By The Associated Press
Tornadoes and thunderstorms hammered eight states in the nation's midsection Wednesday, killing at least two persons, injuring several others and causing extensive property damage. The twisters whipped across sections of Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, Wisconsin, Michigan, Iowa, Ohio and Oklahoma. A lineman was killed in Elkhart, Ind., when strong winds blew a dangling power line against him. He was repairing damage from the line Sunday tornadoes.

Crews Repair Bridge Over Carey River

CAREY — Crews were repairing a bridge over the Little Wood River on a county road about a half mile below the Little Wood Reservoir Thursday and it was expected to be back in use Friday.
Ray Sweat, Blaine County commissioner, said an old railroad flatcar is being used in the repair work. Traffic is being detoured around the reservoir. It was not known what caused the bridge to collapse and fall into the river.
Meantime, water officials reported Thursday the flood threat is nearly over. Glenn Simmons, Bureau of Reclamation official at Burley, flew over the snow pack of the Little Wood River drainage Wednesday morning and reported it is now safe to allow the reservoir to fill.

Inflow into the dam is holding steady at 925 second feet. Lowell Mechem, watermaster, said he would close the gates a little more today.
Fish Creek Reservoir was up a little Thursday because of heavy rain in the drainage area Wednesday. W. C. Eldredge, watermaster for the Carey Valley Reservoir Co., said water would be shut out of the high-line canal and Hot Springs ditch to permit repairs, and to let the banks dry out enough so that repairs can be made.
It is expected water will be out of the canals about four days. The roads and banks around Fish Creek Reservoir are extremely muddy, Eldredge said.
Water which was shut-out of the Hot Springs ditch has flooded the Hot Springs Ranch, operated by Jim Toone. He said some 700 acres are under water. The ranch is next to Carey Lake, two and one-half miles east of Carey.

Water System May Be Ready In Two Years

Engineers from Morrison-Staible Associates, Helena, Mont., told the Twin Falls City Commission Wednesday evening that the $2.5 million water improvement project, given a "go-ahead" by Twin Falls voters May 18, should be completed within two to two and one-half years.
The two engineers, John Morrison and Rodney Praetor, said the first phase of construction will probably be the intake and distribution system, with the second phase the work on reservoirs and covers. Last will come the construction of the power station.
The commission has authorized its legal counsel to pick up as soon as possible an option held on about an acre of land for the construction site of the power station.
There was some discussion about the type of power that would be used to run the pumping station. The two engineers said that either a gas or electric system could be used and noted they would do further study on the advantages of both before submitting an official recommendation to the commission.
They advised the commission that plans and designs should be progressed enough to start letting contracts by late September or early October, 1965.
City Manager Herb Derrick read a copy of the contract the city has with Morrison-Staible to the commissioners to clear up any questions the group might have.

Need for Caution on Pesticide Use Cited

SUN VALLEY, Idaho (AP)—Continuing fish kills in Idaho apparently caused by pesticides indicate a need for greater caution in their use, a state fish and game official said today. The fish kills, including three on the Salmon River last year, are often due to indirect causes, said James C. Simpson, chief of the fisheries division, speaking in the final day of the annual Idaho health conference. He said pesticides apparently are carried into the rivers after use on fields and in some cases poison the insects which fish eat, thus leaving the fish without food.

Buhl Theft Of Dynamite Is Probed

BUHL — Twin Falls County and state officers Thursday were investigating the theft of 10 cases of TNT and two boxes of dynamite caps from the John Hopple ranch, southeast of Buhl.
The theft was discovered Wednesday night by Hopple, who said he was unable to tell when the loss occurred as he had not checked on the dynamite for several months. It was stored on his ranch for use in blasting rocks.
Deputy Sheriff Curtis Pryor said the dynamite caps are the most dangerous, as the slightest jar will set them off. Officers are continuing their investigation, but as yet have no clues in the theft.

Mob Tries to Crash Hearing In Chicago

CHICAGO (AP) — A mob of young people tried today to break into the building where the House Committee on Un-American Activities is holding a hearing.
The demonstrators stormed the main entrance and clashed with police who halted them before they could get into the building.
After the attempted breakthrough was stopped, police rounded up 24 of the young men and women. They sat on the sidewalk and locked arms and joined in singing "We Shall Overcome."
Earlier, teenage girls caused a disturbance inside the hearing room and four of them were escorted or carried out by a U.S. marshal. That demonstration began when one girl rose and started to sing "America."
Another teenage girl had been grabbed by marshals when she sat down and tried to block the entrance to the building where the hearings are being held.
The committee hearing encountered a strategy of silence by witnesses again today.

Burley Graduation Rites Finish Despite Darkness

BURLEY — A cat lost its ninth life but the Burley High School graduation exercises went on despite a power failure Wednesday evening.
When the lights in the Burley, Paul, Rupert and Heyburn area served by Bonneville Power Administration went out at 9:20 p.m., the graduation exercises were nearing conclusion with about 36 seniors remaining to receive diplomas.
Dale Brooks, operator and maintenance manager for the Idaho Falls area served by BPA, himself at the graduation exercises, said Thursday it was discovered that a cat had come in contact with one of the main 34,500 volt wires. This created an uneven flow of power so relay switches automatically turned off the power.
When the gymnasium went dark the orchestra continued to play for a few minutes.
But as the darkness continued, school officials had the gymnasium doors opened and cars were driven up and their headlights turned into the gymnasium. The ceremony continued by the improvised light.
Just as the last senior walked across the stage, the power came back on.

Racing Meet Is Out For T.F. This Year

The Twin Falls Fair Board announced Thursday it has not been able to secure acceptable dates for holding pari-mutuel horse racing this year.
After the fair period was eliminated, the board tried to secure two separate weekends in July and install lights for night racing.
Since one of these weekends had been assigned to Pocatello, the board decided it would be best to abandon plans for night racing this year.
Warren Barry, chairman, commented, "It is indeed unfortunate that with the finest racing facilities in the state of Idaho, Twin Falls County was unable to secure any acceptable dates for racing."

SYNOPSIS AND AGRICULTURAL

High pressure at the surface covers the western half of the nation as the intense low pressure system moves into eastern Canada. Skies over the valleys of Southern Idaho are clear as a result of the rising pressures.

Higher pressure aloft will be building over the Intermountain Region today and tonight, becoming an effective barrier to Pacific storm systems during the next two days. However, this high pressure aloft is not expected to become a permanent weather feature for this area and by Saturday the next storm from the Pacific should bring cloudiness and some shower activity to Southern Idaho. There is a chance for low pressure aloft from the Gulf of Alaska to move into the Western States during the weekend, bringing cooler weather at that time.

Sunny skies and rising temperatures are in store today and Friday in the valleys of Southern Idaho. Maximum temperatures today will rise into the mid 60s and into the 70s. On Friday daytime temperatures will be up into the 70s to a few low 80s. Minimum temperatures should be up a few degrees in most valleys. Minimum temperatures will range from the mid 30s into the 40s.

Field work and outdoor activities will be able to move ahead again with ideal weather the next two days for all agricultural activities. Crop growth will be favored by the warmer weather along with the past addition of soil moisture.

Walker also lashed out at Sen. Len Jordan, R-Idaho, accusing him of following the power company "line" that wheeling Bonneville Power Administration energy to future Idaho preference customers would give the BPA "an unrestricted hunting license to compete and take away Idaho Power customers."

Speaker at the final session was Noel Clark, of New York City, president of the National Association of Railroad and Utilities Commissioners.

Four Injured In Accident East of T.F.

Mrs. Charles Johnson Jr., Murtaugh, was listed in good condition Thursday in Magic Valley Memorial Hospital, where she was taken Wednesday afternoon after the pickup truck in which she was riding was struck broadside by a car.

Three other persons injured in the crash also were taken to the hospital, but were treated and released. The accident occurred about two miles east of Twin Falls on U. S. 30.

According to William Van Dyke, Idaho state patrolman, a 1965 Rambler driven by Karen Skeem, 17, Rock Creek, B.C., Canada, pulled out onto the highway and struck the 1955 Ford pickup truck driven by Ilene Murphy, 21, Murtaugh, in which Mrs. Johnson was riding. The Rambler struck the pickup truck on the left hand side, causing it to roll over on its left side. Denece Jensen, 16, Kimberly, was a passenger in the Skeem car.

Van Dyke said Miss Skeem was cited for failure to yield the right-of-way.

Idaho State Patrolmen Frank Mogensen and Marvin Snyder and deputy Sheriff Matt Vace assisted in the investigation.

allowed ourselves to be put in little boxes of conformity and dead similarity."

Referring to the song "Little Boxes," by Marivina Reynolds, he suggested the song "might be a good hymn for churchgoers to sing every Sunday."

"It also seems clear," Dr. Bucke pointed out, "that the modern churchman must face the realistic fact that good does not always win out over evil. No man can look with sanity at the present state of world tension and escape the bitter realism of the clash.

"There is no easy way out for good right now and none on the horizon for the tomorrows either," he concluded.

Rev. Earl Riddle, Twin Falls Methodist Church, presided at Wednesday evening worship services and the Twin Falls choir provided the music.

Official Bug

RALEIGH, N.C. (UPI)—A group of legislators, apparently with tongue in cheek, Wednesday introduced a resolution that would designate the "cimex lectularis" as the official state bug of North Carolina. Cimex lectularis is latin for bed bug.

The resolution was referred to a committee for extinction.

Chamber Eyes Future Events At Ketchum

KETCHUM — Ketchum-Sun Valley Chamber of Commerce members discussed seven important coming events at their regular meeting Wednesday afternoon in the new party room in the Sun Bowl.

Initial plans were made for Wagon Days and Robert Barnes, president, announced a special planning meeting for Thursday afternoon at the Alpine.

The U.S. Trailer Club meeting will be held here in August, with 500 to 800 persons expected to attend. The group will gather at the North Fork Store. The chamber will serve them a pancake breakfast.

