

Military Chiefs Recommend Hike In War Strength

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation's military chiefs have recommended unanimously that the strength of U.S. forces in South Viet Nam be boosted to 179,000 men by the end of the year, it was learned today.

The recommendation is more than 100,000 above the 75,000 U.S. force now scheduled to be in South Viet Nam.

The Joint Chiefs of Staff will be considered by top U.S. officials in the light of what Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara says during his week-long inspection visit to Viet Nam.

McNamara left Wednesday night. Sources told The Associated Press the remainder of the 1st Infantry Division in the new projections for a buildup to meet a growing Communist strength.

One brigade of that strength landed in Viet Nam this week after traveling from its base at Ft. Riley, Kan. A buildup as big as 179,000 men could well bring at least a limited mobilization of reservists and National Guardsmen to replace regular troops drawn to the growing conflict in Viet Nam.

The armed services, it was disclosed, are starting to gear up for such a possible muster of guardsmen and reservists.

They have submitted to defense officials tentative estimates totaling more than 200,000 citizen servicemen.

The breakdown: About 120,000 guardsmen and reservists, including six infantry brigades. Three of these brigades, sources said, probably would be the 157th of Massachusetts and the 187th of Pennsylvania and the 205th of Minnesota.

Marines—The 4th Marine Division and its air wing, a total of more than 44,000 reservists. Navy—About 40,000 reservists who would be summoned as individuals rather than with units.

Air Force—Mostly air transport squadrons manned by some 10,000 reservists and guardsmen.

There was no ground assault, and all contact apparently was broken off after the barrage ended. A relief force was lifted into the area by helicopter several hours after the pre-dawn battle.

It found the bodies of the Vietnamese soldiers and the two Americans scattered around the command post at the edge of the Viet Cong village of Bau Bang.

One wounded American also was found, and there were at least 20 wounded, witnesses said.

EGLIN AIR FORCE BASE, Fla. (AP)—"I didn't have time to be scared." This was Airman Andre Guillet's comment today concerning his July 2 parachute jump from 3,000 feet when his main chute failed to open.

The air commando said he was too busy going through emergency procedures to worry much about the landing itself. Part of the emergency procedures involved opening a reserve parachute.

But this chute, like its larger counterpart, did not function properly. It did, however, open partially and provided Guillet with a small canopy for his trip down.

Asked in an interview what he thought about as he tumbled through space, he replied: "I remembered other people who had been in the same situation saying that the landing was hard but not especially painful."

"I figured I'd land hard, too. No, I wasn't worried about being hurt. I didn't even think about that."

Guillet did land hard enough, though, to suffer a compression fracture. He said the fracture, a chipped vertebra, was caused by his pitching forward when he hit the ground.

An early hospital report said Guillet was bruised and shaken but apparently not seriously hurt. A more thorough examination, however, revealed the fracture.

A spokesman at Hurlburt Field, an auxiliary of Eglin where Guillet is stationed, termed his landing "near perfect."

He was hospitalized immediately. Doctors said he probably will be released some time next week.

Johnson Gets Bill to Cut Silver in Coins

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate sent to President Johnson today a bill to eliminate all silver from dimes and quarters and cut the silver content in half-dollars from 90 to 40 per cent.

The House passed the measure Wednesday by a vote of 255 to 151. The Senate, which passed a bill with very similar provisions, completed action today by accepting minor changes the House had made.

The final product carries out Johnson's recommendations, submitted to Congress last month. His signing the bill into law thus has assured.

Grants OK'd For Colleges

WASHINGTON (Special)—Sen. Frank Church announced Wednesday that work-study grants have been allocated to four Idaho colleges, including the College of Southern Idaho Junior College District, totaling nearly $100,000.

The College of Southern Idaho will receive $18,225 according to Sen. Church, with Idaho State University receiving $72,553, Boise College $7,860, and Northwest Nazarene College $1,350.

The grants from the U. S. Office of Education were authorized under Title IC of the Economic Opportunity Act.

Ho Chi Minh Invites Chief of Ghana for Visit

The move followed an exchange of letters between the two chiefs of government, initiated by Nkrumah.

Girls Arrive At Farragut For Roundup

(See photos on pages 6 and 16.) FARRAGUT, Idaho (AP)—Thousands of green and white uniformed teenagers, clutching guitars and ukuleles, poured into this old naval base today for the Fourth Girl Scout Senior Roundup.

A Boy Scout band lined up to meet 200 girls from California, Nevada, Arizona and Utah, arriving by train at Spokane, Wash., 55 miles away.

Chartered airliners brought in another 200 scouts from New York, Philadelphia and Minneapolis.

The last of the 9,000 scouts from all 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and 40 other countries are expected to arrive by Friday night.

Their sleeping bags and gear were sent ahead and delivered to their campsites. The girls have only to pitch their tents and find their baggage.

No special events have been scheduled until Saturday, the first full day of the encampment.

Sunday afternoon, the first of a series of forums, on everything from dating to Viet Nam, will be held. There will be regional demonstrations by scout groups each day until the encampment ends July 28.

Federal state and local groups have been planning the roundup for three years. Representatives of all appeared satisfied everything had been done to make the encampment a success.

Pictures of Mars Received; Camera Worked After All

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—Scientists received from Mariner 4 today what they said were just the kind of Mars picture signals they hoped for.

Late today or early Friday they plan to make public what should be the first close-up photograph of the unknown planet's surface. It could indicate whether Mars harbors life, solving a mystery that has intrigued man for ages.

Mariner 4 flew past Mars Wednesday night and its signals hinted at trouble in the camera's tape recorder.

But this morning, coming from beyond Mars en route to an orbit around the sun, the windmill-shaped 575-pound spacecraft began relaying the first of a hoped-for score of photos.

Signals came in line by line at the rate of one line every 2 1/2 minutes. In all, it required 8 hours, 35 minutes, for all 200 lines of the picture to be received.

Jubilant scientists at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory, which built and controlled Mariner, said "the raw data is exactly what we expected."

They said the transmissions should produce "a valid picture."

Two hours after the start of signals 35 lines had been received, and one expert said a definite pattern was showing.

The photo program called for Mariner to take up to 21 pictures as it passed within 5,600 miles of Mars, store them on tape, then play them back starting today.

After analyzing this morning's transmissions, experts said they are optimistic about receiving as many as 20 photos.

The pictures were planned to be 100 times better than those from earth telescopes, showing objects as small as 1 1/2 miles across, and perhaps indicating whether life exists on the planet most like earth.

The fly-by climaxed a 228-day, 325-million-mile curving voyage from earth. The spacecraft both Wednesday and today was about 134 million straight-line miles distant.

There was considerable confusion after the hint-of-trouble announcement at the laboratory Wednesday night.

Mistrial Request Denied in Case Here

The first degree murder trial of George Olson, who is charged with the Aug. 22, 1963, slaying of Keith Gates, Boise, resumed Thursday morning in Eleventh District court after a mistrial request by Olson's attorney, Vernon K. Smith, Boise, was denied by Judge Theron Ward Wednesday afternoon.

Olson, who was 42 years old Thursday, gave testimony about his background with his brothers and mother and father, his three marriages and the time between his last divorce on May 24, 1963, and the time of the killing.

Smith voiced his request for a mistrial late Wednesday afternoon after objecting to prosecuting Attorney James May's questioning of Tim Qualls, a Twin Falls city detective.

Olson's attorney objected when May asked Qualls for his opinion on whether or not Olson blacked out during the shooting. Judge Ward denied Smith's request and Qualls continued to answer that he did not believe Olson had lost his memory of the act.

During his testimony Thursday morning, Olson said he never had threatened Mrs. Anna Lou McKinnon, his ex-wife. Mrs. McKinnon testified Tuesday that Olson had on occasion threatened her and anyone else who might be with her.

Olson testified about an incident on July 6 at Mrs. McKinnon's home of which she testified that Olson had taken a gun out of his pocket, threw it on the sidewalk and then picked it up.

Olson explained that he had returned from Redfish Lake with his step-daughter, Mrs. Arlene Hopwood, and his son, Andrew Olson, who was 11 at the time, and had a pistol in his pocket. He testified he always took a gun with him when he went to the mountains.

Olson testified he sat down on the sidewalk at the McKinnon home and talked with Mrs. McKinnon. While talking to her, the pistol fell out of his pocket. He then picked it up and put it back into his pocket, he said.

At this time, police officers came and later took the gun from him, Olson stated.

U. S. Will Leave War if North Stops Shooting

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk was quoted today as saying that "if the North Vietnamese stop shooting and get out of South Viet Nam, we'll get out."

Rep. Leonard Farbstein, D-N.Y., reported that Rusk made this statement "unequivocally" during a discussion of the Viet Nam situation with a score of constituents in Rusk's office today.

Farbstein said Rusk listed North Vietnamese infiltration as the main basis for American troops being sent to the defense of South Viet Nam.

Doctor Gives Cause for Backaches

SWANSEA, Wales (AP) — A British doctor declared Tuesday housewives develop backaches because they don't know how to do their housework.

Dilwyn Evans, head orthopedic surgeon at the United Cardiff Hospital, told a symposium:

"Housewives do a lot of heavy lifting, bending and kneeling. They have never been taught how to carry out these movements in such a way as to throw the least strain on the lumbar area."

"Housewives who have to lift heavy things should bend their knees, not their backs, and let the legs do the work."

But he added:

"I am inclined to think that frustration is a factor. Many women find housework boring. If they have an ache in the lower part of the back, it is made worse by their frustration and general unhappiness."

Three-Nation OAS Mission Is Returning

WASHINGTON (AP) — Special three-nation mission of the Organization of American States is returning to Washington from the Dominican Republic.

OAS Secretary General Jose A. Mora said Wednesday he would go to the troubled republic to represent the OAS in the mission's absence from Santo Domingo.

Mora declined to speculate on possibilities of a settlement but said the OAS mission is nearer an agreement between the contending forces than ever before.

Great Honor

Two Twin Falls residents have won international contests on consecutive nights, an incident that may be without precedent anywhere. Mrs. Sterling Vaughn won the Toastmistress International speaking contest Monday night in New Orleans. The following night, Robert Nora won the talent contest at the convention of the International Key Club in New York City. Either award would be considered quite unusual for residents of a community the size of Twin Falls. To have local persons win both awards is reason to trot out the brass bands and find keys to the city to be presented to the top prize winners.

It's not that either achievement is particularly surprising in itself because both Mrs. Vaughn and Mr. Nora have demonstrated their ability conclusively. Mrs. Vaughn quite capably talked her way to victory in local, district and regional events before winning the top honors. And Mr. Nora won the same Key Club award a year ago but was disqualified for exceeding the time limit.

Local residents can be excused for showing considerable pride in the double-barreled achievement. Mrs. Vaughn and Mr. Nora have brought the sort of publicity to Twin Falls that can't be purchased anywhere. They have demonstrated for the whole nation that Twin Falls has citizens of impressive talent, leading to the inescapable conclusion that Twin Falls is a community with a culture that would be flattering to much larger cities.

