SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — The U. S. Marines said goodbye to Santo Domingo today as President Johnson ordered the rest of them out. Helicopters were airlifting the 2,100 leathernecks to the carrier Boxer offshore. There was no indication whether the carrier and her escort would sail for other waters once the Marines were aboard. Johnson announced in Chicago Thursday night that Brazilian Gen. Hugo Panasco Alvim, commander of the Inter-American Force in the Dominican Republic, had advised him "that conditions in the Dominican Republic now permit further reduction of our military personnel."

Marines Take Offensive in Viet Nam War

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—U.S. Marines killed 19 Viet Cong and wounded 11 in skirmishes today in the Da-Nang-Phu Bai area, a spokesman announced. He said two Marines were killed and 19 wounded. The leathernecks took the offensive in a day of scattered ground fighting across South Viet Nam, in which the Viet Cong strove to maintain the initiative. Government casualties for today and Thursday rose to at least 239 killed, wounded and missing.

In Saigon, the National Legislative Council apparently resolved a political crisis simmering for two weeks. The 20-member council upheld a right of Premier Phan Huy Quat, challenged by Phan Khac Suu, chief of state, to fire two Cabinet ministers. A spokesman said Quat was now supporting Quat. U.S. Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor, who postponed a projected trip to Washington last weekend to keep watch on the crisis, may now head to the United States in the next few days.

A ranking U.S. military spokesman, speaking of the makeup of enemy forces, said there are so many of North Viet Nam's regular troops fighting now in South Viet Nam "it is becoming academic" whether they are here as regular North Vietnamese units.

Escapee Is Captured by F. F. Police

An 18-year-old Boise youth, who escaped from custody of Idaho police Sunday afternoon, was arrested Thursday afternoon apparently after attempting to break into a Twin Falls church.

Twin Falls police officers apprehended John H. Bement, 18, shortly after they received a call that the youth was trying to enter the Trinity Southern Baptist Church, 302 Third Ave. N. He also attempted to enter the Grace Bible Church, also located on Third Avenue North.

Bement had been picked up Sunday by a state patrolman and was taken to the Jerome police station where he was being questioned. Officers stepped out of the room and Bement apparently also left, by way of window. He was being held on illegal consumption of alcoholic beverages and a traffic violation.

Site Chosen for Hemingway Memorial on Trail Creek

KETCHUM—Decision on the site for the Ernest Hemingway memorial was made at a meeting of the committee here Thursday. According to C. E. Atkinson, chairman, the memorial will be located on Trail Creek Road, near Sun Valley, easily accessible both summer and winter. The site is a small natural rock, which has escaped the inroads of civilization and remains as it was hundreds of years ago.

In 1929 Hemingway wrote, in part to a friend, these words which probably will be inscribed on the memorial: "He loved the hills in the late fall, the snows go off and the first flowers come off. He loved the warm sun of summer and the high mountain meadows. He loved the hills in the winter when the snow comes. He loved all he loved the fall. He loved floating on trout streams above the hills, the high mountains sky."

State Fund Overdraft Down in May

BOISE (AP) — Idaho's general fund had an overdraft of only $69,390 at the end of May, far less than the $2,334,000 overdraft which existed a year earlier.

The report was issued today by Treasurer Marjorie R. Moon and Auditor Joe R. Williams. The cash balance was $1,727,440 but subtracted from that were outstanding warrants totaling $1,787,830.

In the comparable period in the last biennium the general fund was overdrawn $2,387,091. That year considerable shifting of funds was necessary to produce a year-end general fund balance of $115,977.

Williams, in letters to the 44 counties last week, urged them to transmit to the state as soon as possible the state's share of this month's property tax collections. Normally the tax payments from the counties are received in July.

Red Bombers Are Sighted In Viet Nam

WASHINGTON (AP)—About a half dozen Soviet-built medium jet bombers have been sighted in North Viet Nam in the past week or so, informed sources said Thursday. The craft were identified as twin-jet Il28s.

Whether they are being piloted by Russians is not known, these informants said. They reported that six or eight of the planes, which have a middle-range bombing radius sufficient to allowing bombing of South Viet Nam, had been spotted.

The United States has previously reported detecting at least two Soviet-type anti-aircraft missile sites in the vicinity of Hanoi, the North Vietnamese capital. No missiles have yet been detected at these installations, it was stated Thursday.

Misnomer Overdraft

Contrary to the popular belief that June is the "wedding month," it is evident from the records of the Twin Falls County courthouse the most popular month for purchasing licenses is August.

June licenses for 1964 totaled approximately 65. During the first week in June, 1964, 10 were issued and through the first three days of June, 1965, 11 licenses were issued.

In past years more marriage licenses have been issued in the local courthouse in both August and May than June.

Hoarding of Coins Can Be Blocked

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Treasury thinks it can block any problems from coin hoarding and melting-down if Congress approves President Johnson's proposal for replacing silver in much of the nation's coinage. Secretary Henry H. Fowler said today.

Fowler was the first administration witness at House Banking and Currency Committee hearings that got under way with extraordinary swiftness after Johnson sent his coinage change message to Congress Thursday.

The President recommended replacing the silver dime and quarter with sandwich-type coins of copper center and nickel faces and the half-dollar with a coin in which the proportion of silver would be much reduced. "There is no reason for hoarding of coins in anticipation of a coin shortage," Fowler told the committee.

He said the Treasury expects to peg the price of silver indefinitely at its present level of a bit more than $1.29 a troy ounce. The point at which it becomes profitable to melt down present coins, he said, is $1.38 an ounce.

Suspect Will Return for Murder Trial

BOGALUSA, La. (AP)—Ernest Ray McElveen, white man accused in the slaying of a Negro deputy sheriff, waived extradition in Mississippi today and agreed to return to Louisiana to face murder charges.

The Associated Press learned that McElveen, 41, a laboratory technician at the huge paper mill here, would be brought back to this southeast Louisiana city later today.

McElveen was stopped by a marshal at Tylertown—40 miles northwest of here—an hour after the Negro deputy was shot and killed by persons in a black pickup truck with a Confederate flag decal on its right front bumper.

This description of the truck fitted that of the truck McElveen was driving when stopped at Tylertown, officers said.

One source said authorities are convinced three men took part in the shooting.

Wives Talk To Husbands In Space

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Mrs. James A. McDivitt and Mrs. Edward H. White II told their husbands to "be good" and to "have a good flight" today in the first space conversation between astronauts and their wives.

The women sounded bright, happy — and a little self-conscious as their voices traveled more than 100 miles into space to the Gemini 4.

The wives were at Mission Control Center here and their husbands were crossing California in their 18th orbit.

DELEGATION IN MOSCOW

MOSCOW (AP) — A delegation from Communist North Viet Nam arrived today for talks with Soviet leaders.

Astronauts Whirl Into Second Day Of Space Flight

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Astronauts James McDivitt and Edward White whirled into the second day of their marathon space mission today, their spirits high and their flight plan back on schedule after some hectic early hours during which White strolled in space. The Mission Control Center said everything appeared favorable for the Gemini 4 spacecraft to complete its full 97-hour, 50 minute mission. If there are no hitches, America's longest manned space flight will end at 12:06 p.m. EST Monday with a parachute splashdown in the Atlantic Ocean 400 miles southwest of Bermuda.

During a pass over the Houston Control Center on the 14th orbit today, White told capsule communicator Virgil Grissom a few more details about his 20-minute excursion into space during orbit No. 7 Thursday.

White described as "vivid blue" the waters of the Gulf of Mexico and the Caribbean. He said he clearly saw Houston and Galveston Bay as he floated on the end of a golden lifeline more than 100 miles above the earth.

He said he even saw Clear Lake, about 3 miles long and 1 1/2 miles wide, near the Houston homes of both astronauts.

White said the jet-gun maneuvering unit he used made it much easier to move about outside the capsule. When he wasn't using it, he said, he had difficulty getting around.

White also said he had walked. See ASTRONAUTS, Pg. 2, Col. 4

Bones Will Answer Space Questions

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—The little fingers and heel bones of astronauts James A. McDivitt and Edward H. White II may help answer a question that has puzzled scientists.

Soviet cosmonauts reportedly suffered severely from bone demineralization—loss of density—after long periods of exposure to weightlessness and inactivity.

Bone demineralization has been observed also during periods of long bed rest due to inadequate calcium intake.

To determine if the condition could become a dangerous problem for U.S. spacemen on extended space journeys, the Manned Spacecraft Center awarded a $10,000 contract to Texas Women's University to investigate.

X-rays were made of the right little finger and a heel bone on both spacemen before they soared into space. One set of measurements was made 10 days before launch, another two days, and a third four hours before takeoff.

As soon as possible after McDivitt and White reach the recovery ship, technicians will take comparison X-rays, using a special technique called bone densitometry. Other tests will be made 2 days and 10 days later.

By comparing measurements, doctors can determine how much, if any, damage occurred to the bones.

One reason the finger and heel bones were selected was because of the small amount of overlying tissues.

Buhl Boy, 11, Drowns On LDS Swim Party

BURLY—Joseph White, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Asa White, Buhl, drowned Thursday night while on an LDS Sunday school party at Bunbury Hot Springs. According to Twin Falls County Sheriff James Benham, who investigated, the boy was accounted for when the group got out of the plunge to eat at 8:30 p.m., and it is not known when he went back into the pool. He had been taken to the party by his grandparents, who left, assuming he had another ride home. But because he had not ridden to the site with the group, the adult leaders thought he had returned home with his relatives when he was not present when they left at about 10 p.m.

Annual T. F. Fish Derby Set Saturday

The annual fish derby for children 12 years of age and under will get under way at 9 a.m. Saturday in Harmon Park.

More than 500 fish have been planted in the stream by three Twin Falls trout farms. The event is co-sponsored by the local Moose Lodge and the Twin Falls Recreation Department.

Prizes, donated by local merchants, will be given to those catching the most fish, the largest fish, etc., when the derby closes at noon.

Youngsters participating must provide their own fishing equipment.

Gem Employees Meet Opens In Burley

BURLEY—A legislative panel highlighted the opening day of the sixth annual general Council of the Idaho State Employees Association Friday. The convave continues through Saturday evening at the Ponderosa Inn.

Participating on the panel Friday noon were Donald Loveland, Burley, Cassia county state senator; William Lanting, Twin Falls county state representative; and Pete Cenarrusa, Blaine county senator and speaker of the house in the past legislature.

Friday afternoon delegates from the five districts throughout the state worked on resolutions to be presented to the next Idaho legislature. Members toured the Ore-Ida processing plant to conclude the Friday sessions.

Saturday the business sessions open at 8 a.m. with the late registration. Perry Swisher, Pocatello, Bannock county senator, will speak on "The Day They Tore up the Charts on Idaho."

Marshall Edson, Boise, state fish and game department employee, is president of the state group.

Officers will be elected Saturday and installed at a banquet slated for 7:30 p.m. Saturday. The two-day meeting will close with a directors' meeting.

WRITER IN COMA

Valley C. of C. Representatives Hold Meet Here

A meeting of Chamber of Commerce representatives from various communities throughout the Magic Valley was held Thursday at Kay's Supper Club.

Present were representatives of the Burley, Jerome, Kimberly, Ketchum, Buhl and Twin Falls Chambers of Commerce.

Ray Rostron, secretary-manager of the Twin Falls chamber, said the meeting was a success and plans were made for another such meeting soon.

