

General Refuses To Resign

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic, May 11 (AP)—Brig. Gen. Elias Wessin y Wessin changed his mind last night about resigning as a peace overture to the Dominican rebels. The U. S. government apparently hoped the loyalist junta head, Gen. Antonio Imbert Barrera, would talk him into resigning.

"The question of General Wessin's resignation is a matter between General Imbert and General Wessin," a U. S. embassy official said in a statement. "We understand from official sources that General Wessin is going to resign at 4 p.m. yesterday. We now understand that he is reconsidering his decision," the statement said.

The United States had pressed for Wessin's retirement as a peace gesture toward the rebels, whose forces he fought with those of U. S. troops. Many Dominican held him responsible for the air bombardments of Santo Domingo that took more than 1,000 lives.

Col. Francisco Caamaño Dengo, proclaimed provisional president of the rebels, has been demanding that Wessin leave the country. The general commands the San Isidro training base 20 miles from Santo Domingo, one of the country's key military posts, and is a leader of the military revolt that overthrew President Juan Bosch in 1963.

U. S. sources said Wessin sent a letter Sunday to U. S. Ambassador W. Tapley Bennett, Jr., in which he expressed his willingness to resign from the army for the good of the country. The letter was written after he met with Bennett and Lieut. Gen. Bruce Palmer, commander of the 15,000 U. S. marines and paratroopers in the Dominican Republic.

Plane Lands Safely After Losing Wheel

EL PASO, Tex., May 11 (AP)—An American Airlines Boeing 707 airliner with 125 persons aboard landed safely here today after losing a wheel on takeoff from El Paso International airport more than an hour, dumping fuel.

Spokesmen for the airline said there was no damage to the plane in the emergency landing and no one was hurt.

The plane, American flight 98, took off at 9:45 a.m. when the right wheel of a cluster of four under the right wing fell off. At that time it was believed that two wheels were missing.

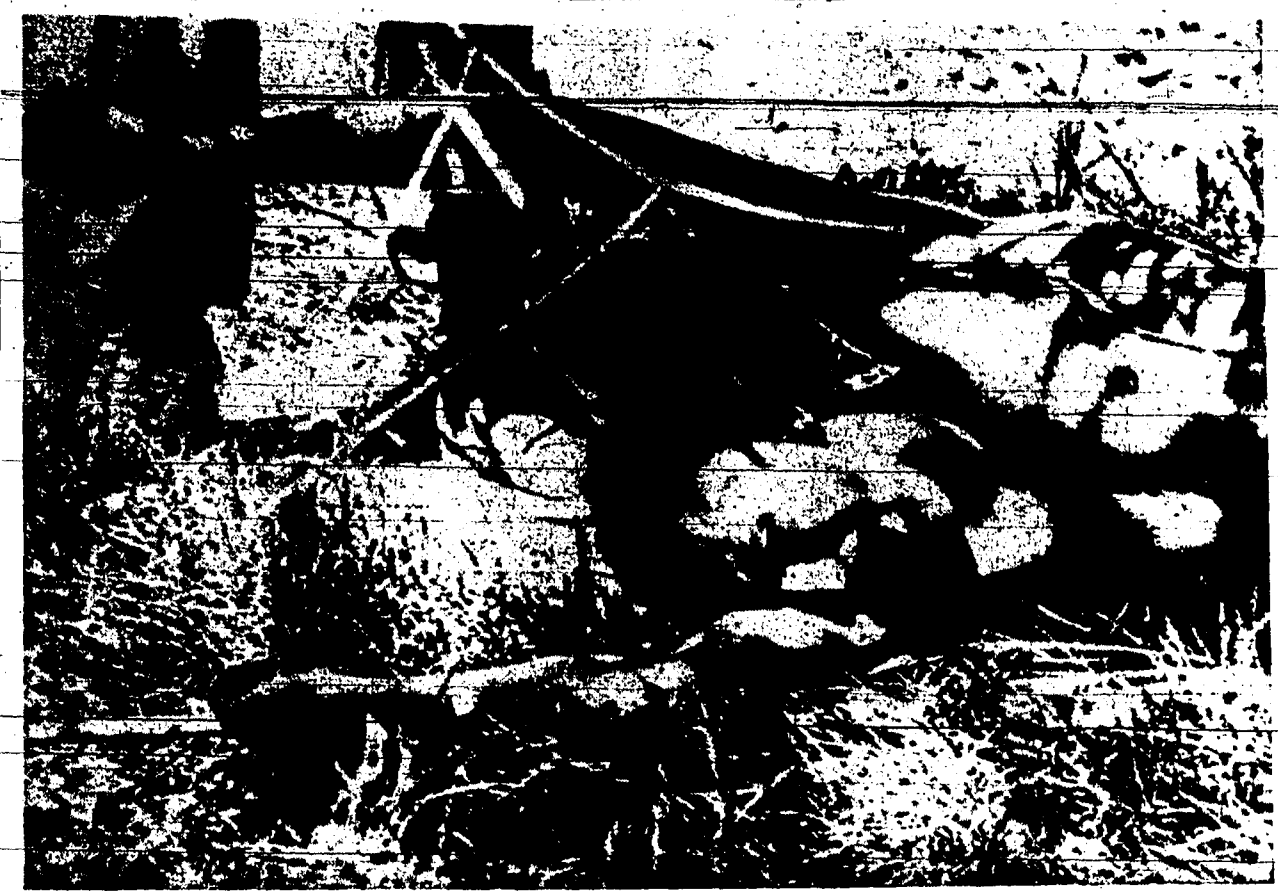

No cause for the loss of the wheel was found.

Outflow Cut At Two Carey Reservoirs

CAREY, May 11—Outflow at both Little Wood river and Fish Creek reservoirs has been cut back to bring water depth up to near capacity before the start of irrigating season.

The cold weather the Wood area has been experiencing recently reduced water depth considerably at the two reservoirs.

Tuesday all water from the high-line canal will be shut off to allow workmen to repair a cut which was made in the diversion of the canal to relieve water pressure when the water was high. At the same time the cut was made some headgates had to be taken out. The cement work and dirt fills are expected to be completed in about four days.

Northside Highway Route Is Selected

BOISE, May 11 (AP)—Interstate 80 between Bliss and Jerome was routed along existing state highway 25 by the Idaho highway board yesterday in a decision that completed locating of all 609 miles of Interstate in Idaho. The location of the approximate 25-mile section between Bliss and Jerome in southcentral Idaho had been disputed for nearly two years. All other locations for the state's Interstate system to be completed by 1972 are established.

At a public hearing in April, delegates from Jerome asked the board to locate the final section on a "desert route" north and east of state 25.

Spokesmen from Bliss and Wendell complained that route would bypass their communities and asked the board to keep to the tentative route along state 25 and Union Pacific's main railroad-track.

In making its decision yesterday, the board said businesses and farm owners had based their plans for 15 years on a major four-lane highway being along state 25.

The board also said right-of-way for a four-lane highway already is secured there and the route will provide the best access to the towns involved.

The board completed its April agenda, approving also relocation of U. S. 12 between Spalding and Arrow for connection with a bridge to be built across the Clearwater river.

The board's April meeting had been recessed to yesterday due to the absence of two of its three members.

Director C. Ed Flandro was called away from the meeting when his wife became ill. Director Ernest Gaffney had not attended because of press work on his ranch near Plummer.

Erhard Plans Visit in U.S. This Month

BOONN, Germany, May 11 (AP)—West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard is expected to visit President Johnson May 31, informed sources said today.

The West German chief of government, the sources said, is going to the United States to accept an honorary degree from Columbia university.

Blood Quota Hiked, Barely Missed Here

Twin Falls missed its 175-pint quota by only four pints Monday afternoon during an American Red Cross blood drawing at the American Legion hall. Of the 175 persons who turned out for the bloodmobile visit, four were rejected and 171 donated blood. Jack Swisher, Twin Falls blood program chairman, said, "I am very pleased with the effort shown today toward a 175-pint quota, which shows Twin Falls could easily have a 175-pint quota if more effort were put forth. I am very grateful that so many donors took the time in this busy season to participate in the program."

Twin Falls normally has a quota of 150 pints, but it was increased to 175 for Monday's drawing in an effort to avoid a deficit in the blood bank supply.

Swisher received his four-gallon pin at the drawing. Three-gallon pins were presented to Robert Bass and Orin C. Fisher. Two-gallon pins were received by Frances Thurman and Guy Matsuoika. One-gallon pins were presented to Douglas D. Boddy, Richard Penzo, Max Crothers, Wilbur L. Miller, Marvin H. Walz, George Holmes, Charles Reeder, Wesley Peterson and Gary Silvers.

Group donations included LDS church, 30; St. Edward's Catholic church, 12; Typographical union, 10; Idaho Power company, 8; Presbyterian church, 6; Quality Roofers, 5; Immanuel Lutheran church, Baptist church, Methodist church, the Twin Falls post-See QUOTA, Page 2, Col. 8.

T.F. School Book Fees to Be Reduced

Trustees of Twin Falls school district No. 411 voted Monday night to reduce all book fees for the 1965-66 school year.

With the increased funds provided by the legislature this year, the state board of education urged that all schools decrease the book fees.

Three new teachers also were hired at the meeting. Mrs. Marilyn Kistler will teach eighth grade English and speech at Robert Stuart junior high school, Mrs. Irveta Jane Croft will teach second grade and Erik L. Anderson will teach seventh grade American history or social studies.

Howard Gillette, Ex-Police Chief, Has Heart Attack

Former Twin Falls Police Chief Howard Gillette, 52, Blue Lake, was hospitalized Monday at a local hospital.

He was hospitalized Monday afternoon after a heart attack. Gillette, who joined the police force on April 1, 1932, became chief on April 1, 1964. He retired after 33 years in the position on Dec. 31, 1964.

Five U. S. Advisers Killed in 7-Hour Battle With Reds

SAIGON, Viet Nam, May 11 (AP)—A Viet Cong regiment occupied the provincial center of Song Be for seven hours today, killing five U. S. military advisers and 20 Vietnamese soldiers, and there were fears tonight that the red troops would try again to overrun that town, 74 miles north of Saigon. Three battalions of government troops were still skirmishing after sundown with the red guerrillas, who perhaps totaled 1,200 men. A once-recovered post defending the local air strip appeared to be back in Viet Cong hands.

In addition to the five American dead, 13 U. S. military advisers were wounded in the attack—one of the heaviest onslaughts of the war—that the Viet Cong launched before dawn. In all, the government forces had about 100 casualties.

In another operation, a U. S. marine was killed and six were wounded when a company of leathernecks shot their way into a complex of communist-controlled villages near the Da Nang air base.

U. S. air force planes made two raids against North Viet Nam today. A military spokesman said 16 F105 fighter-bombers, supported by 24 other planes, destroyed six barracks in the Vinh area, left an armed junk apparently sinking, destroyed two trucks and damaged five buildings on route 8, the spokesman said.

Two Skyhawks from the carrier ORISKANY reported three direct hits on a railroad bridge about 13 miles south of Thanh Hoa.

All the planes returned safely to their bases, the spokesman said. At Song Be, a provincial capital near the Cambodian border, government forces recaptured the town under cover of a heavy air attack by U. S. air force jets, but the communists dug in along a river northeast of the town. A major battle appeared to be developing.

New Tempo Store Grand Opening Set

Grand opening for the new Tempo store in the Blue Lakes shopping center has been set for Wednesday.

Doors will be open from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. during the opening. Regular hours will be from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. and on Sunday from 1 to 6 p.m.

Stated purpose of the store is to bring low margin retail merchandise to small American cities. This is the second store in Idaho for Gamble-Skogmo, Inc., the first one being in Idaho Falls. Other Tempo stores are planned for Idaho, Montana, at present, has several Tempo stores.

The 32,000 square feet of floor space accommodates departments for soft goods, clothing, hard goods, light machinery and tires, furniture and appliances. The departments are sectioned within for easy locating of goods. Departments are decorated in lively pastels, highlighted by bright signs.

Tempo has its own automotive department which can service, immediately, the items it sells. When a tire is purchased, for instance, it can be mounted by store employees in the service department on the south side of the structure.

Alfred E. Williams, store manager, has more than 14 years of experience with the Gamble-Skogmo organization. Before coming to Twin Falls he was a hard lines manager of Tempo in Mankato, Minn.

Department managers include Robert Foster, appliance and furniture manager; Donald Kalfouff, hard lines manager, and Bruce Borman, soft lines manager. Approximately 30 area residents will be employed by the store.

The new Twin Falls business will also have a credit department.

Quake

ANCHORAGE Alaska, rumbling earthquake followed Anchorage Tuesday but there were no immediate reports of damage.

The University of Washington recorded the quake at 10:42:21 a.m. (PDT) and seismologist Norman Rasmussen said the Richter scale indicated it was on a scale of between 5.5 and six magnitude.