Mrs. Vaughn and Mr. Nora have brought honor not only to themselves but to their community. It would be fitting for members of the community to arrange a fitting demonstration of pride in their accomplishments.

Tries Too Hard

President Lyndon B. Johnson's replacement of his press secretary focuses attention on a situation that seems completely out of keeping with the presidency. It has been known for some time that the President is ultra-sensitive to criticism. It also has been known Mr. Johnson is quite concerned with his public image and wants to be known as a warmhearted individual, a sort of benevolent person who's extremely interested in the welfare and well-being of every other human. He's been working so hard at the project that several writers have felt constrained to point out that sort of image is at variance with facts.

President Johnson is an extremely capable politician who knows how to get things done in Washington perhaps better than any other president. But he is demonstrating a surprising inability to delegate authority or responsibility. President Johnson is insisting on running the whole show and that apparently also includes making some decisions in Viet Nam that would be better left to the military.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

BY ANDREW TULLY
WASHINGTON—It has come late to my ken, but I nevertheless feel I must chide that nice Kelly girl from Philadelphia who married a prince for her provincialism in picking names for her children. Dispatches from Monaco, where Princess Grace and Prince Rainier run a profitable gambling hell, report the activities of tads with names straight out of Dubuque or Bustard Beak, Texas.

These children go about their royal duties with handles like Caroline, Albert and Stephanie, which just goes to show the decline of the divine right dodge. It seems, too, that it is all Princess Grace's fault, because Rainier wanted his kids to bear jazzier names.

CLASSIC NAMES SPURNED—When the boy was born, for example, Rainier desired that his monicker be selected from among a list culled from the Grimaldi family tree. But Grace turned thumbs down on Hercule, Augustin, Honore and Hippolyte, possibly on the grounds they would be too tough for the Philadelphia Kellys to pronounce.

Now it is all very well to be old hat, but Princess Grace seems to have forgotten that her husband has a duty to royalty. A man named Rainier Grimaldi shouldn't be forced to go around having kids named Jack Grimaldi or Spike Grimaldi or even Albert Grimaldi. What is needed is something fancy, to go with the palace and those uniforms and that foreign language they speak.

A PROTECTIVE NAME—I don't know how Grace would bear to discard Hippolyte. The name Hippolyte Grimaldi sounds like Monte Carlo. You meet a guy named Hippolyte at a cocktail party and you know right off he must be a prince because common people don't have to put up with such names.

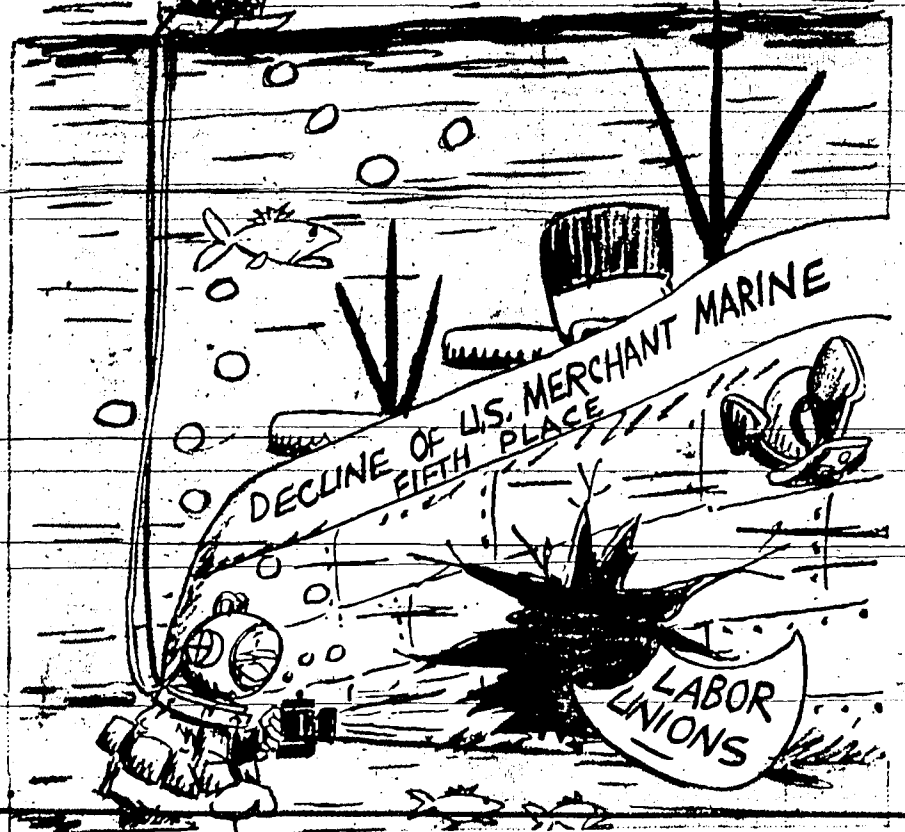

The only exception to this rule that can be recalled was a bootlegger in Utica, N.Y., who called himself Hippolyte—for reasons of personal safety. This amiable lawbreaker desired anonymity because he had been associated with a small hicking firm in Buffalo, and he felt his legal first name, Pete, was incriminating.

So it came out Hippolyte Frascati, which gave Pete a feeling of security. "No cop," said Pete, "would ever be rude to a joker named Hippolyte."

HOPE FOR THE NEXT—Grace's son, of course, would not need any such protection from the gendarmerie unless he were caught tampering with the underside of one of Pa's roulette wheels. But a name like Hippolyte would tend to fond off strangers on trains and airplanes. Nobody cares to pursue a conversation about dames or horse racing with a citizen who lets it be known his first name is Hippolyte. It is a name that sounds too classy for such talk.

So it is to be hoped that if Grace has another son she will name him something good, old-fashioned Grimaldi name. Even Augustin Hippolyte, perhaps. After all, it's a kind of royal tradition and a girl who's in the books as Her Serene Highness should conform. Besides, as an Irish lass, Grace shouldn't be too snooty about funny names. The Irish tag their kids with monickers like Sean and Siobhan, which come out Shawn and Shivawn.

OUTMODDED SAYINGS
The Space Age has been raising hob with some good old-fashioned sayings. But then it'll probably even the score by giving birth to a few modern saws.

Before long, folks might be saying that an old-timer is one who can remember when the sky actually was the limit.

And how about this expression, "shoot for the moon"? One of these days a man is going to land on the moon and walk around. Will "shoot for the moon" still remain as meaning something akin to the height of futility?

There've probably dozens of similar saws besides these two that came to mind so readily. Will they survive the Space Age?

Interpreting The News

By MERRIMAN SMITH
WASHINGTON (UPI) — A most interesting, but seldom seen figure in Washington is the practical politician — the Republican or Democrat who can view issues and personalities dispassionately and not think in terms of heres and villians.

He looks at candidates and issues with much more detachment and coldness than the hot-eyed zealots who show up in the volunteer or amateur sections of any political organization. The real pros seldom have real animosity toward each other. They can sit over cigars and brandies kidding each other a little.

They meet along the banquet and cocktail circuits, josh each other about such things as fundraising dinners, primaries and candidates who missed the boat. Like soldiers of fortune, they sometimes get wounded but seldom killed.

Their allegiance to national party usually is lifelong, more as a way of life and income than deep emotional fervor for specific and often ephemeral policies or issues. The seasoned pro can and often does switch men, but not parties.

Two such pros — one Republican, another Democratic — met at a party here recently and fell to musing over the future. The Republican thought his side would pick up some seats in Congress next year. The Democrat conceded this usually happens in non-presidential years but he did not expect the party's 1966 losses to be of such nature as to threaten the presently substantial Democratic majority in both houses.

The most interesting part of their casual bill session had to do with President Johnson and Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y. Neither pro professed to have any inside knowledge. Both men were operating on information and comment in the public domain.

By independent avenues, they arrived at the same conclusion: An educated guess that in 1968, if not before, the brother of the late President will undertake some line of action to establish himself as a power within the national Democratic party. Both pros agreed this strategy in any form would be regarded as a frontal Kennedy challenge to the Johnson dominance in party affairs.

They, by no means, believed that the junior senator from New York would seek to challenge Johnson for re-nomination in 1968. But they agreed casually he would attempt to establish himself as an unquestioned power within the party. Both pros reasoned that such a Kennedy policy, if it develops into that, would be aimed at 1972 instead of 1968 as a primary target.

One of the pros summarized: "This is the sort of thing they'll both deny until the Potomac freezes over in midsummer, but the truth is and has

MARQUIS CHILDS WRITES ON WASHINGTON

CARACAS, Venezuela—Determined men with political roots that go deep into the past are setting out to prove in Venezuela that neither military dictatorship nor communist takeovers are inevitable in Latin America.

President Paul Leoni is well into the second year of his elected five-year term and, insofar as the passing observer can judge, the country is stable and the resolute effort to put down communist guerrillas and terrorists is succeeding.

Leoni is solidly built, quietly assured, with a sense of humor that comes to the surface as he talks. He is said to be less impassioned, less spectacular, than his friend and ally in the years of exile, Romulo Betancourt, whom he succeeded in the presidency and who was the first elected chief executive in Venezuela's history to finish his term. But his temperament is suited to the consolidation essential for the massive program of expansion and reform still going forward.

We talked on the terrace of the suburban villa in which he is living with his family until an official residence can be refurbished. With great frankness he covered a wide range of subjects for a long time — these men simply do not like each other. Bobby didn't want him on the ticket in 1960 in the first place.

"And since then, my impression is that their relations have gone downhill," banttered the Republican.

"I wouldn't agree with that," the Democrat said. "But I think it is true that any man who replaced John F. Kennedy would have looked badly to Bobby, first out of grief and then the deep conviction that nobody could measure up to his brother. And all this laid over a background of what happened at the 1960 convention."

What started the two pros on this line of discussion was Theodore White's new book, "The Making of a President, 1964," which goes into some detail on the taut relationship between Johnson and Kennedy. In preparing the book, White tried to see Johnson for at least a background interview, but his request was not granted. He did talk with Kennedy, however, and at some length.

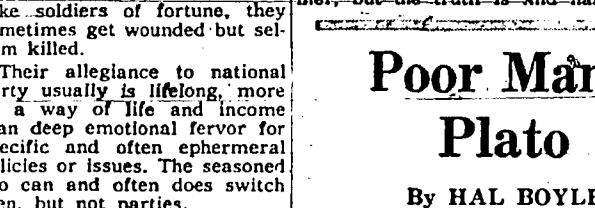

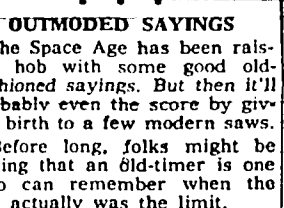

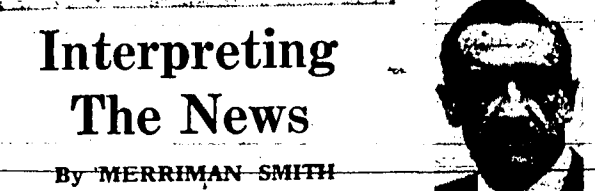

At home, aren't quite sure just why we are over here. It has been explained officially, of course, again and again that Americans are here at the invitation of the South Vietnamese government to help the people in their quest for political freedom from the North.

