SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. Air Force and Marine Corps jets struck at Communist positions in Quang Ngai Province today after three days of hard fighting in which an estimated 500 government troops were killed, wounded or missing. Unofficial reports said 10 U.S. Army men were killed in the action west of the provincial capital, and that a U.S. airman was wounded. U.S. officials also reported 155 other government casualties—35 killed, 100 wounded and 100 missing.

U.S. Pilots on Raid Sight Eight MIGs

SAIGON (UPI)—U.S. pilots on a bombing raid only 45 miles south of Hanoi today sighted eight Communist North Vietnamese Mig jet fighters. But the jets jettisoned their external fuel tanks and fled when U.S. Air Force fighters moved in for an attack, a military spokesman reported.

Sixteen U.S. Air Force F105 Thunderchiefs, escorted by an undisclosed number of other jets, knifed close to the North Vietnamese capital for the second day in a row to blast a major ammunition depot at Ha Mai.

The fighter-bombers dropped about 80,000 pounds of 750-pound bombs on the depot during a 25-minute raid.

Forty-five miles is the closest Hanoi American planes ever have struck since systematic attacks on North Viet Nam began last February.

Police Arrest 13 as Negroes Stage Marches

By The Associated Press
Authorities arrested 13 persons at Crawfordville, Ga., as Negroes attempted unsuccessfully to integrate two white Baptist churches and held another series of protest marches.

Negroes then marched around the courthouse in protest to the arrests and later about 200 held a rally there.

The picketing was in protest to the failure of the school board to renew contracts of six Negro teachers, an action which touched off the demonstrations last Wednesday.

Elsewhere, civil rights workers at Bogalusa, La. called off plans for a march on city hall and said they will go to court to seek adequate protection for picketers and civil rights demonstrators.

Scientists In Jet Probe Solar Eclipse

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—A jet transport, loaded with delicate instruments and racing with the moon across the South Pacific, has given scientists the longest probe in man's history into the conditions of a solar eclipse.

The moon won the race, but during the 9 minutes and 42 seconds the airplane was cloaked in its shadow Sunday, instruments mounted in 13 viewing ports on the plane's fuselage recorded mountains of data which will take months to analyze.

A spokesman for the U.S. National Aeronautics and Space Administration said it appeared the NASA-sponsored mission was a 100 per cent success.

NASA scientists and space experts from Belgium, the Netherlands, Italy and Switzerland—30 men in all—conducted 13 separate investigative projects designed to chart the turbulence of the solar atmosphere and the reaction of earth's upper atmosphere and ionosphere to the abrupt interruption of sunlight that occurs with eclipses.

NEW YORK (AP)—Former Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, 70, was described today as progressing satisfactorily following surgery to correct a ballooning abdominal blood vessel.

Herter underwent surgery at Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center May 19 to correct the abdominal aortic aneurysm, a hospital spokesman said.

Herter was secretary of state during the Dwight D. Eisenhower administration.

Americans Honor War Dead With Memorial Day Services

The nation mourned its war dead in Memorial Day services Sunday. Taps sounded, bands marched and speakers paid public tribute to those who died. More ceremonies were set for today which is listed officially in some communities for observance of the holiday. Among the events are the traditional New York City parade sponsored by the United War Veterans; a ceremony in Brooklyn dedicating a bust of the late President John F. Kennedy, and services at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, scene of the 1941 Japanese attack.

Some 50,000 persons visited Arlington National Cemetery where more than 130,000 Americans who fought in the nation's wars from 1776 to Viet Nam are buried.

Gen. Harold K. Johnson, Army chief of staff, represented President Johnson—weekending at his Texas ranch—at the traditional wreath-laying at the Tomb of the Unknown in Arlington National Cemetery. Thousands attended this ceremony, while additional thousands, many in family-sized groups, placed wreaths on the graves of their loved ones.

At Marietta National Cemetery in Georgia, Daughters of the Confederacy and Sons of Confederate Veterans placed wreaths honoring Union soldiers buried there. Planes, swooping through sunny skies, dropped rose petals on the graves.

In Chicago, members of two Confederate organizations paid tribute to more than 6,000 Confederate soldiers buried at Oak Woods Cemetery. The soldiers died while imprisoned at Camp Douglas.

In St. Louis, the Civil Air Patrol air-dropped flowers over two observances. The Coast Guard floated a flower-covered raft down the Mississippi to honor persons lost at sea.

In Philadelphia, Mayor James Tate—standing on the deck of Adm. Dewey's Spanish-American war flagship, USS Olympia—received a plaque for his efforts to keep the historic vessel in Philadelphia.

Wreaths were laid at the Altar of the Nation in Cathedral in the Pines, Rindge, N.H., by representatives of President Johnson and all states and territories.

Everglades Reported Drying up

MIAMI (UPI)—Federal officials who are fearful of a one-million-acre swamp called the Everglades is about to become dust, have blown holes in the ground so animals can drink and are pleading with the Weather Bureau to make it rain.

Unless barrels of rain come down soon the Everglades National Park and its million acres of sawgrass, birds and animals may not survive, park officials said today.

Florida is undergoing its driest May on record. Only three-tenths of an inch of rain has fallen on the park since March 4. Water tables are two feet below ground level in areas that used to be swamp.

Secretary of the Interior Stewart Udall has instructed park Service Director George B. Hartog Jr. to ask the Weather Bureau if it is possible to seed clouds to produce rain over the park.

Cloud-seeding in Florida has not been successful. Silver iodide crystals dropped into a cloud can trigger rain, but Gordon Dunn of the Miami Weather Bureau said South Florida clouds have not been satisfactory for seeding.

Desert Hamlet in California Eyes Secession Over Arrest of Town Nurse

TECOPA, Calif. (AP)—Residents of this remote desert hamlet—population about 400—at the bottom of Death Valley are so mad at California that some want to secede and get their own county.

Nearly 400 embattled Tecopans plan to go to the trial. "Pat's arrest is a disgrace. It's preposterous," says Dr. Walter Wilson, 60, who has supervised Mrs. Gardellus' activities since 1955.

Wilson, who lives 180 miles away in Lone Pine, is the closest California doctor. He flies to Tecopa once a week.

"The area is too sparsely populated to support a local doctor," he says. "Pat has saved countless lives. She calls me and follows my instructions in every emergency and for routine matters."

"It's a dirty deal," says the Rev. Aaron Olson, 66, town pastor. "And that's putting it in plain English. If it hadn't been for Pat, I would be conducting a great many more funerals."

New Disease

CHICAGO (AP)—A California pathologist described today a "new disease" of the lung characterized by the death and shedding of cells lining the bronchial tubes.

The pathologist, Dr. Bernhard Steinberg, associate professor of research at the University School of Medicine, at Loma Linda, Calif., told the 61st annual meeting of the National Tuberculosis Association that he diagnosed the condition in himself several years ago.

He said the clinical symptoms are fever; a dry, hacking cough; pains in the chest and back and shortness of breath.

Aluminum Strike Set For Midnight

NEW YORK (UPI)—Five major aluminum companies faced a steelworkers strike deadline at midnight tonight but both sides expressed hope that contract agreements could be reached in time to prevent a walkout.

