

Statement Issued On Role of U.S. In Viet Nam War

WASHINGTON (AP)—The White House said today that the U. S. commander has had all along the newly reported authority to commit U. S. ground forces to "support" fighting if the South Vietnamese ask and need help, and it does not mean those forces can join in an offensive.

3 Americans Released in Dominican

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—The Dominican rebels today released three American soldiers who wandered into rebel territory. They were turned over to the Organization of American States.

The three Americans, captured when they drove into rebel territory Tuesday by mistake, were Lt. Henry Cephus Leforce, 24, of Nash, Okla.; Spec. 4 Alton P. Blakely, 21, of Richmond, Calif.; and Pfc. Nelson Belengeri, 21, a Peruvian citizen whose uncle lives in Belleville, Ill.

Leforce told newsmen they were on their way to investigate a claim that an American truck had been damaged when they wandered into rebel territory. "I assumed there would be a sign telling us when the international zone ended," Leforce said. "But when we had gone two blocks, a jeep with a 50-caliber machine gun mounted on it pulled out of a side street and stopped us. There was not much we could do."

102 Ask Enrollment In Junior College

Dr. James L. Taylor, president, College of Southern Idaho, reported Wednesday that 102 applications for enrollment have been received at the college office. He said he was pleased with the interest shown by the potential students. "There has been tremendous interest in the vocational school," Dr. Taylor said. He said persons interested in enrolling in this part of the college should do so immediately, since it is filling up so rapidly.

Filer Man, 20, Accidentally Wounded in Leg

A 20-year-old Filer man was treated by a private physician Tuesday evening for a gun shot wound in his right leg.

Duane Henry, 20, Filer, told a Twin Falls county deputy sheriff that the hammer of his .22 caliber pistol struck a fence post and discharged a bullet into his right leg while he was hunting Tuesday evening in the Filer area.

The youth went to the office of a private physician where he was treated and released.

Liquor by Drink Ballot Passes in Buhl

BUHL—Buhl voters, who have gone to the polls several times in recent years to attempt to gain liquor by the drink sales in Buhl, passed the proposal by a margin of 129 votes Tuesday in a reportedly surprising vote. The count was 312 for the proposal and 183 against. In ward No. 1 the vote was 121 for and 85 against. Ward No. 2 saw 289 voters casting ballots with 191 voting for the liquor sales and 98 against.

It was reported that the date the ordinance will go into effect is not known.

Lunar Shot

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union's latest moon rocket, Luna 6, which is expected to try a soft landing, is working well as it speeds away from the Earth, Tass said today.

An official announcement after more than 24 hours of flight said that at 4 p.m. Moscow time (9 a.m. EST) the unmanned spacecraft was 142,915 miles from Earth. Information was radioed back four times in the first day of flight, Tass added.

Coin Loss Heavy

MOUNTAIN HOME, Idaho (AP)—More than $1,000 worth of valuable coins were reported stolen early Tuesday in a break-in at a Mountain Home coin shop.

Police said the burglar was apparently well versed in the value of coins, picking up only rare issues and passing up those of lesser value.

Ecuadorian Visitor Has High Ambition

A 26-year-old schoolteacher from Ecuador, who has aspirations of being president of his country, arrived in Twin Falls Tuesday for a visit as a representative for the Alliance for Progress program. Regulo De Mora, Pelileo, Ecuador, spent Tuesday night in Twin Falls and plans to leave Wednesday afternoon by plane for Washington, D. C., where he will participate in the first conference of the Alliance for Progress. At the meeting

Rupert Fails To Meet Blood Quota

RUPERT — Mindoka county residents failed to meet their 125 pint quota by 16 pints during Tuesday's visit of the Red Cross Bloodmobile, according to Mrs. Rob Snapp, chairman of the county blood program.

There were 109 pints collected and seven persons were rejected.

Four-gallon pins were awarded to Myrtle Kelly and Marian Wilfirth. One-gallon pins went to Charles Jarvis, Jay McBride, Fred Maxson, Ray Wall, and Mrs. Don Pittard.

Doctors in attendance were Dr. A. F. Dalley and Dr. O. A. Moellner. Registered Nurses in attendance were Mrs. Frank McCall, Mrs. Blaine Hodges, Mrs. Vic Carlson, Mrs. Allen King and Mrs. Naomi Lewis.

Nurses aides included Mrs. Glen McBride, and Mrs. Carl Keely. Mrs. Leon Craven served as receptionist and Mrs. Herman Henschel, Mrs. John Wise and Mrs. Ralph Smith were typists.

Mrs. Manual Santos, Mrs. Ray Burton, Ronnie Conner and Judy Mart assisted in the canteen, with Mrs. James Householder and Mrs. Robert Catmull serving at the replacement table.

The Rupert VFW auxiliary supervised the campaign, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Fred Brady, assisted by Mrs. Emmet Olmsted, Mrs. Ernest Ralls, Mrs. Floyd Mason, Mrs. Ray Timmons, Mrs. Harvey Graves and Mrs. Ora Chanslor.

The Rupert Jay-C-Ettes called churches, civic groups and business houses in Rupert and Mindoka county residents were telephoned by the Rupert Woman's Club, with equipment being loaded and unloaded by city employees.

The LDS Church donated 17 pints of blood, the Rupert Elks, four pints, the Knights of Columbus, five pints, the Rupert Lions Club, two pints, the Methodist Church, two pints and the Christian Church, two pints.

The Idaho Partners of the Alliance for Progress is a non-governmental extension of the Alliance for Progress and seeks to establish a good neighbor relationship with the people of Idaho and Ecuador.

Astronauts Have 'Debriefing'; Face Series of Welcomes

ABOARD THE WASP (AP)—James A. McDivitt and Edward H. White II, now close enough to home to see their own historic space-walk film on shipboard television, began their final festive day at sea today and got set for a round of welcomes awaiting them ashore. Almost all of the intensive medical testing behind them, the astronauts' schedule today called for "technical debriefing"—talking into tape recorders at length about their four-day mission and being questioned in detail by space experts.

The Gemini 4 twins said their most memorable moments of the flight were, for White, his 20-minute stroll in space, and, for McDivitt, the capsule's re-entry through the earth's atmosphere.

They were among the millions who thrilled at the sight of vivid movies of the space stroll. The films were released Tuesday in Houston, Tex., and the astronauts saw a televised version late Tuesday night.

Space doctors also continued to be mildly amazed at the astronauts' fine physical condition after their arduous journey.

Medical tests showed little ill effects on the astronauts' hearts from four days of weightlessness, though there was one minor health problem Tuesday: McDivitt had a nosebleed.

Doctors said the nosebleed probably resulted from the drying effect of breathing pure oxygen for nearly 58 hours. They said future astronauts might take along something to lubricate the inner nose.

The astronauts' schedule on their scheduled return to Houston Thursday already was crowded with parades and other honors from their admiring public. Here's what's planned so far:

Thursday — Arrive in Houston at 10:30 a.m. (EST) for a parade, visit with their families, news conference, further debriefing.

Friday or Saturday — A likely visit to President Johnson's ranch in Texas.

Monday — Ticker-tape parade in Chicago.

Tuesday — Honors by the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor. Both men are graduates of the university.

Wednesday — A homecoming celebration at Jackson, Mich., McDivitt's home town.

No homecoming plans were announced yet for White. He is a native of San Antonio, Tex., but has lived in about 50 cities, the son of an Air Force general. His parents now live in St. Petersburg, Fla., and a space center spokesman said the celebration probably would be there.

Film Reveals No Picture Of Satellite

SPACE CENTER, Houston, (UPI) — The Federal Space Agency today said Astronaut James McDivitt had no luck getting a picture of a satellite that passed within sight of his Gemini-4 spacecraft last Friday.

McDivitt, whirling through space with fellow Astronaut Edward White, said he tried to take photos of the satellite that had "big arms sticking out."

But a space agency spokesman said film of the four-day space trip has been studied closely and "we have yet to find anything that resembles a picture of a satellite."

At the time, McDivitt was quoted as radioing that he had taken a picture of it.

The space agency spokesman said nothing was found in the film.

He said "apparently we're not going to come up with anything."

McDivitt spotted another satellite Saturday night in his space trip.

Nine Named to Advisory Unit

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. George Hansen, R-Idaho, announced today the appointment of nine men to the Idaho advisory committee of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress.

They are Jack Claiborn, Kimberly, Herbert K. Whitworth, Baneroff, J. LaVonne Christiansen, Firth, J. Van Chaburg, Albion; Alex O. Coleman, Jerome; R. P. Parry, Twin Falls; LeRoy Stanger, Idaho Falls; Adonis H. Nelson, Burley, and John T. Poole, Malad.

RALLY IS HELD

TOKYO (AP) — An estimated 24,000 demonstrators, dominated by Communists and Socialists, held a massive rally today protesting what they claim is U.S. aggression in Viet Nam.

Women's Unit Plans Convention in T.F.

"Company's Coming," has been set as the theme of the 44th annual state convention of the Idaho Federation of Business and Professional Women to be held Friday through Sunday in Twin Falls. According to Mrs. Lillian Moran, general convention chairman, the convention hasn't been held in Twin Falls since 1922. Hosting the three day meeting will be the south central district which includes clubs from Buhl, Gooding, Jerome, Rupert, Sun Valley and Twin Falls.

MRS. M. CRAVENS DOUGLASS

Special guest at the convention will be Mrs. M. Cravens Douglass, El Segundo, Calif., national membership chairman. She will present the national program and legislation and will be the featured speaker at the Saturday night banquet. Her duties will also include the installation of new officers.

On the agenda for Friday in O'Leary Junior High School is the executive board meeting, registration, state board of directors meeting and a class in parliamentary law and club protocol.

The convention will be officially called to order at 2 p.m. and the group will be greeted by State Rep. William Lanting, Twin Falls. During the first meeting convention rules will be adopted, credential reports will be heard and there will be announcements and reports of officers, committees and directors. Dinner will follow at the Elks Club.

Gold card members, those who have indicated five new members during the year will be honored at a breakfast Saturday morning. There will be an introduction of candidates, a presentation of national legislation and the budget during the business meeting.

Representatives also will be elected to serve on the national nominating committee, national legislative committee and three delegates-at-large to serve the national convention. New officers will be installed during a banquet at the Elks Club.

Special devotional and memorial services will be conducted Sunday at the Elks Club along with the annual emblem breakfast. Final reports will be given and the committees and board of directors will meet for the last time.

R. Kennedy Plans Salmon River Journey

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., and Jim Whittaker, who conquered a Canadian mountain together earlier this year, will make a raft trip down the Salmon River in Idaho, Mrs. Whittaker said Tuesday.

She said Kennedy, his wife and their four oldest children will meet the Whittakers and their two sons in Boise, Idaho, June 26.

The two families will proceed to the headwaters of the Salmon and begin a five-day raft journey.

The senator and Whittaker, first American to conquer Mt. Everest, made the first ascent of Mt. Kennedy this spring. The peak was named by the Canadian government for the senator's brother, assassinated President John F. Kennedy.

Elusive Luci Tells of Her Escape For Weekend of Fun With Friends

WASHINGTON (AP) — Elusive Luci Johnson, 17, who escaped discovery to have a weekend of fun with her friends like any other teenager, admitted it all Tuesday.

She said she even wore "a disguise" and people came right up to her asking "where's Luci Johnson?" without recognizing her.

"Is it too much to ask? I wanted to have a good time," the President's daughter said in an interview.

From Thursday night, when she accompanied the President on his jet plane flight to Chicago, Luci managed to keep out of sight and to lead the press of three states a merry — but fruitless chase. She said her parents had given their approval of the ruse.

"I had a wonderful time," she said of her weekend that included attending the prom at Marquette University, where some of her friends are students or were graduating.

Asked how she managed to escape detection, Luci said she wasn't going to tell her secrets because she might want to try it again sometime.

Luci attended the graduation exercises at Marquette among 6,000 people, without anyone recognizing her. She said she went to the prom and "stayed the whole time" and to Sunday mass, without attracting any attention. Later, she joined friends for a picnic excursion into the Wisconsin countryside.

