

Indian Troops Exchange Shots With Red Chinese

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Indian troops exchanged shots Saturday with a 25-man Communist Chinese patrol in the bleak mountain frontier between Tibet and the Indian protectorate of Sikkim, Indian officials reported.

Indian defense minister said the Chinese patrol crossed the Yankla Pass in the morning and surrounded a three-man Indian observation post well within Indian territory.

"They opened fire on our post. The fire was returned," the Indian statement said. In Peking, Chinese confirmed the incident, but charged that Indian troops intruded into Chinese territory.

A broadcast by the official New China News Agency said five Indian soldiers crossed the disputed line and "fired more than 200 rounds of bullets," wounding one Chinese soldier.

The Chinese also accused the Indians of crossing into Tibet last Thursday and intimidating Chinese herdsmen with their weapons.

With new trouble reported in the Chinese and skirmishing in many areas along 1,500-mile western front between India and Pakistan, the prospect for peace on the subcontinent seemed bleaker than ever.

In words echoing his tough speeches before the three-week war with Pakistan, Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri spoke on his 61st birthday as if he expected a resumption of full-scale hostilities.

In Pakistan, President Mohammed Ayub Khan declared his country would not lower its guard.

300 Arrested

In Southern Rights March

NATCHEZ, Miss. (AP)—Police arrested some 300 Negroes and a few whites Saturday when they ignored a court order and attempted to march to City Hall.

The marchers, led by NAACP state field secretary Charles Evers, left the Beulah Baptist Church singing freedom songs and proceeded about half a block before they came to a police barricade.

Police Chief J.T. Robinson said: "I'm going to ask you to disperse and go home."

Evers replied: "If we turn around now, we will turn around for years to come. I think now is the time to stand and be counted, whatever the price may be."

Robinson said: "You are in violation of a city ordinance. I will have to arrest you."

He said those arrested would be charged with parading without a permit.

Chancellor Curtis Collins enjoined both the NAACP and the Ku Klux Klan Thursday from any action which might incite racial tensions in the Mississippi River town.

The state Highway Patrol confirmed that some KKK members had come into Natchez during the night.

Soviets to Reorganize Industry

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Parliament approved Saturday a reorganization of Soviet industry and, for the most part, put engineers rather than party politicians in charge of carrying it out.

At the same time the Parliament added to the prestige of Communist party chieftain Leonid Brezhnev by giving him, in addition to his party title, a post on its presidium.

The Parliament then established in high government office two relatively young men, as Soviet leaders go, right next to the top men, most nearly 15 years their senior.

The two are Dmitry Polyansky, 47, who was appointed first deputy premier under Alexei Kosygin, 61, and Kirill Muzorov, also 47, whose appointment as first deputy premier, made earlier, was confirmed by the Parliament — the Supreme Soviet.

Polyansky had been a deputy premier for several years, under both Kosygin and Nikita Khrushchev. For a potential Soviet leader, Polyansky had a lucky birthday: the day of the Bolshevik Revolution, Nov. 7, 1917.

The appointments put these two men, both members of the party presidium, high up the ladder that leads toward the top jobs.

Another one of the younger men, Alexander Sholepin, also 47, is a deputy premier, but has long been considered one of the foremost of the "next crop" of government leaders.

Of late he has been little in the news, but has powerfully assigned to the Central Committee to make the main speeches at the big party congress to be held next March.

Both were chosen by the Central Committee to make the main speeches at the big party congress to be held next March, and both played the leading roles in the Central Committee plenum itself.

Officers surmised there may be a nest of the reptiles somewhere in the north end of the city.

The captured one will be turned over to the science department at Boise College.

PLOTTING COURSES for planes participating in a search and rescue operation conducted Saturday by the Idaho Civil Air Patrol are Capt. Barney Carlson, right, and Lt. Col. Ed Woods, both members of the Twin Falls CAP. The search and rescue operation was carried out for a "downed plane" that actually was placed by members of the Air Force in an undisclosed area. After spotting the "downed plane," the rescue phase of the operation was carried out. (Times-News photo)

Cubans Scrub Guevara Out Of Hierarchy

HAVANA, Cuba (AP)—Cuba's Communist party scrubbed former Industrial Minister Ernesto Che Guevara from the party hierarchy Saturday.

The Argentine-born guerrilla war expert was not included in a 100-member Central Committee named by the party's National Directorate. The committee will direct the party's activities throughout this island nation.

Prime Minister Fidel Castro will head the committee's two major agencies—an eight-member political bureau and six-member secretariat.

Castro, in a speech Tuesday night, said he would read in a few days "a document from Comrade Ernesto Guevara which explains his absence."

CAP Has Search and Rescue Exercise Here

The skies over much of southern Idaho were crowded with Civil Air Patrol aircraft and private planes participating in a simulated search and rescue operation for a "downed plane" Saturday.

The search was conducted by members of several CAP units throughout Idaho and was sponsored by the U.S. Air Force for the purpose of testing the efficiency of the combined effort of the Idaho Wing of the Civil Air Patrol, Twin Falls was the site for the joint operations of the Idaho CAP and Joslin Field was active with CAP officers and cadets hurrying about on assigned duties.

An estimated dozen planes participated in the search operations. Planes scoured the hills and land areas of southern Idaho in search of the "downed plane."

In actuality, the "downed plane" was a set-up placed in an undisclosed area by members of the Air Force.

Once a plane has spotted the marker, he must contact the headquarters and all available ground units or rescue teams in the area are notified. Thus the rescue phase of the operation is carried out.

As it was explained, the most important men in the exercise are the operations officers, for it is up to them to direct planes to areas where the marker may be.

The operations officers assign each plane a certain area to cover and as in the simulated operation, they are responsible for analyzing all data—nixon-thom and then determining just where the plane might have gone down. Such things as remaining fuel, wind velocity and terrain must be taken into account.

Operations officers for Saturday's exercise were Maj. Ronald Minsger, Lt. Col. Ed Woods and See CAP, Page 2, Col. 8

Aide Demands Tshombe to Quit

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (UPI)—Interior Minister Victor Nendaka broke Saturday with the Congress-National Congress Young Party and demanded that Premier Moïse Tshombe resign at the start of parliament next week.

Nendaka was accompanied by Kamitatus at his news conference.

Jakarta Sees New Fighting; Forces Rush to Capital

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP)—New fighting broke out in Jakarta Saturday, with rebels trying to recapture the communications building, and government reinforcements rushed in to the Indonesian capital, Indonesian broadcasts reported.

There was no independent word from Jakarta. The broadcasts said tanks and truckloads of soldiers of the Siliwangi Division poured into the Indonesian capital to bolster units of the division that thwarted a coup Friday.

With Jakarta under a communications blackout, there still was no firm word of the whereabouts of 61-year-old President Sukarno.

The insurgents, led by Lt. Col. Untung, a member of Sukarno's palace guard, had declared during their brief time in power that Sukarno was safe and under their "protection."

Both Gen. Suharto, who led the troops that broke the coup, and Maj. Gen. Achmad, information minister, claimed over Jakarta Radio Saturday that Sukarno was alive, safe, and still "supreme commander of the army and in full control of the republic."

Also heard from was Gen. Abdul Harris Nasution, 46, defense minister and armed forces commander who, according to Jakarta broadcasts Friday, had organized the counter-coup that overthrew the rebels.

Malaysian sources said he was wounded. "A state of war" and dawn-to-dusk curfew were ordered in Jakarta. Government forces were setting up anti-aircraft guns—apparently because of the questionable loyalty of the air force. A broadcast by Radio Medan said, however, that air force units in Sumatra pledged their support of Sukarno.

Vice Marshal Omar Dihan, air force commander, was one of 45 persons named to a revolutionary council by the rebels and reportedly was one of the first to declare support of the "30th of September Movement." The revolutionary council included about a dozen Communists.

Marital law was decreed in central Java, Jakarta Radio reported, where Col. Subermani is defying the government.

Indonesian observers in Kuala Lumpur said Col. Subermani of Diponegoro Division posed the threat of a major clash with the Siliwangi Division in Jakarta. They noted repeated Jakarta broadcasts by Maj. Gen. Sardono, former commander of the Diponegoro Division denouncing the rebels who he said "betrayed the republic's name."

The broadcasts quoted Sardono as saying "many generals died" in the fighting. It said the army, navy and police were supporting the government.

Questions Unanswered By Broadcast WASHINGTON (AP)—Saturday's London reception of a broadcast by President Sukarno gave an answer to one question arising from the turmoil in Indonesia—did it leave others as unsettled as ever.

Word from the 61-year-old strongman that he is "sound and well" apparently laid at rest widespread speculation that he either was dead or incapacitated by illness.

But it left unanswered such questions as these: —Is Sukarno actually in control of the country he has dominated for so many years? —If not, who actually is holding the reins? —What was and is the role of the Indonesian Communists in the upheaval which began late Thursday? —Will the reported coup and counter-coup ultimately tighten the already close ties between Indonesian and Communist China or do they point toward some resurgence of nationalism accompanied by some softening of the anti-Americanism of recent years? —U.S. officials said they have no direct confirmation that the broadcast heard in London was a bona fide one by Sukarno but at the same time they have no reason to doubt that it was.

It is the understanding here that the Jakarta radio is in the hands of the forces, led by Gen. Harris Nasution, which staged the counter-coup.

Attention Focused On Vatican Visit NEW YORK (AP)—Attention of powerful statesmen and countless plain people centered Saturday on a unique move on the stage of world history—Pope Paul VI's impending flight to America to plead for peace. It heralded a new dimension in religious affairs, with still unknown effects on the course of the nations. Noted figures of governments and churches converged here for the extraordinary event Monday, as did a tide of common folk—the devout, the wondering and the skeptical.

The Pope has declared his purpose: that "peace among men may triumph—that peace which in these days is being wounded and is bleeding."

It puts the vast prestige of the papacy behind the world's plea for peace. The making of instruments among the diverse societies and rulers of the earth.

It projects immense moral significance. —It projects immense moral significance. See VATICAN, Page 2, Col. 7

Pope Names First U.S. Negro Bishop

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Paul VI appointed the first full-blooded Roman Catholic Negro bishop in the United States Saturday, and assigned him to the Deep South where his forebears once lived in slavery.

Virtually the eve of his historic trip to New York, Pope Paul named the Very Rev. Harold Robert Perry to be auxiliary bishop of New Orleans.

The Vatican's press office emphasized the extraordinary nature of the appointment, describing Father Perry in its official announcement as "the first Negro bishop in the United States of America."

One other American Roman Catholic bishop had once been Negro: James A. Healy of Portland, Maine, consecrated in 1875. Bishop Healy's mother was a Georgian slave girl, but his father was white.

The Vatican's announcement reflected the high esteem that the Roman Catholic Church in the United States finally had in its hierarchy an unquestioned representative of the American Negroes.

U.S. Catholic Negroes—numbering about 800,000—total about 11 percent of more than 42 million Roman Catholics in the United States—had long requested such an appointment.

Father Perry, who will be 40 a week from Saturday, attended a special news conference at which his appointment by Pope Paul was announced by two American archbishops, John Patrick Cody of Chicago and Philip Hannan of New Orleans.

STORMS HIT IRAN TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—At least 12 persons have died in Iran in severe thunderstorms that swept the country for the past two days, the newspaper Kachem reported Saturday.

Defense May Buy More C5A Planes

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Defense Department may buy 115 or more of the giant C5A transport planes—enough to carry two Army combat divisions to Europe or Asia on a single flight, it was disclosed Saturday.

Robert H. Charles, assistant secretary of the Air Force, told newsmen the Pentagon has an option to buy an additional 57 of the huge craft in addition to the 58 announced as the first purchase.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara two days ago ordered the Air Force to move ahead immediately to produce the revolutionary new transport.

The Lockheed Aircraft Corp. is a three-company competition for the contract to develop the craft and then produce 58 planes.

These first three squadrons will cost $2 billion, or about $35 million a plane. However, any later purchases will reflect a lower price because the development costs will have been absorbed.

Charles said that beyond the 115, the government has options to add to the fleet as needed.

Air Force experts said the Lockheed plan calls for a plane big enough to carry up to 366 soldiers.

This is well below the early broad estimates forecasting many as 600 soldier-passengers but it would include their rifles and machine guns.

U.S. officials said they have no direct confirmation that the broadcast heard in London was a bona fide one by Sukarno but at the same time they have no reason to doubt that it was.

It is the understanding here that the Jakarta radio is in the hands of the forces, led by Gen. Harris Nasution, which staged the counter-coup.

"Anti-Litterbug Program" Is Put Into Action by T. F. Junior Garden Club

The Twin Falls Junior Garden Club began an "anti-litterbug program" Saturday morning by picking up litter in the alley behind the Arctic Circle, 761 Main Ave.

According to Mrs. Russell Miller, club sponsor, the litterbug project was designed to show the club members just how much small particles of litter could add up to form an unsightly scene.

The club had the cooperation of the Twin Falls Street Department and girls between the ages of 7 and 11 and the Junior High Garden Club which is made up of boys and girls 12 to 14. The club participates in Garden Club shows and teaches gardening methods.

At present Mrs. Kenneth Hodder is giving a course in flower arranging to the club members and a flower contest is held each year between the club members.

All those interested in joining the club may contact Mrs. Russell Miller at 753-9764.

Death Takes Mrs. Holcomb At Age of 87

BUIH—Mrs. Rosa May Holcomb, 87, 715 N. Broadway Ave., died Friday afternoon at Magic Valley Hospital of an aortic aneurysm.

She was born July 28, 1878, at Georgetown, Tex., and was married to Christopher O. Holcomb in 1895. They moved to Twin Falls in 1925. Mrs. Holcomb died in 1955. She was a member of Buih's church.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Frank (Alma) Brown, Mrs. Essie Schmidt, Mrs. Buih, and Mrs. J. C. (Constance) Elliott, and four sons, Brownwood, Tex.; Twin Falls; Buih; and Buih. Surviving also are Mrs. Ellis Leona Boice, and Frank H. Holcomb, Winnemucca, Nev.; and five grandchildren, and 13 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Dickard Funeral Home, with Vernon Shaw officiating. Concluding rites will be held at the Buih Cemetery. Friends may call at the mortuary from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday.

Gooding to Vote Nov. 2

GOODING—The polls of mayoral and two four-year councilor seats will be filled in the biennial city election to be held Nov. 2.

Mayor Leo Rice's term expires, as well as the terms of councilmen Fred Hendrickson and Earl Greenawald.

Polling places will include the City Hall, the first ward, 120 N. 1st Ave. E., for the first ward, and the War Memorial Hall will be the polling place for the second ward. Hours will be from noon until 8 p.m.

Residents must be registered with the city clerk A. V. Carter. Books were open Thursday and will remain so until Oct. 30.

Residents eligible to vote must be at least 21 years of age, a citizen of the United States, must have resided within the limits of the city not less than three months preceding the election and must have registered for the election or must have voted at an election or must have been elected general municipal elections held by the city.

If an elector has moved from one ward to another within the city since registering or previously voting, he should notify the city clerk of such change and he will make proper changes on the registers.

Newly-elected city officers will assume their duties Jan. 1. Holdover city councilmen are M. Shaver and Ray Cobble.

Rites Honor A. Andreasen

VIEW—Funeral services for Anton F. Andreasen were conducted Friday in View LDS Chapel with Bishop Harold W. Blane officiating.

Invocation was given by David Moffett. Life sketch was given by Bishop Blane and speakers were Elton G. Hatch and Elton Woodbury. Benediction was given by Milton C. Payne.

Palbearers were Arthur Payne, John W. Taylor, Jesse F. Seale, William Kuntler, Earl Stanger and Joseph E. Searle. Floral arrangements were by Elton Hatch, Mrs. John Taylor, Mrs. Raymond Searle, Mrs. Jess Searle, Mrs. Floyd Caperson, Mrs. David Moffett, Mrs. May Hurst and Mrs. Milton C. Payne.

Final rites were held in View Cemetery. Dedicatory prayer was given by LeRoy McBride.

John H. Ayres' Last Rites Held

HAGERMAN—Final rites were held at 2 p.m. Friday at Thompson Chapel, Gooding, for John H. Ayres with the Rev. Warren McConnell, Gooding Methodist minister, officiating. Music was furnished by the Thompson Chapel organ.

Active pallbearers include George Lenker, Elmer Ahy, Edna Phillips, James Muffley, Earl Greenawald and James Searle. Honorary pallbearers were members of Lincoln Lodge No. 59 and Hagerman Lodge No. 78 A.F. and A.M.

Concluding rites by both boys and girls interested in the Hagerman Cemetery. Military rites were held by members of the 1st Cavalry Post No. 31, Hagerman.

YMCA Offering Gun Safety Class

The Twin Falls YMCA is offering a class in gun safety and beginning at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, under the direction and instruction of Clyde Edwards.

There will be four class sessions, with special shooting practice on the police range.

Boys and girls interested in learning the proper use and handling of guns should register at the YMCA before or at the opening session Tuesday.

FEROCIOUS-LOOKING DRAGON—In the picture will be put on the program of the Children's Theater production of "The Reluctant Dragon." Mr. and Mrs. Larry L. Christopherson are looking over the picture and the music to be used in the play, which will be held Oct. 16 and 23. Mr. and Mrs. Christopherson will arrange the music to be used in the play and will play in the four-piece orchestra. (Times-News photo)

Children's Theater Play Is Slated Oct. 16 and 23

The Children's Theater production, "The Reluctant Dragon," will be held at the O'Leary Junior High School Auditorium at 10 a.m., 2 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. Oct. 16 and 23.

The story of "The Reluctant Dragon" is about a great friendship that develops between a young boy and a dragon. When the villagers want to kill the dragon, the boy saves it.

Franklin Hinesner is designing the costumes; Del Van Orden is lighting engineer; Robert Thomas, stage manager; Audrey Houghtelin is in charge of the sets; Norma Van Leeuwen, business manager; Mrs. L. L. Langdon, secretary; Joan Bravard, treasurer; Mrs. Ross Ward is costume mistress, and Mrs. Fran Lambert is program and poster illustrator.

