Americans Among Dead as Floating Cafe Is Bombed

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—Two big terrorist explosions ripped through a crowded floating restaurant on the Saigon River almost simultaneously tonight and witnesses said they believed 40 or 50 persons, including many Americans, were killed. The first police count showed 17 dead and 24 wounded. Officials expected this tally to go higher. Decks of the restaurant, the My Canh, and pavement on the riverside were slick with blood. This incident is possibly the worst in terms of lives lost in South Viet Nam's capital in many years.

Safe Robbed as Old Church Is Burned

There was a hot time in the town of Shoshone Thursday night and a safecracker took advantage of it. While most of the townspeople were watching the fire department burn down the old Baptist church to get rid of it, someone broke into Strunk's Lumber and Hardware and ripped the door off the safe, in full view of the street window and under a bright night light. It was the fourth burglary and the second safecracking in the town since the town was founded.

Terrorist Bomb Blasts U. S. Office

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana (AP) — The U.S. consulate here was blasted by a terrorist bomb just after 5 p.m. closing time Thursday. The John F. Kennedy Library on the ground floor was wrecked and two other floors used by the consulate staff were damaged extensively.

A girl of East Indian origin, Shekeela Baksh, a local employe, was the only person in the library at the time. She was injured and hospitalized.

Two pedestrians on the street outside the three-story wooden building were hit by falling glass.

Police said the bomb consisted of 12 sticks of dynamite and was timed to go off just after the library closed. Police fixed the time of the blast at 5:07 and said it may have been the work of a gang that has spread a wave of sabotage throughout this British South American territory.

PTA Girds Effort Against Right-Wing Extremists

DIETRICH — The National Congress of Parents and Teachers is promoting efforts to combat the destructive tactics of right-wing extremist groups.

Mrs. Floyd Kisting, Dietrich, state board member, said Thursday.

She said at the annual board meeting in Boise of the board of managers of the Idaho Congress of Parents and Teachers information being developed by the National PTA for this purpose was outlined by Mrs. Rulon Lewis, state president.

In Idaho, as well as other places in the nation, right-wing extremist infiltrators are sent in to take over a local PTA unit and other organizations to use for their own purpose or to destroy the unit's effectiveness by persuading members to withdraw from the state and national organizations.

"We urge all citizens to become aware of the presence of these people in many of our communities working under many guises and titles. It is imperative that we learn the difference between the conservative and the extremist, as well as the difference between the liberal and the communist," Mrs. Kisting stated.

"Both are equally destructive to our way of life," the PTA official declared. "The PTA has been aware of the dangers of communism and has developed information to combat that type of infiltration for years, she said.

"We should never forget that communism is the more dangerous of the two, but we cannot overlook either the extremists and their destructive tactics," she added.

Usual targets for extremist groups are libraries, mental health movement, National Council of Churches as well as PTA and other educational groups.

Among the material being promoted by the PTA are two books, "The Strange Tactics of Extremism" by Bonaro and Harry Overstreet and "Danger on the Right." The book by the Overstreets deal with both extremes—left as well as right.

The state PTA board will sponsor information programs about the U.S. State Department and Foreign Aid program. The subject, entitled "Grass Roots Diplomacy" was suggested for national PTA sponsorship by the State Department.

The National PTA accepted the offer of sponsoring the series of programs but each state may decide if they wish to have the programs in their areas.

Tentative plans call for scheduling the programs in Idaho during March, 1966, to be given by members of the State Department and diplomatic service. Each area of Idaho will have opportunity to hear these experts, Mrs. Kisting said.

The PTA plans to include participation of as many civic and educational groups as possible in each community. The officials have requested that each session be followed by question periods so that more citizens may learn as much as possible about what their government is doing in the areas of foreign policy and diplomacy.

Recipients of scholarships were announced, including Jack Foreman, Gooding; Iris Short, Hazelton; Panola Arnold, Shirley Timmons and Jean Wilson, Rupert, grants for training of exceptional children. Christine DeThomas, Rupert, received a teacher education grant.

HELEN KELLER, famed blind and deaf authoress who has devoted her lifetime to helping the handicapped, will be 85 years old Sunday. This picture was made a few days ago as she sat in her upstairs study in her home at Arcan Ridge, Easton, Conn. Miss Keller's traveling days are just about over and she has been photographed rarely in recent years. (AP wire-photo)

Helen Keller Enjoying Her Quiet and Gentle Life

EASTON, Conn. (AP) — As Helen Keller approaches her 85th birthday, she's enjoying a quiet and gentle life.

She has her flowers, her garden, her dog Tinker, and the birds.

"All of the birds are her friends," says a close companion of the blind and deaf author.

"Miss Helen is living in retirement," a friend says. "That covers it."

The world still beats a path to her country home at Arcan Ridge, only to find the doors politely, but firmly, shut.

But close friends and neighbors stop in occasionally for tea, and there will be cake and champagne when she observes her birthday Sunday at home.

Miss Keller's traveling days are just about over. She still receives awards, but doesn't make the trips to pick them up.

Requests come from throughout the world to the American Foundation for the Blind for visits with Miss Keller, who has devoted most of her lifetime to helping the handicapped. The requests are turned down.

A friend says Miss Keller is in the best of health for a woman of 85, although her vitality is waning. In the past two or three years she has given up most of her writing and all public speaking. She takes frequent rests, and devotes much of her time to reading and re-reading books she enjoyed in her youth. Sunday's celebration will be more or less a family affair. Miss Keller's brother, Phillips Brooks Keller of Dallas, Tex., will be on hand. Her sister, Mrs. L. Warren Tyson of Montgom-

Red Cross In Jerome Reorganizes

JEROME — The Jerome American Red Cross Chapter met Tuesday night in the Staff Room at St. Benedict's hospital for a general reorganization and activation of the chapter and to discuss nominations for several positions on the Jerome board.

Amos Watson was elected vice chairman to work under the direction of Leon Felder, chairman.

Board members, Mrs. Leo Falconburg and Mrs. Charles Parker were instructed to speak to several nominees to ascertain whether they would work as directors of volunteers, whose duties would be to round up volunteers for the bloodmobile and other Red Cross functions as needed.

The board also directed Felder and Ed Baer, city councilman, to select a suitable person to act as co-chairman of the disaster services.

Mrs. Gene Overfield, Jerome County health nurse, gave a brief resume of the accomplishments of the chapter during the past year.

She told the members the Jerome chapter has participated in the bloodmobile program under the direction of Mrs. Leo Falconburg and Mrs. Charles Parker, in the first aid program with classes being instructed by Mrs. Heber Prescott and the yearly fund drive under the direction of Elton Capps.

Mrs. Prescott, chairman of service to military families, told members that it was a gratifying type of service to perform. In case of emergencies in a family who has a member in the Armed Forces she goes directly to the Red Cross field director for action.

Felder announced that Robert Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Davis, has accepted the position as chairman of the water safety and first aid. He is a student at the Jerome High School.

Monthly meetings have been scheduled for the fourth Tuesday of each month at St. Benedict's Hospital and anyone interested in the Jerome chapter should attend.

Don Jacobson, Jerome County Civil Defense chairman, met with the board and will continue to correlate his position with the work of the Red Cross chapter.

Watson announced that the bloodmobile is scheduled to be in Jerome Aug. 16.

Felder announced that William LaFrankis, Boise, Red Cross field representative, will attend the July meeting to outline the duties of various board members and to give assistance to the Jerome chapter.