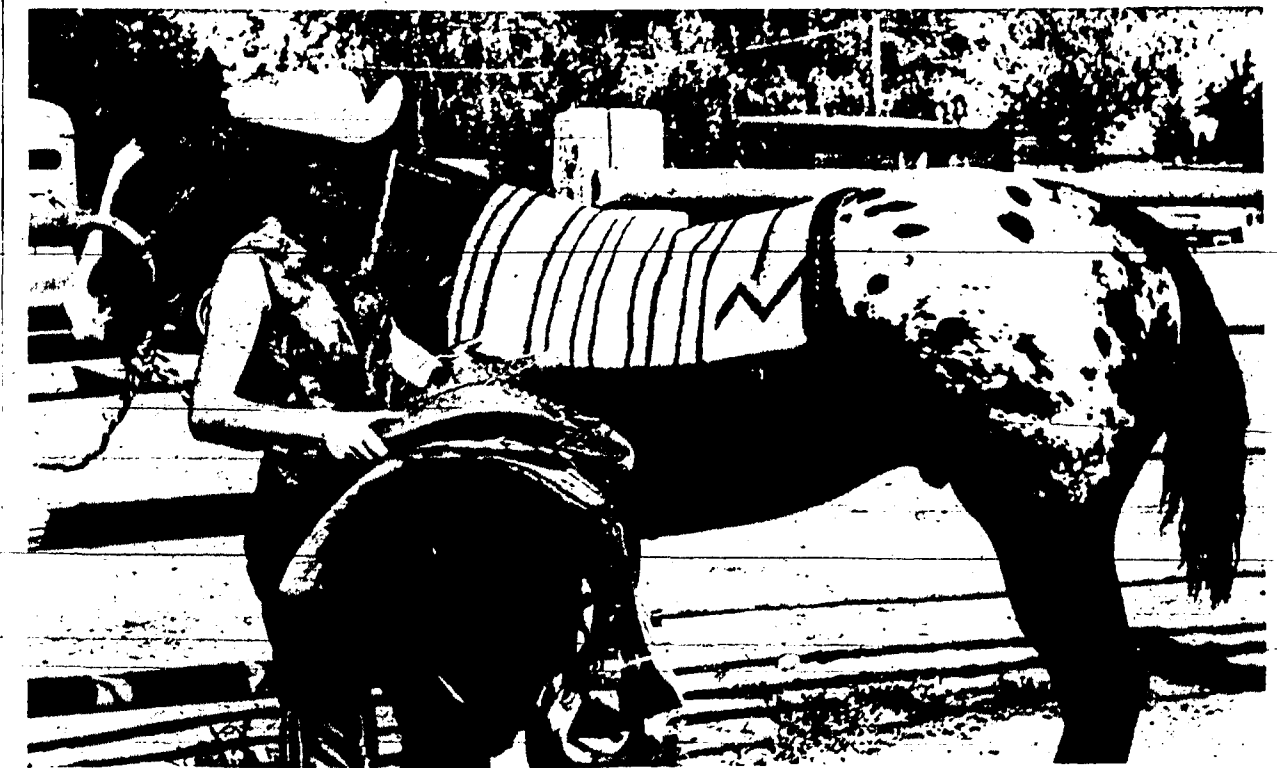

The meeting consisted of a discussion of the basic principles of the various Chambers of Commerce and their value to the communities.

Appaloosa Horse Show and Races Slated Over Weekend

A purse of approximately $4,000 will be given to winners of races during the seventh annual Idaho-Oregon-Nevada Appaloosa Horse Show and Races Saturday and Sunday at the Twin Falls County Fairgrounds in Filer.

Peggy Scott, Hazelton, who is staying with the Harney family, is queen of the event and will go to Sacramento, Calif., to compete for the National Appaloosa Queen title, June 11-15.

Miss Scott will represent the Idaho-Oregon-Nevada Appaloosa group at the contest. About 30 girls from throughout the United States will compete for the title. The show promises to be both colorful and spectacular, Harney stated, with such a large number of Appaloosa horses entered.

Smylie Says Demo Charges "Pointless"

BOISE (AP) — Gov. Robert E. Smylie said Thursday that Democratic challenges to his state agency appointments are in attempt to divert attention from the sales tax issue.

John O. McMurray, Idaho Republican chairman, called the Democratic move "a shallow publicity attempt, and so far as I can see, completely pointless."

The Governor told a news conference there is no legal basis for a proposal by Democratic State Chairman Lloyd Walker.

Walker said last week he would consider court action if Smylie made the appointments without asking for Democratic recommendations.

Smylie said Idaho law does not require him to ask for such recommendations. He said he consulted with Democratic leaders, including the last House minority leader, Rep. Darrell Manning of Pocatello.

Pending are appointments to several boards and commissions created by the 1965 Legislature. The law specifies that both parties must be represented by the members chosen to each of them.

"I think," Smylie said, "Mr. Walker is looking awfully hard for a way to get off the sales tax hook."

Smylie asked the legislature to enact the sales tax. He predicts the law will be upheld in a November, 1966, referendum.

Rupert Sets Ordinance on Water Rates

RUPERT — The Rupert city council approved an ordinance providing for water rate charges for city domestic and irrigation water during their regular meeting Tuesday night at the city office.

A rate was established for residents using domestic water for irrigation purposes within the city and will apply only from April through October.

The irrigation water rate in excess of the first 8,000 gallons will be at 10 cents per 1,000 gallons of such excess. Minimum charge will be $5.60 per year.

Those wishing this rate should apply at the Rupert City office through the city clerk.

Willette Painting Co., Blackfoot, were low bidders in the amount of $2,846 to paint and clean the water tower.

The council voted to invest $10,000 of the special sewer fund in government bonds and authorized the police department to send Denzel Wells to FBI school in Pocatello for two weeks.

Ronald Klebe, city engineer, reported on the low pressure installation costs for Vista Village during the meeting.

Salary raises for employees in the city clerk's office were discussed but tabled until the next meeting.

Building permits were approved for Al Southall for a garage and addition at $3,500; LaMont Herbold, garage, $1,000; Norman Olsen, remodeling, $1,000, and Robert Hoggan, repair for a commercial building, $195.

SYNOPSIS AND AGRICULTURAL SUMMARY
A cool front moving southward east of the Continental Divide has brought slightly cooler air into Southern Idaho. There may be a few thunder showers over the mountains of Southeastern Idaho this afternoon and temperatures will be a couple of degrees cooler in all areas this afternoon and slightly warmer tomorrow. Mild dry sunny weather will prevail in the agricultural valleys today and Saturday and little change is indicated for Sunday.

Westerly to northerly winds of 10 to 20 miles per hour may be expected through much of Southern Idaho this afternoon. Winds will diminish this evening and should be generally lighter Saturday.

Most places in Southern Idaho were a little warmer yesterday and last night although changes generally were small. Afternoon temperatures in Magic Valley ranged from 77 at Burley to 83 at Jerome.

FIVE-DAY FORECAST
The Northern Intermountain Region will be dominated by higher pressure and dry air during the next five-day period. Disturbances from the Pacific will be shunted well to the north through Western Canada with little or no effect on Southern Idaho Saturday through Monday. A weak front may move through this district about Tuesday or Wednesday affecting mainly eastern sections.

In Magic Valley temperatures will average near or slightly above normal. Temperatures will rise a few degrees over the weekend, turning somewhat cooler about Tuesday or Wednesday. Some normal maximum and minimum temperatures for this period are Gooding 75-48, Twin Falls 77-43 and Burley 74-43. Little or no rain is expected for most of the district.

Winds will be mostly light Saturday through Monday, but will probably increase about Tuesday and Wednesday. Skies will be mostly clear over the weekend with cloudiness increasing after Monday and sunshine should total near 80 per cent of possible.

There should be little or no interruption in farm work due to weather, and conditions should be generally favorable for growth of crops and pastures.

on the equipment section of the Gemini 4 during his excursion. "It looked like I was right on top of it," he said. "It's kinda hard to get traction."

Then Grissom passed on some news from home. He reported that the Hawks, a Pee - Wee League baseball team for which McDivitt's 8-year-old son Mike plays, defeated the Falcons, 3-2. McDivitt was asleep at the time the word was relayed.

John Hodge, the overnight flight director, told newsmen today that during the night McDivitt and White managed to get back on the original flight plan.

The plan had been disrupted during the first three orbits when McDivitt made a futile attempt to catch and rendezvous with another satellite — the burned-out third stage of the Titan 2 rocket that boosted them into orbit.

After expending about 40 percent of his fuel, McDivitt abandoned the effort. The chase continued to a one-orbit delay in White's space excursion.

Hodge said that throughout the night, the Gemini 4 was allowed to drift on its orbital path without any expenditure of fuel.

Hodge said two orbit-changing maneuvers would be dropped from the flight and there would be some curtailment of scientific experiments that require spacecraft maneuvering.

He said McDivitt and White were getting used to sleeping in space after initial "tossing and turning" periods. Each slept well on their second four-hour slumber period, he reported.

"Now that we're back on a regular schedule," Hodge said, "we'll be able to start working out compatible work, sleep and eat cycles for future long-duration flights."

This is one of the major goals of the flight, along with gathering of medical data to determine how well the astronauts withstand long exposure to the weightless world of space.

Gemini 4 began its second 24-hour period at 10:16 a.m. EST today. At 8:37 p.m. it will surpass Gordon Cooper's U.S. man-in-space record of 34 hours 20 minutes, established in May 1963.

Russian cosmonaut Valery Bykovsky holds the record of 119 hours 6 minutes.

Accident Victim Reported Good

GOODING — Details of a gun accident which injured Perry Gilpin, 35, Jerome, were reported Friday by Sheriff Verne Roysse.

Gilpin, who is listed in good condition at Gooding Memorial Hospital, was shot through the stomach Wednesday night as he got into his pickup truck near the Y-Inn at Bliss.

According to Roysse, the rifle, which was sitting upright in the corner of the seat, fell against Gilpin as he started to get into the gun in the corner when it accidentally discharged.

Investigating were Roysse and Idaho State Patrolman Walter Kirtley, Bill Brown and Bob Hegberg.

Idaho Solons Hit Move to Change Coins

WASHINGTON (AP) — The two Democratic members of Idaho's congressional delegation voiced opposition Thursday to President Johnson's request that silver be removed from quarters and dimes.

Sen. Frank Church said he will work to retain silver in all coins which now have the metal. Rep. Compton I. White Jr. said the President's proposal would "short change" the public. The substitutes proposed, he said, would "have the dull ring and greasy lusterless look of bus tokens."

"Federal edict," White said, "will not prevent the mass hoarding of our present coins at the time we will need them the most. The only possible way for a changed coinage to exist side by side with silver coins is through confidence in a new coin."

Cherry Fruit Flies Found On Thursday

According to County Agent Donald Youtz, the first cherry fruit flies were found Thursday. The presence of the flies on "sticky boards" was reported by Gerald Taylor, of Taylor Orchards, to the county agent.

The date the first fly is found is the time to begin control operations, said Youtz. However, the emergence of flies in the Snake River Canyon may be a few days earlier than out of the canyon.

A bulletin, entitled, "Knock Out Cherry Fruit Fly," is available at the county agent's office in the old Hospital Building.

Rupert Sets Swim Signup For Saturday

RUPERT — Red Cross swim registration for youngsters in Minidoka County will be held from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday in the old library room of the Civic building.

Classes will be conducted much the same as last year, with three sessions again planned. The first session will be held June 21 through July 3; second session July 6 through July 17; and third session, July 19 through July 31. Private lessons will be offered in August.

A child must be 7 years old or have been through the first grade in school to be eligible for the lessons. The minimum age limit for junior life saving is 12 and youths must be 16 in order to take senior life saving.

Adult beginning and intermediate classes will be offered. Students will be placed in classes at the time of registration on a basis of first come first choice of time and session.

An adult should accompany children when registering and the cost of registration will be $1.25 this year, slightly more than last year.

Mrs. Elsie Burton, Red Cross water safety director, said the cost is necessary because the instructors are highly trained and the recreation department desires to maintain a staff of quality instructors.

She added, however, it is the desire of the local chapter to extend the services of the swim program to every child and adult in the county. Should the fee charged work a hardship on anyone the local Red Cross chapter will gladly cover the cost of their instruction.

Rupert Swim Pool to Open

RUPERT — The Rupert municipal swimming pool will open for the summer at 1 p.m. Saturday, according to Mrs. George Burton, supervisor.

Co-managers of the pool will be Carole Fowler and Lance Hayes, with Wilma Greene Gerlack as office manager. Jeaneal Smith will be wading pool guard.