Manager W. G. Pyrah read a letter from the Sports Car Association giving Oct. 9-10 as a definite date for its convention here.

Races again will be held on the black-top at Sun Valley.

A banquet will be held at the Trail Creek Lodge and a fish breakfast will be served at Warm Springs Ranch. Lodging will be at Ketchum motels.

A letter from the Mackey Chamber of Commerce suggested that the chambers there, at Arco, Carey, Richfield, Hailey and Ketchum form a Central Idaho Chamber of Commerce. Members voted to obtain more information on the subject before acting.

After hearing a letter read from Joseph Leggett of Sun Valley asking that the chamber repair signs along U.S. Highway 93 south of Ketchum which were defaced last winter, members voted to have this done.

They took under advisement Leggett's suggestion that all sign boards be taken down along the highway and an information center be established. Leggett advised that Sun Valley will help in this project.

In making final plans for the Fishermen's Breakfast Sunday morning, Mrs. Alice Evans, Grace Dewson and Mrs. Grace Munster volunteered to help and Ed Bennett offered to donate cookers and tables.

John Davies announced the Idaho Jaycees had accepted the invitation of the Wood River club to hold its convention at Sun Valley Oct. 15. It is expected that 600 members will attend.

Merwin Esterholdt said the Fourth District Wildlife Federation will meet in Ketchum in October.

After hearing an invitation read from the Twin Falls chamber, inviting officers to the June 3 meeting there, Pyrah was appointed to attend.

Walter Stivers, Twin Falls, a guest, said the chamber should place information concerning this section of the country at the Perrine Memorial Bridge, as many persons inquire about it.

Church Fetes Graduates At Banquet

BUHL — Senior and eighth grade graduates, members of the Calvary Assembly of God Church, were feted at a banquet held in the Roundup room of the Rogerson Hotel, Twin Falls, hosted by the Christ Ambassadors, the youth department of the church.

Seniors honored were William Patrick, Jr., Juanita Bartlett, Pat Garrison, Harley Bennett, Ricky Perkins, and Randy Perkins. Eighth grade graduates feted were Linda Garrison and Scott Fawcett.

Each graduate received a book of memories from the church department with Mrs. Leonard Owen, president, making the presentations.

Theme for the event was "I Can Do All Things Through Christ—Which Strengthens Me." Featured speaker was Rev. Phillip Hilliard, Chow Chilla, Calif., who used the subject, "Conquering Your World."

Rev. Edmond Rey, Portland, gave the invocation. George Duncan, pastor of the local congregation, served as master of ceremonies. Vocal selections were presented by Carolyn Briggs, Rupert, a former member of the King's Harvesters.

Breakfast

KETCHUM—Annual Fishermen's Breakfast, sponsored by the Ketchum-Sun Valley Chamber of Commerce, will be held in the parking lot of the Wooden Spur on Highway 93 on Ketchum's main street at 7 a.m. Sunday.

The event was erroneously reported planned for Saturday.

East-West Trade Reported Increasing in European Area

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP) — Businessmen from the West today are breaking down barriers between Eastern Europe and the West.

Everywhere they are finding the welcome sign out in a way not dreamed of two or three years ago.

Increasing East-West trade is only one of the signs of a reviving feeling among East Europeans that they again are a part of the world and not a segregated section of it.

Budapest is exhibiting its new view of advertising itself as "the center of Europe." That is intended to mean not East Europe but the whole of it. The country is so Western-oriented that visitors are hard put to find any real evidence that they are behind the Iron Curtain.

While such evidence exists, in Hungary and elsewhere, in this city you have to hunt for it. In Budapest are a half-dozen monuments to the Russian soldiers who died in the bitter battle to capture the city from the Germans. But the party slogans so ever-present in East Berlin are simply not found here.

You hardly ever see a Russian. One Budapest hotel recently was full of West German, French and English businessmen and a Spanish football team.

A small Soviet delegation spent a day or so there—and had to speak German to the hotel employees, who understand hardly a word of Russian. German is the prevailing foreign language here, despite 15 years of compulsory teaching of Russian.

These are among the outward signs of what appears to be a facing about of East European populations. With the exception of Bulgaria, whose people always had a deep sympathy for fellow Slavs in Russia, all East European states treasure and emphasize Western interests and backgrounds.

Romania has undertaken a "de-Russification" campaign that is almost comic in its thoroughness. The country has abolished compulsory teaching of Russian.

Buhl Man Is Injured in Auto Crash

BUHL—William Ambrose, 32, Buhl, is being treated at Magic Valley Memorial Hospital for possible back injuries as the result of a two-car collision at 8:20 a.m. Thursday at the intersection of 11th Ave. N. and Birch St.

The car Ambrose was driving west on Birch St. was struck broadside, according to Buhl police, by a 1950 International pickup truck driven by James L. Kimball, 16, Route 3, Buhl.

The Kimball youth told police he had stopped at a stop sign and then started out, failing to see the Ambrose car. Impact knocked the car onto a lawn and the truck came to rest facing the opposite direction it had been traveling.

Ambrose first was treated by a local physician, then taken by ambulance to the hospital. Kimball was not injured. Damages are undetermined, according to Police Chief Charles Burbank.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

WASHINGTON — Under President Lyndon Baines Johnson, the United States in the future will pay less attention to its image abroad and more attention to its interests abroad.
This is a President whose actions are not necessarily guided by the opinions or wishes of our allies. He wants to get along with them naturally, but where national security is involved he is not deterred by their disapproval of any action he believes proper and necessary.
Thus, in the Dominican intervention, the President felt he had to act regardless of how the allies reacted. American lives were endangered by a state of anarchy, and he felt it was his responsibility to protect them. His attitude now is that our troops will be withdrawn when the country finds a government that can keep order. He will do everything possible to resist the establishment of a Castro-sponsored Communist regime.

FOLLOWS LINCOLN'S IDEA—The President is well aware of the vigorous criticism, here and abroad, of his policies in the Dominican Republic and in Viet Nam. But he has learned not to lose his Texas temper about them. Hanging on the wall of his office are framed quotations from Abraham Lincoln and Edmund Burke which Lyndon Johnson feels sums up his attitude toward his critics.
Lincoln's words are familiar to most Americans: "If I were to try to read, much less answer, all the attacks made on me, this shop might as well be closed for any other business. I do the very best I know how—they very best I can; and I mean to keep doing so until the end. If the end brings me out all right, what is said against me won't amount to anything. If the end brings me out wrong, 10 angels swearing I was right would make no difference."

CONFIDENT OF INSIDE KNOWLEDGE—It is possible that Burke's words are more to Johnson's liking for he is a man confident that he knows things his critics don't. He must read with particular relish Burke's dictum that "Those who would carry on great public schemes must be proof against . . . the presumptuous judgment of the ignorant upon their design." Johnson is fond of telling friends he is "too busy" trying to get ahead to try to get even" with his critics.
Visitors are impressed with Johnson's pride in fulfilling his obligations to American interests. When he sent planes in to rescue Americans from the chaotic Congo, some advisers told him he was "killing" himself in Africa. Johnson's retort was explosive—he pointed out that on the contrary it was Americans who were being killed in the Congo and he had to rescue them; he'd worry about our image in Africa when he'd saved those American lives.

The President likewise is proud of his record in dealing with Latin-American crises. He feels he was right in not sending in troops when Castro shut off the water to our Guantanamo naval base. He believes it was far more effective to build that desalination plant and thereby deprive the Cuban dictator of $5 million a year in water sales to the base.
During the Panama crisis, some of the President's advisers suggested that a new treaty be negotiated as a means of persuading the Panama government to halt anti-American demonstrations. Lyndon Johnson told them hell no, he wasn't going to bribe anybody. Shortly of course, the regime there agreed to settle for a U.S. offer to study the present treaty with a view toward its revision.

Reviewing such decisions, Lyndon Johnson shrugs off any temptation to gloat by recalling still another quotation, this one from Elijah Cooke, who noted that "Success will have many shareholders, but failure will be the sole property of the man responsible."

Views of Others

FAIR GAME FOR SPECULATORS?
The federal government should retain possession of the rifle that killed President Kennedy if only to keep it out of the hands of ghoulish speculators. There are other reasons. But this one is sufficiently persuasive to justify passage of a bill to be proposed by the Justice Department.

It was reported yesterday that the department is drafting a measure which would empower the government to place in the national archives any evidence in the Lee Harvey Oswald case, the retention of which the attorney general believes to be in the public interest. This presumably would include not only the rifle, but also the pistol that killed Patrolman J. D. Tippitt. The firearms would be kept not for display but as evidence in a case that cannot yet be considered closed. As one department spokesman said, "We want it always to be in hands responsible to the government, so that no questions as to its authenticity can be raised. If, for instance, the investigation is ever reopened."

Oswald's widow, Marina, who is the executrix of her husband's estate, would of course be compensated for any of his belongings which the government elected to impound. She said some time ago that she had been offered $10,000 for the rifle by a gun collector, and, considering the competition among the dealers in such things, she probably could get even more.
Mrs. Oswald doubtless could use the money, but few Americans are likely to relish the idea of this horrible instrument becoming the material for a bustling trade in morbidity. There should be no profit in murder, even in the murder of a president.—Lewiston Tribune.

SETBACK FOR HOFFA
A taxicab driver may appear a bit out of place in the Seafarers International Union. But Chicago cab drivers voted almost two-to-one last week for the SIU-affiliated Democratic Union Organizing Committee in preference to Jimmy Hoffa's Teamsters Union.
The vote in the National Labor Relations Board election to determine the bargaining agent for the 6,000 drivers and garage employees was a severe setback for Hoffa, whose union spent $250,000 to win the election. It was a distinct victory for George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO, who backed the SIU affiliate which spent only $50,000.
Perhaps Hoffa's tactics and reputation are getting through to the rank and file. The SIU cab drivers' local has been held up as a democratic organization, in contrast to the dictatorial and frequently crime-connected Teamsters.
Apparently Hoffa made little impression on the cab drivers when he visited Chicago to support Joey Climco, president of the Teamsters taxicab local. Climco is under federal indictment for allegedly accepting an expensive foreign automobile and other gifts from an employer under contract with his union. Hoffa himself is appealing two federal court convictions and two prison sentences and fines.
If the members whose dues give Hoffa his power decide he is not the right man to represent them, he eventually will be through, regardless of the outcome of his trials. The Chicago vote indicates there may be such an anti-Hoffa trend.—The Oregonian.

