Lloyd J. Walker, Twin Falls attorney, announced his resignation Wednesday as chairman of Idaho's Democratic Party and, while noting he has not reached a decision regarding his future political plans, said his past political activities have "convinced me that this state faces a crucial time in the next five or ten years."

Four Seeking Positions in City Election

Four petitions have been filed in Twin Falls City Hall seeking for positions on the council during the Oct. 12 city election, states Mrs. Constance Fair, city clerk. Deadline for petitions was Wednesday.

Walker declared, "We can't shake our slumber and commence to grow and prosper with the rest of the West or we can step backwards and become poor cousins of Los Angeles, Phoenix and Spokane."

Walker said "The past month has seen some speculation develop among newsmen concerning my role in the future of Idaho politics. Because of speculation as to my future, the time has come for me to clarify my position."

In announcing his resignation, Walker noted "It is with real reluctance that I take this step for I have thoroughly enjoyed the three years I have been chairman of the party that has constantly worked to better the conditions of all the citizens of Idaho."

"These three years," he said, "together with the other years I have actively spent in politics, have given me a first hand knowledge of Idaho and its government, its politics and its needs. This intimacy has also convinced me that this state faces a crucial time in the next five or ten years."

Walker declared, "We can't shake our slumber and commence to grow and prosper with the rest of the West or we can step backwards and become poor cousins of Los Angeles, Phoenix and Spokane."

Homemakers Council Ends Meet, Pocatello Picked as 1966 Site

Pocatello was selected as site for the 1966 convention as the Idaho Extension Homemakers Council wound up its 16th annual meeting here Thursday noon at the First Methodist Church.

New officers are Mrs. J. E. Sheppard, Eagle, president; Mrs. Ralph Gelfe, Boise, secretary; Mrs. H. V. Deaver, Heyburn, Southcentral District director; Mrs. John Hudson, Sandpoint, Northern District director; and Mrs. Raymond Gump, Rigby, Northeastern District director.

Sheppard, speaking Wednesday night on "Women, the Foundation of Progress," said "Every successful man, politician in particular, has a woman behind him."

He noted that five women have received the Pulitzer Prize, two Nobel prizes and of the 435 seats in Congress, 11 are held by women. He added that women serve as ambassadors and a big percentage of the representatives in the United Nations are women.

"Not nearly enough women," Sheppard said, "are interested enough in state and national government to do anything constructive about undesirable situations. You wouldn't raise a child, you wouldn't let men continue to hash things up."

"Freedom must be tended and cherished like a baby," he said, adding "Women are too concerned with material things and are content in a pathy. Freedom is not a living thing, but must be loved or it dies. The greatest thing in our life is freedom—it once lost, it is never regained."

She concluded by urging women to "take an interest in order not to lose our freedom."

House OK's Bill to End Limiting Immigration on Basis of Nationality

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House gave approval today to a bill that would end the 41-year-old policy of limiting immigration into the United States on the basis of nationality.

Lowell Groves, a resident of Cassia County, donated his rare true blood some time ago to replace what was needed for a friend, and he has faithfully returned ever since.

Each time the blood unit has visited Minidoka County, Groves is sent a card with an invitation, and he always responds, according to Mrs. Ruth Stupp, bloodmobile chairman.

The units of 125-pints were missed by 30 pints, with 99 donors turning out for the drive. For persons were rejected.

Rusk, Gromyko Talk, Relations Unthawed

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko talked about disarmament and the India-Pakistan conflict Wednesday night without producing any noticeable thaw in U.S.-Soviet relations.

They did agree to meet again Friday night, at the headquarters of the Soviet-U.N. Mission. This was in line with advance predictions. In their initial meeting, a three-hour dinner at Rusk's hotel suite, the two engaged in what U.S. sources described as a general "feeling out" of their diplomatic positions.

"Relaxed," "friendly," and "businesslike" were terms applied to the first such U.S.-Soviet discussions since Rusk and Gromyko attended the last U.N. General Assembly session in December, 1964.

A chilling note arrived from Moscow just as the talks began. Communist party chief Leonid I. Brezhnev declared that "the armed aggression of American imperialism in Viet Nam imposed 'a clearly evident tendency toward freezing' of Soviet-American relations."

U.S. officials downgraded this as Kremlin propaganda for Communist consumption. But it fit a pattern of Soviet gruffness toward American propaganda.

Gromyko declined to comment to newsmen Wednesday night about Brezhnev's speech. Nor would he say there had been "progress" in U.S.-Soviet relations from his talk with Rusk.

Enemies Are Defied by Red China

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Albania, Red China's ally in the United Nations, was expected to blast the United States and the Soviet Union before today's General Assembly session and to take a few side-swipes at India.

Diplomats predicted that Albania's peppery foreign minister, Behar Shytilla, would echo the Peking line that the United States is waging aggressive war against the Vietnamese people and that Russia has become an accomplice of the West.

There was also speculation that Shytilla would denounce India as the aggressor in the Pakistan conflict and accuse New Delhi of poaching on Red Chinese soil.

MORE SMOKING—The Agriculture Department estimated today American cigarette consumption is expected to average about 210 packages per smoker.

Viet Nam Freezing U.S. Relations, Soviet Chief Says

MOSCOW (AP)—The war in Viet Nam is freezing Soviet-American relations and the Soviet Union will continue to supply military aid to North Viet Nam, Soviet Communist party chief Leonid I. Brezhnev says. Reviewing Soviet foreign policy before the party central committee Wednesday, the busy-browed first secretary also held out an olive branch to Red China. Brezhnev said the war in Viet Nam "is a very complicated situation."

"Normalization of our relations is incompatible with the armed aggression of American imperialism against a fraternal Socialist country—Viet Nam," he said.

"The nature of the further development of our relations with the United States will depend on whether or not the leaders of this country will show enough common sense to abandon the policy of aggressive attacks."

U.S. officials in Washington found nothing surprising in Brezhnev's speech. For months, U.S. leaders have recognized that there is no prospect for substantial improvement in U.S.-Soviet relations while the two governments are so sharply divided over the Viet Nam war.

Brezhnev said that the Soviet Union is "the strongest and best developed Socialist power" and has already given Communist North Viet Nam considerable military aid.

Brezhnev said that British support of American policy in Viet Nam is "substantially hampered" because of Moscow's relations with London.