Rehearsal for the cast will be at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Wednesday and Friday at the O'Leary Junior High School Auditorium and rehearsal will be every night the week of Oct. 18-16.

Music for this play is being arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Larry L. Christopherson, directors of the elementary and junior high school string program. They will be playing in a four-piece orchestra with Peggy Kuykendall and Dave Follingstad.

SMYLIE SURPRISED AT GOP REPORT

BOISE (UPI) Gov. Robert E. Smylie expressed surprise Friday at the report of a syndicated columnist that he had told National GOP Chairman Ray Bliss he would seek a fourth term in 1970.

"I haven't discussed the matter with Mr. Bliss," Smylie told a news conference. "I've got to find out where Bliss gets his information."

Smylie termed the report "obvious speculation."

Fairfield Girl Hurt in Crash

FAIRFIELD—Janet Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cook, Fairfield, was listed in good condition Saturday at Sun Valley Hospital with injuries received in a two-car collision Friday afternoon at the edge of Fairfield.

She and Theresa Gaezle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Gaezle, were passengers in a car driven by Linda Bartholomew, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Bartholomew. All the girls live in Fairfield.

Sheriff Paul Cox said investigation is continuing into the crash. The Bartholomew car collided with a vehicle owned by Ruben Miller, Fairfield, and driven by Larry Jones, about 19, also Fairfield. Both cars were reportedly demolished.

Telephone "Hate Campaign" Is Being Directed at PTA

A "hate campaign" is being conducted throughout the nation against the PTA by the "radical right," Mrs. Anna Hayes, Twin Falls, past president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, reported Saturday.

A new method of attack is being used, she explained, is the recorded message aired over "hot-line" numbers of local telephone systems.

Mrs. Jennelle Moorhead, current national PTA president, called the telephone attacks "scurrilous and outrageous attacks on the PTA" by the "radical right" which calls itself "Citizens for Freedom."

She noted that an anonymous telephone message is being played from a Chicago telephone and from telephones in Detroit, Indianapolis, Des Moines and other cities as well.

It describes the PTA as "basically a lobby for left-wing educators who work closely with the bureaucrats in the U. S. Office of Education to federalize our schools in the Russian manner."

To apply that the PTA which "to federalize our schools in the Russian manner" is actually a lobby for left-wing educators who work closely with the bureaucrats in the U. S. Office of Education to federalize our schools in the Russian manner."

In a protest to Frederick R. Kappel, chairman of the board of American Telephone and Telegraph Co., she wrote, "The 12 billion annual cost of the PTA nationally will be largely used for the use being made of Bell Telephone's Automatic Announcement Service to attack an organization that has devoted itself so effectively for 68 years to securing for every American child the highest advantages in physical, mental, social and spiritual education."

The PTA has been the target of extremist attacks for some time, Mrs. Moorhead noted, "and the current campaign to smear us with the label of socialist or Communist is undoubtedly made in retaliation" to the national PTA's publication of a "very effective leaflet" describing the techniques of extremism.

WHIRLIGIG

WASHINGTON — There is something pathetic and frightening in the continued insistence of United Nations Secretary General U. Thant that Communism in China must be admitted to the U.N. to give that country a seat on the Security Council. He says he will do anything to make and keep the peace.

U. Thant sometimes squanders as much of his time as he has spent in the U.N. for the past 20 years. He clings to the belief that the United States and other nations oppose Peking's admission to the U.N. because of its unpopularity.

There is no secret about these aspirations. Mao Tse-tung and others have proclaimed them publicly, and at tedious length, for a decade, and most recently Defense Minister Lin Biao brought them up to date in a 50,000-word "Main Report" which is nothing less than a pattern for world conquest.

ANOTHER NAME FOR WAR — Lin has called upon the communist world to dedicate itself to encircling and destroying the capitalist governments of Western Europe and North America. This is to be done by giving complete support to the so-called "people's wars" of national liberation in Asia, Africa and Latin America. Lin says that the premise that peace in Viet Nam cannot be achieved without the cooperation of Peking; he makes it clear that far from being a neighborhood quarrel, Viet Nam is merely the first step in Red China's campaign for world domination.

It is Lin's premise that the "holistic course of world revolution" hinges on the so-called "revolutionary struggles" in what he calls the "rural areas," to wit, Asia, Africa and Latin America. Therefore, he deplores the communist duties should consider their international duty to promote violence, chaos and subversion in these "under havens."

Hardly a great deal of this talk has to be said before it is obvious that the "holistic course of world revolution" hinges on the so-called "revolutionary struggles" in what he calls the "rural areas," to wit, Asia, Africa and Latin America. Therefore, he deplores the communist duties should consider their international duty to promote violence, chaos and subversion in these "under havens."

But it is what Peking wants to do, it is the prime objective of Peking's foreign policy, and Peking has shown in South Africa and even in Africa that it will pursue this goal in defiance against the time when it can take a bigger bite. Mao and his cronies, by their own words, are committed to the role of international trouble makers.

NEW AFRICA FOR MAO — Aside from the point that such a trouble-making nation has no place in an organization dedicated to world peace, it should be obvious that admitting Red China to the U.N. would enhance its military campaign. The U.N. would provide Peking with a pulpit from which to woo the naïve; it would be a cloak room in which Mao's emissaries could do some arm-twisting. As Harry Truman used to say, you don't invite a gang-banger into your house.

The U.N.'s success in achieving a Indo-Pakistani cease-fire seems to have gone to U. Thant's head, possibly because it wouldn't be crowded. He's kidding himself again. The cease-fire was made possible because American and Russian interests for once happened to coincide and yet. It was because of the inefficiency of power politics, not a triumph for sweet talk.

BETWEEN TWO BLOCs — The declining strength of the labor bloc, and the remaining strength of the farm bloc, are being tested in two amendments to the farm bill before the Senate. The public generally cannot conclude that either bloc is more than half right.

Organized labor has a convincing case against an amendment added by the Agriculture Committee, to shift from the Secretary of Labor to the Secretary of Agriculture the power to determine whether foreign workers are needed on American farms. The clear purpose of this shift is to make more Mexican braceros available to large domestic farm operations. The working conditions of American farm workers, whom Secretary of Labor Wirtz has been trying to help. The amendment should be removed.

For its part, the farm interest coincides with labor, to urge the President to end some shipping regulations. These regulations, which prohibit any commercial sale of wheat or other farm commodities to Communist countries, have restricted in United States flag vessels. The restrictions make it difficult to reduce farm surpluses, of course, but they do more: They inject domestic political fears and considerations into foreign policy.

In fact, such shipping restrictions may conceivably violate treaties and the Export Control Act. Senator Symington has introduced, for Senate ratification, a proposal for a trade agreement with the Soviet Union. Congress might know the answers before it surrenders to the demand for continued unnecessary curbs on American trade.

FURY, FURY AGAIN? — Harassed business-owners have discovered an easy way to cope with telephone solicitors in hanging up on them. But now there is word of an ingenious new telephone invention which thwarts this strategy. If the lady of the house hangs up in the middle of the recorded sales pitch, the device retails the number and starts spilling again. It won't quit until the victim picks up and hears it out.

Assemblyman Joseph Konick of Long Beach, Calif., chairman of the Public Utilities and Corporations Committee in California's lower legislative body, calls the device "inhuman" and its use in his state would introduce legislation to outlaw it.

What's press such formal action won't be necessary. Hell hath no fury like that of a lady called out of the bathroom to listen to a sidling salesman over the phone. And if she is called several times in a row, the negotiation potential of her wrath would be incalculable. We feel sorry for anyone for any business man bold enough to try it. —The Oregonian.

FARMER AND THE DUKE — An elderly farmer traveled to Texas recently for successful heart surgery. The incident is not notable except that the beneficiary by the same doctor for the same ailment, a recently afflicted Duke of Windsor. Certainly the world has changed when an American farmer can receive the same medical attention as a former king of England. —Milwaukee Journal.

DIMINISHING — A new television set has a screen less than a match in length. A little smaller and it will match the length of more TV programs. Atlanta Journal.

REAL GOOD THINKING — My wife is afraid of her shadow. Whenever she's left alone at night, she promptly turns on every light in the house and makes sure the yard light is burning.

I keep telling her that all the lights blazing away won't protect her and if anything will just attract attention to the house. She says there's some logic in what I say, but always adds that she feels safer with all the lights on.

What do you do in a case like that?

Mera Man — (Twin Falls) A good percentage of the one million schoolchildren released from the Catholic schools of New York, New Jersey and Connecticut are expected to line the paratour routes through Queens, Manhattan and the Bronx in addition to millions of adults.

Fickets sent in each of 349 Catholic dioceses in the United States for the open air mass at Yankee Stadium will bring pilgrims from California, Wisconsin, Texas, Florida and Maine. But the whirlwind schedule of the Pope's trip disappointed most of America's 35 million Catholics who had hoped for an extensive papal tour of U. S. cities.

A question that is being asked in and out of Catholic circles today is: What's the rush? High-placed Catholic sources said the Pope would be appalled if anyone in America interpreted the brevity of his country which has the second largest Catholic population in the world after Italy.

The fact is that Pope Paul does not regard this flying trip as a visit to America. It is a visit to the United Nations. What happens to have his headquarters here.

The pontiff still plans a "real" visit to the United States, perhaps within a year.

SURE-FIRE SYSTEM — Dear Patsy: Understand there's a shortage of silver money. There's no reason for it. If the authorities, merchants, bankers or whoever's concerned want to assure a good supply of silver coins in circulation, it's quite simple. Just offer a $5 bill for every silver dollar and caught up $2 for every half dollar. The plan is guaranteed to get results.

There's only one flaw in this sure-fire system. I'm afraid it would take all the $5 bills now in circulation and a good share of the $1 bills before anyone could push the button to shut it off.

MIND OVER BLUBBER — Patsy: Don't know why so many people are worrying about their weight. If you feel good and your health is good, why worry about a few extra pounds? Also, I feel there's too much emphasis on weight control these days. No one has anything more pressing, so too many people fret about their weight.

All this thinking about weight may be one of the reasons so many people weigh too much. If folks would stop thinking about it, they wouldn't have so much fat.

DON'T BE SQUARE! — Dear Gent: Ever watch a teen-ager girl (or boy, for that matter) using a telephone? It's a riot! They sprawl all over a chair or even get down on the floor. Telephone unless they have a record going in the record book or perhaps one of those small portable radios at their ear.

Frankly, I don't know how they manage to hear anything in record or phone conversation.

FAMOUS LAST LINE — It's funny how last year's might be senior in high school this year, a green freshman in college!

GENTLEMAN IN THE FOURTH ROW — Yet, much as I dislike the suburbs, I share all men's desire for a personal Eden.

Religion In America

By LOUIS CASSELS (United Press International)

NEW YORK (UPI) — Pope Paul VI will be seen Monday on his visit to the United States by more persons than have ever before viewed a pontiff in one day, but millions of Americans will be disappointed by the brevity of his stay.

More than two million faithful and curious hailed the Pope on his visit to Bombay for the Eucharistic Congress last December, and an even larger number is expected to welcome him in New York Monday. Estimates run from three to five million persons who will catch at least a fleeting glance of a pontiff during his 13½-hour American visit.

A good percentage of the one million schoolchildren released from the Catholic schools of New York, New Jersey and Connecticut are expected to line the paratour routes through Queens, Manhattan and the Bronx in addition to millions of adults.

Fickets sent in each of 349 Catholic dioceses in the United States for the open air mass at Yankee Stadium will bring pilgrims from California, Wisconsin, Texas, Florida and Maine. Some U. S. Protestants are extremely touchy about anything which smacks of recognizing the Pope as head of a sovereign state (Vatican City).

The White House announced that President Johnson will see the Pope while he's in New York. The President has scheduled a visit to New York Oct. 6 to attend a dinner given by U. N. Ambassador Arthur Goldberg, and will remain overnight and have a talk with the Pope on Oct. 4.

By meeting in New York City, the President and Pope will not have to face various problems that would arise if Paul VI were to make an official visit to the White House.

Both Italy and America reached a difficult six-diamond contract on board 43 of the International Match. That is, it was difficult to bid, but the contract was sound and would have made with reasonable breaks.

The American bidding is shown in the box. North's jump with the eight-of-diamonds trick was West's opportunity to take a 50-point penalty.

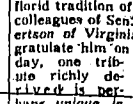

At the other table the Italian bidding was extremely complicated but the team did not lose a trick in the six-diamond contract which might have made it. Where the American West opened the ace of hearts and continued the suit.

After that lead it would have been fairly easy for South to make the contract, but he drew one round of spades and forewent of his trump bid. Six diamonds can be made against the decree of spades but, as stated above, it would require exact knowledge of where all the cards are.

MARQUIS CHILDS WRITES ON WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON — When, in the Florida tradition of the body of his colleagues of Sen. A. Willis Robertson of Virginia rose to congratulate him on his 78th birthday, one tribute richly deserved was his being called "The Duck Hunter."

He can remember when he was a young hunter in the night in the duck season on a press car in the mud of canvassers big cities of the Eastern Seaboard. That was in the heyday of the market-hunter, who would stalk the waterfowl, ducks a day.

Either experts in Interior would not take the senator's allegorical prophecy seriously or they thought that a wild outburst of profanity would produce the same result. For a week after a wire, Secretary of the Interior would not take the senator's allegorical prophecy seriously or they thought that a wild outburst of profanity would produce the same result.

It is not merely the rubber market that is the problem, but the still muddier market for oil, or, who threatening market for extinction. A complex of circumstances hangs under the dubious head of oil.

I have watched with distress the decline and fall of our duck population. In view of the report that it is now at the lowest level since surveys were started in 1947, I strongly urge that you close the season in the United States for the year and ask our Canadian friends to take similar action.

He demands that the secretary of the Interior, who has jurisdiction, close the season for duck hunting for a year. The appearance of a conservationist at a time like this is a duck blind as the senator. In his telegram to Secretary Stewart Udall this year he said:

Now and then when he has a spare moment Senator Robertson stands in melancholy contemplation before the case in which he has been treated purely as a religious leader, and shown the same courtesy that would be accorded to someone like the archbishop of Canterbury or the orthodox patriarch of Constantinople.

Catholics, on the other hand, are less than a chief of state, would be offended by an arrangement that seemed to slight his status in deference to a religious sensibilities.

Bill D. Moyers, the Baptist minister who serves as President Johnson's press secretary, is keenly aware of the strong feelings latent on both sides and undoubtedly had a hand in working out the arrangements for the New York meeting.

If the Pope returns in a year or so for a tour of America, the same problems will have to be faced. But given adequate time for preparation, it seems likely that U. S. and Vatican diplomats will be able to work out ingenious solutions that won't get anyone's dander up.

HANDICAPPED BOOKKEEPER at Union Motors, Twin Falls, is Robert Murphy, 337 Walnut St. Although Murphy has scoliosis of the spine and is unable to bend his back or speak above a whisper, his confidence to do an outstanding job in his field. He has been with the firm since 1963 and was with Rocky Mountain Chemical Co. before coming to Union Motors. (Times-News photo)

Handicapped Man Performs Productively as Bookkeeper

The 20th anniversary of "Hire the Physically Handicapped Week" is Sunday through Saturday, reports Larry Mitchell, member of the Twin Falls Committee on the Employment of Handicapped.

An example of those helped by the Twin Falls committee is Robert Murphy, 29, 337 Walnut St., a bookkeeper for Union Motors Ford Co.

Murphy was born in November, 1936, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Murphy, Twin Falls, and grew up like any other healthy American boy, until the eighth grade. That's when his parents and his physical education teacher at Twin Falls Junior High School began to notice he was having trouble in playing games which other boys would do easily.

The condition steadily began to worsen and finally while a sophomore at Twin Falls High School, it was diagnosed that the youth had scoliosis of the spine, and the vertebrae in his back were fusing together to form one solid bone.

It was decided by his doctor that he should go to the Salt Lake City LDS Hospital for treatment of the disease and it was to be here that he would spend the next nine months of his life in a cast, put on his back.

When Murphy left the hospital to return to Twin Falls and his junior year of high school, he was a changed person, physically. He could not bend his back and had a difficult time walking. In addition to this, the scoliosis had affected his lungs and his vocal cords were scarred to a degree that he could only speak in a whisper. The scoliosis had already done its damage.

Murphy had a challenge put to him. This crippling disease had challenged him in his ability to become a productive person in a society that could at times be extremely hard on those who were physically handicapped. Robert Murphy accepted that challenge.

He began by finishing high school and was a member of the 1955 graduating class at Twin Falls High School. Upon graduation he decided to continue his education at the University of Idaho. The climate at Moscow however was not compatible with his lung condition and he had to quit after one semester.

Murphy took this first disappointment in stride though and enrolled at Twin Falls Business College where he completed the full two-year curriculum in bookkeeping. While in Business College he earned his spending money by delivering telegrams by bicycle for Western Union.

The Twin Falls Committee on the Employment of Handicapped helped to find Murphy a job as an accountant with the Rocky Mountain Chemical Co. in Twin Falls, where he worked until 1963 when he assumed the position as a bookkeeper at Union Motors.

His immediate supervisor, William Wilson, office manager, speaks very highly of Murphy saying, "Robert is an extremely conscientious worker, more so than many people who aren't handicapped and he has had to miss only two days during the past year because of illness." Other employees of Union Motors also speak highly of Murphy and his ability to work as well or better than many non-handicapped persons.

But Robert Murphy's answer to this challenge does not stop just with his being able to perform productively in our society.

As for future plans, Murphy eventually wants to operate his own accounting business and looking back over the rough road he has come, it would not be surprising if someday his dream becomes a reality.

Dreams have a habit of coming true for those who have courage, determination and a goal to work towards.