80-Minute Visit With French Leader Might Help Relations

PARIS (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey's 80-minute visit with President Charles de Gaulle last Sunday may prove to be a turning point for the better in the strained relations between France and the United States.

The two allies will continue to be at odds over such vital issues as Viet Nam, the Dominican Republic and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. But highly informed French sources feel Humphrey's call on the French president punctured a ballooning discord which had reached serious proportions.

The visit was considered a success on both sides. Just how far they ranged in their talk is not publicly known, but they touched on mutual problems, and Humphrey seems to have carried it off well.

There was mention of a meeting between De Gaulle and Johnson but only in passing. The French president made clear he would like to meet the American President, but it was not said in a concrete way or as an oblique request that such a meeting be arranged.

Informed French sources say that a meeting of the two presidents would be of social value only unless there was opportunity for them to work out the problems dividing the two countries.

They feel that on such big issues as Viet Nam and the Dominican Republic there is nothing in sight which would resolve the sharp differences in opinion.
But there are signs that the French are more acutely aware, and perhaps concerned, over the drifting apart of the two traditional allies.
The payment in advance of a $178 million wartime U. S. loan to France, announced last week, was considered in some quarters as a favorable gesture.
Some French officials feel that the two nations are not so far apart as they appear to be. As one official put it: "We are with you basically on Viet Nam. We are not with you in the way you are trying to solve it and we favor a neutralized area."

Rupert Chamber Has Report on Recreation

RUPERT — A report on the recreational facilities in Rupert was discussed during the Thursday luncheon meeting of the Rupert Chamber of Commerce at the Hirling Cafe.

Paul McCloy, recreation director, reported a total of 44 teams are participating in boys' baseball and girls' softball, amounting to 570 youngsters. McCloy reported 60 per cent of the children live outside the city limits. Eight leagues will compete with other teams throughout the state.

The recently completed facilities at Memorial Field were explained, including the new lighting system. The Rupert Lions club presented the city a check for $1,000 to assist the lighting.

The director pointed out the field is now equivalent to a Class C professional park valued at $9,000. Some $3,500 was involved in the facility not including donations of labor from the city, Project Mutual and donated labor.

He reported the recently completed tennis court, spearheaded by the Kiwanis Club, already is receiving maximum use. Old tennis facilities near Washington School are being studied for possible rejuvenation by the city.

McCloy reported tennis racks and horseshoes are available at Neptune Park. Tracy Wilson, tennis pro from Salt Lake City, will be in Rupert July 2 to present a clinic for adults and will conclude with an exhibition game. Saturday morning youngsters are invited to attend a tennis clinic, also presented by Wilson.

The recreation director also asked interested persons to help install permanent bases for the baseball field and help with work on two dugouts Saturday at Memorial Field. Anderson Lumber Co. has donated lumber for the project.

He also discussed the Little League tournament to be held July 7-10 with teams throughout Magic Valley participating.

Elsie Burton, swim pool coordinator and chairman of the Red Cross swimming program, reported 1,000 persons will participate in swimming lessons being offered. She said the $1.25 fee charged this year is for the instructor's salary.

The county now offers a complete Red Cross swimming program and she reported a swimming team is preparing for competition in August, and will include youngsters 8 to 17 years of age.

Chamber members approved support of a hospital scholarship fund for a local nurse after Dr. A. F. Dalley outlined the details of the program. One member from the Kiwanis, Lions, Rotary, Junior Chamber of Commerce, and Chamber of Commerce will be appointed to carry out the program. This is a two-year program and Margaret Kraus has been chosen to receive the scholarship for nurses training.

Mervin Ling, president, announced a rodeo committee meeting at 7 p.m. Tuesday at the chamber office. He reported beer would be sold during the horse-racing activities but would not be sold on Sunday.

Robert Vaness of Multi Pix was introduced as a new member. Guests included Percy Bryce, Caldwell, and Ronald S. Cutler, Twin Falls.

Pomona Unit Sets Picnic For July 11

KING HILL — An invitation to attend the annual Pomona picnic at the Carl Miller Park at Mountain Home at 1 p.m. July 11, was received by the King Hill Grange, from the Mariposa Grange, Mountain Home.

Mrs. Rodney Ruberry, drill team captain for the Fourth degree to be presented at the state convention in Gooding in October, reported at the meeting in the King Hill Grange Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Joel Young, home economics chairman, reported. Master Kenneth Jones, appointed Frank Jones, Wesley Fink and Rodney Ruberry on a committee to erect a booth at the Fourth of July celebration, to be held in the Hull Memorial Park in Glenns Ferry.

Annual King Hill Grange picnic will be held the evening of July 13 at Anderson Park.

Members who have belonged to the Grange for 25 years will be presented silver certificates and pins.

Mrs. Frank Jones, lecturer, held a program in honor of Dairy Week, and also of Flag Day. She read an article about the flag and noted that it is older than Britain's Union Jack, of France's Tri-color. Mrs. Arthur Greer read a poem. Mrs. Jones also conducted a quiz.

Viet Cong Executes U. S. Sergeant, Issues Warning

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The Viet Cong has executed U.S. Army Sgt. Harold George Bennett in reprisal for the execution of several Red terrorists by the South Vietnamese government, Hanoi Radio announced today. It warned that other Americans might suffer the same fate.

Bennett, son of Pauline H. Bennett of Perryville, Ark., was captured Dec. 29 during the battle of Binh Gia, which cost an estimated 200 South Vietnamese lives.

Bennett was taken when the 33rd Ranger Battalion, to which he was attached as radio operator with the American advisory team, was attempting to retake Binh Gia from the Viet Cong.

The Hanoi broadcast said the commander of Viet Cong forces in South Viet Nam announced Bennett's execution Thursday.

Hanoi did not say where the execution took place.

It quoted the Viet Cong as saying: "The punishment of Harold George Bennett, an American aggressor who had committed many crimes against the South Vietnamese people, serves to warn the U.S. aggressors and their henchmen who have committed acts of utmost barbarity in killing prisoners of war that their murderers must pay for their blood debts."

The broadcast said Bennett was executed in reprisal for the deaths of Viet Cong "patriots Nguyen Van Troi, De Dau, Tran Van Dang and others."

"Although Saigon authorities have put hundreds of terrorists to death in recent years, the three named by Hanoi and Le Van Khuyen are the only four whose executions have been carried out publicly or officially announced."

Tran Van Dang, 25, died before a firing squad in Saigon Tuesday for trying to blow up an American billet in a Saigon suburb in March.

Nguyen Van Troi, 19, was shot last October for trying to plant a bomb under a bridge over which U.S. Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara was scheduled to pass.

Le Van Khuyen, 20, was shot in January for carrying explosives near the Buddhist national headquarters.

Le Dau, 24, was executed in April for carrying a radio filled with plastic explosive into a hotel in Da Nang patronized mostly by U.S. military personnel.

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

FRIDAY, June 25 — Born today, you are a well-disciplined person whose responses, though not always predictable by others, are almost always planned by you. Like many another who knows the value of the emotional outburst applied to a situation or circumstance at just the right moment, or the value of no visible response at all when conditions demand silence, you are able to control your reactions to an unusual and most beneficial degree.

In your dealings with the outside world, your approach is — at least outwardly — always on an intellectual plane. If you do show anger, frustration, or the like, it is because you think that such a display is necessary to achieve your end, not because you cannot help yourself. Such self-discipline is bound to bring its own rewards both financially and spiritually.