He again attacked West German "militarism" and warned that the Warsaw Pact nations "will take steps to strengthen their defenses. He said there are 'no possibilities for fruitful development of relations with West Germany' even though trade continues."

Vietnamese Plan 6 More Executions

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—The South Vietnamese government is reported planning six more executions Friday despite Viet Cong threats of reprisals against American prisoners.

Informants said in Communist North Viet Nam that the expected execution of criminal activities in no way related to the Viet Cong.

Informants said in Communist North Viet Nam that the expected execution of criminal activities in no way related to the Viet Cong.

The Viet Cong announced Monday they had executed another two American servicemen in reprisal for the shooting of three Viet Cong sympathizers at a Saigon two weeks ago. The Americans were Capt. Humbert R. Versace of Baltimore, Md., and Sgt. Kenneth M. Ronback, whose wife lives at Fayetteville, N.C.

Brezhnev again insisted that since last October, when Nikita Khrushchev was deposed, Moscow had attempted to restore unity with Red China but "unfortunately we were not supported by the leaders of the Communist party of China."

Home Rule Plan Killed For Year

WASHINGTON (AP)—Home rule for the District of Columbia, in the form President Johnson pushed with all the powers of his office, is dead for this year.

A rebellious House, after assailing all the major bills the President asked for this year, gave his home-rule plan the ax Wednesday.

Instead, it approved a substitute plan calling for a referendum by District residents and the setting up of a charter commission to study the type of self-government the city should have.

Dr. J. G. Grigg, 19, son of Golden Grigg, official in the Ore-Ida Food, Inc., was killed instantly when his 1965 Corvette hit an empty school bus at the intersection of Highway 27 and the Alfresco Road in Minidoka County.

Committee to Aid Study of Court System

BOISE (AP)—The Idaho Legislative Council approved today appointment of a 17-member advisory committee to aid in a study of the state's lower court system.

The committee will include Idaho Chief Justice Henry McQuade and representatives of various law enforcement groups.

One of the assignments given the council by the 1964 Legislature was a study of the court system to determine what changes should be made, particularly below the district court level.

The council took no action on letters Schlichter said had been received from a number of contractors, who asked that the effective date of the 1965 private contractors' licensing law be delayed.

New Plan Is Considered in Paper Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—A new bargaining approach may be considered today in an effort to settle the two-week-old newspaper dispute resulting from the AFL-CIO New York Newspaper Guild New York Times strike.

Both sides reacted favorably to the proposal and it was expected to come up at today's session.

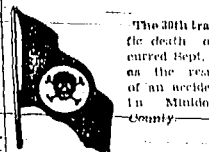

The 2,200 guildsmen at the Times struck the newspaper Sept. 16. The city's other major daily newspapers—except the New York Post, which withdrew from the Publishers Association of New York after a protracted strike two years ago—suspended publication in support of the Times.

The New York Herald Tribune resigned from the association last weekend and resumed publication Monday.

CSI Board Consults Pair on Campus Development Plans

College of Southern Idaho board of trustee members and college president, Dr. James L. Taylor, met Wednesday with two Seattle men who have had a large part in planning and development of many colleges and other institutions throughout the United States.

Both men pointed out there are many factors involved in selecting a suitable site for a campus, including sewer and water facilities. They explained three phases are connected with college campus planning—a site selection study, general overview and final plan.

Sociable Men Needed for Garbage Collecting

NEW YORK (AP) — If you are sociable, honest, diplomatic and can lift 100 pounds there may be a job waiting for you as a garbage collector.

Some cities are finding themselves with too much garbage and too few people to collect it. And what to do with it after they've collected it has a low priority for city council, if you'll pardon the comparison, down in the dumps.

Little Rock, Ark., for instance, is looking for bouncers — the men who haul garbage cans from back yards and bounce their contents into the trucks.

The work force was short 29 a week ago and the city hired 18 men. But six quit Saturday and Graydon, city sanitary engineer, said he had 30 "good collectors" with the job and it looks like he's going to have up to 50 students before long.

"The biggest break we've had is using students," said Stafford.

BRIGHTMAN DESIGNS WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. C. Brightman has resigned as deputy chairman for the Democratic National Committee.

He said there must be in good physical condition and be able to carry up to 100 pounds. They must also be diplomatic in handling complaining patrons and

Ashton received his B.S. degree in forestry from the University of Missouri in 1959. On June 18, 1959, he began his career as forester on the Sawtooth National Forest, where he worked at various locations. Negroes Try Again to Board Buses

CRAWFORDVILLE, Ga. (AP) — Negroes tried again today to board a bus carrying white pupils to school but they were turned away by state police. There was no trouble.

For the third day, about 20 Negro pupils showed up at the place where white children get on their buses for the ride to schools at nearby Warrenton and Greensboro.

About 35 white spectators, mostly men, gathered. There were about 20 state police. Capt. Theron Aldridge halted the Negroes and told them they could not get on the buses. The group turned and walked away.

Troopers took up positions later at the Warrenton school where a Negro association, inter-racial glasses, Wednesday.

Wesley Williams, one of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. top lieutenants, has promised an about movement to integrate Tallapoosa County schools.

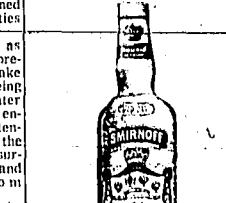

Williams told about 200 cheering Negroes at the Friendship Baptist Church on Wednesday night that Gov. Carl E. Sanders would have to fill every jail in Georgia to stop the movement.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG
By ANDREW TULLY
WASHINGTON — A beagle of professional bleeding hearts in Pennsylvania has decided to continue its preposterous campaign to break a Philadelphia philanthropist's will and thereby revoke the right of every American child to dispose of his property as his conscience dictates.
The will is that of Stephen Girard, an 18th Century financier, who left the bulk of his fortune to found Girard College, restricted to "poor white male orphans." In the hysteria of the civil rights era, Negro organizations have been picketing the college demanding that it be integrated, and their attempt at government by intimidation has been joined by Gov. William Scranton and the usual jangled of other self-seeking politicians who fear the loss of the Negro vote.
Now the college trustees properly have rejected two new plans to integrate the school and Scranton and Co. have vowed to bring them into court to break the will.