A new drainage system has been installed at the pool by the city that will insure the pool of maximum sanitation and the entire pool and dressing rooms have been painted.

Swim teams are anticipated this year with local area competition.

AWARDED SCHOLARSHIP

BUHL — JoAnn Olson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Olson, Buhl, has been awarded the California Association of Nurses-erymen scholarship to continue her studies at the University of California, Davis. Miss Olson is a sophomore landscape horticulture major.

Twin Falls firemen really got into a stew Thursday. They answered a call that smoke was billowing from a room at 153 Main Ave. N. and rushed into the rooming house there to find a pot of stew burning merrily away on a red hot burner.

Nobody seemed to be tending to things so they dumped the charred stew into the garbage and left the smoke to find its own way out. There was no damage to the building, which is owned by Marion Tanner.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

BY ANDREW TULLY
WASHINGTON—It was not merely a smelly little affair in a Main sports arena, but a sign of the times, and a warning of what lies ahead as the Negro strives to take his rightful place in the society.

Cassius Clay and Sonny Liston don't really matter of themselves. Clay is a mixed-up, loud-mouthed fool who would have been laughed out of the gym in the big days of the Dempseys and the Joe Louises. Liston is a surly, illiterate and possibly cowardly cat whose heart is filled with unreasoned hate and whose past is of more than cursory interest to the police. It is not particularly important that they got rich under false pretenses.

DAMAGE TO NEGRO—What matters is that they have done damage to the Negro at an hour when the Negro has seemed to be at the zenith of his aspirations. Clay and Liston may have been the willing tools of a conspiracy to defraud, but from society's longer viewpoint it is of deeper significance that they were a conspiracy's victims.

Their experience is an omen of what will happen all over the country if white exploiters—politicians and fast-buck operators—are permitted to own and operate the Negro's new and hard-won franchise. Prizefighting today is in the hands of men who promote it just as the Capones triggered their machineguns for a dollar.

USED PUBLIC PROPERTY—These "promoters" made millions from the Lewiston fiasco, while government not only stood by but encouraged their legal thuggery. The sordid spectacle not only was beamed into movie theaters across the country, but carried to Europe by a satellite system devised and built with billions of taxpayers' dollars. The fight, to employ a euphemism, was private property, and yet Washington permitted its owners to use public property to wring the last penny of profit from its exploitation.

No special gift of imagination is needed to see beyond the Clay-Liston mess. With the Negro on the threshold of full exercise of his voting rights, the mob is ready to take over and sell him down the political river.

NEGRO VOTE POLITICIAN'S TARGET—In some Southern states, Negroes outnumber white voters. Their vote is a prize the politicians will be fighting for. Bobby Kennedy has shown that a man may transfer his political career to another state and get elected to the United States Senate. Other politicians, white and Negro, will be missing the cynical boat if they don't follow the Kennedy example and move to the South to reap a Negro vote ripe on the vine.

As it now stands, practically any citizen who can scrawl an X on a ballot will be permitted to vote. In the South, where the Negro has been underprivileged and underdeveloped for two centuries, hundreds of thousands of illiterates can be herded to the polls by demagogues whose only aim is personal political gain. The far-cute "liberal" who can't win in the North will merely move to Dixie and promote the Negro vote as Nilon and Co. promoted Clay and Liston.

OWN WORST ENEMY—This is not to say that the Negro should not be protected from himself. Two pathetic gladiators named Cassius and Sonny have shown that the man with black skin can be his own worst enemy. But in both prizefighting and politics, it is government's duty to stand between the Negro and those who would use him as they have used him before.

MEMO FOR IDAHOANS
 One of the most ambitious research programs in modern U. S. educational history has determined that size of school classes, condition of school buildings, location of schools in slums or suburbs have little to do with achievement by students.

Money, just plain money, spent on teachers and books is the big item.

The top four criteria for academic or vocational success are, in this order:
 Teacher salaries, teacher experience, number of books in school libraries and per-pupil expenditures by the schools.

First findings of the survey were contained in a recent article written by Sylvia Porter, nationally prominent columnist appearing in The Post-Register. The study is called "Project Talent." It formed the basis for most of the recommendations which lead to the current U. S. Education Act recently pushed through Congress with the fire-breathing of President Johnson behind it.

While many may have reservations—as we do—about this double-door entry of the federal government into the elementary and secondary education levels of schooling, the study's findings are most sobering. Among other things, it demonstrates that high schools across the nation are not immersing students in the fundamentals of learning as they should. The study will undoubtedly have a profound effect on the course of future education in America.

The relationship of student achievement to funds expended, however, should be of paramount interest in Idaho. The Idaho Legislature has just allowed education to take a giant step in this direction. Yet critics of the one-third increase in school funding for this biennium are heard to say that the legislators overreached themselves. The so-called economy bloc in the Legislature, led by Governor-Candidate William Dee of Grangeville, has particularly raised this question.

Two things should be pointed out:
 The $390 per pupil expenditure which the $57 million state fund for education realizes, is decisively behind every other western state.

And, secondly, the "Project Talent" clearly shows the relationship of student achievement as compared with the per pupil expenditure.

It is a half truth to say that mere raising of teacher salaries will not improve education. It will not in itself. But it creates the atmosphere to give incentive to the prized quality teacher, and to attract this type of teacher to the field.—Idaho Falls Post-Register.

 There's been lots of noise back and forth about firearms and who should be given permission to buy them and so on. But right here and now I'm going on record favoring a plan whereby each and every citizen with no police record should be issued a machinegun complete with a plentiful supply of ammunition.

The Doctor Says
 By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M. D.

Q—Is it possible to have a diseased gall bladder without having gall stones? Two years ago I had an exploratory operation and was found to have adhesions around my gall bladder. Nothing was removed. I still have a pain in my right side.

A—Acute inflammation of the gall bladder may occur in the absence of gall stones but this is relatively rare (about 10 per cent). Some other cause for your pain should be sought. Although the pain of colitis usually shifts from one side to the other some forms of colitis cause pain only on the right side. The pain of appendicitis is usually on the right side but because there are many causes for abdominal pain and since the cause is often hard to determine, a specialist in diseases of the digestive tract should be consulted.

Q—X-rays show that I have a nonfunctioning gall bladder. Will I always have nausea and indigestion from it? What is the treatment?

A—When, after a fatty test meal, X-rays show that the gall bladder does not empty itself it is said to be nonfunctioning. You should avoid all fats, alcoholic beverages and opiates. If you do this and your symptoms persist for more than 10 days your doctor should look for some cause other than your gall bladder. The treatment would depend on the cause.

Q—Is it true that people with gall stones pass them occasionally?

A—Small gall stones often pass through the common bile duct into the intestinal tract without causing any symptoms. Larger stones stretch the bile duct and cause severe pains. Once they get through the duct, they cause no more trouble, but since a gall bladder often contains dozens of stones, more attacks of colic can be expected. Such a gall bladder should be removed.

Q—What is erythremic myelosis? Is it serious?

A—Erythremic myelosis is a severe anemia that does not respond to treatment. Leukemia is a frequent complication.

TAYLOR'S VIEWS ON WORLD NEWS

By HENRY J. TAYLOR

Political voices perpetuate a myth when they ask unlimited funds to cure our overcrowded colleges. In fact, the political approach to "education" is making it a taxpayers' nightmare and a spender's dream. President Johnson's federal aid-to-education bill gets geared into all this, too.

The boyhood impact that his Henry J. Taylor little Texas schoolhouse made on Mr. Johnson now establishes it as the most expensive incubator of educational ideas in the history of the human race.

College enrollment has increased 105 per cent in the past decade, and certainly we must build for the future. Many bottlenecks exist in our college facilities and these sorely need relief. But that's what they are—bottlenecks. Our taxpayers should be allowed to know that truth.

One authoritative statewide canvass, for example, shows that more than 80 per cent of the state's high-school graduates this hemisphere.

This means the OAS must set up machinery to prevent a Communist takeover of the United States, despite its agreement in the charter, will use troops.

Can the OAS set up some kind of permanent peace-keeping force which would be used not for intervention in any country's revolution but only in case the Communists are seizing power?

The effort undoubtedly will be made but the wrangling ahead seems monumental. One example: Who is going to decide there is danger of a Communist takeover? If the OAS doesn't think so, and therefore refuses to send in a peace-keeping force, will the President send in U.S. troops?

If he didn't send in the troops, and the Communists did take over, he'd have a tough time explaining it to the American people. It could well ruin a president's political career. But Johnson is a very political president.

Then there's another problem: The United States and the Latin-American countries are members of the United Nations which permits members to have regional arrangements for their own good.

An OAS peace-keeping force would be a regional arrangement. But the U.N. charter's Article 53 says no enforcement action can be taken by a regional arrangement without approval of the U.N. Security Council.

The Soviet Union is a council member and would certainly veto any OAS plan to intervene with force in any Latin-American country where Communists were seizing power. There is nothing ahead but headaches for everyone concerned.

pressing circumstances, and they will tear into anybody and anything.

"It isn't true that they cut off heads or collect ears. They just kill the enemy. They aren't sadistic. But I suppose if they were told to bring back enemy ears, they'd bring them back. They obey orders."

Mr. Hin is the big chief of 600 Nungs who serve as bodyguards and strike troops in northwest South Viet Nam for the U. S. Army's Special Forces.

Their prowess is legendary among the Americans along the battlefield out here, who like them because they never panic in battle.

Most Nungs range from 4 feet 10 inches to 5 feet 3 inches in height and from 90 to 120 pounds in weight. They are paid an average of 2,500 piasters a month—about $34.

Mr. Hin is a giant Nung. He stands about 6 feet, very erect and keen eyed. As sergeant major—the highest rating a Nung is allowed to reach—he gets 6,000 piasters a month, or about $82.

"I don't know how the other Nungs picked Mr. Hin, but he seems to serve also as their spiritual leader," said Maj. Richard I. Allen Jr., Miami, Fla., a Special Forces officer now on his second year of voluntary duty here.

TAYLOR'S VIEWS ON WORLD NEWS

By HENRY J. TAYLOR

Political voices perpetuate a myth when they ask unlimited funds to cure our overcrowded colleges. In fact, the political approach to "education" is making it a taxpayers' nightmare and a spender's dream. President Johnson's federal aid-to-education bill gets geared into all this, too.

The boyhood impact that his Henry J. Taylor little Texas schoolhouse made on Mr. Johnson now establishes it as the most expensive incubator of educational ideas in the history of the human race.

College enrollment has increased 105 per cent in the past decade, and certainly we must build for the future. Many bottlenecks exist in our college facilities and these sorely need relief. But that's what they are—bottlenecks. Our taxpayers should be allowed to know that truth.

One authoritative statewide canvass, for example, shows that more than 80 per cent of the state's high-school graduates this hemisphere.

This means the OAS must set up machinery to prevent a Communist takeover of the United States, despite its agreement in the charter, will use troops.

Can the OAS set up some kind of permanent peace-keeping force which would be used not for intervention in any country's revolution but only in case the Communists are seizing power?

The effort undoubtedly will be made but the wrangling ahead seems monumental. One example: Who is going to decide there is danger of a Communist takeover? If the OAS doesn't think so, and therefore refuses to send in a peace-keeping force, will the President send in U.S. troops?

If he didn't send in the troops, and the Communists did take over, he'd have a tough time explaining it to the American people. It could well ruin a president's political career. But Johnson is a very political president.

Then there's another problem: The United States and the Latin-American countries are members of the United Nations which permits members to have regional arrangements for their own good.

An OAS peace-keeping force would be a regional arrangement. But the U.N. charter's Article 53 says no enforcement action can be taken by a regional arrangement without approval of the U.N. Security Council.

The Soviet Union is a council member and would certainly veto any OAS plan to intervene with force in any Latin-American country where Communists were seizing power. There is nothing ahead but headaches for everyone concerned.

pressing circumstances, and they will tear into anybody and anything.

