Grocers in T.F. Ordered to Stop Cut-Rate Pricing

Supermarkets in the Twin-Falls area were told Tuesday afternoon to boost prices on several items to comply with Idaho's six per cent markup law, or face injunctions from the Idaho Attorney General's office. Managers of the large markets in Twin Falls met with Winfield-D. Stearns, director of fair trade and unfair sales of the Department of Commerce and Development, Boise, at 2 p.m. Tuesday in the Depot Grill to discuss reports of recent violations of the law by most of the markets.

Income Tax Increases Advocated

The Unfair Sales Act requires that markets must have a retail markup of at least six per cent above the wholesale price on all items sold in their stores.

According to Stearns, all of the markets periodically were not complying with this law, especially in milk, cheese, sugar, flour, cake mix and some meat prices and other miscellaneous goods.

Present at the meeting was Frank Wilson, Boise, Idaho Food Dealers Association, and Warren Felton, Boise, of the Attorney General's office.

According to Stearns, the managers were told to comply with the law once before or injunctions would be brought against them forcing compliance.

Stearns said a complaint will be filed with the Attorney General's office this week seeking an injunction against the markets. Any violations of the injunction will result in contempt of court charges being filed and the markets being fined, Stearns added.

When asked how he discovered the violations, Stearns said he had read several advertisements in the Times-News which were clearly in violation of the law. Stearns added that the stores would advertise that an item would be priced below the six per cent markup for two or three hours on a certain day, thereby violating the law. He said many signs and displays within the stores also were in violation.

The local supermarket managers refused to comment on the injunction's effect on their future operations.

Stearns said many of the stores had been violating the law periodically and some of them quite regularly.

Ecuador Has Provisional President

QUITO, Ecuador (AP) — Clemente Yerovi Indaburo, a non-partisan economist, has been named provisional president of Ecuador after student demonstrators, businessmen and labor leaders brought down the military junta.

Yerovi, 62, was appointed Tuesday by the military high command which threw out the three-man junta. The high command said it named Yerovi on the advice of political leaders and fully supported him.

The appointment of a civilian president ended five days of violent anti-junta student demonstrations in which at least seven persons were killed and a business strike in Guayaquil, Ecuador's port and largest city.

The students claimed the junta's policies were oppressive. The businessmen opposed new taxes and import restrictions.

The military command said it was dissolving the junta "to avoid chaos and anarchy."

There were indications that the military chiefs acted without the junta's knowledge, but junta members had said earlier they would resign if a civilian president could be agreed on.

The whereabouts of the junta members — Rear Adm. Ramon Castro Dizon, Gen. Marcos Gandara and Gen. Cabrera Sevilla — was not immediately known. There were unconfirmed reports that they had fled to Brazil or Peru.

Restaurant, Grocery Prices Feel Inflationary Trend

The price of food—long stable in Magic Valley — is beginning to respond to the national inflationary trend, with local restaurant and grocery proprietors beginning to raise prices.

A survey of local restaurants, grocery stores, packing houses, bakeries and institutional food services showed wholesale food prices have risen about 10 per cent during the past six months, spurred by increases in the price of milk and meat products.

As a result, most Twin Falls restaurants reported tentative price increases during the past three months, and most anticipated larger price increases in the near future.

According to one owner, who Monday raised his prices 10 to 15 per cent, "Prices go up every time food comes in the back door. In the last two days hamburger has gone up four cents."

In a gesture indicative of anticipated spiraling food prices, his menus are now printed without price designations—enabling him to switch prices often than he changes menus.

According to Mrs. R.V. Glick, supervisor for food programs in the Twin Falls School District, "Prices have gone right on up, even in the past two weeks."

Since the beginning of the school term in September, she reported, cases of green beans have risen from $5.18 to $5.85, applesauce has risen from $3.95 to $4.95 and peaches are now $6.75 a case, up 70 cents from September.

She reported spices have nearly doubled in price during the past half-year. Cinnamon has

LOOKING AT SCHEDULE of speaking engagements are two of four State Department officials who were in Magic Valley Wednesday to discuss U.S. foreign policy. The four officials were to speak at a community meeting Wednesday night in Twin Falls. Prior to the community meeting, they spoke to schools, clubs and other organizations throughout the valley. Looking at the schedule are Victor H. Skiles, left, regional coordinator for Africa, Office of Program Coordination, Agency for International Development, a former Burley area resident, and John W. Piercey, chief of the conferences and speaking arrangements division of the Office of Public Service, Bureau of Public Affairs. (Times-News photo)

State Department Team Arrives For Talks on Foreign Policy

The Communist influence in African nations is not as strong as it was feared, Hendrik Van Oss, Washington, D.C., deputy director of the Office of West African and Malagasy Affairs, Bureau of African Affairs, said Wednesday morning during a brief press conference in Twin Falls. Van Oss said the free world has received several reassuring signs that the communist influence is not growing rapidly in Africa. He said there have been several recent coups in which Chinese and Russian Communists have been "kicked out" of embassies and governmental offices.

Van Oss and three other State Department officials are speaking throughout Magic Valley Wednesday on the U.S. foreign policy.

The other officials are John W. Piercey, chief of the conferences and speaking arrangements division of the Office of Public Service, Bureau of Public Affairs; Victor H. Skiles, regional coordinator for Africa, office of program coordination, Agency for International Development, and Howard T. Robinson, labor adviser to the Bureau of Far Eastern Affairs.

The four State Department officials are speaking in seven Magic Valley cities prior to the community meeting on foreign policy to be held at 8 p.m. Wednesday night at O'Leary Junior High School Auditorium.

On the Communist influence in Africa, Van Oss added that Communists do have "a foothold in some areas." But the overall effect is not as serious as feared.

The State Department's program on community meetings has been received very well throughout the nation, Piercey said. He said the four-man group has spoken in 11 states on invitation.

Sponsoring the meetings in Idaho is the Idaho Congress of Parents Teachers Association. Piercey said this program is

Draft-Dodging Schemes Cracked In 2 Large Cities

NEW YORK (AP)—The FBI arrested 38 men in daybreak raids today and said they have cracked draft-dodging schemes in New York and Cleveland which involved sale of fake enlistment papers for up to $5,000. The raids netted 33 men in New York, including nine fathers and eight of their sons. Five men involved in the Cleveland operation were arrested in that city; in Akron, Ohio; Chicago and Albany, N.Y., the FBI said.

The New York operation was cracked last month, officials said, with the arrest of two men accused of supplying fake enlistment papers for from $1,500 to $5,000—whatever the traffic would bear.

Asst. U.S. Atty. Leonard Theberge said Solomon Gottfried, 56, a civil service worker who was once in the Air Force, had obtained a number of official Defense Department forms — No. DD-44, which is used to notify draft boards that a person has enlisted in a military unit.

Theberge said the customers were recruited by Paul G. Miller, 28, of Flushing, Queens, N.Y., a department store credit authorizer.

The prosecutor said Gottfried, who filled out the forms, got $200 to $400 per customer, with the rest going to Miller.

The pair, he said, had netted up to $80,000 since 1963.

In Cleveland, Special FBI agent Earl E. Brown said two National Guardsmen — Frank M. Kovach Jr., 27, of Parma, Ohio, and Donald Taylor, 29, of Cleveland, charged up to $600 to forward papers to draft boards showing that the men had enlisted in the Guard.

Kovach and Taylor were accused of aiding and abetting draft evasion.

The raids came on a day when the Defense Department issued a call for a draft of 34,600 men in May, the most since January.

Uniform Time

Slate Ordered By Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress ordered today a uniform summer time schedule expected to put most of the country on Daylight Saving Time for six months each year starting in 1967.

The House completed congressional action, passing a bill which the administration supported.

The Senate passed the compromise measure Tuesday shortly after Senate-House conferees reached agreement on it. The final measure is exactly the version originally passed by the House.

The bill, designed to bring uniformity into a multiplicity of summer fast-time systems over the nation, would:

—Require any area wishing to observe DST this year to put it into effect from the last Sunday in April to the last Sunday in October.

—Put the entire nation next year and after on DST for this six-month period but permit a state to be kept on standard time if its legislature so votes. In such case, the whole state would remain on standard time.

100 Acres Burned In Salmon Fire

SALMON, Idaho (AP)—What was probably Idaho's first forest fire of the year burned an estimated 100 acres of brush and scrub in a 12-mile area south of Salmon Tuesday.

A crew of 12, including Bureau of Land Management and Forest Service men and private citizens, fought the fire. It was presumed to be under control late Tuesday night, but the area was checked again early today. The fire started when a fire rancher built to burn out ditches got out of control.

Church Given Old Building For Project

Volunteers from the Twin Falls Freewill Baptist Church will begin demolition of a large, two-story frame house at the corner of Seventh Avenue East and Shoshone Street, directly behind the Twin Falls Clinic, as a part of a church construction program.

The workers will use the salvaged lumber from the house to construct a 36-by-70-foot auditorium to adjoin a new church building south of Twin Falls.

Owner of the house, the Twin Falls Clinic, donated the house to the church on condition the house be removed and the lot leveled to provide for a parking lot.

Two Great Society Plans Get House OK

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson has won his first major congressional victory of 1966 with House approval of funds for his rent subsidy and Teacher Corps programs. But it took some help from Republicans. A $2.56-billion catch-all appropriation bill passed late Tuesday by the House included money to start the two new "Great Society" projects. The 269-122 roll-call vote that sent the bill to the Senate after six hours of partisan debate did not reflect the closeness of the battle over the two main issues involved.

Both the rent subsidy program for low-income tenants and the Teachers Corps to help educate children of poor families were approved last year by Congress, but the money to get them started was not provided in the final appropriation bill of 1965.

Republicans who argued that now is not the time to spend federal funds on new domestic programs not related to the war in Viet Nam tried to eliminate money for both the programs.

Inquest Set Into Burley Fire Deaths

BURLEY — An inquest will be held into the fire in a three-bedroom frame house here Friday night which claimed the lives of three small children, Dr. Leslie Fillmore, Cassia County coroner, said Wednesday.

Time for the inquest will not be set until officials can confer with Steve Kennedy, Ogden, special investigator for the Fire Insurance Underwriters Corp., who was to arrive here Wednesday.

The special investigator was called for by the Burley police and fire chiefs. Killed in the fire were the three children, ages 3 to 7, of Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Tanfield, 1542 Almo Ave., who were both away at work.

Reward Set For Kidnaped Miami Youth

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Friends have started a drive to raise a reward for the return of a teenager whose kidnaper has remained ominously silent.

Police chased down dozens of leads, poured over boxes of photographs and even made two fruitless flying raids in their search for 18-year-old Daniel Goldman.

But apparently they were no closer to a solution than they were Monday morning when a heavy-set middle-aged man in a baseball cap forced him to leave his home at gunpoint.

Indonesia's New Cabinet Is Sworn In

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — President Sukarno swore in Indonesia's new Cabinet today, and Lt. Gen. Suharto said he thinks critics will give it a chance.

Sukarno in a speech at the swearing-in ceremony also took note of the opposition from students and political groups. He said all people cannot be pleased all the time.

"According to my belief, I have succeeded in making it (the Cabinet) perfect again," Sukarno said, but indicated changes might be made in the future.

Johnson Asks Okay For More India Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson asked Congress today to endorse a billion-dollar antifamine program for India—"a good and deserving friend." His request was made as Indian Prime Minister Indira Gandhi flew to New York City en route home after two days of talks with the President and top U.S. officials.

In those talks Johnson had assured Mrs. Gandhi of U.S. help in meeting India's food emergency and long-range needs of economic development.

India will pay for commodities to be provided under the program. But the payment will be in India's rupees, which will be spent only in India.

