Twin Falls Civic auditorium subscribers voted Tuesday night 97.3 per cent in favor of a resolution authorizing the board of directors to explore the possibility of building the planned facilities in conjunction with the college of Southern Idaho. Only 34 voted against the resolution with 1,612 voting in favor. The resolution needed only a simple majority of a quorum of 20 per cent of the voting rights to pass. Each $100 contribution worth one vote, and a quorum of voting rights is about 1,000 ballots. Of the 616 votes cast, about 1,400 were by proxy, and about 100 by those present at the meeting.

The resolution, entered into by John Platt and drawn by the association's legal counsel, Fred Plankey, read: "Be resolved that the board of directors of the Civic Auditorium Association, Inc. be authorized to contact and work with a board of trustees of the college of Southern Idaho for College District for the purpose of building the civic auditorium or auditorium and convention center in conjunction with the college of Southern Idaho and to do all further things they deem necessary to accomplish this purpose." The resolution came at the close of the semi-annual general membership meeting at the American Legion Hall, conducted by Dr. Henry Brumbach, chairman of the association's board of directors. Dr. Brumbach brought subscribers up to date on activities of the auditorium. Pg. 2, Col. 4

Volcano Causes Wide Expanse of Death, Destruction

TAGAYTAY, Philippines (AP) — The first rescue workers reached the blackened shores of the Taal volcano today and reported a wide expanse of death and destruction. There was no immediate casualty estimate from the first sighting of the 12-square-mile island in Lake Taal where the volcano erupted at 2:30 a.m. Tuesday. Officials feared a heavy toll among the island's 2,000 inhabitants and in villages along the lake shore, 5 to 10 miles from the island. The party on the island reported the 984-foot volcano had subsided to occasional rumbles and batches of smoke. The local military commander ordered the evacuation of all persons from low areas around Lake Taal as a precaution against another eruption and an accompanying tidal wave.

Wendell Boy Killed In Tractor Mishap

WENDELL — Clifford Glick, 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Glick, was killed Wednesday morning when the tractor he was driving in a silage pit went out of control and overturned, pinning him underneath. According to Wendell Police Chief Bill Austin, the boy was helping his father at their farm two miles west and one and one-quarter miles south of Wendell. He had wanted to stay home from school and was supposed to be spraying the silage while his father was working in a field several miles away, family members said. The tractor hit the edge of the silage pit and overturned. The boy jumped and tried to run but was caught. He received extensive head injuries. Luther Thompson, about 19, who was working in the pit with him, jacked up the tractor and got him out. The accident occurred about 10:15 a.m. A Wendell physician was called and the boy taken to the St. Benedict's Hospital, Jerome, where he died about 11 a.m. Deputy Sheriff Bill Bunn assisted in the investigation. The body was taken to White Mortuary, Twin Falls.

Minimum Pay Bill May Be Sealed Down

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Democratic leaders are considering scaling down a proposed minimum wage bill in hopes of getting it passed in the waning days of the current session. A major part of the plan now being actively worked on calls for reducing from $1.75 an hour to $1.60 the proposed increase in the present $1.25 wage. Consideration also is being given to cutting back the number of new workers who would be covered by the bill from the 7.9 million approved by the Education and Labor Committee. The committee bill, which would raise the minimum wage to $1.60, has been stalled by parliamentary maneuvering and lack of support from the administration and top House leaders.

Replacements Idaho Falls (UPI) — Two new wolf pups—replacements for two wolves that had to be destroyed—have been added to the Tanglefoot Park Zoo.

The pups have been at the zoo for about a week but were not put on display until Tuesday. They replace two destroyed after they attacked Stephanie Daniel, 6, Idaho Falls, last June 6 and caused her to lose an arm.

Men Prepare For Nuclear Explosion

MOUNTAIN HOME, Idaho (AP) — Workers made final preparations today for a test explosion in a nuclear reactor. The blast of 100 tons of chemicals is scheduled for Thursday, sometime between 10 a. m. and 2 p. m., in the Bruner River area about 55 airline miles south of Mountain Home. The area is desolate with no human habitations for miles around. The chemical blast is intended to determine the centering and engineering properties of volcanic rock. If the blast is successful a later nuclear explosion may be set off in the same general area.

The purpose would be to determine whether underground nuclear explosions could be used for such purposes as digging canals. The experiment is under direction of the Atomic Energy Commission, but work at the site is being handled by the Army Corps of Engineers. —The Cannon, Diamond Drilling Co., Crampton, Calif., was given a contract for drilling an 80-foot deep hole 36 inches in diameter. Near the bottom is a spherical cavity 18 feet in diameter. It is in this cavity that the explosives were placed.

State Income Tax Evasion Fine Levied

J. L. Johnson, 47, 1643 Willow Lane, was fined $150 and costs by Twin Falls Probate Judge Zoe Ann Shaub for failure to pay state income taxes. Judge Shaub said this is the first conviction of state income tax evasion in Twin Falls in at least the past five years, and Vernon Doshier, auditor-in-charge of the Twin Falls office of state income tax, said it was the first conviction ever in Twin Falls. Johnson was convicted of not paying $94.59 in Idaho state income tax for 1964, states Judge Shaub. Johnson operates a trucking firm. Doshier said Johnson had paid his federal income tax but failed to pay the state. Doshier said Johnson had filed a state income tax return.

Judge Shaub said failure to pay state income tax is a misdemeanor, but failure to file a return is a felony. A misdemeanor is punishable by a fine up to $300 and/or jail sentence up to six months in county jail. Felony is punishable by a fine and/or jail sentence in state penitentiary. Under the plan, said Lt. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, men now being rejected by their draft boards would be given special training to prepare them for emergency, in which they would be expected to serve. Bishops Hit Birth Control Statement

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Progressive and conservative bishops alike joined today in an attack on the Vatican Ecumenical Council's draft statement on birth control. Representatives of both groups approved the text for various reasons, but all generally denounced it as too vague, badly written, and too broad to serve as a guide for Roman Catholic couples. Neither side specifically urged the council to speak out for or against the use of contraceptives, but both progressives and conservatives demanded a clear statement on the problems of fecundity and family planning. The 2,200 cardinals, patriarchs, archbishops and bishops took up the question of birth control as they moved to the second chapter of a 126-page schema on modern world problems.

Mike Mayne, production manager at Sumner's, said the picket was not and never had been an employee of the company. Walter Todd, manager was not immediately available for comment on the picketing. Governments Council Sets Day's Agenda

BOISE (AP) — Leaders of 13 Western states turned to consideration of highway problems today at the annual meeting of the Western Conference of the Council on State Governments. A roundtable discussion on data processing systems in departments from the auditor's office to the highway patrol headquarters was to be led by Freeman Holmer, Oregon's director of finance.

A review of state highway policies and programs—the purpose for which the conference was originally formed—was scheduled later in the afternoon. Water was the topic Tuesday and the delegates heard three reports in plain words.

Southwestern officials appealed for "so badly" a North-south water sharing that the westerner said his area must be selfish with its water and a regional water official appended "regional statesmanship" to the dispute.

The appeal for statesmanship came from Holmer, chairman of the recently formed Western States Water Council. "It would help," said Holmer, "if there is restraint by Southwesterners in deciding—before acts are taken in the Northwest—that the same may be said," he continued, "for Northwesterners to insist we must not even consider the possibility a surplus does exist."

"This is a time," he said, "for regional statesmanship rather than inter-regional politics as we seek to improve the government water in the West."

The fear that the Northwest lands to lose water if need for its own development was expressed by H. Maurice Ahlquist, director of the Washington State Department of Conservation.

"We do not want to be generous today and suffer the pain of regret 20 to 100 years from now," said Ahlquist. "We are selfish. We are selfish."

Yellowstone Geysers Aided Against Energy Planning

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (AP) — Opposition to any development bill allowing the interior secretary to lease public lands to private companies for the development of geothermal energy which interferes with the geysers of Yellowstone National Park was registered Tuesday by Interior Secretary Stewart Udall at a news conference.

Udall also predicted that Wyoming formations outside national parks which may be studied for development of geothermal energy.

"I hope no one contemplates doing anything to change Old Faithful or any geyser activity in Yellowstone National Park," he said.

On the wild rivers legislation, Udall said someone apparently "crossed signals" in the controversy between Gov. Cliff Hansen and the Interior Department, when the original bill was introduced in Congress last spring.

Hansen had charged that the Interior Department broke faith with him by including the Green River in the bill without first advising state officials and giving them an opportunity to protest.

Someone at the lower level in the department may have given Udall said, "but it did not come from our office at the secretary level."

Udall said he feels "we have covered the lost ground now that the bill has been amended to delete the Green River from wild river status and provided for a study of the proposal."

"I certainly feel that Wyoming people will have adequate hearings on the suggestion to include the Green River in the program," he said.

Udall said he hopes that the Upper Green River eventually will be included in the program and noted that the stretch of Snake River in Wyoming immediately below Jackson Lake is "about an ideal stream for wild river status."

Udall noted that the Senate

Civil Rights Said Bringing U.S. Together

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Mother Divine said she does not "desire" for Negro civil rights to be "finally brought to the United States together, economically and socially."

"Franklin D. Roosevelt could not have done what President Johnson has done," she said, "because the people at that time weren't as ready for it as they are today."

Mother Divine assumed the leadership of the Divine Peace Mission Movement after the death of her husband, Father Divine, the founder, on Sept. 10.

In an interview at the movement's headquarters in a suburb of Philadelphia, Mother Divine continued:

"Now that civil rights legislation has been passed, America will see how much more effective it will be in international and domestic affairs."

The Divine movement recognizes no racial differences. The founder, reportedly 100 or more at the time of his death, was a Negro. Mother Divine is white.

Food Price Drop Cuts Living Costs

WASHINGTON (AP) — A drop in food prices cut living costs two-tenths of one per cent in August — the biggest decline in nearly three years, the Labor Department said today.

Housing and transportation costs also showed slight declines, but clothing and medical care went up.

