

Junta in Caribbean To Resign

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — The chief of the Dominican junta has announced that the civilian-military body is resigning to make way for a provisional regime proposed by the Organization of American States.

Brig. Gen. Antonio Imbert Barreras, junta president, made the announcement Monday night in a surprise radio-television broadcast.

Imbert said the five-man junta and the Cabinet would resign as soon as the provisional government takes office, probably by midweek.

The announcement climaxed weeks of thorny negotiations by the OAS political committee headed by U.S. Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker.

The only member of the government not to sign the resignation document was Commodore Francisco J. Rivera, 36, armed forces secretary, regarded as boss of the Dominican military.

The reason for Rivera Caminero's failure to sign could not be determined immediately, but the junta and the military were reported at odds over the OAS peace formula.

It was learned during the week that Rivera Caminero and the military chiefs of staff were more favorably disposed toward signing the modified version of the OAS formula than the junta.

The armed forces leaders, it was reported, had conferred during the past week with the provisional president designate, Hector Garcia Godoy, on modifications suggested by the rebel regime.

Imbert, it was also known, was under pressures from various political quarters not to accept the revised peace plan.

Factors in the resignation, high sources said, were the army's refusal to go along with this position and President Johnson's announcement that the U.S. government supported the OAS peace formula.

Astronauts Study Flight Of Gemini 5

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Astronauts L. Gordon Cooper Jr. and Charles Conrad Jr., their hearty appetites gradually regaining the weight they lost during an epic eight days in space, huddled today with technical and medical experts who sought to learn everything possible about the flight of Gemini 5.

Meanwhile, two other astronauts, Walter M. Schirra Jr. and Thomas P. Stafford, were busy preparing for Gemini 6, less than two months away.

Cooper and Conrad flew to the Cape Monday from the aircraft carrier USS Lake Champlain. They had been ferried to the carrier by helicopter after splashing into the Atlantic Ocean at the end of their record mission.

The astronauts immediately were hustled to a medical facility for exhaustive tests which did not disclose any adverse symptoms.

Dr. Charles A. Berry, Gemini flight surgeon, reported the pilots were in extremely good physical condition. He said examinations would continue for weeks in case something shows up later.

Berry said Cooper had gained back 6 of the 7½ pounds he lost during the flight and Conrad 4 of the 8½ he lost. Cooper weighed 152 and Conrad 154 just before launching. Berry attributed the loss to dehydration.

The gain is credited to ample Navy chow aboard the carrier and a trencherman's menu on shore. For lunch Monday the astronauts had big helpings of macaroni and ham. For dinner it was steak, baked potatoes, string beans and blueberry pie.

New Policy on Renewal of Driver Licenses Explained

A new policy, whereby Idaho drivers with good records will not have to take a test to renew their licenses, will go into effect Wednesday.

Also effective Wednesday, colored photographs of drivers will be taken for use on their licenses and social security numbers will be used as drivers' permanent license numbers.

Twin Falls County Sheriff James H. Benham said it is to the discretion of the person issuing the license whether a driver seeking to renew his license must take a test or get his new license by just giving his name.

Such things as the person's physical condition, previous rec-

Negro Ghetto Tour Advised By Dr. King

NEW YORK (AP) — The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King suggested today that a tour of northern Negro ghettos by President Johnson might help offset harm done to the civil rights movement by recent riots.

Such a tour, he said, would be "a tremendous release for the alienation and frustration that Negroes now feel."

Dr. King was asked about such a presidential tour as he left a New York hotel to catch a plane to Atlanta.

"The idea was proposed to me by a reporter this morning and I think it's just great," the Nobel Peace Prize winner said.

He referred to an interview with Woody Klein of the World-Telegram and Sun. The newspaper quoted him as saying:

"The vast majority of Negroes have a high regard for Mr. Johnson. . .

"They feel he is working for them. There is no bitterness toward him in the rioting and the violence that has erupted. He is not to blame. He has done his best."

De Gaulle and Ball Discuss Viet Nam War

PARIS (AP) — President Charles de Gaulle met today with U.S. Undersecretary of State George W. Ball for discussions which could lead to an active French role in efforts to settle the war in Viet Nam.

Officially, American officials here say, Ball called on De Gaulle only to bring the French chief up to date on the Viet Nam situation. They say rumors that he will ask De Gaulle to mediate are groundless.

On the other hand, Ball himself said only last week that he thought De Gaulle was interested in bringing about peace in Southeast Asia and "obviously, we welcome his advice and assistance in any way."

There are conflicting points of view in De Gaulle's proposal for neutralization of all Southeast Asia and the U.S. position that they will neither withdraw from Viet Nam or be bullied to a conference table.

Previous American policy has rejected the French president's criticism and suggestions for solving the Viet Nam problem.

ord and age will be taken into consideration in determining this, Sheriff Benham explained.

Any out-of-state driver applying for an Idaho license and anyone applying for a license for the first time will be required to take the written examination.

In connection with use of social security numbers on drivers' licenses, if a person has no social security card his old driver's license number will be used, or, if he had no driver's license, a permanent number will be issued.

Sheriff Benham asked anyone applying for a driver's license to bring a social security card if available.

Twin Falls Schools Reopen for 1965-66 Term; 6,764 Enroll

Twin Falls schools reopened Tuesday for the 1965-66 year with an estimated 6,764 youngsters enrolled. Public schools reported an expected enrollment of 6,184. St. Edward's had 390 and Memorial Lutheran, which opened Monday, had 190. Public schools and St. Edward's had short days Tuesday, with public schools letting out, for the most part, at 2 p.m. Regular classes were to begin Wednesday at public schools, but St. Edward's reported Wednesday again would be a short day there, with regular classes starting Thursday.

Memorial Lutheran started with a full day Monday and regular classes were under way Tuesday.

Hot lunch programs were to start Wednesday at public schools, Sept. 13 at Memorial Lutheran and Oct. 4 at St. Edward's.

Ernest H. Ragland, superintendent of School District 411, noted that buses will cover the same routes as last year, making the same stops.

Four new teachers were on the Memorial Lutheran staff as school opened. They are Carole Guerny, Karen Habeck, Mrs. Pauline Day and Harvey Miskimen. Holdover teachers are Rosemary Horejs, Mrs. Martha Holtzen, Mrs. Vivienne Hovey and Herbert Einspahr.

At St. Edward's, pupils were reported enthused about a remodeling project carried out during the summer.

India to Control Seized Areas

NEW DELHI (AP)—The Indian government made clear today it intends to keep permanent control over areas seized from Pakistan's army along the Kashmir cease-fire line.

The government radio declared 14 villages have been "liberated."

An Indian government spokesman said, "Obviously India has no other recourse if it is to prevent a repetition of guerrilla infiltration such as Pakistan mounted on a large scale in this past month."

ACCEPTS INVITATION PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — Prince Norodom Sihanouk has accepted an invitation to visit Romania next November, it was announced Monday.

Vote Steady

GOODING — Early voting was reported steady as polls opened in Gooding County Tuesday noon on the proposed addition of Gooding County to the College of Southern Idaho junior college district.

Leland G. Burgess, member of the Gooding County Junior College Committee, stated that he thought the proposal would pass by a slim majority.

Polls are open from noon to 8 p.m. and are located at Gooding Elementary school, and Wendell, Bliss and Hagerman high schools.

James Roosevelt Named for Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Foreign Relations Committee approved today the nomination of Rep. James Roosevelt, 58, D-Calif., to a United Nations post.

The action at a closed session was without a record vote.

Roosevelt, eldest son of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, would succeed Franklin H. Williams as U.S. representative on the U.N. Economic and Social Council.

Goldwater, Ex-Idaho Solon Disagree on Proposed Dam

WASHINGTON (AP) — Barry Goldwater said Monday the proposed bridge canyon dam below the Grand Canyon in Arizona would enhance rather than lessen the charm of the area.

Testifying for legislation to authorize a $1.3 billion lower Colorado River Basin development program, he told the House Interior Committee the dam would not violate the grandeur of the lower gorge of the Grand Canyon.

Johnson Pressures For Settlement Of Strike Threat

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson, who won an eight-day postponement of the steel strike threat Monday night, kept up the pressure for a settlement today in his weekly meeting with Democratic congressional leaders. The party chiefs from the Capitol came out of the breakfast session reporting that the steel situation came in for extensive discussion, and urging that the negotiators stay in session as long as necessary to reach agreement.

They made their remarks to newsmen shortly after representatives of the AFL-CIO United Steelworkers' union and 10 major firms that produce 80 per cent of America's steel had gone back to the bargaining table.

"Management and labor should stay in Washington until this matter is settled," said Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana.

And, echoing sentiments stated by House Speaker John McCormack, Mansfield expressed hope that steel mills will remain in operation even if a settlement is not reached before the expiration of the eight-day grace period.

Both at home and abroad, Mansfield said, "there is too much at stake which the country will have to pay for if there is one" — (a strike).

Both McCormack and Mansfield said any strike would affect not only the domestic economy, but to some extent, the war in Viet Nam.

Mansfield said directly that if a new contract is not arranged during the eight days, he would hope the negotiators would "keep the mills going and continue the bargaining."

"They (negotiators) will continue, hopefully, until a settlement is reached," said White House press secretary Bill D. Moyers.

Less than eight hours after the negotiations were shifted Monday from Pittsburgh to Washington at Johnson's request, agreement was reached to postpone the strike deadline from 12:01 a.m. Wednesday to 12:01 a.m. Sept. 9.

"I am sure that as they return to their negotiations, they will be aware of the importance of their efforts to every man and woman in this country of ours, and to the health and vitality of our economy and the security of America all around the world," Johnson said Monday night.

Johnson announced the postponement over television and radio. Union President I.W. Abel and chief industry negotiator R. Conrad Cooper stood by, smiling. Then the two sides returned to the conference table for a little over an hour before recessing until today.

Penitentiary Escapees Are Still Sought

BOISE (AP) — An all-points bulletin was out early today for two Idaho State Penitentiary trustees who drove off in a guard's car Monday afternoon.

Warden L. E. Clapp said the trustees apparently left in a car one was working on in the prison garage outside the main walls.

Clapp said the escapees are Ben Dale Sperry, 46, the mechanic, and Raymond D. Malloroy, 26, who was working in a plumbing shop nearby.

Sperry was serving a 14-year sentence for forgery at Twin Falls. He was described as balding with brown eyes and brown hair.

Malloroy was serving three years for cashing a bad check in Benewah County. He has tattoos on his shoulders, arms and legs.

They escaped in a light brown 1957 Ford, the warden said. Its license number is 1A 45732.

Hurricane Is Stationary Over Atlantic

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Hurricane Betsy remained stationary today over the Atlantic Ocean while scientists, planning an air attack on it, waited for the storm to resume movement.