But the most eloquent statement of our purpose here was made by a young U.S. Army lieutenant.

"What we are doing here is nation building," he said. "Until the country is raised to a 20th century level this war won't be over. It may take 10 or 15 years. They're growing very fast economically and technologically. But their thinking isn't growing that fast. That's why it will take so long."

Leoni, therefore, believes it would be better to postpone the Rio conference to allow time for thorough exploration of a proposal that goes to the heart of the future of the OAS. In the view of this reporter it is hardly an exaggeration to say that it is central to the future of the hemisphere. If there is an effort to push at all costs a hastily conceived plan the divisive effect will be serious and it could be catastrophic.

American power — military, economic, in every aspect — is paramount. You have only to see what part it plays in Venezuela's swiftly expanding economy to understand this as the Latin themselves understand it. But what use the United States will make of this power is the question leaders like Leoni are asking in the aftermath of the Dominican crisis.

Views of Others

IN DEFENSE OF CORN
If Lawrence Welk were a supersensitive man, he'd be crying every day on his way to the bank with another bagful of the stuff that is as green as a cornfield in early summer.

For he is a constant target for the gibes of almost everyone except several million middle-aged and older men and women. The latter pack auditoriums all over the country, as they did the Memorial Coliseum Thursday night, and they keep him on TV after year after year while smart-alecs by the scores briefly shine, then fade from the boob-tube.

The discotheque set, the modern jazz butts, folksong strummers and others who consider themselves to be in the cultural mainstream are having their usual fun with Mr. Welk following the appearance here of his band. "How can a man with so round a face play such square music?" asked one disc jockey whose musical contribution to Portland's culture is probably no greater than Mr. Welk's.

The classic-music lover, of course, is not impressed by the maize in the Welk cornfield. Our Hilmar Grodahl, who understands the nuances of symphony and opera, was not too unkind to the Champagne Music Makers. But he couldn't resist cracking that "if this is champagne music one might guess that it wasn't the best year for grapes."

What the critics appear not to realize is that the Welk group does not presume to be modern or classical. Its performances are not concerts, but, rather, glorified vaudeville shows. People who enjoyed vaudeville when they were young and the tunes they danced to then are grateful to Mr. Welk for giving them a nostalgic hour or two.

Sure, it's corn. Certainly Welk and his listeners are square. But they're proud of it, and they are happy that Lawrence of North Dakota gives them occasional respite from the screaming hysteria that passes for popular music today. — The Oregonian.

AN OAS STANDING ARMY
On May 6—eight days after President Johnson unilaterally dispatched Marines to the Dominican Republic — the Organization of American States voted to create an inter-American force. If it had acted earlier, if the force had been in being, if a two-thirds majority could have been mustered to use it: the United States would not have had to act on its own.

President Johnson might not have made the blunders he did. The problem of dealing with the presumed threat of a Communist takeover would have been an OAS hemisphere responsibility from the start.

The Doctor Says

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Cat scratch fever is an unfortunate misnomer that has been responsible for scaring more people than it has helped. This disease is caused by a virus that is common throughout our environment. Thus, the disease might just as well be called thorn fever or pin scratch fever. In other words, if the virus is on your skin or on the object that scratches you, you may develop the disease.

At the onset, the victim may have a mild headache with fever and general peppiness. A search may then reveal a small infected blister that may be mistaken for an insect bite or a pimple. Several days later, the lymph nodes in the region of the scratch may become enlarged and tender. These nodes may remain sore long after the headache and fever have subsided. Because it is important to rule out a more serious condition such as tularemia, skin tuberculosis and Hodgkin's disease, a skin test should be made to clinch the diagnosis.

The treatment consists of opening and draining the initial sore in some cases and giving prednisone or a related steroid hormone. Antibiotics are sometimes given to control a secondary infection but are usually not required.

DEFENSE SETS 'EASY' CONTRACT

Harry Weisz of Dallas is too busy teaching bridge and running duplicate games at the Valley View studio to play much bridge "but" the other night he got into the game and produced one amazing result.

At most tables North and South won the spade and threw Harry in with a club. Harry led his queen of diamonds to dummy's king. Back came a diamond. Harry took his jack and threw dummy back in with the small diamond that he had conserved for that very purpose.

Meanwhile, West had jettisoned one low heart which Harry allowed to ride to his partner's queen. West took his last spade and the ace of hearts became the seventh trick for the defense.

Budget Head Will Not Seek Office

BOISE (AP) — Former Idaho Budget Director Don Walker says he will go anywhere in the state to discuss Idaho's fiscal situation, but that he has no intention of becoming a political candidate for any office.

Walker, who resigned earlier this year, lashed out Tuesday at the fiscal policies of Gov. Robert E. Smylie at an Ada County Democratic rally.

Walker, who describes himself as a Republican, told the audience that Idaho must "rely on country store fiscal procedures." He said Smylie had predicted all along that the general fund at the end of the biennium June 30, "was just plain, damned lucky" to have achieved it.

Walker predicted last December that the general fund would have a total shortage of about $101.9 million from the 1963 appropriation by the 1963 Legislature.

The biennium ended with a surplus of about $1.5 million.

School Will Open Aug. 30 At Shoshone

SHOSHONE — Local schools will open on Aug. 30, school board members have decided, Mrs. Hazel Haddock, clerk, announced Wednesday.

The teaching staff is complete except for a music instructor. Mrs. Barbara Meecham, Jerome, will be a new fourth grade teacher in the elementary school.

Bids for tearing off and re-tiling the roof over the gymnasium and music room at the high school building were rejected because trustees decided the old roof did not need to be torn off.

New bids were issued just for the new roofing job. They will be opened at an adjourned meeting on July 23. Also to be opened at that time will be bids for oil and coal for the 1965-66 school year.

Decision was made to hire a woman as part-time secretary for the superintendent and principal.

Viet Nam Casualty Lists To Be Announced Weekly

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — No further casualty reports will be announced in connection with individual engagements in the Vietnamese war, U.S. authorities announced today.

Casualties will be announced as weekly totals, but there will be no identification by units, the announcement said.

Correspondents were also asked to withhold voluntarily any such figures they find out on their own, and not to identify units in battle or to disclose troop movements.

No penalties for violators of the new press code were announced, and a spokesman said

Pigeons Nest

BOSTON (UPI) — Two pigeons who set up house-keeping several months ago in a hole-in-the-wall are currently raising their offspring in the most luxurious bird nest in this city.

Construction workers building the 34-story State Street Bank Building discovered the birds nesting in a hole in a cement block 30 feet above the floor of the bank lobby.

That engagement casualty figures should be made available after an action is over, at least, to have statistics to match those issued daily by Communist Radio Hanoi.

Stevenson's Death Cancels Conference

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Western States Democratic Conference scheduled this weekend was canceled Wednesday because of Adlai Stevenson's sudden death in London.

Roger Kent, conference chairman, said:

"Adlai Stevenson's death is a devastating loss to the United States, the United Nations, and to people everywhere.

"I have checked with members of the executive committee of the Western States Democratic Conference. We are in full agreement that a conference which was to be held this weekend must be canceled."

Toastmistress International Speech Winner Feted on Return to Twin Falls

Mrs. Sterling Vaughn, winner of Toastmistress International's speaking competition Monday night in New Orleans, La., arrived at Joslin Field Wednesday night and was met by a multitude of friends, fellow club women and city officials.

Upon disembarking from the plane which brought her home, Mrs. Vaughn was presented with a dozen red roses by Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce President Douglas Kramer.

Also on hand to greet Mrs. Vaughn were members of the Magic Toastmistress Club, including Mrs. LaVern Strong, who is Mrs. Vaughn's sponsor in the group; Ray Rostron, Chamber of Commerce manager; and Earl Faulkner, vice president of the chamber.

Mrs. Vaughn was taken to the Town House in Kimberly where she was hosted at a quiet dinner by Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Knight. Also present at the dinner were Mrs. Vaughn's daughter, Karen, and Woody Gardner, both Sun Valley. Her husband, who is away on business, was unable to attend.

Mrs. Vaughn won Monday's competition in New Orleans with her extemporaneous speech on "Knowledge."

She has been a member of the Magic Toastmistress Club for about two years and won competition in Calgary, Canada, earlier this year, entitling her to participate in the New Orleans contest.

HEMEL, HEMPSTEAD, England (UPI) — Russel Tarry-Smith was fined $14 Wednesday for making an unusual drive on the local golf course—in his car.

Police said he drove his small car up and down over four greens, churning up the turf and damaging bunkers. He was ordered to pay $58 to help repair the "divots."

Companies Agree on Merger

ONTARIO, Ore. (AP) — H. J. Heinz Co. and Ore-Ida Foods, Inc., have agreed on plans for a merger.

Stockholders of Ore-Ida Foods will vote Sept. 9 on the plan. Heinz stockholders will vote the next day.

The plan was worked out in Ontario this week. Frank Armour Jr. of Pittsburgh, president of Heinz, and F. Nephri Grigg, president of Ore-Ida, led the negotiating teams.

The annual sales of Heinz-run about $300 million. Ore-Ida's were about $30 million last year.

Ore-Ida produces frozen potato products, including french fries, patties, and hash browns. It also produces instant mashed potatoes, the only product of the company that is not frozen.

If the merger is approved, Ore-Ida Foods would become the frozen food division of Heinz. Ore-Ida has plants at Ontario, Burely, Idaho, and one under construction at Greenville, Mich.

Terms of the merger call for stockholders of Ore-Ida to convert their stock at $26.50 per share into Heinz stock at $40 per share.

Grangers Are Cautious on Grain Aphid

KIMBERLY — Members of the Kimberly Grange are cautioned to check their wheat and barley fields for infestation of English grain aphids.

Thomas Shouse, secretary of the Twin Falls County Fair Board, led a discussion on parliamentary horse racing and answered questions aired by the Grangers at a meeting Monday night.

A letter received from the national Grange master, Hershel Newsum, concerning re-appointment was read and discussed.

It was announced the Twin Falls County Pomona Grange picnic will be held at 1 p.m. July 25 in the Buhl City Park and the Kimberly Grange picnic will be held at 1 p.m. Aug. 1 in the Kimberly Park. Members attended either picnic are going to bring their own table service and covered dishes.

Chairmen of committees for the fair booth were announced as Mrs. Hugh Sanderson and Mrs. Irvin Kevan, co-chairmen for the decorations, James Messersmith Sr., farm produce, and Don Kilborn, fruit.

Hugh Sanderson and Frank Stewart will be in charge of the garden produce. Sheaves will be made under the supervision of Dean Britt.

The literary program was opened with the members revealing their most memorable Fourth of July. Trombone duets were presented by Steven Torrence and Sam Kevan accompanied by Sylvia Freestone. The program was adjourned with a closing thought by Mrs. Ogle Wall.

Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Kevan and Mrs. Kieth Brown.

Mistake Noted in Report on Suspensions

RUPERT — An Idaho Department of Law Enforcement release published in Wednesday's Times-News erroneously reported the driver's license of Richard R. Schenk, Route 2, Rupert, was suspended for drunken driving.