The two-tenths of one per cent drop in the government's consumer price index brought it down to 110.0 per cent of its 1957-59 average.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

By ANDREW TULLY
WASHINGTON — Vice President Humphrey had good news the other day when he announced that the government had found summer jobs for a million youths in the 16-21 age bracket and that teenage unemployment had fallen to 12.1 per cent, lowest in three years. But like so many other administration mouthpieces, Humphrey ignored the real unemployment problem.

"That's that, although there are four million adult unemployed, jobs for both skilled and unskilled workers are still going begging. In a period of unprecedented prosperity, there are too many young people who won't work because Uncle Sam will support them in their comfortable idleness."

STRANGE UNEMPLOYMENT

I suspect Main Street is becoming a traffic jam with the findings of the head-shrinkers that folks start riots and shoot cops because they are unemployed. And inability to find jobs was one of the reasons given for the Los Angeles riots.

Farm owners in the area had to pay 18,000 Mexicans to harvest their tomato crop because American citizens in Watts as well as in other communities wouldn't work for $18 a day.

More than 1,500 Canadians were recruited to help pick the New England apple crop, although Massachusetts has 52 per cent unemployment. Yet apple pickers who work at the job earn from $20 to $25 a day. Money was in New York State's Hudson Valley were permitted to import 250 West Indians to save their $20 million crop from spoiling.

JOBS BEGGING AMONG JOBLESS

One of the reasons for this curious situation is that jobs are in demand, whereas many of the jobless won't work with their hands because such employment lacks status. Thus in one area of Long Island, poultry growers were unable to hire hands at the minimum $1.25 an hour at the same time the NAACP was pushing a drive to force storekeepers to hire Negroes at the same wage.

There is also, of course, the factor of nation counting. As Labor Department people point out, there is no unemployment insurance for farm workers, and many of the jobless work just long enough to qualify for unemployment payments. In many cases, a man will take a lower-paying job in a store rather than pick apples or tomatoes merely to insure a regular income of taxpayers' dollars during the winter.

RAY OF HOPE

Happily, there is a silver lining or two indicating that the country is not going wholly to pot. Farmers around Washington and New York have discovered that servicemen stationed at nearby bases are anxious to earn a little extra money and are willing to work for off-duty and night employment. (One Virginia land owner reports that the 32 Air Force men he recruited were the best workers he's ever had.)

Then there are the college boys—and girls—trying to earn a buck to help out with expenses. Few of them come from families in the so-called "poverty bracket," but they put in long hours of hard work and are getting a good education. It is an encouraging sign in a country which traditionally has honored the workman that all three of Vice President Humphrey's college-student sons had summer jobs.

Views of Others

HULLO, I'M FROM THE PENTAGON
The Defense Department's most recent secret study to come to light may be less disturbing than the United States' attitude toward Project Camelot. That defunct brainstrom was based on the illusion that Latin-American scholar would help OUR Government dilute the impact of popular revolts in THEIR lands. In contrast, the Nike-X opinion survey merely rings the bell for busy work and a new attitude.

As revealed in a trade publication called Missiles and Rockets, opposing factions in an internal Pentagon debate over missile defense systems actually turned last year to the door-to-door technique of policy making. They paid the National Opinion Research Center of the University of Chicago to ask 1,000 citizens 39 questions on personal income, religion, politics, social standing and World War III.

Behind all this is Defense Secretary McNamara's understandable hesitance to order the production and deployment of Nike-X, a network of radar and anti-ballistic missile sites. For a staggering cost of 40 billion, it could protect 23 per cent of the population against Soviet missiles. That is, unless Moscow then upsets the balance by building enough missiles to smother the defense system.

Pentagon planners doubtless found little help in a survey finding that about two thirds of the American public believe that ballistic missile sites are already in place. Furthermore, the survey research group concluded that while 80 per cent of those interviewed thought something like Nike-X was a good idea, 70 per cent thought they would be given to say-so about whether their own cities rated such protection.

"Any anti-employment device which probably prompt opposition statements from responsible and informed people..." the survey reported. "Deployment decisions likewise may trigger public reaction focused directly on the ballistic missile defense system."

How much the taxpayers paid for these showman revelations, designed to backstop any and all positions, can only be guessed.

At best, surveys of any sort are never substitutes for national thinking gassed on strategic realities. There is no evidence the Russian leaders are anxious to enter into new rounds of expensive negotiations for arms control, especially if it means no "market research" justify deployment of a questionable product for the benefit of defense industries.

We like to think the Department of Defense knows what it is doing. Some of its forthright decisions against us have been made in recent years. The thought of someone from the Pentagon asking the lady of the house to hush the kiddies and answer 39 questions on national defense is a bit beyond the pale. —St. Louis Post-Dispatch

"Waltz Me Around Again, Ludwig"

WEST GERMAN PROSPERITY

Behind the scenes, our balance of payments position has been weakened for a long time. But with the Great Society's expanded spending who would know it?

Our gold reserve stands at its 27-year low: $13.9 billion. We have already lost $1.5 billion this year. Yet U. S. government securities held for foreign account, a potential claim on our gold with which our public is hardly familiar, rose another $118 million in September.

This boasts that gigantic claim to $7.3 billion.

The soundness and value of our dollar works its way into every phase of our lives and is decisive in every family's future. Our pay, pensions, savings and security are rooted in this. But neither existing politicians tell us about this merely muddles the confusion, they spend. We pay. They come and go. And we and our children are left to foot the bill for the political map.

Our "balance of payments problems" is just a soft definition for our gold crisis. And it is simply a question of time, as Washington cynically implies, that we have stabilized our gold crisis. The trend continues downward.

Franklin D. Roosevelt were approved and expanded the dimensions of government responsibility for the general welfare under President Truman, Dwight D. Eisenhower, and John F. Kennedy.

The steps taken this year under President Johnson and the heavily Democratic Congress show how far the nation has gone down the road of federal responsibility in many fields.

Congress will pass a measure providing college scholarships for needy students, the first in history, and this year Congress has already approved a $1.3-billion school aid bill, the broadest ever for grade and high schools.

Congress also passed a four-year bill authorizing omnibus housing bill that continues urban renewal and slum clearance, expansion of low-rent housing, and a new program of federal rent subsidies for people who cannot afford standard private housing.

Congress not only broadened health and welfare programs but for the first time provided for medical care for people 65 and older through Social Security.

And the new civil rights law lets the government move into voting rights in a way never attempted before, such as tearing up voting tests under certain conditions.

These are only part of the flood of measures which have poured through this Congress in such quantity and speed that such little facts that the general public has almost taken them as routine. It's an accepted way of life now.

If anyone doubts it, all he has to do is remember the 1964 election and what happened to the conservative Barry Goldwater and the conservative Republican party in general.

At the same time more and more power is being centralized in Washington, less in the states. This is a matter of concern to many. But they can't have it both ways. Government help means government responsibility and control.

Ideal dog for children. Small, cream-colored male. Lovable. After 6 p.m. Phone 733-1261

Dear Pot Shots:
We have a nice, medium-sized male dog that needs a home. He is a good watchdog. If someone has a good home to offer him, they may phone 733-6236 or stop by at 157 Maurice St. N. (Twin Falls)

TOO COMPLICATED
My wife has trouble with the car. She says it's too complicated. I wished the auto manufacturers would go to work on this cream-colored male. They haven't done near enough, what with power steering, power brakes, automatic transmissions, etc., etc.

Why doesn't someone make a real simple car that will start and drive itself?

GENTLEMAN IN THE FOURTH ROW

Interpreting The News

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — Any President Johnson who probably takes the American social revolution for granted. He grew up with it and in his life-time it was always there and always, although slowly, going down.

Yet, what has happened just this year in Washington would have been unthinkable, before the revolution began, when the country was drowned in a depression.

President Herbert Hoover will probably always be a symbol of the moment in history when the old attitudes came up against the new necessities of American life, and the old melted away.

Hoover did more than any other President up to that time to test government resources to fight economic disaster, but he couldn't shake off the philosophy of the era in which he grew up and all the eras before it.

He couldn't reconcile himself to the thought that the government should provide direct relief for the unemployed.

President Grover Cleveland in 1887 had expressed the philosophy that was prevalent through most of American history: "I do not believe that the power and duty of the federal government ought to be expended for the relief of individual suffering which is in no manner properly related to the public service or benefit."

The lesson should be constantly enforced that, though the people support the government, the government should not support the people."

The new era began in earnest in 1935 with the passage of the Social Security Act, which followed and the Labor Relations Act compelling employers to bargain with unions of their employees.

The last big measure of the New Deal came in 1938 with the law that created the 40-hour work week and the Labor Hours worked over 40, and a minimum wage, small as it was.

Those measures of President

Washington News

By LYLE WILSON (United Press International)

The humpbacked U.S. taxpayer probably would be shocked if he had to swallow all of the facts of foreign aid spending in one bitter draft.

The shock surely would be sufficient to put the freethinking American taxpayer in a cold sweat. Shocked taxpayers might paint their legs red and screech against the nearest federal building as they do our loving friends abroad when annoyed by the U. S. government.

Foreign assistance spending is over 20 years old. One hundred foreign countries or thereabouts have lapped up about $100 billion U.S. dollars in those years.

To the extent to which all of this spending has been for the purpose of buying foreign friendships, it has been a colossal waste.

To the extent to which the spending has been to arm the free world against communism, the program has had better luck despite the tendency of some of our loving friends to fight each other with weapons bestowed by us instead of bending their attention to the Communists.

The most remarkable aspect of foreign assistance spending, however, is that it amounts generally to more than twice as much as the sum the taxpayers are aware of.

Another eccentricity of foreign aid spending is that the aid spenders uniformly ask Congress to give them more than they expect to get and a great deal more than they need. Congress is aware of this shenanigan and regularly reduces the aid request but rarely fails to appropriate more than the aid spenders need and, in fact, more than they are able to spend.

President Johnson signed this month an authorization for spending of $3.3 billion of foreign aid funds in the current fiscal year. The idea has gotten around that this represents projected foreign assistance spending in fiscal 1966. During Johnson's discussion of this foreign aid authorization, Rep. Otto E. Passman D-Ia. cited the facts of projected foreign assistance spending. For mutual security spending in fiscal 1965, he requested the foreign spending requested by President Johnson so far this year.