"I went to a lot of trouble," Luci explained. "I did it because I wanted just for one time to be out with my friends having a good time. It's difficult enough. I always have to have adults around and chaperons." "If you have to have them," she added. "I couldn't ask for better ones." But Luci didn't want the press and curious sightseers as well this time.

VIEWING THE CUTOUT made Monday night through the Hailey-Broadford roadbed where the old Star Bridge over Big Wood River formerly stood are from left, LeRoy Shipp, pointing; Alec Stewart and Steven Justus. The three were among many early morning viewers Tuesday who toured the flooded low lands along the swollen Big Wood River north of Hailey. The old Star Bridge was ruined 10 years ago when the Colorado Bridge, two miles upstream, broke loose and crashed into it, splintering both structures. There are nearly 400 feet of water spread over the land between the present Star Bridge, in background, and the cut made at the site of the old bridge. Watermaster Woodrow Waits said the Wood river was up to 5.65 feet Tuesday, compared to 5.48 feet Monday. (Times-News photo)

Medals Are Presented to 120 Scholars

WASHINGTON (AP) — A handshake, a smile and a medal from President Johnson in the historic East Room of the White House. A buffet dinner on the South Lawn with Luci Baines Johnson as hostess. Heroes galore and entertainment under the soft light of the moon.

It added up to the biggest night ever in the lives of 120 of the nation's brightest youngsters.

There was Nantelle Smith of Enterprise, Ala., first of the presidential scholars to cross the small stage where the President stood.

"I was so nervous I didn't even know where I was going," she said later.

But she knew what she was going for—she clutched for dear life the box holding the medal.

Jane Grayson was perhaps the most tired of the scholars. Jane was valedictorian of her graduating class at Miami Beach (Fla.) Senior High Monday night. She caught a midnight flight to Washington, and found no time nor desire to sleep.

"This is all so wonderful," she said. "Just wonderful. I'll sleep some other time."

The boy from the big city looked southward across the South Lawn to where the Jefferson Memorial was bathed in a soft glow of light, whistled under his breath and said, "Boy, this is the prettiest back yard I've ever seen."

The special heroes of the presidential scholars were two young men close to their own age.

All-America basketball star Bill Bradley of Princeton, and Don Schollander, four-time gold medalist on the 1964 U.S. Olympic swimming team.

The Singing K's, organized less than two years ago, sang for the president of Kiwanis International when he visited Twin Falls last year. As a result, the group was invited to sing at the golden anniversary convention of Kiwanis International in Madison Square Garden and in the U.S. and New York state pavilions at the World's Fair in July.

In addition they will appear in the rotunda of the Capitol in Washington, D.C., entertain at a senate luncheon and appear before Kiwanis clubs in Chicago, Fort Wayne and other cities.

The group is composed of farmers, business and professional men from the Burley area.

Tickets for the performance may be obtained from Filer Kiwanis members, the Modern Drug Store and will be sold at the door.

PLASTIC FIRE
LONDON (UPI)—Fire caused an estimated $2.8 million damage Tuesday to a warehouse near the Fenchurch Street rail-road station. Contents included 10 tons of plastics.

Planning also calls for providing for a better road end some 26 miles upstream from Riggins. The road would be extended a half to three-quarters mile upriver to Long Tom Creek.

Powers noted that the meeting was an effort to coordinate programs and plans of the four forests involved, Salmon, Payette, Nezperce and Bitterfoot.

Salmon River Trail System Is Planned

SALMON—Forest officials involved in administering the 80-mile section of Salmon River between the ends of the road through the Idaho primitive area have outlined plans to provide a complete trail system along the river.

The river at present has areas without trails.

F. E. Powers, Salmon National Forest supervisor, said officials met at the Slate Creek Ranger Station near Riggins to coordinate their planning.

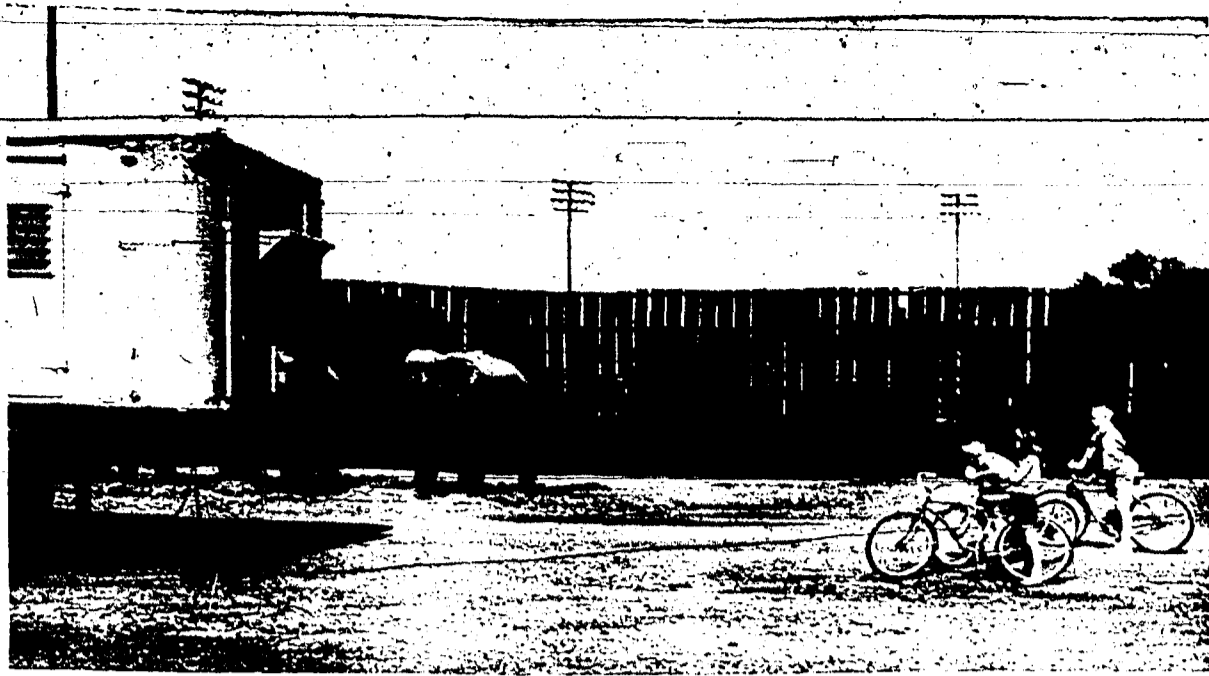

Increased use of the river has created the need for more trails along the river and into hunting areas and to serve in fire control, the local forest officials said.

Planning also calls for providing for a better road end some 26 miles upstream from Riggins. The road would be extended a half to three-quarters mile upriver to Long Tom Creek.

Singing K's To Appear at Filer School

FILER—The Singing K's of the Burley Kiwanis Club will be featured in a concert sponsored by the Filer Kiwanis Club at 8 p.m. June 17 in the Filer High School auditorium.

Theme for the concert will be "The World of Music." Several numbers by Magic Valley musicians are planned in conjunction with the chorus.

The Singing K's, organized less than two years ago, sang for the president of Kiwanis International when he visited Twin Falls last year. As a result, the group was invited to sing at the golden anniversary convention of Kiwanis International in Madison Square Garden and in the U.S. and New York state pavilions at the World's Fair in July.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

BY ANDREW TULLY

WASHINGTON—Today I am grateful to a lady I don't know for reminding me again that the South is not the Ku Klux Klan or racist night riders with shotguns, but a community of decent citizens trying to adjust to a new order in deep conflict with its history.

Mrs. Z. B., who lives in Haynesville, Ala., has written to voice a gentle and courteous complaint about one of my columns which appeared in the Montgomery Advertiser. I had written that there was a "display of popular resentment" against the FBI in Haynesville during the state's prosecution of the three men charged with the highway slaying of Mrs. Viola Liuzzo, the civil rights volunteer from Detroit.

RESENTED BY MINORITY—Quite properly, Mrs. B. objects to my choice of adjective. There may have been resentment, she writes, but it was not "popular." As a matter of fact, I have the word of official spokesmen that there was no resentment, but I knew—and should have made clear—that it came from that curious minority segment of Dixie's population which seeks always to intimidate the forces of law and order. Mrs. B. is dead right when she says it was not representative of Haynesville's 250 whites and 500 Negroes.

Such resentment, often accompanied by physical violence, almost never is representative of the hard core of decent citizens in a given southern community. Almost always, it is the product of the shiftless, the malcontents, the ignorant and the fearful. This is a fact northerners should keep in mind whenever they sit in presumptuous judgment of the South.

DEPLORED KLAN LAWYER—Mrs. B. speaks for decent Americans everywhere when she discusses Haynesville's reaction to the Klan lawyer, Matt Murphy. "You stated that the natives were stirred up (by Murphy)," she writes. "In that you were indeed correct, but not in the way your words implied. They deplored the utterances of such a man. They were abhorrent to them, just as the KKK is to all but a very small segment of this state. Why would you place this little community in the light of condoning defiance of the FBI and the mouthings of a man like Matt Murphy?"

I would not, of course. In fairness to myself, I must point out that Murphy's words and tactics were not conducive to a just and fair-minded verdict. They were, indeed, designed to fan the fear and resentment smoldering in the hearts and minds of the jurors over Washington's "interference" in their affairs. But this is not to say—and it should not be implied—that good people felt anything but disgust at Murphy's conduct of the defense.

TOWNSPEOPLE STAYED AWAY—As Mrs. B. noted, "At no time was the courtroom filled. The townspeople stayed away—a spontaneous feeling apparently shared by the county as a whole. . . . There were no crowds, no disorder. . . . More important, Mrs. B. reminds the North that while it sits in judgment of Dixie, it yet remains apart from the problem of mixing the races. She asks: 'Why do you seem to want so much to castigate a people who are trying to live in a society which the law has made contrary to all that has gone before? It is not easy in a county of 15,000 colored people and about 3,000 white. And yet there has been no disorder, no marchers, no sit-ins. . . . I apologize to Mrs. B. and to Haynesville for seeming to imply something I did not mean. It is Mrs. B. and citizens like her who will give full civil rights for the Negro meaning in Dixie, for without them a million laws are worthless. The South should honor its Mrs. B's—not because they make headlines, but because they don't."

STILL NEIGHBORS Remember Cuba, Latin America, the Alliance for Progress? These issues still exist, despite the intonations of crisis diplomacy on the struggle in Viet Nam. The State Department offered a reminder for "Latin American Week." Its conclusion is that dangerous days lie ahead but the Latin outlook is brighter than it was a few years ago. This estimate sounds pat but it is not unrealistic. Fidel Castro's hopes of exporting revolution have suffered reversals in Venezuela and Colombia, but are continuing. New governments in Brazil, Chile and British Guiana have turned back threats from the extreme left. Brazil has come a long way from political instability, and Eduardo Frei, the Christian Democratic President, has offered Chile a middle way of reform. Only Argentina, among the more advanced republics, makes slow progress against financial and political difficulties. But the battle for peaceful and against bloody revolution cannot be measured in terms of a year or two. It is best measured in terms of social advancement under the Alliance for Progress and there results are mixed. A recent report issued by the Inter-American Development Bank says the greatest success so far is that most of the republics have legislated or planned serious legal and institutional improvements. As for results, however, only tax reforms have been meaningful. Tax collections of the 19 republics have risen 10 per cent.

FOR THE BIRDS Rarely does some form of wildlife win over man when there is competition for the same piece of real estate, but the Laysan Albatross has defeated the U.S. Navy in a modern-day "Battle of Midway." Ever since planes first landed on the Pacific island, the flock of albatross, known by sailors at Midway simply as "gooney birds," have been a hazard to flying. Navy records show that in one month 538 gooney birds came off second best in encounters with airplanes. Obviously, something had to be done. A whole succession of brilliant ideas came to nought, simply because the gooney birds had decided they were there to stay. Finally, a frustrated Navy captain decided wholesale slaughter was the only answer, but where he might have defeated the tenacious gooney birds, he couldn't cope with the outraged screams of bird lovers. The gooney birds were saved to go on being a menace to air traffic. Finally, man gave up. Aircraft developments have resulted in long-range planes that don't have to land and refuel at Midway any longer. Perhaps Midway island still figures strongly in Pacific defense plans, but trans-Pacific jets bypass the island. Servicemen who fought in World War II to gain possession of Midway might have some mixed emotions about what has evolved in the way of use for the island. Yet in the war, Midway was an important stepping stone across the Pacific and its possession was vital to the war effort. It's not the first time changing requirements have altered the use of an area, but who could have imagined that Midway was for the birds?