UPI Anchorage correspondent Betzl Woodman said there was one sharp jolt which sent residents rushing from buildings.

RASMUSSEN SAID the quake appeared to be about as strong as the first aftershocks which followed last year's Good Friday earthquake that devastated much of the Anchorage area.

Irving Berlin Has Anniversary

NEW YORK, May 11 (AP)—Irving Berlin, who has written words and music for more than 900 songs since the first one was sold for 33 cents in 1907, reaches his 77th birthday anniversary today.

Some of his family will help him celebrate the day quietly at his Catskill mountain home. He says he isn't looking forward to the birthday.

"It leaves me cold," Berlin said in an interview. "I'm looking much more forward to what I'm going to do after my birthday. The question is, are you going to be a crabby old man, or are you going to write another song?"

Support for Water Bond Issue Voiced

By C. H. (CAP) KRENGEL. I have many reasons for wanting an adequate and pure water supply for our city. This desire dates back to 1907, when my father first established our business.

In those days we only had access to water direct from the Snake river, and in using this impure water he contracted typhoid fever and died a young man.

Since 1907 I have seen Twin Falls grow from a small community to the present thriving city. From past experience, I know we have always had difficulty in obtaining sufficient water supply to fulfill the needs of a growing community.

An ample supply of water is required for the expansion in our residential sections, business and industry.

I firmly believe the plan as set forth will fill this need in our community and we should show our interest and concern by voting for this bond issue.

Jerome Firm Eyes Salmon Cable System

JEROME, May 11—Spokesmen for a private firm in Jerome said today they have not decided if they will carry out plans to build and operate a community cable-television system in Salmon.

Blake Patterson, representative of the local firm, said the Salmon city council had declined a request by the firm to grant a franchise. Since one such system is all a town of that size can support, the firm has not yet decided if it will carry out the project with no guarantee, Patterson added.

Transfusions Are Ordered For Infant

BOSTON, May 11 (AP)—A judge ordered blood transfusions yesterday for a newborn baby on the ground that life was more important than the religious scruples of her parents.

As a result of the ruling and subsequent transfusions, University Hospital officials said today that little Lydia D. Andrea, who had been a "blue baby," probably will survive. She was in good condition.

The parents, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Andrea, who moved here six months ago from Lausanne, Switzerland, are members of the Swiss-American Witnesses sect. They refused to permit the life-saving transfusions on the grounds that they are against their religion.

While visiting the hospital last night, D. Andrea said, "I don't feel right. It goes against my religion. There was still life in the baby and she might have lived anyway. I wanted them to try and save her without the transfusions."

Superior Court Judge Felix Forte interrupted another case he was hearing yesterday to discuss the life-and-death transfusion.

Little Lydia was born at 5 a.m. yesterday, an RH factor one-two punch to many of the nation's fruit crops this year, an Associated Press survey indicates.

Heavy damage from California to New England was reported. Only the Southeast escaped major losses.

Preliminary estimates placed fruit crop losses at more than 10 million dollars, conservation and state officials said.

Hardest hit was the lush apple and peach country of the Northwest where subzero December

Transport Arrives With Refugees

SAN JUAN, May 11 (AP)—The USS Rankin, an American attack transport, arrived here today with about 50 political refugees who had taken asylum in various foreign embassies in Santo Domingo while fighting was raging.

American officials said the refugees apparently all were Dominican. Navy spokesman told reporters before the ship arrived that there were "very important people" among the passengers. But they declined to name them.

It had been rumored that former President Donald Reid Cabral was on the ship but this could not be substantiated and the department of state official, Povalan Baber, said he did not think Cabral was aboard.

There had also been speculation that Rafael Molina Urena, who headed one of the groups claiming authority in Santo Domingo in the last few days, also was aboard. But his presence could not be immediately substantiated either.

Commander Russ Buskins, public information officer for the Caribbean sea frontier, said the evacuees—who included women and children—were being questioned aboard the ship.

The refugees had been aboard the Rankin since Sunday after being transferred there from the U.S. aircraft carrier Boxer lying off the Dominican coast.

First Lady Takes Tour In Virginia

DUMFRIES, Va., May 11 (AP)—Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnsons paid tribute today to everyone from governors to garden clubs for creating billboard-free superhighways through lush, green land.

The first lady took advantage of the warm spring weather to take a two-day, 700-mile tour of Virginia's countryside to point up her husband's "see America first" program aimed at getting U.S. tourists to vacation at home.

Her first stop was at a new wayside shelter for motorists on Interstate 95 near this Scottish community.

At dedication ceremonies for the shelter, she told her audience: "No one can drive this scenic highway without feeling a deep sense of gratitude for such a lush, green land and a rush of pride in man's increasing determination to keep within eyesight of the motorist."

"I need not enumerate all of the individual and organized leadership from governors to garden clubs; from agencies to engineers, that go into creating the scenic superhighways. This lovely hillside shelter will beckon to many wayfaring families through the years."

She closed her dedication with this verse:

"The heart that travels far is doubly blessed;
First by a chance to roam and then to rest."

Mrs. Johnson and her party, including cabinet wives and Interior Secretary Stewart L. Udall, left Washington by bus.

Gov. and Mrs. Alberts S. Harrison, Jr. of Virginia greeted the party on arrival at the shelter, located between Woodbridge and Dumfries, about 35 miles south of Washington.

Several Fruit Crops Are Damaged by Winter's Cold and Spring's Violence

CHICAGO, May 11 (AP)—Winter's cold and spring's violence wiped out the production of many orchards.

The weather's victims included peaches, apricots, cherries, apples, pears and strawberries.

Washington state officials said pear and cherry crops had been heavily damaged and the apricot and peach crops ruined. The strawberry crop in the western half of the state was expected to be 50 per cent below last year's yield.

Oregon reported extensive damage to strawberries and cherries in the Hood river, the Dalles, Eggeater and La Grande areas.

Utah, where one county has suffered an estimated total of 4 million dollars in fruit loss, has asked President Johnson to declare five counties disaster areas. Most of the damage to peach, apricot, cherry, apple and pear crops came during a cold snap last week.

The extended winter took its heaviest toll across the country in strawberries.

California reported its valuable crop seriously damaged, with losses in Los Angeles county estimated a 4 million dollars. New England also reported heavy strawberry damage, and Louisiana said its production had dropped sharply.

Frost Damage In Utah to Be Studied

SALT LAKE CITY, May 11 (AP)—The U. S. department of agriculture says it will conduct a study to determine frost damage to Utah's 1965 fruit crop.

Sen. Frank Moss, D., Utah, said yesterday the department would send inspectors to northern and central Utah counties where unseasonal cold pushed fruit damage into millions of dollars.

Gov. Calvin L. Rampton asked President Johnson late last week to declare parts of the state a disaster area.

Franklin Ryden, deputy director of the agriculture department's office of emergency planning, said the request was referred to Agriculture Secretary Orville L. Freeman.

"You will hear from him as to assistance available," Dryden told Rampton, "as soon as the extent of the damage is determined."

Leaky Rules

NEWARK, N.J., May 11 (AP)—Because of a worsening water shortage, the city of Newark has enacted a set of rules on the use of water.

Yesterday, the city became the first violator of its own restrictions.

A city hall worker was caught sprinkling shrubs less than 12 hours after the rules went into effect. Public Works Director Ralph G. Caprio ordered the sprinkling stopped.

Parents Urged at Oakley Meet to Set Good Example

OAKLEY, May 11—"Be careful of all you do, and say for you cannot tell your children to do one thing and then you do the opposite and expect them to follow what you tell them."

This is what Stephen C. Richards, of the priesthood home teaching committee, told LDS members at their quarterly conference Sunday at the Cassia stakehouse.

He pointed out that members of the priesthood have the responsibility of teaching the gospel in their own homes as well as setting an example.

"Home should be the sanctuary for children and it is the only place that they can learn to have a staunch testimony in order to stand up to a world that honors those who hold to their convictions and ideals."

He concluded his talk with the statement that the ill of the world cannot be cured by pills but only by a peace of mind from keeping all of God's commandments.

Cassia Stake President Wade Baker advised parents to build their homes on solid foundations and pointed out that the family home evening is one of the best sources to make it so. Members also were asked to keep a supply of church books in the home and to use them often.

He reminded members to hold Thursday nights open for their family night and to have respect for anyone who is holding it on that night. "A good home evening doesn't just happen," he noted, "it takes lots of work and study to put forth what should be taught at these meetings."

Elder Henry D. Taylor, assistant to the Twelve Apostles, noted that the noblest calling in the world is motherhood. "Anyone who writes a book deserves applause but anyone who can raise good men and women deserves the highest honors that can be given," he said.

He said he felt that Mother's day should be a time to make resolutions to stop and think of how much your mother does for you and to show her how much she is appreciated.

other and the family home evening is one of the best places that this can be done. If you will do this there will be a closeness that can't be found anywhere else and eventually your children will do the same thing as you are doing now."

Other speakers in the afternoon session were President Glen Gledhill and Elder Taylor.

President Baker reported that there are 36 missionaries on foreign missions, six on stake missions and 13 members in the armed services.

Music for the conference was furnished by Cassia stake Singing Mothers under the direction of Mrs. Thomas Clark. Organists were Mrs. Ned Bowen, Mrs. Desta Gibby, Mrs. Keith-Greiffeld and Mrs. James C. Burch.

A special Mother's day song was given by Carmen Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith, accompanied by Mrs. Ray C. Bedke.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

WASHINGTON, May 11—Lobbyists for the expensive central intelligence agency, including a clutch of journalists purporting to report from the "inside," are reporting with pride CIA's "success" in predicting the revolt in the Dominican Republic and in pinpointing its communist overtones.
CIA, the citizen is told, knew all along there would be a revolution and so reported to the White House, along with a dossier on the principal red leaders.
Unfortunately, this does not mean that the agency's "intelligence" was superior to that of the news media. It is supposed to know what is going on. It is supposed to prepare a scorecard with the names and numbers of all the players. But its prime function is to see that nothing happens that is not master-minded behind the scenes by Washington.

PROOF OF FAILURE—The fact President Johnson was forced to send troops to Santo Domingo is conclusive evidence that CIA failed in this prime function. There was a revolution, just as CIA had predicted, but it was a revolution that was not controlled—or even influenced—by the United States.
CIA spends upwards of a billion dollars a year on its more-or-less secret operations. This money is not appropriated for the agency's "intelligence" shenanigans in midnight alleys around the world. It is a war chest to finance the agency's presumably benevolent interference in the internal affairs of foreign countries.

NO LEADERS READY—In Santo Domingo, as elsewhere, it was not enough for the CIA merely to know the score. With the country in ferment, it was CIA's job to organize and control a political faction friendly to the United States and capable of taking over the Dominican government.
Instead, as President Johnson has acknowledged, there was a power vacuum. There were no potential leaders in sight save for a passel of reds owned and operated by Fidel Castro, Juan Bosch, the ultra liberal who was the nation's first president, and a bunch of "democrats" like Risco. Other men, perhaps better suited politically to assume leadership, also remained in the woodwork because it wasn't safe to emerge. Part of CIA's job, of course, was to make the country safe for leaders with Washington's blessing.

HOW IT WAS DONE—Given a competent espionage operation, Santo Domingo could have been another Iran, or another Guatemala. In Iran in 1953, the CIA directed the overthrowing of the government of Mohammed Mossadegh, who had been flirting shamelessly with Moscow, and installed its own regime headed by the young shah, Pahlevi. It did this job by spending 100 million dollars in bribes.
Guatemala in 1954 showed CIA at its best—in the gathering of information worldwide, in the commissioning of that information to headquarters, and in its speedy evaluation for the guidance of policy makers. From Stettin, in communist Poland, a CIA agent learned the reds were shipping arms to Jacobo Arbenz Guzman's communist regime in Guatemala. Within a month, using U.S. planes and 25 tons of American armament, an anti-communist junta deposed Arbenz.

In Santo Domingo, CIA watched the storm clouds gather, reported its findings to Washington—but either could not or would not take charge.