Passman explained that foreign aid requests had been fragmented, perhaps for the purpose

TAYLOR'S VIEWS ON WORLD NEWS

By HENRY J. TAYLOR

Behind the scenes, our balance of payments position has been weakened for a long time. But with the Great Society's expanded spending who would know it?

Our gold reserve stands at its 27-year low: $13.9 billion. We have already lost $1.5 billion this year. Yet U. S. government securities held for foreign account, a potential claim on our gold with which our public is hardly familiar, rose another $118 million in September.

This boasts that gigantic claim to $7.3 billion.

The soundness and value of our dollar works its way into every phase of our lives and is decisive in every family's future. Our pay, pensions, savings and security are rooted in this. But neither existing politicians tell us about this merely muddles the confusion, they spend. We pay. They come and go. And we and our children are left to foot the bill for the political map.

Our "balance of payments problems" is just a soft definition for our gold crisis. And it is simply a question of time, as Washington cynically implies, that we have stabilized our gold crisis. The trend continues downward.

Franklin D. Roosevelt were approved and expanded the dimensions of government responsibility for the general welfare under President Truman, Dwight D. Eisenhower, and John F. Kennedy.

The steps taken this year under President Johnson and the heavily Democratic Congress show how far the nation has gone down the road of federal responsibility in many fields.

Congress will pass a measure providing college scholarships for needy students, the first in history, and this year Congress has already approved a $1.3-billion school aid bill, the broadest ever for grade and high schools.

Congress also passed a four-year bill authorizing omnibus housing bill that continues urban renewal and slum clearance, expansion of low-rent housing, and a new program of federal rent subsidies for people who cannot afford standard private housing.

Congress not only broadened health and welfare programs but for the first time provided for medical care for people 65 and older through Social Security.

And the new civil rights law lets the government move into voting rights in a way never attempted before, such as tearing up voting tests under certain conditions.

These are only part of the flood of measures which have poured through this Congress in such quantity and speed that such little facts that the general public has almost taken them as routine. It's an accepted way of life now.

If anyone doubts it, all he has to do is remember the 1964 election and what happened to the conservative Barry Goldwater and the conservative Republican party in general.

At the same time more and more power is being centralized in Washington, less in the states. This is a matter of concern to many. But they can't have it both ways. Government help means government responsibility and control.

The Doctor Says

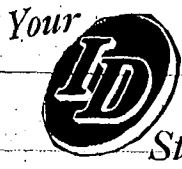

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M. D.

With the approach of another winter it is predicted that there will be an increase in the cases of influenza over last year. It is therefore recommended that you get your influenza vaccine as soon as possible. Although an adult man's height has been reduced 1/2 inch since he was a child, it is especially important for persons with heart disease, lung disease and such metabolic diseases as diabetes, rheumatism and over- or underactive thyroid glands. Furthermore, persons who are past 45 and pregnant women should get the vaccine. A single dose of the vaccine will confer some immunity but two doses given about eight weeks apart are recommended as providing better protection.

Q—My doctor says I have a floating kidney but that there is nothing he can do about it. What would you advise?

A—A floating or displaced kidney is of no importance unless it causes pain by pressing on a nerve or on one of the organs in the lower abdomen. It is, however, more vulnerable to infection, the formation of kidney stones and kinking of the ureter (the tube leading from the kidney to the bladder). Q—Should I have tests still being done every year after a partial nephrectomy (complete removal of the kidney)?

A—Yes.

The post office handles about a million pieces of mail a week. The old office in the federal building is now known as the "Bannock Substation."

The public dedication ceremonies will be at 11:30 p.m. Other speakers will include Jay B. Christensen, Seattle, assistant to the post-office department regional director; Jack Trimming, local postmaster; and Earl Pond, mayor.

The commissioners have been pressing for development of a portion of the river beyond the Northwest city limits. Col. Delay Given In Beating Death Trial

SELMA, Ala. (UPI)—Circuit Judge James A. Hare Tuesday granted a delay in the murder trial of three men charged with the beating death of the Rev. James Ray, a Boston politician minister and civil rights advocate, originally from Cooper, Wyo.

O'Neil Hoggie, 30; his brother, William Stanley Hoggie, 30; and Elmer Cook, 41, faced arraignment on first-degree murder charges.

But their lawyer, Joe Pitcher Jr., asked continuance on the grounds that he accepted their defense only last week and did not have sufficient time to prepare for the expected Oct. 4 trial.

Circuit Solicitor Blanchard McLeod did not object to the motion, and Hare set Dec. 14 as new tentative trial date.

Ray, who was 38, was in Selma early in March to take part in the massive Selma-Montgomery rights march. He was beaten on a Selma street on the night of March 9, and died two days later.

Crowd Hears Soprano at Buhl Church

Buhl—A capacity crowd filled the Buhl First Christian Church to hear the nationally known soprano, Mrs. Miriam Downs, in her hour-long concert presentation of inspiring Negro spirituals Sunday evening.

Mrs. Downs accompanied herself on the piano and also conducted the audience in group singing.

Her concert was interspersed with brief messages on how Negroes have contributed to American culture by their music. Mrs. Downs told the more than 400 persons attending of her research work at the Library of Congress in Washington, D. C. Of the Negro spirituals recorded there, she said, most were composed by people in slavery but the songs showed no bitterness or negative attitudes but positive affirmatives of their faith.

Mrs. Downs also paid tribute to the Martin Luther King movement and pointed out that Rev. King has sought to lead the Negro people to find their freedom through methods of non-violence.

Rev. Paul LaRue, pastor of the First Methodist Church, gave the invocation, and the Rev. Dale K. Olson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, gave the benediction at the evening service.

Farm Bill to Bring Farmers More Money

WASHINGTON (AP) — How crop. The allotment — which is based on a farmer's past plantings — is designed to help prevent overproduction. The plan agreed upon by the Johnson administration's farm bill committee is to allot 25 bushels an acre, for a total of 2,000 bushels in each crop.

He would have the privilege of selling the 1966 wheat in the market or storing it under government price support loan. The loan would average $1.25 a bushel. The 2,000 bushels would bring the farmer $2,500 whether he sold it or put it under loan.

But farmer Doe, as a cooper-ator with the program, would get government marketing cer-tificates on 45 per cent of his crop, or in his case 900 bushels. This is the portion of farmer Doe's crop which would be ex-pected to be used for domestic food purposes. The plan would give a cooperating farmer full parity — now $2.57 a bushel — on his share of the wheat used for domestic food purposes. Par-ity, determined under farm law, is a fair return for the farm-er's costs, is the price goal of farm programs.

The certificates would have a value of $1.32 a bushel which, added to the $1.25 sale price, would give him the parity price of $2.57. Farmer Doe's certi-ficate on 900 bushels would have a value of $1,188. Thus he would have a total return of about $3,688 for his 2,000 bushels—$2,500 from sale or storage of the wheat and certificates worth $1,188. This would be an average of $1.84 a bushel on his entire crop.

Funds for the certificates would be obtained by the Agri-culture Department from two sources—75 cents a bushel paid by millers and processors on all wheat used for domestic food purposes, and 57 cents a bushel from the federal treasury.

In 1966, no payments are ex-pected to be collected on exports—a development which would make it possible for shippers to sell abroad with need for little if any export subsidy payments from the government.

Farmer Doe's neighbor who had an allotment of 80 acres be-fore the plan would be in-eligible for price support. If he had 80 acres he would have to get the market price—probably around $1.25 a bushel.

The Senate and House com-tees still are working on differ-ences in the versions of the new farm bills passed by the House and Senate. The com-mittee version will be sent back to the two chambers for final action.

Pope Paul VI Has Completely Changed Concept of Papacy

VATICAN CITY (UPI)—Pope Paul VI in little more than two years has completely changed the concept of the papacy, bringing it out of the often-misty halls of the Vatican and into the space age.

His trip next week to the United Nations in New York is a forceful reminder that the Pope no longer is a prisoner of the Vatican, to be heard on radio or seen on television. He now is a traveling diplomat, personally bringing his peace and negotiation to world leaders.

The papacy was born with St. Peter, when Christ told him "Thou art Peter and on this rock will I build my church." Since Peter became Pope in the year 33 A. D. his 202 successors have followed many lines—some good, some bad. There have been warrior popes and hermit popes, princely popes and peasant popes.

Until 1870 the popes ruled what is now a large part of Italy, having both spiritual and temporal powers. But on Sept. 20 of that year Rome fell to the troops of King Victor Emmanuel II and Italy was unified.

The Pope, then Pius IX, was stripped of his temporal power and became a self-styled "prisoner of the Vatican." This lasted until fascist dictator Benito Mussolini signed the Lateran Pact in 1929, the agreement that restored normal relations.

But even with the Lateran Pact the succeeding popes showed little desire to travel. Until John XXIII was chosen in 1958 the movement mostly had been from the Vatican City to Castelgandolfo, the Alban hill town 18 miles south of Rome where the popes traditionally spent the hot summer months.

During his reign of four and a half years, Pope John made only one trip, a 400-mile, one-day pilgrimage by train to the shrines of Loreto and Assisi. But during audiences with men from around the world, the often peasant-born pontiff often expressed his regret that "I cannot visit your country—but my successors will."

When Giovanni Battista Cardinal Montini, archbishop of Milan, was chosen pontiff on June 21, 1963, there were a few pre-dictions that he might do some traveling—possibly to such Catholic shrines as Fatima, Portugal, and Lourdes, France.

Employees Attend Driver Course

SHOSHONE—Driver's Training Course, formulated by the Madison Safety Council, was held under the supervision of Robert Schuppeneck, department safety director, has been held for state highway district employees, H. E. Sessions, district engineer, said Wednesday.

He said the classes, which are being held this week in Pocatello, instructs students in all phases of safe driving habits with lectures, discussions, charts and motion picture illustrations. The pictures show graphically how to practice good defensive driving.

One film, made by General Motors Proving Grounds, illustrates the dire results of good safety violations. It is expected that classes will again be held in the Shoshone highway district in November for employees unable to attend the first course.

Integration Problem Seen In Georgia

WARRENTON, Ga., (UPI)—An angry crowd of 15 to 20 white men pulled a Negro teenager out of his car and pummeled him today when he attempted to integrate a white school.