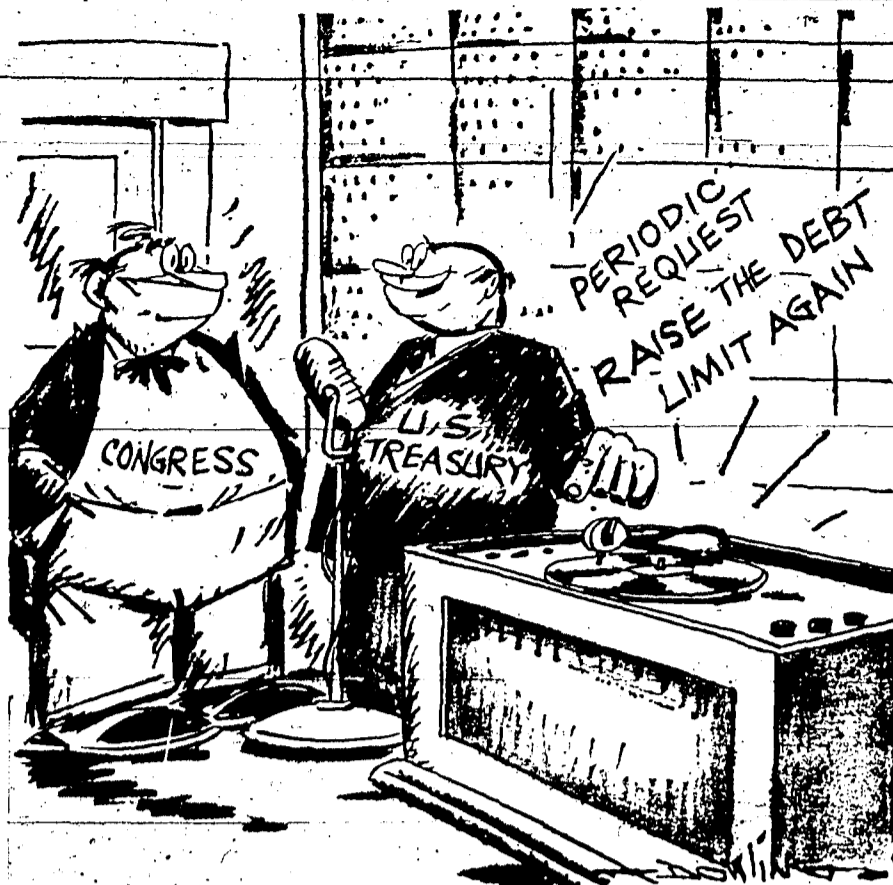

WRONG TEETH A new preacher arrived in the community. In his first sermon he talked about 15 minutes, his second sermon about 20 minutes, and his third sermon he just talked on and on. Some of the brothers asked him why he made so much difference in the timing of his sermons. "Well," he said, "the first sermon I just had my teeth pulled, and couldn't talk very good, second, I just got my new teeth and they bothered me so I couldn't talk so good. The third sermon I got up late and got my wife's teeth by mistake."—Waynesboro (Miss.) Wayne County News.

The Doctor Says

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M. D.

Multiple sclerosis has been called a mystery disease because the onset is so variable. It afflicts about 500,000 persons in the United States. Although the exact cause is unknown we do know that it is not contagious. The onset usually occurs in persons between the ages of 18 and 40. It is found most frequently in cold, damp climates but it cannot be cured or prevented by moving to a warmer place. Multiple sclerosis is a disease of the brain and spinal cord but it is in no sense a mental disease because it does not affect the thought processes. Individual nerve fibers are surrounded by a myelin sheath which acts like the insulation of electric wires in a cable. In multiple sclerosis this sheath is destroyed and the impulses in separate motor and sensory nerves become confused. As a result, the victim may have oscillations of his eyeballs, an unsteady gait, rigidity or weakness of various muscles, tremors made worse by trying to control them (the opposite is true in Parkinsonism or shaking palsy) and a staccato or hesitant type of speech. No one victim has all the symptoms. As a further information write to the National Multiple Sclerosis Society, 257 Park Ave., New York, N. Y. 10010.

Washington News

By LYLE WILSON

United Press International Among Washington's learned explanations of the necessity to debase U.S. silver coins with copper and alloys there is a strange silence with respect to one of the basic factors involved. It can best be stated like this: "When two coins are equal in debasing value but unequal in intrinsic value, the one having the lesser intrinsic value tends to remain in circulation and the others to be hoarded or exported as bullion."

To be sure, there has been a vast increase in the commercial use of silver. Equally certain is that production has fallen far behind consumption. And recent years have created in recent years a special demand for silver coins. The basic factor unmentioned because the politicians responsible probably are ashamed of it is this: While commercial and other demands for silver were increasing, the U.S. dollar bill, that beautiful item, was being pushed around and abused in a manner which caused its purchasing power steadily to diminish. The silver dollar was worth its weight in silver, as were the half dollar, dime and two bit pieces.

The U.S. Treasury has been managing the price of silver for some years, selling from its vast stockpile at $1.29 an ounce to hold the price down. With silver pegged at $1.29 an ounce, the silver content of any U.S. silver coin was worth slightly less than the value of the coin as legal tender. A dime, for example, contains slightly less than 10 cents worth of silver when the price of silver is $1.29 an ounce.

If silver prices increased a few cents an ounce, it would be profitable to melt the coins and to sell the bullion. The hoarding of silver coins already has begun. Treasury management of the silver price has prevented, so far, the melting of coins for their silver content. But this cannot go on forever because the Treasury would shortly exhaust its silver stockpile. Up would go the price of silver and into the melting pot would go the U.S. silver coinage. Silver and other commodities become more valuable as the purchasing power of the dollar bill declines. To prevent that, President Johnson has asked Congress to authorize the debasement of the dime, quarter and half dollar. Reduce their silver content to not much. The silver dollar will not be changed because no more

TAYLOR'S VIEWS ON WORLD NEWS

By HENRY J. TAYLOR

(Come April, and the boys were whooping it up in the Santo Domingo Saloon). When Biff hit the bartender the burglar was sitting in the back having a beer. He moved a little closer to the cash register. Biff hit the bartender twice, clean as the swipe of a leopard's paw. There is little more to be said about how Biff's first landed.

Biff's wife hit the bartender, too, for everybody began to get into the act; all over the room knives opened out like popcorn. The bartender was her brother-in-law and she let go with her handbag and fetched him a resounding crack on the head, looking for all the world like a large triangular kite about to float off into the sky on the fumes of Spanish whiskey. The dollars are to be minted for some time, if ever and Americans have a feeling about the silver dollar. They want it to be a real dollar, not a coppery phony. The foregoing quotation about coins of lesser and greater intrinsic value is known in economics as Gresham's Law, having been stated in just that language in 1559 by an English financier, Sir Thomas Gresham. A lot of money has been abused and debased since Sir Thomas was dealing in pennies, shillings and pounds. This abuse seems to come in time to all currencies. It is coming gradually to the money of the United States. We have currency inflation and we are getting more of it. But no one seems to give a hoot, least of all the politicians who are responsible.

Tax Foundation Inc. of New York has some interesting figures. If you own a $1,000 bond in 1959 it was worth in purchasing power only $889 in 1955. By 1964 its value had shrunk to $770. A $3,500 annual wage in 1949 would become, in purchasing power, a $2,695 annual wage in 1964. The U.S. dollar worth an arbitrary 100 cents in purchasing power in 1949 was worth 77 cents in 1964. If you had $1,000 in gold in 1949 it still is worth $1,000. But it would be worth more if the United States and others were not also managing the price of gold. You can't win.

But Biff camped down in a corner by the stove during all this chatter, a phony curled in his hand, a chicote. "It stings," he announced, "and I'm a lot better off so long as I stay right here an' swing my chicote. To hell with the saloon!" The police had stopped the burglar or there would have been still in it. If the cops do not throw him out, the place could no more function than could a Shriners' parade in the Black Hole of Calcutta. If they do throw him out, the onlookers would blame them, not Biff or the bartender.

The burglar? He's forgotten. Only the cops are blamed; this is the worst. Even back at the police station the burglar is so forgotten that many question why the cops went there in the first place, now that nobody still knows what to do about the bartender and Biff. Virtue is its own reward. But virtue is not always its own reward. All you can do is try.

After winning the third heart he cashes his top clubs and spades and is pleased to note that West has had to discard diamonds on the third lead of each black suit. Then he throws West in with a heart and lets West cash two heart tricks. After that West rises with dummy's queen and must lead a diamond. News Picture Transmitted Via Satellite

NEW YORK (AP) — The first news picture to be transmitted via the Early Bird satellite was received from Europe today in the New York offices of The Associated Press.

The reception was excellent. The photo, depicting choir boys marching during a ceremony in Pisa, Italy, was relayed from London AP to New York. At the same time, the picture was relayed to the rest of the United States via the AP Wirephoto network to newspapers, television stations and AP bureaus.

As the photo from London came in, a picture via Early Bird was sent to London. It showed astronaut Edward H. White II outside the Gemini 4 space capsule. The reception in Britain's capital was termed "very good."

Also participating in a two-day experimental use of the satellite for news picture delivery are the Radio Corp. of America, Press Wireless, and International Telephone and Telegraph Co.

The facilities of RCA were used in the first AP transmissions.

Early Bird, an 85-pound satellite, was 22,300 miles above the coast of Brazil. The aluminum and magnesium "bird" is 28.4 inches in diameter and 23.25 inches high, excluding antennas.

Early Bird — or Syncom III — was launched into orbit last April 6. Among its achievements

County Officials Say Dump Grounds OK, People Careless

Two Twin Falls County commissioners said Tuesday they feel the county is doing all it can, under the circumstances, to properly maintain the county dumpgrounds.

The commissioners, Morris Carlson and Heber Loughmiller, toured the dumpgrounds Tuesday in answer to complaints from several county residents that the grounds are not being properly maintained.

It was noted that the dumps are being used in a careless manner, with everything from dead animals to old cars being left there.

Trash disposable by fire should be burned and the ashes carried to the dump, the commissioners noted. Dead animals and old cars should never be dumped at the county grounds, they said.

Art Bailey, Hansen, who maintains the dumps for the county has done a good job keeping the dumps as orderly as possible, the commissioners said.

Bailey stated he has seen some people dump trash in the road, or to the side of the road, and not in the pits made for this purpose.

The commissioners explained that people sometimes dump their trash in a farmer's field, on the roads, or "just about anywhere they feel like." They said it is "very difficult to maintain a decent dump when some people are this careless."

Trash that is dumped carelessly can be poisonous to cattle and livestock, it was noted.

According to the commissioners, the dumps are being fenced so that trash cannot blow outside the area.

The county maintains nine dumps.

The commissioners stated that the dumps will be easier to maintain if Twin Falls County residents are more careful with dumping trash.

Montana Auto Crash Kills Idahoan

POLSON, Mont. (UPI) — A Challis, Idaho, man was killed and three others injured in a car-pickup head-on crash at the Mud Creek Bridge, a mile south of Pablo, Mont., on U.S. 93 shortly before noon Tuesday.

Lake County Sheriff-Coroner Archie Coulter identified the victim as Melvin B. Chivers. His age was not available.

Hospitalized at Ronan with a broken hip was the victim's widow. Also hospitalized there with facial cuts was Mrs. Winifred Boswell, a passenger in the pickup camper. Her husband, Fred, driver of the pickup, escaped with bruises. The Boswells are from Redding, Calif.