When the season's second hurricane moves — hopefully Wednesday — planes will carry out a cloud-seeding experiment designed to divert Betsy's fury to her own destruction.

Three of the planes departing Roosevelt Roads, Puerto Rico, will fly into the upper portion of the hurricane's eye to dump canisters of silver iodide crystals at 35,000-foot altitude.

Weathermen hope the crystals will turn the warm, moist air that invigorates Betsy into harmless rain.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Barry Goldwater said Monday the proposed bridge canyon dam below the Grand Canyon in Arizona would enhance rather than lessen the charm of the area.

Testifying for legislation to authorize a $1.3 billion lower Colorado River Basin development program, he told the House Interior Committee the dam would not violate the grandeur of the lower gorge of the Grand Canyon.

Goldwater was followed to the witness stand by Anthony Wayne Smith, president and general counsel of the National Parks Association.

"Bridge Canyon Dam and reservoir would be highly destructive in terms of the scenic, recreational, ecological, and cultural values of the Grand Canyon in both the monument and the park," Smith said.

"It is not needed, and it is of questionable desirability, as a money-making (power) project. It will not store any water for irrigation anywhere, but will, on See HEARING, Page 2, Col. 4

EIGHT-DAY POSTPONEMENT of the steel strike deadline was announced by President Johnson Monday night. Johnson said union and management representatives will continue their negotiations "during this period" in Washington. The chief executive made the announcement from the White House. # Weather, Temperatures MAGIC VALLEY—Continued fair today, tonight and Wednesday. Warmer. Highs 75-83 today, in 80s Wednesday; lows tonight 37-45, except Camas Prairie highs in 70s; lows 30-35 with scattered frost. Winds less than 15 miles an hour. Outlook Thursday, sunny and warm. Temperatures at 8 a.m.: 41 at Jerome, 47 at T.F., weather bureau with 56 per cent humidity, 47 at T.F., entomology laboratory with 64 per cent humidity, 46 at Rupert, 31 at Fairfield, 44 at Buhl, 42 at Castleford, 45 at Wendell, 43 at Gooding; at noon, 66 at T.F., weather bureau with 22 per cent humidity, barometer: 30.32. Soil temperatures: at T.F., four-inch 63, eight-inch 63, 20-inch 65, 36-inch 69; three-inch level: at Buhl, 66; Wendell, 68.

High pressure and dry air will dominate this district for the next two or three days. A warming trend should be noticeable today in most of Southern Idaho, with temperatures as much as 10 degrees warmer this afternoon in western valleys. Nearly all sections should be a little warmer tonight, with frost still likely except in Camas Prairie. The warming trend will continue through Wednesday with clear skies and light winds. Fair and warm weather is expected to continue through Thursday.

Afternoon temperatures yesterday were slightly warmer in the west and a little cooler than Sunday in eastern Idaho.

The coldest report this morning was 25 at Fairfield. Lows of 32 occurred at Rupert and Twin Falls, 34 at Kimberly, 35 at Jerome and Castleford and 29 at Wendell.

Scattered frosts during the past two or three nights have caused varying degrees of injury to beans and potatoes still actively growing and to some patches of corn in parts of Magic Valley. Many fields of beans and potatoes are now sufficiently mature to escape serious damage.

The principal agricultural sections in southcentral Idaho should be enough warmer to eliminate the threat of freezing tonight.

R. Beauchamp 82, Dies of Short Illness

Rav Morse Beauchamp, 82, 1211 Ninth Ave. E., died Tuesday morning at Magic Valley Memorial Hospital of a short illness.

He was born March 16, 1883, at Hopkins, Mo., and came to Twin Falls from Kilder, Mo., in 1908. He was minister of a First Christian Church in Missouri and for a year he served as interim minister at First Christian Church, Twin Falls.

He farmed on the Salmon tract for nine years and also was a farmer north of Twin Falls. He served as secretary of the Salmon River Settlers Association.

He worked with the Interstate Commerce Commission for eight years and also served with the Veterans Administration here for many years.

He received his elementary education in Missouri and received his AB degree from Drake University in 1906. Mr. Beauchamp attended divinity school in 1907 and also attended George Washington University.

He served as an Elder for Twin Falls First Christian Church for many years and was an Elder Emeritus at the time of his death. He taught the Opportunity Sunday School Class.

He served in the U.S. Army during World War I and was a member of the Masonic Lodge AF and AM, No. 45.

He is survived by a brother, Homer J. Beauchamp, Buhl, and a niece, Mrs. Richard A. Jones, Boise.

Funeral services are tentatively set for 2:30 p.m. Friday at Reynolds Funeral Chapel with Rev. Donald L. Hoffman, officiating. Concluding rites will be held in Sunset Memorial Park. Friends may call from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday, and until time of services Friday.

Frost

(Continued from page one) was damaged. He added it would be about three weeks before he can cut beans. Alex Schuler, south of Burger, said his bean tops were damaged.

Beans and potatoes in the McMaster's flat area also were reported damaged.

Twin Falls County Agent Donald Youtz said although he hadn't checked county-wide for frost damage by Monday night, he saw considerable frosting while driving around the county. He said beans, more than any other crop, seemed to be affected by Monday morning's temperatures.

He said damage seemed to be confined to tips of bean leaves, but some late maturing varieties may show yield reductions at harvest time. Youtz noted most commercial varieties are matured sufficiently not to be affected by the frost.

No frost damage was reported by farmers south of Twin Falls.

In the Clover-Syringa area, southeast of Buhl, extensive bean damage was reported. Green Giant Co., Buhl, reported no damage to corn, but added the corn was slow in maturing because of cool August days.

The firm added the harvesting of the corn was about one-third completed.

Extensive crop damage was reported on the north side Schenk said Felix Boguslawski, Karren Boguslawski, Robert Nancolas and Leo Nancolas, all northeast of Jerome, reported bean damage.

W. G. Priest, Jerome County agent, said there was not as much damage Monday night as there was Sunday night. He said actual crop loss to date is not very high, but another frost would cause extensive damage because the foliage on beans is gone and the pods are in the open.

Priest said the frost damaged the top three or four leaves of beans, and about half of the leaves on potatoes in Jerome county were damaged.

Worst hit, Priest said, were the Hunt-Sugar loaf and Barrymore areas.

Larry Martin, Eden, said about 10 per cent, or less, of his bean crop had frost damage.

Priest added there was some damage from Tuesday morning's frost in all parts of the county.

Crop damage in Gooding county was spotty. Crops damaged were mainly beans and corn. Most of the damaged area centered around Wendell.

Garden vegetables in the Carey area were damaged by three nights of frost. Some field corn also was damaged.

Mrs. Phillip Stylh, Carey, said, "Our alfalfa was nipped and the part that was cut was damaged the worst."

Mrs. Stylh added the grain in the area was not damaged. Much of the grain in the Carey area has been harvested.

Mrs. Lee Peterson, also Carey, said some of the standing alfalfa was turned down, but after the sun shone for a while, the alfalfa straightened out.

Ray Alzola, Camas County agent, said alfalfa which was not cut was damaged and some farmers reported spring wheat was frosted. He said there was not too much damage in Camas County.

Tomatoes, tomato vines, potato vines and corn leaves were damaged in Burley area, reports Glen Bodily, county agent. He said most of the damage was caused from Monday night's frost.

Death Takes A. E. Nelson At Age of 79

Alexander E. Nelson, 79, 179 Filer Ave. W., died Monday afternoon at a local rest home.

He was born Jan. 6, 1886, at Logan, Utah. He worked for the Union Pacific Railroad in his early days and also worked for the state of Idaho. He also was a business agent for the local Carpenters Union. He married Lynne Gelling March 30, 1942, at Las Vegas.

Surviving besides his widow are two sons, Russell Nelson, Fresno, Calif., and B. W. Nelson, New Castle, Wyo.; a daughter, Mrs. Beulah Carter, Twin Falls; two sisters, Elaine Smith, Salt Lake City, and Margaret (Thomas, Burley); a brother, Thomas Nelson, Pocatello; a step-son, Stanley Gelling, Marysville, Calif.; a step-daughter, Velate Swope, Twin Falls; three grandchildren, four step-grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren. A son preceded him in death.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday in White Mortuary Chapel. Final rites will be held at Twin Falls Cemetery.

Boys in Custody After Escape From St. Anthony

ST. ANTHONY (UPI)—Two youths who escaped twice Monday night from the youth training center, were back in custody Tuesday after brandishing a pistol in their second getaway.

The two, identified as Gary Meek, 18, and Bill Craner, 17, both from Canyon County, first escaped from the center's dairy about 8:30 p.m.

Taylor said school authorities will consider charges against the two later in the week. He said they could be charged with armed escape, car theft and incorrigibility and turned over to district court. The boys have a record of previous escapes from the institution.

Talk Given at Richfield Meet

RICHFIELD—Missionsary talks, primary graduation ceremony and special music were presented at the LDS Sunday evening service.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Campbell, Richfield missionaries to Australia, now of Heyburn, told of events during their two and one-half year work mission.

3 Injured in Gas Truck, Car Collision

OGDEN (AP) — Three men were listed in satisfactory condition today after a spectacular gasoline tanker-automobile collision-explosion Monday on Interstate 30 one mile east of Morgan.

Being treated for burns lacerations and other injuries at the Dee Memorial Hospital were Robert P. Ellis, 52; Ogden, Dorsey M. Davis, no age given, Morgan, and Robert Riesen-berg, 46, Morgan.

Sheriff Porter Carter said the collision occurred when the automobile in which the three men were traveling east pulled sharply left into the same lane as the truck, also traveling east. The truck hit the left side of the car, which overturned twice. The truck's cab section separated from the tank section and tipped to its side.

The driver of the truck, Leonard Ellis, Farmington N. M. was momentarily pinned under the cab.

Seconds later the gasoline tank exploded.

The truck driver was thrown 20 feet by the force of the explosion, but was uninjured except for "singd hair," Carter said.

Man Returns From Voyage On Big Ship

NEW YORK (AP) — Robert Manry, who sailed the Atlantic eastward in the smallest boat to make the crossing, returned today in one of the world's largest ships.

Manry brought the 13½-foot Tinkerbell back with him aboard the Queen Mary, which docked today.

The Cleveland newspaperman sailed alone from Falmouth, Mass., to Falmouth, England, in 78 days. The return voyage took 5½ days.

Asked how he liked returning on the superliner, Manry said "big boats are very pleasant." Manry, 47, was accompanied by his wife, Virginia; his daughter, Robin, 14; and son, Douglas, 11.