Labor and management planned continuous last minute bargaining.

A spokesman for the United Steelworkers Union (USW) said he was not certain what steps would be taken if new terms were not reached before the old contracts expire.

"The usual policy is no contract, no work," he said, "and the plants probably would be shut down."

But with the non-stop bargaining talks, he said "a lot could happen" before midnight.

Wages was one of the major issues blocking settlement.

NATO Meet Starts Amid Heated Tiff

PARIS (AP)—Defense ministers of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization today went into a special session on defense plans amid a heated dispute between France and most of the other countries on NATO's basic strategic concepts.

The dispute concerns plans for meeting any possible Communist attack in Western Europe with "massive retaliation" as the French demand, or a graduated holding action as the United States and most of the other Allies favor.

NATO sources said Robert S. McNamara, U.S. secretary of defense, led off the day's meeting with a statement of the American position which is in effect that the governments should seek to avoid all-out nuclear war if possible.

France pulled it forces out of SEATO—and might later withdraw from the organization completely—because it disagreed with America's South-east Asian policy, specifically her intervention in Viet Nam.

France Pulls Out of NATO War Games

PARIS (UPI)—France will not participate in next year's NATO war games because its strategy is not directed toward immediate nuclear retaliation against any Soviet attack on the West, French delegation sources said Sunday.

France's refusal to participate in the 1966 staff exercise known as Fallex would be the first French withdrawal from a major NATO operation since the founding of the alliance, observers noted.

The news followed France's formal announcement it was withdrawing all French officers from the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization (SEATO) headquarters in Bangkok.

And like the SEATO withdrawal, it was founded on a basic policy difference with the United States.

France pulled it forces out of SEATO—and might later withdraw from the organization completely—because it disagreed with America's South-east Asian policy, specifically her intervention in Viet Nam.

Memorial Day Traffic Toll Mounts

Multiple deaths on the nation's highways skyrocketed the fatality toll over the weekend as the three-day Memorial Day holiday went into its final hours. The National Safety Council said it appeared the final total of deaths in traffic accidents might exceed last year's grim Memorial Day record of 431. In seven crashes in five states, 34 lives were snuffed out. California alone had 16 dead in three accidents at 2 p.m. EDT, the death toll on streets and highways across the nation stood at 386.

Howard Pyle, president of the National Safety Council, said: "It is conceivable that it could be the worst Memorial Day weekend on record unless motorists change their driving pattern."

With fatalities running 40 per cent ahead of last year's pace, Pyle said, "the toll looks certain to be on the upper end of our estimate."

The council had estimated traffic deaths for the 78-hour weekend, 6 p.m. (local time) Friday to midnight Monday at 430 to 510.

Among the more spectacular tragedies: Five boys of high school age were killed in a collision outside Gallatin, Tenn.

Three 16-year-old boys and a 20-year-old truck driver died in a crash at an intersection near Grand Island, Neb.

The record number of traffic deaths for a three-day Memorial Day weekend was 431 set last year. The lowest total was 204 in 1948. The record high for any three-day holiday period was 609 during the 1955 Christmas season.

California Leads Holiday Traffic Toll

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—California led the nation in Memorial Day weekend traffic deaths as its casualty figure soared over last year's—and the long ride-home was yet to come.

The state's highway fatalities totaled 45 at the morning count. Thirty-four persons died during the same three-day holiday last year.

Three auto crashes in which 16 persons perished helped boost the figure.

Five persons died when a speeding car slammed into a bridge abutment on the Bayshore freeway in San Jose Sunday morning and five were killed late yesterday in a two-car collision south of Lone Pine. Six others died in a collision on U.S. 95 two miles south of the desert community of Needles Sunday.

Technicians Correct Leakage in Gemini 4

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—Preparations moved forward today for the nation's most ambitious space flight after technicians ran down and corrected a water leakage problem in the Gemini 4 spacecraft. The leak, discovered early Sunday, had threatened to delay the scheduled launch Thursday of astronauts James A. McDivitt and Edward H. White II on their four-day space journey. The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said that a life support system package damaged by the leaking water had been replaced. The package is used to remove carbon dioxide from the capsule.

Nine miles south of the Bahamanian island of San Salvador, the tiny cable ship Omega waited for high winds and seas to subside so it can grapple for the broken ends of an undersea cable used in the Gemini program. The cable runs 1,500 miles from Cape Kennedy to Antigua, and has several Bahamanian tracking stations connected to it.

Space agency officials said they hoped it could be repaired in time for the landing of Gemini 4—the point where it serves its most vital function. But if it hasn't, they added, radio communications could be used.

Between Saturday night and Sunday morning, 32 pounds of water leaked into the spacecraft's lithium hydroxide container. The device, in addition to removing carbon dioxide from the spacecraft, also supplies drinking water for the astronauts, and provides a coolant.

Police Lt. Gary Park said he signed riot charges against one 19-year-old youth—James Wilkes of suburban Holladay.

He was released on $750 bond Sunday night.

About a dozen others were arrested in the melee which halted traffic around Liberty Park and resulted in damage to several automobiles—including police vehicles.

At least four youths were taken to hospitals for treatment of injuries. One hospital reported several persons seeking treatment for dog bites, apparently suffered in the incident.

Police Capt. Eugene G. Cedarlof said the officers trying to break up the fight were hit by beer bottles and debris.

He said they resorted for assistance and the crowd swelled into a mob.

Several officers said their clothing was ripped. Several tear gas shots were fired.

Erhard Flies To U.S. for Short Visit

BONN (UPI)—West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard today flew to New York to begin a six-day visit to the United States designed to boost his chances for re-election.

Erhard said before departing he had a special plane that was "pure coincidence" that he would be meeting with President Johnson in Washington on Friday just before French President Charles de Gaulle left Bonn.

Erhard said at the airport in Bonn that his government and Washington were in agreement on foreign policy matters.

He admitted that there was an "internal connection" in his meetings with Johnson and de Gaulle.

Erhard said he would avoid controversial issues while in America to avoid upsetting de Gaulle.

FIVE-DAY FORECAST Weather systems will continue to move quite slowly during the next five days resulting in lower pressure aloft being the dominating weather feature over the Intermountain region through Saturday. High pressure both at the surface and aloft will continue in the Eastern Pacific.

Cooler air from the Gulf of Alaska will spread into the valleys of Southern Idaho causing temperatures below normal. Temperatures through Saturday will average from two to seven degrees below normal. Cooler weather will remain through much of the week with some warming indicated at the end of the week. Nighttime temperatures will average near normal with frost and freezing temperatures not a threat during the next five days. Normal maximum and minimum temperatures are Gooding 75 and 45, Twin Falls 76 and 46, and Burley 73 and 43.

The continued presence of low pressure aloft will give unsettled weather conditions to most valleys of Southern Idaho through mid-week. Shower activity will be more concentrated in southcentral and southeastern valleys during the next five days. Periods of showers will occur through mid-week with clearing indicated into the weekend. Precipitation through Saturday will average from .10 to .25 of an inch.