Coulter said the mishap occurred when the northbound Chivers car gradually crossed over the center line and struck the southbound pickup-camper.

Chivers was killed instantly behind the wheel. His wife was thrown through the windshield. The body was taken to Polson.

Where but in print can you get so close to the advertising messages that interest you? Where else can a woman clip the coupons and recipes that intrigue her? Or tear out tips to try on leftovers? Or mark, for future marketing, any of the colorful food ideas which strike her fancy? And where else can she circle and compare the colors and styles of clothing and furnishings that appeal to her? Where else, in fact, can any message be re-run at will by an interested audience? So make sure a good part of your advertising message gets into print. WRECKAGE CLEARED
POCATELLO (AP)—Railroad crews hope to clear the last of 13 cars and strewn lumber from the scene of a derailment near the J. R. Simplot plant by Thursday.

The tracks were cleared of debris shortly after the cars derailed from the end of a 117-car train early Monday morning, officials said, and there was little delay of other trains.

Eleven of the cars carried lumber and plywood. The officials said most of it was salvageable.

The derailment was blamed on a faulty coupling.

EXPANSION PLAN EYED
IDAHO FALLS (UPI)—A proposed expansion that would double the size of Idaho Falls Sacred Heart Hospital is under study by a special committee.

Hospital officials have proposed expanding the hospital to 150 beds from 75 beds. It also has been suggested that a medical clinic be added to the hospital.

Creamery to Use $2 Bills In Payment

JEROME—All Ida Gem Dairymen, Inc., employees will be paid in $2 bills Friday and semi-monthly payments to producers also will be in $2 bills as part of observation of June Dairy Month.

Lyon Smith, manager of Ida Gem Dairymen, Inc., producers of Challenge dairy foods, points out the firm wants to show the importance of the dairy industry to the consumer.

"The more than 1,200 member producers and 160 employees of Ida Gem are proud to live and work in Magic Valley. Their money is made here and spent here. When you receive a $2 bill for change this week, you'll be holding in your hand real evidence of what Ida Gem means to the economy of Magic Valley," Smith declared.

Utah Guard To Curtail Training

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—The Utah National Guard has announced its basic training under the reserve enlistment program will be curtailed June 30.

The Guard said Tuesday training for infantry, armor, engineer, military police, field and air defense artillery trainees will be discontinued on that date.

The announcement said the change is to realign the training of newly-enlisted reservists to parallel that conducted for active Army personnel.

Maj. Gen. Maurice L. Watts, Utah adjutant general, said the new program "will give a new guardman more time at home to train with his hometown unit, the unit he'll spend most of his military days with."

Mother's Tea Held by Lucky Cookies Club

The Smart Cookies 4-H Club held its annual mother's luncheon Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Coiner, Hansen, according to club reporter Jane Bradley.

Co-chairmen for the event were Toni Florence and Leslie Benoit. Katrina Colner, Chris Wiatt, Janice Memmott, Betsy Summerfield, Beverly Brasas, Linda Cummins and Nancy Brown were in charge of table settings and center pieces. The older girls furnished the luncheon.

After luncheon the summer's agenda, including camp, judging, achievement day and the Twin Falls County Fair, was discussed.

The importance of patterns and good material was stressed by Mrs. Summerfield in her address to the meeting.

Mothers introduced to the club for the first time were Mrs. John Bradley, Mrs. Paul Beck, Mrs. George Coiner, Mrs. M. O. Memmott and Mrs. Ron Booth.

Watchmen of Old Egyptian City Say It Is Haunted

LUXOR, Egypt (AP)—The men who guard the 4,000-year-old city of Luxor, onetime capital of the civilized world, swear it's haunted. They want the government to do something about it.

Luxor, burial ground of ancient Pharaohs, is an ideal breeding ground for ghosts and the myths that surround them.

Sixty-four kings and queens were buried in Luxor's silent Valley of the Kings, on the west bank of the Nile. Many of their tombs have been rifled over the centuries. Archeologists have removed their mummies and treasures to museums in Cairo, Europe and around the world.

The watchmen of the Valley of Kings are a close-knit group whose jobs are passed down from father to son. In recent months they have been gathering around camp fires at night exchanging hair-raising accounts of mysterious goings-on in the empty, echoing tombs they guard.

They report screams in the night, shuffling footsteps, the clatter of chariot wheels and shouts of anger and indignation.

The reason is obvious to them. The spirits of the kings and queens are outraged because their mummies have been removed along with the treasures and vessels they need for their final journey to the Gardens of Iaru, the paradise of the Pharaohs.

Abdel Maaboud Gomaa, 67, the head watchman, says there are several ways the spirits of the dead can be appeased.

"Someone who has mastered the hieroglyphic language must come to the valley and placate the angry spirits by explaining to them that their mummies are safely encased in the Cairo Museum," he says.

Some watchmen complained to officials of the Antiquities Department. The officials brushed them aside, saying their stories are "too grotesque to be investigated."

The first time the watchmen heard the strange sounds was on the night of Feb. 26.

Presidential Pastime of Yachting Restored

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson has restored yachting as presidential pastime these balmy spring evenings on the Potomac.

On several recent evenings, the latest Tuesday night, the Chief Executive has slipped out of the White House at dusk to spend several hours cruising on the river. His guests have included congressional leaders and prominent figures in the world of journalism, among others.

This is a new form of relaxation for Johnson, and he has gone about it as quietly as possible to avoid attracting an unwanted flotilla of curious from among the craft which ply the Washington channel and the Potomac when the weather is good.

Yachting has been a favorite presidential activity for many years, though it underwent a decline in the early years of the Eisenhower administration.

When Dwight D. Eisenhower took office, the 300-foot Williamsburg, an ocean-going yacht which was a favorite of President Harry S. Truman, was ordered into mothballs as "a symbol of needless luxury."

But after Eisenhower suffered his 1955 heart attack and summer holidays in the Rockies were inadvisable, the Navy refitted a 94-foot patrol craft, the Lenox, into a day cruiser for the President. He renamed it the Barbara Anne for a granddaughter, and used it frequently in summer trips to Newport.

The late President John F. Kennedy ordered the Barbara Anne redecorated and it underwent another name change, this time becoming the Honey Fitz, for the Chief Executive's grandfather. He used it frequently at Hyannis Port, Mass., and at the Kennedy family's winter quarters at Palm Beach, Fla.

After Johnson took office he let it be known that he would not be using the White House fleet and it went into inactive status. But this is a somewhat misleading term since the vessels can be restored to active service on only a few hours notice from his Texas ranch for afternoon cruising.

The details of his current venture abroad have been kept so secret that an up-to-date naval log was not available.

Reason for Target Miss Is Described

SPACE CENTER, Houston (UPI) — Gemini-4 missed its Atlantic Ocean bullseye by about 48 miles Monday because of a too-long maneuvering rocket firing and a too-quick firing of the ship's main braking rockets. Flight Director Christopher C. Kraft Jr. said most of the error was caused by a half-second extra operation of the ship's two 110-pound thrust maneuvering rockets over the Pacific. The miss was increased by several miles when the craft's four 2,500-pound retro-rockets were fired one second ahead of time.

IDAHO FALLS (AP) — Photographer Paul C. Pavlos of the Spokane, Wash., Daily Chronicle won first place citations in two categories Tuesday in the annual photo contest sponsored by the Utah-Idaho-Spokane Associated Press Members Association.

Pavlos won first place in the sports category with his picture entitled "To the Victor Go the Gulls."

He also won the picture story division with a photo entitled "A New Record."

The spot news category was won by J. M. Heslop of the Salt Lake Deseret News with a picture called "Strike Fight." Heslop also placed third in picture story with a series called "Training School Story."

The enterprise division winner was David M. Farr of the Ogden Utah Standard-Examiner with his photo entitled "Funny Business."

Winners in each division receive $20 prizes, while second, third and fourth place finishers get certificates. The winners were announced by Keith Otteson, news editor of the Salt Lake Tribune.

Sugar Harvest in Cuba Has Ended

HAVANA (AP) — Prime Minister Fidel Castro ended the 1965 sugar harvest Monday night with the announcement that 6 millions tons have been produced.

Cuban sugar production regularly used to reach 6 million tons before 1961, when Castro tried to get away from the one-crop economy by shifting emphasis to other branches of agriculture and to heavy industry. This was reversed in 1963.

MRS. RODNEY TURNER is shown teaching English to some Spanish-speaking children at the Twin Falls Labor Center.

English Is Being Taught To Children at Labor Camp

This summer at the Twin Falls Labor Center, classes in English are being held for the Spanish-speaking children.

Mrs. Rodney Turner is the supervisor for the school and she is being helped by students of Mrs. W. W. Stephens Jr.'s high school Spanish classes.

English grammar and reading is taught and Mrs. Turner said most of the children are making considerable progress. The class varies from 30 to 60 children and it is not compulsory. The children attending the classes are from four months to 12 years.

Mrs. Turner said the class could use crayons, coloring books and used toys. She also said that anyone with a knowledge of Spanish would be most welcome to help with the group.

The classes will continue until Tuesday. They are sponsored by the Twin Falls Migrant Ministry.

Caylor, famed for never taking notes and for getting interviews without asking questions, started his column three years after joining the old Cripps-Howard San Francisco News. He continued it for the San Francisco News Call-Bulletin after the two papers merged several years ago.

Legend has it that Caylor got a long interview with the late Gen. Douglas MacArthur in Japan by the device of sitting staring at the general for 10 minutes of what was supposed to be a 15-minute interview. The story goes that MacArthur got so nervous at this treatment that he started talking and went on for 45 minutes, giving Caylor much excellent material.

Caylor's column dealt with San Francisco and California politics, his family, the international situation and his ideas on modern life.

STUNT PILOTS KILLED
WOENSDBRECHT, Holland (UPI) — Two Dutch air force stunt pilots were killed Tuesday when their jet plane crashed during an air show. About 20,000 persons saw the disaster.

SEATTLE (UPI) — Rescue workers Tuesday freed 17 coal miners trapped 600 feet underground for more than 22 hours. Two other miners were found dead. The mine, 110 miles east of Seoul, collapsed Monday.

WIESBADEN, Germany (UPI) — The third largest military air drop in Europe since World War II will be held in Denmark June 12-22, the U. S. Air Force announced Tuesday. The air drop will be part of a joint British-American-Danish exercise called "Nordic Air." It is another in a series of annual exercises designed to keep U. S. forces stationed in Europe at peak combat readiness.

ELBA — Mrs. Lovina Tuttle, Idaho artist, will hold open house at her fourth annual art exhibit at her studio at Elba, from noon until 10 p.m. June 20. She will display both water colors and oils, and has 16 new oil paintings since her last exhibit, including several local scenes and animals. There will be scenes from Idaho, Oregon, California, Montana and Wyoming. The studio will be open during the rest of June and during July for anyone who cannot attend the scheduled exhibit.

Lewiston Man Will Head AP Group

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho (AP) — Publisher A. L. Alford of the Lewiston, Idaho, Morning Tribune, was elected today chairman of the Utah-Idaho-Spokane Associated Press Members Association.

Alford succeeds W. T. Marineau, general manager of the Moscow Daily Idahonian. Alford's election came at the closing session of the association's 40th annual meeting.

Vice chairman for the next year will be Hugh Wagon, publisher of the Pocatello, Idaho, State Journal.

The association agreed to meet in 1966 in Salt Lake City and in 1967 in Spokane, Wash.

The newspaper executives adopted a resolution Tuesday inviting the Idaho State Bar Association and the judiciary "to initiate action looking forward to an era of greater cooperation with all news media in the administration of justice."

The relationship between the law and the press was the subject of a panel discussion earlier in the meeting.

ISU Approves Scholarships And Gift Funds

POCATELLO — Appointments to the Idaho State University faculty and acceptance of scholarship and gift funds were among the actions taken by the state board of education at its meeting Saturday in Pocatello.

Among the scholarships accepted by the board was $100 from Pocatello Business and Professional Women's Club for Sandra Barry, Burley. A loan fund donation was made in memory of Marc Packard, son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert W. Packard, Twin Falls. Donations to the college of education endowment fund were accepted from Ireta Jane Croft, Shoshone.