The youth, Frank Bates, was driving four other young Negroes to the Warren County High School when the whites began pelting his car with apples. Bates lost control and smashed into a parked car.

The whites grabbed the 17-year-old Bates, tore off his shirt and roughed him up before several helmeted state troopers intervened. One officer took a small caliber pistol from one of the white men.

There were no arrests.

The incident occurred about an hour after 20 state troopers armed with holstered pistols and carrying billy clubs, for the second straight day blocked an attempt by Negro pupils at Crawfordville, about 17 miles away, to board school buses carrying white pupils to the school here.

Worker Dies in Bulldozer Mishap

WEISER (UPI)—Death of Sam Christ, 44, Richland, Ore., in a bulldozer accident near the west fork of Brownlee Reservoir near Cambridge was reported by the sheriff's office Wednesday.

Officers said Christ was fatally hurt last Sunday when a large bulldozer he was using to clear brush hit a hole or a rock and overturned three times. Death, officers said, was instantaneous.

Investigators, when asked why the report was delayed, said they just "forgot" about it.

Russians Strike at U.S. Army's 25th Infantry Unit

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. Army's 25th Infantry Division is a pack of "obedient mercenaries" with a history of killing civilians and running away in battle.

The "Tropic Lightning" Division catches a full load of Soviet intrigue in a kind of "know your enemy" treatment in the Soviet army publication Red Star.

It isn't clear why the Russians chose the 25th Division for this treatment at this time, since the unit which is based in Hawaii has not faced Soviet troops in the Europe or elsewhere and has been only marginally involved in the Viet Nam war.

There may be a clue, however, in the Red Star's recitation of the history of the division whose 27th Infantry Regiment landed in Siberia after the Russian revolution.

"Terrible atrocities were committed by the American army publication said, but 'it became available at the Pentagon, was billed as the start of a series on American divisions

Singer Accused Of Adultery

INDIO, Calif. (UPI)—The estranged husband of a singer accused of adultery in a divorce proceeding filed in Los Angeles.

It was disclosed Tuesday that Maurice S. Smith, 34, Springs contract singer, filed Mrs. Shore's claim in Los Angeles County Superior Court here. Miss Shore petitioned to obtain a final decree.

The article ends up with typical warnings that the Socialist wall stands the blame "a bolt of tropic lightning."

In the Korean war, Red Star said, the division's fighting were totaled up to "dozens of burned villages and cities, thousands of murdered women, children and old people."

"The division didn't win any laurels in battle," the Soviet army publication said, but "it saved many times saved themselves from full defeat by running."

Witness Tells Of Civil Rights Death

HAYNEVILLE, Ala. (UPI) — A defense witness testified today that a young man shot and killed in front of a country store after an argument with the man charged in the shotgun slaying. Leon Crocker, long-time friend of Special Deputy Thomas Coleman charged with the slaying, told a chagrined courtroom the civil rights worker was killed from a shotgun fired from just inside the small wooden grocery store. He said Coleman was inside the store but he did not see who fired the shot. Coleman is charged with manslaughter in the slaying of Jonathan Daniels, 26, of Keene, N. H., and the shotgun wounding of the Rev. Richard Morrisroe, a Roman Catholic priest from Chicago. The two men were shot one block away from the brick jail house from which they had just been released.

COCOA PRICE DISCUSSED

ACCRA, Ghana (AP) — G. Mennen Williams, U.S. assistant secretary of state for African affairs, is in Ghana for talks with President Kwame Nkrumah on the price of cocoa. U. S. District Judge Robert Vann-Pelt upheld the government request that the state department be admitted for use in the trial. Pope, who graduated in May from McPherson, Kan. College, is accused of killing three persons and wounding a fourth during the June 4 $1,500 robbery of the Farmers' State Bank of Big Springs, Neb. Vann-Pelt's order Tuesday ended a four-day pre-trial hearing on the motion by defense lawyers Robert Crosby and Wallace Randolph. Crosby is a former Nebraska Republican governor and Randolph, a professor at the University of Nebraska college of law. Crosby and Randolph contended in their motion that the confessions were taken in violation of Pope's constitution rights. He surrendered June 11, one week after the holdup, and his attorneys argued the June 11-12 statements were taken before Pope could consult family, friends, or an attorney.

Trial Set for Football Star In Murder

LINCOLN, Neb. (UPI) — A small college football star will go on trial Nov. 1 with two confessions waiting in the arsenal of the federal prosecution, which seeks to put him to death on charges of committing the bloodiest bank robbery of modern times. Defense attorneys for Duane Earl Pope, the 22-year-old native of Roxbury, Kan., lost Tuesday in their bid to suppress two statements given by Pope to federal officers. U. S. District Judge Robert Vann-Pelt upheld the government request that the state department be admitted for use in the trial. Pope, who graduated in May from McPherson, Kan. To America with love... The 1966 Chrysler

Could be we're getting too emotional. But it isn't very often you get a chance to follow an all-time sales record year with a new Chrysler like this one. Sure, our '65 was great. But the '66 is even better. It looks better. Moves quicker. It's got a beautiful new front end and a very dramatic new rear. It's got a bigger and more zesty group of V-8 engines. From a 383 cubic inch to a 440 TNT with twin exhausts and twin snorkels. (A "snorkel" is an air intake horn for the carburetor — does great things for performance.) The interiors, all up and down the line, are more luxurious and comforting. Take our new shell bucket seats, for example. It's almost as if they had been custom-fitted for you. One thing we didn't even think about changing. It has to do with money. Five of our Newport models (real Chryslers — not junior editions) are priced just a few dollars a month more than the most popular smaller cars with the same equipment. This includes features like power steering, power brakes, a 383 cubic inch V-8; automatic transmission, radio and many standard items like safety door handles and seat belts. Move up to Chrysler... it's getting easier by the minute.

Water Board To Arrange Bill Hearings

BOISE (AP) — Idaho's Water Resources Board has decided to hold public hearings on the proposed wild rivers bill now in Congress.

The decision was made at a meeting Tuesday at which the board also approved Idaho participation in the Western States Water Council but took no action on Idaho participation in a Columbia Basin Commission.

The board tentatively plans a hearing on the wild rivers bill at Lewiston in late October with Idaho State Park, Church and Len Jordan and Gov. Robert Smylie invited to testify.

The hearings were proposed by board member John E. Streiff of Lewiston who said sentiment in the north favors inclusion of Idaho's Salmon and Clearwater rivers in the bill.

The board had been expected to take a stand at its meeting Tuesday.

Board Chairman George Crookham Jr. of Caldwell said six of eight board members already had indicated opposition to immediate inclusion of the two Idaho rivers.

Approval of Idaho participation in the Western States Water Council came after Crookham told members Smylie had agreed to provide the $15,000 from his emergency appropriation.

Sen. Len Jordan Defends Miners

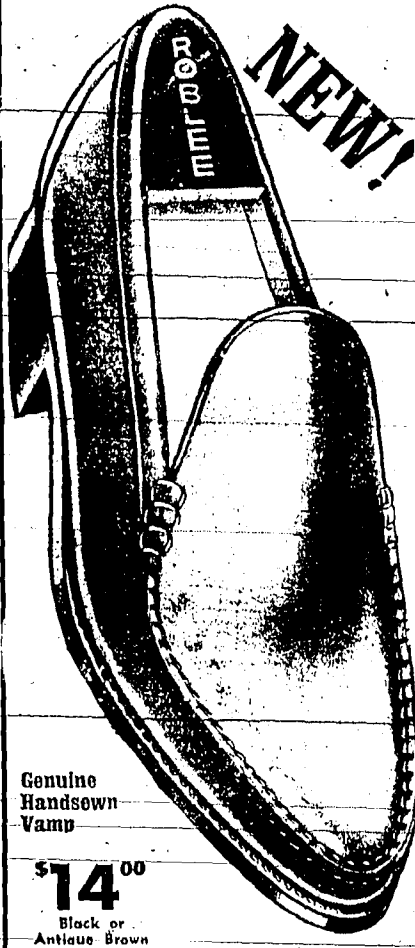

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Len B. Jordan says effects of mining claim owners to acquire public lands are being denied without sufficient justification.

Jordan said rejection of applications for purchase of mining property on federal lands is creating a serious problem and asked for a study by the newly created Public Land Law Review Commission.

"The livelihood of self-sufficient people is threatened," said Jordan.

He said the government agencies can treat occupancies as trespassers on land which has, in some cases, been under mining development for as long as half a century.

SUGAR BILL CONSIDERED IN CONGRESS

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The sugar bill was under consideration in both Houses of Congress today, with the House version open for possible amendments concerning lobbyists and import duties.

The House Rules Committee cleared the sugar bill for action Tuesday, but denied the Agriculture Committee's request for a ban on any amendments.

And in the Senate, which usually waits for House passage of the Sugar Bill before beginning its committee hearings, Democratic whip Russell B. Long, D-La., introduced the administration's version of the bill. It was referred to the Finance Committee.

The House rules committee committee amendments to be considered—no to deny sugar quotas to nations employing lobbyists here; the other to impose import duties that would recover from importers 75 per cent of the difference between the subsidized U.S. sugar price and the lower world price.

MOCKUP SHOWS how steel netting can be used to establish a helipad in dense jungle areas where it would otherwise be impossible for a helicopter to land. The netting is dropped from a helicopter across the tops of the trees and undergrowth and a platform is deposited in the vortex for the helipad. The method already has been tried successfully and will be in use in Viet Nam into this year. It was developed at Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Md. (AP wirephoto)

Q. I belong to a club for the deaf. I would like to organize a club for the hearing. I feel there is a real need for such a thing, because people given to the club for the deaf. By organizing an investment club we could learn about stocks, the market, etc.

But other members of the club for the deaf say that an investment club would not be allowed, because our club is a nonprofit organization. The new club would have too few members and there would be too much tax trouble having both clubs under the same roof.

Wall Street Chatter

Assn. of Investment Clubs, Washington Boulevard Building, Detroit, 26, Mich.