Murphy, 29, is a handicapped person. A person couldn't tell it by watching his work. There are many others just like him; All they ask is just one chance to prove themselves. The week of Sunday through Saturday is dedicated to help these people.

It is "Hire the Physically Handicapped Week."

Water Shortage Is Evident

By JIM ADAMS
BOISE (AP) — It is becoming crystal clear — especially to residents of New York City and the American Southwest — that there is only so much water in the world and it must be conserved.

But a number of scientists and reclamation engineers have been studying that subject for a long time. One of them is Carl E. Tappan, reclamation engineer of a state that still has abundant water, Idaho.

Tappan is optimistic about prospects for water conservation — several effective devices already are being used — but he says there still is much to learn.

"There is as much water in the world as there ever was," he said, "and there always will be as much as there is now. But people are going to have to learn how to extend its use to serve more population."

Some scientists estimate there are about 2 trillion cubic miles of available water in the world and that figures out to billions of gallons per person.

That sounds like plenty of water. But most of it is underground and as things stand now the rest is not readily available to all the people who need it.

The answer, says Tappan, is to conserve the already available water supply and regulate its use so the best years can supply water during the dry ones.

Aside from dams and storage reservoirs, a key water conservation device already in use is the simple one of putting a price on water used, said Tappan.

That device prompts the farmer — the state's major water user — to employ scientific methods in putting the minimum water on his crops to keep his cost margin down.

It prompts the homeowner to turn the tap off more often and waste less water or his lawn to cut the water bill.

The result is that the farmer and homeowner are conserving

RECEIVES AWARD
BOISE (UPI) — Chester D. Putnam, fire control officer for the Boise district, Bureau of Land Management, has received a special $150 award recognizing his work on the Elko fire the summer of 1964.

Delmar Vail, acting district manager, presented the award before a group of BLM employees.

A letter from State BLM Director Joe Allitt said, "You played a major role in getting the fire line and were a key member of the fire headquarters command team. Your devotion to duty was superior."

THIEVES SCARED OFF
BOISE (UPI) — Boise police said today that two men would be thieves at the Western Steel Building Friday night.

Officers said two men wearing T-shirts fled from the building at 27th and Main streets. The two made their get away swift.

A lock was forced open at one entrance but nothing was reported missing. Investigation was continuing.

CHURCH SPEAKS
ASHTON, Idaho (AP) — The key to future development of Idaho's water resources is held by the federal government, says Sen. Frank Church.

The Idaho Democrat told delegates to the Eastern Idaho Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Convention, that he has received assurances from Interior Secretary Stewart Udall no out-of-basin transfer of water will be permitted by the Johnson administration.

"The position taken by the government," he said, "is what really counts since no diversion could take place without federal consent, and any further diversion would require federal financing."

TAXES INCREASED
BOISE (AP) — Increased property taxes are in prospect despite enactment of the sales tax—for residents of Idaho Falls and Pocatello, the Associated Taxpayers of Idaho reported today.

But for most other areas, the organization said, levies will be less than in 1964.

The sales tax bill had companion measures, bills repealing the state property tax, a teacher's retirement levy and a local education social security tax. Lacking this year also are the emergency county tax levies required to make up the deficiency in the state school appropriation in 1963 and 1964.

But despite those cutbacks, Association Executive Manager Max Yost said the over-all tax levy in Idaho Falls is up 3.22 mills and that in Pocatello is up 1.1 mills.

WOMAN FILES
IDAH0 FALLS (UPI) — A woman candidate Friday filed nominating petitions for the Idaho Falls City Council.

Mrs. Lynn Smith, wife of Argonne National Laboratories chemist Dick Smith, will attempt to become the first woman council member in Idaho Falls history.

"I feel there is a place in government for women," she said in making a candidacy announcement.

Three men have entered the council race. They are State Sen. Jack Wood and Quentin Tobin and incumbent Phil Leahy.

Improving
SHOSHONE — Word has been received that Mr. and Mrs. Douglas H. Hansen, who were injured in a car-train-truck accident near Roy, Utah, on Sept. 18, are improved.

Hansen is able to walk some despite several broken bones. Mrs. Hansen is also able to be up. When they will be able to return home, however, has not been determined. They are at the Dee hospital, Ogden, Utah.

ENTERS NORTHWESTERN
SHOSHONE — Fred Over, son of Ray E. Over, Shoshone, has entered Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill., for his first year as a medical student. He was graduated from the University of Idaho last spring.

VISITOR GETS POSITION
BOISE (AP) — Dmitry Polyanskiy, who was named Saturday as first deputy premier of the Soviet Union, was the leader of a group of 12 Soviet government officials who visited Idaho in 1962.

The 12 were in the United States for 24 days, spending two of them in Idaho.

They conferred at the Statehouse with Idaho state governmental leaders, then visited a poultry farm, a food processing plant and a lumber mill.

They also were at the College of Idaho in Caldwell.

At the time Polyanskiy, who did all the speaking for the Russians during their Idaho visit, was chairman of the council of ministers of the Russian Soviet Federated Socialist Republic.

The visit to Idaho followed one to Russia in the preceding year by Idaho Gov. Robert E. Smylie.

FARMER ELECTROCUTED
MELBA (UPI) — An Idaho farmer was electrocuted near Melba Friday night.

The victim was Alvin McDermott, 40. His body was found near a power pole by his farm.

Owyhee County Sheriff Al Barberis said the transformer on the power line had been tampered with and had a short circuit.

The electricity to McDermott's farm was recently turned off by a power company.

The victim is survived by his wife and three children.

AIRMAN KILLED
IDAH0 FALLS (UPI) — The son of an Idaho Falls woman has died in a traffic accident in Florida.

He was Dale Ferrell Harris, 22, son of Mrs. Edna Harris. Harris had entered the Air Force three weeks ago. He was killed Thursday night.

Brazil Slates Big Election For Leader
RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — Brazilians vote Sunday in their first major election since the overthrow last year of left-leaning President Joao Goulart.

The political future of two of the nation's leading politicians is at stake, though neither is on the ballot.

The voting will be to choose the governors of 11 states.

Perhaps the most interest has been generated in Guanabara State, where Gov. Carlos Lacerda has campaigned hard for the election of Carlos Flexa Ribeiro as his successor in the city-state around Rio de Janeiro.

Buhl Man Gets $50 From Plant
Buhl — Ralph B. Turner has been awarded $50 by the Green Giant Co. suggestion system committee.

He proposed that a small platform be built on can boosters to be used in making necessary adjustment or replacements on the booster. The platform will make it easier to work on the machine and will be much safer. This proposal was awarded $25.

The second proposal, also awarded $25, was that a platform be installed between the cable lines from the No. 4 can booster to the cable line gear-head motor. This will aid in checking and repairing the motor. Turner is employed with the firm's division of producers in Buhl.

"Ballet 65" to Inaugurate Community Concert Season

"Ballet 65," acclaimed a triumphant success from every standpoint throughout California and the West during its six seasons, will be appearing at 8:15 p.m. Thursday at the Flier Junior High School auditorium, sponsored by the Community Concert Association.

"Ballet 65" is composed of 12 dancers from the famed San Francisco Ballet and is headed by Sally Bailey and Sue Loyd. The balanced program constitutes a blending of every facet of classical dance, with emphasis on the "Classical" ballet, but also featuring a sampling of provocative, contemporary works.

The varied tour will include new works created especially for the company by the eminent choreographer Lew Christensen, one of the nation's principal classical choreographers today. During its past six seasons at its theatre in San Francisco, Ballet 65 has premiered more than two dozen new works, and has delighted audiences in colleges and communities around the country.

The troupe performs works ranging from the lilt of "Prokofiev Waltzes" to "The Set," a Dave Brubeck jazz score.

Queen Crowned At Homecoming

CAREY — Highlighting Carey High School annual Homecoming celebration Friday was the crowning of Patsy Payne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Payne, as queen.

She was crowned during the halftime ceremony of the Carey-Grand View football game Friday afternoon. Her attendants were Sheryl Farnworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewayne Farnworth; Becky Eldredge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Eldredge.

Jerry Rudd and Lee Cook, football captain, officiated at the ceremony. The sophomore class had the winning float in a pre-game parade down Main Street. The junior high school and senior class floats were second and third place winners.

An informal record dance was held Friday night to complete the activities.

Sanitation Order To Be Discussed

Twin Falls City Commission will meet at 7:30 p.m. Monday to consider a proposed ordinance to amend the present sanitation ordinance.

Other items of business will include a proclamation designating week of Oct. 3 as Fire Prevention Week.

The commission will adjourn meeting until Oct. 14, to canvass election results.

Tank Cleaned

HANSEN — The motel water tank at Hansen was washed, cleaned and recanted this week by the municipal and watermaster, Harold Warren. He was assisted by L. W. Davis, Mont S. Boyer and Mont L. Boyer.

Since the tank must be empty, water was pumped directly into the pipes to provide the town residents with water. Pressure was low, but has been restored since the tank was finished.

Hansen Says Aid Bill Is Inconsistent

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. George Hansen, R-Idaho, said Saturday the foreign aid appropriation bill approved in a House-Senate conference report contained "tragic inconsistencies."

Hansen voted against accepting the report.

Hansen criticized deletion of a provision which would have barred foreign aid to countries trading with North Vietnam.

"Every ship that goes into a North Vietnamese port," Hansen said, "complicates our military problem in Viet Nam and thus adds to the rising toll of lives and dollars being expended there."

Filer Sets School Vote Nov. 2

FILER—An election has been set for Nov. 2 to allow voters to decide whether to issue $600,000 in bonds to build a new elementary school in Filer.

Passage of the bond issue will enable the board of directors of Filer School District No. 413 to purchase land for the school site, build a 12-classroom elementary building and furnish it, and make any improvements on existing schools and school property deemed necessary by the board.

Eligible voters for this election will be resident real property taxpayers in the Filer school district, and the husband or wife of a taxpayer.

A public meeting at which time the bond issue and proposed building plans will be presented has been set for Oct. 26 in the high school auditorium, announced Robert Moldenhauer, chairman of the board of trustees.

welcome requests for speakers on the subject.

Clubs wishing such speakers should contact Moldenhauer, Duane Ramseyer, chairman of the Citizen's Committee.

Famous Celebrities Here For Annual Benefit

BY NORMA HERZINGER

Magic Valley residents greeted two famous celebrities and were entertained with a resplendent host of talent at a Boy Scout Benefit in Twin Falls.

The renowned Barry Goldwater spoke to a captivated audience when he so graciously gave of his time to be featured speaker at this special benefit. Jack Linkletter, the youngest and most versatile "emcee" in television and radio, amused the capacity crowd with his witticisms and pleasing personality.

The "Adult for Scouting" event marked the second annual Cabaret Internationale, hosted by the Snake River Area Council, Boy Scouts of America, at the Blue Lakes Country Club.

Magic Valley residents, numbering 350, donated $100 a couple to attend the benefit, hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Erkins, Buhl. Erkins is Snake River Area Council president.

Guests entered the Blue Lakes Country Club patio through a pathway lighted with amber-colored hurricane lamps. They were greeted by several young women of the community and each woman was presented an orchid corsage.

Explorer Scouts served as ushers and assisted the guests in parking their automobiles.

Following the social hour at 7 p.m., the capacity crowd, being too large to serve in one room, was divided into two groups for dinner. Linkletter and his wife, Barbara, were seated at the head table in the Round Room and Goldwater, flanked by Mr. and Mrs. Erkins and Dr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Marshall, headed the dinner table in the large dining room.

Julie Clement is Bride of Max D. Martin

HAILEY — Julie Marie Clement, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierret, Gannett, and Max D. Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Duke Martin, Bellevue, were married in an afternoon ceremony Sept. 18 at St. Charles Catholic Church, Hailey.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Francis DeNardi before a background setting of tall candelabra and baskets of white gladioli and green chrysanthemums.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of white satin with a fitted lace bodice. An overskirt of lace over a satin modified bell skirt swept into a chapel train. Her shoulder-length, three-tiered-nylon veil, trimmed with lace, was held by a crown of pearls.

She carried a shower bouquet of white stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Patricia Lee Minge, Spokane, Wash., sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Mrs. Sherry Street, All visiting Rebekahs are welcome.

Annual Youth Benefit Held In Twin Falls

Following the dinner, guests convened on the patio for punch and conversation while the dinner area was made ready for the program. Goldwater and Linklater very graciously loaned autographs for the many guests.

Goldwater spoke on youth and family living, stressing the importance of family living and family guidance for youth. Rev. Ronald and Gladys Laubin, famous exponents of American Indian dances, presented a program of Indian dances and rituals. They have devoted their lives to the preservation of the ancient rituals and traditions, dances now forgotten by the Indians themselves.

The Ram Trio, Sun Valley, presented music for dancing following the program. Members of the trio are Larry Lippincott, King McFarland and Frank Gilvo. In 1952 Arthur Godfrey visited Sun Valley and was so impressed by the musicians that he took them to New York to appear on his show.

Committee members in charge of the benefit include Erkin, chairman, James Kinney, James Phelps, Gordon Gray, Otis Williams, Dr. Robert Matson, Lloyd Walker, Jack Rice, Pete Conarussa, Rodney Hansen and M. J. Mazzone, scout director.

Erkin stated that the Executive Board of the Snake River Area Council greatly appreciates the help that so many gave to make the event possible. "In particular, the entertainers who have made their time available for scouting."

Costume Party Held by MIA

OAKLEY — The opening social for members of the LDS Second Ward MIA was held in the form of a costume party and variety show.

Duets were sung by Christine Smith and Dell Smith; Dolores Rodriguez and Susan Rodriguez, and Cathy Pickett and Elaine Jenne. Carla Jenks, Maria Jenks and Helan Jenks sang and Cindy Gunnery presented a tap dance number. Mrs. David Jenne and Mrs. Orvin Jenks played an accordion and ukulele duet. Mrs. Alonzo Stringham directed square dancing.

Seven Counties Represented at District Meet

Seven counties were represented at the Fourth District Idaho Federated Women's Clubs annual workshop and business meeting at the YWCA building.

Luncheon was served at 1 p.m., followed by a program. Charles Lassen presented two vocal numbers, accompanied by Velma Guyer. Dr. Donald Keith, dean of the College of Southern Idaho, was featured speaker.

He spoke of present and future plans for the college. He stated that although there is an enrollment of 500 students, the classes are small and special emphasis was placed on the excellent quality of the teachers. Tentative plans are being formulated for summer school. Mrs. P. D. Wetterow, state president of IFWC, Sandpoint, presented federated plans for the coming year, which include the Diamond Jubilee year making the 75 years of progress in Federated Women's Clubs of which there are 11 million members in 50 states and 54 foreign countries.

Mrs. Wetterow told of attending the General Federation Convention in New Orleans and the official board meeting in San Antonio, Tex. "The general Federation urges its members to take pride in their American heritage," she stated.

Board members were guests at a luncheon at the T.H. Ranch and visited the birthplace of President Johnson. Mrs. Witterow pointed out that only in America could a man of such humble birth be elected by popular vote to be the country's leader. Mrs. Lawrence Sill, fourth district president, and Mrs.

Charles Glasby showed slides of the International Headquarters at Washington, D. C. These slides are available to all Federated Clubs in the district.

Mrs. LaVern Strong, state safety chairman, urged all clubs to participate in local safety programs. Street lighting projects are being carried out in many communities. The resignation of Mrs. Ray Clark, Rupert, second vice president, was accepted during the business meeting. Mrs. Strong was appointed by the board as first vice president and Mrs. Joe Krepek, Filer, second vice president.

The tentative date set for the 1966 convention is set for April 14 and members of the Albion Four Leaf Clover Club are hostesses. COOKOUT HELD FILER—Mr. and Mrs. Morris Carlson were hosts at the Methodist Youth Fellowship cookout.

Coco-Nut-Crunch Pie
Heat oven to 375 degrees. Press one 9-inch unbaked pie shell, or an eight-inch shell and two or three tart shells. Beat three large or four small eggs at a medium-sized bowl. Beat three-fourths cup sugar with three-fourths cup light corn syrup, just to hold it. Pour slowly over well beaten eggs, stirring constantly. Add two tablespoons butter and stir until melted. Then add one teaspoon vanilla, one tablespoon lemon juice and one-fourth teaspoon salt. Stir well. Add one cup bran flakes (or wheat flakes), one cup flaked coconut and one-fourth cup finely cut nuts. Stir in one-third cup milk, warming slightly. (Heat in same saucepan used for sugar-syrup mixture. Do not boil.) Pour into prepared shell. Turn oven back to 350 degrees and bake 35 to 45 minutes until lightly browned and mixture is set. (Protect edge of shell with foil roll.) Serve warm or cold. Note: (This pie is very rich and requires no topping, but may be served with ice cream or whipped cream topping. A nine-inch pie can be cut into seven or eight pieces.)

Renee Smith, Samples Recite Wedding Vows

HURLEY—Renee Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick D. Samples, Burley, and Frederick D. Samples, Burley, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Samples, Grand Junction, Colo., were united in marriage Sept. 4 at the Burley Seventh Ward LDS Chapel.

The evening ceremony was performed by Bishop Tom Geary before an archway flanked by beautiful bouquets of autumn floral arrangements of chrysanthemums.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, received vows in a floor-length gown of plain de sole bridal satin embellished with a ruffled neckline and long flared sleeves. The wedding gown was made by Mrs. Wilma Parish, aunt of the bride.

Her floor-length veil of lace was held by a crown of seed pearls, made by the bride. She carried a white coral surrounded by tallman roses.

Karen Thuston was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Kandy Smith, Mary Vigh and Judy Samples, sister of the bridegroom.

Robert Wilson, Grand Junction, was best man. Ushers were James T. Anderson, Lanny Brower and Gary Hoyle.

Helen Mai played the traditional wedding music and Sharon Franks played a piano solo.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Seventh Ward Recreation Hall.

