

Arkansas River Rises Nearly to Top of Dikes

GREAT BEND, Kan. (AP)—The bloated Arkansas river rose today within 18 inches of the top of dikes protecting this central Kansas city from that stream's worst recorded flood. Men and machines waged a constant battle along the four-mile-long dike in hopes it will keep the rampaging water out of about one-third of Great Bend, a city of 18,000 population. Police, National Guardsmen, reservists and volunteers handled trucks which raced up and down the dikes patching holes and building up low spots with sandbags. The river climbed to 14.5 feet at mid-morning and held that level for an hour. The Weather Bureau earlier forecast a crest of 16 to 17 feet, but this was revised downward to about 14 feet.

JESS LARSON
... president of the National Air Force Association will be featured speaker at the awards banquet Saturday night at the Grandson Inn, Burley. He is lawyer in Washington, D.C.

Speaker for Aerospace Event Listed

BURLEY — Featured speaker during the Saturday evening awards banquet of Aerospace Days of Idaho will be Jess Larson, president of the National Air Force Association.

Larson is one of several national figures associated with America's space efforts who will be program participants Saturday and Sunday at the Aerospace Days of Idaho states George Forschler, president of the Idaho Air Force Association, sponsor of the event.

Others on the program are persons prominent in government, education, industry and military.

A display of some of the missiles of the United States, an Air Force air exhibit and fly-by late model aircraft will be everyone attending a better understanding of our country's efforts to stay ahead in its determination to conquer space, Forschler said.

Larson, Air Force Association president, is a Washington, D.C. lawyer who has held a number of highly responsible government posts.

In 1947 he was appointed administrator of the War Assets Administration. Subsequently Larson served as administrator of the Federal Works Administration and then in the same position for the General Services Administration. Concurrently he held the position of administrator of AEROSPACE, Pg. 2, Col. 7.

Both Brandt and the West German government in Bonn said they would not discuss a new agreement. Brandt said his representatives would confer with the East Germans only on extending the old agreement and setting new visiting dates. The last visiting period ended June 13.

Rules Dim Chances for Wall Opening

BERLIN (AP) — Communist insistence on new rules for opening the Berlin wall appeared today to dim West Berliners' chances of visiting relatives in the Soviet sector.

East German Premier Willy Stoph wrote Mayor Willy Brandt of West Berlin Tuesday that a new agreement must be negotiated if the wall is to reopen again.

Both Brandt and the West German government in Bonn said they would not discuss a new agreement. Brandt said his representatives would confer with the East Germans only on extending the old agreement and setting new visiting dates. The last visiting period ended June 13.

Senators Prepared For Coinage Fight

WASHINGTON (AP)—Western senators prepared a last ditch fight to amend President Johnson's silver coinage bill Wednesday but supports expected the measure to pass without major change. Sen. A. Willis Robertson, D-Va., chairman of the Banking Committee which accepted the President's bill, was ready to open floor debate on it with an assertion that it was a reasonable solution to a complex problem. Robertson said the interests of producers, commercial users, vending defense and the citizens generally appeared to be protected by the bill.

However, nine state senators declared the legislation actually means the end of the silver coins which the nation has known for so long, and they said it would have to be amended drastically to make it acceptable to them.

Even the Western senators agreed that silver is in such dire supply that the amount of the metal in coins must be reduced.

Sen. Alan Bible, D-Nev., said the real solution to the problem was an increase in the silver price which would lure many U. S. mines back into production. He said their costs are so high that their owners now cannot produce silver profitably.

Bible said he would concentrate on an amendment to retain for dimes and quarters the 40 per cent silver content provided by the bill for half dollars.

These coins now contain about 90 per cent silver. Under the bill, silver would be eliminated in dimes and quarters and they would have a copper core with an outside layer of mixed copper and nickel acceptable to vending machines.

The legislation would not change the 90 per cent silver content in the silver dollar, but there are no plans to resume minting those.

ATTENDS JUBILEE
LONDON (AP)—Queen Mother Elizabeth left by plane today for Toronto where she will spend five days in connection with golden jubilee celebrations of the Toronto Scottish Regiment.

Johnson to Address 20th U. N. Ritual

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House announced today that President Johnson definitely plans to address 20th anniversary ceremonies of the United Nations in San Francisco Friday morning.

Press secretary George Reedy said Johnson would speak at 11:30 a.m. — Pacific Daylight Time — in the War Memorial Opera House to mark the 20th anniversary of the signing of the U.N. Charter.

There was no immediate word on when Johnson would leave Washington.

After the San Francisco appearance, Johnson is expected to fly to his Texas ranch for a weekend stay.

After serving as a hotel and nursing home for over half a century, the building that housed the former Horton's Nursing Home is being torn down.

The structure is being dismantled by Western Salvage Co. of Twin Falls, and only the first floor of the building will remain. This floor will be used as an apartment house, according to Luke Francis, owner of the salvage company.

Back in the early 1900s, the structure was built as a hotel for employees of the Amalgamated Sugar Co., and it served in this capacity for about 30 years. In 1932 the building was bought by the county and relocated on a county-owned farm east of the sugar factory. The county turned the building into a nursing home.

New Demonstrations Awaited in Algiers

ALGIERS (AP)—Foreign ministers of the African-Asian world covered on Algiers today as Col. Houari Boumediene's new military regime braced for new waves of demonstrations in support of ousted President Ahmed Ben Bella. The foreign ministers were scheduled to meet in the Algerian National Assembly Thursday. Originally, their chief task was to decide whether the Soviet Union and Malaysia should be invited to the second African-Asian summit conference scheduled June 29. With supporters of Ben Bella taking to the street every night, the ministers now will have to decide whether the summit meeting should be held at this time.

African and Asian prime ministers attending the London Commonwealth conference already have suggested that the summit meeting be postponed.

President Julius Nyerere of Tanzania and Prime Minister Hastings Banda of Malawi said they would not attend. The Japanese government was reported planning to send a second-rank delegation. Japanese Foreign Minister Etsusaburo Shiina canceled plans to attend Thursday's meeting and ordered two of his ambassadors to represent him.

Boumediene, fearful of losing face, sent emissaries to London and leading capitals of Asia and Africa in an effort to persuade leaders to come to Algiers on schedule.

With only six days to go before the scheduled summit meeting, the nightly riots increased in violence. Several persons were reported injured in clashes with troops and riot police Tuesday night.

The crowds brandished banners with portraits of Ben Bella and pro-Ben Bella slogans. Several hundred youths roamed the streets shouting, "Long live Ben Bella" and "Boumediene assassin."

One diplomatic source estimated that up to 400 persons had been arrested in all parts of the country since the coup Saturday, not including countless youths picked up during the riots.

The government claimed only six persons were arrested for political offenses — including Ben Bella and two of his top lieutenants — former National Assembly President Hadji Ben Allah and former Health Minister Mohamed Seghir Nekkache.

According to the available information, the Soviet government has declined this proposal, declaring that it had not been authorized by anybody to conduct talks on a settlement in Viet Nam. Tass said.

Prime Minister Harold Wilson of Britain, who will head the four-man group, wanted to visit five capitals — Moscow, Peking, Hanoi, Saigon and Washington.

Structure Housing Former Hotel, Rest Home Dismantled

After serving as a hotel and nursing home for over half a century, the building that housed the former Horton's Nursing Home is being torn down.

The structure is being dismantled by Western Salvage Co. of Twin Falls, and only the first floor of the building will remain. This floor will be used as an apartment house, according to Luke Francis, owner of the salvage company.

Back in the early 1900s, the structure was built as a hotel for employees of the Amalgamated Sugar Co., and it served in this capacity for about 30 years. In 1932 the building was bought by the county and relocated on a county-owned farm east of the sugar factory. The county turned the building into a nursing home.

According to Francis, the structure was leased by the Horton family about 15 years ago and renovated into Horton's Nursing Home.

Until its condemnation two years ago the building served as a nursing home for the older citizens of the county and, as Francis noted, "Many outstanding citizens spent the latter part of their days here."

"I feel rather sad," Francis asserted, "because I used to come here every Christmas and give candy and cigarettes to the old folks."

Francis stated that the first floor of the building will be moved to Fourth Avenue West and Blake Street where it will be reconstructed as an apartment house.

Proposal in Dominican Accepted

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—The rebel regime accepted with minor changes today a proposal by the Organization of American States to settle the Dominican conflict. The rebels agreed to the creation of a provisional government and general elections within six to nine months—key points in the play of the OAS peace committee to end the nine-week-old rebellion. There was no immediate word from the rival civilian-military junta as to when it would reply to the OAS proposal.

Peace Talks In Viet Nam Conditional

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk said today that North Viet Nam is unwilling to enter peace talks "unless it is accepted in advance that there will be a Communist-dominated government in South Viet Nam."

"The other side is obviously not ready for peace," Rusk said in an address to the American Foreign Service Association here.

He said North Viet Nam is "presently adamant against negotiation or any avenue to peace."

"Peking is even more so, and one can plainly read the declared doctrine and purpose of Chinese Communists. They are looking beyond the current conflict to the hope of domination of all of Southeast Asia — and beyond."

Rusk appeared to be trying to drive a wedge between North Viet Nam and Communist China. He asserted that the North Vietnamese face the dangers and costs of the war directly, saying "They too must fear the ambitions of Communist China in Southeast Asia."

At the same time, Rusk warned the Communist side in the Southeast Asian war against believing that arguments over Vietnamese policy in this country might bring some reversal of U.S. policy.

Smylie Sure No Tax War Will Emerge

BOISE (AP)—Gov. Robert E. Smylie expressed confidence Wednesday there will be no border war between Idaho and Washington when this state begins collecting a sales tax July 1.

He said, too, he believes any conflict that exists can be settled amicably by state administrative officers without the calling of a special session of the legislature.

The potential problem developed after the Washington State Legislature authorized the sale, for $1, of permits which exempt non-residents from paying Washington's state sales tax.

Washington state authorities said earlier this month that the sale of the permits has been brisk along the Idaho border.

State Rep. Orval Hansen, R-Bonneville, said in Boise Tuesday night that he would favor a special session of the Idaho legislature if necessary to disrupt any attempt by Idahoans to beat the new sales tax by shopping in Washington.

The new law has a provision assessing a use tax on merchandise bought tax free in another state and brought into Idaho. Hansen said, however, that if there is a concerted attempt to evade that provision it might be necessary to call a special session to strengthen the enforcement portion of the law.

"Imposition of penalties for willful evasion of the sales tax," Hansen said, "would have the effect of discouraging a lot of this across the border traffic."

Smylie told his news conference he is "confident that neither Washington nor Idaho wants to start border warfare. Retaliation is a route without end."

He said government "exists for the amicable settlement of mutual problems" and he said he is confident the matter "can be amicably solved."

Paying Thief

TWICKENHAM, England (AP)—Barclay's Bank was richer by 70 cents after a would-be thief tried to rob it.

The thief put the cash on the counter to divert the cashier's attention and then tried to grab a bundle of notes. The cashier moved the money out of reach. The thief fled, leaving his coins behind him.

Coach "Babe" Brown Dies At Caldwell

CALDWELL, Idaho (AP)—J.A. "Babe" Brown, for many years prominent in Idaho athletics, died today. He was 64.

He retired this year as athletic director and football coach at the College of Idaho.

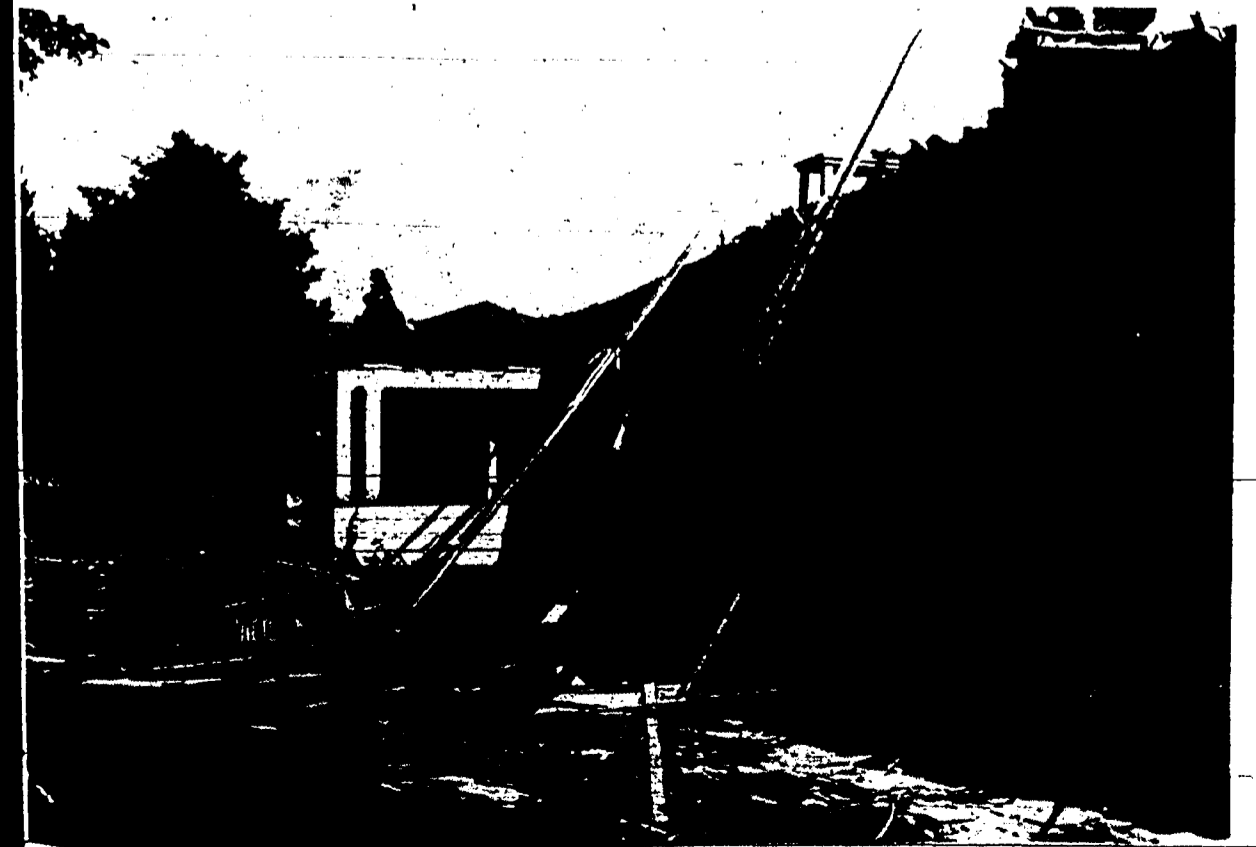

Brown was a graduate of the University of Idaho, where he was one of the school's most famous fullbacks.