Q. Can you tell me why the U.S. Government is reducing the interest paid to holders of Series H, U.S. Savings Bonds? I own some H bonds which will mature next year. If I continue to hold them, for an additional 10 years, the interest checks I will receive every six months will be lower than the interest checks I now receive every six months?

A. The U.S. Treasury has reduced the interest on H bonds. What it has done is level out the interest payments during the "extended maturity period."

Think back, now. Remember that the interest checks you now receive from H bonds holdings are higher than those you received some years ago.

During the "original" maturity of an H bond, interest starts low and then becomes higher. It becomes higher than you should have expected, beginning June 1, 1959, when the government raised the interest rate on U.S. Savings Bonds.

If you hold your H bonds past the original maturity, you will receive a check for the same amount every six months during the next 10 years.

For instance, on a $1,000 H bond, the interest payment every six months will be $18.75. That's $37.50 a year, or 3 3/4 per cent annually during the extended maturity period.

Over the 10-year extended maturity period, the total interest you will receive will be no more than equal to the interest you collected during the original maturity period. See! The interest hasn't been cut—just leveled out.

Business Mirror

NEW YORK (AP)—Enthusiastic stock traders are ignoring several brakes that are currently moderating the rush of the U.S. economy to new highs.

Among the laggards are the steel industry, housing construction and new orders for durable goods. Even the auto industry's confident predictions that a nine-million car sales year will dawn in a few days now are being tempered a bit by the current tussle of dealers to reduce their large stocks of 1955 models.

But the stock market is betting that these problems are short-term. Many traders are convinced that the economy can't be stalled for long, if at all, by current readjustments. And many apparently don't take too seriously the reassurances that inflation can't happen again.

Government officials and many corporate economists stress that there is enough idle production capacity to take care of presently indicated demands of the Viet Nam war and of American consumer intentions to buy goods and still leave enough competition to keep prices from soaring. Some bankers aren't that confident that overheating of the economy is unlikely. But they are in a minority and command little attention.

As the economy heads into the fourth quarter—when it is confidently expected to rise to new heights—there are some troubled spots, however temporary they may be.

One is the steel industry. Output is the lowest since early in February last. Protracted labor negotiations this year gave customers lots of time to build up stocks while strike deadlines were twice postponed. Many mills doubt if they'll see much of a pickup in activity for several months.

Construction starts on new houses dropped in August from July and are lagging 7 per cent below the year ago level. The industry talks of better days ahead—but mostly translates "ahead" to mean in a year or two.

New orders for durable goods also were declining in August, and a drop in shipments was reported general throughout most durable goods groups. Here, a pickup is expected this fall. Manufacturers are confident that consumer intentions to buy and business plans to expand will revive new orders and shipments shortly.

Business optimism, as well as that of stock traders, is based on belief that the Viet Nam war will demand enough new hardware to keep factories operating at a faster pace, but not enough more to put a strain on production capacity and thus trigger a round of rising prices.

AP Says Texas Is Best College Team in Nation; UPI Claims It's Purdue

NEW YORK (AP) — Darrrell Royal, NEW YORK (UPI) — Purdue, a perennial favorite in the Big Ten Conference, made its initial appearance among the supporters of Purdue, Nebraska, the United Press-International's top-ranked team, Nebraska, and Texas, which were named by a panel of writers and sports editors Tuesday.

Orioles Rap Twins, Win Ninth in Row

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Baltimore Orioles, who have won nine straight games, overcame the Minnesota Twins, won their ninth game in a row by defeating the now American League champions 4-2 Tuesday night.

Detroit and Sox Split Twin Bill

CHICAGO (AP) — Danny Cater's leadoff homer in the 11th inning gave the Chicago White Sox a 4-3 victory in the first game of a doubleheader Tuesday night, but the Detroit Tigers came back to win the second game 4-3, with a four-run upper in the eighth inning capped by Jim Northrup's two-run triple.

Minico, Stuart Frosh Tie 6-6

Minico frosh and the Robert Stuart frosh battled to a 6-6 deadlock Tuesday evening. After stopping two Stuart bids in the first quarter, Minico went on top in the second when Randy Rupard went 46 yards on an end sweep.

461 Watch as Angels Drop Boston 4-3

BOSTON (AP) — The California Angels pushed across two runs on an error and a base-loaded walk in the eighth inning to edge the Boston Red Sox 4-3 Tuesday before a chilled turnout of only 461 fans, the smallest crowd in the major leagues this year.

Boston right-hander Dave Morehead allowed only four hits, including solo homers by Ed Kirkpatrick and Jim Fregosi, before his defense let him down in the eighth.

Dick Radatz relieved Morehead with the bases loaded and two out. He walked Kirkpatrick to force in the run that enabled the Angels to defeat the Boston starter for the fifth time this season and the 10th straight Boston loss in his career.

The best showings by the Boilers were in 1958 and 1961. They finished 11th both years.

The defeat dropped Notre Dame to ninth place in the ratings with 89 points. The Irish are the only team in the top 10 to have suffered a loss. Southern California, which has been tied once in two contests, was 10th, the same position it occupied at the end of last season.

Louisiana State was the only other team to receive any first-place votes. The Tigers were named on three ballots for the No. 1 spot and were sixth on the overall voting behind Arkansas and Michigan. Arkansas, which outlasted pass-minded Tulsa for its second victory, earned the fourth niche with 185 points and defending Big Ten champion Michigan was fifth with 150 points, two more than LSU.

Michigan State, surprisingly easy 23-0 victor over Penn State, was seventh with 116 points and Kentucky, which knocked off Missouri and Mississippi, vaulted into the eighth position.

Bengals Open Big Sky Slate at Montana

POCAHONTO — The Idaho State University Bengals waste little time starting Big Sky Conference football warfare, colliding this Saturday against the University of Montana Grizzlies at Missoula.

Coach Babe Caccia's charges had an easy time in picking up their first victory of the year, 45-7 over College of Idaho last Saturday, but they're dead certain to have an all-out battle on their hands at Missoula.

Caccia began pointing his troops for the Mt. title first thing Monday. He said the defensive unit, especially the secondary, will spend plenty of time on the field this week before facing such top Grizzly backs as All-Conference tailback Paul Connelly and sophomore Jim Searles, headthrowing quarterback.

Although Montana lost to South Dakota in their last outing, our movies showed they could easily have won the game had running and pass intercepttion not stopped their attack. Caccia said, "Concerning the Bengals' play, Caccia feels that they will play as much better against College of Idaho than in the loss to Omaha the first time out. Our kids came through with a lot of good hitting and gang tackling."

Singled out by the ISU staff for praise were backs Don Neves, George Douglas, Al Jacobson and Alan Dowd. Neves, a senior from Kamehameha, Hawaii, thus far has run the offense to near perfection, in game, Davidson has several exciting 174 yards passing in plus backs and a host of big two gamers, scoring two touchdowns, throwing for two TD's and hauling eight extra points in nine attempts. Douglas, two-year letterman halfback, has also done some work, rushing for a 8.5 average, securing three touchdowns and grabbing three passes.

The Bengals played 45 men in the 1st game with the result, they gained much confidence, and should have been ready to do a much better job," Caccia added.

The past three years have seen ISU and Montana getting into real "dramabrooks" each time and this Saturday's contest shapes up as more of the same. Davidson has several exciting 174 yards passing in plus backs and a host of big, experienced linemen.

Two years ago at Missoula the Bengals hung on for dear life to post a 14-13 victory and go on from there to the Big Sky title. Idaho State also managed to win the 1964 game, 14-7.

Grizzly stalwarts include Nampa, Idaho product Jerry Salvo, 235-pound tackle; Wayne Harrington, All-Conference center last year; veteran guard Floyd Joramo; end Greg Hanson and blazing fast Willie Jones, who excels at kick returns.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Joe Mauer Jr., son of the former league pitcher, made his league debut for the Washington Senators with a four-hit victory over Kansas City in the opening game of Tuesday's doubleheader.

The Athletics took the second game 14-8 as Larry Stahl batted three runs with a triple and a double. Vay Coleman, whose father led the Philadelphia Athletics, Baltimore and Detroit, had a two-hit shutout with two remaining, then gave up Kansas City runs on consecutive doubles by Dick Green and Al Bryan.

Young Stars Expected to Dominate Four-Day Meet; Action Starts Thursday

Ken Still, Tacoma, and Kermit Zarley, Yakima, are tabbed the most likely to succeed in the second annual $10,000 Cactus Pete's Open golf tournament opening Thursday. But because so many of the golfers are novices and an unknown quantity, the clubhouse habitués weren't making anyone a big favorite. Idle Boise Loses Points, but Clings To Top Spot in Prep Grid Rankings

By The Associated Press

A week of illness cost the Boise High Braves a pair of first place votes and 16 total points, but the defending champions remained atop the fourth weekly poll by The Associated Press for Idaho prep elevens.

Snappoint, 33-0 winner over Bonners Ferry, closed the gap on the Braves with five first place votes and 150 total points as compared with nine firsts and 160 points for Boise.

Otherwise the rest of the top ten, down through seventh place, remained exactly the same as last week. Borah and Caldwell, still in third and fourth respectively, and Meridian, 39-6 winner over Payette, held fifth.

Lewiston upended Nampa, 21-0, to stay at sixth and Capital with a 4-0 record.

Things will get a little tougher this week as the Southwest elevens start play in the always-rugged Southern Idaho Conference, with Borah facing Highland, Boise traveling to Twin Falls and Capital playing at Nampa. Caldwell has a non-league game at Walla Walla, Wash., and Meridian goes to Caldwell in an SRV-A contest.

A total of 15 voters made up this week's poll with 22 teams mentioned on the ballots. Borah received two first place votes while the others went to Shelley, 1-0, Boise (3-0) (9), Snappoint (4-0) (5), 134-wat.

By The Associated Press

Wayne Foster, Washington State tackle, made two key plays that preserved the Cougars' 14-13 upset of Minnesota and brought him the Associated Press award as Lineman of the Week Tuesday.

The Cougars were threatening to pull the game out of the fire Saturday when Foster went to work. The 235-pound senior from Port Orchard, Wash., broke through on a third down and one situation and threw the runner for a four-yard loss.