Paratrooper Feels He Got 'Lucky Break'

FT. CAMPBELL, Ky. (AP) — After flying like a kite behind an airplane traveling 135 miles an hour, a young paratrooper freed himself and landed safely. "It was like getting a second chance," said Pfc. Michael A. McDonald, 17, of Missoula, Mont.

McDonald, a member of the 101st Airborne Division here, landed in a pine tree after freeing himself from tangled parachute lines during a training exercise over North Carolina Tuesday.

The static line connecting the soldier's parachute to a C-119 transport failed to disconnect during the practice assault, the Army said, and McDonald flew behind the plane for nearly seven minutes.

One of 224 Ft. Campbell troops taking part in the exercise, he had leaped from the aircraft at 1,500 feet.

Crewmen on the plane were unable to haul McDonald aboard because his arms had become entangled in lines connecting his shoulder harness with the parachute canopy.

After clearing his arms, he signaled the crewmen he was conscious, the Army said, and the static line snapped, enabling him to fall free of the plane.

His reserve parachute opened at 300 feet, McDonald said.

Mrs. Wickel Is Honored at Rites

DECLO—Funeral services for Mrs. Betty Colleen Wickel, Declo, were held Monday afternoon at the Albion LDS Chapel with Bishop Hylton Emery officiating.

The family prayer was given by John Stone, with the prelude played by Merla Bell. Invocation was by Ernest Clark. A duet was sung by Dorothy Clark and Don Emery. The obituary was read by Rueben Ward. Bishop Orville Beecher spoke. The benediction was given by Hylton Emery.

Palldbearers were Orville Wickel, Arden Wickel, Reo Adams, Gale Anderson, Arley Cahoon and Tom Batterson.

Flowers were under the direction of Zelona Mahoney, Lotte Brackenbury, Estella A. Brackenbury, Ellen Danner, Niace Perry, Helen Anderson and Vella Davis.

Last rites were held in the Elba Cemetery with the grave dedication by Bishop Beecher.

Grange Hears of Noxious Weeds

SHOSHONE — A program on noxious weeds was given to members of the Lincoln County Farm Bureau held at the Dietrich Grange Hall Monday night.

Ivan Hopkins, county extension agent, and Wayne Hickman, county weed supervisor, presented the program.

Colored slides were shown and a quiz was held. Gifts were won by A. G. Biswell, Mrs. Ervin Braun and Mrs. Glenn Sorensen.

Glenn Sorensen was chairman of arrangements for the meeting. Mrs. Sorensen and Mrs. Grant Stevens, Richfield, served refreshments.

Chairman for Blood Drive Named Here

Dale P. Patterson, secretary-treasurer of the Twin Falls Mortuary, Wednesday was named chairman of the Red Cross Blood Program for Twin Falls by Milo Pope, Twin Falls chapter chairman.

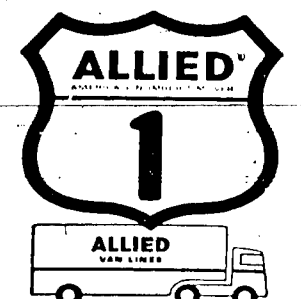

Pope praised the work carried on by Jack Swisher, Blood Program chairman for the past three years, and complimented him on the service he had rendered to the local Red Cross and the community.

Patterson stated that he hoped to continue many of the policies established by Swisher in the operation of the program.

"Only through the cooperation and work of many individuals is an undertaking of this size successful, and I hope we will continue to have the help of all those who have assisted in the past," Patterson said.

"We hope that more people in Magic Valley will realize what the Red Cross Blood Program means to our community and that they will support it," Patterson concluded.

200 Marginal Districts to Decide Vote

LONDON (AP) — The results in nearly 200 marginal districts should decide the outcome of the British general election Thursday.

The result already is considered a certainty in more than two-thirds of the 630 districts which will elect members of the House of Commons. Either Labor or Conservative candidates — and a handful of Liberals — will win with big leads as they have for years.

In the present election with the tide running to Labor, the experts figure that 112 seats which the Conservatives won in 1964 by a margin of 10 per cent or less are vulnerable, and 74 seats labor won by similar small margins may be vulnerable. That leaves 192 safe Tory seats, and 241 safe Labor seats. The Liberal vote is generally more volatile, but the Liberal party figures it has a minimum of about half a dozen safe seats. The election thus hangs on the so-called marginal seats, where the two big parties are closely balanced. The nation's closest race in the 1964 election was in Brighton, which labor won by seven votes in a district of 62,000 voters.

EXPULSED ATHENS (AP) — The Union of Greek Army Reserve Officers has expelled Prince Peter, a cousin of King Constantine, because of criticisms he made in Hong Kong of the Greek government and the royal family.

ELLEN RAE KRAHN daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Krahn, Fairfield, has been chosen by the Fairfield American Legion Auxiliary to attend the 1966 Girls' State at Nampa. She is a junior at Camas County High School and has been on the honor roll for three years. She is a member of the "C Club" and has been a leader in many school activities. She is a member of the LDS Church.

More Saucers

Flying saucers are back in vogue again. Before the current rash of saucer sightings has run its course, the U. S. can expect to have reports of mysterious flying objects from nearly every part of the nation. As in the past, those citizens who report seeing flying saucers, space ships or whatever, are firmly convinced they saw "something" and many of them aren't quite sure of what they did see. However, evidence continues to mount that most of the flying saucers are nothing more or less than a combination of vivid imagination and a sort of mass hysteria.

Of course, there are always the hoaxes, like the six youngsters who released weather balloons equipped with lights so they'd float over a town. The imaginations of residents did the rest. After the first reports of flying saucers, many persons become saucer conscious and start looking skyward. From that point, it's possible for them to see almost anything.

Those persons who stick with the old theory that there actually are such things as flying saucers and people from other planets have a rather indefensible position. If the theory is accepted at face value, one has to assume that other planets have residents who have solved the problems of space travel. Having found the solution to that problem, it shouldn't be so difficult for these intelligent beings to devise some sort of means of establishing contact with earthlings. Or perhaps these visitors from outer space have looked over the inhabitants of this planet and have decided humans aren't worth contacting. Who could argue with that attitude?

Trained, experienced reporters always spot the weak point in most cases of flying saucers although few risk ruining a good story by pointing it out. The weak point, of course, is the person reporting the incident. Experienced reporters know there can be almost as many descriptions of an incident as there are witnesses. There's a suggestion here that the human eye is quite apt to see what a person's mind wants it to see.

No one should permit panic to take control because of the varied reports of flying saucers. Although it's possible such objects do exist and Americans are seeing something that doesn't originate on this earth, it's much more possible that eyes and minds see only some common object. So far as space ships full of little green men are concerned, a person would be well advised to be skeptical. It might be wise to continue being skeptical even if you think you see something like that. If you plan to report what you think you see, get a photograph if you have a camera handy.

Best of all, if you see something in the sky you can't identify, try to be objective and calm. It might not be a flying saucer or even Superman.

SOMETHING'S NEEDED

Complete overhaul has been proposed for Idaho's court system and almost immediately there have been objections. Lincoln County Sen. Jack Murphy objects that the proposal would take the state's system of courts away from the people. "I see no demand for a complete upheaval," he said. Perhaps no upheaval is needed, but it's been obvious for some years that some sort of change is needed in Idaho's courts.

Persons who have been on the receiving end of "justice," particularly as it pertains to some of the lower courts, are well aware there have been instances of double standards. Moreover, some penalties in some of the lower courts don't come close to fitting the crime. It's been perfectly obvious in some of the lower courts that a person's economic or social status makes considerable difference in the treatment that will be accorded by the court.

Under Idaho law, anyone astute enough to corral a sufficient number of votes can preside in the lower courts. Aside from the matter of being a citizen and a resident, there are virtually no requirements to becoming a judge in one of the lower courts. There is no need to know anything about law and many police judges and justices of the peace merely follow a schedule of fines for specific offenses.

District courts escape this pitfall because law specifies district judges must be lawyers. However, the state's district courts were organized along districts years ago and the work load has increased terrifically since then. The result is undue delay in trying cases. When a sharp attorney is involved, it's possible to delay a case right out of existence.

It's high time to adopt whatever changes are necessary to assure equal and prompt treatment under the law.

Agency for International Development
WASHINGTON — President Johnson recently said, in a reference to the people of Viet Nam and the war they are fighting: "Until the peoples of the villages and farms of that unhappy country know that they personally count, that they are cared about, that their future is their own, only then will we know that real victory is possible."
This is fundamental to our commitment in Viet Nam: to help the Vietnamese people bring about what Prime Minister Ky described at Honolulu as a "social revolution."
To support this economic and social effort in Viet Nam, that is an essential part of winning this particular kind of war, the United States is furnishing a variety of types of assistance.

AID FOR CIVILIANS — On the economic side, the Agency for International Development is providing substantial financing for imported goods needed by the Vietnamese economy, cement, fertilizer, iron and steel, drugs and medicines, among other items. With the increase in the tempo of the fighting, the economy of Viet Nam has faced severe inflationary pressures, of the same kind that helped the Communists in China. This commodity import program is one major element in keeping this threat in check.
One often reads that our aid program is not reaching the people of Viet Nam. This claim is not accurate. The facts are that our AID-financed commodities do reach the people, both in the cities and in the countryside. Officials of AID are at work in all the 43 provinces of South Viet Nam. Despite the transportation difficulties and interruptions to traffic caused by the Viet Cong, the great bulk of the food, the clothing, the medical supplies, the construction materials and other things we supply, do in fact reach the people for whom they are intended.

AID TO HEALTH, EDUCATION — More than commodities are needed in Viet Nam. We are helping to build schoolrooms and train teachers; we have provided more than eight million textbooks. We are helping to train doctors and nurses and to provide medical services. Today the United States has about 250 doctors and medical technicians working with the civilian population of Viet Nam, and the number will be doubled in six months.
We are working in agriculture. In transportation, in public administration. All this is positive, constructive work that is showing good results.
But a tremendous task lies ahead. Viet Cong and North Vietnamese military units must be broken up and driven out. Local security must be stabilized. New and stronger Vietnamese government institutions will be established, institutions which will serve the village and which will involve the participation of the villagers. And finally the expansion of education and health facilities, the improvement of agriculture and transportation, the gradual economic and social uplift of the village people must be commenced and continued.

LONG TASK — No one should expect overnight results. The work of rural construction will be slow, one village at a time.
But the Vietnamese and the United States governments, together with assistance now being made available by over 30 other free world countries, are determined to follow through on this line.
If the Vietnamese are successful, they will have demonstrated that a country whose leaders and people are determined to sustain their own freedom can do so, with the help of other free countries, even against the most bitter and ruthless efforts of Communist insurgency. In view of the declared intent of the leaders of the major Communist countries to encourage and support subversive insurgency throughout the less-developed world — in Latin America and in Africa as well as in Asia — it is of great importance to the security of all the free world that the free people of Viet Nam learn how to overcome subversive insurgency and replace it by strong and effective institutions of free government and of social progress.

THE LANDFILL HYBRID
The new sanitary landfill near Interstate 15 on the east end of the Idaho Falls Airport property is not a propitious place for dumping garbage.
In fact, it may collide with the new highway beautification bill which President Lyndon Johnson had passed in the last session of Congress.
But there is a salient point about the new landfill area which some residents may not appreciate.
It is really a resourceful effort to fill a large excavated area which can eventually serve as a beautiful park stripping to the Interstate. If essentially a recovery project. In time, the cavernous excavation will be filled and grass and shrubs can be sowed over it. In the meantime, it has served as a dump area.
The project, however, entails a few years in the making. And, unquestionably, in the meantime, it will detract from the Interstate border on one of the entrances to the city. Dumping garbage, even with the landfill method of pushing dirt over it, is a seamy business... and the prevailing wind will sometimes make motorists noisily aware of it.
Insect now, however, it will be butterfly someday.—Idaho Falls Post-Register.

