-putt greens and a total of only 27 for the round. But the colorful Puerto Rican was wild off the tee and had to have a near-perfect round on the greens to make his 70. Chl Chl won $8,000 for his runner-up finish while Sanders collected $6,000 and Snead and Nagle each collected $4,750.

BOSTON RED SOX pitcher Earl Wilson collapses on mound when he caught his spikes on the rubber on his first pitch to Detroit Tigers' Dick McAuliffe and his knee gave way in the eighth inning of the opening game of a doubleheader Sunday at Detroit. Trainer Jack Fadden said Wilson pulled a muscle in the back of his right knee. Wilson left the game with help but was the winning pitcher as Boston beat Detroit 2-1. ## Tigers Drop Two Games To Red Sox

DETROIT, May 3 (AP)—Dalton Jones and rookie Mike Ryan combined to drive in seven runs in Boston's 10-3 second game victory over the Detroit Tigers, completing a sweep of a doubleheader Sunday. Boston won the opener, 2-1.

Jones batted in four runs with a triple, homerun and single, while Ryan accounted for three more with a pair of homers, his first in the majors.

Al Kaline and Don Wert hit solo homers for the Tigers, who lost two games in a row for the first time this season.

Felix Mantilla's sacrifice fly with the bases loaded in the sixth inning decided the first game in a tight pitching duel between Boston's Earl Wilson and Detroit's Phil Regan.

Wilson was forced to leave the game in the eighth inning when he caught his spikes on the underside of the rubber and pulled a muscle in back of his right knee.

Orioles Take Twin Bill From Yankees

NEW YORK, May 3 (AP)—Veteran right-hander Rob. in Roberts checked the New York Yankees 5-0 on his first Sunday as the Baltimore Orioles completed a doubleheader sweep. The Orioles won the opener 4-2 in 10 innings on run-scoring singles by John Orsino and Jerry Adair. Roberts, bringing his record to 3-0, allowed only one Yankee to reach third base in his strongest performance of the season.

Luis Aparicio joined with rookie Paul Blair to provide Roberts with more than enough working room. Blair walked in the first inning and came home from first on Aparicio's hit-and-run single.

In the third, Blair hit his second homer, and in the fifth, Aparicio tripled home a run before scoring on a balk by starter Al Downing. Blair scored the final Baltimore run in the eighth when he reached second on Mickey Mantle's error and scored on Boog Powell's single.

The Orioles got a strong performance from Dave McNally in the opener. McNally held the Yankees to three hits until they rallied for the tying run in the ninth on doubles by Joe Pepitone and Tony Kubek.

In the 10th, Orsino drove in Brooks Robinson with the tie-breaking run after Robinson had opened with a single and moved to second on Johnny Blanchard's passed ball. Adair's single scored Russ Snyder, who had walked.

Rookie Curt Blefary put the Orioles into an early lead with a two-run homer, his fifth.

Jackson Hits, Hurls Cubs Past Astros

HOUSTON, May 3 (AP)—Larry Jackson ignited a four-run, third-inning outburst with a triple and, with relief help from Ted Abernathy, led the Chicago Cubs to a 6-3 victory over Houston that snapped the Astros' winning streak at 10 games.

Abernathy relieved Jackson after singles by Joe Morgan, Al Spangler and Jim Wynn brought in Houston's third run with one out. Abernathy got Walt Bond to hit into a force out and retired Bob Aspromonte on a grounder.

The victory was the first for Jackson, who was the majors' biggest winner in 1964 with 24 victories.

The Cubs added two insurance runs in the sixth on singles by Billy Williams, Santo and George Altman and Jim Owens' wild pitch.

SPOKANE, May 3 (AP)—Michael Decker, a 22-year-old University of Idaho football player, remained in critical condition Sunday in a Spokane hospital.

Decker, Grangeville, Ida., underwent brain surgery after collapsing during a practice session last Wednesday. His condition has remained unchanged since the operation.

Homers Give Twin Wins To Redlegs

CINCINNATI, May 3 (AP)—Art Shamsky smacked a key pinch hit homer in the first game and Gordy Coleman hit a decisive two-run homer in the seventh inning of the nightcap as the Cincinnati Reds swept a doubleheader from the New York Mets 9-4 and 10-8 Sunday.

Jack Fisher was the chief victim of the Reds' attacks. He was knocked out in the opener when the Reds went on an eight-run fifth-inning spree, then returned in the second game with the Mets leading 8-7 and was tagged for Coleman's game-winning homer.

