

Viet Cong Unit Is Attacked by Marines, Fleet

DA NANG, South Viet Nam (AP)—U. S. Marines and 7th Fleet gunners hammered today at a reinforced Viet Cong regiment on the Van Tuong peninsula, about 60 miles south of Da Nang, in a battle they called the biggest American ground engagement of the war.

Maj. Gen. Lewis W. Walt, the Marine commander, said Viet Cong casualties will run into the hundreds. "We're not through counting yet," Walt told newsmen.

Of American losses—officially described as light—the general said "75 per cent of our casualties were people who got shot in the back. It is very, very treacherous terrain."

The Leathernecks attacked in full regimental landing force, some from landing craft and others from helicopters and quickly established heavy contact with the Red enemy. Officers said the Viet Cong force, well-dug in, may number up to 2,000 men.

The battle site is on the South China Sea about 10 miles south of the Marines' Chu Lai beachhead, 52 miles south of Da Nang and 330 miles northeast of Saigon.

"The biggest thing we've ever had," a briefing officer said. "Unofficial sources said two Marine tank corps tanks and one antitank weapons carrier were knocked out in the initial assault. The action raged on into the night."

"I predict we'll have some tough fighting tomorrow," Walt said.

The Marine assault forces included a special landing detachment from 7th fleet warships standing off shore. These included the amphibious assault ship Iwa Jima, which is a helicopter transport, a cruiser, an attack transport and two destroyers.

"We made maximum use of the sea," the briefing officer said. "We made great use of naval gunfire."

Walt reported guns of the cruiser Galveston wiped out two Viet Cong companies trying to flee from a village. He said he personally counted 17 Viet Cong bodies, all uniformed, in one rice paddy.

"I have never seen a better coordinated attack than I saw today," the general said.

He added that the Viet Cong were well-fortified and that they had camouflaged positions complete with trenches and concrete bunkers.

He said many of the Viet Cong were so well-concealed that numbers of the Marines charged past them, then were fired on from the rear.

U.S. Policy in Asia Is Agreed Upon

WASHINGTON (AP)—The White House said today President Johnson "sees no difference between himself and former President Dwight D. Eisenhower" on U.S. policy in Asia.

Press secretary Bill D. Moyers made this statement in reply to a request for comment on statements by Eisenhower at a news conference here Tuesday.

Eisenhower said at the conference that his decision 11 years ago to give aid to South Viet Nam involved no specific military commitment beyond those he said were involved in the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization pact and the Geneva convention aimed at settlement of Vietnamese troubles.

Systems Ready for 8-Day Space Whirl

CAPE KENNEDY (AP)—A space agency official said today that all programs had been resolved and that "all systems are in a ready condition" for Thursday's scheduled blastoff of the Gemini 5 spacecraft.

Astronauts L. Gordon Cooper Jr. and Charles Conrad Jr. are to rocket aloft on man's longest attempted manned space flight, an eight-day weightless whirl. Dr. George E. Mueller, NASA associate administrator for manned space flight, said that a spacecraft power supply problem had been resolved and "all systems are in a ready condition and the crew is ready to go."

"We do expect to carry out the flight on schedule," he said. The Titan 2 booster rocket is slated to lift off at 9 a.m. (EST) Thursday.

"There have been the usual or unusual—set of last minute problems," Mueller said, "and I'm pleased to report we have been able to resolve them."

This included the power system which had kept engineers up all night in an effort to resolve it.

Gemini Project Director Charles Mathews said the fuel cell system was thoroughly tested and "it did not misbehave."

The problem developed late Tuesday night, at a time when everything seemed to be progressing smoothly toward a scheduled 9 a.m. (EST) launch Thursday.

The difficulty first arose at the McDonnell Aircraft Co. plant in St. Louis during a fuel cell test. McDonnell makes the Gemini spacecraft. Engineers noted an excessive venting of gaseous hydrogen from the system.

They calculated that the same "boiloff" rate in the Gemini 5 spacecraft would exhaust the supply in four or five days and force early termination of the mission.

So tests began Tuesday night on the fuel cell system on the See SPACE, Page 2, Column 8

September Eyed as End To Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)—Now that the long deadlock over foreign aid has been broken, congressional leaders are talking more confidently of going home some time in September.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield says he is shooting for adjournment around Labor Day of the session that has seen enactment of more legislation than any other of recent years. All major proposals by President Johnson that have come up for a vote so far have won approval.

Youths End Ordeal, Eye Change in Diet

BURLEY—Waiting for that door to open at 11 this morning was worse than waiting for Christmas," remarked 15-year-old Louis Rinebold. He emerged with Jeff Lewis, 16, Albert Klausner, 20 and Rick Fries, 15, from the fallout shelter beneath the Burley post office at that time.

The four volunteers had been there since Aug. 8. "We learned a lot about living together," said Lewis, whose mother reported he had lost nine pounds, "but I never want to see another cracker."

The boys were greeted by anxious parents as the shelter door opened at 11 a.m. Wednesday. Their mothers said they looked pale and thinner than when they went in. Their spirits remained good, however, and Fries said he would volunteer to do it again if such an experiment was again needed.

Mayor Mack Crouch, Police Chief George Warrell, Cassia County Sheriff Ray Mitchell, County Civil Defense Director Lyman Martindale and Velma Dye, chief of the Civil Defense disaster relief division for the state of Idaho, joined service club members in greeting the boys.

Miss Dye said this was the first test of this length involving youths that had been carried out in Idaho.

The boys were presented with tickets to the Cassia County Fair and Rodeo, which opens Thursday, and with tickets to the pari-mutuel horse racing which opened Wednesday. They will be placed in a position of honor on a special float in Thursday's opening day fair parade and have received luncheon invitations to almost all of the Burley service clubs.

Although the boys appeared to be in good condition, no medical tests had been carried out Wednesday morning to check for possible ill effects of their ordeal.

The feature of their stay that received the most comment was the drabness of their food. Their complaints, however, were good natured.

350 Australians Sent Into War

CANBERRA (UPI)—Australia will send an additional 350 soldiers to South Viet Nam soon to fight the Communist Cong. Prime Minister Robert G. Menzies announced Wednesday.

Menzies also told Parliament that a planned cut in the military draft is being scrapped and the services will continue to draw 8,400 men a year. It had been planned to cut the figure to 6,900.

Insurance OK'd For Servicemen

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Senate Wednesday approved a bill to provide a special $10,000 indemnity insurance coverage for servicemen on duty in combat zones. Action was by voice vote.

The insurance would cover members of the armed forces killed in combat zones like South Viet Nam or who die within two years as a direct result of such service. A combat zone would be defined as an area so designated by the President since Jan. 1, 1962. The bill now goes to the House.

Riot Zone Is Raided By Police

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Violence broke out again today in the South Side riot zone as police stormed the headquarters of a Black Muslim group and arrested 52 Negroes. Eight Negroes cut by flying glass were found inside the Black Muslim mosque. None had been hit by a bullet, but blood stained the floor. The eight injured, and 44 others, were booked on suspicion of assault to commit murder and on suspicion of conspiracy.

The Black Muslims is a militant Negro group advocating supremacy of black races. About 100 police officers rushed to the mosque after an unidentified citizen reported weapons were being carried inside. They opened fire when a bullet from the mosque hit a police car.

Police said no weapons were found in the building after earlier reporting a number had been confiscated. Officers said the weapon fired at police must have been carried out through the mosque's back door where abandoned shoes and coats were found.

The gunfire broke an uneasy calm prevailing for two nights in the Negro district where rioting erupted one week ago and cost 34 lives.

The police sweep on the mosque came little more than 12 hours after a curfew was lifted.

The Black Muslims advocate total separation of white and black races and supremacy of the black.

Wreckage of Lost Jetliner Is Probed

CHICAGO (AP)—One was a maid of honor at a wedding. Another was looking forward to his birthday celebration Saturday. They are mourned along with the other 28 victims of the jetliner crash in Lake Michigan.

Civil Aeronautics Board investigators sifted today through bits and pieces of the new United Air Lines three-engine Boeing 727—a type of plane that had never crashed before Monday.

Coast Guard, Navy and private boats continued to search for bodies. Six have been recovered. Four of them have been identified.

Airline officials said the bodies identified were those of Sanford Howitz, 13, of Great Neck, Long Island, N. Y.; Kalman Musin, 44, Des Moines, Iowa; Robert Charles Zabor, 40, Greenwich, Conn.; and Barbara Cartwright, 32, Bedford Heights, Ohio, a United ticket sales agent in Cleveland.

The FBI, the CAB and company officials declined to speculate on the possibility that a bomb had exploded aboard the scheduled landing at O'Hare International Airport on a non-stop flight from New York.

Sugar Quota Hike Favored By Committee

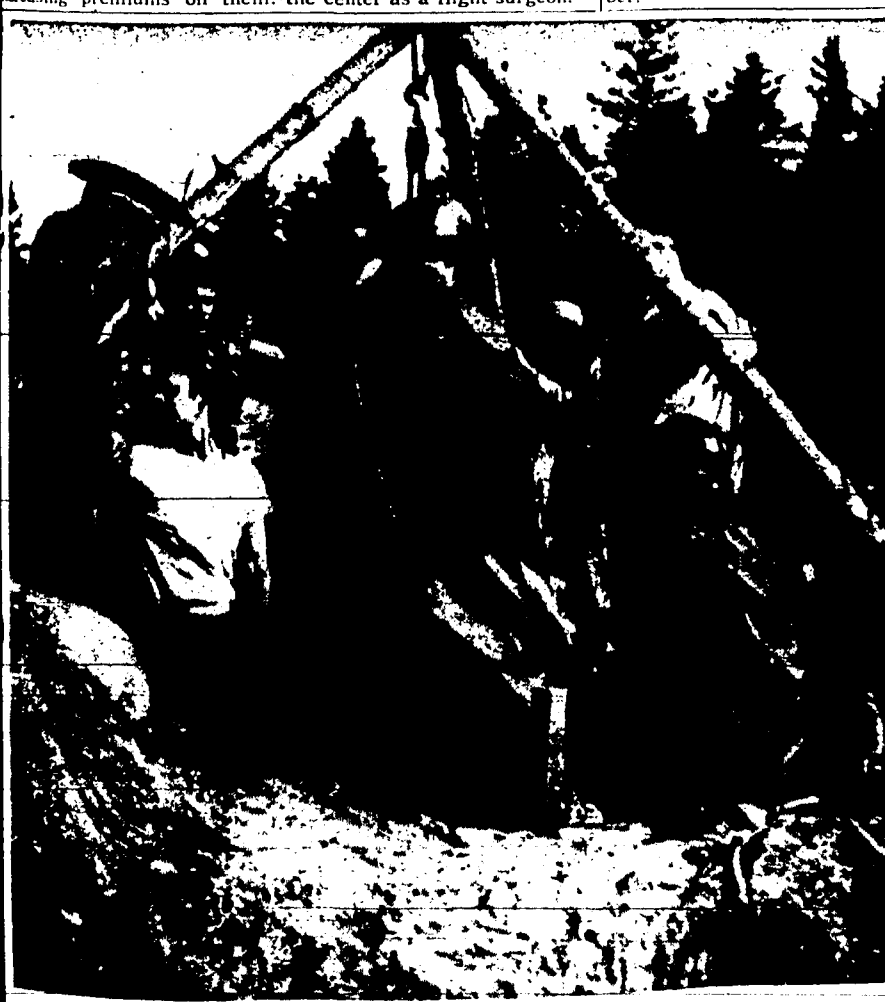

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Agriculture Committee indicated today it favors larger sugar marketing quotas for domestic producers, but may revise the administration's proposals as to foreign quotas.

The committee, headed by Rep. Harold D. Cooley, D-N.C., began hearings on an administration-sponsored bill to extend sugar legislation to Dec. 31, 1971.

After John A. Schnitter, undersecretary of agriculture, outlined provisions of the bill, Cooley told him: "I want to emphasize the administration bill is merely a recommendation. I am pleased the domestic producers and refiners are in agreement on domestic provisions of the bill."

FIREMEN AND VOLUNTEERS gather at the opening of a 27-foot shaft on Oak Island, Nova Scotia, Tuesday to remove the bodies of four men overcome by some form of gas. They were seeking treasure on the fabled island. (CP wirephoto)

Four Men Die On Treasure Legend Hunt

OAK ISLAND, N.S. (AP)—A six-year, $200,000 hunt for a legendary pirate treasure has ended in death for Robert Restall, his son and two others.