Sunshine will average around 50 per cent of possible with largest amounts of sunshine towards the end of the week. Winds will be stronger and gusty at times during mid-week. Soil temperatures will lower at the three and four inch depths under cooler weather conditions with readings lowering back into the upper 50s to mid 60s by mid-week.

Delays to farm work will be more frequent in southeastern and southcentral valleys this week and in eastern valleys some longer delays due to wet fields are possible. Elsewhere only short delays are expected because of showers. Spraying operations will have mostly poor weather conditions through mid-week. Crop growth and development of warmer season crops will be slowed by cooler weather and decrease in sunshine during a large portion of the week. Crop planting and cultivating will be done on a limited basis through mid-week.

SYNOPSIS AND AGRICULTURAL SUMMARY The weak cold front that moved across Southern Idaho yesterday lies east-west across Southern Wyoming and into a low pressure center which has formed in Northern Idaho and Northwestern Nevada. A low pressure center aloft is located just to the north of Idaho in British Columbia and cooler air brought in by this system is moving into the valleys of Southern Idaho. Except for extreme southeastern valleys, cooling was noted at all reporting stations yesterday. Precipitation was quite light yesterday with only traces reported as the front moved through. However, with the development of the low pressure center to the south, some measurable amounts of precipitation fell in Magic Valley in the early morning hours.

Showers and mostly cloudy skies are being reported from Magic Valley this morning and are expected to continue through the day. Increasing sunshine is expected in southcentral valleys Tuesday but with partly cloudy skies lingering on.

Cooling will continue today with maximum temperatures today and Tuesday in the 60s to mid 70s in the valleys of Southern Idaho. Minimum temperatures tonight also will be somewhat cooler but should remain mostly in the 40s.

Field work and outside activities will be curtailed today by showers. Only delays of a short nature are expected during the next couple of days.

2 Hostages Are Found in Rebel Area

LEOPOLDVILLE (UPI) — Government forces who captured the rebel-held north Congo town of Bondo found only two white hostages, military sources here said Sunday.

About 100 whites, the last in rebel hands, had been reported at Bondo and Buta. Retreating rebels apparently took the rest of the whites with them to Buta. Buta is about 115 miles south of Bondo. Government troops led by white mercenaries set out two weeks ago to squash rebel resistance in that area.

The two white hostages found at Bondo were not identified. Radio reports reaching military sources here said two American-loaned T28 fighter planes participating in the operation had crashed for undetermined reasons.

The pilots, a Cuban and a Belgian, parachuted to safety. Government forces found the Cuban, but the Belgian was missing.

Ambassador Postpones Trip Home

SAIGON (UPI) — Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor postponed indefinitely planned visit to Washington in the face of the continuing Vietnamese political and military crises.

A U.S. Embassy spokesman said Taylor met with Prime Minister Phan Huy Quat today to discuss the political situation.

The spokesman said the old crisis over Quat's attempt to reach an impasse, but the disputing political groups were keeping in touch with each other.

The feud centers around refusal of the interior minister and economic minister to meet and chief of state Phan Khieu's refusal to confirm two men nominated by Quat.

The politically-minded young generals of the Vietnamese army have been watching each other closely, but have thus far not moved to interfere in the government crisis.

The Daily Investor

By WILLIAM A. DOYLE

Q. My husband and I are in our 50's and have a small nest egg we would like to invest. But we are interested in stocks, bonds or mutual fund shares. They would not give us the kind of income we want.

A. No, I will not. Your letter is similar to many others asking that I recommend particular brokers, investment advisers, etc.

That, I cannot do. I wouldn't even if I could. It would be wrong to recommend some and exclude others. Anyway, just a couple of bad recommendations would put my neck on the chopping block. It's not that brave or foolish.

Recommendations of that type would be much the same as blanket recommendations on individual stocks. You'll never see me write "Buy XYZ" or "Sell ABC." That would turn this space into a straight-tout-sheet — something no respectable newspaper would stand for.

Anyway, with your "small nest egg," I doubt that any "business manager" of the type you seek would be interested.

Even if you did find one, you might very well balk at the fees he would charge you.

You might consider using an investment adviser to handle your investments—again, for a fee. But most advisers of that type handle only reasonably large accounts, say, $100,000 and up. Some do take accounts in the $25,000 range.

You could consult the trust department of a bank, for the same purposes. But, whether through an investment adviser or a trust department, your money would be invested in securities.

And you indicate that the income from securities would not satisfy you. For you, I am afraid I have no answer—other than to tell you that no one can show you the sure road to riches and/or high income through investments.

Q—I would like to know what has happened to the stocks of life insurance companies. Once they were very active and kept increasing in price. But, now, they all seem to be going down. At least, that is the story of the one I own and others I have watched. Why?

A. There's no getting around the fact that, over the past year or so, life insurance stocks have not continued to soar in market price as they did in previous years.

But this is not an unusual situation. No one stock or group of stocks keeps going up in price forever. Even when stock prices in general go up some stocks will go down. That has been pretty much the story of insurance stocks lately.

Just the same, stocks of well-managed insurance companies are still counted as good long-term growth situations.

There are lots of theories on why insurance stock prices have stopped skyrocketing. But it all boils down to the basic thing that market prices are set by relative amounts of buying and selling demand.

For some time now the buying ardor for insurance stocks has been cooled by a number of things. High prices and low dividend yields have been major factors.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

By ANDREW TULLY
WASHINGTON—The message contained in the radioactive debris of Communist China's second nuclear explosion should be clear even to those "Yes, but" experts who whine that a big bad United States is picking on Hanoi and Peking.
It is that the U.S. forthwith must see to the job of putting Southeast Asia's house in democratic order, lest we wake up some day to discover the job can't be done without starting World War III.
Two explosions of crude atomic devices do not make a nuclear power plant. The Chinese still do not have either an operational atomic bomb or a delivery system. Despite its grandiose propaganda, Peking is still a have-not in this nuclear era. But the experts agree that the terrible handwriting is on the wall.

Most authoritative opinions hold that it will be another year or even more before the Chinese have an operational atomic bomb and at least a few years before they have an operational hydrogen bomb. Then, once their bombs are operational, they must come up with a means of delivering them to the targets. The Chinese are tinkering with a missile system and probably will dispense with the manned-bomber stage in favor of rockets. A consensus estimate is that in 1970 Peking will have both operational nuclear weapons and medium range missiles to deliver them to any target in Asia.

FORMIDABLE THREAT IN FUTURE—In other words, in five years' time Red China will be a far more formidable enemy. It probably will be able to produce 20 nuclear bombs a year with which to threaten the free nations of Southeast Asia, to say nothing of India and Australia, and perhaps even the Soviet Union. Even if there are no threats, the Red Chinese arsenal will have an awesome psychological effect on that neighborhood of the world.

This is a situation that poses an ugly question for the United States, to wit, what are we waiting for? If the job of salvaging Southeast Asia from communism now seems difficult and fraught with the danger of expanding the war in Viet Nam, it will be a lot tougher in 1970. Given the nervous state of the world, it may then be impossible.