Shamsky, getting a chance to hit after Frank Robinson jammed his thumb ailing in the fourth inning, hit a two-run homer in the fifth inning explosion. Leo Cardenas collected two doubles in the inning as the Reds sent 12 men to the plate.

All eight runs scored from two out.

Jim Moloney went the distance for the Reds, bringing his record to 3-0 despite getting tagged for a homer by Johnny Lewis.

The Reds and Mets played 25 hits in the second game before Coleman followed a walk to Robinson with a homer that put Cincinnati ahead to stay 9-3.

The Mets had overcome a 6-2 deficit with a six-run sixth-inning uprising triggered by Bob Taylor's three-run homer and helped along by two errors. The Reds got one back in their half on a double by Don Pavletich and Johnny Edwards' triple.

Phillies Snap Slump, Beat Braves Twice

MILWAUKEE, May 3 (AP)—Philadelphia snapped out of a slump by sweeping a doubleheader from Milwaukee 8-0 and 12-7 Sunday behind Chris Short's seven-hitter in the opener and Jack Baldschun's brilliant relief job in the nightcap.

The Phillis who had dropped four straight, took the first game by capitalizing on a pair of infield hits and a line drive misjudged by Milwaukee right fielder Hank Aaron for a four-run sixth inning.

Baldschun was summoned from the bullpen in the sixth inning of the second game after the Phillis had moved in front 9-7. The veteran right-hander dazzled the Braves the rest of the way, striking out five in earning his second victory without defeat.

Richie Allen powered the Phillis' attack with a two-run homer and a triple and a double before receiving two intentional walks in the nightcap.

McCovey-Led Giants Down Dodgers 4-2

LOS ANGELES, May 3 (AP)—Willie McCovey hit Bob Miller's first pitch in the 10th inning for his second homer for the game, lifting the San Francisco Giants to a 4-2 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers Sunday.

McCovey's shot, into the left center field bleachers was his fifth homer of the year and snapped a 2-2 tie. He hit a two-run homer following Jesus Alou's single in the seventh inning for the first San Francisco runs as the Giants salvaged the fourth game of the series.

McCovey's winning homer was the first off Miller in 76 games and 143 innings dating back to April 22 last year.

A walk, a sacrifice and Harvel Kuenn's single produced another run.

Miller came on in relief of Claude Osteen, who left for a pinch hitter when the Dodgers tied the score in the ninth on singles by Ron Fairly, Jim LeFebvre and Dick Tracewski. Tracewski struck four consecutive hits off San Francisco starter Jack Sanford.

Lucky Debonair Eyes Preakness As Next Target

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 3 (UPI)—Lucky Debonair, winner of Saturday's $154,500 Kentucky derby, eyed the Preakness stakes Sunday as his next objective and the colt would be a solid favorite. Trainer Frank Catrone planned to ship Lucky Debonair to Pimlico either Monday or Tuesday but the undecided horseman was undecided whether to go by train or plane.

The son of Vertex, who scored in a neck win over Dapper Dan in the first of the triple crown classics, came out of the race in good condition and will start good conditioning in the middle jewel in the golden diadem shortly after he arrives at Pimlico. "He was plumb wore out just like me," Catrone reported. "But he was not too tired. He was blowing, of course, but that was to be expected," he added. "The former jockey vigorously denied that there was anything wrong with the horse prior to the race."

Rice never would start the horse if he wasn't right no matter how badly she wanted to win the Kentucky derby. This colt never took a lame step. He had to be in good shape to race and he proved it. He had to race every inch of the way," Catrone reports when queried about reports that Lucky Debonair had "shin splints."

But a puzzled Bill Winfrey wasn't too sure about Bold Lad, the 2-1 favorite who finished next to last in the field of 11.

Ton Rolfe was third and Native Charger fourth in the mile and one-quarter classic, followed by Hall To All, Mr. Mack, Swift, Ruler, Flag, Pilsner, Carpenter's Rule, Bold Lad, who went off the favorite, and Narshus.

"I will gallop him for a few days and maybe he will show us what he's made of," Winfrey said. "Bold Lad is out of the Preakness stakes but Dapper Dan, whom he also trains, will run in the mile and three-sixteenth race on May 15."

But Ton Rolfe probably will skip it. "We are thinking of the Belmont stakes, of the Preakness," said Winfrey. "He was pleased with his colt. 'He ran a big race,' he said. It was Whitley's first Kentucky derby and it 'reminds me of Timonium on Labor day,' he said. 'It had the same state fair atmosphere.'"

Native Charger was shipped to Garden State park and is expected to run in the Preakness while Hall To All was sent to Maryland for the race.

"Hall To All just didn't have the energy Eddie Yowell said of the colt who was a strongly played third choice in the Kentucky derby."