Guests were registered by Brenda Parish. Gifts were arranged by Mrs. Douglas Mounce, Maxeen Peterson, Linda Smith and Florence Hyllon. Gifts were carried by Connie Smith, Cleopatra Nielsen, Alice Nielsen, Holly Matthews, Pamela Fenton, Melodi Walker, Anne Schorzon, Lynne Nelson and Terry Nelson.

The bride's table was covered with white and centered with a four-tiered wedding cake featuring orange decorations.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. LaDell Handy, Mrs. Fred Jens, Mrs. Dale Shelly and Barbara Stens. Assisting in the kitchen were Mrs. Spencer Black, Mrs. Blaine Robins, Mrs. O. Parish, Mrs. Freda Manning, Mrs. Lurie McCullison and Mrs. Marlon Thaxton.

Guests were seated at quartet tables covered with white cloths and centered with small snifters holding a tallman rose with an orange net ruffled at the base.

The couple took a wedding trip to Yellowstone National Park.

All-Day Work Parley Field

EDEN-HAZELTON—Mrs. Carolyn Larkin presented the lesson at the all-day work meeting of the LDS Relief Society.

Mrs. Larkin spoke on vocational goals and marriage. She stressed that the wise mother may guide you to walk toward satisfying vocations and to a happy marriage.

It was announced that the regular Relief Society meetings will resume Wednesday at the church.

Members made doll and dog pajama bags from plastic bottles and quilted on bazaar quilt.

A noon luncheon was served by Mrs. Lee Coulson and Mrs. George Mendenhall.

Prayers were led by Mrs. Kermit Douglas and Mrs. J. O. Gardner.

Miss Wallington Is Married to Frank L. Odd

JEROME—Joan Claire Wallington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harleigh Wallington, and Frank L. Odd, son of Mrs. Della Odd, Ogden, Utah, were married Aug. 28 in the United Presbyterian Church.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. George Barnhart before a setting of white gladioli, larkspur and white lighted tapers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a two-piece white linen suit with white hat and veil accented with white feathered chrysanthemums. Her corsage of yellow roses was accented with green chiffon ribbons.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Glen Thompson, Ogden, sister of the bridegroom.

Charles Odd, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Karleen Dellinger.

A reception was held following the ceremony in the garden at the home of the bride's parents.

Sandra Jardine, Buhl, was in charge of the guest book.

Gifts were displayed by Mrs. Jack Jardine, Buhl.

The bride's table was covered with lace over yellow and centered with a five-tiered wedding cake. Heart-shaped cakes formed the base of the cake.

The cake was decorated with yellow roses, with an arrangement of lilies of the valley, wedding bells and white tulle between each tier, and topped with three satin wedding bells adorned with seed pearls.

Completing the table arrangement were long stemmed yellow roses in crystal branched snifters. The table was arranged by Mrs. W. W. Weible.

Mrs. Raymond Brown, Ketchum, and Mrs. Ruby Jardine, Buhl, aunts of the bride, cut and served the cake. Punch was served by Mrs. Ernie Mecham.

Mrs. Clark Heiles, president of the silver coffee service.

Guests were seated at quartet tables centered with small brandy snifters accented with net and yellow roses.

The couple took a honeymoon trip to Sun Valley.

Guests attended from Utah, California, Buhl, Ketchum, F.

Classic Look Featured in Fall Fashions

PARIS (UPI)—Designer Hubert de Givenchy has designed a classic, country club look for women who can't wear the vamped, "geometric" young fashions.

Right out of the late '40's and '50's and into Givenchy's winter collection press showing went fitted waistlines, blouse-like tops with football shoulders or ruffled sleeves, cartwheel hats, double strands of pearls, gored skirts, etc.

Both suits and coats retained a narrow look except for the high, round shoulders or buttoning armholes.

There wasn't a loose, "sack" dress in the house. If his daytime and evening dresses were not belted, they fitted through the waist like wallpaper. He kept his dress silhouette either fitted princess style, or a narrow skirt topped by a blouse-like heavy top with buttoning sleeves.

Givenchy's hemlines were at mid-knee, conservative for Paris. But he succumbed to the "leg interest" craze. Cocktail dresses often were hemmed with feathers.

One floor-length white evening gown was slit from floor to knee to show the mannequin's gold-colored lace stockings.

The designer's daytime coats were a riot of bright orange, green and purple with double rows of black buttons.

But black dominated late day and evening wear. One black satin short evening dress had suspended straps that fastened with big white buttons in back. Sticking to Givenchy's 1950ish revival, the dress had a fitted bodice, cap sleeves and billowing bell-shaped skirt.

REUNION HELD
SHOSHONE—A Stoddard-Taylor family reunion was held at the Mary L. Gooding Park. Members attended from Moore, Angelope Creek, Hammett, Twin Falls, Boise, Shoshone and North Shoshone.

Hagerman OES Has Initiation

HAGERMAN—Mrs. Kenneth Hume, worthy matron of Order of Eastern Star, conducted the unit's regular meeting and initiation was held for a new member.

Mrs. Hattie Wilson, Chapter No. 67, Eaton, Colo., was a guest.

The group voted to purchase five dozen folding chairs. The next meeting is Oct. 20 when Home Fund Night will be observed.

Mrs. Raymond Brown, Ketchum, and Mrs. Ruby Jardine, Buhl, aunts of the bride, cut and served the cake. Punch was served by Mrs. Ernie Mecham.

Mrs. Clark Heiles, president of the silver coffee service.

Guests were seated at quartet tables centered with small brandy snifters accented with net and yellow roses.

The couple took a honeymoon trip to Sun Valley.

Guests attended from Utah, California, Buhl, Ketchum, F.

Ex-Hailey Editor Dies In Minnesota

HAILEY — Kenneth Allen, 52, former internatman newsmen and editor of the Hailey Times, died Friday night while attending a homecoming event at Albert Lea High School in Albert Lea, Minn.

He was executive editor of the Albert Lea Daily Tribune and had served as managing editor, editor as well as executive editor of the Albert Lea paper.

Mr. Allen had worked on newspapers in Detroit, Salt Lake City and Pocatello. In the 1930's he owned and operated the Hailey Times with Larry Irwin, Twin Falls.

Mr. Allen was born in McCammon, attended Oregon State College and was graduated from Idaho State University, Pocatello. He also served as Blaine County representative.

He was married to the former Joyce Thompson of Twin Falls. He went to Albert Lea from Holland, Mich., where he was editor of the Holland Sentinel four years.

Concluding rites were held at Elmwood Cemetery.

Intensive Digging Indicated In Salmon Area Near Shoup

SALMON — General results of a summer of digging into two rock shelters along the Salmon River below Shoup indicate that intensive work should be done in the Salmon River region in the next few years.

Dr. Earl H. Swanson, director, Idaho State University Museum, said.

Dr. Swanson said that in general, the results confirm expectations of an early Bitterroot culture along the Salmon River, and it may well be that this culture pattern is earlier in the Salmon River country than at Birch Creek in eastern Idaho.

"This does not mean that the occupation of any kind in earlier along the Salmon than at Birch Creek," Dr. Swanson noted, "but simply that this pattern of Bitterroot culture appears older along the Salmon River."

Students under direction of Dr. Swanson centered their digging at two rock shelters between Pine Creek and Panther Creek along the Salmon River.

The ISU official said that in the up-river, or Beta rock shelter, there was evidence of man which may date between 11,000 and 12,000 years ago.

"We found a small number of stone tools, as well as some bone implements, flakes, charcoal and animal bone. We found this just above a layer of volcanic ash which apparently came from an eruption of Glacier Peak in the Cascade range in Washington."

"This eruption took place something around 12,000 years ago. We have not yet completed our work at the rock shelter, since there are earlier deposits which could contain evidence of man."

Dr. Swanson said that as a result he plans to make one return trip here this autumn to help decide whether to work in the area next summer.

"The later material in the rock shelter are not too plentiful until a fossil soils is reached, which was formed about 7,500-8,000 years ago. At that time we have good evidence of the Bitterroot culture, which, we believe, represents an ancestral Northern Shoshoni."

Dr. Swanson reported that the down-river, or Alpha rock shelter, yielded abundant remains of the Bitterroot Culture, and "we now feel certain that it begins in the locality well before 8,000 years ago. We have one carbon date which indicates that man was certainly in the area well before 5,200 B.C."

Dr. Swanson said the museum is beginning analysis of sediments and radio-carbon samples and hopes to have a report completed by Christmas.

"We were able to do so much in the field that our autumn laboratory work has been very much simplified," the museum director said.

Dr. Swanson noted that there is much to be discovered in the Salmon River area and "we feel that substantial progress will be made in writing the prehistory of Idaho if we can work regularly in the Salmon River drainage basin."

Dr. Swanson indicated that burials on Bureau of Land Management land at Salmon, which his group checked, "turned out to be destroyed and there was nothing left to salvage except a few beads."

"We are quite unhappy with this turn of events, and I hope that we will not be confronted with a race to archaeological sites in competition that we cannot win. We would surely lose such a contest."

Reminder

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — John Owczarrak of Philadelphia has no trouble remembering birthdays in his family.

Last Wednesday, Sept. 29, his wife, Barbara, gave birth to a daughter, Theresa. His wife also was born Sept. 29, 1930.

And Mrs. Owczarrak's mother, Mrs. Micheline Jalkowski also was born Sept. 29.

What year?

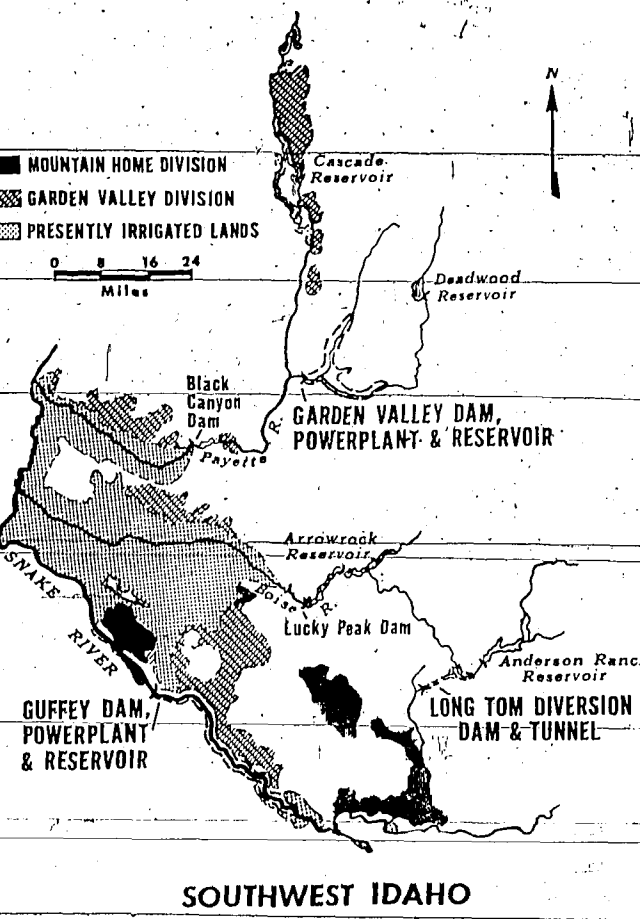

"I don't ask your mother-in-law a question like that," said Owczarrak.

Photographer Is Killed in Viet Nam War

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Photographer Bernard Kolbenberg, 34, of the Albany Times-Union died with two U.S. Air Force Skyraider pilots in an aerial collision on a combat run Saturday.

On leave from his newspaper, Kolbenberg had been operating for a week on an assignment for The Associated Press. He was a passenger in one of the Skyriders, following a war that fascinated him with its drama, humor and terror.

A U.S. spokesman reported the two fighter-bombers had smashed together in a strike against a Viet Cong party about five miles east of the U.S. 1st Cavalry Division's positions in the An Khe Valley, 250 miles northeast of Saigon.

Identification of the pilots was withheld.

Kolbenberg was the second American newsmen to die in Viet Nam in little more than two weeks. Jerry Rose, 31, a freelance writer of Glensville, Pa., was killed Sept. 18 in the crash of an airliner at Quang Ngai.

Misabeled Boric Acid Is Sought

WASHINGTON (AP) — A search is under way on the West Coast for 120 bottles of a potentially dangerous substance mislabeled boric acid.

The Food and Drug Administration said the product, containing an aluminum compound, "may constitute an imminent danger to health." It said three complaints of eye injuries after using the substance have been reported in the San Francisco area.

The 120 bottles still have not been accounted for from a shipment labeled boric acid solution NF, Code No. 555029, packed by Robinson Laboratory, Inc., of San Francisco.

It was distributed in May 1965 not only in California but also to wholesale druggists in Everett and Seattle, Wash., Portland and Eugene, Ore., Salt Lake City, Utah, and Tucson, Ariz.

The FDA urged druggists and consumers in that area to check for any stocks of the mislabeled product.

Mrs. Clara Jones Dies in Hospital

HOLLISTER — Mrs. Clara L. Jones, Hollister, died Saturday afternoon at Twin Falls Hospital Clinic of a short illness.

She was born Oct. 13, 1888, at Patterson, N. J., and moved to Idaho in 1912. She was married to Oran Jones in 1916, and they lived in Kimberly for a period of time.

She was a member of the Lutheran Church. She was preceded in death by her husband.

Survivors include two sons, Oran Jones and Ora Jones, both Hollister; three daughters, Mrs. Marion (Mary) Pendergraft, Hollister; Mrs. Norman Earl Jerome, and Mrs. Dave (Doris) Ruggs, Blackwell, Okla., and 21 grandchildren.

Funeral services are pending.

Chester W. Wise Taken by Death

BOISE — Chester W. Wise, 68, longtime resident of Twin Falls, died Friday in Veterans Hospital, Boise.

He was born Nov. 21, 1897, to James H. and Ann M. Wise in Winston, Mo. Funeral arrangements will be announced.

By-Products of Water Project Are Noted

WASHINGTON (AP) — Recreation Project would result in creation of recreational facilities of "national significance."

They said in addition to irrigating 300,000 acres of arid land and generating a half million kilowatts of electric power, the $500 million project would provide a wide range of recreational and hunting facilities for waterfowl and fish.

"Water from the Snake, Boise and Payette rivers, exchanged between units to insure maximum benefit to every irrigator," Church said, "would additionally create a sportsman's paradise within easy reach of a quarter of Idaho's population."

White and Church proposed the project last month and have pledged to seek its authorization by Congress early next year.

Largest of the project reservoirs would extend south from Guffey Dam on the Snake River near M-a-r-e-l-n-g-40 miles upstream to Grandview. White said the 9,000-acre lake would be ideal for both fishing and water sports.

Church said the 160-acre Long Tom diversion reservoir and the half-mile long Upper Canyon Creek diversion reservoir would provide additional recreational facilities.

Long Tom reservoir north of Mountain Home, would provide a "nationally significant wildlife refuge."

"A 5,000-acre lake, half of which would be marshland, promises to provide excellent waterfowl nesting areas, especially located within the Pacific Flyway," Church said.

Man Refuses Questions In Slayings

SEATTLE (AP) — Antonio N. Wheat, 20, Paine Field airman, refused to answer questions Saturday about the shooting of three Seattle-area service station attendants he and a companion are charged with slaying last spring.

Wheat was called to the stand the third day of their pre-trial hearing. The jury was still excluded from the courtroom.

The pre-trial session was ordered by Chief Judge William J. Wilkins after the jury was picked, for him to rule whether alleged confessions by Wheat and Arthur N. Aiken, also 20 and of Paine Field, shall be admitted as evidence in their first-degree-murder trial.

Questioned by Chief Criminal Deputy Prosecutor William L. Kinzie, Wheat said repeatedly he "preferred not to answer" questions about the robbery-slayings.

Miner Injured in Oakley Accident

BURLEY — William Pfeiffer, who was injured in a one-vehicle accident on the Birch Creek road 10 miles southeast of Oakley Friday afternoon, was listed in fair condition Saturday at Cassia Memorial Hospital.

Deputy Sheriff Ray Mitchell said Pfeiffer and Clint White were riding in a 1959 Jeep which apparently went out of control and overturned twice near the Garnet Kidd corral as they were en route to Oakley. Both men are employed at the Sierra Mine 25 miles southeast of Oakley.

The men were found after the accident by Ernest Hilo and were taken by ambulance to the hospital where White was treated and released.

SEATTLE (AP) — Antonio N. Wheat, 20, Paine Field airman, refused to answer questions Saturday about the shooting of three Seattle-area service station attendants he and a companion are charged with slaying last spring.

Wheat was called to the stand the third day of their pre-trial hearing. The jury was still excluded from the courtroom.

The pre-trial session was ordered by Chief Judge William J. Wilkins after the jury was picked, for him to rule whether alleged confessions by Wheat and Arthur N. Aiken, also 20 and of Paine Field, shall be admitted as evidence in their first-degree-murder trial.

Questioned by Chief Criminal Deputy Prosecutor William L. Kinzie, Wheat said repeatedly he "preferred not to answer" questions about the robbery-slayings.

Miner Injured in Oakley Accident

BURLEY — William Pfeiffer, who was injured in a one-vehicle accident on the Birch Creek road 10 miles southeast of Oakley Friday afternoon, was listed in fair condition Saturday at Cassia Memorial Hospital.

Deputy Sheriff Ray Mitchell said Pfeiffer and Clint White were riding in a 1959 Jeep which apparently went out of control and overturned twice near the Garnet Kidd corral as they were en route to Oakley. Both men are employed at the Sierra Mine 25 miles southeast of Oakley.

The men were found after the accident by Ernest Hilo and were taken by ambulance to the hospital where White was treated and released.

MINICO BELTS BEES; GOODING RIPS BUHL

Spartan Defense, Grinding Offense Net 27-7 Victory

RUPERT—The undefeated Minico Spartans lost their unscored-upon boast Friday night but still dropped the Bonneville Bees 27-7 in Eastern Idaho Conference play. Bonneville had a good scoring opportunity in the early seconds when Minico fumbled at its own 20-yard line. But the big Spartan defensive unit took over at the 30-yard line and from then on it was all Minico.