POT SHOTS
MATTER OF PRINCIPLE!
Dear Sir:
Give a cheer for the Twin Falls man who broke off a date with a local beauty when he discovered she was all set to anoint down the aisle with someone else.
Seems the girl in the case has a way of attracting boys, but even though her wedding day was approaching, she didn't figure there was anything wrong with having a few parting dates. So she had two dates lined up a mere week before the pending wedding—to a third guy! One of the dates discovered it and phoned to inquire if it were true.
Whereupon the gal said something like, "Yes, but what difference does that make? After all, I'm not married yet!"
It seems the fellow thought it was a matter of principle and besides that, he was danged if he was going to spend money on a gal who planned to marry someone else!

Religion In America
By LOUIS CASSELS
(United Press International)
Only a year or two ago, it was a rare spectacle to find a clergyman toting a picket sign. Today it's commonplace for ministers, priests and rabbis to participate in protest demonstrations.
Racial justice is most frequently the cause which brings clergymen into the streets. But they also are beginning to use direct action methods to register their views on other issues, ranging from the war in Viet Nam to the location of a new express highway.
This trend is regarded with unqualified horror by conservative church members who believe that a preacher's place is in the pulpit, talking about "religion" in the narrow sense of private piety.
But other Americans—including many who haven't been to church in years—have been heartened to see men of God risk imprisonment or worse to bear witness to their moral convictions. It is probably no exaggeration to say that the willingness of clergymen to put their own bodies on the line in the fight against racial discrimination has done more to rescue religious institutions from the charge of being irrelevant to the real problems of secular society than any development of our time.
When all that has been said, however, a question remains, even in the minds of men of proved devotion to religious social action, as to whether there is not the danger of overdoing a good thing.
"Demonstrations are sometimes necessary to arouse the conscience of a community," said the Rev. Jay Moore, director of community action for the Religion and Race Commission of the National Council of Churches. "But we must not fall into the error of looking upon direct action as the only tool for bringing about social change. There are many other things that need to be done that are perhaps not as exciting as marching in the streets, but which may do more good in the long run."
They'll knock the hell out of anything that can be sent against us over here," said the battery commander, Capt. Everett Cowley, 33, Quincy, Mass.
The battery, whose theme song is "On Top of Old Dusty," is stationed on the flat peak of one of the highest hills in the Da Nang area. The road up it is one long river of hubcap-deep mud.
It isn't that way all year round, however. When the rainy season starts the road will become a river of mud.
The view from the top of Hill 327, where the long slender Hawk missiles lie poised in their launchers like nested horns, is hauntingly beautiful. In one direction stretches the watery waste of the South China Sea over which white cloud towers float in slow and timeless majesty. Between the sea and the base of the hill lie the city of Da Nang and its vital air base.
In the other direction lie a valley and rugged hills from whose green hill Marine patrols are tortuously and painstakingly flushing the tenacious Viet Cong. The loveliness of the hills hides the menace of the ambushing enemy.
The battery's position conceivably is vulnerable to mortar attack. It is guarded by sandbags and barbed wire and a company of Marine infantrymen. But the missilemen themselves also pull sentry duty, man outpost holes and pile up more sandbag barricades.
The heart of the battery is its small, well-hidden command central. The darkened room is

MARQUIS CHILDS WRITES ON WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON — In Bolivia's fog-shrouded capital of La Paz, 11,000 feet above sea level, the alarm bell is ringing. While it can be ignored for a time, Latin-American observers who know their Hemisphere are convinced that before too long it will reverberate far and wide.
The situation is in some respects remarkably like that which preceded the rebellion in the Dominican Republic. But it is more complex, with the long-term odds in favor of a civil war that could spill rivers of blood over months or even years. Moreover, because of Bolivia's position so close to the heartland of Latin America a civil war could flood over into vulnerable neighboring states. The Dominican Republic is, after all, an island that can be insulated by American air and naval power.

The State Department is less pessimistic about Bolivia than are Latin observers close to hemispheric problems. The belief in the department is that the current dictator, Rene Barrientos Ortuño, former chief of the Bolivian Air Force, has support among the peasantry and will be able, with a judicious use of force, to keep the mine workers and discontented city dwellers from open revolt. It must be added, however, that American diplomats in Santo Domingo and in Washington were unprepared for the timing of the Dominican explosion.

There is agreement that the three left-wing parties in Bolivia have come under the domination of a pro-Chinese Communist faction. A united command grew out of meetings in mid-April centered in the Twentieth Century Mine and the militant, armed-to-the-teeth union that is in control. The three parties are the Leftist Socialists of Juan center of reform Judaism, was one of the first clergymen to fly to Selma, Ala., when the Rev. Martin Luther King appealed for help there, emphasized that he was not discounting the value of direct action techniques. But he said:

"Even as we continue to stand on picket lines, we must not confuse demands for change with change itself. Even as we continue to engage in direct action programs outside the framework of religious institutions, we must not lose sight of our primary responsibility, which is to make better human beings of our own adherents."

This same cycle of revolt and despair and revolt again repeats itself over and over in Latin America. Why? One reason, in the view of a knowledgeable Latin observer who witnessed the Cuban cycle at firsthand, is the almost-complete lack of individuals trained in management and administration, to say nothing of the essential technologies.
"If the Alliance for Progress is to mean anything," this observer remarked the other day, "it should be built around a massive effort—to massive—to train personnel to run a big modern enterprise. Without training nothing is possible. Good will is all very well. But without managers and administrators it is of no avail."
On Cuba, "the source of infection," as members of congress refer to it, an interesting question is: If there were no export of subversion and sabotage from Havana, would the threat of communism in such desperate countries as Bolivia be negligible? Clearly, a yes or no answer is impossible. But communism thrives on indigenous soil where dire poverty is the rule and where oppression and brutality have left deeply rooted blood hatreds.
As for Cuba, observers had begun to hope that a powerful force within the country grounded in deep discontent with dictatorship was building up to overthrow Castro. The Dominican crisis checked that hope, since it gave Castro an overwhelming propaganda weapon. These are some of the lessons written large in recent events.

HILL 327, South Viet Nam (AP)—They kept a lively vigil on a hot and dusty hill for a meeting with the enemy that may never come.
They are the four officers and 87 enlisted men of a U.S. Marines Hawk missile battery.
They are learning the hard way that war more often is boring and monotonous than dangerous and exciting, and that the thing you do most in any war is simply to wait.
The job they have to do is to knock out of the sky with their ground-to-air missiles any enemy planes that threaten the huge Da Nang air base.
The men have great confidence in their weapon. In training for their present mission they found the Hawks effective in bringing down drone aircraft used as targets at their base on Okinawa.
"They'll knock the hell out of anything that can be sent against us over here," said the battery commander, Capt. Everett Cowley, 33, Quincy, Mass.
The battery, whose theme song is "On Top of Old Dusty," is stationed on the flat peak of one of the highest hills in the Da Nang area. The road up it is one long river of hubcap-deep mud.
It isn't that way all year round, however. When the rainy season starts the road will become a river of mud.
The view from the top of Hill 327, where the long slender Hawk missiles lie poised in their launchers like nested horns, is hauntingly beautiful. In one direction stretches the watery waste of the South China Sea over which white cloud towers float in slow and timeless majesty. Between the sea and the base of the hill lie the city of Da Nang and its vital air base.
In the other direction lie a valley and rugged hills from whose green hill Marine patrols are tortuously and painstakingly flushing the tenacious Viet Cong. The loveliness of the hills hides the menace of the ambushing enemy.
The battery's position conceivably is vulnerable to mortar attack. It is guarded by sandbags and barbed wire and a company of Marine infantrymen. But the missilemen themselves also pull sentry duty, man outpost holes and pile up more sandbag barricades.
The heart of the battery is its small, well-hidden command central. The darkened room is

If you look at all the cards, you will see that West holds the singleton king of hearts and that spades don't break. It looks like a case of one peek being worth a lot more than two finesses but Hal plucked that king just as easily as if he had looked in his opponent's hand.
It was all a matter of counting. He started by noting that West held exactly two spades. Next came the parade of diamonds and when West showed out on the third diamond lead, Hal had counted exactly 12 of his cards and knew that the other one was a heart.
On the last diamond lead East had to discard down to one heart in order to hang on to the jack of spades. Hal discarded his deuce of spades and made the last two tricks with the ace and queen of hearts without caring about the location of the king.

More Recreation

The native Idahoan is a spoiled individual when it comes to hunting and fishing. He has enjoyed the best and most varied hunting available in the nation. Whenever he talks about fishing, he just naturally means trout fishing and is prone to dismiss any other type of fish as "trash." If something besides a trout should happen to snag itself on his hook, it has a good chance of landing high and dry on the bank along with suckers, chubs or carp. The native (Idahoan, not trout) has only two classifications of fish, namely, trout and trash.

So there may have been some loud snorts and depreciating talk from native Idahoans when the Fish and Game Department announced it is planting catfish in Snake River. Those unfortunate individuals who were born and raised elsewhere, perhaps in the Midwest, may have cheered the news. The catfish probably provides more recreation for more persons than any other species, including trout so dear to the heart of the native Idahoan.

If all boils down to the fact that the Fish and Game Department obviously is attempting to provide as much recreation as possible for a wide variety of fishermen. No one has ever claimed that Snake River has reached its full potential as a fishery. In fact, there are many dyed-in-Idaho fishermen who have never wet a line in the stream merely because Snake River contains so many rough fish. All this may change if and when catfish become adapted to the river.