GOOD NEWS VIA SALES TAX
A great many Idahoans are finding out one of the good things about the sales tax these days. Refund checks are coming back from the state of Idaho to taxpayers who haven't received one in years.
That's because the sales tax law provides a deduction of $10 in income tax for every dependent listed by the taxpayer. Thus a man with a wife and four children gets $60 back from the amount withheld from his paychecks during the year.
That isn't all, either. Withholding rates were lowered last year when the tax went into effect, although taxpayers have not noticed short memories.
It's no cinch the sales tax will be retained in Idaho. It will be on the ballot next November for the voters to keep or banish.
We just hope the people aren't foolish enough to believe they'll be riding themselves of taxes by voting out the sales tax. You can bet your bottom dollar from this year's refund check you won't get another next year if that happens.—Idaho State Journal.

ON A FUTURE MENU
Food cans with built-in heating elements may be appearing on household tables by 1970. The next development will no doubt be digestible containers that can be eaten with the food, baby stove and all.—Ottawa Journal.

The Doctor Says

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M. D.

Many readers complain of excessive sweating. Their problem is often aggravated by an unpleasant odor associated with sweat. Perspiration itself is practically odorless but odors can arise from bacterial decomposition of the oils secreted by the skin, especially in parts such as the feet, armpits and groin, where evaporation is delayed.
The first line of attack is frequent bathing. The undergarments should be changed daily and washed in cool water to prevent the fixation action of hot water on the mixed secretions embedded in the garments. If an odor persists in the clothing, it may be necessary to soak the clothes in a sodium hypochlorite solution.
Some bath soaps now contain an antiseptic such as hexachlorophene, trichlorocarbanilide or bithionol. These additives do not kill the germs on the skin but they greatly reduce their rate of growth. If such a soap is used, no other deodorant or antiperspirant preparations should be applied to the skin because they would interfere with the action of the antiseptic.
Many antiperspirants are now available. They will not completely suppress perspiration but only reduce it. In fact, complete suppression of perspiration

Interpreting The News

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — Communism is getting so fouled up it not only has people in this country confused, it has Communists confused, too.
The Red-ruled world, or most of it, has assembled in Moscow to hear the latest Soviet policy lines on Stalin, Viet Nam, and other Communist problems.
But Red China isn't there. Just last week it wrote the Russians that it wouldn't go, accusing them of "dirty deals" and of working hand in glove with the United States to rule the world.
This, indeed, probably for a long time, any possibility of reconciliation between the two giants of communism. Only pro-Chinese Communist parties in Japan, New Zealand and Albania rejected the invitation to Moscow.

This shows poor support for the Red Chinese who have suffered one setback after another in the past couple of years in various parts of the world where they once had influence.
But this is a split between Communist parties. The New York Times Sunday had something to say about what's happening inside the most advanced of all the Communist countries, the Soviet Union.
"The Soviet society the Communists built," said the Times, "is exciting and awesome; inside it the least exciting, the least inspiring, the least promising element is the Communist party itself."
"It's work as the vanguard of the 20th century revolution finished," the Communist party goes into its 23rd congress (the present Moscow meeting) desperately searching for a new role.

NEW YORK (AP)—Middle age must be hard on cats, too. This theory is based on the increasingly erratic behavior of our cat, Lady Dottie.
In kittenhood and early youth her deportment was model. She was dainty, playful, affectionate and so intelligent that I was considering trying to get her into Harvard—on an athletic scholarship.
She learned early to use her box in my bathroom. She let the children on our apartment floor lug her around as if she were a doll. She rarely scratched them, even when they tweaked her tail.
Lady Dottie went through infancy, adolescence and early adulthood without suffering any really noticeable personality change.
But now that she is on the threshold of middle age and her whiskers are turning grayer, something seems to have come over her. Not being a cat psychiatrist, I can only guess at a kind of rebellion against life—so often seen in middle-aged human beings.
Lady Dottie looks long at herself in the mirror, shakes her head grimly, and stalks away. She is full of whims and melancholy, as moody and unpredictable as March weather.
Having lost her own youth, she seems to resent youth in others. If any of the kids try to hug her, she growls like a tiger, and they drop her quickly.
She has a preference for older people. She seems to have adopted me lately. She likes to sleep at the foot of my bed. In the morning she follows me into the bathroom, rubs against my legs, and gravely watches me shave.
"I do believe Lady Dottie has got a crush on you," said my wife, Frances.
Lady Dottie quixotically seeks and evades attention.
Like many aging people, she has become finicky about her meals. If at night we give her warmed beef instead of freshly cooked beef, she takes a subtle revenge. After we are asleep, she goes into the living room and throws up the canned fish squarely in the middle of the rug.
She isn't allergic to it. She is just determined to have her own way in this as in everything.

Q — For what condition is Oldoctoyde prescribed? What are the side effects?
A — The nearest I can come to the drug you mention is Aldactazide. A which contains spironolactone and hydrochlorothiazide. These two components are diuretics but are said to work better in combination than separately in combating the waterlogging of your tissues. As a bonus, it also reduces your blood pressure. An overdose may cause nausea, drowsiness and blood disorders. It should not be taken by anyone who has a liver disease.

TAYLOR'S VIEWS ON WORLD NEWS

By HENRY J. TAYLOR

Lenin stated: "When the time comes to hang the last of the capitalists they will be bidding for the sale of the rope."
A better bid could hardly be made than President de Gaulle's latest trade offers to Russia and Red China and a Western European group's bid to build a $50 million steel mill for Peking. Nor is the push by President Johnson and some hungry American industrialists for bigger trade with the Red bloc far behind.
Do you remember the condemned man who paused at the steps of the gallows to inquire: "Is this thing safe?" And do you remember the scrap iron we sold to Japan, returned to us at Pearl Harbor?

Money is in this up to its neck and the seeping, seeping stench rises around us like a gas bubble of putrefaction in a muddy marsh.
We are under declared attack by giant enemies. The Red bloc pre-1917 revolutionary days. Half a century is often time enough for a revolution to wear itself out. The French revolution in far less time than that was lost in the individual ambitions of Napoleon.
And the philosophy of Herbert Spencer—that the rich are rich because they are superior and the poor are poor because they are inferior—which pervaded much of American capitalist thinking in the late 19th century and the first 35 years of this one is pretty well discarded.

It was lost when the United States government became a welfare state with its Social Security program in 1935 and in 1946 when Congress declared for the first time in that body that the government had a responsibility for the general welfare.
Yet one so-called expert after another in recent weeks has suggested the United States take a new and softer line toward Red China to improve both trade and relations.
How they can expect that to happen—no matter how hard the United States tried—is hard to imagine when it is remembered that Red China has spurned all efforts by its Communist neighbor, the Soviet Union, to end their rift.

Arthur J. Goldberg, U. S. ambassador to the United Nations, said Monday when asked if this country was thinking of ending its opposition to a U. N. seat for Red China.
"We have had no indication of a change of attitude on the part of the Red Chinese."
But we claim, uniquely, to represent a moral position in the world. We shout at the top of our lungs that America is the beacon for idealism and hope. And if it isn't we have gone to a lot of trouble and a great deal of expense for nothing—including several wars.
Nevertheless, there is much suspicion abroad about this. Unjustly and enviously, much of the world hangs the dollar sign on America at the drop of a hat. That is utterly unfair. No nation in the history of the world has given more and asked less than the United States.

But handsome as is handsome does. Accordingly, it is especially stupid for us to conform to the false charges by applying Uncle Sam's cash register, instead of our moral contentions, to the aggressor we're asking the world to resist.
This type of trade is notoriously loaded with European industrialists who are cynics by experience and regard us as fools by the lack of it. These include the hard-bitten types and all those European bachelors who have resigned the greed of an effete aristocracy in numerous countries. If there's some money in it their anti-Communist conscience is as synthetic as the deadly batarang in the Batman films.
But are our government's moral standards to be established by Senator Something or Something y Something or Other, Herr Ludwig von Katzenjammer-Krupper, etc.?

What kind of morals does a pickpocket show in the rationalization that somebody else is sure to get the money if he doesn't?
Is money to be made a substitute for everything, including principle?

Land Law Review Unit's Work Lauded

WASHINGTON (Special) — Sen. Len Jordan has called the Public Land Law Review Commission's recent joint meeting with its advisory council and governor's representatives an "excellent beginning."

"Since nearly two-thirds of Idaho is at present federally owned, the importance to Idaho of clarifying and improving the laws governing the public lands cannot be overestimated," he said.

"After this initial meeting I am highly encouraged that the study will produce decisions of positive value in promoting the development of public lands in Idaho and elsewhere."

In all, seven Gem state natives, serving in various capacities, were on hand for the session designed to set forth the objectives of the commission's studies and to discuss specific areas for study in depth.

Sen. Jordan and Cong. Compton I. White, both commission members, presided over group meetings at which advisory council members not representing federal agencies and governor's representatives made statements setting forth their views on what the commission should take up.

Included in the agenda was a presentation by undersecretary of interior, John A. Carver Jr., formerly of Preston. Carver is serving as a federal liaison officer to the commission from the Interior Department.

Other Idahoans in attendance were advisory board members Lloyd Haight, Boise, and A. B. Curtis, Orofino; Dr. Don Theophilus, Moscow, governor's representative, and Neal D. Nelson, Burley, commission staff member.

Available Army, Marine Divisions Are Smaller Than Last Summer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The force of Army and Marine divisions available in the United States for swift crisis duty is considerably smaller and less fit to fight than last summer.

There were 10 such divisions in this country late last July when President Johnson ordered a major buildup of ground units in Viet Nam. Eight were Army divisions, two Marine.

Most of these divisions were in reasonably good combat ready shape, although a few had sent elements to Viet Nam and the Dominican Republic.

Now there are but seven divisions in any kind of fighting shape — and a Defense Department spokesman acknowledged Tuesday that most of these are below full combat status because they are being used, in part, to train draftees and recruits.

Six of these divisions belong to the Army and one to the Marine Corps.

The Pentagon spokesman said four army divisions "are not in the same combat ready status that they would have been" had they not been given the training mission.

"It was foreseen that some of these divisions would not be at full combat status at this time," he said.

But the spokesman said the divisions will be returned gradually to full combat readiness and some will reach that stage by June.

He listed the four as the 1st and 2nd Armored at Ft. Hood, Tex., the 4th Infantry at Ft. Lewis, Wash., and the 5th Mechanized at Ft. Carson, Colo.

The Army Times, a nonofficial publication with strong service ties, said about 26,000 recruits are being trained by these four divisions.

Not mentioned by the spokesman was the 101st Airborne Division at Ft. Campbell, Ky. This division — which has shipped one brigade to the war — also is training new men. Reports place the total at 2,000.

A serviceman cannot be assigned overseas until he has had at least four months of training.

The Pentagon spokesman said that once a decision was made not to call reservists and National Guardsmen to active duty — but to build up the regular forces gradually — "it was foreseen that some of the divisions would be used" for training.

Army authorities said this action was necessary because Army training centers, though expanded, are overtaxed.

The Defense Department spokesman said "it was planned" that some of the Army divisions in the States would assume training functions.

"It was intended to be that way," he said. "It was not something that just came about."

The spokesman did not explain why the Pentagon had not previously disclosed the action, which he said was authorized last year.

There was no suggestion of this move in Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara's March 2 news conference at which he blasted as without foundation reports that the United States is militarily overextended.

"Far from overextending ourselves we have actually strengthened our military position," McNamara contended.