EX POST MORTEM REASONING—This entire campaign is preposterous because it is unconstitutional and has been so described by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court whose opinion the U.S. Supreme Court declined to review. It is the phony premise of the Scranton-Girard various civil rights laws were enacted after Girard's demise it naturally follows that Girard would have wanted his will to conform with the philosophy of those laws.
Such thinking should make even a Martin Luther King gasp. Girard knew what he was doing and did it deliberately when he used the words "poor white male orphan" in his will. To set aside this provision would, in the words of both the Philadelphia Orphan's Court and the State Supreme Court "not only subvert the purpose of his will, but would also tend to destroy the entire structure of the law of wills."
ENTITLED TO PREJUDICES—That is the nub of the issue in plain and simple Main Street language. One of the fundamental legal principles of the constitutional right of private property is an individual's right to dispose of his own property as he sees fit. A citizen may leave his fortune in cash or dogs or Degas and his illegitimate children, but he is entitled to his idiosyncrasies and, as the State Supreme Court put it, "even to his prejudices."
Moreover, the argument of the glandular pleaders that Girard College is a public institution because it is tax exempt is reckless flummery. The fact is that the Stephen Girard Estate has paid $2 million in taxes to the City of Philadelphia over the past five years. It is not a private school, in a very real sense, it still belongs to Stephen Girard. It has saved the city millions in educational and relief payments.

BY EXTENSION — It is all very well, and perhaps, Christian, to seek to bring integration to the nation's schools, but here the bleeders seek to bring the Constitution, were the will to be probated today under the concepts of the New Freedom, a citizen would be prohibited from leaving his money to a Catholic Church or a Lutheran Church or a Jewish synagogue or even a school restricted to boys or girls.
The Negro is being sold a smelly bill of goods by the NAACP rickers in Philadelphia. All Negroes are not poor, and this is a hue and cry which ultimately would deny a rich Negro the right to leave his money to a Negro school. Girard's trustees are defending the non-white's rights, too.

Views of Others
LAW HAS ITS SHORTCOMINGS — One aim of Idaho's new contractor licensing law is to protect the public from fly-by-night operators. It is a good one, but the law, which was passed by the last Legislature by an association of contractors in Southwest Idaho, evidently has another purpose which is less laudable.
As described by Jess Hatcher of Boise, a member of the newly created state Contractor Licensing Board and himself a builder, that purpose is to keep moonlighters from muscling in on the business. Hatcher said that many contractors here Thursday night that "all of us have to compete with firemen and school teachers who do painting and carpenter work in addition to their regular jobs." The new act, with its licensing and bonding requirements, would make it less easy for those people to pick up such part-time work, he said, and therefore should be defended by the small contractors as well as the big ones.
The small contractors evidently have not been convinced. The law, which is to become effective Wednesday, was vigorously denounced at a meeting of small contractors the following night at Monday night and there was some merit in their arguments.
The legislation is so vague that almost anybody who picks up a paintbrush or a saw for pay could fall within its scope. It defines a contractor or anybody who constructs, alters, repairs, adds to, moves or demolishes any real property, any business who rents or leases equipment with an operator to others. The owner of a Lewiston garden store who sells and installs aluminum window frames discovered Thursday night that he now must be licensed and bonded as a contractor.
The law also could lay a heavy financial burden on some people. To meet the $1,000 bond requirement, one Lewiston contractor said, he made application to two bonding firms, unsuccessfully, and finally bonded himself. "I was told I had to have $50,000 in real property and $10,000 in current assets." Such requirements might mean little to a large contracting firm but they could be a heavy burden on a small contractor.
The public should be protected from financially irresponsible and transient sharpies passing themselves off as contractors. But it should be possible to find some way to provide that protection without unduly punishing the honest, home-town builder who uses a limited license. After all, our law certainly should make it impossible for a fireman or a school teacher — or anybody else — to earn some extra money by painting a neighbor's fence — Lewiston Tribune.

The Doctor Says
By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M. D.
Q — Is it true that one diabetic pill is equal to about 15 units of insulin? Is there any insulin in diabetic pills?
A — Several different diabetic pills are available. Although they might be said to be roughly equivalent to 10 or 20 units of insulin, it is not always possible to replace all the required insulin with the pills. Persons of insulin who rarely take more than 50 per cent of their pills. The pills themselves contain no insulin as insulin cannot be taken by mouth effectively.
Q — My doctor says that my urine shows 3-plus sugar, but that I do not have diabetes. What would cause this and what can be done for it?
A — Eating an excessive amount of sugar may cause sugar to appear temporarily in the urine. An abnormal functioning of the kidneys may also allow the glucose in the blood to be excreted in the urine. This may be a transient finding or it may be permanent. No treatment is necessary, but you should be checked at least once a year for diabetes because persons with this condition often

"We Should Save Some for Next Year?"
WASHINGTON (AP) — This year has been like one long hibernation summer for President Johnson.
He was the medicine man and danced as he wanted. But now some Senate warriors want their scalping knives out.
Their would-be victim is a bill to make the union shop possible in all 50 states by repealing section 14B of the 1947 Taft-Hartley Act. Under 14B any state can outlaw the union shop. As of now, 19 states do.
The House passed this bill last July, although by a fairly narrow squeak, 221 to 203, with most of the opposition from Republicans, even though Johnson gave it his blessing and asked for it.
Then it moved over to the Senate and at once banged into trouble.
A band of about two dozen senators of both parties set out to polish it off, led by Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, the Republican Senate chief who has otherwise been very helpful to Johnson all year.
At this moment Congress, which made a tremendous record in 1963, has been rolling toward a finish which could come around mid-October if there is no uproar over something.
There will be an uproar if the Democratic leadership tries to put through the union shop measure. Dirksen, among others, has threatened a filibuster. If that happens, Congress could be here for the now.
The Democrats' 1964 campaign platform called for repeal of 14B. So did Johnson in his State-of-the-Union message last January and again in a special message in May.
He said wiping out this section in the law would, he hoped, reduce the cost of "our national labor policy." Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower is against repeal.
Organized labor, of course, wholeheartedly backs repeal. But if there is a floor fight over the bill labor may have something else to worry about here are a few compensations for being overweight:
You never have to give the shop off your back to help a buddy. It is too big to fit your buddy.
It isn't necessary to push your way through revolving doors. You merely lean against them and they spin like crazy.