Because you hold yourself so rigidly in check insofar as your contact with co-workers and people in authority outside the home is concerned, you need, perhaps more than many, to have a private family life that allows you to let down your hair, to relax and truly be yourself. An informal atmosphere in the home is essential if you are to carry on successfully outside of it.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Saturday, June 26

CANCER (June 22-July 23) — Avoid legal entanglements, keeping all business matters on a non-contractual basis for the time being. Confer with partners.

LEO (July 24-Aug. 23) — Mature judgment is needed if you are to pull other people's chestnuts out of the fire today. Don't let a friend down.

VIRGO (Aug. 24-Sept. 23) — A day of leisure is strongly indicated. Where business rears its ugly head, deal with it quickly.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) — Make character through the repayment of debts, especially those of a non-material nature. Kindness will be appreciated.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — The Scorpio who indulges in sports today may have to pay tomorrow. Don't overdo.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22) — Take care of important business matters during morning hours. Keep evening hours in reserve for family and fun.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23-Jan. 20) — If you cannot have what you want today, you would do well to want what you have. Happiness just now is a matter of adjustment!

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19) — Avoid travel if possible. This is a high-risk day for the Aquarius who moves at a distance from the family circle.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) — A be-kind-to-yourself day! Self-indulgence so long as no harm is inflicted on yourself or others.

ARIES (March 21-April 20) — Take nothing for granted! Be prepared to change your plans and your time schedule.

TAURUS (April 21-May 21) — A favorable day for taking action against circumstances which may have been impeding your professional progress.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21) — Stick to your customary Saturday routine for best results. Surprises will not sit well with Gemini today.

SATURDAY, June 26 — Born today, you have the gift of knowing your own weaknesses and your own faults — something which should keep you from many a wrong decision in your life. Awareness of your weaknesses makes you fully cognizant of your strong points, and thus enables you to enter only upon endeavors at which you know you will be at least moderately successful. Ignore your knowledge of yourself, however, and you may be in for trouble.

One who leans more toward the spiritual than the material, you are not particularly interested in making a permanent mark in the world. You will be satisfied if you can achieve a modicum of success financially, so long as you are able to achieve maximum success in keeping your own standards and principles. Your integrity is your most valuable possession.

By nature one who gives, you must take care that you don't choose a mate who is by nature one who takes. If you do, you may find that you have become a slave to your own good and giving nature, that you have created no place for yourself in having given over your place to your husband or wife.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Sunday, June 27

CANCER (June 22-July 23) — A Sunday which should bring unusual spiritual benefits to the Cancer who has another's best interests at heart.

LEO (July 24-Aug. 23) — Avoid arousing anger in others. Make peace with your enemies if at all possible.

VIRGO (Aug. 24-Sept. 23) — The Virgo who makes the first move toward one less fortunate than himself is well on the way to creating mutual understanding.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23) — Professional advancement uncertain today. Best to reconsider your position and its worth.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — The Scorpio who allows others to make his decisions for him may find himself hamstrung in the near future.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22) — Take some time away from family and friends this Sunday. Solitude is a precious commodity.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23-Jan. 20) — You can improve family relationships if you are willing to compromise. But promises are not actions.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19) — Prospect for a good Sunday are excellent, so long as you have not allowed recent successes to go to your head.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) — Consult with those whose position will be affected before you make any decision for change. Family members need special attention.

ARIES (March 21-April 20) — Common sense can make a dream come true. Don't give up on the first try!

TAURUS (April 21-May 21) — Open your doors to neighbors. You cannot expect to make a friend if you are not willing to be one. Be generous of your time.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21) — Morning worship should result in a change of heart. Listen well to the advice of one whose experience is greater than yours.

Move Against Newspapers Is Unequaled

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Premier Nguyen Cao Ky threw a brick into a political hornet's nest when he ordered all 36 of Saigon's Vietnamese-language newspapers to close on July 1.

For sheer political audacity, the new military premier's action Thursday was unequaled, even under President Ngo Dinh Diem's dictatorship.

Each newspaper is essentially the organ of a political faction or pressure group. Most publishers are also leading political figures.

The Roman Catholics, the Buddhists, the Cao Daiists and the Hoa Haos also have their own newspapers.

Since Diem's overthrow in 1963, the Saigon government has changed five times. Each time, the press has played a big role. The bulk of the newspapers opposed each government.

This was probably the major factor in Ky's decision to play rough. By closing all papers for one month, until they can be reorganized along lines satisfactory to the government, he avoids the risk of showing partiality to any faction.

Federal Road Aid Tied to Safety Plans

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Public Works Committee has voted unanimously to deny federal highway money to any state that doesn't establish a maximum highway safety program by Dec. 31, 1967.

Rep. John S. Baldwin, R-Calif., offered the proposal as an amendment to a bill that deals with cost estimates for future interstate highways.

Under it state highway safety programs would have to conform to uniform standards approved by the secretary of commerce.

Wendell Club to Hold Car Wash

WENDELL — The Wendell 4-H group will hold a car wash at Ruth's Tasting Freez from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday to help Gooding county clubs raise money to build a cabin at the new 4-H camp near Russian John Ranger Station in the Sawtooth mountains.

Committee on local arrangements is headed by Charlene Lehman and Linda Suffer.

The proposed cabin will cost about $1,500. 4-H Science Club members and their leader, Mrs. Earl Schrenk, will sell homemade maple bars, doughnuts and punch beginning at 10 a.m. Saturday at the Fireman's Park to raise their share of the money for the project.

Bill Repeal Opposed by LDS Church

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — The First Presidency of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints Thursday urged opposition to legislation to repeal section 14B of the Taft-Hartley law.

That section allows states to decide for themselves whether union membership should be a condition of employment — the so-called right-to-work section.

President Johnson recommended its repeal during his State of the Union message and repeated it last month in a special message.

President David O. McKay, first counselor Hugh B. Brown and Second Counselor N. Eldon Tanner, who make up the First Presidency, issued this statement Thursday:

"We stand for the Constitution of the United States and for all rights secured thereby to both sovereign states of the union and to the individual citizen.

"We believe it is fundamental that the right to voluntary unionism should once again be re-established in this nation and that state right to work laws should be maintained inviolate.

At the very basis of all of our doctrine stands the right to the free agency of man. We are in favor of maintaining this free agency to the greatest extent possible. We look adversely upon any infringement thereof not essential to the proper exercise of police power of the state.

"It is our sincere desire and earnest prayer that no action will be taken by the President or the Congress of the United States that would tend to interfere with the God-given right of men to exercise free agency in seeking and maintaining work privileges."

5-Day Strike Of Truckers Breaking up

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The five-day wildcat strike of Teamster drivers began breaking up today as chain store food trucks, driven by Local 107 members threatened with loss of their jobs, delivered tons of fresh fruit, vegetables, fish and meat.

In the first hours after dawn more than 100 trucks of Food Fair, Acme, A. and P. and Penn Fruit left warehouses for supply — exhausted stores in the Greater Philadelphia area.

The drivers of Local 107, which had called the unauthorized "holiday" Monday in defiance of national Teamster leaders, reported for work after receiving warning telegrams from their chain store employers that they will be "considered to have quit" if they didn't come in this morning.

LONDON (UPI) — Jean Cockburn, a 15-year-old London schoolgirl, politely informed officials at the National Art Gallery that they had hung a Van Gogh masterpiece upside-down.

"Not so," an outraged attendant said.

A check was made and authorities shamefacedly admitted that Jean was right. "Grass and Butterflies" was indeed placed on the wall wrong end up.