Deer and Elk Kill Reported In North Area

HAILEY — Deer, elk and one goat were checked through Idaho Fish and Game Department checking stations Saturday as the big game season opened in the northern portion of Magic Valley.

On the third play of the second half Bonneville fumbled on its own 40-yard line and Minico used that as a springboard for its first score. Kambach cut it from four yards away. On the ensuing kickoff Bonneville got one first down, then went into punt formation. The punt was blocked with Minico taking over on the 30. On the first play Wes Schow went up the middle on a quick opener for the score.

Early in the fourth period Jim Whitaker and Rich Nielsen hooked upon a 10-yard scoring pass. Decker plunged for two points after and Nielsen booted the field.

At a checking station near Bellevue on U.S. Highway 93, 131 hunters were checked in while eight bucks, six does and four fawns were being taken the other way. The same station reported two bulls, two cows and one calf for the closed elk hunt north of Hailey.

James Uranga, Twin Falls conservation officer, worked the deer-creek area and reported seeing five elk that wouldn't be checked out until Sunday. One elk was checked from the Stanley Basin area and a mule deer was taken from the Little Wood River side. The lone mountain goat was reported killed in the Norton Lake area.

Oregon Takes 27-14 Victory From BYU

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — End Steve Bunker of Oregon came up with the key plays Saturday night in the West Coast team's 27-14 victory over Brigham Young.

It was the third non-conference game for unbeaten and undefeated Oregon, which goes to Stanford next week for an opening Pacific Athletic Conference game.

Bunker threw key blocks that set up two touchdowns, caught scoring passes for 20 yards and scored a touchdown himself. It was the first loss for Brigham Young. Nothing went right for the losers.

Rassas Points Irish Over Northwestern

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — Safety Nick Rassas suddenly switched from punt to hero, reaching 92 and 72 yards for touchdowns to give embattled Notre Dame a 28-7 victory over Northwestern in the Irish home football opener Saturday.

With the Irish leading 14-0 ahead 7-6 late in the third quarter, Rassas seemingly hunted the Wildcats another scoring chance when he fumbled a punt and Northwestern recovered on Notre Dame's 20.

Spartans Tip Illini 22-12 In Loop Tilt

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Michigan State, frustrated in the early part of the game and hampered by bad breaks in the first half, roared back to two touchdowns in the final quarter and stamped the goal line on the Big Ten football opener for both schools Saturday.

Michigan State, ranked No. 9 in the nation, came to life after an 80-yard power drive in the fourth period passed by quarterback Bob Alpaia sent MSU ahead for the first time 15-12.

Dormier and Dietrich Tip Bears 40-21

BLISS—Leon Dormier scored four touchdowns and passed for another Friday as the Dietrich Blue Devils thumped the Bliss Bears 40-21 in a Snake River Eight-Man Conference game.

A pass from Dormier to Byron Welks in the first quarter started the Devils on their way. The fleet quarterback made it 13-0 when Bliss fumbled on a punt and he went in from five.

Cowboys Hit Arizona 19-0 In WAC Game

LARAMIE, Wyo. (AP) — Sophomore Jerry DePoyster kicked two field goals, one for 49 yards, as the Wyoming Cowboys defeated Arizona, 19-0, in a Western Athletic Conference football game today.

DePoyster broke up a defensive battle in the third quarter when he kicked the long field goal. It set a Wyoming and Western Athletic Conference record. His second field goal came with two seconds showing, from 42 yards out.

Weber Topples Montana State

ODGEN (UPI) — Upstart Weber State College refused to under the role Saturday night and upset defending Big Sky Conference champion Montana State 19-16 in a see-saw battle in which the young Wildcats finally became of age.

TIED UP, Boise's Jerry Dunne comes to the end of a nine-yard gain in the grasp of three Twin Falls Bruins. Applying the brakes are Don Dunn (13), Dave Turner (41) and Dick Johnson (11). The top-ranked Braves carried the Bruins 48-0, the second worst drubbing ever absorbed by a Twin Falls team. (Times-News photo)

Thompson, Bobcats Rip Madison 39-0

BURLEY — Craig Thompson ran two touchdowns, aided in another and kicked three conversions to pace the Burley Bobcats to a 39-0 victory over a struggling Madison.

Thompson started the scoring in the first quarter on a 35-yard run and added a touchdown on an 83-yard run early in the third quarter. He booted extra points on both.

After Thompson's first touchdown Madison got only two plays in after the kickoff before Rick Dunbar stole a Gordon Genta pass at the Madison 20. Genta pushed it over from there and the Bobcats led 13-0.

Georgia Trips Seventh-Rate Michigan 15-7

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Preston Riddlehuber's 10-yard scoring pass to Pat Hodgson and three field goals by Bob Etter carried unheralded Georgia to a 15-7 upset victory over defending Big Ten champion Michigan Saturday.

It was the Wolverines' first loss in three years. Riddlehuber's pass came with about four minutes left. Etter added his third field goal minutes later following a pass interception by Lynn Hughes which put Georgia on the Michigan 10.

Spurrier-Led Gators Upset LSU by 14-7

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Steve Spurrier fired Florida back into the Southeastern Conference football race Saturday with a 14-7 upset of fifth-ranked Louisiana State.

The Tigers' attempt to prevent their first loss of the year in their conference debut was hampered by fumbles, one in the Florida two-yard line with four minutes to play.

Louisiana State never led as Spurrier, lanky junior quarterback, tossed a 23-yard touchdown strike to other Mississippi. He also hit passes of 24, 14, 16 and 9 yards in an 86-yard scoring drive in the third period that gave Florida a 2-1 season mark.

Boise Hands Second Worst Loss In History to Twin Falls, 48-0

A good 7-0 halftime football game turned into a track meet in the second half Friday night as the top-rated Boise Braves humiliated the Twin Falls Bruins 48-0. It was the second worst licking in the history of the Twin Falls school, the worst being a 53-0 trouncing at the hands of Pocatello in the early 1940s. Twin Falls played Boise evenly in the first half, only a 40-yard run by Rex Larson being the difference. But in the second half, Boise rapped almost freely as Twin Falls' resistance crumbled to nothing. The Braves scored 13 points in the final 90 seconds.

Filer Blanks Valley To Cap Homecoming

FILER — A passing combination of Steve Sharp to Gary Daugherty elicited three touchdowns Friday night as the Filer Wildcats celebrated homecoming with a 45-0 blanking of the Valley Vikings. The combination hit for the first two scores, the first coming from 20 yards out and the second from the 10-yard line. Gordon Pedrow converted the first. Rick Storr got the first one on the ground, bounding over and threw a 60-yard pass back for a two-yard plunge. Dennis Mal then booted the first of two extra points.

Wendell Tops Indians in Second Half

SHOSHONE—Wendell ground out two touchdowns in the second half Friday night to break a 6-6 halftime deadlock and defeat the Shoshone Indians 20-6. Shoshone drew first blood when Bill Mahbutt capped a long drive by getting the final yard. The point after attempt failed.

Carey Pulls Within One Game of Title

CAREY — Carey's Panthers moved to within one win of the Snake River Eight-Man Conference championship Friday by dumping Grand View 26-3.

NBA Opens 20th Season Oct. 15

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Basketball Association opens its 20th season Friday night, Oct. 15, with two games—St. Louis at Cincinnati and Los Angeles at San Francisco.

Texas Tech Nips Texas A-M 20-16

LUNNHOOK, Tex. (UPI) — Texas Tech used a pass, lateral and a 75-yard run by halfback Danny Anderson in the final minute Saturday night to give Texas Tech a come-from-behind 20-16 win over Texas A&M.

Quarterback Tom Wilson hit end Jerry Shiple on the A&M 37. Shiple lateraled to Anderson and the first halfback went over standing up for the third touchdown in the final three minutes of the Southwest Conference clash.

Toone's Rushing Points Solons To 35-14 Victory

BUHL—Fullback Ward Toone came up with his best showing in two years Friday night, sparking the points over the Indians. Toone rushed for 164 yards up the middle of his fullback spot and was particularly effective in the second half when he scored two touchdowns. Dave Higby tried to keep Buhl in contention as he intercepted a pair of passes and turned both of them into touchdowns. But largely it was Gooding's night.

Don Adams got the Gooding jumpstart going with a 53-yard scamper and added the second touchdown on a one-yard plunge. His 20-yard pass to Rusty Boyer set the second score up.

Buckeye Field Goal Drops Huskies 23-21

SEATTLE (AP)—Bob Funt's slightly angled field goal from the 15-yard line with only 59 ticks left on the clock earned Ohio State a 23-21 football victory Saturday over the Huskies of Washington.

The burly Buckeyes, trying for their first 1905 triumph after a defeat by North Carolina last week marched from their own 20-yard line to get within kicking range in a fine display of coolness under pressure.

Washington had tried and missed a field goal from 40 yards out just before the Buckeyes' victory drive.

Washington cracked the ice in the game, trying for its first victory in three tussles with Ohio State. The Huskies marched 65 yards in 12 plays and sent the veteran Ren Melved the final yard for the tally.

The Buckeyes came back to score on the first play of the second quarter after a 43-yard drive. Will Sanders jamming the last two yards, and Funk converting.

HEATS WICHITA CINCINNATI (UPI) Sophomore quarterback Tony Jackson came off the bench Saturday to steer Cincinnati to a 17-6 Missouri Valley Conference victory over Wichita.

Glacken Leads Duke Over Rice

HOUSTON (UPI) — Duke's scrambling quarterback Scotty Glacken hit speed merchant Dave Dunaway for touchdowns passes of 11, 62 and 60 yards Saturday night on the way to a 41-21 victory over Rice University.

The Duke Blue Devils' other scores came on Glacken's nine-yard pass to Jake Devonshire and two one-yard runs.

Vandals Convert Fumbles Into Decisive Points

PULLMAN, Wash. (AP) — The University of Idaho Vandals and its stubborn defense sent the Cougars 17-13 in one of the northwest's fiercest football rivalries Saturday. The Vandals' victory overshadowed another brilliant afternoon for Washington State end Doug Flansburg and tackle Wayne Foster. WSU had fallen behind 10-0 early in the fourth period when Foster, a defensive tackle, stole the football from Idaho's wingback—Joe McCollum—and rumbled 36 yards for a touchdown.

Sports

BY LARRY HOVEY

This game was never in doubt. We got together with the coaching staff and team and we'd beat them three or four points. After we got ahead we decided to let McCollum take them the ball and let them fumble for a touchdown.

The Vandals' victory overshadowed another brilliant afternoon for Washington State end Doug Flansburg and tackle Wayne Foster. WSU had fallen behind 10-0 early in the fourth period when Foster, a defensive tackle, stole the football from Idaho's wingback—Joe McCollum—and rumbled 36 yards for a touchdown.

The Vandals took the kickoff and marched 63 yards 13 plays for a matching touchdown. Deep back Ray McDonald began showing his best form, carrying seven times for 34 yards in that series.

Pat Daily carried the ball the last eight yards for the score. But the Cougars kept banging away at Idaho, and with 3:16 left Burgess Bauder recovered Idaho quarterback John Foruria's fumble at the Idaho 40.

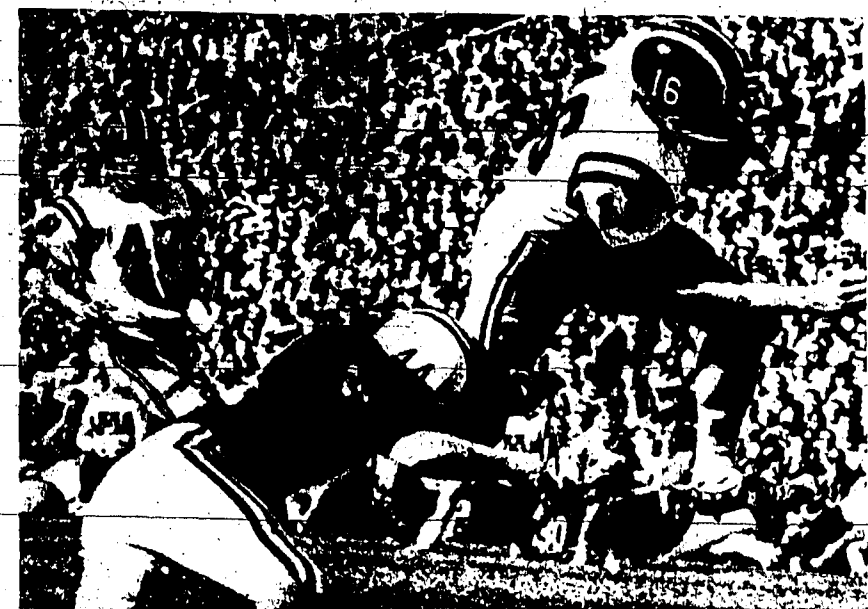

The Cougars were plagued throughout the game with fumbles. Eilmes' miscue at the WSU 44 in the first period allowed Idaho to begin a march that ended when Darrell Danilson booted a 16-yard field goal—the only score in the first half.

Foruria scored the Vandals' first touchdown on a 12-yard keeper play early in the third period.

Today's game marked the first time in 40 years an Idaho team defeated Washington State twice in succession. Last year, Idaho won 28-13.

Eilmes, with 78 yards in 10 carries, was the leading rusher. McDonald had 77 yards in 23 carries for Idaho.

LEAPING FOR SCORE is Gary Lane (18), Missouri (quarterback), in the second period and is hit by Gordon Condo (44), Minnesota, in their inter-sectional football game Saturday in Minneapolis. Missouri's Monroe Phelps (47) moves up at left.

It was the first score for the Tigers and Lane added another in the same period as Missouri took a 14-0 halftime lead. Missouri went on to win 17-6, adding a field goal in the second half. (AP wirephoto)

Lane Paces Tigers Over Gophers 17-6

MINNEAPOLIS (UPI) — Missouri's punishing ground game, directed by Gary Lane, overpowered Minnesota 17-6 Saturday in an inter-sectional football game.

Lane scored twice and called a flawless game, sending his back crashing into the Minnesota line three after time. He contributed 28 yards in the Tiger drive which ended with a field goal in the fourth period to clinch the contest.

The senior quarterback never failed on crucial fourth-down calls. As a result Missouri had the ball on 82 plays, compared with Minnesota's 55 offensive chances.

On the following on-side kick-off, Mississippi fumbled and Alabama recovered.

Don Keyes put Ole Miss into the lead with a 34-yard field goal in the first quarter, and in the second period Heidel threw a nine-yard scoring pass to Don Street.

Alabama trailed 9-7 at the half after Sloan scored on a five-yard run.

Hornets Rally Late to Drop Wolves 18-15

DECLO — Declo rallied for three touchdowns in the second half Friday to overcome an 8-0 deficit and defeat the Castleford Wolves 18-15 in a Magic Valley Conference game.

The Hornets took advantage of a Castleford fumble early in the third quarter at the Wolves 30. John Goodman carried it in on the next play.

Castleford took the lead in the second period after Declo tried a fake punt and the Wolves took over on the 40. They moved it to the eight where Marvin Kercher took it in. A safety followed later in the quarter when Declo tried a third-down punt. The punt was blocked by Phil Blick and went out of the end zone for a safety.

A Declo fumble in the third quarter gave the Wolves 15. Gary Whitley picked up the Hornets' backfield miscue and scampered 40 yards for the score and Trig Vulgamore went in for the conversion.

Tulane Upsets Miami (24-16)

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — Quarterback Bobby Duhon led fired up Tulane to a 24-16 upset victory Saturday night over the Miami Hurricanes.

'Bama Beats Rebels With Late March

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UPI) — Quarterback Steve Sloan drove Alabama 69 yards in the closing minutes Saturday night to give the Crimson Tide a 17-10 victory over Mississippi.

Down 16-10 with 1:10 remaining, Sloan skirted his right end for nine yards and a touchdown to tie the score. David Ray booted the extra point for the winning touchdown before 65,000 fans.

Alabama trailed 9-7 at the half after Sloan scored on a five-yard run.

The Rebels extended their lead in the fourth quarter with Heidel's one-yard plunge.

But with time running out, Sloan hurled a 35-yard pass to end Ray Perkins to the Ole Miss 18. Leslie Kolay ran for three and then six yards to set up Sloan's scoring end run.

Montana Blanks Idaho State 16-0 In Big Sky Play

MISSOULA, Mont. (AP) — The Montana Grizzlies, outweighed 20 pounds a man, bottled up Idaho State University with an aggressive defense Saturday and scored a 16-0 football triumph in short-sleeve weather. Idaho State crossed midfield only four times and mangled but 89 yards rushing to the Grizzlies' 302.

Scoutback Paul Connelly, the league's rushing leader, and fullback Larry Petty, in his first starting assignment, carried the Grizzlies' offensive power.

Montana scored a safety 35 seconds before the end of the first half and added a touchdown in the third and fourth periods to help avenge an opening season loss on the road to South Dakota State and Utah.

A bad pass from center started Idaho State's downfall. The ball sailed over kicker Paul Sluener's head and he was tackled in the end zone by Montana's Larry Huggins and Gary Smith.

Connelly had gains of 26 and 23.5 left.

MURTAUGH—Murtaugh's defense throttled Hansen after the quarter on a 71-yard run by Doug Holtquist and the offense took over to give the Red Devils a 21-6 homecoming victory.

Murtaugh went ahead in the first half on an eight-yard run and a conversion by Gary Lee. A six-yard run by Jim Hepworth and another conversion by Lee gave the Devils a 14-6 lead early in the second half before Lewis Anderson intercepted a Hansen pass and went 55 yards for the score. Martin Cummins made the conversion.

11 yards and scoutback Willie Jones posted a 29-yard scamper as Montana struck for its first touchdown with 10:12 left in the third. Petty went over from the 1 to climax the 74-yard march.