He coached at high schools in Lewiston, Burley and Moscow, then returned to the university as freshman coach. During the World War II years he served pretty much as a one-man athletic staff and following the war became head football coach and athletic director.

Brown was honored in 1961 by the Idaho Coaches' Association which gave him a trophy "for many years of outstanding work and devoted service to the field of athletics in the state of Idaho."

Altogether he coached in Idaho high schools and colleges for 40 years.

Through the 1963 season his all-time coaching record in football was 159 victories, 83 defeats and 12 ties. In basketball it was 533 wins and 281 losses and in baseball, 112 victories and 88 defeats.

BUILT IN EARLY 1900's, this former nursing home will meet its end as many older structures do, as salvage lumber and brick. The building, constructed as a hotel by the Amalgamated Sugar Co. of Twin Falls, later was moved to its present site and rebuilt as Horton's Nursing Home. (Times-News photo)

Ex-Resident Of T. F. Dies In Seattle

Mrs. Burd Wall, 91, a former Twin Falls resident, died Sunday at her home in Seattle, Wash.

She was born in Kentucky, Dec. 10, 1893, and attended college at Central Missouri State College and Potter College, Bowling Green, Ky. Her husband, Henry J. Wall, died June 8, 1932. She moved from Twin Falls to Seattle four years ago.

Mrs. Wall was a charter member of the Twin Falls Presbyterian Church and a member of the DAR.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. H. W. Sawyer, Reno, Nev., and Mrs. George W. Marshall, Seattle, Wash.; two sisters, Mrs. C. D. Middleton, Manhattan, Kan., and Miss Sallie McIlvaine, Portland, Ore.; two grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

SYNOPSIS AND AGRICULTURE SUMMARY

Some scattered cloudiness occurred in the valleys of Southern Idaho this morning. A low pressure center at the surface is located in Southeastern Oregon and a cold front is moving eastward in Western Washington and Western Oregon. This front is expected to move across Southern Idaho on Thursday, bringing along slightly cooler air with it. Showers and thunderstorms developing over mountain areas today and Thursday may drift out over nearby valleys in Southern Idaho. Showers today will be widely scattered, becoming a little more numerous on Thursday, but rainfall amounts are expected to be light. The outlook for Friday is for partly cloudy skies. Maximum temperatures today will be slightly warmer again, with readings in the 80s to mid 90s, but cooler air on Thursday will lower maximum readings into the upper 70s to low 90s. Minimum temperatures tonight will range from the mid 40s to the upper 50s to low 60s.

FIVE-DAY FORECAST

Low pressure aloft and at the surface will persist in the Gulf of Alaska for the next five days, causing a series of Pacific storms to move across Southern Canada with trailing fronts moving through the Pacific Northwest into the Intermountain Region. High pressure at the surface and aloft will remain strong in the eastern Pacific.

Temperatures over the valleys of Southern Idaho will average near normal Thursday through Monday. Cooling will occur behind the fronts as they move across Southern Idaho with coolest periods on Thursday and again around Sunday. Normal maximum and minimum temperatures for this period are Gooding 81-59, Twin Falls 85-50 and Burley 80-48.

Precipitation will be spotty during the next five days as showers and thunderstorms drift over valley areas from nearby mountains. Total precipitation will be less than .10 of an inch in most of the valleys of Southern Idaho. Showers and thunderstorms in valley areas can occur today and Thursday with the next storm moving through Southern Idaho around Sunday.

Sunshine will average near 80 per cent of possible through Monday. Soil temperatures at the three to eight-inch depth will change little, with daily averages continuing in the upper 60s into the 70s. Winds will be gusty near thunderstorms, but otherwise wind speeds will continue to be light.

Scattered showers during this coming five-day period could cause delays in haying in some local areas and will cause unfavorable spraying weather at times. However other farming activities should be able to make good progress with only temporary delays in the shower areas. Application of irrigation water to row crops will remain on schedule in the absence of any general heavy rains.

Truck Driver Uninjured in Rupert Crash

RUPERT—A Boise truck driver's semi-trailer rig was cut, ripped and twisted under him as it careened along a U.S. 30 guard rail Tuesday but he was not hurt.

State Patrolman Roy Thomas said the trailer, filled with potato chips and crinkles, was cut in two, the axles and engine were ripped out from under and the rig was gashed from end to end.

But the driver, Lawrence Larsen, 48, was high enough above the wreckage to escape injury, Thomas said.

The patrolman said Larsen apparently fell asleep as he was driving the load from Salt Lake City to Boise.

Rubber Raft Floats Down River Alone

SALMON—That rubber raft without anyone aboard which floated the lower Middle Fork of the Salmon River and was last reported going down the Salmon River beyond the end of the road has been heard from again.

William Baker, Lemhi County sheriff, said he was advised by the sheriff at Grangeville that the boat had made it through the wilderness area and had been recovered near Riggins.

Two Colorado boatmen attempting to float the Middle Fork apparently abandoned the craft in rough water when they reached the flying B Ranch. They had put into the river May 28 at Indian Creek landing field.

George Austin, Salmon, spotted the raft in the Salmon River not far from the mouth of the Middle Fork on May 31 and efforts to get a line on it failed.

Date of its recovery near Riggins was not known here. Sheriff Baker said he was advised the two owners were notified and have recovered the craft.

When it was spotted by Austin, it was traveling some 20 miles an hour and still contained personal gear and one oar in an oar lock. It had taken on very little water although the river was nearing flood stage.

500 Senior Citizens Demonstrate

NEW YORK (AP)—Five hundred chanting members and supporters of the New York Congress of Senior Citizens, calling on the nation's doctors to cooperate in medicare, picketed a hotel where an American Medical Association committee was considering proposals to boycott the organization.

The committee may decide today what—if any—resolution on medicare policy to put before the 235-member House of Delegates, the policy-making body of the AMA.

The pickets—most of them over 65 and retired—chanted "two-four-six-eight, AMA cooperate."

The pickets marched for an hour Tuesday outside the Americana Hotel. They passed out "an open letter to our doctors." The letter said the Johnson administration's medicare program—now before Congress—would improve the practice of medicine.

The AMA, which is holding its annual convention here, takes an opposite view.

Views expressed during the two-day committee hearing were predominantly in favor of a boycott—or "nonparticipation," as some doctors called it.

George W. Irle Taken by Death

BUHL—George W. Irle, 80, died early Tuesday morning at his home in the Clear Lakes area north of Buhl.

He was born Jan. 29, 1884, in Leverett, Ill., and moved to the Mindoka project in about 1904. He did some mining in Butte, Mont., and farmed in other areas of Magic Valley.

In about 1923 he moved onto his present farming and cattle land north of Buhl.

Survivors include two sisters, Mrs. Anna Pierce and Nettie Irle, both Champagne, Ill., two nephews and one niece.

Funeral services are pending at the Albertson-Dickard Funeral Home.

Call, both Burley; Joe Wright and Mrs. Richard Stoddard, both Paul, and Mrs. Howard Arnold, Rupert.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ted Gibbs, Rupert.

Civil Rights Workers Are Campaigning

ATLANTA (AP)—More than 800 civil rights workers have started an extensive summer Negro voter registration campaign in six Southern states.

The teams of white college students, Negro youths and adults fanned out into 50 counties Tuesday. Each county team included staff workers and six local Negroes—two adults and four young volunteers.

The 10-week project of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference apparently began quietly in designated counties of Alabama, Georgia, Florida, North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia.

Hosea Williams, director of SCLC's summer community organization and political education campaign, said mass demonstrations were not included in the plans.

Heyburn Man Is Given Promotion

HEYBURN—Joseph Elson Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Lee, route 1, Heyburn, has been promoted to class six in the foreign service of the United States. He is serving as consular and public affairs officer at the Consulate General, Paramaribo, Surinam, in northern South America.

Lee was graduated from Raft River High School, Malta, and received a Bachelor's degree from Utah State University, Logan, where he was valedictorian of the College of Business and Social Sciences. Before graduation he served two years with the U.S. Army in Germany and two years as an LDS missionary, also in Germany.

From 1959 to 1960 Lee attended Stanford University as a Woodrow Wilson Fellow and received a master's degree in political science. Since entering the foreign service he has served in the state department in Washington, D.C., and at the Consulate General at Frankfurt, Germany.

Philadelphia Truck Strike Continuing

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Trucks guarded by policemen in bright red patrol cars rolled out of Philadelphia's sprawling food distribution center and other terminals today as a wildcat strike by Teamsters Local 107 continued.

Truck traffic was reduced in the Philadelphia and Wilmington, Del., area, and perishables and produce wilted and withered at some points. But Philadelphia's Mayor James H. J. Tate declared the "emergency is now under control. We will protect the trucks and anyone breaking the law will be arrested."

Local 107 members, protesting the firing of four members by Roadway Express Inc. June 11 started the wildcat walkout Monday. They have halted virtually all trucks, telling the drivers to uncouple their rigs, or park their trucks and go home.

Between 40 and 50 men were arrested Tuesday for interfering with traffic or for vandalism to trucks.

BAD AIR

NEW YORK (AP)—A report by a special City Council committee says New York's air was a contributing factor in an increasing death rate from respiratory diseases and lung cancer.

From 1959 to 1960 Lee attended Stanford University as a Woodrow Wilson Fellow and received a master's degree in political science. Since entering the foreign service he has served in the state department in Washington, D.C., and at the Consulate General at Frankfurt, Germany.

Moviemaker D. Selznick Dies, Age 63

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Famed moviemaker David O. Selznick, producer of the all-time classic, "Gone With the Wind," died of a heart seizure Tuesday at Mt. Sinai Hospital. He was 63.

Selznick was conferring with attorney Barry Brennen in Beverly Hills when he suffered an acute coronary occlusion. His wife, actress Jennifer Jones, was with him, and accompanied him in the ambulance to Mt. Sinai Hospital.

Miss Jones starred in several Selznick films, including "Duel in the Sun" and "Since You Went Away." They had one daughter, Mary.

Selznick was the first producer to win the Academy Award on two successive years—with "Gone With the Wind" and "Rebecca."

Rights of Indians Are Protected

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Interior Department endorsed Tuesday the principle of a nine-bill package designed to protect the constitutional rights of American Indians.

But Frank J. Barry, department solicitor, recommended against enactment of some of the bills as unnecessary and suggested a redraft of two.

Barry told a Senate judiciary subcommittee that Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall strongly supports the bills. They would extend to Indians the individual liberties enjoyed by non-Indians.

He said the substitute legislation for two bills specifies the rights that the department feels should be extended to individual Indians in relation to their tribal governments.

He said these include rights that Indians be guaranteed due process of law, freedom of religion, speech, press and the right to assemble and petition the government should be extended to individual Indians.

Individual Indians, he said, should be protected against unlawful search and seizure, against double jeopardy in criminal proceedings, against self-incrimination and against taking property for public purposes without just compensation.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

BY ANDREW TULLY

WASHINGTON—Out in San Francisco Thursday, the spotlight will be on President Johnson, but the 20th birthday anniversary of the United Nations is also a big moment for a man named Harry Truman who might be termed the U.N.'s next-of-kin.

Sentimentally, at least, the anniversary is of far more importance to Harry Truman than it is to Lyndon Johnson. For Truman is one of the U.N.'s fondest grandsons—he was present at its birth, and he may have done more than any other man to keep the puny infant alive.

Truman had been President only a little more than two months when the U.N. was delivered to a world still at war with the promise it would bring and keep the peace. By his own admission, the Man from Independence was still a little scared of his high office and its responsibilities, but he was giving the job everything he had—often by the light of midnight oil.

Andrew Tully

HISTORIC FIRST—As the week began, Truman broke a precedent—he became the first President to fly across the country. President Roosevelt, of course, had flown abroad for international conferences, but somehow Truman's flight had more of what might be called chauvinistic oomph; he was reminding the citizenry of the bigness of his land.

Truman often had been nervous during his first days in office when making formal speeches, but as he rose to address the closing session of the U.N. conference—they called it U.N.O. in those days—he was poised and calm; his rhetorical step was brisk with self-confidence.

And his words were prophetic. The Charter, Harry Truman said, "is only a first step to a lasting peace," and not a "final or perfect instrument." But, he added, "we start today from a good beginning—let us march forward."

MAN WITH COURAGE—Truman did not dally with illusion. He knew the U.N. was not yet ready and would not be ready for years to deal with the bigger world crises. And he put his realism into action during the U.N.'s waning decade when Soviet intransigence threatened to wreck a world's last hope for peace.

He sent help, military and economic, to Greece and Turkey when communism threatened to take over those countries; he didn't wait for U.N. action. He met the Russian blockade of Berlin with the historic airlift of food and supplies to that beleaguered city. When communist troops from North Korea poured into the democratic South, he first dispatched American troops and then calmly presented the U.N. with a fait accompli its membership was forced not only to accept but to join.