President Is Star of Demo Fund Events

WASHINGTON (AP) — With President Johnson in the starring role, Democrats lavished praise and money on their one-sided majorities in the House and Senate.

"This 89th Congress will lap into history as the most effective and the most rewarding Congress in the history of our nation," Johnson told some 2,500 Democrats crowded into a hotel ballroom Thursday night.

Then he moved on to the Washington Armory, where well over 6,000 diners were jammed in — at $100 a plate — to eat charcoal-broiled heart of filet mignon and hear some political talk.

They heard plenty, from Johnson, from Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and from Democratic National Chairman John M. Bailey.

And they paid plenty. Bailey told reporters the dinner netted some $650,000 for Democratic congressional campaign war chests.

Hebert, Mayer Share St. Paul Open Lead

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — Lionel Hebert and Dick Mayer, both claiming they are playing their finest golf in years, charged over Keller golf course in seven-under-par 64s Thursday to tie for the first round lead in the $100,000 St. Paul Open. Hebert, 37, and Mayer, 42, turned in identical rounds of 32 on each nine in quest of the $20,000 top money.

Celtics Will Be Sold to Corporation

BOSTON (AP) — Co-owner Louis A. Prieri announced Thursday night an agreement has been reached to sell the Boston Celtics, winner of seven straight National Basketball Association championships, to the Ruppert Knickerbocker Brewing Co. of New York.

Prieri said the purchase price was "in the area of $3 million." Prieri said he and Mrs. Walter Brown, widow of the Celtics' founder, would sign papers in the transaction Friday. He said the team would remain in Boston.

The announcement at a news conference said the new Celtics organization will have Marvin Kratter as chairman of the board and Jack Waldron as president. Arnold (Red) Auerbach, now general manager and coach, will be executive vice president and also will continue his coach duties. Prieri, a Providence, R.I., businessman, and Mrs. Brown expressed satisfaction that the Celtics would remain in Boston.

HAMILTON, N.Y. (AP) — Everett D. ## Ken Venturi Undergoes Operation

ROCHESTER, Minn. (AP) — Mayo Clinic surgeons operated Thursday on the wrists of golfer Ken Venturi in an attempt to restore circulation to his ailing hands.

A clinic spokesman said after the 30-minute operation that "it was entirely successful." Venturi's hands have given him trouble since shortly after he won the U.S. Open title last year. Surgeons cut ligaments in his wrists to relieve blood pressure in nerves in his hands. The operation, called sympathectomy, was treatment of what is known as Raynaud's phenomenon.

The veteran golfer will be in the hospital two or three days. He and his wife will remain in Rochester for checkups until next week. Then, he will recuperate at Hillsborough, Calif., with instructions not to swing a golf club for four to six weeks. Surgeons told Venturi that the surgery is 95 to 100 per cent successful in most cases.

Les Scott, righthander from Panama, drew the starting assignment from Wilson but the skipper wasn't sure about the rest of his opening lineup.

"Scott has been with us all spring at Fresno and is in good condition. He's a fine pitcher and capable of going all the way," Wilson said. "Most of the other boys aren't in sufficient shape to go the route so just what the rotation will be after Saturday I'm not completely sure."

Wilson listed only two "sure starters." They are Jim Vincent in centerfield and Jay Reed in left. Don DeSousa will get the starting call at second base if he is ready. The young Panamanian has been nursing a foot injury, incurred at Fresno.

After 10 days of practice sessions Wilson still isn't sure just what the club has. "There's talent on the team," he said. "But the thing we have to do now is evaluate it. That's why (Farm Director) Carl Hubbell and (Batting Instructor) Hank Sauer are here. They're helping me get a line on the players and what we can expect from them."

"The training camp hasn't been a real success," he said handling a question, "but only because the boys have staggered in reporting here. Some of the things we had to be re-doing several times simply because not everyone was here at the start. We have some more new boys who will have to hear the same things we've said four and five times."

"We are as ready as a team can be under the circumstances but I hope the fans don't expect to come out here opening night and see perfect baseball," Wilson continued. "I think we have most of the boys we'll be getting now—at least in bunches—so I imagine we'll start getting lined out considerably better in the next 10 days. Of course, the other teams are faced with the same situation so I don't think we've been left behind."

The Cowboys went under the lights for the first time Thursday night for an intra-squad game. The team showed some hitting but the fielding wasn't the best. Wilson, who promised the Cowboys would be challenging every team with base running, had the squad scurrying well Thursday night.

Wilson also was impressed with the pitching of Joe Madden, a righthander off the University of Iowa campus. "Madden will be in that starting rotation just as soon as he can work himself into nine-inning shape," the skipper promised. "He's got a good arm and good stuff."

Phils Fined For Breaking Curfew Rule

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Several unidentified Philadelphia Phillies players were reported to have been fined by Manager Gene Mauch for breaking curfew during the four-game Houston series early this week.

Under a penalty schedule imposed by Mauch at various times during his six-year tenure as manager, players breaking curfew are assessed three days pay and anyone arriving at the park after the team bus losses $100.

In Philadelphia, General Manager John Quinn said he has heard nothing about any curfew breaking in Houston. Mauch reportedly caught the offenders in Houston himself. This would be the second disciplinary action taken by the Manager in recent weeks. He fined outfielder Tony Gonzales here two weeks ago for alleged lackadaisical play.

The Phillies are here for a four-game series against the San Francisco Giants.

Mrs. Clay Hits Muslims For Divorce

CHICAGO (UPI) — Sonji Roi Clay, wife of heavyweight boxing champion Cassius Clay, Thursday blamed Black Muslim leader Elijah Muhammad for her husband's decision to call their marriage quits.

She vowed she would fight an annulment suit filed by Clay Wednesday in Miami, Fla. "Because I love him, I'll do anything I can to save my marriage," Clay, 23, who likes to be known as "Muhammed Ali," sought annulment on the grounds that Sonji would not abide by the demands of his faith.

He charged that she walked out on him the night after his latest victory when he admonished her for not acting like a Black Muslim. Mrs. Clay, 26, said she had not been living with her husband since he defended his crown against Sonny Liston in Lewiston, Maine, last month. She said Muhammad, leader of the black supremacy sect, told Clay that "I was embarrassing the entire Black Muslim nation so he had to choose between me and them."

WAC Selects Six Schools As Possible New Members

DENVER (UPI) — Presidents of the six Western Athletic Conference schools named six other universities as possible new members Thursday and authorized a screening committee to choose "one or more" for expansion within a year.

The WAC Presidents Council named Dr. Tom Popejoy, president of the University of New Mexico, to name a "person or committee" to screen possible new conference members and report back within a year.

The six schools mentioned by the presidents as possible new members are Colorado State University, Utah State, San Jose State, Texas Western, New Mexico State and Wichita University. "Everybody agreed the conference membership should be a minimum of eight," WAC Commissioner Paul Brechler said. "We set up the committee to determine what criteria a good conference member should meet."

Lindgren to Miss AAU Due To Injury

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP) — Ace distance runner Gerry Lindgren of Washington State University said today he probably will not run in the Amateur Athletic Union's track and field championships this weekend because of a bad ankle.

Lindgren earlier had challenged the National Collegiate Athletic Association, the controlling body for collegiate athletes, by entering the AAU meet in defiance of an NCAA ban.

Lindgren said he twisted his ankle earlier this week when he stepped in a hole. "I don't think I could give a good account of myself in the six-mile race, but if there wasn't so much at stake because of this feud between the AAU and NCAA, I think I would go ahead and run anyway," the 19-year-old Olympian said.