Finks

FINK, Tex. (UPI) — This small town near the Texas-Oklahoma border is planning a week-long event of festivities to celebrate National Be Kind To Finks Week, June 20-26.

Judge James Bates Fink, former justice of the peace at Bug Tussle, Tex., will be the main speaker and celebrity during the exciting week.

Fink is hard to find. People are always tearing down the highway markers.

June 20 Final Day to Pay Last Half of Taxes

The final date for payment of the last half of 1964 county property taxes is June 20, Ruth K. Jones, County Treasurer and Tax Collector reported Tuesday. She said that Idaho statutes provide that any payments offered after the June deadline cannot be accepted until July 26, with penalty and interest added to the original amount.

The total tax charge for 1964 is $4,139,399.30, of which more than 73 per cent has been collected, leaving an outstanding balance of $1,153,525.88 yet to be collected, which is approximately the same as for 1963.

Mrs. Jones advised that tax payments which are mailed should be postmarked on or before June 20.

Dancing Is Hobby, Talent For Miss T.F. Contestant

Dancing is not only a hobby for Marilyn Rappleye, 20, but she also hopes to become a teacher of dance when she completes her education.

It should be no surprise, then, that she will dance for the judges of the Twin Falls Pageant at 8 p.m. on June 19 at Twin Falls High School Gymnasium.

A third-year student at Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah, Miss Rappleye is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Rappleye, 342 Buchanan St. She is a 1963 graduate of Twin Falls High School.

"She has had special training modeling from the Fredova Dance Studio.

At BYU, she is a member of the International Folk Dancers and the Modern Dance Club. She thinks if she does not teach in a public school she would like to have her own private dance studio.

Miss Rappleye has blue eyes, dark blonde hair and is 5 feet, 5 inches tall. She weighs 107 pounds and has measurements of 34-22-35.

Other activities in which she is interested are art and sewing.

Like other contestants in the pageant, Miss Rappleye will be contending for a $300 scholarship offered to the winner by the Twin Falls Lions Club, sponsors of the pageant.

Other prizes for the winner will include a $75 wristwatch offered by three Twin Falls jewelry stores, Herrett's, Jensen's and Sterling and a $25 award by Shirley and Mendiola.

Rooster Ban

WINTERS, Calif. (UPI)—Police Chief Earl Washbaugh has given roosters one week to get out of town.

Washbaugh announced that next Tuesday he will start enforcing a zoning ordinance which specifically bans roosters and limits to six the number of hens an owner may keep in the city limits.

Spelling Bee Starts for 70 Youngsters

WASHINGTON (AP)—Seventy youngsters ranging from 11 to 15 match wits with Webster's dictionary today in the opening of the 38th National Spelling Bee.

A practice round with Akimichi Chinen, an eighth-grader from Hawaii, as the first speller, kicks off the two days of competition for $5,700 in prizes.

With the exception of the practice round—which doesn't count in the official scoring—a contestant is eliminated if he or she misspells a word. The words get tougher with each round.

The 35 boys and 35 girls usually far outnumber the boys in national competition—are the top spellers of more than 6 million youngsters who competed in local bees.

They represent 32 states, the District of Columbia and Guam. The champion to be crowned Thursday will succeed William Kerek, now 13, of Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio.

The contest is sponsored by Scripps-Howard newspapers in 16 cities and 53 other daily and Sunday papers. Two contestants represent the New York World-Telegram & Sun.

First prize is $1,000 in cash, a weekend trip to New York City, including a visit to the World's Fair, an appearance on the Ed Sullivan television show and $100 spending money for the champion and his or her escort.

Frontier Riders Plan 9th Annual Picnic Outing

The Frontier Riding Club will hold its ninth annual picnic ride Sunday. Members of the club will meet at Porcupine Springs picnic ground at 10 a.m. On the return to camp after the ride a hot dog dinner will be served.

The picnic is sponsored by the directors of the club and their wives. All persons attending the event will be charged 50 cents each for the dinner. No reservations are needed and everyone is urged to attend.

Club Formed

KING HILL—The King Hill Wranglers 4-H Horse Club was reorganized Monday night when members met at the home of Bud Allen, leader.

About 15 members are planning to sign for the riding club and officers will be elected at the next meeting.

You don't have to like golf to like our Buick "Swinging Sales Spree." Just driving. (And saving money.)

The reason you have to like driving is that once you get in a Buick Special (above), you may never get out again. If you like golf, a Buick Special could save enough to pay for some new equipment. If you don't you can drive out to the club in style, and watch the others frustrate themselves—and still save money on gas. (If you patronize a drive-in bank, that solves the problem of getting out of the car, too.) We know you'll like Buick comfort, luxury, engineering and quality. And our Wildcat power. These are the things we put in every Buick. And right now—during our Swinging Sales Spree—is the best time to come in and see them. (The "greens fees" are very low.)

Proposed legislation to reduce excise tax on new passenger automobiles provides a refund of such tax reduction where a passenger automobile is sold to a retail purchaser after May 14, 1965 and before July 1, 1965, when the excise tax reduction becomes effective. Where a refund is authorized by this legislation, General Motors Corporation will make a cash payment to such a purchaser in the amount of the excise tax reduction.

Enjoy your new Buick now!

There's an authorized Buick dealer near you. See his Double-Checked used cars, too.

Flood Repair Legislation Is Re-Passed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate acted with lightning speed Monday in re-passing a Pacific Northwest disaster relief bill vetoed by President Johnson. The language he found objectionable was removed.

The President's veto of the $111.8 million relief measure arrived at the Senate over the weekend and was presented to the Senate as soon as it convened at noon.

In it Johnson said he was "in complete sympathy with the purposes of the legislation" but that one section seriously violates the spirit of the division of powers between the legislative and executive branches.

He told Congress he would sign a new measure immediately if this section were removed. Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., at once introduced a new bill to carry out the President's request.

Majority Leader Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., called it up immediately and the bill was passed by voice vote without debate. The Senate action sent it to the House.

Rep. Harold T. Johnson, D-Calif., who introduced an identical bill in the House, said he would seek expeditious House action on the Senate bill to prevent further delay and possible loss of a season on reconstruction of flood-damaged roads.

The measure would provide special assistance in California, Oregon, Washington, Nevada and Idaho for recovery from the effects of record floods last December and January.

U.S. Actions Are Hit by Tanzania

DAR ES SALAAM, Tanzania (AP)—Tanzania joined Communist China Tuesday in denouncing U. S. intervention in Viet Nam and the Dominican Republic and called for the withdrawal of American troops. In a joint communique, Tanzania's President Julius Nyerere and visiting Premier Chou En-lai "expressed a deep conviction that with the support of the people of the whole world the Latin-American peoples would finally win their struggle against imperialism."

Larry Barksdale Is Speaker at Council Meet

BURLEY — Larry Barksdale, chairman of the Keep Idaho Green committee, explained the program and distributed material for Camp Fire Girls at the Cassia Camp Fire Girls Council meeting at the Idaho Bank and Trust Conference Room.

Leaders needing more material can obtain it from Mrs. Hal Warr.

Mrs. Warr, leader association president, reported on plans for a Blue Bird Day Camp to be held in August. Committees and chairmen working on this project include Mrs. Warr, general chairman; Mrs. Harold Stanger, park and swimming arrangements; Mrs. Marion Ryan, registration; Mrs. Darlene Whitesides and Mrs. Dean Smith, games; and Mrs. Dean Mahoney, singing.

The Sacajawea Camp Fire Girls unit, led by Mrs. Irene Thornburg, volunteered their help that day. Further plans will be made at the June meeting.

Mrs. John Pyne announced that 65 fathers and their daughters attended the box social at Dworshak School.

Resident Camp was discussed. Members discussed awarding campships to one deserving Camp Fire Girl or Blue Bird girl. Leaders should submit names to the camping committee.

The next regular council meeting is set for 7:30 p.m. June 21 at the Idaho Bank and Trust Conference Room.

The I-Ha-Ke-Ya Camp Fire Girls group met at the home of Mrs. Fred Neiwert, guardian. Special guest was Rev. John Pickrell. The girls presented him with a baby layette which they made to earn their National Needlework Guild honor. Pickrell told the girls of the mission where the layette will be sent.

Girls earning honors were Janet Helnze, Dorily Neiwert, Panny Rasmussen, Deby Jordan, Julieann Kerbs and Becky Brooks.

Plans were made to finish requirements for the Keep America Beautiful national honor. They will distribute fire prevention posters and litter-bags to service stations and motels.

Area Methodist Circles Have June Meetings

WENDELL—Members of the Methodist Church met for their June meeting.

Mrs. J. H. Watt was hostess for the Cella Cowan Circle and Mrs. A. F. Brown presented the devotional service. Mrs. Ray Tener led the topic, assisted by Mrs. Arthur Byce, Mrs. C. H. Webb and Mrs. Faeth Eaton. The article from the "Together" magazine was read by Mrs. Olen Weinberg.

Mrs. Weinberg announced the circle will be responsible for the flowers for the month of June for the church. The annual officers training day will be held after the School of Missions at Caldwell in July.

Mrs. Henry J. Barton was hostess for the Ruth Robb Circle, with Mrs. Bessie Benson leading the devotional service and Mrs. Hazel Haverland presenting the lesson.

Janet Knodel, Ulrich Repeat Nuptial Vows

RUPERT—The Trinity Lutheran Church was the setting for the May 8 ceremony uniting in marriage Janet Renee Knodel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Knodel, and Dale Werner Ulrich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Ulrich, all Rupert.

Rev. L. G. Mietzner solemnized the double ring wedding rites before a background setting of large beauty and white chrysanthemums with large bows and streamers of pink satin. Lighted white tapers encircled the altar.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of French designed scalloped Chantilly lace over satin, fashioned with long petit point sleeves, a scalloped portrait neckline embroidered with tiny sequins and a fitted bodice. The hooped skirt had an apron effect of white organza featuring a large bow in back and a chapel train.

Her shoulder-length veil was held by a tiny crown of satin encrusted with pearls and lace. She carried a bouquet of cascading pink rosebuds and pink and white carnations.

Mrs. Kenneth Henderson, Lodi, Calif., aunt of the bride, was matron of honor. Jeannie Bascom was maid of honor and Cindy Knodel, sister of the bride, was flower girl. Mark Vaughn carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

Jesse Vaughan was best man and ushers were Clarence E. Sparks and Edward E. Vaughn. Mrs. Nadine Moore, sister of the bridegroom, was soloist and Mary Ills was organist. She also played the traditional wedding music.

Following the ceremony, the newlyweds greeted guests in the Parish Hall. The bride's table was covered with white satin with an overskirt of pink net caught at the corners with large pink satin bows. An ornate three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom, centered the table. The cake was baked by Mrs. Jack Johnson, sister of the

Mrs. V. Holmes, Craner Repeat Nuptial Vows

OAKLEY — Mrs. Violet Mae Holmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Linn, Murtaugh, became the bride of Kenneth Hyrum Craner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hyrum Craner, Oakley, May 22 at the Cassia Stakehouse.

Bishop Donald J. Clark, Oakley, solemnized the nuptials before a background setting of an arch decorated with wedding bells and flanked by baskets of white gladioli and pink carnations.

Mrs. Lafe Poulton, organist, played the traditional wedding music and accompanied Linda Craner, sister of the bridegroom, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a sheath street-length gown of blue satin with three-quarter-length sleeves. Her fingertip veil was held by a crown of flowers and pearls. She carried a bouquet of white orchids surrounded by baby pink roses.

Maid of honor was Dorothy Linn. Bridesmaid was Linda Craner. Flower girl was Monica Holmes, daughter of the bride, and the ringbearer was David Holmes, son of the bride.

The bride's table featured a three-tiered cake decorated in pink and white and topped with miniature roses and a miniature bride and bridegroom. Large white wedding bells flanked the cake.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the Cultural Hall. Nelda Spurgeon was in charge of the guest book, with Jennie Cranney, Lois Rasmussen and Leona Daley in charge of the gift table.