Mrs. Schenk told the Times-News Wednesday night that her husband was cited for leaving the scene of an accident and that he had not been drinking. She said the mistake resulted from a typographical error in the violation code number on the original complaint.

The code numbers of the two violations are similar and the clerical error was not discovered until Schenk received his notification of suspension. The department's list of revocations for offenses during June was released before Schenk was able to notify local state police and correct the error.

GIRLS WELCOMED

POCATELLO (AP) — Four hundred Senior Girl Scouts from the Los Angeles area received an Idaho welcome Thursday evening when their special train stopped here.

Girl Scout leaders and Chamber of Commerce members visited each of the 17 cars in the train. Every girl was provided with a pencil and post card, and invited to mail the cards to their families and friends from Pocatello. A band was at the station to play for the girls.

Mrs. Jim Tyne, vice president of the Silver Sage Girl Scout Council, handled arrangements. The train was to go to Spokane, Wash., where the girls will board buses for the 1965 roundup at Farragut.

BODY FOUND

ST. MARIES, Idaho (AP) — The body of Steven R. Lehn, 17, Farmington, Wash., was recovered from north Idaho's Chacolet Lake Wednesday, Benevise County Sheriff's deputies said.

They said Lehn drowned Tuesday night while swimming with a group of young people in the nearby lake.

ASSISTANT RELEASED

BOISE (UPI) — H. A. (Blackie) Schedelman, assistant to Gov. Robert E. Smylie, was released from St. Luke's Hospital.

Schedelman was hospitalized a week ago from an acute attack of emphysema, a lung disorder.

CHANGE URGED

SUN VALLEY, Idaho (AP) — Changes in the national bankruptcy laws were urged at opening sessions here of the annual conference of the judges of the Ninth Federal Circuit Court.

Linn K. Twimlen, chairman of the Consumer Bankruptcy Committee of the American Bar Association, recommended the changes which would make it more difficult for persons with proven earning ability to pay off their indebtedness to file bankruptcy.

DATA GIVEN

ON PENSION APPLICATIONS

BOISE — Loryn E. Kopan, director of the Boise Veterans Administration Center, announced Tuesday that veterans with non-service connected disabilities who are applying for pensions can no longer deduct for reported income the full amount they have contributed to other pension or retirement plans.

Kopan said that prior to Jan. 1, 1965, a person could report "no income" until the entire amount contributed by him to a pension or retirement fund had been returned to him.

Under the new ruling only 10 per cent of the total contributed may be excluded as income.

Veterans must now report their entire income for the calendar year in question, but the VA will deduct some items in determining income eligibility. These are: 10 per cent of the amount of an individual under any public or private annuity or retirement plan, including Social Security amounts paid by a veteran for the last illness and burial of his spouse or child.

Profit realized from the sale of real estate or personal property other than in the course of business, payments received for jury duty, payments under the War Orphans Education Assistance Act, state bonuses paid to veterans, exclusion of all of a spouse's earned income, or $1,200 of her income, whichever is more advantageous.

MINERS LEAVE

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — A group of 48 Chilean miners have left for Dusseldorf, West Germany, under contract to work three years in the Ruhr coal mines. They were the first of 1,500 to go to Germany under an agreement between the two nations.

CHURCH STUNNED

HEADQUARTERS, Idaho (AP) — Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, said he was stunned when told Wednesday about the death of U. S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson.

"I have known many able and dedicated men in public life," said Church, "but the great men are few and far between. Adlai Stevenson was such a man. In his passing, I have lost a close personal friend—the world has lost a poignant force for sanity and peace."

Commission To Be Guest At Buhl Meet

BUHL — Twin Falls County commissioners will be special guests and will review county problems at the Buhl Chamber of Commerce regular luncheon meeting Monday noon in the R and R cafe banquet room. All members and interested persons are urged to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Kindred, Muleshoe, Tex., were guests of the local chamber during the weekly luncheon meeting. The couple was selected for the honor in the tourist of the week program sponsored by the chamber.

Kindred, in speaking briefly to the group, noted Muleshoe is an agricultural community and its land is irrigated by water from deep wells. Principal crops are cotton and grain, he asserted. The speaker said his business was building and drilling these wells.

The couple was en route to Oregon to visit a daughter. After the luncheon they were taken on a sight seeing tour of scenic points of interest in the Buhl area.

During the chamber-business meeting it was voted to send a letter to the local Jaycees commending them for their work in presenting the Sagebrush Days celebration, which proved a huge success.

John M. Barker reported The Antique Festival Theater will have its opening performance Friday night with the presentation of "The Intellectual Ladies." He noted an open house and reception will be held after the stage production at the Moose Hall.

Space Reports From Mariner 4 Studied in Utah

PROVO (AP) — Magnetic properties of interplanetary space are being studied at Brigham Young University from data recorded by the satellite Mariner IV.

BYU is one of four western centers studying the data which the satellite transmits to Earth every 12.6 seconds.

Dr. Douglas E. Jones of the BYU physics faculty is directing the study. It involves analysis of the magnetic properties of the "solar winds," a gas streaming from the Sun, and of magnetic "halls" of the Earth, Mars and other planets.

Dr. Jones is a co-developer of one of the instruments that jam the innards of Mariner IV. He is being aided in the research at BYU by a staff of graduate assistants.

Other centers participating in the research are at the University of California at Los Angeles, California Institute of Technology and the Jet Propulsion Laboratory in Pasadena, Calif.

Truckers Try to Avert Major Strike

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Operators of major trucking firms in 11 western states agreed Wednesday to meet with union officials, temporarily averting a threatened strike.

James Blackwell, an auto mechanics union spokesman in Portland, said the employer groups will meet with negotiators from the machinists union at 9 a. m. Friday in San Francisco's Federal Building.

Earlier, William Wimpfinger, automotive coordinator for the machinists, said a strike would be called if the employers did not agree to negotiate.

Wimpfinger sent telegrams to the Truck Operators League of Oregon, the California Truck Association Inc., the Washington Motor Transport Association and the Intermountain Operators League, Salt Lake City.

He said the employer groups failed to appear at San Francisco meetings called by Arthur C. Viat, regional director of the federal mediation and conciliation service.

In San Francisco, Viat said the big dispute is over a union demand for area wide bargaining. He said the employer groups want bargaining to continue on a district and state basis.

Blackwell said "announcement of the Friday meeting cancels out any strike activity until, at least, Monday morning."

The contract with employer groups expired May 1, Blackwell said.

Two Astronauts Receive Wings

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Space twins James A. McDivitt and Edward H. White and Air Force Capt. Joe H. Engle received their astronauts' wings today in ceremonies at the Pentagon.

McDivitt and White qualified for the wings because of their historic Gemini-4 flight June 3. Engle earned his on June 29 when he flew the X15 rocket plane to an altitude of 53.4 miles. Under Air Force regulations when he has flown at $5,000 a month, a man becomes an astronaut when he has flown at an altitude greater than 50 miles.

Deserter Found

SALINAS, Calif. (UPI) — Two FBI agents thought the man who passed in a pickup truck Wednesday reminded them of the late singer Ezio Pinza.

They promptly arrested Joe Romero Perez, 42, who deserted the Marine Corps in 1944.

Perez's resemblance to Pinza and a recent photograph on a "wanted" poster enabled the agents to recognize him, they said, although Perez had gained 100 pounds and grew two inches taller in the 21 years.

"I don't think his old uniform would fit," one agent said.

Launching of U. S. Satellites Is Postponed

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The Air Force has postponed the launching of two nuclear detection satellites until it learns why an Atlas-Agena rocket failed in a flight on the West Coast.

A similar Atlas-Agena was to have orbited the twin satellites from Cape Kennedy today to detect secret nuclear explosions in space. But officials want to be certain the same failure won't repeat on the rocket here.

At Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif., Monday the main sustainer engine of the Atlas booster shut down prematurely and the rocket was destroyed by the range safety officer when it veered off course. The rocket carried a secret military satellite.

TARGET SET

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The United Nations children's fund has set a sales target of 45 million Christmas holiday greeting cards for 1965, an increase of seven million over 1964. It hopes to make a net profit of $2.8 million, compared with $2.4 million last year.

Boys Outnumber Girls as Juvenile Offenders in T. F.

Little girls are traditionally made of "everything nice." While this may not be literally true, the records of the Twin Falls County Probate Court show that whatever little girls are made of, it is a much less troublesome substance than what little boys are made of.

In the fiscal year ending June 30, Judge Zoe Ann Shaub's Probate Court handled 150 juvenile offenders, of which 139 were male and only 11 female.

Liquor violations were the most common offense, with 47 boys and four girls being charged with such violations during the year.

Stealing was next, with 35 boys and one girl, followed by malicious mischief with 10 boys and one girl and burglary with eight boys and no girls.

The only category in which the boys compiled a better record than girls was forgery, where one girl and no boys were charged.

Older juveniles were more prone to become involved with the law than younger ones, with 50 of the 150 offenders being 17 years of age and 39 16 years of age, while only three were 11 years of age or younger.

Man Is Back In Lumber Business

CELINA, Tenn. (AP) — Wesley Lee is ready to return to the lumber business for the first time in 18 years. And he returns to his home in Tiptonville, Ky., in the belief that justice has been done by the conviction of Grover Jones for the hit-run death of his father 25 years ago.

Jones, 56, of neighboring Jackson County, was sentenced to one year and one day here Wednesday after being convicted of involuntary manslaughter. He was accused of driving the car which struck and killed New Lee, 64, as the victim crossed the road in front of his home, Tenn., home on New Year's Eve 1944.

Lee vowed the night his father died that he would find the driver of that car. He began a search for evidence which eventually forced him to retire from the lumber business in 1947 and which cost him $100,000 before it ended.

During 100,000 miles of travel, Lee compiled a voluminous collection of evidence which resulted in Jones' indictment in the case last year.

Jones' first trial ended in a mistrial. The second trial began Monday.

Adlai Stevenson Disliked Political Campaigning

Lions Told Of Life in Afganistan

Twin Falls Lions Club members were visited by Dale Fritz, Cheyenne, Wyo., a vocational agriculture adviser for the Agency for International Development (AID) program, during their noon luncheon meeting Wednesday.

Fritz has just returned from spending eight years in Afghanistan and is visiting Twin Falls between assignments. He spoke to the club on Afghanistan, its people and their culture.

Fritz said the average life of an Afghan is about 31 years. When asked the country's opinion of the United States, Fritz replied that the Afghan people seem to like Americans and appreciate what the U. S. is trying to do for their country.

Afghanistan, said Fritz, has only one radio station, which is government owned. The government also owns and operates gasoline and sugar industries and gasoline stations dispense both.

Shoes in Afghanistan, according to Fritz, are made from old tires, with the ply being separated and the tread used for the soles.

Fritz said if a person wants to purchase a length of lumber, the only size which can be obtained is eight-by-ten inches and eight feet in length, as that is "the only size which will fit a camel."

The camel is the most common mode of transportation in Afghanistan.