He indicated that if the dispute was settled, he would run despite his ankle, but he made it clear he thought this was unlikely. Lindgren also said that because of the feud he would be unable in the future to give allegiance to either the AAU or the NCAA, and would handle his running on his own.

REMEMBER WHEN?

By BOB REESE
She was the world's most famous aviatrix, and she was flying around the world. Her name was Amelia Earhart Putnam, and she had opened up new worlds of achievement for the "weaker sex," setting records that few men could match in the air.

She was somewhere over the Pacific Ocean when the last radio message came from her. It said, "Position doubtful. There was no more. All America waited for another word. Warships and airplanes were sent out to search for her. They found nothing, not a trace. And no other word ever came from her."

But there was a final letter in her husband's name she had left behind... just in case. It expressed the courage of a great woman. When Mr. Putnam opened it, he read: "Please know I am quite aware of the hazards as men have tried... Remember the year?"

In that year a man who owned a car made sure he kept it in safe tiptop condition. He looked around for reliable service... and he didn't take chances by "letting things go" for a few more miles. The year was 1937. Service is our business... and we have the best factory trained mechanics... plus the most up-to-date equipment to give you reliable service, from a brake job to body and paint... and dependable auto sales and service. Magic Valley's Week-End Farm Paper

SECTION

KEITH E. Evans demonstrates equipment used to test areas for concentration of beet leafhopper nymph. Equipment such as this was put to use during the survey just ended. Tabulations showed aerial spraying was not necessary because of recent wet weather and other reasons. Evans is supervisor in charge of plant pest control work in Idaho. He has headquarters in Twin Falls. (Times-News photo)

Late, Wet Weather Is Prime Reason For Canceling Leafhopper Spray

BY O. A. (GUS) KELKER
Times-News Farm Editor

Officials and workers were ready to do the job, but the weather, parasites and predators combined to make it unnecessary.

Keith E. Evans, Twin Falls, supervisor in charge of plant pest control work for Idaho, made the cancellation announcement the day before aerial spray work was to get under way.

The spray was to have been directed at the beet leafhopper nymph concentrations at various points.

A last minute inspection, however, showed that the operation was not necessary because the concentrations had been materially reduced.

Earlier surveys had showed that the Rattlesnake Gulch area south of Mountain Home and also west of Mountain Home and in the Owyhee County Orchard area, were infested.

But the weather and related conditions tended to damage the host plants. As a result, information is that very few nymphs were found on host plants in sagebrush areas and that movement from the desert areas is expected to be light.

Teh spraying was to have been done with a special Call-Air plane operated by Reeder Flying Service, Twin Falls. It was to have been equipped with special spray equipment of a different type than in normal spray operations.

Among cooperators in the venture were the Idaho Department of Agriculture and the Idaho Bean Commission, in addition to the pest control unit.

Young People Urged to Aid Farm Bureau

CAREY—The Young People's committee in each county is urged to carry through with the Discussion Meet program and help with the Farm Bureau Talent Find, report Mr. and Mrs. Larry Peterson, district three chairmen.

Minidoka, Cassia, Twin Falls, Jerome, Gooding, Lincoln, Camas and Blaine counties are included in district three.

Plans for the state Farm Bureau convention in November were begun when the state Young People's committee met last week in Pocatello. Rep. George Hansen will speak at the convention and he will tell the benefit congressmen receive from letters sent by voters, and suggest methods of writing and proper wording for a letter to a congressman.

Special awards will go to districts having the most organized counties and a plaque will be awarded to the district having the most counties represented at the state convention.

The Young People's committee made plans for a column every month in the State Farm Bureau paper. The committee urges all Farm Bureau young people to work on the locator map program.

Pigs Down

WASHINGTON—The Crop Reporting Board's estimate of the spring pig crop gave the reason for the recent rise in farm hog prices and retail pork prices.

There just aren't as many pigs as there were a year ago. Consequently, the prices went up in answer to demand.

The spring pig crop totaled 43.2 million head, down 10 per cent from the 47.9 million head for the same period a year earlier.

Spring Potato Production Shows Substantial Gain

Production of early spring potatoes is estimated at 4,936,000 hundredweight, 18 per cent larger than in 1964, according to information received by local potato dealers.

Dealers have been informed that harvest, for instance, in the Hastings area of Florida was nearing completion and that yields from the acreage harvest-

Twin Falls FFA Chapter Takes Many Team, Individual Awards at Moscow

Twin Falls high school chapter of Future Farmers of America came home with the lion's share of honors from the state contests at Moscow.

The chapter won the sweepstakes team award but failed to win a first place. It probably was the first time in history of the competition that no first place ribbons were brought home, but the spirit of the boys was not dampened.

John Lawrence, chapter advisor, pointed out, "We are well satisfied in bringing home three second places, a third, a fourth, an 11th and a 12th."

"We also lugged the sweepstakes cup back with us, and this is quite an accomplishment."

Public Land Restored in Three Areas

BOISE—The Bureau of Land Management is restoring 953 acres of public land in Cassia, Lemhi and Twin Falls counties to the operation of the public land laws, according to Orval G. Hadley, land office manager.

The lands were conveyed to the United States by landowners in various exchanges under the Taylor Grazing Act.

The lands are typical of dry grazing lands in these counties. Plant cover is mainly sagebrush, cheatgrass and other grasses. The lands vary from level to rough and mountainous.

Some of the lands have fair agricultural value provided water is available or can be developed.

At the contests, held at the University of Idaho, 50 FFA chapters participated. There were more than 500 youths present from over the state.

District winners of the Idaho Noxious Weed Association crops contest were announced and included Minico for East Magic Valley, and Jerome for West Magic Valley.

A team from the Jerome FFA won second place in the dairy cattle judging. Team members were Perry Dixon, Mark Stringham and Larry Hessler.

Top individual in sheep showmanship was John Sandy, Hagerman.

Winners for Twin Falls teams, as well as individual entries include:

Livestock: second place, Lyle Fuller, Mike Quesnell and Donald Norris; farm mechanics: third place, Steve Kimpton, Bill Bosserman and Ken Haught, with Kimpton winning fourth in individual and Bosserman fifth.

Poultry: second place, Quesnell, Norris and Lyle Fuller; crops: second place, Fuller, Quesnell and Norris. Fuller tied for first in individual crop with a Preston youth and Quesnell was fifth.

Quesnell took five individual awards while he, together with Fuller and Robin Wells comprised a team. Ten youths from Twin Falls participated.

Nation's Public Restaurants Have Food on Hand for One Billion Meals

WASHINGTON (UPI)—An Agriculture Department survey shows that restaurants, cafeterias and other establishments serving food have enough supplies on hand for more than one billion meals.

This is enough food for slightly more than five meals in almost two days for each man, woman, and child in the United States.

The survey of the away-from-home eating establishments was made by the department's economic Research Service (ERS) for the Office of Civil Defense.

ERS said there is a 1.9-day supply of food on inventory in establishments that serve food for on-premise consumption. This supply is the equivalent of slightly more than one billion meals, assuming three meals a day totaling 2,000 calories daily.

ERS said non-concentrated fluids included in the total supply would provide each person with a 1.2-day supply of beverages.

ERS said the per capita supply of food in the eight civil-defense regions differed substantially from the U.S. average in only one region. This was region V where there is only slightly more than a one-day supply on hand. Region V consists of Arkansas, Louisiana, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas. ERS said this indicated fewer establishments serving food for on-premise consumption relative to size of population and, possibly, smaller food inventories per establishment.