GROWING LATE FOR U.S.—No one in this house is suggesting that we push the button and bomb the living daylight out of Communist China, although as an exercise in practical, glib geopolitics it has its attractions. But if the American policy remains one of containing and/or defeating communism everywhere in the world, then it should be obvious that it is growing very late indeed in Southeast Asia.

Whatever happens in Viet Nam, there will be other Viet Nams in other parts of Asia. Even if the reds are soundly defeated in Viet Nam, Peking will continue its sponsorship of "wars of liberation" because that is its political bread-and-butter. Without constant attempts at expansion, the Chinese brand of communism cannot survive. Peking already has Thailand on its little list, and Laos. Presumably, it can gobble up Cambodia whenever it feels the necessity has arisen.

We are in a war in Viet Nam which we may not be winning. But we aren't losing it either. Moreover, despite Peking's big talk, Red China's politicians are well aware that in any showdown the massive strategic power of the United States would make radioactive mince-meat of their country. This is the time to finish the housecleaning job we started in Viet Nam—while Peking is still in the horse-and-buggy stage of nuclear weaponry.

Views of Others

AFTER THE BRACEROS . . .
Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz went to California to judge for himself the merits of the case for reviving the use of braceros (Mexican manual laborers) on the state's big farms, and what he learned gave no comfort to the big agricultural operators who in the past have hired alien labor at harvest time.
In four 16-hour days Mr. Wirtz traveled the state from north to south, talking with hundreds of field hands, employers and officials. At the end of his inquiry he declared that the day of the bracero was over. He went further. He indicated he was strongly inclined to press for a national minimum wage and unemployment insurance for farm workers, innovations which should be considered seriously in view of today's mechanized agriculture.

By act of congress, the annual importation of hundreds of thousands of braceros on the grounds of domestic labor shortages was ended last Dec. 31, but farm operators have been clamoring for a revival of the traffic under Section 414 of the McCarran-Walter Immigration Act. The law terminated was Public Law 78, and Mr. Wirtz dashed the hopes of employers by stating flatly it would not be replaced.

While the excuse for importing braceros was labor shortages, the real reason was the substandard wages they were paid. Mr. Wirtz called attention to the paradox of 400,000 to 500,000 unemployed persons in California and the claimed need for alien labor. He was not taken in by the arguments of the large-scale operators, some of whom permitted the braceros to live under miserable conditions.

With the threat of imported labor removed, employers will now have to bargain for domestic workers and provide incentives to get them to the farms. This means higher wages, and it also means family housing, schools, churches and other facilities. In the past, Mr. Wirtz noted, "at least one fifth of California agricultural work was performed by single individuals from a foreign country, living apart from their families in a network of bachelor labor camps." Foreign laborers have been employed in about 20 states, mainly the West.

We hope Mr. Wirtz is right in predicting that even major increases in farm wages will produce insignificant food price rises; packaging, distribution, marketing and other factors he considers more significant. At any rate, the abuse of the itinerant farm worker should be ended.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

COURT VS. CAMERA

The U.S. Supreme Court plunged into a con-jurer's thicket when it ruled Monday that camera tricks are out even if a sponsor's claim is valid.

The offending television commercial had used sand on plexi-glass, instead of sandpaper, to illustrate the manufacturer's point that its shaving cream could make sandpaper fit for shaving. This is one of the less imaginative TV commercial demonstrations. How about the fellow who leaps directly from an airplane into the driver's seat of a new automobile? Or the housewife who floats like Peter Pan among her kitchen gadgets? The high court will scarcely have time to police all such fantasies.

And it shouldn't be necessary. The public is not so gullible as the court, the Federal Trade Commission or the Federal Communications Commission may fear. Even the kids are well aware that a dirty shirt can't be cleaned in a flash as the white knight does it.—The Oregonian

He had reason.

For the differences between the French-speaking South and the Flemish-speaking North which had plagued Belgium for more than 100 years of its 135-year independent history, finally had expressed themselves forcefully at the polls.

The Doctor Says

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M. D.

There are only two things that cause fear in a newborn baby. One is being dropped, even though he lands on a soft mattress, and the other is a sudden, loud noise. By contrast the sound of normal human heartbeats is the most soothing "noise" in the world for an infant.

Dr. Lee Salk of New York exposed groups of newborn infants to recordings of heartbeats at the normal rate of 72 per minute and an accelerated rate of 123 per minute. Those exposed to the increased rate were definitely more restless.

The babies exposed to a background of normal heart sounds gained more weight and since both groups got the same amount of food, this was attributed to the fact that they did not exhaust themselves with fussing and crying.
Dr. Salk then studied the length of time it took for four groups of babies to get to sleep.

Interpreting The News

By JOHN MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—Fog has settled over the Dominican Republic where the Johnson administration has tried to end the revolution and so far has failed.
First, this brief background on a country which lived 31 years under a dictator and now has two "presidents."
From 1930 until his assassination in 1961 Gen. Rafael Trujillo was absolute dictator while those around him got rich in a land of poverty. There were, of course, no real political parties. After his death the Dominicans struggled through four governments and then, in a free election, chose Juan Bosch president. He lasted seven months until he was thrown out in 1963 by the military which scrapped the constitution and set up a five-man junta.

Although the United States recognized this junta, it lacked mass support and was heaved out in the revolution which began April 24. The military, defying the rebels, quickly set up another junta.
Skipping over the intervening weeks, this is the picture now: There are two warring factions, the five-man civilian-military junta headed by Gen. Antonio Imbert Barrera as "president" and the rebels headed by

Col. Francisco Caamano Deno as "president."
On April 28 President Johnson sent in Marines. At first he said they were there to save American lives; later he said they were there to prevent a takeover by Communists who, he explained, controlled the revolution.
Then on the weekend of May 15 he sent in his special adviser, McGeorge Bundy, a former Harvard dean, as his troubleshooter. Bundy returned to Washington Wednesday after 10 days in the Dominican Republic. He hadn't solved anything.
What he tried to do was get both sides to agree to a coalition government. To do this, the United States wanted the two leaders, Imbert and Caamano, to step down. But Imbert refused. This was a blow to Bundy and Johnson.

The United States had not only supported the Imbert junta—some say it was created at U.S. suggestion—but two weeks ago was considering recognizing it as the government.
But Imbert reportedly lacked mass support and a week ago U.S. policy shifted support away from Imbert, urging that he and Caamano both step aside.
Caamano may have undergone a change, too. In the past he had said he would step down but Wednesday he told newsmen no agreement had been reached on forming a coalition although, he said, his talks with Bundy had helped chances for a solution.
When Bundy came home he

(French-speaking) states loosely linked with Brussels as a federated capital.
In elections a week ago both coalition parties lost heavily to the extremists on the left and to the arch-conservative Party for Liberty and progress. The latter also had rejected the compromise language law in favor of total language freedom throughout the nation.
And so Christian Socialist Premier Theo Lefevre, who stood for "one country, one society, one Belgian nation," submitted his resignation to the king.
Belgium's language difficulties go back to the period between 1840 and 1850.

In 1960, economic trouble brought on by the loss of the Congo and an antiquated industrial structure, began bringing them to a painful head.
In the Walloon-speaking areas coal mines were closing and industry was finding it could not compete with the modern machinery of the West Germans and others among Belgium's neighbors.