"It isn't true that they cut off heads or collect ears. They just kill the enemy. They aren't sadistic. But I suppose if they were told to bring back enemy ears, they'd bring them back. They obey orders."

Mr. Hin is the big chief of 600 Nungs who serve as bodyguards and strike troops in northwest South Viet Nam for the U. S. Army's Special Forces.

Their prowess is legendary among the Americans along the battlefield out here, who like them because they never panic in battle.

Most Nungs range from 4 feet 10 inches to 5 feet 3 inches in height and from 90 to 120 pounds in weight. They are paid an average of 2,500 piasters a month—about $34.

Fine Man

Twin Falls has lost an excellent citizen and a distinguished resident with the death of T. Clyde Bacon, stockman, financier and public servant. His influence will continue to be felt for many years.

Mr. Bacon had a way of getting things done, an ability that was demonstrated quite well in the months of planning construction of Magic Valley Memorial Hospital. He was chairman of the hospital board at the time. His advice and help were sought frequently in many other community projects and activities.

He maintained an active interest in Twin Falls right up to the time he died. There have been reports a prominent citizen has made a substantial donation to the fund for a civic auditorium. Well, it may not be widely known, but the prominent citizen was none other than Mr. Bacon and the donation, in the form of stock, is valued at upwards of $75,000. Characteristically, it was Mr. Bacon's desire to avoid any undue publicity.

Mr. Bacon lived a full and fruitful life. At times he may have appeared rather gruff, but his associates knew he was a tender-hearted man with much compassion. Perhaps the best description is that Mr. Bacon was a fine man—a mighty fine man.

WELL IS DRY

New York City residents are well aware of the truth in the old saying, "You never miss the water until the well goes dry." In the case of New York, the "well" includes a series of big reservoirs built back in the mountains. And even though most residents of the big city never miss water until reservoirs are dry, city officials are much more sensitive to the community water supply. Current efforts to curtail water consumption demonstrate conclusively that they don't wait until the supply is exhausted.

A dry spell has served warning already that New York's water supply will not be adequate this summer and next fall. As a first step to conserve water now before the situation becomes desperate, the city turned off its 320 ornamental and display fountains. The next emergency move was to order an end to the practice of serving a glass of water to a patron of a restaurant unless he specifically asks for it. Such action may appear in the nature of nit-picking, but it's estimated it will save some 12 to 15 million gallons of water daily.

Although Twin Falls experiences a hot weather drain of its water supply for two or three months every summer, the situation has never reached the point where serving water in cafes is forbidden. Anyway, in Twin Falls, such a move wouldn't make enough difference to consider. The worst problem here has been lack of pressure in the higher portions of the city. Happily, the solution to this bothersome problem seems to be within sight now as a result of overwhelming approval of a $2.5 million water bond a couple of weeks ago.

New Yorkers would never hesitate to solve their own water problems if it were possible. They would find it almost unbelievable that Twin Falls could solve all its own water problems with a bond issue so small. That amount probably wouldn't even finance one reservoir for New York even if another site were readily available.

RARE ACCOMPLISHMENT

Mrs. Sterling Vaughn, first resident of Twin Falls ever to advance to the international speaking contest of the International Toastmistress club, has a rare accomplishment to her credit. Moreover, the achievement adds to the stature of the local Toastmistress club of which Mrs. Vaughn is a member and is a distinct credit to Twin Falls.

If anyone has any doubt about the value of Toastmistress clubs, Mrs. Vaughn's entry in the international contest should serve to dispel those doubts. In her case particularly, the Toastmistress club aim is illustrated quite effectively, namely to teach members how to become better speakers. Those who would improve their speaking ability don't have to be involved in public life; they may be interested in improving their ability as conversationalists. But the knowledge that they have improved their ability to speak, either formally or informally, gives members a poise and confidence they may have lacked.

When Mrs. Vaughn goes to the international contest in New Orleans July 11 to 14, she'll have the best wishes of everyone in Twin Falls and Magic Valley. Everyone can hope and pray Mrs. Vaughn wins the international event, but even if other entrants take the top honors, Mrs. Vaughn deserves the accolades of the entire community for what she has accomplished already.

DA NANG, South Viet Nam (AP)—Mr. Hin fights for two things: pride and pay.

He is a Nung, one of the tribespeople who for centuries have fought as mercenaries in the wars of Indochina and China. They are rated in the same class as the famed Churkas of India.

Mr. Hin is the big chief of 600 Nungs who serve as bodyguards and strike troops in northwest South Viet Nam for the U. S. Army's Special Forces.

ACCURATE BID HELPS PARTNERS
 In the first days of contract the more you bid, the more you had. Thus, the raise from one spade to four spades was a stronger bid than the raise from one spade to three spades. It also showed a very good hand, so that his bidding by partners as one spade, four spades, six spades was a normal slam sequence.

North would not expect his partner to bid again, but South's hand is of such nature that he wants to try for a slam as long as his partner has good spade support.

In fact, South has some mild interest in seven. Hence his four no-trump bid to ask for aces. When North shows no aces, South settles for six. The slam makes easily because South is able to discard one of dummy's clubs on two high hearts and ruff out two clubs and a heart.

Cause of Crash Is Determined

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB) today blamed loss of control in severe turbulence for the crash of a Northwest Airlines jet into the Florida Everglades more than two years ago. The CAB said that because of the Feb. 12, 1963, tragedy, plus other turbulence incidents involving large jets, “heartening” progress has been made and “many real safety changes” brought about to combat the effects of violent turbulence. Its official verdict on the cause of the crash, which took the lives of all 35 passengers and eight crew members, read: “The unfavorable interaction of severe vertical air drafts and large longitudinal control displacements resulted in a longitudinal upset from which a successful recovery was not made.”

Bandits Get $11,200 in Busy Section

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—Two bandits pulled an $11,200 armed holdup at a busy intersection Thursday, apparently unnoticed by other motorists. James T. Smith, a supermarket owner, and his manager, Gerald Ervin, had just withdrawn the money from a bank and were returning to the store. As they stopped for a traffic light at the intersection, Smith told police, two other cars, one in front and the other in back, hemmed his car in. The two drivers then walked up and said, “This is a holdup.” Both held revolvers, Smith said. “I could see the bullets.” The bandits drove off in the car in front. Police said the car they left behind had been stolen.

Landing in Lebanon Is Suspected

CAIRO (AP) — The semi-official newspaper Al-Ahram published an alleged British military plan today for a British-American landing in Lebanon if that Arab state becomes the target of aggression by the United Arab Republic or of acute internal disorder.

Details of the alleged plan appeared in the weekly column of Mohamed Heikal, editor of Al-Ahram and chief spokesman for President Gamal Abdel Nasser. Heikal said the plan reveals that the United States considers itself the most influential power in Lebanon and will assume the major role in the event of military action.

He said U.S. Marines would be the first troops to land and the operation's commander in chief would direct the invasion from the U.S. 6th Fleet flagship.

Historic Walk in Space is Heard, Recorded

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Here is the transcript of the conversation among astronauts Edward H. White II and James A. McDivitt and capsule communicator Virgil I. Grissom while White walked in space outside the Gemini 4 spacecraft.

McDivitt: "Tell us what you think."
White: "Looks like we're coming up on the coast of California."
McDivitt: "One thing about it when Ed gets out there and starts wiggling around it sure makes the spacecraft tough to control."
Grissom: "Is he taking pictures?"
McDivitt: "Not yet."
Grissom: "Take some pictures."
White: "Okay, I'm gonna work on getting some pictures now."
McDivitt: "Okay, get out front so I can see you. I've only got about three of them."
White: "Okay."
McDivitt: "Where are you?"
White: "I'm out front now."
Grissom: "You've got about five minutes."
(White explained to McDivitt he was going to do something, but the transmission was garbled.)
McDivitt: "Do it slowly and I'll take your picture."
McDivitt: "Just float around. Right now we're pointed just about straight down to the ground."
(White made observations that were garbled in transmission.)
McDivitt: "Let me take a close-up picture here."
(A pause.)
McDivitt: "You're smearing up my windshield, you dirty dog."
(A laugh from both.)
McDivitt: "See how it's all smeared up there?"
White: "Yeah."
McDivitt: "Looks like there's a coating on the outside and you rubbed it off. That's exactly what you've done."
McDivitt: "Ed, I don't know exactly where we are, but it looks like we're over Texas. As a matter of fact, you know, that looks like Houston down below us."
Grissom: "Gemini 4, Houston Cap-Com (Capsule Communications)."
McDivitt: "Hey, Gus, as a matter of fact it looks like we're right over Houston."
Grissom: "Gemini 4, Gemini 4, Houston."
McDivitt: "Yeah, that's Galveston Bay right there."
White: "Yeah."
McDivitt: "Hey, Ed can you see in your side of the spacecraft?"
White: "Yeah."
McDivitt: "Can you see the camera here?"
White: "Yeah."
McDivitt: "Is it pointing at you?"
White: "No, not now, no. Turn it, I'm not in the picture."
McDivitt: "Which way?"
(A garbled reply from White.)
McDivitt: "Now don't get back there where the, ah."
White (interrupting): "No, I'm not behind you, I'm out in front."
Grissom, repeatedly amid garbled McDivitt-White conversation: "Gemini 4, Houston; Gemini 4, Houston; Gemini 4, Houston."
White: "I've only shot about three or four pictures."
McDivitt: "All right, I've taken a lot, but they're not very good. You're in too close for most of them. I finally put the focus down to about eight feet or so."
Grissom: "Gemini 4, Houston."
Ground to flight: "Flight, will you tell Gemini 4 to release the key when you're trying to talk to him?"
Grissom: "Gemini 4, Houston."
McDivitt: "You know, Ed, the thing about the reference you were talking about — it looks like you're right."
Grissom: "Gemini 4, Houston."
McDivitt: "(Garbled) The flight director has got to say."
Grissom, distinctly: "The flight director says, 'Get back in.'"
McDivitt: "Got any messages for us?"
Grissom, urgently: "Gemini 4, get back in."
McDivitt: "Okay. We're going to come back in now."
Grissom: "Roger, we've been trying to talk to you for a while here."
White, upon receiving order to return to the capsule: "I'm just fine."
McDivitt: "No, back in. Come on."
White, laughingly but garbled: "I'm not coming in."
McDivitt: "We've got three and a half more days to go, Buddy."
White, reluctantly: "I'm coming."
McDivitt: "Okay."
Grissom: "You've got about four minutes to Bermuda LOS (Loss of Signal)."
McDivitt to White: "Okay, okay, don't worry about a thing. Just come on in."
McDivitt: "How you doing there?"
White: "I'm doing great."
McDivitt: "Good."
McDivitt: "Okay, let's oops, take it easy now."
White: "I'm doing . . . I'm right on top of it, right now."
McDivitt: "Can't you get a hold there, Ed?"
White: "Yeah, I'm (garbled)."
McDivitt, answering a garbled question from White: "Nope, come on in."
White again tells McDivitt something.
McDivitt, insistently, "Ed, come on in here."
White: "All right."
McDivitt: "Okay, let's not lose (garbled)."
White: "I don't quite have it."
McDivitt: "Little bit more."
White: "Got it?"
McDivitt: "Okay, I got it."
McDivitt and White exchange more garbled conversation.
McDivitt: "Come on, let's get back in here before it gets dark."
White: "Okay."
The two exchange more garbled conversation.
McDivitt: "Come on now."
Flight control: "Give him a call again, Gus."
Grissom: "Gemini 4, Houston."
White: "I'm fixing to come in the house."
Grissom: "Gemini 4, Houston Cap-Com."
(A delay and garbled conversation.)
McDivitt: "Any messages for us, Houston?"
Grissom, sternly: "Yeah, get back in."
Grissom: "You getting him back in?"
McDivitt: "He's standing in the seat now and his legs are down below the instrument panel."
Grissom: "Okay, get him back in now. You're going to have Bermuda lost in about 20 (seconds)."
McDivitt: "He's coming in. He's having some trouble getting back in the space cabin — looks like."
Grissom: "You got your cabin lights up bright in case you hit darkness?"