DECISION-MAKER—It is true, of course, that although U.N. members were recorded as rendering both moral and military support to South Korea this support was largely moral. But because Harry Truman had the capacity for swift decision, he compelled the U.N. to grow up overnight; it was the organization's first adventure in meeting aggression with cooperative force.

During his fond but stern parenthood, Harry Truman wrote a lesson for the Presidents who would succeed him. It was that for all its good intentions, the United Nations was helpless without strong leadership from the free world. As Eisenhower in Lebanon, Kennedy in Cuba and Johnson in Viet Nam and Santo Domingo discovered, that leadership is still needed. Lyndon Johnson is the guest of honor in San Francisco, but no other President yet can challenge the credentials of Harry Truman as the man who made the U.N. go to work.

Views of Others

PAY TV RULING
The Sacramento Superior Court ruling that California's ban on subscription television is unconstitutional serves to revive interest in proposals for reform of the initiative process.

Some way must be found to reduce such flagrant abuses of the initiative as was represented by Proposition 15, which misused the process to stifle free competition.

The court held that the measure violated the basic right of free speech, the First and 14th Amendments to the U. S. Constitution, as well as a section of the California Constitution. Its opinion noted that invention and progress should not be restricted when cloaked with the immunity of fundamental freedoms.

Serious doubts as to the constitutionality of Proposition 15 were raised before it qualified for the ballot. Yet the measure won passage as a result of a well-financed campaign filled with misrepresentation.

Even before the measure succeeded, the staff of the California Constitution Revision Commission pointed to the need for making all initiatives more responsible. It suggested that every initiative which goes on the ballot should first be subjected to legislative scrutiny.

Spurred by that recommendation, or their own concern over the problem, various legislators submitted reform proposals to the 1965 session. Some advocated tightening up signature requirements, while others were designed to provide some sort of legislative review of initiatives so that questions of constitutionality and legal effect could be aired.

Unfortunately, all such proposals appear to have been shunted to interim committee, thus precluding discussions at this time. It is hoped that such referral to interim consideration will actually lead to a definitive study of the situation, and to recommendations for future corrective action.

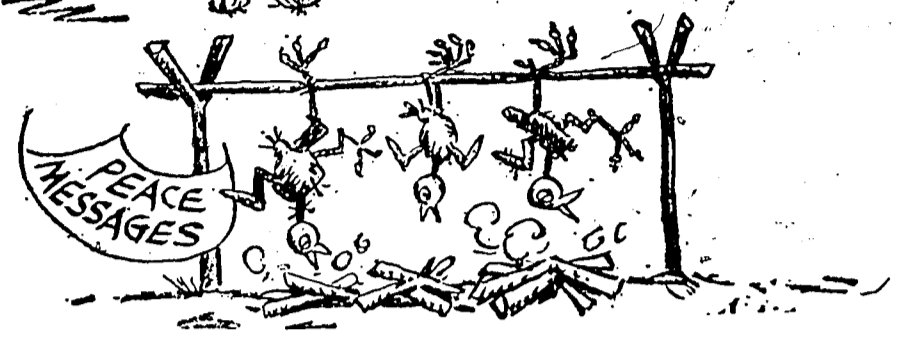

The problem is too serious to let any valid proposals expire quietly in an interim committee pigeon-hole.—Los Angeles Times.

MOON SHOT PROVIDES FORETASTE
The excitement caused by the dappled surface of the moon appearing live on television recently was wholly understandable. No doubt everything about Ranger 9's mission to the moon was rigorously scientific. Yet there was also an element of magic in the spectacle of a spacecraft diving for its country at 6,000 miles an hour and flashing back sharp pictures of lunar craters into our living room.

The moon shots provide a foretaste of dramas to come. The time is not distant when the first men will emerge from a spaceship, carrying cameras with them. Millions all over the world will be able to follow their progress on television as the lunar explorers take man's first step outside the terrestrial sphere. That will be the television show of the century.

No one can foretell the consequences of these first halting moves into space, just as few comprehended the significance of the discovery of the New World. But one prophecy can be made with assurance—that millions of eyes will be tracking every move into the unknown craters dotting our whirling satellite.—Washington Post.

Capital Report

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — The timing of President Johnson's news conference was excellent for him in a couple of ways and once again he expressed hopes for peace. But when he was all through the prospect of peace looked dismal.

And while he was talking for an hour and 20 minutes to newsmen in the White House a fleet of B52 bombers was flying from Guam to do high-level saturation bombing on the Viet Cong guerrillas in South Viet Nam.

It was the first time those planes had been used in the war.

But by holding the news conference Thursday afternoon Johnson took the edge off, and the play away from, the news conference former Sen. Barry Goldwater had held just a short time before.

This didn't go unnoticed by Goldwater.

At the same time, by meeting the press when he did, Johnson was able to give the quickest public assurance of cooperation to the British Commonwealth which Thursday decided on a peace mission.

Two nights ago it was announced Goldwater would meet reporters yesterday to announce a crusade for conservatism through a new organization called the Free Society Association headed by Goldwater.

Then Thursday morning the White House announced Johnson would also hold an afternoon news conference, although the time was indefinite and reporters waited hours in the press lobby. Johnson met them after Goldwater's session.

The Arizona, whom Johnson defeated for the presidency last year, told reporters that every time a Republican calls a news conference, Johnson has one of his own and grabs the spotlight. Thursday was no exception.

Earlier in London representatives of the 21 nations in the British Commonwealth decided to send a five-man mission in search of peace in Viet Nam. It will be headed by British Prime Minister Harold Wilson.

There has been increasing concern in Britain about America's war build-up in Viet Nam.

The mission will try to visit the countries concerned, particularly the United States, Red China, North and South Viet Nam.

It's possible the Red Chinese and the North Vietnamese will refuse to receive the mission. If they do, they will damage themselves in world opinion, although that may not mean much to them.

But before they could say yes or no Johnson was telling his news conference "we are delighted" and he said the commission "will have our full cooperation."

Johnson seemed pleased by what he regarded as strong over-all support in Congress and this country for his Viet Nam actions. But when all was said and done there wasn't much

Interpreting The News

By WILLIAM RYAN

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Fidel Castro seems to be sliding downhill as a Latin-American leader of revolution and his power to provoke violence appears to be declining.

Evidence gathered on a tour of much of Latin America points clearly to this, even though a fairly strong Castroist organization remains in the Dominican Republic and there still exist some pockets of armed extremist strength elsewhere.

If the Dominican threat is contained, Castro is likely to slip further. Bombastic pronouncements come from Havana about the imminence of revolution in some places — such as Venezuela. But to veteran students of Latin-American communism, this has the look of smokescreen, hiding an inability to arouse violent reaction even on so potentially explosive an issue as the U.S. action in the Dominican Republic.

There are several reasons behind Castro's downward slide as a hero in the eyes of young revolutionary militants. One big one is the Moscow-Peking argument. Another is Cuba's obvious internal difficulty. A third concerns developments in Latin America over the past five years.

Despite the difficulties, the impact of increasing U.S. interest in building up the hemisphere and the memory of President John F. Kennedy have been among strong influences for change in attitudes.

Castro appears to be backing away from the effort to sustain the pro-Chinese line of constant uproar and revolution, which has proved both difficult and expensive. He seems to be pulling in his horns a bit, as if hopeful of insinuating Cuba into the family of Hispanic America if only to the extent of trade relations.

It has not been a matter of choice with Castro but a matter of necessity. His heart all along has been with the Red Chinese line, but his stomach has depended on Moscow. Without Soviet aid Communist Cuba could hardly exist.

Careful observers of the Latin-American scene have been patching together reports from Havana since the widely publicized meeting there of world Communist representatives last November. They have concluded that Soviet influence prevailed.

The Soviet Communists still want to see Latin-American revolution, but Moscow is not anxious to collision with the United States in the Western Hemisphere. Moscow has enough to keep it occupied in its own front and back yards.

Evidently Castro was obliged

TAYLOR'S VIEWS ON WORLD NEWS

By HENRY J. TAYLOR

Septuagenarian millionaire investor Russell Sage had many quirks and still saved money until the day he died by refusing to buy underwear.

The click-click of his stock market brain was a legend in Wall Street. It led him to profits like a tracking Indian. It also led him to leave a memorable maxim, "Nobody should buy too much stock to keep him from sleeping at night if the unexpected happens. It always does."

Any stock market is built on a good many illusions. The present stock market has fallen enough to worry millions. What to do when stocks show a loathsome Neanderthal zest to go down?

Sage was noting that there are no "new eras," although some kind of "new era" is always claimed. The proof comes from unexpected downturns that treat prices like a castle of sand that new to report.

Johnson indicated there is no sign the North Vietnamese want to talk peace. And he pretty much torpedoed the idea of talking about it with the Viet Cong guerrillas who, he explained, are only the tools of the North Vietnamese.

Nor did he offer any sign of early peace in the Dominican Republic's revolution. In view of this bleak outlook there seemed little reason to expect any new ideas or solutions from the Cabinet meeting he called for today.

This, he explained, will "review the international situation and U.S. policy" and perhaps come up with suggestions for some new way to find peace.

For some reason Johnson wanted to keep on talking even though several newsmen had enough, tried to break up the conference, and then raced off to telephones while he was still speaking.

Roughly it would take bombers about six hours from Guam to Viet Nam. The Pentagon announced they had completed their bombing mission about two hours after Johnson's news conference ended.

Maxim, experience bred the maxim about the unexpected and "too much stock." And we're already many years into a bull market, overwhelmingly the longest in history, it should be obvious that anyone must be careful.

Moreover, old Wall Street hands know that investors usually make out far better by buying quite as much of any stock (or all stocks) as they wish because then they usually live through declines not extended — selling out too late or too early for a bear can make money in a market, but not a hog.

In giving one of the many reliable "don't's" Sage was an automatic answer to successful investing. Timing remains, however, indisputably vital.

Today's market has had a heart attack which we hope to have many reasons to believe will be erased. But rallies are not like the dove from Noah Ark sent to assure everyone that the flood is over. After any such tear in the price structure a large quantity of stock hangs over every market waiting to be sold by those who could not or did not sell before the event occurred.

No rally can run away on the upside, as if nothing had happened. A case history of rallies and reactions will have to be written before the smoke clears away.

Sound upswings usually start from the doldrums, not recent volume days. Historically, the most significant and encouraging development would be to have the market—at some still unknown level—go dead and dormant.

The last leg of the long top swing, the leg which began in the summer of 1963, was led by prime equities, notably General Motors, Standard Oil of New Jersey, AT&T, etc. If such leadership by great stocks asserts itself again nothing could be more promising. If not — look out! This is the value in explaining Russell Sage's warning.

BLACKWOOD FIVE CLUBS DISCUSSED
Jim continues the discussion of Blackwood where we left off yesterday.

Jim: "The follow-up Blackwood bid of five no-trump is a demand to partner to tell how many kings he holds. He responds six clubs to show one king; six diamonds to show one king; six hearts to show two kings; six spades to show three and six no-trump to show all four kings."

Oswald: "It is important to point out that if North bid five no-trump to show all four kings there would have been a way for South to check on one missing king and he would have had to guess whether or not to bid six or seven."

Jim: "As a finale I would like to point out that South should bid seven no-trump rather than seven hearts. With four aces and the King of hearts located in his partner's hand South could count 13 tricks at no-trump."

GENTLEMAN IN THE FOURTH ROW

The Doctor Says

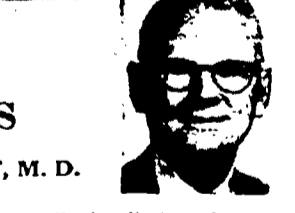

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M. D.

When you have a superficial abscess that must be opened, your doctor is likely to spray the area with an aerosol that freezes the tissues and stops the pain while he operates. This is but one example of the use of aerosols—now available for many household duties as well—in medicine.

Medical aerosols find their greatest use in the treatment of lung diseases, especially asthma. For example, deamethasone is now put up in this form. A mouthpiece is attached to the container and the open end is placed in the mouth. You can then press the button and inhale a measured amount of the drug.

Since medicated aerosols were introduced in 1953 their packaging has been greatly improved. Whereas the aerosol propellants formerly used were highly inflammable, those now in use not only will not burn—they may even be used to put out a small fire.

Many new uses for aerosols are being tested. Persons with migraine headaches have been relieved within a few seconds after inhaling ergotamine tartrate. The action is fully as prompt as an injection into the vein but has the advantage that the application is simpler, the pain of an injection is avoided and the danger of infection with the needle is eliminated. It also has the advantage over medication by mouth in that it does not irritate the stomach and none of the drug is destroyed by the action of the digestive juices, therefore a smaller dose is required. Furthermore, the solution in the container is not subject to contamination and with no exposure to air and light it does not deteriorate.

Aerosols are also used to spray soothing lotions on itching and irritated skin. Freezing compounds sprayed on snake bites slow down the absorption of the poison and eliminate the danger associated with the application of a tourniquet. These are but a few of the uses to which medicated aerosols will be put in the near future.

Q—My eye specialist says I have dilated blood vessels inside my eyes. He gave no reason for them and did not prescribe any treatment. He just made a correction in my glasses. How serious is this condition? What will it lead to?

A—A mild dilation of the blood vessels in the eyes is seen in persons whose glasses need revision. It is when these blood vessels are narrower than normal that you should start worry-

Camera Test Conducted by X15 Rocket

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (UPI)—The X15 rocket plane, streaking at 5.5 times the speed of sound—whipped to an altitude of 158,000 Tuesday in a test of star-tracking cameras.

After reaching his peak altitude, pilot John B. McKay of the National Aeronautics and space Administration (NASA) snapped an electronic switch that opened two doors on top of the X15 to expose four star cameras and activate the star tracking guidance system.