Guests were seated at quartet tables centered with wedding bells and spring flowers. Jean Gee and LaDean Gee cut and served the cake and Retta Simmons and Carol Simmons poured. Others assisting with refreshments were Judy Gee, Jean Simmons and Murrel Simmons.

covered with a turquoise cloth and centered with announcement of French lilacs and narcissus, flanked by tall tapers in crystal candelabra.

Bouquets of spring flowers were placed throughout the room. Mrs. W. H. Detweiler was decoration chairman.

Mrs. Richards Presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Austin Matheny, Eden, poured.

Mrs. Walter Shouse was refreshment chairman. An invitation was extended by Mrs. Matheny in behalf of the Eden United Presbyterian Women, to attend the Silver Tea June 15 at the Eden Church.

Devolotional services were led by Mrs. Jon Dickerson. Meditation thought was "How Christian Am I?"

Mrs. Ethelyn Walkington, president, welcomed the guests. Mrs. Kenneth Crothers introduced the program numbers.

Soloist was Mrs. Thomas McVey, Twin Falls, who sang three selections. A medley from "The King and I," "Till There Was You" and "The Music Man," and a medley from "My Fair Lady."

The Hazelton sextet, Mrs. Leo Ross, Mrs. Eugene Baisch, Mrs. Robert Richards, Mrs. Carroll Knapp, Mrs. Kenneth Crothers and Mrs. Walter Shouse, sang two hymns.

Mrs. Donald Atkinson accompanied Mrs. McVey and the sextet. Benediction was given by the Rev. Robert Richards. The refreshment table was

Miss Watson, Kelker Reveal Wedding Date

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley F. Watson announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Mary Elizabeth, to Jon J. Kelker, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. (Gus) Kelker, all Twin Falls.

Miss Watson is a 1965 graduate of Twin Falls High School. Kelker was graduated from Twin Falls High School in 1963 and is attending Utah State University, Logan.

An Aug. 28 wedding is planned at the Episcopal Church of the Ascension, Twin Falls.

LUNCHEON SLATED

RICHFIELD—North End Club will hold its Mexican luncheon at the June 17 meeting at the home of Mrs. C. F. Chatfield. The afternoon meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Bell. Pollyanna gifts were received by Mrs. Percy Christensen, Pocattello, and Mrs. Bell.

Memorial Day Tribute Given At OES Meet

As a tribute to Memorial Day, a Bible ceremony, presented in the form of a cross, was presented by the Jewels and the Men's Choir at the Magic Chapter No. 82, Order of Eastern Star, meeting at the Masonic Temple.

Mrs. Joseph (Ula) McMillan, worthy matron, with the assistance of Joseph McMillan, worthy patron, presided at the meeting. Special introductions were given to all guests.

Invitations were received from Buhl Chapter for Friendship Night and for a reception for Janie Pierce, grand orator for the Order of Rainbow for Girls, Filter. It was announced a DeMolay concert will be presented June 25 at Twin Falls High School.

A special tribute was given by the Jewels and James Page played a viola solo.

Refreshment committee members include Mr. and Mrs. Donald Brown, chairmen, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Harper, Mrs. Lois Troxell, Lucille Birrell, Mrs. Jessie Wiseman and Thelma Brown.

Loren Nelson showed pictures of South Africa to Baptist Fiddels Class members when they met for a potluck dinner in the Church Fellowship Hall.

Committees were announced. They include Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McMahon, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Durward, Mr. and Mrs. Linzy Grubb and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hine, social; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hayman and Mr. and Mrs. George Cutler, membership; Mr. and Mrs. C. Mrs. Roberson Is Speaker for Altar Society

EDEN — Mrs. Ernest (Bonnie) Roberson, Hagerman, spoke on "Mary Gardens" at the afternoon meeting of the St. Patrick's Catholic Altar Society at the home of Mrs. John Metzler.

Mrs. Roberson said that for a number of years she has grown a garden of herbs both as a hobby and as a means of income.

Being especially interested in the traditional lore of herbs she named her garden, "The Garden of Memories."

Knowing that among the herbs many were associated by legend with the life of the Holy Family, Mrs. Roberson, through the National Catholic Rural Life Conference, learned of a project, dedicated to restoring the custom of growing an entire Mary Garden of plants associated with the Virgin Mary.

Through literature obtained from this organization, Mrs. Roberson learned that besides the herbs, there were a large number of garden and wild flowers whose characteristic forms and colors were reminders of Mary's virtues.

She decided to start her own

Mary Garden, completely separate from "The Garden of Memories," and began work in an unused area of her yard.

After a year of anticipation and careful work, the garden was a reality and soon strangers began to make visits just to see the "Mary Garden."

Noting the interest from adults and children alike, Mrs. Roberson started additional seeds and cuttings as a surplus to help others start Mary Gardens of their own.

She also began accepting invitations to speak on the idea before garden clubs and religious groups. By fall, a garden club in Boise had chartered a bus to make a special trip to Hagerman to visit the garden.

Each year Mrs. Roberson helps start Mary Gardens at religious institutions by providing plants as a gift and then personally joining in the actual work to share her concept of the prayerful meaning of the garden and the work of caring for it.

Although Mrs. Roberson grows herbs and plants as a source of income, it is noted that she has never sold anything from her Mary Garden.

During her talk, Mrs. Roberson demonstrated how to make a miniature Mary Garden, and the group made plans to visit her garden June 18.

Refreshments were served by the hostess.

New Minister Arrives for Buhl Post

BUHL—Rev. Fred M. Stiles has arrived in Buhl to accept the postorate of the Buhl Church of the Nazarene. He has formerly served the Heyburn Church of the Nazarene in Twin Falls.

Rev. Mr. Stiles fills the vacancy created by Rev. Norman Van Slyke who has moved to Boise. The new minister, a native of Ebensburg, Pa., attended Eastern Nazarene College in Boston, Mass., and was graduated from Olivet Nazarene College in Kankakee, Ill.

Rev. Mr. Stiles also studied at the Nazarene College in Kansas City, Mo., where he was graduated with a bachelor of divinity degree in May, 1964. While in Kansas City he served as minister of youth and music in the Fairmount Church of the Nazarene.

Recently he was elected Magic Valley Zone Chairman for the Nazarene Young People's Society and to the Idaho-Oregon District Camps board.

Rev. and Mrs. Stiles both have been in college choirs and traveled during the summer with vocal quartets, he for Eastern Nazarene College, and she for Northwest Nazarene College.

The couple has one daughter, Jeanne Kay, born June 4 of this year. They reside at 303 North Broadway Ave., Buhl.

Bids Sought For 3 Idaho Forest Jobs

MISSOULA, Mont. (AP)—Bids for construction of a bridge and general road work in three North Idaho national forests have been called by the U.S. Forest Service.

Largest of the jobs is a 336-foot steel and concrete bridge across the North Fork of the Clearwater River in Clearwater National Forest.

St. Joe National Forest projects include paving and construction of parking areas on the Giant White Pine Campground road and general repair of the Palouse River and Strychnine Creek roads.

Bids also are being called for flood damage repair on more than 30 miles of roadway in Nez Perce National Forest. Seven roads are involved.

Bids will be opened June 15 for all projects except those on the Palouse River and Strychnine Creek Roads. Those will be opened June 17.

Newsman Near End of Alabama Tour

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (AP)—Visiting newsmen neared the end of their racial fact-finding tour of Alabama today in the wake of a lively exchange between two of the writers and Gov. George C. Wallace.

Swapping their buses for a plane, the 47 editors and reporters from across the nation turned southward toward Mobile after witnessing a spectacular moon rocket test in Huntsville and watching Negro pickets stage another anti-Wallace demonstration.

Nine young Negroes, carrying signs, paraded in front of the motel where the out-of-state writers were staying at Huntsville.

The clash between Wallace and the visiting newsmen came Tuesday night after members of the Alabama Legislature and Huntsville business leaders were invited to remain for the governor's news conference following a dinner.

Editor Alexander Bodie of the Palo Alto (Calif.) Times objected to a "press conference of this type," and asked to be excused from participation.

A Pennsylvania newspaperman, Joseph Tronzo of Beaver Falls, shouted "I agree." Tronzo then voiced resentment at what he called the governor's blanket criticism of news media for racial coverage in Alabama.

Wallace had invited the out-of-state writers to make the tour to see for themselves whether coverage of racial news in this state has been distorted.

Tronzo brought laughter from the legislators and other dinner guests with the remark that, "there are fewer newspapermen in jail than politicians."

Then, quickly he added, "in Pennsylvania."

Wallace, smiling throughout the exchange, replied with a joke about a cannibal who didn't eat politicians because he said he never found out how to clean them.

Art Objects Sold

MILAN, Italy (AP)—Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro has obtained some much-needed hard cash by selling to an antique dealer in Milan, Italy, five freight carfull of Cuban art objects.

Cuban exiles in the United States protested that the shipment contained priceless art objects confiscated from the homes of wealthy Cubans.

REV. FRED N. STILES, new Church of the Nazarene minister in Buhl. He fills the vacancy created by Rev. Norman Van Slyke who moved to Boise. He formerly served the Heyburn Church of the Nazarene in Twin Falls.

Ex-Jerome Man Ends 19-Year Career in Navy

MECHANICSBURG, Pa.—Lieutenant Commander Leslie W. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Williams, Route 4, Jerome, retired Tuesday after completing a 19-year naval career. He was director of the Nuclear Weapons Parts Control Center, Mechanicsburg, Pa.

Lt. Cmdr. Williams will begin work on a master's degree in guidance and counseling next month at St. Thomas College, St. Paul, Minn. This fall he plans to join the teaching staff at Archbishop Brady High School, St. Paul, Minn.

Moon Race Winner's Rewards to Be Great

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—The United States and the Soviet Union are locked in a tight race to reach the moon first. The winner's rewards will be great: national prestige, scientific knowledge, perhaps military domination of space.

The flights this week of Gemini 4 and the Soviet Lucha 6 are dramatic evidence that both nations are very much in the race.

Astronauts James A. McDivitt and Edward H. White II advanced the United States a long way on the lunar highway with their four-day flight during which White took a 20-minute walk in space. Manned flights in the Gemini and Apollo programs now are scheduled at two-month intervals in a drive toward a manned lunar landing, which could come as early as 1968.

It is suspected that Luna 6 will attempt the first soft-landing on the moon if it reaches there as scheduled Friday. Success of such a maneuver would provide vital data on the strength of the moon's surface information needed before men set foot there.

The United States plans to attempt soft-landing with an unmanned Surveyor craft in October.

Why go to the moon? This question has been debated in scientific and government circles since President John F. Kennedy committed the United States to the race in 1961.

Most scientists favor sending men to the moon. But from the start the Apollo lunar landing project has had its critics. Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower called it a "stunt race." Several respected scientists believe the money and brainpower could be better spent to improve the lot of man through medical research, anti-poverty programs and the like.

Some contend automatic spacecraft could do the job better than man.

The one aspect that seems to bother the American public is the estimated $20-billion price-tag.

"That's a lot of money," says James Webb, administrator of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration. "But as big as that $20 billion looks, we are spending only one per cent of our Gross National Product on space—so we can afford it."

"It is not being spent on the moon as some people like to infer. It is being spent right here in the United States. In fact, 90 per cent of it goes directly to private, free-enterprise companies, many of them small local businesses."

"And I cannot for the life of me think of any other kind of endeavor that could benefit our nation in so many ways at once," Webb said. "It advances knowledge and stimulates our education. It creates new jobs and skills. It perfects our technology. It strengthens our national security and it adds to our total national wealth in many ways."

Concerning the prestige factor, President Johnson has said: "Surely the country which combines the ability, the resources and the courage to go to the moon will sit high at international negotiating tables. If such a country is one which projects freedom, a strong blow is made for a world of peace instead of a world of subjugation."

"Dr. Homer Newell, NASA associate administrator for space science and applications, is one of many scientists who believe the moon may hold the key to the origin of our solar system, generally believed to have been created about 4.5 billion years ago.

Says Newell: "On the earth, the atmosphere and the oceans wear away surface features in 10 to 50 million years. Mountain-building activity turns over large areas of the surface in about the same time.