Special guests at Wednesday's luncheon meeting, in addition to Fritz, were Faren Faler, international counselor, who told the group about the international convention in Los Angeles July 7-11; Vaun McCarther and Charles Casey, all Twin Falls; John Steckman, Boise; Joe Fendley, Elberton, Ga.; Bill Rawcliffe, Utah Lake Lions, Provo, Utah, and Carl Sherwood, Los Altos, Calif.

New Office Established By Agencies

BOISE (AP) — Better representation for Idaho producers in freight rate controversies was described today as the goal of a new office established by three state agencies.

Joining in the endeavor are the Idaho Wheat Commission, the Idaho Bean Commission and the Idaho Prune Commission.

"We've never had anyone specifically representing us in the past when matters of transportation, such as freight rates, were involved," said Harold West, administrator of the Wheat and Bean Commissions.

The name, Idaho Transportation Council, is being used by the new agency but West said he is not certain that name will be retained.

Cost of the endeavor is being borne jointly by the three commissions but the state is providing office space and secretarial help in the Public Utilities Commission offices in the State Industrial Building.

Named full-time consultant is a former employe of the Commission of Public Docks in Portland, Ore., Robert L. Henry, 38.

He will be paid on a retainer basis to represent the commissions in freight rate cases and in other transportation matters.

Marvin C. Hall Honored at Rites

BURLEY — Funeral services for Marvin C. Hall were held Wednesday afternoon in the Burley Church of Christ with the Rev. Eugene M. Waldrum officiating.

Four vocal selections were sung by a women's trio.

Pallbearers were Tom Etherington, Vern Steel, Henry Moore, Ron Elquist, Kenneth Osterhour and Richard Gee. Flowers were under the direction of Alta Fairchild, Carolyn Gee and Joyce Cox.

Final rites were held in the Pleasant View Cemetery. Grave-side military services were directed by Veterans of Foreign Wars with Walter Smythe, commander; Leo Fuller, escort commander; John Curtis, color bearer; Daryl Cargill and F. M. Lee, color guards; Frank Haynes, chaplain; Ray Card, Floyd Mason, Robert McNeil, Lowell Dayley and Jim Cox, firing squad; Emmett Olmstead, officer of the day; Joe Cox, bugler; and Winston Dalley, folding of flag.

Pressing Mitt Shown at Milner

MILNER — Carol Warr demonstrated making a pressing mitt at a meeting of the Milnerettes 4-H Club at her home Tuesday afternoon.

Members planned the annual Mother's luncheon that will be given during July.

Mrs. Edwin Brune, leader, demonstrated two ways of finishing seams, how to fit a sleeve, off-grain stitching and how to clean stitch, hand stitch and machine stitch a hem.

Myra Kirk led the 4-H pledge and Shelly Breeding the pledge of allegiance. Carol Warr served refreshments.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Few men ever disliked campaigning so heartily and did so much of it as Adlai E. Stevenson in two unsuccessful races for the presidency. The man who was the Democratic presidential nominee in 1952 and 1956 and who died in London Wednesday left behind him a legacy of "talking sense to the American people" — even if they didn't want to hear it at the time.

His sparkling wit, his quick, brilliant mind, his unwavering integrity and his ability to wrap his ideas in shimmering packages of words survived Stevenson's distaste for what he once called "choice by hubbaloobaloo" in the election of presidents. Stevenson said the candidate had to "write at every chance, think if possible, read mail and newspapers, talk on the telephone, talk to everybody and ride through city after city on the back of an open car, smiling until your mouth is dehydrated by the wind, waving until the blood runs out of your arms." Then, he went on, the candidate had to "bounce gaily, confidently, masterfully into great howling halls, shaved and all made up for television with the right color shirt and tie — I always forgot — and a manuscript so defaced with chicken tracks and last-minute jottings that you couldn't follow it, even if the spotlights weren't blinding and even if the still photographers didn't shoot you in the eye everytime you looked at them." Stevenson desperately wanted to avoid taking the nomination in 1952 and run for re-election as governor of Illinois, where he with Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower felt he was getting his teeth into an important job. But circumstances and Harry S. Truman prevailed to shove Stevenson into a 1952 contest. At the beginning, Stevenson hadn't felt he and Eisenhower were far apart on foreign policy. But in 1956 he campaigned desperately for the nomination because he felt that the Republican administration was letting world leadership slip through its fingers. Again there was defeat. As Stevenson quipped, it hurt too much for him to smile and he was too old to cry.

Presidents of Italy and France Will Open Mont Blanc Auto Tunnel

COURMAYEUR, Italy (AP)—Under Europe's highest mountain, the presidents of Italy and France will join Friday in opening the monumental Mont Blanc tunnel—an event likely to give European unity efforts at least a symbolic boost. From the time work first started on the tunnel in 1959, it was hailed as a new link in the European unity cause revived after World War II. The tunnel is opening at a time when President Charles de Gaulle's France is in bitter dispute with its Common Market partners and the unity movement is stalemated.

De Gaulle himself is joining in the opening with President Giuseppe Saragat, Italy's first Socialist president and a man with his own strong ideas about European unity. Those ideas have not always been accepted by De Gaulle.

But here in the Alps, even if they do not agree on the politics of European unity, they will together open an artery that could pump new life into the idea. The tunnel could boost tourism and commerce not only in France and Italy but in the countries beyond.

The Mont Blanc auto tunnel is Western Europe's newest transportation miracle—a relatively short link to cut time and distance, opening a new way to speed freight and travelers past the Alpine barrier between Italy and France.

The two-lane 7.2-mile tunnel road bypasses 60 miles and several hours of travel over the hairpin mountain road. This means swifter, cheaper truck transport between France and northern Italy.

It means easier access — and thus a lure — for the tourist seeking a more comfortable route through the Alps.

Thirteen workmen — eight Italians and five Frenchmen — were killed and scores injured in the six years it took to build the tunnel 11,400 feet below the snow-covered peak of the 15,772-foot mountain.

At each end of the tunnel, connecting Chamonix, France with Courmayeur, are powerful ventilating stations to provide fresh air. Traffic moving 30 to 40 miles an hour over the 24-foot wide roadway, will pass through the tunnel in just a little more than 10 minutes.

Penalties on "Goof Balls" Sale Sought

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson gains a strong new weapon for his war on crime today when he signs into law a bill imposing stiff federal penalties on the manufacture and sale of "goof balls" and "pep pills."

The Chief Executive was scheduled to sign the measure at ceremonies in the White House. The Food and Drug Administration has estimated that half of the 9 billion amphetamines, stimulants and barbiturates depressants manufactured in the United States annually are sold in the black market.

The pills are purchased by teenagers looking for kicks, truck drivers who need help staying awake on long trips and persons seeking a substitute for narcotics, the FDA said.

The legislation calls for bigger fines and longer jail terms for bootleg pill peddlers and illegal manufacturers of the drugs, generally prescribed by doctors to treat nervous disorders.

Druggists would be required to keep strict sales records on the pills and permit FDA inspectors to check them periodically.

To maintain tighter supervision on distribution, the bill requires manufacturers and wholesalers to keep detailed records of shipments of the two drugs.

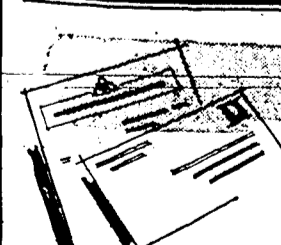

Wife Arrested
REDHILL, England (UPI)—A Dorset detective sent to a supermarket to pick up a woman for shoplifting, arrested his own wife. Mrs. Cane was fined $14 while her husband sat in the public gallery.

Johnson Inks Bill To Aid Elderly

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson has signed a bill he predicts will bring "a real new day" for Americans 65 or older.

The $17.5-million authorization bill sets up an Administration on Aging in the Welfare Department, with the aim of coordinating federal activities for the aging under one roof.

Jack Benny's Joke on Age Is Women's Motto

By ALICIA HART

NEW YORK. (NEA) — What began as a joke about age by Jack Benny now is a lifeline at which scads of maturing women grab. But we can't all be 39 forever.

Many women try to stay the inevitable birthday with ridiculous-looking clothes, hairdos and freak make-up. Designers such as Courrèges encourage millions to be later-day Shirley Temples but the truly chic woman takes her years in stride.

Properly used cosmetics, exercise and clothes cut and colored for her changing figure and complexion tone have turned out a raft of truly handsome, mature women.

Eye make-up does much to enhance the mature woman's features. In selecting eye make-up, key it to the changing color of your skin, whether your hair is gray or color-tinted.

Overall blush makeup foundation is a boon to the mature woman. Exercise extreme care, though, and avoid too sharp or harsh contrast in the color of your cosmetic.

For the eyes, the hard-penciled eyebrow line is out for everyone. If you have penciled your brows, this way through the eyes correct it to a softer eyebrow line. You will find brush-on pressed powder eyebrow color makes defining your eyebrows easier. Also avoid really dark shades, even if your hair is tinted brown. The secret is to emphasize brows delicately.

Eyeshadow, too, must become a subtle understatement of color. You are very lucky to have a wide choice of pastel eye make-up, the muted blues and greens, frosted or silvery, to highlight gray or white hair.

A muted-color mascara also is best for your coloring. You may want to use a dark or black mascara for evening and you will find the new tone-on-tone mascara specially blended to soften the black.

MR. AND MRS. W. L. KALBFLEISCH

Miss Agidius, Kalbfleisch Recite Vows

Jeanne Agidius, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Agidius, Moscow, was married to Wayne L. Kalbfleisch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emory Kalbfleisch, Filer, in a double-ring ceremony June 12 at the Church of the Nazarene by Rev. Walter E. Lanman.

A white iron archway, flanked by baskets of white gladioli and blue daisies, and candelabra with white tapers and bows decorated the platform.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace fashioned in a slim silhouette with a scalloped hem, bateau neckline and long, lily point sleeves.

A bouffant chapel train flowed from an organza bow at the waistline. Pearl and crystal adorned a crown of lace attached to an elbow-length veil of illusion.

She wore a diamond-centered cross and carried a white Bible covered with a white orchid and stephanotis.

Linda Kay Watts was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Jeannette Fetter, Salli Valdor, Donna Kindschy and Connie Kalbfleisch, Filer, sister of the bridegroom.

Capt. Darrel Kalbfleisch, Mountain Home, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Roger Kalbfleisch, John Lanting, Carl Wambolt, all Filer. Candlelighters were Jimmy Bell and Paul Agidius, brother of the bride.

Kathy Agidius, sister of the bride, was flower girl and ring-bearer was Randy Kalbfleisch, Mountain Home, nephew of the bridegroom.

A reception was held at Nazarene Youth Center. Mrs. Pat Agidius, Santa Ana, Calif., sister-in-law of the bride, assisted with the guest book and Mrs. Arthur Franklin and Mrs. Everett Hagen with the gift table.

Mrs. Walter Lanman and Mrs. Charles Platt cut and served the four-tiered wedding cake. Mrs. J. Edwin Gray poured coffee and Mrs. Edward Harris, Pullman, Wash., served punch.