Pictures taken by the cameras will be used to verify the theoretically physical and chemical composition of the photographed stars, NASA said.

Jackson Ordered To Desegregate Public Schools

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—The city of Jackson, Miss., has been ordered to desegregate at least four grades in its public schools beginning this fall.

The 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals issued the order Tuesday, saying the time for "foot-dragging" by public school boards has passed.

Jackson schools desegregated the first grade last fall under court order.

Error

BOSTON (UPI)—Massachusetts officials Tuesday recalled a batch of flags made by inmates of the Framingham Women's Reformatory.

Whitney Smith Jr., director of Flag Research Center, told a legislative committee the prisoners made an error.

In place of the features of a colonial Indian, they substituted the features of their former warden at the reformatory.

Navy Plans to Blow up Tons Of Ammunition

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Navy plans to blow up 7,000 tons of obsolete ammunition about 1,000 feet down in the Atlantic Ocean on July 15 in order to measure the speed of seismic signals.

The test is planned some 75 miles off the Virginia coast. The Navy said Tuesday in announcing the test:

"The explosion will have no effect on the Virginia shore." The blast actually will have a two-fold purpose: to dispose of the outdated ammunition and measure the time it takes seismic signals to travel over large distances.

FEDERAL FUNDS
BOISE (UPI)—The Idaho Fish and Game Department said Wednesday Idaho will receive $385,000 in federal funds to repair and replace fishery facilities damaged by last winter's floods.

APPOINTED
BOISE (AP)—Mrs. Frank P. Kreizenbeck, a former Ogden newspaperwoman, has been appointed information consultant of the Idaho Department of Health, Dr. Terrell O. Carver, state health administrator, announced.

CONVENTION PLANNED
IDAHO FALLS (AP)—Arrangements for the Idaho Young Republican Convention Friday, Saturday and Sunday are nearing completion, Mrs. Joanna O'Rourke, convention publicity chairman, said.

BALANCE ASSURED
BOISE (AP)—More than $600,000 in property taxes being filed early by Idaho counties will assure the required balance in state spending July 1, State Auditor Joe Williams said.

APARTMENTS PLANNED
BOISE (AP)—Plans for an apartment project for elderly persons 13 to 15 stories high overlooking Boise's Ann Morrison Park are being made by a non-profit corporation known as Boise Odd-Fellows Housing, Inc.

CEREMONIES SCHEDULED
BOISE (AP)—Groundbreaking ceremonies are scheduled Wednesday for the Job Corps Conservation Center at Marsing, in southwestern Idaho, the Bureau of Reclamation announced.

THREAT GONE
BOISE (AP)—The threat of high water is gone from many Idaho streams, Gov. Robert E. Smylie said today, and the chief executive added: "We have been extremely fortunate."

Despite record snowpacks on virtually all watersheds there has been little serious damage. A number of streams have overflowed their banks, flooding pasture and farmland. Still posing threats of high water are the Bear River in southeastern Idaho and the Big Lost River in South Central Idaho, Smylie said. But he said he believes neither stream is likely to cause serious damage.

AGREEMENT SIGNED
BOISE (AP)—Signing by state and federal authorities of a joint management agreement covering Upper Priest Lake in Northern Idaho was announced today by Gov. Robert E. Smylie. The agreement was signed by Smylie, for the state, and by regional forester Neal M. Rahm of Missoula, Mont., for the Federal Government.

Eight Pacifists Arrested at Sea By Coast Guard

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Eight pacifists were arrested Tuesday and the Coast Guard picked up five others at sea when they tried to bring food, medicine and flowers to supply ships headed for Viet Nam. In the afternoon, the Coast Guard intercepted four men and a 16-year-old girl headed toward the supply ships in an outboard motor boat. The others were arrested when they arrived earlier at the Oakland Army base bearing banners proclaiming "End this rotten war" and "Food not bombs."

Mental Health Council to Meet

BURLEY—The Cassia County Mental Health Council will hold its June meeting at 8 p.m. Thursday in the Minidoka County Courthouse to encourage participation of Minidoka residents in the promotion of mental health in the area.

Formation of a joint county mental health organization is planned. John Martinson, acting chairman, will conduct an informative meeting on the purpose and objectives of the mental health movement in this area.

All Cassia and Minidoka county residents interested in the promotion of mental health are invited to attend.

CAMP APPROVED
WASHINGTON (AP)—Approval of $18,685 for migrant camp kindergarten classes and a day nursery in Caldwell this summer was announced by Sen. Frank Church, D., Idaho.

LOW BIDDER
BOISE (AP)—Apparent low bidder for construction and paving of 5.8 miles of state 53 from Rathdrum to a U.S. 95 junction is Inland Asphalt Co. of Spokane, the Idaho Department of Highways announced.

COMMITTEE MEETS
BOISE (UPI)—The Idaho State Manpower Advisory Committee met Wednesday for briefings on new amendments to the National Development and Training Act.

LBJ Asked to Halt Spread Of Weapons

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Robert F. Kennedy called on President Johnson today to give "central priority" to efforts to prevent the spread of nuclear weapons.

Kennedy said in a Senate speech that the United States cannot wait for peace in Southeast Asia or for the solution of any other problem to move against the proliferation of nuclear weapons by at least a dozen nations able to produce them within three years.

The New York Democrat said the 1963 limited nuclear test-ban treaty had been hailed as the first of many actions to secure peace "but we have not yet taken the second step."

"The world has not moved, beyond the limited nuclear test ban itself, to halt the proliferation of nuclear weapons," he said.

Kennedy said: "With every day that passes, the likelihood increases that another nation will develop the bomb; and every new possessor will lead others to abandon the restraint that alone keeps them from acquiring a nuclear capability now."

To meet this situation, Kennedy proposed: "That the United States initiate negotiations with the Soviet Union on a nonproliferation treaty in which all nations—friendly or otherwise—would get a two-power guarantee against nuclear blackmail."

Explore the possible creation of nuclear free zones in the world, particularly in Latin America and Africa.

Extend the test-ban agreement to include detectable underground explosions.

Freeze U.S. and Soviet nuclear stockpiles at their present level.

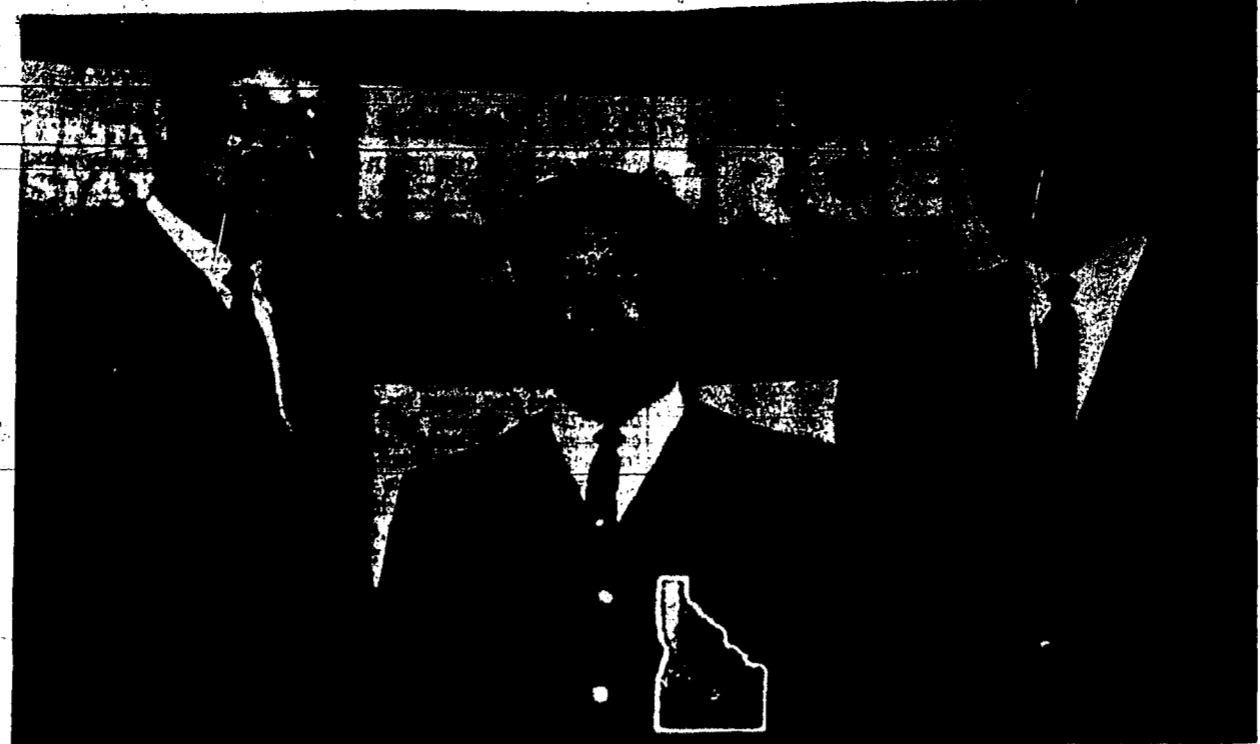

Strengthen and support the International Atomic Energy Agency.

Kennedy conceded that it won't be easy to get an effective nuclear agreement because of Red China's explosion of an atomic device.

"It is difficult to negotiate on any question with the intransigent leaders of Communist China," he said.

"But China is there. China will have nuclear weapons. And without her participation it will be infinitely more difficult, perhaps impossible in the long run, to prevent nuclear proliferation."

"But if we must ultimately have the cooperation of China and the Soviet Union and France and all other nations with any nuclear capability whatever, it does not follow that we should wait for that cooperation before beginning our efforts."

OFFICIALS WELCOMING viewers to the private showing of the $250,000 Air Force Art exhibit Monday evening at the Dworshak School, Burley, where from left, Robert Crompton, American Falls, president of the Idaho Press Association; George Forschler, Burley, president of the Idaho Air Force Association, and Lyle Young, Boise, secretary-manager of the Idaho Press Association.

The event was sponsored by the Idaho Press Association. The art exhibit will be open to the public from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. through Saturday and from 1 to 4 p.m. Sunday as part of Aerospace Days of Idaho, slated for Saturday and Sunday in Burley. Some 300 persons viewed the exhibit Monday evening. (Times-News photo)

Treasury Department Answers Some Questions on Excise Tax Cut Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Treasury Department has published a question-and-answer pamphlet on the $4.7 billion excise tax cut starting into effect today. Here are some examples:

Q. On what items will the tax be eliminated?

A. The law immediately eliminates the tax on handbags, wallets, cosmetics, luggage, jewelry, sterling silverware, furs, sporting goods (except fishing equipment), phonograph records, radios and phonographs, television sets, musical instruments, cameras, film and other photographic equipment, refrigerators, freezers, room air conditioners, household appliances, pens, lighters, matches, playing cards, camper coaches, business and store machines, safe deposit boxes, and coin-operated amusement devices.

Starting in 1966, the law eliminates the tax on general admissions and nightclubs effective Dec. 31, 1965; club dues, automobile parts and accessories (except truck parts), lubricating oil (other than for highway vehicles), telegrams, pipe tobacco, chewing tobacco and snuff.

Q. On what items is the tax reduced or eliminated in stages?

A. The 10 per cent tax on passenger cars will be reduced in stages until it reaches 1 per cent in 1969. It drops to 7 per cent immediately; 6 per cent on Jan. 1, 1966; 4 per cent on Jan. 1, 1967; 2 per cent on Jan. 1, 1968; and 1 per cent on Jan. 1, 1969—where it will remain.

The telephone tax will be reduced in stages starting Jan. 1, 1966, when it will drop from 10 to 3 per cent. It is eliminated in three more stages of 1 per cent each on Jan. 1, 1967, Jan. 1, 1968 and Jan. 1, 1969.

Q. What are some typical savings on purchases consumers can expect from the immediate elimination of the retail excise taxes?

A. $10 worth of cosmetics—$1; $10 women's handbag—$1; $40 suitcase—$4; $50 watch—$5; $250 engagement ring—$25 and $750 fur coat—$75.

Q. What are the price savings consumers can expect, typically, from the manufacturer's excise tax cuts going into effect in 1965-66?

A. $75 camera—$3.7; $75 power mower—$2.4; $175 television set—$9.17; $200 refrigerator—$6.10; $200 room air conditioner—$10.20 and $3,000 automobile—$80-110.

Q. What should consumers do about seeking refunds if they bought automobiles or room air conditioners on May 15 or since then?

A. They should contact the dealer from whom they purchased the item to find how he and his manufacturer intend to handle the refunds.

Q. How will the excise tax cut help the economy?

A. Lower prices will mean increased purchasing power, greater consumer demand, higher production and employment, and a total increase in national output gross national product which will eventually amount to several times the total amount of the tax cut.

Q. How will the excise tax cut help create jobs?

A. As prices are reduced, consumer purchasing power will increase, raising demand for consumer goods. This will stimulate production and create more jobs.

AIDE NAMED

FILER—Mrs. Warren Tegan, formerly of Filer, has been named field representative of the Illinois Heart Association, 120 North 12th St., Quincy, Ill. She will work with six county units of the association in this area.

Q. How much will the tax cut reduce the average cost of the annual family budget?

A. Assuming the tax reduction is passed along to the approximately 60 million U.S. families, families would save on the cost of their annual budget an average of about $57 in 1966.

Q. Will the tax cut help lower income families?

A. The excise tax reductions as a per cent of income will be highest for families earning under $5,000 because the cut includes reductions of many highly regressive taxes—those which fall heaviest on the poor.

Q. How will the excise tax cut help the economy?

A. Lower prices will mean increased purchasing power, greater consumer demand, higher production and employment, and a total increase in national output gross national product which will eventually amount to several times the total amount of the tax cut.

Q. How will the excise tax cut help create jobs?

A. As prices are reduced, consumer purchasing power will increase, raising demand for consumer goods. This will stimulate production and create more jobs.