Views of Others
TROUBLE IN POVERTY WAR
President Johnson's "war on poverty" is threatening to degenerate into a shabby squabble over who shall reap the rich harvest of patronage and jobs.
In Washington, Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, D. N. Y., says he will block the whole program if he can't dictate the rules from his position as chairman of the house education and labor committee.
A controversy has broken out in Los Angeles over alleged "top-heavy salaries" and "political boondoggling" in the local anti-poverty program.
The Times expressed a suspicion last year, when the anti-poverty law was enacted, that it was composed of but equal parts of idealism and political opportunism.
Still, the program is now law and money has been appropriated. It will be a shame if a struggle for power and patronage prevents it from getting a fair trial.
The law is based on the attractive notion that poverty-stricken people should be helped to become taxpayers instead of tax-eaters. A special effort is being made to help disadvantaged youngsters break the so-called poverty cycle through training and job experience.
The President is asking congress to authorize 1.5 billion dollars for the program next year—roughly double the three-year level. If it works, the program could help reduce the nation's 80 billion a year welfare load.
Expensive as the new anti-poverty war is, the money must be spread over several programs. These include the job corps, neighborhood youth corps, the new domestic "peace corps," and the community action programs under which the federal government pays 90 percent of the cost of approved local anti-poverty programs.
Obviously, the maximum value must be squeezed from every dollar.
There are already complaints that the $25,000 salaries paid to some war-on-poverty administrators are often more than local mayors get.
Our own county board of supervisors has ordered an inquiry to determine whether administrative salaries totaling $408,336 for the youth opportunities board are justified. The question is legitimate.
Powell is pursuing the same question on a national level. Unfortunately, there are signs that he is less interested in good management than in using the anti-poverty program to promote his own power.
The House Democrat insists the "poor" should have a voice, along with local officials and welfare agencies, in deciding which federal anti-poverty funds are to be used. It is not so surprising that these spokesmen for the "poor" appear to be Powell men.
Competition for the juicy poverty patronage plum also has been reported elsewhere, including Los Angeles.
If his war on poverty founders on public disaffection, President Johnson can thank the selfishness of the program's alleged champions.—Los Angeles Times.

TOO LAZY TO BRUSH
Dr. Patrick D. Tully, director of research in the Loyola University School of Dentistry, is probably right in saying that few Americans "meet even the minimum standards for good dental hygiene." But surely he didn't mean it literally when he characterized the United States as "a nation of lazy toothbrushers."
We don't miss brushing or brush amiss because we are lazy. Quite the contrary. We do it because we are industrious and in too big a hurry to stand in front of the bathroom mirror twice a day and watch ourselves foam at the mouth for two or three minutes.—Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

Hot Seat for Congress

Not all nations, particularly in Latin America, like Johnson's tactics. But ironically it was the Soviet Union, condemned by the United Nations for crushing the Hungarian revolt in 1956, which has charged the United States with violating the charters of the United Nations and the Organization of American States by sending troops into the Dominican Republic. The United States is not only committed to stopping any communist takeover in Latin America but worldwide. And Johnson has even said this country will oppose any attempt by one country to conquer another.
That's a monumental responsibility. Since Johnson himself has said "this will be a disorderly planet for a long time," the United States seems destined for trouble around the world for years.

PRIVATE CLUBS
Dear Sir:
For years, I've heard claims of shortages of experts in many lines of endeavor, but I don't ever seem to recall anyone saying anything about a shortage of lawyers. There's a shortage of doctors, nurses, teachers, mathematicians experts and so on. How about lawyers? Is there a shortage?
If so, I know how we can eliminate that shortage. It seems literally thousands of lawyers have taken refuge in congress and in the various bureaus of our federal government. They're experts on all sorts of things, but it's quite apparent they're not practicing law. This government bit must be a good thing to attract so many lawyers.
If we have a shortage, just take the plush jobs away from the lawyers and send them home. That is, if you can tear them away from their exclusive club in the nooks and crannies of all those bureaus.

GENTLEMAN IN THE FOURTH ROW

The Doctor Says
By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Many of my readers complain that most doctors no longer make house calls. We should examine some of the reasons for this.
I can illustrate one aspect by recalling a call to "come quickly, please hurry" to attend a girl who had received a cut on her ankle on the school hockey field. When I arrived I found that this girl had a moderately bleeding wound that needed a few stitches.
The coach had already applied a pressure bandage—which was fine, but the playing field was no place to sew up a wound. We took the girl to my office where everything was at hand. In this case my trip to the patient accomplished nothing. The girl should have been taken to a hospital emergency room or to my office without delay.
Your doctor today can make a much more accurate diagnosis of your condition and can apply much more effective treatment than was the case 20 years ago. This is in part the result of a variety of tests that cannot be made at your home. Although there are still a few instances in which a house call may be justified, they are not nearly so common as they were in the days when all your doctor could do was to take your temperature, feel your pulse and give you the comfort of his sympathetic presence in addition to a few pills to relieve your pain.
Today's doctor believes that if you are not too sick to get to his office, he can serve you better there than in your home. If you are too sick, you should be bundled up and taken to the hospital either in a family car or by ambulance. This often saves time for both doctor and patient and results in a more speedy and accurate diagnosis and more effective treatment.
We doctors may have lost some of the suave bedside manner of the "good old days," but as patients you have gained a better chance for a speedy recovery.
Q—Some of my friends say that BHT, added to foods to preserve freshness, has been found to cause various ills. Is that true?
A—Butylated hydroxy-toluene is a preservative that is used in foods and other products. It may cause an allergic type of skin eruption but when it is used within the limits prescribed by the food and drug administration, it is harmless.

MARQUIS CHILDS WRITES ON WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, May 11—When Sen. Maurice Neuberger rose on the senate floor to pay tribute to the late Edward R. Murrow she spoke of the familiar voice and the familiar image on millions of television screens with its ever-present spiral of cigarette smoke.
I wonder, she added, if Ed Murrow could be here to comment what he might have said about the use of the cigarette.
The lady from Oregon is the principal crusader against cigarette smoking. Murrow, who smoked between 15 and 20 packs a day, died of lung cancer. The statistics of the American Cancer Society—that Mrs. Neuberger so often cites show that smokers are 10 times as subject to lung cancer as non-smokers.
The cigarette issue has been centered in the senate commerce committee. Senator Neuberger is pushing a strong bill to require a warning of the dangers of cigarette smoking on every package and in all advertising.
But so powerful are the tobacco-growing states combined with the senate and the house that the measure is still in the advertising warning will be knocked out. And the advertisement to be put on the package has been modified.
Mrs. Neuberger proposed a requirement that each package specify the tar and nicotine content. The language originally proposed was: "Warning: Continued cigarette smoking may be hazardous to health."
Moreover, the opposition determined to write into the bill before it is finally passed a provision forbidding the federal trade commission from carrying out its plan to require advertising against cigarette smoking. And what is more remarkable, Mrs. Neuberger has the support of southern states rights, both states and municipalities would be forbidden to adopt any requirements concerning advertising. Obviously, of course, if there were multiplicity of different provisions on how smokers should be warned, a national advertisement would be impossible.
But Senator Neuberger regards this as only one battle in the war. For a crusader with the zeal of a settler, she has a long way to go. As one of the women in the house—there are 10 in the house—she has made the peril of the cigarette the focus of her political career.
It began when she had a sudden blackout. Her doctor told her to stop smoking. She found this difficult at first, but she had overcome the habit. Her health improved greatly. Unlike some women who give up the cigarette habit she did not gain weight as a result.
At that time she was married to Richard Neuberger, a finance writer who had been elected to the senate by a narrow margin and then re-elected to second term. Mrs. Neuberger served three terms in the Oregon house of representatives while her husband served in the state senate. Theirs was a close political partnership.
When he died of an intestinal cancer, he was a non-smoker. Mrs. Neuberger in 1963 ran for his seat and won. Many interests, such as conservation and the preservation of what is left of the natural beauty of the Pacific northwest, also were interests when she came to the senate.
But it was not until she became interested in the hazard of smoking and began to write her book, "Smoke Screen," that she developed and began to develop the singlemindedness that often characterizes senators who build up a record of legislative achievement, name attached to a law measure, a kind of political inheritance. It is too early to say whether Neuberger law, with strong provisions to try to warn off a generation of potential young smokers, will be enacted.
For one thing, Mrs. Neuberger is up for reelection next year. She has announced she will run a second term. Last July, however, she remarried. Her husband is Dr. Phillip Solomon, a psychiatrist on the faculty of the Harvard medical school. Senator Neuberger commutes week-ends to Newton Center, Mass., where her husband lives. Skeptics in Oregon wonder whether she will run again.
Moreover, in Oregon where they take their politics seriously she is likely to have a formidable Republican opponent in Mark Hatfield, who is running at the national level. But for the time being concentrating on her crusade, Mrs. Neuberger is not thinking of a longer future.

DA NANG, South Viet Nam, May 11 (AP)—Kim Chi rarely sells a star sapphire to an American serviceman without first applying a blowtorch to it to prove it isn't glass.
Watching Kim Chi earnestly fondle the torch as he turns the hot flame on two pieces of glitter on a slab is one of the best acts in the Far East. The glass melts, the real gem doesn't.
"Glass fiant," exclaims Kim Chi triumphantly. "But ruby no fiant. Emerald no fiant. Star sapphire no fiant." The impressed GI dutifully forks over $10 or $20 and another victory is chalked up for Oriental salesmanship.
Every war zone needs a native "can-do" man to get things done. "Can-do" man here is undoubtedly Kim Chi. If he can't do it for you, it can't be done.
Kim Chi is a slender man of 39 who stands out because he always wears a black necktie.
He looks about 21, but he has eight children and is buoyantly inartistic about the same number of languages or 20 and "I learn English by myself," he said proudly, and no one could doubt it.
Kim Chi runs three jewelry stores and is the GI's pal when it comes to changing money, getting laundry done, or having a pair of shoes made. If he's not in that particular line of work himself, he has a relative or close friend who is.
Over a pair of beers which he insisted on buying, Kim Chi explained his philosophy:
"I like the soldiers. Most of our people like the American soldiers. It makes sentiment between us."

JACOBY EXPLAINS "WORST PLAY"
Jim starts today's discussion of the Vanderbilt cup play with an embarrassing question.
Jim: "What was your worst play of the Vanderbilt tournament? Or didn't you make any bad ones?"
Oswald: "I never make claims of perfection. My worst play was a lead against a slam. I sat West and the bidding requires considerable explanation."
Jim: "Ira's heart bid was the weak two showing a good six-card suit and a hand just below opening strength in high cards. Right?"
Oswald: "Yes. South's three club call was a deliberate underbid. He wanted to buy the hand. My jump to four hearts was mainly an effort to keep our opponents from finding a spade fit. Although it turned out that we would have made four hearts. North's double just showed cards and South's jump to six clubs was a gamble he had planned when he made his first bid."
Jim: "You opened the second diamonds. Was that so terrible?"
Oswald: "Ira and I were playing a peculiar convention. It required that when our opponents bid a slam against our defense, bidding the first one of us expected would double unless he expected to be able to take a defensive trick. Ira in fact failed to double, the second would pass if he also expected to take a defensive trick and double with no defensive tricks at all. Hence when Ira failed to double he was marked with a defensive trick against South's contract."
Jim: "I see. You should have read that his defensive trick was the ace of spades and opened your singleton."
Oswald: "Right! The hand shows the advantage of having good teammates. Dinky and Phil Feldesman got to the spades at the other table. It was no defense against it. We still gained two intention points in spite of my lead."

Incumbent Cassia Aide Is Defeated

BURLEY, May 11 — Patrons of Cassia county school district No. 11 elected an incumbent trustee, replaced another and approved the annual five-mill maintenance levy during an election Monday.

C. Bruce Young, incumbent, was defeated by Mrs. Charles Young, who was opposed by Mrs. Charles Young, Jr., and Grant Wyatt in a runoff election. Mrs. Young received 246 votes; Wyatt, 103.

In some one, W. E. Whiteley, was unopposed, was re-elected and received 99 votes. Whiteley and Mrs. Haught will serve three-year terms. Results of the high school election were 112 against, 12 for, 12 junior high school, 54 for, 17 against, and Oakley, 81 for, 17 against. Other precincts, where no votes were cast against the levy, were Albion, 12; Almo, 21; Mays, 16; and Declo, 19.

Man Dies in Hospital After Gun Battle

SALT LAKE CITY, May 11 — A Salt Lake City man died today after police said he received a bullet wound in his home late last night.

The victim, Douglas Holland, 41, died at Holy Cross hospital, where he had undergone surgery for a bullet wound in his abdomen.

Police said they had this account from Ben R. Holland, the victim's father:

A car containing four men pulled up to Douglas Holland's home at 649 South Fifth (east) last night and the elder Holland told the men to move on.

The son came out with a shotgun, his father said. There was an exchange of shots and Holland fell wounded.

Police searched today for the occupants of the car, who fled after the shooting.

Pocatello Pastor Talks At Filer

PILER, May 11 — The Rev. P. J. Fowler, Pocatello, pastor of the First Baptist church, delivered the address at baccalaureate services for Piler seniors at the high school auditorium Sunday evening.

William Moran, high school instructor, introduced the Rev. Fowler. Rita Moore, one of the graduates, offered the invocation. The high school band, under the direction of Ronald Bragg, played the processional and recessional marches.

Howard Moon sang a solo, accompanied at the piano by Dolores Butts. Stanley Ward spoke the benediction.

A baccalaureate breakfast was held Sunday morning in Twin Falls for members of the graduating class: William Moran and Eleanor Thompson, class sponsors; Thomas Turner, superintendent, and Mrs. Turner, and Arthur Chaburn, principal, and Mrs. Chaburn.