The four men died Tuesday on tiny Oak Island, off Nova Scotia's south coast. They were overcome by gas in a shaft 27 feet deep, one of about 200 bored by treasure seekers in the past 170 years.

Two treasure hunters who escaped from the shaft thought the men were overcome by "swamp gas." Others theorized that a gasoline pump engine over the mouth of the pit had filled the hole with carbon monoxide.

A fifth man was pulled unconscious from the pit, and two others climbed to safety before they were overcome.

The dead were Restall, 59, of Hamilton, Ont.; his son, Robert Jr., 24; and Cyril Hiltz, 22, of Martin's Point, N.S., and Karl Graesser, about 40, a mineralogist from Massapequa, N.Y.

Restall was convinced he had found the key to the network of tunnels and shafts where legend says Captain Kidd and other pirates hid treasure worth between $30 million and $200 million.

U.S. Newsmen Recovers From 78-Day Solo Atlantic Voyage in Sailboat

FALMOUTH, England (AP)—hands are much better now. They took a pretty good beating out there."

His hands and feet had been affected by salt water.

The American newsmen was getting his land legs back a few hours after completing his 3,200-mile solo voyage in the smallest sailboat known to have made the eastward Atlantic crossing nonstop.

After a hero's welcome from the townspeople of Falmouth and his family, Manry, 47, was relaxing in his hotel room when he got a telephone call from his boss, Thomas Vail, publisher and editor of the Cleveland (Ohio) Plain Dealer.

Manry hung on to the banister as he came down to the phone. "I've always wanted to be in England," he told Vail, "and I came here the hard way, but I wish it would stop moving around."

Manry got back upstairs without using the banisters. "I guess it is not moving around so much any more," he said with a big grin.

Heyburn Fire Damage Set At $1,000

HEYBURN — Approximately $1,000 damage resulted from an early morning fire Tuesday at the Noel Crot farm one mile north of here.

The blazing double hay stack was sighted by an attendant of Hdb's 66 service station shortly after 2:30 a.m. The attendant, who was more than a mile away, thought a large building was on fire and called the Burley police, who notified fire officials in Minidoka county.

It has not been established what caused the fire, but Alvin Stimpson, fire chief for the West End Fire District, noted it apparently started between the two stacks.

A nearby barn and small sheds containing small calves and pigs were not damaged.

Thirteen firemen and two trucks responded to the alarm. The loss was not covered by insurance.

Judgment Day In War Trial Is Thursday

FRANK FURT, Germany (UPI) — Thursday is judgment day for 20 men accused of helping kill from 2-6 to 4 million Jews at the Nazi death camp at Auschwitz.

Prosecutors said they will appeal if the main defendants receive less than life sentences. The trial has been underway for 20 months.

Prosecutors asked life in prison for 16, twelve years in prison for two and acquittal for two other defendants. "We want those life terms for the main offenders and will appeal if we have to," prosecutor Henry Ormond said.

Prosecutors shied from naming the main offenders. But there was little doubt they included Gaust Wilhelm Boker, the alleged Gestapo torture master of Auschwitz.

Weather, Temperatures

MAGIC VALLEY—Increasing cloudiness this afternoon and night. Cloudy Thursday. Scattered showers or thundershowers, 5-15 mostly afternoons and evenings. Cooler Thursday. Winds 5-15 mph. High today in high 80s, Thursday in high 70s or low 80s; lows today in 60s, except Camas Prairie high near 80s, low about 50. Outlook Friday, considerable cloudiness with showers. Temperatures at 8 a.m.: 62 at Jerome, 64 at T.F. weather bureau with 73 per cent humidity, 65 at T. F. entomology laboratory with 64 per cent humidity, 64 at Rupert, 48 at Gooding; at noon, 72 at Castleford, 60 at Wendell, 64 at Gooding; at 4 p.m., 70, 30.07. Soil temperatures: At T. F., four-inch 71, eight-inch 70, 20.07. Three-inch level: at Buhl, 71; at Wendell, 76.

SYNOPSIS AND AGRICULTURAL SUMMARY
A northward drift of moist air is increasing prospects for showers over Southern Idaho for today and tomorrow. A few heavy showers appear likely near the Nevada and Utah borders, but for most of the district showers or thundershowers are expected to be widely scattered and light. Winds will continue mostly light but may become briefly strong and gusty in the vicinity of thundershowers.

Skies will continue cloudy through Thursday and daytime temperatures will be a few degrees cooler.

For most of the district showers will probably not be numerous or heavy enough to interrupt harvesting and other farm work. Showers will be more numerous and heavier over the mountains along the southern edge of the Snake River Valley and in the southeast corner of Idaho.

Temperatures changes were generally small during the past 24 hours. Magic Valley was a little cooler. Afternoon temperatures were mostly in the low and middle 80s. Overnight lows were mostly in the 50s, ranging from the middle 40s in Camas Prairie to the low 60s at Buhl.

Although all sections were cloudy much of the time, the only rain reported were light showers amounting to less than .01 of an inch at Jerome yesterday forenoon and at Kimberly this morning.

FIVE-DAY FORECAST
During the next five days high pressure will dominate the northeastern Pacific ocean, extending into western Canada and the Pacific Northwest States. In the upper air the stronger westerlies will be diverted through Alaska and northwestern Canada. A weak flow will prevail over the Western states with enough moisture and instability for considerable cloudiness and widely scattered showers or thundershowers for the next two or three days.

Temperatures Thursday through Monday will average two to five degrees above normal with only small day to day changes. Normal maximum and minimum temperatures for this period are Gooding 67-84, Twin Falls 65-80 and Burley 65-80. Scattered showers, occurring mostly before the end of the week, will be more numerous in eastern sections and will produce up to .10 of an inch of rainfall.

Weather conditions will be favorable for the growth and maturity of crops but harvesting of hay and grain and some other crops may be delayed by showers and moist conditions in some areas. Except for a chance of brief showers harvesting of fruit, sweet corn and other vegetable crops should proceed on schedule.

Money Supply Harmed by U. S. Efforts

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler said today there is no evidence so far that U.S. efforts to wipe out its balance of payments deficit is having harmful effects on the international money supply.

On the other hand, he said, the U.S. program for bringing its payments "into equilibrium" is the best guarantee the world has of continued adequate liquidity.

Some economists believe that international liquidity—the supply of money and credit needed for world trade—will shrink if the United States halts the flow of dollars abroad.

Fowler, appearing before the Senate subcommittee on international finance, said, "Nevertheless, we must be alert to the possibility that continued growth of the world's economy together with sustained equilibrium in the U.S. payments position could combine to create an eventual shortage of liquidity."

Wholesale Grocery Firm Opens Here

Bob Gustafson, president, announced Tuesday the opening of Local Grocery Wholesale Inc., 212 Blue Lakes Blvd.

The new firm will serve such institutional establishments as restaurants, hospitals, schools and grocery markets throughout the Twin Falls vicinity with wholesale grocery items.

The firm's vice president is Herb Deagle who was formerly with Sears, Roebuck and Co. for 17 years. Gustafson, who has lived in Twin Falls for two years, was with John Sexton and Co. wholesale grocers, for the past 10 years.

An open house will be held Wednesday with free coffee and doughnuts for all visitors. The firm is now in the building that formerly housed Blue Lakes Cold Storage and will have two trucks for delivery purposes.

Gustafson says "our main purpose is to serve local establishments, a job that up until now has been done by firms outside of Magic Valley."

Voyage

before Manry undergoes any more public ceremonies like the tumultuous welcome he received Tuesday.

Dr. W. L. Timmins said that he was bound to have a big let-down and should be let alone for at least a day or two.

Mrs. Manry said: "Robert is quite all right, but now I think he has the right to get his breath."

Manry arrived Tuesday evening in the setting sun, greeted by an armada of small boats and an uproar of cheers, church bells and ship sirens. He had left Falmouth, Mass., June 1.

He first embraced his wife, Virginia, 46, his son, Douglas, 11, and his daughter, Robin, 14. Then he knelt and kissed the soil of England.

Manry was tanned and fit; the Tinkerbell's white paint and red deck gleamed and she flew the Stars and Stripes proudly.

After the welcome, Manry went to his hotel and climbed into the tub — "the best place I've ever seen," he said.

After the bath and a shampoo Manry had dinner with his family for the first time in 2 1/2 months.

Harbor officials picked up the Tinkerbell and tucked her away in a Royal Air Force Marine base so souvenir hunters would not nick her apart.

A resolution has been introduced in the U.S. Congress to place the tiny boat in the Smithsonian Institution alongside Charles A. Lindbergh's Spirit of St. Louis.

Many told newsmen of spine-chilling adventures during his long solitary voyage and weird hallucinations from medicine he took to fight off fatigue.

Accident Causes Minor Injuries

Minor injuries were incurred in a two-car accident about 10:25 a.m. Wednesday about one mile west of Dead Man's Corner, Filer.

A 1960 Ford sedan, driven by Mrs. Jean Schaffer, 47, Route 1, Filer, was traveling east on U.S. Highway 30, when she slowed down for a hay baler. A 1964 Dodge, driven by Richard L. Holly, Boulder City, Nev., struck the Schaffer car from the rear.

A passenger in the Schaffer car, Barbara Schaffer, received bruises and Holly incurred a minor laceration on his lip and bruises.

State Patrolman Richard Burns investigated and issued Holly a citation for violation of the basic speed rule.

SATELLITE LAUNCHED

VANDENBERG AFB, Calif. (UPI)—A satellite employing a Thor-Agena booster combination was rocketed into space Tuesday from this base, the Air Force reported.

Twin Falls News in Brief

A fire alarm at the Gem State Paper Co., 181 Fifth Ave. S., was set off about 12:30 a.m. Wednesday. Police officials said the cause of the alarm was pressure that had built up in the alarm system.

A building permit was issued Monday at City Hall to Kenneth Hodder, 557 Heyburn Ave. W., for a brick alteration to a single family dwelling. Cost is estimated at $400.

East Heyburn Church of the Nazarene, 329 Madonna St. N., will hold a Bible school, 6:30 to 9 p.m., Aug. 23-27. Transportation will be provided for anyone needing it. Information may be obtained by calling 733-7055.

Mrs. Emil Boepple will have surgery for a "whiplash" injury, incurred in an auto accident, at Glendale Hospital, Glendale, Calif.

Valley Traffic Courts

Dr. Dean H. Affleck, 2188 Addison Ave. E., was fined $10 and costs by Twin Falls Justice of Peace Al Robinson for a stop sign violation. He was assigned the violation points.

Also fined $10 and costs by Judge Robinson for a stop sign violation was Donald E. Brown, Route 3, Jerome.

Harold L. Hansen, 476 Rose St. N., was fined $25 and costs and assigned three violation points by Judge Robinson for speeding.

Forfeiting bonds in Twin Falls Police Court were Carole B. Moorehead, 31, 1402 Poplar Ave., $15 for a stop sign violation, and Stewart W. Halfhill, 61, Twin Falls, $10, for a red light violation.

George R. McCright, Caldwell, was fined $15 by Burley Police Judge Roland E. Willis for a stop sign violation.

Youth Burned In Accident Listed "Fair"

HAILEY — The condition of 18-year-old Steven Rathke, who was badly burned when the truck he was driving Monday afternoon overturned and caught fire on Warm Springs run, was listed as "fair" Wednesday at Sun Valley Hospital.

If his condition continues to improve he will be flown Saturday morning to St. Louis, Mo., to a burn center for plastic surgery. Accompanying him on the plane will be A. Scott Eerle, a Sun Valley physician, and his mother, Mrs. Louise Rathke, who is a registered nurse and a member of the Sun Valley Hospital staff.

The youth was able to climb through a window of the truck after it caught fire and rolled in the dirt to extinguish the flames, but his clothes were all burned off and the entire surface of his body was reportedly extensively burned.

Marine Corps Strength May Need Draft

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Marine Corps may have to turn to the draft to build up its strength, Gen. Wallace M. Greene Jr. said Wednesday.

The Marine commandant told the House Armed Services Committee that the corps was trying to avoid the step through an increase in enlistments.

"We may, however, have to use the draft for two or three months," he said. "We're going to wait for about a month before we make up our minds on this."

Greene noted that Congress had authorized the Marine Corps to increase its strength by 30,000. He said the services by trying to get more men to re-enlist and enlist, but he indicated it was having some difficulty.

Power Line Plan Vote Is Expected

WASHINGTON (AP)—A vote on the controversial $1 million request to plan a federal power line into Southern Idaho is expected Thursday in the Senate Appropriations Committee.