Scientists Hold Four-Day Meet

TOKYO (AP)—American and Japanese scientists opened a four-day meeting today to further scientific cooperation between the United States and Japan.

It is the fifth annual session of the U.S.-Japan Committee on Scientific Cooperation, one of three high-level U.S.-Japanese consultative bodies established by President Kennedy and Prime Minister Hayato Ikeda in 1961.

Banker Held Hostage in $2,500 Theft

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Ark. (AP)—Three men held a banker and his wife hostage for several hours and robbed the Mountain View Bank of $2,500 in silver early today. The hostages were left unharmed, tied up in the bank.

About an hour later, a state trooper stopped the three men along U.S. 65 and was wounded in the arm in a gun battle with them.

The trooper recovered two bank bags filled with silver coins from the car, which the trio abandoned. The three men fled on foot.

The officer, Trooper Kenneth Hendrix, said the identities given to him by the men were: Larry Dale Peckham of Wichita, Kan.; George Alvin Burton, 22, of Powersite, Mo.; and Chester L. Durbin, address unavailable.

Officers set up roadblocks in several north Arkansas counties and began a ground and air search.

Three men appeared about 8:30 a.m. Tuesday at the home of H.S. Mabry Jr., manager of the bank. They held Mabry and his wife until past midnight then took them to the bank.

The men rifled cashier drawers and change boxes but were unable to get into the vault.

They left the Mabrys tied in the bank. Mrs. Mabry freed herself about 45 minutes later and untied her husband, who called the sheriff's office.

4-H Leaders' Council Sets Judging Date

SHOSHONE—At the 4-H Leaders' Council meeting held Monday night at the Manhattan Cafe, practice judging tours and achievement days were set. Achievement days will be held July 27 at Shoshone and July 31 at Richfield. Livestock judging tour will be held at 10 a.m. July 21, beginning at Richfield with the Richfield club hosts. There will be a meat identification contest at the fair this year. Mrs. Ben Gomm reported on a district fair meeting. The council accepted the Cowbells award as an exhibit, using beef as part of the 1965 program. Kathy Ross will be asked to conduct a forestry judging contest at the fair and practice will be held in conjunction with the July 27 achievement day at Shoshone. Financing of the proposed 4-H camp was discussed. Demonstrations were set up as home economics, agricultural and miscellaneous. Previously a number of types of demonstrations were listed which will fit under the miscellaneous.

Outlet Proposed For Delinquents

SALMON—Persons with nothing better to do than spend their time maliciously damaging public property may find a new outlet for their misguided energies.

Glenn Munkres, Lemhi County deputy sheriff, suggests that if vandals have nothing better to do than damage a road grader, such as happened over the weekend at Cougar Point, he will furnish them some glass at which just to throw rocks. "We will furnish the glass and hang it from a tree if they need to smash something," Munkres said.

A rock was thrown through a large window on a new county road grader and two .22 caliber bullets punctured the muffler atop the motor.

Bookmobile Program Is Progressing

The Twin Falls Public Library is currently setting up a bookmobile program with $10,000 made available about 90 days ago through the Library Services and Construction Act. The money is being used primarily to purchase books, mostly for children. About $3,000 is to be spent on books, with $2,000 being spent for supplies and labor connected with the bookmobile program. The vehicle for the bookmobile probably will be furnished by the state, and the bookmobile program should be in operation for this library district by July or August. H. Ted Roth, chairman of the Twin Falls Library Board, said the board is currently applying for remodeling funds, which come under the same act.

Attend Meet

FAIRFIELD — Marianna Kevan, Jan Cook, Ann Wilson and Duane Harrison are attending 4-H Congress at Moscow this week. They were accompanied by Mrs. James Kevan and County Agent Ray Alzola. "Passport to the Future" is the theme for the week-long program of classes and workshops. Various organizations contributed toward the expense of the trip for the local delegation.

Science Probes Anti-Bug Pill

NEW YORK (AP) — Some fungus diseases, like athlete's foot, by acting through the skin, Some people naturally are more bug-proof than others — mosquitoes usually avoid them and scientists have some clues as to why this is so. The anti-bug pill hasn't arrived yet. But scientists are actively trying to find one, with some hopes of success. The pill would do something to your skin so a mosquito, tick, chigger or other pest would scam away. You would remain as socially acceptable as ever to other people, to dogs and cats and canaries. This quest for an anti-bug drug, and better usual ways of repelling insects, were described today to the American Medical Association by a group of physicians and scientists. They are mainly interested in preventing bugs from passing diseases on to humans — such as U.S. soldiers serving in tropical lands — but any progress would quickly benefit picnickers, bathers, gardeners and summertime porch sitters. Now "we can envision a pill" that would repel mosquitoes and other insects, said Dr. Jacques L. Sherman of New York, describing research begun in 1962 under the U.S. Army's Research and Development Command. Among major reasons for hope, he and others said, are: A pill is known that clears up

Malpractice Surgery Suit Is Dismissed

BOISE (AP) — A malpractice suit in which a nurse said she learned a year after cancer surgery that the cancer had not been malignant was set aside for dismissal Tuesday in U. S. District Court.

U. S. District Court Judge Ray McNichols ruled the two-year statute of limitations had run out when the suit was filed by Mrs. Anita T. Owens.

Defendants were Dr. Raymond White, John C. McCarter and St. Luke's Hospital in Boise.

Mrs. Owens said Dr. White told her the cancer was malignant and performed surgery in August 1961. She said she learned a year later the cancerous tissue had been benign.

Mrs. Owens' attorneys argued she filed suit within two years of learning the cancer had not been malignant. They argued the statute of limitations should begin, on discovery, not when surgery was performed.

Judge McNichols ruled against that argument Tuesday and said he will dismiss the case in 30 days if no further action is taken.

Counterfeit Mob Revealed In Atlanta

ATLANTA (UPI) — Part of what appeared to be a nationwide counterfeit operation was uncovered in Atlanta Tuesday.

The FBI arrested a man who identified himself as Eric Paul Green after he attempted to cash a counterfeit traveler's check similar to those cashed earlier in the day at four other Atlanta banks.

Following a communication with San Francisco, the FBI here learned that similar checks were cashed Monday and Tuesday in Los Angeles, Philadelphia, Boston, New York and Chicago. Attempts were also made in Baltimore.

About $25,000 worth of these travelers checks had turned up around the country, according to the FBI.

"It looks like a nationwide operation," said Joseph R. Ponder, an FBI spokesman.

Green, who said he was Canadian, attempted to cash three counterfeit $100 Bank of America travelers checks at the 10th Street Branch of the Citizens and Southern Bank here.

He was arraigned before U.S. Commissioner Robert Feagins and charged with interstate transportation of counterfeit securities.

Charge Reduced In Murder Case

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Charges have been reduced against one of three men accused of murdering a Salt Lake City man last month.

Joseph T. Hildebrand was charged with being an accessory to the alleged murder. The charges of first degree murder against him were dropped.

A preliminary hearing for Hildebrand was set for August 4. The other two men are still accused of first degree murder.

Douglas Holland, 31, was shot in front of his home on the night of May 10 by men who drove away in their car.

CRITIC DIES
MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Joseph Auslander, 67, poet and critic, died Tuesday of a heart attack. Auslander's anthology, "Winged Horse," is required reading in most poetry classes. He was the husband of Audrey Wurdemann, Pulitzer Prize-winning poet, who died five years ago.

Reward Offered For Information

BOUNTIFUL, Utah (AP)—A $1,000 reward has been offered for information leading to a conviction in the June 6 dynamiting of a car owned by Strikebound W.S. Hatch Co. of Woods Cross.

The reward was announced by Bountiful Police Chief Dean Anderson and Lawrence Mills, Hatch Co. general manager.

A trucking company sedan was dynamited in the driveway of the firm's Operations Manager Harry M. Williams of Bountiful. The car was destroyed and Williams' house was damaged. But no one was injured.

Body of Utah Boatman Is Recovered

VERNAL, Utah (AP) — The body of Vernal River Boatman Les Oldham, 22, has been recovered from the Green River. Oldham drowned June 11 when he fell from a boat carrying river runners.

His body was found by Dinosaur National Monument Rangers at Split Mountain Gorge more than 10 miles from where he fell into the Yampa River above its confluence with the Green River.

The area is near the Colorado Utah border.

Jim Jones, acting superintendent of Dinosaur National Monument, said Oldham fell overboard when his car broke in a series of rapids caused by a mud and rock slide near Warm Springs.

The Green River has been closed to all private boats except those of the Hatch and Western River Expedition companies because of rock slides and high water.

Oldham's body was recovered by District Ranger James Todd of Echo Park and Rangers Darryl Steele and Bob Dye, both of Vernal.

Cigarette Label Law Passed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Both House and Senate have now passed bills requiring this warning to be printed on each package of cigarettes: "Caution: Cigarette smoking may be hazardous to your health."

While they agree on the cigarette pack warnings, the two bodies of Congress disagree on what to do about cigarette advertising.

The House bill forbids the Federal Trade Commission to regulate cigarette ads. The Senate bill places a three-year ban on FTC regulation. The FTC had proposed to require health warnings in cigarette ads, and this action brought the matter to a head in Congress.

Tobacco state congressmen took the lead in urging passage of the House bill Tuesday. The bill was called up unexpectedly and only a few members were on the floor. It passed on a voice vote.

The bill now goes to a Senate House conference. The main difference to be straightened out is whether the ban on FTC ad regulation should be for three years or forever.

During the brief House debate, the tobacco congressmen challenged medical findings linking cigarette smoking with cancer. They said no causal connection has been found.

A federal panel reported in January 1964 that cigarette smoking is a health hazard and a major cause of lung cancer and other diseases. Surgeon General Luther L. Terry later said the Public Health Service endorsed the panel's findings.

Parents Only Partly to Blame for Child's Action

ST. ANTHONY, Idaho (AP)—The full blame is often laid to parents when their children become car thieves, burglars or incorrigibles.

But Winston G. Taylor, superintendent of the State Youth Training Center here, believes parents often are only partly to blame.

"Whether we like it or not," said Taylor, "one factor is our stratified class system."

"The old American dream of rags to riches is strictly a dream to some of these youngsters. They often see only the goal and get there by the wrong means."

That doesn't let parents off the hook. They still must take some of the blame, said Taylor, and so must a variety of factors including the delinquent's friends, neighborhood and particular circumstances.

The training center's philosophy, said Taylor, is that something turned the youngster to delinquency. The staff tries to determine what it was and set him right.

It also forces him to face the fact that poor behavior is not going to be tolerated here—and good behavior will be rewarded both here and at home.

Under this system, said Taylor, nearly four out of five of the center's graduates have gone on to jobs, military service and, in many cases, college.

The other 22 per cent get into more trouble and are sent back to the training center.

"When the average student arrives, he is bitter, defiant and can't get along with anyone. We have a closely regimented, well-disciplined program for him to progress through and achieve on his own," Taylor said.

The new enrollee's resentment is often great but after about two months the staff begins to see a change.

"They seem to reach a crisis in their lives," Taylor said, "a point where they change their ideas about their lives."

Often the resentment is so great, the delinquent manages to run away—and then returns.

"This is when we see the change," said Taylor. "He's realized this is something he just can't get away from."

The student who makes the adjustment can work his way into an honor unit in four months where, he has greater freedom and knows he's recognized as being responsible.

When he gets that far, the school is not a bad place to be. There are intramural sports and dancing. There is also a summer camp at Horseshoe Lake about 40 miles away with activities including boating, fishing, swimming—and conservation work.

The school's academic program is progressively tailored to individual students' abilities. They can pack a year's work in a subject into a few months by attending more hours of class each day.

A large number do.

Most are of average or better intelligence, Taylor said. Many take advantage of the stepped-up program, if only as a new tack toward the riches they were seeking the wrong way before.

The center's students are run the gamut from ex-car thieves to truants, the superintendent said.

Rarely have any been involved in a crime as serious as murder. Idaho's culture does not produce many serious criminals among its youngsters, Taylor said.

There are no figures on how many of the students are particularly successful—obtain good jobs, for example, or go on to college.

"We try to readjust students' personalities," said Taylor, "so they will be contributing members of society rather than consuming ones."

Study Under Way to Obtain Fresh Water From Sea

WASHINGTON (AP) — How far are we from being able to get fresh water out of the salt sea at a reasonable cost? The questions has peculiar interest to the Northeast section of the country, which has been seared by a long drought. So serious is the resulting water shortage that waiters in New York restaurants have been ordered not to give a customer a glass of water unless he asks for it.

It also is a question of burning interest in many parts of the world, such as arid Israel, where water means life itself. Israel has taken a leading role in research to find better ways of desalting salt water.

When the U.S. Office of Saline Water was set up 13 years ago, it began experimentally desalting water at a cost of $4 to $5 per thousand gallons. Now it has gotten the cost down to $1 to $1.25 per thousand gallons — an improvement, but still too high.

The Saline Water Office says the average U.S. consumer is now paying 35 cents per thousand gallons of fresh water.

President Johnson has ordered full speed ahead on a proposed $275-million desalting program. That is why he has called an international meeting on desalting to convene here in October. Already 55 nations have signed up to attend.

One big problem is the implacably corrosive effect of salt water, its tendency to clog the pipes with sediment.

A highly refined distillation process, probably powered by atomic reactors which also would produce electricity, seems promising.

Other methods include electro-dialysis, in which positive and negative electrodes draw sodium and chloride out of the water. Another method is freezing, in which salt crystals are trapped between crystals of pure water. The problem is to separate the salt and ice crystals economically.

Besides several laboratories, station, KUID - TV, Channel 12, Wednesday afternoon.

The office of Saline Water operates three demonstration plants which supply desalinated water to consumers. These are: At Webster, S.D. — A 250,000-gallon-a-day electro-dialysis plant.