FIVE PERSONS ESCAPED death Monday when a gasoline truck exploded after colliding with a car on Interstate Highway 30 one mile east of Morgan in northern Utah. The truck's tank section rolled between freeway lanes and exploded seconds after tipping over. Deputy sheriffs said Leonard Ellis, Farmington, N.M., was driver of the truck. (AP wirephoto)

Teachers Are Unhappy With Offer

BRIGHAM CITY, Utah (AP) — Darel O. Johnson, president of the Box Elder Education Association, said early today a new offer to boost teacher salaries by the Box Elder County Board of Education without dependency and insurance benefits would not be acceptable.

The offer was expected to be made at 11 a.m. today by Superintendent J. C. Haws after Monday's night meeting between the association and the board failed to resolve the dispute.

Johnson also said this morning a mass meeting of the association has been called for 7 p.m. at the Box Elder High School.

He said the teachers would be presented "the problems before us," including Haws' instructions to find replacement teachers if this morning's meeting failed to settle the pay raise impasse.

Haws said Monday night he will offer a new salary schedule but without the dependency and insurance clauses.

Johnson said this morning the proposed offer would be unacceptable.

"They're just trying to divide and conquer," he said.

The teachers Monday rejected a salary schedule of $4,765-$7,565 with the insurance program but minus the dependency allowances.

Haws then said the teachers would be offered "an increased salary minus the dependency and minus the insurance clauses" at this morning's session.

If this was rejected, Haws said he had been instructed to find replacement teachers. The teachers proposed Monday night a salary schedule of $4,700-$7,500 after 14 years, estimating the cost would be $153,000.

Fall Schedule of Classes For Adult Education Noted

The fall schedule of classes for Idaho State University's adult education center at Twin Falls was announced by Boyd Lowe, Twin Falls coordinator, and Dr. Henry Brito, acting coordinator of extension service, at ISU.

Lowe said the Twin Falls evening classes will begin the latter part of September and exact registration and meeting times, places and instructors will be announced.

Lowe commented that all of the classes scheduled for Twin Falls are from the regular ISU Bulletin and carry full university residence credit. Other courses, he continued, can be added to the center's curriculum if there is sufficient interest.

The registration fee for the adult education courses is $12.50 per credit hour, $25 for a two-credit course, $37.50 for a three-credit course and $50 for a four-credit course. Most of the classes will meet for approximately 16 weeks.

The classes on the Twin Falls list include education 101, introduction to education, three credits; education 207, educational psychology, three credits; education 277, human growth and development, three credits; education 313, general methods in the elementary school, three credits; education 321, teaching reading and the language arts, three credits; education 322, literature for children, two credits; and education 331, methods and materials for the teaching of elementary school arithmetic, two credits.

Others include education 401, philosophy of education, three credits; education 410, psychology of exceptional children, two credits; education 481, guidance principals and practices, two credits; education 630, principles of special education, two credits; physical education 357, physical education for elementary schools, two credits; and art 105, art workshop, two credits.

Concluding the list are English 401, English composition, three credits; English 201, major British writers, three credits; English 351, great books, three credits; geology 112, historical geology, four credits; mathematics 209, fundamentals of arithmetic for elementary teachers, three credits; philosophy 151, Western thought, three credits; psychology 112, introductory psychology, three credits; psychology 232, psychology of adolescence, two credits; speech 301, business and professional speaking, three credits; and history 121, the United States to 1865, three credits. Further information on the Twin Falls classes can be obtained by calling Boyd Lowe at 733-6900 in Twin Falls.

Temporary Homes

Idaho officials finally are finding out about a phenomenon that has been quite evident for years. More and more tourists are visiting this state in campers and vacation trailers. Surprisingly, they are finding a shortage of facilities for that type of tourist even though many Idahoans own campers or small trailers. It's one phase of the tourist industry that has been overlooked.

The potential isn't hard to see. Anyone who drove past the North Fork trailer park north of Ketchum last week must have been astonished by line after line of gleaming trailers as one manufacturer staged a sort of rally for owners of that particular trailer. Those who have visited Redfish Lake near Stanley have reported facilities for trailers and campers literally jammed this summer.

It's not unusual to find campers and trailers stopped along highways, sometimes because of the owner's preference, but also at times because there's simply no other place to stop.

A new Idaho law would permit counties to create their own park systems. County commissioners are authorized to acquire land for park and recreation facilities and they can levy up to five cents on each $100 of assessed valuation to develop and maintain such parks and recreation facilities. Matching federal funds to the tune of $850,000 already have been made available to Idaho.

It could be a good investment for a county to establish trailer parks where campers and trailers would be welcome to stop for as long as two or three weeks without charge. At present, the Forest Service either charges for trailer parking space or imposes a 16-day limit on parking. Such prime vacation counties as Blaine County, for example, could make good use of county-owned trailer parks at strategic locations. And it might not be a bad idea for Twin Falls County to consider something similar as a means of luring trailer and camper owners off the Interstate Highway when that project is completed in a couple of years.

Everyone should keep in mind that vacation trailers and campers appear to be more than just a passing fad. Ownership of both increases year after year. It's not just a matter of economy, either, because a vacationer could finance several high-living vacations with the money he invests in a trailer or camper. The phenomenon seems to be based on a matter of convenience, a way to have a home away from home.

That's just what trailers and campers amount to—temporary homes. The owners can be expected to buy much the same sort of things purchased by permanent residents. Certainly they're not limited to the necessities of food and shelter as are the traditional types of tourists. Campers and trailers can accommodate many purchases covering a variety of items.

It just could be that a county-owned or community-owned trailer park with proper sewer, electricity and water facilities could turn out to be an important asset.

DON'T BELIEVE IT

There was a story in the news the other day to the general effect that pro-gambling interests will reach a final decision in the general elections next year. The story was prompted by an announcement that a pro-gambling candidate for governor will run next year on an independent ticket. The rallying cry this time will be Greater Idaho Inc., replacing Tourists Unlimited. That's the sort of golden panacea the pro-gambling interests hold out to John Q. Public. Always, they try to disguise their goal as some sort of benefit that somehow will solve all of the state's problems.

Well, don't you ever believe that the decision on gambling will be reached next year. There's just too much at stake in the way of gambling profits. If the gambling interests are defeated in 1966, they'll be back in 1970 and 1974 and 1978. They'll never give up for the simple reason no one abandons the possibility of striking it rich.

Certainly it can be said right now that gambling is dead as the major, top issue in an election campaign. The last two gubernatorial elections have pretty much proved it's not possible to win an Idaho election built around the promise of legal gambling. But the issue is going to be around for a good many more years to come. Approval of pari-mutuel betting on horse races kept hopes alive for those who would like to see casinos all over Idaho.

Some of the supporters of gambling see a little more hope in Idaho's efforts to change the state's Constitution which bans lotteries and gambling. Elimination of the constitutional ban in revising the document would kill a formidable barrier. The easy-money boys aren't going to overlook any bet.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

By ANDREW TULLY
WASHINGTON—They have gimmicked up the foreign aid bit, but it remains the same tired old program. It is still largely an unbusinesslike operation fostered and run by men who are scared to death that backward countries suddenly will invade Connecticut if the U.S. insists on even minimum standards of management.
President Johnson, who knows the Congressional score, has done the gimmicking. He has arrived at the conclusion that so long as he doesn't ask for too much money for aid, Capitol Hill will go along with him. This year's $3 billion-plus authorization is the smallest in 18 years, just as last year's was the smallest in 17 years.

WASTE, WASTE, WASTE—But nothing has been done to eradicate the program's abuses. We are still lavishing super highways people don't want still lavishing taxpayers' funds on airports and other grandiose projects that are merely monuments to the phony glory of assorted dictators. No attempt has been made to re-evaluate the aid concept in a world that has changed greatly in the past 20 years.

And yet even the most vigorous advocates of foreign aid admit that mere financial help is not enough. Those billions of dollars have not brought any significant changes in Africa or in Asia. In Latin America, Brazil is still on the rocks despite huge handouts from Uncle Sam. India is a weak-kneed mass, both economically and financially, and Pakistan keeps threatening to desert Communist China if we don't behave.

NOR READY FOR DEMOCRACY—Foreign aid bleeders keep yammering that we must give the backward nations the wherewithal to develop democratic systems. This is twaddle. Most of them are not ready for the democratic system and won't be for decades. Their background is one of submission to authority; everything in their culture cries out against the presumption of rule by the people.

It should be significant to the foreign aid buffs that aid has been most successful in countries where the governments ruthlessly helped themselves to progress. Chiang Kai-shek is not a popular pin-up boy, but he has used American aid to give Formosa stability. So have the governments of Israel and Turkey. None of these countries has a democratic system as it is known to Americans. Originally, both Sukarno and Nasser had the right idea, to wit, that their people were incapable of democratic government, but their egos and their dreams of personal empire have brought their countries close to economic chaos.

PEACE CORPS BETTER—India's political leaders have made much of the fact that their people participate personally in running the government. Unfortunately, this is nothing to boast about, because India has failed to produce the strong leaders needed to direct the people's participation. It has some capable bureaucrats, and that's about all. It has not produced a Lyndon Johnson or a Dick Nixon—or even a Warren Harding.

Finally, it apparently has not yet dawned on the foreign aid boys that they can't buy allies with dollars alone. The Peace Corps, which stresses the people-to-people concept, is the most successful foreign aid approach since the Marshall Plan, and yet no attempt has been made to incorporate its principles in the foreign aid whole. In the long run the governments of backward countries will be grateful to us only when it serves their purpose, and so we should stop trying to please the Nassers and the Sukarnos and try to reach the people under their keel.

Views of Others

THE OVERZEALOUS
President Johnson's flat order against wiretapping by government employees except in security cases represents a major victory for the public's right to privacy, and a personal victory for such violations of that right as these:

Internal Revenue Service agents broke into a Pennsylvania lawyer's office at night to hide a microphone. They set up a telephone tap receiver in the home of an IRS official in Pittsburgh. They tried to tap a public telephone booth. They kept a dial number recording device in the telephone office itself.

Even so, one IRS man told a Senate subcommittee, he was proud to have a part in such anti-crime activities. When pressed by Chairman Long as to whether he was proud "even to the extent of invading a citizen's constitutional rights," the official answered: "I was overzealous."

This no doubt explains the attitude behind the prying and snooping of federal officials, even in non-security and non-enforcement agencies. They are overzealous. They are busy detecting violations of the tax laws or the food and drug laws or, at least, busy suspecting as much. So they feel free to use every device of modern electronics to invade the privacy of individuals.