The results were strikes and bloody rioting.
On their side the Flemish charged that the government was not truly bilingual and that the greatest economic benefits were going to the Walloons. Between the two groups serious clashes occurred.
Q—The doctors say my son, 7, has too much insulin. What is the best treatment for it?
A—Hyperinsulinism is relatively rare in children. Every effort must first be made to determine whether this condition is due to a disease of the kidneys, pituitary, adrenals or liver. If the disease causes attacks of rapid heart, headache or vomiting, an injection of adrenalin or a cube of sugar by mouth may give some relief. It is helpful to give your son a light supper and to give him a diet that is high in proteins and low in carbohydrates (sugars and starches).

Lullabies were played continuously for one group. Strange as it may seem, they took the longest time—49 minutes.
Another group went to sleep listening to a metronome set at 72 beats per minute. They took about the same length of time. The group that went to sleep in absolute quiet didn't do much better. It took them 46 minutes to go to sleep while those exposed to normal heart sounds made it in half the time—23 minutes.

These findings are not presented to cause a stampede to purchase heart-sound recordings but rather to emphasize the fact that close association with the mother's body is of the utmost importance in the early weeks of life. Other factors beside normal heart sounds, such as warmth and contact, are important, too. This study by a prominent physician is a strong reason to advocate the rooming-in system instead of the old-fashioned hospital nursery.

TAYLOR'S VIEWS ON WORLD NEWS

By HENRY J. TAYLOR

The Communist party's program in Europe is to isolate a rearm West Germany by neutralizing France and Italy at Germany's rear. You might call what's being forged the red ring.

President de Gaulle's de facto Moscow-Peking axis is indispensable in this. And as if he were incapable of understanding the dangers as we see them, there broods de Gaulle standing at the edge of the shadows like a moose stork.
On his recent whistle-stop tour of France he stated, regarding NATO, that it is unnecessary to withdraw from an organization to which a country belongs only symbolically. That's about par for the Sino-Soviet purpose in the red ring.

Meanwhile, the Communist party operates two recruitment arms among Parisian students, the Amities Franco-Chinoise and Les Circles Marxist-Leniniste and all but dominates the French National Students Union (UNEF). The UNEF touches us, too, for it is the chief host for about 2,000 American students sent abroad annually through our completely independent national students associations in the Experiment in International Living program.

In Austria, at West Germany's left the task of working out an agreement with both sides to Dr. Jose Mora, secretary-general of the Organization of American States.
Meanwhile, the OAS had voted 14 to 4 to send in a Latin American peacekeeping force with troops from five countries, about 2,000 in all. As they move in the United States will withdraw about 1,700 of its 21,000 troops.

The U.S. ambassador to the OAS, Ellsworth Bunker, seems to see great things in store for the idea of an OAS peacekeeping force. This was the first time Latin American countries had ever agreed to anything like this.
He called it a "historic action," hoped it would become a precedent for a permanent hemisphere peacekeeping force. But there's a good chance it won't and for several reasons.
Not all Latin American countries are happy with the U.S. intervention in this case and all of them, along with the United States, 17 years ago agreed in the OAS charter that no state or group of states has a right to intervene in any American state's internal problems for any reason.

When Johnson sent in the Marines he was going contrary to this agreement, signed by the United States, but the OAS by sending in the peacekeeping force was also acting contrary to its own charter.
And now the Johnson administration is beginning to soft-pedal the idea that the Communists, as Johnson said May 2, control the revolution and even seem to be making its own double-check on its information about the Reds.

The U.S. Central Intelligence Agency has the job of checking on things like Communists in other countries and Johnson presumably relied on CIA information when he talked of Red control in the Dominican Republic.
But now the White House has in effect acknowledged the FBI is in there checking, too.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk has testified that 6,000 to 8,000 African students are in Communist block countries; red diplomatic, consular and trade missions in Africa total about 150 and more than 10 hours a day communist broadcast (including those from Castro's Cuba) are beamed exclusively to Africa.

The war for the defense of Western civilization is entering its critical stage, yet the millions who should be its passionate defenders, unaware of the nature and extent of their danger, have left the gate open and gone to bed.

Bridge by Jacoby

CONTRACT FIRST, OVERTRICKS NEXT

This week's articles will be devoted to the American Bridge Teachers Association and some typical teachers' lesson plans.
The ideal hand for a bridge teacher should show logical bidding and logical play so we see that South has a very normal no-trump opening and that North with 13 high card points and no four-card major has even more normal raise to three no-trump.

Sixteen points opposite 13 should produce nine tricks without any trouble but after South tricks. He must look around for a sure way to make nine. He can see that if East holds the king of clubs and gets in the lead with it he can return a heart and give his partner four heart tricks assuming that the three of hearts was fourth best of five.

Is there an absolutely safe way to play the hand? Yes! South can count eight tricks in top cards and can get after the ninth in diamonds in such a way that he can keep East out of the lead.

The play is to get that ninth trick by means of a diamond finesse against East. You don't care if this finesse loses or not because West can't hurt you if he gets in the lead.
Therefore you enter dummy with a spade at trick two and take that diamond finesse and leading the three spot and finessing your ten. This gives you three diamonds in addition to your four spades, one heart and one club.

CARD SENSE
Q—The bidding has been:
South West North East
1♠ Pass 1♥ Pass
1♠ Pass 3♥ Pass
You, South, hold:
♠KQJ2 ♠A104 ♠32 ♠A54
What do you do?
A—Bid four hearts. Yes, would like to make a slightly stronger bid if you could do so without going past game.

TODAY'S QUESTION
Your partner bids five diamonds. What do you do now?

Mrs. Kennedy Finds Nanny For Children

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. John F. Kennedy has found another British nanny for her two children, John F. Jr., 4, and Caroline, 7, the Washington Post reports.

The new nurse is described as a young Englishwoman who speaks French, a language in which the president's widow is fluent. Her name is not given in the Post account.

The story says the new nurse was one of several applicants interviewed after Mrs. Kennedy placed an advertisement in the Times of London during her recent visit to the British capital. The young nanny will replace Maud Shaw, also English, who is retiring after nearly 40 years of caring for children of the Kennedy family.

Mrs. Kennedy and her aides could not be reached in New York on Sunday for details.

Popular Spring Is Contaminated

SALMON — Wagonhammer Spring, located along U.S. Highway 93 near North Fork, has been posted and the public cautioned not to use water there unless it has been boiled.

The Forest Service reports results of Idaho Department of Health laboratory analysis of weekly water samples from the spring now show contaminating intestinal trace bacteria.

Ronald E. Averill, North Fork District ranger, said Salmon National Forest personnel have moved and the public notified, been cooperating with the health department by sending in water samples each week to the Idaho Falls laboratory.

The water has tested pure through the winter, but latest results of analyses have brought to light the contamination. It and when continued testing shows the water to be pure, the posting at the spring will be removed.

The spring is a popular stopping place along U.S. Highway 93 for motorists.

Matrimonial Plans Broken Up by 2 Dogs

COATES, England (UPI) — John Felstead, 74, and Lizzie Smith, 65, broke up today and called off a June wedding. They get along all right but their dogs don't.