Commencement services will be held at 8 p.m. Friday in the high school gymnasium.

Hansen Elects Naylor, McCoy School Trustees

HANSEN, May 11 — Lester Naylor, zone three, and Lee McCoy, zone four, were elected Monday afternoon to three-year terms on the Hansen school district No. 415 board of trustees.

Naylor, an incumbent, received 14 votes to defeat Everett Norris, who received 10 write-in votes. One ballot was rejected from the box.

McCoy received 29 votes, defeating Roy Stanger, who received 13 votes. Both ran for the first time.

McCoy replaces Ferris Freeman, who did not run for re-election.

Holds-over trustees are Joe Froelich, Jr., zone one; Bryan Harris, Jr., zone two, and Raymond Butler, zone five. The election was conducted at the Hansen school house.

Attendance at Fair Is Down

NEW YORK, May 11 (AP) — Attendance at the World's fair for the first 20 days of this second and last season is more than a half million below that of the comparable period last year. Officials are optimistic there will be a sharp upturn when the school vacation begins.

Fair officials said the total paid attendance this year through yesterday is 1,689,891 compared to 2,228,572 last year — a drop of 538,881.

Fair officials had predicted an increase of 37 per cent in business this year over 1964.

Odd Assortment Of Items Stolen From Ike's Auto

WASHINGTON, May 11 (AP) — Someone has stolen a spare tire, portable radio, emergency oxygen kit, a 38-caliber revolver from former President Dwight D. Eisenhower's car.

Eisenhower's chauffeur, Russen Brechbill, told police yesterday the theft occurred while the car was staying overnight at Walter Reed army hospital for a routine examination.

The car had been parked in the basement garage of an apartment building.

Brechbill said Eisenhower uses the oxygen kit and drugs when short of breath. The pistol belonged to Gen. Robert L. Scholz, Eisenhower's aide.

Seniors Feted

PILER, May 11 — Senior students of the youth group of the United Methodist church were honored at a banquet in Twin Falls.

They were Charlotte Spaur, Leta Baker and Lanny Ryals. Mrs. Eldon Ryals and the Rev. and Mrs. T. J. Spaur also attended the event.

Role of Young Boys in Vietnamese War Explained

SAIGON, South Viet Nam, May 11 (AP) — Barefoot and naked except for shorts, a 13-year-old boy perched like a jungle bird atop a water buffalo, peering into the midnight murk.

He had climbed on the animal's flat back to watch a file of patrolling Vietnamese rangers outlined against the light of the government military outpost not far away.

Suddenly he saw a ranger draw a bead on him. He turned to leap and run. A rifle shot split the midnight stillness. The boy spun crazily and pitched to the ground, a bullet through his head.

"Got the little ----!" muttered the ranger. The patrol crept ahead, a bit more hopeful that the Viet Cong would not be alerted in time to stage an ambush.

The boy was a Viet Cong lookout. At 12, he already was considered a grownup in his village, one of thousands of teen-age and subteen youngsters serving the Viet Cong in innumerable ways. Young lives are freely expendable by the Viet Cong.

The lad who spled on the ranger patrol had been responsible for the deaths of many rangers. Each time they had left their outpost to patrol an area not far from Saigon, they had been ambushed. Now the young lookout was dead. Another soon would take his place.

The youngsters are educated from babyhood in guerrilla life, and can be more cruel and dangerous even than the seasoned guerrillas. Hard and disciplined, they may be unaware that often their lives are sacrificed deliberately.

They have been trained to live in holes in the ground. They have learned to regard gun-carrying guerrillas as great heroes and aspire for the moment when they, too, will carry weapons.

For a long time this was the pattern in the Mekong delta. The story has been told time and again, in photographs taken from dead or captured Viet Cong guerrillas, of the day when a boy receives his first weapon, usually an obsolete rifle.

The beaming boy is photographed with his family in front of his village hut, perhaps with a proud father on one side and an indulgent Viet Cong officer looking on. It is almost like a religious confirmation. He has become a guerrilla irregular, who will drop his weapons by day to tend crops or help out in village emergencies — part boy-farmer, part boy-laborer, part boy-guerrilla.

It takes time to achieve the honor of his own weapon. The boy begins his war career at 10 or even younger, already indoctrinated in Viet Cong schools. He may be sent first to watch for American helicopters or for patrolling Vietnamese rangers. He graduates from job to job.

He may survive and have a long career as a guerrilla fighter. But he is always expendable.

Paul McKinnon To Head Legion

KETCHUM, May 11 — Paul McKinnon has been named commander of David Ketchum post No. 115, American Legion, for the coming year.

Other newly elected officers are Archie B. Conley, first vice commander; Carl Blandford, second vice commander; Fred Turner, adjutant; Clifford Noxon, service officer; Frank Morrison, historian; Paul Bragg, child welfare chairman, and John Ardon, chaplain.

Turner, Ardon and Oliver Martin have been named delegates to attend the state convention July 8-11 at Burley.

Mother's Special

FLORAL PARK, N.Y., May 11 (AP) — An advertisement for a seven-room apartment here states: "You must have lots of children." The "Mother's day special" ad continues:

"If you have 12 children or more the rent is only $159 per month; 10-children — $169; eight — $179; six — $189; less than six children, please do not apply."

POPULATION INCREASES

TOKYO, May 11 (AP) — The population of Tokyo, world's largest city, has reached 10,686,660. The latest census also showed there were nearly 300,000 more males than females in the Japanese capital.

Moonshine Business in U.S. Continues to Be Profitable

WASHINGTON, May 11 (AP) — There is no business like the moonshine business.

It's illegal. It's dangerous. It's colorful. And it's profitable.

Last year, the "revenuers"—the government's alcohol and tobacco tax division agents—smashed 8,876 stills and made 8,198 arrests.

But to the moonshiners, the raid-and-arrest procedure is an occupational hazard. Once he is out of jail, he usually goes back into business.

The reason? Money. A gallon of moonshine is now selling for $8 to $12.

The government hounds the moonshiner for the same reason money.

That same gallon of moonshine if made and sold through legitimate channels as 100-proof whisky would carry a $10.50 government tax.

Last year, the government collected 2.5 billion dollars in alcohol taxes. But a private organization—the tax council for alcohol beverages industry—estimated the tax loss to both the state and federal governments at 600 million dollars annually.

The war between the moonshiner and the government is nothing new—it has been going on officially since 1791 when the first tax was put on distilled spirits.

The tax collector then was no more popular than he is today, especially among those who made alcohol. A band of farmers in western Pennsylvania staged a "whiskey rebellion" and the army was called out to enforce the law. Ever since then, the government has been trying to collect its full share of the alcohol tax.

Moonshiners themselves come in all sizes and are found in most places.

A tall-tale puff of smoke in the tin woods may lead the government agent to a "hillbilly still." But more often the moonshiner is a custom-tailored hoodlum operating out of a city warehouse and using a truck delivery system.

As a breed of lawbreakers, they are as tough as any. They've killed, and they have been killed.

A spokesman for the alcohol and tobacco tax division says 13 government agents have been murdered since 1934. Another 35 have lost their lives in accidents while tracking moonshiners.

Story and song over the years have tended to glamorize the moonshiner. If you government looks at it differently, and says the public also should, at very best, the moonshiner is the nation's number one tax dodger. At worst, he is turning out a product that has been so bad on occasion that it has killed or permanently crippled its customers.

In between, the government says moonshiners use their profits to promote other criminal rackets.

One of the biggest drawbacks to stopping moonshining is the public itself. It is apathetic.

Since Americans spent a record 11.5 billion dollars for alcohol beverages in 1964, they tend to be tolerant of a man who claims to give them something they want at a cheaper price.

Despite the tightening of the web, the government is not optimistic about wiping out the moonshiners completely. It takes for granted the fact that as long as people drink liquor, someone always will be ready to sell it at a cut rate and illegal price.

New Way Found To Stop Hair Loss, Grow More Hair

HOUSTON, Texas — If you don't suffer from male pattern baldness, you can now stop your hair loss... and grow more hair.

For years "they said it couldn't be done." But now a firm of laboratory consultants has developed a treatment that is not only stopping hair loss... but is really growing hair!

They don't even ask you to take their word for it. If they believe that the treatment will help you, they invite you to try it for 32 days, at their risk, and see for yourself.

Naturally, they would not offer this no-risk trial unless the treatment worked. However, it is impossible to help everyone.

The great majority of cases of excessive hair fall and baldness are the beginning and more fully developed stages of male pattern baldness and cannot be helped.

But, if you are not already slick bald, how can you be sure what is actually causing your hair loss? Even if baldness may seem to "run in your family," this is certainly no proof of the cause of YOUR hair loss.

Many conditions can cause hair loss. No matter which one is causing your hair loss, if you wait until you are slick bald and your hair-roots are dead, you are beyond help. So, if you still have any hair on top of your head, and would like to stop your hair loss and grow more hair... now is the time to do something about it before it's too late.

Loesch Laboratory Consultants, Inc., will supply you with treatment for 32 days, at their risk, if they believe the treatment will help you. Just send them the information listed below. All inquiries are answered confidentially, by mail and without obligation. —Adv.

News Around Idaho

BLACKFOOT, May 11 (AP)—Blackfoot property owners passed two bond issues yesterday, one for $155,000 and the other for $150,000. The $155,000 issue will be used to finance construction of a new city police and fire facility. The other will be used to build an enclosed swimming pool at Blackfoot high school, but will be city property.

ARCO, May 11 (AP)—No successor has been named to Arco Police Chief Worth Jardine who has resigned effective May 15. The city council accepted Jardine's letter of resignation at its last meeting but took no action.

SUGAR CITY, May 11 (AP)—Bids for the construction of a new elementary school building at Sugar City were opened last night by the board of trustees of Sugar-Salmon district No. 322. Low bidder of the nine-room building was Davis Construction company, Rexburg, with a bid of $247,140. Other bidders included Zellinger Construction, Rexburg, $259,000; Goodwin Builder, Idaho Falls, $281,735; Alman Construction company, Idaho Falls, $268,100; and Arrington Construction company, Idaho Falls, $272,500. In addition to the nine classrooms the building will include a 40- by 60-foot multipurpose room, a kitchen for serving school lunches, an office and nurse room. The building will be one story with brick facing and will be heated electrically. It will be located on property north and east of the present Sugar City LDS ward chapel.

BOISE, May 11 (AP)—Appointment of J. Tim Brennan as executive secretary of the Idaho Motel association was announced today by Alva Greene, president of the organization. He said Brennan also will continue to serve as managing director of the Idaho Retailers association. Brennan is a graduate of Idaho State university and managed a retail hardware store in Pocatello for four years. He is a former state legislator and was Democratic nominee for congress in 1958. He has been managing director of the Retailers association for two and one-half years and is vice president of the Western States Retail council.

BOISE, May 11 (AP)—Idaho's bid for a 280 million dollar nuclear complex that would employ some 2,000 persons is being drawn up by the atomic energy commission office in Idaho Falls. Gov. Robert E. Smylie said he will appoint an "ad hoc" committee to work with the Idaho Falls AEC office on a request that would put Idaho in competition with eight other states for the complex. Dr. Wayne Bils, director of nuclear technology at the Idaho Falls office, said AEC headquarters in Washington, D. C., has authorized him to prepare a "screening proposal." If the screening proposal is approved in Washington, Bils said, his staff will prepare a formal proposal. Smylie said his committee will work up a separate proposal to submit to Washington in addition to its work with Bils.

POCATELLO, May 11 (AP)—For Mother's day Sunday, Mrs. Joseph Bonci got a long distance call from her son, stationed with the U. S. marines in South Viet Nam. "I received a call from a ham radio operator about 4:30 Sunday morning," Mrs. Bonci said. "On the other end of the line was my son. I got to talk to him for about 10 minutes and I could hear him just as clear as if he was calling from town." Her son is Richard Michael Jordan, who has been in the marines for about two years and had been stationed in Viet Nam for about a month. She hasn't seen him since the first of the year. "I don't know who the ham operators were, but I would really like to thank them. It's the best Mother's day present I could have had."

COEUR D'ALENE, May 11 (AP)—The bodies of two young boys, missing from their home since Sunday afternoon, were recovered yesterday by skin divers from Lake Coeur d'Alene. The drowning victims were identified as Kenneth Oster, 9, and Dennis, his 7-year-old brother. The bodies were retrieved near a spot on shore where a pair of tennis shoes were found. The first body was retrieved in the water about 2:15 p.m. and the second about 10 minutes later. The younger boy was barefoot, when his body was pulled from the water by divers and police officers. The youngsters left the home of their father, Harold Oster, about 1 p.m. Sunday and dropped from sight. Later, when they failed to appear at Oster's home, or at the motel where his wife, who has filed for divorce, was staying, police were called in. An all-night search of the Coeur d'Alene area produced no clues. When the size 7½ tennis shoes were spotted on the lakeshore, skin divers were called in.