No move was made to cut the item from a House-approved bill Tuesday when the committee in closed session decided to bring the measure to a vote Thursday.

The request is from the Bonneville Power Administration for funds to design a line to carry federal power from the Columbia River to Southern Idaho. A number of private companies oppose the measure.

A move to have the $1 million cut from a public works appropriation bill failed in subcommittee last week.

Korean War Turncoat on Way to Visit United States

HONG KONG (UPI) — Korean War turncoat William Charles White crossed into Hong Kong Tuesday on his way back to the United States with his Chinese wife and two children after more than 12 years in Communist China.

"I want to go home. I want to see my mother," the 33-year-old Arkansas-born Negro said when asked why he decided to leave Red China.

White's mother, Mrs. Mattie Lee Gorman, 51, was hospitalized in Little Rock, Ark., for what a hospital spokesman said was nervousness brought on by the impending return of her son. White is her son by a former marriage — his father died in Kansas City, Mo., some years ago.

Mrs. Gorman said she would be willing to travel anywhere to see her son but said "he's not coming home — I just don't feel that way. I just feel he isn't coming back."

A former U.S. Army corporal, White was one of 21 American soldiers who chose Communist China over the United States after the Korean armistice in July, 1953. With his departure, only four still remain in Red China.

Condition of T. F. Schools Is Excellent

Last minute preparations are being made by the maintenance department of school district No. 411 to have all the schools in excellent condition for class work, according to Ernest Ragland, superintendent.

"We have had an extensive program of renovation and cleanup this summer, and the schools never looked better," Ragland said.

The regular maintenance department of five employes has been working along with 16 additional workers.

Among many of the new features and improvements in the schools is the individual seating for the first, second and third grades in all elementary schools. The superintendent noted this should make quite a difference in the student learning, since the young students had previously been seated at large tables.

Approximately $30,000 was spent on the Brunswick school, seating. He also noted the elementary school classrooms were very colorful and attractive.

There also are 15 new refrigerated drinking fountains being installed in elementary, junior high school and high school buildings. This contract for $6,328 was let to Home Plumbing.

Ragland also noted there has been extensive grounds improvements made in the high school parking lot and blacktopping at O'Leary Junior High School, Bickel, Lincoln, Harrison and Washington elementary schools. The new athletic field is completed except for a ticket-booth which is under construction.

The extension of Locust Street North along the west side of the high school parking lot should be finished almost as soon as school resumes, if not, shortly thereafter, Ragland noted. This will make a considerable difference in school traffic.

The city is also doing work on Robbins Avenue and Caswell Avenue West, on the north and sides of Robert Stuart Junior High School.

Remodeling has been done on the high school library to accommodate a greater number of books and approximately 4,000 volumes which will be used by the College of Southern Idaho.

"The high school is in excellent condition for high school classes, as well as for the junior college classes," Superintendent Ragland said.

Extensive work has been done on the heat distribution system at Bickel school and some heating work has been done on Washington school. New shades have also been installed at Bickel.

All schools have had extensive painting, cleaning and floor finishing.

"It has been a big summer getting many things in better shape than ever before," Ragland noted.

China Plans Study of Viet Nam

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Brig. Gen. Nguyen Cao Ky, South Viet Nam's premier, announced today Nationalist China will send military study missions to his embattled country in the near future.

A joint communique hinted President Chiang Kai-shek's government, which has about 500,000 men under arms, might send troops. Premier C. K. Yen and Ky drew up this document.

The communique said the Taipei regime has decided to increase technical and material assistance to South Viet Nam and "is prepared to respond to other requests for assistance from the government of the Republic of South Viet Nam as a contribution to the struggle against the common enemy."

Space

Gemini 5 spacecraft at Cape Kennedy. Officials reported evidence of a similar problem.

A fuel cell system has never before been used on a U.S. manned-space flight. It replaces conventional storage batteries which are heavy and bulky. Two 68-pound cells are in the Gemini 5 craft. Batteries weighing 12 times that much would be needed to support an eight-day mission. The cramped capsule cannot afford that weight luxury.

The box-like fuel cells mix liquid hydrogen and liquid oxygen to form water and, in the process, create electrical power.

Cooper and Conrad, meanwhile, prepared to make final preparations for the flight, the longest ever attempted by man.

Before the fuel cell problem, mission director E. E. Christensen had given the green light for the launching. The decision came after flight controllers conducted a review of all elements of the flight and the astronauts received their final major physical examinations.

Music Camp Sets Final Concert

SUN VALLEY — The Sun Valley music camp orchestra and chorus will present its final concert at 7:45 p.m. Thursday at the Opera House.

The orchestra will be conducted by Jacques Brouman and the chorus is under the direction of Elmer Thomas.

Surplus in U.S. Funds Is Noted

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has at last taken in more funds in its international transactions than it sent abroad — for the first time in any three-month period since 1957.

Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler goes today to a senate subcommittee to discuss this development and a related problem — the possible shortage of international money and credit.

Immigration Ceiling Is Requested

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Republican Policy Committee has asked for a ceiling on immigration from the Western Hemisphere.

Traditionally, the countries of North and South America have been allowed unlimited immigration into the United States, and a pending bill to revamp the U.S. immigration program would continue this policy.

The Republicans endorsed the bill Tuesday, but said they would offer an amendment to limit immigration from the Western Hemisphere to 115,000 a year.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

By ANDREW TULLY

WASHINGTON—Amid the lunatic rejoicing over some of the more unconstitutional provisions of the Negro voting rights bill, there are signs that sanity still prevails among certain segments of the American community.

In New York, some citizens have filed suit to block that section of the law which gives the vote even to those who can't speak English. And brave little cells in Dixie have vowed to battle for the states' constitutional right to set qualifications for their voters, including the establishment of literacy tests.

These actions offer hope for a country whose knuckleheaded members of Congress have decided to enfranchise cretins—both black and white—who not only have no idea of whom they will be voting for, but will have trouble scribbling a simple X on the ballot. Clearly, that will be a feature of the New Freedom act, indicated by the Civil Service Commission's instructions to prospective Federal examiners assigned to areas of voter discrimination.

"AN 'X' WILL DO—In blunt language, the CSC has ordered these examiners to register all qualified voting applicants—even if they cannot read or write or even sign their names.

Congress has perpetrated this outrageous piece of flummery on the grounds that in some states literacy tests have been used to discriminate against Negroes. To end this abuse, it has turned to another form of discrimination. Literacy tests now are banned in all states and counties in which fewer than 50 per cent of the persons of voting age were registered or voted last November.

By the terms of this idiotic law, it matters not whether a literacy test has been used to discriminate. A state with a literacy test in which 51 per cent of the people voted last year is given the state's stamp of approval. But a state with a simpler literacy test which has been applied without discrimination is turned over to the federal cops if only 49 per cent of its people voted or were registered.

BID FOR PUERTO RICAN VOTES—Louisiana will be penalized because it has a test and because only 47.4 per cent of its people voted. But Texas is in the clear despite the fact only 44.4 per cent of its people voted—because Texas doesn't have a test.

The no-speak-English provision of the law is the brainchild of Sen. Bobby Kennedy of New York, who overlooks no gimmick in his search for votes. To enfranchise the more than 300,000 Puerto Ricans in his state, Bobby sold Congress on giving the vote to citizens with the equivalent of a sixth-grade education in an American school where a foreign language is spoken. Bobby has not yet suggested that the ballot be printed in Spanish. Not yet.

VIOLATES CONSTITUTION—It matters not to these preposterous, self-serving lawmakers that both the literacy test and Spanish-speaking provisions are unconstitutional. But that doesn't change the wording in that much abused document. In simple language even a Congressman should be able to understand. The Constitution gives exclusively to the states the right to set the qualifications of voters and to decide what tests should be applied to determine a citizen's right to vote.

Happily, the courts will be asked to rule on this mischievous adventure in legislation aimed at manufacturing a new batch of mumbbling imbeciles for demagogues to march to the polls on election day. In this one, there is still a chance that the Supreme Court will eschew its penchant for writing the law and be content with interpreting it.

Views of Others

END OF RIDE
Americans for some time have had a feeling of helplessness in the face of rising crime statistics. Now there is dramatic evidence that the tide can be turned, that streets and parks and subways can once again become places of public safety.

Last April New York City, in the throes of a crime wave on the subways, assigned 800 policemen to patrol all trains and stations between 8 p.m. and 4 a.m. and widely publicized the fact. The results? Since that time felonies committed on the city's subways are down by a massive 60 per cent.

A New York City transit commissioner called it "the most successful effort in the control of crime anywhere in the United States." Crime control, he said, depends upon "carefully selected and trained men in blue, armed—and visibly so." Success was partially due to the fact that these men were backed by effective communications equipment, in which the New York Transit Authority has pioneered.

Ultimate solutions to the crime problem go much deeper, of course. But New York City's experience suggests that there is a practical, immediate remedy—the visible presence of well-equipped, determined law enforcement authorities.

New York City has still a long way to go, especially aboveground. But its present success, belowground is an impressive beginning. If other cities are willing to provide the men and money needed to control crime in their streets, New York's experience should encourage them that they can succeed.

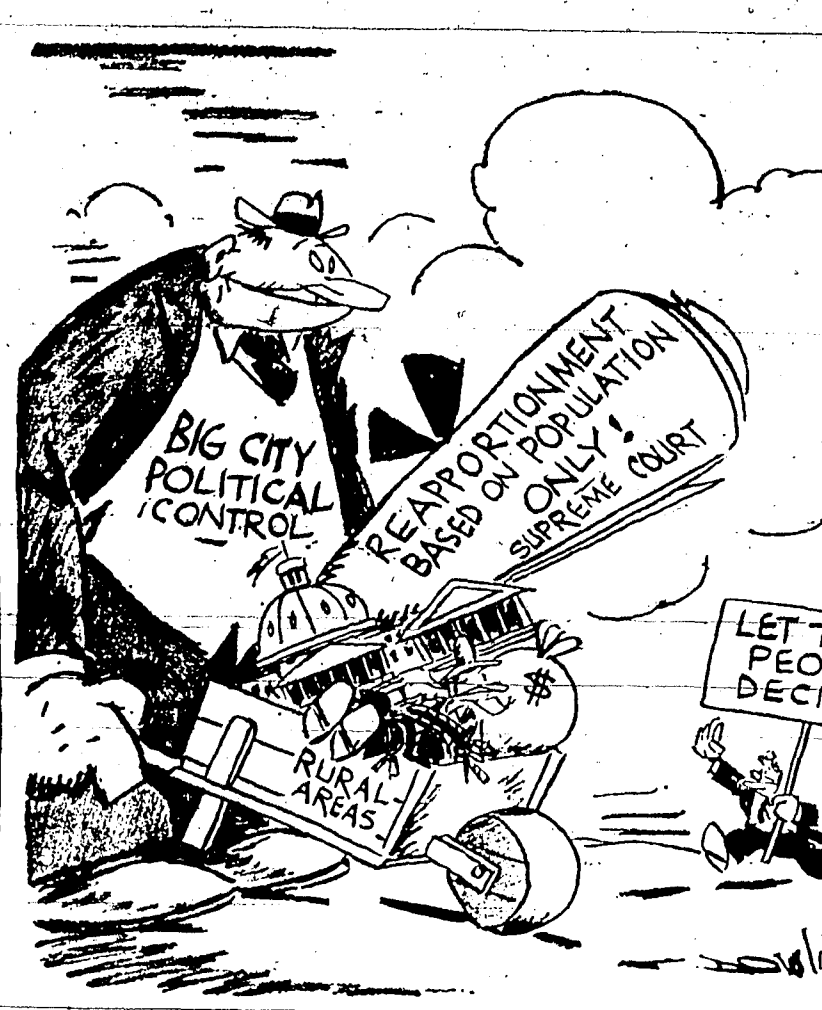

President Johnson has just established a high-level national committee to study all aspects of crime origin, crime growth and crime prevention. New York City's success on the subways is welcome evidence that foresight and action can have positive results in the war on crime.—Christian Science Monitor.

CAN CAN, GET IT?
A bean or bean can is considerably lighter after its contents have been consumed than it was originally. Therefore, the request by the Pacific Northwest regional Forest Service office that users of back country trails carry out their unburnable refuse is reasonable. If you could lug it in full, you can lug it out empty with a lot less effort. Anyway, the homeward journey is likely to be downhill.