"But on the moon there are no oceans and atmosphere to destroy the surface, and there is little if any mountain building.

"For these reasons the moon has retained a record which probably goes back billions of years to the infancy of the solar system."

TV Schedules

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 9
"The Virginian," (8:30 p.m. NBC, 90 min.)—John Gavin guest stars as an eastern confidence man who comes to Medicine Bow to try his wiles on the local "hicks" and finds things not quite what he thought they would be.
"Wagon Train," (8:30 p.m. ABC)—Hale finds himself involved in passion and prejudice when Coop takes up with a half-breed Indian girl that he finds on the prairie and brings back to the train. Diane Baker and Ken Lynch guest star.
"Billy Graham Crusade," (8 p.m. CBS, 60 min.)—Dr. Graham's topic is "Youth Aflame" in this Youth Night presentation of the Crusade. New York second baseman Bobby Richardson is tonight's guest.

BEST WEDNESDAY NIGHT MOVIES
"Strange Lady in Town," (8 p.m. KUTV)—Greer Garson stars as a woman doctor trying to establish herself in Santa Fe in the 1880's. Not only does she have to contend with a hostile land, but the townspeople have a strong prejudice in favor of a "sawbones" being a man. Horse-opera drama but it holds your interest.

Even a lady could learn to like Soft Whiskey. It's not hard.

Many women don't find whiskey very likeable. In fact, they find it hard to take. But we've changed all that. We've given whiskey more appeal. A lady can even drink Soft Whiskey straight. Without batting an eyelash. Soft Whiskey swallows nice and easy, treating her ever so tenderly. But don't get the wrong idea. Soft Whiskey is no softie. It's 86 proof. And does exactly what any 86 proof does. It just does it softer. So lady, be discreet. Now, about the softening process. All we can tell you is, some of Calvert Extra is distilled in small batches instead of huge ones. Forgive our being so closemouthed. But after all, we're not going to make it easy for anyone to steal our women.

NEW YORK (AP) — Cutting down the amount of silver in U.S. coins isn't likely to lick the shortage of metal for some time.

Industrial demand has risen too fast, and world production has lagged too badly, for any quick solution to the shortage problem.

Some said the slide had been accelerated by the statement last week by William McCleskey, chairman of the Federal Reserve Board.

Brokers said disturbing factors include talk about tight money, a lot of secondary issues coming on the market and permission for U.S. troops to engage in combat in South Viet Nam.

It seems as though buyers have become very wary and sellers are not offering any available stock, a market analyst commented.

Step as was Tuesday's decline, it did not compare with that on the day of the assassination, when the Dow Jones average fell 21.16.

And it was minor in comparison with "Black Monday" — May 28, 1962 — when the average dived 34.95.

AFL Grants Franchise to Atlanta, but Gains No Commitment in Return

OCEANPORT, N.J. (AP)—The American Football League granted a 1966 franchise to Atlanta Tuesday but found itself engaged in a giant tug o'war with the rival National League for entry into the Dixie metropolis. While AFL directors were gathering here to make plans for expansion, Commissioner Pete Rozelle of the NFL flew into Atlanta to present the NFL case personally. Immediately, confusion developed over rights to the new $18 million Atlanta Stadium. The question arose: Who gets the stadium? Who moves into Atlanta—the AFL or the NFL?

Snead Easily Makes U.S. Open Cutoff

By The Associated Press Sports Writer
Slammin' Sammy Snead qualified easily Tuesday for the 25th try at the National Open he has never won, but casualties among established stars were heavy in qualifying for the 65th golf championship next week in St. Louis. Snead, the ageless 53-year-old picture swinger from White Sulphur Springs, W.Va., put together rounds of 67-70—137 in the sectional trials over the par 71 Birmingham, Mich., Country Club.

This means he will be at the firing line Thursday, June 17, when 150 players tee off over the Bellerive Country Club in the revised USGA four-day format.

As 369 players battled for 101 berths at nine regional centers, many other leading tournament players failed to make the grade.

The list of failures included Dr. Cary Middlecoff, two-time Open champion; tempestuous Tommy Bolt, former PGA champion; Walter Burkemo, Doug Ford, Vic Ghezzi and Jim Turnesa and the 1946 Open King, Tony Manero.

Mays, Giants Hold Mets for 2-1 Victory

NEW YORK (AP) — Willie Mays, hitless in his previous 18 at-bats, cracked a two-run double in the first inning and San Francisco held off the New York Mets 2-1 Tuesday night.

Mays, who had not had an extra base hit and had driven in only one run since May 22, doubled against the left-center field fence off Mets right-hander Galen Cisco, scoring Dick Schofield and Jesus Alou.

Cisco allowed only two more hits before being lifted for a pinch hitter in the eighth but suffered his third loss in four decisions.

Horlen Leads Chicago Over Boston 7-2

BOSTON (AP) — Pitcher Joe Horlen drove in the tie-breaking run with one of his three singles and limited Boston to four hits, leading the Chicago White Sox to a 7-2 triumph Tuesday night.

The run that snapped a 2-2 deadlock was unearned, coming in the sixth inning after shortstop Rico Petrocelli booted Ron Hansen's grounder, then threw the ball past first base for a double error. Hansen eventually reached third and scored as Horlen singled to center field.

Horlen, now 6-3, twice beat out infield singles, loading the bases, but the White Sox failed to score both times.

Danny Cater homered for Chicago and Lee Thomas for the Red Sox.

Reds Hand Fourth Loss To Gibson

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Successive home runs by Leo Cardenas and pinch hitter Art Shamsky in the sixth inning brought Cincinnati a 5-4 triumph over St. Louis Tuesday night and handed Bob Gibson his fourth consecutive loss.

The homers wiped out a 4-2 lead the Cardinals had given Gibson, who won his first eight games this season.

Gibson walked Don Pavletch with one out before Cardenas drove the ball into the left field bleachers. Shamsky then batted for starter Gerry Arrigo and hit his second homer of the season, both coming as a pinch hitter.

Expansion Is Topic for NBA Meet

BOSTON (UPI)—Extension of the 1966-67 season is expected to be the major topic Wednesday in the opening of a two-day meeting of National Basketball Association owners.

Officials of the nine NBA clubs will hear Commissioner J. Walter Kennedy's recommendations for adding a tenth franchise at the league's first annual business meeting to be held away from its New York City headquarters.

Chicago, Cleveland, Pittsburgh, and a city in the Southwest are believed considered to be the prime expansion points on Kennedy's long-range plan though several other applications have been reported in recent weeks and could come up for consideration.

An item not on the agenda could develop into the chief discussion point during the four separate sessions scheduled at the Hotel Somerset.

Lou Prieri and Mrs. Marjorie Brown, co-owners of the seven-year regular season and play-off champion Boston Celtics, have been listening for several weeks for offers for their team. The Celtics have run up the longest single domination in the history of major professional sports.

Pieri, Celtics president since the death last year of co-owner Walter A. Brown, announced last week that six separate groups still were bidding to purchase the franchise. The reported price, ranging up to $25 million, is believed to carry with it the stipulation that the Celtics be continued in Boston.

Any sale of the club would be subject to a 7-2 vote of approval by all the NBA owners.

The Cox Broadcasting Co. offered to put up $7.5 million, a record figure, for the AFL franchise, the money going to the eight existing teams partly to pay for 32 players to be selected from a pool.

The new team also is entitled to two first round draft picks.

However, the deal was clouded somewhat by failure of the Atlanta Stadium Authority to give the AFL sponsors a definite commitment. The authority said it wanted to delay a decision until July 1, indicating that the NFL still was in the picture.

In view of this, a spokesman for the Cox Broadcasting Co. said its offer to the stadium authority would be reconsidered. Details of the offer were never disclosed.

Rozelle met Tuesday with officials of the stadium authority. He gave indications the NFL was ready to accept Atlanta in its 1966 plans. Originally, the NFL expansion blueprint called for the addition of two teams in 1967.

The announcement of Atlanta's selection was not unexpected but there was considerable surprise at the AFL's inability to reach a decision on a 10th team.

Commissioner Joe Foss said he was "not disappointed. There were several applicants still involved from other cities to be considered and we decided to move on it systematically."

Foss then listed Philadelphia, Miami, New Orleans, Chicago, Los Angeles, Anaheim, Calif., Detroit, Cleveland and Milwaukee as still in the running.

He said the expansion committee would meet later this summer to reach a decision.

Kelly Hurls Eden Past T.F. 'B' 4-1

EDEN — Lefty Rick Kelly held the Twin Falls "B" team to two hits and Eden coasted into a 4-1 American Legion victory Tuesday night.

Twin Falls jumped in front in the first inning when Ed Carr walked, advanced on an error and romping in on a single by Gary Stimpson. But after that Twin Falls managed only a safety by Mike Touchette.

Eden took charge in the bottom of the first when Watkins lined on a fielder's choice and scored on a hit by Terry English. English scored when Cal Olsen singled.

The final two Eden runs came in the third. English started it with his second hit of the night and Huettig followed with a long triple. Huettig came home on an error.

Kelly ended the night by fanning 13 Twin Falls batters while his teammates collected eight hits off two pitchers.

Charles Lifts A's Over Yankees 3-2

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Ed Charles' two-run single in the sixth inning and the three-hit pitching of John O'Donoghue lifted the Kansas City Athletics past New York 3-2 Tuesday night, ending the Yankees' four-game winning string.

O'Donoghue, who had lost seven of nine decisions, held New York hitless until the fifth inning when Mickey Mantle's single, a walk to Joe Pepitone and Cleo Boyer's triple gave the Yankees a 2-1 lead.

Bobby Richardson's sixth-inning single was the only other hit off the Kansas City left-hander.

Twins Homer Past Indians By 6-2 Score

ST. PAUL-MINNEAPOLIS (AP) Camilo Pascual won his eighth game while Harmon Killebrew and Earl Battey drove in five runs with a homer apiece, leading Minnesota to a 6-2 victory over Cleveland Tuesday night.

Pascual yielded solo home runs to Rocky Colavito and Max Alvis in the second and fourth innings. He also had to pitch his way out of a bases-loaded, one-out jam in the second.

After the fourth, however, he checked the Indians on one hit and reached the longest winning streak of his 12-year career.

Killebrew staked Pascual to a 3-0 lead when he belted his ninth homer following walks to Zoilo Versalles and Tony Oliva in the first.

Cleveland, which had won five straight games, eroded that margin to 3-2 on Colavito's 12th homer and Alvis' 8th.

However, Battey restored the lead to three runs with his homer in the fourth. It came with Bob Allison, who had walked, on base.

Magic Valley Women's Meet Set for Rupert

RUPERT—Mrs. Marlon Undhjem will be shooting for an unprecedented fifth title June 16 and 17 in the annual renewal of the Times-News Magic Valley Women's Golf Tournament. The event will be conducted at the new Rupert Country Club course for the first time. The course is four years old and the tournament is shifted to the various communities.

Mrs. Undhjem, Twin Falls, needs only one more victory to retire her second traveling trophy. She showed she was ready last week when she shot a 75 over the Twin Falls links, although the Rupert course is considerably longer and carries a 72 par.

The championship will be based on 36 holes of medal play, reports Professional Gary Tawzer. The first 18 holes will count in the 36-hole total but also will serve as qualifying. The field will be allowed to play in a four-some of its choice but flights and starting times will be posted for the final 18.

Tawzer said since early entries weren't required the size of the field wasn't known. It appears the best "home grown" hope will be Sergene Sorenson, Burley, who has been playing well this spring. She was second to Mrs. Undhjem last year.

Elva Felton is tournament chairman with Barbara Larson and Lois Anderson serving on her tournament committee. President of the hosting Rupert Women's Golf Association is Dorothy Creason.

Pirates Edge Houston 7-6 In 11th Frame

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Bill Virdon scored the winning run on Hal Woodeshick's bases-loaded balk with two out in the 11th inning as the Pittsburgh Pirates edged Houston 7-6 Tuesday night for their fourth straight victory and 16th in the last 18 games.