The 12-month courtship had been going along fine until Felstead, a widower, decided to buy a spaniel puppy to keep him company at his bungalow home.

Mrs. Smith, a widow, has had a dog for years. But she usually left the pet at her home in nearby Whitteley whenever she visited Felstead.

Last week, she brought the dog along. The fur flew.

"There was a real set-to," said Felstead.

"It was obvious the two dogs could not agree. I told Mrs. Smith not to come again. We had intended marrying, but now it is all off because she refuses to get rid of that dog."

Mrs. Smith see the dispute in a different light.

"My dog is my only pal and I have no intention of getting rid of him—even if it means breaking up with John."

It's all over so far as Felstead is concerned. He has placed an ad in the local papers for a prospective bride who doesn't own a dog.

"I've been alone so long I need a companion," Felstead said.

Negro Girl Graduates, Makes History

By JEAN CRAFTON
TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (AP) — Alabama coed Vivian J. Malone made history Sunday as she became the first Negro ever to graduate from the University of Alabama.

The 22-year-old student received her bachelor's degree in business management. She was among 1,726 graduates from the 134-year-old institution.

She embraced her mother and was whisked away by a battery of relatives and friends, who turned out to witness her graduation.

While it was apparent her family was left largely to itself, they left the impression they wanted it that way.

She posed for pictures at various campus landmarks as did hundreds of other capped and gowned students.

After the baccalaureate sermon, Miss Malone received her family in the living room of Mary Burke Hall, the dormitory where she has lived for the past year. Relatives ran the gamut from a tiny nephew barely able to toddle to her aging father.

The gray-haired Malone said it was a "wonderful thing" that his daughter had been able to attend Alabama.

In response to questions, he said he plans to send his other children to the university also.

His daughter, Vivian, interrupted at this point laughingly to say, "But only if they want to, Daddy."

Vivian's four younger sisters are in high school or grammar school.

Memorial Night Held by Grange

A memorial service was conducted by Mrs. Glenn Dossett during the Knoll Grange meeting Friday evening at the hall.

Other members taking part in the service included Mrs. Tom Hlari, Mrs. Henry Sharp, Mrs. R. B. Modeen and Mrs. Elmer Dossett.

The charter was draped for the late Fay Holloway, who was a charter member of Knoll Grange. Judy and Jeanne Dossett sang "Beyond the Sunset."

During the business session plans were made to redecorate the inside of the hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Modeen were hosts.

TRAVELERS TO MEET
BOISE (UPI) — The United Commercial Travelers of Idaho, Montana and Utah will hold their annual convention in Boise June 9-11.

YOUTH KILLED
WALLACE (UPI) — An 18-year-old Wallace youth was killed Sunday and three other persons seriously injured in a one-car accident on U.S. 10 highway near here.

Idaho State Police identified the dead man as Edward Krullitz. He was thrown from a speeding car that rolled over and control down the highway around 5 p.m.

Krullitz was the first traffic victim during Idaho's Memorial Day weekend. His death was also the 82nd highway tragedy in Idaho this year compared with 79 a year ago.

Whole Scout Family Goal Is Outlined

Organizations already using part of the program of the Boy Scouts of America will be encouraged to establish the "whole Scout family," according to Robert Erkins, president of the Snake River Area Council.

The special attention to institutional partners is part of "The Program of Emphasis Breakthrough for Youth," 1965-67.

"The Scout program provides training experiences to develop citizenship, physical fitness and character in boys 8 through 17," Erkins said. "Each part of the program is designed to meet the needs and interest of boys in various age groups, and we hope a boy may have a continuing relationship to the charter institution and its objectives and at the same time benefit from a continuing Scout program."

Erkins explained that chartered institutions provide meeting places, unit leadership and administrative directions to operate their own Scout units.

Some 51 organizations in Magic Valley have at least one Cub Scout pack, Boy Scout troop and Explorer post to qualify for the whole Scout family title.

Other students placing in the top six in the competition included Ralph Caldwell, Hagerman.

DANCE FESTIVAL SET
IDAHO FALLS (UPI) — About 2,500 dancers from 14 eastern Idaho stakes of the LDS Church will be featured in a dance festival Friday.

The festival will be held at the Idaho Falls High School stadium.

BOYS STATE MEET SET
BOISE (AP) — Gov. Robert E. Smylie set aside June 6 to 13 for the American Legion Gem Boys State in Idaho and urged the state's citizens to carry on the programs ideals.

"I urge all Idahoans," said Smylie, "to follow the example set by the American Legion in instilling in our young Americans a sense of individual responsibility to the community, state and nation so that the United States will remain the world's brightest symbol of freedom."

Boys State will provide a course for 350 boys in government functions and responsibilities of citizenship at Boise Junior College.

FIDDLERS EVENT EYED

Snake River Pollution Studied

BOISE—Idaho's program for reducing pollution of Snake River came in for international attention when a report of waste disposal methods of the state's important potato processing industry was presented to the New Brunswick (Canada) Research and Productivity Council.

The report, which had been requested by the Canadian organization, was prepared by Robert E. Pailthrop and John W. Filbert, industrial effluent specialists for Cornell, Howland, Hayes and Merryfield, consulting engineers and planners, Boise.

At present, the report says, all major potato processing plants which discharge waste to the Snake River or its tributaries provide primary treatment for waste flows. Biochemical oxygen demand (pollutants) is reduced by 50 to 75 per cent by the primary treatment plants.

The engineering committee of the Idaho Potato Processors Associates now has under way a two-year study in preparation for increased treatment of the wastes to remove up to 85 per cent or more of the BOD.

About 500 middle-aged people attacked the youths while the rest of the crowd cheered them on.

Attendance at Fair Sunday Sets Record

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York World's Fair, beset by falling attendance since its second season started last month, Sunday had a crowd of 265,568—the largest for any day in its history.

The turnout was unofficially attributed to a combination of fine weather Sunday and Saturday's rain, which caused many persons to postpone their visit for a day.

The attendance was 1,016 over the old record of 264,552, set on Sunday, Oct. 11, 1964.

The previous high during the current final season was 177,260 on Saturday, May 15.

Total attendance during the first 40 days of this season is 3,770,520. This is 1,863,351 behind the 5,633,871 at the same time last year.

Drivers Get Traditional Warning of Dangers at Start of 500-Mile Race

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The 22 veterans and 11 rookies who will blast off Monday in the 49th 500-mile Memorial Day auto race heard their traditional warning Sunday that the flying start is the most dangerous part of the contest. It had more impact than in past years because of the explosive second-lap pile-up last year which killed Eddie Sachs and David MacDonald and took seven cars out of the race. Tony Hulman, Indianapolis Motor Speedway president, reminded the fastest drivers in the track's 55-year history of the consequences of a rash move when the 33 starters are still bunched, full of fuel and pulling one another around the track in a vacuum.

Adair's Hit Gives Orioles 4-3 Victory

BALTIMORE (AP) — Jerry Adair's seventh-inning single, following an intentional walk to Boog Powell, drove in the winning run Sunday as the Baltimore Orioles edged the Los Angeles Angels 4-3.