What's wrong with that? What's wrong with zealously investigating crime?
These practices violate constitutional guarantees against unreasonable searches and seizures, and violate the intent of the Federal Communications Act as well. The overzealous federal officials anoint themselves with authority to decide when, where and how to violate sound public principles to "protect" the public. Crime is what they decide or suspect it to be, and that alone impels them to adopt methods repugnant to the rights not only of those they suspect, but of everyone. As Senator Long observed, "In a totalitarian society, privacy almost always gives way to law enforcement and its surveillance techniques."

If our freer society does not give way, it is partly due to the warnings raised by Senator Long's committee and others investigating the peepholes bureaucracy. The Long group alone has already exposed unconscionable activities in the Post Office, the Food and Drug Administration and the IRS, and feels it has hardly scratched the surface.

Senator Long achieved a success in the promise of IRS. Commissioner Sheldon Cohen to end wiretapping by his agency, but the IRS seems to have had a theoretical rule against wiretaps even while it was training its men in that field.

Eternal vigilance is, quite obviously, the price of liberty, and it is time the American people became vigilant about their privacy. Their federal officials are supposed to be their servants and not their guardians. — St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

NOTHING LASTS FOREVER
It might seem sometimes that something is going on and on without change, but nothing lasts forever. Not even the worst headache you ever had, or the longest spell of good luck or bad luck, as the case may be. Some of these things just seem to last forever.

Just a year ago, Pot Shots landed in a hospital for a rather lengthy (was for Pot Shots, anyway!) stay and then there were just months and months of convalescence. And here it is, just a short year later, Pot Shots comes to the end of a vacation. Even caught a few trout and narrowly avoided being hauled into the water by the big ones, which, quite naturally, got away.

Now, judging from the stack of mail on the Pot Shots desk, some of you good constituents will be wondering if there's any end to the pups and kittens that have accumulated. You may be assured that nothing lasts forever! Not even the pups and kittens. And while there's a temporary glut on the market, you may have your choice.

By LYLE WILSON
(United Press International)

The Democrats have more to lose than Republicans in the churning racial strife in the big northern cities.
These urban masses are the citadels of Democratic political power. In upstate New York and in downstate Illinois the Republicans sometimes look pretty good election day. But an avalanche of big city Democratic votes often overcomes that Republican trend. And minority voters are an important factor in big cities.

Big city racial violence instantly puts the police and the Negroes in opposition. Through the police, the mayor and other city officials become involved. There usually come then bitter charges of police brutality and demands that the mayor protect minority groups.

Some Negro leaders now speak bitterly of Chicago's Mayor Richard J. Daley, the Democratic boss of Illinois. New York's Mayor Robert F. Wagner is not seeking a fourth term.

Wagner probably moved further faster than any other municipal official to appease Negroes. And Wagner got his lumps anyway.

His trouble with the Negro problem gained worldwide publicity last year when Harlem exploded in deadly riot. New York Negroes complain loudly of alleged police brutality.

Mayor Sam Yorty of Los Angeles also is a Democrat, but an irregular, loosely tied to the party. California's Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown is a high voltage Democrat, new horizon, great society variety. Yorty came out of the Los Angeles riot crisis throwing punches at everyone—Negro leaders, Pat Brown and the dispensers of poverty aid money in Washington.

Brown generally is being applauded for his riot crisis performances so far. Returns on Brown from the Negro leaders, however, are not all in.

There has been or there is continuing racial trouble in Boston and Springfield, Mass., and in smaller communities in the North and East. The potential for trouble is recognized as great. Having much at stake in these areas, the Democrats might lose much. The Republicans have not much to lose.

A good example is Philadelphia which was a Republican stronghold over the years until mismanagement invited Democratic reformers to take over. Municipal authorities in Philadelphia are feuding with the city's Negroes.

The dispute centers around Girard College, a private institution which refuses Negro students and is entitled by law to do so.

Democratic politicians in Chicago, Philadelphia and New York—to name only three urban masses—need a solid Negro vote to hold power. They got and kept the Negro vote by gaining the Negroes' gratitude on the so-called pocketbook and belly issues—relief, shelter and, sometimes, jobs. FDR began that.

In any close presidential election, the Negro vote is a determining factor in a score of states, maybe more. Bloc voters need not always switch from the Democrats to the Republicans to vote at all. The 1960 presidential election was a photo finish.

John F. Kennedy took a close and disputed decision in Illinois. Without Illinois' electoral votes, Kennedy would have lost. Without the Negro vote in Cook County, Chicago, Kennedy surely would have lost Illinois.

Q—Since red blood cells carry oxygen and oxygen is necessary for breathing isn't it true that the red blood cells are affected in some way when a person has a disease, such as asthma, that impedes the breathing?
A—In asthma and other diseases in which air hunger develops, an increase in the rate of breathing compensates for the difficulty in getting oxygen to the blood through the lungs. In a very severe asthmatic attack, however, the lungs do not supply enough oxygen to the blood and the carbon dioxide level of the blood increases. The reduced hemoglobin then gives the blood a bluish color in contrast to that of red oxyhemoglobin. In asthma this is rarely severe enough to cause loss of consciousness.

MARQUIS CHILDS WRITES ON WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON — More than mere physical wealth went up in the flames that swept through the ghetto of Watts. In the ashes still to be sorted out are the political reputations of Californians responsible for trying to manage the city of Los Angeles and the state with their runaway growth.

The scramble for control of the richest and most populous state in the union in the governorship election next year is already on. It is shaping up as a struggle between the right and the liberal-moderate left with the prospect of a contest as fierce and as costly as any in California's history.

Although he has not yet made a public announcement, Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel has virtually taken himself out of consideration as a Republican candidate for governor. The advice he is getting from his principal backers is that he is so valuable in his post as minority whip and the possibility he may someday be Republican leader.

Last week, after lengthy back-stage efforts, he engineered the passage of the Auburn Dam Bill providing nearly a half billion dollars for a huge federal reclamation project in the Central Valley of Northern California. This is one more piece in the massive manipulation of the state's water resources to try to meet the needs of a population growing by several thousand emigrants each week. If it succeeds, this will be the first time in history man got and kept the Negro vote by gaining the Negroes' gratitude on the so-called pocketbook and belly issues—relief, shelter and, sometimes, jobs. FDR began that.

Poor Man's Plato

By HAL BOYLE
Napoleon once said, "Water, air and cleanliness are my favorite medicines." He disliked exercise. But research indicates most people's metabolism functions best if they expend from 300 to 600 calories a day in the form of exercise.
Folklore: If you eat too much pork, in time you'll grow bristles on your back. When you see a new moon, jingle the coins in your pockets—and you'll have enough spending money to last you until the next new moon appears. If it storms on the day of your wedding, you'll have a stormy marriage. Keep a piece of wedding cake in your home, and you'll have good luck as long as the cake lasts.

Worth remembering: "When it comes to borrowing trouble, a man's credit is always good."

Now Murphy has been proposed by Parkinson as a candidate for governor, and while little noticed, the suggestion was made by Senator Kuchel the other day, at least by implication, that the Republicans put up a Democratic conservative Mayor Sam Yorty, for the governorship. The political arithmetic in this is obvious—Yorty running against Brown would further fracture the divide Democrats.

California, as the Chamber of Commerce likes to say, be everything, and in politics has a little more of everything.

How should a winning duplicate player handle the duplicate suit?
He should avoid the safety play and go after the overtrick! The duplicate expert will note that if he tries the safety play and it proves to be unnecessary he will wind up with a bad score. He will lose for everyone who has bid for spades. They will make for contracts. He will lose to everyone who has bid three no-trump and gone after the overtrick.

Pickets at Winnemucca Delay Buses

WINNEMUCCA, Nev. (UPI)—Some 240 Greyhound bus passengers were stranded for about four hours Monday night when drivers refused to cross picket lines.

The spokesman said three pickets from the Amalgamated Transit Union, which represents drivers and station employees, established the picket line and then later withdrew.

Similar picket lines have disrupted Greyhound operations in the San Francisco Bay area for the past several weeks.

The union is trying to organize the non-union clerks who work at the ticket agencies which run the bus company's smaller terminals, but who are not Greyhound employees.

Decision Is Awaited in Murder Case

LINCOLN, Neb. (UPI)—Federal prosecutors in the Duane Pope murder and robbery case awaited a U. S. District Court decision today on a motion asked to select psychiatrists and psychologists to examine the 22-year-old former college football star.

The Roxbury, Kan., man is accused of the bloodiest bank robbery of modern times, the June 4 holdup at the Farmers State Bank of Big Springs, Neb. Three were killed, a fourth was seriously wounded, and some $1,500 was taken.

U. S. Dist. Atty. Theodore Richling of Omaha said the prosecution which he said must have qualified legal witnesses to prove insanity.

Richling said the Pope defense will be based on a plea of innocent by reason of insanity. Pope's attorney, Wallace Rudolph and former Gov. Robert Crosby, have received court approval to hire medical examiners at government expense.

Crosby and Rudolph are court appointed.

EMPLOYEES INCREASED
WASHINGTON (AP)—A congressional committee reported today that the number of civilian workers employed by the federal government increased 34,471 last month — the largest monthly increase since June 1962.

Racial Barriers Fall Quietly As Negroes Enter Classroom

Racial barriers fell quietly throughout the South as thousands of Negroes began attending classes with white pupils on the first day of widespread school desegregation accelerated by the 1964 Civil Rights Act.

There was no trace of the violent, bitter resistance of earlier years as the trend of quiet change, indicated last year, became a clear-cut pattern in rural and urban areas alike Monday. Few, if any, incidents were reported in the South, and it appeared the era of racial segregation in schools was coming to an end.

Indicative of the change was Mansfield, Tex., which became a Southern symbol of resistance to school integration less than a decade ago when whites staged other Barnwell County school district, Blackwell, four Negroes entered white classrooms.

In Arkansas, 11 formerly white districts admitted Negroes for the first time. More of the state's districts are scheduled to drop racial barriers as the week continues.

In Atlanta, Ga., where school desegregation began in 1961, two children of integration leader Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. enrolled at a previously white school along with three children of the Rev. Ralph Abernathy, one of King's lieutenants. Integration was accelerated in the city.

At Hayneville, Ala., five Negro pupils who did not show up at a white school as scheduled Monday were expected today. The slaying of two civil rights workers this year had heightened tensions in Hayneville, and an integrated force of special deputies was on duty at the school.

4 Arrested For Apparent Escape Try

WALJA WALLA, Wash. (AP)—The wife of an inmate in the Washington State Penitentiary was arrested Sunday night after her husband and two other prisoners were surprised by guards in an apparent escape attempt.

Pros. Atty. Arthur Eggers said charges of aiding and abetting an attempted prison escape probably would be filed Tuesday against Mrs. Gloria V. Belknap.

Prison authorities said Mrs. Belknap was driving a rented car up and down the highway near the prison at the time guards found three prisoners lying on the roof of a building behind the prison walls.