Certainly that increasing segment of the population moving here from other parts of the nation will be looking forward to catching catfish again. And there's always a chance that introduction of catfish will improve Snake River possibilities sometime in the future. It's even possible that the native Idahoan, who wouldn't know a catfish from a bass (or any other variety of trash fish), might get around to admitting there's something besides trout. You'll be able to identify him quickly if you ever spot him trying his luck for catfish; he'll be among those who fish at night!

EXAMPLE OF COURAGE

Anyone feeling particularly sorry for himself might find strength in the example of courage displayed by Patricia Neal, the actress who was hit by three massive strokes last Feb. 17. For days she was near death and it was widely assumed she could never be more than a cripple. Everyone thought it was the end of a brilliant acting career that already had brought her an Academy Award before the age of 29. Three months later, the English actress held a news conference, appearing with a patch over her left eye and a brace on her right leg.

"I'll be back to work in a year," she declared. She expects a baby in late July or early August and perhaps her pregnancy could have been a big factor in a speedy recovery, a subconscious desire to give the child every chance. Regardless of the factors, Patricia Neal has made a remarkable recovery when she could have abandoned hope. Many individuals have given up in bouts with illness far less serious than the three massive strokes experienced by the actress.

Those who run into adversity, whether illness or misfortune, should always keep in mind the situation could be worse. Above all, no one should abandon hope, as Patricia Neal has demonstrated so well.

GREAT BENEFITS, IF . . .

Dr. Edward Teller, professor of physics at the University of California, predicts great benefits from nuclear energy. He includes such heretofore "dreams" as modifying jungles, cheap electricity and control of weather, just for starters. Dr. Teller anticipates man will be able to control weather before the end of the century. But there's a fly in the ointment of thoughts about all these grand benefits. The fly is man and his seeming inability to get along with his fellow man.

Dr. Teller advocates world government as a means of avoiding future wars. If his prescription for world peace is the correct procedure, it is obvious that many men are not ready to accept it. Nationalists everywhere bristle at the mere mention of a world government.

Undoubtedly great benefits can be expected from nuclear energy if its development parallels that of the gasoline motor and electricity. Nuclear energy is barely 20 years old and it must be assumed great discoveries still await future research. Everyone can just hope men don't succeed in destroying themselves before they can taste Utopia.

The Doctor Says

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M. D.

Love may make the world go around—but where would we be without vitamins? We would be in a bad way, as anyone who has had any of the vitamin-deficiency diseases can tell you. Ascorbic acid (vitamin C) is the vitamin that is found in citrus fruits, berries, tomatoes, cabbage and other green vegetables. It is essential for healthy teeth, gums, bones and blood vessels.
A deficiency of this vitamin causes scurvy, a disease which causes the gums to bleed and become sore. Unless it is promptly treated, the teeth become loose and are lost. The skin becomes red and dry and small hemorrhages in the skin result in black and blue spots. The bones become weakened and when they break they do not heal.
Before vitamins were known, it was discovered in the British navy that sucking limes prevented scurvy and British seamen have been called limesavers ever since. Vitamin C is water-soluble and so no poisoning occurs when large amounts are taken. As with all water-soluble vitamins, it is not stored in the body, so you must get some of it every day.

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M. D.

Vitamin D is necessary for strong teeth and bones. Without it, calcium and phosphorus are not used by the body. It is found in fortified milk, cod liver oil and egg yolk. The body also makes its own supply when the skin is exposed to sunlight. This vitamin is especially important in children to prevent rickets, manifested chiefly by bowing of the legs. Since this is a fat-soluble vitamin like vitamin A, it can be stored in the liver. Too large a dose can cause poisoning which is characterized by loss of appetite, weakness, peevishness, constipation and vomiting.
Vitamin K is found in leafy vegetables. The bacteria normal to the intestinal tract also manufactures it for us as a public service. It is necessary for normal clotting of the blood, hence it is sometimes used to check hemorrhage.
There are several other vitamins of lesser importance, and the importance of which has not yet been fully determined. One of these—vitamin E—will be the subject of tomorrow's column.

Erhard Will Press for Reunification

By WILFRIED SALIGER — KONN, Germany (UPI) — Chancellor Ludwig Erhard said yesterday he will continue to press for German reunification through its alliance with the United States.

In an exclusive interview with the Associated Press after the division of Germany, his Christian Democratic coalition government will keep pushing for what he said would be made to progress West Germany and the one-third of the nation under Communist control.

He admitted, however, that in view of the unchanged rigid attitude of the Soviets, there is hardly a prospect for practical solutions within the near future.

In view of the continued Communist threat, Erhard made it clear, he still supports the U.S.-sponsored multilateral nuclear force (MLF), which would give American nuclear arms.

France rejects the MLF because it believes it would give the United States too great a role in European defense.

Erhard said that somehow a solution must be found to the twin problems of matching the threat posed by Soviet medium-range missiles aimed at Western Europe, and of letting the European members of NATO share in its nuclear planning and strategy.

Two Rights Leaders Face Libel Suits

NEW YORK (UPI) — Civil Rights leaders Martin Luther King and James Farmer today faced multi-million-dollar libel suits filed by a city police lieutenant involved in a shooting which sparked last summer's race riots here.

Police Lt. Thomas R. Gilligan, concentrated of criminal liability in the fatal shooting of a 15-year-old Negro boy last July, filed the suits in State Supreme Court yesterday through his attorney, Roy M. Cohn.

One of the two suits filed named King, Farmer, the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) which Farmer heads, Jesse Gray, the Progressive Labor Movement and its chairman, William Epton; the Tri-Line Off-Set Co. and its president, Michael Crenovic.

The $3.75 million suit accused the men and organizations of conspiring to damage Gilligan's name and reputation by printing and distributing leaflets depicting him as a murderer.

The leaflets in question appeared on the streets shortly after Gilligan shot James Powell on Manhattan's East Side across the street from a junior-high school where the youth was a summer student.

The leaflets carried a picture of Gilligan with the legend: "Wanted for murder — Gilligan the Cop."

The other suit for $1.5 million accused Farmer and Core for wrongfully saying that Gilligan "presently is in a mental institution receiving treatment."

The second suit also contended that Farmer wrongfully called for Gilligan's arrest on murder charges.

A grand jury and the police department review board absolved Gilligan of blame in the shooting which grew out of a dispute involving Powell, several other schoolboys and a building superintendent.

Gilligan claimed Powell came at him with a knife before he shot the boy.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Western Air Lines has reported earnings resulting in a three-cent a share increase for April.

The airline said Wednesday it earned a net profit of $854,000, or 20 cents a share, three higher than last year.

Easter travel was credited for the April increase which enabled the firm to net $3.26 million, or 76 cents a share, during the four-month period ending April 30.

The total, however, was below last year's record quarterly net of $4.25 million, or 99 cents a share.

Blaine Museum to Open Friday

HAILEY—The Blaine County Historical Museum will open its doors to the public at 10 a.m. Friday.

Mrs. L. F. Heagle, chairman of the museum board, and Mrs. L. E. Outz, director, have spent the past several days cataloguing the many new articles which have been donated.

The museum will be open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Wednesdays through Sundays during the summer. Mrs. W. D. Ellway, who will be in charge, said parties wishing to visit the museum Mondays or Tuesdays may do so by special appointment.

Admission charge is 25 cents per person, with children under 12 years free, if accompanied by an adult.

Among these is the wedding gown Mrs. Marjorie Jensen's mother wore when she was married in 1908. The gown is a picturesque black gown worn by Vivian Weber, one of this valley's best dressed young women of that same era.

An 11 1/2 pound trout caught by Jess Stitt in the Big Wood River will be on view.

An interesting display of arrowheads and early-day artifacts by Joe Glahn, Bellevue, also will be shown for the first time.

A huge wagon wheel from the former Chaney ranch, now owned by K. F. Hellyer, was donated and is being placed near the entrance, in keeping with the large oxbow on the north front of the building.

Heat for the building is from the pot-bellied stove which heated the Kilpatrick store at Pica in the early days, and was donated by L. N. Purdy, grandson of W. H. Kilpatrick, one of the three brothers who built the railroad from Shoshone to Ketchum.

Purdy now operates the former Kilpatrick cattle ranch on Silver Creek and owns the modern Silver Creek Supply store there.

Boyer named as defendants five present members of the Shoshone Tribal Council, Alan Lindore, Herbert Le Clair, Layton L. Littlejohn, Kislair Edmo and Mary Matie.

Pastor Given Ecumenical Affairs Post
CHICAGO (AP) — Rev. Dr. Robert W. Houston, 44, of West Newton, Mass., Wednesday was elected the first full-time executive of the Methodist Church in the field of ecumenical relations.

Dr. Houston, senior minister of Newtonville (Mass.) Methodist Church, will serve as general secretary of the commission on ecumenical affairs.

The commission was created in 1964 by the General Conference of the Methodist Church to function in the field of inter-church contacts. Dr. Houston's election was announced by Bishop Francis Gerald Ensley of Columbus, Ohio, chairman of the commission. Dr. Houston will begin his new duties in June, Bishop Ensley said.

Soviet Paper To Get New Editor Soon
MOSCOW (UPI) — The government newspaper Izvestia will have a new editor-in-chief soon, informed sources said today.

Vladimir Stepanov, the current editor, is returning to his old job as chief of the Communist party Central Committee's ideological section on agriculture.

Stepanov succeeded Alexi Adzhubel, former Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's son-in-law.

It was understood that Stepanov's appointment to the Izvestia post was an interim one, precipitated by Adzhubel's sudden removal when Khrushchev fell from power in the Kremlin last October.

The sources said the two most likely candidates to succeed Stepanov are Nikolai Mikhailov, former ambassador to Indonesia, as minister of culture, and Vladimir Subbotin, chief of the Moscow section of the union of Soviet journalists.

Stacey L. Ollieu Paid Last Honor

RICHFIELD — Funeral for Stacey Lee Ollieu was held Wednesday at the Bergin Funeral Chapel, Shoshone, with Rev. Ralph R. Fothergill, Richfield Methodist minister, officiating.