Hazel Ann Agidius, 4-year-old sister of the bride, served the bridegroom's cake. Mrs. Randall Jack, assisted by Mrs. Robert Bell and Kathy Jack, was in charge of the reception.

A reception was given for the couple by the bridegroom's parents at Filer.

Out-of-town guests attended from Santa Ana, Calif.; Metairie and Goldendale, Wash., Mountain Home and Filer.

Westerners in Congress to Try to Keep Silver in Coins

WASHINGTON (AP) — Westerners in Congress plan a fight this week to keep silver in coins. In the forefront of their lines in a coinage bill comes up in the House today or Tuesday will be Reps. Compton, White Jr., D-Idaho, and Wayne N. Aspinall, D-Colo.

Assured of help from other mining state representatives, the two will captain efforts to amend the bill which calls for coins without silver, which is produced in the West and traditionally has clinked on western store counters and bars.

The westerners will try first to restore silver to half dollars. If successful, they then will work on quarters and dimes, seeking to give the Treasury discretionary authority to use silver in the smaller coins.

A Senate-passed bill would eliminate silver from dimes and quarters and reduce the silver content of half dollars to 40 percent. The bill coming up in the House, approved by the House Banking Committee, would strike silver from all coins.

Plans for the fight for silver in coins were discussed at two recent strategy meetings.

Aspinall, chairman of the House Interior Committee, which handles mineral production legislation, told colleagues in the fight, "we are not trying to get into the controversy of the rights of consumers versus the rights of the producers."

"Both of these must be considered."

Spanking Okay

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — Gov. Otto Kerner signed into law Wednesday a bill permitting public school teachers to spank unruly pupils.

The governor said the measure had the support of various teacher organizations, administrators and parents.

"This legislation was urged, not to allow teachers to beat children, but rather to provide a defense against harassment suits," Kerner said.

Wedding Consultant Advises Short Honeymoon Trips

CHICAGO (AP) — The honeymoon is much sweeter when short, says a wedding consultant, and short honeymoons are better for a marriage too.

"The most surprising thing is that many times a couple gets bored with each other on a long honeymoon," consultant Louis Seno said in an interview.

"The shorter the honeymoon, the better. Two weeks is the most I'd advise," he said.

Installation Rites Slated At Castleford

BUHL — Special installation services for Rev. Paul La Rue, new pastor serving the joint congregations of the Buhl and Castleford Methodist churches, will be held at 11:10 a.m. Sunday at the Castleford church.

For this Sunday only there will be only one worship service for both churches at 11 a.m. However, Sunday school classes will be held from 9:40 to 10:40 a.m. at the Buhl church and at 10 a.m. at the Castleford church.

All members of the Buhl congregation are urged to attend the service. Those in need of transportation are urged to contact either Rev. Mr. La Rue or Ell Boring.

Rev. Wendell L. Coe, eastern district superintendent, Boise, will give the sermon and conduct the installation. Included in the special ceremony will be parts of the service of ordination.

The service will begin with a procession of choir members, lay officers of both churches as well as clergy and representatives from the MYF youth group and from the children's division of the church schools.

Special music will be provided by the combined choirs of the two churches directed by Mrs. William Watt. Mrs. Bill Kinyon and Mrs. Everett Martin will play piano and organ duets. A potluck dinner and fellowship hour will be held after the ceremony.

2 Ely Men Are Killed in Crash

ELY, Nev. (AP) — Two young Ely men were killed Wednesday in the crash of a light plane 40 feet from the pilot's ranch home near here.

Killed were the pilot, Dale Heckethorn, 23, and his passenger, Keith Yelland, 20.

Sheriff Archie Robison of White Pine County said the single-engine Aerona Champion crashed as Heckethorn apparently was attempting to land in a field next to his home.

A younger brother of Heckethorn witnessed the crash.

Hansen Man Is Hired at Bliss

BLISS — Marvin E. Rose, Hansen, has been hired as school superintendent at Bliss.

Former Supt. Dale Wakem has resigned to move to Oregon.

Rose was principal of the Hansen Junior High School and was on the coaching staff. Mr. and Mrs. Rose have two children and will move into the teacherage occupied by Wakem.

years, said the anxiety and excitement leading to the wedding puts a couple on their best behavior.

"Then suddenly they're married. They think they know each other, but then they start spending 24 hours a day together and discover they don't."

"In a strange resort, surrounded by strangers, the discovery that Prince Charming snores or has a few minor faults can be devastating."

"The newly married couple obligates each other to constant entertainment. They see little or nothing connected with their home life."

Seno, 41 and father of four, said a short honeymoon gives the couple a chance to be alone, and that the return home means the real beginning of happiness.

"At home, even though it's a brand-new apartment, a bride can take things in stride," Seno said. "The man gets up and goes to work, and the wife has a chance to relax, do her daily chores and dismiss the little frailties of her husband."

Seno said the most susceptible persons to a soured honeymoon are women who have lived with their parents and have made few trips.

"The more the homebody, the more they look forward to a trip — and stretch it too long," he said. "Many women end up getting homesick. As a result impatience and misunderstanding develop."

Eels Invade

GALVESTON, Tex. (UPI) — A distraught woman called police Wednesday to report "hundreds of long black snakes are crawling up the 29th St. Pier."

Officers found that, indeed, slinky animals were crawling around the pier, but they were not snakes. "They're eels," said police Sgt. Henry Tauch.

"They're about two feet long and they have very sharp teeth."

"When the eels started swimming in, most of the swimmers came swimming out, said one policeman.

Wilson Says Vietnamese Decline Talks

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Harold Wilson said today the North Vietnamese declined to talk peace with his envoy, Harold Davies, because they think they are going to win the war against South Viet Nam.

Wilson told the House of Commons the Communist North Vietnamese are convinced "their prospects of victory are too imminent for it to be worth their while to forsake the battlefield for the conference table."

Davies, a deputy minister of pensions in the Labor government, returned Wednesday from Hanoi. He was denied an audience by President Ho Chi Minh or any other ranking member of the government.

Wilson said one of the reasons for the turnaround of Davies probably was that North Viet Nam did not want to appear to be giving ground after previously refusing to meet a proposed British commonwealth peace mission headed by Wilson.

The prime minister said he did not intend to let this setback stop efforts by the British government to bring about peace.

"Indeed, other measures are already going ahead to try to get a dialogue with those responsible," he added, without elaboration.

Boy Drowns in Ditch at Home

SPANISH FORK, Utah (AP)—A two-year-old boy drowned on Wednesday evening when he tumbled into a ditch in front of his family's home.

Pronounced dead at Payson Hospital was Bryon Dean Wilkinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilkinson. The family home is in Leland, about a mile south of Spanish Fork.

The boy and his sister, Trina Ann, 4, were playing in front of their grandparents' home immediately in front of their parents' residence.

Wilkinson said just before he went to check on the children. He was met by Trina who told him the boy had fallen into the ditch.

The swift irrigation water carried the boy through a 50-foot culvert under the Wilkinsons' front lawn. The body was found about three quarters of a mile downstream by the boy's father.

Suit Filed For Accident Settlement

MOUNTAIN HOME, Idaho (AP) — A $2 million damage suit naming the State of Idaho, the Idaho Health Department and John Flores, an inmate of the state penitentiary, as defendants is on file in District Court here.

It was brought on behalf of the survivors of Mrs. Rae Lynn Hiler, 21, and her 21-month-old son, Fred W. Hiler, who were killed July 1, 1963, in a two-car collision near Hammett in Elmore County.

The suit charges that Flores, who was being taken to the Youth Training Center at St. Anthony in a state car, grabbed the wheel of the vehicle, turning it into the path of the Hiler auto.

Flores was later convicted on a manslaughter charge brought in connection with the accident and sentenced to 10 years in the penitentiary.

The 1965 Legislature approved a measure appropriating $25,000 for the Hiler family but it was vetoed by Gov. Robert E. Smylie who contended the action was unconstitutional.

Business Mirror AP By SAM DAWSON NEW YORK (AP)—An all-out spacecraft attack is shaping up on that old problem of what to do about the weather. If successful, it could save U.S. industry, transportation, marketing and agriculture several billion dollars a year—many times the cost of the project.

Tiros 10, last of the experimental weather satellites, has just joined three of its predecessors still taking pictures of weather and weather-breeding conditions around the world.

Since Tiros 1 was launched in 1960, the first nine satellites have produced 500,000 TV photos. Based on them the Weather Bureau has issued some 4,000 advisories and warnings. Benefiting in the consequent saving of lives and property have been 25 other nations. The program to date has cost about $60 million.

Early next year the full-scale program, called TOS for Tiros Operational Satellites, will start. It will cost about $30 million a year to operate and will serve a government agency created this week. Environmental Science Services Administration. This combines the work of the U.S. Weather Bureau and the Coast and Geodetic Survey. In October it also will include the Central Radio Propagation Laboratory.

The new agency is charged with creating "a single national focus for our efforts to describe, understand and predict the state of the oceans, the state of the lower and upper atmosphere and the size and shape of the earth."

The aim is eventually to find out how to control the weather or modify its effects. A more immediate goal is to perfect ways of predicting weather accurately. The National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) has said that if accurate could be obtained only five days in advance the annual savings in the United States alone could run as high as:

Agriculture, $2 1/2 billion; lumber industry, $45 million; surface transportation, $100 million; marketing, $25 million; water resources; management, $3 billion a year.

The Tiros 10 spacecraft, built for NASA by Radio Corporation of America, is specifically charged with covering the 1965 hurricane season in the United States.

Like Tiros 9, it is in polar orbit.

Q. We have been buying Series E, U.S. Savings Bonds for years. We have no real complaint about these bonds. But we are curious about something. We would much rather put up $18.75 or $37.50 to buy a bond issued by a state government rather than pay the same amount for a bond issued by the Federal government.

A. All states do. That's the shortest answer I can give you. But from that point on things do get complicated.

States and their political subdivisions (counties, cities, towns, school districts, etc.) issue and sell bonds. These are called "municipal bonds" or "tax-free public bonds."

The second is the better term, because the owners of such bonds are not required to pay Federal income tax on the interest they get from their bonds. There are some $95 billion of such bonds outstanding.

However, those bonds are entirely different from E bonds. An E bond is a "discount security." You buy it at one price. When you cash it in you get a higher price—the amount you paid, plus the interest that has accrued (built up) on it.

All municipal bonds are "current interest bonds." If you buy one, you collect your interest twice a year. This is a normal thing with most bonds including municipal government obligations.

Unlike U. S. Savings Bonds, bit and covers 80 per cent of the earth's surface each day. Tiros 10 will send back photos of cloud cover, storms, hurricanes and typhoons in all their stages.

Mets Go With Youth, Waive Warren Spahn

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Mets, going all out for 74-year-old Casey Stengel's youth development program, put Warren Spahn on waivers for $1 Wednesday. The Mets said the purpose of the waiver request, telegraphed to the National League office in Cincinnati, was to give the 44-year-old pitcher-coach his unconditional release and an opportunity to make a deal for himself. The Mets previously had offered him at the regular interclub waiver price of $20,000 and found no takers.