Jaycees Elect New Officers At Shoshone

SHOSHONE — Ed, Christopherson was elected president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce at a meeting held Monday night at the group's new headquarters, the former office of Dr. Arthur White.

Elected to serve with Christopherson are George Swanner, vice president; Gerald Wallace, secretary, and Patrick Kelley, treasurer.

Regular meetings will be held at the office at 8 p.m. on the second and fourth Monday nights of the month. Officers will be installed later.

Members are busy at this time preparing the city directory to list addresses for everyone living in the city, according to the new house and street numbers recently given.

Clarence Magoffin, retiring president, will be in charge of arrangements for the installation meeting.

Hijackers

BERLIN (AP) — West Berlin police are looking for hijackers who drove a trailer truck 312 miles from West Germany, then left it parked with its $62,500 cargo almost intact.

The thieves paid $20 in road tolls to bring the truck through Communist East Germany and brought gas for the trip from the town of Dueren near the Belgian border.

All that was missing from the cargo of industrial products, rugs, paper and cloth was a small rug worth $28 and two rolls of cloth worth $675.

POCATELLO (AP) — Construction of the Pocatello flood control channel at an estimated cost of $5 million is expected by the U. S. Corp. of Army Engineers to begin by early June.

Bids are to be opened May 3 at the corps' district headquarters in Walla Walla, Wash., according to Col. Frank McElwee, district engineer.

Five miles of the Portneuf River channel is to be straightened through Pocatello, another one and one half miles is to be concrete lined.

BIDS OPENED

BOISE (AP) — The state highway department opened bids Tuesday on a North Idaho construction project.

Standard Asphalt Paving Co., Inc., Spokane, Wash., was apparent low bidder with an offer of $76,551.

WON'T RUN

IDAHO FALLS (AP) — Rep. Don Pieper, D-Bonneville, said Tuesday he will not be a candidate for governor because of "personal and business reasons."

Late last year, in a speech at Pocatello, Pieper indicated he would seek the democratic nomination.

He said he will run for either the state Senate or House of Representatives.

RECOMMEND CHARGES

BLACKFOOT (AP) — Charges of criminal negligence against Hugh Van Horn, 42, of American Falls in the traffic accident death of Lynn De Witt Bond, 15, of Blackfoot, have been recommended by a coroner's jury.

Deputy Sheriff Berg said a complete autopsy would be held today.

Van Horn was the driver of a pickup that collided with Bond's motorcycle last Friday, fatally injuring Bond and injuring his passenger, 12-year-old Richard Pierce.

Bond died Saturday.

Winter Rain, Snow Add to Water Supply of Northeast

NEW YORK (AP) — Winter rain and snow are adding to the water supply of the Northeast, but no one is saying the drought is over.

Spring thaws are beginning to replenish underground sources in many areas, raising reservoirs far above last year's levels.

But while conservationists are talking optimistically for the first time in many months, many communities are keeping restrictions in effect.

One indication that the drought appears to be easing occurred Tuesday when an emergency pumping station drawing water from the Hudson River to New York City was closed. The reason: too much water.

With the key Delaware watershed reported at 89 per cent of capacity, there was limited storage in the reservoirs, one of which was almost at the spilling point.

"There's no point in loading up from the Hudson when good clear water from the Delaware watershed may be running to waste," said a spokesman for the Department of Water Supply.

Conserving water is still a way of life in New York and no easing of restrictions is contemplated at least until May. But in three weeks the supply has risen from 52 to nearly 70 per cent of capacity.

In Newark, N.J., officials lifted curbs that had been in effect since last May. State restrictions remain in force in New Jersey, however.

"We are not home free," said Newark Mayor Hugh J. Addonizio, "but the formal emergency is over and we are in good shape to carry through the summer and into next winter's snow and rainfall."

Another bright sign was a report by the Delaware River Basin Commission, which said conditions are "substantially better at this time than they were a year ago." Nevertheless, the drought shrank the cmfwy shrdlu commission extended its drought emergency order, which went into effect in July 1965, for

Time

NEW YORK (AP) — When Frank Elli decided to develop his literary gifts he had plenty of time—he was imprisoned at Stillwater, Minn., serving a 10-to-80-year sentence for robbery.

There was plenty of material to write about too, because he'd been in and out of 11 jails and prisons over the last 20 years.

The result was his first novel, "The Riot," an account of a two-day riot in prison.

Now out on parole, Elli is working on a revision of his second novel.

Tuesday Coward-McCann, Inc. presented him with a $10,000 literary prize for the work. The firm will publish the book early next year.

TOLL RISES
BOISE (AP) — State police added one name today to Idaho's traffic toll for the year, increasing the total to 41. That was one more than were killed in the corresponding period last year.

Reported to state police was the death in Lewiston March 18 of Robert O. Breier, 44, of Lewiston. The report said he died of injuries received in a three-car accident at a Lewiston intersection on March 16.

FEARED DROWNED
CHALLIS, Idaho (AP) — A Challis man, Al Lewis, 65, was feared drowned and became the subject of a search Tuesday after he failed to return from a Salmon River fishing trip Sunday.

Searchers found the man's car in a farm field and his pole was alongside the nearby river. The Custer county Sheriff's office is in charge of the search. Searchers used boats Tuesday and placed a net across the river at Watts bridge down river from Challis.

The sheriff's office said Lewis was last seen wearing his boots, and if he fell in the river the boots could fill with air and he would float quite a distance.

EARNINGS TOLD
BOISE (AP) — Earnings of Morrison Knudsen Co. Inc. and its subsidiaries increased more than 10 per cent during 1965, the company reported today.

Net income for 1965 was listed as $5,259,160, equal to $2.57 per share. In 1964 net income totaled $4,751,088, equal to $2.32 per share.

Total business volume for 1965 was $405,695,000, biggest in the company's 53-year history. The total included $265,737,000 worth of construction in this country—in almost every state—and $139,958,000 in 23 foreign countries.

Marriage licenses were issued to Joe Charlie Brown, 22, and Patricia Ellen Rodd, 17, both of Jerome; Dennis Carl Christensen, 20, Driggs; and Linda Lee Hess, 18, Jerome; Raymond Arvid Taylor, 27, and Joyce Susan Dunlap, 18, both of Challis; Walter Henning, 64, Kingston, Wash., and Flora J. Medling, 57, St. Louis, Mo.; Maurice Shelly Armitage, 20, Gooding; and Gladys Marie Ambrose, 19, Jerome; Robert Henry Blue Sr. and Thelma May Bishop, both of Jerome.

District Court
William E. Trujillo was sentenced to not more than 5 years' hard labor at Idaho State Penitentiary for non-support of minor children.

The sentence was suspended on condition of compliance with court order.

A divorce was granted to Mrs. Katherine Brixey from Roy Brixey.

Oregonian to Give Lecture At Burley

BURLEY — "The Origin and Power of Thought," a public lecture on Christian Science, will be given by Paul Stark Seeley, C.S.B., Portland, Ore., at 3:15 p.m. Sunday at the Masonic Temple, 1519 Overland Ave.

Sponsoring the event is First Church of Christ, Scientist. Seeley has been prominent in the Christian Science movement for many years. He has been associate editor of the Christian Science religious periodicals and was president of the mother church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston.

He has spoken before audiences throughout the world as a member of the church's Board of Lectureship.

After graduating from Princeton University and Harvard Law School, he became a member of the bar in New York and Oregon. Later he was associated with an engineering firm in the Northwest, until his interest in Christian Science led him to resign to give his full time to activities of the church.

AEC to Pick Site From List of 6
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Atomic Energy Commission announced a firm decision today to pick the site for a proposed $375-million atom-smasher from the list of six recommended last week by the National Academy of Sciences.

Those sites are Ann Arbor, Mich.; Brookhaven National Laboratory at Upton, Long Island, N.Y.; South Barrington or Weston in Illinois near Chicago; Denver, Colo.; Madison, Wis.; and the Sierra foothills near Sacramento, Calif.

Public Apathy Is Blamed for Taxes
BURLEY, Idaho (AP) — A tax expert says that apathy on the part of the public is a major reason for the trend toward both centralization of government and increasing hidden taxes.

Max Yost, executive secretary of the Idaho Taxpayers Association, made the points in a talk Tuesday to the Burley Rotary Club.

He urged his listeners to become aware of the problems of increasing centralization instead of "sticking their heads in the sand."

Red Chinese. Aides Arrive In Pakistan
KARACHI, Pakistan (AP) — President Liu Shao-chi and Foreign Minister Chen Yi of Communist China arrived in Karachi today on the last leg of their six-day visit to West Pakistan.

They were received by Foreign Minister Z. A. Bhutto, who flew here earlier from Lahore, the West Pakistani capital, where the Chinese officials spent Tuesday.

Bhutto told a news conference in Lahore Tuesday that the United States should not worry about Pakistan's increasingly close ties with Communist China.

Pakistan's acceptance of Chinese-made weapons "does not stem from a policy change," Bhutto said. "The Chinese are our friends, but they know that the Americans are our allies, they must take that into account."

Air Force Says It Has Open Mind About Unidentified Flying Objects

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force said today it has an open mind about unidentified flying objects — UFO's — and makes no attempt to hush talk about flying saucers.

A spokesman, asked about allegations that the Air Force tries to squelch UFO reports, said:

"In the first place, we'd be utterly foolish to try to keep people from telling about something they've seen with their own eyes. Our job is to explain what is seen — not necessarily to change anybody's mind."

Retired Marine Maj. Donald E. Keyhoe, head of a group called National Investigations Committee on Aerial Phenomena, told newsmen this week the Pentagon has a top-level policy of discounting all UFO reports. He said the Air Force over the years has used ridicule to discredit sightings.

Keyhoe made the assertion while endorsing a suggestion by House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford that a congressional inquiry into the flying saucer matter might be a good idea.

The Air Force has a special public relations office which answers thousands of letters a year from inquisitive persons — among them, school children, corporate officials, housewives, flying saucer club members and foreigners.

Last year it turned out 3,717 replies to letters about UFO's. The count for January and February already has run over 800 requests for information or explanations, and scores are being received in the wake of recent Michigan sightings.

Chamber at Shoshone Opposes Bill

SHOSHONE — Members of the Chamber of Commerce went on record opposing H. R. 10027 when they met Monday noon at the Manhattan cafe. The bill will legalize secondary boycotts in the construction industry.

Tim Brennan will be invited to speak to the chamber on views of the retail merchant's association on the sales tax.

Kenneth Blackburn was authorized to make further study of the proposal to assist the Jay-C-Ettes in a project to visit and take a welcome gift to newcomers to the community.

Cecil Cope announced the Grassman of the Year committee will meet at 1:30 p.m. April 15 at the Legion hall. Any interested businessman or farmer may attend.

Report was made that army engineers will fly over and take pictures of the area which will help in survey for flood control work here.

Ward Mills reported on the redistricting of counties and offered his copies of the election laws to anyone interested in reading them.

Degree Work Is Given at Meet

TUTTLE — A team that presented the fifth degree work at the Idaho State Grange in October gave the work Monday evening at a meeting of the Gooding County Pomona Grange at the Gooding Grange Hall Monday evening.

They were presented by Mrs. Ray Ruby, lecturer of the Gooding County Pomona Grange. The next meeting of the Gooding County Pomona will be April 25 at Bliss.