So many people are using isolated camp sites that the old practice of burying all refuse that couldn't be burned no longer is feasible. If it were continued, the hill country might soon become one great kitchen midden. This perhaps would furnish future archaeologists with a wealth of material, but a few years hence nature lovers would have the impression they were camping on the city dump. Forest Service employees are beginning to uncover and haul away the accumulations of the past, hopefully expecting campsite users to keep the trails and camps clean in the future.

You need a slogan and eye-catching illustration for an anti-litter campaign. Maybe the Forest Service could carry over easily than full can can. Pictures of stumpy, gartered, feminine legs would catch the eyes, at least of the men campers.—The Oregonian.

THE LIGHTER SIDE

By DICK WEST

United Press International WASHINGTON (UPI) — Ordinarily, I suppose, a man's undies would be too racy a topic for the public print, but for the sake of nostalgia perhaps an exception can be made.

The William Carter Co. of Needham Heights, Mass., celebrating its 100th anniversary, marked the end of the era by announcing that it has quit making union suits.

"Early in the century," it said, "Carter's led the country in the production of union suits."

"At that time they were made in silk and wool, were called 'combination underwear' and boasted such illustrious wearers as Calvin Coolidge, president of the United States."

"While Carter's has been supplying 'old friends' with union suits in recent years despite sharply decreased demand, it was felt that the 100th birthday was a good termination point."

The company explained that "demand for fashion garments," such as T-shirts and boxer shorts, has "edged out the union suit."

As the Latins used to say, "sic transit gloria undie."

Possibly some members of the audience either are so young or, in the case of maiden aunts, have led so sheltered a life that they don't know the difference between the old era and the new.

For their edification, I will quote Webster's definition of a union suit: "An undergarment with shirt and (pardon the expression) drawers in one piece."

It may be that some other companies are still producing union suits for old times' sake, but for all practical purposes integrated underwear is dead. May it rest in peace.

Resting in peace was pretty difficult when you were wearing a union suit. I know because when I was a lad back during the Coolidge administration I used to sleep in them.

They had a way of bunching up on you during the night, so that you might wind up with a foot caught in the rear vent.

If Coolidge slept in his union suit, that might explain why he was known as "Silent Cal." After wrestling with them all night, he would have been too exhausted for conversation.

But me and old Cal liked them for the simple reason that they gave the wearer a sense of security.

A man in his underwear is a pretty ridiculous figure at best. In exchanging the simple dignity of the union suit for the loud colored boxer shorts, he has, I fear, made himself even more so.

TAYLOR'S VIEWS ON WORLD NEWS

By HENRY J. TAYLOR

ZURICH—In August, suddenly and beautifully, a great symphony of bells breaks out, echoing and reechoing through Switzerland's mountains and valleys. The waterfalls tinkle like bells in the hills and the lake fountains pump their tireless silver spray. Bonfires are lit on the tall peaks, flickering like fire-flies.

The Swiss are celebrating their Independence Day. These people put great store on their independence, personal and national. For their famous neutrality has not been easy. Mere opportunism would never have been enough.

Valor and constant preparedness have been the decisive requirements. Switzerland supports today the largest ready army in all Western Europe—600,000 fully trained men, backed by 400 jet planes.

The lake dwellers were here in 5000 B.C. Today's Oberwallis (Le Valais) in the southeast region belonged to the Roman Empire since the days of Julius Caesar, and thousands of Swiss in the mountains still speak Romansch, a corruption of the ancient Roman language. The world's earliest known bird (Archaeopteryx), evolved from reptilian stock, is traced to thereabouts.

Mont Blanc, with its white signpost high above the clouds, is the top of Europe and is the western Alpine anchor of the mountain chain that runs all the way to Indonesia by way of the Caucasus, the Hindu Kush and Himalayas. It finally ends by being the island of New Zealand.

Attacking Mont Blanc, the Dom of the Eiger can be a climb to hell. Sometimes the Matterhorn, too, with its top tilted forward like the frozen crest of a breaking wave. But this powerful assembly of high mountains and independent-minded people is inextricably knotted here in the center of Europe; Switzerland which, lacking great power, makes up for it in wisdom and spirit and determination.

"Providence made the mountains; William Tell made the men," wrote Victor Hugo. Garibaldi turned Italy from a bag of medieval states into a coherent country. And when he asked the Swiss people of Lugarno to enter the new nation because Italian Lombardy offered them bread but Switzerland only stones, they replied: "We shall hold fast to our stones."

This is a poor country. Switzerland isn't even situated on the sea. Her sole natural resources are scenery and waterpower. Yet, next to Britain and Belgium of literacy and other reasonable tests could not add a pennyweight in the balance against discrimination.

Bus suspension would please Negroes and perhaps keep their votes secure for the white politicians who supported the bill. That is an unhappy but reasonable suspicion because the politicians have been playing games with the Negro vote for nearly 50 years—ever since the mass migration of Negroes to the North and East after World War I.

These Alabama and Mississippi field hands were metamorphosed in the great northern and eastern cities into voters.

PHILADELPHIA — Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton calling for more vigorous efforts toward equality between whites and Negroes:

"The time has come for men and women of good will from the white community and from the Negro community to join in a bold new alliance to root out fear from the hearts of men."

LONDON — Negro "Colonel" Hubert Julian, "The Black Eagle of Harlem," announcing he was giving up home in the United States because of the rioting in Los Angeles:

"As far as living in the United States is concerned, I care any more. The conduct of people who look like me leaves me appalled. I am ashamed to be a Negro. This riot is disgraceful."

Bridge by Jacoby

Jacoby senior starts off today's discussion by asking Jim what he thinks of the bidding of today's hand.

Jim: "Very interesting. East preferred to open his weak five-card club suit rather than his strong four-card heart suit. South merely overcalled with one spade. He saw no reason to try to trap his nonvulfive hearts and take the sure profit. How did he come out at spades?"

Oswald: "He made it all right. West opened a heart. South ruffed and played three rounds of trumps. West was in with the third lead and in spite of the fact that his partner had discarded the deuce of clubs on the second spade and the three of clubs on the third spade, West led a club and spade."

Jim: "And so another rubber had been chucked. I see that South was able to discard dummy's last heart and four of diamonds on his losing only one diamond trick. Did East and West have anything to say?"

Oswald: "West said plenty about his partner's club opening and nothing about his own bid. Certainly West could have figured out that his partner wanted a diamond lead when he discarded the deuce and three of clubs."

CARD SENSE
The bidding has been: West North East South
1♣ Pass Pass 1♥

Hogtied

In the midst of one of the most crowded schedules of any peacetime Congress, that body found time to begin a major examination of its organization and operation—the first in 20 years and only the second in its history.

This was the Joint Committee on the Organization of the Congress, set up in May of this year. Like its counterpart in 1945, the committee is expected to come up with a list of much-needed reforms. None of them, however, according to one lawmaker, will be very fundamental or far-reaching.

The reason, charges Sen. Joseph S. Clark, Democrat from Pennsylvania, is that the present committee is laboring under the same prohibition as its predecessor: It may not recommend reforms regarding the rules, parliamentary procedures, practices or precedent of either house.

"Trying to reform the Congress without revising and modernizing its rules and procedures," says Clark, "is like trying to cure a patient ill with appendicitis, without operating. It cannot be done."

Some kind of drastic surgery is needed, he says, if Congress is to regain the capacity for prompt and effective action it must have to meet the challenges of the modern world.

The senator sees a world-wide historic trend, marked by the progressive gravitation of governmental power and initiative away from legislative into executive branches.

The American development of this trend has witnessed the increasingly negative role of Congress and the impairment of its power to act positively.

At present, the productivity of Congress is so high that we tend to ignore the creakings and groanings in its internal machinery, he says.

But this good record is due chiefly to two factors: A President whose skills in dealing with Congress are unprecedented, and the overwhelming Democratic majorities in both houses resulting from the Goldwater debacle.

In Clark's view, it is precisely because of these two factors that the time for congressional reform is now, lest the legislative branch decline into being nothing more than a rubber stamp or, at the opposite extreme, a roadblock.

TAKE INVENTORY

There's an encouraging word for those who don't like to work hard. (There are some like that, they say.)

A career specialist says that go-getters who knock themselves out so the boss will promote them actually may be going nowhere.

For one thing, they may do the job at hand so well they become indispensable and can't be spared for a better job.

For another thing, it's possible for an eager beaver to be a whiz at what he's doing now and still not have what it takes to handle something higher up.

The expert who pointed out these things wasn't suggesting that aspiring young men goof off. But he did advise Young Men On the Way Up to train a subordinate who would be able to take over if the Y. M. O. N. T. W. U. did get the nod.

Here's another word of advice to all young men—and young ladies, too: A lot of successful business executives have found that a pretty good way to get ahead is to do your level best at whatever you're doing and let nature take its course. It seems to work out amazingly well.

THEY ALSO SERVE
It may not be possible to base an economy on a system whereby everybody takes in everybody else's washing, but the United States seems to be moving toward something not too different from that.

According to a report from the National Bureau of Economic Research, more Americans are engaged in performing services for other people than are employed in the actual production of tangible products. The figures at present are 55 per cent of the working force in service industries, 45 per cent in production industries.

"Service" is an extremely broad category, however. It includes those people we think of immediately—such as appliance and automobile repairmen and deliverymen—but it also embraces such fields as medicine, banking, teaching and government. President Johnson is a service man.

While some argue that the labeling of certain occupations as service and others as production is often arbitrary and questionable and that there is much overlapping, the fact remains that because of modern technology fewer and fewer people are turning out more and more goods every year.

We are the first nation in history to reach this stage, and it is a revolutionary achievement.

Washington News

(United Press International)

Lost in the storm of civil rights debate and civil disobedience was the question of what qualifications, if any, a voter should possess in an open society to prevent dilution of the electorate by great numbers of the absolutely ignorant.

President Johnson and substantial majorities in his Great Society Congress finally gave an abrupt but calculated answer to that question. The 1965 voting rights bill denied that knowledge of any kind was an essential qualification of a citizen to vote.

This was strong medicine for a cruel disease. The disease was the discrimination which prevented Negroes in many southern counties from registering to vote. If they did manage to register, the Negroes often were dissuaded from voting by various intimidations.

A legacy of the 1965 voting rights bill decreed by Johnson is likely to be a troublesome question. This question will be whether the medicine was too strong. So strong as to have dangerous side effects!

Consider the deliberate action of the U.S. Congress in refusing to admit that illiteracy, abysmal ignorance or moral decay must be matters for consideration in qualifying a citizen to participate in self-government.

The bill provides that no test or device shall be imposed in certain proscribed southern states and counties to deny or to abridge the right of a citizen to vote. That is a good and reasonable provision. Then comes the clinker, section 4-C which defines tests and devices to be suspended as follows:

"The phase test or device shall mean any requirement that a person as a prerequisite for voting for registration for voting (1) demonstrate the ability to read, write, understand or interpret any matter, (2) demonstrate any educational achievement or his knowledge of any particular subject, (3) possess good moral character, or (4) prove his qualifications by the voucher of registered voters or members of any other class."

That is the law. Even the federal registrars are forbidden to use these tests. This beckons to the polling booth the least qualified citizens, white and black. This departure from a reasonable regard for the ballot and what it signifies could have been avoided.

The alternative would have been to continue tests based on literacy, minimum educational achievement and some degree of moral decency.

But these tests would have been applied in the proscribed southern counties only under the supervision of federal registrars with the aim of assuring there would be no discriminatory denial or abridgement of Negro registration or voting.

The literacy and related tests remain in effect in some states outside the South where no discrimination has been alleged. The tests, therefore, are not of themselves evil.

Suspension of the tests despite the assurance that they could be administered fairly by federal registrars appears to have been a punishment imposed by Johnson and the Congress on southerners who over the years had discriminated against Negro citizens.

Among the white politicians there also may have been anxiety to please Negro voters by suspending tests which had become symbols of discrimination. So long as federal registrars were on the job, this suspension

THE LIGHTER SIDE

By DICK WEST

United Press International WASHINGTON (UPI) — Ordinarily, I suppose, a man's undies would be too racy a topic for the public print, but for the sake of nostalgia perhaps an exception can be made.

The William Carter Co. of Needham Heights, Mass., celebrating its 100th anniversary, marked the end of the era by announcing that it has quit making union suits.

"Early in the century," it said, "Carter's led the country in the production of union suits."

"At that time they were made in silk and wool, were called 'combination underwear' and boasted such illustrious wearers as Calvin Coolidge, president of the United States."