The Richfield Methodist Women's quartet sang with Mrs. C. M. Pridmore as piano accompanist.

Pallbearers were Clifford Burgess and Gary Hubsmith, both Jerome, James Flavel and Udell Robinson, both Richfield.

Concluding rites were held in the Richfield cemetery.

JEROME EXCHANGE student, Carlos Jose Gutierrez, was presented a gift by Mrs. L. V. Ruebel, student family relations chairman for the Jerome chapter of the American Field Service, at a dinner honoring the youth Tuesday night at Wood's Cafe. After being graduated from Jerome High School Thursday night and attending Boys' State June 6-13 at Boise, he will leave for Valdivia, Chile, during the later part of June. (Times-News photo)

American Field Service at Jerome Honors Student

JEROME — Jerome chapter of the American Field Service held its last formal chapter meeting of the year at Wood Cafe Tuesday night, honoring Carlos Jose Gutierrez, the 1965 exchange student.

Introductions were made by Ernest Coupe, chapter president, who presented Mrs. L. V. Ruebel, chairman of student family relations and incoming president; George James, treasurer; August Hein, school principal; Pat Young, school adviser; Alex Schafer, projects chairman; Virginia Ricketts, secretary; Emma Coupe, publicity; William Last, Americans Abroad coordinator, and Cathy Fleming, student representative.

Gutierrez spoke on his experiences during the past year, stating his biggest difficulty was the language barrier for the first month or two.

Because it was necessary for him to ask people to repeat what they had said, sometimes two or three times before he could translate, they began generally to feel he was hard of hearing. Sometimes the conversations became quite loud before the other party realized it wasn't his hearing that was impaired, but his difficulty with the English, he recalled.

He stated that he found the greatest difference in the schools is that here there are not nearly as many subjects, which he feels is the reason for boredom among students, studying the same subjects day after day.

Another difference is that nearly everyone works, including students.

While in Jerome he learned how to dance, ski and surf, although he was still wearing a cast on his wrist following an episode at Shoshone Falls while surfing.

During Easter vacation, his host parents, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Parker, took him to San Francisco and other California towns. After the close of school an excursion is planned to Yellowstone Park before his departure for home, sometime during June.

Gutierrez will be a guest of Gem Boys' State at Boise Junior College, June 6-13. He will receive his diploma at commencement exercises Thursday night at Jerome High School.

Mrs. Ernest Coupe presented Gutierrez with a gift on behalf of the Jerome chapter and Mrs. L. V. Ruebel presented him with a book entitled "Idaho," explaining to him that he would be "our personal representative."

Ernest Coupe, president, said the name of the 1966 foreign exchange student will be announced.

RESERVOIRS ARE TARGET ON OPENING DAY

Snowed-in, Mired Roads And High Water Will Curtail Stream Fishing

Snowed-in and mired roads and high water in most streams will put the emphasis on reservoir fishing Saturday morning when the 1965 general fishing season opens across Magic Valley. In speaking of reservoirs, the two big Ms, Magic and Mackay, are expected to bear the brunt of the pressure but also produce the best yields. There will be other impoundments, such as Roseworth and Dog Creek reservoirs, that will provide good success but Magic and Mackay figure to be the big ones.

Surprise Bunt Heads Pirates Over Phillies

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A surprise two-out bunt by pinch hitter Manny Mota in the seventh inning scored Andre Rodgers with the tie-breaking run that headed Pittsburgh toward a 5-3 victory over Philadelphia Wednesday night.

Reliever Jack Baldschun had come on with two outs and runners at first and third and the score tied 3-3.

Mota dumped a bunt toward third, which neither Baldschun nor third baseman Richie Allen could handle and Rodgers scored. Rodgers opened the inning with a double and moved to third on a fly ball.

Angels Edge Solons 2-1 on Late Single

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Los Angeles Angels, held to one hit for eight innings by Pete Richert, scored in the ninth on Jim Fregosi's single off reliever Benny Daniels and edged Washington 2-1 Wednesday night.

Daniels took over at the start of the ninth and was touched for the winning run when Jose Cardenal singled, stole second and scored on Fregosi's single to left field.

Daniels came on when Richert tired because of the heat. He had allowed only one hit—a homer by Joe Adcock in the fourth inning—and struck out 10 while allowing only one other base runner. Julio Gotay reached base on an error in the third.

New Faces Expected for All-Star Game; Mays, Torre Favored to Repeat

NEW YORK (UPI)—Plenty of new faces are likely to show up in the starting lineups for baseball's annual major league All-Star Game next July.

Many of last year's starters are lagging or injured, leaving only Willie Mays of San Francisco and Joe Torre of Milwaukee as hot favorites to repeat.

They're the only '64 starters currently out-slugging all rivals at their regular positions although it's possible American League voters will latch onto Brooks Robinson of Baltimore and Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees no matter how they're going at voting time.

Orlando Cepeda of the Giants and Ron Hunt of the New York Mets, starters at first and second a year ago, are on the shelf with injuries. So is Elston Howard of the Yankees, starting American League catcher a year ago.

The others will need a sharp upturn at bat to oust newcomers and streaking veterans who were out of the running a year ago.

Gordie Coleman of Cincinnati, batting better than .400 earlier this week, holds the edge at the moment in the scramble for Cepeda's first base job with Eddie Kranepool of the Mets and Ernie Banks of the Cubs as contenders.

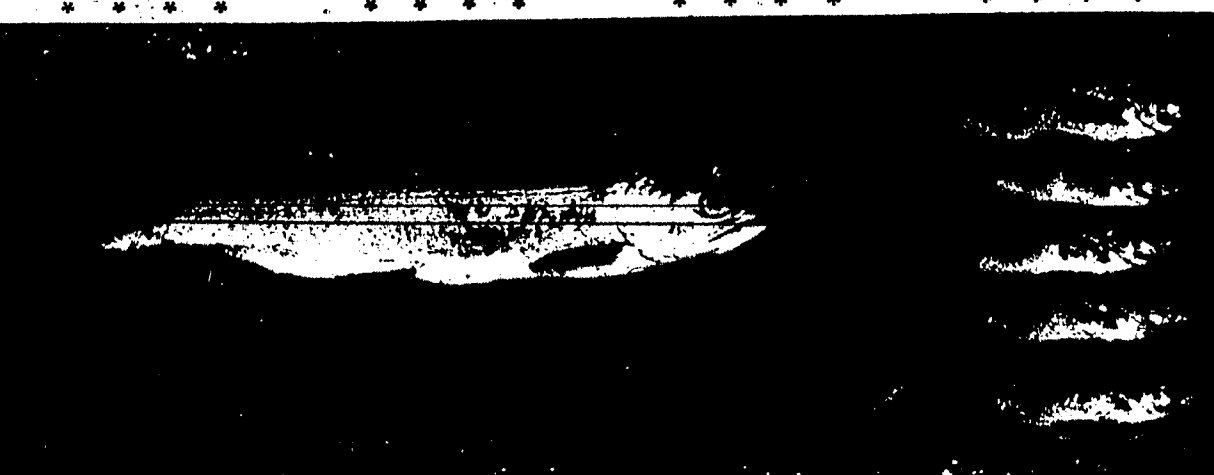

Pete Rose of Cincinnati and Frank Bolling of the Braves are second base leaders with Hunt out of it.

Ken Boyer of St. Louis, last year's NL starter at third, will get a battle from Richie Allen of the Phillies and Ron Santo of the Cubs. Leo Cardenas of Cincinnati, nosed out at short last year by Dick Groat of the Cards, may do the nosing this time around.

Billy Williams of the Cubs, last year's starter in left for the Nationals, faces a fight from rookie Alex Johnson of the Phils. Mays figures to win-center in a breeze and Hank Aaron of Milwaukee is a good bet to displace Roberto Clements of Pittsburgh in right.

With Howard out of action, Earl Battey of Minnesota is the best bet for AL catching duties but Bill Freehan of Detroit has been moving up in recent days.

Bob Allison of the Twins, first base starter last year, now is an outfielder and may give

PROMISE AND REMINDER of what Magic Reservoir holds for fishermen this year and in the future is pointed up by these two photos. At the top, the ruler shows the length of the fingerling planted two years ago (top fish) and last spring. These and their thousands of cousins are expected to make Magic the top trout producer in Magic Valley Saturday when the general season opens. Bottom photo shows ratio of trout to perch, indicating days of the reservoir being Magic Valley's trout showcase are numbered. Last year 32,000 trout were taken on opening weekend. ### Campaneris Leads A's Over Orioles

BALTIMORE (AP) — Bert Campaneris drove in three runs with a homer and a squeeze bunt Wednesday night and led the Kansas City Athletics to a 6-3 victory over the Baltimore Orioles.

Campaneris' first homer of the season followed a single by pitcher Diego Segui in the fifth and tied the score 3-3.

Two batters later, Jim Gentile's 10th homer put the A's ahead to stay and finished Oriole starter Robin Roberts, who lost his fifth straight after winning four in a row.

Segui, who had only one previous hit, collected three singles which contributed to all three Kansas City rallies.

Indians Rally In Seventh To Down Sox

CHICAGO (AP) — Chico Salmon's two-out double triggered a three-run rally in the seventh inning that gave Cleveland a 3-1 victory over the slumping Chicago White Sox Wednesday night.

The loss, their sixth in the last seven games, dropped the White Sox from the American League lead. Minnesota moved into first place by seven percentage points with a 9-7 triumph over Boston.

Luis Tiant held Chicago to five hits, earning his third victory against two defeats. He faced only 16 men in the first five innings, giving up only a second-inning single to Pete Ward.

Gary Peters, 44, got the first two Indians out in the seventh, but Salmon rapped a double to left-center field and scored on Chuck Hinton's single.

Hinton raced to third as Rocky Colavito singled and came home on Max Alvis' double. Colavito also scored on the play when left fielder Danny Cater fumbled the ball.