Flower Club Members Talk On Driftwood
HOLLISTER—Driftwood was the main topic of conversation when members of the Country-side Flower Club met at the home of Mrs. Victor W. Nelson.
Members brought the best pieces of driftwood material they have collected.
Mrs. Glenn Nelson, club president, gave the program on the care and arrangement of driftwood. She told of different places driftwood can be found and how to prepare it by cleaning and mounting.
Mrs. Nelson stated driftwood must be securely mounted on a base or mechanics done to make it free standing.
Coloring, staining, waxing or leaving the wood in its original state is entirely up to the individual, and a base may be finished to give good textural balance to the driftwood arrangement.
Arranging with driftwood has increased in popularity tremendously in the past 10 or 15 years, and fits in with any home decor.
Color slides of driftwood and abstract arrangements were shown by Mrs. Victor Nelson.
Mrs. W. J. Lanting and Mrs. Ed Harper were welcomed as new members.
Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Clapp Faced With Major Law Problem

BOISE (AP)—One of the first major problems facing E. Clapp as Idaho secretary of state is to determine whether the legislature has inadvertently wiped Idaho law on election ballots off the books.

Clapp, sworn in as secretary of state Tuesday morning, said he planned to consult with Atty. Gen. Allan G. Shepard today on the possibility.

The entire chapter on printing and distributing election ballots appears to have been repealed by the legislature when it adopted new election laws two weeks ago to conform with reapportionment, Clapp said.

The new election laws specifically repeal the election ballot chapter but then amend it as though it had not been repealed. Clapp's new secretary of state duties include preparation of the new election laws for distribution to counties in time for candidate filing.

Shepard agreed the wording is confusing but declined to speculate on whether the election ballot laws have been voided, saying he likely will be asked for a formal opinion on that question. "I'm certain it was not the intention of legislators," Shepard said, "to wipe out a large part of our election laws."

Arnold Williams, who resigned as secretary of state Tuesday to turn the office over to Clapp, already had asked Shepard for a formal opinion on other apparent discrepancies in election laws.

Williams said one section of the law requires candidates for judgeships to file 35 to 75 days before the August primaries and another requires all candidates to file between May 1 and 7.

Williams said there also is an apparent discrepancy as to how many signatures judges need on their nominating petitions.

Shepard said his staff is researching both questions to deliver an opinion as soon as possible.

Computer Matches Pair For Marriage

NEW YORK (AP)—Just for laughs, Neal Bitran and Arlene Gotkin paid $3 each last year for a list of names of people who would be compatible dates.

Neither knew the other. But they turned up on each other's list, and now they plan to be married.

Bitran and Neal are a computer couple, paired by an organization called Operation Match. They took some time to form their own opinions about the computer opinion, but all three agreed in the end and the wedding is set for Sept. 3.

"The whole thing is just a glorified blind date," said Neal, 23. "It has to be taken in the proper perspective. If anyone thinks that Operation Match means a sure wedding, he's in for a surprise. We're sort of freaks — quirks of fate."

Arlene, 19, said a score of her girl friends also had tried their computer luck, but had not found nearly so well.

"One girl tried three times," Arlene said, "and got names of compatible boys each time. But not one called her."

Operation Match was born at Harvard University and spread to colleges and universities throughout the country.

During a current spring drive for applicants, personality information on more than a million persons will be run through a computer.

Each applicant is guaranteed a minimum of five names and addresses of persons electronically matched to their likes and dislikes.

"It was something like having an Aunt Tillie who says she has a girl for you to take out," Neal said. "Only this time, Aunt Tillie was IBM."

Did it ever occur to either of them that the computer might be wrong?

"Yes," said Arlene.

"No," said Neal.

Tax Pamphlets Are Available

BOISE — Married taxpayers living in Idaho may want to figure their federal returns both jointly and separately to arrive at lowest tax liability.

Idaho community property laws as well as federal income tax laws must be taken into account to determine correct tax liability on separate returns.

Helpful pamphlets on community property, Document 5192, are available at all Internal Revenue offices. IRS information officer John C. Anduiza said Wednesday.

It will aid in classification of separate and community income for federal tax purposes, Anduiza said.

Worry of FALSE TEETH Slipping or irritating?

Don't be embarrassed by loose false teeth slipping, dropping or wobbling when you eat, talk or laugh. Just spritz with FALSEEZE on your gums. This pleasant powder gives a remarkable sense of added comfort and security by holding plates more firmly. No gummy, gooey, pasty taste or feeling. Soviets Set Final Reconciliation Terms

By WILLIAM L. RYAN

AP Special Correspondent

At the risk of frightening its own people by reviving the specter of Stalinism, the Soviet Communist party has laid down what probably are its final terms for reconciliation with the Red Chinese. Chances are the Kremlin has been unable to offer Peking nearly enough and that the dispute will continue.

By advancing its terms Tuesday before an audience of Communist chieftains from around the world, at the 23rd Soviet party congress, the Kremlin sought to absolve itself of blame for the rupture. It replied to violent abuse with a soft answer and an offer of compromise.

Now the Kremlin can tell world communism that the rest is up to Red China, that Peking must bear the responsibility if the Communist world remains divided.

Leonid I. Brezhnev, the Soviet party chief, told the congress his party was "prepared to do everything possible" to mend relations with Peking. But some Chinese demands, from Moscow's viewpoint, are downright impossible.

For example, Peking wants the Kremlin to concede that virtually every policy step Moscow has taken since 1956 has been wrong and should be reversed. It has demanded what would amount to a public apology to Red China and an abject admission of guilt for all that happened to the movement in the past 10 years.

Obviously, the Russians won't oblige. The U.S.S.R. is the dominant power in the Communist world. The party would not put itself in the position of knocking under to any other.

To many ears, the Chinese have been abusive and insulting while the Kremlin held its tongue, preserving its dignity.

The Chinese have not confined themselves to blasting Soviet world Communist and foreign policies. They have also made scorching attacks on the Soviet internal system. They have ridiculed Soviet attempts to raise living standards and increase consumer production as capitulation to capitalist notions.

To Peking, the world revolution should always have come first. Calling the present Soviet leaders "Khrushchev revisionists," the Chinese Communists branded as the ranklest heresy the idea of offering material incentives to workers for higher production.

The Daily Investor

By WILLIAM A. DOYLE

Q. I own some stock in a life insurance company which recently declared a 10 per cent stock dividend. When this stock went ex-dividend its market value dropped about 20 per cent. Although my broker mentioned that life insurance stocks are currently depressed, he did not thoroughly explain why my stock dropped more than 10 per cent. Wouldn't you call this a larger-than-normal drop?

A. A 20 per cent drop in market price certainly is "larger than normal" for any stock — even taking into consideration the normal adjustment in price on the ex-dividend date.

When a dividend (in either cash or stock) is paid, the value of the dividend is automatically deducted from the market price of the stock on the ex-dividend date. In most cases the stock goes ex-dividend at the opening of business on the third day before the "record date" for the payment of the dividend.

Anyone who buys the stock in a regular way transaction (the way most trades are handled), on or after the ex-dividend date is not entitled to receive the dividend.

Anyone who buys the stock in a regular way transaction (the way most trades are handled), on or after the ex-dividend date is not entitled to receive the dividend.

So, the ex-dividend adjustment is made at the opening of business on the ex-dividend date.

In the case you cite, the market price of a stock on which a 10 per cent stock dividend is to be paid would normally drop 10 per cent, if there is no change in price as the result of buying or selling demand.

But it would be a most unusual case in which the market price of a stock changed exactly in line with the ex-dividend adjustment — 10 per cent, in the example you cite.

The market price might be

Grain

CHICAGO (AP) — Soybeans and wheat futures prices advanced sharply on the Board of Trade today in response to President Johnson's offer of an extra 3.5 million tons of grain to India.

Prices were higher at the opening and rallied again when the President's offer was made public in a message to Congress. Profit taking subsequently whittled away some of the gains.

The soybean pit had its most active trading in several days. Estimated carlot receipts were wheat 7, corn 125, oats 1, rye none, barley 33 and soybeans 1.

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market was down sharply early this afternoon as the result of an early selling squall, but trading had quieted and prices were firming above their lows.

The sell-off was linked directly with President Johnson's statement about the possibility of a tax increase. The statement was made public just as the New York Stock Exchange closed yesterday but it still had the effect of driving prices down on the Pacific Coast Stock Exchange.

From the opening in New York today prices were weak on both the Big Board and the American Stock Exchange, making this the second of two days of steep decline.

The usual fast movers — color televisions, other electronics, aerospace, airlines — and other situations — took the brunt of the selling as they did yesterday. The pace was heavy during the worst of the sell-off but the ticker tape did not run late on the New York Stock Exchange as it did on the Amex where many high flyers also took a licking.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was off 2.2 at 341.4 with industrials off 3.6, rails off 1.3, and utilities off .5.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was off 6.84 at 922.55, trimming its worst loss of 7.57.

Sleep losses remained despite the partial recovery. Boeing was off 1/2, IBM 5, Zenith and Xerox 2 each.

Down about a point were Raytheon, General Dynamics, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, Polaroid, Magnavox and Collins Radio.

United Aircraft was off nearly 2, American Airlines about 1 1/2. Dragging down the averages were losses of a point or more by such stocks as duPont, General Motors, Anaconda and International Nickel. Also influential in this respect were fractional losses by American Telephone, Bethlehem, Standard Oil (New Jersey), New York Central, Santa Fe, and Eastman Kodak.

Sperry Rand, yesterday's most active stock, was steady at the start and advanced about a point in further response to reports that a big position had been taken in the stock by the Manhattan Fund, a new mutual fund which has received a lot of publicity.

Merck advanced 1 1/2. Chrysler, American Motors, Studebaker, Sears, Roebuck, Woolworth, Caterpillar and International Harvester traded about unchanged.

United Nuclear Corp. lost 1 1/2 at 20 on a block of 93,600 shares. Certain-Tied was unchanged and Gustin-Bacon up a fraction on a report that the two companies have approved in principle a plan to merge.

Prices were sharply lower on the American Stock Exchange in heavy trading. The ticker tape was late most of the morning. Gains of about 2 points were made by Williams Brothers and Dorrell-Oliver as stocks firmed, cutting their losses and in some cases moving into plus territory. Losses of a point or more were shown by Alloys Unlimited, Berkey Photo, Edo Corp., Conductor, Esquire, Dennison was down more than 2, to a point or so were National Video and Solitron Devices.

Corporate and U.S. Treasury bonds rose.

Koufax, Drysdale Reject "Final" Offer by Dodgers

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Holdout pitching stars Sandy Koufax and Don Drysdale turned down a "final" 1966 contract offer of $210,000 from the Los Angeles Dodgers Tuesday. The Dodger brass wished them well in other fields. Koufax and Drysdale astonished the baseball world just a month ago by announcing that they wanted a whopping salary increase and would negotiate as an entry. They reportedly asked for a million dollars over three years, to split $500,000 each.

The Dodgers said no. Since then, it has been a war of nerves. Finally, last week, the pitchers said they were willing to negotiate.

Dodgers General Manager E. J. Bavasi flew here Tuesday from New York and met with attorney Bill Hayes, representing the two pitchers. Afterwards, Bavasi announced:

He upped Koufax's original offer of $100,000 to $112,500 and Drysdale's offer from $85,000 to $97,500. Hayes turned him down, saying, "It was simply a matter of economics — not, enough money."

Bavasi said he telephoned club owner Walter O'Malley in Vero Beach, Fla., and the two agreed that the $210,000 was the highest the club will go.

Efforts to reach the players were unsuccessful.

Bavasi said he will rejoin the ball club at Phoenix Thursday.

Irish Prepare For Grid Season
SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — Preparations for Coach Ara Parseghian's third Notre Dame football season begin Thursday on the 35th anniversary of the death in a plane crash of Irish coaching immortal Knute Rockne.

The Irish squad, including 22 returning letterman, will suit up for picture taking Thursday before starting spring practice Friday.