"While Carter's has been supplying 'old friends' with union suits in recent years despite sharply decreased demand, it was felt that the 100th birthday was a good termination point."

The company explained that "demand for fashion garments," such as T-shirts and boxer shorts, has "edged out the union suit."

As the Latins used to say, "sic transit gloria undie."

Possibly some members of the audience either are so young or, in the case of maiden aunts, have led so sheltered a life that they don't know the difference between the old era and the new.

For their edification, I will quote Webster's definition of a union suit: "An undergarment with shirt and (pardon the expression) drawers in one piece."

It may be that some other companies are still producing union suits for old times' sake, but for all practical purposes integrated underwear is dead. May it rest in peace.

Resting in peace was pretty difficult when you were wearing a union suit. I know because when I was a lad back during the Coolidge administration I used to sleep in them.

They had a way of bunching up on you during the night, so that you might wind up with a foot caught in the rear vent.

If Coolidge slept in his union suit, that might explain why he was known as "Silent Cal." After wrestling with them all night, he would have been too exhausted for conversation.

But me and old Cal liked them for the simple reason that they gave the wearer a sense of security.

A man in his underwear is a pretty ridiculous figure at best. In exchanging the simple dignity of the union suit for the loud colored boxer shorts, he has, I fear, made himself even more so.

Many persons generally prefer to do most of their long-distance driving at night because of the relatively fewer cars on the road. If you plan to do much driving after midnight you should be familiar with the special hazards of such a course.

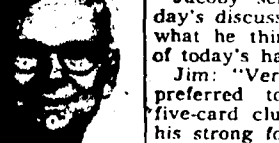

You are likely to encounter more drunken drivers, drivers who are high on pep pills and drivers who are half asleep at the wheel.

And you yourself may be a victim of highway hypnosis brought on by monotony combined with the shining in your eyes of the isolated dashboard light surrounded by comparative darkness.

The generally reduced visibility on unlighted highways adds to the danger. Distances are after harder to gauge correctly when you are approaching a curve at night.

Then, too, the temptation to maintain an excessive speed is too great for most night drivers to resist.

For your own safety you should take frequent coffee breaks—carry a vacuum bottle of coffee with you because most snack bars will be closed. If possible you should also carry a relief driver so that you alternate turns at the wheel.

Q—For the past six summers the office in which I work has been infested with sand fleas. We have used insect sprays and repellents but this does not seem to control them. What would you suggest?

A—Sand fleas, otherwise known as Tunga penetrans, red-bugs, chiggers and jiggers, are often hard to get rid of. Some persons are more attractive to them than others. The usual commercial insect sprays and repellents are of little or no value in discouraging them.

The first step should be strict cleanliness of the infested building to prevent their breeding. This means cleaning out dusty cracks and cleaning rugs and carpets as these are favored breeding grounds.

This should be followed by dusting with sodium fluoride powder or pyrethrum powder. The former is very poisonous and should not be used where there are children or pets.

Finally you should dust your clothes with 5 per cent sulfur in talc and apply the same powder or 5 per cent sulfur in the regions most likely to be affected. Most people can tolerate this, but a few will get a sulfur dermatitis in which case they can not use the sulfur.

Fighting in Kashmir Ends Peace Talks

NEW DELHI (AP) — India called off peace talks with Pakistani Foreign Minister Z. A. Bhutto today because of the fighting in Kashmir.

Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri told parliament Bhutto had been asked not to come to New Delhi Thursday because of the "serious deterioration" in India-Pakistan relations.

Bhutto was coming to discuss the cease-fire agreement for the Kutch, a barren border area 600 miles southwest of Kashmir where Indian and Pakistani forces fought in April and May.

Shastri said India stands by the Kutch agreement, despite demands within the country that the government repudiate it.

The agreement calls for the two nations to submit the dispute over the Kutch to a tribunal of foreign jurists, a formula which Shastri's opposition says means surrender of Indian territory.

Names Urged for Mars Features

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dr. William H. Pickering, head of the Ranger and Mariner space photography programs, says the United States should start naming the features of Mars.

Pickering told the National Space Club Tuesday that this would be the first step in the real mapping of Mars. The features showed up in pictures taken by Mariner 4.

Visit to Riot Jail Reported

By KENNETH INOUE
LOS ANGELES (UPI) — My press pass got me by the outer perimeter of this forbidding concrete fortress that is the Lincoln Heights jail.

The shotgun-toting police officer and his National Guard companion waved me past the road barricade after a cursory check. I walked on. No cars were allowed.

A second team of sentries stopped me at the main entrance to the courtroom section. "Everybody going in has to be searched," the officer with a shotgun said in a friendly but firm tone.

Feeling a bit foolish, I raised my arms. With the shotgun pointing away from me in his one hand, he used his other to frisk my coat, pockets and pants legs. As he was searching me, I suddenly remembered my aluminum comb.

I quickly told him about the comb before he searched that pocket. I was afraid he'd think it was a knife.

"We'll let you keep that," he said smilingly.

My mind was diverted by the sound of hundreds of voices above us.

They came from the thousands arrested during the bloody Negro uprising. They sounded merry as their loud chatter, singing and laughter blended into a cacophony of sound.

I craned my neck to see if I could see anyone up there on the top floors of the massive five-story building. But the heavy-mesh wire screen and steel bars blotted out prying eyes.

Inside long corridors stretched beyond a sliding steel door. On each side of a corridor are cells, about 20 by 30 feet in size, each holding about 50 prisoners. Naked light bulbs reflected off the steel bars fronting each cell.

Two of the four-downstairs courtrooms are makeshift, to arraign the prisoners as soon as possible.

Groups of young and middle-aged prisoners, unsmiling and bewildered, appear before the judge who advises them of their constitutional rights to counsel, speedy trial by jury or non-jury and whether they understand the charges filed against them.

A few of the older ones nod that they do. The younger ones look self-conscious as if the legal terminology comes from another planet. Few ask questions.

A striking contrast was apparent in their dress. Some are wearing discolored T-shirts, spotty jeans, dirty sneakers, and no socks. Others are dressed neatly in dark slacks, solid-colored sport shirts and shoes somehow still shiny.

BOY DIES

AMERICAN FALLS, Idaho, (AP)—The death of a 9-year-old boy Tuesday of injuries suffered the day before in a car-bicycle accident has raised Idaho's 1965 traffic toll to 161. The boy was Ricky Havlicak, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Havlicak of Rockland. Officers said he rode his bicycle from a side road onto Highway 37 and struck a rear wheel of a loaded grain truck. The truck was driven by Larry Woodworth, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Woodworth Jr.

NOT CONTAGIOUS

IDAHO FALLS (UPI)—Meningitis contracted by a 6-year-old Idaho Falls boy is a non-contagious variety, the youngster's attending physician has decided.

Wade Eilers, son of Mrs. Benjamin Rojas, is improving, the doctor said. The boy was admitted to a hospital Monday. His form of the disease is a viral type that is not contagious, the physician said.

AUTOPSY PLANNED

GRAND VIEW, Idaho (AP)—An autopsy to determine cause of death of a man whose body was found on a country roadside Tuesday night was planned today by Elmore County Coroner Arthur Smith.

Smith identified the man as Raymond A. Berwick, 70, of Grand View. Officers believed Berwick could have fallen from the back of a pickup without the driver's knowledge.

ON PROBATION

WALLACE (UPI)—A Wallace man has been placed on probation for a year after pleading guilty to a charge of involuntary manslaughter. Michael Wayne Garritone, 20, entered the plea Tuesday. He was charged with causing the death of Daniel Edward Krullitz, 18, Mullan, in a traffic accident last Memorial Day.

FINAL TRIBUTE

NAMPA, Idaho (AP)—Final tribute to the only woman ever elected to Congress from Idaho was made Tuesday.

Funeral services were conducted for former Rep. Gracie Post, 59, who died last week in a Baltimore, Md., hospital. Death was attributed to Hodgkin's disease.

Neighbors and high state and federal officers, including Gov. Robert E. Smylie, were in attendance.

MISTAKE

BOISE (UPI)—United States senators "made a mistake" in refusing to grant state governors an absolute veto over anti-poverty projects, Gov. Robert E. Smylie says.

Smylie said the Senate decision, made Tuesday, was contrary to the position taken by the nation's governors at their conference in Minneapolis this summer.

He said the governors' resolution was introduced by two Democratic governors, John Connolly of Texas and Grant Sawyer of Nevada.

BODY RECOVERED

ST. ANTHONY (UPI)—Searchers have recovered the body of an 11-year-old St. Anthony girl who drowned Tuesday in an irrigation canal.

The mishap took the life of Betty Jean Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Miller, rural St. Anthony.

Sheriff Jess Butts said the girl had gone to the St. Anthony Canal to swim and apparently slipped off a rock into a hole from 15 to 20 feet deep. Several young companions were unsuccessful in efforts to save her.

INSPECTION PLANNED

POCATELLO (AP)—City and county officials plan to fly to Colfax, Wash., Aug. 31 to inspect a flood control project similar to one planned for Pocatello. The $5 million Pocatello project is to include a concrete waterway through the city and straightening and deepening of parts of the Portneuf River channel in the county.

POTATO USE

BOISE (AP)—Early reports indicate nearly three fourths of Idaho's potato crop is being processed this year, according to Agriculture Commissioner Stanley I. Trenhaile.

Trenhaile told members of the Idaho Potato and Onion Commission Monday 61 per cent of the crop went to processors last year and that sales of Idaho potatoes in a variety of processed forms are growing annually.

Rifle Used By Assassin Is Wanted

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government moved today to guarantee its ownership of the rifle used to kill President John F. Kennedy.

An advertisement placed in a Dallas newspaper, announced the federal government's intent to seize the rifle plus a pistol which belonged to assassin Lee Harvey Oswald.

The guns have been in FBI care since the assassination, and a bill now before Congress would give the attorney-general authority to declare the weapons and other evidence used by the Warren Commission—essential to national security, and thus government property.

The government's right to the weapons has been challenged by gun collector John King. He says he paid $10,000 to Oswald's widow, the former Marina Oswald, for the guns.

U.S. Action Is Endorsed By Writers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon reported today that more than half the letters it gets on Viet Nam endorse the U.S. commitment there — a sharp turnaround from last spring. Officials said that as recently as April the Defense Department received in one week 93 letters classified as favorable to the American position and 177 letters classified as unfavorable.

As the war intensified during the spring and early summer, officials said, the trend began to reverse. Near the end of May the count in one week was 45 in favor and 42 against. Since then the favorable letters have outdistanced the unfavorable ones. Last week's mail, officials said, brought 72 favorable letters and 67 unfavorable ones.

Asphyxiation Causes Death Of Youth, 17

LARAMIE, Wyo. (AP)—Scott Nelson, 17, of Idaho Falls, Idaho died of asphyxiation following a fight Monday night here, Albany County Coroner Don Allen said Tuesday.

Cheyenne pathologist Dr. Henry Tsumagari, according to Allen, said asphyxiation was caused by vomit inhaled into the lungs.

There was a definite correlation between the cause of death and blows the youth received in the fight, the pathologist said.

Nelson had been visiting his brother, Zane, who moved here one month ago. He became involved in the fight at a dance. Meanwhile, Albany County Attorney Jay Gaer said he planned to file second degree murder charges against three Laramie youths involved in the altercation.

Typhoon May Have Aided In Crash

WASHINGTON (AP) — A typhoon may have contributed to the June 18 collision of two Strategic Air Command planes on the first strike by B52 bombers against Viet Nam Hargets, the report of an investigating board suggested today.

The B52s collided west of the northern tip of the Philippine island of Luzon while awaiting in-flight refueling. Eight crewmen of the two planes died, four others were rescued.

A summary of the investigating board's report says:

"Typhoon Dinah, which was active in the area at the time, created weather conditions which were difficult to forecast accurately."

"One group of B52 aircraft encountered strong but erratic tailwinds and approached the pre-planned rendezvous with the aerial refueling tankers a few minutes ahead of schedule."

"These aircraft initiated a series of turns to delay arrival at the refueling point."

"The collision occurred when one aircraft executing such a delaying maneuver crossed the path of another B52."

Two Twin Falls Youths Receive Scholarships

BURLEY — The scholarship committee of the Lutheran Laymen's League for the Utah-Idaho district has announced that Connie Theamer and Eleanor Reinke, both Twin Falls, have been chosen to receive the scholarship awards for the Central Zone, with Michael Moore, Twin Falls, serving as alternate.