The men were identified as James Belknap, Michael Nihell, and Robert Wuerz, all recent arrivals from the Washington Corrections Center.

Prison officers making a routine check found tracks leading to the small building where the prisoners were found on the roof. At the same time, guards in a watch tower reported seeing a car making repeated trips back and forth in front of the prison. They notified police.

Officers found clothing for three men, a hunting knife, and food for four people in Mrs. Belknap's vehicle.

Information on Medicare to Be Given to Elderly

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Millions of elderly Americans will begin to receive Medicare information kits within the next few days. Robert M. Ball, commissioner of the Social Security Administration, announced the first mailing of the kits would take place at midnight tonight and would go to 2.5 million persons eligible under the new health insurance program.

A total of about 19 million persons 65 years of age and older are eligible for benefits, and they will receive their kits shortly, Ball told the opening General Assembly of the American Hospital Association Monday.

KEEP-HEADLIGHTS ON

BOISE (AP) — Truck drivers throughout Idaho will keep their headlights on night and day over the Labor Day weekend to remind drivers of the need for safety, the Idaho Motor Transport Association announced Monday.

The truck drivers will be spearheading the "Lights on for Safety" campaign conducted in Idaho every holiday weekend when the traffic danger is greatest.

FUNDS MISSING

BOISE (UPI) — An accounting firm has placed funds missing from accounts in municipal court records at $350.45 and the City Council plans further investigation.

The council heard a report Monday night from a representative of Rife, Wilson and Przybylski accounting firm. Investigations during the past month showed the discrepancy between amounts paid on delinquent parking tickets and the amounts recorded from Jan. 1 through June 30 this year.

BODY UNCLAIMED

BLACKFOOT, Idaho (AP) — A Blackfoot man, Donald Russell Lybarger, 54, who was killed Aug. 21 when he walked into a moving freight train, will be buried in a pauper's grave this week.

Officers say Lybarger had no friends or relatives in the area willing to claim his body. They said a search for relatives has been fruitless. He had lived several years in Blackfoot.

Officers said Lybarger had at one time been associated with horse racing and might have been a jockey.

CONSULTANT STUDIES MAPS

BOISE (AP) — A San Francisco transportation consultant met with Boise officials Monday to map a study for meeting the city's future traffic needs.

Isael Gilboa of Deleuw-Cather and Co., transportation and traffic consultants, said the city must determine traffic flow demands of the future and then design arterials and parking areas to meet the demands.

He said future traffic flow will depend on land use and employment in the downtown core, population growth and the increase of cars.

Locations of parking lots—as destination points of that traffic flow—will be a key factor in the planning, he said.

Gilboa met with planners and engineers representing the Boise planning and development committee and the Idaho Department of Highways.

TIMBER SALES GIVEN

BOISE (AP) — Idaho's share of proceeds from timber sales on federal forest lands in the state last fiscal year was slightly over $1 million. State Treasurer Marjorie Moon received the check Monday.

Miss Moon said the $1,054,579 which will be distributed to counties is down from 1964 when they totaled $1,134,781.

The state receives 25 per cent of the revenue the U.S. Forest Service earns from its federal lands in the state each year. The bulk of the money comes from timber sales.

James R. Russell Honored at Rites

HAGERMAN — Funeral services were held Saturday in the Hagerman Methodist Church for James R. Russell, with Rev. Edward Hargreaves officiating.

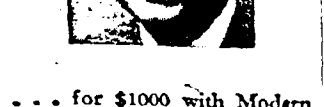

Mrs. Warren Berry was organist and Arthur Bennett was soloist.

Pallbearers were Jay E. Farmer, Robert Gardner, Ted Edholm, Ted Eastman, Wesley Whorton and Robert Erkins.

Honorary pallbearers were Jack Chipman, Arlen Allen, Jack Eastman, John W. Jones, Reese Bybee, E. C. Moore, George Lenker, Evered Jenst, Merle Owsley, Oscar Anderson, Ralph Miller and Fred Brailsford.

Final rites were held at Hagerman Cemetery.

INSPECT PROJECT

POCATELLO (AP) — City and county officials will fly to Colfax, Wash., Tuesday to inspect a flood control project there similar to one planned in Pocatello by the Army Corps of Engineers.

The engineers will fly the group for the one-day inspection and also arrange meetings with city officials in Colfax.

SEA LION BACK

IDAHO FALLS (UPI) — The Idaho Falls Zoo's new sea lion was back on display Tuesday after a break for freedom that saw him get 26 miles away before he was captured.

The sea lion left his pool by slithering through or over a six-foot fence. He was found Monday happily swimming in a canal about 26 miles south of Idaho Falls.

TOUR SCHEDULED

IDAHO FALLS (AP) — The Idaho Flood Control District No. 1 will host the third annual inspection tour of the Snake River Sept. 9-10.

Russell Holm, district commissioner, said the tour will take in dock installations, dams and other flood control items and recreational developments on the river in the Idaho Falls area.

Guests from Eastern Idaho areas and from neighboring states will participate.

NAMPA (UPI) — A head-on collision east of here Monday night injured five persons, three of whom were hospitalized.

Attendants at Nampa's Mercy Hospital listed Manuel Ortega, 22, driver of one of the cars, his wife, Helen, 22, and his sister, June, 12, in good condition.

Nampa Police said Ortega's car collided with an auto driven by Warren L. Allen, 43, Allen and Henry Cook, about 65, received less serious injuries.

SUIT IS TRIED

IDAHO FALLS (AP) — A $300,000 negligence suit against an Idaho Falls physician went to trial in Ninth District Court here Monday in the death of Reed Williams, son of Idaho Secretary of State Arnold Williams.

Williams' wife, Donna, filed the suit alleging negligence against Dr. Newell H. Battles and the Sacred Heart Hospital.

After the selection of the nine member jury, the eight lawyers in the case — three for Mrs. Williams and five for Dr. Battles — began their arguments.

Judge Henry S. Martin said he expected the jury to get the case sometime Wednesday.

Man to Face Theft Charge In Nevada

WINNEMUCCA, Nev. (AP) — A New Jersey man, in a California jail, will be returned next week to Nevada to face charges of stealing the automobile of a missing Indian leader, according to Humboldt County Sheriff Leonard Giese.

Clyde George Ibsen, 30, of Tom's River, N. J., has told officers at Nevada City, Calif., he fatally beat Delver Howard and dumped the Indian leader's body into the ocean.

But California authorities have not charged Ibsen on the basis of his statement.

Clausen said he would ask for Ibsen's return and probably go to California to bring him back next week. He said no new preliminary hearing date was set for Ibsen.

Democrats Unwilling to Sign Petition

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic House leaders said after meeting today with President Johnson that they still are unwilling to sign a petition — strongly backed by Johnson — to force a House vote on legislation that would grant home rule to the District of Columbia.

House Speaker John McCormack, D-Mass., said speakers do not sign petitions, just as they refrain from voting except in the event of a tie.

House Democratic Leader Carl Albert of Oklahoma said he felt he was in the same position.

The bill is in the House District of Columbia Committee where opponents hope to keep it bottled up.

Backers have filed a petition to take it from the committee and bring it to the House floor. They need more than 40 additional signatures to make the petition successful.

Merrill Robinson Assumes Position as Declo Principal

DECLO — Declo High School has named Merrill B. Robinson, former principal of Dworshak School, Burley, as its new principal. Robinson has taught for many years and was principal of Oakley Elementary School.

Robinson began his teaching career in a two-room mission school during his teaching career.

During his teaching career, Robinson has instructed manual training, mathematics and has coached several high school teams.

Robinson began his college education at the former Albion State Normal school, and then earned his bachelor's degree at Southern Idaho College of Education, now known as Magic Valley Christian College, Albion.

He is married to the former Norine Martindale and they have just recently moved to their new home at 8666 Brentwood, Burley. They have seven children.

He is active in professional organizations, serving as president of County Education Association, and past president of fourth District Education Association.

Robinson is a member of the board of directors of the State Teachers Insurance program. He has served numerous times on the state Child Welfare Committee.

He also is active in LDS positions, serving as Bishop of the Oakley First Ward for several years and is a member of the Burley Kiwanis Club.

Wrong Way

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Like a good driver, Louis Mazzola stopped when he saw flashing red lights.

Unfortunately, the lights were in the middle of the runway at San Francisco International Airport. Two jet airliners had to be diverted while airport officials moved the car.

Mazzola, 63, told police he thought he was still on nearby Bayshore freeway. He was booked for drunken driving.

Perched

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (UPI) — Police found an empty car perched precariously on a bridge railing today, two wheels dangling over the side, and for a time feared the driver had opened his door and had dropped 90 feet into the Kaw River.

A 12-hour search revealed that James R. Pound, 26, exited on the safe side of the car. He was found in his apartment.

Committee OK's Education Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Labor Committee unanimously approved today a $4.7-billion higher-education bill to authorize funds to aid needy students and help colleges meet the enrollment crush.

The committee added to the bill new provisions designed to improve education in poverty-stricken districts of cities and rural areas.

Sponsors said the measure will be reported to the Senate Wednesday and probably taken up for debate Thursday.

As it cleared the Senate committee, it goes far beyond President Johnson's recommendations. But he has concurred in most of the changes.

The vote to send the bill to the Senate for passage was 16-0, with the committee's five Republican members joining 11 Democrats in supporting it.

The House passed the legislation last week, also expanded greatly over the administration's proposals.

The House version would authorize about $650 million the first year compared with $667-million for the Senate measure. But the Senate bill contains authorizations for an additional four years in most titles, bringing the total to $4.7 billion.

As it cleared the education subcommittee last Friday, the measure totaled $5.5 billion.

The bill would carry out a Johnson recommendation by inaugurating a program of scholarships for needy college students, supplementing present loan and work-study assistance.

One of the provisions added to the bill in committee would set up a national teacher corps with a first-year authorization of $36.1 million.

This would make available about 6,000 teachers to go into poverty-stricken areas and seek to improve educational opportunities for disadvantaged children.

Kennedys Recover From Injuries

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP) — Kathleen Kennedy, 14-year-old daughter of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., was in satisfactory condition at Cape Cod Hospital today with a mild concussion suffered when her horse, Attorney General, fell on her Sunday.

One of Kathleen's brothers, Joseph, 12, was recuperating at home when struck by a beam while sailing from Long Island to Cape Cod Sunday.

Another brother, Robert Jr., 11, was out of the hospital with 100 stitches in a leg wound suffered when he fell through a window from a garage roof at the Kennedy compound Friday.

The three children of Sen. Kennedy are among 23 Kennedy, Shriver, Lawford and Smith cousins vacationing at the compound where summer activities are fast and furious.