The Grizzlies used 15 plays to count their final score which found quarterback Ed Steiner going across from the 1 with 2:35 left.

STILL TAKES CACTUS PETE'S OPEN LEAD

Tacoma Pro Holds Edge With 16-Under Par 188; Douglass Claims Second

Tacoma professional Ken Still routed the Los Angeles Dodgers here to the National League pennant Saturday and still found time to take over sole possession of the Cactus Pete's Open lead. Still, whose clubhouse to radio reports of Dodger and Giant games, greeted with "did you hear anything on the Dodger game?"

Utah State Batters San Jose by 35-8

SAN JOSE, Calif. (UPI) — The Utah State Aggies scored 21 points in the first quarter and then coasted to a 35-8 decision over San Jose Saturday night. Utah tailback Roy Shivers scored two touchdowns while quarterback Ron Edwards passed for two scores and nearly two more.

SMU Misses Late Field Goal, Gains 14-14 Draw With Purdue

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Battered Southern Methodist arose from one of its worst defeats to tie Purdue, the nation's No. 2 team, 14-14 Saturday, missing two chances to score in the fading seconds that could have produced a major upset. Mac White, the Southern Methodist quarterback, led the Mustangs on a last-half surge that had a slim crowd of 17,000 on its toes all the way. White passed for both touchdowns, and Dennis Pardee, a sophomore, kicked two extra points. Pardee also had a field goal try blocked in the last 14 seconds.

DODGERS CLINCH NATIONAL LEAGUE FLAG

Typical L. A. Win Stems from Koufax Hurling and One-Hit, Two-Run Frame

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Los Angeles clinched the National League pennant in Dodger fashion Saturday, defeating Milwaukee 3-1 behind the four-hit pitching of Sandy Koufax and a two-run, fifth-inning rally built on one hit. The Dodgers' 14th in the last 15 games, climaxed a 17-day comeback that brought them from 4½ games behind San Francisco to their third pennant in seven years and their seventh in the last 14. The Dodgers now face the American League champion Minnesota-Twins in the World Series starting Wednesday at Minnesota.

Plots Rally in Last Half, Top Kimberly

Glenns Ferry Kimberly a first-half plot, then came from behind to defeat the Bulldogs 20-6 last night. The Bulldogs' Tyler got the Bulldogs' top with a 10-yard sprint at the five-yard line at first half. In the third quarter Ron got Glenns Ferry even with a four-yard off tackle sneak. Doug came back with the touchdown from three yards away. He also plunged extra point home. The scoring ended the scoring when he scooped up a fumble fumbled 30 yards. A pass to Starkey to Gonzalez got extra point.

Giants Return PCL Squad To Phoenix

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—"I always felt they'd be back," Roger Hagel, chairman of the Phoenix Stadium Committee, seemed to sum up the feelings of the faithful that Pacific Coast League baseball would return to Arizona. Their hopes were fulfilled Friday with word that San Francisco Giant president Horace Stoneham has okayed the shift in 1966 of the Giant PCL team at Tacoma to Phoenix. Hagel, in discussing the $1 million stadium built in the Giants' absence, said: "Mr. Stoneham was attentive in helping design the park and keeping interest alive. I know he will go all out to help us prove that Phoenix remains a good baseball town."

UNBELIEVABLE POWER of a near 100-ton chemical explosion is dramatically shown in this photograph, one of a series taken by O. A. (Gus) Kelker, Times-News feature editor, when the huge charge was detonated on the Bruneau desert. The pulverized lava rock, dust and great chunks of stone soared more than 3,000 feet into the air above the desert floor. In this photo the posts visible in the foreground are higher than a man is tall. (Times-News photo)

Bruneau Desert Blast May Lead To New Canal

BY O. A. (GUS) KELKER
Times-News Feature Editor

MOUNTAIN HOME—It actually sounds too strange to be true and yet the first "shovel full" of dirt which will result in construction of a new sea level canal across Central America was probably moved Thursday afternoon in the form of a piece of Idaho's desolate Bruneau desert country.

The experiment, which came about as a result of three years of planning and study, was in the form of a great explosion, probably the biggest man-made blast to ever take place within the boundaries of the state.

It was the forerunner for a proposed 100-kiloton nuclear cratering project which may be undertaken in the same general area in about three years. This is the method of dirt and rock removal which someday may be used to "dig" the big ditch which is now in the planning stage.

The awe-inspiring explosion which ripped the solid rock of the Bruneau area took place at a point two or three hours away from Mountain Home by car or truck, depending on the speed you drive. It was more than 70 miles of bumps and dust which stretched out into nowhere.

A joint venture of the Atomic Energy Commission and the Corps of Army Engineers nuclear excavation research program, the project came down to the last day with scheduled projects ticking off like a well-oiled clock.

The last 24 hours before the explosion was detonated and ripped a hole 200 feet wide and 100 feet deep in the desert rock, were a headache. In fact they almost resulted in the blast being scrubbed.

After the liquid explosive called nitromethane had been poured into a 36-inch access hole and filled a mined spherical cavity approximately 18 feet in diameter, a leak developed.

The leak was spotted by instruments and after it was confirmed officials ordered two trucks in from the atomic site near Las Vegas, Nevada. They were to bring 55 more drums of the explosive. But this scheduled departure set off a chain of events not expected. One truck broke down near Las Vegas. The other gave up before reaching the test site in Idaho. Two smaller standby trucks were dispatched and the load of 23 drums of explosive was transferred.

These two trucks arrived at ground zero and the liquid was transferred below the ground. The countdown began but a few seconds before the big blast was to take place it was halted.

The 15-minute countdown finally was undertaken once more and this time the end result was something to behold.

On the second at the end of the count the desert not more than 3,000 feet from where photographers, newsmen, officials, project personnel and others stood, heaved in a pattern that was both grotesque and beautiful at the same time.

So overpowering was the great earth movement, with heavy dust and great pieces of rock rising more than 3,000 feet into the air, that it was difficult to comprehend. The great dust cloud, studded with rock, seemed for awhile to threaten the area where the observers stood, but it was all an optical illusion. The blast was so mammoth that the mind was unable to take it into consideration with only one sweep of the imagination.

The long wait, the desert travel and the dust and heat were forgotten at the instant of the spectacle. For most of the observers this thing was a first and it will never be forgotten.

As one newsmen put it:
"The gates of hell itself could not be more terrifying than the

The crater measured 200 feet in diameter and was about 100 feet deep. Great rocks were scattered for nearly 3,000 feet in all directions from ground zero. (Times-News photo)

KNOWN AS A "ONE-MAN BAND" for many years throughout the Wood River area, Alfred Farnworth, 80, still keeps "tuned up." Now a Hagerman resident, he lived in the Carey valley for years and when his children were home they played for many dances and special events. (Times-News photo)

Life in MAGIC VALLEY

A "one-man band" for the Big and Little Wood River area and throughout Magic Valley for many years has been Alfred Farnworth, HALEY. He played electric and drums with his left foot and a bass drum with his right. With his hands he played a banjo and accordion. For special effects he played the harmonica and several different horns fastened to a bar-hold in front of his mouth by an apparatus he made to fit over his shoulders. Farnworth played for dances from the time he was 9 years old. "I just sort of picked it up," he said. "I was always happy playing any musical instrument."

Born at Mt. Pleasant, Utah, July 20, 1877, he was one of four children. When he was 28 he married Mary Agnes (Mamie) Bradshaw, Mantle, Utah. They moved to Driggs and lived there a short time before coming to the CAREY valley in 1908.

The couple homesteaded seven miles up Little Wood river, north of Carey, and he grubbed the sagebrush from the land. They raised cattle and sheep. "I used to come in pretty tired at the end of the day," Farnworth said, "but all I had to do was sit down and play awhile and it relaxed me."

As each of their four children became old enough he taught them to play and the "family band" had a regular circuit they traveled every two weeks, giving dances and playing for special events.

His daughter, Mrs. Sarah Cludas, Meridian, (who formerly resided in Sun Valley where her husband, Jack Cludas, was Western Union telegraph operator and has now been transferred to Meridian) remembers when her mother was asked why she didn't play in the family band, she replied, "It takes all my time keeping the rest of the family 'tuned up.'"

Mrs. Cludas played the saxophone. Her sister, Mary Zabriskie, who now resides in Pleasant Grove, played the piano; her brother, George C. Boulder-City, Nev., played the saxophone and guitar and Bruce Farnworth, who was killed 10 years ago in a motor accident, played the trumpet and saxophone. Farnworth, who was a barber by trade, purchased the land where the Sports Shop in Carey now stands and an acreage back of it. He built the shop and operated the business for a time.

When Mrs. Farnworth died in 1959 he sold his holdings in the Carey valley. He later married Annie Beeman, HUII, and they moved to a ranch six miles north of JEROME, on one corner where the Chloken Inn now stands. He also developed this land from sand and sagebrush.

When they decided to retire he sold the ranch and the couple moved to HAGERMAN. Farnworth has not retired from his musical activities. Several years ago he played for a party given by the Moose lodge and last summer for a dance at Jerome.

Farnworth's formal education ended when he left the second grade, but he was a good business man. An illustration is a story told about him when he was ranching in the Carey Valley.

A stranger bought 20 sacks of wheat from him and had him sign a contract that each would furnish 10 sacks. While it was

Jumpy Burglar

DETROIT (AP) — Police are seeking a jumpy burglar who fled a winery without his shoes. The shoes, size eight, were left behind along with $932 in cash and more than $8,000 in checks Thursday. Patrolmen Paul Werth and Gerald Howard said the thief fled in a foot, ignoring their order to halt and two warning shots.

Critics to Dissect Fads At Conclave

Three famed social critics — Russell Lynes, Dwight Macdonald and Cleveland Amory — will dissect modern American fads and trends at a unique conference of 100 top executives in the restaurant and hotel industry.

The conference itself is part of a trend—the growing trend for business executives to take time away from their desks for cultural pursuits.

The session on social criticism Tuesday, Oct. 10, will be a highlight of the four-day conference, Oct. 17-20, at the Abbey in Lake Geneva, Wis. Called "Reconnaissance," it will be sponsored in Institutions Magazine, leading trade publication in the hotel and restaurant field. Other subjects will range from teenagers to space research.

Lynes, Macdonald and Amory will put the typical American under a microscope in a special panel discussion moderated by Norman Ross, noted radio and TV commentator.

Each of the three has taken American culture apart and put it back together in books and magazine articles, and all have outstanding reputations as the nation's leading social critics. Lynes, who is editor of Harper's magazine, is the author of "Domesticated Americans," and "The Tastemakers."

Macdonald is a contributor to The New Yorker and Esquire. His books include "Against the American Grain" and "Massacre and Mideast."

Amory, who writes for The Saturday Review, is the author of "Last Resorts," "The Proper Bostonians," and "Who Killed Society?"

Sam William R. Hoelscher, publisher of Institutions Magazine, said: "Perhaps no field is more subject to the fluctuations of fad and fashion than the service industry. An in-depth understanding of the social and cultural factors involved in these fluctuations can be of immeasurable value to the executives attending 'Reconnaissance.'"

"In inviting America's leading social critics to talk about the current scene, we hope to provide a solid basis not only for understanding today's trends but for anticipating tomorrow's."

The first conference of its kind ever held, "Reconnaissance" is a part of the trend which in other developments has seen a businessmen spending their vacations in university classrooms.

"There is a growing awareness that technical know-how is not enough and a need to know more about the world in which we work," the conference is designed to meet that need," said Hoelscher.

ONLY A SPLIT-SECOND after chemical explosives had been ignited, this section of Bruneau desert floor raced skyward. This was the first photograph of the blast which was taken by O. A. (Gus) Kelker using a telephoto lens from a distance of approximately 3,000 feet from the blast center. The ground movement was very noticeable and the dirt and rock, etched against a clear blue sky, was awe-inspiring. (Times-News photo)

LOOKING MUCH LIKE a giant waterfall, flaked with debris, dirt and ash from the great blast fell back to earth. At this point the debris was so overpowering and at such a height that it gave the impression to observers they would be showered under with missiles. Some rocks landed about 300 feet from the assembled photographers, newsmen and officials but there were no injuries. This was one of the last in a series of the explosion taken by O. A. (Gus) Kelker. (Times-News photo)

Bruneau Desert Blast May Result in New Canal

 "One thing was certain—and as a result data which will be important in future tests—even of the atomic variety—was written into the book.
 Because of the leak, the explosion took place with about 12 tons less nitromethane than was planned and yet the results were greater than anticipated.
 Checked and rechecked figuring on the curve had shown that depth of the crater would be about 41 feet—plus or minus five feet, and radius would be 76 feet, plus or minus nine feet. When the dust and rocks had settled and experts and observers trudged up to the crater's lip they found that it was about 100 feet deep and 200 feet in diameter. The lip of the new-born crater resembled a mountain on the level plateau.
 The entire project was dubbed Pre-Schooner II. The big blast was associated with three other separate 1.2-ton TNT calibration shots.
 Above ground, these three detonations a good distance from ground zero showed shock waves through the air which were easily felt by observers. The big blast did not produce any appreciable shock wave because of the underground location of the charge.
 But in the case of the big one, the ground shook like a great earthquake was underway and was easily noticeable where observers stood more than 3,000 feet away from ground zero.
 The U.S. Army Engineer Nuclear Cratering Group, Corps of Engineers, is headquartered at the Lawrence Radiation Laboratory, Livermore, Calif. The Atomic Energy Commission experts were from the Nevada test range.

 Actual purpose behind the detonation was to improve the knowledge of crater dimensions in hard, dry rock as a function of depth of burst and type of explosive.
Warning Balloon
 As a precaution prior to the blast, a bright yellow balloon, anchored to the ground by cable, was flown at a height of several thousand feet.
 It served as a warning to possible flights of aircraft in the area and also held a set of instruments aloft to gain pressure measurements above the blast area. It was hoisted more than an hour before detonation time.
 The data obtained from the experiment will be used in the design of the proposed Schooner atomic cratering project and in the general development of a theory of cratering and techniques for predicting slope stability and other engineering properties of nuclear craters.
 Results of the blast will end in months of study before final tabulations are made, officials said.
 But to the casual observer the entire project could be nothing short of a complete success.
 It was the biggest blast in the state's history and the rumble of it will be heard for years to come.

Boyd Lowe Is Well Suited for Job As T. F. Director of Counseling

The blind always seem to lead the blind, at least where school counseling is concerned, or so goes the lament. But Boyd Lowe, director of guidance of the Twin Falls School District, may prove to be the exception.

The common cry is that a counselor must be two things: a father image and a person who knows the problems and demands facing students.

BOYD LOWE

But usually, by the time a counselor reaches the age that he is a believable father image, he is far removed from the problems of the student.

The result is too often that the young speak only to the young, the counselors speak only to other counselors, and all the way around, the blind offer advice to the like-blinded mind.

Whether or not Lowe can short-circuit this problem, he is at least ideally equipped to deal with it. He recently completed his formal education—while he was turning 40. In this case the father-image knows something about the student.

Lowe got off to a slow start. He was born in 1923 in Elmido, Mont., of farming parents. The family had homesteaded a farm in the area and, when the boys began to become useful around the farm there was, according to Lowe, reluctance to see them leave home to further their education.

After he completed elementary school, his father failed to see the need of his continuing through high school.

Lowe remained at home for four years before he decided to strike out on his own. At 17 he started high school at Fairview, Mont., about 40 miles from his home.

Before he entered college in 1943, he married his wife, Betty, and the couple had four children.

After graduation, Lowe continued his education at Harding College in Arkansas, and was graduated with a double major in history and Bible, with a minor in English. Later he worked two years for the Church of Christ in Ontario, Canada, as a layman.

In 1949 Lowe bought a grocery store in Fairview, which he operated for eight years until 1957, when he sold out to his partner, to continue his education, at the age of 34.

He entered the graduate school at Montana State University at Bozeman, Mont., to complete his Master's degree in education.

In 1958 the Lowe family moved to Twin Falls. According to Lowe, "We came here to visit my friends. This was an interesting area so much that we wanted to come back to Twin Falls to live."

He taught United States History at the Twin Falls High School during the 1958-59 school year. The following summer he attended the National Defense Education Act Guidance Institute at the University of California, Berkeley. There he continued his studies under the direction of Dr. Clifford Froelich, a nationally known scholar.

Since he received his M.A., Lowe has completed two full years of additional studies toward his doctorate. This fall he was offered a research fellowship at the University of Idaho to serve as assist director for a large research project studying the shifting employment trends in Idaho.

But the offer came too late in the year for him to take leave from his post as director of guidance.

In 1950 Lowe became the sole guidance counselor at Twin Falls high school, and in 1960 furnished proof to the director or his referee, that he had been released from all liability by the owner of such livestock thereunder; provided that a satisfaction of any judgment rendered against the person accused because of any such act shall be deemed a satisfactory release hereunder.

(f) To have caused damage to livestock by gunfire and not was promoted to director of guidance for the Twin Falls School District. Under his direction the guidance program has more than quadrupled in five years. Now there are four full-time and one part-time counselors in the district.

In spite of the expansion Lowe is quick to point out needed improvements. He said the most urgent need of the system is the expansion of guidance at the junior high and elementary levels.

"The junior high level is a time," he said, "when the pupils are not only in need of information about academic and occupational opportunities, but it is the time of greatest emotional need. They are trying to shake free of the apron strings and become adults."

The elementary counseling is important because "this is the time when parents have the most contact with the school system, and the period when the child is molded."

Further, Lowe suggests the addition of psychologists to the system's staff. This he thinks is important, not only to assist mentally disturbed students, but to prevent illness.

The psychologists could assist in the "evaluation and assessment of the children and their learning abilities and disabilities," he said. Further, such psychometry programs would aid teachers in fitting the curriculum to the child.

"Lowe has been active, aside from his school post, in the TWIN committee that successfully sought the passage of the recent water bond, and in the Twin Falls Kiwanis Club, where he is active on the Key Club Committee.