ERS said beverage inventories vary more than food inventories among regions. Region I (New England states and New York and New Jersey) and region VIII (Alaska, Idaho, Montana, Oregon, and Washington) have more than a two-day supply of beverages on hand. Regions V and VII (Arizona, California, Hawaii, Nevada, and Utah) have only a half day supply each.

Boise Man Is Chairman Of Grassman Contest

The Idaho Grassman-of-the-year program, oldest of its kind in the western states, has been organized again for this year and will be under the chairmanship of Robert F. Ball, Boise, it was announced by Donald Youtz, Twin Falls county agent.

Last year, Youtz said, 33 counties selected 123 candidates for the grassman award. It was won by Vard Chatburn, Albion.

The program is sponsored by the Idaho Wool Growers Association, Idaho Cattlemen's Association, Idaho Association of Soil Conservation Districts, Idaho State Grange, Idaho Farm Bureau Federation, Idaho Power and Idaho Chamber of Commerce.

Technical assistance is provided by the Idaho Extension Service, Bureau of Land Management, the U. S. Forest Ser-

ALFALFA

First cuttings of alfalfa in southcentral Idaho are from 5 to 60 per cent completed, according to information released by the statistical reporting service of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Winter grains, the report said, are mostly in the boot stage.

Control hard-to-kill pests on alfalfa

Cygon 267®, the versatile insecticide, is now registered for SEED ALFALFA and ALFALFA (grown for hay) aphids, leafhoppers, lygus bugs, grasshoppers and reduction of alfalfa weevil larvae

Cygon offers double effectiveness in control of insect pests: as a contact insecticide with high initial kill. as a systemic protector within the plant. This double-barreled effectiveness provides protection from inside and outside the plant, reduces the effect of weather and gives control up to 14 days.

Cygon is powerful, efficient and its long-lasting qualities and low rates make it a truly economical material. When applied according to directions it poses no residue problems. It is among the less toxic organic phosphate pesticides. NO PERMIT REQUIRED. Cygon 267 is also registered for use on cotton, safflower, beans, various cole crops, peas, peppers, potatoes, tomatoes, watermelons. Also—seed crops: carrots, onions and bermuda grass. It is highly effective against aphids, leafhoppers, lygus bugs, grasshoppers, thrips, and leaf miners. For further information contact your local agricultural authorities or insecticide supplier. Be sure to ask for SUR-TEN, the superior wetting agent to be added to agricultural sprays. Before using any pesticide, stop and read the label.

EXAMINING BRUSH KILL on a recently sprayed area are Richard A. Gerity, left, Bureau of Land Management range specialist; Bill Mabbutt, manager, Shoshone BLM unit, and Wendell Johnson, right, secretary of the Richfield Cattle Association. The men participated in the Wood River Soil and Water Conservation district pilot tour Tuesday. The event was attended by farmers, businessmen, government officials.

Wood River Conservation District Tour Has Crowd

SHOSHONE — A large crowd attended the Wood River Soil and Water Conservation District pilot tour held Tuesday.

Among those present were government officials, farmers, businessmen and even two young women from Dietrich, Theresa Towne and Cheryl Towne, cousins.

In special recognition of the experience, Cheryl has written a report of the tour, thanking the district, Conservationist Cecil Cope and others who made it possible for the girls to take the trip.

At Star Lake Richard A. Gerity, range specialist for the Bureau of Land Management, explained that 1,500 head of cattle and 60,000 head of sheep could be grazed from April 15 to October during the past year and that the range will be in excellent condition again this year.

Gerity explained reseeding programs planned for this year in the sand blow areas.

At Sid Butte, Arnold Coleman, Fish and Game Department official, told of the diminishing flocks of sage grouse, explained that during the winter months, sage grouse get 90 per cent of their food from sage brush.

Floyd Silva, north Shoshone farmer, told of the first cheat grass ever seen in the Owlzina area. He gave a history of the area around Sid Butte and told of the height of the sagebrush in the past, how since the cheat grass move-in, there was usually enough dry grass during the dry seasons among the sage brush to carry fire from one sage brush to another, and the old tall sage was all burned off, leaving the thin, small stands of brush.

At Black Ridge, Ben Onelda, Lincoln County rancher, told of the necessity in the past of hauling water 26 miles in order to water sheep so they could graze the area.

With the well at Black Ridge now in operation, the water hauling is greatly simplified. He told of the cooperation between the stockmen and the Bureau of Land Management in drilling the well and installing the machinery, tanks and water facilities.

Mont Johnson, chairman of the Wood River Soil and Water Conservation District, was in charge of the tour. He announced the program at each stop.

At Richfield, lunch was served by the Methodist church women. Max Rees, supervisor of the Sawtooth National Forest, and Willard Stevenson, Farmer's Home Administration official, were speakers.

Rees spoke on conservation and wise use of natural resources. Stevenson talked about financing available for livestock groups to purchase and develop range lands for their own use.

After lunch, the LaRae Brown farm was visited where he told of the benefit of his windbreak, planned by the Fish and Game Department several years ago.

At Mont Johnson's farm, he explained a pump which pumps nine gallons of water a minute from the canal through 5,000 feet of plastic pipe to a livestock pond. The water is lifted nearly 100 feet.

Gravity flow from the pond carries the water to the watering troughs. Here the visitors saw pastures of crested Siberian and Whitmar Wheatgrasses.

Emergency Feed Grain Sales Soar to Record Highs, Disasters Widespread

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Agriculture Department estimates sales of government-owned feed grains under the 1964-65 emergency livestock feed program will reach 65 million bushels by June 30.

The department said more than 60 million bushels of corn, oats, grain sorghums, and barley owned by the Commodity Credit-Corp. (CCC) already has been sold in 11 months of disaster aid under the emergency program. This is the largest quantity used during any similar period of the program's operation since it started in 1959. The previous record was set last year with the use of about 40 million bushels in the period of June, 1963, through May, 1964.

The emergency livestock feed program provides for sale at reduced rates of Government-owned feed grains to farmers sociation and Bureau of Land Management cooperating and sharing costs. He gave a history of the area.

whose livestock has suffered because of floods, drought, or other natural disaster.

The program now is operating in about 200 counties of 13 states. This year the program was extended for 30 days from May 31 through June 30.

Last year, the program was not extended beyond the normal closing dates of May 31 in the northern states, May 15 in the central states, and April 30 in the southern states.

The emergency livestock feed program operated at one time or another during 1964-65 in a record total of 704 counties in 33 states. This compares with the record of 598 counties in 23 states set in the 1963-64 period.

The heaviest users of the CCC feed grains in 1964-65 were big dairy states. Drought conditions led all other disaster situations calling for emergency livestock aid.

In Wisconsin, with 34 counties designated for the feed program, total use amounted to 12.5 million bushels of feed grain. Other big users included New York, 38 counties, 8.5 million bushels; Minnesota, 44 counties, 6.2 million bushels; Missouri, 44 counties, 4.4 million bushels; Pennsylvania, 36 counties, 4.1 million bushels; Colorado, 35 counties, 2.4 million bushels; South Dakota, 23 counties, 2.3 million bushels; and Virginia, 29 counties, 2.1 million bushels.

Johnson told how he had established the pastures and how he manages the grazing of different grasses.