9 Lives

ARCADIA, Calif. (AP) — Scamper, a cat, used up one of its nine lives going through a wash, three rinses and part of a spin dry in an automatic washing machine.

Mrs. J. F. Sargent said she searched in and under the house when Scamper began screeching traumatically Saturday. She finally discovered the cat in the washer.

Scamper's eyes were swollen by detergent but otherwise it wasn't harmed by its ride with a soggy rug, Mrs. Sargent said.

Oliver Leads Cowboy Points

DENVER (UPI) — Nine-time national champion Dean Oliver of Boise, remained atop the standings today in the pro-rodeo all-around rankings.

The Rodeo Cowboy Association said Oliver had total winnings of $27,599—a new record for this time in the season.

Oliver picked up $891 in calf roping at the Colorado State Fair in Pueblo last week.

No Sabotage Is Found in Crash Which Killed 5

HONG KONG (AP) — A U.S. Marine investigation team reported today there was no indication of sabotage in the Aug. 24 crash of a transport plane which killed 59 American servicemen returning to war duty in South Viet Nam.

The preliminary report also ruled out any operational error at Hong Kong's Kaitak Airport as responsible for the crash.

Investigators did not say what caused the four engine C-130 Hercules to twist off course just after takeoff and plunge into Hong Kong Bay.

Specialist Dies Of Snake Bite

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Fred Shannon, one of the nation's foremost snakebite specialists, died today from a bite of a rattlesnake.

Dr. Shannon was flown to Los Angeles Monday night from Saford, Ariz., for treatment at General Hospital's renowned neurological research laboratory.

Shannon was bitten Sunday night while collecting reptiles near Klondyke, Ariz.

Guardians of 15 Anticipate School Start

GRAFTON, N.D. (AP) — "Things are pretty bunched up at times," said Willis Puppe, no doubt anticipating the first day of school today with even more delight than the average parent.

Puppe and his wife, who have four children of their own, have taken on the care of 11 nieces and nephews.

The children's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Harlow, were killed in an automobile accident July 30. Harlow was Wash County auditor.

Numbered by the loss of their parents, the children spent most of August with relatives. Now the Harlows, from 1-year-old Jody to Melanie, 13, are back in their Grafton home.

So are Puppe and his family, including a 7-months-old infant. Today the juvenile population of the house will be sharply reduced during the daylight hours when nine Harlows and two Puppe's troop off to school.

Puppe, 33, a truck driver from Drayton, N.D., and his wife, 30, have been here a week "getting things organized."

With 13 children in a four-bedroom house things get a bit crowded at times, and a bit hectic.

Mr. and Mrs. Puppe don't know how long they'll be able to remain in Grafton. Other relatives are ready to step in if necessary. Grandma, Mrs. Harry Harlow, is lending a hand.

Volunteer workers coordinating an orphans' fund report that it now totals nearly $9,000, plus $1,825 reportedly contributed at Dellwood, Mo., a suburb of St. Louis.

Technically, the Harlow children are wards of the state. The question of who gets custody will be decided by District Judge Glenn K. Swanson.

PRINCESS BACK HOME
 VENICE, Italy (AP) — Princess Margaret of Britain ended a month-long Italian holiday Monday and returned to London by plane. Her husband, Lord Snowdon, remained in Venice to take more pictures for an album he is assembling for Margaret.

FAMED HOLLYWOOD HORSE trainer Glenn Randall, who was responsible for the remarkable Chariot teams used in the movie "Ben Hur," also is responsible for the breath-taking horse act called Double Exposure which will be a feature act each night at the Twin Falls County Fair and Rodeo, Sept. 8-11. Randall, who spent more than a year in Rome training the teams for "Ben Hur," performs himself with the beautiful snow white "Rex" and coal black "King." They combine their efforts to bring you exciting scenes from movies, simulating wild stallion fights, behind the scene activities, plus common horse sense. They perform completely at liberty. Randall also is noted for training Trigger, Roy Roger's mount.

Minister Reports U. S. Bribe

SINGAPORE (AP) — Singapore's Prime Minister Lee Kuan Yew claimed today the U.S. government once offered him a $3-million "bribe" not to reveal that a U.S. Central Intelligence agent had been caught trying to buy information from a Singapore intelligence man. Lee said he rejected the alleged offer.

The charge drew a prompt denial from the United States. State Department officials in Washington, in denying the allegation, said Lee's attack played into the hands of Indonesians who would like to see Singapore and Malaysia crushed.

Lee claimed the bribe was made through a presidential intermediary in 1960.

At a televised news conference he said he had told President John F. Kennedy "you can keep it."

This was not further explained. Dwight D. Eisenhower was president in 1960; Kennedy became president in January 1961.

Lee said he had offered to keep the incident quiet if the U.S. government gave Singapore $33 million for economic development.

Lee said it was decided to release the CIA agent because "it would have damaged our relations with Kuala Lumpur (Malaysia) and we wanted merger with them."

Malaysia removed Singapore from the Federation of Malaysia Aug. 8. Lee and most residents of Singapore are of Chinese descent.

Law Prohibits Destruction of Draft Cards
 WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson signed into law today legislation to prohibit the destruction of draft cards. The measure is an outgrowth of student protests against U.S. policy in Viet Nam.

The new law makes any person found guilty of destroying the wallet-size selective service cards subject to a $10,000 fine or a five-year prison term.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN L. KENNEDY (Dudley photo)

Lynda Goodman Is Bride of John Kennedy

The First Christian Church, Twin Falls, was the setting for the Aug. 21 wedding ceremony, uniting in marriage Lynda Rae Goodman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Goodman, and John L. Kennedy, son of Mrs. Ada Kennedy, all Twin Falls.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Donald Hoffman before a background setting of candelabra with tall tapers and baskets of salmon and white gladioli.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white lace gown. The full tiered skirt was enhanced with a fitted bodice accented with a low rounded neckline. Her shoulder-length veil of illusion fell from a tiara of mother-of-pearl flowers. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and yellow roses on a white Bible with yellow satin streamers. Her only jewelry was a gold necklace.

Evelyn Horsley was maid of honor. Flower girl was Debbie Brown and Grant Kennedy, brother of the bridegroom, carried the rings on a white satin pillow. Candelighters were Charlene Kennedy and Terry Kennedy, sister and brother of the bridegroom.

Best man was Jim Eubanks, Ushers were Dale Goodman and Scott Young.

A reception was held in the church auditorium. Guests were registered by Sharon Cochran. Gifts were displayed by Mrs. William Emerick and Mrs. Roy Brown, aunts of the bride.

The bride's table was covered with white net over yellow and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake flanked by white tapers. The serving table was centered with a low arrangement of yellow and white gladioli. Assisting the women of the church with serving were Mrs. Emerick, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Richard Young and Mrs. Leslie

Annual Guest Day Observed By Area Club

HOLLISTER — Annual Guest Day was observed by members of the Falcon Trest Homemakers Club at the home of Mrs. William J. Lanting.

Mrs. Homer Roberts was co-hostess. A salad luncheon was served. Guests were Mrs. Marian Pendergraft, Karen Pendergraft, Mrs. Richard Hetsley, Norma Boss, Carol Mills, Sandy Mills, Mrs. Dale Reed, Mrs. Arthur Carrier and Mrs. Pat Breeding.

The workshop, "Selection and Care of Carpets," is set for 1:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Green Room in the old hospital building. Mrs. Pete Thornton and Mrs. Gene Griff were appointed to attend this workshop and present the lesson at the Sept. 15 meeting at the home of Mrs. David Chadwick. Mrs. Chet Henstock is co-hostess.

An announcement was made that Twin Falls County will host the annual state convention set for Sept. 28 and 29. Everyone was urged to attend.

Mrs. Carrier and Mrs. Breeding presented the lesson on feather bouquets.

Mrs. Johnson Hosts Reunion

KETCHUM—Mrs. Kitty Johnson, 88, hosted a family reunion in Ketchum. Attending were approximately 80 of her sons, daughters, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren.

Highlight of the get-together was reminiscing by Mrs. Johnson on pioneer days she knew in this country and of the changes that have taken place since then.

The annual family reunion has been held at Boundary Camp Grounds in the past but this year, due to weather conditions, was held in the Spur Theater.

Twin Falls Labor Force Dipped Slightly in July

Employment Security Agency reported Twin Falls labor force dipped slightly in July from the previous month and fell short of July, 1964. Agricultural employment reductions over-balanced nonagricultural employment gains.

Unemployment increased from 3.2 per cent to 4.1 per cent, officials said.

The civilian labor force for July dropped from the previous month and last year. The primary factor influencing the decline was the much lower level of agricultural employment this July than during June or a year ago. The reduced employment within agriculture is the result of expected seasonal reductions

British Beach Brawls Over For Year

LONDON (UPI) — Britain's "battle of the beaches" appears over for at least another year. This time, police claimed victory over thousands of teenage "mods" and "rockers" who have been invading resort towns on summer weekends and terrorizing adults by staging wild brawls at every opportunity.

Credit went to some novel police tactics employed at Margate, Brighton and Western-Super-Mare. In all, slightly more than 50 hooligans and beatniks were reported arrested during this year's "bank holiday" weekend—the last of the summer.

The figure was far lower than it has been in two years of clashes between the "mods"—so-called because of their ultra-modern clothes—and the "rockers," who favor jeans, leather jackets and motorcycles.

In Margate, police patrolled the beaches all night to keep the teenagers from getting sleep. By dawn, scores of exhausted mods and their girlfriends were leaving town and those who stayed behind wandered around with their eyes glazed. They were in no condition to start work.

In Brighton, police set up a "classroom court" for the parents of 12, 14 and 15-year old girls hauled in for sleeping on the beaches. The parents were summoned from London — 60 miles away—to get their children and a stern lecture from senior police officers.

Drevlow Critical Of Highway Work

BOISE (AP) — Lt. Gov. William E. Drevlow was critical today of the time taken to repair flood-damaged U.S. Highway 95 in the Winchester Hill area of Northern Idaho.

Drevlow said the repair work, as well as reconstruction in the Cold Springs Canyon, were put in one contract. He said if the repair work had been handled separately it could have been accomplished more rapidly.

The new route, completed only a few years ago, was damaged by high water last winter. Traffic since has been detoured on the old highway.

Ike Makes Visit To White House

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower called at the White House Monday and chatted for 45 minutes with President Johnson.

Press secretary Bill D. Moyers said the President learned that Eisenhower was in town for a Republican meeting and invited him to stop by. Moyers said the two discussed the steel negotiations, the war in Viet Nam, Latin-American problems and other matters.

Fairfield Opens New Post Office

FAIRFIELD — Postmaster Claude Ballard opened the doors of Fairfield's new post office for business Monday morning.