Parseghian, who has a two-season Notre Dame record of 16-3-1, earlier this month was given a new six-year contract.

SIGN CHOICES
SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — The San Diego "Chargers" announced the signing of their 10th and 18th American Football League draft choices Tuesday.

They are Bill Scott, No. 16, a defensive back from Utah, and John Travis, No. 18, an offensive back from San Jose State.

McMullen Bats Solons Past A's
By The Associated Press
Ken McMullen, Washington third baseman, drove in five runs with two homers in the Senators' 6-4 victory over Kansas City, providing the batting highlight in Tuesday's curtailed exhibition baseball action.

Ram cut short the Senators' A's game after eight innings, the Minnesota-Los Angeles game after five and forced the postponement of five others, all in Florida.

A pair of unearned runs in the bottom of the fourth enabled the Twins to down the Dodgers 2-0. A miscue by Nate Oliver, the Dodgers' second baseman, accounted for the first run, and the second crossed on Andy Kosco's pinch-hit double.

At Fort Myers, in the only game scheduled in Florida that went the distance, Matty Alou's single with the bases filled in the last of the ninth gave Pittsburgh a 6-5 victory over the Chicago White Sox. Al McBean was the winning pitcher and Ed Fitch the loser.

The postponed games were to have matched Boston and Houston, St. Louis and Cincinnati, the New York Yankees and New York Mets, Baltimore and Detroit, and Atlanta and Philadelphia.

In Arizona, the San Francisco Giants edged California 2-1 and the Chicago Cubs beat Cleveland 12-10.

The Giants rallied for two runs in the seventh, one on a homer by Willie Mays, to down the Angels. The Cubs collected 20 hits off four Cleveland pitchers. Duke Sims of the Indians hit the game's only homer.

Catcher Randy Hundley of the Cubs was injured in a collision with a runner at the plate. He suffered a jammed left wrist and a six-inch gash on his right thigh in the fourth and was removed from the game.

Vandals Split Doubleheader
YAKIMA, Wash. (AP) — Yakima Valley College surprised Idaho in the second game of a college baseball twin-bill here Tuesday. Yakima Valley took the nightcap 5-4 after the Vandals won the first game 7-3.

Idaho won the first game 7-3. Idaho 401 020 0-7 12 2. Idaho 001 202 0-3 4 0. Lamb, Simmons (5) and Posey; Hatley, Crocker (6) and Gove.

Idaho 011 101 0-4 5 1. Yakima 500 000 X-5 5 5. Johnson, Stoneman (1) and Elgee; Flanagan, Powell (4) and Trumbull, Gove (7).

Tommy Sisk (7-3) moved from the bullpen to a starting role last summer and Steve Blass (13-11) at Columbus may be the other starter.

Walker Believes Pirates Have Had Title Test, Can Win Flag
FORT MYERS, Fla. (AP) — Harry Walker thinks his Pittsburgh Pirates passed the fight manager's test for champions last year. They got hit on the chin in the first round, scraped themselves off the floor and almost won the fight. The Pirates were one of the greatest flops of all time in Walker's first months as manager. They lost 24 of their first 33 games and nestled into 10th place, May 20, 4½ games behind the Mets. You just can't get any more last than that.

Then they turned around and won 21 of 23 and rolled at an 81-48 pace the rest of the season, closing by taking 11 of their last 13. At the end they were third, seven games back.

"Actually that had start was one of the best breaks I ever had," said Walker.

"You'll never be a champion until you've been defeated a little. Not that I want to go through that again. We've learned our lesson. It should be a morale builder."

The Pirates had an unprecedented pep meeting in Pittsburgh just before Christmas. All the players were brought into town.

"The boys needed one another about getting in shape," said Walker. "I think it impressed them. They have more pride and interest in the ball club."

The Pirates got into 1966 with pretty much a set lineup. Big Donn Clendenon who hit .301 slammed 14 homers and drove in 96 runs is set at first. Bill Mazeroski, who missed five weeks last spring because of a broken foot, always is an All-Star second baseman when Tilt Gene Alley came into his own at shortstop when he got a chance and Bob Bailey at third base round out the infield.

Willie Stargell with 27 homers and 107 RBI, is the left fielder and Roberto Clemente, who has won the batting title two straight times and three years in the last five, is the right fielder. Manny Mota and Matty Alou, acquired from the Giants, will platoon in center.

Jim Pagliaroni, who carried the club in the final weeks of 1965, is the No. 1 catcher, probably backed by Jerry May from the Columbus farm. Jesse Gonder, the much-traveled vet, was drafted as a pinch hitter.

Pitching is Walker's big problem. Vern Law (17-9), Don Cardwell (13-10) and Bob Veale (17-12) are the proven starters. Law, 36, won his last nine but went home Sept. 25 with a sore elbow. He reports no trouble this spring.

Tommy Sisk (7-3) moved from the bullpen to a starting role last summer and Steve Blass (13-11) at Columbus may be the other starter.

Shifted Team Wouldn't Pay In Milwaukee
MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — An executive of the California Angels questioned Tuesday whether an expansion baseball club would draw 800,000 in its first year in Milwaukee.

Francis X. Leary, vice president and treasurer of the Angels, testified as a defense witness in the trial of Wisconsin's antitrust suit against the National League and its member clubs.

He was questioned about the financial prospectus of Milwaukee Brewers, Inc., the organization of prominent businessmen seeking a replacement franchise for the Braves.

Leary, former assistant treasurer of the Braves, said he told Alan (Bud) Selig, president of the Brewers, to "stop thinking about (an attendance of) 750,000 because its going to take a million or better to break even."

In the Brewers' prospectus, minimum attendance of 800,000 was used to meet estimated expenses.

Leary took the witness stand late in the day. He will resume his testimony Wednesday.

Earlier Tuesday, the defense suffered a setback when Circuit Judge Elmer W. Roller denied it access to the files of Wisconsin's attorney general, Bronson LaFollete, relative to the case.

COACH REHIRE
NEW YORK (AP) — Dick McGuire, who took over as coach of the New York Knicks of the National Basketball Association in mid-season this year, will coach the club again next season, it was announced Tuesday.

tion starting Wednesday. The investigation stems from circumstances surrounding the Cassius Clay-Ernie Terrell heavyweight title bout that never was held and mobster-anger at the man blamed for chasing it out of New York.

Apparent key witness of the United States attorney's office is Bernie Glickman, 51, purported booking agent for Terrell's night club act.

Glickman's story of a mobster beating him after Terrell was refused a New York boxing license Jan. 29 to fight Clay in Madison Square Garden got him FBI protective custody and resulted in summoning of at least eight witnesses before the grand jury.

Clay Retains Title With 15-Round Decision Over Durable George Chuvalo

TORONTO (AP) — Heavy-weight champion Cassius Clay ran into more trouble than he expected from durable George Chuvalo Tuesday night and had to settle for a unanimous 15-round decision over the plodding Toronto bully boy, who still never has been knocked off his feet. Chuvalo never took a backward step and drew repeated cheers from the partisan crowd as he flailed away at the body

Lack of Work Cost Victory, Chuvalo Says

TORONTO (AP) — George Chuvalo says if he would have had more time to train for his 15-round bout with Cassius Clay Tuesday night "I would have beaten him."

"I wish I had had more time to train. I had only 17 days and I wasn't in the shape I would like to have been."

"I thought it was a pretty close fight. He fought a good fight and so did I. I didn't know who won or lost. I thought I won eight rounds."

Asked if he would like a rematch, Chuvalo said:

"With the proper time to train, I feel I could knock him out in a rematch. I was in pretty good shape, but I could have been better."

He said he thought Clay is "a good fighter. I wouldn't say he's great. He's very quick, but not an extremely hard puncher. His punches have a lot of snap, but he's not a big banger. He didn't hurt me at any time."

He said Clay tried to discourage him early in the fight by talking to him and playing with him.

The Canadian said his strategy was to "get him along the ropes and keep on top of him. I didn't fight out of a crouch or bob and weave because a fighter like Clay would just step back."

He said his plans now call for him to "keep on training and keep on fighting."

Irving Ungerman, Chuvalo's manager, said, "I felt we deserved a draw, but we won't protest. We're all through with protesting."

Landrum Is Sub for Willie Mays

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Don Landrum holds a unique position in baseball this season as substitute for the National League's Most Valuable Player, Willie Mays.

The former Chicago Cub centerfielder, who came to the San Francisco Giants with pitcher Lindy McDaniel in a winter trade, sees many advantages to his current position.

"I knew the job they had in mind for me," Landrum says. "You know everybody likes to play regularly, but here I'm coming from a loser to a winner."

"And I'm going to be playing in my home town area."

Landrum was born in Santa Rosa, north of San Francisco, and lives in Pittsburg, across the Bay.

"I'll do anything as well as I can do it as long as I can stay with the club and be tickled to death they want me on this team," the 30-year-old outfielder declares.

Mays can't play all 162 games at age 35 and didn't last year when the Giants had Matty Alou and rookie Ken Henderson to fill in for him in center field when necessary.

Now Alou has been traded to the Pittsburgh Pirates and Henderson sent down to the Giants farm system for needed seasoning after the bonus rule kept the club from assigning him to the minors in 1965.

Don fielded 988 in 115 games with the Cubs last season although hitting only .239, well below his major league high of .286 in 1962 when he divided time between St. Louis and Chicago.

Gamecocks Hunt For New Coach

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — There was no immediate speculation about a successor to Marvin Bass as head football coach and athletic director at the University of South Carolina.

Bass, 46, resigned Monday after announcing he had signed a three-year contract Sunday as head coach and general manager of the new Montreal team in the Continental Football League. The contract reportedly calls for $75,000.

Dr. James E. Morris was appointed acting athletic director Monday. Morris is dean of the university's School of Business Administration and faculty athletic chairman.

while catching a steady barrage with his face. Clay's image as a superman was tarnished when he was unable to bring down, stagger or seriously hurt the game challenger who was ranked No. 10 by the World Boxing Association, which does not recognize Clay as champion.

Although the crowd roared at every move by the local favorite, Clay outpunched the Canadian by a wide margin and drew blood from cuts around his puffed eyes.

Referee Jackie Silvers scored it 73-65 for Clay, who prefers to be known by his Muslim name of Muhammad Ali. Judge Tony Canzano had it 74-63 and Judge Jack Johnston 74-62 on the five-point must system.

The Associated Press card was 73-62 in favor of the champ. On a round basis, the AP card broke down to 13-2, giving the second and fourth to Chuvalo.

Officially, Clay's title was not at stake in Ontario, which is a member of the World Boxing Association. The WBA recognizes Ernie Terrell as its champ. Terrell originally was to have fought Clay, but the bout was chased out of New York, Chicago and various other cities, and Terrell finally pulled out, claiming he was dissatisfied with his new contract.

After his victory over Chuvalo at Maple Leaf Gardens, Clay said:

"I'm fighting again in another eight weeks. It may be Henry Cooper."

"I expected Chuvalo to be tougher than Floyd Patterson and Sonny Liston. He was. My predictions came through."

"The powers that be ran me out of my country."

"I think it's about time people gave me some credit. I came to his hometown judges and his referee. And after all the travel strain could have beat me," continued the champion from Louisville.

"I hope they'll let me back in the United States. If not I'll go to London or anywhere. But I think they will let me back in the United States. I told the world that the fight would go the distance. I had no prediction. You all know that."

Clay got into a jam when he sounded off about the war in Viet Nam after he was reclassified to 1-A in the military draft. As a result, Chicago refused the bout and all the big theater chains pulled out of the closed-circuit television network. Only about 40 locations in the United States and Canada remained to carry the match.