Spahn, who joined the Mets this year after 20 seasons with the Braves in Boston and Milwaukee, had won only four games and lost 12 this season. He had dropped eight straight decisions since beating Philadelphia May 24. He appeared in two no-decision games during that period.

Spahn said that he still feels he can help a big league club. "I feel I can still go nine innings," he said. "Physically I feel fine and my arm is strong. I'll take an oath on it. There isn't any reason why I can't pitch creditably for any club in the big leagues."

Spahn pulled his last appearance for the Mets "a night or two" ago last Saturday when he lasted only one inning against the Houston Astros.

Stengel, the Mets' manager who will be 75 July 20, a ready hand indicated that his plans for the remainder of the season will mainly concern the development of younger players. He told Spahn several days ago that he no longer would be considered as a regular starting pitcher.

Spahn then offered to join the Mets' relief corps with the idea of pitching his way back into a starting job, but Stengel thought that would merely deprive some younger player of a chance.

"We want to give the younger men an opportunity on our roster in the youth development program," Stengel said.

Spahn was one of the highest-paid pitchers in the major leagues as well as one of the most successful. Whether or not he makes a connection with another club, he will receive one month's salary from the Mets at a rate estimated at about $85,000 a year.

"This was not a move born of economy," said Mets General Manager George Weiss. "We purchased him from Milwaukee knowing his salary. We thought he would help our club."

"It was Casey's decision to make," Weiss added. "I hope he catches on with another club."

Spahn will be replaced by Wes Westrum as the Mets' pitching coach.

Spahn's four victories this year gave him a major league total of 360, putting him in a tie with Kid Nichols for sixth among all-time major league winners. He has lost 241.

In 20 seasons with the Braves from 1942 through 1964, with three years out for military service, Spahn won 20 or more games in 13 seasons—a major league record for left-handers. Among many other records are his 360 lifetime victories and 2,549 strikeouts, both records for left-handers. He struck out 100 or more batsmen in 17 consecutive seasons, a mark bettered only by Walter Johnson, a right-hander whose 18 seasons of 100 strikeouts weren't consecutive.

Idaho Juniors To Qualify For U.S. Meet

BOISE—The qualifiers' quota for Idaho for the 18th Junior Amateur Golf Championship, slated Aug. 3-7 at Wilmington, Del., went from two to three this year as 28 entries readied for the sectional qualifying round at Hillcrest Country Club Tuesday.

A pro-junior tournament will be held Monday as practice for the 18-hole medal play qualification round Tuesday.

Last year junior golfers from Oregon, California and Idaho went the route at Blue Lakes Country Club in Twin Falls with John Dropping and Bill Bader, both Boise, taking the two berths. Bader won his berth after a sudden death playoff with another Boise golfer, Paul Bayhouse.

Since all three have passed the age limit, the three 1965 berths will be wide-open targets.

The 150 sectional qualifiers from across the nation, including Hawaii, will find additional qualifying at the Wilmington Country Club's South Course the first two days to narrow the field down to 64 for medal play the final three days.

A new champion is assured since 1964 winner, John Miller of San Francisco has exceeded the age limit.

St. Louis Park Opening Delayed

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals probably will not be able to open the baseball season next year in the new downtown sports stadium because of construction delays.

Contractors for the privately financed $50-million, 325-million stadium disclosed Wednesday that it appears the stadium will not be ready until the latter part of next June. The 1966 season opens in mid-April.

Spahn's last 20-game season was 1963, when he had a 23-7 record for the Braves. He slipped to 6-13 the following season. This season he has pitched 126 innings in 20 games and has an earned run average of 4.36.

Oliver Wants Third Straight World All-Around Cowboy Title

BOISE (UPI)—He started throwing a rope at a bale of hay long before he had a horse and could practice on calves. Now he's going for his eighth title as world champion calf roping and third straight as world all-around cowboy.

Dean Oliver of Boise, Idaho, is on top now in the all-around status with earnings that total over $10,000 for the season and is in second place in his calf roping specialty with $15,000. The Rodeo artist competes two nights in roping and two in bull-dogging this week at Nampa's Snake River Stampede.

The 35-year-old cowboy rates the stampede as "one of the best," along with the big-time rodeos at Pendleton, Cheyenne, and Calgary. At present Oliver jumps back and forth across the country by car or plane trying for purses at some 60 rodeos each year.

It's the horse—in addition to much practice, patience, luck and ability—that makes the difference, he says. Oliver values his roping pony Mickey at $10,000, a horse he bought for only $2,500. He buys his horses trained because his 11-month rodeo tour each year leaves him no time to train them himself.

"It's a gamble," Oliver says,

Chicago Nips Indians 12-10 In 12 Innings

CLEVELAND (AP)—Jim Schaffer's tie-breaking double and Al Weis' two-run single in the 12th inning—after an error opened the gates—gave the Chicago White Sox a 12-10 victory over Cleveland Wednesday night, extending the Indians' losing streak to six games.

Don Buford reached second base with one out in the 12th when shortstop Dick Howser dropped his pop fly. Tom McCraw was purposely passed before Schaffer delivered the go-ahead run with his double to left center.

J. C. Martin drew an intentional walk, loading the bases, and Weis singled to center for the insurance runs.

The Indians scored a run in the bottom of the 12th, Rocky Colavito knocking in Howser, who had doubled, with a sacrifice fly.

The Indians tied the score 9-9 in the bottom of the ninth when pinch hitter Fred Whitfield hit reliever Eddie Fisher's first pitch over the right-field fence for his 10th homer.

RECORD-BREAKING Ron Clarke, Australia, foreground, is shown during the 10,000 meter race in Oslo, Norway, Wednesday when he cracked two world records. Clark Sets Two Marks, Breaks 28-Minute Barrier in 10,000

OSLO, Norway (AP)—Australia's Ron Clarke smashed two more world records Wednesday night in becoming the first runner to crack the 28-minute barrier for 10,000 meters. Running virtually by himself after the first couple of laps, the lean 28-year-old Aussie battered the pending world marks for six miles and 10,000 meters—about 6 1/4 miles—with fantastic times of 26:47.0 for six miles and 27:39.4 for the 10,000 over the fast Bislet Stadium track. He had predicted he would erase all marks for the distances but his times were almost incredible. He knocked 24.6 seconds off the pending mark of 27:11.6 for six miles and 34.6 seconds off the pending time for the 10,000.

Only last Saturday the Melbourne businessman became the first runner to crack the 13-minute barrier for three miles with a world-record time of 12:52.4.

The American Olympians, Billy Mills and Gerry Lindgren, had racked up a record-breaking time of 27:11.6 for six miles in their near dead heat in the National A.A.U. championships at San Diego, Calif., last month.

Clarke's time for the 10,000 far eclipsed his pending record of 28:14.0 set at Turku, Finland, last June 16.

He is the holder of the listed world records of 27:17.8 for six miles and 28:15.6 for 10,000 meters. He posted these marks in one race in his home town of Melbourne Dec. 18, 1963.

The Australian was cheered on by a crowd of about 17,000. When he headed into the final lap with the world records a certainty, the spectators jumped to their feet and gave him a tremendous ovation.

His two opponents, Jim Hogan of Ireland and Claus Beersen of Denmark, were no match for the powerful Aussie.

Hogan was lapped once and Beersen twice. Hogan was clocked in the good time of 29:19.6 and Beersen in 31:03.2.

After he breasted the tape, the Australian was embraced by officials and athletes. He sportingly refused to leave the track until his two rivals had finished.

Talking with newsmen after the amazing race, Clarke said: "I told you beforehand that I would set a new world record."

He said his record-breaking feats were "a birthday present for my football-player brother Jack, who is at present in Melbourne."

He declined to predict how much faster he could run the 10,000.

Clarke said his next race will be at 5,000 meters in Paris Friday, but he will "just run to win."

Clarke's sensational times overshadowed everything else in the first day of the two-day international meet.

Bill Crothers of Canada scored his second straight victory over Olympic champion Peter Snell of New Zealand in the 800-meter run. Crothers, who was second to Snell in the Tokyo 1964 last year, was timed in 1:47.1 to Snell's 1:47.8. Britain's John Boulter, the pace-setter for the first 400 in 53.0, was third in 1:48.7.

IDAHO FALLS (AP)—Hal Jeffcoat shutout the Idaho Falls Angels with a four-hitter Wednesday as the Magic Valley Cowboys broke up a pitching duel in the seventh inning for a 2-0 Pioneer League victory. Fishing Conditions Show Little Improvement From Last Week

BOISE (AP)—Fishing conditions in Idaho have changed little in the past week, the Fish and Game Department said Wednesday in its weekly summary. "Some reservoir fishing is slowing up due to higher temperature and mossy conditions," the summary said. "Fly hatches have been coming off and thereby improving the lot of the fly fishermen." The department said many high mountain lakes still are emergency closure action. This action was necessary to insure enough spawning salmon reaching the spawning beds on upper streams.

"The number of salmon in Idaho water is greatly reduced from previous records."

Here is the department's area summary:

Magie Valley Region
In the Magie Valley region we find that fair to good fishing is available at Magie Reservoir, the Big Wood River below the dam and the Richfield canal.

Little Smoky, Camas, Willow, and Soldier creeks have been fair to good fishing. The South Fork of the Boise and Big Smoky are expected to improve even though the water is still high. Improved fishing should also be found on Rock Creek, Goose Creek and Bostetter.

Oakley Reservoir has been good fishing, but other waters in the east Cassia area have been quite slow. Salmon Reservoir has been good for crappie and slow on trout. Roseworth Reservoir is fair fishing and the Jarbidge River has dropped for fair fishing. Hagerman Valley waters have been slow producers so far.

Salmon Region
The main Salmon River above Slate Creek is high in flow but

CLEVELAND, OHIO (AP)—A teenage girl broke down under cross-examination and left the courtroom crying Wednesday after she testified that pro-football star Jim Brown slapped her around in a motel room on the night of June 19 and forced her to commit an unnatural sex act.

Cubs Collect 6-4 Victory Over Dodgers

POCATELLO (AP)—Relief pitcher Joe Decker blanked Pocatello for six and a third inning Wednesday night as Treasure Valley took a 6-4 Pioneer League victory.

Decker took over for Craig Glasco with Pocatello holding a 4-1 lead in the third inning. He allowed only three singles for the rest of the game as the Cubs improved their first place standing.

Jim Atterbury and Gary Cortapassi led Treasure Valley's 11-hit assault. Atterbury singled, Cortapassi tripled and John Hairston singled as the Cubs scored twice to tie the score at 4-4 in the sixth inning.

The Cubs went ahead with one run in the seventh and added another run in the eighth on a double struck by Cortapassi who scored on an error and ground out later.

Poor Brakes Are Cause of Burley Crash

BURLEY—George B. Jeffs, 18, 600 Miller Ave., Burley, was cited for insufficient brakes after a two-car accident at 7:50 p.m. Sunday on Overland Avenue and 24th Street. Willard D. Allen, 33, 123 W. 21st St., Burley, was cited for failure to yield as operator of one of the autos.