Furnishings and equipment were moved from the old location to the new building over the weekend. Some new equipment will add to the efficiency of the new office.

The brick and cinder block building was built by contractor Marvin Pearson, Gooding, and leased to the government. It is located on the east side of Fairfield's main street south of the high school and north of the new Agriculture Stabilization Conservation Service building.

The new post office serves the town of Fairfield and one rural delivery route.

Primary activities during August included the harvest of peas, grain and the second cutting of hay. The harvest of peas was completed at mid-month while hay and grain activities are well under way. Scattered rain and wind storms during mid-August slowed operations in some locations. Some minor grain damage, due to wind, was reported. However, the overall picture is one of a successful harvest season so far.

Corn harvest began about Aug. 11 with processing operations at the Buhl plant of the Green Giant Company resuming for the season shortly after the first ears of corn were picked. The supply of processing workers for this operation exceeded the demand at the beginning of the season.

Hay bucking supply and demand continued to fluctuate during the second cutting operations without any significant shortages occurring.

The number of weeks for which unemployment benefits were claimed increased from June to July by 45 per cent. The new benefit year for claimants begins each year in July, and the increase from June reflects the filing of claims by many individuals who achieved eligibility with the beginning of the new benefit year.

According to the results of the mid-month survey of the insured unemployed, the percentage of male claimants dropped from 38 per cent for June to 17 per cent at mid-July. These figures would indicate a good ratio of availability of work for males and further reflect the seasonality of the female jobs within the area.

Rodents Tested For Plague

CARSON CITY, Nev. (AP)—Nevada health officials have sent 138 rodents to San Francisco for testing to see if they carry bubonic plague.

Two chipmunks were found near Lake Tahoe's Crystal Bay recently carrying the disease. Officials said the disease is commonly found among such animals and is not necessarily fatal to humans although it causes swelling of glands.

DECISION DELAYED WASHINGTON (AP) — A decision on U.S. economic aid to Pakistan is being delayed while Congress determines the aid and extent of the over-all foreign aid program, a State Department spokesman says.

Panel 1: MY PLAN IS TO INFILTRATE THAT GROUP OF FOREIGNERS, BY TAKING THE PLACE OF THE ONE I RESEMBLE!!

Panel 2: I'LL GET ONE-FOURTH OF THEIR MILLIONS— BUT I WON'T SPEND IT ABROAD!!

Panel 3: I'LL SPEND IT HERE!!— ON AMERICAN SPORTS CARS, AMERICAN DAMES, AND AMERICAN RACETRACKS!! THAT'S MY PLAN TO SAVE OUR ECONOMY.

Panel 4: YOU'VE A PATRIOT, SUH??

Captain Easy

Panel 4: WE'VE TURNED ONE CORNER TO THE RIGHT—PROBABLY HERE AT MELROSE, WHEN I DISTINCTLY HEARD A TRAIN NEARBY!

Panel 5: BUT THERE'S NO RAILROAD IN THAT DIRECTION, WASH! YOU KNOW THAT!

Panel 6: YEAH... THAT PUZZLED ME TOO! THEN WE MUST'VE PASSED A CARNIVAL. I HEARD A MERRY-GO-ROUND—

Panel 7: ALONG HERE? NUTS! BY THE TIME THEY REACHED HOME YOU WERE HOPELESSLY LOST! HE!

Panel 8: YEAH, BUT I DID HEAR ONE CLUE. I HESITATED TO MENTION A SAWMILL NEXT DOOR TO 'EM!

Panel 9: THERE'S NO SAWMILL IN 300 MILES! THEY MUST'VE USED A TAPE RECORDING TO CONFUSE YOU! NOW WE HAVE NO WAY TO TRACE 'EM, UNLESS—HEY!

Rex Morgan, M. D.

Panel 1: WHEN LITTLE JERRY WAS BORN NINE YEARS AGO THERE WEREN'T TWO HAPPY PARENTS, THOUGH VIVIAN AND I HE SEEMED TO BE A NORMAL, HEALTHY BABY!

Panel 2: THEN, AS THE MONTHS WENT BY, WE BECAME AWARE THAT HE WAS SLOW IN DEVELOPING! FOR EXAMPLE, AT THREE MONTHS HE WAS NOT LIFTING HIS HEAD... AT SIX MONTHS HE WAS NOT SITTING UP!

Panel 3: OUR PHYSICIAN BEGAN TO SUGGEST THE POSSIBILITY THAT JERRY MIGHT BE RETARDED. WELL, NO ONE WHO HASN'T GONE THROUGH THAT EMOTIONAL SHOCK CAN FULLY APPRECIATE THE ANXIETY AND ANGUISH THAT COMES OVER YOU AT A TIME LIKE THAT!

Panel 4: EVEN THE FACT THAT OVER 126,000 RETARDED CHILDREN ARE BORN EACH YEAR DOESN'T SEEM TO HELP... BECAUSE EACH OF US IS INVOLVED WITH OUR OWN PERSONAL PROBLEM... NOT THAT OF OTHERS!

Gasoline Alley

Panel 1: The auditors won't find the $80,000 for weeks! I doctored the books!

Panel 2: Doctored the books? I didn't know they got sick!

Panel 3: This is no time for wisecracks, Slim! Let's get out of here!

Panel 4: Is there something you children want in my house?

Rip Kirby

Panel 1: HE'S SLOWING DOWN AND WE'RE ENTERING SOME KIND OF GROTTOL NOW WHAT?

Panel 2: THIS SURE BE ABOUT IT...

Shirley Ribb

Panel 1: I DID NOT!

Panel 2: YOU DID TOO!

Panel 3: HOLD IT JUST A MINUTE...

Panel 4: OKAY, YOU'RE A LIAR!!

Alley Oop

Panel 1: THINK OF IT! ICE AN' SNOW ALL OVER EVERYTHING!

Panel 2: YEAH! UP IN TH' PALM TREES, BOGGIN' TH' DINOSAURS DOWN, BLOKIN' TH' CREEKS AN' STREAMS!

Panel 4: BUT YOU'RE GONNA HAFTA STAND IT, GUZ! YOU'RE TH' KING! ALL MOO LOOKS T'YOU FOR LEADERSHIP!

Panel 5: IT'S UP T'YOU T'GET A GOOD EXAMPLE FOR YOUR PEOPLE!

Steve Roper

Panel 1: YEAH! "BIG RED" TOLD YOU TOO MUCH ABOUT THE PILL RACKET, ROPER. AND YOU TOLD HIS DAUGHTER TOO MUCH ABOUT HOW HE DIED—SO IT'S GOTTA BE THE BIG SLEEP FOR BOTH OF YOU!

Panel 2: YOU OUGHTA THANK ME—FOR LETTING YOU HAVE IT EASY AND PAINLESS!

Panel 3: YOU'RE NUTS, STINGER! DID YOU EVER TRY TO GIVE A KID AN ASPIRIN WHEN HE DIDN'T WANT TO TAKE IT?

Panel 4: I OWNED A RACE HORSE ONCE THAT DIDN'T LIKE TO TAKE HIS MEDDIE—BUT WE ALWAYS GOT IT DOWN HIM!—EVEN IF IT TOOK A DOZEN MEN TO DO IT!

Terry and the Pirates

Panel 1: TERRY! I THOUGHT ONLY OUTSIDE SHOTS WERE TO BE MADE HERE— BUT THIS PLACE ALSO LOOKS LIKE A SETTING FOR THE FILM.

Panel 2: INSIDE ONE OF SERGE'S MOVIE SETS, TERRY'S FLASHLIGHT FLICKERS OVER A MAZE OF EXOTIC EQUIPMENT.

Panel 3: THEN SERGE HAS REALLY GONE OVERBOARD ON REALISM. THIS GADGETRY IS OPERATIONAL LA RUBIA!

Panel 4: BUT FOR WHAT PURPOSE?

Panel 5: I PLUNO—BUT IF ALL THIS HARDWARE WERE SWITCHED ON, SOME FELLAS COULD TRACK AND CONTROL A SPACE SATELLITE!

Stengel Retires From Met Club After 56 Years in Profession

NEW YORK (AP) — Seventy-five-year-old Charles Dillon (Casey) Stengel, acting on the advice of his physician, announced his retirement as manager of the New York Mets Monday, thus putting an end to one of the most colorful careers in the annals of sport. Old age and a broken left hip, not yet fully mended, were given as the reasons for retirement after 56 years in professional baseball, 25 of them as a manager.

Giants Renew Rebuilding Plans In Trade for Lion Quarterback

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Giants, whose rebuilding plans have been stalled by the lack of an experienced quarterback, obtained 31-year-old Earl Morrall from the Detroit Lions Monday in a three-way deal which also involved the Cleveland Browns. To get Morrall, a 10-year-man in the National Football League, the Giants first sent defensive back Erich Barnes to Cleveland in exchange for

Top Walker Quits Again After Meet

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP) — Henry Laskau has called it quits again at 48 after collecting his fourth World Maccabiah gold medal in 15 years.

"This is it," said the wiry veteran from Mineola, N.Y., after winning the 3,000 meters walk Sunday in 13:47.6, only 2 1/2 seconds slower than the Games' record he set in 1953.

"Next time my son Howard, who is 14 and a runner, will come over to compete instead of me," said the three-time Olympian. "I came out of retirement to compete here again because my heart is in Israel."

The Berlin-born walker, winner of 42 national walking championships in the United States, broke an eight-year retirement eight months ago to train and earn a berth on the American team.

He won his event in a walk. Stepping out in front from the start, Laskau strode to a 90 meters victory over Robert Reimer of Switzerland with Canada's Kiwa Kadosiewicz third.

Aussies Take U.S. Doubles For 11th Time

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. (UPI) — Roy Emerson and Fred Stolle, the Australian terrors of the U.S. tennis tour, captured their nation's 11th U.S. Doubles Championship in 17 years Monday.

The pair won their 26th successive U.S. circuit doubles match and fifth straight tournament of the summer in a four-set defeat of Puerto Rico's Charles Pasarell and Frank Froehling of Miami.

Their 6-4, 10-12, 7-5, 6-3 triumph at Longwood Cricket Club game despite a troublesome wind before a gallery of 4,500 spectators in the rain-postponed finals.

The third-seeded pairing of Carole Graebner of Beechwood, Ohio, and Nancy Richey of Dallas took the women's title in a stunning 6-4, 6-4 upset of defending champions Billie Jean Moffitt and Karen Susman.

Emerson, 28, reigning king of the International amateur tennis wars, was winning his third U.S. Doubles crown. He had paired with Neale Fraser to take this 85-year-old event in 1959 and 1960.

It was the first National Doubles Championship for 26-year-old Sydney resident Stolle as he and Emerson defeated the 23-year-old Froehling and the 21-year-old Pasarell in one hour and 50 minutes.