Women Voters at Burley Schedule Meet Wednesday

BURLEY, May 11—Two unit meetings will be held Wednesday by League of Women Voters, with discussion on the Burley league's first local study item, planning and zoning. Mrs. Truman Bradley will lead the discussion at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. George H. Quarterman, Jr., 1950 Burton avenue. Mrs. Brian Stompe will present the same material at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Ormand Burch, 2099 Normal avenue. For their first session on this topic the league members will review the growth of Burley, changes in Burley, and the zoning laws currently included in local and state codes. League members researching the material for study have been interviewing city officials during recent weeks and studying the city and state code books. Visitors are welcome to attend both meetings.

No Beatles

BUHL, May 11—Patrick L. Turner, 18, Buhl, was instructed to get a haircut as part of his fine when he appeared before Buhl Police Judge Harry Jennings on a reckless driving charge. The youth who has a "Beatle" type hair-do was told by the judge to get a haircut so he will look decent for graduation exercises. In addition to the haircut the teen-ager was fined $50 plus costs, his driver's license was suspended, and he was given a 30-day jail sentence, with 15 days of the sentence suspended. Turner will serve the jail sentence out on week-ends until school is dismissed and then will serve out the remainder.

Marilyn's mother objected. She said her daughter was too young, and furthermore she could cook only eggs and bacon. Paul's mother suggested that Marilyn cook her a Sunday dinner.

Anti-Cancer Drug Trial Is Recessed

CHICAGO, May 11 (AP)—The fraud and conspiracy trial of Dr. Andrew C. Ivy and three other men was in recess today because of a federal judicial conference. The trial will resume in U. S. district court on Thursday. Ivy and the other defendants are charged by the federal government with fraud and conspiracy in connection with the distribution of the controversial "cancer drug" krebiozen. District Judge Julius Hoffman yesterday denied a defense motion for a mistrial. The defense contended an article in a Chicago newspaper, (The Daily News) constituted grounds for a mistrial. Hoffman ruled that the May 6 article "was not prejudicial in that a juror reasonably would be prejudiced even if he had violated my instructions and read the article."

U.S. Draft Situation Studied

WASHINGTON, May 11 (AP)—Pentagon experts estimate it would cost up to another three billion to five billion dollars a year to raise military pay and incentives enough to attract an all-volunteer military force. This calculation, sources said today, has been made by officials studying the draft and other means of getting manpower necessary to maintain the armed services at their required strengths. This study, it is understood, will show that the draft must be continued at least until 1970. However, sources said the report will make a series of recommendations that are designed to stimulate enlistments, utilize manpower resources now unappreciated because of high mental standards and possibly substitute civilians in some of the jobs now handled by men in uniform. By a combination of means, it is hoped to reduce reliance on the draft.

The study was ordered by President Johnson in April, 1964. It was supposed to have been submitted to the White House by April 1. That target has slipped to about June 1. Johnson launched the study with considerable fanfare. Military officials have said privately they believe the impression became widespread that the draft

May Bonnets Highlight T.F. Club Meeting

May bonnets of fresh-cut flowers, foliage and accessories highlighted the Twin Falls Garden club meeting at the Sunny View courts recreation hall. Prizes of potted geraniums were awarded to Mrs. Leo Anderson for the prettiest hat; Mrs. Stanley Bednar for the most original hat, and Clara Walton for the most comical creation. Mrs. Otto Fowler was in charge of the judging committee.

Mrs. Edward Reichert gave a talk, "Know your cides." She was introduced by Mrs. Victor Nelson, program chairman.

Mrs. Reichert discussed insecticides, fungicides, weed killers and other chemical preparations controlling insects and plant diseases. Mrs. Reichert said three ways to kill weeds are by cultivation, mulching and use of chemical sprays. She recommended a general spray that contained a variety of chemicals to combat both chewing and sucking insects and to act as a fungicide.

Mrs. Reichert commented on soil fumigants and plant antibiotics and displayed bulletins available from the county agent's office and the University of Idaho.

Mrs. C. B. Regua read the collect and Mrs. Lloyd Johnson, secretary, and Mrs. Thelma Edmondson, treasurer, gave reports.

Mrs. Hicks, state anti-litter chairman, reported on the statewide poster contest.

A report was given on the landscaping project at the YWCA building and Mrs. Howard Gillette reported on rose planting at Sunny View courts.

It was announced that Mrs. Fred Mantel, Washington, Mo., president of National Council of State Garden clubs, will be guest

Mrs. Floyd Bandy gave the nominating report. Officers elected are Mrs. S. W. Smith, president; Mrs. John Platt, vice president; Mrs. Ivan Pierce, recording secretary, and Mrs. Victor Nelson, treasurer. Officers will be installed at the August meeting.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Emma Steffen, Marlan Turner and Mrs. L. H. Perrine. Mrs. Warren Dalgh and Mrs. Johnson presided at the tea and coffee services. An arrangement of yellow flowers, flanked by yellow candles, decorated the table covered by a hand crocheted cloth.

Mrs. Paul Reynolds was a guest. A plant sale was held during the social hour.

The next meeting will be a potluck luncheon June 2 at the home of Mrs. Platt, 1351 Alder drive.

Miss Brownlee, Ball Exchange Nuptial Vows

HANSEN, May 11 — Barbara Kay Brownlee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Brownlee, Denver, became the bride of Stephen Gay Ball, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vergil Ball, Hansen, April 30, at double ring rites performed in the South Presbyterian church, Denver.

The chancel was decorated with tall baskets of white gladioli, arbut-shaded carnations and greenery and candelabra of lighted white tapers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of nylon orange and cranberry lace. The fitted bodice featured scalloped lace neckline and long lily point sleeves enhanced with a full skirt. The center skirt front was styled with a lace inset panel tied with ribbon bows. The back skirt was tied to form three bouffant tiers, each edged in lace.

Her bouffant elbow-length veil of silk illusion cascaded from a jeweled tiara. She wore a locket, a gift from the bridegroom.

She carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis, centered with a white orchid.

Maid of honor was Dorothy Smits, Fort Lupton, Colo. Bridesmaids were Niki Bobrick, Carolyn Brownlee, sister of the bride, Nancy Angle and Sherry Gomes.

Their identically styled aqua floor-length gowns were fashioned with bell-shape skirts and fitted sleeveless bodices. Each carried a bouquet of apricot colored carnations and roses fashioned in the shape of a cross.

Gary L. Lipps, Nutters Fort, W. Va., was best man. Ushers were William L. Veydodec, John H. Adams, Robert D. Brownlee, brother of the bride, and William Allen, Hansen.

The bride's mother wore an aqua lace floor-length gown. A pink and white carnation corsage complemented her ensemble.

The bridegroom's mother wore a pink brocade formal enhanced with a corsage of blue and white carnations.

Marilyn Ball, sister of the bridegroom, registered guests.

A five-tiered white cake, decorated with aqua and apricot-shaded flowers and topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom, entered the bride's table, covered with aqua linen.

A rehearsal dinner was held at Boxer's, a downtown Denver restaurant. A pre-nuptial shower was given for the bride by Mrs. Newman, the bride's godmother.

The couple will reside in Denver. Ball is stationed at Lowry air force base and will be there for another year. The new bride is employed at Liberty Loan, Denver.

MRS. STEPHEN G. BALL

Burley Youth To Appear in Senior Recital

BURLEY, May 11—Mrs. Teala Bellini, well-known music teacher and concert artist, and Lucille Lippincott, noted vocal instructor, will present Des Yarrington in a piano and vocal senior recital at 2 p.m. Sunday at the fifth-seventh ward LDS chapel, Burley. The public is invited.

Yarrington, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Yarrington, Burley, has been active in music activities since he was a small boy. He began singing at the age of 4, when he appeared on the Burley theater stage in a "March of Dimes benefit show."

He has studied piano for seven and one-half years, first with Mrs. Preston Stocks, and the past four years with Mrs. Bellini. He played clarinet and tuba in the junior high and high school bands. During his sophomore year he sang the lead in "Brigadoon," his junior year, the lead in "The Mikado," and this past year had a supporting role in "Oklahoma."

Yarrington has appeared throughout the valley in many civic and church activities. He has been tenor soloist for three years with the Bel Canto choir, and has received "superior" and excellent ratings for piano and vocal solos at regional and state music festivals. This past year he was chosen, with three other Burley soloists, to participate at the All Northwest Music conference in Portland.

Yarrington will be graduated from Burley high school this month and plans to attend the University of Utah or Brigham Young university this fall.

C. of C. Has Farmer Fete At Shoshone

SHOSHONE, May 11—Farmers night was observed with a dinner meeting sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce Saturday evening at the Lincoln school cafeteria.

James L. Graves, of the University of Idaho Extension service, was the guest speaker. Entertainment was provided by a group of students under direction of Harry Ralph and Mrs. Velma Allen.

Grade school students from her music class at Gooding were featured in numbers along with the Mormonettes, Shoshone, and Louise Urrutia, playing an accordion solo and John Urrutia singing. Jim Arkoosh, Gooding, was announced for the Gooding group.

W. F. Stimpson received the first place award for grassman of the year, with Howard Hill, second, and Jack Edwards, third. The presentations were made by Cecil Cope, Ivan Hopkins, Ward Mills and J. R. Churchman.

Committee members in charge of the evening included Douglas Hansen, Ivan Hopkins, D. S. Hlatt, Frank Dallas, Harrell Thorne and Cecil Cope. D. S. Hlatt was master of ceremonies.

The dinner was served by women of the First Baptist church.

Two Accident Damage Suits Filed in T.F.

Two suits, both resulting from accidents, have been filed in eleventh district court.

William C. Sturgill filed a $45,000.00 action against Ira Lancaster, a shareholder in the Twin Falls Canal company, alleging that Lancaster failed to warn Sturgill of dangers he might incur while spraying weeds on the Lancaster farm.

Sturgill alleges in the suit that he was a recent guest of the Lancasters on July 10, 1963, and was spraying weeds on the Lancaster farm with a tractor.

Sturgill drove the tractor into a pit and was injured, the suit alleges, adding that Lancaster failed to give warning of the danger.

Dennis Fahey filed a $4,607.61 suit against Charles A. Jansson and Roy J. Jansson, doing business as Jansson's Towing service, arising when a car driven by Fahey collided with a truck owned by Jansson's on Oct. 4, 1964.

Fahey, in the suit, alleges that the Jansson tow truck was parked on the highway and he was blinded by the lights of the truck which caused him to drive his vehicle into the truck.

As result of the accident, Fahey was injured.

Auto Vandalism Probed by Police

City police are investigating a report by Mrs. L. J. Muir, 325 Pierce street, that somebody let the air out of all four of the tires on her car sometime before 8:30 p.m. Monday.

The woman told police the car was parked in front of her house, J. D. Skinner, 355 Pierce street, said one tire on his car also was flat.

Car Hits Cow

SHOSHONE, May 11—Damage to a 1965 Studebaker driven by Gerry A. Bates, Rigby, was estimated at $250 damage after it struck a cow belonging to Henry Jones, Richfield, at 8:45 p.m. Saturday 11 miles northeast of Richfield. No one in the car was injured.

The cow received a broken leg. Deputy Sheriff Martin Whitesell investigated.

HATFUL OF WATER at end of the trail is offered by Ted Fries, 29, to his 10-year-old horse, Duke, at the fountains at the New York World's fair Unisphere Monday as a fitting reward for a long trek across the country. Fries, an industrial painter from Seattle, and Duke set out from the site of the Seattle World's fair just 359 days ago for the long ride. Everybody laughed, but the laughter was Ted's when Duke trotted into the Flushing Meadows fairgrounds. (AP wirephoto)

Status of Soviet Women in Communist Society Noted

By LEON DENNEN
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Several hundred American housewives recently met at a Washington college to listen to speeches by Red diplomats and U. S. experts about communist "Eastern Europe in Transition."

The gathering was one of a series of meetings sponsored by the over-alert League of Women Voters.

Wearing well-tailored suits and sensible shoes, the housewives took a day off from their domestic chores to discuss such subjects as the split in the Red world and gold reserves in Russia.

Yet it would have been even more interesting, it seems to this writer, had they also questioned the speakers about the status of women in communist society.

For instance, can ordinary Soviet housewives dress in tailored suits and spend a day discussing dwindling gold reserves in the United States or differences between the Democratic and Republican parties?

A favorite Soviet propaganda argument for the alleged superiority of communism over capitalism is that Russia, by liberating women from all forms of slavery and inequality, has provided a model solution for the problem of women's rights.

Yet after 48 years of communism—probably no domestic issue is discussed so fervently in Russia as "the concept of equal rights for women" and the "bigoted attitude toward woman as a mother."