Tiger-Yankee Game Postponed

Spokesmen for the Tigers said the game would be re-scheduled as part of a two-night double-header later in the season.

Cardinals Nip Koufax and Dodgers 2-1

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Julian Javier singled home a tie-breaking run in the seventh inning Wednesday night, giving Curt Simmons and the St. Louis Cardinals a 2-1 victory over Sandy Koufax and the Los Angeles Dodgers.

The loss snapped a three-game winning streak for Koufax, who gave up successive two-out singles to Bob Uecker and Simmons before Javier hit his decisive single in the seventh. Koufax now is 6-3.

The Cards scored their first run in the opening inning after Lou Brock and Curt Flood hit singles and worked a double steal. Brock scored on Ken Boyer's sacrifice fly.

Altman Lifts Chicago Past Mets by 8-6

NEW YORK (AP) — Pinch hitter George Altman rapped a two-run homer in the 10th inning, lifting the Chicago Cubs past the New York Mets 8-6 Wednesday night.

Altman, traded from the Mets to the Cubs last winter, connected off Dennis Ribant, fifth New York pitcher, with one out had singled and stolen second was on base. The homer was Altman's fourth of the year.

The Mets had knocked Chicago starter Dick Ellsworth in a two-run sixth-inning rally that tied the score 6-6. Ed Kraepohl's pinch hit single off reliever Ted Abernathy drove in the tying run.

The teams traded three-run opening innings before the Cubs shot in front 6-3 on Vic Roznovsky's three-run homer in the third. The Mets scored a run in the fourth on a base on balls. Roy McMillan's single and sacrifice fly by Charlie Smith.

Shoemaker Is Suspended

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (UPI)—Jockey Willie Shoemaker, who had his biggest day of the Hollywood Park meeting Tuesday, was suspended for five racing days by the track's board of stewards.

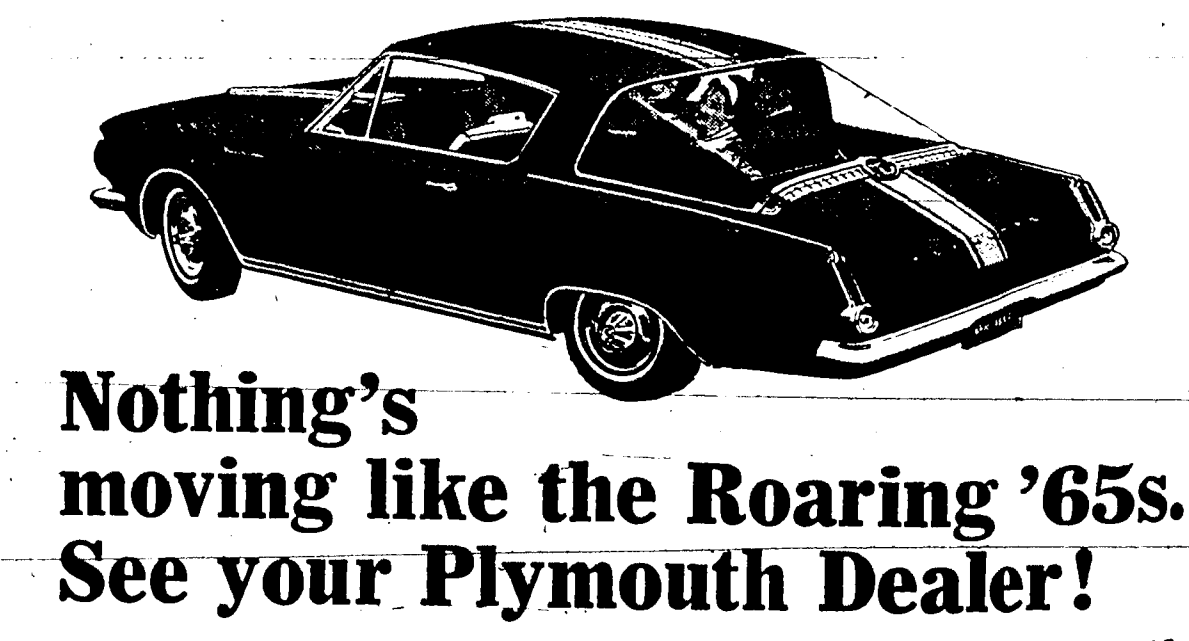

Shoemaker scored four victories, but the suspension was on a horse that missed by a head, Ground Attack, in the first race. The stewards decided that Shoemaker crossed over too sharply on other horses, causing interference.

Two Controversies Rage Over Fight as Probe Is Asked Into Entire Sport

LEWISTON, Maine (UPI) — Two separate controversies raged Wednesday over Cassius Clay's record knockout victory over Sonny Liston while the heavyweight champion toyed with the idea of giving George Chuvalo the next shot at his title.

Dempsey, Tunney Hit Clay-Liston Fight

NEW YORK (AP) — "This is the worst, most offensive debasement of boxing that I've ever seen or even read about," Gene Tunney said. "Maybe the federal government will act now. Boxing is going from bad to worse. It's gotten to be a joke."

Jack Dempsey said, "The district attorney Garrett Byrne of Boston and all the officials of Massachusetts who were in any way active in preventing the fight from taking place in their state are to be congratulated."

Former New York State Boxing Commissioner Jim Farley Sr. Stunned by the strangeness of Cassius Clay's one-round knockout of Sonny Liston, boxing's most prominent citizens condemned Wednesday the principle of Tuesday night's heavyweights in championship bout in Lewiston, Maine, and joined a petition for Federal supervision of the sport.

Tunney, former world heavyweight champion, was the most caustic in his denunciation of the fighters and most vehement in his demands for government action.

"I wish Jack Dempsey and I could go back and take on those two," he said in an interview with Bob Considine in the New York Journal-American. "I was particularly offended at the presence in the ring of the U.S. Marine Corps guard and the playing of the Star Spangled Banner at an event involving two completely reprehensible characters like the fellow who calls himself Muhammad Ali and this fellow, Liston."

Tunney, who witnessed the fight on television, said he refused to stand when the piped version of the national anthem came over the screen.

"Our anthem means too much to me to see it debased like this," said Tunney, a former Marine.

"I'll never go back to a heavyweight title fight as long as it's conducted under conditions that produce a Clay and a Liston."

Tunney said that Liston went down from a punch "that would not have floored a baby" and in his opinion, it was a "badly arranged knockout."

Dempsey, who lost his title to Tunney nearly 40 years ago, said he did not see the fight but had read about it.

"From the looks of it, I don't like it," he said. "The federal government should waste no time appointing a commission to run boxing on a national level."

"It is the only thing that can save boxing," said the Manassa Mauler. "It's going from bad to worse. It's gotten to be a joke."

Farley joined Tunney and Dempsey in a plea for government supervision.

"Boxing, in my opinion, can and should remain alive but only under the office of the attorney general," said Farley.

Torre; Alou Power Braves Over Giants

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Joe Torre and Felipe Alou each belted two home runs, powering the Milwaukee Braves to a 10-4 victory over the San Francisco Giants Wednesday.

The Braves handed San Francisco ace Juan Marichal one of the worst drubbings of his career, bombing him for 11 hits, including both of Torre's homers and one of Alou's, and nine runs in 3-2-3 innings.

Torre drove in two runs with a first-inning homer and three more with his 11th circuit of the season in the fourth.

Felipe Alou, who has two brothers playing with the Giants, belted a two-run homer in the second inning and his fourth of the campaign, with the bases empty, in the fifth.

Venturi Says Nicklaus Wrong In Prediction of Open Score

ST. LOUIS (UPI)—Ken Venturi, defending National Open champ, figures big Jack Nicklaus is dreaming with a prediction that a par 280 could win the 1965 Open on the giant Bellerive Country Club course. "If anybody breaks 280 on that course, I'll knit you a watch," said Venturi. "Give me a 285 and I may beat the field by three strokes, man. That course is long."

Bellerive has been measured at 7,191 yards, the longest in the history of the National Open. Nicklaus, who has been around once, and Arnold Palmer, who will get his first look at the course, are due Thursday for double practice rounds.

Venturi, never in the long-driving class of Nicklaus and Palmer, has been hampered this year by a hand ailment which makes it difficult to grip the clubs. He said, after his first practice round, that he was getting some of his old feel back.

Venturi will compete in several tournaments before the Open on June 17 and hopes to have a number of practice rounds on the Bellerive course by that time.

The champ said, "They ought to verticut the greens now. The grass is growing sideways — flat. If they verticut, it will start growing straight up the way they want it. If they wait much longer, it will be too late."

Venturi said he would be unable to retain his title if he can't get within close approach range.

The 33-year-old Venturi singled out the 4th, 5th, 8th, 15th and 17th holes, ranging from 465 to 606 yards and the toughest on the course.

On the mammoth 606-yard 17th Venturi said, "I played two drivers and a five iron."

On the fifth hole, a 465-yarder, Venturi said he needed three strokes and, "on number two, I had to manipulate a four iron around the corner. The USGA had to plant that little tree right in my line."

Venturi summed up his playing experience on the course by saying, "It's T-U-F-F, tough."

Reiser returned to direct the Indians in two games at Tacoma last week, but returned to his California home after becoming ill again. Doctors said his spring training attack was close to being a second heart attack.

Tittle Talks at Bengal Athletic Awards Banquet

POCATELLO (UPI) — Veteran professional football star Y. A. Tittle told a southern Idaho sports gathering Wednesday night desire and determination were important assets in making the grade in athletics.

Tittle, a veteran of 17 years in pro football, spoke at the annual Sam Bennion Athletic Awards Banquet for Idaho State University athletes. The banquet, honoring athletes in eight sports, was held at the Bannock Hotel. Tittle, who recently announced his retirement as an active player with the New York Giants, noted that many athletes with exceptional skills failed to make the grade because they lack courage and desire.

The veteran quarterback, who has endured in a rough-body contact sport dominated by younger and stronger men, said attitude was also important in developing excellence.