John Orsino, who homered for the first Baltimore run in the second inning, opened the seventh with a single off relief pitcher Ron Piche.

Orsino was sacrificed to second and pinch hitter Powell was walked. Adair then slapped a 3-2 pitch to left, scoring Orsino.

A run-scoring double by Jim Fregost had tied the score 3-3 in the top of the seventh before Stu Miller cut short the Angels' rally with his 14th consecutive scoreless relief appearance.

Pro Tour of Europe Is NBA's Goal

NEW YORK (UPI)—National Basketball Association President J. Walter Kennedy would like to send an NBA all-star squad to Europe every year to play local and national teams.

He has just returned from a two-week jaunt to Italy, Yugoslavia and Lebanon. The U.S. State Department, which sponsored the tour, had scheduled games in Poland and Rumania, but the Iron Curtain countries canceled out.

"I know we help to create more interest in basketball," Kennedy said Saturday. "We helped to develop some of the skills that were evident in the players we faced, and helped to awaken the players to the need for further development."

He said that the Lebanese, Italians and Yugoslavs had a reverence for NBA stars.

"I was amazed to find such tremendous interest in basketball in such places," he said. "In Lebanon, they know our basketball players like American kids know baseball players. They talk about Nathan Thurmond, Bill Russell, Wilt Chamberlain."

Kennedy said that Michael Caludio, president of the Italian Basketball Federation, told him that the coaches felt a game against the professional stars was worth a month of practices because their players learn a great deal from the Americans.

"During the time out our boys would explain to the other teams why they were able to drive around them and show them ways of preventing it," Kennedy said.

Braves' Hurler Undergoes Tests

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Milwaukee pitcher Bob Sadowski underwent tests Sunday at Daniel Freeman Hospital to determine whether he may be suffering from infectious mononucleosis.

Dr. Robert Woods, Los Angeles Dodgers' team physician, said a preliminary examination indicated the possibility of the infectious disease.

"Sadowski will be hospitalized in any event for several more days for treatment of streptococcus infection of the throat," Dr. Woods said.

The physician said if the tests show he has mononucleosis he will not be able to play for at least a week or 10 days.

Phillies Buy Cubs' Burdette

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies purchased veteran right-hander Lou Burdette from the Chicago Cubs Sunday and placed Ryne Duren on the waiver list preparatory to giving him his unconditional release.

Burdette had appeared in seven games with the Cubs. He was 0-2 with a 5.40 earned run average. Burdette had a 10-9 record last season with St. Louis and Chicago.

Duren, picked up from Cincinnati this spring, made six appearances and had no record. In 11 innings, he had a 3.27 ERA.

No-Hitter

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Oklahoma City's Jim Ward pitched a no-hitter before Indianapolis rallied for six runs in the ninth inning Sunday in Pacific Coast League baseball action, but the 89ers won 7-6.

Hill Drives BRM to Win At Monaco

MONTE CARLO, Monaco (UPI)—England's Graham Hill, driving a BRM, won the Monaco Grand Prix for the third successive year Sunday with a record average speed of 74.29 miles per hour, before an estimated 200,000 spectators.

Hill led home Italy's Lorenzo Bandini in the new 12-cylinder Ferrari and Scotland's Jackie Stewart in another BRM in one of the most exciting and spectacular races held here.

Australia's Paul Hawkins, 28, had a miraculous escape from serious injury or death when his Lotus crashed through the Chicane Bend on the 85th lap and landed in the sea. Hawkins was thrown out and managed to swim to a rescue boat, apparently unharmed.

It was the same spot where Italian ace Albert Ascari crashed in the same way in 1953.

Hill gained nine points for his victory to lead in the World Drivers' Championships standings with a total 13 points for two races.

England's John Surtees, in the lead Ferrari, ran out of gasoline on the last lap while running second and was officially placed fourth.

He now has a total nine points to be tied for second with Jim Clark of Scotland, who passed up the event to appear in the Memorial Day "500" at Indianapolis Monday.

Hill became the first man to win three straight races here after a great battle with the Ferrari of Surtees and Bandini.

Downs Bees SALT LAKE CITY (AP) —

Winning pitcher Jack Spring drove in two runs on a bases-loaded single in the seventh inning Sunday to give Seattle a 7-6 victory over Salt Lake in Pacific Coast League baseball action.

Koufax Hurls Dodgers Past Redlegs 12-5

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sandy Koufax allowed five hits and struck out 13 as the National League-leading Los Angeles Dodgers whipped the Cincinnati Reds 12-5.

Koufax' strikeouts increased his career total to 1,802, one more than teammate Don Drysdale reached Saturday.

A sixth-inning error by Jim Lefebvre and a collision between Dodger outfielders Al Ferrara and Lou Johnson helped Cincinnati score four runs, three of them unearned.

The Dodgers pounded four Cincinnati pitchers for 13 hits, handing the Reds their fifth straight defeat.

John Roseboro drove in three runs with three singles. Maury Willis and Ron Fairly each knocked in two runs with a single and double while Dick Traczewski contributed a two-run single and Wes Parker a two-run triple.

Pirates Run Wins to 10 As Mets Fall

NEW YORK (AP) — The Pittsburgh Pirates extended their winning streak to 10 games Sunday, clobbering the New York Mets 9-1 and 12-0 behind the senior members of their pitching staff, Bob Friend and Vernon Law.

Friend, in his 15th year with the Pirates, stopped the Mets on five hits in the opener. He struck out four and didn't walk a man, evening his record at 3-3.

Law, a 14-year veteran, blanked New York on six hits while striking out seven and walking none for his second victory against five defeats.

The Pirates backed Law in the nightcap with home runs by Gene Alley with one on, Jim Pagliaroni with two on and Willie Stargell and Bob Bailey, each with the bases empty.

Salmon Spawning Test Appears Off To Good Start

BOISE (AP) — Attempts to re-establish a waterway channel hatchery for Chinook Salmon in the Clearwater River appears to be off to a good start, the Idaho, Fish and Game Department reported Sunday.

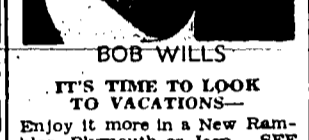

The department said 59 Chinook—42 in a single week—have been counted heading upstream to spawn from the Washington Water Power Company dam just east of Lewiston.

The Salmon probably are from Eyed Chinook salmon eggs planted in tributary streams of the clearwater in 1961 to start the restoration program, said James C. Simpson, chief of fisheries management.

This is more than have been counted since the dam was built, said Simpson. But he said it is too early to predict long-term success of the project.

Crampton Shoots Even Par to Win Speedway Open

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Bruce Crampton, handsome man from Australia, valuted into the second PGA money-winning spot with a pressurized one-stroke victory at the $87,000 Speedway Festival Open Sunday. Crampton shook off a triple bogey 7 on the 425-yard fifth hole at Greentree Country Club and then finished with a par 71 after an approach from 200 yards to within four feet of the 18th pin for a par 5 worth about $7,300.