McDivitt gave a garbled reply. McDivitt said, Grissom replied: "He said he was busy and had rather not talk to us."
Gemini Control reported signal lost in Bermuda. McDivitt returned to the network a few seconds later and talked to Grissom. It was garbled on the air. Someone asked Grissom what McDivitt said. Grissom replied: "As White slipped back into the capsule, he said to McDivitt: 'It's the saddest moment of my life.'" McDivitt laughed.

Miss Randell, Holstine Say Nuptial Vows

Marie Elizabeth Randell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Randell, Murtaugh, and Jay Hugh Holstine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Holstine, Eden, were united in marriage May 22 at the Church of Christ, Twin Falls.

Rev. Hershel Johnson performed the double ring ceremony before the altar flanked by candelabra with lighted white tapers.

The bride, given in marriage by her grandfather, Vern Modlin, wore a Chantilly lace white satin floor-length gown. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a V neckline and long-sleeved sleeves. The skirt was enhanced with three scalloped tiers. Her only jewelry was a double strand of pearls, borrowed from Mrs. Robert Randell, sister-in-law of the bride.

Her fingertip veil of illusion net was trimmed with a crystal butterfly. She carried a crescent bouquet of baby pink roses and feather chrysanthemums tied with ribbon and centered on a white Bible.

Mrs. Fred Funke, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. Mrs. Robert Randell was bridesmaid. Candelighters were Celenda Sydes, niece of the bridegroom, and Mickey Lee, cousin of the bride.

Robert Holstine, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Jack Riley, cousin of the bridegroom, Randall Johnson, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Kenny Brown.

The rings were carried on a pink brocade pillow by Ricky Johnson, nephew of the bridegroom. Flower girl was Tammy Funke, niece of the bride.

Mrs. Marvin Sydes, Logan, sister of the bridegroom, registered the guests. Gifts were displayed by Mrs. William Martin, cousin of the bride; Bonnie Craner, cousin of the bride, and Ruby Buxton.

Mrs. Randell Johnson, sister of the bride, was reception hostess. The four-tiered white wedding cake was decorated with pink roses and topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom, and was centered on the bride's table.

Mrs. Fred Funke and Mrs. Marvin Sydes, both Logan, cut and served the cake. Mrs. Randall Johnson poured coffee and Mrs. William Martin and Miss Craner served punch.

The bride was honored with pre-nuptial showers at Murtaugh and Eden. Out-of-town guests attended from Murtaugh, Wendell, Eden and Utah.

Former T.F. Residents Wed In Double Rites

HANSEN — Connie Louise Hewlett and Brenda Kay Hewlett, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Hewlett, Seattle, former Hansen and Twin Falls residents, became brides in a double wedding evening ceremony May 15, at the University Christian Church, Seattle.

Connie Louise became the bride of Thomas William Johnson, son of Mrs. William H. Johnson and the late William H. Johnson, Arlington, Wash.

Brenda Kay became the bride of John Anderson Malone, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Malone, Seattle.

The brides were given in marriage by their father. The altar was flanked by arrangements of white gladioli and white carnations. Candelights lighted in a sunburst effect and tall baskets of white gladioli, white carnations and huckleberry greenery decorated the chancel.

Connie wore a floor-length gown of organza and Chantilly lace. The fitted bodice of organza featuring a lace yoke, sabrina neckline and long sleeves, joined the bouffant lace edged tiered skirt which swept into a chapel train. The scalloped lace panel front skirt was enhanced with bows of the organza.

Her shoulder-length bouffant veil of imported silk illusion cascaded from a tiara of scalloped lace enhanced with seed pearls.

Brenda Kay wore a floor-length sheath gown of taffeta embroidered with sequins and pearls at the bodice neckline and front. It was styled with a scooped neckline and a chapel train which flared from the back waistline.

Her elbow-length bouffant veil of imported silk illusion fell from a crown of pearls and sequins.

Each carried a cascading bouquet of pink roses, centered with a large white orchid and tied with ribbon streamers.

Mrs. John Pederson, Arlington, was Connie's matron of honor. Patricia Shorthouse, Twin Falls, was Brenda's maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Carol Fischer, Mrs. Davis Bretzer, LaVon Donoho and Jane Malone.

Flower girl was Kelly Hammer. John Bunkleman was ring bearer.

Albert Bjorgen was best man for Johnson and James Malone was best man for his brother, John Malone. Ushers were John Pederson, Howard Hughes and Thomas Malone.

The reception was held in the lounge of the church. Mrs. Frank (Arllis) Calico, former area resident, cousin of the brides, cut and served the cake. Mrs. Howard Hughes poured coffee and Mrs. Earl Gartin served punch.

Two three-tiered cakes, trimmed with doves and bells and topped with miniature brides, were placed at each end of the table. The cakes were surrounded with rose-colored gladioli

Some 600 head of Hansen area cattle were driven from Hubb's Butte range to the south end of Langford field in the annual spring drive of some of the members of the Western Stockgrowers Association. The cattle were bedded down the first night in a field near Nat-Soo-Pah. The second night they were bedded in the Selder creek area. Members whose cattle have gone into the South Hills area include W. G. Allen, Raymond Butler, J. T. Tagaw, who bought the L. P. Larsen cattle and his grazing permit; Mrs. George Crockett, E. D. (Ted) Crockett and Mrs. Flora Larsen. Cowboying isn't gone yet! Some of the men mentioned drove the cattle in the good old western style on horseback. Jack Butler was the cook for the group.

A water line is being laid between the Odell Chatfield and Mark Bowers ranches with the newcomer, Bowers, hooking onto Chatfield's domestic well. Sluder Construction Co. was in charge of excavating for the line, about one fourth of a mile. Bowers moved his family here from Brigham City, Utah, this past week-end. His uncle, Martin Allred, Salt Lake City, has been getting his crops in at his East Richfield ranch this week. He plans to move here later this month. He has owned the former Albert Stevens ranch for several years.

Gene Ferner, Tuttle rancher, caught a 3 1/2 pound brown trout from Billingsley Creek on the opening day of the fishing season. Mr. and Mrs. Turner have planted 40 acres of sweet corn this year and plan to put in 15 acres of white beans.

Raynard-Wright, Tuttle, has planted seven acres of the 38 red beans and 13 acres of 34 red beans.

Clifford Ward is trying to find two back buggy wheels. He is repairing several buggies at present, but is being delayed because he can't locate any wheels. A pleasant sight in Richfield is Ward and friends or family riding in his surrey (with the fringe on top) pulled by his Appaloosas. Ward and his wife, Olive, are breaking two Appaloosas for riding this summer.

Farm Positions Open for Many More Young People

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman has announced the department will hire "at least 1,150" young persons this summer under President Johnson's youth opportunity program.

Department agencies were directed to contact their local state employment offices and begin the hiring immediately. Freeman said all positions are to be filled "as early this month as possible."

Johnson recently called on both public and private agencies to provide at least 500,000 jobs this summer for young persons 16 to 21 years old. The jobs were to be in addition to any summer hiring that had been planned earlier.

Freeman said preference will be given those "who need jobs the most because of educational or economic disadvantages." He said every consideration should be given to opportunity for equal employment "regardless of race, creed, or color."

"The goal is to keep boys and girls who are out of school for the summer off the streets; to provide those who need money to return to school this fall an opportunity to earn it; and to give work experience to those who are entering the job market," Freeman said.

Area Canals In Operation

Twin Falls Canal Co. officials reported today that all systems are in good shape and operating well.

Alfred Peters, manager, reported there is 3,650 second feet of water in the canals at present. Peters stated he expects an increase to 4,000 feet shortly. This is enough water for all cultivated land.

Peters said maintenance crews are keeping the canals in shape for the additional water. Three crews are working on rodent control along the canal banks.

Meanwhile, officials of the Salmon River Canal Co. reported more water is available there than at any year in the past. Irrigation on the tract is under way.

Shortage of Water Seen As Certain

CHICAGO—The water problems and the water projects we know today are as nothing compared to what we will see in the near future. When population figures projected for 1980 are converted into food needs and the water requirements for producing that food, it's evident that the water shortage could be enormous.

The Farm Quarterly Magazine, in a Summer issue article on water problems, points out that it doesn't take a 35-year projection to realize that someday farmers will be short of water. We are already short in many places.

Most of the decisions on water supply we are living with now were made back in the 1920's when—quite unknown to any of the planners—we were just ending a long plentiful natural water cycle. We started out, therefore, by over-estimating our supply and making firm commitments based on this fallacy. We not only over-estimated our supply, we underestimated our use.

There is evidence to show that in most of our arid states, we are pumping water from our underground reserves faster than it is being replenished. In some areas the overdraft of underground water is showing itself in spectacular ways.

At Chandler Heights, Southeast of Phoenix, rich citrus groves recently sank in the space left when water was pumped out from under them. This heavily irrigated area has dropped some three feet in the past four years and, to the south where the valley floor meets the rock base of the mountains, great fissures three to 20 feet deep have opened up.

In other spots the water table has been lowered to such a depth that it is no longer economically feasible to pump for irrigation.

One of the newest of the water schemes, documented by the Farm Quarterly article, is one in which water would cross not only many states, but international boundaries. This gigantic plan, called the North American Water and Power Alliance and usually referred to as NAWAPA, envisages the trapping of some 110 million acre-feet of water per year in Alaska; bringing it down through Canada where it will be stored in a

Delivery of New Rural Fire Engine Made in Buhl

The Twin Falls County Mutual Fire Insurance Co. has received its new fire engine.

The engine was brought from Oakland, California, and delivered Tuesday. Joe Medley, delivery engineer, delivered the unit to the Buhl office. There to receive it were Bill Watt, president of the company and William Atkins, Secretary-treasurer for the company.

On Tuesday afternoon the unit was taken to a Reservoir south of Buhl and tested by the company. Tests proved the unit to work very satisfactorily.

The new fire engine is to replace the old unit at Kimberly. It has a capacity of 1500 gallons

Higher Prices May Hurt Cattlemen

CHICAGO (UPI)—The prices on wholesale cattle and hogs are soaring, and this may make some difference to the housewife's pocketbook. But maybe she won't mean alone.

Cattle feeders may be hurting in the pocketbook, too.

This, according to stockmen and students of cattle price trends, is what has happened:

Present trends show the prices paid for fed cattle, the "fattened" ones, are going up. But the gap between the unfed, or lighter, cattle and the fed is narrowing.

Finished prices at Chicago, where more top grade cattle is sold than anywhere else, hit $30 per hundredweight the week of May 9. The cattle ready for feeding, but diverted from feedlots and sent to market, reached as high as $28.50 the same week. The $30 for prime slaughter steers, weighing in the 1,200-1,400 lb. range, is the highest since January, 1963.

Now some government sources fear that if the prices paid for the lighter weight cattle continue to rise, at the same rate, they will catch up with the feedlot cattle operators.

It is then that the cattle feeders stand to suffer. Since it usually takes six months to "complete" cattle after starting on feedlots, the feeder could lose his investment. If the prices were equal with the heavier cattle all the money he put into feeding the cattle, as well as his time and his employees' meat counter.

Stop alfalfa weevil and residue problems, too!

NOW... NO WAITING PERIOD

New registration allows application of malathion on day of harvest or grazing.

Malathion provides the most effective control of WEEVIL... also kills APHIDS and other forage pests.

The preferred practice for weevil control now recommended by authorities is to treat the larvae with malathion. By waiting until the majority of the larvae have hatched, good control can be obtained with a single treatment.

University tests have shown that malathion applied when larval counts are high provides by far the most effective control.

Eliminates hazards

When you use malathion for alfalfa weevil larvae you enjoy exceptional freedom from insecticide hazards on the malathion-treated crop or adjacent crops subject to drift exposure and from residues in meat and milk, when used as directed.