The Soviet press has been deluged in recent months with letters from women complaining about exhausting labor. The latest Russian census shows that some 50 million women are working in industry and agriculture and that 79 per cent of all females employed are engaged in physical labor.

A typical example is the automotive parts plant near Moscow where a majority of the workers are women. Even according to seven hours and 20 minutes of her time. A second working day! In truth, she has little time to satisfy her spiritual needs.

Closely related to this situation is increasing ill health among working women and a sharp drop in the birth rate.

The officially legalized inequality of Soviet women in family matters is another cause for deep concern to a large part of the Russian population.

In 1944, the Soviet government issued a decree placing sole responsibility for the upbringing of illegitimate children on the mother. She was even denied the legal right to go to court to seek a determination of the child's father or to sue for financial help for its upbringing from a man to whom she was not married.

The application of this principle which Lenin himself called "an example of serfdom possible only under capitalism" has brought about many personal tragedies, reported the writer A. Vaksberg in Moscow's Literary Gazette. "Why should only women be branded as guilty?" he asked. "What about the men?"

Blind Girl To Become Catholic Nun

ALBANY, N.Y., May 11 (AP)—Kathleen Dorn, blind since birth, is now within sight of a long cherished goal—she will begin studying in September to become a Roman Catholic nun.

The girl is believed to be the first blind person to enter the Order of the Sisters of Mercy. She will begin her studies at the mother house of the order in Portland, Me.

Kathleen has planned on being a nun since she was in the first grade at St. Joseph's School for the Blind, Jersey City, N.J. Her acceptance by the Sisters of Mercy—after several refusals from other orders—was a great thrill, she says.

Kathleen was graduated from Mercy high school in June. She had served as editor of the student newspaper and learned to take Braille shorthand at a rate of 80 words a minute. She can type on a regular typewriter at a rate of 60 words a minute.

She is the daughter of Mrs. William Dorn of Albany. Her father died several years ago.

90TH MISSILE LAUNCHED VANDENBERG AFB, Calif., May 11 (AP)—The 90th Minuteman intercontinental ballistic missile to be launched from this coastal base was fired yesterday down the Pacific missile range toward a pre-selected target 5,000 miles away.

Stamp

FULTON, Mo., May 11 (AP)—A U.S. commemorative postage stamp in honor of the late Sir Winston Churchill will go on sale Thursday in Fulton.

This central Missouri city drew the honor of issuing the stamp for the first time because it was here that Churchill delivered his famous "Iron Curtain" speech March 5, 1946, at Westminster college.

A temporary post office will be set up in the school gymnasium to help handle the sale of stamps and hand canceling for stamp collectors.

Hedy Lamarr Sues for Divorce

LOS ANGELES, May 11 (AP)—Actress Hedy Lamarr sued her sixth husband for divorce yesterday.

The 50-year-old beauty charged attorney Lewis W. Boies, Jr., 44, with extreme cruelty.

They married March 4, 1963, in Fresno, Calif., where Boies formerly had been a deputy district attorney, and separated last October.

BY WILLIAM A. DOYLE
Q. If you were a member of a citizens' group which worked mightily hard to raise $50,000 to perpetuate the historic old cemetery where many Texas pioneers are buried...

he tells me he has made on this stock seems unbelievable. When was this stock put on the New York stock exchange? What was its value then and now? What cash dividends has it paid?

W. A. Doyle: The stock was first listed on the New York stock exchange on July 11, 1961. Its first trading price there was $104 a share. The stock was split five for one in 1961...

W. A. Doyle: You will, no doubt, get different answers, elsewhere. But I vote for the individual of a bank, because there you will be able to set up a perpetual trust which should accomplish exactly what the members of your group have in mind.

W. A. Doyle: Every schoolchild knows that "Thermopylae had its inescapable fate." The Alamo had none. I just don't believe that future generations of Texans will not be interested in continuing what you people have started.

Clay-Liston Bout Shift May Convert Ban Into Bonanza for Backers

LEWISTON, Me., May 11 (AP)—While local reaction ranges from disbelief to delight, backers of the transplanted Cassius Clay-Sonny Liston heavyweight title fight May 25 figure they've converted the Boston ban into a bonanza. From Gov. John H. Reed on down, leading public figures and businessmen welcome the world championship event with open arms. Some other citizens still can't figure how the community of 41,000 suddenly is a focal point of the sports world. It happened, of course, when legal entanglements and an effort to have the bout banned in Boston left Inter-Continental Promotions, Inc., and Sports-Vision, which handles the closed circuit television rights, too little time. They could afford no more uncertainties.

Following Through

So they decided between Bangor and Lewiston, settling on the latter which is closer to Boston, 140 miles to the south. The site instead of Boston garden with its 13,900 capacity, is the Lewiston youth center where fire laws restrict seating to 3,000. But efforts are being made to expand it to slightly over 5,000.

One Inter-Continental spokesman says Dist. Atty. Garrett Byrne in Boston who sought an injunction banning the fight "may have done us a big favor. It looks as though we'll do better financially here than in Boston."

The spokesman said the rent of the building is $225,000 less than in Boston and the taxes $116,000 lower.

"With the fight out of Boston we open up another big city for the closed-circuit TV, and that's where we'll make our money," the spokesman continued.

While state officials estimated the fight will mean 2 million dollars or more in business and publicity, some folks wondered how to house and feed the many visitors expected.

"The whole thing still is a puzzle to some of the residents, however. Says one: 'I don't know why us? I mean, Lewiston is really nothing. We're out in the sticks. A fight like this belongs in a big town and in a big building.'"

PHILADELPHIA, May 11 (AP)—Johnny Briggs, who doubled and scored the tying run in the ninth inning, smashed a two-out, two-run homer in the 10th, giving the Philadelphia Phillies a 4-2 victory over St. Louis Monday night.

Briggs Gives Phillies Win Over Cards

PHILADELPHIA, May 11 (AP)—Johnny Briggs, who doubled and scored the tying run in the ninth inning, smashed a two-out, two-run homer in the 10th, giving the Philadelphia Phillies a 4-2 victory over St. Louis Monday night.

Twins Edge Chicago 4-3, Take First

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL, May 11 (AP)—Relief pitcher Mel Nelson came on with two on and none out in the ninth inning Monday night and saved a 4-3 victory for Minnesota over the Chicago White Sox and put the Twins in first place in the American League.

Jim Kaat had a six-hitter until the ninth when Bill Skowron led off with a single and Pete Ward followed with a double for a run. Al Worthington replaced Kaat and walked Ron Hansen.

Nelson then came in and retired pinch-hitter Floyd Robinson on a grounder, Ken Berry on a short fly and pinch hitter Smoky Burgess on a liner.

The deciding run turned out to be the second one the Twins scored in their two-run sixth inning. Rick Rollins doubled home Jimmie Hall, who had singled, and scored on Jerry Zimmerman's single to right field.

Sisler Is Developing Pinch Taste

By United Press International
Dick Sisler has developed a serious penchant for pinching—and it hurts.

Just ask the Pittsburgh Pirates, who are black and blue after Sisler's Cincinnati Reds literally pinched a 5-3 victory from them Sunday.

The Cincinnati manager successfully employed five pinch-hitters and pinch-runners in the ninth inning against the Pirates.

And why shouldn't Sisler summon his bench in an emergency? Cincinnati pinch-hitters are batting .545 this month with six hits in 11 appearances.

Deron Johnson began the ninth with a single. Chico Ruiz, the first of a long line of Reds pinchers, ran for Johnson, advanced to second when Pirate hurler Al McBean hit pinch-hitter Gordy Coleman with a pitch and scored on pinch-hitter Johnny Edward's single.

After Leo Cardenas walked, Bob Venie relieved McBean and pinch swinger Frank Robinson promptly delivered a two-run single to score the decisive runs.

Weber Downs Bobcats Twice

HELENA, May 11 (AP)—Weber State college took both ends of a baseball doubleheader from Montana State college to stay in a deadlock for the Big Sky conference lead with Gonzaga.

Weber won the first 3-2 and the second 6-3.

Weber is 6-2 in league play and the twin losses left the Bobcats in the second division with a 1-3 record. The games were played at Helena's Memorial stadium because of wet grounds at Bozeman.

Machen, Rush Fight to Draw

SAN FRANCISCO, May 11 (AP)—Fourth-ranked Eddie Machen, 194, and San Francisco longshoreman Elmer Rush, 200, fought a draw Monday night in their 10-round heavyweight bout at civic auditorium.

The fight was a solid slugfest all the way. Machen managed to stagger the 24-year-old Rush twice, with left and right combinations in the third and ninth rounds, but the teamster came back gamely.

Judge Bob Mitchell gave four rounds to Machen and three to Rush; Judge Jack Silver gave four to Machen and four to Rush, and referee Frankie Carter gave six to Rush and four to Machen.

Yastrzemski Leads Boston Over Yankees

BOSTON, May 11 (AP)—Carl Yastrzemski's second homer of the game, a lofty drive deep into the right field seats, boosted Boston to a 3-2 victory over the slumped-riding New York Yankees Monday night.

Yastrzemski who batted in all three Boston runs, smashed his winning homer off Bill Stafford. That hit plus Dick Radatz relief pitching nailed down rookie Jim Lonborg's first major league victory.

Radatz replaced Lonborg after allowing Mickey Mantle to double with two out in the ninth and retired Tom Seaver on a foul pop.

Yastrzemski's doubles put the Red Sox in front with a sacrifice fly in the first inning and a homer in the fourth, both off Stafford, who made his first start since May 17, 1964.

But the Yankees, losing six of their last eight games, stayed in the fight thanks to the limping Mantle, whose RBI single and homer twice pulled New York into a tie.

New York: 000 100 100—3 4 2
Boston: 100 100 01x—3 6 2

Signs for Bonus

GREENVILLE, N. C., May 11 (AP)—Bill Cline, Little All-America tailback on the East Carolina college football team last fall, said Monday he had signed a bonus contract with the Ottawa Rough Riders of the Canadian Football League.

DOWN AND OUT, Robbie Allen, Philadelphia Phillies infielder, hits the dirt as he is trapped in a run-down between first and second in the first inning of Monday night's game in Philadelphia. Allen was caught off first by a pickoff throw from St. Louis Cardinal pitcher Tracy Stallard to Bill White (12) at first. White tossed to Phil Gagliano and then made the tag after Gagliano's return throw. The Phillies won 4-2 on a 10th-inning two-run homer. (AP wirephoto)

Sisler's First Basemen Look Like Army to Opposing Hurlers

Frick Hits Amateur Eligibility

NEW YORK, May 11 (AP)—Why should a college boy who signs a pro baseball contract lose his amateur eligibility in other sports?

Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick asked the question Monday at a luncheon meeting with college coaches from the New York area.

"I am just asking the question," said Frick. "Why do we have to have those stringent rules in these days? Why should a professional baseball player be ineligible for the swimming team, for instance? All of us like to think we are professionals in our business. I like to think I am a pro in baseball. But I am an amateur in golf."

The amateur rules are fixed by international decree and not subject to review by any coaching group. Frick was merely taking advantage of an opportunity to air a widely held opinion.

Frick said he thought the professionals and the college authorities in the NCAA are closer than they ever have been.

He pointed to the summer baseball program by which the pro leagues pay $75,000 to assure the operation of purely amateur leagues using college players during the summer months. The boys receive no salary but must work 32 hours a week in the city for which they play at the prevailing wage for the type of job they do.

10th-Inning Single Lets Dodgers Win

LOS ANGELES, May 11 (AP)—Ron Fairly's two-out single drove in Lou Johnson in the 10th inning and gave the Los Angeles Dodgers a 3-2 victory over Houston Monday night.

Johnson, purchased from Spokane of the Pacific Coast league last week as a replacement for the injured Tommy Davis, beat out an infield single with two out. With Jim Lefebvre at bat, Johnson stole second and continued to third when catcher John Bateman threw wildly to second.

Hal Woodeshick walked Lefebvre before Fairly singled to center.

The Astros broke up Johnny Podres' three-hit shutout, tying the game 2-2 in the eighth inning. Doubles by Joe Morgan and Bob Aspromonte scored the first run, and Jim Beachamp singled across Aspromonte with the second.

Houston: 000 000 020 0—2 7 1
Los Angeles: 020 000 000 1—3 7 1

Patterson Ends Pre-Bout Drills

RONNEBY, Sweden, May 11 (AP)—Ex-heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson, New York, Monday wound up preparations for his scheduled 10-round encounter with Houston heavyweight Tod Herring Friday night by sparring three rounds.

Patterson, 30, closes his camp on this Swedish summer resort Tuesday and flies to Stockholm for a few days rest before the fight at Johanneshov's 11,000-capacity ice stadium.

"I've never seen Floyd in better shape. He is growing as a fighting man for each fight," trainer Don Florio said.