Interpreting The News
By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP) — This year has been like one long hibernation summer for President Johnson.
He was the medicine man and danced as he wanted. But now some Senate warriors want their scalping knives out.
Their would-be victim is a bill to make the union shop possible in all 50 states by repealing section 14B of the 1947 Taft-Hartley Act. Under 14B any state can outlaw the union shop. As of now, 19 states do.
The House passed this bill last July, although by a fairly narrow squeak, 221 to 203, with most of the opposition from Republicans, even though Johnson gave it his blessing and asked for it.
Then it moved over to the Senate and at once banged into trouble.
A band of about two dozen senators of both parties set out to polish it off, led by Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, the Republican Senate chief who has otherwise been very helpful to Johnson all year.
At this moment Congress, which made a tremendous record in 1963, has been rolling toward a finish which could come around mid-October if there is no uproar over something.
There will be an uproar if the Democratic leadership tries to put through the union shop measure. Dirksen, among others, has threatened a filibuster. If that happens, Congress could be here for the now.
The Democrats' 1964 campaign platform called for repeal of 14B. So did Johnson in his State-of-the-Union message last January and again in a special message in May.
He said wiping out this section in the law would, he hoped, reduce the cost of "our national labor policy." Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower is against repeal.
Organized labor, of course, wholeheartedly backs repeal. But if there is a floor fight over the bill labor may have something else to worry about here are a few compensations for being overweight:

Poor Man's Plato
By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Everybody is knocking fat today.
You are advised to keep it off your neck and cut it off the meat you eat.
Fat is blamed for everything from early acne to early death. It seems to be public enemy No. 1.
Politicians probably would even blame the worldwide Communist conspiracy on fat except for one inescapable fact: Most Communists aren't fat, unless it is between the ears where it doesn't show. They generally tend to the lean and hungry look.
But in a diet-mad world, the critics of fat overlook one truth: It may have its perils, but it has its pluses, too. Yes, blubber hath its charms for the man or woman who owns it.
To paraphrase Abraham Lincoln, the Lord must have loved fat people—he made no more of them.
Here are a few compensations for being overweight:

CONTRACT PUT IN COURT SUIT
The United States team carried a seven International Match points lead after the first 14 boards of the match against Italy.
They increased their lead in the second 14 boards when the Italian bidding failed a trick. America's South played at a he did this by first leading East's 10. West's next best bid was won by East's ace of West's jack was won by East's dummy's queen. Finally, the American player led the ace of hearts, successfully against East's eight spot.

The Italians actually bid the game when they got going but were unable to stop. In all probability they had bid the game in spades they had or had bid it, but something would have happened in four hearts.
Pino Forquet made a grand try for his contract but he was forced to use a couple of trumps to ruff diamonds and wound up losing three trumps and a spade.
The net gain of 240 gave the United States its other six IMPs.

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD FACKRELL (Sherrard's photo)

Jill Holland, Fackrell Wed In LDS Temple

BURLEY — Jill Holland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Holland, Burley, and Richard Fackrell, son of Mrs. David Fackrell, Mountain Home, were married Aug. 11 at the Idaho Falls LDS Temple. The ceremony was performed by President Roy Wood. The bride wore a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace styled with a scalloped sabrina neckline, scalloped long sleeves and fitted bodice. The bouffant skirt was enhanced with iridescent sequins and pearls. Her veil of illusion fell from a tiara of seed pearls and sequins and was borrowed from Mrs. Ron Rene, Pocatello, cousin of the bride. She carried an array of pink roses and white pumpkins with white satin streamers.

Mrs. Jack Holland Jr. was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Larry Shoop, Logan, Utah, and Judy Bunn, Jodi Ann Holland, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Michael Cuhnon was best man. Jeffrey Ross Holland, nephew of the bride, was groomsmen. Ushers were Jack Holland Jr. and Rusty Holland, brothers of the bride, and Earl Fackrell—nephew—Fackrell, both Mountain Home, brothers of the bridegroom.

The newlyweds greeted guests Aug. 12 at a reception in the Fifth Ward LDS Cultural Hall before an arch flanked by beauty baskets of pink and white gladioli adorned with white candles holding white tapers. The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered white wedding cake decorated with orchid flowers and topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Bouquets of lavender and white chrysanthemums, clusters of grapes and white tapers completed the table decorations. The cake was cut and served by Mrs. Garth Payne and Mrs. Newel Nelson. Mrs. Ida B. Horne and Mrs. Clive Holland presided.

Guests were seated at quartet tables centered with miniature gold cars with ruffled lavender net tops holding arrangements of lavender and white chrysanthemums.

Serving were Sally Bailey, Sue Ann Payne, Edith Horne, Mary Ann Alfred, Susan Dalling and Ana Lambert. Guests were registered by Sally Payne.

Mrs. Bert Larson, Twin Falls, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. H. D. Deardoff were in charge of the gifts. Gifts were carried by Sally Nelson, Nancy Kunau and Sue Kunau.

Background music was played by Mrs. Al Putnam, Marilyn Hray and Brent Taylor. The couple took a wedding trip to Sun Valley.

Hansen and Crabtree Set Pace in Pro-Am; Johnson Shoots 64 to Lead Pros

With a potent professional field representing all sections of the country, the second annual Cactus Pete's Open golf tournament opened Thursday at the Twin Falls Municipal course. Weather cleared Wednesday afternoon during a pro-am prelude and the field began taking the measure of the short Twin Falls course. Predictions ranged from 12 to 16 strokes under par would be needed to claim the

FROM ALL ANGLES

By LARRY HOVEY
Its "battle of the blues" — the Vandals' first Saturday with the University of Idaho taking on Washington State at Pullman.

This was supposed to be the first time the Idahoans were to put victories back to back after winning last year. Idaho looked like a shoo-in. That is, until WSU topped away and, Minnesota.

Larry Hovey

As the scores came out of the loud speaker system at Vandal Stadium last Saturday, the Idaho crowd enjoyed Minnesota holding the edge most of the time. When the final score came out, however, there was only muttering.

"No, I don't want to take my best back," said one North Idaho fan. "We'll beat them." Then pulling his chin back in just a trifle, he admitted "I wish I hadn't given those pointers, though."

WSU is an enigma. Idaho thoroughly crushed the Cougars last year when they had some pretty good, albeit shallow, talent around. This refers largely to Clancy Williams.