NCAA, AAU Peace Talks Begin Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) announced Monday its peace talks with the Amateur Athletic Union (AAU) have been scheduled for Tuesday in Washington.

Under pressure from the Senate Commerce Committee, both sides agreed last Friday to meet and explore the possibilities for a peaceful settlement of their long and bitter jurisdictional fight which has upset administration of U.S. track and field affairs.

The committee has warned both of them that Congress could enact legislation imposing a settlement, but would prefer to see the wrangling big shots make a lasting peace themselves.

Walter Byers, NCAA executive secretary, announced that the group's president, Everett D. Barnes, and President Clifford H. Buck of the AAU had agreed by telephone to meet Tuesday morning and thrash out issues on which they can agree. He said the two presidents will head their delegations. Efforts to reach AAU spokesmen were unsuccessful.

Sen. Howard W. Cannon, D-Nev., who had demanded the peace talks, announced receipt of a telegram from Buck confirming his plans to meet with Barnes.

"But it will help speed up our rebuilding plans," he said. "We gave up one of the best guards in the league and one of the top defensive players."

Last season Morrall completed 50 of 91 passes for 588 yards and he has a career record of 1,252 attempts and 624 completions for 9,076 yards. In pre-season games, none of the three Giant quarterbacks had been able to generate a strong enough passing threat to make the running of Sherman's Baby Bulls effective.

In a separate deal, the Giants acquired John McDowell, a defensive end, from the Green Bay Packers for a future draft choice.

Frick Salutes Casey Stengel

NEW YORK (UPI) — Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick Monday saluted Casey Stengel for his contribution "to the color, to the progress and to the history of the game."

"He's a man who has dedicated his life to baseball... he leaves it with a great many memories and even more good wishes for the future," Frick said.

"Speaking as the commissioner of baseball, and as his friend, Casey Stengel will be missed."

SEVEN PLAYOFFS
PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. (UPI) — Seven of the first 27 tournaments on the 1965 Professional golfing tour were decided by playoffs.

Stengel Will Remain With Club Through 1967 As Vice President

Stengel will remain with the club through 1967 as a vice president although his real duties will be to serve as a scout on the West Coast. Casey is a resident of Glendale, Calif., where he plans to return in a week or so to continue his recovery.

Casey made his dramatic although not altogether surprising announcement at a hastily called press conference in the hotel where he lives during the baseball season.

"In fairness to myself and to the club," he said, "I thought it best, when I could no longer strut out to the mound to yank a pitcher, that I should not return as manager of the club."

"I had not intended to retire until I got hurt," he added.

As Stengel spoke, he was surrounded by almost the entire Mets front office, including Mrs. Joan Payson, the owner of the club; Donald M. Grant, chairman of the Board of Directors; George Weiss, the club president; coaches Yogi Berra and Don Heffner, and Westrum.

He came into the room under his own power, assisted by a black cane that looked more like a shillelagh. He wore a dark business suit and his hair, tinted a strawberry blonde, was neatly combed.

His original retirement statement was passed out by Harold Weissman, the club's public-relations director.

"After much consideration I have decided to retire as manager of the New York Mets at the close of the 1965 season," the statement read.

"This is due to my wish to be relieved of the arduous duties of active management and on medical advice following my latest injury."

"I am delighted to remain with the Mets in an executive capacity."

Stengel, who has not been able to lift the club above 10th and last place in his four years at the helm since the club joined the National League in 1962, emphasized his retirement was voluntary.

"I want it understood that nobody put pressure on me to resign," he said. "I was the one who hired Westrum to take my place, didn't I?"

The situation was unlike that of October 1960 when Stengel bowed out as manager of the Yankees in an aura of bitterness. In what was intended to be an announcement of resignation, Casey revealed he had not resigned but actually was fired by the Yankees because of his age. He was 70 at the time.

"The club has treated me wonderful," he said. "I never have received better treatment anywhere. I'm only sorry I didn't do well as I expected in getting the club out of last place."

"But I honestly think the club is on its way. I believe I am leaving four or five players who will remain with the club for 10 to 12 years."

"While I was disappointed with the club, I certainly was not disappointed with the public which stood by me and the club. I'll never forget them and I hope to pay them back by coming up with a couple of good young players that will help the club in the future."

Stengel also paid a compliment to Westrum, who has directed the Mets to 12 victories in 36 games during his absence.

"Westrum has done a wonderful job," praised Casey. "He has the men playing aggressive baseball."

The Mets have been lately, winning seven of the last 10, against the St. Louis Cardinals, Los Angeles Dodgers and San Francisco Giants.

The attendance, great all year, was amazing in those last nine playing dates, when 338,118 paid their way in to Shea Stadium. The team has attracted close to 1,600,000 thus far, only 100,000 shy of last year's record attendance.

A LITTLE WORD OF ADVICE is passed from Casey Stengel, retiring manager of the New York Mets, as he shakes hands with Wes Westrum after announcing the retirement in New York Monday. Westrum, who has served as manager pro tem during Casey's recent hip injury, was suggested as manager for the remainder of the season by Stengel. (AP wirephoto)

Mushers Look Good For 1965 Grid Play

FAIRFIELD — Coach Phil Brackenbury, now in his seventh year at Camas County High School, lost seven 1964 regulars at graduation, but still has good strength in his remaining lettermen and three first-year men as he will try to improve on the Mushers' 7-1 record from last season in the eight-man North Side Conference. Brackenbury will be relying on three two-year veterans in the backfield. Darrell Cox, a 5-foot, 10-inch, 150-pound senior, will take on the quarterbacking job while Joe Dickerson and Dennis Costella, both seniors, will be at halfback.

The other three returnees are juniors Clark Packham, guard, and Alan Gormley, center, and sophomore Scott Packham, a halfback. All have had one year of experience.

Brackenbury has an almost new line this year, but the prospects, according to him, are looking good. Mike Cook, 5-10 and 175 pounds, and Max Muffley, 6-foot and 165 pounds, are two senior first-year men that have been "looking real good in the line."

Also on tap for line jobs are Nels Bennett, a junior, and Jay St. Clair, Gene Williams and Dee Edwards, three sophomores, who have been working well in practice.

The Musher schedule includes, Sept. 3 Hagerman at Hagerman in a night game; Sept. 10 Dietrich at Dietrich; Sept. 17 Richfield at Camas County; Sept. 24 Grandview at Grandview, night game; Oct. 15 Carey at Camas County and Oct. 22 Bliss at Camas County.

Cowboys Shut Off Angel Rally in Ninth for 4-3 Pioneer League Victory

IDAHO FALLS (AP)—Magic Valley shut off an Idaho Falls rally in the ninth inning Monday night to pull out a 4-3 Pioneer League victory and remain in the running for the rookie league crown. The Angels loaded the bases with one out in the last half of the frame, but catcher Fred Combs grounded into a disputed double play that ended the game. Two Angel runners were across the plate by the time the Cowboys nipped Combs at first and a post-game argument followed. Stan Little's solo homer in the fourth proved the winning run for the Cowboys, after they had rallied for three runs in the third.

Wolves Have Chance To Better Record

CASTLEFORD—With 12 returning lettermen and a turnout of 47 for the 1965 football season, the Castleford Wolves should have an improved record over last year's three wins and six losses. Jay Waite was given the job this year of guiding the class B team through the Magic Valley Conference. It is his first coaching job for two years. Two of the most notable losses are Lonnie Alexander and Gary West who did an outstanding job for the Wolves in the 1964 season. Also on the notable loss list are David Reese, Jan Johnson and Bob Foster.

Little started it off with a walk and Ron Grossmiller singled him to third. Little scored on Al Deravin's infield out that forced Grossmiller, Chris Arnold followed a stolen base by Deravin with a single, making it two and then moved to third when Mike Hutson lived on an infield error. Arnold came home on a balk.

Idaho Falls struck twice in the first inning after singles by Leo Massey and Don Anderson and a walk to Combs loaded the bases. A wild pitch by eventual winner Ralph Durgin and Ray Vegas' infield out chased in the runs.

The Angels added their final run in the seventh when Vic Lopez came home on Massey's sacrifice fly.

The two teams will play their final night game Tuesday and complete the campaign with afternoon games Wednesday and Thursday. Cool weather and sparse crowds were given as the reasons for moving the final two games into the daylight.

But long-shot interest is centered on Short Stop, a husky colt driven by 42-year-old Ned Bower of Orlando, Fla., and owned by the Pennwin Stable of Winston-Salem, N.C. He has been boosted to third on the odds list at 7-2.

A $6,000 purchase two years ago from W. R. and M. Shelan of Ann Arbor, Mich., the baseball-named colt has won only six out of 35 starts to earn $32,863. But Short Stop has been improving rapidly under Bower, who drove The Intruder to victory in 1956 as one of the biggest long shots in Hambletonian history.

The son of Speedster was third to Noble Victory in the $122,236 Yonkers Futurity July 30 and was second to him, coming from last with a sizzling first half of 59 seconds, in the first heat of the Review Futurity at Springfield, Ill., two weeks ago.

In the second heat, Short Stop was third to Noble Victory's winning 1:59.35, fastest time by a 3-year-old trotter this year. The third-place finish was sensational because Short Stop raced minus one of his shoes, which had flipped off prior to the start of the heat.

Short Stop and Bower raised eyebrows further on Du Quoin's mile oval — where Ayres set a record 1:56.4-5 in winning last year — with a blistering work-out last Friday. Bower got a 58.2-5 half mile from him as he twice outdistanced Big John, second in last year's Hambletonian, in two sparkling mile dashes.

Short Stop and Noble Victory drew favorable third and sixth post positions, respectively, for the first heat of the Hambletonian starting at 1:55 p.m. EST.

Armbro Flight has the disadvantage of being in the No. 10 spot.

The horse to win two of the mile heats captures first prize of $59,900. Second is worth $29,950 and third $14,376.

harmful contaminants
(so they can't block your gas line!)

What does the American FINAL/FILTER really do? Automotive engineers know—they asked for it and American Oil Research developed it to stand between you and trouble. You see, all gasolines pick up tiny impurities in transit and in storage. These impurities, should they get in your gasoline tank, could clog the fuel line filter and stop you cold. The American FINAL/FILTER blocks out contaminants right at the pump nozzle. If you use your car on the job (and even if you don't) you stay out of trouble when you "fill 'er up filtered" with American, Regular or American, Super-Premium.

Sets are slim and trim

Here are a few hints on what to look for when you come in. Look for the big, full, rectangular shaped picture — compare it with the round tube sets. Look for the slim, trim cabinets that fit close to the wall. Make these two comparisons, then you will see the rectangular tube is something special!