Flag Raiser was flown to New York in the same plane with Bold Lad and Dapper Dan trainer John Jacobs said the horse would start next Saturday in the Withers stakes at Aqueduct.

"He had a lot of racing last year with no ill effects and he loves that track," Jacobs said. Prior to the Kentucky derby Flag Raiser won the Bay Shore, the Gotham and the Wood-Morris there.

"Right now I would say Mr. Pak will not go in the Preakness but when I see him Monday I may change my mind," said Mrs. Mary Keim of Mr. Pak, whom she owns and trains. The others, too, appeared headed for greener fields for they showed little to warrant a try in the Preakness stakes.

Smith Fires Eagle to Win Golf Tourney

SPARTANBURG, S. C., May 3 (UPI)—Marilynn Smith fired an eagle on the 17th hole Sunday to win the Peach Blossom invitational with a three-under-par 213 for 54-holes.

She picked up $1,715 in her first Ladies Professional Golf association victory since the Albuquerque, N. M., pro-Am in August of last year.

Miss Smith, Runaway Bay, Jamaica, edged out hometown favorite Betsy Rawls who finished second with a two-under-par 214. She and Miss Smith were tied for the lead at the start of the final round at the Spartanburg Country club.

Mickey Wright was third with a par-216. Tied for fourth were Sue Maxwell and Kathy Whitworth with 216.

After asking for the score and finding herself even with Miss Rawls on 17, Miss Smith drove 250 yards from the tee. She put a wood shot on the green, 22 feet from the pin and dropped the putt for her eagle.

Twins Gain Header Split With Chicago

CHICAGO, May 3 (AP)—Harmon Killebrew hit a two-run homer and drove in the winning run with a double in the 10th inning for Minnesota's 3-2 opening game victory over Chicago before the White Sox took the nightcap 5-4 on homers by Floyd Robinson and Don Buford.

Killebrew, the majors' home run leader last season with 49, hit his first homer after Rich Rollins pitched in the eighth of the opener, erasing a 2-0 Chicago lead built on solo homers by Johnny Romano in the first inning and Ron Hansen in the seventh.

In the 10th, Killebrew pounded a two-out double for the winning run after Zollo Versalles singled. In the eighth, Robinson belted a Chicago homer in the first inning and Buford slammed his two-run homer, also off starter Dave Boswell, in the third for a 4-1 White Sox lead.

Chicago starter, rookie Bruce Howard, had to leave in the seventh inning because of a blistered finger after scattering four hits and holding a 4-2 lead.

Don Mincher's pinch double off reliever Eddie Fisher led to a run that trimmed Chicago's lead to 3-2.

The White Sox got the run back on a double by Ken Barry and Danny Cater's single. That run proved decisive.

Mounties Blank Islanders 2-0

VANCOUVER, B. C., May 3 (UPI)—Catcher Woody Huyle hit a two-run homer in the bottom of the 10th inning to break up a pitchers' duel and give the Vancouver Mounties a 2-0 Pacific Coast league win over the Hawaii Islanders in a single game played here Sunday.

Left-hander Richie Allen pitched four-hit ball and sent 10 Hawaii batters down swinging for the win, his second in three starts.

It was the second Vancouver shutout in the current four-game series.

Denver Edges Past 89ers 6-5

DENVER, May 3 (UPI)—Andy Kosco's run-scoring single in the ninth, his fifth RBI of the day, gave Denver a 6-5 Pacific Coast league baseball victory over Oklahoma City Sunday.

The score was tied at 5-all when Kosco lined one to center field to bring across Ted Underhill who opened the ninth for Denver with a double to left center.

Kosco knocked two runs across with a double in the third and brought single tallies across the plate with sacrifice flies in the fifth and seventh.

Dave Roberts hit a two-run homer in the fifth frame, his eighth round-tripper of the year, and Ron Davis had a solo homer in the sixth for the 89ers.

Worsley Is Toast Of Town After Canadiens' Win

MONTREAL, May 3 (UPI)—Gump Worsley, rejected by both New York and Montreal in the last two years, was the toast of the town Sunday after the big game of his life gave the Canadiens their 13th Stanley cup.

Worsley, who will be 36 years old on May 14, turned aside 21 shots Saturday night as Montreal blanked the Chicago Black Hawks 4-0 in the final game of the National Hockey league playoff series. It was a remarkable performance by the short, roly-poly netminder, who was with Quebec most of last season.

At the final buzzer, Worsley was mobbed by his teammates and defenseman J. C. Tremblay jumped into his lap and hugged him.