Chuvalo, ridiculed as an unworthy opponent and a 7-1 underdog, gave it the old blood and guts treatment as he walked in steadily through a heavy hail of jabs and quick right-hand punches.

Clay's manager, Angelo Dundee, complaining from the corner about Chuvalo's mauling tactics and some low blows. However, referee Silvers said some of the blows "were slightly low but were light punches and did no damage."

"There were some punches to the back and side which were Clay's own fault. He was turning away and turning his back. Chuvalo's style is to move in close and hammer to the body. If I had broken this up the fans would have given the fight the old raspberry."

Chuvalo did his best work in the early rounds when he was fresh and strong, hammering away at the champ's body. At one stage in the third round he backed Clay into his own corner and kept him there for about 15 seconds. Many of his punches landed on the American's arms and shoulders.

"What's the matter, Ali?" yelled one of the customers at the start of the fifth. As if in answer to the jibe, Clay stepped up the pace. Flick, flick, flick with the jab, a quick right cross to the head and then flick, flick again.

Chuvalo blinked, moved in and flailed to the body. That was the pattern of the rest of the fight with Clay in command all the way.

It was the 23rd straight victory for the unbeaten Clay, who had knocked out his last four opponents. The last man to go the limit with him was Doug Jones, March 13, 1963. The controversial decision over Jones was the springboard for Clay to a title shot with Liston which he got after he knocked out Henry Cooper in London.

Chuvalo earned the respect of the spectators with his ability to take punishment without once backing up. He turned out to be a tougher opponent than either Liston or Patterson had been in Clay's three previous title bouts.

Clay, who was the heaviest of his career at 214½ pounds, may have time for another fight before his draft call comes. That was what the champion meant in his post-fight comment about Cooper, the Briton.

Clay's Louisville sponsoring group, and Edward Jacko, Clay's personal lawyer, indicated Clay may have 30 to 60 days while an appeal is progressed by the draft board. There is talk of a defense in Toronto against Cooper.

Nicklaus to Compete for Cup Berth

NEW YORK (AP) — The Professional Golfers Association opened the door Tuesday for Jack Nicklaus to play on the 1967 U.S. Ryder Cup team. The rest is up to Jack. He must formally apply for approved tournament player status in the PGA. Then he must go out and pile up enough points to make the 10-man team.

The PGA Executive Committee met with the big Columbus, Ohio, better Tuesday at the PGA headquarters in Palm Beach Gardens, Fla., and awarded Nicklaus a full year's credit for 1965.

This was all Jack needed to become a full-fledged tournament player under rules that a man must serve a five-year period in which he competes in 25 sponsored or approved PGA PGA events each year.

In lieu of one year, a man may take a week's course at one of the PGA schools, Jack did, attending the school at San Antonio, Tex., Feb. 7-11.

Style Show Highlights Grange Meet

BUHL — A style show and musical program were highlights of the Cedar Draw Grange's annual booster night, operations forward and dues paying potluck dinner, Grange officials reported Tuesday.

Participants in the style show, modeling ladies fashions, were William Micks, Ray Ward, Mick Aske, Gary Grindstaff and Carl Hendrix, with Ralph Asendrup, soloist, and Mrs. Asendrup furnishing piano accompaniment.

Kelly Grindstaff presented a tulip dance and Connie Hendrix and Linda Hendrix, a piano solo. Asendrup spoke on the new brochure being prepared on the city's industrial and recreational facilities under the sponsorship of the Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Eakins, Jerome, presented colored slides on northern Europe. Mrs. Lonnie Moore gave the closing thought of the evening. The entertainment was under the direction of Mrs. Ted Hicks, treasurer.

The home economics committee with Mrs. Carl Hendrix, chairman, had charge of the dinner and table decorations.

It was noted 32 members of Cedar Draw Grange attended Mountain Rock Grange meeting and presented an exchange program last week.

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

WEDNESDAY, March 30 — you know how much changing you would have to do to develop the single-minded aggressiveness, success usually demands.

Because you are by nature an open, lighthearted person who easily and quickly accepts others at face value, you will have to be more careful than many in the selection of your friends. Don't allow yourself to be captivated by the smiling face; at the same time, however, take care that you don't counteract your trusting nature in such strong measure that you never believe anything you see. You will have to learn to walk a fine line in this regard.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Thursday, March 31
ARIES (March 22-April 20) — Avoid overdoing things today. Rest, relax, and guard against a minor health upset. Best to take special care with routine jobs.
TAURUS (April 21-May 21) — A day for catching up on detail work at home or at work. Efficiency is bound to pay off in the next day or two.
GEMINI (May 22-June 21) — Best to look before you leap today. Consider every angle carefully, and then again, before making any irrevocable moves.
CANCER (June 22-July 23) — Let your friends lend a hand if they offer one. You can reciprocate later, so accept graciously and gratefully now.
LEO (July 24-Aug. 23) — A down-to-earth, practical day, so don't let daydreams and flights of fancy interfere with the work you know has to be done.
VIRGO (Aug. 24-Sept. 23) — Put your own house in order before you begin working on someone else's. This is no time to be critical of others.
LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23) — Tie up those loose ends left over from yesterday. Then spend the rest of the day at routine chores that will smooth the way for tomorrow.
SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — Solve any employment problems easily and quickly by looking at the facts and doing something about them!
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22) — Catch up on those things you've been neglecting lately — and that may well include personal matters at home.
CAPRICORN (Dec. 23-Jan. 20) — Loved ones may well take up most of your time today. Don't begrudge them what you would willingly give a business associate!
AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19) — A good day for anything of a buying or selling nature. Make certain whatever you're dealing in is worth the effort, however.
PISCES (Feb. 20-March 21) — See that all work is finished before leaving the employment scene today. You may not have time for catching up tomorrow.

Two Officials Expected for Stake Confab

BURLEY—The Burley Stake of the LDS Church will hold its quarterly conference Saturday and Sunday in Burley. Two visiting LDS Church officials will speak at conference sessions and confer with local leaders.

The officials are Elder Percy K. Fetzer, a member of the Priesthood Home Teaching Committee, and Elder A. Parley Bates, representing the Sunday School General Board.

Elder Fetzer is a former president of the North German and Berlin Missions. He has been a Salt Lake City businessman for many years and was president of Temple View Stake at the time of his mission call.

Elder Bates is a member of the Church's Deseret Sunday School General Board. He is an assistant professor of mathematics and education at the Weber State College, Ogden, Utah.

General conference sessions will be held at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. Sunday in the Burley Stake House. Stake President Isaac William Lee, 1143 Overland Ave., will conduct. Visitors are welcome. Special meetings for Home Teaching and Sunday School leaders will be held Saturday.

Lions Have Charter Fete At Murtaugh

MURTAUGH—Murtaugh Lions Club members and their guests observed their sixth annual Charter night Saturday at the Grange hall.

Donald Snow, Jerome, was guest speaker, and James Martin, Burley, was master of ceremonies. Invocation was given by Dale Peterson.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Boley Sr. were presented a floral arrangement in recognition of their wedding anniversary. Feather flower arrangements were presented to Mrs. Snow and Mrs. Martin.

Charter members of the Murtaugh Lions Club who were present were Rufus Turner, Herbert Thorne, Blaine Boley, Jr., Bob Breeding, Glen Breeding, Florin Hulse and Dale Peterson.

Visiting Lions were from Jerome, Burley, Twin Falls and Paul.

The program included a piano solo by Brian Peterson; two duets sung by Robert Walters and Davis Jansen accompanied by Mrs. E. K. Buel.

A smorgasbord was catered by Leo Soran.

Harrison PTA Selects Officers

Mr. and Mrs. Blair Osterhout were elected presidents of the Harrison School PTA at the Monday meeting at the school.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Rudd are new first vice presidents; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Forrey, second vice presidents; Mrs. Marsha Hoffman, secretary, and Mrs. Carolyn Burroughs, treasurer.

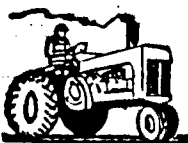

A life membership pin was presented to Mrs. Nina Hamilton, a fourth-grade teacher. The school choir, under the direction of Mrs. Ernest Theener, presented a concert of folk songs from around the world.

Program Slated On Gymnastics

GLENNIS FERRY—The girls physical education classes at the high school will present a gymnastic program at 8 p.m. Thursday in the high school gymnasium.

The program, free to the public and under the direction of Mrs. Paul Shrum, will consist of exhibitions in tumbling, dancing, exercises, gymnastics, jump rope, bamboo poles and balance beam.

WOUNDED OFFICER PREPARES TO EVACUATE — Capt. Romie Brownlee, center, is strapped into lift as comrades prepare to have him evacuated from Viet Nam jungle earlier this month. Brownlee, of Casper, Wyo., and Odessa, Tex., was wounded during a clash with the Viet Cong just a few days before he was to return to the United States. Others not identified. (AP wirephoto).

Rescue of Pilot in North Viet Nam Adds Another Heroic Chapter to War

SAIGON (AP) — As a farm boy, Air Force 1st Lt. Kenneth D. Thomas Jr. never thought he could be the center of so much attention.

For more than a day 30 American aircraft and 40 airmen hovered over the mountains of North Viet Nam to try to pluck the 25-year-old jet pilot from deep in enemy territory.

They got their man, adding another heroic chapter to the story of the air rescue men who go after downed American pilots in the North Vietnamese heartland.

Thomas, of Mount Auburn, Ill., had just finished a strike last Wednesday 75 miles north of the 17th parallel when his plane was hit.

"The shot damaged my control system and I headed west toward the mountains away from the valley," Thomas told newsmen today. "Then I lost control and I was upside down when I ejected."

He parachuted into rough, mountainous terrain.

Even at this moment the 3rd Aerospace Rescue and Recovery Group, alerted at Thomas' distress, was preparing to go to his rescue. Capt. William E. Cowell, 35, of Kailua, Hawaii, and his crew went to their "Jolly Green Giant" helicopter equipped with a winch, and headed north. Flying with them were four Skyriders — two to search for the pilot and two to suppress enemy ground fire — and a C130 transport with electronic gear to aid the operation. Jets were called into provide air cover.

Within a half-hour, Thomas had been located and Cowell piloted his helicopter in toward the mountain.

"He (Thomas) was on a thin ledge of a cliff and the air was very turbulent," Cowell said. "I tried five times to get in and then ran out of fuel. A second helicopter tried and then a third was called in. When it couldn't make it he dropped food and provisions."

As darkness settled, the rescue task force flew back to the base and planned the next day's operation.

Thomas: "During the night — I've never been so cold in my life — I heard some people shout toward the mountains and a few gunshots. I stayed away. I crawled under the ledge and hid. Then I lost control and I was upside down when I ejected."

"At 6 in the morning I started hiking. I knew they would try to rescue me."

The search planes quickly regained contact with Thomas, who climbed and crawled to a narrow box canyon where he found a clearing about 4 p.m. Cowell: "I hadn't seen him but I was talking to him and he was in good spirits. He was in a 10-foot clearing through trees about 240 feet high. We dropped the hoist (on which the cable is 240 feet long) to the pile of rocks where Thomas was standing. He was standing on a pile of rocks where Thomas was standing."

Paul Morgan Heads Class At Murtaugh

MURTAUGH — Paul Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Morgan, Twin Falls, has been named valedictorian and Susan Rambo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Rambo, salutatorian for the graduating class of Murtaugh High School.

Morgan has participated in basketball and track for three years and in football for two years. He has also been a member of M Club. In his junior year he was assistant editor of the school annual and took part in the junior class play. As a senior he was editor of the annual, was student body president, and took part in the senior class play.

Miss Rambo has served as secretary and vice president of FHA, took part in the senior class play and is editor of the school paper.