1. Caldwell (4-0)
2. Meridian (3-0) (1)
3. Lewiston (3-0)
4. Capital (3-0) (1)
5. Shelley (3-0) (1)
6. Highland, Pocatello (2-1) (3)
7. Idaho Falls (2-1) (1)
8. Kellough (1-2) (1)
9. Bishop Kelly, Bonneville (1-1) (1)

A. Edges Reds in 12th, Regains Lead in National

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Lou Johnson lined a one-out run in the 12th inning Tuesday night, giving the Los Angeles Dodgers a 1-0 triumph over Cincinnati and regaining the lead in the hectic National League pennant race.

The victory put the Dodgers back into first place all by themselves, for the first time since Sept. 6 San Francisco slid to second, losing to St. Louis 9-1, while the Reds just a hour dropped out of the race, falling five games back. All three have five games left.

Cards Knock Giants From First Place

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Larry Jaster, making his second major league start, scattered 10 hits and still stepped four hits as the St. Louis Cardinals whipped the San Francisco Giants 5-1 and knocked them from first place in the National League.

Jaster, who won a four-hitter in his second major league game, blanked the Giants for 5 1/3 innings. He pitched a complete game, allowing only one run, two hits and one error.

Cardinals scored twice off Herbhel, 11-9, in the 11th inning on a pair of two-out singles and a double steal.

Fillibuster Set on Work Repeal Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen served notice today that a filibuster will be started against the administration's right-to-work repeal bill at the first vote to call it up Monday in the senate.

The GOP leader said he and other opponents of the measure "don't want to overlook a single opportunity" to block action on the move to abolish section 14(b) of the Taft-Hartley Act.

Both sides expect a cloture effort to fail meaning the move to pass the bill would be dropped in all likelihood.

Federal Aid Bill for Arts Is Signed

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, with a distinguished group of actors, writers, scholars and educators looking on, signed today legislation providing federal aid for the arts.

He announced at the ceremony that the federal government, working with state and local governments as well as private organizations will:

- Create a national repertory theater to bring ancient and modern classics to audiences all over America.
- Support a national opera company and a national ballet company.
- Create an American film institute, bringing together leading artists of the film industry, outstanding educators and young men and women who wish to pursue art as their life's work.
- Commission new works of music by American composers and support symphony orchestras.
- Bring more distinguished artists to schools and universities by creating grants for their time in residence.

In a speech before signing the legislation, Johnson described art as the nation's most precious heritage.

"The legislation creates the National Foundation for the Arts and the Humanities" to make grants and otherwise stimulate interest in the arts.

The new law makes about $20 million of federal money available for the program in each of the next three years.

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — What's like this land where nearly 130,000 American military men now find themselves? Some of it is unbelievably lovely.

The mountains in the west, sweeping toward the border of Laos, rise to 7,000 feet and are as dark green and deeply forested as the Canadian Rockies in summer.

The coastal plains on the east, all the way from the 17th Parallel at the border of North Viet Nam, south almost to Saigon, run down to jewel-like bays as beautiful as any in the Caribbean. These abound in broad, empty beaches that would tempt the imagination of a master builder.

In between, almost at the dead center of Viet Nam, lies elephant country, wide expanses of flat plains tufted with tall grass, fast to the north of that is tiger country — jungles where, in the days before there was a war, hunters used to come to hunt on their belts the most prized of all trophies: a tiger paw.

South is the Mekong River delta. Broad, muddy rivers run down to the South China sea in countless rivulets and irrigating a land lush enough in peacetime to feed much of Southeast Asia. The delta occupies one fourth of Viet Nam's land area and is home to two-thirds of its population.

Here indeed is the inscrutable East of the tourist posters. Flooded rice paddies mirror the merciful moonlight. Young trees that villagers sit on the banks of swift-running estuaries. Thunderheads pile up the afternoon monsoon in a vast brooding sky. Water buffaloes pull ancient plows. Sampan and junk in an endless proliferation swim along a bridge after a Viet Cong raid.

South Viet Nam is roughly shaped like a sea serpent and almost the size of the State of Washington or Missouri in land mass. It is a country of painful contrasts and glaring contradictions.

Since the Viet Cong began blowing up the bridges and rushing the convoys, many of the roads don't go any place. The railroad that used to go from Saigon in the south to Hue in the north ends in a tangle of ripped-up track a few miles outside each city.

Still, no matter how unfriendly the terrain as far as Viet Cong infiltrators go, rickety tourist buses traverse what's left of the dusty roads, jammed beyond belief with passengers, loaded with all sorts of bags, boxes and trunks, including bicycles strapped to the roof.

And always, as the bus rumbles along, someone is climbing out the window onto the roof to get at a piece of luggage.

The residents of Saigon, still a gay city despite the war, love to go for a drive on Sunday.

Today the road only goes to Bien Hoa, 14 miles to the east. That doesn't stop the Sunday drivers. All of Saigon, it seems, drives back and forth along the road to Bien Hoa every Sunday, creating a massive traffic jam that includes 20 police squad cars the U.S. government gave the Vietnamese police to catch speeders in the days when there was any place to speed to.

An agronomist looking at a map of Viet Nam would have quite a different view of the country than the Sunday driver or the big-game hunter — or, for that matter, the military tactician.

He could follow the rice paddies of the delta north beyond Saigon to well-ordered rubber and coffee plantations, and going steadily north continue in crop progression to the vegetable and truck farms around DaNang, the tea plantations of the middle plateau between the mountains and the general deforested hills of the barren around Da Nang and Hue.

The view that most Americans get must necessarily be the ordinary view of the countryside. Any infantryman who manages to fight in all four corps areas would find himself in jungles. He would probably never get to see a tiger or a python, but would have a close acquaintance with leeches, mosquitoes, crickets and rats. He would probably conclude that Viet Nam it was going to be, thank you, nearly as hot as he thought, and not nearly so green as he thought it was, even in the monsoon

End of Era
SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The era of the "dime a dance" girl has come to an end in this city.

The police department ruled Tuesday that the practice of girls charging 10 cents for a dance was in violation of hall permit regulations.

Dedication Of Road Made By Drevlow
MERCIDIAN (AP) — Lt. Gov. William E. Drevlow, speaking as Idaho's acting governor, dedicated today a new stretch of interstate highway 80N in Southwestern Idaho.

He said completion of the section, between Meridian and Nampa, "is a prime example of how each new or improved section of highway develops more of Idaho's natural wealth."

"It unites communities closer together," he said in his prepared remarks, "brings the farmers nearer to the potential markets, stimulates population growth, promotes economic and industrial development and improves the standard of living for all citizens of the Gem state."

The 6.5-mile section, plus a 3.5 mile stretch now under construction in the Nampa area, will cost a total of about $5 million, Drevlow said.

"The cost is high," he said, "but the road user benefits over a few years far outweigh the expenses of this type of modern highway."

Crude Card Changes Life Of Pianist

NEW YORK (AP) — Richard Weber remembers it as a "pitifully crude" Christmas card. But he says it changed his life.

Weber—then a popular, young jazz pianist—was given the homemade card by a 15-year-old mentally retarded boy who admired his talents.

"When that boy handed me the card, something inside me changed," Weber recalled. "I suddenly realized how self-centered my life was and I vowed to do something about it."

That was seven years ago. Today, far from the small Illinois town where he was handed the card before giving it, Weber has set into motion at Columbia University Teachers College a revolution in the education of severely mentally retarded children.

He devised a six-point method of instructing the mentally retarded in the playing of musical instruments, using letters on sheet music which correspond to letters pasted on the keys of a piano.

"We're 100 per cent behind him," said Dr. Harry R. Wilson, chairman of the Music Education Department. "This fellow will completely revolutionize the whole concept of teaching such children."

Weber, 34, began work on his system while music director for the schools of Yates City, Ill. He had taken the post shortly after the Christmas card incident.

Now he is working on his doctorate in music at Columbia and conducts regular weekly music classes for mentally retarded children as part of his research for the degree.

Democrats In Senate Are Youthful

WASHINGTON (AP) — There is a youth movement in the Senate, and the Democrats are leading the way.

The staid, old chamber has lately become a young man's club—the average age of all senators is slightly over 58.

But the Democratic average is about 57 and has been going down, while the GOP average is 61 1/2 and has been going up. The Democrats hold a 68-32 majority and have controlled the Senate since 1955.

Since 1952, the Democrats have sent 13 freshmen senators to Washington with an average age of 43. The oldest Republican's Abraham A. Ribicoff, is now 55, while the youngest, Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts is 33.

Republicans, during the same period, have sent six senators, ranging from 45-year-old James B. Pearson of Kansas to 67-year-old Milward L. Simpson of Wyoming, with an average age of 68.

The result is that of 23 senators under 50, only three are Republicans. Two of the three, John G. Tower of Texas and Jack Miller of Iowa, face tough election battles next year.

Three of the six newest GOP senators are former governors of their states—Simpson, 67; Len B. Jordan of Idaho, 60; and Paul Fannin of Arizona, 58.

When Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey resigned from the Senate last December, Minnesota Gov. Earl Warren appointed Walter F. Mondale, now 37, to succeed him.

The effect of this Democratic youth movement is apparent on the Senate floor.

The immigration bill was floor managed by Edward Kennedy. It was the first time he had led the fight for a major administration bill since he entered the Senate in 1962. Earlier this year he led an effort—opposed by the administration—to put a poll-tax ban into the voting rights bill. It failed by four votes.

The pending constitutional amendment on presidential disability was written and floor-managed by Indiana's Birch Bayh, 37, a Democrat.

The chief defenders of the Supreme Court's "one man, one vote" decision against the Dirksen amendment on reapportionment were Joseph D. Tydings, 37, D-Md., and Edward Kennedy.

And the successful fight to keep control of foreign farm labor in the hands of the secretary of labor was led for the administration last week by Ross Bess, 47, D-Tenn.

The Democrats have something of a monopoly among the Senate's graybeards, too. The seven oldest Democrats are all older than the two oldest Republicans, 73-year-olds George D. Aiken of Vermont and Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts.

The oldest senator of them all is Arizona's Carl Hayden, who is nearing his 89th birthday. Hayden was a relative youngster, 49, when he started. But he's been around for a record 38 years.