Plan your program around malathion - the insecticide that kills both weevils and aphids as well as lygus, grasshoppers, leafhoppers and armyworms. The insecticide that offers maximum freedom from hazards to workers and crops - is low in cost and requires no waiting period.

Consult local agricultural authorities for information on timing of application.

Be sure to ask for SUR-TEN, the superior wetting agent to be added to agricultural sprays.

Before using any pesticide, stop and read the label.

Range Tour Planned at Glenns Ferry

MOORMAN — A range tour is scheduled for June 11, according to Roy Brackett, president of the Society of Range Managers, Southern Idaho section. Those wishing to attend this tour should meet at 8:30 a.m. at Glenns Ferry, Idaho, at the Glenns Ferry, Idaho, Cafe. Glenns Ferry, Idaho, will bring a sack lunch. The group will tour the pump-out station near Glenns Ferry, Idaho, the Intermountain Cheat study experiment station. A representative of the experiment station will tell of this study. Lunch will be eaten at the Glenns Ferry, Idaho, Cafe. Then the tour will go to Blue Gulch development and then to Castelford and across the Roseworth development. Lawrence Hill will explain seeding and brush spraying. The study being conducted on his land, and Gerald Turner, his son, will show the watering development. The day will conclude at Jack, Idaho.

Prices Paid Are Down One Point

BOISE — The index of prices paid by Idaho farmers declined during the month ending April 15, according to the Reporting Service. The April index this year was 100.2, down one point from 101.2 a year earlier. This is two points above average. Alfalfa and other hay prices were down $1 per ton from a year earlier. Other feeds held steady or slightly higher. Compared to a year earlier, decreases of $3.50 per ton for alfalfa and $1.00 for other hay as well as decreases in prices of cottonseed oil were partly offset by slight increases for dairy feeds, soybean meal, bran and mill feed. The index of prices paid by farmers nationally for feed on April 15, at 209, was one-half per cent above a month earlier. Contributing to the increase during the month were higher prices of grains, poultry feed, dairy hog feed, and grain-by-products. Partially offsetting these were lower prices paid for hay and cottonseed meal.

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO — More than 400 Idaho Future Farmers and their advisors will be on the University of Idaho campus June 18-18 for the state FFA judging contests. High school youths from most of the 68 Idaho FFA chapters will enter the annual competition, reports Prof. H. A. Winner, head of the Department of Agricultural Education. The contests are arranged each year by Professor Winner's department in cooperation with the State Department of Agricultural Education. Seven judging contests — livestock, dairy products, farm mechanics, dairy cattle, poultry, crops and meats — and a special tractor driving contest are scheduled during the three days. Chapters may enter three-man teams in any of the judging events, and one contestant in tractor driving. Teams winning the livestock and meats judging contests will be eligible to enter the national FFA contests at Kansas City next fall.

Policy-Making Board Will Include Murtaugh Farmer

SPOKANE — Mark E. Moorman, Murtaugh, farmer and livestock feeder, has been elected to the 12th District Farm Credit Board, the policy-making board for the Farm Credit Banks of Spokane, including the Federal Land Bank, Federal Intermediate Credit Bank and Bank for Cooperatives. Fred A. Knutsen, chairman of the president's committee of the Spokane credit banks, said Moorman was elected by the Federal Land Bank associations in Idaho, Montana, Oregon and Washington. He succeeds the late William J. Holman of Boise and will serve until Dec. 31, 1966. A native of Idaho, Moorman attended Willamette University, Salem, Ore. With his father, he operates 1,900 acres of irrigated and diversified farm land and also manages 700 acres of land which they developed from sagebrush. The farmers have a feedlot capacity of 6,500 head of lambs per year and also maintain a band of breeding ewes. From 1947 to 1952, Moorman owned and operated a cattle ranch. Knutsen said Moorman has been vice president of the Federal Land Bank Association of Burley since 1963, a director since 1960 and member since 1951. He also is a director of the research committee of the Idaho Cattle Feeders Association, secretary-treasurer of the Cassia Irrigation District, and a member of the county agent's farm advisory committee for Cassia County. Other members of the seven-man District Farm Credit Board are Thomas A. Ross, Chino, Mont.; Don H. Phipps, Wenatchee, Wash.; E. Riddell Lage, Hood River, Ore.; Richard L. Barnes, Silverton, Ore.; George W. Dacey, Drummond, Mont., and Melvin A. Ensley, Colfax, Wash.

Cytrol® Amitrole-T works by systemic action to achieve a high degree of permanent control with one application — at a one-time cost.

When you spray new, liquid Cytrol on weeds you kill them completely whereas other weed killers so often give only token control. That's because Cytrol gets right into the plant system — killing roots and all.

Cytrol also controls Horsetail Rush, Sow Thistle, Cattails, Dock, Reed Canary Grass, Berry Vines, Cheatgrass, Poison Oak, Milkweed, Leafy Spurge and many other weeds and grasses.

Cytrol is economical to use, mixes instantly with water and can be easily removed from application equipment by flushing with plain water.

Cytrol used by itself does not sterilize the soil. It can, however, be combined with a soil sterilant. Cytrol gives a quick knockdown and kills off emerged weeds and the sterilant prevents further germination and re-infestation.

Amino Triazole

If you prefer to use a wettable powder in your spray mixes — ask for Amino Triazole. It's available

JUDGING CATTLE is practiced at the Walter Matthiesen ranch, near Filer, during the judging school sponsored by the Idaho Purebred Dairy Cattle Association. The two-county tour was arranged to give men who will judge cattle at fairs this fall an opportunity to practice. They also were informed of any changes in judging procedures. Judging of cattle in large groups was featured at the Matthiesen place. (Times-News photo)

Early Summer Means Hard Work Ahead For Men Judging Cattle at Fairs

If starting early means anything, those who will serve as judges during the various county fairs getting under way in August and continuing through September are ready to face their task right now.

This summer's work for the judges has started and the study is a teaching device used by the Idaho Purebred Dairy Cattle Association to help officials get acquainted with any change in procedure or any other factor that might affect their deliberations. Initial phase of the teaching took place late last week during a divided tour with the first portion in the Rupert-Heyburn area and the second in the Twin Falls district.

First stop was at the Rex Broadhead ranch near Rupert where Jersey cattle were judged. Then tour members hopped to the Lewis Bott place, also near Rupert, where a Holstein herd was inspected and judged. From Rupert the tour went to Heyburn and to the Jeff Dunham ranch to judge Jeff Brown Swiss.

Initial stop in the Twin Falls area was at the Wilbur Van Zante ranch south of the city. Milking Shorthorns from a 4-H herd were judged there.

Next and final stop was at the Walter Matthiesen place southwest of Filer. The men inspected a group of 10 Guernsey out of a herd of nearly 100. In this instance it was pointed out that ability to judge from a large group of cattle was the theory behind the study.

The man most responsible for the training is George Cleveland, extension dairyman for the University of Idaho. During the tour, Cleveland gave reasons for placing cattle to show the judges any changes in procedure in the last year. Since this is the beginning of a lot of work to be done in the judging season there is still a fair time rolls around. The pointed out.

Alfred Stefferud Retires After 18 Years as Editor

WASHINGTON, (UPI) — Alfred Stefferud retired Wednesday as editor of the Agriculture Department's Yearbook of Agriculture.

Some 5,129,000 copies of the yearbooks were distributed during his years in the post.

Federal Milk Payments Supported

WASHINGTON — The dairyman's class I base rating plan, applicable with payments to farmers for milk under federal marketing orders, was favorably recommended to the House Agriculture Committee by its dairy subcommittee.

Sponsored by the National Milk Producers Federation, the plan would permit: (1) Extension for more than one year of producers bases, (2) gearing the bases to fluid milk sales as well as to production of dairy farmers.

The measure is similar to the Proxmire bill passed by the Senate in the previous Congress. It provides that adoption of the plan in a federal order market would be subject to approval by producers.

An amendment adopted by the subcommittee stipulates a referendum "in which each producer shall have one vote."

Other amendments call for no change from the present law in producer-handler provisions; make manufacturing milk eligible for producers and hardship cases, as well as existing producers, and provide that no producer shall lose his base for failure to make deliveries up to the base.

The 18th Stefferud-edited yearbook will be published this fall, probably in September. It has been edited and is in the hands of the government printing office.

Indexing is the only technical work remaining to be done on the 1965 yearbook. There was only one book for the 1943-47 period, and one for 1950-51. All the others were produced annually.

The Yearbooks of Agriculture are distributed principally by members of Congress to their constituents. Even so, there is a sizable sale of the volumes.

The superintendent of documents reported Aug. 12, 1964, that up to July 1, 1964, he had sold 649,347 copies of the 15 yearbooks published since 1948. The total income from these sales was $1,600,909.75.

Even without congressional distribution, the yearbook would be classed as a "best seller" — and it never hit the bookstalls. The yearbooks in the past 20 years have been devoted to a comprehensive study of a single subject. This motif has been reflected in titles, such as: "CROPS IN WAR AND PEACE," "SCIENCE IN FARMING," "PLANT DISEASES," "INSECTS," "SOIL," "LAND," "SEEDS," "POWER TO PRODUCE," "FARMER'S WORLD," "FOOD," "MARKETING," "TREES," "A PLACE TO LIVE," and "AFTER A HUNDRED YEARS."

The last title listed was for the 1962 book detailing the 100 years' existence of the Agriculture Department.

Stefferud is a native of Minnesota. He studied at the Universities of Iowa, Berlin, Vienna, and an eight-year stint with the Associated Press in Des Moines, New York, Berlin, and Vienna.

GEORGE CLEVELAND, extension dairyman, University of Idaho, lectures to fair judges at the Wilbur Van Zante ranch south of Twin Falls about judging Milking Shorthorn cattle. (Times-News photo)

accumulated some magazine experiences in New York and became the yearbook editor in 1945. He has reached government retirement age of 62. But he is not going to quit editing books. He has contracted to edit a book on a time basis of his own choosing for the Fish and Wildlife Service.

Also, he expects to do some traveling for the Friends World Committee, a Quaker organization. He said he would keep busy.

Milk up

BOISE (AP) — Production
milk in Idaho during April was estimated at 134 million pounds, the U.S. Department of Agriculture reported today. That compares with 132 million pounds in April last year and 143 million pounds
the average for the month of the preceding five years.
The price for milk used in American cheese was up 3
cents per pound of milkfat
compared with a year
earlier, the department said.

Condition of Range Feed Improving

BOISE — Condition of range feed in Idaho improved seven-eighths during April, according to the Crop Reporting Service.
The reported condition of 82 is five points above the 1959-63 average for this date and is the best since 1962. Above normal temperatures and precipitation during April were beneficial to growth and development of grasses in most areas.
Prospects for higher elevation
spring and summer grazing conditions remain very good. Soil moisture supplies remain good nearly all areas.
Stock water and irrigation supplies are considered adequate to ample in all areas.
Reported condition of cattle and calves, at 88, improved one point during April and is now slightly above average for this date. This improvement in condition reflects the warming and during April and improved feeding.

thrown open to farmers in 178 counties in the nine states of Colorado, Iowa, Kansas, Minne-

High Level Grain Ration Won't Pay, Project Shows

MOSCOW — Feeding dairy cows a high level grain ration won't pay Idaho dairymen, not as long as they can buy good quality alfalfa hay at current prices, it is announced at the University of Idaho.
The evidence comes from a two-year experiment at the University's Caldwell branch Experiment Station. The study was made by D. L. Thacker, assistant dairy scientist, and R. H.
Ross, head of the Department of Dairy Science.
They found that dairy cows
fed a standard controlled-grain ration produced substantially higher dollar returns than cows
fed grain free-choice.
Cows on the high-level grain ration were given all the grain
they could eat plus five pounds of alfalfa hay per day. Cows on the standard ration were fed all the alfalfa hay they wanted plus one pound of grain for each four pounds of four percent fat-corrected-milk (FCM) they produced. Both groups were fed 40 pounds of corn silage.
Figuring feed costs at $25 per ton for alfalfa hay and $60 per ton for the beet pulp-barley-shelled corn grain mixture, here is how the groups compared:
In 1962-63, the controlled-grain group produced 100 pounds of four percent FCM for $2.24; the high-level grain group, $3.34. In 1963-64, costs were $2.07 for controlled, $3.38 for high-level grain.
Production of both groups was good, averaging well over 11,000 pounds FCM per cow. Grain consumption of cows in the free-choice group was 21.5 per cow per day the first year, 28.9
pounds the second. The controlled-ration group averaged 8 to 9 pounds of grain and nearly 21 pounds of alfalfa per day for the two years.
Neither breeding efficiency
nor mastitis occurrence were affected by the rations, Thacker

Index of Prices Drops One Point

WASHINGTON (AP) — The
index of prices paid by Idaho farmers for feed declined one point in the month ended May 15, the U. S. Department of Agriculture reports.
That put the index five points
below that for the corresponding period last year but one point above the 1957-59 average.
The decline during the past month largely was caused by a reduction in the price of alfalfa hay.