Patterson accepted the Stockholm tussle as a warmup for a possible shot at Cassius Clay's heavyweight crown if Clay beats Sonny Liston May 25.

Pacific Defeats Coyotes by 5-3

FOREST GROVE, Ore., May 11, A—Bill Jones drove in three runs Monday to lead Pacific University to a 5-3 baseball victory over College of Idaho. That left Pacific within striking distance of Northwest conference leader Linfield.

Pacific trails Linfield by two games, and each team has two games remaining.

Yankees Trade Gonzalez for Indians' Barker

BOSTON, May 11 (AP)—The New York Yankees Monday traded Ferro Pete Gonzalez to the Cleveland Indians for Ray Barker in a straight one-for-one deal.

Yankee Manager Johnny Keane said Barker would go to the base as soon as he joined the club and Joe Peplone would shift to right field to fill in for the injured Roger Maris.

Gonzalez, an infielder, had batted only five times for the Yankees though his two hits gave him club batting average leadership at the time of the trade.

Keane said he hoped Barker would arrive here in time to play Monday night against the Red Sox but he certainly would be in time to be in the lineup Tuesday.

Rains Wash Out Colonial Golf For Second Day

FORT WORTH, May 11 (UPI)—Torrential rains washed out the final round of the $100,000 Invitational Colonial golf tournament again Monday and posed the possibility of an unprecedented delay until Wednesday before the tournament can be completed. Officials ordered another try at it Tuesday, but more deluges promised by the weatherman raised the question of whether the low-lying 7,100-yard Colonial layout will be playable at that time.

Ostyn to Be Honored at Meet Friday

Paul Ostyn, resigning Twin Falls high school athletic director, will be honored at a no-host banquet at 7 p.m. Friday in the banquet room of the Rogerson hotel.

Although there will be no main speaker, three persons are expected to give short talks. These include Eugene Krall, representing the city; George Staudacher, high school principal; and Curtis Eaton, chairman of the board of regents for the state's universities.

Ostyn resigned in December to accept the athletic directorship at Twin Falls from Flier E. Jones, who served as head football coach, wrestling coach, took the athletic directorship a year later and gave up wrestling to coach the basketball club the past four seasons.

Banquet chairman Ben Moten said "everyone is invited, men, women and students."

Kaline, Error Let Detroit Nip Orioles

BALTIMORE, May 11 (AP)—Al Kaline's three-run home plus an unassisted run helped Detroit to a 3-1 victory over Baltimore and Robin Roberts Monday night.

Kaline connected in the first inning off Roberts, trying for his 10th victory against no defeats. The last followed singles by Dick McAuliffe and Norm Cash.

The Orioles eventually caught the Tigers and went ahead 4-3 in Jack Brandt's leadoff homer in the fourth. McAuliffe singled across the tying run in the fifth inning, setting the stage for the increased tally in the sixth.

With one out, Don Demeter singled off Roberts. Bill Freehan then eluded a double down the right field line, and when Freehan batted the ball, Demeter raced home with the deciding run.

Aussie, Spaniard Enter Net Finals

ROME, May 11 (AP)—Martin Mulligan, Australia, the titleholder in 1963, and Spaniard Manuel Santana, winner of the French championship Monday, reached the men's singles final in the Italian tennis championships.

Mulligan won his semifinal against Spaniard Juan Gisbert, 6-4, 6-6, 6-2, and Santana advanced by downing Italy's Nicola Pietrangeli, 6-2, 6-8, 6-4, 3-6, 6-3.

Nancy Richey, Dallas, showed up at center court for a match against Brazil's Maria Bueno in the women's singles final. She was slightly nonplussed when informed officials had changed the schedule and set the match for Tuesday.

Met Rookie Doesn't Like Idea of People Calling Him New Babe Ruth

NEW YORK, May 11 (AP)—The Mets' new rookie, Ernie Willis, was embarrassed when he was someone asking him how he felt to be called the "new Babe Ruth" when it was perfectly obvious he didn't like the idea of being called that at all.

"Some people are just getting carried away," said rugged Swoboda, the New York Mets' 20-year-old rookie sensation who burst onto the big scene this year by blasting seven home runs in his first games.

"I couldn't be compared with Babe Ruth, but that's plain talk," said the kid, fidgeting noticeably as he sat in the dugout.

"How can they say something like that? It's just too premature. I'm just trying to win a job here. I haven't even been out to bat 50 times yet."

Nevertheless, the husky, 200-pound Swoboda can't even pop a head out of the dugout without a avalanche of cheers at Shea stadium. The way they holler for him there, you'd think he was Mickey Mantle.

None of the adulation is going to his head, however.

"Nobody recognizes me on the street," he said in answer to a question. "I'm too ordinary. I don't do much after the ball game. Tug McGraw (another 20-year-old) and I room together and we talk baseball all the time. Being here with a major league club is the greatest thing that has ever happened to me. It's a thrill every minute. Even when I put on the uniform every day. Heck, I'd stay overnight and sleep right here at the ballpark if they'd let me."

Swoboda has only one season of professional baseball experience behind him, having played with Williamsport of the Eastern league last year, and his lack of finesse frequently shows up in his outfielding performance.

"I'm not playing a good outfield," said the rookie centerfielder. "In fact, I'm playing a poor outfield. I've got a lot to learn and I know it."

"Nervous? Sure I am. I'm too excited about this game not to be a little nervous. My palms sweat occasionally, but I'm not scared. I simply want to do the job to the best of my ability. I'd want to do that no matter what business I was in."

Some rookies come up to the big time thinking they know it all and in two weeks they're telling the veterans how to play the game. Swoboda is not of that stripe, however.

"I'm open to all suggestions," he said solemnly. "I keep listening to people who have something to say, people who matter. Warren Spahn has been very helpful. He knows a lot more than just pitching. He keeps telling me 'work to better yourself, and that's exactly what I'm trying to do.'"

Stengel Has Wrist Broken In Accident

WEST POINT, N.Y., May 11 (AP)—Manager Casey Stengel of the New York Mets incurred a broken bone in his right wrist Monday when he slipped coming out of a gymnasium shortly before his team met Army in an exhibition game.

The 74-year-old Stengel was wearing spikes at the time of the accident, which occurred as he was about to board a special bus that was to transport the team to the playing field.

Stengel's spikes caught on the cement outside the gymnasium and he fell heavily on his right arm.

An Army doctor placed a cast on Stengel's wrist and said Casey would have to keep it on for the next six to eight weeks.

"The injury was diagnosed as a comminuted fracture of the distal end of the radius, but Casey said laughingly he would not go on the disabled list."

"We have a game against the Cardinals Tuesday night and I'll be in the dugout managing," he said.

In 1943, when he was managing the old Boston Braves, Casey suffered a broken leg when he was struck by a car in Boston. He spent two months in the hospital before he was able to walk again. The Braves' coaches, Bob Coleman and George Kelly, ran the club during his absence.

Bull Frog Anglers Must Await Season

BOISE, May 11—Boys of all ages wanting to catch bullfrogs for fun and good table fare must wait until the stream or pond is open for general fishing for all species, the Idaho fish and game department warned Monday.

Many people do not realize that the erstwhile tadpoles are classified in the regulations along with game fish, and that regular seasons and bag limits on them prevail throughout the state.

"The limit is 12 frogs and the legal method of taking them is with hook and line without the use of artificial light to attract them," says James C. Simpson, chief of fisheries management.

He added that classifying bullfrogs with game fish species and giving them the same protection is no more of an oddity than listing cottontail rabbits in the regulations for upland game birds.

"Both the bullfrog and cottontails need protection in Idaho," he stressed.

Bullfrog mating begins in June when weather conditions are right, and the general statewide trout season opens this year May 29. These giant frogs were introduced into Idaho by the pioneers many years ago, along with bass, crappie, perch and carp.

Bees Trip Cubs In Exhibition

SALT LAKE CITY, May 11 (AP)—Braash Billy Paul stopped the Chicago Cubs on three hits Monday night as the Salt Lake City Bees embarrassed the parent club from the National league 4-2 in an exhibition game played at Derka field.

A crowd of 4,071 saw the lowly Bees of the Pacific Coast league upset their big brother rivals. The Cubs stopped in Salt Lake en route to San Francisco where they open a series against the Giants Tuesday night.

Paul, who has a 0-1 PCL record, blanked the Cubs over the first three innings and gave up single runs in the fourth and sixth.

Rash

POLAND SPRING, Me., May 11 (AP)—Former heavy-weight boxing champion Sonny Liston may break out in a rash when he discovers he will train for his coming title fight with Cassia Clay in the presence of 220 trial judges.

Liston, who is no stranger in a courtroom, is scheduled to fight Cassia Clay for the heavyweight crown on May 25 in Lewiston, 10 miles away.

Saul Feldman, owner of the Poland Spring Hotels, said Sunday that Liston will move his training camp to the Poland Spring resort Tuesday afternoon.

Feldman said New England trial justices will hold their annual convention at the resort May 20 to 23 and Massachusetts Superior Court Justice Felix Forte will likely be among those attending.

Mets Offer Half Million For Torre

NEW YORK, May 11 (AP)—The New York Mets have made a concrete offer of a half-million dollars to the Milwaukee Braves for catcher Joe Torre, The Associated Press learned Monday.

The offer was made Saturday afternoon by George Weiss, president and general manager of the Mets, to John McHale, president of the Braves.

"I'm flattered," McHale told Weiss. "But the answer is no. We're trying to win a pennant this year. The Milwaukee club cannot win any pennants without players like Torre."

Weiss, who signed 40-year-old Yogi Berra as a free agent and purchased 44-year-old Warren Spahn from the Braves last winter, has been trying desperately to acquire a young player of star magnitude, one with future as well as present appeal.

Torre fits that description. Only 24, the Brooklyn-born slugger came into his own last year when he batted .321, hammered 20 homers, drove in 109 runs and was generally acknowledged to be the best catcher in the national league.

A right-handed batter, Torre has been hitting at an even faster pace this season. Through Sunday's games, his average was .348, with 6 homers and 12 runs batted in.

Mets Blank Army 8-0 in Exhibition

WEST POINT, N. Y., May 11 (AP)—The New York Mets defeated Army, 8-0 Monday in a seven-inning exhibition game.

Carl Willey and Tug McGraw held the Cadets to four hits while the Mets bombarded five Army pitchers for 12 safeties.

Bobby Klaus opened the Mets scoring with a 375-foot homer over the left center field fence in the third inning. Ron Hunt and Johnny Lewis led the Met attack with two hits each while Lewis and Bob Taylor drove home two runs apiece.

In a previous visit to West Point, the Mets defeated the Cadets 3-0 in 1963.

Crozier Is Given NHL's Calder Cup

MONTREAL, May 11 (AP)—Detroit goalie Roger Crozier, one of the few players ever to make the first all-star team in his rookie season, Monday was named winner of the Calder cup as the national Hockey league's best first-year man.

The 23-year-old native of Bracebridge, Ont., who came within a hair of also winning the Vezina trophy as the league's stingiest netminder, was a run-away winner of the rookie award and the $1,000 that goes with it.

Crozier earned 87 points in the first-half balloting and picked up 88 of a possible 90 in the second half for a season aggregation of 155 points.

His nearest rival was Toronto forward Ron Ellis, 23-goal freshman star who picked up 107 points on the two ballots. Another goalie, Denis DeJordy of the Chicago Black Hawks, was a distant third with only 29 points.

The NHL all-star teams and trophies are voted on by sports writers and broadcasters picked by each of the six teams. Points are awarded on a basis of five for first place, three for second and one for third.

SIGNS PACT

PHILADELPHIA, May 11 (AP)—Kim DeVault, 22, a quarterback from Evansville college, has been signed by the Philadelphia Eagles, the National Football league club announced Monday.

DeVault is 6-foot, 1 inch, weighs 185 pounds and is a native of Evansville, Ind.

Vandals Thump ISU Twice, 16-3 and 4-0

MOSCOW, May 11 (UPI)—The Idaho Vandals swept a Big Sky conference baseball doubleheader from Idaho State university here Monday 16-3, 4-0. The Vandals bunched 12 hits in the opener and were helped by nine Bengal errors. Pitcher Bill Stoneman added 13 strikeouts to his season record during the contest.

The Vandals bunched four runs in the third, seven in the fifth and three in the sixth for their big innings. Tom Hoagland hit his fourth homer in the season in the first inning with the bases empty, and Terry Taylor hit a two-run homer in the sixth for the Vandals.

Steve Kuhnaski counted for the Bengal's three runs with a two-run homer in the fourth, and scored on Hoagland's throwing error in the sixth after singling and stealing second and third.

Vandal pitcher Mike Lamb held the Bengals to three hits in the second game to shut them out. Idaho scored two runs in the second inning, when Mike Everett doubled home Hoagland who had walked, and John Blasinger who reached first on an error. Blasinger doubled in the fourth, scoring Hoagland who had singled and Jim Carmichael scored in the fifth on Wally Posey's single.