He pointed out a large area outside his boundary where the brush was so thick very little grass could grow, explaining that his range land looked like that before he started his seed program. He showed part of his range where diseases killed some of the grasses and the sage brush is coming back.

Near the Hoodenpyle ranch, the tall sagebrush has been sprayed to kill the brush and allow the grasses to come back. Wendell Johnson, secretary of the Richfield cattle association, showed pictures of good and poor grazing management.

Growing of Cut Flowers Big Business

WASHINGTON — The cut flowers business is big business. In 1964, it was just shy of grossing $100 million for the year.

The Crop Reporting Board estimates sales of carnations, chrysanthemums, gladioli, and roses grown in 11 major producing states had a wholesale value of $99.6 million.

This compares with $86.9 million in 1959, the latest date for which comparable data are available for all 11 states.

The wholesale value of 1964 sales: chrysanthemums, $31.7 million; carnations, $28.2 million; roses, $25.2 million; and gladioli, $14.5 million.

The five states in the survey for both 1963 and 1964 were: New York, Illinois, Florida, Colorado and California. They had wholesale sales of $64.7 million in 1964, down about 1 per cent from 1963.

Additional states in the survey in 1964 but not in the survey for 1963 were Massachusetts, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, and North Carolina.

California is the leading producer of carnations, standard chrysanthemums, and roses, while Florida is the leader in pompon chrysanthemums and gladioli.

Based on the wholesale value of the flowers surveyed, California ranks first with $25.6 million, followed by Florida with $17.2 million and Pennsylvania with $11 million.

Product to Control Beef Cattle Lice

KANSAS CITY—A new systemic insecticide for beef cattle has just been registered for the control of cattle grubs, horn flies and lice, according to an announcement by the manufacturer, Chemagro Corp. of Kansas City, Mo.

The product is known as Nevguon. It is a soluble powder, organic phosphate material that mixes with water to form the spray solution. Present registration calls for its use as one per cent spray, that is, 10 pounds per 100 gallons of water.

For grubs, spray pressures of 250 to 350 pounds are recommended to wet the skin thoroughly, not just the hair. Application for the most effective control, should be made soon after heel fly activity has ceased.

Horn fly and lice control is recommended at the same one per cent spray to be applied to run-off as necessary. The interval to slaughter is 14 days.

Chemagro veterinarians caution that Nevguon should not be applied to dairy cattle, animals less than three months old, or to sick, convalescent or stressed livestock.

Vital Wheat Industry in Trouble, Officials Say

Idaho's critically depressed wheat growing industry will be adversely affected by announced plans of the General Mills, Inc., to close the big Ogden, Utah, mill, the Times-News was informed Friday by leaders of the Idaho State Wheat Growers Association.

Fact that the Ogden mill, along with 8 others, would be closed by General Mills, was announced in the farm section of the Times-News last week. The announcement brought quick response.

"If our Southeastern Idaho wheat is no longer made into flour at the big Ogden mill, it simply means we must put more of our wheat into export or send it longer distances for milling," said Myron Sorenson, Malad, ISWGA president.

"And these other markets already are saturated with wheat supplies."

Sorenson's statement reflected the concern of Idaho wheat growers following the announcement by General Mills.

Evan Koller, Weston, National Wheat Growers Association vice president from Idaho, said he anticipated a price problem for Idaho wheat as a result of the Ogden mill closure.

"Competition among buyers for Idaho wheat isn't keen even now," Koller explained.

"If you take some of this competition for our crops out by closing the mill, we'll have a stale market with less bidding for our wheat. This can only result in less price-boosting competition between the remaining buyers."

Koller agreed with Sorenson that Idaho wheat growers would have to compete more actively in the California or foreign markets to offset any loss of a market in Ogden as a result of the mill closure.

Harold West, Boise, administrator of the Idaho Wheat Commission said the sudden shutdown by General Mills of 55 per cent of its milling capacity was another indication to the economic chaos in the wheat industry.

Control Seen For Anemia In Cattle

BOISE (AP)—A new vaccine for control of a cattle anemia disease that is often fatal was described here at sessions of the Idaho Veterinary Medical Association's annual summer meeting.

The vaccine has proved to be an effective preventive measure against the disease, anaplasmosis, for up to a year, said Dr. E. Wynn Jones, a professor of veterinary medicine at the University of Oklahoma.

The disease, which affects blood cells and results in severe anemia, has gradually spread to the western states and has a high incidence in Southern Idaho, Jones said.

He said the new vaccine was developed by an Oklahoma research group and will go on the market this fall (distributed by Ft. Dodge Laboratories, Ft. Dodge, Iowa).

At a convention banquet Friday night, five Idaho veterinarians were honored for completing 50 years or more of practice.

They are Dr. M. M. McCoy of Caldwell, Dr. E. T. Powell of Boise, Dr. R. V. Swanson of Pocatello, Dr. E. P. Coburn of Twin Falls and Dr. A. J. Powell of Lewiston.

Control Seen For Anemia In Cattle

dricks explained.

Cragun said General Mills would continue to operate its mills at Great Falls, Mont., and at Los Angeles and Vallejo, Calif. He said western wheat would continue to supply the western mills and there was "plenty of capacity" to take up the milling being discontinued at Ogden.

He said it also was possible that the Ogden mill would be purchased by some other milling organization, and would be back in operation in the near future.

General Mills, in announcing the closure of its seven plants, indicated that the company was more interested in other types of food processing and chemical activities in which it saw more income potential.

Poort also conceded that the Ogden mill might resume operations and added that "the potential of someone buying it is very good."

Hendricks said there has been some overcapacity in the milling industry in the western United States.

He pointed out that part of this overcapacity resulted from construction of new flour mills in the Philippines and Japan, areas which used to buy milled flour from the United States but now are buying bulk wheat and milling it in their own countries.

Export of Soybean Products Accounts For Good U.S. Balance of Payments

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Agriculture Department estimates that soybean and soybean product exports in fiscal 1965 will total a whopping $850 million.

The cash export sales will amount to about $750 million, with exports under government programs accounting for the remainder, the department said.

The make-up of the current estimate of total exports of the commodity and its products: soybeans, $560 million; soybean oil, $170 million; and soybean meal, $120 million.

The department noted that exports of this scale, mostly dollar earnings, "are obviously making a direct and very important contribution to the improvement of the U.S. balance-of-payments position." The agency also said shipments of such great quantities of soybeans also have a great impact on the U.S. agricultural economy.

In extolling the virtues of the big overseas sales of soybeans, the department said:

—Soybean and soybean product shipments this year represent nearly 15 per cent of the value of total agricultural exports including sales and donations under Public Law 489. The soybeans sold for dollars will account for about 13 per cent of the value of overall dollar shipments of farm products abroad in fiscal 1965.

—Total export shipments of soybeans plus oil and meal should represent about 40 per cent of the total U.S. production of soybeans.

—The volume that is expected to move into export channels was grown on an area equal to the total harvested acreage of Illinois and Indiana, two of the leading farm states.

Exports of soybeans were not listed separately among crops shipped abroad prior to 1938. Now, for the past three years soybeans have been the leading dollar U.S. export crop.

The department said U.S. soybeans have become an ideal food and feed crop in many countries. Main importers are Japan, West Germany, the Netherlands, Canada and Denmark. Among these top customers, Japan is the only country which makes any large-scale use of soybeans for food. Other nations use the meal for animal feed and the oil for food.

The Idaho senator noted that while Idaho farmers have seen some economic improvement in the past year, they are still not sharing in the general economic upturn across the nation.