District scholarships went to Sandra Lee Martens, Salt Lake City; Rose Gaines, Bountiful; Utah; John Dillon, Pocatello; Joyce Brueggemann, Idaho Falls, and Phillip Lang, Caldwell.

The scholarship committee is made up of Dr. Larry Hagen, Caldwell; Herbert Einspahr, Twin Falls, and the Rev. Glenn Koch, Burley. The scholarships are awarded to young people planning a full time career in church work and are based on both scholastic ability and need.

Two-Way Radio Is Installed In T.F. Dogcatcher's Truck

A two-way radio unit has been installed in the panel truck operated by Keith Saville, Twin Falls dog catcher.

Residents wishing to make complaints and inquiries on lost dogs should channel these complaints through the Twin Falls Police Department. Other calls, including questions from owners who think their dogs may have

Utah Voters Defeat Urban Renewal Plan

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Salt Lake City voters told proponents of urban renewal Tuesday they don't want the federal program in their city. And they did it by a six-to-one margin.

In a special election to create a redevelopment agency, which would have administered the urban renewal program, Salt Lake City voters cast 29,121 votes against, and 4,900 for the proposal.

From the first, returns indicated a huge margin of opposition. Early returns ran as high as seven-eight and almost nine to one against the issue.

Few of the city's 55 consolidated voting districts approached a 50-50 split, and none supported the issue.

The final tally was reported by Salt Lake City Recorder Herm Hogensen a few minutes before midnight.

Opponents of Policy Blasted

PORTLAND (AP) — The national commander of the American Legion Tuesday blasted opponents of U.S. policy in Viet Nam, especially the "campus cousins" of the American fighting man.

Donald E. Johnson, West Branch, Iowa, said demonstrators against the conflict in Viet Nam are performing a disservice that is injuring their nation.

Johnson is in Portland for the national American Legion convention which opens Friday. He recently returned from a tour of the Far East with a stop in Viet Nam.

NEW ORDER LONDON (AP) — Britain's commercial television companies were ordered today to cut out all crime programs between 8 and 9 p.m. on weekdays.

Food Service May Be Given Old Folks

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Salt Lake City's old folks who can't prepare their own meals might get a catering service, compliments of a proposed welfare program.

The Metropolitan Salt Lake Council on Aging has suggested that elderly persons who are not sufficiently ill to reside in a rest home, but still can't cook their own meals, get such a service.

Mrs. Sherma Johnson, a dietitian for the council, said a survey is under way to determine the Salt Lake City area's need for such a service.

She said a U.S. Economic Opportunities Act program would finance it.

The plan would provide one hot meal a day for recipients, with enough extra food to make up the rest of the day's meals.

She said that couples with incomes of $3,000 or less, $1,800 for single persons, would be eligible.

Boise Youth Treated for Bad Kidney

SEATTLE (AP) — Doctors worked against the clock Tuesday at the University of Washington hospital to prepare 13-year-old Gregory Potts of Boise, Idaho, for emergency treatment with an artificial kidney.

Gregory, injured in a car-bicycle accident Saturday, was flown here by chartered plane Tuesday from Boise when his kidneys stopped functioning.

He suffered a fractured arm and cuts and bruises as well as the internal injuries which affected his kidneys.

The artificial kidney filters toxic body products from the blood stream, as do normal human kidneys.

Doctors said Gregory was in very critical condition. If all goes well, they said, he would be placed in the machine Tuesday night.

Refugees May Be Fleeing Terrorism

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor said today the "increasing brutality of the terror tactics of the Viet Cong" has helped produce a sharp rise in the flight of refugees into territory controlled by the government of South Viet Nam.

The former ambassador to Saigon added that there have been recent reports of incidents of Viet Cong terrorism "with no apparent reason than to force the people from their hamlets and villages" to swamp South Vietnamese relief agencies.

In testimony prepared for a Senate Judiciary subcommittee, Taylor said there is no conclusive evidence that the Viet Cong have adopted this tactic on any systematic, nationwide basis, but "we will continue to be alert to any development of this kind."

Wildlife OK, Budworm Hit By Spray

SALMON — Application of technical grade malathion on the Salmon National Forest in a test project last month showed total spruce budworm mortality for the 13-ounce application was 90 per cent with no ill effects to wildlife.

Robert K. Pate, project leader, in a report on the 8,000-acre test, said that the results for the 13-ounce application were satisfactory.

Pate said that the field work for the 1965 spruce budworm project has been completed with the exception of some aquatic insect sampling which will not be completed until October.

The report noted: "The Malathion apparently had no effect on the young pheasants that were caged within the spray areas nor upon fish held in live boxes."

The live boxes were placed in streams at the lower end of each spray block and below the confluence of the three forks of Iron Creek. Aquatic insect loss was measured by drifting insects and temporarily increased over normal. The drift soon returned to near normal.

The over-all effect of the malathion upon the forest environment other than budworm was apparently negligible.

Decision Is Appealed to High Court

OLYMPIA (AP) — A decision upsetting the state's power to enforce law and order on Indian reservations has been appealed to the State Supreme Court.

The state has appealed a ruling by Judge Joseph H. Johnston in Clallam County in a case involving a traffic conviction against Makah Indian Douglas Coleman on his reservation.

Judge Johnston held the state courts lacked jurisdiction to enforce state laws on the reservation.

The ruling struck at the validity of two major state laws. One was a 1963 statute giving the state civil and criminal jurisdiction over a number of Indian towns, on public roads and in welfare, school and related matters.

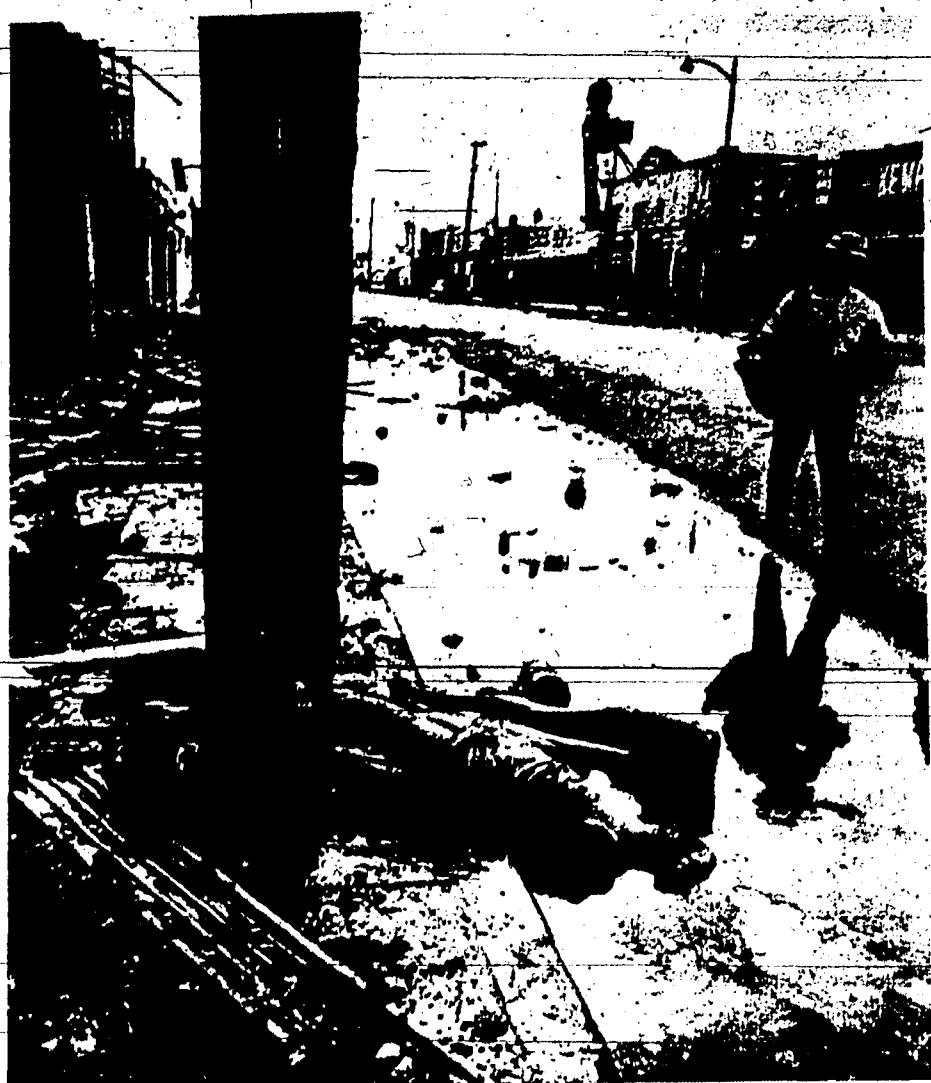

The other was a 1957 law allowing the state to assume full enforcement of all state laws on a reservation if requested by the tribe.

Trapped Coal Miner Rescued

EBENSBURG, Pa. (AP) — A coal miner was rescued unharmed early today after being trapped 90 feet underground for about 12 hours.

William Ferguson, 61, of Ebensburg, operator of a mining machine, was caught in a roof fall Tuesday at a mine near this western Pennsylvania town.

Two other miners working with Ferguson escaped without injury when the roof collapsed four miles from the mine entrance.

Two Cited in Road Mishap Near Carey

CAREY — Two citations were issued by Blaine County sheriff's officers after a two-car accident about noon Tuesday.

Mrs. Curtis Parks, 36, Carey, was cited for stopping and parking on the highway right-of-way after her 1963 Ford station wagon was struck from behind by a 1965 Chevrolet pickup truck driven by Mrs. Clarence

Carpenter, 32, Shoshone. Mrs. Parke had stopped in the southbound lane on Idaho 93 about one and one-half miles east of Carey when the accident occurred, according to Deputy Sheriff Greene. Mrs. Parke was bruised and Greene said he expected she would be hospitalized overnight.

Passengers in her car, son Gary, 12, was bruised, and another son, Neil, three months, was uninjured. Mrs. Carpenter was bruised when she was thrown against the steering wheel by the impact. Mrs. Charlotte Climer, 21; Frank Climer, 4, and Linda Carpenter, 9, all passengers in the Carper vehicle, were bruised. Another passenger, Carol Baird, 21, received a cut on her leg but did not require hospitalization.

Mrs. Carpenter was cited for failure to use due care while driving. Damage was estimated at about $400 to the station wagon and about $500 to the pickup truck.

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 18—
Born today, you have a congenial personality and will not doubt make friends wherever you go. This is more important than it may seem at first, because you are destined to move about a great deal in your life. Were it not easy for you to strike up companionable relationships with others, you might find yourself stranded and friendless—very often. Your "rolling stone" personality, however, it is merely that armchair traveling is not enough for you, and you will probably select a career, therefore, that keeps you on the move.
A person of many interests and varied talents, you run the risk—as does everyone who has more than one outstanding ability—of not choosing early enough in life the one line of work you will follow. Recognize this risk early, however, and you've won half the battle, for then you can immediately set about to select the one talent you will bring to the peak of perfection and thus to the foreground of your life.
Children born on this day should have their minds brought around early to the business of a career, for the longer the choice is put off the more difficult it will be. Indeed, one might go as far as to say that should such children grow up to be "Jacks of all trades, but masters of none," only the parents are to blame!
To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.
Thursday, August 19
LEO (July 24-Aug. 23)—Excellent results for you if you are willing to put both mind and heart to the job at hand.
VIRGO (Aug. 24-Sept. 23)—Improve employment schedule and methods and you should improve profits at the same time!
LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)—Join others in some communal venture. Excellent prospects for both your professional and social life.
SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)—Apply yourself to the problems of others and you may forget your own—at least for the moment.
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22)—Your intuition should be more trustworthy than usual today. Put it to work, along with reason, on an important project.
CAPRICORN (Dec. 23-Jan. 20)—Take care that you do not dim the brightness of your own limelight through some thoughtless action.
AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)—Domestic problems can be solved without difficulty if you take the time to talk things out.
PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20)—Waste no time on those who have nothing to offer you either professionally or socially today.
ARIES (March 21-April 20)—Real results accrue if you use the full measure of your intelligence. Don't be content with just "good enough."
TAURUS (April 21-May 21)—You should have exceptional good fortune in your dealings with members of the opposite sex today.
GEMINI (May 22-June 21)—Consult the experts when it comes to solving technical problems.
Increase in Wage Law Is Approved
WASHINGTON (AP)—A 50-cent increase in the present $1.25 minimum wage and extension of the wage law to 7.2 million more workers was approved today by the House Education and Labor Committee on a voice vote.
Chairman Adam Clayton Powell, D-N.Y., predicted the bill would pass both the House and Senate before Congress adjourns.
The bill would extend federal wage legislation to farm workers for the first time, bringing 13 million of them under it.
The original law applied only to production workers. Retail and service employees were added three years ago. Nearly 30 million workers are now covered.
Utah Flood Studies Are Approved
SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—A State of Utah request for immediate studies leading to flood control measures has been approved by the Utah Water and Power Board.
The board has supported an Upper Colorado River Commission position that the Central Arizona Water Reclamation Project include guarantees for Upper Basin projects.
State Water Plan Director Edwin C. Haycock said Tuesday that the flood control studies would be conducted by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.
He said that if the Corps can include such studies in its next budget, work might start during the next fiscal year.
The studies would be at Corps expense, Haycock said.