Field Office Opens Friday In Hazelton

HAZELTON—Southern Idaho Producer Credit Association will open a field office in Hazelton Friday. It was announced today.

The office, intended to improve the financial service to the farmers and ranchers in the Hazelton area, will be managed by Larry Lickley, representative for this area for the past three years.

The office is located at 330 Main St., with office hours from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday.

The Southern Idaho Producer Credit Association was organized in 1931 by a group of farmers and ranchers. Since then the association has loaned a total of $361,279,897, and has grown to a membership of 2,211 members in the eight South Central Idaho counties.

Total capital fund reserved and accumulated by the farmer and rancher owners of the association exceeds $3,300,000, Lickley said.

Term loans of up to seven years are made for capital items such as machinery and equipment, trucks, cars, facilities (feedlots, barns, storages, etc.) and farm improvements such as home remodeling, leather service which the association has added to education loans for college students. Loans are available to cover necessary school expenses up to seven years duration.

A building in which the new office is located has just leased to Robert Bratke and has been remodeled to contain the office.

Lickley, the recently appointed manager, has formed an office in the Jerome area for the past several years. He was graduated from Colorado State University where he majored in animal husbandry. He is married and has a one-month-old daughter.

Meeting of Pope, Johnson to Be Milestone in Relations

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The meeting Monday of Pope Paul VI with President Johnson in New York will be a milestone in relations between the United States and the Vatican.

It will be the first encounter on American soil between a U.S. chief executive and a Roman Catholic pontiff. It will come at a time when the Vatican is taking a growing role in world affairs, bringing it into diplomatic contact — if not actual diplomatic relations — with the U.S. government.

The subject of Vatican-Washington diplomatic ties will loom in the background although it may not figure directly in the conversations.

They will meet in the New York apartment of the U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, Arthur J. Goldberg.

Popes and American presidents have met three times before, but always at the Vatican.

The first such meeting was between Woodrow Wilson and Pope Benedict XV Jan. 4, 1919. Wilson was in Europe for the Versailles peace treaty conference.

Franklin D. Eisenhower was the next U.S. chief executive to meet a Pope. He saw John XXIII in the latter's private library Dec. 6, 1959, as Eisenhower began an 11-nation tour of Asia and Europe.

During the 27-minute audience, Pope John said he rejoiced that the United States aspired toward "the lofty ideals of a loyal and effective concord between nations." The Pope invoked "celestial blessings" for Americans. President Eisenhower expressed his thanks.

John F. Kennedy met the giving promotion was discussed and John Ensign accepted chairmanship for a committee to make plans. Keith Bird, Stavros and Mrs. Roberta McKecher will assist him.

A discussion was held on methods of decorating and lighting the city's main street for the holiday season.

The secretary reported several out-of-state inquiries for information on this area. She also reported 37 paid members.

Meeting of Pope, Johnson to Be Milestone in Relations

present Pope July 2, 1963. They were together 50 minutes in the papal library, and the pontiff said he would pray for Kennedy's efforts to end racial discrimination.

On the eve of that audience the Vatican newspaper L'Osservatore Romano hinted that the Vatican would like closer ties with the United States.

The newspaper praised President Franklin D. Roosevelt's assignment of a personal representative to the Vatican in 1939 — and by implication suggested it would like to see a new envoy sent here.

Apparently, nothing ever came of the hint.

The State of Vatican City, as a sovereign country, has diplomatic relations with more than 50 nations.

Efforts to establish formal U.S.-Vatican diplomatic ties have always been controversial.

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — A State Department of Education survey indicates that more than 900 Negro pupils are attending former white schools in Georgia this fall.

Two Idaho Newspapers Get Associated Press Awards

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — Two Idaho daily newspapers were cited today by the Associated Press Managing Editors Association for outstanding news cooperation in stories and photographs during the past year.

Citations were awarded at the APME's annual convention in Buffalo to the Idaho State Journal of Pocatello and the Lewiston Morning Tribune. Both are members of The Associated Press.

The Pocatello award saluted the Journal's outstanding work on the Massacre Rock automobile collision last April which killed 10 persons. The newspaper made its news and pictures readily available to other Associated Press members even though it could not use the material itself for 24 hours.

Lewiston won its citation for coverage of the Christmas week floods in North Idaho, which included the rescue of 60 motorists trapped by slides on the Lewis-Clark Highway east of Kootenai. The Tribune operated 24 hours a day during the height of the floods to provide news of the stricken zone.

"The citation to Pocatello reads: 'A two-car collision 35 miles west of Pocatello on April 15, 1965, killed 10 persons. Although the accident happened minutes before the Journal's deadline and only a sketchy story could be published that day, the newspaper dispatched a reporter-photographer team to the scene to provide details to AP. Photos were transmitted promptly even though the Journal could not use them until the next day. The performance was in the highest tradition of AP membership cooperation.'

Queen Crowned

BLISS — Doris Graves was crowned homecoming queen at halftime of the Bliss-Nampa Christian football game Friday at Bliss.

Princesses are Claudia Halliwell and Diane Kemp. Crowning the royalty and presenting gifts were co-captains Ken Cox and Dave Cox and Steve Maxwell.

Fish Story

SHEFFIELD, Eng. (AP) — This is a real fish story. George Holland, dropped his bait cup into the Derwent River, then dropped his car keys trying to recover the can.

Worse followed. He fell into the river—trying to recover the keys. He had to force a side window to get into his car and, without keys, had to short the ignition to start the engine. But he couldn't turn the wheel since the anti-theft device on it was locked.

"The whole affair," George said, "was a triumph for the fish."

Red China Finds Large Meteorite

TOKYO (AP) — Communist China says it has discovered a 30-ton meteorite in the Gobi Desert containing six "cosmic minerals."

The report, carried by the New China News Agency said the meteorite was the third largest in the world. The agency said, chemical analyses of samples from the meteorite "show that its chemical composition is: 88.67 per cent of iron, 9.27 per cent of nickel, and cobalt, phosphorus, silicon, sulphur, copper and other elements."

OFFICER GRADUATES

BURLEY — Second Lt. Larry J. Chesley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Verl R. Chesley, Route 2, Burley, has been graduated from the U.S. Air Force F-4C Phantom II pilot course at Davis-Monthan Air Force Base, Ariz. He was selected as an outstanding student in his class. Chamber at Hailey Lists Chairmen

HAILEY—Leo Stavros, president of the Hailey Chamber of Commerce, announced permanent chairmen for the term of effect at a meeting Monday noon at the Star Cafe.

Jack Ensign is chairman of the auditing committee; Oliver Adams, membership; Jack Davison, airport; James Enkin, agriculture; V. K. Jeppesen, legislative; Dr. Arthur Richards, executive; Keith Bird, planning and zoning; R. C. Stephens, merchants; and Ira Hoffman, executives.

Chamber at Hailey Lists Chairmen

An invitation was read from the Ketchikan-Sun Valley Chamber of Commerce to attend an Intercity Ladies Night Oct. 13 at Warm Springs Ranch Inn.

Dr. Richards reported on progress being made at the Rotarian's all resort west-of-Hailey, saying the work of painting is almost complete and everything will be ready for opening. He said the biggest problem now confronting these in charge is obtaining instructors for the season.

He reported that someone has driven a car or other vehicle over the fence around the tennis court and done considerable damage.

Orin Shirts reports organizations he has contacted to assist in financing an information sign for the city all have donated to the project. The Intermountain Gas Co. has donated a steel post on which to put it.

IN CASE YOU DIDN'T KNOW,
This is our Anniversary

Lynwood Shopping Center Is Fast Growing Section of City

A fast growing section of Twin Falls in the past eight years is the Lynwood Shopping Center.

The center started expanding eight years ago and has grown to include 43 stores and businesses, covering all phases of the economy in the area.

The 13-acre tract was purchased 10 years ago and a year later the first business opened on the tract. This first business was the Standard Service Station.

The next building to be constructed on the 13-acre plot was Safeway. The store was opened to the public in November of 1957. The second store was Penny-Wise Drug. Since then the center has grown rapidly with finance, firms, doctors, contractors and all types of retail businesses.

The Lynwood Shopping Center has grown so rapidly in the past eight years that a bank was needed and now a sub post office has opened in the center. The sub post office is located in Greenawald's Inc. store.

Besides retail businesses there are Mortgage-Insurance Corp.; Travelers Insurance Co.; Federal Crop Insurance and Sierra Life Insurance Company.

There are several doctors in the Lynwood Shopping Center. They include Dr. Eddie R. Allison, Dr. Arthur W. Frantz, Dr. K. W. JORGENSEN and Dr. R. G. Roberts, all dentists.

Physicians in Lynwood Shopping Center include Dr. J. L. Ballard, foot specialist; and Dr. Glenn Moss, general physician.

Neilsen and Miller Construction Company and Earl R. Neilsen, a contractor, also are located in Lynwood Shopping Center.

Other businesses in Lynwood Shopping Center are Cavanaugh Ranch Co.; Seaboard Finance Co., and Murphy, Schwartz and Cunningham, attorneys, and Ilex - Idaho Typewriter Exchange.

There are eight buildings besides the service station in Lynwood Shopping Center.

All businesses and firms in Lynwood Shopping Center urge everyone in Magic Valley and

Twin Falls to come to Lynwood and help celebrate their anniversary with them.

Bud's Duds Also Has Ladies' Sportswear Besides Men's and Young Men's Wear

Aug. 8, 1961, Bud's Duds opened its doors in Lynwood Shopping Center with 2,500 feet of space devoted to men's and boys' clothing and sportswear. A small corner store was redone for ladies' sportswear. This move was to be a traffic builder for the store as about 75 per cent of the shoppers these days are women.

When the Blue Lakes Branch of the Twin Falls Bank and Trust Co. decided to move one block east in 1961, Bud's Duds decided to put the two stores together and enlarge the women's sportswear department.

At the same time the entire back part of the store was remodeled and refinished in mahogany paneling. To keep up to the largest trends in men's store, a barber shop was added in the rear part of the store. A suit room also was added to the store and was called the "Alumni Suit Room." The room, located in the rear part of the store, is finished in mahogany paneled walls and a large wagon wheel light fixture is in the center of the room. The newest in Ivy styles are carried in this room.