Braves Stop Astro Streak At Four Wins

HOUSTON (AP) — Hank Aaron's two-run homer and bases-empty shots by Felipe Alou and Mack Jones powered Milwaukee to a 6-5 victory over Houston Sunday and ended the Astros' winning streak at four. Alou connected leading off the fifth inning, and after Ed Matthews singled, Aaron hit his sixth homer of the season pulling the Braves out front 5-3. The Astros had pulled ahead in the fourth when Joe Gaines singled to left with two men on and the ball got by Rico Cartwright, allowing all three runners to score.

Wade Blasingame got the victory, his fifth against four losses, but needed Billy O'Dell's one-hit relief help over the final 1 1/2 innings.

Owners Hope Draft Will Cut Expenses

NEW YORK (UPI) — Major league club owners, tired of wasting millions of dollars in bonus money on untried youngsters, have devised a new and what they hope will be a cheaper way to jump new talent into baseball.

They will try it out next month. It's a free agent draft, which the club owners claim was designed to give the poorer clubs the same opportunity of signing a potential major league player as the rich clubs. They also claim, with tongue-in-cheek, that money was only a secondary consideration.

Before the free agent draft was devised, each of the 20 major league teams had to bid against each other for the services of a college, high school or sandlot player who showed enough promise to warrant a major league trial.

The bidding for these players became expensive. Bonuses of a hundred thousand dollars or more became commonplace with the richer club winding up with the most talent.

Besides costing money, this free bidding system created much ill will and just wasn't in keeping with the tight-fisted fiscal policies of most club owners.

Only one of about six of these high priced bonus players ever became major leaguers and the established stars, who had to battle tooth and nail for salary increases, didn't relish those high bonuses because they figured it was taking money out of their pocket.

Mrs. Hagge Is Open Winner

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) — Marlene Hagge sank a 40-foot birdie putt on the third hole of a sudden death playoff Sunday and won the $8,500 Babe Zaharias Open golf tournament.

Mrs. Hagge, Clifford Ann Creed and Carol Mann had tied for first with 215 for 54 holes. In the playoff Miss Mann was knocked out on the second hole with a bogey but Miss Creed had par for all three holes. Mrs. Hagge won $1,275 first money.

Colavito-Led Indians Rip Detroit 10-2

DETROIT (AP) — Rocky Colavito's four hits and five runs batted in, three of them on a home run in the fifth inning, sparked the Cleveland Indians to a 10-2 victory over the Detroit Tigers Sunday.

The Indians chased Tiger starter Phil Regan in the fourth inning when the first four batters hit singles. Joe Azcue singled home two runs off reliever Jack Hamilton, capping the four-run inning.

Willie Horton's two-run homer in the second inning, his 10th of the season, gave the Tigers a brief lead.

Cleveland pitcher Sam McDowell extended his American League lead in strikeouts to 84. He fanned nine Detroit batters in the first five innings and finished with 13, his high for the season.

Twins Belt Solons For Pascual

WASHINGTON (AP) — Unbeaten Camilo Pascual won his sixth game with a four-hitter and received homerun support from Zoilo Versalles and Harmon Killebrew as the Minnesota Twins belted Washington 6-0 Sunday.

The Twins scored their first run off Mike McCormick in the second inning on Bob Allison's bunt single. Rich Rollins' hit through the middle and Joe Nosssek's sacrifice fly. Singled by Nosssek and Pascual preceded Versalles' fifth homer in the fourth.

The Twins added a run in the seventh on a walk to Allison, Nosssek's single off Buster Narum's arm and Jerry Zimmerman's single. Killebrew added his seventh home run in the ninth inning.

Dressen Plans Few Changes

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit Tigers Manager Charlie Dressen will return to the helm in New York Monday and promises there will only be a few minor changes in the operation of the team.

The Tigers have been managed by coach Bob Swift since Dressen suffered a minor heart attack in spring training at Lakeland, Fla., last March 8.

"I was going to come back a week ago, but the doctor advised me to wait a while longer," Dressen said Sunday.

Barker Gives Yankees Win Over Chicago

CHICAGO (AP) — Ray Barker stroked a single to right off reliever Hoyt Wilhelm in the 12th inning, driving in Bobby Richardson with the winning run Sunday as the New York Yankees edged the Chicago White Sox 3-2 and ended a four-game losing streak.

Richardson singled with one out, getting the winning rally started, moved to second when Roger Maris leapt out a hit to third and came around on Barker's hit.

The White Sox had tied the score 2-2 in the eighth after Smuky Burgess doubled with one out for the 100th pinch-hit of his career. Danny Cater's single brought in the run.

The Yankees took a 1-0 lead in the fourth inning on Mickey Mantle's eighth homer, but the White Sox' Pete Ward connected in the same inning with his fourth homer.

The Yankees moved back out front in the fifth against Gary Peters on singles by Cleve Boyer and Doc Edwards, a sacrifice by Stottlemyre and Phil Linz' single.

Boston Downs A's 3-2 on Walk in 11th

BOSTON (AP) — Kansas City's John Wyatt walked Lenny Green with two out and the bases loaded in the 11th inning, forcing the winning run for a 3-2 Boston victory Sunday behind the clutch relief pitching of Dick Radatz.

Radatz produced the only hit of the inning, a single, following Wyatt's two-out walk to Ed Bressoud. Both runners advanced on a wild pitch before Wyatt walked Mike Ryan, loading the bases, and then Green.

Roland Sheldon, trying to stretch his unbeaten mastery over Boston to seven straight, saw a 2-1 lead erased with one out in the ninth inning when Tony Conigliaro smashed his 10th homer into the center field screen.

Boston scored in the first inning on a walk, an error and Lee Thomas' single. Kansas City came back for two in the second when Bill Monbouquette walked Mike Hershberger with two out and Bill Ryan followed with his fifth homer.

Dropped Ball Lets Giants Edge Cards

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Bob Skinner dropped a high fly by pinch hitter Willie Mays with the bases loaded and two out in the 10th inning, letting Frank Linzy score with the winning run as the San Francisco Giants edged St. Louis 3-2 Sunday.

The victory was the fourth straight for the Giants and also extended the Cardinals' losing streak to four.

Cardinal ace Bob Gibson, now 8-2, took a four-hitter into the 10th but Hal Tamm's and Dick Schofield's singles and an intentional walk to Willie McCovey filled the bases with two out.

Manager Herman Franks sent Mays to bat for Jim Hart. Willie had been kept out of the starting lineup because of a heavy cold and high fever. Matty Alou had bailed the Giants out of a jam in the top of the 10th with a sensational running catch of a 400-foot drive by Tim McCarver. There were two on base at the time.

DROP OUT?

Very unlikely. The successful newspaperboy is at opposite poles from the quitter by the very fact of having a newspaper route.

His experience shows him that the rewards for the goof-off are slim; that there's no room for the quitter and that the laurels of life go to the person able to meet challenges. He's found that initiative pays big dividends and there is no substitute for learning to deal with people.

Guided by men who are trained to work with boys he develops responsible attitudes, and for the first time, money becomes more than a hand-out. Nothing can replace the satisfaction of purchasing with money he's earned on his own.

You would be surprised to know how many of today's leaders built their success stories on a newspaperboy foundation.