At Freeport, Tex. — A one-million-gallon-a-day "long-tube vertical" distillation plant.

Roswell, N.M. — A one-million-gallon-a-day "vapor compression" distillation plant.

The Office of Saline Water used to have a plant at San Diego, Calif., but it was rushed to Guantanamo, Cuba, when Fidel Castro tried to get tough about the water supply for the U.S. naval base.

Talk on Ironing Given at Milner

MILNER — Mary Seymour spoke on how to iron at a meeting of the Milnerettes 4-H Club Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Edwin Brune, leader, gave the members various sewing tips. She demonstrated gathering material without using thread, stay stitching, and showed how to clean finished seams.

Report

GLASGOW, Scotland (AP) — James Gallacher, 38, says he would rather have had a prison sentence than suffer through his ordeal.

Repeatedly arrested for drunkenness, Gallacher was ordered to report to the police station after the bars close each night to prove his sobriety. He's been doing that for five months.

MISS BUHL OF 1965 is 18-year-old Janis Rowen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Rowen, Buhl. She was crowned during the 10th annual Miss Buhl Pageant Saturday night. The pageant winner took the honor over nine other contestants. She received a $300 scholarship from the local Lions Club, the sponsoring organization, and will represent Buhl in the Miss Idaho Pageant in 1966.

Rites Honor Jerome Girl

JEROME — Funeral services were conducted for Debra Kay Hepworth at 1 p.m. Tuesday at the Jerome LDS Second Ward Chapel by Bishop Herrick M. Drake.

Willis Thompson gave the family prayer at the Home Chapel. Mrs. Ann Call sang a solo. Mrs. Iona Tranner and Mrs. Twila Bingham sang a duet. A girls sextet, consisting of Nancy Reid, Robin Andrus, Sue Woolley, Cheryl Thompson, Sharyn Newman and Jackie Jones, presented a musical selection.

Mrs. Thorah Gough was the organist. Music was under the direction of Mrs. Marjorie Jones. Invocation was by Maurice Reid and the Benediction by DeVerl Call. Bishop Drake was the speaker.

Flowers were carried by the First Year Bechive girls under direction of Mrs. Willis Thompson.

Pallbearers were Richard Humphries, Lloyd Martin, Pat Williams, Kenneth Davis, Tommy Davis and Larry Jensen.

The grave was dedicated by Raymond L. Jones at the Jerome cemetery.

Priest Wishes To Marry Former Beauty Queen

COLOMBO, Ceylon (AP) — A Roman Catholic priest says he is abandoning the priesthood to marry a former beauty queen.

Father Noel Cruz, 41, said he had found his vow of celibacy "martyrdom."

He said he would apply to Pope Paul VI for release from his priestly obligations so he can marry Manel de Silva, 28. She was Miss Ceylon in 1963.

"No comment," said Miss De Silva, a teacher in a local convent school.

GINGER SALVO, BONNIE SMITH, VICKIE WEBB are the 13 contestants vying for queen of the Magic Valley Western Horse Show to be held Friday through Sunday at the Twin Falls County Fairgrounds, Filer. The horse show will include cow cutting and performance classes. The girl selected as queen will receive prizes valued at about $1,000.

Magic Valley Western Horse Show Set at T.F. Fairgrounds

One of 13 Idaho Horsewomen will be chosen queen of the Magic Valley Western Horse Show being held at the Twin Falls County Fairgrounds, Filer Friday through Sunday.

The contestants will vie for the opportunity to compete for the title of Miss Rodeo Idaho, hoping to follow in the footsteps of Bonnie Branch, Twin Falls, last year's show queen who went on to win the Miss Rodeo Idaho title.

The winner will also receive prizes valued at about $1,000, including a silver-mounted trophy saddle worth about $400, donated by Diamond Jim's, Jackpot, Nev. The saddle and other prizes are on display in the window of the Idaho Department Store.

The contestants are Ginger Salvo, Mountain Home; Bonnie Smith, Boise; Vickie Webb and Peggy Scott, both Hazelton; Karla Schutte, Filer; Donna Will, Eden; Linda Ek, Jeannie Light and Pat Light, all Twin Falls; Maxie Branch, Wendell; Gayl Anderson, Gooding; Sandra McClain, Eden, and Alice Williams, Caldwell.

The girls are judged on personality, appearance and horsemanship by a panel of three judges. They are Sharon Taylor, Kimberly; Dean Hopkins, Buhl, and Jim Prunty, Jerome.

The contestants were judged on personality and appearance Wednesday night during a party held at the Depot Grill Caboose Room. Judging on horsemanship will take place during the show. Half of the girls will ride Friday night and half of them Saturday night. Six finalists will be chosen to ride Sunday afternoon and from this group the queen and her two attendants will be chosen.

The show starts at 9 a.m. Friday with the judging of Appaloosa, graded horse and paint horse halter classes. Hugh Peltz, Livingston, Mont., is main show judge, with paint and graded halter classes being judged by Ray McFarland, Murtaugh.

At 6 p.m. Friday the novice and open cow cutting events will be held.

The first showing of performance classes will be at 7:45 p.m. Friday with the performance of two drill teams, the Liberty Belles of Gooding and the Valley Riding club of Eden.

At 8 p.m. Friday the regular show will open with the western horsemanship class for children 10 and under. Following will be western pleasure for men 19 years and older, trail classes for men and women 18 and under, cloverleaf barrel racing for men and women 18 years and under, girls calf-tying, straight barrel racing, musical chairs for men and women 14 and under, open reining and the first go-around of the calf roping.

Following the girls calf tying the first half of the queen contestants will ride.

Saturday morning's halter class judging will be of all quarter horses in the show.

Saturday night's show will open at 7:45 with drill team performances by the Filer Wranglers and the Ada County Junior Posse.

Performance classes held Saturday night will include the cloverleaf barrel race, pony class for ponies 50 inches and under ridden by children 8 years and under, pony class 50 inches and under for children 9 years and over, second go-around of girls calf tying, western horsemanship for riders 15-16 years, fancy costume class, musical chairs for riders 13 years and under, western horsemanship for men and women 17-18 years, second go-around of the open calf roping, trail class 19 years and over, and straight barrel race, 18 years and under.

Following the girls calf tying the second group of queen contestants will ride.

Sunday afternoon's events will start at 2 p.m. with a drill team performance by the Twin Falls Junior Riding Club, co-sponsor of the show. Performance events will include women's western pleasure classes, matched pairs, western horsemanship for children 11-12 years, pole bending, western horsemanship for children 13-14 years, second go-around for cloverleaf barrel race, and the novelty costume class.

The final event of the show will be the crowning of the queen and her attendants from the six final candidates.

The show is sponsored by the Twin Falls Junior Riding Club and the Magic Valley Riders, which is a group composed of parents of Junior Riding Club members.

Earthquakes At Park Are Recorded

WASHINGTON (AP) — More than 500 small earthquakes, too slight to be felt by humans, have been recorded recently in a two-month span at Yellowstone National Park, the Interior Department said Tuesday.

They were recorded by a new highly sensitive seismic network established jointly by the geological survey and the National Park Service. The network is designed to help understand better the forces that shape the earth's crust in the Yellowstone region.

The department said 80 of the small quakes occurred in a single day near the famous Old Faithful geyser.

The recording stations are in operation at Mammoth, Northeast entrance, Canyon Junction, Madison Junction and Hebgen Lake in the Yellowstone Park area.

Legislation to Require Federal Inspections Eyed

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., today proposed legislation to require federal inspection and licensing of medical laboratories which diagnose specimens sent in by mail.

His action followed a report by the Columbia Broadcasting System (CBS) that thousands of doctors had used the services of laboratories which failed to identify a bacterium that could cause a typhoid fever epidemic.

Father and Son Outing Ends in Freak Tragedy

LAPORTE, Ind. (UPI) — It was the first day of summer. The sun was shining and the temperature hovered around 80 degrees. It was a perfect day to get some work done on a summer cottage and prepare for the lazy days ahead. That may have been what Joseph Flitter had in mind when he called his home from the family's small cottage Monday and asked his son, Ronald, 17, to meet him at the building. "The cottage is located along a county road which is barely 15 feet wide from bank to bank," said Laporte County Deputy Sheriff Harold Rainier. "And there're trees growing along both sides of the road. It's a real nice place to be on a summer day." That may have been what Ronald was thinking as he jumped into the family stationwagon and headed for the cottage and the meeting with his father. But that meeting never took place at the cottage. For some undetermined reason, Joseph Flitter decided not to wait at the building for the youth and headed back down the county road toward town in a flatted truck. The father and son met about 1,500 feet down that county road from the Flitter cottage when the stationwagon and truck collided head-on. "It happened at a real bad place," Rainier said. "There's a little knoll in the road there and the boy just couldn't see over it and I doubt if his father could, either." Police said the youth's car skidded 43 feet before it rammed into the truck. Ronald jumped from the stationwagon as it burst into flames and ran to the truck. He was too late. His 42-year-old father already was dead in the front seat of a crushed chest and internal injuries. Ronald apparently did not realize this, however, as he pulled his father from the wreckage and dragged him about 50 feet from the truck. He then ran half a mile to the nearest farm house for help. Police and an ambulance were called as the youth ran back to the scene to lend whatever assistance he could to his father.

Q. A recent issue of a market letter sent out by one of the better-known brokerage houses made a pronouncement on a stock in which I am interested.

From that Wall Street dialect that confuses you (and most other people) "technical upside objective" can be translated to a higher price.

And "support level" can be changed to read a lower price, through which a stock is not expected to fall—again, based on technical calculations.

Those technical calculations can get mighty involved. Generally they are based on charts, graphs, diagrams, etc., from which the self-styled "technicians" and "chartists" claim to read signals.

This may strike you (and most sensible people) as so much foolishness. Get the technicians and chartists put quite serious. They throw rocks in this direction every time it is suggested that they are wasting their time.

Q. A company in which I own some common stock recently split the stock two for one.

NEW YORK (UPI)—Kenneth Ward of Hayden, Stone Inc., says there continues to be no conclusive technical evidence of a change in the market's basic longer term characteristics.

Edward A. Viner and Co., says it continues to believe, the usual summer rally will again be seen this year and that prices in the months ahead will be higher than at present.

On common stock par means a dollar amount assigned to each share by the company's charter. Par value can also be used to calculate a dollar amount of the common stock on a corporate balance sheet.

As you should see, par value of common stock is basically a bookkeeping device.

Some people refuse to believe this. I always tell them to compare the par value of any common stock they own with the market value.

Q. May I have your opinion on the number of new books that are being printed about Wall Street and investments—many of which are quite critical?

A. I suppose it's only natural for books of that type to be printed. Stock prices have generally gone up for years.

COWBOYS SET NIGHT PRACTICE SESSION

Team Gets Into Shape for Home Opener Saturday

With 25 players in camp, the Magic Valley Cowboys move into the final phase of their "spring training" with a pair of night workouts in preparation for Saturday's Pioneer League opener against the Pocatello Dodgers. Manager Dick Wilson said the club will workout at 7:30 p.m. Thursday and Friday nights to get used to the lighting at Jaycee park. The public is invited.

Wildlife Men Conclude Basic School

JEROME — A two-week basic school covering everything from handling public complaints to game management, held for 24 members of the Idaho Fish and Game Department, concluded Wednesday. The classroom sessions included instruction on administrative procedures and law enforcement plus game management. Along the way, three days of instruction were provided by FBI fieldmen. Twin Falls prosecuting Attorney James May also spoke. Field projects also were held covering everything from techniques of handling beaver complaints—trapping and moving—to various methods of running field checks and operating checking stations. Some of the check stations were set up at Magic Reservoir and caused considerable consternation among anglers facing what appeared to be 24 game wardens. The class was made up of department personnel from throughout the state with seven new employees.

Red Sox Gain Split With Baltimore

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Boston Red Sox pounded out 11 hits, including a homer by Bob Tilton and two doubles, and whipped the Baltimore Orioles 4-2 in the second game of a split in Tuesday's twin-night doubleheader. Baltimore, winning for the 10th time in 12 games, took the opener 4-1, scoring three times in the sixth inning. Rookie John Miller, with three innings of relief help from Dick Hall, was the winner in his first start since being recalled from Indianapolis.

Felix Mantilla, the American League's runs-batted-in leader, upped his total to 52 with run-scoring singles in the second game off loser Robin Roberts. In the opener, Baltimore bunched four of its seven singles in the sixth inning and broke a 1-1 tie. Jerry Adair drove in the first run with a single off loser Dave Morehead and Snyder's bases-loaded hit off reliever Arnold Earley scored two more.

Neely-Oiler Pact Ruled Invalid

OKLAHOMA CITY (UPI) — U.S. Dist. Judge Stephen S. Chandler Tuesday ruled invalid a professional football contract signed by former Oklahoma tackle Ralph Neely before the Sooners' Gator Bowl game last January. The contract was with the Houston Oilers of the American Football League. Chandler also denied an application by the Oilers for an injunction to prevent Neely from playing with the Dallas Cowboys of the National Football League. This clears the way for Neely to join the Cowboys immediately.

The Oilers announced they would file a motion for a new trial, and Chandler requested both sides to prepare briefs on the facts and finding of law. Neely, an All-America at Oklahoma last fall, signed an undated contract with Houston Dec. 1. The contract later was made public and Neely was kicked off the Oklahoma squad prior to the Sooners' Jan. 2 Gator Bowl game with Florida State.