Tittle, known in pro ranks as "The Bald Eagle," also had praise for Idaho's Larry Wilson, a former University of Utah halfback now playing as a defensive specialist for the St. Louis Cardinals. He said Wilson, formerly of Rigby, Idaho, was one of the outstanding defensive players in the National Football League.

John Mooney, sports editor of the Salt Lake Tribune, served as master of ceremonies. Invited guests included Pocatello Mayor Earl Pond, Dr. Larry Gale, acting president of NSU; Art Scott, immediate past president of the "I" Club, and Jerry Olson, president of the Gridiron Club.

Several awards were made at the banquet, hosted by Idaho Falls businessman Sam Bennion. Bengal quarterback Billy Shaw received the Paul Bistline Award while the award to the outstanding track and field performer went to hurdler Ben Miller.

The Joe Richmond Award for top defensive player in football went to Bud Johnson. Allan Dowd was named the outstanding freshman football player and Henry Fishman was honored as the outstanding freshman basketball player.

The audience also included prominent southern Idaho business, civic and government leaders and members of the ISU athletic staff.

Utah Gains WAC Baseball Finals

SALT LAKE CITY (UPI) — Shortstop Craig MacKay's grand slam home run in the fifth inning propelled the University of Utah to a 10-3 victory over Wyoming Tuesday to give the Utes the Western Athletic Conference northern division baseball crown.

MacKay's blast over the left centerfield wall came off Tony Bozich, the third of five Cowboy pitchers, and put Utah ahead to stay in the sudden-death playoff game at Derks Field to determine the division championship.

The win gave Utah the right to meet southern division champion Arizona State University Friday night at Phoenix, Ariz., in the first of a three-game series to determine the WAC titleholder.

do that. It's right in our record book."

Another question that remains unanswered was why Liston and his handlers didn't protest the knockdown count and how Clay stood over Sonny, yelling, "Get up, get up."

Before Walcott went into hiding he explained he was too busy trying to get Clay back to a neutral corner to hear the count.

"Then when I checked the timekeeper McDonough he had already reached twelve," Walcott said.

McDonald said he hasn't seen Walcott since the end of the bout. Neither has anyone else. Jersey Joe was supposed to show up at the press conference in Auburn, but didn't.

McDonald wondered aloud why Walcott didn't suspend the count of knockdown timekeeper, Francis McDonough, when Clay failed to go to a neutral corner after his knockout blow, which has been described variously as "explosive" and "powdery puff" strength. Many ringersiders didn't even see the punch.

Twins Use Homers to Beat Boston

BOSTON (AP) — Bob Allison, Harmon Killebrew and Tony Oliva put on Minnesota's second straight show of home run muscle as the Twins outslugged Boston 9-7 Wednesday night.

Allison hit a three-run shot in a four-run first inning uprising, Killebrew homered with the bases empty in the third and Oliva triggered a decisive four-run rally in the fifth inning with a leadoff homer that gave the Twins eight homers in two games against Red Sox pitching.

Oliva's homer, his eighth, pulled the Twins into a 6-6 tie. They went on to push across three more runs with the aid of only one hit.

Killebrew reached first on an error by Ed Bressoud and Allison walked. Earl Battey then doubled home two runs. Allison eventually scored on a grounder by Zoilo Versalles.

Wynn singled home a run in the first inning, broke a 2-2 tie with a two-run triple in the third and hit his seventh homer of the season in the fifth.

Road Repairs Halt Traffic On Autobahn

HELMSTEDT, Germany (AP) — Construction work on the East German side of the Iron Curtain autobahn crossing to Berlin here caused a traffic jam today, West German customs police reported.

Cars were backed up as much as a mile, police said, causing about an hour's wait in front of the border.

At noon, customs officials reported traffic was flowing normally.

Border officials in Berlin reported no slowdown and said traffic was moving normally. But they said traffic was heavier than normal due to the Ascension Day holiday.

Humphrey Has Birthday Anniversary

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey turns 54 today and in honor of the occasion he may not make a speech.

This in itself, for a man who has been making two or three a day, would set the date apart. But, of course, he may change his mind.

The Humphrey calendar calls for a staff party and attendance by the vice president and Mrs. Humphrey at a White House reception for congressional assistants.

After the reception, President Johnson may have some surprises of his own for the vice president.

Humphrey joked with newsmen at a White House military reception Wednesday night and wouldn't admit he's turning 54.

He told everything else about himself: his shirt size, neck 16 1/2, sleeve 34; height, 5 feet 11 1/2 inches; waist, 38 inches; shoe 9 1/2. But not his age.

He prefers everyone to think he's 37, even though the records show that he was born 54 years ago — on May 27, 1911, in Wallace, S.D.

Asked how he planned to celebrate his birthday, he said, "by work." And, "I'm going to call up my mother and congratulate her."

Humphrey was in a jovial mood after he stood in the receiving line along with the Johnsons.

The vice president was called on to pose for pictures and someone suggested that he and his wife kiss. Mrs. Humphrey protested with a smile and said: "I don't like kissing."

"Yes, she does," said her husband amid general laughter.

Mrs. Humphrey then corrected her statement to: "I like to kiss, but I don't like kissing pictures."

Virginian Won't Claim Baron Title

WINCHESTER, Va. (AP) — A retired paperhanger says he'll pass up one of the oldest titles in British aristocracy because he "hasn't any money and can't swim."

Newton D'Arcy Wyvill, 69, expressed little surprise when told that Debrett's, Britain's directory of the aristocracy, indicated he is the rightful owner of the country's 10th most senior baronetcy.

"To me it don't mean a thing," the small camera-shy Wyvill said. "We've known the title was over there. If there were a few million dollars attached to it, I'd be very happy. Outside of that, no."

"Naturally I'm very proud," he said. It wouldn't be worth the time and expense to pursue claim to the title because "I don't think there's any money over there," he said.

Debrett's, in its latest edition Wednesday, said that Wyvill is a descendant of Sir Richard Wyvill, Sir Richard was slain at the Battle of Towton Field in 1461 during the Wars of the Roses.

Sir Marmaduke Wyvill of Constance Burto, Yorkshire, was the last recognized baronet of the Wyvill family, Debrett's said. He died in 1774, survived by a cousin whose father emigrated to America during the reign of George II.

Debrett's said its researchers had traced this family to Newton D'Arcy Wyvill.

Wyvill said his grandfather and his father were interested in the title, but his grandfather died before he could travel to England and his father "was just about like me. He didn't have any money and he couldn't swim."

Wyvill said he hadn't given much thought to how it would feel to be a baronet.

"I don't know," he said. "I never did have anyone wait on me. I've done all my work myself." He could call himself Sir Newton if he proved his right to the title.

Wyvill said he had conflicting information on whether any property is involved in the baronetcy.

Wyvill said he's content to enjoy his retirement here with his wife. He offered to sell the title to a reporter for $1.

Power Firm Uses Laminated Towers for Line in Valley

JEROME—They may not look any different to the untrained eye, but the towers Idaho Power Co. is erecting for its new 230,000-volt transmission line near here are another pioneering "first" for the utility.

To begin with, the poles in the H-frame towers are of laminated wood—the first such poles to be used in a complete transmission line anywhere in the U. S. Some of the poles are 105 feet high.

The crossarms also are laminated wood, as are the "X" braces that give the towers added strength.

Idaho Power's unique line, 18 miles long, extends between the new Midpoint switching station northeast of Jerome and the new Hunt substation northwest of Eden.

Estimated to cost a total $4,000,000 the two stations and the connecting transmission line are being built by Idaho Power to boost the supply of energy for the highly electrified Magic Valley area.

Power switched from existing 230,000-volt transmission lines at the Midpoint station will be carried over the new 18-mile line to the Hunt substation. At cedar-pole construction.

Haroldson said the laminated poles, tapered from bottom to top and bonded with a tough lifetime glue, are constructed with three "divisions of strength."

The lower 37-foot section of each pole is of "11-ply" construction, which means it consists of 11 layers of timbers glued together. It is 11 inches wide and 16 1/2 inches thick.

Middle sections of the poles are "nine-ply," or 11x13 1/2 inches, while the top 7 1/2 feet are "five-ply," or 11-7 1/2 inches.

The poles, both fire- and bug-resistant, were manufactured for Idaho Power by the wood products division of Weyerhaeuser Co. at Cottage Grove, Ore.

Traffic Death Toll Increases

CHICAGO (AP) — The nation's death toll from accidents in the first three months this year killed 24,700 persons, an increase of 300—or 1 per cent—over the same period last year, the National Safety Council reported today.

However, because of a population increase, the council said, the death rate from accidents actually dropped from 56.4 to 54.7 per 100,000 persons, a 3 per cent decrease.

Doctor Says Milk Must Be Pasteurized

One of the most important health practices that the health department can recommend is the use of pasteurized milk for the family, according to Dr. Luther Thompson, medical director of the Utah Central State Health Department.

Despite modern improvements in milk sanitation, disease bacteria still find their way into milk by the natural contamination from the cow or accidentally through man's careless handling, the doctor said.

Dr. Thompson pointed out that the bacteria grow rapidly in warm milk and under normal conditions milk is never free of bacteria. Some of the disease causing viruses and bacteria that may be carried in raw milk are salmonellae, shigellae, infectious hepatitis and septic sore throat. "These diseases are now not uncommon in our area," he said.

Diseases that may be carried by raw milk include tuberculosis, scarlet fever, Q fever, typhoid fever and undulant fever. "These, too, are found in our area," Dr. Thompson reported.

"Exhaustive tests by the U.S. Public Health Service have proven pasteurization does not affect the food value or flavor of milk," he said.

Dr. Thompson said that anyone can pasteurize milk in his home by pouring the milk into the top part of the double boiler and putting water in the lower compartment so it touches the bottom of the upper kettle. Keep the water in the double boiler boiling for at least five minutes and stir the milk constantly during this time. Then remove the milk, cool and bottle it.

Beetles Are Invading San Antonio

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI) — The beetles are invading San Antonio. Not the tall two-legged shaggy variety, but the two-legged ground insect type.