Latin America have fallen.
Of the $1.1 billion in U.S. farm exports in 1963, Canada took $397 million worth, while the total for Latin American countries was about $500 million. In 1955-58, the U.S. agricultural shipments to Canada averaged $341 million. During the same period, shipments to Latin America averaged $313.5 million.
The department's Economic Research Service (ERS) made a study of U.S. trade with the Western Hemisphere since 1935,
but concentrated chiefly on U.S.
exports for 1960-63.
In 1963, the Western Hemisphere accounted for nearly 20 per cent of the total U.S. farm exports of $5.85 billion, and half of the $4 billion of farm products imported by the United States.
At that time, U.S. exports to the Western Hemisphere were at a record high, nine times the annual 1935-39 average and nearly double the 1945-49 average.
ERS said that underlying the weakness in the Latin America market—apart from the cutoff in Cuban trade—has been the economic plight besetting much of the region. The agency said many countries are faced with serious inflation, balance-of-payments deficits and faltering economic growth.
It said counter measures often have resulted in the erection of trade barriers to regulate the flow of scarce exchange. This, coupled with political instability
in Latin America, has hampered U.S. agricultural exports, ERS said.
The analysts said there was evidence of economic and political improvement in Latin America. They said the Alliance for Progress is proof of a concerted effort in economic development. They concluded that the political structure of Latin America seems much firmer

than five or 10 years ago.
ERS said Canada likely will remain the dominant hemisphere market for U.S. farm products. It said Canada's economy is expected to continue its current high level of activity, with a favorable growth rate of per capita income. ERS said an increase in demand for farm goods should result in a continuation of the uptrend in U.S. agricultural exports to Canada.
ERS said the potential for expanding sales is particularly great in Latin America. It said continuing problems of foreign exchange and competition from other suppliers are expected to be more than offset by an up-surge in potential demand, little net gain in local production, and a continuation of the Food for Peace program.
The agency said Latin America soon may be entering a period of accelerated growth and demand. In that case, growth in commercial exports easily could follow the expanding pattern of farm sales to Japan and Spain.
The per capita income in the two regions of the Western Hemisphere is distinctly different.
In Canada, it is high. In Latin America, it is low. ERS said the per capita national income in 1960-62 in Canada was estimated to $1,482. In Latin America, it was $255.
Canada is the leading buyer
of U.S. fruits and vegetables

California Criticized By Senator

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—State Sen. Robert Lagomarsino, R-Ventura, has criticized the California Social Welfare Department for new regulations designed to get welfare recipients into farm work.

Lagomarsino said the department's action was "an obvious attempt to make the legislature ride in the back seat in dealing with the problems of unemployment and the California farm labor crisis."

Under the department's new program, welfare recipients will continue to receive aid when in farm work as long as their earnings are not enough to cover their established needs.

The new rules redefine farm labor as part-time employment. Previously, acceptance of farm work automatically ended welfare aid after one week.

Lagomarsino charged that the department's action was "a very broad precedent-setting action which would have a permanent effect not only upon the entire farm economy of California but upon the public welfare programs."

The Ventura Republican added that the move could drive farm labor costs "sky high and turn out to be the straw that breaks the back of California's already tottering agricultural economy."

Social Welfare Chief J. M. Wedemeyer, according to the legislator, said some 11,000 families who had been ineligible to get welfare aid because they were in farm work would now be able to get the payments under the new program.

Pesticides and Safety

The use of pesticide sprays and dusts for home and garden pest control is expanding at a tremendous rate. These are effective tools for better living if you follow these four keys to safe use:

READ THE LABEL and follow directions and warnings on use.

Store materials out of reach of children, pets, and irresponsible people.

Apply pesticides only as directed.

Dispose of empty containers so that they pose no hazard to humans, animals or valuable plants.

Strengthened Form of Bill Given Approval by House

WASHINGTON, (UPI)—The House Wheat Subcommittee has approved a strengthened form of President Johnson's wheat support bill.

It would boost farm income and cut government costs by raising consumer prices slightly.

The bill would revise and continue for four years a "marketing certificate" support program for wheat which Congress approved last year for the 1964 and 1965 crops.

Under the subcommittee bill, wheat growers who complied with government planting allotments would get price supports at the full "fair earning power" parity price on about 45 per cent of their crop—the proportion of total U. S. wheat output which goes for domestic food.

Under the 1965 program, domestic food wheat is supported at $2 a bushel. The subcommittee bill would boost the rate in 1966 to $2.50 or $2.55 a bushel.

The extra money would be raised by hiking the cost of "marketing certificates" which farmers get as part of their price support. These certificates are sold to processors who will presumably pass on the increased cost to consumers.

The House feed grain subcommittee, meanwhile, announced its approval of a modified version of another section of the Johnson administration's Omnibus Farm Bill.

The subcommittee said it voted late last night to okay a four-year extension, with some modifications, of the existing government program which gives price supports and acreage diversion payments to farmers who limit feed grain plantings.

The two subcommittee bills now go to the full House agriculture committee for inclusion in the administration's Omnibus Farm Bill.

Control of Thistle Is Difficult

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO—Canada thistle is one of the most widespread weeds in Idaho and ranks first or second in total acreage infested.

There's a good reason: it's tough to control. But you can control it if you treat at the right time and often enough, says Clarence I. Seely, agronomist with the University of Idaho, Agricultural Experiment Station.

"If you can hit the weed with two or three effective spray applications each season, you can usually eradicate it in two or three years," Seely says. "If your crop limits you to one application, you can only hope for control."

In cropland where Canada thistle infestation is general, 2,4-D is still the best chemical to use. It should be applied when the thistle is in early bud stage. Rates will vary according to the crop — about two pounds per acre for spring wheat and barley, one and one-half pounds per acre for oats, Seely says.

Rates for pasture can be two to four pounds 2,4-D per acre. The spray may also knock out pasture legumes, the agronomist warns. Pastures should not be grazed for seven days after treatment.

Canada thistle control with 2,4-D is usually successful in pastures because it is possible to spray two or more times and the hay crop competes with the thistle, Seely says.

You will also get a high thistle kill in irrigated crops sprayed early in the season and again after the crop is removed. But don't expect too much in winter wheat. The 2,4-D application must be timed to avoid injury to the wheat plants. Thistle is usually either too young or too mature to be killed.

Bold Bidder Put In Belmont to Add 'Early Zip'

NEW YORK (AP)—Early zip was added to Saturday's renewal of the $125,000-added Belmont Stakes Thursday, setting up the prospect of another thrilling stretch duel between Tom Rolfe and Dapper Dan with Hail to All ready to cash in on his stretch running charge if either falters. With the remark, "I want to keep them honest," trainer Bill Winfrey announced he would enter the Wheatley Stable's Bold Bidder, a fleet son of Bold Ruler, as a running mate for Ogden Phipps' fast closing Dapper Dan.

Staub Bats Astros Past Redlegs 8-3

CINCINNATI (AP) — Rusty Staub drove in four runs with a homer and sacrifice fly, leading the Houston Astros to an 8-3 victory over Cincinnati Thursday night.

Staub gave the Astros an early 3-0 lead, tagging Reds' starter Gerry Arrigo for his homer in the second inning, scoring John Bateman and Ron Brand. Staub hit his sacrifice fly in the fifth inning.

Houston put together another three-run inning in the third, two runs coming across on the second of Brand's three singles. Bob Lillis, who scored on a wild pitch in the fourth, also had three singles for Houston.

Don Nottbart started for Houston but needed Hal Woodeshick's relief help in the ninth after Deron Johnson homered and Art Shamsky singled home another run.

Breedlove to Try for Record

CHICAGO (UPI) — Craig Breedlove, builder and driver of the three-wheeled "Spirit of America" and one-time world land-speed record holder, announced Thursday he would build another jet car and try to reclaim the record he lost.

Breedlove was in Chicago to donate the Spirit of America to the Chicago Museum of Science and Industry as a permanent display.

Last year, Breedlove and his three-wheeled car twice broke the world land speed mark. In his last effort, he drove the car to a speed of 526 miles per hour. The car was later wrecked when Breedlove lost control on the Bonneville, Utah, Salt Flats and wound up nose down in a salt pond.

A short time later, Art Arfons upped the record to 536

Mets Break Pirates' Win Skein at 12

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The New York Mets ended Pittsburgh's winning streak at 12 Thursday night, building an early 8-0 lead and surviving the Pirates' six-run eighth inning uprising for an 8-6 victory.

The Mets built their early lead by scoring two runs in the third inning and then erupting for six runs after two were out in the fourth. It stayed 8-0 until the eighth when Mets starter Galen Cisco, who had shut out the Pirates on six hits, started to get tagged.

Miller gave way to Tom Parsons, who managed to retire the side but was tagged for a sacrifice fly by Jim Pagan and a two-run pinch-hit homer by Jerry Lynch. It was Lynch's 11th pinch-hit homer of his career.

Base-Stealing Wills Rivals Ancient Mark

By United Press International
Even the legendary base-stealing records of Sliding Billy Hamilton and Harry (Smokey) Stove may fall before the onslaught of Maury Wills this season.

Stove, at the age of 31, swiped 156 bases in 130 games for Philadelphia back in 1888 and Hamilton stole 115 in 133 games for the Phillies in 1891.

That's a bundle, but don't count Wills out of the race. Apparently, all he needs is to reach first base as often as Hamilton and Stove, both better than 320 hitters in their record-setting seasons.

Wills, a .271 hitter, reached first base twice Wednesday night and twice stole second for the Los Angeles Dodgers as they downed the St. Louis Cardinals 4-1. He has a total of 32 thefts, putting him 12 games ahead of his 1962 pace when he set the modern record of 104.

Register

All area fast pitch softball teams planning to participate in the district and state tournaments must register with the Amateur Softball Association by July 1, reminds Fifth District Commissioner Chad Browning.

A 15-day period is allowed for roster change after the deadline.

The district tournament will be held the second week of August with the State meet set for Boise Aug. 20-22. Teams may register with Browning or Dee Taylor, Burley.

Clay-Chuvalo Fight Seen as Boxing Cure

TORONTO (UPI) — A George Chuvalo - Cassius Clay bout is the tonic needed to cure boxing's ills, according to former heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano.

"The public is really fed up with quick fights," said Marciano Wednesday. "Another fight like that last one and boxing will be dead."

"Chuvalo is the toughest, strongest heavyweight I have seen in the last five years or so. He's eager to fight Clay and is not afraid of him," Marciano added. "Chuvalo thinks like an old-time fighter — he wants to fight Clay and it's not a question of money."

Marciano suggested the winner of the Clay - Chuvalo bout could meet Floyd Patterson.

Marciano said Clay was "an asset" to boxing at first, but "a liability" now.

"The last couple of years, he has hurt it (boxing) with his stupid remarks," he said. "It's too bad because he has good fighting ability."

28 Women Win in 'Beat Pro' Tourney

It was "beat the pro" day at the Municipal Golf Course Thursday and 28 of the 49 women participating in the event did just that.