Hunter Sends T.F. Legion Over Eden

Larry Hunter's RBI single in the fifth inning broke a 3-3 deadlock Tuesday night and sent the Twin Falls Legion team past Eden 5-3 in a well played game. Right-hander Kirk Williams took the victory although he was belted hard in the fourth inning by Eden while lefty Rick Kelly was charged with the loss. Twin Falls' next game will be at 6 p.m. Friday at Harmon Park against Kimberly. Twin Falls then will host Mountain Home at 1:30 p.m. Saturday and Boise at 1:30 p.m. Sunday. Twin Falls jumped in front of Eden in the second inning when Roby Oliphant and Paul Stover walked. After they moved up on steals, Williams singled both runners home. The home team increased the margin in the third as Mark Brown led off with a double and eventually scored on Mike Touchette's sacrifice fly.

It was Eden's turn in the fourth and the visitors rocked Williams hard. Art Watkins, Terry English and Huettig loaded the bases on lined singles and Lupe Torres plated the first run with a drive up the middle. Cal Olson's double brought in two more and tied the score. The deciding run came home in the fifth when Tom Lynch walked and promptly stole second and third. Lynch, who left Wednesday morning for the Coast Guard Academy, strolled home on Hunter's wrong-field safety.

Brown Enters Innocent Plea To Charges

CLEVELAND (UPI)—A solemn Jim Brown, star fullback of the world champion Cleveland Browns football team, pleaded innocent Tuesday to charges of beating an 18-year-old girl in a motel room. The charge was leveled against the National Football League star by Brenda Ayres, an attractive Negro who claimed the 230-pound fullback slapped her and squeezed her arms and legs until they hurt in the motel room Sunday morning. Brown was released on his own recognizance to appear for a jury trial, which he requested, on Sept. 20. The husky Negro athlete refused to talk to newsmen when he arrived to make a plea before a crowded courtroom at central police station. He broke his deadpan look only when a team official greeted him in the glare of television camera lights outside the second-floor courtroom. Brown is married and the father of three children. His wife, Sue, filed a divorce action against him in 1962 but dropped it after the couple made up.

Dodgers Send Ferrara to PCL

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Outfielder Al Ferrara, arrested two days ago on a drunk driving charge, is being farmed to Spokane of the Pacific Coast League, the Los Angeles Dodgers announced Tuesday. In announcing that Ferrara was going to Spokane, a spokesman for the National League-leading Dodgers refused to say whether action was a result of the player's arrest.

Jerry Lumpe lined a single to right-center leading off the seventh for the first hit against the 30-year-old left-hander. Don Demeter singled in the eighth and Brunet yielded his third and fourth walks, filling the bases, but escaped damage. Vic Power's first home run of the year, in the second inning, was enough to beat Mickey Lolich. Power drove in another run when the Angels scored twice on four singles in the sixth. Redskins Top Twins in Bidding

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Washington Redskins won a bidding contest with the Minnesota Twins today when Fred Mazurek of the University of Pittsburgh decided to play professional football instead of baseball. Mazurek, 5-foot-11, 192-pound quarterback, was signed by the National Football League team as a free agent for an unannounced bonus. The Redskins would say only that he signed for "considerably more than is normally given a free agent."

Yankees As Trade Victories

NEW YORK (AP) — Bobby Richardson's run-scoring single capped a two-run seventh inning rally and Tom Tresh homered in the eighth, carrying the New York Yankees to a 4-2 victory over Kansas City and a split of their doubleheader Tuesday night. The Athletics won the opener 6-2, with Wayne Causey and Ken Harrelson pacing a 12th-inning attack against four Yankee pitchers. New York erased a 2-1 Kansas City lead in the nightcap after right-hander Fred Talbot had allowed only four hits through the first six innings. Hector Lopez led off the seventh with a walk and Wes Stock replaced Talbot. Stock hit Ray Blevins with a pitch before Phil Linz sacrificed the runners to second and third. Cleve Boyer was intentionally passed, loading the bases, and John Wyatt came on for Stock. Horace Clarke then tied the score with a sacrifice fly and Richardson's single put the Yankees in front to stay. In the opener, Causey rapped three hits; Harrelson drove a two runs with a pair of singles and rookie catcher Rene Lachemann homered. Chinook Salmon Fishing To Be Closed in State For Remainder of Year

BOISE (UPI) — Idaho Fish and Game Department Director John R. Woodworth announced Tuesday no chinook salmon fishing will be allowed in the state this year. Woodworth said the step was taken because the spawning escapement of spring-run chinook salmon into Idaho will not adequately meet the needs for seeding of the spawning grounds. The director said all streams in the Salmon River drainage containing spring chinook will be closed to salmon fishing Friday. Affected by the emergency closures will be the north fork of the Salmon River, Lemhi River and its tributaries, east fork of the Salmon, Valley Creek, middle fork of the Salmon, and its tributaries, and Salmon River from the mouth of the Lemhi River upstream.

Philadelphia May Get New Grid Team

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Lamar Hunt, chairman of the American Football League's expansion committee, said Tuesday that the league would award a franchise to Philadelphia if assured the team could play in the $25 million new sports stadium. The National Football League Philadelphia Eagles, originally promised exclusive pro grid rights for the proposed stadium filed a suit against the city several weeks ago, claiming Mayor James H. Tate had reneged on the promise.

Gonzales and Allen Pace Phil Victory

HOUSTON (AP)—Rchie Allen punched out a two-run single and Tony Gonzalez legged out an inside-the-park homer as the Philadelphia Phillies struck for five runs in the seventh inning and defeated Houston 7-2 Tuesday night.

Allen's bases-loaded blow brought the tying and lead runs as the Phillies moved ahead 3-2. Dick Stuart followed with a sacrifice fly to score another run before Gonzalez smashed a drive to the centerfield wall, scoring Allen ahead of him.

The Phillies got off to a 1-0 lead in the fifth when John Briggs walked, moved to second on Cookie Rojas' single and scored on a base hit by John Callison.

Gonzalez, Rajos and Johnny Callison each collected three hits in the Phillies' 12-hit attack. Houston took a 2-lead in the sixth on a walk to Bruce, Joe Morgan's single, an infield out and Wynn's double.

Dodgers Use Sacrifice Fly To Nip Mets

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Pinch hitter Lou Johnson, batting for the first time since he fractured his right thumb 10 days ago, drove in the tie-breaking run with a sacrifice fly in the seventh inning Tuesday night and the Los Angeles Dodgers went on to defeat the New York Mets 4-2.

Johnson broke a 2-2 tie after the Dodgers had loaded the bases against loser Tom Parsons on singles by John Roseboro, Jim Lefebvre and Willie Crawford. John Keady forced Roseboro at the plate before Johnson hit his decisive fly to right field.

The victory went to Howie Reed, who pitched 5 2-3 innings of one-hit relief.

Baltimore Man Seeks AFL Team

BALTIMORE (AP) — R. Bruce Livie, chairman of the Maryland Racing Commission and one of the organizers of the National Football League's Baltimore Colts, said Tuesday he would seek an American Football League franchise for Baltimore.

"I have contacted Sonny Werblin, a member of the AFL expansion committee, and told him I was interested in bringing a team to Baltimore," Livie said.

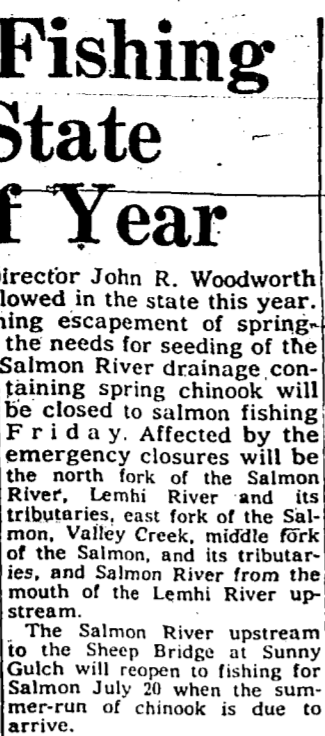

"The Colts sell out for every game and I think the town could support another team," Livie said. "I think the city fathers would lease the stadium because they are interested in getting rental money."

Livie said he thought Baltimore had a better chance of supporting a second team than Philadelphia, which has been mentioned as one of two possible AFL expansion sites.

Officials of both the Colts and the city said Tuesday, however, that no professional football team other than the Colts can use Memorial Stadium during the city's contract with the Colts, which runs through the end of 1972.

Ralston Defeats Richardson to Highlight Wimbledon Action

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — Dennis Ralston pulled the bandage off his sore thumb in the second set Tuesday, then went on to fashion a straight set victory over his doubles partner, Ham Richardson, in the first round of the Wimbledon Tennis Championships. The score of the exciting, though erratically played match, stretched out over two days, was 15-13, 9-7, 6-2. It started Monday but was interrupted by rain.

Ralston, who had his thumb encased in an elastic bandage clear up to his wrist. After removing it, he made some of his best shots. He said later the bandage interfered with his grip.

The second day at Wimbledon usually is ladies day, but after defending champion Maria Bueno and Britain's Christine Truman had scored straight set victories on the grandstand courts, the men took over for unfinished business.

Kart Drivers Set Sights At Rupert

RUPERT—A brand new go-kart engine and 15 trophies will be the target Sunday when the smallest club in the Intermountain Karting Association puts on one of the "biggest and best" races in Utah, Nevada, Idaho or Montana.

About 50 entrants from 10 clubs throughout the four-state area will be on hand for the annual Rupert Street Race which will consist of two races, a half-mile and 50 laps apiece. The race is sanctioned by the International Kart Federation and sponsored by the Mini-Cassia Karting Association. Practice will begin at 1 p.m. and run until race time at 2 p.m.

Another target for the 50 karting enthusiasts, particularly the Kart Club, will be the Rupert Street Race's traveling trophy, which the Ogden group has won the previous two years and needs only one more for retirement. The trophy is decided on the total number of club points for all six classes.

Harper Leads Reds' Sweep Of Twin Bill

CINCINNATI (AP) — Tommy Harper slugged a homer in the third inning, then doubled home the tie-breaking run in the fifth as the Cincinnati Reds defeated St. Louis 4-2 and completed a sweep of a two-night double-header Tuesday.

The Reds won the opener 5-4 when Charley James singled home the winning run with the bases loaded in the ninth inning. The double victory, coupled with Milwaukee's loss to the Chicago Cubs, lifted the Reds into second place in the National League.

Don Pavletich led off the nightcap fifth with a double and scored on Leo Cardenas' single. Harper then doubled, scoring Cardenas. Rose singled home Harper.

After Cincinnati had built a 4-1 lead in the opener, St. Louis tied it 4-4 in the seventh on a homer by Tim McCarver and successive doubles by Mike Shannon, pinch hitter Bob Skinner and Phil Gagliano.

Johnson set the stage for the winning run by tripling leading off the ninth. After John Edwards and Cardenas walked, James connected for the winning single.

Cubs Use Big Innings to Down Braves

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The Chicago Cubs put together a pair of three-run innings, one on Doug Clemens' homer, and defeated the Milwaukee Braves 6-1 behind the combined pitching of Cal Koonce and Lindy McDaniel Tuesday night.

The defeat was the Braves' third in the last four games and knocked them out of second place in the National League for the first time since June 2. They dropped behind Cincinnati.

Koonce ignited the decisive third inning by doubling and taking third on Glenn Beckert's single. Clemens fouled off a half dozen pitches and then lined his third homer down the right field line.

Famed Dancers, Feats of Skill to Be Featured at Ketchum Basque Festival

By DOROTHY POVEY Times-News Reporter

KETCHUM—"Su Te Sure Lagunek Inbitaite Etorrirhecho Ona Bromara" is not a misprint, but an invitation to attend the third annual Basque Festival this Saturday and Sunday at Ketchum. If you are strong, if you are fleet-footed or a good jumper, you will want to enter the sports events at the Civic Center which starts at 11 a.m. If you are none of these you can "root" for your favorite contender in the weight carrying, foot racing, wood chopping, water carrying, arm wrestling, jumping and tug-of-war battles to be staged.

At the same time these feats of skill are being demonstrated, children's events will be taking place. In the intervals between events, Basque dancers and musicians will entertain and chorizos (native Basque food specialty) will be sold for those who are hungry.

Saturday afternoon the first "Shoot-Out" of the season will be staged on the village's Main Street, with Les Jankov directing, assisted by Mrs. Thomas McGehee.

Character parts will be taken by Dale Dryer as Black Jack Ketchum; Mrs. McGehee, his wife; Robert Black, Indian Joe; Patrick Pidgeon, the sheriff; David McGehee and Sarah Donart, Black Jack and Molly's "kids."

Marty Worden will play the part of "Whiskey Bill" and Leon Hoffman the mining camp's doctor. Ray Wheeler will be the undertaker.

Although the 43 youths of the Oinkari Dance group will not arrive in their colorful costumes until Saturday afternoon, a stranger in Ketchum might think he is already in that colorful land of the Pyrennes because so many already are wearing Basque berets. And if the visitor carries along he or she will probably be wearing one.

The Oinkari group will present their native dances, which have brought them fame at the Seattle Fair and New York City, at 7 p.m. Saturday in the grade school auditorium. Afterward the general public may dance to the Basque music at the IOOF hall.

Morning Mass will be conducted at 7 a.m. Sunday at Our Lady of the Snows church in Ketchum and at 11:15 a.m. at Sun Valley Opera House.

Many have wondered just who these Basques are who have contributed so much to the building of the American West. They have been called "the Mystery People of Europe."

Historians have found their beginnings in the Pyrennes mountains between France and Spain so shrouded in antiquity that they believe the Basques were there from the beginning of time.

The Basque language is different from any other language on earth and gives no key with which to unlock its origin.

They were in the beginning a fierce race of warriors, and after the fall of the Roman Empire, they remained unconquered among the restless tribes that roamed the country.

Because a king of Spain, grateful for their help in a war, conferred nobility on them and all their descendants, they have been referred to as the "noblemen of Europe."

The largest colony of Basques in the United States is found in Nevada, Utah and Idaho, with more arriving each year to make their homes in America.