Mill Town Auctioned Off to Cotton Broker

MILSTEAD, Ga. (AP) — The cotton broker, acquired most of the town about 28 miles southeast of Atlanta. The auction brought in a total of $152,825. Woolen purchased the Callaway Mills buildings for $72,500; the Milstead railroad with a rusty locomotive and three and one-half miles of track for $15,000; and the Milstead water system for $10,000. About 300 men, women and children — half the population — watched the sale of almost everything except 230 private homes.
The old company store was sold along with the community center and post office, the drug store, the 10-room Milstead Hotel, four houses — including the largest ones in town — a hydroelectric plant and several buildings lots.
The town of Milstead grew up around Callaway Mills and a number of residents purchased their homes from the textile company in 1946. At one time 950 persons were employed there.
The mills closed in 1960 when the firm merged its manufacturing process with its larger mills in La Grange, Ga.

Funds Provided
CANBERRA (AP) — Australia will provide about $21 million additional defense aid to Malaysia during the next two years. Treasurer Harold Holt announced this in presenting his federal budget to Parliament Tuesday and said the assistance would be in the form of equipment and training aid.

Woman Held For Husband Poison Death

PORTLAND (AP)—The widow of a Sherwood man killed by a dose of cyanide poison was arraigned in Circuit Court Tuesday on a charge of first-degree murder.

A secret grand jury indictment returned June 29 charged Mrs. Vera Rossa, 46, Sherwood, in connection with the death of Arthur Rossa, also 46, March 19. Kidnaping, Robbery Investigated

OGDEN (AP)—Police said Wednesday they are still looking for two suspects in the alleged kidnaping of a Roy man at knifepoint Monday evening.

Harry P. Takagato, about 50, also known as Harry Sato, who resides in Roy, said he was also robbed of about $30 in small change and currency by three men who forced their way into his car Monday.

The three then took him for a ride in the car which carried them through Brigham City, and Honeyville in Box Elder County, east into Cache County and then north into the Franklin and Preston area of Southern Idaho. One of the trio left the car in Box Elder or Western Cache County. He was later picked up by Logan police, questioned, and then released to Ogden officers.

Takagato was eventually released near Franklin and called the sheriff's office in Preston.

Two Infants Die From Drownings

By The Associated Press

Drownings claimed the lives of two small boys Tuesday, one a Provo baby who fell into an irrigation ditch, the other a Salt Lake County youngster who tumbled into a fishpond last week.

One-year-old Kevin Blood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Blood, was pronounced dead at Utah Valley Hospital. He was pulled from a three-foot deep ditch in front of his family's home near Sixth West and Fourth South.

The tot was found by his mother and a sister-in-law about 6 p.m. Neighbors attempted to revive him with mouth-to-mouth resuscitation, but were unsuccessful.

Earlier in the day, two-year-old James John Lyon of Union died in a Salt Lake City hospital. He fell into a fishpond near his home last Thursday, but was revived by doctors. He had been in critical condition since the incident.

Utah Man Is Killed in 3-Car Crash

Man Touches Power Line, Is Not Killed

PULLMAN, Wash. (AP)—Robert Laqua, 30, of Pullman, narrowly escaped electrocution Wednesday when he accidentally touched electric power lines across the Pullman-Moscow Idaho, highway.

Authorities said Laqua was riding atop a house which was being moved, apparently to watch for power lines. He failed to see two strands of wire crossing the road, and came in contact with the lines as the house was being moved.

Laqua was knocked to the highway with first and second degree burns and cuts and bruises about his face, chest and shoulders. He was taken to Pullman Memorial Hospital.

Mother of Three Has Idea of Becoming Master Mechanic

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Barbara Battles, a happily married mother of three, knows as much about changing oil as diapers.

Her ambition is to be a master mechanic.

"I can't wait to get my hands on a car and really go to work," says the dainty brunette who puts in 40 hours a week at her husband's service station.

Mrs. Battles, 26, has just completed a week's course in tune-ups. She expects her training to be completed by October.

"Business is slow right now," she says. "But I'll really be under there in the fall."

She means under the cars and under the hoods. That's where all the action is in the mechanic business and also all the grease and dirt. That doesn't bother Mrs. Battles.

"Washing dishes keeps my hands clean."

Mrs. Battles got into the business by accident shortly after her husband, Richard, 29, opened his first station three years ago.

"I stopped for church," she said. "My husband told me to watch the station while he went on the road. The next thing I knew I was pumping gas. I was terrified."

Shortly after that the company that owns the station told Battles he had to open an hour earlier each day.

"He was putting in too many hours anyway so I said I'd do it," Mrs. Battles said. "But," she adds, her brown eyes flashing, "if I was going to do it, I was going to do it right."

She decided to learn the business from bumper to bumper. She was the only woman to take a two-week course in pumping gas and changing oil. Then she started mechanic's school as the lone female in a class of 13.

Exchange Club Given TV Preview

A "sneak preview" of a new fall television series highlighted a meeting of the Twin Falls Exchange Club Tuesday noon in the Rogerson Hotel Desert Room.

An episode from "Lawman," a syndicated series in color was shown — minus commercials. The new show features actor Lee Marvin as narrator of documentaries based on crimes in cities throughout the United States.

The episode shown Tuesday analyzed a murder-robbery committed by a Seattle, Wash., young man who, it was pointed out, had lived in 17 different foster homes. Included were interviews with the murderer, sentenced to life in prison; Seattle law enforcement officers, and the man's mother, whom he had not seen for 10 years.

Portions of the show have Marvin conducting the interviews in a format similar to the former "Person-to-Person" television series.

Vic Graybill, who showed the film, told members the new show will be in color this fall on KMTV. During other business members discussed plans for selling Christmas trees this winter.

Allocation Of Funds for L. A. Urged

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. George Murphy, R-Calif., urged George Shriver today to go to Los Angeles "to end this confusion and political nonsense" so that antipoverty funds "will be quickly allocated to this troubled city."

Murphy's plea was in a telegram to Shriver, head of the administration's antipoverty program.

It was prompted by a telegram to Murphy from Mayor Samuel Y. Young of Los Angeles, which said:

"One of the riot inciting factors is the deliberate and well publicized cutting off of poverty funds to this city pending our efforts to reorganize the Youth Opportunities Board to meet the same Office of Economic Opportunity criteria."

Information Teams Are Appointed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Armed Services Committee has told the Pentagon it is making special plans to keep its hands on things even after Congress adjourns.

Chairman L. Mendel Rivers, D-S.C., named three special subcommittees to "travel all around America" to keep the committee informed on problems involving tactical air support, military construction and port facilities.

Rivers made the announcement at a hearing Tuesday where senior Republicans and Democrats complained bitterly they weren't being fully informed by the Defense Department.

Rivers and others said the first they heard of the Pentagon's definite decision Friday to send some Navy personnel in uniform beyond their enlistment was when they read it in the newspapers.

The upper house took action on a personal relief bill to aid Dr. Jose Quintero who lives with his wife and two children at Morgantown, W. Va., and is a professor at the West Virginia University medical school.

Quintero told the Senate Judiciary Committee that he is contemplating engaging in private practice in Missouri, but U.S. citizenship is required to obtain a license.

Search Ends For Missing U. S. Missile

CREEDE, Colo. (UPI) — A White Sands, N. M., missile range recovery team left the Creede area Tuesday after more than two weeks in a third fruitless search for a Pershing missile.

The runaway Pershing over shot its White Sands target site last November and was believed down in the mountainous terrain near Creede. It was fired from Ft. Bliss, Tex.

Preceding search parties scoured the area in November and June with no luck.

The 17-man mounted search party arrived in Creede Aug. 1 but failed to turn up any trace of the Pershing. White Sands officials said.

A $500 reward for the missing missile was due to expire Sept. 30, range officials said Tuesday. The reward was posted in February.

Seven-Foot Monster With Black Hair Is Object of Mass Michigan Search

MONROE, Mich. (UPI) — Yes sir! It's the greatest thing that's happened in Monroe since they put up the atomic power plant a few years back.

Roads leading into the area are jammed. Business is booming at local restaurants, motels and service stations.

"They're coming from all over Michigan," said police Sgt. Howard Kullin.

The attraction: A seven-foot monster covered with black hair. Police said thousands of persons have been arriving here in the past few days to join in the hunt. "Most of them are armed with tire irons and things like that," said Sgt. Kullin.

Authorities made it clear they think the whole thing is absurd. The hunt for the hairy mon-

Idaho Site Under Study For Facility

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Idaho's proposal for a site for the planned atomic energy accelerator laboratory is one of 117 under study, Sen. Len B. Jordan, R-Idaho, said.

The number of proposals and their complexity, he said, have made the initial review more lengthy than first anticipated. The AEC plans to build a $280 million facility and Idaho has proposed it be built on land near the National Reactor Testing Station in eastern Idaho.

"The commission has already met with the National Academy of Sciences Site Evaluation Committee for an initial discussion of the proposals," Jordan said. "However, it will be later this month before the commission has completed its preliminary review and is in a position to transmit formally to the academy a list of locations designated for detailed evaluation by the academy committee."

Ike Says U. S. Morals Degenerating

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower said Tuesday "if the Republican party makes itself a real crusader for restoring moral values" to American life it will win a great many converts.

The former president told a news conference that riots in Los Angeles and other cities reflect a degeneration in moral standards.

He said the average American's self-reliance has been weakened by the "cloying" activities of a federal government he charged is engaged in "unconscionable spending" at a time when the country ought to be tightening its belt for growing military needs in Viet Nam.

"When we commit our men to Viet Nam we must go all the way. Indeed it would be good for us to tighten up our belts," Eisenhower said he regards as senseless the big-city riots and some of the demonstrations at colleges which preceded them.

Regulations For Beauty Are Proposed

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Interior Secretary Stewart Udall Tuesday proposed new regulations which would ban billboard advertising along thousands of miles of road bordering land of the Bureau of Land Management.

The bureau administers more than 460 million acres of public land, principally in Oregon, California, Idaho, Nevada, Arizona, Utah, New Mexico, Colorado, Montana and Wyoming. Partially affected will be South Dakota and Washington.

Under the proposed rules, billboards and other advertising displays would be banned from being situated 1,000 feet on either side of the roads affected.

Udall said the proposal would preserve scenic beauty along the road.

Rally Erupts In Police Battle

HARTFORD, Conn. (UPI) — A rally in sympathy with Negroes of riot-torn Los Angeles erupted in a brick throwing battle with police Tuesday night. At least 14 Negro demonstrators were arrested.

Police said the rally began heatedly when Charles Turner, head of the North End Community Action Project, told a huge sidewalk crowd that: "In Los Angeles... 33 dead, 29 Negroes... who are the real killers?"

Turner said "the conditions that exist in Hartford are such that they can kindle a spark that could ignite riots similar to the ones in Los Angeles."

New Obstacle Rises in Greek Crisis

ATHENS (UPI) — A sudden "diplomatic illness" by a leading Greek politician raised new obstacles today to a solution of the country's political crisis.

King Constantine was meeting Wednesday with Stephen Stefanopoulos and Elias Tsirimokos, two leading possibilities for the premiership, and it was believed he would name one of the other.

A snag arose when Savas Papanolis, a Union deputy with a small following, postponed a meeting with the King because he is "not feeling well."

Papanolis has promised his support to Stefanopoulos and Tsirimokos and friends said he pleaded illness because he did not want to commit himself irrevocably. His move could delay the King's action.

Popular Concept of Texas as Arid Region False

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Easterners who are suffering through their fourth straight summer of drought may think they're living under a Texas-type hardship. But the popular conception of Texas as an arid region is false.