The following Saturday the Washington State freshman club held them 32-0. It was no contest.

Yet these are the same men now sophomores — who are getting the credit for WSU's early showing.

Walking off the field Saturday afternoon, Vandal Coach Steve Mussett was reminded of the WSU-Minnesota score and asked how it affected his thinking.

"It pleases me. Now when we knock them off we'll get added prestige," he said. "But it worries me a little, too."

"We'll be in the dugout (chalk talk and film room) all this week. Can't imagine them being that strong — not with all those sophomores. But we'll take a long look at their game films and pour over the scouting reports. I hope we find the answer."

If there is one thing worth knowing about WSU it should be fumbling. In their first two games the Vandals coughed up the ball 14 times.

"I don't know what's wrong," Mussett said. "We should have scored 40 points today (against San Jose State)."

He wasn't exaggerating. The team lost the ball twice inside the 10-yard line and once at the 40-yard line. The other five cramped drives that were picked up on momentum. About half of them were pure fumbles, little contact bothering the Vandal with the ball. Just a fumble.

A play was the great running of Ray McDonald in the second half against San Jose. He shredded that line (300 and 275 pound tackles) line. A debris is the single-mindedness of runner passers that Joe Chapman is the only man they can throw to. Chapman is a good receiver, not a great one. He dropped a few Saturday but the rest were good ones. He looks easy. He dropped a bomb after getting behind Washington's secondary the week before.

The defensive unit is Idaho's pride. And the defensive unit has its own pride manifested by red berets its members wear around the campus. But it is largely a rushing defense — hard hitting, mobile. Against passing it's much the same at Vandaville as its always been a step back. But the coaches call for playing fourth — Northern Division schools. Unless Idaho beats a couple of them, the year will seem a little empty.

WINNERS in the best ball division of Wednesday's pro-am congratulate each other. THE TIGHT BREAD OF TIRES FOR THE HARD DRIVING MAN.

Arfons Sets Quarter-Mile Drag Record

HONNEVILLE SALT FLATS, Utah (AP) — Art Arfons, holder of the world land speed record, returned to his first low-drag racing — and set a world record of 258.62 miles an hour in the quarter-mile Wednesday.

He used his jet-powered Ford Green Monster, the car in which he set the land speed mark of 336.71 m.p.h. last year.

Arfons was a drag racer for 10 years before he turned to jets.

The old drag mark was 210.80 m.p.h. set by Tom McEwen of Los Angeles in a piston-engine car.

The speed is the average over the final 112 feet of the 1,320-foot distance.

Arfons said he would return home to Akron, Ohio, and await attempts against his land speed record by his brother, Walt, in a rocket-powered car, and Craig Breese in a jet car.

F. Hosts Boise; Buhl, Gooding Tangle in Top Grid Action of Weekend

Twain Falls draws the dubious honor of hosting the state's No. 1 ranked Boise Braves, while the undefeated Minico Spartans entertain Bonanza in an Eastern Idaho Conference battle to highlight Friday night action. In another grudge match that takes place out of conference sanction, the Indians hosting the Gooding Senators in what should prove a ding-dong affair.

Twain Falls which has had more than it could handle from three non-top spots faces a difficult assignment against Boise. The Braves have ripped three straight foes. The Bruins hope to have halfback John Warner and center Bill Van Engelen back for this one, the two juniors being out since the opening weekend with injuries.

The leading Jerome gave the Bruins' offensive line in the game last week gave new coach Mori Eden new problems. Sophomore Jay Ulrich was moved to the starting linebacker spot, making the 6-0, 100 pounder the first varsity sophomore in six years.

Eden has come up much stronger than expected this year due mostly to a strong defensive unit. Coach Red Hanson, who spent last spring watching Idaho State work out, seems to have adopted ISU coach Cecchi's theory a little in going largely with a fullback line. But in Tom Polndexter and Arlo Decker, it was the logical move.

Homeville dropped Burley by a touchdown last week, meaning this battle should decide a lot in the EIC standings. Minico's defense has yet to allow a point. A year ago Gooding beat Buhl in the final second in the farous 50-yard drive behind the line of scrimmage. The man was injured on a 49-yard pass play that put Gooding at Buhl's one-yard line. Dazed, the man got up and was running for the line of scrimmage when Ron Adman threw a 50-yard pass to Buhl. Buhl hasn't forgotten that one.

Buhl will have a good edge in size. Gooding a speed advantage. It rates a toss-up. Gooding's Ron Adman was injured in practice Tuesday and might be slowed considerably by the hurt.

Burley, dropped by Bonneville last week, hosts Madison of Rexburg in its second EIC game. The Bobcats saw the clock stop their desperation drive at the six-yard line. Craig Thompson and end Jeff Hanes give the Bobcats a potent pass combination, while Hanks is strong up the middle despite his size.

In the Big Eight conference, pace-setting Filer, 4-0, entertains the luckless Valley Vikings. It will be homecoming at Filer with game time moved to 7:30 p.m. Wendell, fresh from its biggest win of the year over Valley, will travel to Shoshone where the Indians are seeking their first victory. Glenns Ferry and Kimberly fight it out at Kimberly with the loser escaping the league cellar.

The three undefeated members of the Magic Valley Conference take on the losers Friday. Declo draws the Castleford Wolves who bombed Oakley last week in their best showing so far. That one is set for Declo. Hansen, 1-1, will be at Murtaugh in an East-end rivalry.

Wendell, 1-1, will be at Murtaugh in an East-end rivalry.

Cards Drop Giants Two Games Behind

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Pitcher Bob Gibson faltered in the ninth inning, but his eight-inning grand slam home run carried St. Louis to an 8-6 victory over skidding San Francisco Wednesday.

The defeat, their sixth in the last eight games, dropped the second-place Giants two games behind the National League-leading Los Angeles Dodgers, who defeated Cincinnati 5-0.

The Giants have four games left, all at home with Cutcliffe, Gibson, who also singled twice and scored the Cardinals' first two runs, blanked the Giants on two hits until the ninth when they battered him for five runs, the last three on Jim Davenport's homer.

After Gibson threw a ball to Bob Schroder, Curt Simmons came on and got the second out of the inning. But Cap Peterson reached second when Dick Groat picked up his grounder and threw it wildly, then scored as Jesus Alu singled.