Coming here they no longer are warriors, and for more than 100 years have played an important part in the West's great sheep industry. Good citizens in every way, they at the same time have never forgotten their many old and well-loved traditions.

An old saying of the Basque people is "with our song and dance we will live forever, and keep the body from knowing its years." All of their dances have centuries-old meaning.

The Ketchum-Sun Valley Chamber of Commerce invites the public to enter into the festivities of the Basque people at their third annual visit here.

Californians Indicted on Fraud Charge

CHICAGO (AP)—Three Californians have been indicted by a Federal Grand Jury on charges of using the mails to defraud in a Utah land scheme.

The defendants are Edward Krell, 43, of San Jose; his wife, Juanita, 40, of Visalia; Jack L. Baxter, 41, of San Jose and the Grand National Land Co., of San Jose.

The trio is accused of setting up booths at expositions offering as prizes lots in an iron county, Utah, development named "The Garden Valley Ranchos."

The indictment said the trio bought 55 acres on the Escalante desert and said it had an adequate water supply and graded roads.

The defendants were accused of trying to sell additional lots, listing them as worth $395 for each one-third acre.

The indictment charged a folder showed boating on a lake 80 miles from the site.

U.S. District Attorney Edward Hanrahan said the trio victimized 55 persons in Illinois, California, Wisconsin, Michigan, Indiana and Utah.

Program for Band Concert Is Reported

The Twin Falls Municipal Band, under the direction of Charles Ratcliffe, will present a Thursday evening concert at 8:15 in the City Park bandshell.

The program will include traditional band marches, classical selections and highlights from a Broadway musical.

"Northwind March" by W. P. Chambers is the first number on the program followed by F. von Suppe's "Morning, Noon, and Night in Vienna" and "Arabian Nights, an Oriental Intermezzo" by K. L. King. "Southern Roses," a waltz by Johann Strauss and "Miami," a march by Henry Fillmore conclude the first half of the concert.

Following intermission the band will play "Bluejackets on Parade," a march by E. F. Goldman.

Reed Coulam, Larry Standley, and Terry Dodds will be featured in "The Three Debonairs," a saxophone trio by Clifford P. Barnes.

The band will play "Rythm of the Winds" by Frank Erickson and "Jesus, Joy of Man's Desiring" by J. S. Bach.

The program will be concluded with highlights from "Kiss Me Kate" by Cole Porter, "The Fairest of the Fair," a march by John P. Sousa and "The Star Spangled Banner."

Character parts will be taken by Dale Dryer as Black Jack Ketchum; Mrs. McGehee, his wife; Robert Black, Indian Joe; Patrick Pidgeon, the sheriff; David McGehee and Sarah Donart, Black Jack and Molly's "kids."

Brush Spraying Nearly Finished

The sagebrush control program of the Sawtooth National Forest, which began a week ago, is nearly completed.

Almost 3,000 acres were sprayed in the Malta, Burley, Twin Falls and Sawtooth Valley districts. Reeder Flying Service provided a helicopter for the spraying.

About 150 acres a day were sprayed.

Uninjured

BRINKLEY, Ark. (AP)—Sam Dreher, 31, of Memphis, was wheeling his truck down U.S. 70 Tuesday when another truck swung off the highway ahead of him.

A television tower being hauled by the other truck struck Dreher's. The police came. The firemen came. They separated the trucks, and nobody was hurt.

Hospitals to Be Shipped To Centers

BOISE (AP)—Portable 200-bed hospitals are being trucked into Idaho Civil Defense Centers in Orofino and Arco this week, the State Health Department announced.

Each emergency hospital, packed into 720 crates, include X-ray equipment, surgical instruments and other technical equipment and drugs, said J. Ronald Willingham, the department's health mobilization representative.

Willingham said trained volunteers can have the hospitals in operation in two to seven hours, depending on the number of persons available.

The hospitals have in the past been used during floods at Lewiston and an airliner crash near Idaho Falls, Willingham said.

Drowns

VALDOSTA, Ga. (AP)—Frank James lives near a large clay pit which fills with water when it rains. It is a favorite swimming hole for youngsters. But James noticed one youth couldn't swim and had warned him to stay out of the pit.

James heard a scream and leaped into the pit to aid a thrashing Negro boy. But the boy, Willie C. West, 16, died in his arms. He was the youth James had warned.

Sales Tax Border War Developing

BOISE (UPI) — A sales tax border war is shaping up between Washington state and Idaho because of a new tax exemption permit being sold in Washington, UPI has learned. The permit, which sells for $1 and is good for one year, permits out of state residents to buy goods in Washington state without paying a sales tax. The permit was sold in Spokane about two weeks ago and in six other communities along the northern Idaho-Washington boundary within the past 10 days.

Figures from seven offices in Washington show about 100 of the permits have been sold in the area to date. Edward L. Vacura, district manager for the Washington State Tax Commission at Spokane, said more sales points would be opened within a week. Idaho State Tax Collector Lloyd West said his office already is at work on the problem and is attempting to work out some sort of solution with Washington state tax authorities. Idaho's new three per cent sales tax goes into effect July 1. Washington's sales tax increased to 4.2 per cent June 1 but bona fide residents of Idaho, by buying the permit, can get it.

Fire Spotter

WASHINGTON (AP) — A hand-carried device has been developed to enable firemen to locate hidden fires, the Commerce Department said Monday. The device emits an audible signal when it is pointed toward a flame, embers or other heat sources.

Trustees Vote For Integration

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — While about 2,000 Negroes attended a rally calling for immediate integration of all grades, Houston public school trustees voted Monday night for complete desegregation by 1967. The schools now are integrated through the fifth grade and could have completed grade-by-grade desegregation in 1971.

Texas Judge Appointed in Ruby Trial

DALLAS (AP) — Judge Louis Holland of Montague, Tex., has been appointed to take over further trial court proceedings in the Jack Ruby case.

The North Texas jurist succeeds Judge Joe B. Brown of Dallas, who asked Monday that he be removed from the controversial case.

Judge Dallas A. Blankenship, presiding judge of the Dallas County 1st Administrative Judicial District, announced the appointment.

Holland presided over a May 24 hearing in the Ruby case to determine which lawyers should represent the condemned man at a pending sanity hearing. Brown had stepped down temporarily for that proceeding.

Brown's removal was the latest shakeup in a case marked by bitter recriminations among the lawyers involved. At least 12 have so far acted as chief defense counsel, only to be fired or to quit.

Ruby, operator of a Dallas strip-tease joint, fired a bullet into Lee Harvey Oswald, accused assassin of President Kennedy, Nov. 24, 1963. Ruby was tried before Judge

Brown and was assessed the death penalty March 14, 1964.

Brown gave no reason for stepping down.

Ruby's lawyers had tried several months to get Brown ousted. They contended Brown was writing a book about the trial, and therefore held a personal interest in the final disposition of the case.

Anti-Poverty, Voting Bills Draw Action

WASHINGTON (UPI) — House leaders got the administration's lagging anti-poverty and voting rights bills firmly back on the track Wednesday. Both were set for House action by mid-July.

The $1.9 billion extension of President Johnson's year-old war on poverty got an unexpected hurry-up clearance from the rules committee after a promised parade of opposition witnesses failed to show up.

At a closed session following a final hearing on the anti-poverty measures the rules group also agreed to start hearings

Thursday in the administration's voting rights bill.

Chairman Howard W. Smith, D-Va., said further the committee expected to act on the question of clearing the voting rights bill to the House sometime next week. There is no question that the committee will act favorably.

Escalated Air Power Hints at Vastly Bigger Steps to Come

By MALCOLM W. BROWNE
SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. air power escalated the war in Viet Nam by two notches this week. Both hinted at vastly bigger steps to come.

U.S. Air Force jets ventured for the first attack missions yet made north of Hanoi Tuesday, thus shattering any theories that American planes were keeping south of the North Vietnamese capital.

The implication was clear: U.S. planes were for the first time free to bomb any part of North Viet Nam in which there are suitable targets. A suitable target so far has not been interpreted to mean a city.

The other notch came Friday, when 27 Strategic Air Command B52 heavy bombers dumped loads into the jungles of "D" zone 25 miles north of Saigon.

In itself, the raid was apparently a failure. The big concentration of Viet Cong troops that had been reported in the area three days earlier apparently are gone.

But the point was that for the first time, high-altitude heavy bombers had made an attack mission over Viet Nam.

In the past, U.S. spokesmen had always said that dive bombing, which is more dangerous to pilots and planes, was the only acceptable technique, because there was too much danger of accidental killing of civilians and indiscriminate destruction from high-altitude planes. The initial use of the B52 seemed a clear warning that such planes could just as easily be flown over Hanoi and other North Vietnamese cities as over the South Vietnamese jungle. In any case, pattern bombing had become part of the Vietnamese equation.

Over a city, B52s would cause heavy damage, even using non-nuclear weapons. Several factors probably played a part in the decision to start bombing north of Hanoi and to use B52s.

One is that the Viet Cong has shown no sign of slackening its monsoon offensive, and Hanoi seems less interested than ever in peace talks.

Another is that the psychological effect achieved by the first bombings of North Viet Nam is now believed to have worn off. Highly reliable sources have reported that many women and children who at first evacuated Hanoi have returned to the capital.

Presumably, U.S. policy makers want to keep fear alive. Another factor may have been the building of pads for Soviet anti-aircraft missiles around Hanoi and its industrial suburbs.

There have been no disclosures in recent weeks how nearly ready these installations are, or whether any of the missiles are going into position.

LASHED TO THE DECKS of carriers, poised on landing strips chopped from dense jungles, U.S. Air Force and Navy aircraft in South Viet Nam can be in the air at a moment's notice — as has been proved in retaliatory strikes against Communist North Viet Nam. All but one of the aircraft flown by Americans in Viet Nam are supersonic. All pack heavy-caliber machine guns, rockets and bombs. The most versatile of these planes is, oddly enough, the prop-driven Douglas Skyraider. Originally built for the Navy in 1951, it was transferred to the U.S. Air Force and is now being used by the South Vietnamese Air Force. This sketch shows six of the planes.

First Raid by B52 Bombers Against Viet Cong "Could Have Been Better"

By JOHN T. WHEELER
SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — "The Air Force could have been better, but it was pretty good for the first go. We learned a number of lessons."

The speaker was a senior U.S. military spokesman who has access to information on all planning and operations in Viet Nam. He was summing up the results of the first raid by U.S. B52 heavy bombers against the Viet Cong.

Twenty-seven of the eight-jet bombers swept in from Guam about dawn last Friday and dropped about 500 tons of bombs over an area of three square miles 25 miles north of Saigon where the Viet Cong was reported poised for an attack on a government town.

American advisers led three fast-moving teams of Special Forces troops through the area after the strike. They reported finding no damage to any Viet Cong buildings or tunnels and no sign that even one Viet Cong had been killed in the attack.

The ground troops covered only one per cent of the target area. Military planners considered a detailed search of the area impossible because of the time required to move in and then extract a large force.

The ground parties found that in some places the B52s' bombs dropped within 10 feet of each other. In others there was close to 1,000 feet between craters.

The big bombers presumably spread out their bombs because there was no precise information on just where the Viet Cong bases were.

Had the bombs been dropped in a tight pattern on a clearly recognized target, the Viet Cong could probably still have escaped with relatively light casualties because of the vast system of tunnels and caves the Communists have dug 30 or more feet below the jungle floor.

Many of the bombs the B52s used Friday had delayed fuses which exploded the weapons below the surface in an effort to get at the deep tunnel systems. As a consequence "the blow down" or lateral destruction was slight.

A spokesman said fuses that detonated the bombs on impact probably would have been better.

The spokesman said proximity fuses that detonate bombs in the air were considered too unsafe to be carried in large numbers. Air bursts would give the most effective antipersonnel pattern.

South Viet Nam last Friday did not kill a single Viet Cong and labeled the bomb attack "a $2-million flop."

There are no available statistics on flat tires but I had one. Guy at the service station said: "Don't worry, it's only flat on one side, yuk, yuk." I would have smacked him in the mouth but he had a lug wrench in his hand.

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

WEDNESDAY, June 23 — Born today, you have been gifted with excellent judgment and an unusually level head with which to approach — and, happily, overcome — the difficulties, great or small, of that life you have in store for you.

Although you have your moments of fanciful dreaming, you are basically realistic, taking life as it is and for what it is, with no delusions or illusions as to your place in the scheme of things. You know that you are destined to change the world; but you know, too, that you do your best, and do it with a will, nothing more can or should be asked of you.

As a young man or woman, you will probably have many "loves" in your life. If you are wise as your friends would predicate, however, you will put marriage until you are financially, intellectually, and emotionally ready to take on all the responsibility that marriage entails. Here, too, your realistic approach will serve you well.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday be your daily guide.

Thursday, June 24 — CANCER (June 22-July 23) — is the Cancer with real vitality who will make his mark today, but your energy to use.

LEO (July 24-Aug. 23) — You may have an opportunity to mold the character of a member of the younger generation today — a trust not to be given up.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23) — you are in a position to correct children, do so with the gentleness of tact. Protect the sensitivities of the young.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — day when a display of affection might well be the best possible course of action.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22) — Make a personal effort to eliminate any sense of jealousy you may feel in regard to another's success. Your turn will come!

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23-Jan. 20) — Turn your attention to the problems of others and it will take your mind off your own difficulties.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19) — Take advantage of an opportunity to improve yourself really; read, attend a lecture, possibly.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) — You will need a great deal of secretion if you are to succeed keeping two friendships going the same time.

ARIES (March 21-April 20) — Influential friends are your most important asset at this time.

TAURUS (April 21-May 21) — seek medical attention even for a slight indisposition. Don't take chances with your health!

GEMINI (May 22-June 21) — Though some may laugh at present aspirations, the wise Gemini will remain determined. Success will have the last laugh!