Last year he was president of the Idaho Personnel and Guidance Association.

He teaches two high school-level church-school classes at the Twin Falls Church of Christ.

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

SUNDAY, October 3—Born today, you are quick to see faults in others, but just as quick to recognize virtues. Always willing to give even the devil his due, you are a pleasure to work for or with. Though you may be a demanding taskmaster and one who is quick to point out mistakes, you are always ready with praise where it is deserved. Not one to envy the success of others, you are happy to see them get ahead. You will tolerate, however, anyone getting ahead at your expense, for you demand that others treat you with the same regard you treat them. You do not mind having your shortcomings pointed out, but at the same time you want your good qualities to be recognized and rewarded.

These same traits apply to your emotional life. You are one who gives love and who needs, in return, to receive love. You are not one to pine away from an unrequited emotion; rather, you will seek greater pastures and look until you find a person who can feel about you the way you feel about him or her.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Monday, October 4

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)—Full steam ahead as you begin another work week. Prepare yourself mentally for some hard work of the children and their learning abilities and disabilities," he said. Further, such psychometry programs would aid teachers in fitting the curriculum to the child.

"Lowe has been active, aside from his school post, in the TWIN committee that successfully sought the passage of the recent water bond, and in the Twin Falls Kiwanis Club, where he is active on the Key Club Committee.

Framework of Laws, Statewide Safety Programs Promote Firearm Maturity

By JIM HUMBIRD
Idaho Fish-Game Department
BOISE—Over 175,000 men and women of all ages were licensed to hunt in Idaho last year. Of these, five were killed, 27 more were injured from gunfire, and an undetermined number of cows and other livestock were shot.

The odds are long against any particular man or beast being victimized, but laws do exist to protect the public because the pattern is the same year after year.

In addition to the legal framework, there is a voluntary statewide program in cooperation with public and parochial schools to give gun safety training in the classrooms to junior high school students. Members of organized sportsmen's clubs in the communities join conservation educators and officers to provide teaching staffs and instructors on the firing range. They try to overcome the twin evils of carelessness and ignorance of safe gun handling in home and field as a means of curbing the yearly accident toll. Many saw the public against gun handlers whose carelessness or ignorance result in injury or death to people and livestock. Both civil and criminal liability actions may be brought against guilty parties. Penalties ranging from damages to fines, jail sentences, and loss of hunting privileges for specified lengths of time all are possible.

Section 18 (3306, 3307, and 3312) of the Idaho Code spells out criminal liability for injury by firearms; and Chapter 4, Title 36, covers the revocation of license for improper handling of guns.

Most people know, at least in a vague sort of way, that damages are recoverable from hunters whose ignorance or carelessness in the use of firearms leads to maiming or death of self, family members, or livestock. But taking away the shooter's hunting privileges is something rather new in Idaho. An organized group of Idaho sportsmen sponsored a bill that was enacted into law by the Idaho Legislature in 1961 calling for the revocation of hunting licenses in connection with firearms accidents. This law has been in effect for the past four hunting seasons, and five licenses have been taken away for periods of one to five years. Gun accidents injuring or killing people occur every year.

But few legal complaints are being made, partly because the new law has not been publicized widely, but mostly because interested persons either do not know how to proceed—or do not want to become involved as plaintiffs or witnesses.

cedural route to be followed in initiating such actions, the overall question was submitted to Attorney T. J. Jones, III, legal counsel for the Fish and Game Department. Action under Section 36-432 of the Idaho Code leading toward the revocation of a hunting license, in the opinion of Jones, should be commenced by the Department only upon receipt of charges preferred by a third party. Initiation of action through charges made by the Fish and Game Department, with a member of the department also acting as hearing officer, would force the Department into a conflicting situation of being both the prosecutor and the judge.

John R. Woodworth, director of the Fish and Game Department, points out that in addition to the license revocations acted upon by the courts and the Department, a few injuries have been made by third parties to the procedure to be followed to bring about a hearing. But upon being informed, and in some instances, a suggested for- feiture by a third party to an other member of the same party) do not generate the furor against shooting sports as the destruction of private property—live or otherwise. Not even the 111 (g) taking of fish or game armed with an emotionalism even though poaching is stealing from everybody since all wildlife belongs to all of the people of the state.

Three Idaho laws covering the shooter's liability for maiming or killing someone "without malice" are as follows:

18-3306. Injuring another by discharge of aimed firearms—Any person who shall maim or injure another person by the discharge of any firearm pointed or aimed, intentionally but without malice, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not less than $50 or imprisoned in the county jail for a period of not more than one year; and if death ensue from such maiming or maiming, such person so offending shall be deemed guilty of the crime of manslaughter.

18-3307. Civil liability for injury by firearms—Any party maimed or wounded by the discharge of any firearm pointed or aimed, intentionally but without malice, shall be entitled to recover damages, which shall be found by a jury, and such damages, when found, may be in the discretion of the court before which such action is brought, he doubled.

18-3312. Injuring another by carelessness handling and discharge of firearms—Any person who handles, uses, or operates any firearm in a careless, reckless, or negligent manner, or without due caution and circumspection, whereby the same is fired or discharged and maims, wounds, or injures any other person or persons, in guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $300, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or both such fine and imprisonment.

Chapter 4, Title 36-432 covers the revocation of license for improper handling of guns. This section of the Idaho Code lists six offenses which may lead to the taking away of hunting privileges as follows:

(a) To have carelessly handled a gun that caused accident and injury to person or property;

(b) To have carelessly handled a gun that caused injury to livestock of another;

(c) To have carelessly injured a human being by gunfire;

(d) To have caused accidental injury or death to a person by gunfire and fled or failed to render assistance.

(e) To have caused injury or death to a person by gunfire and not furnished proof to the director or his referee that he has been released from all liability for ambulance, hospital, medical, funeral bills, and other related expense from the injured person, or his heirs in case of death, provided that a satisfaction of any judgment rendered against the person accused because of any such act shall be deemed a satisfactory release hereunder.

(f) To have caused damage to livestock by gunfire and not

"Unconquered Plague," Caused by Parasites, Is Infecting 200 Million

NEW YORK—Schistosomiasis, the unconquered parasitic disease now afflicting men and animals, according to a report issued by the Rockefeller Foundation, is a "man-made" disease, resulting from people's own unsanitary practices. Tragically, it is growing in seriousness in just those developing nations which are struggling to impose agricultural practices essential to progress.

Dr. John M. Weir, the man who prepared the report, says that schistosomiasis is almost universally prevalent throughout the countries of the Far East, Africa, the Middle East, Eastern South America, and in Puerto Rico and the Leeward and Windward Islands of the Caribbean.

It is an ancient disease—eggs have been found in Egyptian tombs in a cistern 1000 B.C.—which spreads with vigor. Almost 100 per cent of a given population can be infected. Although individual cases can be cured, no large-scale method of prevention or cure has yet been devised.

Schistosomiasis is caused by a parasitic worm, or schistosome. What happens to people who get it? The eggs of the worm flow freely through the blood stream, invading the lungs, liver, kidneys, heart, and on occasion, the brain and central nervous systems.

As many as 100,000,000 have been recovered from the lungs alone of individuals with chronic infections. A single worm can continue to deposit eggs in vital tissues for a minimum of five and a maximum of 20 years.

Each succeeding infection adds to the burden; tissues of the bladder, intestinal tract, kidneys, lungs, and liver are progressively destroyed and fibrous tissue reactions interfere with their normal functions.

Thus the direct threat to the individual becomes apparent only after years of infection. Frequently the disabling phase of the disease appears in individuals at the time of life when normal degeneration of organs, caused by aging, might be expected. Consequently the basic cause of the degenerative lesions is frequently overlooked.

According to Dr. Weir, for whom the physicians of Egypt had recognized the devastating effects of schistosomiasis but since the overwhelming infection in Egypt was considered by some public health authorities to be unique, the tendency in other areas was to assume that schistosomiasis infections were mild and unimportant.

The error in this view became apparent in recent years as the result of broadened research: surveys were extended to more areas in Africa, Latin America and the Middle and Far East; it became clear that the extent of the infection in most of these countries was as grave as that in Egypt.

Prior to World War II few Americans, even physicians, had heard of schistosomiasis. An episode in which thousands of servicemen contracted the disease during operations in the Philippines jarred American complacency and raised the threat that the disease might be transplanted to this country.

Surveys have indicated that the disease has infected at least 200 million or more people. It is now evident that this disease, with its wide distribution and its high levels of infection in rural populations, is second only to malaria in global importance. Since malaria is waning under constant attack throughout the world, schistosomiasis remains the major parasitic disease for which we have no solution.

In underdeveloped countries the government authorities are overwhelmed by the need for funds to control many acute and chronic diseases and are faced with severe economic problems. Consequently the simple demonstration that a crippling and lethal disease exists in the community does not necessarily result in community efforts to curb it.

The ultimate and clearly the ideal solution to the schistosomiasis problem is the provision of a protected water supply to the individual home. Apart from economics, a basic problem is unawareness in uneducated rural communities of the inherent dangers of poor sanitation.

In its public health work, The Rockefeller Foundation has played a major role in attempting to provide a solution for sanitation problems in rural communities, but even in regions where it has been economically feasible to provide primitive but fairly efficient covered wells, and sanitary latrines, the cycle of schistosomiasis has in no way been affects.

The reason is that in rural communities it requires far-reaching changes in social habits and customs, affecting family life and the working day in the fields, before protection can be assured.

If sanitation is not practical, why then do we not mount massive programs to eradicate the worm in infected people and thus interrupt the cycle? Intensive research has been devoted to this facet of the problem. At the present time three types of chemicals are available which will kill the parasite in human beings or other animals.

If effective sanitation and mass treatment are not yet possible, then the best step clearly is to kill the snails so that intermediate hosts exist to continue the cycle.

Experience in Egypt led the early workers to believe that only two kinds of snail host were involved and that any chemical which would attack these two types would automatically prove useful in other areas of Africa, and indeed in the other continents. This primary survey, now completed in most of Africa, indicates that great varieties of snails can serve as hosts. These varieties seem to differ in their biological response to chemicals and to their environment.

Each type of snail survives under particular conditions of temperature, water flow, turbidity, salinity, and so on. Consequently there is little likelihood of establishing a uniform system of control even if an adequate chemical is found, and clearly, more information about the ecology and biology of the snail vectors is needed before large-scale control can be es-

Poland Thaws Church-State Relations

By GENE KRAMER
WARSAW, Poland.—(AP)—While Pope Paul VI makes his historic visit to New York, a remarkable thaw in Poland's church-state relations has brightened prospects for a trip by him to Poland next year.

Some officials of the Communist-controlled government said they were keenly interested in such a visit. They hope it would popularize the regime among Poland's Roman Catholic majority, and convince the world that religious tolerance exists here.

The date mentioned is May 3, 1966, when Polish Catholics climax their celebration of 1,000 years of Christianity. The feeling is growing that both clergy and regime feel a papal visit would be an historic opportunity, which should not be lost through Communist-Catholic quarreling.

Church and state have not buried their numerous differences, but chances are good for a truce until the visit either takes place or is ruled out.

The prime minister, Poland's Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński, is said to have asked Pope Paul in Rome established with any chemical.

The remaining avenue of approach to the schistosomiasis problem is the possibility of developing a vaccine. But at present time immunizing procedures for parasitic diseases have not been developed and the immune reactions to parasites are not well understood. It is within the bounds of possibility, however, that some way of increasing human resistance to the parasite's invasion will yet be found.

Bad Booze

MOUNT HOLLY, N. J. (AP)—Thomas F. Bernat of Morrestown, was arrested and charged with operating an illegal still.

Bernat pleaded innocent, telling Judge W. Thomas McGinn that he was making blackberry brandy for his own consumption and not for sale.

Judge McGinn said he believed Bernat was truthful, because investigators told him the brandy was so bad no one would buy it.

The judge released Bernat after fining him $200.

sy in Rome is discussing it with the Vatican are denied.

Some observers consider the improvement in Polish church-state climate so pronounced that all that remains is for the Pope to decide to come. Presumably Vatican leaders will talk it over with Cardinal Wyszyński following the Pope's journey to the United Nations Monday. The Polish primate is attending the final session of the Vatican Ecumenical Council.

A big factor in the thaw has been the cardinal's support of the Polish government's policy toward West Germany—the campaign to emphasize Polish ownership of the territories taken from Germany at the end of World War II.

The Green Thumb

By GEORGE ABRAHAM

STORING TOMATOES: Is it possible to keep tomatoes fresh until Thanksgiving Day? Most of the answers are "no." The secret is in storage and harvest them properly. Harvest both the red tomatoes and the so-called "mature green" tomatoes just before the first frost. A mature green tomato will develop most of its color after the first frost. Any tomato on which the blossom end (opposite the stem) is lighter green, whitish or orange will develop red color after removal from the plant. When harvesting, remove the stem to avoid puncturing other fruits. I keep ripe fruit in one container, fruit developing red color in another, and those that are green in a third container.

Ripe tomatoes should be kept in a refrigerator or more. Best temperature for storing green tomatoes or those turning color is about 55 degrees. At this temperature color development will take place slowly and temperature lower than 55 degrees color development is slowed down and exposure to even lower temperatures will result in complete failure of color to form.

Every three or four days examine each fruit and those that are nearly red should be removed and eaten. A bright window is not necessary for ripening tomatoes. In fact, tomatoes will develop color in darkness. Temperature regulates rate of color development. If you want to speed color development, move some tomatoes to a warmer temperature, up to 70 degrees.

Another trick is to pull up plants with fruit on and hang them in the basement and remove fruit as it ripens. How about eating green tomatoes? They can be used in many ways and you shouldn't overlook them.

GARDEN MUMS: Why don't mums come through the winter better? It isn't sheer cold which kills chrysanthemums in winter. The most usual, alternate heating and thawing with temperature changes. This tears the roots and kills the plants, and this type of injury is worse in clay soils. Some gardeners mulch, but this usually averages from 4 to 6 inches, or excelsior. This does not keep the plants warm but protects the soil from freezing and thawing. Never use leaves as these pack and shut out air.

To me, the best way to keep mums over (where soils are heavy) is to dig the clumps in November and move them to a dry spot (such as against the foundation of a wall. Or, if you can move them to a coldframe for winter. Wet them slightly and they'll stay alive all winter. When spring comes, take off those tiny side shoots and root them in sand. In two weeks, you'll have rooted cuttings ready to set out. You can top out the present plant, or divide it and grow again for a second year. They'll flower again, ahead of the rooted cuttings. Don't let those tiny rooted cuttings fool you. They'll bloom profusely by the time fall rolls around.

FREE: Send me a self-addressed, stamped envelope for my bulletin, HOW TO GROW GARDEN CHRYSANTHEMUMS. My guide is packed full of good tips to help you grow prize-winning mums.

Squash Recipe: Here's a recipe I wish I had incorporated in my next bulletin. Eat it 3 or 4 times a week. 1 acorn squash, 1 tablespoon honey or syrup, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 lb. pork sausage and 1 Teaspoon sage. Wash each squash and cut in half, remove seeds and strings. Put a tablespoon of honey or syrup in each half, sprinkle with salt and pepper. Fill the cavity with sausage (you can also use chopped celery and onions) and top with bread or cracker crumbs. Place halves in pan and add one-half cup of water. Cover and bake at 400 degrees for 40 minutes. Remove cover and allow to brown. Serve 6 to 8.

(Green Thumb note: Friends, I have some brand new recipes compiled in my bulletin, Squash Recipes—No. 2. This should be added to our earlier bulletin on cooking squash. Send me a self-addressed, stamped envelope for your free copy. I have it on hand for next summer.)

Treo Care: Homeowners who planted mountain ash, young maples, birch and other ornamentals last spring are asking if the trunks should be wrapped with paper or cloth. A good idea to wrap the trunks of newly planted trees so they come through the winter better. Actually, wrapping does not prevent freezing but prevents bark from drying out before sap can move. It also prevents sun scald and bark from splitting, due to alternate freezing and thawing. Cut burlap or sugar sacks, or you can use waterproof paper into strips four or five inches wide and, you've got a good wrapping material.

Begin at ground level and use a spiral wrap with, about two buds or flowers on your rooted cuttings. They often seed them out, even in the glass jars, and it's nothing to worry about.

Question of the Week: D. E. of Twin Falls: "We want to put in a lawn this fall. A lot has been said about Zoysia as a lawn grass. Would you recommend that we use it instead of Kentucky Bluegrass or other types?"

I'll try to be discreet and answer this to the best of my ability. Actually Zoysia is a good grass, but it is not a northern grass. If you want something straw-brown from the end of September until late April, then use Zoysia. You can get the same effect from crabgrass, except crabgrass is free.

I've seen some beautiful lawns of Zoysia in the south, where it looks just as good as the Bermuda grasses do, and it doesn't have to be mowed, fertilized and cared for so often. Zoysia is harder to mow, so silencing a heavy-duty machine is often needed. And it builds up thatch, which must be thinned from time to time. No, it's not foolproof. No grass is.

When Zoysia started out it was now it's starting to join the practically trouble-free, but it's starting to get its "patience," just as all varieties eventually do. Hillbug has just about knocked out the Zoysia states, and some diseases are beginning to take their toll.

Another drawback is the length of time it takes for it to

Ranchers in Cattle Center Of Old West Have Gone Soft

DODGE CITY, Kan. (UPI)—Texas counterpart, the cattle business in Dodge City has grown to the largest in the world.

Back in the days of wild and woolly Dodge City, ranchers would turn over livestock transactions conducted by the modern rancher.

Gone are the cattle drives and the pandemonium of Texas and Oklahoma — but in the new Oklahoma, the inevitable gun fight at the end of the trail and the endless bawling up of the price of the stock.

Modern ranchers either fly or drive in air conditioned cars while the steers are shipped by rail or truck.

They still come here from Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Colorado and some even from Minnesota and Arkansas, but that's as far as the ruggedness goes.