Manager Red Schoendienst then called on Hal Woodeshick, who gave up a single to Willie Mays before Willie McCovey struck out, ending the rally and the game.

Koufax Wins 25th, Dodgers Widen Lead

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Sandy Koufax pitched a two-hitter for his 25th victory and Maury Wills belted a three-run triple as the Los Angeles Dodgers whipped Cincinnati 5-0 Wednesday night, extending their winning streak to 12 and increasing their National League lead to two games.

The loss eliminated the third-place Dodgers from contention while the victory placed the Dodgers in a relatively strong position to win their third pennant in seven years.

With four games remaining for each team, if Los Angeles splits evenly, second-place San Francisco would have to win all four for a tie. The Giants lost to St. Louis 8-4 earlier in the day for their sixth loss in the last eight games.

Koufax again was superb, increasing his major league record to 25-3 with a 323 by fanning 13 Reds.

He held Cincinnati hitless until Yacht Simon singled with one out in the fourth. The only other Cincinnati hit was Doran Johnson's single in the seventh.

Koufax, who has lost eight games, equaled his personal high of 25 victories, which he attained in 1963 when he won the Cy Young Award. His last five victories all have been shutouts.

Jim Maloney, now 20-9, held the Dodgers scoreless until the sixth inning when they got an unearned run.

It resulted from walks to Jim Gilliam and Ron Fairly, a single by Lou Johnson and a throwing error by right fielder Frank Robinson on Johnson's hit.

Wills hit his three-run triple in the seventh after the Dodgers loaded the bases with none out on walks to Wes Parker and Koufax, and a single by John Roseboro. Wills scored as Gilliam greeted reliever Ted Dabbs with a single.

Hull Returns To Chicago After Feud

CHICAGO (AP) — Bobby Hull, the Golden Jet of the National Hockey League, returned to the Chicago Black Hawks Wednesday after patching up his feud with the management over dressing room policy.

Hull quit the Hawk training camp Saturday when his two sons, Blake, 5, and Bobby, 4, were barred from the dressing room.

"There was a misunderstanding which had been patched up," said Hull after a conference with General Manager Tommy Ivan.

The conference also included talk on the star player's 1965-66 salary, but Hull scoffed reports he was asking for $100,000.

Hull, who received an estimated $30,000 last season, said confusion was caused by his alleged mention of a $100,000 salary in an interview at Hawaii last winter.

Lander Road Is Being Reblazed

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A rugged highway for westward bound motorists, is being reblazed by the Interior Department.

It is known as Lander Road. In the mid-1800s it was part of the equally historic Oregon trail and way in the area where Brigham Young and his band of Mormons held their famous "feast in the wilderness."

The Interior Department is taking steps to save the road from oblivion. Its Bureau of Land Management and Wyoming state officials have joined to place commemorative bronze plaques along the highway, beginning at Gilbert's Station, where the plaques, four inches in diameter, will be imbedded in concrete at one-mile intervals, with the terminus point at Rock City, Idaho.

The road, once 340 miles long, was authorized by Congress in 1906 to be used by the military. It was named for the Interior Department's chief engineer, Frederick W. Lander, who survived and sank the route.

The route was a rest stop for stagecoaches, pony express riders and wagon trains from Salt Lake City to Rock City, Utah.

WITH THE BOW-AND-ARROW deer hunting season opening in Kansas Friday, Harold R. Stephens, Cherokee, Kan., farmer, is preparing his "defensive" tactics as evidenced here. This will be the first time in more than 60 years that Kansas sportsmen will have been able to hunt deer in the Sunflower state. (AP wirephoto)

Phone Ceremony Has Shaky Start

GARDEN CITY, Kan. (AP) — Mayor Jim Cowgill had just completed a ceremonial long distance phone call to inaugurate this city's direct distance dialing service.

The call was wired into a speaker so Cowgill's audience could hear. As he completed the call a phone operator came onto the line, saying: "We need someone more responsible than that," the phone girl said.

When Cowgill regained his composure, Wright, standing by, admitted his little joke.

"Caution" Seems Watchword For Idaho Politicians

By RICHARD CHARNOCK
United Press International
BOISE (UPI)—Caution seems to be the new political watchword in Idaho.

To hear some tell it, both political parties are knee-deep in potential candidates for some of the offices that will be on next year's statewide election ballot.

But, aside from a burgeoning number of Democrats who have announced or are about to announce for governor, many of the hopefuls are letting others call the shots for them.

A case in point is the lieutenant governorship. There are a number of men in both parties who aspire to the job. But nobody wants to make a move until he sees what the incumbent Democrat, William E. Drevlow, is going to do.

Part of this reluctance to get into the fray stems, no doubt, from the esteem in which the 76-year-old Drevlow is held by members of both parties. And part obviously arises from a widely-held feeling he would be difficult to beat—even at his age.

Many in the Democratic Party want Drevlow to go after a third term although his personal inclination is to retire from the active arena of politics.

There are a lot of politicians who—after two or three friends urge them to seek office—say they are under "heavy pressure" to run. In Drevlow's case there are a lot more than just "two or three" urging him to make one more campaign.

Drevlow's latest answer to the big question is simply, "I'm not inclined to run again but I'm leaving the door open." And it has would-be candidates in a tizzy.

Candidates appear to be standing in line for Secretary of State, too. But again, nobody apparently wants to announce until Arnold Williams, another incumbent Democrat, discloses his plans.

In the past year, Williams has had two heart attacks. Yet, he too, is "leaving the door open." He has told newsmen he won't make a firm decision until he talks further—and later—with his doctors.

Still another case is the Republican nomination for governor. When it appeared that

Thursday, Sept. 30, 1965
Twin Falls Times-News 17

three-term incumbent Robert E. Smyllo might run for something else next year there were a lot of potential successors within his own party.

But now that Smyllo has indicated he's going to seek a fourth term there doesn't seem to be an Indian left on the GOP warpath.

While timing is admittedly an important ingredient in the recipe for political success, all this autumn speaks a lot for the incumbents. It says a mouthful for those who would succeed them, too.

Tax Service

NEW DELHI (AP) — Income tax officials have announced a no service for women in purdah — those who wear veils and cloaks completely covering their bodies.

Because of the women's reluctance to be seen in public, tax officials will go to their homes to accept tax returns or consider appeals.