Texas as a whole has more rain than it can use. The eastern portion of the state, for example, gets more than 50 inches of rainfall a year. The average rainfall at Beaumont, near Houston, is 55 inches per year. Dallas averages 45 inches. Dallas 35 and San Antonio 28.

Almost 800 miles to the west, though, around El Paso, the fall is less than 10 inches annually. Therein lies the Texas water problem.

Texas has had its share of droughts. The state was hit especially hard by the seven-year drought of the 1950s, it was then that bottled water sold in Dallas for 50 cents a gallon, or seven times the cost of oil, long a basic pillar of Texas economy.

Texans tried everything from thousands of dollars paid to rainmakers to less expensive prayers.

By the time drought-breaking torrents fell in the spring in 1957, intensified water development began. Texas found it had plenty of water, but was not using it properly.

Plans were drawn for scores of large dam-reservoir projects, many to cost over $50 million, to keep river water in Texas instead of letting it run off into the Gulf of Mexico.

There are today 138 major dams built or under construction in the state, with the 44 largest reservoirs having a collective surface area when full of 2,300 square miles, almost twice the area of Rhode Island.

Texas has so much water that 40 million acre-feet meander through its rivers to the Gulf every year. There are more than 7,500 named streams, rivers and tributaries in the state, flowing in 80,000 miles of channels.

Club Invited To Wagon Days

CAREY — Carey Riding Club has been invited to participate in the parade and drill competition during Wagon Days at Ketchum the second weekend in September.

The club is now practicing for performances during the Dillon Jaycees Labor Day Rodeo to be held Sept. 5 and 6 at Dillon, Montana.

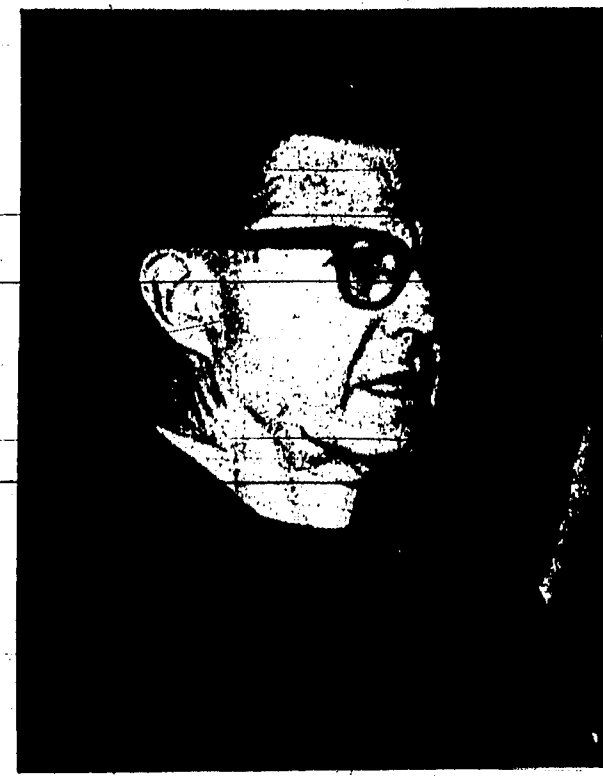

Water experts believe that huge dams alone will not solve the water problem. They say that transbasin diversion — transfer of water by canal or pipeline from one river basin to another — is needed.

Diversion is especially crucial in Texas because of the disparity in annual rainfall across the state. The Texas Water Commission says yearly rainfall decreases about one inch for every 17 miles from east to west.

The most dramatic diversion proposal is for a 419-mile canal from the Sabine River on the Texas-Louisiana border to the Lower Rio Grande Valley.

The U.S. Bureau of Reclamation estimates that the canal, about 50 miles inland from the Gulf Coast, would cost $31 million and annually divert 358,000 acre-feet of water from east Texas to more arid regions to the west.

Work is nearing completion on another diversion project in the Texas Panhandle; a $103-million dam-pipeline complex on the Canadian River to supply municipal water to 11 West Texas cities. The pipeline, system is 322-miles long, the longest such waterway ever built by the Reclamation Bureau.

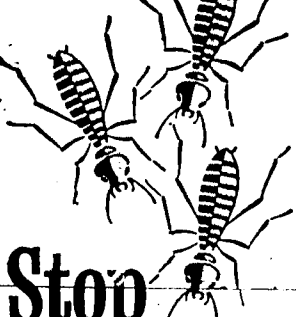

EPISCOPAL BISHOP James A. Pike, bottom, charged, with heresy by fellow clergymen, Tuesday replied in outspoken fashion that the accusations are either false or misleading. He was charged with heresy for saying he intended to ordain 48-year-old widow, Deaconess Phyllis Edwards, top, of San Francisco, as perpetual deacon. (AP wirephoto)

Accusations By Clergymen Are Denied

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Controversial Bishop James A. Pike, facing virtually unprecedented charges of heresy by 14 Episcopal clergymen, labeled the accusations "outright lies" and "gross distortions."

Pike, the head of the California Episcopal diocese, was dismayed that heresy charges had been forwarded to the House of Bishops, the ruling body of the Episcopal Church. He learned of the charges Monday.

His accuser was the Rev. Paul B. Urbano, rector of the All Saints Church in Phoenix, who demanded the matter be put on the agenda when the House of Bishops convenes Sept. 6 at East Glacier Park, Mont.

Rookie Stuns U.S. Ace As Spain Takes 2-0 Lead In Interzone Davis Cup

BARCELONA, Spain (AP)—Juan Gisbert, a Davis Cup rookie, stunned America's No. 1 ace, Dennis Ralston, in the opening match and Manuel Santana turned Frank Froehling's cannon balls into popcorn Tuesday as Spain grabbed a surprising 2-0 lead over the United States in the interzone tennis finals. Gisbert, a 23-year-old law student at Barcelona University, rallied against a jittery, tense Ralston for a 3-6, 8-6, 6-1, 6-3 victory that virtually decided the best-of-five-match series right there.

Reds' Rookie Stops Cubs For 6-4 Win

CHICAGO (AP)—Ted Davidson, 25-year-old left-hander making his first major league start, hurled the Cincinnati Reds to a 6-4 victory over the Chicago Cubs Tuesday.

The Reds, fourth in the National League pennant chase, backed the newcomer from San Diego with homers by Frank Robinson and Deron Johnson. Leo Cardenas' two-run double in the eighth inning, however, proved to be the winning hit.

Davidson, who was brought up July 22 and had a 1-1 record in relief for the Reds, was yanked for a pinch hitter after yielding eight hits and three runs in six innings. He walked one and struck out two.

Billy McCool blanked the Cubs in the seventh and eighth innings but was reached for doubles by Chris Krug and Glen Beckler on one run in the ninth. He was relieved by Sammy Ellis, who retired the ext three batters.

The White Sox added a run in the eighth on Ron Hansen's triple, a hit batter and double steal, with Hansen stealing home and Ken Berry second as Pizarro fanned.

Don Buford, Danny Cater and Berry each had three hits in the first game as the White Sox opened up with four straight hits off loser Mike McCormick and finished with 15, including Berry's sixth homer.

Clendenon homered off starter Dick Farrell, now 8-7, following Roberto Clemente's leadoff single in the third.

Three-Hitter Gives Braves 4-1 Triumph

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Denny Lemaster hurled a three-hitter and survived a late St. Louis outburst as Milwaukee defeated the Cardinals 4-1 Tuesday night.

Felipe Alou and Hank Aaron combined to provide Lemaster with the scoring punch he needed for his sixth win against nine defeats.

Alou cracked four hits and started both Milwaukee scoring innings. He singled in the third, moved up on Curt Flood's error and scored on a single by Mack Jones.

Alou opened the fifth with another single, and Hank Aaron slammed his 27th homer.

Singles Spark Dodgers Past Phillies 4-2

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Two-out run-scoring singles by Jim Gilliam and Jim Lefebvre in the seventh inning sparked Los Angeles to a 4-2 victory over Philadelphia Tuesday night and kept the Dodgers in first place in the National League.

The triumph enabled the Dodgers to maintain their one-half game margin over the Milwaukee Braves.

The Dodgers trailed 2-1 going into the seventh. John Roseboro singled with one out, and pinch runner Willie Crawford beat the attempted force at second on Wally Moon's grounder to pitcher Ray Herbert. After Maury Willis popped up trying to bunt, Gilliam singled in Crawford.

John Kennedy ran for Moon at second and raced home as Lefebvre singled to left field for his third straight hit.

The Dodgers added a run in the eighth when Wes Parker singled, was sacrificed to second, moved to third on an infield out and came home as John Kennedy singled.

Pocatello Halts Cowboy Rally in Ninth Inning To Score 13-12 Victory

POCATELLO, Idaho (AP)—Pocatello coasted through seven innings but almost didn't stop a ninth inning rally to edge Magic Valley 13-12 in a Pioneer League baseball game Tuesday night. Magic Valley was held scoreless after four runs in the ninth inning, but broke open for eight runs in the ninth inning, and hit batsmen before relief pitcher Walt Peterson put out their last inning fire. Pocatello had two big innings. The Dodgers scored four runs to take the lead in the second inning on three walks and three hits. They added four insurance runs in the sixth inning.

Farrell Sees Self As Victim of Row

WASHINGTON (AP)—Track star Tom Farrell, caught in the middle of the fight between the rival powers of U.S. amateur athletics, testified Tuesday he may be barred from college meets this fall and winter. And Earl Rudder, president of Texas A&M, said the squeeze has become so intense that his school's world champion shot putter, Randy Peterson, is thinking of retiring from competition until the testimony marked the second day of a Senate Commerce Committee investigation into the row between the National Collegiate Athletic Association and the Amateur Athletic Union. The senators want to know whether a law is needed to settle the jurisdictional feud.

Angels Rally To Defeat Caldwell 3-1

IDAHO FALLS (AP)—Idaho Falls rallied with three hits, two intentional walks and capitalized on two wild pitches to pull out a 4-3 victory over Treasure Valley Tuesday.

Leading off in the bottom of the ninth, Don Anderson lived on a fielding error. Two successive wild pitches sent him to third in time for Terry Thompson to score him with a line drive into short center field.

Ray Vegas then stepped to the plate and banged out a deep triple against the center field wall. Thompson scored.

Catcher Fred Combes and second baseman Doug Griffin each drew intentional walks sending Rolando Rodriguez to the plate.

Rodriguez took two pitches, then tapped a floater into right center sending Vegas across with the winning run.

Henderson Bats Giants Past Mets 3-2

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Rookie outfielder Ken Henderson drove home the go-ahead run for the second straight day Tuesday as the San Francisco Giants beat the New York Mets 3-2.

The 19-year-old rookie opened in center field to give Willie Mays a rest and his double in the fourth inning drove home Jim Hart and Len Gabrielson to put San Francisco ahead.

Henderson had started the previous inning with a single after the Mets led 2-0. He scored

Yanks Score 6-1 Victory Over Angels

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Yankees raised their winning percentage above .500 for the first time in four months Tuesday night, beating the Los Angeles Angels 6-1 with a five-run burst in the second inning.

It marked the first time the perennial American League champions — currently in sixth place — have been better than even since April 18, when they were 3-2.

Al Downing, who hadn't won since July 16, pitched in and out of trouble repeatedly in raising his record to 10-11 and pushed across the game's first walk by drawing a bases-loaded left-hander gave up nine hits and struck out eight.

Homers Let Athletics Nip Cleveland 3-2

CLEVELAND (AP)—Homers by Campy Campaneris and Rene Lachemann supplied the punch as the Kansas City Athletics' beat the Cleveland Indians 3-2 Tuesday night.

The Athletics took a 2-0 lead in the fifth inning on a double by Mike Hershberger and Campaneris' home run.

Lachemann provided what proved the clincher with his homer in the seventh. The Indians picked up two runs in the last of the seventh when Duke Sims walked and Larry Brown drove the first pitch over the left-field fence for a home run. Kansas City 000 020 100—3 7 1 Cleveland 000 000 200—2 4 0 Krauss, Mossi (7) and Lechmann, Stange, Bell (6), McMahon (8) and Sims, Roof (8), W—Krauss (1-0), L—Stange (6-1). Home runs—Kansas City, Campaneris (6), Lachemann (3), Cleveland, Brown (6).

Last Stand

The Magic Valley Cowboys move into Jaycee park to open their final home stand of the season Wednesday night and will entertain Idaho Falls and Treasure Valley in four games each. All games will begin at 8 p.m.