Sale barns now are air conditioned and the stock is herded by cowboys riding motor scooters.

In the world's largest stock and feeder auction barn, McKinley-Winter, ranchers are treated to a rare quality of comfort.

Bidders and sellers lounge on contour chairs in an air conditioned sale barn built in the shape of an old Grecian theater.

The traditional dress is there: cowboy hats, ten-gallon hats and western-style clothing. But there are no sweating bidders in this hall.

To think in the atmosphere of a bygone era, I traveled to this wild west center seeking the tough, arid cowboy.

But even in the sale barn crowded with western cowboys and cattlemen, I was hardly noticed in my Ivy League-cut business suit.

Auctioneers here run off an average of 800 fat cattle and 6,400 stocker-feeder cattle daily.

I was amused to find that 13,000 and 14,000 stocker-feeder calves are sold here.

And unless the Kansas cattleman has tales as tall as his

TV Schedules MONDAY, OCT. 4

"Pope Paul VI's Visit," (Special) — All three major television networks plan to devote most of their daytime and evening programming to the papal visit. NBC has the most prolonged coverage — live from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m., and from 5:30 to 9 p.m. This coverage includes the Pope's arrival in Rome, his departure from Rome, and his arrival in the Vatican. NBC pre-empted all regular entertainment programming by 7:30 p.m. and has tentatively scheduled coverage from 7 a.m. through 3 p.m. and from 8:30 p.m. to 10 p.m. CBS will devote these hours to the "Pope VI" coverage from 7 a.m. to 3 p.m., and from 8:30 p.m. to 10 p.m. ABC tentatively plans to have regular programming between the special telecasts.

"Spectrum," (7:30 p.m. KUED) — "The Airline Pilot: Training for Tomorrow Today" examines the sophisticated training methods employed to prepare pilots for today's high performance supersonic transports.

"Red China's Harvest," (Special, 9 p.m., KUED) — This documentary deals with the Communist China from the capital, Peking, to the mud-walled farm villages.

MONDAY NIGHT MOVIES

"She Played With Fire," (British, 1958) Arlene Dahl, Jack Hawkins and Dennis Price (1:35 p.m. KCPX) — Dull, plodding drama about investigation into an arson case. An insurance adjuster discovers his old flame may have started the fire. The flame (Miss Dahl) is okay, but the movie isn't so hot.

TV Schedules MONDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1965

Copies of free, monthly schedules describing educational programs on KUED are available by sending your name, address and Zip code to: University Radio and Television Services, University of Utah, 101 Music Hall, Salt Lake City, Utah 84112. Requests, once received, are put on a permanent mailing list. KUED originates as Channel 7, but the station is broadcast on cable television systems in several Big Valley communities and may have a different number on the cable. In Twin Falls, it's Cable No. 3, which also is used for some Boise programs when KUED is not operating. Information below is furnished by the stations and questions should be directed to the station concerned. "TBA" indicates programs are to be announced.

"All I know is I'm sick and tired of growing old gracefully!"

"I know Julia wasn't the right girl for me... the minute Dad saw my report card!"

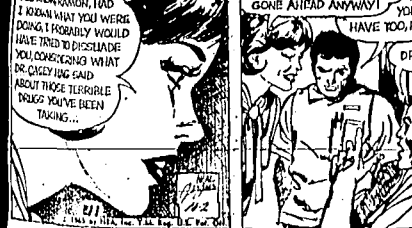

"Have you ever noticed how difficult it is to tell the difference between being tired and being lazy?"

"I'm no legal eagle, Major, but I overheard him make the offer. Maybe you could try some of your habeas corpus double-talk on him and scare him out of a few bucks. After all, if he owes you money you have a claim on his stock."

"Come on get in-- don't be so hard-headed! You've been pregnant that has for two hours-- you've gotta be pushed by this time!"

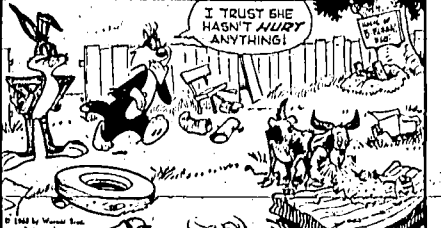

"Now, Ramon, I'd like to ask you some questions about the drugs you've been taking."

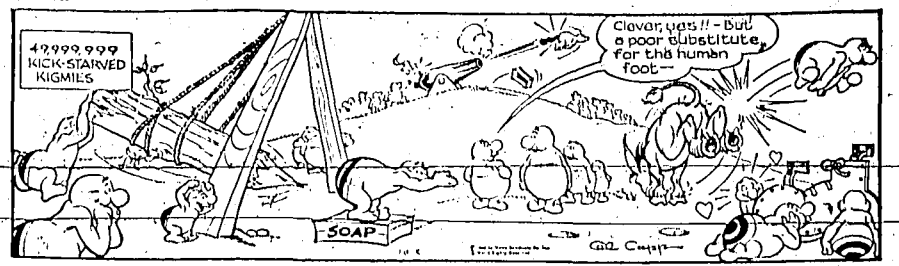

"Any apologies, sire? I shall be to you, Cynthia immediately!"

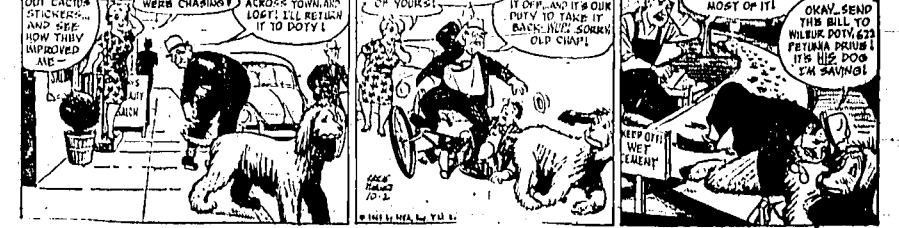

"I'm terribly drained, Dr. Falcon-- pack up the equipment."

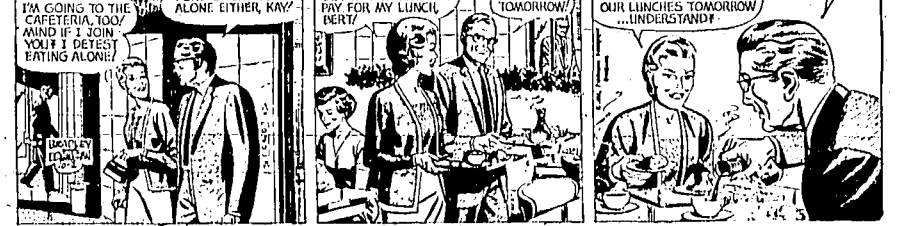

"Terry fires a warning burst through the trailer door."

"49,999,999 KICK-STARTED KIGMILES"

"I'm not particularly fond of eating alone either, Ray"

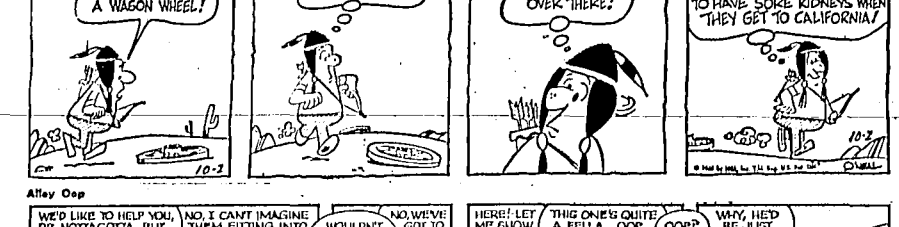

"I'm going to the cafeteria, too. Mind if I join you? I detest eating alone!"

"Pity! Fine man! Excellent technician! But a nagging wife!"

"We can't do any more in the dark, Desmond. Let's go home and get some sleep."

"A wagon wheel!"

"We'd like to help you, Dr. Mottigotti, but I don't think our prehistoric men would be suited to your needs"

"Bye, now, Mike! Will I see you again soon? I hope so!"

"Then from points all around the trailer, sergeant's men open a steady infiltrating fire..."

Tyrolean Trio Sings, Yodels Through Magic Valley in Good Will Exchange

Most people have heard of the good-will tours Louis Armstrong, Duke Ellington and Marilyn Monroe have made abroad, but seldom do people hear of the many good-will visits sponsored by foreign countries and sent to the United States.

A successful example of such a return visit was made recently by a Tyrolean trio that sang its way through Magic Valley. The members of the trio, Jacob A. Eberl, Franz Moesl and Franz Joseph Pircher all come from the vicinity of Innsbruck, Austria.

This is Eberl's first trip to the United States, and it is the first visit to Idaho and the West for all three singers.

When asked why the group decided to begin its tour in Twin Falls, rather than, say, New York, Eberl replied, "Why come to Idaho? Because it is important! We all had heard of Sun Valley because we are skiers and ski all the time. And the American West is your best known area. We decided to come to Twin Falls even before we left Austria."

After Eberl finished his university education in 1952, he entered a national essay contest and won. His essay addressed the need for international cooperation.

According to Eberl, "Then there was a terrible need for cooperation. We had just finished the war, and there was a need to send people—young people—around the world in the interests of cooperation. After I won the contest, I traveled to Africa three times, and to Japan, France, the U.S."

Moesl has his own trio which plays for the winter and summer seasons in the Tyrol. Other than his "manufacturing" of sofas, he specializes in tuning instruments.

Pircher is currently studying to be an engineer. To support his studies he installs heating plants in homes. As important, he diligently practices his zither playing every day.

Eberl said the zither is very rare in Tyrol, and if Pircher perfects his playing he may become a professional musician.

The group is supported by the American government's good-will and blessings, but with little else. The visits to other countries are financed by the revenue occasional performances take in, and by the hospitality shown by individuals of the host country.

"If our tour is as well received in the rest of the West as in Idaho, it will be very successful. We have been well received by the schoolchildren here. Yesterday they stood and clapped for us," Eberl said.

The surprising thing, according to the singers, is that the folk music of Austria is appreciated at all in an environment which is saturated by the pounding heat of dissonant Beatle-type music. Apparently the provincial folk ballads of the Alps are enjoyed no less than the Beatles by the school audiences.

The trio does not consider its type of music to be in competition with the prevalent inter-

New Approach

MARSHFIELD, Wis. (AP)—Mrs. John Lang has a new version of the old party game of bobbing for apples. Recently heavy rains uprooted an apple tree at Mrs. Lang's home and dumped the ripe apples into her inundated front yard. Mrs. Lang invited neighbors to help themselves.

national style in popular music. Rather than Tyroleans are content to present their music as a reflection of their particular culture.

Eberl feels that regionalism should be reflected and preserved in music, and that is what his group intends to do. "Our music is part of us and our country. We hope to show other people what our country is like through our music," he said.

The Tyroleans feel no sense of inferiority when they offer traditional music to cosmopolitan international audiences.

Although the relatively backwoods mountainous country of Tyrol is now being besieged by the impact of "Americanization," signifying the juke box, hamburger stands and TV, Tyrolean people have remained attached to their traditional institutions and heritage of music.

Jacob observed that "although rebelliousness of the younger generation takes place, our schools and homes preserve our traditions. We have a balance. We have emerged as one of the most prosperous, stable, reliable, respected democracies in the world."

"In many respects we are like your West. For example, there is much similarity between our yodeling and your cowboy music's yodelling."

The trio stayed at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Harold Wiedemann in Twin Falls. Quite by coincidence, "Dr. Wiedemann was born in Innsbruck, and obviously the ex-primate founds much to discuss—in German, naturally."

SONANZA! LOOK WHAT I FOUND-- HALF A PARTY TRAY!

THAT'LL KEEP US FROM PERISHING FROM HUNGER!

I GUESS WE WON'T CARE, DAD, IF MOM BECOMES A REGULAR CLUB WOMAN, AS LONG AS THEY HAVE CHOW LIKE THIS LEFT OVER.

YEAH--WOMEN DON'T HAVE BIG APPETITES--THEY EAT LIKE BIRDS! OR HA HA--LIKE RABBITS SOME KINDA SALAD WITH LETTUCE SATISFIES THEM!

TIDY UP HERE A BIT, WHILE I READ THE PAPER, WILL YOU, WILLIS?

RIGHTO! I DON'T THINK I'LL EAT ANY SUPPER, I'M GOING TO THE EARLY MOVIE!

THE PARTY TRAY WAS DELICIOUS, LIL--I USED THE HALF I PAID FOR AND SAVED YOUR SHARE FOR YOUR BRIDGE CLUB TONIGHT!

I CAN'T WAIT TO SEE IT--DANGELLO'S DO SUCH A PRETTY JOB!

Wow!

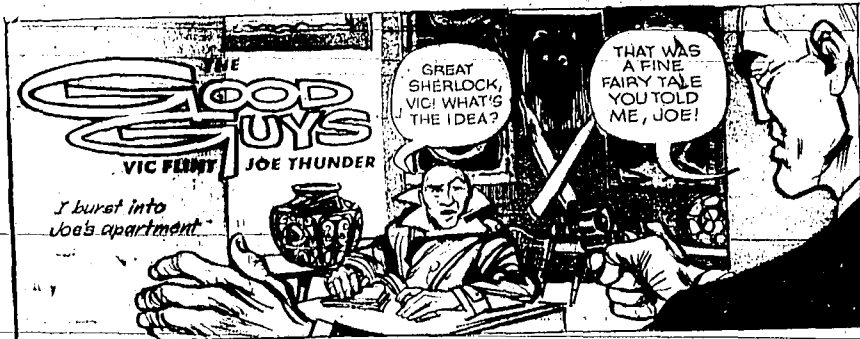

HERE IT IS -- YE GODS?

EEek!

SIT STILL, SON, WE'RE GOING TO SEE THE EARLY AND LATE SHOWS-- THAT TRAY WAS FOR LIL'S BRIDGE CLUB TONIGHT!

OH, GREAT! WELL, WE CAN STAY HERE TILL MIDNIGHT --THEY SHOULD BE ASLEEP BY THEN--I HOPE!

THE GOOD GUYS
VIC FLINT JOE THUNDER

I burst into Joe's apartment.

GREAT SHERLOCK, VIC! WHAT'S THE IDEA?

THAT WAS A FINE FAIRY TALE YOU TOLD ME, JOE!

YOU'RE NO BACHELOR! I'VE TALKED TO THELMA!

THELMA? ARE YOU STILL IN DREAMLAND?

FRM! I'VE GOT A HUNCH ABOUT THIS!

Joe didn't like to argue with a gun pointed at him, so he edited the script---

NO OFFENSE, PARDNER. BUT DREAMS ARE DREAMS AND WE'RE NOW IN A SOLID WORLD OF REALITY...

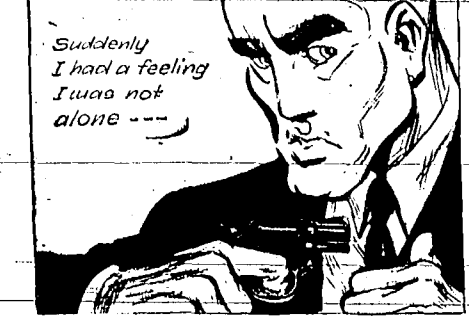

God, but you tricked me!

The fall knocked the wind out of him! Sorry, I sorta liked the guy --- I picked up the gun. I had a strange feeling I was going to need it ---

BELIEVE ME, THIS THELMA'S GOT TO PROVE THIS IS HER!

Suddenly I had a feeling I was not alone ---

Looking toward the door, I saw a sight that put red ice in my veins---

JOVE! IT LOOKS LIKE THE LADS ARE GOING TO HAVE A FOOTBALL GAME! I'LL GO BY AND GIVE THEM A FEW POINTERS!

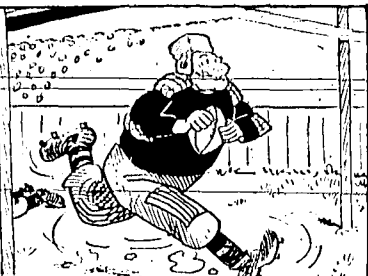

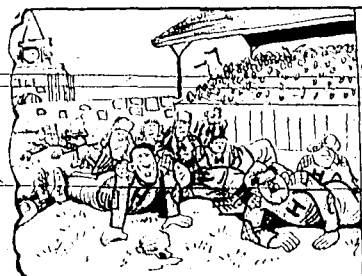

A SPLENDID KICK, ALVIN, MY BOY!! INDEED, IT'S ONE THAT WOULD HAVE DONE JUSTICE TO YOUR UNCLE IN HIS DAYS AT YALE... HAK-KAFF!

LOOK OUT, FELLOWS HERE IT COMES! THAT'S ALVIN'S UNCLE... THE BIGGEST WINDBAG IN TOWN!

DID YOU DID ALL THE POINTING WHEN YOU WERE AT YALE UNCLE AMOS?

YES, LAD! BUT IT WAS AS A SWIVEL-HIPPED HALFBACK THAT I EXCELLED TWO YEARS IN A ROW I LED THE OLD BLDE TO VICTORY OVER OUR ARCH ENEMY HARVARD... HAR-RU-WAY!

IN MY JUNIOR YEAR I TWISTED AND SPUN MY WAY 73 YARDS THROUGH THE ENTIRE HARVARD TEAM!

YAG, THE VERY NEXT YEAR... KAFF-KAFF... I RETURNED A PLINT FOR 99 YARDS AND THE WINNING POINTS. WALTER CAMP NAMED ME TO HIS ALL AMERICA TEAM... HAK-KAFF!

THAT'S A LOT OF PICKLE SMOKE!

SHOW 'EM, YOU DID IT UNCLE AMOS YOU'VE GOT 'OLDS SWEAT!

THEY ARE COMING AT ME THREE FEET APART! I'LL ZOOM BETWEEN THEM LIKE A SHEET LEAVING A RIFLE BARREL! THEY'LL NEVER LAY A HAND ON ME!