Hansen Hits Johnson's Government

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. George Hansen, R-Idaho, asserted Wednesday that "inoptima" in the United States government "makes a mockery of our avowed aims against Communism."

The result, he said in a statement, is that America is "a wailing stock-in-the-eyes-of-the-world."

Hansen cited incidents he said occurred in China, Viet Nam, Cuba and the Dominican Republic which he said aided the Communists.

Hansen said President Johnson "acted forthrightly and bravely" in sending troops to the Dominican Republic last year.

"But since that first bold move," the Idahoan said, "the United States has increasingly bowed to the demands of the Communist-dominated rebels."

He said "a bipartisan group" is considering a congressional investigation into the assistance in the United States of Gen. Elias Wessin Y. Wessin, the anti-Communist Dominican leader.

The inquiry, Hansen said, would investigate reports that Wessin was offered a visa to leave the Dominican Republic but refused, denouncing the offer — and that U.S. forces then abducted him and deported him to the United States.

The United States—locked in biological war to the death against international communism—seems to have a knacker for its friends and aiding enemies."

Make-Believe Beach Used In Research

STANFORD, Calif. (UPI) — Scientists are spending 1 1/2 times as much on a "make-believe" beach and a stainless steel "beach" but there's no swimming or sun-bathing.

The ocean and beach are part of a large laboratory which measures waves. It is being used to find answers to a question as old as the seas—how are waves formed.

In the unique "cross section of ocean," waves without wind, wind-driven waves or a combination of both can be produced.

Scientists say precise measurements of the way energy is expended in wave motions—and water currents—may lead to more successful theories for forecasting and predicting ocean waves.

"More facts about wave generation should be useful in calibrating high waves, which is now something done by dumping oil in the water," says Prof. Fu Yun-fu, who built the measuring device.

He said the project also might aid in designing of ships, piers, harbors and breakwaters and in studies of beach and ocean front erosion.

The 115-foot tunnel is six feet high and three feet wide. A "wave generating plate" driven by a hydraulic piston produces any wave shape. A 30-horsepower centrifuge fan sucks wind through the tunnel at any speed up to more than 50 miles per hour.

The stainless steel "beach" is made of metal lattice shavings held in steel baskets. They simulate the action of a real beach and prevent water from breaking back from the end of the tunnel and interfering with the controlled wave patterns under study.

CHATTING AT THE WHITE HOUSE Wednesday with photographer Edward Steichen and his wife, is President Johnson, while Mrs. Johnson waves to someone in the crowd. The occasion was the signing of legislation providing federal aid for the arts. And the President probably set a record in handing out souvenir pens — about 400 to the guests (AP wirephoto).

Great Britain Takes Sweeping Review Of Her Long Term Defense Policy

LONDON (UPI) — Britain is engaged in a sweeping review of her long term defense policy. It may result in an attempt to pass on some of her present world policy responsibilities to the United States.

The review, described as the most far reaching undertaken since the war, will almost certainly result in a whittling down of Britain's current overseas commitments.

The motives are largely financial. The government says Britain cannot afford to keep up her global defense commitments on the present scale. The financial burden is weighing heavily on the uneasy economy and adds to Britain's balance of payments troubles which in turn endanger the stability of the pound sterling.

Something will have to give, the government says, implying a contraction of Britain's defense posture overseas. From here it looks as if the United States may have to jump into the breach, however reluctant.

The Labor government has set a ceiling for its future defense budget at $5.6 billion a year.

Prime Minister Harold Wilson holds this is the maximum that Britain will be able to afford and there are some advisers who feel even this is far beyond the means of the impoverished United Kingdom.

Wilson's government proclaimed proudly when it came to power a year ago that it wanted Britain to continue to play a major role in international affairs. This was to have been done through the "East of Suez policy" which implied Britain's continued policing of the "East or important portions" of it.

A major factor here is containment of threatening in-dominant Red Chinese backed aggression against British Commonwealth member Malaysia. This policy has been aligned with the United States as complementary to the American effort to contain Communist aggression in South Asia, especially just now in Viet Nam.

The surprise secession of Singapore from the Malaysian Federation a few weeks ago has stirred second thoughts about the scope of Britain's defense role in the area.

Britain maintains major bases in Singapore and at present has the largest fleet remaining there since the Korean War, in addition to V-bombers with nuclear capabilities.

The United States has made it clear to Britain it wants her to continue in this role east of Suez which Washington considers important in the present unsettled state of affairs in the Far East.

But the changed status of Singapore and the political uncertainties they involve may result in a gradual whittling down of Britain's base arrangements in the area.

Alternatively, Britain may scale down her commitment in Aden, a vital base in the Middle East—defense setup. There are suggestions that Britain should pull out from there and that she could afford to do it without major risks because of changed circumstances and defense needs.

Others argue that a withdrawal from Aden might create a defense vacuum, as would a withdrawal from Singapore.

Attention therefore focuses on the United States which, it is argued, might find itself in the position where, once again it would have to jump "into a breach" in the Far or Middle East.

Britain has told the United States it would do nothing final before consulting Washington and other allies in Nato and the Commonwealth.

Actors Lorne Greene, Dan Blocker and Michael Landon were reported Wednesday to have taken options on the 1,670-acre Rankin Rickard Ranch, a half-mile west of Boonville, in Mendocino County, and on the larger Rock Pile Ranch in Sonoma County.

The total price may run as high as $2 million, published reports indicated.

Overlooked

COLOMBO, Ceylon (AP) — A health ministry official touring Anuradhapura Hospital was approached by a monk who claimed he had received no treatment since being admitted two weeks earlier. Investigation showed doctors decided the day the monk was admitted that he needed no treatment. But no one told him he could leave.

Many Arab women work as shop clerks — a Beirut department store chain hires only women clerks — but many restrictions on jobs for women are slow eroding. Nothing like the new American law forbidding discrimination in hiring on account of sex is likely to make it into Arab law books.

Pasant women and others with little education are recruited mostly by domestic servant jobs although some are finding their way into factories for textiles, tobacco and drugs.

The most noticeable advances for women, not surprisingly, are being made at the top of the social and economic ladder.

The United Arab Republic now has a woman minister of social affairs, the first woman minister in the Middle East except for Israel's Golda Meir. Morocco's King Hassan has just dispatched his pretty sister to London as the first Arab woman ambassador. Beirut this year got its first woman judge and the Beirut College for Women, a venerable institution, recently got its first Lebanese woman president, a job formerly held by Americans.