Trophy Dinner

The Ladies of the Hertz-Rent-A-Car bowling team, first place winners in the Idaho state championships held recently in Nampa, will present a sponsorship trophy to Phil Cargill, local Hertz manager, at a banquet Saturday at Kay's Supper Club.

Members of the team are Elsie Jones, Francis Irish, Judy Mathis, Helen Webberly and Laura Legas.

stops

tiny particles in gasoline (before they stop you!)

What does the American FINAL/FILTER really do? Automotive engineers know—they asked for it and American Oil Research developed it to stand between you and trouble. You see, all gasolines pick up tiny impurities in transit and in storage. These impurities, should they get in your gasoline tank, could clog up the fuel line filter and stop you cold. The American FINAL/FILTER stops harmful contaminants right at the pump nozzle. If you use your car on the job (and even if you don't), stay out of trouble—fill 'er up filtered with American, Regular or American, Super-Premium.

Sailors Asked To Extend Tour of Duty

WASHINGTON, May 11 (AP)—The navy appealed yesterday to sailors and officers, whose service is about up, to stay on board as "a personal contribution to meeting the present challenge" in South Viet Nam and the Dominican Republic.

Secretary of the Navy Paul H. Nitze sent a message to "all hands," saying: "An extension, even if only of three to six months, could be your way of helping to meet our national objectives."

Nitze stressed the need for experienced officers and men to carry out our assigned missions effectively and efficiently in a combat environment."

The navy appeal, the first of its kind made by any of the armed services since the Viet Nam crisis began nearly four years ago, reflects concern over a drain in experienced manpower. This drain, complicated by a fall-off in enlistments and the lure of better pay in industry, is felt by the other services as well.

Filer Names Band, Chorus '66 Officers

FILER, May 11—Band and chorus officers for the coming year have been announced by Ronald Ray, music director at the high school.

Dennis Mai will be band president; Dennis Aslett, vice president; Jeri Sue Blakeslee, secretary, and Donna Blakeslee, point secretary.

Lee Olson is chorus president; Linda Peters, vice president; Penny Ward, secretary, and Yvonne Lutz, point secretary.

Colleen Bingham will be drum majorette and Beverly Park, head twirler. Twirlers are Shirley Ingle, Donna Denton, Linda Sharp, Paula Christie, Kathy Huston and Darlene Kendrick. Susan Storrs is alternate.

Camille Ramsey has received the director's award; Linda Ulrich, the John Phillips Sousa award, and Pamela Gardner, the Kiwanis award.

Last Rites Honor John E. Smith

BURLEY, May 11 — Funeral services for John E. (Jack) Smith were held Saturday in the Joseph Payne Memorial chapel with the Rev. Paul L. Ludlow officiating.

W. Benny Sprague sang a selection and was accompanied by Mrs. Dorothy Uscala.

Pallbearers were Lloyd Hanks, Austin Wallace, Hermon King, Reed Whitesides, Richard Stauffer and Ronald Stauffer.

Floral arrangements were under the direction of Margaret Gunderson and Lucille Anderson.

Final rites were held at the Pleasant View cemetery. Military graveside rites were directed by Burley post No. 17 of American Legion.

First

MONTEREY, Calif., May 11 (AP)—The city of Monterey, first capital of California under Spanish, Mexican and American rule until 1850, has its first woman mayor.

Minnie D. Coyle, a member of the city council for four years, defeated former Mayor Lawrence M. Pollard yesterday for the city's chief executive post. Both are Democrats.

Highways Will Get Seal Coat

SHOSHONE, May 11 — State highway 50, from Five Points north in Twin Falls to the Hansen bridge and U.S. 93, from Five Points north to its intersection with highway 25 east of Jerome, are to receive a seal coat this summer, according to Blaine Sessions, district highway engineer.

The project is under contract to Duffy Reed Construction company, Twin Falls.

Prior to work under the contract state crews are giving these two sections of highway a "slurry seal" to fill cracks and abrasions in the pavement that have developed over a period of time.

The "slurry seal" is placed by mixing an emulsion oil with sand and placing the mixture on the pavement by means of a rubber blade or "squeegee" which works the mixture into cracks and crevices and forms a smooth surface, over which the final seal is placed as a riding surface for automotive traffic.

The "slurry seal" serves another purpose, Sessions says, that of preventing water from seeping through the pavement.

LINER IS CHARTERED

LONDON, May 11 (AP)—The liner Queen Mary has been privately chartered for the first time, the Cunard line announces. The News of the World, a London Sunday paper, has contracted for a six-day cruise next December for the winners of a nationwide contest.

KID ME NOT We kid you not:

2 front axles give our new Ford pickups the smoothest ride ever

First time in any pickup! Smooth-riding independent suspension with big-truck durability!

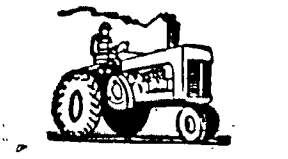

Two front axles in Ford's all-new Twin-I-Beam suspension give you an all-new kind of pickup ride, an all-new kind of front end strength! Each wheel is suspended independently on its own I-beam axle. A bump at one wheel won't budge the other and long-life coil springs cushion the ride like never before. But comfort isn't all you get from Ford's two-front-axle suspension. Forged I-beam axles give you big-truck durability for the toughest jobs. Forged steel radius rods retain wheel alignment for less maintenance, lower alignment costs. It all adds up to the smoothest riding, toughest independent front end in any pickup—and we're not kidding. Come on in and prove it yourself—comfort-test a new '65 Twin-I-Beam Ford Pickup at your Ford Dealer's today.

Woman Reports Theft of Purse

Mrs. Joann Hammon, Twin Falls, reported to city police at 4 p.m. Monday that her black purse containing about $30 in bills and some change was stolen. She said the theft occurred at the Norge Cleaning and Laundry Village, 556 Main avenue north. She said the purse also contained her driver's license and other identification papers. Police are investigating.

Boesinger Construction Company Finds Cold Weather Is Challenge

Constructing a Tempo store is nothing new for the Max A. Boesinger Construction Company. The erection of the new store in Twin Falls is the second Gamble-Skogmo factory. The Mountain Home based construction company has undertaken.

A year ago the company was putting the finishing touches on a 50,000 square foot building in Idaho Falls. The Idaho Falls building was the first Tempo store in Idaho.

Unusual challenges have become common place for the firm who has been doing construction projects all along the southern part of Idaho for many years.

Construction of the new store in Twin Falls began Nov. 10, 1964 and the construction of the store challenged a life-time of experience in building under winter conditions.

The Max A. Boesinger Construction Company is almost a "native son" firm in Magic Valley. Some of the company's youngest experiences were in the Gooding and Shoshone regions.

Intermittent wet and thawing conditions, coupled with freezing weather created extremely difficult construction problems.

Boesinger points out that 30,000 yards of earthfill was hauled to form the base of the building and to level off the land area for proper development. It was also necessary to reroute Perrine Coulee, two irrigation ditches and modern, attractive, air conditioned, and well lighted.

It is easily accessible and there is room to grow. Parking should never be a major problem.

The building was ready for delivery March 15, 1965. Cold weather failed to halt the timetable.

The Boesinger Company's reputation in becoming involved with cold weather work began five years ago in Burley in a million-dollar bridge and interchange project in conjunction with Peter Kewett Construction Company. Most of this was winter work.

Then the company was low bidder on the Idaho Falls, Bassett bridges and interchanges. This was constructed during December through February. Temperatures dropped to record lows.

In the fall of 1962 the company contracted to build a radar station on Sawtelle mountain, some 10,000 feet in elevation. The mountain is located at Island Park. Sixty mile an hour winds and 40 below temperatures were common.

The Boesinger company first became associated with Daum Development Company, developers of Blue Lakes Shopping center in Boise. They contracted to build the 80,000 square foot Wells department store in the Tiffrest Plaza Shopping center.

Cold weather construction and Boesinger Construction are old bedfellows.

build new water control structures.

Much of the earth fill involved an eight mile haul from land on the northside.

Many problems in the construction were solved by fine cooperation and coordination with local sub-contractors and suppliers.

Boesinger said that the close harmony made it possible to deliver the building on time.

The company takes considerable pride in the structure pointing out that the building is CONSTRUCTION DIFFICULTY is vividly shown in photograph of back of Tempo store located in the Blue Lakes Shopping center. The Perrine coulee and two irrigation ditches had to be revamped and considerable earthfill was needed to bring the area up to the surrounding grade. (Times-News photo)

Steel Erected by Local Firm

Steel is a necessary part of any large structure and there some 28 tons of steel in the Tempo store located in the Blue Lakes Shopping center. The structural and miscellaneous steel in the new structure was furnished by Self-Manufacturing Company, Twin Falls. In addition the expected amounts in a large structure is the hidden steel normally thought of. This includes re-enforcing steel, steel joists and hidden steel supports. Also installed the pipe supports in the front of the store for the large pipe. Another attractive steel is the corrugated galvanized steel which go to make today's modern buildings attractive and functional.

Machines Aid Tempo Climate

Mark Twain once said that everybody talks about the weather but no one does anything about it and to a certain extent is true. Unpleasant conditions can be controlled in many small homes and large commercial buildings. So they had the Vernas Plumbing and Heating Company, Twin Falls, install 100-ton York air conditioning units. The units are mounted outside the building on the roof of the Tempo structure. Here they can heat and cool the building, can operate as gas furnace or air conditioners. Each unit is an individual machine and the machines can be set at different settings or the building vary. For example the front of the store can be cooler in the back end.

SUPPLIES are stocked in storage facilities at the new Tempo department store in the Blue Lakes Shopping center. An adequate supply of goods is necessary in modern merchandising and store plans on having and maintaining an adequate inventory of needed items. (Times-News photo)

Shopping Center Success Depends on Ample Parking

Shopping center success can be basically summed up in one word—parking. There is over a block of free parking at the Blue Lakes Shopping center with the new

Wood Supplied By Andersons'

A colorful interior is a necessity for today's modern shopper. Anderson Lumber company, Twin Falls, has installed enough Masonite hard wood paneling to build 20 average recreation rooms. One of the unique features of the Tempo store is the raised office which dominates the entrance and overlooks the entire store. The office, constructed by Anderson, is open bright, cheery, and most of all it is accessible to the shopper. The raised office also affords some privacy for store officials and yet maintains on-the-floor closeness. Anderson Lumber company officials estimate that there is enough wood in the shelving they installed in the new Tempo store to build an average sized home.

Overhead Doors Are Installed

Overhead Door Company of Twin Falls, an affiliate of Volvo Builders Supply, undertook the task of supplying and installing steel, sectional, overhead doors on the new Tempo building which is located in the Blue Lakes Shopping Center. The doors contain clear wire glass and they are quarter-inch, non-breakable doors.

large Tempo dominating the west end of Twin Falls' new commercial center.

Ease of parking has contributed much to shopping centers. It is the lifeblood of the center and for this reason a new store will go to great lengths to provide ample free parking with easy access to the stores.

The original land area of Blue Lakes Shopping center had to overcome a few major geological and topographic problems. Earth needed to be moved so Tempo enlisted the services of the J. A. Clawson Construction company, Twin Falls.

Perrine Coulee meandered through a portion of the property and this necessitated a channel change. The streamflow was diverted down a newly constructed streambed and control structures had to be erected. Stream work is generally done

Tempo Glass Is Installed

The picture window exterior on new stores across the nation is pretty much a trend which has been set since the end of World war II. People like to look in and people like to look out.

The large glass paneling which adorns the front of the new Tempo store was installed by Magic Paint and Glass, Twin Falls.

In addition to installing the glass the local firm also installed the automatic doors at the front of the store. An automatic door is a recent customer convenience product which allows the shopper to enter and leave without having to juggle packages and to tug at door handles.

Wattage Could Light 57 Homes

Lighting is one of the key features to attractive merchandising. A well-lit product is a well-viewed product. With the modern trend going to lighting that is full, but not overly bright, Idaho Electric undertook the task of installing the electrical structures in the new Tempo store.

If the wattage in the new Tempo store was distributed over the city street system it would light 70 city blocks. Another comparison would be that there is enough wattage in the newest store at the Blue Lakes Shopping center to light 57 homes or a fair sized sub-division.

Idaho Electric Serviced Tempo

In picking its electrical contractor officials of Tempo chose one of Twin Falls' oldest electrical firms, Idaho Electric company.

Idaho Electric is now in its 18th year of business in Twin Falls. The local firm installed enough lighting equipment to adequately light a block of homes. In the main display room at the Tempo store there are 240 lighting fixtures.

ALWAYS a favorite with Magic Valley residents is sporting goods and the new Tempo store will have a wide variety of items for the outdoorsman. (Times-News photo)