This suit room also features pictures of outstanding athletes of this area.

Manager of the store is C. R. (Bud) Hansen, and Mrs. Mildred Jordan is manager of the women's sportswear section.

Gallie's Gifts-Books One of Finest in Southern Idaho

"We are very grateful to the people of Magic Valley for their support in making this business grow from a small book store to one of the largest and finest gift-book centers in southern Idaho," says Mr. and Mrs. David C. Turner, owners of Gallie's Gifts-Books.

The store is a type where you can fool-free to browse and see the many diverse and unusual gift items display. From this small collection of gift cards and glassware in the store has developed an extensive glassware department including the famous Lalique-crystal and to the way, for holidays and special occasions throughout the year a complete candle section is added. The gift card section has grown until it now includes gift paper, ribbon, notes, writing paper. Then to add a basic stock for the center the Pasco China service was selected. To add to an already complete selection of children's books, reference, fiction and fiction books, it became necessary to furnish a complete set of art supplies. Although many long hours have been spent in markets throughout the country in search of exclusive and unusual items, particular emphasis has been made in keeping prices to fit all needs.

Sierra Life Growing

Lights often burn late at 544 Blue Lakes Blvd. North, home office of Sierra Life Insurance Company. Growth continues at an unprecedented rate and, as the cartoon shows, during the first 8 months of 1965, submitted applications for new policies passing the entire calendar year's total for 1964.

Founded in 1933 (as Syringa Life) by Fred M. Frazier, the firm has come a long way since the days when its "home office" was a room in the Rogers-on-Hotel. Expansion has been accelerated by 13 mergers with other life insurance companies, with Sierra being the surviving company in each instance. Frazier has achieved national recognition as an authority on mergers, and has made several talks before insurance executives and business groups.

However, the mergers increased business in force and assets both rapidly and economically, and from sales activity has been stepped up impressively. During the first half of the year Sierra's agency force submitted more than $100,000 in monthly premiums several times. Presently the agency force numbers 120 men. The company is licensed to operate in 14 Western states.

1964 was an outstanding year for Sierra. Life insurance in force increased 45 per cent, premium income went up 70 per cent, assets increased 70 per cent, investment income rose 73 per cent, new life sales went up 35 per cent. Operations showed a net gain for the year, an accomplishment several years ahead of the schedule anticipated by most young life companies.

"Harple's Business Roundup," a widely read newsletter, recently noted that "Sierra's assets make it the largest life company for its age in the Pacific Northwest." The company now ranks within the upper third of all United States' 1600 life companies.

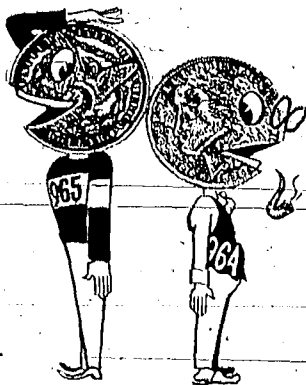

At the present time Sierra's assets are $7,000,000 and life insurance in force is $46,000,000.

Fifty-nine people are employed in Sierra's home office, many of whom became "movie stars" for the first time last year when the company produced its own 28 minute full color movie, "The Sierra Life Story." Following production of the film, meetings for the company's 5600 stockholders were held in 22 cities. The film is available on request for group showings.

Barton's Jewelry Grows Fast in Lynwood

Another liveable store in The Lynwood is Barton's Jewelry, located between Krenpel's and the Arcade Circle on the east end of the shopping center. Dick Barton, owner and operator of the business, moved the store from downtown just three years ago. Prior to that Barton's spent 7 years in the location now occupied by G.A.C. Finucco and three years on Shoshone Street. The move has proved worthwhile for Barton's as many of the lines have been expanded since moving to Lynwood.

The diamond department is Dick's pride and joy. In order to give his customer the very best quality for the price, he selects each stone himself and mounts it in a ring of the very latest style.

Assisted by Glenn Barth, all kinds of special design and manufacturing work is done by Barton's Jewelry. They can handle anything from ring sizing to the design and manufacture of the most elegant diamond dinner ring.

Another department that will amaze you is the birthstone rings. Through the years Barton's have operated this department on a low-profit, large-volume basis. They have over 2,000 rings from which to choose, the largest selection in Maple Valley, many selling for as low as $5.95.

In the watch department, the Bulova line predominates, starting with the Caravelli's which Bulova retails from $10.95 to $29.95, to the quality Bulova watches which run from $24.95 to $5,000.00. The latest in electronic watches is the Bulova Accutron, the time-piece used by X-15 pilots and astronauts.

Another item which is a specialty of Barton's is the new cordless electric wall clock which will run up to 2 years on a flashlight battery.

Besides expanding the costume jewelry line, managed by Mrs. Ruth Embree, in the near future Barton's Jewelry expects to open a silver and glassware department.

Hudson's Shoe Store as it looks today in 1965.

M. H. King Co. Moves To Lynwood in 1961

A small variety store opened in 1935 in Twin Falls in a 25-foot room adjacent to Alexander's on Main Avenue South. This small store was M. H. King Co.

In 1940 a lot was purchased on Main Avenue East and a building was built during the summer of that year. M. H. King Co. store remained at that location until January of 1961 when the store moved to the Lynwood Shopping Center.

The greatly expanded space available, free parking and easy, informal atmosphere permitted the company to do a better job of serving the public. Today the M. H. King Co. store in Lynwood is one of 23 such stores in Idaho, Utah, Montana and Oregon. The first store built in Magic Valley was in 1915 at Burley.

The lines of merchandise carried by the store have been expanded far beyond the original 5 and 10 cent concept, and today wide assortments of soft goods, housewares, toys and hardware have been added. The buying organization maintains close contact with all the markets in the United States and buyers travel to New York, Chicago and Los Angeles to attend various merchandise showings.

President of the M. H. King Co. is H. E. King of Burley. Robert Kulin, manager of the store in Twin Falls since 1961, has been with the company for more than 15 years. Prior to being manager in Twin Falls, Kulin was manager of stores at Preston and Blackfoot.

Mr. Kulin is a native of Jerome and has been a resident of Magic Valley for most of his life.

The company now employs 15 people at the Twin Falls store. Assistant manager is Gail Burns, who has been with the firm for 2 1/2 years. Longtime employes of the store in Twin Falls are Norma Botcher, who has been with the store since 1947; Hulda Wallis has been with the store since 1912; Priscilla Scott since 1952, and Mary Biggers since 1933.

A number of present company executives gained early and valuable experience in the management of the Twin Falls store. Russell H. Jensen, now vice president and merchandise manager, was manager of the store in Twin Falls from 1936 to 1946. Wilbur F. Biermann, hard lines buyer for the company, was manager from 1946 to 1953 in Twin Falls. Coleman B. Ensign, the first manager of the store from 1935 to 1936, is presently manager of the company's large store in Caldwell. Emory H. Kassel, who was manager of the East Main store from 1953 to September of 1959, is now manager of the company's modern unit in Blackfoot.

The M. H. King Co. and employes are proud to be a part of the Lynwood Shopping Center and to serve the public with modern facilities.

Hudson's Has Lynwood Store

In 1960 a Twin Falls shoe store decided to expand. So they opened up a branch store in the Lynwood Shopping Center. The store was known as Hudson's Suburban Shoes. The store's name was changed to Hudson's in the fall of 1964. In January and February of 1964, the shoe store in Lynwood Shopping Center expanded and enlarged the store to handle the large volume of business which grew very rapidly. The store also remodeled and enlarged the stock room area for more storage space. The interior of the store also was redone that year.

Earl Bickford has been manager of the shoe store since it opened in 1960. Four years ago Katherine Loving became an employe at the store and has been there since.

Earl has had 35 years of experience in the shoe business and Katherine has had 23 years of experience, so whatever the shoe problem anyone might have, Earl or Katherine can answer them or help you.

A complete line of shoes including 14 famous names as Smartaire, Naturallite, Miss America, Jantzen's, Coors Girl, Shilna and Town and Country Shoes are available for the ladies. Famous brand names for the men include Roblee, Red Wing Boots and Pedwin for the young man.

For children, Hudson's has Duster Brown and Robin Hood shoes. For the whole family, there is Hush Puppies shoes and Keds and Grips tennis shoes for everyone. Also for the men, boys and children Hudson's has Acme Boots.

Hudson's carries a large selection of hosiery for women. The store also has ladies' handbags, purses and house slippers.

For friends and customers in the Shoshone area, Earl and Katherine invite all to come in and meet Bryan Burbank of Shoshone, who was recently employed at the store. Bryan will be glad to meet all persons from Shoshone.

Darrell has since moved the business to three other locations and is now located next to Vans Department Store on Blue Lakes North with two floors.

One of the most important features at the Music Box is the service department. "We service everything we sell." The service department is located in the lower level of the store along with tape recorders, components, band instruments, guitars, radios, amplifiers, etc. Also there are three studios located in the lower level.

The Music Box also has the finest selection in records and albums in the valley.

Darrell urges everyone in the valley to come in and see the complete selection of musical items.

Incidentally, Darrell has the horse back, the one he started the business with.

Sherwood Sports Center Has Athletic Equipment

Mode O'Day Expands

Mode O'Day, a nationally known ladies' wear store, became a part of Lynwood Shopping Center in August of 1960.

The store had a humble beginning with just dresses, lingerie and hosiery in a small area. Three years later the store was enlarged and several more lines of merchandise were added. Namely coats, sportswear, accessories and uniforms.

After four years of operation the original owner, Catherine Seibert, sold the business to Mary Ellen Kuhl on Jan. 1, 1965.

Since that time there have been some changes in the interior of Mode O'Day store and a line of Children's Sportswear and sweaters have been added.

During the summer swimmer's apparel appeared on the Mode O'Day scene. This, together with the fact that Mode O'Day has increased their dress line to better dresses in sizes from Junior Petite, Juniors to large-half sizes makes this store something to be proud of.

The growth and improvement of this store is due to the acceptance of residents in the valley and our thanks to all.