The beetles, which invade the ground, were brought to the surface by recent rains that flooded sections of the city.

City officials said the beetles seem to have a special delight for traveling on the pressways, and are so thick that sometimes a driver can not see the road for the inch-and-a-half long creatures scurrying about.

"They make the road slicker than ice," said one official. "There have been too many accidents to even count."

The pests do not eat anything, they just drink water. They also are attracted to light, making night driving particularly hazardous.

The speedy pests have been roaming about downtown streets for about a few days, but only the past few weeks have taken to the suburbs via the express ways.

City health officials said they thought the beetles would dwindle away after they first appeared, so spraying was not ordered. There still have been no preventive measures taken.

Hearings Set on Silver Problems

WASHINGTON (AP) — A House Interior Subcommittee has set June 7-8 for hearings on silver production and shortage problems.

The subcommittee will invite testimony to obtain information to be used in consideration of proposed coinage changes. Several bills before other committees would reduce the silver content of coins to ease the silver shortage.

The subcommittee also will seek information on national silver needs, potential production increases and other data.

Busy Beavers Go To Dental Office

Dr. Nielsen talked to the boys on the care and structure of the teeth. He demonstrated proper brushing techniques and explained the importance of complete tooth care. He also presented a tooth care kit to each member of the club.

Mrs. Joseph Preston, local leader, and Mrs. J. Harry Darlington accompanied the boys. Christine Gillette, junior leader, arranged for the visit and Steven Preston arranged for transportation.

Some of the disease causing viruses and bacteria that may be carried in raw milk are salmonellae, shigellae, infectious hepatitis and septic sore throat. "These diseases are now not uncommon in our area," he said.

Diseases that may be carried by raw milk include tuberculosis, scarlet fever, Q fever, typhoid fever and undulant fever. "These, too, are found in our area," Dr. Thompson reported.

"Exhaustive tests by the U.S. Public Health Service have proven pasteurization does not affect the food value or flavor of milk," he said.

Dr. Thompson said that anyone can pasteurize milk in his home by pouring the milk into the top part of the double boiler and putting water in the lower compartment so it touches the bottom of the upper kettle. Keep the water in the double boiler boiling for at least five minutes and stir the milk constantly during this time. Then remove the milk, cool and bottle it.

HADLEIGH, England (UPI) — Someone made off with the ball after a comic soccer match here Wednesday.

Police said the thief must have used a truck—the ball was eight feet in diameter.

Hearings Set on Silver Problems

WASHINGTON (AP) — A House Interior Subcommittee has set June 7-8 for hearings on silver production and shortage problems.

The subcommittee will invite testimony to obtain information to be used in consideration of proposed coinage changes. Several bills before other committees would reduce the silver content of coins to ease the silver shortage.

The subcommittee also will seek information on national silver needs, potential production increases and other data.

Couch Summit Road Opening Is Planned

HAILEY — Ralph Burr, construction maintenance foreman for the Sawtooth National Forest, said Monday he hoped to have the road open by Thursday. Burr said the road will be opened for two or three weeks. This dead-end road lies between Big Smokey and the head of the South Fork of the Boise river and leads to the Methodist Church Camp Sawtooth.

"A crew is working now repairing road damage up Warm Springs," Burr said, "but it will be impossible to open Dollarhide Summit until after July 1."

The Deer Creek Road, he said, opened to just above Wolfstone Gulch, about four miles up canyon from the Clarendon Hot Springs.

"There is still a lot of work to do up there and the road will not be opened by fishing season."

June 15 Is Date Set for Opening

RETCHEM — Because of large snowdrifts and drifts across the Trail Creek Road from Sun Valley to the summit, the State Highway Department and Forest Service will not open it until June 15.

Richard Stauber said anyone wishing to fish on the Lost River will have to go by way of Arco. The Boundary Campgrounds at the foot of Trail Creek is the only one ready for occupancy. Garbage cans are being placed at other camps, but it has been impossible to turn on water because of snow-covered pipes.

Mrs. Ralph Harris was chairman for the program. She was assisted by Mrs. Ann Steene, club president. Officers will be installed at the June 22 meeting.

Dougherty Will Head DeMolay Unit

FILER — Gary Daugherty, Filer, was elected master councillor of West End Chapter of DeMolay at Monday's meeting.

Steven Lammers, Buhl, was elected senior councillor, and Robert Rude, Filer, junior councillor. The three newly-elected officers will meet Wednesday evening to appoint their other officers. All officers will be installed at 8:15 June 1 at the Filer Masonic Temple.

The DeMolay degree was conferred upon Scott Pence, Buhl; Michael Rowland, Buhl; Larry Lammers, Buhl; Michael Brown and Bruce Anderson, both Filer.

Plans were made for operating a concession stand at the Shrine Circus which will be held June 9-10 in Twin Falls. Members are selling tickets for a DeMolay band concert and show to be presented in Twin Falls June 25 by a California chapter.

Awards Given At Assembly For Jerome

JEROME—Seniors at Jerome High School were honored during an awards assembly Monday afternoon.

August M. Hein, high school principal, awarded a certificate and medallion to Kelly Jackson and Kathy Fleming for being the outstanding senior boy and girl of the year. This will be an annual award.

Mrs. C. D. Dubak awarded the Business and Professional Women's annual scholarship to Sharon Slemmons.

Two $125 scholarship awards were presented to Dennis Barnes and Eleisia May Overman by John Stelle Jr. for the Rotary Club.

Scott McClure was the recipient of the annual $200 Key Club scholarship, which was awarded by Carl Worthington.

Kelly Jackson was honored by the senior class with a plaque for his outstanding work as student body president.

August M. Hein presented a book, "I Dare You," from the Danford Foundation to Steve Millard and James Vining for their qualities of leadership. This will be an annual award.

Nola Thompson was presented a $200 scholarship award from the Twin Falls Central Labor Council. This award was made for themes which were presented to the Council earlier this spring. Miss Thompson's winning theme was entitled "The Effect of Automation on Organized Labor."

Oval Walker was chosen "Teacher of the Year" by the Jerome student body.

Carlos Gutierrez, Jerome's foreign exchange student, spoke on his experiences as a member of the senior class this year and thanked the students for their assistance and consideration.

Area Scouts Plan Trip to World's Fair

A group of Boy Scouts and Explorer Scouts from Snake River Area Council, Boy Scouts of America, are making plans to participate in the World's Fair Service Corps July 6 through July 14 in New York.

Michael Mazzone, Scout executive for the council, reported Wednesday that Les Jones, Twin Falls, has been chosen to lead the group from Idaho. Scouts who have signed up for the trip include Jones' two sons, Norman and Douglas, Don E. Montgomery, Bobby Bolton and Bruce Smith, all Twin Falls, and Dennis Aslett, Filer.

Mazzone noted that there will be 72 scouts from the Pacific Northwest attending, and there are still four openings in the state. Local scouts will be given preference until June 10.

The group will fly by jet to New York where they will assist at the fair.

Purpose of the service corps is to present the aims and programs of the Boy Scouts of America to the millions of fair visitors by focusing attention upon one of scouting's greatest ideals, service to others.

It gives to the visitors "The Wonderful World of Scouting," a firsthand impression of what scouting is and what scouts do. It provides a hospitality center at the fair for youth, scouts and scouters. It stimulates the spirit and ideals of service among Boy Scouts and Explorer Scouts across America.

Mazzone said this is just one of the Boy Scouts of America projects to demonstrate that scouting isn't recreational, but educational.

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

THURSDAY, May 27—Born today, you will probably need a great deal of supervision during your formative years in order to ensure your striking out in the right direction insofar as a career is concerned. A person of many talents but little basic self-discipline, you need strong guidance if you are to make a good and early start on the road to success—a goal you can reach with ease—once you learn to concentrate your efforts upon it.

One whose emotions are likely to dominate his reason, you need all the benefits of systematic thinking that a formal education can give you. Take care therefore that you do not waste your school days in idle dreaming or you will be the loser. Make it a habit to think things over more than once before making your decisions; your goal should be accomplished not speed.

In matters of the heart as well as in all else, you must learn to use your head. One who may fancy himself in love many times, you would be wise to let time play a large part in your decision of whether or not to marry the object of your affections. The majority of your attachments will soon fade; the one that remains over a reasonable period of time is the one for you!

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Friday, May 28
GEMINI (May 22-June 21)—Look to your appearance today. You may well be judged for what you seem to be rather than for what you really are.

CANCER (June 22-July 23)—Consider your goal well, and remember that wishing won't make it so.

LEO (July 24-Aug. 23)—Demonstrate your loyalty to business associates and in so doing remember that actions speak much louder than words.

VIRGO (Aug. 24-Sept. 23)—Avoid becoming embroiled in affairs external to your most immediate concerns.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)—Your ability to turn the tables, bringing advantage out of disadvantage, will determine the degree of your success today.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)—Keep up-to-date on all national and international affairs. Your opinion may play a part in your advancement.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22)—Fairy godmothers appear to be out of season at the moment, so you'll just have to make the best of what seems a poor deal.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23-Jan. 20)—Don't be goaded into making any irrevocable changes in either your professional or private life.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)—Guard your present opportunities well. There are those who have an eye on your position.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20)—Be especially careful in handling those affairs in which others are involved.

ARIES (March 21-April 20)—The wise Aries will give further study to plans before attempting to translate them into action.

TAURUS (April 21-May 21)—Channel your energy into what ever will best serve your immediate interest.

Lodge Plans For Dinner

WENDELL—Plans were made at the Monday meeting of Wendell Lodge No. 54, AF&AM for a joint potluck dinner with Star of West Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, honoring the widows and widowers of the two groups. The date will be announced.

William Irons reported that new films on travel are now available at a nominal fee from the Buick Corp. It was decided to secure some of the films to be used for future programs.

The annual conferring of the third degree on Baldy Mountain will be July-17. Plans were made for members to attend this event.

Reports of the two Twin Falls meetings were given by Roger Brown and Albert Lancaster.