The Pirates loaded the bases on a leadoff single by Manny Mota, a force play, Virdon's single and an intentional walk to Roberto Clemente.

Andre Rodgers then hit a tapper in front of the plate, but Woodeshick could only get a force play at the plate after he slipped fielding the ball.

Then, with Donn Clendenen at bat, Woodeshick balked and Virdon trotted home with the winning run.

Houston roared from behind for a 6-5 lead with four runs in the ninth inning, the last three on Joe Gaines' pinch hit home run off reliever Al McBean.

Sports FROM ALL ANGLES

BY LARRY HOVEY
He's been called "Maverick" due to his affinity for loud vests, boasts black wavy hair and his voice comes out in a Midwestern twang that is somewhat languid. But his eyes hint there just might be a pretty active mind behind it all.

The subject is Claude Rutherford, the new Idaho State University basketball coach. He is an antithesis of departed Jim Nau. Where Nau was an extreme introvert and hardly known to the ISU faithful around Pocatello, Rutherford gives a promise of being a real politician in that respect.

If there is to be a comparison of other college coaches this state has known, the closest would be Joe Cipriani, ex-Idaho major now at Nebraska, although physically there is a difference. Rutherford is tall, about 6 feet, 3 or 4 inches, and is a good looking guy. He looks like he would be a fine recruiter. He likes to talk and doesn't mind letting his light shine from under the bushel. He's kinda pleasant, in fact.

It is to Rutherford that the Board of Regents entrusted the problem of rebuilding Idaho State's basketball program. He is not in an enviable position. ISU is used to winning in basketball and there are still too many around who can remember the heights the fortunes were lifted by Steve Belko and John Grayson. Of course, he has a real good chance of getting off the hook this year. All he has to do is clout Idaho a couple of times and the season will be a success regardless of record.

Rutherford is aware of it. He is out seeking junior college help, much of it coming with him from Fullerton JC, his last mailing address.

"I will be bringing four boys up with me off that club," he told us recently. "One of them, a freshman, is one of those kind of players everyone wants. He's not big, in fact he's small (about 5-9). But he's the kind of kid you can always expect to get 25 points from a night and he's a threat for 50. He's that kind of outside player," Rutherford said of Rudy Becerra. "That takes care of us out there, so what we're looking for now is a good inside scoring punch. Then we'll have the offense really taken care of. Two of the other boys I'm bringing up are freshmen. I don't expect them to start next year but they should be valuable squadmen. The fourth is the big man, Jeff Mitchell, about 6-7, not a great inside player but an adequate one. A dependable one," Rutherford said. And that was about all he could really say about his team's prospects since those are the only boys he's seen.

But the Bengals aren't exactly helpless. There are eight returning lettermen with three, Ken Briggs, Dave Wagon and Robbie Knudson, all being double figure scorers last year. The Bengals also see a bright future for fresh team graduates Jim Hand and Hank Fishman.

A native of Indiana, Rutherford likes the fast breaking offense and is looking for runners.

About himself Rutherford reports: "I just got married. It's my third time. I think it will take this time, though."

Concerning the Maverick nickname and vests: "When I was at another place I wore one that was given to me at a ball game. Then they just started coming in—presents or jokes from friends and fans. I've got quite a few of them now. In fact, I've gotten so I kinda like them."

Overall there definitely is a new look at Idaho State University. Whether the Bengals will start winning in the manner to which they were once accustomed remains to be seen. But we can promise you, win or lose it's going to be different with Rutherford around.

We noted he and his Bengals would be in Twin Falls March 7 for that third game with Idaho and told him to be sure to bring one of his loudest vests.

"I will," he promised. "We'll be shooting for our third straight over Idaho that night."

Under a new rule to curb the mad outlay of astronomical bonuses, the 20 major league clubs ran smoothly through hundreds of names of bright young prospects in a draft similar to the set-ups in pro football and basketball to allocate rights to college stars.

Negotiating rights to collegians like Monday's, recent high school grads, sons of former major leaguers and the brother of Boston Red Sox outfielder Tony Conigliaro were among those drawn at the rate of one nearly every two minutes.

The 20 major league clubs drafted one player each for their own rosters and swung into additional rounds for their minor league affiliates.

Each had two selections for class AAA clubs, four for class AA affiliates and an unlimited number or until the well ran dry—for their teams at the class A level.

The Red Sox, fifth in line to pick, waited anxiously while the lead-off Athletics drafted Monday; the New York Mets drew lefty pitcher Leslie Rohr of Billings, Mont.; Washington picked pitcher Joe Coleman Jr., of Natick, Mass., and Houston pulled shortstop Alex Barrett of Winton, Calif.

The Boston gleefully selected outfielder Billy Conigliaro of Swampscott, Mass., high school, Tony's 17-year-old brother. After the Red Sox move, the Chicago Cubs named pitcher Dick James of Florence, Ala., Cleveland selected catcher Raymond Foss of Marion, Ill., the Los Angeles Dodgers named shortstop John Wyatt of Bakerfield, Calif., Minnesota named shortstop Ed Leon of Tucson, Ariz., and Arizona U., and Pittsburgh grabbed Douglas Dickerson, an outfielder from Birmingham, Ala.

Others in the first round were first baseman James Spencer of Glen Burnie, Md., by the Los Angeles Angels, first baseman Bill Grant of Watertown, Mass., by Milwaukee, catcher Bill Lamont of Kirkland, Ill., by Detroit, third baseman Alan Gallagher of Santa Clara U. by San Francisco, pitcher Scott McDonald of Yakima, Wash., by Baltimore.

Also third baseman Bernardo Carbo of Garden City, Mich., by Cincinnati, catcher Ken Plesha of Notre Dame by the Chicago White Sox, pitcher John Adamson of San Diego by Philadelphia, pitcher William Burbach of Dickeyville, Wis., by the Yankees and pitcher Joe Difazio of Crawford, N. J., and Delta State College by the Cardinals.

Players drafted would have to be signed within the next six months or be tossed back into the hopper for another draft next January. They have less room for dickering for bonuses than do college footballers, who have three leagues—National, American and Canadian—bidding for their services.

The grab-bag operation to assign negotiating rights was voted last winter over the objections of seven major league clubs, including the Yankees and Dodgers, but the "have not" clubs were all for it.

Bonuses, which had reached a high of $200,000 in the unbridled bidding of other years, will drop but not disappear. Monday figured to get at least $75,000 for signing with the A's. That probably will be the top price.

"We regard him as the greatest prospect in the Nation," said A's general manager Hank Peters. "He's a complete ball player of the Willie Mays and Mickey Mantle type."

Monday Says A's Have Opportunity
OMAHA, Neb. (UPI)—Arizona State outfielder Rick Monday Tuesday said Kansas City, which selected him in baseball's new free agent draft, told him "some time ago I would be their No. 1 draft choice."

The A's are "a good club to go with as far as any opportunity to play in the majors goes, and that's the reason anyone signs in pro ball," Monday said. Monday added that the fact that Kansas City drafted him does not mean a quick signing. He explained that no one knows "how the draft will affect the size of the bonuses."

Monday said he doesn't believe the major league clubs can afford to lose a top draft choice because it's a long wait until they get a chance to make another such selection. Monday, who has completed two years at Arizona State, said he definitely would continue his education at the university during the off-season.

Sen. Hart Introduces Bill to Police Professional Boxing

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., introduced today the 1965 version of his bill to place professional boxing under federal policing by a boxing commissioner. He pictured heavyweight champion Cassius Clay's disputed 60-second knockout of Sonny Liston in their Lewiston, Maine, bout as reason enough to justify the bill's enactment. A similar bill by Hart and Senate Judiciary Committee. Hart contended enactment of the bill this year represents a last chance for the survival of big-time boxing and to rescue it from the "shadowy interests which appear to dominate boxing."

Torre Starts Rally in 10th For Braves

CHICAGO (AP)—Joe Torre broke a 2-2 deadlock with a pinch hit home run in the 10th inning Tuesday and started the second-place Milwaukee Braves on a homer spree that produced an 8-2 victory over the Cubs. Torre's homer, his 13th of the season, came off Andy McDaniel with Frank Bolling on base. Up to that time, the Braves had only one hit since the second inning. Before the 10th ended, Felipe Alou, Hank Aaron and Gene Oliver also had homered and the Braves had scored six runs.

It was the first time a National League club had hit four homers in one inning since the Braves did it in June, 1961. Ken Johnson, Milwaukee starting pitcher, gave up only three hits in six innings. Bob Sadowski pitched three hitless innings before Torre batted for him, and Billy O'Dell finished the job.

Los Angeles Cops 3-1 Win Over Detroit

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Fred Newman pitched a four-hitter for his third victory of the season over Detroit as the Los Angeles Angels defeated the Tigers 3-1 Tuesday night.

It was the seventh victory against three defeats for Newman. The 23-year-old right-hander walked none, struck out one and had most of the Tigers beating the ball into the dirt.

The Angels pinned the loss on Dave Wickersham, 1-4, a 10-game winner last season who hasn't won since he beat Minnesota April 15. The first Los Angeles run came in the third inning when Newman walked with two out and scored on a triple by Albin Pearson. A single by Al Spangler, a triple by Willie Smith and a single by Joe Adcock cost Wickersham two more runs in the sixth.

Trenkle, Baird Get ISU Scholarships

POCATELLO—Three big Southern Idaho high school football stars have accepted athletic grant-in-aid scholarships and will enroll at Idaho State University next September. Football Coach Jerry (Dabo) Caccia announced Monday the trio includes 1964 All-State tackle, George Trenkle, 200 pounds, 6 feet 7 inches, 240 pounds, from Twin Falls, and tackle Darwin Smith, 6 feet 5 inches, 250 pounds, of Idaho Falls.

Trenkle, a three-sport letterman on Coach Bud Watkins' teams, had an outstanding track season this spring and won the state class B shot put title.

Baird earned All-Southern Idaho Conference defensive honors for the Twin Falls Bruins under Coach Paul Ostyn last season and was also a member of the wrestling team.

Smith was a standout basketball player for Idaho Falls High the past two years, as well as earning laurels in football. Caccia said the 1965 Idaho State frosh gridlers will play

Wills Gives Dodgers Win Over Phillies

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Maury Wills singled in the winning run with two out in the ninth inning, giving the Los Angeles Dodgers a 2-1 victory over Philadelphia Tuesday night.

Jim Bunning, who had a 1-0 lead after seven innings, was the victim of the run that snapped a 1-1 tie and suffered his fifth defeat against five victories.

Lou Johnson opened the ninth with a single and moved around to third on a sacrifice bunt and a ground out. Wills then lashed a single to center field for the run.

Bunning drove in Philadelphia's run in the third inning with a single. Catcher Gus Triandos doubled to left, advanced to third on an infield out and scored on Bunning's hit off lefty Claude Osteen.

Howard-Led Solons Blank Orioles 2-0

WASHINGTON (AP)—Frank Howard continued his torrid hitting on his return home Tuesday night, tripling home one run and scoring the other as the Washington Senators defeated the Baltimore Orioles 2-0.

Both starting pitchers left with muscle ailments. Steve Barber of the Orioles in the fifth inning during the Senators' scoring, and Pete Richert as he took the mound in the eighth inning.

Richert allowed only three singles, fanned nine and walked one before he developed a muscle spasm in his pitching arm. Baltimore 000 000 000—0 4 1

U.S. Strong for British Open

PORTHCRAWL, Wales (AP)—Tony Lema, the defending champion, Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer will head a strong United States challenge for the British Open Golf championship, to be decided over Birkdale's links July 7-9.

Those three stars, together with Bobby Nichols, 1964 U.S. PGA champion; Doug Sanders, Phil Rodgers and Sam Snead, were among players exempt from qualifying in what promises to be one of the strongest fields ever.

Former Gridder Dies at 39

DUARTE, Calif. (AP)—Gene Brito, a former Los Angeles Rams and Washington Redskins football end, died Tuesday in City of Hope Medical Center, hospital officials report.

Brito, 39, had been under treatment here for an undefined paralyzing disorder since last Nov. 17. The spokesman said he died of a respiratory failure.