Women professors are not unusual at schools such as the American University of Beirut, but not in engineering, the only department that still refuses women students.

Lebanon recently came close to getting a woman in parliament when the widow of a deputy decided to seek her late husband's seat. She lost to a veteran male vote-getter by less than 1,000 votes. The only woman in Lebanon's parliament previously ran unopposed for her late father's seat two years ago but only finished out three months of his term before relinquishing the job to a male member of the family.

In ancient times the Middle East had its Cleopatra and Queen of Sheba, but the Arab countries, like most others, offer little promise for a woman chief of state.

TELEvised BANKING
MADRAS, India (AP) — India's first drive-in bank has opened in Madras. It uses closed-circuit television to speed transactions with customers sitting in their cars.

ARAB Women Move Slowly in Invasion of Man's World

BEIRUT (UPI) — If you want a meal in an Arab restaurant, don't wait for a waitress to take your order. Chances are there isn't a waitress.

Beirut has two girls by the hundreds busied with the tourists with waitresses, and they are something new. In the Arab Middle East, that's a man's job.

A large American hotel, the Yllion in Cairo, caused a stir when it opened a few years ago with waitresses in its coffee shop. One of the girls made headlines by announcing Cassius Clay had proposed to her.

But that "hotel" remains the only place in a city of more than three million people in which a woman can be hired as a waitress or as a hamburger or kebap brought by a girl.

Arab women, long confined to the veil and home, are gradually making their way into jobs once restricted to men, though a number of Beirut gas stations have recently hired attractive young ladies to wipe car windows, collect money and draw more customers.

Secretarial jobs are common to women in most of the Middle East but in strict Moslem countries such as Saudi Arabia even these jobs are customarily held by men.

Many Arab women work as shop clerks — a Beirut department store chain hires only women clerks — but many restrictions on jobs for women are slow eroding. Nothing like the new American law forbidding discrimination in hiring on account of sex is likely to make it into Arab law books.

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

THURSDAY, Sept. 30 — Born today, you are an alert, sensitive individual of exceptionally even disposition. Having very little, if any, of the temperament of most people, you are ahead of most people. You can judge quickly and accurately the prevailing atmosphere and take advantage of it without being hampered by an adverse personal response of your own.

Ambitious, yet not so much so that your work takes precedence over everything else; determined, yet not so much so that you will hang on beyond the point of practicality. You are not so much so that you are denied the joys of occasional dreaming — all these qualities signify a well-balanced and successful life.

Although not given to emotional upsets yourself, you are sympathetic with those who are. This trait should stand you in excellent stead, for it will ease your way with people, make you a valued and respected friend or mate, and allow you to give the one thing that most people need — understanding.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Friday, Oct. 1

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23) — Leave yourself enough margin for error today to compensate for a poor morning and the possibility of poor judgment.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — Have your references handy. This could be a day of change and improvement for the prepared Scorpio.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22) — Don't give up the ship! The Sagittarius with the will to win should find the way to win.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23-Jan. 20) — Do yourself justice: Refuse to be a party to anything that takes credit away from you. Let others know you're well thought of.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19) — It may not be as easy to alter your attitude as it is your outfit or dress, but it may be more worthwhile. Make the effort.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) — An excellent day for bargains, so long as you keep clear of rent.

ARIES (March 21-April 20) — Your position could be placed in jeopardy by well-meaning friends who talk too much. Keep plans to yourself.

TAURUS (April 21-May 21) — Try to progress faster than is your custom. This is of the essence today.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21) — Be guided by your conscience and you can hardly go wrong in your actions. Remember that other eyes than yours are watching.

CANCER (June 22-July 23) — This is no day for slacking off, even though it is the end of the work week. Clear away the debris of past efforts.

LEO (July 24-Aug. 23) — Avoid being sidetracked from the job at hand. You can see a little throughout the week end.

VIRGO (Aug. 24-Sept. 23) — See that you approach even routine chores with an attitude of interest and good will. A more successful day than you may anticipate.

APPEARING IN COURT in Provo, R.I., Tuesday to defend herself against a speeding charge was Ellende M. Hohm, 30, native of Vienna, Austria. She was a week early and the court offered to discontinue the charge upon payment of the court costs, Miss Hohm declined to offer and then produced a stop watch, a slide rule and a graph chart over a foot long, and finally proved, mathematically, that the arresting officer had been mistaken. Judge Edward Plunkett finally gave up and discontinued the charge without cost. (AP wirephoto)

Soviets Tell Own Soldiers Red China Is Main Enemy

UNITED-NATIONS, N. Y., and not for the victory of world communism. A similar appeal was made by Stalin after Hitler attacked Russia in 1941. Aware that the ordinary Russian would fight for "Holy Mother Russia" but not for the Marxist-Leninist creed, Stalin declared that conflict with Nazi Germany was, in effect, a "great patriotic war." He even invoked the aid of the persecuted Eastern Orthodox Church.

History is clearly repeating itself in Russia. There is little doubt that it is fear of Red China that forced Moscow to join the United States in seeking a peaceful solution to the conflict between India and Pakistan over Kashmir. Communist party chief Leonid Brezhnev said as much when he expressed the Soviet government's "anxiety" over the fact that it took place in "a region immediately adjacent to the frontiers of the Soviet Union."

Brezhnev also hinted that Red China is determined, sooner or later, to attack India.

The East European diplomats believe that any action at all by Russia would be in support of India. "This could bring Red Russia into a direct armed conflict with Red China."

Under the circumstances, there is little Moscow can do except to try to isolate China from the rest of the Communist world and back the United States and the United Nations in their efforts to settle the Kashmir problems.

This does not mean that Russia's Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko will stop his attack against "American imperialism." Such attacks are his stock in trade and Russia, to fight

Self-Service

PRETTY PRAIRIE, Kan. (AP) — Jim Krehbiel drove his tractor for a half-day before noticing something fluttering inside a glass air cleaner bowl on the diesel engine.

It was a check for $1, noting three gallons of diesel fuel had been taken, and signed by Dean Anthony, At-tica, Kan.

Krehbiel checked with Mrs. Anthony who said that some one like something Dean would do.

Her husband was driving a truck load of melons to Canada at the time and she speculated he ran low on fuel.