Investment Trust for Farm Bureau Members Approved by Government

CHICAGO—The Farm Bureau Mutual Fund, Inc., has received word that its registration statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission has been made effective, according to Charles B. Shuman, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation and the Fund. The fund is an open-end investment company organized for Farm Bureau members and it will invest primarily in a diversified portfolio of carefully selected common stocks. Shares of the fund will be offered to Farm Bureau members by a prospectus to be published in the July-August issue of Nation's Agriculture, official monthly magazine of the American Farm Bureau Federation. It is intended to have the fund shares qualified for sale in all states (except Alaska) and Puerto Rico.

Small Cherry Crop Seen In Gem State

BOISE (AP)—A bigger sour cherry crop but smaller crops of sweet cherries, peaches and pears are likely in Idaho this year, the U.S. Department of Agriculture said today. In its weekly crop report, the department said growing crops benefited from moisture, which was general throughout the state. However, the rain interfered with haying and other farming operations. The department reported prevalence of alfalfa weevils in the Lewiston area and heavy grasshopper infestation in Ada and Washington counties. Large numbers of Colorado potato beetles were reported in Bingham County.

GENE REINBOLD, ASSISTANT Cassia County extension agent, inspects ear tag in Randy Kidd's 4-H steer, as his father, Jay Kidd, looks on. Kidd is the leader of the Declo Junior Feeders club to which Randy belongs. All 4-H club members in the Declo area, as throughout Magic Valley, busily are working to complete projects for showing at fairtime. (Times-News photo)

Declo 4-H Club Members Preparing for County Fair

DECLO — 4-H club activities are in full swing, with leaders and members both busily working on their various projects.

A new sheep club has been organized with Mrs. Nalon Taylor and Mrs. J. Robert Kelsey as co-leaders. The group, which will be instructed in the proper care of sheep by J. Robert Kelsey, will be the seventh such club in the Declo area.

Gene Reinbold, assistant county agent, explained the procedures of the 4-H program to the new members, Jana, Mark, and Kelly Taylor and Eddie and Debra Kelsey.

Jay Kidd, leader of the Declo Junior Feeders Beef Club, states he feels that the boys are working hard with their projects and expects a real good 4-H year for his group.

The Declo Busy Beavers, a boys club, is busy working on third and fourth year health projects, outdoor cookery, and electricity projects, with Mrs. Joe Preston as leader. Christine Gillett is junior leader.

The Declo Hi-Lighters Club is working on junior leadership projects with Mrs. Austin Walker as leader. Mrs. Walker, who has been an active worker in the 4-H program for over 17 years, has helped to organize five new clubs with a junior leader for each group.

She will instruct the junior leaders, who will acquire training in leading by working with the local leaders.

Mrs. Walker could well be called the "Ideal 4-H Leader" as she has helped so many girls to become better homemakers and is such a cheerful and willing worker that she is very much appreciated by the community.

Mrs. Larry Bell and Mrs. Lloyd Powers, her daughters, will lead the "Hiawatha 7" with Sharon Sutton as junior leader. These girls are taking such projects as second year sewing, cooking, helping mom and dad and health.

Mrs. Manuel Arguello, with Nadine Thornton as junior leader, has a group of 9-year-olds who are taking first year sewing and cooking, called The Star Light Club. Another new club in the area is the Declo 4-H Fans.

Mrs. Earl Hurst, with Willean Kidd as junior leader, is assisting these girls in getting acquainted with their record books before starting on their health and food projects.

A Spanish-American 4-H club was recently formed in the Burley area with four members and now has increased to 20 members, with Mary Carrillo as the full time paid leader, assisted by Mrs. Gladys Escabel. This club has received the support of the federal government and the local Kiwanis Club.

Miss Carrillo is stressing the importance of milk in the diet, by teaching appetizing and economical ways of preparing powdered milk in different foods. These 10-year-olds also are taking first year sewing projects.

With August fairtime rapidly approaching, it appears that the Declo clubs are off to a good start.

Dangers of Rice Tax Are Pointed Out

CAREY—Both consumers and farmers would be hurt by the bread and rice tax bill recently introduced in Congress by the administration, according to Jay Strode, Carey, of the Blaine County Farm Bureau.

Under the wheat certificate plan being proposed, U.S. consumers would pay twice as much for American wheat as foreign buyers. The Carey man asserts. The plan also gives the secretary of agriculture discretion to use government surplus stocks to impose price ceilings on market prices for farmers.

Wheat used for domestic food use would be supported by rates as high as $2.50 per bushel through a $1.25 loan and a requirement that processors buy a $1.25 certificate for every bushel going into this utilization.

U.S. wheat sold to foreign buyers, including Communist countries, would go for $1.25 per bushel. The farmer would get $2.50 for only that part of his production allocated to domestic use.

A similar certificate plan for rice would raise the cost to consumers from 5 to 7 cents.

It is estimated by the administration that the wheat and rice plan would raise the cost to consumers by $300 million.

"Consumers should not be misled into accepting the proposed higher bread tax and new rice tax because they think they are doing farmers a favor," Strode said.

"Wheat producers voted down a similar program in a nationwide referendum in 1963."

Huge Surpluses for Western Farm Foods Predicted in Next 20 Years

WASHINGTON (UPI) — An Agriculture Department projection of the agricultural economy in Western United States indicated surpluses of fruits, vegetables, and some other farm foods in the area will increase by 75 per cent from 1960 to 1985.

The projection was made by the department's Economic Research Service (ERS), which looked into expected changes in the production, processing, marketing, and consumption of food products in the Pacific Coast and Mountain States and in shipments outside the region.

The states involved are Arizona, California, Colorado, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, Oregon, Utah, Washington, and Wyoming.

ERS said a relatively mild climate and irrigation enables the region to produce an abundance of fresh and processed fruits, vegetables, nuts and sugar beets. These surpluses are shipped commercially to points outside the West.

The agency estimated that by 1985 net production over local consumption would increase from 20 billion pounds retail weight in 1960-61 to 35 billion pounds. The largest projected regional surplus is in fresh and processed potatoes, 15 billion pounds. The next largest is in processed fruits and vegetables, nine billion pounds.

The population of the region is expected to increase from 27.4 million persons in 1960 to about 49.2 million in 1985.

ERS said there will be some food deficits—products the region does not produce enough of for local consumption. These are principally meat, poultry, and flour products, and some dairy products.

ERS said by 1985 these products least 125 gallons of water each day.

If you have laying hens, the council recommends you provide a minimum of one round automatic or jet flow waterer or its equivalent for every 100 birds. When trough-type automatic waterers are used, provide a minimum of eight linear feet per 100 layers.

ERS estimated total dollar sales of wholesalers of groceries and farm products in the western region would triple and employment would increase about 60 per cent by 1985. ERS said employment increases for the period are expected to be highest in eating places, lowest in food processing.

Clean Water Supply Vital to Herds, Flocks

CHICAGO — Livestock and poultry farmers are reminded by the Nutrition Council of the American Feed Manufacturers Association to keep plenty of fresh, clean water available for their herds and flocks during the hot summer months.

For example, a large dairy cow may drink in excess of 40 gallons of water a day—and, if she doesn't get it, her production goes down as does her feed efficiency.

For every 50 hogs, provide at

ERS estimated total dollar sales of wholesalers of groceries and farm products in the western region would triple and employment would increase about 60 per cent by 1985. ERS said employment increases for the period are expected to be highest in eating places, lowest in food processing.