Baccalaureate services for the 1966 graduating class of Murtaugh High School have been scheduled for May 8 with commencement exercises set for May 10.

A senior class breakfast will be served May 9. The class will attend Campus Day at Idaho State University on April 15 and the junior class will sponsor a banquet for the senior class on April 16.

PAUL MORGAN — SUSAN RAMBO

Murtaugh Scholastic leaders for the graduating class of 1966. Morgan, who has been named valedictorian, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Morgan, Twin Falls. The salutatorian is Miss Rambo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Rambo.

STANFORD, Calif. (AP) — Students over 21 at Stanford University should be allowed to drink alcoholic beverages in their dormitory rooms, says a committee on student affairs.

The committee made the recommendation after a six-month study. University trustees will vote on the matter next month.

Mrs. Fouts to Head Bickel PTA

Mrs. Marvin Fouts was elected president of Bickel School PTA Monday night.

Other officers elected are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moore, co-vice presidents; Mrs. Howard Arrington, secretary; and Mrs. Elaine Meyers, treasurer.

A life membership pin was given to Mrs. Sally Turner, and she was honored for outstanding service to the PTA. Room count book for the lower grades went to Mrs. Kay Snider, and for the upper grades to Mrs. Bette Smith.

The 105-voice school choir, directed by Mrs. Keith Turner, sang, and the sixth grade orchestra, directed by Larry Christopherson, played.

Wins Contest

Wednesday, March 30, 1966
Twin Falls Times-News 17

IDAHO STATE UNIVERSITY, Pocatello — David Tvrdy, Idaho State University drafting and design student from Buhl, won first place in a bridge design and construction contest recently held at the School of Trade and Technical Education.

The contest, sponsored by Ballif Associates, Pocatello engineering firm, was the culminating test of a course on statics and strength of materials.

Retreat Held For Baptist Youth Group

SHOSHONE — A State Baptist Youth Retreat was held at the local church over the weekend with 45 youths present in addition to their leaders.

A worship service was held Friday evening, after which discussion groups were held. Refreshments were served and a film shown on the Baptist Youth Camp at Green Lakes, Wis.

After breakfast Saturday morning, a worship service was held and study groups formed. There were special musical numbers presented. Featured speakers were the Rev. Paul Winkler, Shoshone minister, and Guy Hasselblad, Twin Falls, State Baptist Youth Counselor. Sunday afternoon there were 10 from the local Church who attended the area meeting held at Buhl.

Clarence Magoffin, youth counselor here, and Mrs. Magoffin were in charge of general arrangement for the retreat and were assisted by other members of the congregation with preparing meals and directing activities.

Water Forecast Meetings Slated

OAKLEY — Water forecast meetings will be held at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the Oakley High School and at 8 p.m. Thursday in the Malta Grange Hall.

Albert Smith and Garnet Kidd announced these meetings are held annually to predict irrigation water supply in the Oakley and Malta areas. Forecasts are based upon monthly surveys made by local Soil Conservation Service technicians, assisted by forest service personnel.

Morlan Nelson, Idaho snow survey supervisor, will present the forecast. Slides will be shown by Nelson of his recent trip to the Far East. Nelson also will give a program on falconry Thursday afternoon at the Raft River High School at Malta.

WILL DIRECT STUDY NEW YORK (AP) — Dr. Charles L. Taylor has been named to direct a study of theological education in the Episcopal Church.

Officers Are Installed by Toastmasters

Officers of the I. B. Perrine Toastmasters Club were installed by Royal Slotten, Area 3 governor, Monday night at the regular meeting of the club. Dr. Marvin Jensen, Ph.D., was installed as president; Thomas Kiely, administrative vice president; Dr. J. H. Crawford, educational vice president; M. S. Stansbury, secretary-treasurer, and Truman Massee, sergeant-at-arms.

Dr. Crawford won the blue pencil for the best speech at the meeting with a talk entitled "The Menace of the Good Man." Other speakers were Dr. John Carter, "Oxine, a Plant Enzyme," and Bernard Barker, "The Wonders of Wheat." Toastmaster of the evening was William Waller; William Helmemann was timer and gave the invocation. Robert Day was in charge of table topics (County schools and horses); Dr. Jensen was general evaluator, and Grant Sanborn was grammarian.

Elmer Wilson and Bernard Barker were tied for the best table topics talk. General evaluators were Sanborn Kiely and Dr. L. L. Dean. Melvin Martin was a guest.

Lenten Guideposts Heaven of Brass

By CATHERINE MARSHALL

"I prayed for Jack with all my heart," a woman wrote me recently, "but my prayers never got past the ceiling."

How often we hear this lament! Unanswered prayers — pleas for help which seem to bump up against an impenetrable "heaven of brass."

What is wrong? For we know that all through the Bible a

Catherine Marshall promises which assure us that God is eager and willing to help His children. Promises like this:

"Call to me in your hour of need, then will I rescue you."

As one who has had the heaven of brass experience several times, I would like to share some help I received in connection with a prayer for health years ago.

Lung Allment
Bedridden for many months because of a lung condition, my prayers for healing seemed to be getting nowhere. One day I searched the accounts of Jesus' healing miracles for some light.

Suddenly I got that light. It came while I was reading in the Gospel of John the story of the man at the Pool of Bethesda who had been ill for 38 years.

As I read, I felt as if I were there in Jerusalem myself, watching in the shadow of one of those great arched colonnades around the long pool.

The man in this account was a chronic invalid, probably in his 50's or 60's. The stone floor around the large pool was crowded with the pallets of the crippled and the blind. But this man had been there longer than any. He was now the old-timer; his illness had virtually become his career and status-symbol.

Excuses
One day Jesus threaded His way through the porticos, looking with compassion on all the sick folk. For some reason He singled out this one man — the most hopeless case of all — and asked, "Do you really want to get well?"

It seemed a ridiculous question on the surface. Wouldn't anyone want to be healed of a physical handicap? But surprisingly the invalid began to stammer excuses.

"Sir," he replied to Jesus, "it's just that I haven't got anybody to put me into the pool when the water is all stirred up. What happens is that while I'm trying to get there, somebody else gets down into the water first."

As I read these words while lying in bed that morning, I knew that this sick man's problem was my problem too.

He had thought he wanted healing, but his explanation sounded false and hollow to his own ears. For the first time he was aware of self — delusion.

Moment of Truth
Yet those amazing eyes boring into his held no contempt. Rather Jesus simply issued a loving directive in a voice that rang with authority. "Pick up your bed and walk."

This was the moment of truth. The Master was asking the sick man to do the one thing he did not think he could do.

What a moment of drama! Picture the emotions moving across the pinched features: surprise, consternation, doubt, awareness, hope, then resolution. The man scrambled to his feet, picked up his bedroll and walked joyously away.

How much this story said to me then — and can say to all of us who find our fervent petitions unanswered or unduly delayed. The principle here is: true prayer is dominant total desire. But if the person is divided in his real yearnings, he will inevitably experience the heaven of brass.

Not Ready
I was divided in my prayer for health in that I had come to enjoy my quiet life too much. I was not quite ready to shoulder the full responsibilities of vigorous health.

When I asked God how I, too, could want that total healing, my answer was that God can mend inner confusions and divisions just as He can mend bone and tissue. This he proceeded to do for me and the healing of my physical disability followed.

Since that experience, I have seen this divided self act as a major stumbling block to many people.

If we do uncover a cleavage within ourselves, what can we do about it?

First, present your long-standing unanswered prayers to God for analysis. If there is any division of will deep in you, He will put His finger on it. This will hurt. You will be shocked — even as the man at the pool was.

Obedience
The next step is facing up to this inner lesion and presenting it (without cringing or protecting oneself through excuses) back to God for healing.

At this point He will almost always issue us a directive as Jesus did that man at the pool. He asks that we prove our cooperation with Him by obedience.

The moment that we rise to obey Him, we shall discover a great fact: that the word of God and the work of God are one. His words are life — with power to restore the atrophied will, to quicken pallid or absent desire, to resurrect us from the graveclothes of a half-dead existence.

For thousands of men and women today there could be no better news.

Two Families To Be Feted At Shoshone

SHOSHONE—A potluck dinner and special program will be held at 7 p.m. Sunday at the local Methodist Church in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Pearson and family and Mr. and Mrs. William Froscher and family.

The Pearsons will be moving soon to Denver where he has been promoted with the Bureau of Land Management. Froscher will be moving to Boise where he has been promoted with the State Highway Department.

According to Rev. Ralph Cairns, all persons who wish to express their appreciation to these two families for what they have done in the church and community are invited to attend.

Mrs. Pearson has been president of the WSCS and director of the senior choir. Pearson has been president of Methodist Men's club and been active on the church building committee. Their daughter, Marilyn, has been president of the church youth group.

Mrs. Froscher has served in the choir and taught a Sunday School class. Froscher has helped on the church building.

ALLSTATE Passenger Tire Guarantee

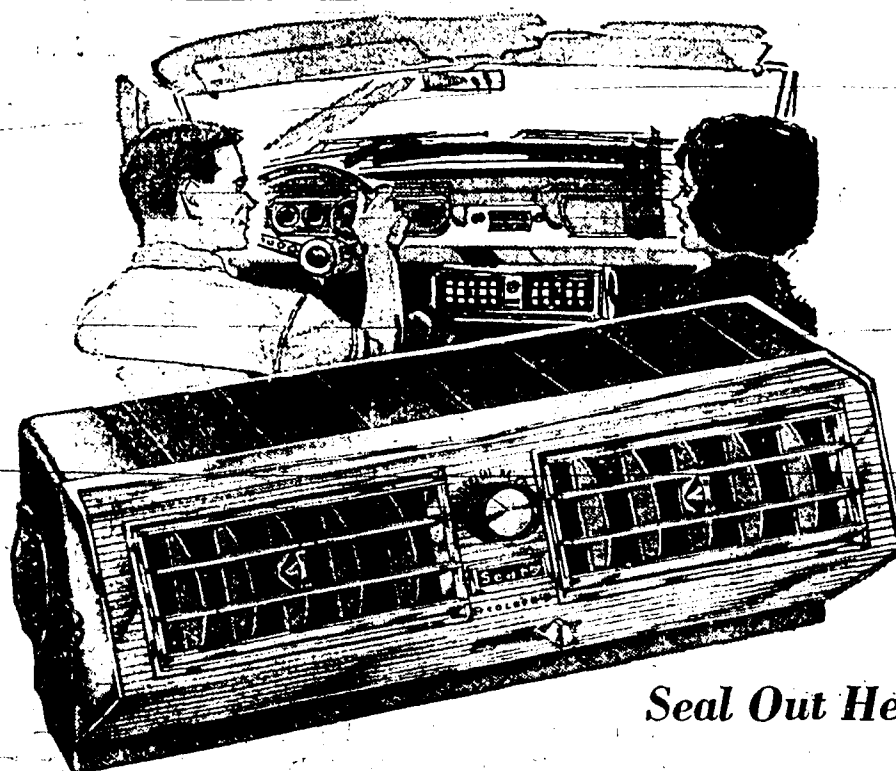

TREAD LIFE GUARANTEE
AGAINST ALL FAILURES

Every ALLSTATE tire is guaranteed against all failures from road hazards or defects for the life of the original tread. If the tire fails, we will at our option—repair it without cost; or, in exchange for the tire, we will replace it charging only for tread wear (charge will be a pro-rata share of exchange price).

TREAD WEAR
GUARANTEE

We guarantee tread life for the number of months designated. If tread wears out within this period, return it. In exchange, we will replace it charging the current exchange price less a set dollar allowance.

*Exchange Price is regular retail price plus Federal Excise Tax less trade-in at time of return (no trade-in deduc-tion on snow tires).