Allen, driving a 1951 Chevrolet, pulled from parking space at the Blue Onion as Jeffs was unable to stop his 1957 Pontiac. It ran across curb and through a ditch, jumped a curb, traveled 45 feet down the ditch, struck a culvert and traveled another 75 feet before coming to a stop.

Passenger in the Jeffs' auto was Tanne Chrystal, 16, Route 1, Paul. Passengers in the Allen auto were Mrs. Allen, 29, Russell, 1 1/2, and Lari, 5.

At 1:25 p.m. Sunday Burley police investigated a two-car accident at Overland Avenue and 10th Street. Garth K. Osterhout, 16, Route 1, Declo, was cited for faulty equipment.

Ronald L. Bryant, 23, 1650 Monroe, Burley, driving a 1965 Plymouth two-door, was waiting for an auto to make a left-hand turn. Osterhout, driving a 1956 Plymouth, failed to stop and his car collided with the rear of the Bryant auto.

Kurt Stimpson, 18, Declo, was a passenger in the Osterhout auto and Leola Bryant, 51, and Reed Bryant, 56, both Burley, were passengers in the Bryant vehicle.

Gabriel

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Christmas postage stamps you'll be licking in about another five months will show the Archangel Gabriel blowing his horn.

For the first time in the four-year history of Christmas stamps, a religious theme will be prominent.

The design for the 5-cent stamp was announced today.

Yearly Mason Ceremony Is Set Saturday

HAILEY—Halley Lodge No. 18, AF and AM, invites all Master Masons to meet upon Bald Mountain to participate in the exemplification of the sublime degree of Master Mason at 2 p.m. Saturday.

Otto Broyles, worshipful master of the host lodge, points out this will be the 20th time the meeting has been held atop the famed Sun Valley mountain.

John F. Halliwell Jr., most worshipful grand master of Masons in Idaho, and his grand lodge officers will confer the first section of the third degree.

Buhl Lodge No. 52, AF and AM, with Thomas Kendrick, worshipful master, will confer the second degree. Gene Fingerson, Buhl, is the candidate for third degree honors.

Hattiwell, a graduate from Idaho State University in 1939, owns a drug store and is a pharmacist in Pocatello.

Masons and their families are invited to come to Sun Valley early as the Bald Mountain ski lift will start operating at 9 a.m. and family members may ride "the chairway to the stars" until 11 p.m.

Master Masons will take over the ski lift facilities to 9,000-foot Bald Mountain summit at 1 p.m. Three lifts are used to reach the summit.

A barbecue at Trail Creek cabin grounds is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. and the Ice Carnival produced by the Sun Valley Figure Skating Club will start at 9:15 p.m.

Dancing in the Duchin Room of Sun Valley Lodge to the music of Nap Miller's orchestra is another attraction which has always been enjoyed by the several thousand persons who attend annually.

Broyles says those who like to fish and play golf should bring their equipment, or, if they desire, may rent it here.

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

THURSDAY, July 15 — Born today, you have been gifted with a healthy balance of intellectual and physical attributes. Of the type that can probably best be described as "all-around," you take pleasure from both physical exertion and mental exercise. Clever with your hands and agile of mind, you will probably become involved in many activities outside those of your work, for you have a need to be constantly employing all your talents, both major and minor.

Affectionate by nature, you are somewhat inclined to hide your feelings behind a gruff exterior for fear of being hurt. Still, you will not be able to avoid all the heartaches of severed relationships and broken romance, for, though you can hide from others what you feel, you cannot hide from yourself. The fact that you usually give more than you receive in the ordinary relationships—even though you may not show it—does not help the situation.

Through marriage to a "giver" rather than a "taker," you can achieve great personal happiness, and—so can your mate. Marriage to a "taker" will only cause additional heartache. Because you are one to stick to a bargain, to maintain your marriage, the happiness or heartache that results will be prolonged.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Friday, July 16

CANCER (June 22-July 23)—Strenuous activity should be avoided. Minor morning setbacks may leave you disappointed; don't become discouraged, too.

LEO (July 24-Aug. 23)—Conditions excellent for the Leo bent on getting ahead professionally. Don't put all your eggs in one basket, however.

VIRGO (Aug. 24-Sept. 23)—Clouds should clear over the financial horizon. Shifting fortunes bring bright skies for the Virgo who takes advantage of opportunities.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)—Optimism could be Libra's fortune today. Greet others with a smile; accept misfortune with good grace.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 22)—Avoid underhanded methods of doing business. You'll reap more benefits in the long run from playing it straight.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22)—Uplifting trends should be known by noon today. Small benefits should snowball.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23-Jan. 20)—Don't let attractive inducements mislead you into activities you will regret. Stick to your principles.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)—Business affairs may seem erratic during morning hours. With proper handling, things should look up later in the day.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20)—Seek the cooperation of business partners before starting any new ventures. Avoid using your own or other people's money unwisely.

ARIES (March 21-April 20)—A property purchase may be in order. Avoid signing any contracts until you've made a full investigation.

TAURUS (April 21-May 21)—Efforts should be well rewarded by day's end. Don't be fooled into making major blunders.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)—Social relationships will become very important toward evening. Keep up appearances, and be on your guard against flattery.

Pioneers at Camas Set Yearly Event

FAIRFIELD—The Camas Prairie Association will hold its annual picnic at 1 p.m. Sunday at the Pioneer Campground on Soldier Creek near the ski lift.

The occasion will mark the 50th anniversary of the association and it is hoped by the planning committee that there will be a good turnout of oldtimers and their friends. It is suggested that old-style clothing be worn if possible. Some prizes will be awarded.

Those attending are requested to bring a picnic lunch and the Association will furnish coffee, punch and ice cream, also table service.

Anyone who can play a musical instrument is asked to bring it and help with the program that is to follow the dinner.

The association is composed of people who have resided for 30 years or more on Camas Prairie. Many return from out of town for this event each year. Fred Walton is the president.

Committees for this year's event are Mrs. Irene Leek, Mrs. Nellie Abbott and Freeman Love, welcoming; Mrs. Edward Krahn, Mrs. Charles Packham and Mildred Robinson, tables; Mr. and Mrs. Lonzo Baldwin, punch; Mrs. W. W. Leek, memorial; Carol Vanskike, Mrs. Irene Leek and Charles Packham, nominating, and Mrs. Verdie Johnson and Mrs. Eva Moore, both Gooding, entertainment.

3 T.F. Teachers Awarded Special Education Grants

Mrs. Eleanor Bodahl, Boise, consultant in special education with the State Department of Education, Boise, announced in Twin Falls, Tuesday that three Twin Falls teachers will be attending courses in special education through scholarship from the department.

Mrs. Lena Schmechel, local special education teacher, is studying the full summer at Idaho State University, Pocatello; Karen Fisher, Twin Falls, is attending classes on scholarship at the University of Idaho, Moscow, and Mrs. Gladys Coxen, Twin Falls, has been awarded a full-year scholarship to attend school at Idaho State University on leave of absence from the local school district.

Ninety-seven teachers are employed to teach special education classes to approximately 1,000 children. Of the 117 school districts in the state, 13 now operate special education classes.

There are five million mentally retarded children in the United States today and an additional 55,000 trained teachers are needed to teach these children.

To help meet the critical needs for trained special education teachers, the federal government has appropriated

Water, Sewage Bond Vote Slated July 20 in Burley

BURLEY—Burley will hold a special election July 20 for a bond issue of $250,000 to provide for increased water and sewage development. Earlier city administrators projected water need of $1,000,000 to $1,500,000, Burley Mayor Mack Couch said Tuesday.

Several months ago there was a power failure of over an hour and the present water storage lasted less than 30 minutes. The remedy for the situation is more and larger storage, Couch added.

Information on the coming water bond election is available at the city clerk's office or the mayor's office, both located in the city hall.

Campers Accepting New Fee Policy, Sawtooth Aide Notes

The fees charged for use of federal recreation areas have been very well accepted, according to Max Rees, supervisor, Sawtooth National Forest.

Rees said there haven't been any strong objections to the fee, although in several cases the campers chose to leave the campgrounds rather than to pay the fee.

Many federal areas in the state remain available to public use without charge. Under the new Land and Water Conservation Fund act, charges are made only where there is investment in recreation facilities and where collection of fees is feasible.

Parties not wishing to purchase the $7 federal recreation conservation sticker are charged special single day and seasonal rates, while reservations for groups are available at some of the campgrounds. The group rates amount to 10 cents per person. The rates are listed as: up to 50 persons, $5; 51 to 100, $10; 101 to 250, $20; 251 to 400, $35; and over 400 persons, $50.

Campgrounds in the Challis National Forest which charge 50 cents per day and $2 a season include Lola Creek, Riverside, Basin Creek, Mormon Bend, Salmon River, Stanley Lake, Inlet, Lakeview, Custer, Polecamp Flat, Flat Rock, Blind Creek, Upper O'Brien, Lower O'Brien, Holman Creek, Park Creek, Wildhorse and Iron Bog.

Salmon National Forest campgrounds include Crags, Yellow Jacket Lake, Lost Spring, Twin Creeks, Ebezezer Bar, Meadow Lake, Wallace Lake, Cougar Point, Iron Lake Camp, Lost Trail Pass, Deadwater Springs, Corn Creek Bar and Cache Creek Bar. Lost Trail Pass picnic area will only charge 25 cents and Twin Creeks and Meadow Lake are available for special users.

Campgrounds charging the fees in the Sawtooth National Forest include Wood River, North Fork, Eastlev, Redfish Outlet, Little Redfish, Redfish, Redfish Point, North Shore, Smokey Bear, Alluras Inlet, Boulders, Mt. Heyburn, Pioneer, Blaungartner, Schipper, Pettit, Lake Cleveland, Brackenbury,

Then Esham was arraigned before Knowles on a warrant charging that he drove 32 miles an hour in a 25-mile zone.

The warrant was signed by Nelson N. Spence Sr., a passenger in his son's car. He said the violation occurred as Esham led the Spence car to the magistrate's office.

Dogpatch Citizens to Induce Youths to Join Job Corps

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A couple of new Dogpatch citizens named Danny Driftwood and Sloppy-Belle have gone to work for A. Sargent Shriver to induce school dropouts and other jobless youths to join the Job Corps.

Shriver, head of President Johnson's war on poverty, said Tuesday that cartoonist Al Capp, creator of Li'l Abner, donated the equivalent of $200,000 worth of talent to put together the special cartoon book.

The 24-page book is titled, "Li'l Abner and the Creatures from Drop - Outer Space." The cartoon books—half a million of them—are the second major effort of the poverty agency to reach youth who would most benefit from its training and schooling programs.

The comic book introduces Danny Driftwood as a dropout who is guided by Li'l Abner to a job training center and emerges ready for a job. Sloppy-Belle is depicted as unemployed and undated. When Danny comes back home from training, he is more interested in nicer looking girls so Sloppy-Belle decides she had better get to Job Corps, too.

The first major recruiting effort was a controversial rock and roll television program called "It's What's Happening Baby."

Republicans in Congress called the show a scandal. But the poverty office said its mail proved it did exactly what it was supposed to do—reach the people for whom it was aimed.