Host Pro Clyde Thomsen played 18 holes early Thursday to set the standard, then allowed members of the Women's Golf Association full handicap plus seven strokes. He shot a 70.

The scalping was fitting as Thomsen was defeated by only five women in the past two years.

Joyce Sidwell won the trophy for 1965 by defeating Phyllis Nealon in a playoff. Both had nine-under par 59 net scores. Virginia Undhjem's 76 was low gross for the day.

Others whipping Thomsen were M. Jenkins, Ruth Misher, both 61; Barbara Barnes, 62; D. Mowry, Fran Threlkeld, B. Kieley, Tracy Haskins, V. Parkins and Phyllis Kelly, all 64; Marge Wood, Ruth Stevens and Betty Coiner, all 65; J. Whiting, Georgia Wills, Florence Dwyer, Jackie Gasser, Shirley Straughn and Rose Rupert, all 66; Anna Dean Coulam, Myrtle Peterson and Pat Williams, all 68; V. Poole, M. Meadows and V. Undhjem, all 69, and Mary Adams and Dorothy Conradi, both 70.

PGA Official Claims Palmer Is 'Selfish'

NEW YORK (AP)—Arnold Palmer is selfish and perpetrating a hoax in proposing a streamlining-of-the-pro golf tour, contends the tournament manager of the Professional Golfers Association. "Arnold's chronic unhappiness with the PGA tour, on which he has won more than $600,000 in official money alone since 1955, must be a source of puzzlement to others as it is to me," Jim Gaquin said in the latest issue of Golf Magazine.

Gaquin teed off on golf's all-time leading money winner and popular favorite for complaining against too many pool table courses and suggesting that the tour schedule be reduced from around 45 to 30 tournaments a year.

Palmer's suggestion was that more top name players would compete if the tour were streamlined.

Gaquin calls this proposal a hoax and adds: "It would cause twice as many ailments as it would cure."

Palmer, reached at the practice tee at Warwick Hills Country Club in Grand Blanc, Mich., after finishing his first round of the Buick Open, said "I will have absolutely nothing to say on anything that Jim said."

The tournament manager said to limit the tour would deprive certain sections of the country of major league golf, would alienate some faithful sponsors, would pose a serious public relations problem for the PGA and limit the earning opportunities of players.

Gaquin said tour purses have increased from $1,000,000 to $3,500,000 since 1957 and he argued the program has never been better supervised and publicized.

He added that major tournament winners who do not wish to play the PGA tour have the privilege of staying out.

Spray Marks Graduation from College by Taking Early Lead in Buick Open

GRAND BLANC, Mich. (UPI) — Unsung, unheard-of Steve Spray of Indiana, Iowa, celebrated his college graduation Thursday with a four-under-par 68 that put him at the head of the class as the surprise first-round leader in the $100,000 Buick Open. Spray, a rather shy, lanky 24-year-old, who has never made a nickel on the pro tour and was as shocked as everyone else by his from-out-of-nowhere 32-36, received his diploma from Eastern New Mexico University "in absentia" only a few hours after he knocked in his final putt of the day here.

Spray's eye-popping start left him one stroke ahead of former U.S. Open champion Julius Boros, who checked in with a 70, and two strokes ahead of the defending champion, Jack Nicklaus, who could manage only a 70. He tied him with Doug Sargent, Gene Littler, Johnny Poit, Bert Weaver and Wright Garrett.

Defending champion Tonyema and Jack Rule were next in line with 71s.

Although thunder showers had been predicted, ideal 63-degree weather prevailed and the sun bathed the 144-man field all day.

"I didn't come to this tournament with a whole lot of money in my pocket—only enough to get by—but I had a hunch I was going to make some money this week," he said.

"The only thing I've ever won was the Iowa Open two days after I turned pro last September. I got $750 for that one, but never won a nickel since joining the tour."

They call the Iowa youngster "The Sprayer," which has a population of 8,000 and only one nine-hole course, and he lived up to that nickname on the 7,280-yard Warwick Hills layout where he missed six of the 18 greens.

"My putter saved me, though," he grinned.

Spray required 28 putts, only one more than the best putting performance of the year by Gene Littler in the San Diego Open and wound up with six birdies and two bogeys. He missed out on a 20-footer to birdie on par four, 468-yard fifth, and sank another 25-footer for a ace on the par-three, 171-yard eighth.

Nicklaus, the pre-tournament favorite who raised some eyebrows when he soared to a duffer's 82 during Wednesday's pro-amateur, pulled his game together somewhat with a 34-36.

Billy Casper, Dow Finsterwald, Dick Mayer, Don Masengale and Frank Beard were among those grounded at evening while Arnold Palmer, Gary Player, Doug Ford, Bobby Nichols, Jay Hebert, Bob Tosburg and 52-year-old Sammy Snead had 73s.

U.S. Open champ Ken Venturi, gallantly attempting to settle his way back from a circulatory ailment in his right hand, had a 78 and Chi Chi Rodriguez a 77.

Nicklaus said he "had heard" of Spray before and seen him play.

"He's a fine young player," said Nicklaus.

Defending champion Loren Foye will not be in this year's field.

Rozelle Wants Two New Teams for NFL

NEW YORK (AP)—National Football League Commissioner Pete Rozelle announced Thursday he had recommended the addition of two teams to expand the league to 16 teams by 1967. Moments later Commissioner Joe Foss of the rival American Football League said his circuit could name and field two more teams by 1966 if it wants to.

Minnesota Is 4-3 Winner Over Boston

ST. PAUL - MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Unbeaten Camillo Pascual, supported by Bob Allison's two-run homer, registered his seventh straight victory Thursday as the Minnesota Twins defeated the Boston Red Sox 4-3.

Pascual needed relief help in the eighth inning from Johnny Klippstein who, in turn, had to have bullpen help from southpaw Mel Nelson in the ninth.

Pascual had a two-hitter and a 3-1 lead when Boston rallied for a run in the eighth on singles by Lennie Green, Dalton Jones and Felix Mantilla. Billy Pleis came on to retire a man on a sacrifice before Klippstein took over. The veteran right-hander struck out Tony Conigliaro and got Mike Ryan to ground out.

The Twins took a 4-2 lead into the bottom of the ninth scoring an unearned run in the top of the inning.

The Red Sox threatened in the bottom of the ninth when Green singled on top of a one-out walk to Eddie Bressoud. Nelson replaced Klippstein and retired the side although Bressoud scored the Red Sox' third run on an error by third baseman Rich Rollins.

Braves Bury Giants Under 9-Run Inning

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The Milwaukee Braves exploded for nine runs in a wild third inning capped by Eddie Mathews' 11th homer and belted the San Francisco Giants 10-3 Thursday night behind the pitching of trade acquisition Ken Johnson.

The Braves sent 13 batters to the plate, collecting four doubles, one single and a pair of walks in addition to Mathews' two-run homer as they put together the biggest inning in the majors this season.

Given that kind of support, Johnson, recently acquired from the Houston Astros, breezed to his first Milwaukee triumph, hosting his record to 4-2. He allowed only six hits, one a bunt.

Johnson helped his cause by driving in two of the runs with a single. In addition to Mathews and Johnson, Mack Jones also drove in a pair of runs in the uprising that started against Bob Shaw.

O'Malley Says Braves Ought To Shift Now

MILWAUKEE (UPI)—Walter O'Malley, owner of the Los Angeles Dodgers and often referred to as the "strong man" of the National League, said Thursday he felt Milwaukee officials should allow the Braves to move to Atlanta immediately.

While stressing that he still felt Milwaukee is "a great franchise city," O'Malley said he felt it would be in the best interests of the city to allow a move.

He said the outlook was "poor" for the city to get a major league club next year unless "a team presently in existence is willing to move its team to Milwaukee."

He said he would not discuss what teams are thinking of moving.

"You will not get expansion next year, surely," he said. He predicted expansion is at least five years away "because you won't be able to get the votes until then."

He disagreed with certain major league owners who said that baseball owes Milwaukee nothing.

"Milwaukee opened a lot of peoples' eyes. Mine for one," he said. "If it wasn't for Milwaukee, the Dodgers wouldn't be playing in Los Angeles or the Giants in San Francisco. The Twins probably wouldn't be in Minneapolis."

But, he said, "You might lose a little support if you continue to stiff arm... and the Braves continue playing before empty seats."

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

FRIDAY, June 4—Born today, you may not be destined for the top professionally, but all signs certainly point to personal popularity, to hosts of deep and loyal friendships, as lasting as life itself. Many may run ahead of you in your chosen career—but few will be able to keep up with you when it comes to being the force behind the success of others. For you have not only a way of making true friends, but a knack for influencing them in making of right decisions.

It should go without saying that people will look to you for advice—so much so that it may at times become an annoyance, especially when you are forced to take time away from your own private life to make way for the problems of others. Still, your good heart and deep interest in others will not permit you to ignore any plea for help. Though you may get a relatively late start when it comes to romance, signs indicate that yours will be an exceptionally happy marriage once you do take the plunge. Only take care to choose a mate who is willing to see you give almost as much of yourself to those outside the family as you give to family members.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Saturday, June 5
GEMINI (May 22-June 21)—The wise Gemini will continue to pursue occupational matters throughout the day, even though it's Saturday.

CANCER (June 22-July 23)—Romance may appear more steady than it really is.

LEO (July 24-Aug. 23)—A rosy future should make itself known to the Leo who is clever enough to read the signs of his own success.

VIRGO (Aug. 24-Sept. 23)—Concentrate on those matters that have a bearing on the success and happiness of the entire family.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)—A meeting with a stranger could prove one of the most important events of the year for the Libra with eyes for an opportunity.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)—Consider the human element before you back any new endeavor 100 per cent.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22)—This Saturday should bring the blossoming of a number of cared for plants, figuratively speaking.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23-Jan. 20)—Avoid putting all your eggs in one basket or all your trust in one friend.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)—A pleasure-filled Saturday for the Aquarius who has left nothing to chance.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20)—A day for seeing that affairs in general on the home front are in good order.

ARIES (March 21-April 20)—Keep your activities limited to those things essential to the family as a whole.

TAURUS (April 21-May 21)—Don't avoid entering upon some artistic endeavor simply because you're an amateur.

SATURDAY, JUNE 5—Born today, you are basically of a spiritual nature, with little interest in the material things of life except as they are necessary to your physical existence. If you happen to have been born to wealth, there is little question but that you will devote yourself to the welfare of others, rather than of yourself. If, however, you are born to ordinary circumstances, you will force yourself if necessary to think of your own and your family's welfare.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23-Jan. 20)—Unless you are certain of making a good showing you would be wiser to make no showing at all.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)—To enter into family argument can do little but increase the friction.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20)—

There is much of the visionary about you. This is a trait which may well show itself most clearly during that time when you are searching for a marriage partner. You will probably seek—and, hopefully, find—a mate of soulful rather than physical qualities, one who will be well able to meet your demands for high standards of behavior both publicly and privately.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Sunday, June 6
GEMINI (May 22-June 21)—You can make hay while the sun shines if you insert business conversation into your Sunday social contacts.

CANCER (June 22-July 23)—A high tide of good tidings for the Cancer who has laid well the groundwork for success.

LEO (July 24-Aug. 23)—A fortunate day if you make an effort to suppress early morning depression.

VIRGO (Aug. 24-Sept. 23)—You may have difficulty persuading the family to go along with you in your plans for the day.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)—Encourage younger family members in new contacts.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)—Community affairs may depend for their success upon the wisdom of Scorpio today.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22)—

Hints of new job opportunities may come your way if you play your conversational cards right.

ARIES (March 21-April 20)—The Aries who looks toward a power greater than himself for guidance today should not be disappointed.

TAURUS (April 21-May 21)—A day for demonstrating your humane attitude.

USE TIMES-NEWS WANT ADS FOR FAST SELLING RESULTS

Use your time wisely to take the greatest advantages from even the smallest opportunity.

ARIES (March 21-April 20)—The Aries who looks toward a power greater than himself for guidance today should not be disappointed.
